QUINCY DAILY LEDGER.

VOL. 10. No. 229. QUINCY, MASS., SATURDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1898. PRICE 2 CENTS.

DANCING SCHOOL.

PROF. GARDNER,

the well known Boston teacher, will receive a few more pupils in his class in COLONIAL HALL, Bank Building, Quincy, on Friday Evening, Oct. 7, at 7.45. Terms: Gents, $6, Ladies, $4. All the latest dances taught. Those who wish to learn should be present next Friday as pupils cannot be accepted after that evening. lptf

MABEL F. FAIRBANKS

TEACHER OF

CHINA PAINTING and WATERCOLOR.

China Decorated to Order.

34 Grand View Avenue, Wollaston.
Sept. 29. 3m

E. LANDIS SNYDER,

Organist and Choirmaster of Christ Church,

TEACHER OF

VOICE CULTURE, PIANO AND ORGAN.

Studio: Room 10 Durgin & Merrill's Block, QUINCY, MASS.
Sept. 10. tf

A. J. DURAND,

Piano Tuning, etc.

19 Coddington St., Quincy.

Highly recommended by Chickering & Sons, and prominent Boston musicians.
Sept. 20. 1m

DR. HERBERT S. HAYFORD

195 Hancock Street.

OFFICE HOURS—11 to 12 A. M., 2 to 4 and 7 to 8 P. M.

Telephone, 4-3.

Quincy, July 5. tf

WILLIAM E. BAXTER, M. D.

Practice Limited to the

EYE AND EAR.

553 Boylston St., Boston.

QUINCY—Monday and Friday.

Hours, 9 to 11. 195 Hancock Street
May 21. 1y

DR. RALPH M. FOGG,

DENTIST.

Teeth extracted absolutely without pain by the use of the

"BOSTON VEGETABLE VAPOR."

It is claimed that, while it has the required properties of ether, chloroform, nitrous oxide gas, it lacks the disagreeable and dangerous qualities of these drugs. It is certainly a boon to suffering humanity to be relieved of the nausea too often following the administering of sedatives of the old school.—Boston Transcript.

Teeth made and repaired on Gold or Rubber base. Teeth Filling a specialty.

Office in French's Building, five doors south of Post Office, Quincy, Wednesdays. Hours, 9 A. M. to 9 P. M. July18-ly Nov8-1vo

TEETH EXTRACTED.

No Pain or Danger.

Safer than vapor. Money paid for extracting goes towards teeth to be inserted. I am the only dentist in the city using the Painless Preparation for Extraction.

DR. C. B. UNDERWOOD,

9 Spear St. Rear of Public Library

ALBERT J. BOWERS

OPTICIAN

ADAMS BUILDING OVER POST OFFICE QUINCY MASS.

THE FLOUR OF THE FAMILY.

So Long as Bread is Made from flour and flour is made from wheat, just so long will the BEST bread be made from PILLSBURY'S BEST flour.

It commands the highest wholesale price, and has the largest sale, of any flour in the world.

For Sale by Grocers Generally

AND

COBB, BATES & YERXA CO.

BOSTON.

F. H. CRANE & SONS, Agents, QUINCY.

Sept. 24—4w 24 4t s

THE GLORIOUS AUTUMN

Has come and Nature will soon put on her most charming costume. . .

FALL MILLINERY . . . . .

Has also arrived—an immense stock direct from New York. The latest styles, and the ladies can find all their hearts could wish for at the parlors of

E. B. COLLINS,

FAXON BLOCK, QUINCY.

Sept. 17-1m

"Don't."

When you go to church Sunday, don't try to attract all the attention. Don't be too resolute in your demand for a front pew. Somebody may be paying several hundred dollars for the privilege of sitting down front and you might annoy the somebody. If you are given a sitting down in front, it is not considered proper for a man to wear his Overcoat down the aisle, and when shown into a pew to turn around and bow to all the ladies as you draw it off.

It is still more embarrassing if you try to put your hat under the seat on wire holders as you would in a theatre.

Of course it is excusable in you to wish to show off your new coat and hat, but do it on the street.

So that you may have a chance to show them Sunday, we will sell for the rest of this week a splendid all wool Fall Covert Coat for $7.50 to $16.50. Over a dozen styles to pick from; and as for Hats, we will give you our special at $1.98 and guarantee no Boston Hatter will sell them for less than $2.50. We are HEADQUARTERS FOR CHILDREN'S CLOTHING.

QUINCY CLOTHING CO.,

QUINCY'S CLOTHIERS,

MUSIC HALL BLOCK.

The Social Realm.

Every day brings a ship,
Every ship brings a word;
Well for those who have no fear,
Looking seaward well assured
That the word the vessel brings
Is the word they wish to hear.
—R. W. Emerson.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. George Palmer Mead are spending their honeymoon at Niagara Falls and vicinity. On their return they will reside at 251 Washington street, Quincy Point.

* * *

The Adams Chapter will resume meetings after four months' vacation, on Monday, when they will meet at the John Adams birthplace at three o'clock and plan for the winter's work.

* * *

The scheme of carrying out the tints of the hair and eyes in coloring of gowns is fashionable just now. This idea is not new as many are well aware that a costume matching the eyes is generally becoming.

* * *

Mrs. D. E. Wadsworth and Miss Annie Wadsworth of Milton took a long bicycle ride to Attleboro on Tuesday, returning on Wednesday.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Oakes A. Bridgham of Braintree, are visiting relatives in Mechanics Fall, Me. While there Mr. Bridgham is putting some of his time fishing. Some fine trout have been received by his brother this week.

* * *

Miss Floretta Vining's chapter, D. A. R., had an outing at Squantum Inn last week, Friday. Owing to the storm only about twenty were present.

* * *

Miss Harriet B. Pierce of Granite street has been visiting friends at Hull this week.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. I. Freeman Hall of North Adams, and little daughter, are visiting relatives at the Point. Mr. Hall formerly taught at the Washington school.

* * *

The Squantum Inn looks festive today being decorated with bunting and flags in honor of a patriotic society which has an outing there today. It is expected Gov. Wolcott will be among the number.

* * *

Miss Rebecca Poole of Rockland has entered the Quincy Training school for teachers.

* * *

Madam Arcan has returned to Boston after passing the summer at The Glades, Cohasset.

* * *

The so-called picture hat is the latest and most correct adjunct to the ball gown.

* * *

Mrs. Nelson V. Titus, regent of Adams Chapter, D. R., entertained the chapter at the Squantum Inn on Saturday afternoon from two to five.

* * *

Miss Susie E. Raymond of East Weymouth is visiting Miss Susie Waldron at Augusta, Me.

* * *

Mrs. H. F. Bates of East Weymouth has returned from the West.

* * *

Miss Clara Beals entertained the Mosquito club at her home on Shaw street, North Weymouth, Thursday evening.

* * *

Mr. Joseph Newton of North Weymouth is in Maine on a hunting trip.

* * *

Beginning with today, the first of October, society becomes active again all of the wanderers being home once more, ready to resume their social duties. Clubs and societies are holding regular meeting and the gatherings are especially social as many have not met since early in the summer.

* * *

The Randolph Register says: "Mr. and Mrs. Herman F. McIntire have vacated the Thayer house at Randolph, and taken possession of their new house on President's hill, Quincy. Mr. and Mrs. McIntire have a most sightly location, and look forward to many happy days in their new home." Mr. McIntire formerly lived at Wollaston and his Quincy friends are glad to welcome him back to town again.

* * *

The foot ball schedul of games for Harvard are: today Williams, at Cambridge; Oct. 5, Bowdoin, at Cambridge; Oct. 8, Dartmouth, at Cambridge; Oct. 12, Amherst, at Cambridge; Oct. 15, West Point, at West Point; Oct. 22, Chicago A. A., at Cambridge; Oct. 29, Carlisle Indians, at Cambridge and Nov. 19, Yale, at New Haven.

Mr. and Mrs. James F. Merrill issued this week invitations to the marriage of their daughter, May, and Mr. Arthur Williams Hall, son of City Auditor and Mrs. John O. Hall, the ceremony to be performed on Tuesday evening, October the eleventh, at eight o'clock, at Bethany Congregational church, followed by a reception at their home, 75 Washington street.

* * *

Miss Anne Bent Chamberlin has returned to Wollaston from Washington where she has been spending the summer. Miss Chamberlin will live on St. James avenue, Boston, this winter.

* * *

Mrs. Nettie Bryant of Brointree is visiting her daughter in Worcester.

* * *

The Hospital Aid association met on Thursday afternoon. They will assist as usual in making the grand fair in aid of the Hospital a success. The fair will be held at Music hall, probably in November.

* * *

Madam Arcan is busy again in directing and preparing for several large entertainments to be given this winter. The first one is to be the grand historical pageant "The New World" which was given with so much success at Quincy Music hall, last April. The pageant is to be given Nov. 10 and 11 at the Bijou theatre, Boston, under the auspices of the Charity club. In early December "The Toy shop" is to be given under the auspices of the Unitarian church of Medford. Many hope Madam Arcan will give one of her new entertainments in Quincy this season.

* * *

Mrs. Julia Hayward of Braintree has gone to Hyde Park to spend a week with friends.

* * *

Mrs. L. B. Curtis of North Weymouth is entertaining as her guest, Mrs. Alfred Curtis of Meriden, Conn.

* * *

Perry-Gannett wedding on Wednesday evening at the Wollaston Baptist church.

* * *

The marriage of Miss Harriet Loring Cushing, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Cushing of South Hingham, and Mr. Chauncey Gilbert Whiton, son of Hon. and Mrs. Starkes Whiton is announced for Wednesday evening, Oct. 12, at half past seven at the Unitarian church, Hingham.

* * *

Buttons are noted on the smart fall costumes and they are so arranged that they are a distinctive feature of ornamentation.

* * *

Rev. E. Victor Bigelow of Cohasset has completed his work on the History of Cohasset and it is now in the hands of the printer. Mr. Bigelow has put a great deal of time and hard work into writing the book and as a result of his labors the people of Cohasset will have an accurate history of their town and one to be proud of. Mr. Bigelow is still a young man and is sure to rise in the world and to be heard from in the future. He is very popular in his parish. He is well known in Quincy, having preached here several times and a few years ago married Miss Carrie Hardwick, daughter of Deacon Hardwick of Bethany Congregational church.

* * *

Mr. Emerson Torrey of Milwaukee has returned home from a visit in Weymouth.

* * *

The first meeting of the Braintree Literary society will be held with Miss Josephine Norris, the secretary, next Monday evening. Quotations from "As You Like It."

* * *

Mr. Samuel Swett of Brookline, N. H., has been visiting friends in Quincy, Pigeon Cove and Marblehead.

Continued on page 5.

Royal makes the food pure, wholesome and delicious

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

PUBLIC WORKS.

Commissioner Knowlton's Department Busy Along Many Lines

Few citizens have any idea of the amount of work that is constantly being done by the Street Department, but those who do, realize that the Commissioner of Public Works has his hands full.

At the present time, aside from the general repair of the streets which is going on in all wards, there is much special order work. In Ward One there is a gang of men regrading Putnam street and another filling in Newcomb street extension, both of which were recently ordered by the City Council. Repairs are also being made on Quarry street, on the sidewalks on the east side of Hancock street, between Russell Park and Butler road; the west side of Hancock street between Saville and Dimmock streets, and Washington street between Coddington and Elm streets are being made ready for the concrete sidewalks. Monday work will be commenced building the brick sidewalks on Hancock street between City Hall and Granite street, and between Music hall and School street.

The repairs at the central fire station are about completed, and the new city stables will be ready for occupancy in about three weeks.

In Ward Two the foundation for the concrete sidewalk on Washington street between Union and Mill street is about ready, and repairs are also being made on Howard street. The repairs at the Hose house are completed.

At West Quincy the retaining wall on Furnace brook at Willard street is about completed, as are also the repairs at the Hose house. The rebuilding of Crescent street is progressing rapidly. On this job it is worthy of note that a better job is being obtained than the City Council expected was possible with the money. It was expected that with the appropriations nothing but gravel could be put in for a wearing surface, but by close figuring the Commissioner has been able to put on the best of trap rock for this purpose, which of course gives a much better job.

In Wollaston, edgestones and foundations for concrete sidewalks are being put in on Beach street between Hancock and Willow streets, and between Newbury avenue and Safford street, and edgestones and a gravel sidewalk on the east side of Hancock street between Linden street and Butler road. Work rebuilding West Elm avenue and Billings road is also going forward

In Atlantic the drain on Old Colony street have been built and the street regraded, and the repairs in the Chemical engine house have been completed.

Aside from all this the steam roller is at work rolling down the sewer trenches, and sewer house connection are being made at the rate of one per day.

Hospital Aid Work.

At the meeting of the Hospital Aid Association, Thursday afternoon, it was voted to make a house to house canvass for the benefit of the association. We have all been besieged by the endless chain letters this summer but in this case we are simply asking fourteen cents from each house without any further trouble.

The association has had no entertainment for three years and takes this means of replenishing its treasury. If each household should give ten cents it will amount to several hundred dollars and surely every one could give so small a sum.

☞ Carpets taken up, Cleaned and Relaid Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

nd Boston
reet Railway.

nge without notice.]

ember 21, cars will be utes as follows:

nd Neponset.

RE for Neponset at 5.55, nd every 15 minutes until

T for Quincy at 6.15 A. M. until 11.30 P. M.

cy at 10 minutes past the Downs, and those leaving es past go via Downs.

nset 15 minutes of and 15 ur go via Wollaston and raintree and Holbrook to with cars for Bridgew Bedford, Fall River, nce.

East Weymouth.

RE (10 minutes later from minutes later from North 20, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 10.50, 11.20, 11.50 A. M.; 2.20, 2.50, 3.20, 3.50, 4.20, st Weymouth car house), 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20, 0 Wednesday and Saturday ly.)

MOUTH (20 minutes later th and 30 minutes later fron 30, 7, 7.30, 8, 8.30, 9, 9.30 M.; 12, 12.30, 1, 1.30, 2, 5, 5.30, 6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8 , 11.30 P. M.

Weymouth Landing.

t 5.30 A. M., 6.20, 7.20 and 0, then 1.50 and every hour

TH LANDING at 5.50 until 12.50, then 2.20 and 11.20 P. M., connect with uincy.

nd East Milton.

ARE, 5.55, 6.25, then every minutes past the hour until 50 P. M.

LTON 6.25, 6.55 A. M., then d 25 minutes past the hour 10.20 and 11.20 P. M.

nd Holbrook.

or Holbrook at 6.10 and half hour until 9.40 P. M., South Braintree only, y and Saturday, when car to Holbrook.

nd Hingham.

t 7.20 A. M. and every hour n 1.50 and every hour until

M at 8 A. M. and every hour 2.30 and every hour until ntic and Squantum.

T at 6.30 A. M. and every M., connecting at Atlantic s trains.

UM at 7 A. M. and every onnecting at Atlantic with nd Houghs Neck.

CENTRE at 6.20 A. M., and til 1.20, and then 1.50 and 0.

HOUGHS NECK at 5.45 r until 12.45, and then 1.20 9.20.

UNDAYS.

quare, Quincy, for E. Weyand West Quincy at 7 A. M nd half hour throughout the e as week days on other lines, two trips are omitted.

WEEKS, Superintendent.

k, New Haven
artford R. R.

rn District.

ly 1st, 1898, trains will run ote of explanation at bottom.

	FROM BOSTON.
rrive ston.	Leave Boston.	Stops at	Arrive Quincy
6 30	5 55	ihgfedcba	*6 22 r
7 00	6 30	cba	6 49 r
7 30	7 30	cba	7 49 r
7 43	8 30	cba	8 49 r
8 00	9 30	cba	9 49 r
8 30	10 30	cba	10 49 r
8 43	11 30	cba	11 49 r
9 00	12 30	cba	12 49 r
9 30	1 30	cba	1 49 r
0 30	2 30	cba	2 49 r
1 30	3 30	cba	3 49 r
2 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
1 30	5 00	cba	5 19 r
2 30	5 17	da	5 36 r
3 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
4 30	6 00	cba	6 19 r
5 30	6 17	da	6 36 r
6 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
7 30	7 00	cba	7 19 r
8 05	7 30	cba	7 49 r
8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
9 30	9 30	cba	9 49 r
0 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r
1 30	11 30	cba	11 49 r
NDAYS.
7 30	6 30	cba	6 r
8 30	8 30	cba	8 49 r
9 30	12 30	cba	12 49 r
1 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
5 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
7 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
0 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r

he same line as the figures stations and indicate that ws:

g, Savin Hill.
h, Crescent Avenue.
i, South Boston.

r, Quincy Adams.
(xx), Express.

RK, A. C. KENDALL, G. P. A

Sale of Real Estate.

ower of sale contained in a cere deed given by Louis Sleager ncy, in the Commonwealth of Edward Billings, of Weymmonwealth, dated February corded with Norfolk Deeds, 4, for breach of the condition and for the purpose of fore- will be sold at public auction n MONDAY, the 10th day of o'clock in the afternoon, all premises conveyed by said erein described as follows, land, containing 8,940 square buildings and improvements in said Quincy, and bounded follows, to wit: Northwest- t, sixty (60) feet; southwest- y or formerly of Nahum F. red and forty-nine (149) feet; nd now or formerly of Caro- y (60) feet; northeasterly on way, that runs southeasterly bounding thereon one hune (149) feet.

same premises conveyed by Caroline B. Tobey by mber 23, 1892, and recorded ds, libro 681, folio 492. Said ld subject to a prior mortgage ne T. Osgood; also subject to sments and tax titles, if any terms at sale.

) BILLINGS, Mortgagee.

s., Sept. 16, 1898. 16-23-30

WHAT CHINESE NEED.

Capital For Country's Development Not Wanting.

Skill and Energy Are the Chief Requisites.

Manifold Chances For Wealth Are Waiting on American Enterprise.

Philadelphia, Oct. 1.—The American has an article from the pen of Wharton Barker on the possiblities of future trade relations between this country and China. In the course of his article, Mr. Barker writes: "So strict is the Chinaman in all his commercial dealings that the scrupulous exactitude with which he keeps his bargains is proverbial throughout the east. The name of the Chinese merchant is a synonym of honor, and in this lies the hope of China, the opportunity of China to escape the danger that confronts her.

WHARTON BARKER.

"That hope is the development of China by Americans and Europeans in conjunction with the Chinese, a development the profits of which will not merely accrue to the foreigner, but enrich and aggrandize China. While refusing to permit development in a way that means despoilment, she must invite development in a way that means enrichment. The reinstatement of the Chinese party is an earnest of this, an earnest that the foreigner, the American, the European of energy and ability and willing to cast his lot with China, will grow up with China, will be invited to China to work in conjunction with Chinese for the development of China's resources and wealth producing abilities.

"Here the reputation of the Chinese merchant for probity and honesty will stand China in good stead, for because of it Americans and Europeans will be attracted toward alliances with such Chinamen rather than be repelled.

"Capital in China for China's development is not wanting. What is wanted is the energy, the enterprise, the skill, that can successfully direct the building and operating of railroads and local industrial plants. It is this skill and energy that China wants; it is this skill and energy that she must gain before her own capital will become available for her own development, for the investment of that capital awaits the assurance of turning out remuneratively which both skill and energy alone can give. So the opportunities for Americans and Europeans to enter into partnership with Chinese for the development of China are great. They must have enterprise and skill, they must command capital that they may put into the partnership as an earnest of their good faith, as an assurance of their own faith in their own ability. With such assurance they can command Chinese capital, and, as they build up China, build up their own fortunes."

Revolver Was Discharged.

Manchester, N. H., Oct. 1.—Elizabeth Colgate, daughter of Mrs. Clinton J. Colgate, killed herself yesterday afternoon. While handling a revolver the weapon was accidentally discharged, the bullet passing through her breast. Miss Colgate was 22 years old and was engaged to be married to Dr. Roland Cox of New York. She belonged to one of the first families of Manchester.

Those familiar with the family life think it a case of suicide. The woman is said to have made previous attempts to take her life—one with laudanum and one with a knife. Until recently she was in a private sanitarium in New York under treatment for melancholia. Up to two or three minutes before the shooting Miss Colgate was with her mother and cousin, apparently in the best of health and spirits, and unusually cheerful. She went to her chamber to change her gown, and the shot followed. When her cousin reached her side she was dead.

To Shout "Live the Army!"

Paris, Oct. 1.—The walls of the city were placarded yesterday with the announcement that the anti-Dreyfus meeting which was to have been held Sunday by the followers of Paul Deroulede had been abandoned in order to allow those who would have attended to visit the various Dreyfus meetings and shout "Live the army!" and "Live France!"

A duel has been arranged between Mr. Paulmier, whose wife went to the offices of The Lantern and twice shot the editor's secretary because, as she asserted, the paper has slandered herself and her husband, and the writer of the article, the publication of which led to the shooting.

Cricket Near Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, Oct. 1.—The last of the international cricket matches between the gentlemen of Philadelphia and Captain Warner's British eleven was begun yesterday at Manheim. When stumps were drawn for the day the local players had scored 143 runs for their first inning and the visitors 114 for the loss of four wickets.

There were two changes in the personnel of the Philadelphia eleven from the opening match of Sept. 16. The absence of many of the star players greatly handicapped the local team, which by no means represents the strength of Philadelphia cricket.

THE PHILIPPINES.

Senator Hanna Against Their Reversion to Spanish Control.

Washington, Oct. 1.—"I see no other result," said Senator Hanna in a talk Friday forenoon concerning the Philippines, "than that Spain will have to relinquish her sovereignty over not only Luzon island, but the entire Philippine archipelago. Spain has no reason to expect to be able to retain any portion of the group. She went into the war and lost, and now ought to be prepared to suffer all the consequences which a defeat implies. I regard the Philippines as lost to Spain, and that being a foregone conclusion, in my opinion the problem which next confronts us relates to the form of government which we will give the islands.

"When the Philippine question presented itself there was a strong sentiment among conservative, far-seeing and thinking men in this country which favored the retention by the United States of merely a naval base and coaling station in the islands—this base presumably being Manila and the bay contiguous thereto. Since then, however, this sentiment apparently has undergone a very marked change, and now it appears for the most part that those same men who at first believed we should occupy Manila alone are advocating the termination of Spanish rule in the whole group.

"What will be the ultimate fate of the islands is of course a problem of the future. Whether the Philippines shall become an independent nation or a colony of the United States, or whether a long time American protectorate shall be established will be a subject for congress to decide. It is well understood that Spain must abide by the verdict of our peace commissioners whatever that may prove to be, for she is in no fit condition to renew the conflict which has resulted so disastrously to her. She has no reason to expect that our commissioners will agree to any proposition which contemplates the continuation of Spanish control over any part or all of the group.

"I feel confident we will have no further trouble in an armed way with Spain. The only obstacle with which we may have to contend is the opposition of the insurgents to our plans. It is not at all certain of course that we will encounter any such obstacle, though it is assuredly among the probabilities. However, from what I have read of the mission of Aguiraldo, the insurgent chieftain, we may find the Philippines tractable and willing to accept whatever form of government we shall decide upon, so long as Spain shall have no hand in its administration."

Shafter Hits Back.

Nashville, Oct. 1.—Postmaster Willis received a letter from General Shafter, dated Camp Wikoff, Sept. 26, in which he says of newspaper attacks upon him: "The attacks of the yellow press upon me and others of the administration are simply outrageous. The articles are filled with untruth, beginning with the one that I was responsible for the equipment of the army with Springfield rifles, which you and every other sensible man knows is a lie. The behavior of some of the yellow journals was so outrageous before we even got to Cuba that I had to put my hand on them, and after we got to Cuba it was still worse. Their letters are the result of personal spite. If I had come back with a defeated army there might have been some excuse for their talk, but having commanded one of the most military history, it is simply an outrage.

"I am very fond of Evans (pension commissioner) and am very glad you are defending him. Some of the G. A. R. are simply unbearable, and seem to think that if they can't have the treasury turned over to them they are being defrauded."

Health of Dewey's Men.

Washington, Oct. 1.—Admiral Dewey appears to have been lucky in preserving the health of his sailors. Secretary Long has made public a short extract from the admiral's last report, treating on this subject, in which, while dealing with the general climatic conditions of the Philippines, for the information of the government, he says of the sailors and troops: "As Luzon is farthest north of the large islands, its climate is naturally the most temperate. In this connection it may be mentioned that out of a force of 2000 on the ships of my squadron, the number of men on the sick list at any time has not exceeded 40, nor has there been any considerable sickness among our troops on shore, though they were much exposed for three weeks in the trenches during the rainy season. As a matter of fact, Manila is far from being an unhealthy city."

Army For Occupation of Cuba.

Washington, Oct. 1.—The meeting of the cabinet yesterday was devoted to matters of detail in connection with the formation of the army which is to be sent to Cuba. Reports were read to the effect that by Oct. 15 the danger from yellow fever will have passed, and it is understood the movement of the troops will begin at that time.

The conduct of the Spanish customs officers in Havana is very unsatisfactory to the president, and it is said to have been decided to take posession of the custom house there at an early date and administer its affairs under regulations to be prescribed by this government. Information has reached the president that the Spanish authorities in San Juan recently took possession of and sent to Spain about $40,000 belonging to an association of school teachers. This matter has been the subject of a protest to the Spanish government. It is the purpose of the government to compel its return if possible, and if not vigorous measures will be taken to collect it from the persons responsible for its misappropriation.

Murder and Suicide.

New York, Oct. 1.—Margaret Florrimont, 70 years old, was found lying dead on her bed in her residence in Brooklyn yesterday afternoon. Beside her lay her 8-year-old grandson, Herman Florrimont, dead, and her 11-year-old granddaughter, Florence Florrimont, unconscious. The girl will probably die. All three had been asphyxiated by illuminating gas, four burners being found turned on in the apartment. The indications are that Mrs. Florrimont secured the windows in the room and turned on the burners. Her motive is unknown, as she was of a cheerful disposition and was in comfortable circumstances.

MILLIONS OF DAMAGE.

Furious Storm of Flame In Western Forests.

Several Villages Wholly or Partly Destroyed.

Little Left of the Growing Timber In Western Colorado.

St. Paul, Oct. 1.—The forest fires throughout western Wisconsin were fanned into a furious storm of flames by wind, and did great damage in Chippewa, Barren, Dunn, St. Croix and Polk counties. A general destruction of wires makes the reports very incomplete, but it seems that the villages of Clayton, Alamena and Poskin have been wholly or partly destroyed; that Cumberland has suffered heavy losses, and that Glenwood, Barron, Prentice, Philips and Turtle Lake were saved only by great efforts.

Reports of loss of life are coming in, but have not been verified except in one instance. A railroad bridge and trestle over 700 feet long on the Soo line west of Barron was burned. The Northwestern Lumber company lost 2,000,000 feet of logs near Eau Claire. Fires have been checked in places by rains and the subsidence of the winds. A rough estimate places the aggregate loss at from $3,000,000 to $5,000,000.

Ravages In Colorado.

Denver, Oct. 1.—Reports from the western portion of the state continue to tell of the ravages of the forest fires, which bid fair to devastate the greater part of the forests of the state. A special from Glenwood Springs, the center of the burning district, says:

"The fires near here have taken fresh life today, owing to the high winds. The sun has been nearly obscured all day and the air is heavy with smoke. The fire east of Glenwood Springs is fortunately in an unsettled portion of the county; and aside from the immense loss by the burning of timber, no loss has occurred up to the present time. The stock on the range as far as heard from has escaped the fire.

A special to The News from Kokomo, Col., says: "Forest fires are raging on every hand here. Shep mountain on the north side is a mass of flames which are within a quarter of a mile of this camp. Great apprehension is felt here for the safety of the town.

A special from Montrose, Col., says: "The forest fires southeast of the town, about 25 miles, have now reached large proportions and can be plainly seen from town. The range between Hairpin, Messa and Saw Tooth mountain is nearly devastated."

Fifty Families Homeless.

Rice Lake, Wis., Oct. 1.—The forest fires in this vicinity are nearly abated, but great damage has been wrought for miles west of the city. Nels Nelson, a farmer, attempted to save himself by going into his well. The well house caught fire, and Nelson perished. It is estimated that the losses in Barron, Polk, Washburn and Sawyer counties aggregate at least one and a half million dollars, principally to the lumbermen. People were driven from their homes without saving any of their household effects. Fifty families are homeless.

Pulp Makers' Demands.

Quebec, Oct. 1.—The American and Canadian pulp makers are competitors in the European market, and as a considerable part of the raw material comes from Canada, the imposition of an export duty on the spruce logs, as urged by dominion manufacturers, would somewhat cripple the industry in the United States. Of course, a considerable part of the paper of various grades used in Canada comes from the United States, but the Canadians maintain that it is not sufficient to make a fair equivalent in trade for the great amount of pulp wood which now goes into the United States free of duty.

Last year the United States paid Canada for pulp wood $877,000 and for pulp of all grades $498,076. Much of the pulp wood used by the American manufacturers is supplied by small farmers, who cannot sell to the Canadian makers because the latter own large tracts of land. For these reasons it is likely that the Canadian farmers would object to an export duty on the spruce logs. The best grades of paper made in the United States are now made from the poplar wood of Virginia and North Carolina.

Mr. Bayard's Resting Place.

Wilmington, Oct. 1.—The train carrying the body of Thomas F. Bayard reached this city at 8:35 o'clock last night. Fifteen hundred persons were at the Pennsylvania railroad station when the train pulled in.

Mr. Bayard's remains were at once taken to Old Swede church, where another large crowd had collected. The casket was placed in front of the chancel of the church, where it remained until the services this afternoon, when Rev. Dr. G. W. Douglass of Tuxedo Park, N. J., officiated. The following were pallbearers: Grover Cleveland, John V. Craven, Thomas Craven, Salem, N. J.; Governor Tunnell, Chancellor John R. Nicholson, Judge I. C. Grubbs, Dr. J. A. Draper and Henry C. Banning of Wilmington; Henry W. Bryan of Washington and George L. Rives of New York.

Anxious to Have the Fight.

Buffalo, Oct. 1.—Manager C. M. Wilson of the Hawthonre Athletic club of this city, in an interview, detailed a conversation which he had with Mr. Gray, McCoy's manager, by telephone, in which the latter said: "I will sign no agreement until I see you, which will be sometime between now and Monday; but I can pull off the Corbett-McCoy fight in New York state outside of Erie county on Oct. 15. I will not say over the wire where, but I will tell you when I get to Buffalo. The people I have been talking with are dead anxious to have the fight, and guarantee that there will be no interference."

Mr. Wilson also said that the stories to the effect that the fight would take place in Pittsburg were all nonsense.

REVIEW OF TRADE.

Volume the Country Over Very Heavy, With Quietness In Some Lines.

New York, Oct. 1.—Bradstreet's says that although rather quieter conditions are reportable in a number of lines of trade, the volume of business doing the country over is very heavy, slightly smaller, so far as bank clearings would indicate, than in September one year ago, but comparing very favorably with corresponding periods in preceding years. While the edge appears to have been taken off the active demand for sometime noted in the west and northwest, and the imposition of yellow fever quarantines and the low price of cotton in the south have hurt trade in that section, there have been, on the other hand, rather better reports received from the leading eastern and middle cities, pointing to a fuller development of the long expected fall trade. Accompanying this has been a continued export movement of leading cereals, unprecedented activity in the manufacture of nearly all lines of iron and steel and continued good reports as to gross railway earnings, comparisons in this respect being made with particularly favorable conditions one year ago. Rather less pronounced strength is noticeable in the price situation. Wheat, after quite a heavy bulge early in the week, has quieted down slightly, and prices are a few cents lower on the week.

With the exception of a slight decrease reported as compared with the corresponding week of 1891, weekly bank clearings are heavier than ever before known at this time. Indications point to a total for September of about $5,000,000, smaller by 2 percent than in September a year ago and by a slightly larger percentage than in August, but heavily in excess of any preceding September on record.

Business failures for the third quarter of 1898 were the smallest in number for at least six years past, but because of one very large failure in September the liabilities are larger than one year ago. For the nine months period the total number of failures is 8855, 10 percent fewer than in 1897 and 21 percent smaller than in 1896. Liabilities involved aggregate $102,197,887, 13 percent smaller than last year. The percentage of assets to liabilities reflects the return of normal conditions in a proportion, one to the other of 51 percent, against 55 percent a year ago. Failure statistics confirm earlier reports as to trade in showing fewer failures and reduced liabilities in the west, northwest, far west and the south, but in an increased number in the eastern and middle states, notably Pennsylvania and Massachusetts, and larger liabilities in New York state, where, though failures are fewer in number, some large embarrassments have heavily swelled liabilities. The heaviest decreases in liabilities are those reported by the western, northwestern and southern states. The only group showing an increase is the middle states section.

AN EASY VICTORY.

The Bostons Had No Trouble In Beating the Philadelphias.

Boston, Oct. 1.—The Phillies suffered another defeat yesterday afternoon, the champions winning the final game of the month by a score of 7 to 3. In the second inning the winners hit for keeps, five hits producing four runs. In the sixth four singles enabled two champions to score, and in the last eight turns one or more hits were made to an inning. Donahue is generally hit hard, put he has the happy faculty of holding the run column down to small figures, and yesterday was no exception. He succeeded in scattering 17 hits, which included only one two-bagger, so that only seven runs were netted, and 11 Bostonians were left meditating on the base paths. Nichols won additional laurels for his splendid pitching and batting. Score:

Bostons.	AB	R	1B	PO	A	E
Hamilton, c. f.	5	0	2	1	0	1
Long, s. s.	5	2	3	3	1	0
Tenney, 1 b.	4	0	1	6	1	0
Lowe, 2 b.	5	1	0	1	3	1
Collins, 3 b.	5	0	2	3	2	0
Stahl, r. f.	4	1	3	1	0	0
Bergen, c.	4	1	2	7	1	0
Duffy, l. f.	4	1	1	5	0	0
Nichols, p.	4	1	2	0	0	0
Totals	40	7	16	27	8	2

Philadelphias.	AB	R	1B	PO	A	E
Cooley, c. f.	5	1	2	0	0	0
Douglass, 1 b.	5	1	2	8	0	0
Delehanty, l. f.	3	1	1	5	0	0
Lajoie, 2 b.	1	0	1	0	1	0
Abbatacchio, 2 b.	3	0	0	2	0	0
Flick, r. f.	3	0	0	1	0	1
Lauder, 3 b.	4	0	1	5	2	0
Murphy, c.	4	0	2	2	0	0
Cross, s. s.	4	0	0	1	2	1
Donahue, p.	3	0	0	0	3	0
*Orth	1	0	0	0	0	0
Totals	36	3	9	24	8	2

Bostons	0	4	1	0	0	2	0	0		7
Philadelphias	1	0	0	0	0	0	2	0	0	—3

*Batted for Donahue in the ninth.

Two-base hits——Nichols, Delehanty. First base on balls—By Nichols, 2; by Donahue, 2; Struck out—By Nichols, 5; by Donahue, 1. Double plays—Bergen, Tenney and Bergen; Long and Tenney. Umpires—Brown and Andrews. Time—1:57.

The Baltimores won one game yesterday, and made a tie of the other, in which neither side scored. In the first game Miller's wildness was fatal to the Brooklyns' chances. The second was a pitchers' battle, in which the honors were even.

The Washingtons hit Rusie harder than the New Yorks did Killen and got a lead, but errors and Killen's wildness permitted the giants to make it a tie game.

No Strike of Miners.

Indianapolis, Oct. 1.—M. D. Ratchford, president of the Mine Workers' union, declares that the report of an impending general strike among the miners is untrue. "There will be no general strike," says Mr. Ratchford, "during the life of the Chicago contract, which lasts until next May. What will happen in the future no one can tell. There will be no trouble anywhere as long as the operators live up to the contract."

Firemen Injured.

Hartford, Oct. 1.—F. P. Borrows' livery stable was completely gutted by fire last night. All of the horses in the stable were taken from the burning building in safety, with the exception of three. Three firemen were injured by a falling wall. One of them, William Senk, had his chest crushed in. The burned building was valued at $10,000; covered by insurance. Mr. Barrows' property was fully insured.

GAIL BORDEN EAGLE BRAND CONDENSED MILK

HAS NO EQUAL AS AN INFANT FOOD.

"INFANT HEALTH" SENT FREE. N.Y. CONDENSED MILK CO. NEW YORK.

WATCHES.

GENT'S WATCHES, $1.50 and Up.

LADIES' WATCHES, $2.50 and Up.

EVERY WATCH WARRANTED.

$2.00 Belts, $1.00 Each.
75c. Brooch Pins, 25c. Each.
25 and 35c. Stick Pins, 5 and 10c. Ea.

Quincy SOUVENIR TILES Half Price,

And Other Bargains.

A. A. LINSCOTT, Jeweler,

154 Hancock St., opp. Post Office, Quincy.

Agent for Graphophones.

aug 6. tf

Quality Right.

Quantity Right.

Service Right.

C. PATCH & SON.

Coal and Wood.

Now is the time to Subscribe
One Year, - $4.00

HARPER'S WEEKLY

will be remembered for its famous "War Numbers" of the Civil War. Its value during the war with Spain will be even greater because of vastly improved facilities. History is being rapidly made. The gravest questions of our time are coming to the front, and every American should have each week an accurate, concise from now until peace is assured. A brilliant staff of artists and correspondents are representing the WEEKLY at the front. Rufus F. Zogbaum, Carlton T. Chapman, Frederic Remington, T. de Thulstrup, W. A. Rogers, Clyde, D. V. Hunt, and others, with a large staff of photographers, are accurately portraying the movements of our army and navy and happenings at Washington and elsewhere. Among the WEEKLY'S correspondents are Frank D. Millet, John F. Bass, and O. K. Davis, in the Philippines, John Fox, Jr., with General Shafter's army, Harold Martin, at St. Thomas, and others. By subscribing now for one year, you will obtain the WEEKLY during the most important engagements.

PICTORIAL HISTORY OF THIS WAR

Subscription for One Year

$4.00

HARPER & BROTHERS
Franklin Sq., N. Y. City

A Wanderer for Her Sake.

Words and Music by S. F. Ayers.

Andante Moderato.

ritard.

1. I sat be - side a wea - ry trav - 'ler in a way-side inn, And list - en'd to his sto - ry sad - ly
2. I said to him "why don't you claim what sure - ly is your own, And let the in - ter - lo - per go his
3. His name I begg'd to know, but he the se - cret would not tell, "'Tis best," he said, "that none should ev - er told, Of how he'd left his na - tive land, his wife, and all his kin, And way, No doubt your wife would wel - come you and live for you a - lone, And guess, The mis - er - y and dis - ap - point - ment that my lot be - fell, Twould wan - der'd far and wide in search of gold. When af - ter ship-wreck and mis - for - tune if she knew the truth would bid you stay." The stran - ger sad - ly shook his head and give them pain should I the truth con - fess." The more I tried to com - fort him the ritard.

home a - gain he turn'd, He found that he had long been mourn'd as dead, His wip'd a - way a tear, And mourn - ful - ly he said in ac - cents low, "I sad - der still he'd grow, More hope - less - ly he mourn'd his drear - y fate; And ritard.

2

wife had wed an - oth - er and tho' for his place he yearn'd. He bow'd to fate, and this is what he said, staid a-way too long and now I am for-got I fear. She's hap - py with an-oth - er—let me go.
when I said he ought to let his wife and kindred know That still he liv'd, he said—"it is too late."

CHORUS.
With pathos.

"Home, sweet home, . . . Mine, a - las! no more . . . .

O - ver the o - cean I must roam And bide on a for - eign shore . . .

ritard.

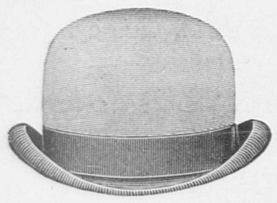

Home, dear home, ... A last fare-well I'll take, . . For

ritard

I've be - come an out - cast now, A wan - d'rer for her sake." . . . .

Copyright, 1898, by THE MUSICAL CHIMES, New York.

Lamson & Hubbard

Fall Style, 1898.

1898. Fall Style. 1898.

We are prepared to show all the latest Hats for Fall wear from the blocks of the best makers.

An early call will secure you a selection from a fine assortment.

GEO. W. JONES,

Adams Building, Quincy.

SWITHIN BROS.

REAL ESTATE!

President's Hill.

President's Hill Annex.

Cranch Hill.

Choice Lots and Improved Property for Sale in West Quincy, Wollaston, South Quincy, Quincy Point, Quincy Centre.

Room 12, Durgin & Merrill's Block, Quincy.

FRUIT AND FLOWERS

LANDSCAPE GARDENING.

A House, Like a Jewel, Should Have a "Setting" of Beauty.

It always seems a pity that the country houses of America should not have the loot of belonging rightfully where they are placed that is characteristic of English or continental houses of the same class. A house needs a "setting" as much as a jewel does, as some one aptly expressed it the other day. Architects would do themselves much more credit if they would induce their clients at the same time the building is going up to do a certain amount of planting, so that the completed house should have the relief of vegetation and connect it as it were with mother earth. Foliage takes away the look of the house having been simply stuck on the surface.

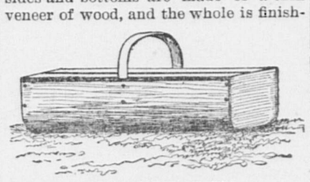

With the foregoing words the New York Tribune prefaces a pertinent reminder that there are two plants introduced of late years which we have every reason to be thankful for—viz, the Japanese ivy and the California privet. According to the journal quoted, it is not too much to say that these two simple plants have effected more in cultivating a taste for beauty and clothing the nakedness of ugly walls than all the others put together. No architecture can look hideous when covered with the living green of the Japanese ivy, and no grounds crude or uncared for if inclosed with a broad hedge of privet. Whole neighborhoods have been literally transformed by their beneficent and rapid growth. A notable example of their magic power may be seen along one of the railway lines which runs to a suburb near New York. Near the little station there has long been a huge brick steam sawmill, whose hot, glaring walls and caked, bare grounds have been an eyesore for years. Either the owner or the superintendent a few years ago planted around the building a dozen roots of the ampelopsis and a hedge of privet to divide the grounds from the railway, and today the whole place looks like an old English institution. The hedge has grown wonderfully, the broad, neatly cut top completing the air of antiquity.

Any number of such instances may be cited, while the hideous back yards of cottages which are near to each other at seaside watering places and the more decent, but quite as ugly, trellis work has—thanks to the protecting growth of the privet—become a thing of the past, so that the laundress can hang out her clothes and the cook air her pans and her dishcloths within a few feet of the highway in complete seclusion. Truly we have every reason to be thankful for the ampelopsis and the privet.

A Grape Carrier.

Last fall a good many grapes came to New York from western New York state in packages like that shown in the figure, holding something over 30 pounds of grapes.

This is called a loop tray. The end pieces and one piece in the middle are made of half inch stuff, the lower corners being rounded off as shown. The sides and bottoms are made of a thin veneer of wood, and the whole is finished with a handle and covered with a slatted cover. Some wholesalers say that the new packages seem to please dealers, and they think highly of them, but a writer in The Rural New Yorker, from which the cut and information are derived, thinks some of the packages seen by him were apparently not strong enough for the handling they received. He therefore advises that the sides and bottoms be a little thicker and be nailed on more firmly, and the handles should be a little heavier and more securely fastened.

LOOP TRAY FOR GRAPES.

Moving Rhododendrons.

American Gardening gives this advice to an inquirer about moving rhododendrons: Simply prepare the soil thoroughly in the new position by digging out from three to four feet and blending the disturbed soil with wood muck. The transplanting may be done any time from September to May—the preference would be fall, and thus save a season's bloom, which spring planting usually sacrifices, although at that season the trees' chances of growing are just as good, as it happens immediately before new growth begins.

Horticultural Brevities.

From some recent experiments it appears that the application of wood ashes to the soil of apple orchards does not make the fruit any more resistant to apple scab.

Of bulletin No. 7 of the department of agriculture on "The Fruit Industry," it is stated that it contains information that has never before been brought together in the form in which it appears, and for which there are frequent inquiries.

An orange grower in the southern part of the Florida orange belt reports the prospect of a small crop in that section.

Quincy and Boston Electric Street Railway.

[Subject to change without notice.]

On and after September 21, cars will be run on the different routes as follows:

Quincy and Neponset.

Leave CITY SQUARE for Neponset at 5.55, 6.10, 6.25, 6.40 A. M. and every 15 minutes until 11.10 P. M.

Leave NEPONSET for Quincy at 6.15 A. M. and every 15 minutes until 11.30 P. M.

Cars leaving Quincy at 10 minutes past the hour go via Norfolk Downs, and those leaving Neponset at 30 minutes past go via Downs.

Cars leaving Neponset 15 minutes of and 15 minutes past the hour go via Wollaston and continue through Braintree and Holbrook to Brockton, connecting with cars for Bridgewater, Taunton, New Bedford, Fall River, Newport and Providence.

Quincy and East Weymouth.

Leave CITY SQUARE (10 minutes later from Quincy Point and 22 minutes later from North Weymouth)—5.45, 6.20, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20, 9.50, 10.20, 10.50, 11.20, 11.50 A. M. 12.20, 12.50, 1.20, 1.50, 2.20, 2.50, 3.20, 3.50, 4.20 4.50, 5.20, (5.30 to East Weymouth car house) 5.50, 6.20, 6.30, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20 9.50, 10.50 P. M., (11.50 Wednesday and Saturday to Thomas' Corner only.)

Leave EAST WEYMOUTH (20 minutes late from North Weymouth and 30 minutes later from Quincy Point)—6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8, 8.30, 9, 9.30 10, 10.30, 11, 11.30 A. M.; 12, 12.30, 1, 1.30, 2 2.30, 3, 3.30, 4, 4.30, 5, 5.30, 6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8, 8.30, 9, 9.30, 10, 10.30, 11.30 P. M.

Quincy and Weymouth Landing.

Leave QUINCY at 5.30 A. M., 6.20, 7.20 and every hour until 12.20, then 1.50 and every hour until 10.50 P. M.

Leave WEYMOUTH LANDING at 5.50 A. M. and every hour until 12.50, then 2.20 and every hour until 11.20 P. M., connect with trains to Boston at Quincy.

Quincy and East Milton.

Leave CITY SQUARE, 5.55, 6.25, then every 5 minutes of and 25 minutes past the hour until 9.25 P. M., then at 10.50 P. M.

Leave EAST MILTON 6.25, 6.55 A. M., then every 5 minutes of and 25 minutes past the hour until 9.50 P. M., then 10.20 and 11.20 P. M.

Quincy and Holbrook.

Leave QUINCY for Holbrook at 6.10 and 6.40 A. M., and every half hour until 9.40 P. M. then 10.10 P. M. to South Braintree only except on Wednesday and Saturday, when car at 10.50 runs through to Holbrook.

Quincy and Hingham.

Leave QUINCY at 7.20 A. M. and every hour until 11.20 A. M., then 1.50 and every hour until 5.50 P. M.

Leave HINGHAM at 8 A. M. and every hour until 12 M., then 2.30 and every hour until 6.30 P. M.

Neponset, Atlantic and Squantum.

Leave NEPONSET at 6.30 A. M. and every hour until 8.30 P. M., connecting at Atlantic with outward express trains.

Leave SQUANTUM at 7 A. M. and every hour until 9 P. M., connecting at Atlantic with express trains.

Quincy and Houghs Neck.

Leave QUINCY CENTRE at 6.20 A. M., and and every hour until 1.20, and then 1.50 and every hour until 9.50.

Returning, leave HOUGHS NECK at 5.45 A. M., and every hour until 12.45, and then 1.20 and every hour until 9.20.

SUNDAYS.

Cars leave City Square, Quincy, for E. Weymouth at 7.30 A. M and West Quincy at 7 A. M and on the hour and half hour throughout the day.

Sunday time same as week days on other lines, except that the first two trips are omitted.

BENJ. J. WEEKS, Superintendent

New York, New Haven and Hartford R. R.

Eastern District.

On and after July 1st, 1898, trains will run as follows: (See note of explanation at bottom.

TO BOSTON. Leave Quincy.	Stops at	Arrive Boston.	FROM BOSTON. Leave Boston.	Stops at	Arrive Quincy
r 6 12	abc	* 6 30	5 55	ihgfedcba*	6 22 r
r 6 42	abc	7 00	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	7 30	cba	7 49 r
r 7 26	ad	7 43	8 30	cba	8 49 r
r 7 42	abc	8 00	9 30	cba	9 49 r
r 8 12	abc	8 30	10 30	cba	10 49 r
r 8 26	ad	8 43	11 30	cba	11 49 r
r 8 42	abc	9 00	12 30	cba	12 49 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	1 30	cba	1 49 r
r 10 12	abc	10 30	2 30	cba	2 49 r
r 11 12	abc	11 30	3 30	cba	3 49 r
r 12 12	abc	12 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
r 1 12	abc	1 30	5 00	cba	5 19 r
r 2 12	abc	2 30	5 17	da	5 36 r
r 3 12	abc	3 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
r 4 12	abc	4 30	6 00	cba	6 19 r
r 5 12	abc	5 30	6 17	da	6 36 r
r 6 12	abc	6 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	7 00	cba	7 19 r
r 7 39	abcdeghi	8 05	7 30	cba	7 49 r
r 8 08	abcdef	8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	9 30	cba	9 49 r
r 10 08	abcdef	10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r
r 11 12	abc	11 30	11 30	cba	11 49 r

SUNDAYS.

r 12	abc	7 30	6 30	cba	6 r
r 8 12	abc	8 30	8 30	cba	8 49 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	12 30	cba	12 49 r
r 1 12	abc	1 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
r 5 12	abc	5 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 8 08	abcdef	8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
r 10 08	abcdef	10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r

*The letters in the same line as the figures stand for different stations and indicate that trains stop, as follows:

a, Wollaston, b, Norfolk Downs. c, Atlantic. d, Neponset. e, Pope's Hill, f, Harrison Square. g, Savin Hill. h, Crescent Avenue. i, South Boston. r, Quincy Adams. (xx), Express.

C PETER CLARK, Gen'l Supt. A. C. KENDALL, G. P. A

☞ Cheapness in the minor feature of iron beds. They are healthy, restful and lasting. Full sized iron beds from $2.50 up. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

LADIES ROYAL DELIVERANCE CAPSULES are a positive, safe and speedy monthly regulator, guaranteed to cure the most stubborn cases, or money refunded. Have never failed. Used by thousands of ladies, indorsed and prescribed by the medical profession. Painful and dangerous operations avoided. Price $2, at office or by return mail. 'Royal Protector' and full particulars under plain seal for 4c., stamps. ROYAL REMEDIES CO., 228 Tremont Street, Boston, Mass. Mention this paper.

Chichester's English Diamond Brand.

PENNYROYAL PILLS

Original and Only Genuine.

SAFE, always reliable. LADIES ask Druggist for Chichester's English Diamond Brand in Red and Gold metallic boxes, sealed with blue ribbon. Take no other. Refuse dangerous substitutions and imitations. At Druggists, or send 4c. in stamps for particulars, testimonials and "Relief for Ladies," in letter, by return Mail. 10,000 Testimonials. Name Paper. Chichester Chemical Co., Madison Square, PHILADA., PA.

Sold by all Local Druggists.

Sold by Geo. C. Goodwin & Co., Boston, Mass. General Agents.

Quincy Daily Ledger

ESTABLISHED IN 1889.

The ONLY DAILY in Norfolk County Massachusetts.

Published Every Evening, Sundays and Holidays Excepted, At No. 115 HANCOCK ST., City of Quincy, Mass., by

GEORGE W. PRESCOTT & SON.

Successors to Green & Prescott.

Subscription Price, $6.00 per year.

☞ A discount of $1 when paid in advance.

ALSO PUBLISHERS OF

The Quincy Patriot,

A Weekly Established in 1837, which has the Largest Circulation in Norfolk County, and

The Braintree Observer,

A Weekly Established in 1878.

TELEPHONE, 78-3 QUINCY.

Quincy Temperature at Noon.

	This Week.	Last Week.	In 1897.	In 1896.
Sunday	52	81	70	66
Monday	71	80	78	72
Tuesday	67	70	60	77
Wednesday	68	62	55	64
Thursday	70	71	63	66
Friday	75	72	68	76
Saturday	74	54	79	78

New Advertisements Today.

Salesman wanted.
Wanted—Quincy & Boston stock.
Board and room wanted.
House to let.
Agents wanted.
Miss C. S. Hubbard.
Miss Belle J. Patterson.
Miss Hayward—dancing class.

Fifth Massachusetts Inspected.

A dispatch to the Post says Friday was a busy day for Colonel Whitney and his staff and for every one in the command. At 9 o'clock assembly sounded, and the men of the First and Third Battalions, in heavy marching orders, blanket rolls, haversack, canteen and rifle, marched out into the space vacated yesterday by the Second Battalion for their monthly muster and inspection.

This work was finished about 11.30, and the men were excused until after dinner, when the inspection of quarters was started. This was completed within an hour and then the tour of inspection of company kitchens was begun. Colonel Corby of the Fourth Missouri, who is acting commander of this brigade, rode over just before this and joined Colonel Whitney in his examination of the condition and the manner in which the kitchens were conducted. He expressed himself as much pleased with the result, and complimented the regiment on its appearance.

Mrs. Whitney, wife of Colonel Whitney, and Mrs. Cutting, wife of Captain Cutting of Company L, with her daughter, arrived at camp at noon. They will put up at the farm house close to the camp. Mrs. Clare, wife of Captain Clare of Company M, arrived here Wednesday.

But twenty-eight cases of illness are reported. Leave of absence for one month has been granted to Major Clement. The major has been in ill-health for some time. Chaplain House has applied for a leave of absence for one month.

Civil Trial List.

The following cases are marked for trial at this civil session of the District court next Tuesday:

136-Guild vs. Hatch.
174-Carr vs. Wild.
183- Spull vf. Yourell.
210-Gustafson vs Smith.

DIED.

FRENCH—In Braintree, Oct. 1, Mr. Henry Chester French, aged 28 years and 5 months.

TELL US . .

What you are looking for.

We can show you a fine line of

FALL AND WINTER

UNDERWEAR,

HOSIERY,

Outing Flannels, Flannelettes,

Plaid Dress Goods,

WRAPPERS, BLANKETS,

Comforters,

Dress Linings and other Dry Goods.

OUR STOCK IS FRESH.

OUR PRICES THE LOWEST.

MISS C. S. HUBBARD,

158 Hancock Street.

THE LOCAL THEATRE

A Bicycle Play Which Don't Seem to End Right.

Scene 1. (Time, spring of present year)—A crestfallen looking young man, dressed in a bicycle costume, is seen walking up Hancock street, pushing a bicycle in one hand, while walking by his side is a Quincy police officer whose right hand is roughly grasping the young man's coat collar.

The explanation is that the young man has been riding his bicycle on the sidewalk in preference to the dusty and rocky road, and being caught in the act by the police officer, who believes in persecuting all violaters of the law, has been placed under arrest and is being taken to the police station, from whence he will be taken to court and fined $5,as an example to other bicycle riders who thus violate the law.

Note. The officer does not ride a bicycle and therefore can not see why the street is not good enough to ride on.

Scene 2. (Time, the present.) The place is Hancock street in the same locality as in Scene One, and the street is just as dusty and rough now as then. In the distance is seen a man coming toward us. As he approaches, it is seen that he wears a slouch hat, placed firmly on his head, and that his coat tails are flying out behind, for he is riding a bicycle and is riding faster than eight miles an hour, the limit prescribed by law. As he approaches nearer and shoots off into the street, it is seen that the rider is a member of the Quincy police force returning from a pleasure trip, and a closer look reveals to us the astonishing fact that he is the same officer who in Scene One was so diligently enforcing the law against riding bicycles on the sidewalk. And this was not all, for closely behind him was another Quincy officer, also riding a bicycle, and on the sidewalk at that.

Note,—The officer in scene one had learned the art of riding a bicycle in intervening time.

Query: If the young man in Scene One was violating the law, and was arrested and fined $5, was not the officer in the second scene violating the law, and should he not also be arrested and fined $5? What is sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander.

Thayer Academy Notes.

The Academy foot ball team this year, will probably be a winning one. The boys seem to be doing well, and as there is some fine foot ball material, the team will be a good one. Manager Burnham has arranged the following games to date.

Sept. 30, Comers College at Braintree.
Oct. 5, Boston Latin at Braintree.
Oct. 7, Adams Academy at Quincy.
Oct. 21, Adams Academy at South Braintree.
Oct. 29, Adams Academy at Quincy.

Two games with Brockton High have been arranged, one to be played in Brockton and the other in Braintree. Last year Thayer played Brockton for the championship of Southeastern Massachusetts. The Brockton boys claimed they won the game, but Thayer didn't reach the same conclusion. The games this year will be watched with interest. The full schedule will be given at a later date.

The Senior class recently held their annual business meeting. The following officer were elected for the ensuing year:

President—Perley E. Barbour.
Vice President—W. W. Gallagher.
Secretary—Marion H. Nickerson.
Treasurer—Herbert F. Plumer.

The following committee was appointed to make all arrangements for the Senior class play: Mr. Nixon, Miss Nickerson and Miss Gallager. The play will probably be given shortly after the Christmas vacation.

A meeting of the Thayer Athletic Association was held Wednesday, Sept. 28, in the chapel. Action was taken as regards the Thayer-Adams Dual league. The old series of games will probably be abolished, and a new one started. Thayer holds the base ball and foot ball pennants, while Adams has the track athletics trophy. A committee was appointed to arrange a track athletic meet with some other school than Adams—Chase, chairman, Brigham and Nixon.

The street railway tracks on Hancock street between Elm avenue and Beale street have been repaired and hereafter, residents on this street will have better service, and Wollaston will lose one car. The car leaving Quincy for Neponset at 10 minutes past the hour go via Norfolk Downs and those leaving at 20 minutes of the hour go via Hancock street while those at 25 and 55 past the hour continue via Wollaston. Returning cars leaving Neponset on the even hour go via Hancock street and those leaving at 30 minutes past the hour go via Norfolk Downs. Those at 15 of and 15 past via Wollaston.

☞ Comforters and Blankets from 50 cents up. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

IN THEIR NEW CAMP.

Co. K Feels That Its Work is Appreciated.

Camp Meade (annex)
Middletown, Penn. Sept. 9.

The boys woke up a little earlier than usual this morning, and to our surprise Major Morrison ordered the 2d Battalion, of which he is major, to pack up and roll blankets. All kinds of rumors ran through camp like wild fire while we were rushing orders along. We expected to be shipped direct to Cuba or somewhere else.

We marcheed off Camp Meade grounds at 9 A. M., our battalion buglers beating the step. Our march covered about four miles from camp and arriving at the so-called camp, which is alongside a railroad track where the government has its own freight houses, it will be our duty to tranship all commissory stores, and also perform provost duty. Our site is in a beautiful orchard surrounded by several peach trees and making a very picturesque site.

The 2d battalion consider this an honor to be detailed from the Regiment, it being claimed that the second is the best drilled and has the cleanest kept quarters.

By two in the afternoon every tent of the battalion was pitched but men had to work hard, and tonight they will retire earlier than usual. By retreat which is sounded at 6 P. M., every man had his gun rack and clothes pegs in position. We expect to remain here detached from the regiment for the next 10 days or longer.

Tomorrow (Friday) we will commence our new duty. Lieuts. Whitney and Spear have pitched their tents in a very pretty place. A small tree grows between the two tents, and it would all make a good picture.

Sergt. Mohan has been detached from the company, to fill the position of Sergeant Major under Major Morrison.

A battalion hospital has been pitched under the charge of Surgeon McPherson, he having for an assistant, Corporal Matthews, who is not called by his former title by the members of the Company street. He is Doctor Matthews now. He is an old hand at the profession having served before on the medical staff.

Sergt. Phillips when returning home can fill the position of Commissioner of Public Works with any man, he having finished a good job, having under his command some 20 men digging.

Sergt. Barrett and Artificer Seaverns have completed a ration chest for use of company. It is a useful article being used for the first time today.

Private Garbutt, an old bowler, is raising a fine moustache.

The Hon. William A. Hodges visited our Camp yesterday afternoon, we were overjoyed to see him. It looked like old times to see a Quincy gentleman so far from home.

No passes were issued today. No guards details issued until Friday noon.

K Company no longer holds the right of line, because of Capt. Kincaide retiring. So when tents were pitched this forenoon they were designated according to seniority. The senior captain of the battalion being Captain Sykes of I Attleboro, he holds the right of line. D Company under command of Capt. Butler of Plymouth the right of centre, K Company the left centre, Lieut. Whitney commanding, and H Company under command of Capt. McDonald Charlestown, the left of the line. The colors will be carried by Co. D instead of Co. H, K being the color company. VOLUNTEER.

☞ For ideal baking, try a Glenwood Range. $18.00 to $33.00. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

TO LET IN QUINCY.

SOUTHERLY Half of house with stable, 214 Hancock street, now occupied by Dr. N. S. Hunting. Modern improvements, central location. Possession given about October 15th. Apply on premises to

MISS M. F. UNDERWOOD.

Oct. 1. tf

BROCKTON FAIR,

October 5, 6, 7 & 8.

The Season's Event.

$20,000

In Premiums.
Trot, Pace, Running, Bicycle Races.
The Biggest and Best

STAGE SHOW

Ever Given.

A MUSICAL FESTIVAL.

100 Musicians and Soloists,
Brooke's Marine Band, Chicago,
Reeve's Band, Providence,
Martland's Band, Brockton.

A HORSE SHOW.

First of the kind ever given in New England.
Balloon Ascensions and many Novel Attractions Each Day.
A Four Day's Continuous Show.

ALWAYS SOMETHING DOING.
NO DULL WAITS AT THIS FAIR.

Tickets from Quincy admitting to grounds, 85c

Sept. 24—6t 24 27 28 29 1 3

LOCAL NEWS TRACK.

Some Colts which are Sure Winners Every Heat.

October.

Rally day at Methodist church, Atlantic, on Sunday.

Yesterday was the hottest day since Monday, Sept. 19.

Yesterday was an ideal day to govern the weather of October.

War theme at the Park and Downs church on Sunday evening.

Sunday evening services will be resumed at Christ church on Sunday.

Yesterday was pay day for the public school teachers, the first since June.

The new Braintree militia company is the 34th and last in numerical rank.

Rev. E. W. Preble will have a confidential talk to Universalists on Sunday morning.

Chief Engineer Frank C. Packard and others anticipate going to Camp Meade next week.

Miss Hayward of Braintree will open a dancing class for children in Colonial hall, October eighth.

The National Mt. Wollston bank has declared a semi-annual dividend of 3 per cent. payable Oct 1.

The Registrars of Voters meet again tonight and the indications are that it will be another busy session.

The Ladies' Aid Alliance of the Wollaston Unitarian church will meet in the vestry Wednesday, at 2 P. M.

Rev. Edward Norton's subjects on Sunday will be: "The true method of a Christian life," and "The forgiveness of sins."

Mr. Harrison A. Keith's name is prominently mentioned in connection with the Democratic Representative nomination.

Work has been commenced putting in the sewer pipes on Hancock Court and on Franklin street from Water street toward Braintree.

The Tenth signal corps mustered in Boston, of which Henry W. Sprague of Quincy is lieutenant, will be mustered out after 60 days' furlough.

Chas. H. Howland was elected on the executive committee of the Massachusetts Mutual Fire Insurance Union in Boston on Wednesday.

With the laying of underground conduits, building brick sidewalks and laying the sewer pipe, Hancock street will be a busy place for the next few weeks.

Miss Virginia Dox of Chicago will give her lecture at Bethany church, Sunday morning, and in the evening the pastor begins a series of popular addresses.

The annual meeting of the Fragment society will be held in the Unitarian chapel, Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 5th, at three o'clock. A full attendance is desired.

The services of twenty or more churches of the city are announced in this issue, and there are five or six more. Several pastors will have special themes.

Miss Virginia Dox, who speaks at Bethany church tomorrow morning, is considered an unusually eloquent speaker. Her subject, Marcus Whitman, Or the Ride which saved three States, is of thrilling interest.

Fancy shirts, bright colored ties and tan shoes will no longer be worn by the employes of the New York and New Haven, for a new order just issued says that all train men must wear, white shirts, black ties and black shoes.

Concerning the lecture which Mr. Louis C. Elson will give next Thursday evening in the High school hall, it has been said: "It is a just equivalent for a liberal education in the study of English harmony." One of the selections will be sung from a missal seven hundred years old, which Mr. Elson purchased in Chester, England, some years ago.

Sunday evening, at Bethany church, Rev. E. N. Hardy begins a series of addresses on Whence Came the Bible, and How True is It? The Bible is being more criticised, studied and loved today than ever before—and the questions raised are very interesting and important.

L. W. Nash, real estate agent of Wollaston, has sold the Whittemore estate on Grand View avenue, consisting of 37,000 square feet of land and stable to Elizabeth C. Dow of Chicago, who buys for a residence and will build in the near future. This is one of the largest sales of Wollaston land that has been recorded for a long time.

It is hoped at Wollaston that condign punishment will be meted out to those boys who so maliciously defaced Mr. E. W. Arnold's house a few evenings ago. Officer Davoren's opportune appearance put a stop to their vandalism, and at the same time led to the arrest of the whole gang, among whom was one of the leaders of last winter's robberies. He was let off at that time with the simple admonition "not to do it again."

A Penny Saved

is a penny earned. The more you get for your money the more money you save—and earn. We save you money—it may not seem much—but the little saving here and there makes up a dollar before you know it. But you don't save money if you buy unreliable quality—We save you money on the basis of reliable quality or your money back.

Our Rolled Oats are clean, sweet and have a rich, nutty flavor. They are great nerve and muscle builders — they nourish in the same way that good beef does.

Rolled Oats, 3c. a lb.

BOSTON BRANCH GROCERY,

Durgin & Merrill's Block, - Quincy.

GEO. AMES,

the ONLY PRACTICAL PLUMBER in the Hardware business in the City. He has a patent SEWER TRAP which cannot be beat. Impossible for deadly sewer gas to enter your homes. See him about your Sewer Connection. He has had three years' experience in Boston and other large cities. Established here in 1889 and still in it. Work done anywhere.

Hardware, Paints and Oils, Putty and Glass, Yacht Supplies, Steam and Gas Fittings. Steam and Hot Air Heaters put in repair for the winter.

ADAMS BUILDING

Furniture Reupholstered.

The increase of business in our upholstery department necessitates the adding of additional skilled upholsterers.

We are now well prepared to attend to your work and give it prompt attention.

Furniture reupholstered. Carpets taken up, cleaned and relaid. Window Shades to order. Mattresses made over.

Men of experience only.

HENRY L. KINCAIDE & CO.,

Hancock Street, Quincy.

MAKE IT HOT FOR YOU.

If your house is cold and you have become disgusted with the various devices called heaters, and you are really anxious to have warmth and comfort in your home, place an order for one of those G. B. Bates CIRCULATORS.

It will "make it hot for you" or just the temperature you desire. Its construction is based upon scientific and economical principles. Several have recently been put in right here in Quincy, and others will be put in during the next few weeks. Don't read this ad. and then forget about it till your water pipes are all frozen, but go now to

G. B. BATES,

Hancock Street, Quincy.

NOTHING BETTER,

UNCLE SAM'S NAVY

Now commands the respect of the world, and we are all proud of the defenders of the Nation's Honor. To give the people of Quincy a good idea of the grand battleships, we have ordered a large supply of portfolios, giving magnificent views of the ships, crews, etc.

With each purchase made at our store we will give a portfolio check to the value of the purchase. When you have $4.00 worth of these checks, return them and get a portfolio. Continue in this way until you have the set complete. Call and see these magnificent portfolios.

ROGERS BROS.,

Groceries and Provisions. Adams Building, Quincy.

ny earned. The ou get for your the more money e—and earn. We u money—it may n much—but the aving here and now it. But you quality—We save ty or your money

Rolled Oats,
5c. a lb.

OCERY,
- Quincy.

MES,
MBER in the Hards a patent SEWER possible for deadly s. See him about s had three years'
r large cities. Es-ll in it. Work done

Yacht Supplies, Steam and repair for the winter.

LDING increase of business tes the adding of adl to your work and aken up, cleaned and Attresses made over.

DE & CO.,
Quincy.

If your house is cold and u have become disgusted h the various devices called aters, and you are really xious to have warmth and nfort in your home, place order for one of those G.
Bates CIRCULATORS.
mperature you desire. Its onomical principles. Sev-Quincy, and others will be ad this ad. and then for-n, but go now to

TES,
Quincy.

TTER, S NAVY
e are all proud of the defenders Quincy a good idea of the grand portfolios, giving magnificent l give a portfolio check to the orth of these checks, return until you have the set com-

BROS., ams Building, Quincy.

NOTICE TO VOTERS.

CITY OF QUINCY.

For the purpose of preparing the Annual Register of Voters, and of receiving evidence of qualification from persons claiming a right to Vote at the coming State Election, the Board of Registrars of Voters will be in session at the COUNCIL CHAMBER in the City Hall Building, on the evenings of

Wednesday, Sept. 14,
Saturday, Sept. 17,
Thursday, Sept. 29,
Saturday, Oct. 1,
Wednesday, Oct. 5.
Saturday, Oct. 8,
Saturday, Oct. 15,

From 7 to 9 P. M., and also on

Wednesday, Oct. 19,

From 12 o'clock M. until 10 o'clock P. M.

Every applicant for registration must appear in person before the Board, and must present either a certificate from the Assessors or a Tax bill or Notice from the Collector of Taxes, showing that he has been assessed as a resident of the City on the First day of May last; or a certificate from the Assessors that he has been a resident of the City for the six months next preceding the election at which he claims a right to vote. If a naturalized citizen he must also produce for inspection his papers of naturalization. Payment of a poll tax is not a prerequisite to voting.

No person can vote at the election unless his name has previously been placed upon the voting list of the Ward of which he was a resident on the first day of May last, and no name can be added to the list of voters unless registered previous to

Wednesday, Oct. 19th,

at 10 o'clock P. M., when registration will close.

Examine the Voting Lists posted, and see that your name is in its proper place. NO CHANGE can be made after WEDNESDAY, Oct. 19th, at 10 o'clock P. M. The Board of Assessors will be in session at their office on the same evenings.

EDWARD B. MARSH,
CORNELIUS MOYNIHAN,
EDWARD J. McKEON,
EDGAR G. CLEAVES,
Registrars.

Quincy, Sept. 6, 1898. 38t p10-2w

$30,000 TO LOAN
On Real Estate In Quincy
at 5 and 6 per cent. Interest.
HATCH & WILLIS,
172 Main Street, Room 4, Brockton Mass.
Sept. 28. 6t

TO THE FRONT!

RAYMOND'S
FLAG
CIGAR
WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DISTRIBUTOR,
A. G. DURGIN,
QUINCY, MASS.
WM. H. RAYMOND GROCERY CO.
45 and 47 Commercial Street, Boston.

Coal!
Just Received by Barge
Blackbird, a Fresh Cargo
of
Pea Coal
(Small Nut.)
J.F. SHEPPARD & SONS
Quincy Sept. 7.

LAND VALUES

A Transcript From the Books of the Assessors.

Number of Feet in Each Lot and Valuation Thereof.

Also the Amount of Each Person's Tax Bill for 1898.

[Continued from yesetrday.]

Something new in the publication of the taxpayers of the city is attempted this year by the Daily Ledger. There is considerable interest in the assessed value of land in the city, which is claimed to be high in some cases and low in others. So the Ledger has supplemented the amount of the tax bill in each ward with the value of each lot of land for which the person is taxed, giving in each case the number of square feet or acreage.

The amount given in the line with the person's name is his total ward tax, and may include houses, personal property, etc., in addition to the lots of land below. The Ledger gives only the valuation of the land.

To obtain a person's total tax in the city, add together the amounts paid in the several wards.

The Ledger commenced the publication Aug. 30, and has already published the land values of all persons whose names begin with A to G, and today's instalment is the third of the H's :

WARD ONE.

Valuation of Land Only.	Total Ward Tax.
Hersey, Ellen M.	$53 10
5,040 feet, Canal street, $750.
Hersey, John W.	142 40
15,100, Coddington, $3,000.
Hearn, Charles C.	46 00
Hicks, Lillian	47 60
5,000, Spear, $900.
Hill, Joseph H.	6 30
5,000, Manet ave., $250.
Hitchcock, George H.	165 80
9,120, Foster, $2,400.
Hobart, Caroline S. and Mary A. H. Crane,	171 00
29,970, Chestnut, $6,500.
Hodges, William A.	247 70
7,477, Hancock, $3,200.
5,863, Elm $700.
7,370, " $900.
Hodges, William A., tr.,	340 20
15,650, Hancock, $11,500.
Hodgkinson, B. F.	243 20
3-4 acre, Bickell, $400.
21 acres, " $4,200.
15 " salt marsh, $900.
2 " $200.
16 " Palmer, $3,200.
Hodgkinson, Charles C.	184 50
28 acres, Darrow, $8,000.
7 " salt marsh, $400.
Hodgkinson, Michael, est.,	19 80
3-4 acre, Bicknell, $400.
Hodgkinson, William F.	30 80
12,120, Bicknell, $400.

WARD TWO.

Hersey, Eliza A., est.,	$46 80
22,660 feet, Washington street,	$1,300.
Hersey, Mrs. Jacob	26 10
11,420, Washington court, $450.
Hersey, Rachel E.	23 40
8,480, Washington, $300.
Higgins, Abbie J.	93 15
7,500, Edison, $525.
9,310, Washington, $1,000.
Higgins, Daniel	38 00
9,820, South, $500.
Hill, Fred P.	43 40
6,450, Edison park, $500.
Hobart, Frank	48 35
9,726, Mill, $600.
Hobart, Mary and Mary E. Tisdale,	32 40
96,150, Washington, $800.
Hodgkinson, Edith	26 10
13,828, Silver, $550.

WARD THREE.

Hernan, Bridget N.	$21 15
6,840 feet, Mt. Pleasant, $275.
Hernan, Michael, est.,	59 40
1-4 acre, Summer, $700.
Hobart, Charles A.	8 30
9,431, Bennington, 350.
Hobart, Elisha	65 00
12,460, Pearl, $900.
Hobart, Hattie A.	19 80
8,298, Goddard, $500.
Hobart, Mary F.	67 50
63,620, Franklin, $1,500.
Hobart, Marcus M.	49 25
1 acre, Independence ave., $1,200.
Hobart, William, est.,	15 30
1-4 acre, High, $300.

WARD FOUR.

Herbert, Charles	$70 40
8,000 feet, Filbert street, $300.
Hermanson, John and Emma S. Larson,	34 20
6,600, Buckley, $300.
Heuss, Elizabeth,	28 80
4,516, Willard, $300.
Hicks, Silas	58 50
2-3 acre, Robertson, $800.
Hitchcock, George H.	675 00
5 acres, Quarry, $25,000.
Hinchon, Elizabeth A.	28 80
12,373, Miller, $1,000.
Hodges, William A.	18 00
38,405, Willard, $700.
Hodgkinson, F. T.	7 40
7,217, Common, $300.

WARD FIVE.

Headman, Gustaf A. and Carl A. Carlson,	$36 90
3,500 feet, Eustis street, $250.
Hemaiger, Charles J.	36 20
5,000, Safford, $400.
Hewitson, Richard S.	102 60
11,250, Grand View ave., $1,500.
11,250, " " " $1,650.
Hewitson, Edward, est.,	405 00
5,000, Brook, $500.
5,000, " $500.
5,000, Lot 9, Blk. F, Sec. 6,	$1,200.
5,000, " 10, " " " "	$1,000.
5,000, " 11, " " " "	$700.
14,780, Newport ave.,	$4,000.
11,400, Lot 7, Blk. 7, Sec. 1,	$1,500.
Hey, Israel,	40 50
3,750, Everett, $250.
Higgins, Mary F.	55 80
5,625, Lincoln ave., $700.
Hirtle, Lemuel K.	6 30
4,200, Beach, $350.
Hirtle, Jacob J.	38 70
4,200, Beach, $350.
Hislop, Mrs. Catherine A.	55 80
5,000, Lot 19, Blk. 11, Sec. 6,	$350.
5,000, " 18, " " " "	$350.

WARD SIX.

Henderson, Matthew	$51 50
5,280, Atlantic, $550.
Higgins, Mrs. Annie A.	4 50
2,500, Botolph, $250.
Hinkley, Cynthia P. W.	77 40
16,434, Billings, $1,800.
Hinkley, Louisa B.	201 60
33,674, Billings, $4,000.
Hill, Agnes C.	21 15
4,147, Clive, $475.
Hill, George W.	50 15
2,675, Walker, $525.
Hislop, Mrs. Catherine T.	22 50
6,920, Old Colony, $450.
Hodges, William A.	479 70
66,672, Hancock, $7,500.
2 acres, Squantum, $1,600.
5,260, Hodges ave., $350.
5,000, " " $350.
26,000, " " $1,900.
25,195, salt marsh, $150.
100,069, Hancock, $3,000.
44,335, salt marsh, $400.

[To be continued.]

You should save a file of the Ledger while this list is being printed. We cannot supply back numbers of the paper at 2 cents per copy, but have established this rate: Papers one week old, 5 cents; papers one month old, 10 cents; papers one year old, 25 cents.

WEYMOUTH.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Maybury and Master Howard Maybury of Neponset were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Chubbuck of North Weymouth yesterday.

A party of East Weymouth residents are enjoying the natural beauties of Bethlehem, N. H., this week.

Membership day of the East Weymouth W. C. T. U. will be celebrated in Temperance hall, Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 5.

The annual benefit dance to William Fogarty of East Weymouth was held in the Odd Fellows' Opera House last evening. A large number testified their support to a most worthy cause.

The East Weymouth Reform Club hold an outing at Hockley today.

Monday evening, Steadfast Rebekah lodge, East Weymouth, will hold a five-cent supper in the rooms at 6.30.

The Ladies' Social Circle of the M. E. church, East Weymouth, will meet Wednesday afternoon and evening in the church vestry. Supper at 6.30. An excellent musical entertainment has been arranged by the committee in charge.

The Loyal Temperance Legion of East Weymouth will meet the second and fourth Sundays of each month.

Tomorrow will be rally Sunday at the M. E. church Sunday school, East Weymouth.

The 2.35 race at South Weymouth yesterday was won by Hal Douglas in 2.29 1-4. Maranda took the 2 50 class in 2.31 3-4, and Tom Arnold has won two and W. L. one in the 2.25 class.

The engine house in Ward Two has been newly painted.

The Weymouth High School Alumni association will meet Friday evening, Oct. 14, for the purpose of adopting the constitution and forming a permanent organization.

The Weymouth Historical society outing Saturday, Oct. 8.

Weymouth fair closes tonight after a successful year.

The Monday Club holds its first meeting of the season at Temple of Honor Hall, East Weymouth, Oct. 3.

It is rumored that the Q. & B. R. R. Co. will remove all poles from East Weymouth to Quincy Bridge and erect more modern supporters.

Mr. F. D. Tirrell of Weymouth Centre has accepted a position with E. E. Gray & Co., Boston.

Mr. E. L. Thompson of Haverhill, N. H., has been the guest of Mr. Henry Croker at Weymouth Centre. for a few days.

The Sunday evening meetings in the Congregational and M. E. Churches, East Weymouth have been changed to 6 and 7 respectively.

Mr. J. J. Mahoney has returned from his business trip through the mining regions of the West.

—The first session of Norfolk county probate court at Brookline was held Wednesday, the fourth Wednesday of the month. No more sessions will be held at Hyde Park.

FOR SALE.

Bigelow St. Fine New Residence, 9 rooms, bath, laundry, furnace, open plumbing, cemented cellar, fireplace, etc.
R. D. CHASE,
Savings Bank Building.
Quincy, April 8-tf. 9p-tf

THE SOCIAL REALM.

Continued from page 1.

Mr. and Mrs. George F. Perry of 4 Johnson avenue have sent out invitations to the wedding reception of their daughter, Addie Florence, and Mr. Edward Warren Hayden for Tuesday evening, October eleventh, from eight until ten. Mr. Hayden is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert A. Hayden of Howard avenue, Quincy Neck. He is a civil engineer and surveyor and has a good business in Worcester, where the young people are to reside.

* * *

The Hitormissit club will give a reception to C. W. Bates of Wollaston, this year's cup winner at the residence of Mr. Paul Nixon, Middle street, Braintree, this evening, from 8 to 10.30. A limited number of invitation have been extended to friends of the club.

* * *

More weddings are announced this week.

* * *

Cards are out for the wedding of Miss Elizabeth Estelle Adams, daughter of Mrs. Eunice Adams of Hingham and Rev. Frederick Louis Cleveland, at the Baptist church, Hingham, on Tuesday evening, Oct. 11, at half after seven.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Cone and daughter, of Braintree, have returned from a month's visit to relatives in Maine.

* * *

Mrs. Walter T. Babcock, Mrs. A. G. Durgin, Mrs. William I. Barker and Mrs. Richard R. Freeman are to be the matrons of Miss Hayward's Saturday morning's dancing class at Colonial hall.

* * *

The Unitarian church has been freshened up and regular services have been resumed. Tomorrow Mr. Butler will preach after an absence of two months in Europe and his parishioners will be glad to see him in his pulpit once more, for he has been much missed.

* * *

Last winter several ladies had season tickets for matinees at the Castle Square theatre and this year even more have become regular patrons. Friday afternoon seems to be the favorite day with Quincy ladies.

* * *

Mrs. Thurston Damon of Plymouth, with her little daughter and maid, are spending a few weeks at Wollaston, the guests of Mr. Damon's sister, Mrs C. K. Crane.

* * *

The People's course of entertainments were so popular last winter many are asking if they are to be repeated the coming season.

* * *

Milton Academy foot ball games are announced as follows: Roxbury Latin, Oct. 19; Nobles and Greenough, Nov. 1; Nobles and Greenough and Roxbury Latin, Nov. 9; Nobles and Greenough, Nov. 14; Nobles and Greenough and Roxbury Latin, Nov. 23.

* * *

Mrs. Emma Follansbee Goodwin has returned to her home in Lexington, after spending the summer in Europe.

* * *

Harper's magazine will shortly publish an article by Mr. Sylvester Baxter, on "The Longest Trolley Ride in the world." The trip described is from Newport, R. I., to Nashua, N. H., over a beautiful stretch of country, and can easily be accomplished in a day. Quincy should have an important place in the article as four miles of the way is through the heart of the City of Presidents.

The Rally day at the Atlantic Methodist church promises to be of special interest this year, as a speaker of very marked ability has been secured, Dr. A. A. Wright of Auburndale. Dr. Wright is dean of the Boston Correspondence school, but is much more than a scholar. His pulpit ability is quite as marked as his scholarly attainments. None of the Atlantic people can afford to miss hearing this man. The service begins at 10.45. Special music has been prepared and a good time generally is expected.

MISS HAYWARD
OF BRAINTREE
WILL OPEN A
Dancing Class for Children
IN COLONIAL HALL, QUINCY,
Saturday Morning, Oct. 8
From Ten to Twelve o'clock.
The first lesson for classification.

Matrons—Mrs. Walter T. Babcock, Mrs. A. G. Durgin, Mrs. William P. Barker, Mrs. Richard R. Freeman.
Oct. 1. 2t 1, 5

BRAINTREE.

Mr. R. E. Belcher is attending the Boston University Law school.

Rev. A. A. Ellsworth entertained the choir of the First church in the church parlor on Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Stowe of Biddeford, Me., were guests of Mrs. Clough on Taylor street this week.

Crushed stone is being put on Elm street near the Braintree crossing and the steam roller will complete the work.

Rev. W. H. Allen, formerly of the South Braintree M. E. church, was given a cordial welcome among his old friends here, Tuesday afternoon.

The school teachers were paid off yesterday. See them smile?

Comer's College foot ball team defeated Thayer yesterday by a score of 18. to 8.

Miss Florence Elliott now has the position at the Monatiquot which was resigned by Miss West.

The East Braintree Boys Brigade will hold a grand gala day today. They will patade and indulge in games and a lawn party.

The contract for two torpedo boat destroyers arrived at the Fore River engine works Tuesday and the grand boom is now on.

Miss Pray and Miss Hill of the Kindergarten school are visiting Miss Gray's training classes in Boston every Friday afternoon.

Mr. Fred M. Buzzell spent last Saturday and Sunday with his aged father and mother at Holderness, N. H., returning on Monday.

It has been deemed best to postpone the first meeting of the Union Choral society to the second Wednesday evening in October at 7.30.

The M. E. church ladies gave a fine supper and entertainment at Red Men's hall, Wednesday evening. It was well attended and much enjoyed.

Miss Anna Boynton Thompson of Thayer Academy has prepared a Greek history which is about to be placed among modern text books.

Quite a number of the Baptists attended the 50th anniversary of the Boston South Association held at Clarendon street church, in Boston, Wednesday.

Mrs. E. Bradford, who has been quite sick at her home on Central street, passed away Thursday morning. The funeral services will take place Sunday, at 3 o'clock.

Herbert E. Tuttle of South Framingham, but formerly of South Braintree, and who joined the 6th Massachusetts Regiment and has seen service in Porto Rico, was one of the sick ones brought home on the Bay State. He was taken to the City Hospital, Boston, and is rapidly recovering.

Braintree had two lively town meetings on hand Thursday evening and one of them was disposed of in about an hour and a half, but the other was a more obstinate affair and is evidently about as hard to kill as the proverbial cat of nine lives.

The Ladies' Aid society connected with the South M. E. church held a very successful supper and entertainment in Red Men's hall, Wednesday evening. About 150 sat down to a fine supper. Following the supper an excellent entertainment was rendered consisting of intrumental music. A feature was the selections given by Hollis orchestra. A neat sum was realized for the benefit of the church.

TODAY'S COURT.

John S. Bowley was arraigned for the larceny of six fowl, valued at $6, from Peter S. Burns at Milton. Bowley admitted his guilt, but said he was intoxicated at the time. He was fined $10.

William Conroy was fined $5 for drunkenness at Weymouth. He was also arraigned for disturbing the peace on an electric car, and was fined $10.

James H. O'Brien was arraigned for drunkenness at Randolph. Case continued until Oct. 15.

The continued case of Horace Notingham for presuming to be a common victualler at Weymouth was called, and he was fined $100. Appealed.

Harvey H. Joselyn was arraigned for the illegal keeping of intoxicating liquor at Weymouth. Case continued until Oct. 4.

GRAND OPENING
OF
Fall and Winter Millinery
Thursday,
Friday,
Saturday,
October 6, 7 and 8,
AT
Miss B. J. Patterson's Millinery Parlors
At the Boston Bargain Store.

A choice and complete stock of all the latest and most desirable goods for this season,
All are cordially invited.
Music Hall Building, Quincy.
Oct. 1. tfpl

the danger is in the neglect— that's why so many colds lead to a fatal disease.

HALE'S HONEY OF HOREHOUND AND TAR

Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar is made for throat and lung troubles. It acts like magic. Sold by druggists.

Pike's Toothache Drops cure in one minute.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS.

Advertisements in this column inserted at the following rates:

Four lines, or less, one day, - - 25 cents.
" " three days, - - - 50 cents.
" " one week, - - - - 75 cents.

Additional lines will be charged for pro rata. Seven words equal a line. Long term rates furnished on application.

WANTED.

WANTED—Board and room in a private family near the centre, by a young married couple. Address "X," Ledger office. Quincy, Oct. 1. 3t

WANTED—Quincy & Boston R. R. Co. Stock wanted for investment; ten or more shares; state lowest figures. Address "POTTER," Ledger office. Oct. 1—6t

WANTED—Competent Swede girl for general housework. Apply at 13 Spear street, fifth house below Public Library. 1ptf

WANTED—Girl, willing and capable to take care of children and assist as second girl. MRS. GEO. H. BROWN, 44 Elm street, Quincy. sep28 tf

WANTED — Experienced Salesman for Lubricating Oils, Greases and specialties: Salary or Commission. Equitable Refining Co., Cleveland, O. Sept. 29—7t-eod

SALESMAN WANTED—To call on neighboring physicians. Goods of highest class. Exclusive territory. Good opening for energetic, intelligent man. Address LEA, Room 512, No. 111 Fifth Ave., New York. Oct. 1—1t

AGENT WANTED—Local or regularly covering this ground. Free samples. Several earn from $20 up, weekly cash. Mill, P. O. 1371, New York. oct1-1t

WANTED—Quincy & Boston R. R. Co. Stock wanted for investment; ten or more shares; state lowest figures. Address "POTTER," Ledger office. Sept. 28—3t

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—House and large lot of land at 139 Granite street. Appply to JAMES B. FLETCHER, 33 Garfield street. Quincy, Sept. 23.—tf 24 tf

TO LET.

TO LET—Cottage house, No. 20 Granite street, 8 rooms, three minutes' from City Square. Apply to H. M. FAXON, 4 Adams Building. Sept. 30—tf

WANTED—First-class Pants and Vest maker and bushel girl. Apply to D. BAMFORD. Sept. 30—3t

LAND TO LET—The lot now occupied by George S. Paterson on Brackett street, will be leased for a term of years if desired. HENRY H. FAXON. Sept. 29—6t

TO LFT—Half a House of 5 rooms entirely separate on Phipps street, Mt. Pleasant. Rent, $8 a month; city water. Inquire at 17 Summer street. Quincy, Sept. 27. 6t

FOR RENT—Desirable house with bath, corner lot, nice neighborhood, three minutes' walk from schools, churches and depot Rent reasonable. Apply at No. 6 Pleasant St. Quincy, Sept. 7. tf

TO LET—Lower half of house on Foster street, centre of the town. All modern improvements. Fine opportunity for small family. Enquire of E. B. SOUTHER, No. 1 Granite street, Quincy. Aug. 11—tf

TO LET—Furnished room with furnace heat and bath. Apply at 27 Chestnut street, Quincy.

TO LET.

APARTMENTS of five large rooms and bath, with all modern improvements. Also two large stores. Rent moderate. Apply to ARTHUR CRAIG, or J. W. HAYDEN, at Craig Building, cor. Copeland and Garfield Sts. Quincy, July 15. pl tf

B. F. CURTIS,

40 Elm Street, Quincy.

Houses for Rent and for Sale.

TO LET—House of 6 rooms on Elm Place, near Universalist church; city water. Rent, $12.50 per month.

TO LET—Half House on Union street of 4 rooms in good repair; city water. Rent, $8 per month.

Building, Elm Place, suitable for barn or storage, $4.00 per month.

TO LET.

If you have a vacant tenement, advertise the fact in the Daily Ledger. We are confident it will be let within two months, and to substantiate the claim, we will advertise it after two months. To take advantage of this offer payment must be made before the expiration of the two months. A four-line space until your house is let will cost only $5 at the outside. You cannot afford on these terms to let the house continue vacant.

FREE

WHEREFORE THE ROSES FADED.

[Adapted from the Greek of Philostratus.]
What hath befallen, tell it me,
The roses that I sent to thee?
For ere thou didst receive my posies
They still were fair and still were—roses,
And certes I could never send
A worthless guerdon to my friend.

Why, when thou hadst them, did they lose
Their scent, or what hath marred their hues?
The reason true I know not well,
For what it was they would not tell,
But this, I think, they could not bear
Comparison with one so fair,
And, touching thee, whose fragrant bloom
Outbragged their own, they met their doom.

So when the little lamp is lit
The blazing fire doth vanquish it,
And when they cannot face the sun
The stars are blinded every one!
—Percy L. Osborn in Fortnightly Review.

TWO WEDDING RINGS

I had just heard the whistle of the postman at the door and leaned over the banisters to inquire of my landlady if there were any letters for me.

There was no immediate response to my query, and I inferred from the suspicious silence that either Mrs. Metcalfe or her daughter was inspecting my letters, probably reading the postcards, if there were any.

That is very often a peculiarity of landladies' daughters, as people who are compelled to board well know. Again I asked:

"Mrs. Metcalfe, are there any letters for me? I expect a letter of some importance."

"Coming, sir—coming!" replied Matilda, her daughter, as the latter slowly ascended the stairs, gazing very interestedly at a postcard.

In a few moments more she arrived at my landing, on the second floor, and gave to me a letter, two postcards and a newspaper.

"I thought that you were inspecting my correspondence," I said sarcastically.

"What! I? Oh, Mr. Belton, I would never think of such a thing." And she went down stairs, tossing her head like an enraged Shetland pony.

One was a card from my tailor to notify me of his removal; one from Louis Durande to tell me that he could not keep a certain engagement with me, and a letter from Percy Cresmer, who had warmed his slippers at the same college fire with me scarcely three years ago.

His epistle ran thus:

DEAR BELTON—I claim your congratulations. I am to be married next week to the sweetest girl the sun ever shone upon. There's surprise No. 1 for you. And I wish you'd go to Silverman, the jeweler, and get the wedding ring, size inclosed on a bit of paper. There's surprise No. 2. Seriously, old fellow, it will do me a great favor, for business matters here are complicated in such a way that I cannot hope to get to the city a day before the event, and of course I know that I can trust your taste and judgment equally with my own. Have the words "Helen, 1896," engraved on the inside, and please send by post without delay. Ever yours faithfully,

PERCY CRESMER.

P. S.—She is an angel.

"Well," said I to myself, laying down my old chum's rapturous letter, "here's a pretty commission for a bachelor. An angel, is she? I don't believe she's any more angelic than Pauline Brooks. But every man thinks his own goose a swan. I pity the poor fellow, I'm sure. He's clearly in a state of glamour that makes him see everything couleur de rose. But I'm not one to desert a friend at a pinch. I'll buy his miserable wedding ring with the greatest pleasure in life."

So I locked my desk, put on my overcoat and went straightway to Silverman's.

Jones was behind the counter. I knew Jones. I had bought a gold bracelet of him for Pauline Brooks six months ago. Jones was a dapper little fellow, with stiffly waxed mustache, a cameo scarfpin and hair bedewed with some ambrosial perfume or other.

"Wedding rings, if you please," said I, plunging at once into the object of my visit. Here's the size," producing my slip of paper.

"Any inscription, sir?" questioned Jones, assuming so preternaturally knowing an aspect that I could cheerfully have pitched him in among the plated ware in the big glass showcase behind him.

"Helen," said I brusquely, "1896."

"Emma, sir?" Jones put his hand behind his ear to assist his hearing.

"Helen," I bawled out, painfully conscious that the eyes of the three pretty girls who were at the counter beyond were upon me.

"Very pretty name," simpered Jones as he wrote down the order. "Any particular style?"

"Simple and solid," said I; "that's all."

"Yes, sir. It shall be attended to at once. Shall I send it to your residence, or"—

"I'll call for it tomorrow," said I.

"Pardon me, Mr. Belton," cried Mr. Silverman, who had overheard a portion of our colloquy, "but if it wouldn't be taking a liberty, might I inquire whether you intend to keep house or take apartments?"

"What?" ejaculated I.

"To keep house or take apartments?" reiterated Mr. Silverman. "Because in the former case we should esteem it a favor to supply the silver and table ware."

I muttered some not particularly complimentary answer, and went out of the shop, closing the door behind me with some emphasis.

"Going to be married, eh, old chap?" said Bill West, a stockbroker, familiarly thrusting his elbow into my side, as I strolled into Gatti's for my lunch that day.

"No!" said I, taking up the bill of fare.

"Oh, come, don't deny the soft impeachment," said West, with a wink.

"What has put such an idea as that into your head?" demanded I, somewhat indignantly.

"And her name's Helen," said West, with an idiotic giggle. "Waiter, a half bottle of Mumm! Let's drink her health, Belton, when"—

At this stage I pretended to see some one whom I knew at an opposite table, and bolted across the room.

Old Mr. Jessup was trotting across Hyde park when I unexpectedly came face to face with him.

"Hello!" said Mr. Jessup, turning upon me the moony glare of two spectacled eyes. "What's this I hear about you, my dear young friend? Accept my congratulations. Matrimony is always a blessed condition, and"—

"Oh, yes; I don't doubt it," I hurriedly interrupted, "but—a—there's some mistake about it"—

"Miss what did you say?" said old Mr. Jessup beamingly. "Call round this evening and tell us all about it. There's a good fellow. I haven't time to listen just now!"

I could have torn my hair with rage. Mr. Jessup was Pauline Brooke's uncle and guardian, and I knew that my chances in that direction would be all off if once the fatal story of the wedding ring got to Pauline's ears.

I crossed the park and hurried up Regent street, mentally gnashing my teeth, and in my impetuous haste had nearly stumbled over Pauline herself just coming out of a florist's with a tiny boutonniere of violets in her hand.

"Pauline!" cried I rapturously.

But Pauline drew back the least little distance in the world, thereby putting an invisible barrier between us that froze me like an icicle.

"Dear me, Mr. Belton, is it you?" said Pauline. "I congratulate you, I am sure."

"Upon what?" I demanded, growing desperate.

"Upon your approaching marriage, to be sure," said Pauline, with a smile like auroral lights hovering over a snowbank.

"But I'm not going to be married," protested I.

"Oh, excuse me, pray. Gentlemen do not usually buy wedding rings without a purpose," interposed Pauline. "Only I should think you might have paid such old friends as we are the compliment of some slight intimation of your impending marriage."

"Pauline," said I, "Miss Brooks, hear me. There is only one woman in the world I would care to marry, and she stands before me now."

Pauline's lips quivered—the tears sparkled in her eyes.

"Mr. Belton," said she, "you may regard all this as a very fine joke, but surely it is not necessary to add any more insult to it"—

"Do you mean that you don't believe me?"

"How can I believe you?" retorted she.

Driven to a sort of frenzy, I dragged Percy Cresmer's letter from my pocket.

"Pauline," said I, "read that, and you will have a solution of the mystery of the wedding ring."

Her face cleared up as she glanced over the contents of poor Cresmer's ecstatic missive.

"Poor fellow!" said she. "He's very much in love, isn't he?"

"Not half as much as I am," said I.

And then in the smilax bordered shadow of the florist's shop I pressed my suit.

"Dear Pauline, let me order another wedding ring."

"For whom?" demanded my ladylove.

"For you. I have loved you for a long time, but I never had the courage to avow my love before, dear Pauline."

"Hush!" said Pauline. "We mustn't stand talking here."

"I won't stir a step until you answer me."

"What shall I say?" hesitated Pauline.

"Say yes."

I ordered the duplicate wedding ring that very night. Pauline said it was too soon, but I quoted the ancient proverb, "Delays are dangerous." And we are to be married in a month. And if it hadn't been for the providential commission of Cresmer's wedding ring I might still have been shivering on the brink of an unspoken proposal. "Blessed be wedding rings," say I.—Spare Moments.

Victor Hugo In Exile.

I live near the sea in a house built 60 years ago by an English privateer and called Hauteville House. I, a representative of the people and an exiled soldier of the French republic, pay droit de poulage every year to the queen of England, sovereign lady of the Channel islands, as Duchess of Normandy and my feudal suzerain. This is one of the curious results of exile.

I live a retired life here with my wife, my daughter and my two sons, Charles and Francois. A few exiles have joined me, and we make a family party. Every Tuesday I give a dinner to 15 little children, chosen from among the most poverty stricken of the island, and my family and I wait on them. I try by this means to give this feudal country an idea of equality and fraternity. Every now and then a friend crosses the sea and pays me a visit. These are our gala days. I have some dogs, some birds, some flowers. I hope next year to have a small carriage and a horse. My pecuniary circumstances, which had been brought to a very low ebb by the coup d'etat, have been somewhat improved by my book "Les Miserables." I get up early, I go to bed early, I work all day, I walk by the sea, I have a sort of natural armchair in a rock for writing at a beautiful spot called Firmain bay, I do not smoke, I eat roast beef like an Englishman and I drink beer like a German, which does not prevent the Espana, a clerical newspaper of Madrid, from asserting that Victor Hugo does not exist and that the real author of "Les Miserables" is called satan.—Letters of Victor Hugo.

Growing Old.

He—Carrie, you don't seem to care so much for me as you did when we were first married.

She—As for that matter, I don't think so much of my hat as I did when I got it just before Easter.—Boston Transcript.

OUR WEEKLY FASHION PLATE.

FRENCH AUTUMN GOWN OF BROWN CASHMERE FROM HARPER'S BAZAR

A gown of light brown cashmere, trimmed in tunic fashion, is most characteristic of what is new in winter modes. Narrow guipure over black velvet follows the line of the double shaped ruffle, the latter appearing as a continuation of the bodice, while over the shoulders is a circular bretelle. The jacket part beneath is cut in a sharp point above the waist line, disclosing a vest and belt of velvet in the new tone of ruby red. This little waistcoat opens over a chemisette of Irish lace. The bretelle broadens at the shoulder, rendering more graceful the top of the plain close sleeve, then is divided at the back below the high straight collar.

The skirt very smooth over the hips, has no pleat or shirrings at the waist line, the back breadths being sloped outward in fan effect, and falling into natural folds. The width of the skirt at the foot is four yards. The proper cut of this gown can be obtained only by the use of the cut paper patterns furnished by Harper's Bazar, where the gown appears.

In many French gowns the stiffening in skirts is now replaced by overlapping ruffles on the upper and under sides of a shaped flounce of the foundation skirt and soft wool linings are sometimes substituted for the silk or satin. But for ordinary wear a narrow band of hair cloth or light weight canvas is still the usual interlining to either the gown or underskirt, according to the material and style of the dress.

Quantity of material for gown—cashmere, 8 1-2 yards, velvet, 3-4 yard; lace, 1 yard; guipure and velvet trimming. 6 yards,

CURTAIN RAISERS.

Mme. Rhea is reported to be dying of cancer.

Courtenay Thorpe is in Ellen Terry's support.

Ethel Winthrop is with Sol Smith Russell's company.

Julie Opp will appear in London in "A Man of Forty."

Della Fox's new operatic comedy is entitled "The Little Joker."

Walter Perkins is doing big business with "My Friend From India."

Charles Dalton will again play Marcus Superbus in "The Sign of the Cross."

"A Dangerous Maid" follows "Yankee Doodle Dancy" at the New York Casino.

Harry Woodruff is the latest vaudeville star. He appears in "A Bit of Business."

Harry Conor, who plays the title role in "A Stranger In New York," is a Boston boy.

"A Misfit Marriage," the latest farce by Du Souchet, will be produced Oct. 3 at Washington.

Edgar L. Davenport has been re-engaged for the Columbus theater (New York) stock company.

Mary Hampton will be starred in a new play after the holidays under the direction of Jacob Litt.

Grace P. Atwell has gone to Cleveland to accept a position as leading lady of a stock company there.

"Mr. Jersey," or rather Lily Langtry, is to return to the stage. The race track is all right, but the stage is better.

WOMEN'S WAYS.

Why don't some of the married women look as pretty as the widows?

No girl should go away to school after she is old enough to powder her face.

A woman isn t as economical as she might be unless she makes her children's nightgowns of flour sacks.

Nothing makes a man quite so mad as to offer to help his wife and then be told that she can get along better without him.

An Atchison woman whose husband refuses to let her give parties is compelled to move every year in order to let people see her new furniture.

Whenever a woman looks at her parlor she sees a vacant place that could be just filled by a certain piece of furniture down town which she admires.—Atchison Globe.

MATRIMONIAL DON'TS.

Don't marry the woman who would rather nurse a pug dog than a baby.

Don't marry the woman who would rather die than wear a bonnet two seasons old.

Don't marry the woman who wants things just because "other women" have them.

Don't marry the woman who buys bric-a-brac for the best room and borrows kitchen utensils from her neighbors.

FASHION AND FABRIC.

"Wilhelmina" jackets, hats, ties, capes and costumes are now appearing.

Surplice effects are much used on the bodices of silk and satin wedding gowns.

Rounding fronts, arching back toward the hips, represent one of the new features of stylish jackets and coats accompanying the newest tailor costumes.

Velvets are assured of a great success in the seasons of 1898 and 1899 for the making of costumes entire, for redingotes, skirts, wraps, waist combinations, millinery, etc.

The princess shape will be much used, both for dressy day and evening toilets, this autumn, and nothing could be more perfect than the fit and outline of some of the newest models.

There is a great demand for both the standard and fancy materials in black, and this fall they are brought out in very many different weaves, either in all wool or in silk and wool mixtures.

Black gowns of lovely transparent or semidiaphanous weaves over silk or satin and in heavier materials for day wear will take high place in the ranks of fashion for the two seasons before us.

The deeply pointed peplum overskirts of the season do not always match the underskirt and, if preferred, can be made of entirely different fabric. Therefore it may prove most desirable for remodeling gowns.

Victoria cords, bayadere silks, in black and dark rich autumn colorings, grosgrain, faille, bengaline, imperial reps—in fact, all the lustrous corded silks—are in high vogue, both for gowns entire and for combination uses.

Mohair braid in various widths and buttons of graded size trim the skirts and bodices of rough dress fabrics, and silk braid and small tailor buttons ornament the costumes made of finer weaves of wool and silk and wool materials.

Faille, bengaline, victoria reps and many other lustrous corded silks are brought out in charming variety, and these are used alike for entire gowns, fancy waists, capes, coats and for stylish combination toilets and costumes.—New York Post.

THE SICK MAN.

We hope that the news is true that the old Turk is at last to be made to pay up for the damage done to Americans in Armenia. This plain duty, this most legitimate use of our navy, has been neglected for years.—New York Post.

The sultan's unrivaled collection of ultimatums has been enriched by a note from Mr. McKinley warning him frankly that he cannot repudiate any part of the responsibility for the American losses in the Armenian butcheries.—New York World ☞ Pictures. Hundreds of the choicest framed pictures you have ever seen. 75 cents to $2.50. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Topic For the Week Beginning Oct. 2. Comment by Rev. S. H. Doyle.

TOPIC.—"Trials and how to bear them."—Isa. xli, 8-20.

"Man is born to trouble as the sparks fly upward." Who in the wide, wide world has escaped trials? Who has not been borne down by them? Who has not often felt that the trials of life were too heavy to be borne? Who has not in anguish and sorrow cried out, "Is there anything that will help me bear the trials of life?" Some try to bear their own trials. They keep their troubles safely locked in their own minds and hearts. To the world they appear free from care, destitute of trials. Within their hearts are breaking and their minds weakening under heavy burdens and trials. Some people cast their burdens upon others. They make the lives of all about them miserable with a constant recitation of their personal tribulations and a constant demand for sympathy. Trials are to be borne in part by ourselves. We should not without effort give way to them, but exercise all our powers to control them. We should in the proper way seek the sympathy and help of our friends in our times of trouble, but above everything else we need to learn practically that God in Christ "is our refuge and our strength, a very present help in trouble," and therefore to cast our care upon Him, for He careth for us.

That God will help us to bear the trials of life is the lesson of the Scriptural reference. Through the prophet Isaiah God is promising to Israel protection and support through the troublous period that is approaching. These words apply equally to all God's people, and we may therefore find comfort and help in them.

1. God helps us to bear trials by being with us. "Fear thou not, for I am with thee; be not dismayed, for I am thy God." How the presence of a strong, sympathizing friend assists us in bearing trials, and specially should this be so when that friend is our God!

2. God helps us to bear trials by strengthening us. "I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea I will uphold thee with the right hand of My righteousness!" God strengthens us for the trials of life. Through Christ, that strengtheneth us, we cannot only do all things, but bear all things. His grace is sufficient for us. Our weakness is made strong in His strength.

3. God helps us to bear trials by weakening them. To Israel He says, "They that war against thee shall be as nothing and as a thing of naught." God weakens our trials. He tempers the storm to the shorn lamb. Our trials are not above our ability to bear them; therefore let us come to God in time of trouble and in the hour of trial.

Bible Readings.—Deut. xxxi, 6-8; Josh. i, 9; Ps. xxxvii, 5; xlvi, 1-3; lv, 22; Isa. xliii, 1-3; Math. v, 4; vi, 24-34; xi, 28; xxviii, 19, 20; Gal. vi, 2; Phil. iv, 6; Heb. xiii, 5; I Pet. v, 6, 7.

Love and Likeness.

Sympathy begets love, and love begets likeness. That is the very essence of Christian morals. To feel for and suffer with Christ results in a knowledge of Christ and a love for Christ. Men always become more or less like that which they love. The virtues which the saint laboriously cultivates soften and dignify his countenance. Those who love Christ become like Him. They have dwelt so long on the beauty of that marvelous life, they have so honestly striven to share the sufferings of that life, to triumph over the power of sin, to be meek, charitable and patient and to contemplate with tranquillity the prospect of death, that they become in their feeble way like Christ, and every well spent Lent will bring them nearer and nearer to Him.—Churchman.

In Wartimes.

Our nation will have need to pray for sustaining grace. The calamities of war will strike with far greater force in our homes than on the battlefield. There one may fall, but at the fireside a half dozen will be so prostrate that death would be a relief. Old conditions must pass away. The selfish spirit must go into the vicarious. The nation's woes must, through the grace of God, be subsidized to good account. They must not be lost as a purifying agency, but through revival efforts become a revenue toward sustaining the nation's heart amid her baptism of blood.—Presbyterian.

Cherish an Ideal.

No one can cherish an ideal and devote himself to its realization from year to year and strive and struggle and make sacrifices for its attachment without undergoing a certain gracious transformation, of which the highest powers must be aware and men can hardly miss.—John White Chadwick.

God Guide Aright.

God guide aright our republic and its fearless president, so that righteousness and justice prevail and foes who imperil freedom be forever silenced.—Jewish Messenger.

Till He Come.

"Till He come"—oh, let the words
Linger on the trembling chords;
Let the little while between
In their golden light be seen;
Let us think how heaven and home
Lie beyond that "Till He come."

When the weary ones we love
Enter on their rest above,
Seems the earth so poor and vast,
All our life joy overcast.
Hush! Be every murmur dumb!
It is only—till He come.

Clouds and conflicts round us press.
Would we have one sorrow less?
All the sharpness of the cross,
All that tells the world is loss,
Death and darkness and the tomb,
Only whisper, "Till He come."

See, the feast of love is spread.
Drink the wine and break the bread—
Sweet memorials—till the Lord
Call us round his heavenly board,
Some from earth, from glory some,
Severed only—till He come.
—Edward Henry Bickersteth.

BOYS' SUITS
THAT SUIT BOYS

Grand Clearance Sale of Boys'
SCHOOL SUITS,
$1.50 to $3.50.
Worth Double the Price.

School begins Tuesday and your boy wants something new. Drop in to our store tonight and see how little money it takes to dress him handsomely.

Granite Clothing Co.
DURGIN & MERRILL'S BLOCK.

The John Hancock Stables.
Opposite Depot, Quincy, Mass.
Boarding, Baiting, Livery and Sale.
DR. J. A. DOW, Proprietor,
the well known Veterinary dentist and specialist in the treatment of lame horses. Sick horses treated at owner's risk.
The finest equipped and managed stable of its size in America.
Fine driving turnouts in light rigs; safe and good appearing. All horses let are perfectly safe for ladies to drive.
The choicest family, road and coach horses constantly on hand for sale. All horses guaranteed as represented.
☞ Will attend to veterinary practice as usual. aug18-1y

1,000 Men Wanted
TO INVEST
From 40 to 50 Dollars per year, for an ENDOWMENT POLICY
guaranteeing $1,000 in 20 years or it will be paid at death occurring within that period at any time.
Other policies at other prices.
Call and investigate.
GEORGE H. FIELD,
INSURANCE,
Durgin & Merrill's Block, Quincy

Meadow Brook Ice.

THE WAY
We Do Our Business.
POLITE, COURTEOUS DRIVERS
Who do not damage your chest.
25c. per 100 lbs.
Telephone Connection.

Mortgagee's Sale.

PURSUANT to and in execution of the power and authority contained in a certain mortgage deed given by August H. Grosslaub of Quincy, in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, to George Nichol of Plymouth in said Commonwealth, to secure the payment of fifteen hundred dollars ($1500), dated December 15, 1894, and recorded with Norfolk Deeds, libro 727, folio 9, for breach of the condition of said mortgage and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, we shall sell at public auction on the premises hereinafter described, which are those described in said mortgage, on WEDNESDAY, the nineteenth day of October, 1898, at three o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage, namely:

A certain parcel of land with all the buildings thereon, situate in that part of said Quincy known as Wollaston Park, being lot numbered 737 on plan of Charles S. Miller, dated April 10, 1890, and recorded with Norfolk Deeds, book of plans No. 13, page 566, and bounded and described as follows, to wit: Southwesterly by Franklin avenue, fifty (50) feet; northwesterly by lot numbered 736, one hundred (100) feet; northeasterly by lot numbered 726, fifty (50) feet; and southeasterly by lot numbered 738, one hundred (100) feet; containing according to said plan, five thousand (5,000) square feet.

Said premises will be sold subject to any unpaid taxes and assessments. Two hundred dollars ($200) will be required to be paid in cash at the time of sale. For further particulars inquire of George H. Brown, Adams Building, Quincy, Mass.

SARAH N. WOOD,
THOMAS NICHOL,
Executors under the will of George Nichol and present holders of said mortgage.
Plymouth, Mass., Sept. 16, 1898. 17 24 1

YS' SUITS

THAT IT BOYS

d Clearance Sale of Boys'

OOL SUITS,

.50 to $3.50.

Worth Double the Price.

begins Tuesday and your boy mething new. Drop in to our ight and see how little money o dress him handsomely.

ite Clothing Co.

GIN & MERRILL'S BLOCK.

ohn Hancock Stables.

pposite Depot, Quincy, Mass.

g, Baiting, Livery and Sale.

J. A. DOW, Proprietor,

nown Veterinary dentist and specialist eatment of lame horses. Sick horses owner's risk.

st equipped and managed stable of its erica.

ving turnouts in light rigs; safe and aring. All horses let are perfectly safe to drive.

oicest family, road and coach horses on hand for sale. All horses guaranresented.

ill attend to veterinary practice as aug18-1y

0 Men Wanted

TO INVEST

n 40 to 50 Dollars

per year, for an

OWMENT POLICY

ing $1,000 in 20 years or it will be paid occurring within that period at any olicies at other prices.

d investigate.

ORGE H. FIELD,

INSURANCE,

& Merrill's Block, Quincy

adow Brook Ice.

THE WAY

Do Our Business.

TE, COURTEOUS DRIVERS

ho do not damage your chest.

c. per 100 lbs.

elephone Connection.

Mortgagee's Sale.

ANT to and in execution of the er and authority contained in a certain deed given by August H. Grosslaub in the Commonwealth of Massachu- George Nichol of Plymouth in said ealth, to secure the payment of fifteen dollars ($1500), dated December 15, recorded with Norfolk Deeds, libro 9, for breach of the condition of said and for the purpose of fore losing the shall sell at public auction on the ereinafter described, which are those n said mortgage, on WEDNESDAY, enth day of October, 1898, at three the afternoon, all and singular the onveyed by said mortgage, namely: parcel of land with all the buildings situate in that part of said Quincy Wollaston Park, being lot numbered of Charles S. Miller, dated April 10, recorded with Norfolk Deeds, book of 13, page 566, and bounded and de- follows, to wit: Southwesterly by venue, fifty (50) feet; northwesterly bered 736, one hundred (100) feet; rly by lot numbered 726, fifty (50) outheasterly by lot numbered 738, one 00) feet; containing according to ive thousand (5,000) square feet. mises will be sold subject to any nand assessments. Two hundred dollwill be required to be paid in cash of sale. For further particulars inGeorge H. Brown, Adams Building, ass.

SARAH N. WOOD,
THOMAS NICHOL,

nder the will of George Nichol and holders of said mortgage.

, Mass., Sept. 16, 1898. 17 24 1

BROCKTON'S WELFARE

Business Men's Plan to Prevent Industrial Warfare.

Employers Not to Be Hampered In Discharging.

Committees to Fix a Schedule and Deal With Men's Grievances.

Brockton, Oct. 1.—At a special meeting of the board of trade with the advisory board of the Lasters' union last night, a proposition was made and presented to Secretary Smith of the lasters. The latter said he did not wish to take the authority of making a reply, but would present the matter to the union as soon as possible.

During the meeting opinions were expressed to the effect that if the manufacturers were organized the pending difficulties could be discussed to better advantage and with hope of settlement. If the proposition receives the approval of the lasters, the board of trade committee will take steps to induce the manufacturers to organize. The hope was expressed that, pending the final arrangements, the workmen would return to their places in the factories. The proposition is as follows:

1. The manufacturer must be allowed the privilege of hiring and discharging whom he chooses; and the workmen the right to belong to labor organizations or not.
2. The manufacturers to form an association, with a paid secretary and an executive board of nine members.
3. Each factory to have a factory committee, consisting of five members from different departments.
4. The chairman of each factory committee to be a member of the general workmen's committee.
5. The general workmen's committee, to consist of one member from each factory in the association, shall meet once every three months, or oftener if necessary, and act on such grievances as may be presented from different factories by the factory committees.
6. No grievance shall be presented to the general workmen's committee until after passing through the committee of the factory where the supposed grievance exists.
7. It shall be the duty of each factory committee to investigate grievances presented by the workmen and endeavor to make a satisfactory settlement between employer and employe; and only in case where such a settlement cannot be made shall the grievance be presented to the general workmen's committee.
8. The general workmen's committee shall immediately notify in writing the secretary of the Manufacturers' association of any grievance which has been acted upon by said committee, which, in the judgment of the committee, should be presented to the joint executive board of the Manufacturers' association and the general workmen's committee.
9. The executive board of the general workmen's committee shall consist of nine members chosen from among the regular members of the committee.
10. In October of each year the secretary of the joint executive committee of manufacturers and workmen shall call a meeting at which all grievances which have been properly filed with the secretary of the Manufacturers' association shall be acted upon.
11. In case of a tie vote on any question the subject under consideration shall be referred to the state board of arbitration for settlement, and this decision shall be final.
12. The manufacturers in the association shall bind themselves to abide by the decision of the joint executive board of arbitration.
14. The price list, as agreed upon, shall take effect Dec. 1 of each year, and be in operation for one year from that date.

The machine company has sent a circular letter to all the manufacturers in the district, seeking to find out just how they stand in the controversy. The circular states that a representative from the Lasters' union had made a proposition to the machine company, guaranteeing that its machines should be run if the managers would decline to assist the manufacturers in trouble. Agent Shaw states that it is simply expressive of the position of the company. In so large a matter as a general strike, this method was taken to find out from every customer of the firm his wishes in regard to the operation of machines in his factory. Several manufacturers had expressed themselves as fully approving the position which the company had taken.

The News of Braintown.

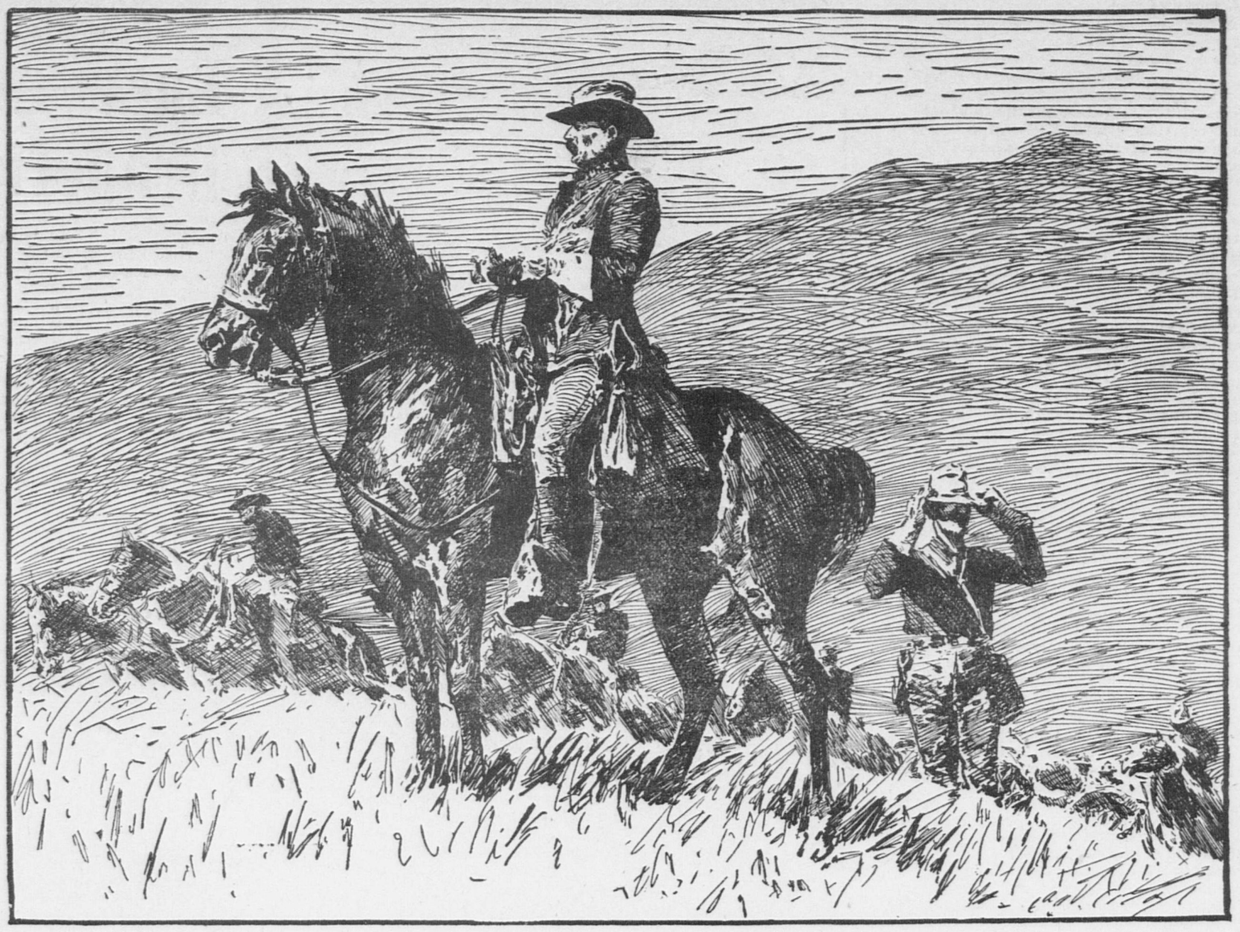

Boston, Oct. 1.—The body of Hannah, wife of Matthew W. Calnan of this city, was found floating in the river yesterday afternoon. A cloth had been tied about the head. The knot was carelessly made and might have been placed there by the woman herself if she contemplated suicide. She was about 48 years of age and the mother of five children.

Eight shipwrecked fishermen arrived in Boston yesterday. They were members of the crew of the Gloucester fishing schooner, Oliver Eldridge, which was lost the night of Sept. 22 on the southwest point of St. Peter's harbor, where it was intended to land some of the crew.

By the arrest of W. T. Gray, a case of assault with a sandbag and robbery became known. Harry Weston of Dorchester was robbed of a diamond ring worth $200; a gold watch, $350; chain, $50, and $20 in small bills. None of the property has been recovered. Mr. Weston identified the man under arrest as the man he was with on the evening of the robbery.

Suicide of a Corporal.

Nashville, Oct. 1.—Albert Nickens, a corporal of the Second Tennessee, home on a furlough, committed suicide by taking morphine. It is believed by friends and his family that he killed himself rather than go back to hard service. He told a young lady that he would rather die than go back. Some hold, however, that he was drugged in a saloon. Detectives are at work on the case.

CAPTAIN ALLYN CAPRON, First Artillery, U. S A. From HARPER'S WEEKLY.

After a Drawing by Frederic Remington. Reproduced from Harper's Weekly. By Permission. Copyright, 1898, by Harper & Brothers.

Another good soldier whose death, on September 18, at Fort Myer, Virginia, came as the result of the Santiago campaign, was Captain Allyn Capron, of the First Artillery. He had had typhoid fever, an died from a relapse. He was the father of Captain Allyn Capron, Jr., of the Rough Rides, who was killed at Las Guasimas on June 24, and the son of Captain Allyn Capron, who was killed while commanding his battery of the First Artillery at Cherubusco, in Mexican war. He was appointed to West Point from North Carolina in 1863, graduated into the artillery, and came to be regarded as one of the most accomplished officers in his branch of the service. An illustration taken from Harper's Weekly and made from a field sketch by Frederic Remington shows Captain Capron at El Paso during the campaign of Santiago.

It has been stated (in the Sun) that two sons of Captain Capron enlisted in this war, and that one was killed at Guasimas and another died of typhoid fever. Another account says that two cousins of the Caprons, also named Capron, were among the volunteers who went to Cuba. The thread of fact cannot be clearly followed through these somewhat confusing stories, but it is evident that Captain Caprons widow has been sorely bereaved by the war. It is a solace to find it stated (in the Herald) that two younger sons are still left to her.

SILVERITES BOLTED.

Henry George Selected as a Gubernatorial Candidate In New York.

New York, Oct. 1.—At a meeting of the Chicago platform Democrats last night Henry George, son of the single tax advocate, was nominated for governor. The nomination of Elliot F. Danforth for lieutenant governor, by the regular Democratic convention in Syracuse, was endorsed.

The meeting was not by any means harmonious. In fact there were two meetings. That at which the nomination was made was conducted by Henry M. McDonald, the recognized leader of the movement, and Willis J. Abbott, prominent in the Henry George campaign of last year. The former organized the meeting and excluded a number of delegates who tried to break in the door. Among those excluded were Colonel G. H. Fisk and Delegates McBride and Bailey.

After they were repulsed at the door of the conference room they held a meeting of protest along with a number of others.

At the close of the two meetings Colonel Fisk announced himself for Henry George, and Mr. Abbott said he had a personal assurance from Mr. George that he would accept the nomination. The Chicago platform in its entirety was reaffirmed.

To Oust Ort the Ports.

New York, Oct. 1.—Theodore Roosevelt, through his counsel, made application before Justice Cohen of the supreme court yesterday for an order discontinuing the proceedings instituted by him recently for the vacation of the assessment made by the commissioners of taxes and assessments on his estate in this state. Justice Cohen said he would not make such an order, and directed the counsel to make a motion in special term, where all litigations are disposed of. This will necessitate the filing of a note of issue, and the case will come up for argument at a future date.

When Colonel Roosevelt was asked for his reason for seeking discontinuance of the proceedings he said: "My brother began the proceedings without my knowledge or consent while I was away. When I learned of the proceedings I ordered them to be discontinued."

To Be Taken Dubiously.

Washington, Oct. 1.—President McKinley's present purpose is alleged to be to withhold the appointment of Colonel Hay's successor as ambassador to Great Britain until after election in November, and then appoint Senator James McMillan of Michigan, with the understanding that Governor Pingree will appoint Secretary Alger to the senate as his successor, and that the Michigan legislature will confirm this appointment by electing Mr. Alger for the remainder of Senator McMillan's term, which will expire March 4, 1901, when Mr. Alger could expect to succeed himself.

E. W. SHACKFORD,

PAPER HANGER,

Quincy, Mass.

Orders left with W. DAVENPORT, or T. B. DAVENPORT.

Sept. 14. 1m

FRANK F CRANE,

AUCTIONEER and APPRAISER,

Office, 4 Chestnut St., Quincy, Mass.

Oct. tf

Tomorrow's Almanac and Forecast.

Sun rises—5:42; sets, 5:24.
Moon rises—6:29 p. m.
High water—12:45 a. m.; 1 p. m.

Clear and pleasant weather continues in eastern states, and while showers have been general in the central valleys and south, the conditions are less favorable for their extending eastward than 24 hours ago, so that now the fair weather of yesterday gives promise to continue Sunday, though perhaps with some cloudiness; the temperature will probably range between 70 and 76 degrees at the highest, with light, variable winds.

News in Brief.

The print cloth market is dull, with regulars on a basis of 2 cents and odds a shade lower.

The Spanish government has estimated that there are 200,000 people in Porto Rico who desire to return to their homes.

John Kelliher was fatally injured at the Fells rubber works in Melrose, Mass., by being crushed under a car. He died in two hours.

Seven boxes of powder exploded in a Mullan, Ida., mine last night. The night crew was overcome by gas. Thirty men were gotten out.

The American troops now occupy fully two-thirds of Porto Rico. The Spanish line, running in a semi-circle south of San Juan, is narrowing daily, and the Spaniards are receding towards the capital.

The American Public Health association has elected the following officers: President, George H. Robe, Baltimore; Secretary, Dr. C. O. Probts, Columbus; treasurer, Dr. Henry D. Balton, Brattleboro, Vt.

Three laborers, convicted of plotting against the Austrian emperor's life, were sentenced yesterday—one to five years' penal servitude for conspiring to commit high treason and the others to two years each.

Ruben Goldstein of the trucking and express firm of Epstein & Goldstein was held in $2000 bail yesterday on the charge of having stolen clothing valued at $2000 from a number of clothing manufacturers in New York city. It is alleged that he altered addresses on boxes of goods he was carting.

Pianos. Rich and mellow toned, at winning prices. Our terms another winning feature. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

FOR LITTLE FOLKS.

A SMART DOG.

Mingo Can Tell a Counterfeit Coin From a Good One.

A dog that can unerringly discriminate between a good and a bad coin and never hesitate an instant over a counterfeit that will puzzle his master seems hardly credible. It is more than is generally claimed for dog sense. Nevertheless such is the fact.

The accompanying picture is that of a spitz which is now 7 years old. It goes by the name of Mingo and is the property of C. Harrison, a San Leandro roadhouse keeper. Mr. Harrison has a number of these dogs, but Mingo is the only one that acts as the watchdog of his master's treasury. It is the custom of Mingo as soon as a customer drives up to the door to run out to the vehicle, and, putting his paws on one of the wheels, survey the visitor. Those who know the dog throw the coin in payment of the refreshment sought to Mingo, who immediately catches it up and runs with it to the man in charge. Mingo also goes into the parlor and collects for whatever is served there, and if there happens to be any change coming to the purchaser he takes it back.

One day a would be wag threw the dog a counterfeit dollar, who made his usual rush for the coin, but, to the amazement of the fellow, the dog refused to take up the money and sat expectantly waiting for another. Amid the laughter of his companions he threw a good coin to the dog, when, to the further astonishment of those present, he ran off with it, leaving the other on the floor. The owner was called in, who knew nothing at that time of the smartness of his dog, and the experiment was repeated again and again, but the counterfeit would not go with Mingo.

Since then—some four years ago—Mingo has had more bad coin tried on him than could be found in the government collection of such coins, and, with an instinct as true as that which takes the magnetic needle to the north, he chooses between the good and bad. If there is any doubt as to a coin offered, it is thrown to the dog, and the master stands by the dog's decision.

This little fellow, "who sweats with his tongue and smiles with his tail," is never put to the necessity to rattle the coin on the floor or take it to an electric light to examine it, but in darkness or in light it is ever the same. He will not take up a counterfeit, and the bogus nickel or the leaden dollar, half or quarter he knows in a moment. He has been tested hundreds of times and will pick a good coin out from a dozen bad ones or will leave only the bad ones lying on the ground from a handful thrown him. He is a natural born money maker, grabs at a coin as would a miser, and for a stranger it would be as hard to get it from him.

As a judge of coin he could not be equaled at the subtreasury. He is keenly alive to business and day or night is always awake to the jingle of the merry chink.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Hobson's Choice.

In the time of Shakespeare and Milton it was customary, after the theaters, for gentlemen to ride home on horseback, selecting from the many horses in front of the theaters the best one they could get. The first keeper of the hackney stable at Cambridge, England, Tobias Hobson, conceived a plan of placing his horse in line before the theaters and forcing customers to take them in turn, not allowing them to select. No personal choice, but "Hobson's choice"—that is, this or none—became a byword.—Success.

Her First Glass of Buttermilk.

Little Daisy was fond of sweet milk. One day a glass of buttermilk was put beside her plate at dinner. She tasted it, put it back on her tray and said:

"Mamma, did a bad cow lay this milk?"—New York Times.

A Wise Little Girl.

"Little girl, what have you in your basket?" asked the inquisitive man.

"If mother'd wanted everybody to know, she wouldn't have put the lid on so tight," piped the little miss.

If I Were You.

If I a little girl could be—
Well, just like you—
With lips as rosy, cheeks as fair,
Such eyes of blue and shining hair,
What do you think I'd do?
I'd wear so bright and sweet a smile,
I'd be so loving all the while,
I'd be so helpful with my hand,
So quick and gentle to command,
You soon would see
That every one would turn to say,
"'Tis good to meet that child today!"
Yes, yes, my bird, that's what I'd do
If I were you.

Or if I chanced to be a boy,
Like some I know,
With crisp curls sparkling in the sun
And eyes all beaming bright with fun—
Ah, if I could be so
I'd strive and strive with all my might
To be so true, so brave, polite,
That in me each one might behold
A hero—as in days of old!
'Twould be a joy
To hear one, looking at me, say,
"My cheer and comfort all the day!"
Yes, if I were a boy I know
I would be so.

—Sydney Dayre in Independent.

Inconsiderate.

"For the love of heaven, Jimmie, wot d'youse keep yer hair cut so short for?"—New York Journal.

"Those we Leave Behind."

Men are careless about their lives for their own sakes, but a kind and tender man should think of others; he should think if he should die of those he leaves behind to grieve and sorrow and struggle on without him. For this reason alone, if for no other, every man should regard his health as a precious treasure not to be thrown away or spent and scattered in vain.

If any man's health is weakened or wasted, or running down, he should take the right means to build himself up strong and well, so that he can both live and care for those he loves. He should investigate the virtues of that great remedy, the "Golden Medical Discovery" originated by Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y. It is a remedy that makes a man thoroughly well by giving power and capacity to the digestive and assimilative organs. It makes healthy invigorating blood out of the food he eats It gives him strength and energy to put into his daily task. It builds up hard muscular flesh and nerve fiber, revitalizes the tissues of the throat and lungs, heals inflammation, purges the blood of bilious poisons and makes a man, strong, vigorous and hardy.

"My husband had been sick a long time," writes Mrs. J. W. Brittin, of Clinton, Dewitt Co., Ills. (Box 475). "had doctored with home physicians and even went to Chicago and consulted a doctor there but without receiving any help. He went to the hospital and was operated on and after three months came home to die (as the doctors here thought), but awhile he commenced to take your wonderful medicine, the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and now, thanks to your most welcome medicine, he can eat anything he wants and is again a well man."

No remedy relieves constipation so quickly and effectively as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They never gripe.

Come, Mary,

Let's go over to the Quincy Second-Hand Variety Store and see if we can't find just what we want. You say you need some more kitchen goods and a few chairs, a carpet for the chamber, some glassware and various other things, and when I was there last week I saw my cousin get a lot of goods for almost nothing. He told me that sometimes he could find new goods at less than half price. These are hard times, Mary, and we must buy where the dollar goes farthest.

WALTER P. PINEL

is the Manager, and the store is right over here at number 20 Franklin street.

aug25 1y

SOMETHING YOU WANT.

Fresh Vegetables.

We Receive Them Every Day.

All Kinds in Their Season

L. M. PRATT & CO.,

25 School Street.

Always a good assortment at our branch store, 105 Water street.

Quincy, June 18.

FISH.

Everything first-class at the

Cape Cod Fish Market,

Temple Street.

All kinds Fresh, Salt, Smoked and Pickeled

Quincy, Feb. 8. 1y

Quincy Daily Ledger.

FOR SALE BY NEWSBOYS
and at the following places:

BOSTON—Old Colony News Stand after 3.30
QUINCY—Ledger Office, 115 Hancock St.
Souther's Periodical Store, 1 Granite St.
Henry P. Kittredge, City Square.
J. P. O'Brien, 38 Hancock St.
C. F. Carlson, near Quincy depot.
S. A. Pierce, corner Hancock and School Sts.
QUINCY POINT—Miss Freeman's store.
A. B. Wrisley, Washington St.
SOUTH QUINCY—Peter Haverly, Water St.
F. J. Pierson, 96 Granite St.
O. D. Chick, 59 Liberty St.
WEST QUINCY—Coram's Periodical Store.
BREWER'S CORNER—Emma Lark.
WOLLASTON—Ross' news stand.
Loring's Pharmacy, Wollaston Park.
NORFOLK DOWNS—Branscheid & Marten.
ATLANTIC—Branscheid & Marten.
HOUGHS NECK—Arthur Dunham at P. O.
EAST MILTON—William Clark.
EAST WEYMOUTH—George H. Hunt.
WEYMOUTH—W. E. Cunningham.
News Agent, Weymouth Heights.
NORTH WEYMOUTH—B. F. Thomas.

1898 OCTOBER. 1898

Su.	Mo.	Tu.	We.	Th.	Fr.	Sa.
						1
2	3	4	5	6	7	8
9	10	11	12	13	14	15
16	17	18	19	20	21	22
23	24	25	26	27	28	29
30	31

MOON'S PHASES.

Third Quarter	7	1:21 p. m.	First Quarter	22	4:25 a. m.
New Moon	15	7:53 a. m.	Full Moon	29	7:34 a. m.

Underground Conduits.

The New England Telephone and elegraph Co. is to commence Monday putting in its underground conduit, in Quincy. Work will be commenced at the junction of Hancock and School streets and the conduit will be laid on Handcock street as far as Greenleaf street, and if the weather permits in some of the other streets in Quincy center.

The Season's Event.

The events at the Brockton Fair are continuous; it is the aim of the management to have no dull waits or tiresome moments for its patrons. From 9 A. M. to 5 P. M. the show is going on, and this system of continuity is in happy contrast to the many fairs that offer no attractions till noon or later. The stage show this year will prove a genuine treat to all admirers of daring and skill as the talent already engaged embraces a list of artists, the like of which has never before been assembled at one time, and in its entireness is the greatest and most expensive array of performers ever gathered together in this country. The Horse Show is really a novelty in this section, and a display of blooded stock and nobby rigs is bound to attract the patronage of admirers of equine beauty. Reserved seats in the big grand stand go on sale September 27, and can be obtained on and after that date of E. M. Thompson, Centre street, Brockton. Mail orders are carefully attended to, and out-of-town patrons can rest assured that their orders will receive prompt attention.

Boston Museum.

"The Sign of the Cross," Wilson Barrett's powerful religious drama, is repeating this season its wonderful success of last year. The endorsement of clergymen and religious people who do not as a rule attend theatrical performances is responsible, to a great extent, for the impression that the piece has made both in this country and in England. Aside from its teachings of the beauty and strength of the Christian faith, however, the drama abounds in scenes and incidents that are intensely dramatic and excite from the first the interest and sympathy of the audience. Probably no period in history offers more opportunities for strong dramatic treatment than does the time of Nero. The luxury and profligacy, the splendid feasts and pageants of this extravagant ruler of a decadent race, the wealth and splendor of the patricians, all contrast most powerfully with the poverty and privations of the little band of people who were willing to suffer and die for a new found faith. The magnificent costumes and architecture of the day offer to the scene-painter and the costumer an opportunity that they have made the most of and the result is a series of stage pictures that are of almost barbaric splendor and historically correct.

Keith's Theatre.

Notwithstanding all the novelties and attractive acts that are seen on the Keith circuit, this wonderful motion photograph device, the Biograph, still retains a firm hold on the amusement-seeking public, and at no time since the exhibitions were inaugarated in Mr. Keith's popular vaudeville palace, in Boston, has this nineteenth century wonder been attracting more attention or receiving more admiring comment than at present. The week of Oct. 3. a picture is promised that had made the biggest sort of a hit in Europe and will probably duplicate its success in America. At has a thrilling rescue of a woman, made from the top of a burning hotel in Paris, by French firemen. The veteran actor, Mr. J. H. Stoddart, will present two scenes from "The Long Strike," supported by a competent company. Batty's performing bears, five in number, also appear next week for the first time. Although the exhibition is n wonderful one in the way of animal training, it is said to be more laughable than marvellous, owing to the clumsiness of the beasts.

☞ Tempting prices. A Silk Brocatille Parlor Set complete, $35.00. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

Are you a regular reader of thy Ledger?

CURRENT MISCELLANY.

The art of making a proposal of marriage to a queen is one in which it is now disgrace for any of us to plead ignorance and inexperience. A resident of Malta has thus addressed one of the dusky queens of the south Pacific islands:

"Her Gracious Queen—I hope you will most willingly excuse me for having the impudence to write to you in this manner and the reason for my doing so is, when I was reading the paper yesterday I read about the steamship Bonanza being drifted on your island, and the women under you began to select husbands from the crew and that you, my queen, wanted for a husband a man that would love you and make you happy. I have been thinking the matter over and I have come to the conclusion that if you will have me for a husband, write back and let me know; also that you should send me the money for my passage out, so as I can come to you, and I will repay you the money when I get to you. If, my queen, I will suit you, write back and let me know as soon as possible; also send me a paper note for £23 or £25 and I will come at once."

If the Maltese gentleman wonders why he received no reply to the businesslike proposal, it may interest him to know that it never reached her majesty. His letter was opened by the head chief, who handed it to the principal white trader, who posted it to his Sydney firm, which in its turn sent it to the Sydney Daily Telegraph. The postmarks showed that it had passed through London, Queensland, Sydney, Samaral and Herbertshoh. — London Chronicle.

The Circumlocution Office.

The end of the circumlocution office is not yet. At one of the best known of the metropolitan county courts the clock, which had solemnly ticked off the flying moments for 50 years, suddenly stopped and refused to go again, afflicted doubtless by the same malady which has recently troubled many other public timepieces. Application was made by the registrar in due form to the office of works. Requisition forms were sent, signed and returned, and two officials at different times were sent down to report on the condition of the patient. At length, to the joy of the court officials, the old clock was removed and a new one was placed in position. In due process of time it became necessary to wind the clock up, when it was discovered that there was no key. Again the registrar communicated with the office of works, and in reply was informed that, "as the application was only for a clock, no mention being made of a key, a fresh requisition must be put in for consideration."—London Truth.

The Dog Came Back.

The Danish composer, Augusti Enna, had an adventure recently which might have ended less pleasantly. On his way to Faaborg he entered a smoking car of the second class. He lighted a cigar and was calmly enjoying his reflections when he was rudely interrupted. A woman who had taken the place opposite him had coughed several times, but Enna had ignored her intended protests. Suddenly she sprang from her seat, grasped the Havana from his mouth and threw it out of the window. Enna, who is quick tempered, did not wait long for his revenge. He picked up the woman's pet dog and sent him after the cigar. The woman screamed, pulled the danger signal and soon brought the train to a standstill. While explanations were being made the dog reappeared, having suffered no injury by his fall. The woman was mollified, and Enna, accepting a reprimand, lighted another cigar in the empty car.

The Death of Private Jones.

Private Ben Jones of the First Illinois, son of Judge Jones of Waukegan, died just before his father reached his bedside. He had lain in a stupor all day. Fever had depleted his reserve force. Toward evening he opened his eyes and said to Nurse Mary:

"You say something."

"What?" she asked to humor him.

He drew his breath and answered:

"You say the Lord is"—

He was too far gone to speak it all out. But she understood.

She bent over him and repeated:

"Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death I shall"—

"Yes," Private Jones interrupted, "the valley of the shadow."

He turned his face from her and fell asleep forever.—Chicago Times-Herald.

In Too Big a Hurry.

Booker T. Washington's most striking utterance concerning his own race is said to be embodied in the following: "Our race is in too big a hurry. The preachers want the title of D. D. before they know divinity. Almost every graduate in the English course must be addressed as 'professor.' We want a biography before we have lived. Some want to take Latin and Greek who do not know the personal pronoun in English. Some want postoffices who do not know how many stamped envelopes to give for 11 cents. Go to the farm, stick to the farm. * * * We do not want to govern the country until we learn to govern the home."—Kansas City Journal.

Bounties For Dewey's Men.

The decision of the judge advocate general of the navy that Admiral Dewey's squadron was superior to the Spanish squadron in Manila bay, and that therefore the bounties for each man on the enemy's vessels shall be $100 instead of $200, which it would have been if the American ships had been the inferior, means that about $200,000 of bounty money will be divided among Admiral Dewey, his officers and men. Admiral Dewey will receive one-twentieth, or $10,000, and will be the largest beneficiary. But he and every man in the fleet will have earned his money. —San Francisco Argonaut.

A New Clothes Hanger.

A patent clothes hanger of great value to those who have to hang their clothes on lines running from a pulley near the window to a pole has recently been put on the market. It is a simple contrivance, and a homemade one could easily be manufactured. A stout wooden or iron bracket is swung on hinges just outside of the window on one side. A crosspiece is attacked to the end, on which two pulleys are fastened. The ropes from the pole in the yard run through these pulleys. The bracket is swung in front of the window, and the clothes are hung on the line without compelling one to lean out of the window. Then a rope running from a hook on the other side of the bracket pulls the line of clothes out free from the window. The chief object of this arrangement is to do away with all danger of falling out of the window while hanging the clothes.—Housekeeper.

The Clever Princess.

How cleverly the Princess of Wales, while appearing to favor one style of dress, has really adapted her own ideas to each passing fashion is perhaps scarcely realized. In regard to bonnets she shows a marked predilection for floral trimmings, and her favorite hat used to be a soft felt with high Tyrolean crown. If she likes a certain shape, she keeps to it, having it retrimmed to suit the requirements of the moment. Years ago she used to wear a "sailor" hat, trimmed with a band of black velvet, and another shape patronized by her royal highness was the "rink," or "porkie." Sealskin hats were kept in fashion a long time by her persistence in wearing them. Whatever her headgear may be, it is invariably close fitting. Her daughters also favor small toques and hats, Princess Maud alone occasionally choosing a tolerably broad brimmed hat.

Perfume Tablets.

Perfumes are put up in tablet form nowadays. They come in two sizes. It is unquestionably a very convenient way of investing one's self with delicate flower scents. Dropping one or more within toilet boxes and wardrobe drawers, they are said to afford a fragrance equal in strength to an ordinary ounce sachet bag, which is bulky and likely to be in one's way.

These come in just one order—the hudutine violet, and are quite the rage this season; they may be tucked away so cleverly within loops of ribbon or bunches of flowers.

Nearly every girl has one hidden in her coiffure and concealed within the puff of her ascot tie. The beauty of them is that the delicate fragrance is not so fleeting as in other forms of sachet perfumes, and oh, joy of joys, they sell for only 50 cents a dozen!

Poor Girls.

The poorest girls are those who are not taught to work. Rich parents have petted them, and they have been taught to despise labor and possibly to look upon a working woman as belonging to a lower order and have been accustomed to depend upon others for a living and are perfectly helpless. The most forlorn women belong to this class.

It is the duty of parents to protect their daughters from this deplorable condition. A great wrong is done to them if they neglect it. Girls should be taught to earn their living.

The wheel of fortune rolls swiftly round, and the rich are likely to become poor and the poor rich. Skill added to labor is no disadvantage to rich and indispensable to poor. Well to do parents must educate their daughters to work. No reform is more imperative than this. —Philadelphia Times.

They Answered In Chorus.

There have been several boy babies born in Atlanta this past spring and summer. This is not intended as a startling piece of news, because their arrivals have been duly and appropriately chronicled, but it is only stated as the basis of a little joke.

Some days ago four of the happy young mothers, all of whom had fine boys at home, met in one of the dry goods stores. All of them completed their purchases about the same time. As they were all leaving the store, in speaking distance of each other, a fresh young clerk, in an effort to be pleasant, fired the stereotyped question at one of them, "How is the boy today?" In an instant four beaming faces were turned toward him, and four pleased voices answered in chorus, "Oh, he's all right, thank you." The clerk fainted.—Atlanta Constitution.

Women's Colleges.

The Elmira Female college needed $100,000 to give it a fresh lease of life, and the money has been raised. Half of it was given by citizens of Elmira; half was raised elsewhere.

The University of Rochester needs $100,000 to defray the cost of opening the university to girl students. The money has not been raised yet, but the women of Rochester are bent on getting it and will try hard.

Barnard college, in New York, has also called for $100,000 for equipment of its new buildings. Half the money has been promised on condition that the whole sum is subscribed before Oct. 3. The largest subscriber so far is Mr. John D. Rockefeller, who has made a provisional subscription of $25,000.—Woman's Journal.

The Throneroom of Spain.

The throneroom of Spain is a magnificent apartment of crimson and gold, with colossal mirrors and a chandelier of rock crystal that is considered the finest example of the kind in the world. Under the gorgeous canopy are two large chairs handsomely carved and gilded and upholstered in crimson brocade. These are the thrones where the boy king and queen regent sit on occasions of ceremony. Sometimes the daughters stand beside their mother, when it is proper for all the royal family to receive the court.

SUNDAY SERVICES.

17th SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

Church services are inserted in this paper without charge, but none will be accepted to run until further order. A notice should be sent each week even though it is but a renewal. Give subject and special services when possible. Let all churches be represented—Eds.]

CHRIST CHURCH — Rev. Walter Russell Breed, rector. At 10.30, holy communion and sermon. Sunday School at 12 M. Evening services will be resumed at 7 o'clock. The rector will give the first in a series of addresses to young people. Subject: "The power of habit." All seats free.

UNITARIAN CHURCH—Rev. Ellery C. Butler pastor. Morning service at 10.30. Rev. E. C. Butler will resume preaching Sunday school at 12 M.

FIRST UNITED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, 110 Hancock street—Rev. W. W. Dornan, pastor. Preaching by the pastor at 10.30 A. M. Sabbath School and Bible class at 11.45 A. M. Y. P. S. at 6.30 P. M. Preaching at 7.30 P. M. Prayer meeting Thursday at 7.30 P. M. All are welcome.

UNIVERSALIST CHURCH, Washington street—Rev. Edgar Watson Preble, pastor. Morning service at 10.45. Sermon by the pastor. Subject: "Echoes of the convention, or confidential talk to Universalists." Others may come if they desire to. Sunday School at 12 M. Y. P. C. U. at 7 P. M. Special music and report of delegates to convention. All welcome.

BETHANY CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH, junction Hancock and Chestnut streets—Rev. E. N. Hardy, pastor. Morning service at 10.30. Miss Virginia Dox of Chicago will give her well known address on Marcus Whitman, or the ride that saved three stars for the flag. Bible School at 12 M. Y. P. S. C. E. at 6.15 P. M. Evening service at 7.30 o'clock. The pastor begins a series of popular addresses on "Whence came our bible and how true is it?"

WASHINGTON STREET CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH—Rev. Edward Anderson, pastor. Morning service at 11 o'clock. Subject: "Crafty little foxes." Sunday School at 12 M. Y. P. S. C. E. at 6.30 P. M. Evening service at 7.15. Subject: "Hearts."

ST. JOHN'S ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH,—Rev. F. A. Frigulietti, pastor; Assistants, Rev. J. P. Cuffee, Rev. F. A. Cunningham, Rev. J. E. Johnstone, Rev. J. F. Purcell. First Mass, 8 A. M., second Mass, (High,) 10.30 A. M. Vespers at 4 o'clock. Baptisms at 5 P. M.

CALVARY BAPTIST CHURCH, Franklin street.—Rev. David Kerr, pastor. Residence, Payne street. Preaching at 10.30 A. M. Subject: "The secret of prosperity in the church." Lord's Supper. Bible school at 12 M. Young People's meeting at 6 P. M. Evening service at 7. The pastor will preach. Subject: "Abraham, his commission and promises." All are welcome.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, Water street—Rev. Robert Westly Peach, pastor. Morning service at 10.30; sermon followed by sacrament of the Lord's Supper. Sunday School at 11.45 A. M. Y. P. S. C. E. at 6 P. M. Evening service at 7.00 o'clock. Prayer meeting Thursday at 7.30 P. M. Seats free, and everybody welcome.

SWEDISH CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH, Garfield street—Rev. C. A. Bjornbom, pastor. Preaching at 10.30 A. M. Sunday School at 12 M. Communion service at 6 P. M. Preaching at 7.30 P. M. The Scandinavians are invited.

ST. MARY'S ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH,—Rev. F. A. Frigulietti, pastor. Assistants, Rev. J. P. Cuffe, Rev. F. A. Cunningham, Rev. J. E. Johnstone, Rev. J. F. Purcell. First Mass, 8 A. M. Second Mass, 9 A. M. Third Mass (High) 10.30 A. M. Vespers, 3.30 P. M. Baptisms, 4 P. M.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH, WEST QUINCY—Rev. C. W. Wilder, pastor. 10.30 A. M., preaching by the pastor, followed by holy communion. At 11.45 A. M., Sunday School. At 3.30 P. M., Junior Epworth League. Prayer meeting of Epworth League at 6.15. Praise and preaching service at 7 o'clock P. M. Friday, Oct. 7, prayer meeting at 7.30 P. M.

WOLLASTON UNITARIAN CHURCH—Rev. J. E. Bagley, pastor. Service at 10.45 A. M. Rev. Blanche Pentecost Bagley will preach. Subject: "For our citizenship is in heaven." Sunday School at 12 M.

WOLLASTON M. E. CHURCH—Rev. J. E. Waterhouse, pastor. Morning service at 10.45 Sermon followed by the holy communion. Sunday School and Bible class at 12 M. Epworth League at 6.30 P. M. At 7.30 P. M., grand song service. The pastor will speak on the subject, "A noble desire." Everybody cordially invited to all these services.

WOLLASTON BAPTIST CHURCH—Rev. Preston Gurney, pastor. Morning service at 10.45. Bible school at 12.10 M. Prayer service at 7 P. M.

WOLLASTON CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.—Morning service at 10.45. Preaching by Rev. Edward Norton. Subject: "The true method of a christian life." Sabbath school at 12.15 P. M. Society of Christian Endeavor at 6.30 P. M. Vesper service with address at 7.30 o'clock. Subject: "The forgiveness of sins." Prayer meeting Friday evening at 7.45.

PARK AND DOWNS UNION CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH, Rawson Road—Rev. F. T. Knight pastor. Morning service at 10.45. Subject: "The true christian uity." Sunday School at 12 M. Evening service at 7.30. Special music. The Sunday evenings in October will be devoted to some considerations on the war between Spain and the United States. October 2 will be introductory and historical.

ATLANTIC METHODIST CHURCH.—This is the yearly rally day. Morning service at 10.45, conducted by Dr. A. A. Wright. Special music. Sunday school at 12 M. Today commences the life of Christ by means of stereopticon pictures. Three or four pictures will be given each Sunday just at the close of the school. Epworth League at 6 P. M. Evening service at 7. The rally day theme will be continued. Several speakers are expected.

MEMORIAL CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH, Atlantic—Rev. J. H. Whitaker, pastor. Residence, 21 Billings street. Morning service at 10.45. Sermon by the pastor. Subject: "The morality of Plum Sunday." Sabbath school at 12 M. Evening service at 7 o'clock. Friday evening prayer service at 7.30 o'clock. You are cordially invited.

SPIRITUALIST MEETING—Mrs. M. A. Bonney, of Weymouth, medium, will preach at Faxon Hall at 7 P. M. All interested should come and give the meetings a good start.

CHRISTADELPHIAN CHURCH, 86 Washington street—Lecture at 7.30 P. M. Subject: "What is truth?" All welcome. Seats free.

Lace Draperies

There is comfort and pleasure in having a room tastily furnished, and nothing adds to the finishing touches quite so much as window draperies.

The manufacturers were overstocked, and we have just secured hundreds of pairs of the daintiest laces ever placed on the market at prices worthy your prompt attention.

Hints only are possible.

Nottinghams, 59c., 75c., 89c., 98c., $1.15 and $1.25 per pair.

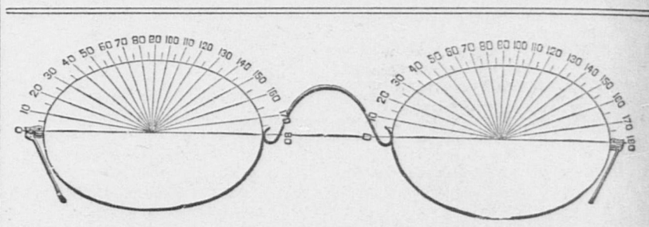

Fish Nets, $1.40 and $1.50 per pair.

Swiss, Irish Point, Indian, Chenilles and Tapestry Curtains at tempting prices.

HENRY L. KINCAIDE & CO.,
The Mammoth Store,
HANCOCK STREET, - - QUINCY.

Special Opening!
Flannelette Undergarments.
New Goods and Very Low Prices When the Quality is Considered.
These Goods are made for Men, Women and Children.
Call and Examine the Goods. You will Buy Them.

D. E. WADSWORTH & CO.,
Hancock Street, - - - Quincy.

ASTIGMATISM
Causes most of the distressing headaches. Properly fitted glasses will correct the error and remove the pain. Consult
WILLIAMS,
Member of the New England Association of Opticians,
104 Hancock St., Quincy.

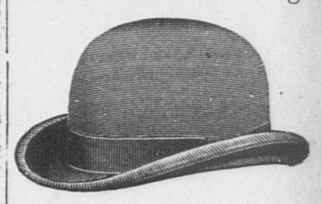

Castle Square Theatre.

The management of the Castle Square theatre has had the satisfaction of having a constant succession of large audiences since the opening of the fall and winter season, and the steady growth of the subscription lists, for all of the different performances, shows that the public has the fullest confidence in the continued maintainance of the present high standard of attractions, throughout the season. For the coming week an elaborate production of Edward M. Alfriend's sensational play "The Great Diamond Robbery" is announced. This play made an immense success in this city two seasons ago when Miss Lillian Lawrence created such a sensation by her performance of the leading character Mrs. Buford. The play is in six acts and its action deals with strongly contrasting events of the life of New York. The characters are sharply drawn and the scenes afford opportunities for interesting incidents and situations which have been fully improved. Scenic and mechanical effects of notable completeness will characterize this production. Following "The Great Diamond Robbery" on Monday, Oct. 10, the attraction at the theatre will be "The Solicitor."

E. S. BECKFORD,
Electrician.
Wiring and Fitting for Incandescent, Motors, Dynamos, Bells, etc.
GRANITE STREET, Near the Bridge, QUINCY
Feb. 1. ly

HARPER'S BAZAR
has had its experts on fashion busily at work for three months securing the coming spring styles Therefore, if you wish to know
WHAT TO WEAR THIS SPRING
see the special Spring Number of the BAZAR. Here you will find a rich variety to choose from, including tailor-made gowns from London, shirt-waists and washable skirts. A description will accompany each fashion, giving practical suggestions on
HOW TO MAKE IT AT HOME
The newest designs in men's clothes, what is the proper thing in livery, maid-servants' dresses, etc., all will be found
IN THE SPRING NUMBER OF HARPER'S BAZAR, MAR. 12th
These fashions are given in season to enable you to have your spring clothes ready for Easter time. HARPER'S BAZAR, including the Easter Number, if the issue is not exhausted, will be sent to any one for 25c.
4 WEEKS 25c. ON TRIAL
10 Cents a Copy - Sub., $4 00 a year
Address HARPER & BROTHERS, Publishers, N. Y. City

Hats and Furnishings.

"A good Hat redeems a seedy suit." Get a
BEACONSFIELD $3.00 DERBY
and wear your old clothes gracefully.

CHAMBERLAIN'S,
Telephone, Oxford 872.
663 WASHINGTON STREET, BOSTON.
Sept. 15 L 17-4w o

JOHN EVANS,
Auctioneer and Appraiser.
Prompt Settlement.
24 COPELAND STREET, QUINCY.
Feb. 26. tf

sure in having a othing adds to the much as window erstocked, and we airs of the daintimarket at prices
, 98c., $1.15 and er pair.
Chenilles and Taps.
& CO., re,
QUINCY.
ning!
garments.
uality is Considered.
men and Children.
ill Buy Them.
H & CO.,
- Quincy.
TISM
y fitted glasses will correct
MS,
ciation of Opticians,
Quincy.
and Furnishings. good Hat eems a dy suit."
a SFIELD $3.00 DERBY wear r old clothes efully.
AMBERLAIN'S,
Telephone, Oxford 872.
WASHINGTON STREET,
BOSTON.
17-4w o
AL BLUE SWEEPERS
AVE ARPET
If your sweeper takes up more nap than dirt, step using it.
Royal Blue Sweepers take the dirt, not the carpet, and oil themselves. Will send you a window cleaner and "How to Sweep" for 6 cts. postage, mentioning this publication.
RAPIDS FURNITURE CO.
GRAND RAPIDS, MICH.
OHN EVANS,
neer and Appraiser.
Prompt Settlement.
ELAND STREET, QUINCY.
tf

QUINCY DAILY LEDGER.

VOL. 10. No. 30. QUINCY, MASS., MONDAY, OCTOBER 3, 1898. PRICE 2 CENTS.

Carpetings.

Buying a carpet is serious business, and the first thought is to find a carpet that will always wear well and look attractive.

We make a specialty of strong, serviceable carpetings in choice designs at money-saving prices only.

There isn't a store in the whole country that can supply your demands as well as we can.

Hundreds of the latest and choicest designs in Wools, Tapestries and Brussels. Your inspection and comparison cheerfully solicited.

Cotton and Wool Carpetings, 25c. to 45c.
All Wool Carpetings, 45c. to 65c.
Heavy Tapestries, 45c. to 85c.

HENRY L. KINCAIDE & CO.,
Reliable, Low Priced House Furnishers.
Hancock Street, - - - Quincy, Mass.

WATCHES.

GENT'S WATCHES, $1.50 and Up.

LADIES' WATCHES, $2.50 and Up.

EVERY WATCH WARRANTED.

$2.00 Belts, $1.00 Each.
75c. Brooch Pins, 25c. Each.
25 and 35c. Stick Pins, 5 and 10c. Ea.

Quincy SOUVENIR TILES Half Price,
And Other Bargains.

A. A. LINSCOTT, Jeweler,
154 Hancock St., opp. Post Office, Quincy.
Agent for Graphophones.
aug 6. tf

Quality Right.
Quantity Right.
Service Right.

C. PATCH & SON.
Coal and Wood.

THE GLORIOUS AUTUMN
Has come and Nature will soon put on her most charming costume. . .
FALL MILLINERY . . . . .
Has also arrived—an immense stock direct from New York. The latest styles, and the ladies can find all their hearts could wish for at the parlors of
E. B. COLLINS,
FAXON BLOCK, QUINCY.
Sept. 17-1m

Great Guns

do great execution if well aimed. Advertising accomplishes great results in business conquest if well directed.

TELEGRAPHIC.

3 O'CLOCK.

TRYING TO GAIN TIME

Spanish Commissioners Engage In a Weak Game.

Havana, Oct. 3.—Spanish officials and army men do not seem to realize that they will have to give up Cuba. The Spanish peace commissioners, acting upon instructions from Madrid, keep trying to gain time by opposing every proposal of the Americans, and finally surrendering one little detail at a time, as in the case of the Comal and the introduction of food free of duty. They announce that they are acting with perfect courtesy toward the United States, but they are very careful not to infringe upon what they call "Spain's rights," nor do they agree with the Americans upon the date for the evacuation.

The incident of the Comal was diplomatically intended to gain time; so was the affair of the guns of the Alfonzo XII, and the heavy artillery dismounted by the Spaniards from the forts and batteries. Many big guns are now in the arsenal, as if they were to be taken back to Spain. It is common talk among the Spanish government's friends that the forts will be left without artillery. The dismounting of the guns was stopped Saturday evening on account of an American protest, and as another "act of courtesy," but now the diplomatic duel over the matter begins between the American and Spanish commissioners.

As for the inferior Spanish officers and the rank and file of the army, no one seems to understand what has happened. They simply ignore the United States and the presence in Havana of the American commissioners to arrange for the evacuation. At the Albion theatre a play is performed every night in which Spanish cavalry, infantry and artillery appear on the stage. They sing something like this: "Here is the heroic Spanish army that never has been beaten and fights until it wins or perishes." The house is crowded by military men, who cheer enthusiastically without realizing that under the circumstances the song is decidedly humorous.

Captain Brooks, the commission disburser, and aCptain Page of General Butler's staff returned Saturday evening from a trip through the centre of the island, particularly in the northern section of Santa Clara province. They found conditions of extreme want in most of the Cuban camps. The conditions wer worse in Santa Clara, where the death rate is 400 per month, mainly from starvation, having fallen from a rate of 1000 a month, chiefly through the diminution of human material to provide victims.

Talk With Shafter.

New York, Oct. 3.—When asked if he expected to retain his new command long, General Shafter said: "I expect to be with the department of the east until General Wesley Merritt arrives from Manila. On his arrival I expect he will assume command of the department, and I will return to the Pacific coast and reassume charge of the department of the Pacific. I like California, and I want to make it my permanent home. During my command there, I made many friends, and I like the climate and associations there."

When the general was asked if he knew that General Gillespie was reported to have said he knew nothing of Shafter's appointment, General Shafter said: "I know nothing whatever of the matter; I haven't met General Gillespie yet, and do not know whether he is at Governor's island, in this city, or in Washington."

When General Shafter was asked if he had been summoned to testify before the commission to investigate the army matters he said: "I have not yet been notified to appear. When I am notified to appear I will do so. I do not know what I could say of importance, but if I am wanted I shall certainly respond to any notification."

When asked if he thought the present army was held in readiness without mustering out any more soldiers for the purpose of awaiting the decision of the Paris council, he said: "There are not enough soldiers now to garrison all the posts. There is need of 100,000 soldiers for that purpose. I do not know what the intention of the war department is. It may be that the soldiers are being held in the event of trouble occurring in the Philippines, Cuba or Porto Rico. Everything is in abeyance now. I have no definite knowledge of what the war department intends, but it is certainly safe to hold a large number of soldiers in readiness."

Concerning the controversy between General Miles and the war department he said: "I have no statement whatever to make. I have nothing whatever to complain about. I did my duty as I thought best, and tried to do it faithfully for the best interests of all. It will be time enough to make statements when my superiors complain and call me to account. There is no use stirring up matters."

What the Spanish Expect.

Madrid, Oct. 3.—The conciliatory and cordial spirit shown by the delegates to the Paris conference has produced a favorable impression. The newspapers, discussing the proceedings of the conference, affect to believe that the United States, besides respecting Spanish sovereignty in the Philippines, will also allow Spain to have a share in the settlement of the new regime in Cuba. Inspired articles assert that Spain will undertake to carry out the promised guarantees of the Cuban debt only until Cuba herself is able to pay the interest and the sinking fund.

Captain's Trivial Offense.

Lexington, Oct. 3.—Captain J. E. Williams of company I, Eighth Massachusetts, was placed under arrest and confined to his quarters for neglecting to inspect the guard when he was officer of the day. He has been temporarily relieved of his command, Lieutenant F. P. Smith of company C being placed in charge of the company. The matter may come before a court-martial, though it is a trivial offense subject to a petty fine.

Surgeon Makes a Protest.

Santiago, Oct. 3.—When the Obdam left Porto Rico many on board were sick, yet the first quartermaster refused to furnish wine for their use, but supplied them with hardtack and canned food, saying that he had no authority to do more. Surgeon Seaman said he would hold him responsible should any deaths occur, and finally succeeded in obtaining suitable food for those who were ill. He asserts that the ship had every man that she could carry, and that if she reaches New York without any deaths she would be lucky.

Hearing that a number of other sick soldiers were to be sent aboard her, the surgeon major made a protest, but he was informed by General Lawton, he alleges, that his protest showed lack of discipline, and that an officer had been appointed to see how many additional men the Obdam could carry.

Aguinaldo Refused a Gift.

Manila, Oct. 3.—The national assembly at Malolos, at a recent sitting, voted Aguinaldo a civil list of $75,000, but the leader declined to receive anything until the army should have been paid. An attempt was made by Paterno, the speaker of the house, to have inserted a clause granting him an allowance because of the office, but the proposal was rejected. The assembly is now engaged in discussing the constitution.

The Spanish community is telegraphing to Madrid in an endeavor to secure the enforcement of the release of prisoners. Personal investigations made in the provinces emphasize the determination of the insurgents to obtain a specific guanantee of favorable terms before releasing the prisoners now in their hands, and it is certain that they will never cheaply relinquish their dearly bought conquests.

Everywhere is seen evidence of appalling struggles. Popular opinion favors autonomy, which it is generally expected will be established. The people rather distrust the Americans, who, beginning to realize this fact, sent the Raleigh to the northeastern ports for the purpose of showing the American flag and making friends with the natives. The cruiser's officers endeavored to arrange an interchange of hospitalities, but the natives at first were unwilling to visit the ship unless hostages were landed. Finally, however, friendly feeling was established, and the natives were agreeably surprised at the American attitude.

Bryan Has Recovered.

Washington, Oct. 3.—Colonel William J. Bryan has sufficiently recovered from his attack of fever to return to his regiment, and this he intends to do in a few days. He will leave Washington for Hot Springs, where he will stop two or three days. He will then go on to Pablo Beach, Fla., where his regiment is stationed. Mrs. Bryan will accompany the colonel.

BEGINNING TO FEEL UNEASY.

Republicans View the Coming Elections With Anxiety.

Boston, Oct. 3.—The Washington correspondent of The Herald says: President McKinley and the Republican leaders are facing the congressional elections this autumn with a good deal of anxiety. The president, with his usual cheerful optimism, is more hopeful than some of his advisers that the Republicans will retain control of the house, but he appreciates the necessity for earnest effort for insuring this result. His conferences with Senators Hanna and Elkins and other political managers last week were to this end.

The loss of congress means a great deal to the administration. It means not only the moral rebuke implied in party defeat, but very serious embarrassment in the elaborate program which will be laid before congress this autumn for action. This program cannot be carried out during the three months of the short session. Hardly more than a beginning can be made.

The fact is dawning upon the Republican leaders that there is very little net capital for them in the war. Even Colonel Roosevelt, with the glamor of the successful charge at San Juan hill around him, is not proving the tower of strength which the politicians expected. The crucial question is, how the gold Democrats will vote.

The real strength of the Republican campaign lies in the importance of maintaining the gold standard and preventing a check to business prosperity. In the matter of electing members of the house of representatives the Republicans propose to call attention to the really essential requirement that the house shall be organized for sound money. The Republicans propose to make this more conspicuously the issue during the remaining weeks of the campaign, and to ask gold Democrats to pause and consider whether they shall contribute by their votes to putting young Mr. Bailey or some other silver extremist in the chair of Speaker Reed. Control of the speakership means the control of the committees, the shaping of legislation and the absolute decision of the question whether sound legislation or bad shall come before the house.

—A great political agitation is imminent in Havana. A petition is being circulated and signed by many merchants, sugar planters and wealthy persons, addressed to President McKinley, asking that the United States annex the island immediately.

E. W. SHACKFORD,
PAPER HANGER,
Quincy, Mass.
☞ Orders left with W. DAVENPORT, or T. B. DAVENPORT.
Sept. 14. 1m

LAND VALUES

A Transcript From the Books of the Assessors.

Number of Feet in Each Lot and Valuation Thereof.

Also the Amount of Each Person's Tax Bill for 1898.

[Continued from Saturday.]

Something new in the publication of the taxpayers of the city is attempted this year by the Daily Ledger. There is considerable interest in the assessed value of land in the city, which is claimed to be high in some cases and low in others. So the Ledger has supplemented the amount of the tax bill in each ward with the value of each lot of land for which the person is taxed, giving in each case the number of square feet or acreage.

The amount given in the line with the person's name is his total ward tax, and may include houses, personal property, etc., in addition to the lots of land below. The Ledger gives only the valuation of the land.

To obtain a person's total tax in the city, add together the amounts paid in the several wards.

The Ledger commenced the publication Aug. 30, and has already published the land values of all persons whose names begin with A to G, and today's instalment is the last of the H's:

WARD ONE.

Valuation of Land Only.	Total Ward Tax.
Hoehn, Grace L. 5,124, Avon way, $900.	$66 60
Holden, Lizzie M. 2,759, Cottage, $300.	27 00
Holden, John O. est, 6,318, Adams, $1,200.	165 60
Horton, Mrs. Lloyd G. 23,660, Hancock, $6,900.	210 60
Howe, Mary Helen 11,180, Bigelow, $1,700.	70 20
Howland, Charles A. 34,000, Adams, $7,500.	466 40
Hulton, Herman 7,631 feet, Gothland street, $350.	44 30
Hunting, Nathaniel 278,516, Hancock, $23,500.	618 30

WARD TWO.

Holt, Laura E. 5,700, South Walnut, $300. 1-2 acre Quincy ave., $600.	$59 40
Howard, Louisa P. 1-4 acre, River, $400.	28 80

WARD THREE.

Holten, Henry, est., 9,000, Penn, $650.	$11 70
Holden, Ann 18,985, School $5,700.	210 60
Horrigan, John 5,959, Independence ave., $275.	6 95
Horrigan, Mary 5,959, Independence ave., $400.	27 00
Horrigan, Peter H. 6,000, Plymouth, $300.	5 40
Howe, George W. and Laura A. Hinkley, 10,800, Water, $1,500.	59 40
Howley, William 8,580, Mt. Pleasant, $200.	14 60
Hubert, Moses 6,000 feet, Taber street, $300.	25 25
Hughes, John 6,000, Liberty, $350.	6 30
Hunter, George 8,754, Quincy, $1,000.	72 00

WARD FOUR.

Hogan, Jennie A. 29,300, West, $1,000.	$21 60
Howley, John J. 21,780, Hall place, $1,000. 16,560, " " $100.	45 20
Hughes, Sarah 6,300, Furnace ave., $350.	33 30
Hughes, Patrick F. 1 acre, F rnace ave., $700. 8,000, meadow land, $250.	113 60
Hunter, Hugh 9,086, off Grove, $200.	21 80
Hussey, John 11,470, Douglass, $500.	32 60
Hussey, John H. 1-8 acre, Rustic place, $300.	34 40

WARD FIVE.

Holden, Aramintha 3,750, Hamilton, $250.	$4 50

Continued on page 3.

Royal makes the food pure, wholesome and delicious.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

MRS. HOYT DEAD.

Was Wife of the Playwright and a Beautiful Woman.

New York, Oct. 3.—Caroline Hoyt, one of the most beautiful women on the American stage, the wife of Charles Hoyt, the playwright, died at her home Sunday. The cause of her death was convulsion attending the birth. Mrs. Hoyt had been ill for but two or three days, and her condition showed a marked change for the worse Sunday morning. She became unconscious and died within an hour. Her husband, her mother and sister were with her when she died.

CAROLINE MISKEL.

Mrs. Hoyt was born in Covington, Ky., on Sept. 15, 1873. She was Caroline Seales. Her first appearance on the stage was with Robert Mantell. Later she played a season at Daly's theater in this city. She made her first appearance in any of Hoyt's productions in "A Temperance Town." It was during this engagement she became acquainted with Mr. Hoyt, whom she married March 4, 1894. She retired from the stage at that time, permanently it was said at that time, but returned last year in one of her husband's plays, "A Contented Woman."

The News of Beantown.

Boston, Oct. 3.—Rev. Dr. Nathan E. Wood, pastor of the First Baptist church, has declined the offer of the presidency of the Newton Baptist seminary.

Rev. Alexander Blackburn, pastor of the First Baptist church, Cambridgeport, has received a call to the pastorate of the First Baptist church in Portland, Ore., and has the call under consideration.

Rev. George L. Perin, pastor of the Every Day church, and his wife, were overcome by gas Sunday morning in their home. Medical aid was at once summoned, and the reverend gentleman was revived within a few hours, while Mrs. Perin remained in an extremely precarious condition.

Rev. L. M. Powers has tendered his resignation as pastor of the First Universalist church of Somerville. The resignation will take effect Nov. 1. Mr. Powers leaves to become pastor of Grace church in Buffalo.

William Reardon, 35 years old, while in the engine room of the Metropolitan Coal company, drank a quantity of carbolic acid, mistaking it for another liquid and died within a few minutes.

The first fatal accident on the football gridiron this season happened Saturday afternoon on Franklin field. Robert Coveney, the 17-years-old, son of Jeremiah W. Coveney received injuries to his spine which resulted in his death.

An Awful Tragedy.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Oct. 3.—A special from Murfreesboro to The Times says: "An awful tragedy has occurred in the north portion of Cannon county, about 80 miles east of this city, in which five are reported to have been savagely assassinated. John Hillingsworth killed a man by the name of Higgins in that county over a year ago. A suit was brought against Hollingsworth and a judgment obtained by the family for $700. When the men went to carry out the proceedings and had gathered in the barn, Hollingsworth and his friends fired into them with double-barrelled shotguns, killing four men and wounding another so badly that he will hardly recover. The names of the unfortunate men are: Killed—Rev. A. C. Webb, Samuel Webb, his son, and Joeff Higgins; fatally injured, James Vincent.

Excitement is running very high. The men who were killed were of the most prominent families of this section. The sheriff and a posse are now in pursuit of Hollingsworth and his party.

Robbed by Negroes.

Boston, Oct. 3.—At 9:30 last night William V. Broughton of Cambridge was held up near the Cottage Farm station by three colored men, who robbed him of an open-face gold watch. Mr. Broughton was not injured and kept the three fellows in sight until he met an officer from station 16, to whom he related his adventure.

The officer gave chase to the thieves, and at last succeeded in catching one of them, the others escaping. At the station the prisoner gave the name of John Smith, and later said he was John Nelson. He told the officers he had no home, and that he came here about three weeks ago from Halifax. Then he said he came here from New York.

When he was searched, a gold watch, not Mr. Broughton's, was found in his stocking, and he also had four razors, a pair of hair clippers, a gold stickpin and two pieces of old-fashioned scrip, one 25-cent and one 50-cent piece. From his actions the officers were convinced he was a professional thief.

MABEL F. FAIRBANKS
TEACHER OF
CHINA PAINTING and WATERCOLOR.
China Decorated to Order.
34 Grand View Avenue, Wollaston.
Sept. 29. 3m

TELL US . .
What you are looking for.
We can show you a fine line of
FALL AND WINTER
UNDERWEAR,
HOSIERY,
Outing Flannels, Flannelettes,
Plaid Dress Goods,
WRAPPERS, BLANKETS,
Comforters,
Dress Linings and other Dry Goods.
OUR STOCK IS FRESH.
OUR PRICES THE LOWEST.
MISS C. S. HUBBARD,
158 Hancock Street.

GRAND OPENING
— OF —
Fall and Winter Millinery
Thursday,
Friday,
Saturday,
October 6, 7 and 8,
— AT —
Miss B. J. Patterson's Millinery Parlors
At the Boston Bargain Store.
A choice and complete stock of all the latest and most desirable goods for this season,
All are cordially invited.
Music Hall Building, Quincy.
Oct. 1. tfpl

Coal!
Just Received by Barge Blackbird, a Fresh Cargo of
Pea Coal
(Small Nut.)
J. F. SHEPPARD & SONS
Quincy Sept. 7.

SOMETHING YOU WANT.
Fresh Vegetables.
We Receive Them Every Day.
All Kinds in Their Season
L. M. PRATT & CO.,
25 School Street.
Always a good assortment at our branch store, 105 Water street.
Quincy, June 18.

☞ Our $1.00 comforters are without a rival. Other prices from 75 cents to $3.50. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

Quincy Daily Ledger

ESTABLISHED IN 1889.

The ONLY DAILY in Norfolk County Massachusetts.

Published Every Evening, Sundays and Holidays Excepted, At No. 115 HANCOCK ST., City of Quincy, Mass., by

GEORGE W. PRESCOTT & SON.

Successors to Green & Prescott.

Subscription Price, $6.00 per year.

☞ A discount of $1 when paid in advance.

ALSO PUBLISHERS OF

The Quincy Patriot,

A Weekly Established in 1837, which has the Largest Circulation in Norfolk County, and

The Braintree Observer,

A Weekly Established in 1878.

TELEPHONE, 78-3 QUINCY.

Quincy Temperature at Noon.

	This Week.	Last Week.	In 1897.	In 1896.
Sunday	64	52	56	57
Monday	76	71	56	59
Tuesday	—	67	64	55
Wednesday	—	68	68	57
Thursday	—	70	68	53
Friday	—	75	64	56
Saturday	—	74	57	56

New Advertisements Today.

Purse lost.
Insolvency notice.
Quincy Clothing Co.
Executor's sale of personal property.
Henry L. Kincaide & Co.—Carpetings.
Henry L. Kincaide & Co.—Oil heaters.

Good Afternoon.

The Ledger seems to be on the inside of political matters from a Democratic standpoint. In its Thursday issue, having interviewed a member of the city committee it says: This member says no matter what may turn up, and this takes into consideration every possibility, the Democratic mayoralty nominee this year will be nominated without influence or help of ex-office holders."

Really neighbor. Then you must expect an epidemc of yellow fever or Santiago shakes to kill off that breed of Democratic vermin. You don't probably know that those parasites are more rapacious than the gypsy moth.—Advertiser.

The Ledger has no mud to sling, but proposes to treat all respectfully, of whatever political faith. The second paragraph above should not be credited to the Ledger, for we do not use such appellations as breed, vermin, parasities, and rapacious in writing of those who may differ from us politically. Even the sentiment of the Democrat in the first paragraph should not be construed as those of the Ledger. It is evident that our critic is disgruntled, and while we see much to criticise, it is not our purpose today or in the future to make comments or enter into arguments. And we ask in return fair and honest treatment, which is not always accorded.

City Council Business.

The regular meeting of the City Council will be held tonight, and among the business will be a number of petitions for licenses, a new petition from the Bicycle Railway Co., a public hearing on the acceptance of Glover avenue. The annual order establishing the polling places for the State election will probably be reported.

The Committee on Sewers and Drains will report on the communication of the Mayor relative to the extra appropriation for bridge. The Committee on State Aid will report on a number of petitions, and the Committee on Ordinances will report on the sewer assessment order and the order for $1,000 for the culvert on Washington street over Town brook.

In the calendar are the orders for refunding Willard Walsh $96.27 for taxes paid, transferring $714.90 for paying Poor Department bills of 1897, $500 and receipts for house connections with sewer, $172 for drain on Lincoln and Winthrop avenues, and the order granting the Electric Light and Power Co. a location for ten poles on Beale street.

Ex-Selectman Dead.

Mr. Albert Thayer one of Quincy's oldest citizens and residents died Saturday at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Frederick Marsh, at the age of 82 years and 8 months.

Mr. Thayer was born in Quincy and has always made his residence here and during his prime took an active part in town affairs, serving on the board of Selectmen in 1862 with the late Ebenezer Adams and Noah Cummings. Mr. Thayer has been in poor health for some time owing to a general breaking up due to old age. He leaves one daughter, Mrs. Frederick Marsh.

Davis Nominated.

W. W. Davis was nominated for Councillor this morning by the Republicans of the second district receiving 120 votes to 104 for Cushing.

☞ Think of the fancy prices people have paid for pianos. Then think of buying an instrument fully guaranteed and a delightful tone for $190.00. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

INCENDIARY FIRES.

One an All Night Job for the Firemen.

There was no sleep for the members the fire department Saturday night, for from 8.38 o'clock that night until 6 o'clock and after Sunday morning, they were kept busy fighting their natural enemy, fire.

It was a little after 8.30 o'clock Saturday night when a young man named Charles McNally discovered a fire and rushed to Box 35 near Christs church and turned in an alarm. It was the hay barn on the James Edwards estate. As the first round of the box finished striking the crowds that were in City Square made one grand rush in that directon, and as they passed up Hancock street the air was full of the smoke from burning hay, and the sky was brightly illuminated with the blaze which was throwing out its forked tongue igniting everything that came within its grasp.

The barn is situated on the bank of Town brook in the valley at the rear of the residence, and was formerly used as a windmill, which furnished the house with water. With the advent of the water system its usefulness for that purpose was at an end and it has been used for hay.

The building is about 20 by 30 feet and was packed, jammed full of hay from floor to cupalo, some fifteen to eighteen tons. There were no windows in the building, and roof was slated, and the only entrance was through the main door. This made it more difficult to handle, for the hay could not be removed, and the fire which had eaten its way through it, could not be got at. As usual there were those in the crowd that watched the progress from the outside, had plenty of advice to give, but it was noticed that none of these self constituted committee gave assistance in lighting up on the hose although they kept their tongues in constant motion.

Two lines of hose were run from the hydrant on the corner of Gay and School streets while another line came from the steamer which was located near the residence of James H. Stetson. Finding that the fire could not be extinguished from below ladders were placed on the slate roof, through which holes were cut. A ladder was also placed to the top of the cupalo, and a hole cut through there. When these openings were made the flames would shoot up through, showing that things were humming down below. In this way the firemen fought the flames, and again had it demonstrated to them that of all fires the extinguishment of a hay fire is the worst.

Gradually the efforts of the firemen were seen to be telling, and when it had got to a point where the hay could be pitched out, rapid progress was made. It was now 11 o'clock, and the firemen had been hard at work for two hours and a half. Most of them were wet soaking through, for rubber boots and coats were but little use in withstanding the tons of water that were being used.

At 11.30 the recall signal was sounded and the order given to "make up" although a line of hose and two men were kept on duty all night. This proved a wise measure for at 6 o'clock Sunday morning the fire again started but was quickly extinguished. Sunday morning a gang of men was set at work under Engineer Hardwick and the hay was pitched out into the field.

Of course a large crowd was present during the fire and the enbankments near the building afforded a fine view of the scene. Mayor Sears was early on the ground and watched the work of the department from a seat on Hose 4 wagon. This latter piece of apparatus has never responded to this box before on the first alarm, but a new running card was issued Saturday which calls them to answer this box on the first alarm, and their services came in handy.

The hay in the building was valued at about $300 and is ruined for other than bedding purposes. The damage to the building is not large and $250 should more than cover the loss. The building was insured for $800, and the contents were fully insured. The policy was renewed only the Friday before.

The cause of the fire is unknown. The hay was what is known as first crop and had been in the barn since the Fourth of July, and it is not thought it could have been caused by its heating. As far as known no one had been near the building, and the general impression is that an incendiary had gotten in his work again.

There were several escapes from injury caused by falling slate and many of the firemen got raps on the head with it, but fortunately not enough to cause injury. Driver Meade of Hose 4, however, was not so fortunate, for he had a finger nail torn off, and the end of his fingers smashed by the pipe which got away from him.

Chief Engineer Packard while on the slope endeavoring to keep the H. & L. truck from going down the embanking was struck by a wheel and knocked senseless for a few minutes.

It is said also that a skunk made it unpleasant for another engineer.

ANOTHER ALARM.

Before the Hook & Ladder had left the scene, an alarm was sounded from Box 446, and it was a case of jump. The steamer and combination had just backed into the station. It was 12.15 o'clock then, and although the men were thoroughly tired out they did not stop for that but hastened toward West Quincy.

This fire proved to be in a small stable on Miller street, owned by Hayes Bros., and was also probably caused by an incendiary. Good headway had been made by the fire but it was not so hard a fire to fight, as that earlier in the evening, and it was not long before the all out signal was given. The barn, however, was badly gutted and the loss will be $200 or more.

New voters.

The Registrars of Voters held another busy session Saturday night, although they did not have to rush quite as much as on Thursday night. As a result of the evening's work, twenty-three male and one female voters were added and fifteen were restored. The names follow:

Ward One—Adres G. Nelson, John J. Fallon, Joseph H. McLaughlin, Peter Langren, August Carlson, Michael J. McMullen, Herbert E. Barcley, Mary W. Dewson, Thomas H. Fallon, George F. Clark, Albert J. Bowers, Waterman K. Pryor.

Ward Two—John C. Carey, William F. Callihan, Phillip Doherty.

Ward Three, Precinct One—Richard Gordon, John H. Griffin, Charles E. Richardson, Robert E. Jones, George Koppmannr.

Ward Three, Precinct Two—Olaf S. Nord, Michael McAuliff.

Ward Four, Precinct One—Michael F. Riordon, William J. Williams 2d, Frederick R. Steward, Willard B. Jones.

Ward Four, Precinct Two—Adolph Gustafson, Patrick F. Nix, Sven Ekstrand, John Curry, Michael J. O'Brien.

Ward Five—Axel M. Bjorkman, William L. Purdy, William M. Chase, Guy G. Chadbourn, William A. Moore, Willard E. Keyes, Frank W. Knowlton.

Ward Six—Hugh Gilmartin.

Marcus Whitman's Ride.

Miss Virignia Dox gave a very interesting address Sunday morning at Bethany church, telling of the desire of the Indians in the West in the 30's to secure a Bible. How their braves started out to find one and of their disappointment; Of the wedding trip of Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Whitman and another young couple to carry the gospel to them; of the knowledge of the country which Whitman obtained and how he rode alone to Washington and saved several States to the Union; of his slaughter later by the Hudson Bay trappers whose plans were upset; of the founding of Whitman college in Walla Walla, Washington; and finally of its need of funds. No collection was taken, but Miss Dox hopes to receive generous subscriptions while in Quincy.

Scooped In.

Late Saturday night Officer O'Connor of East Milton overhauled a man with a bag in which was a harness. The fellow proved to be John J. Lucy, who told the officer a fairy story, but he was locked up. Later he confessed that he had gone to Boston and got drunk and then came to Quincy and stole the harness from the stable of William H. Callahan. Lucy was turned over to the Quincy officers.

Golf Tournament.

There were a large number of entries for the golf tournament of the Wollaston club on Saturday. Mr. Bremer made the best gross as well as net score. The summary:

Players.	Gross.	Handicap.	Net
Bremer,	85	8	77
Harlow,	91	12	79
J. B. Tilton,	94	14	80
H. W. Porter,	92	10	82
Cracknell,	90	8	82
Muirhead,	98	15	83
Farrington,	99	15	84
Atherton,	92	8	84
Freeman,	93	8	85
Brock,	93	8	85
Wright,	101	15	86
Rice,	95	8	87
Swan,	90	8	82
Morrell,	101	13	88
Buckingham,	105	18	87
B. Tilton,	99	8	91
Fairbanks,	100	8	82
Parker,	119	20	99
Hamlin,	118	20	98
Tarbell,	105	20	85
Forsyth,	126	20	106
Swartwout,	113	20	93
Pope,	100	13	87

—The Milton A. A. easily defeated the Fairmount A. A. at foot ball at East Milton Saturday; score 17 to 0.

INSOLVENCY NOTICE.

NORFOLK, ss. COURT OF INSOLVENCY.

NOTICE is hereby given that the third meeting of the creditors of

LORA C. MERRILL

of Quincy, Massachusetts, an insolvent debtor, will be held at a Court of Insolvency, at Dedham, on WEDNESDAY, the fifth day of October, 1898, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, at which meeting creditors may be present and prove their claims. The account of the assignees will be presented and creditors may appear and object to the allowance thereof.

JOHN Q. A. FIELD,
WILLIAM W. JENNESS.
Assignees.

87 Milk street, Boston, Mass. Oct. 3—2t

COLONIAL WARS.

Fall Outing of the Society at Squantum on Saturday.

The Society of Colonial Wars of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts held its fall outing at the Squantum Inn, Squantum Park, Saturday, Oct. 1st. The occasion was one of great enjoyment, and all those who attended were deeply interested in the historic ground upon which they held their outing. The party, which numbered about 65 members left Boston in a special car attached to the 1.30 P. M. train; reaching Atlanic at 1.40 where electrics were taken direct to the Squantum Inn.

Dinner was served a 2.15 P. M. The Governor, A. J. C. Sowden presided, Mr. S. Arthur Bent of the Bostonian society gave a paper in regard to the locality and of the interesting events that have taken place there. Mr. W. K. Watkins gave an interesting account of the Pilgrim feasts or Squantum festival which was for many years held annually on the Squantum shore in August during the first quarter of this century. Resolutions were passed on the death of Hon. Thomas F. Bayard, who was formerly chancellor General of the Society, and a copy of the same is to be sent to the Deleware, society of which Mr. Bayard was Governor at the time of his death.

Governor Wolcott, who is a member of the society was unable to attend, owing to the pressure of his official duties and sent a letter of regret.

Addresses were also made by Hon. Edwin I. Barrett, President General of the Society Sons of the American Revolution. Hon. A. A. Folsom and others. Gov. Sowden paid a tribute to the memory of that noble Indian Tisquantum or Squanto to whose friendly aid our forefathers, owe such a lasting debt of gratitude.

After the dinner the guests visited the spring upon the beach, where is placed a notice bearing the following inscription:

"Here Capt. Myles Standish with his men, guided by the Indian Tisquantum landed early in the morning of Sept. 30, 1621. They found upon the beach a spring of fresh water. There they breakfasted." This spring which is carefully cared for by the owner, still flows upon the shore. The guests also visited the cairn which was erected by a member of the Daughters of the Revolution upon Squantum Head, two years ago.

The day was perfect for the outing of the society, and the Squantum Inn looked festive. The large dining room was trimmed with flags and bunting. On the tables were pots of ferns in which were placed small American flags. The dinner was finely served and all enjoyed it greatly.

Fish Chowder.
Bisque of Clams. Steamed Clams.
Smelts, a la Tartar. Haddock a la Rarebit.
Fried Clams. Lobster Newberg.
Lettuce. Beans.
Sweet Potatoes. Sliced Tomatoes.
Grapes. Oranges. Apples. Bananas.
Ice Cream.
Pumpkin Pie. Baked Indian Pudding.
Tea. Coffee. Crackers and Cheese.

After enjoying the beautiful view from the top of the Squantum headland, the members were photographed upon the steps of the Inn, and electric cars then taken for the return trip.

The following members of the society were present: Hon. A. J. C. Sowden, Governor Society Colonial Wars; Mr. Abijah Thompson, treasurer; Charles J. Parsons, deputy secretary; John A. Remick, S. Arthur Bent, treasurer Bostonian society; Walter Kendall Watkins, Capt. A. A. Folsom of the A. and H. Artillery Co.; Henry M. Upham, Horace H. Soule, Jr., Greenville H. Norcross, G. E. Richardson, H. D. Flagg, Gen. Francis H. Appleton Capt. Nathan Appleton, the Rev. H. F. Jenks, the Rev. Mr. Bodge, the Hon. Allen Rogers, Col. Henry A. Hale, James A. Noyes, Edward T. Barker, D. A. Brown, Dr. E. S. Hale, Edwi S. Crandon, E. D. Wadsworth, W. E. Stone, J. G. Moseley, Fred M. Stearns, F. D. Amsden, F. A. Richardson, Charles M. Parker, George F. Pierce, M. A. Mayhew, J. Arthur C. Thomson, E. B. Cowles, A. H. Stearns, H. F. Tapley, E. B. Cox, E. S. Tobey, L. H. Thompson, H. Young, E. L. Rogers, Virgil C. Pond, J. M. Swain, George W. Jones, J. C. M. Upton, Robert T. Swan, W. E. Stone, G. E. Pollard, Charles Leeds, E. F. Endicott, H. D. Pope, E. B. Coombs, John E. Cheney, James C. M. Upton and others.

The efficient committee that had charge of the outing was J. A. Remick, chairman; George E. Brown, Arthur C. Thompson, and Charles S. Parsosns deputy secretary.

☞ A written guarantee that our prices are as low and invariably lower for better goods, than any other furniture house in the country. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

DIED.

THAYER—In Quincy, Oct. 1, Mr. Albert Thayer, aged 82 years, 7 months and 28 days. Funeral services from residence No. 3 Payne street at 2 P. M., Tuesday, Oct. 4. Relatives and friends invited. Burial private.

NEWCOMB—In North Scituate, Oct. 1, Levy Newcomb, aged 76 years and 8 months.

LOCAL NEWS TRACK.

Some Colts which are Sure Winners Every Heat.

The summer girl is aptly named:
In summer days right warm is she,
But when the autumn cometh on
She cooleth off to some degree,
And when the winter-time is here
She's cold as cold can be to me.
—Harper's Bazar.

Convention week.

The sewer is being extended on Washington street from Canal toward Elm.

Democratic State convention on Tuesday, and the Republican on Thursday.

Twenty-five boats were off the Quincy Yacht club house Sunday, fishing for smelts.

The Mothers' meetings of the ladies of Bethany church will be resumed on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Beattie return to Quincy, today, after a pleasant trip to New York.

The Adams Academy eleven lost at foot ball Saturday at Milton to the Milton High; score 5 to 10.

A beautiful large fern graced the platform of the Bethany church on Sunday, the gift of Mrs. Wales.

G. T. Burkhardt and family of Squantum have returned to their winter home in Jamacia Plain.

Next Sunday will be rally day at Bethany church, especially in the Bible school, with a special speaker.

Mr. Henry W. Marsden and Mr. George H. Brainard of Wollaston, are at Nottingham, N. H., after foxes, etc.

Mr. Q. A. Faunce of Wollaston returned last week from a gunning trip to Concord, Mass. He brought home a fox.

Judge Humphrey is holding an inquest, today upon the death of Michael Saville, the West Quincy crossing tender.

Sunday was exceptionally fine for this time of the year and thous. ands took advantage of the day for one more outing.

Ex-Chief Hayden and wife and Mr. Allen Hayden go tomorow to Albany and down the Hudson river for a pleasure trip.

It was rumored that Mr. James Wild was to occupy the Murdock estate on Howard avenue, Quincy Neck, but today Mr. Wild decided not to take it.

Saturday night was a busy one with the police, and the result of their night's work was five for drunk, three for disturbing the peace, and two for assault.

The pine pasture and grove on the Braintree side of Quincy Neck is quite a shady retreat. Children of the Atlantic school visited there Saturday to study nature.

Mrs. Hazelstein and daughter, have returned to their home in Shelby, Ohio, after a brief visit with her parents., Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hayes, of Norfolk Downs.

Mrs. William Woodbury of Quincy Neck, has a small family of handsome young Guinea chickens, and they are a curiosty around Quincy, as very few are to be seen in these parts.

Mr. W. S. Bodwell of Howard street, Neck, while at Nantasket beach a short time ago, had his yacht stolen. The parties are suspected and Sunday he went down in search of the boat.

A party of Neponset young men returning from a fishing expedition to Moon Island Sunday afternoon when near Neponset bridge and attempting to leave the boat, it capsized and all received a good ducking.

A. G. Olney, real estate, Wollaston, has leased a suite in the Greene house on Safford street to Mr. Edgar Tirrell, another suite on Safford street to Mr. Charles C. Jones; and a store in the postoffice building to J. F. Truss of Malden.

Mr. Alpheus Hayward at Newcomb square, and the owner of Hayward's grove, has a large family of gray squirrels who make it their home among the handsome trees. They are large and fat. They are not to be shot at, but allowed to increase in numbers.

Every Sunday the residents of Quincy Neck near Howard avenue are treated between five and six o'clock to the loud reports from guns and rifles. All kinds of birds are shot in the vicinity of Bent's creek and the shots fly around in every direction.

Paul Revere Post 88, G. A. R., is arranging for a grand fair to be held at Music hall, Nov. 14 to 19. The Women's Relief Corps, the Sons of Veterans and the Daughters of Veterans, are all taking hold of it, and a grand and successful fair is assured.

Mrs. Lasly, the lady of the "house on wheels" tells big stories of how some people treat them. She says in Califonia, in twenty minutes, they sold $38 worth of books, and that the seven-year old boy has earned enough by singing to become the po ssessor of a government bond.

He Was Embarrassed.

He was painfully embarrassed. He came into our store last week and said to our new man (Mr. Ryder): "I want to get a f-f-f-f-f-f-fall——" He got one. He backed up to let a couple of ladies pass from our clothing department, and fell down two short steps which lead to that department. He got up smiling and said again: "I want to get a f-f-f-f-f-fall overcoat and I'm a little sh-sh-sh-sh-short——" "Oh! That makes no difference," said our man, "as we carry overcoats for all shaped men—for the short ones as well as the tall ones," and he laid out a few different styles for him to see.

"I m-m-m-m-mean that I'm sh-sh-sh-sh-short of mun-mun-mun-money and I want to know if I paid eh-eh-eh-eh-eight dollars on one, if I could pup-pup-pup-pay the rest on Saturday night?"

He went out with 50c. and a brand new Fall Overcoat. He bought a fine light covert for $7.50 that he expected to pay $10.00 for, and he did not feel bashful about saying so, either.

We don't trust because we want to sell you all the time. If we trusted—well, you know somebody's got to pay.

Our heavy weight Fall and Winter Covert at $9.85, made with swelled seams, satin facing and without lining, is the most economical coat a man can buy.

Remember we are the Headquarters in Quincy for Children's Clothing. Over 400 suits. Prices, $1.29 to $5.00.

QUINCY CLOTHING COMPANY,

QUINCY'S CLOTHIERS,

Music Hall Block.

By C. H. JOHNSON, - - Auctioneer. Office, Adams Building, Quincy, Mass.

Executor's Sale at Public Auction

of the personal property of the late EBEN A. STINCHFIELD, will be sold at residence off Howard avenue, Quincy Neck, on TUESDAY, Oct. 11, 1898, at 1 30 P. M. The property consists of Household Furniture, Stock of Groceries and 3 Carriages.

GROCERIES—Lot of Tea and Coffee, Spices, Canned Goods, Snuff, Stove Polish, Clay Pipes, Paper Bags, Clothes Pins, Vinegar, one-half barrel Molasses, Tea and Coffee Cans, Tobacco Cutter, Small Scales, Fish Scales, set Measures, large Showcase, 6-gal. Milk Cans Coffee Grinder, lot of Barrels.

HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE—5 cane seat Chairs and Rocker, Parlor Stove, open grate Coal Stove in good order, two Tables, Ice Chest, two Tables, Baby Carriage, Step Ladder, large Dish Closet, Small Stand, Desk, Oak Chamber Set in good condition, Forks, Rakes and lot Harness, Platform Scales and a variety of articles.

CARRIAGES—Buggy, open Express Wagon, Carryall and large Farm Wagon, Ladies' New Mail Bicycle.

Hen House. Terms cash. Sale positive.
Oct. 3. 6t

BROCKTON FAIR,

October 5, 6, 7 & 8.

The Season's Event.

$20,000

In Premiums.
Trot, Pace, Running, Bicycle Races.
The Biggest and Best

STAGE SHOW

Ever Given.

A MUSICAL FESTIVAL.

100 Musicians and Soloists,
Brooke's Marine Band, Chicago,
Reeve's Band, Providence,
Martland's Band, Brockton.

A HORSE SHOW.

First of the kind ever given in New England. Balloon Ascensions and many Novel Attractions Each Day.
A Four Day's Continuous Show.

ALWAYS SOMETHING DOING.
NO DULL WAITS AT THIS FAIR.

Tickets from Quincy admitting to grounds, 85c

Sept. 24—6t 24 27 28 29 1 3

E. LANDIS SNYDER,

Organist and Choirmaster of Christ Church,

TEACHER OF

VOICE CULTURE, PIANO AND ORGAN.

Studio: Room 10 Durgin & Merrill's Block, QUINCY, MASS.

Sept. 10. tf

JOHN EVANS,

Auctioneer and Appraiser.

Prompt Settlement.

24 COPELAND STREET, QUINCY.

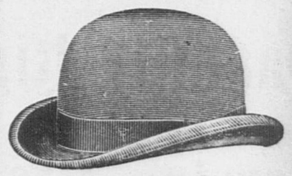

Feb. 26. tf

DANCING SCHOOL.

PROF. GARDNER,

the well known Boston teacher, will receive few more pupils in his class in COLONIAL HALL, Bank Building, Quincy, on Friday Evening, Oct. 7, at 7.45. Terms: Gents, $3, Ladies, $4. All the latest dances taught. Those who wish to learn should be present next Friday as pupils cannot be accepted after that evening. 1ptf

Hats and Furnishings.

"A good Hat redeems a seedy suit." Get a

BEACONSFIELD $3.00 DERBY

and wear your old clothes gracefully.

CHAMBERLAIN'S,

Telephone, Oxford 872.

663 WASHINGTON STREET, BOSTON.

Sept. 15 L 17-4w o

"Lend a Hand!"

is the cry of women whose housework is beyond their physical powers. Such women need to know that all cleaning is made easy by

GOLD DUST

Washing Powder

It's as good as an extra pair of hands in the household. It saves time and worry. Largest package—greatest economy.

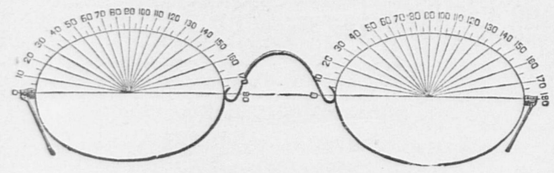

THE N. K. FAIRBANK COMPANY,
Chicago. St. Louis. New York.
Boston. Philadelphia.

GEO. AMES,

the ONLY PRACTICAL PLUMBER in the Hardware business in the City. He has a patent SEWER TRAP which cannot be beat. Impossible for deadly sewer gas to enter your homes. See him about your Sewer Connection. He has had three years' experience in Boston and other large cities. Established here in 1889 and still in it. Work done anywhere.

Hardware, Paints and Oils, Putty and Glass, Yacht Supplies, Steam and Gas Fittings. Steam and Hot Air Heaters put in repair for the winter.

ADAMS BUILDING

ASTIGMATISM

Causes most of the distressing headaches. Properly fitted glasses will correct the error and remove the pain. Consult

WILLIAMS.

Member of the New England Association of Opticians,

104 Hancock St., Quincy.

NOTHING BETTER,

UNCLE SAM'S NAVY

Now commands the respect of the world, and we are all proud of the defenders of the Nation's Honor. To give the people of Quincy a good idea of the grand battleships, we have ordered a large supply of portfolios, giving magnificent views of the ships, crews, etc.

With each purchase made at our store we will give a portfolio check to the value of the purchase. When you have $4.00 worth of these checks, return them and get a portfolio. Continue in this way until you have the set complete. Call and see these magnificent portfolios.

ROGERS BROS.,

Groceries and Provisions. Adams Building, Quincy.

A. J. DURAND,

Piano Tuning, etc.

19 Coddington St., Quincy.

Highly recommended by Chickering & Sons, and prominent Boston musicians.
Sept. 20. 1m

NOTICE TO VOTERS.

CITY OF QUINCY.

For the purpose of preparing the Annual Register of Voters, and of receiving evidence of qualification from persons claiming a right to Vote at the coming State Election, the Board of Registrars of Voters will be in session at the COUNCIL CHAMBER in the City Hall Building, on the evenings of

Wednesday, Sept. 14,
Saturday, Sept. 17,
Thursday, Sept. 29,
Saturday, Oct. 1,
Wednesday, Oct. 5.
Saturday, Oct. 8,
Saturday, Oct. 15,

From 7 to 9 P. M., and also on

Wednesday, Oct. 19,

From 12 o'clock M. until 10 o'clock P. M.

Every applicant for registration must appear in person before the Board, and must present either a certificate from the Assessors or a Tax bill or Notice from the Collector of Taxes, showing that he has been assessed as a resident of the City on the First day of May last; or a certificate from the Assessors that he has been a resident of the City for the six months next preceding the election at which he claims a right to vote. If a naturalized citizen he must also produce for inspection his papers of naturalization. Payment of a poll tax is not a prerequisite to voting.

No person can vote at the election unless his name has previously been placed upon the voting list of the Ward of which he was a resident on the first day of May last, and no name can be added to the list of voters unless registered previous to

Wednesday, Oct. 19th,

at 10 o'clock P. M., when registration will close.

Examine the Voting Lists posted, and see that your name is in its proper place. NO CHANGE can be made after WEDNESDAY, Oct. 19th, at 10 o'clock P. M. The Board of Assessors will be in session at their office on the same evenings.

EDWARD B. MARSH,
CORNELIUS MOYNIHAN,
EDWARD J. McKEON,
EDGAR G. CLEAVES,
Registrars.

Quincy, Sept. 6, 1898. 38t P10-2w

Situation In Brockton.

Brockton, Mass., Oct. 3.—Sunday members of the conference committee of the Lasters' union talked over the board of trade's proposition for definite rules for running the shops, but no decision was reached. The pickets reported that they had induced 20 men who had come to the city to take places in the factory to return to their homes.

The most important business of the meeting was the perfecting of the arrangements for the strike in the rest of the district. The manufacturers have been given until tomorrow to accept the list, and it is believed that they will settle. The district includes Abington, Rockland, Bridgewater and Middleboro. Representatives from the unions of these towns reported that the men were ready to come out if the list is not accepted.

[illegible] of Over a Million.

Manchester, N. H., Oct. 3.—A special to The Union from Dover says: "The woolen manufacturing company under the name, D. A. & J. Sawyer, assigned Saturday afternoon. Papers were served at 3 o'clock, naming J. Williams of Boston, and Alvah W. Sulloway of Franklin assignees. The corporation counsel said that the mills would run along the same as heretofore under the management of W. D. Sawyer, whom the assignees had appointed as their agent. He refused to state the amount of the liabilities, but it is estimated that they will amount to over $1,000,000. A statement will be prepared for the creditors as soon as possible."

Accused of Murder.

Cincinnati, Oct. 3.—Ex-State Senator J. C. Richardson died at his home in Glendale Saturday night. The coroner's inquest holds his brother-in-law, W. J. Haldman, a wealthy and prominent business man, for the murder. They were partners in a large paper mill at Lockland, O., and quarrelled two weeks ago over the shipment of a car of paper.

$30,000 TO LOAN

On Real Estate In Quincy

at 5 and 6 per cent. Interest.

HATCH & WILLIS,

172 Main Street, Room 4, Brockton Mass.
Sept. 28. 6t

Savings Bank Building, Quincy.

THE BOX RECEIVED.

Joy in Co. K. at Camp Meade on Saturday.

Camp Meade (annex),
Highspire, Penn., Oct. 1, 1898.

The weather is fine and warm today. We have the full moon which is very brilliant at night.

The boys enjoy here better than where the headquarters of regiment are stationed. We have a fine field of grass to walk on, our other camp being nothing but dust and sand.

This is our anniversary day it being three months today since our "Dandy Fifth" was mustered into the United States service. We are celebrating by a monthly inspection which takes place at the end of each month. At ten this morning the whole 2d Battalion were marched off in heavy marching order to the left of the battalion of the 13th Penn. where Major Morrison stood in readness to inspect battalion. The inspection consisted of examining rifles, clothing, mess kits, knives, forks, spoons, dippers and dishes, then the general appearance of the men. The inspection proved very satisfactory.

Lieut. Whitney is acting officer of day he being the first to fill this position in our new camp.

Private Daniel P. Lyons of K carried off the first honors to be orderly to Major Morrison. He is a clean, soldiery bearing fellow.

Sergt. Phillips was detailed with a number of privates from the battalion, to help unload the commissary department stores from railroad cars. He is performing his task in a creditable manner.

A large box arrived from Quincy this noon, containing many long sought for articles. The boys were overjoyed when their names were called, each wondering what they would get. Cans of peaches, apples, apricots, cakes, pies and everything in the eatable line were contained in the box. Privates Newcomb, Leslie, Faxon and many others are enjoying the good things sent them for dinner, which was just being served. It came in time for desert. The boys now appreciate the good things which they formerly had at home. The boys say that when they return that there will be no more "kicks" about burnt puddings, pies, or anything else. We are having our first experience away from home. Private Chase is appointed Company Clerk and takes charge of all mail matters, he makes a capital postmaster.

Lieut. Spear marched the company to the Susquehanna river this afternoon to partake of another bath. These baths are welcomed and enjoyed by boys.

—DOC.

A Soldierly Regiment.

The Evening Bulletin of Philadelphia in a letter from Camp Meade says: In the short time the Fifth Massachusetts Regiment has been in camp the men have established a reputation for neatness that is second to none. Their bearing is soldierly at all times, and the attention paid to their uniforms is worthy of a regular. Colonel Whitney is a West Point man, with stringent ideas in regard to the deportment and personal appearance of soldiers. For one of his command to appear carelessly attired means a reprimand or a fine.

In company with several of his offiers Colonel Whitney paid an informal visit to Colonel Anderson and the staff of the Second Tennessee. The band accompanied the visitors, and as they marched in to the Southerners the musicians played "Dixie." They were greeted with loud hurrahs by the Tennessee men, and as the last notes of "Dixie" died away the Southern band struck up "Yankee Doodle." Later the two bands united and gave an impromptu concert, which attracted a big crowd from the surrounding camps, and what was intended as a friendly visit assumed the proportions of a public reception. Speeches were made by the officers and the guests were entertained in royal style, according to the soliers' notion. In the coure of his remarks Colonel Anderson said he hoped this visit was the forerunner of many more, and that he looked upon the friendly overtures as one of the many indications of a nation united in fact as well as in name.

From the tumultuous applause that finished the Southerner's remarks the united efforts of the band could be heard in "Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean." The refrain was taken up by the soldiers and echoed in the camps of the First Maryland and Two Hundred and Second New York across the hills. Patients in the First Division hospital on the top of the hill to the west struggled to a reclining position to hear the music that set their nerves tingling.

—"Absent minded" would be the mildest term we could use to apply to the man who would lay all the material in his furnace and neglect to apply the match. The merchant who fills his store with goods and does not advertise has the disease in a more dangerous form. Thus says a contemporary, and we believe it.

POLITICAL FIELD.

At Least One of the Representatives Candidates in Doubt.

One of the hottest political fights in this city for many a day is the contest which is now being raged for the Republican representative nominations. There is but little doubt but what Mr. Eben W. Sheppard will get one of the plums, but whose lap the other will drop into is where the scramble comes. At first, that is several weeks ago, it seemed certain that Wollaston would pull out one of the nominations by common consent of the other wards. But as the time draws nigh for the convention it becomes more and more self evident that about every ward, with the exception of Ward Six, proposes to look out for its self and incidentially its favorite sons. That is natural and not wholly unexpected.

A week ago it looked as though Wollaston's candidate, whether Mr. Sprague or Mr. Nickerson, would walk into the convention with the nomination in his pocket. Within a few days all of this has been changed. Ward Three suddenly appears upon the scene with a strong labor candidate, Mr. Philip J. Halvosa, who it is understood carries the delegation with him, although Mr. John P. Bigelow's friends claim that the delegation is solid for their candidate. Then Ward Four comes in with another candidate, Mr. Jonas Shackley, who is putting up a fight. The convention is entitled to 34 delegates and 18 will be necessary for a choice.

There seems good reasons why Wards One, Five and Six should name the candidates this year. For the past three years James Thompson of Ward Three and T. H. Newcomb of Ward Two have been our Representatives, and the previous three years Charles L. Hammond of Ward Four served. With Eben W. Shepard from Ward One it would seem equitable and just that Ward Five or Six should be the home of the other candidates.

Ward One is entilted to 7 delegates, Ward Two to 5, Ward Three to 7, Ward Four to 5, Ward Five to 7, and Ward Six to 3.

WEYMOUTH.

The new bell in the Union church was put into the belfry on Monday last. It was cast from pieces of the old bell made by Paul Revere. The makers of this new one are the McNeeley Bell Company Troy, N. Y. The key note of it is A flat. There is an inscription upon it which reads: "Exalt the Lord our God, and worship at his holy hill; for the Lord our God is Holy. Ps. 99:9.

The High school now begins at 8.45 A. M. and closes at 1.55 P. M. The lower grades begin at 8.45 A. M. and 1.30 P. M.

Rev. H. S. Synder who has been sick for several days is now able to resume his duties.

The torpedo boat destroyers to be made at the Fore River Engine company are to be named McDonough No. 9, and Lawrence No. 8. They will be 245 feet long and have a speed of 30 knots an hour.

On account of the new brass shop and the 300 more hands required for boat building, tenements and board are in demand in Weymouth and East Braintree.

Mrs. Marcia Hunt will receive the Union Literary Circle at her house on Front street Tuesday evening.

Rev. W. H. Bolster, once a pastor at South Weymouth, has resigned his latest charge, the Harvard church, Dorchester.

The Quincy and Boston Electric railway company are clearing away the debris about the old Union church grounds. They have also purchased the Stetson property. Great changes may be expected at the corner of Quincy avenue and Commercial street within a year.

Hospital Aid Association.

With the greatly increasing demands upon our City Hospital, which by the way, has been taxed to its utmost capacity this summer, the Aid Association feels it must increase its supplies; and having depended wholly in the last two years upon its membership fees, with which to carry on this noble work, it now asks the ever generous people of Quincy to contribute the sum of ten cents each, hoping thereby to secure a goodly sum.

The ladies who have volunteered to solicit for the Association, are: Mrs. J. Henry Emery, Miss Maria A. Whitney, Mrs Relief Floyd, Miss May Scannell, Mrs. Edwin E. Davis, Mrs. Thomas Fenno, Mrs. Herbert M. Federhen, Mrs. Jared T. Thomas, Mrs. George S. Keyes, Mrs. Horace F. Spear.

The collection is to be made before the next meeting which will be held Thursday afternoon, Oct. 27, at three o'clock in the rooms of the Granite Manufacturers' Association in Durgin & Merrill's building on Hancock street.

☞ Furniture reupholstered and mattresses made over. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

LAND VALUES.

Continued from page 1.

WARD FIVE.

Valuation of Land Only.	Total Ward Tax.
Holden, John O., est.,	26 10
14,164, Greenleaf place, $750.
13,244, " " $700.
Holden, Mattie A.	8 10
6,504, Lot 11, Blk. B, Sec. 6, $450.
Holmes, Sarah A.	50 40
5,000, Brooks, $500.
Howard, Annie E.	54 90
6,350, Brooks, $550.
Howe, Franklin A.	57 80
5,000, Newport ave., $450.
5,000, " " $450.
Howe, Jones	51 50
2,500, Farrington, $175.
2,500, " $175.
Humphrey, Catherine	7 20
5,000, Lot 2, Blk. 13, Sec. 6, $400.
Hunt, Elizabeth A.	42 30
5,300 feet, Arlington street, $550.
Hunter, Clarence	45 20
3,254, Wendall ave., $600.
Huntington, Mrs. Julia P.	95 40
18,000, Willow, $1,800.
Hurley, Daniel	24 30
5,000, Farrington, $350.
Huston, Hattie E.	84 60
5,000, Brooks, $500.
9,468, Greenward ave., $200.
Hutchins, Charles P.	86 60
11,250, Highland, $1,100.
11,250, " $1,100.
Hutchins, C. P. and Herbert W. Marshall,	66 50
5,000, Taylor, $350.
5,000, " $350.

WARD SIX.

Holbrook, Henrietta	12 60
52,366, Belleview park, $700.
Holbrook, Horatio N.	228 80
7,680, Belleview park, $300.
8,000, " " $200.
21,880, " " $500.
8,000, " " $200.
6,500, " " $150.
10,400, " " $300.
7,415, " " $200.
8,130, " " $200.
10,900, " " $250.
6,920, " " $100.
7,261, " " $200.
7,700, " " $200.
8,548, " " $100.
10,946, " " $250.
8,160, " " $100.
40,800, " " $1,000.
8,160, " " $200.
16,320, " " $400.
8,160, " " $300.
8,400, " " $300.
32,640, " " $800.
8,400, " " $200.
16,320, " " $300.
8,400, " " $375.
32,880, " " $1,200.
8,160, " " $350.
8,160, " " $325.
8,400, " " $400.
8,160, " " $200.
5,000, " " $300.
Holleran, Mary C.	38 70
5,250, Wilson court, $350
4,775, " " $300.
Horton, Ella N.	33 75
4,583, Appleton, $375.
Howe, Laura F., est.,	7 20
3 1-2 acres, salt marsh, $400.
Hyland, Mary	7 20
10,000, Squantum, $400.
Humphpey, George W.	54 20
5,000, Royal, $400.

[To be continued.]

You should save a file of the Ledger while this list is being printed. We cannot supply back numbers of the paper at 2 cents per copy, but have established this rate: Papers one week old, 5 cents; papers one month old, 10 cents; papers one year old, 25 cents.

A Troublesome Cow.

To the Editor of Ledger:

For several weeks the people of Atlantic have been annoyed by the gallivanting of a cow through their lawns and orchards, which has helped herself to fruit, flowers, and vegetables beside injurying the premises.

One of our citizens had occasion to cross his lawn one evening, when he fell over the body of the prostrate cow, who, no doubt, after marauding his garden had lain down to chew her cud. The gentleman was much surprised and very indignant that this obstacle should confront him, and, I believe, threatened to put her in the pound if the owner did not keep her at home.

But the cow is still at large and invading all accessible lawns and gardens and has been driven off some grounds two or three times in one day.

It hardly seems as through such a nuisance could escape the eyes of our police and they should see that the nuisance is abated.

It has been proposed that those property owners who have suffered from the invaders make out a bill of damages and present to the owner of the cow, which if he refuse to pay might be collected through the court.

Perhaps Mr. Editor, you will be kind enough to publish in the Ledger any law in Quincy relative to cows running about at their own sweet will, day and night, regardless of lawns, driveways vegetables, flowers and orchards.

DEFENCELESS WOMAN.

Brockton's Fair.

Tickets from Quincy to Brockton and return, admitting to the Fair Grounds, will be sold at the local station of the N. Y., N. H. & H. road for 85 cents. This popular out-door show is bigger and better than ever this season, and a large delegation from this city is sure to be present.

☞ Glenwood Ranges are the quickest and finest bakers on earth. Ask any person who ever used one. Prices $18.00 to $33.00. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

TO CURE NERVOUS DYSPEPSIA.

To Gain Flesh, to Sleep Well, to Know What Appetite and Good Digestion Mean, Make a Test of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Interesting Experience of an Indianapolis Gentleman.

No trouble is more common or more misunderstood than nervous dyspepsia. People having it think that their nerves are to blame, are surprised that they are not cured by nerve medicines and spring remedies; the real seat of mischief is lost sight of; the stomach is the organ to be looked after.

Nervous dyspeptics often do not have any pain whatever in the stomach, nor perhaps any of the usual symptoms of stomach weakness. Nervous dyspepsia shows itself not in the stomach so much as in nearly every other organ; in some cases the heart palpitates and is irregular; in others, the kidneys are affected; in others the bowels are constipated, with headaches still others are troubled with loss of flesh and appetite, with the accumulation of gass, sour risings and heartburn.

Mr. A. W. Sharper of No. 61 Prospect street, Indianapolis, Ind., writes as follows: "A motive of pure gratitude prompts me to write these few liens regarding the new and valuable medicine, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I have been a sufferer from nervous dyspepsia for the last four years have used various patent medicines and other remedies without any favorable result. They sometimes gave temporary relief until the effects of the medicine wore off. I attributed this to my sedentary habits, being a bookkeeper with little physical exercise, but I am glad to state that the tablets have overcome all the obstacle, for I have gained in flesh, sleep better, and am better in every way. The above is written not for notority, but is based on actual facts."

Repectfully yours,
A. W. Sharper,
61 Prospect street, Indianapolis, Ind.

It is safe to say that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will cure any stomach weakness or disease except cancer of the stomach. They cure sour stomach, gas, loss of flesh and appetite, sleeplessness, palpitation, heartburn, constipation and headache.

Send for valuable little book on stomach diseases by addressing Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

All drggists sell full-sized packages at 50 cents. 3t-357.

Chance's Pal.

Arthur Hagan, with several aliases, who is implicated in the murder of drug clerk Russell in the store under the United States hotel, Boston, by the confession of John H. Chance, was arrested in Chicago on Saturday. The parents of Chance reside at Atlantic, and Chance, who is under arrest for the murder since April, was arrested at their house. The police say Chance told them that he and Hagan went to the drug store for the purpose of robbing the place; that he stood on the outside and watched for the approach of pedestrians or policemen, while Hagan went into the store to rob the clerk. Clerk Russell was behind the desk when Hagan went in and demanded his money. Russell approached and seized him. In struggling for his freedom, Hagan, Chance said, fired the fatal shot.

TODAY'S COURT.

Today's session of the District Court was a busy one, a large number of cases, mostly for minor offenses being disposed of by Judge Pratt.

John R. McNeil was arraigned for assault on his wife Katie McNeil at Quincy. Case placed on file.

Charles Daneley was arraigned for drunkenness at Quincy. Case continued until Friday.

John J. Ford, Louis Ambrose, Abraham Delory, August Seger and William Bugbee were fined $5 each for drunkenness at Quincy.

Joseph P. Curley was fined $7 for drunkenness at Weymouth.

Richard Allice was arraigned for disturbing the peace at Quincy. Placed on file.

John J. Lucy was arraigned for breaking and entering the stable of W. H. Callahan at Quincy and the larceny of a harness valued at $35. He was held in $500 for the grand jury.

George J. Trainer and James Frazer were fined $5 each for disturbing the peace at Quincy.

Jeremiah Morriarty was arraigned for assault on his wife Mary, at Quincy, and was fined $5. Appealed.

George F. White, William Burns and Thomas Gunning, were arraigned for disturbing the peace at Milton. Cases continued until Thursday.

James Dillon was sent to the house of correction for two months for drunkenness at Weymouth.

N. Frank Cleary was arraigned for drunkenness at Weymouth. Case placed on file.

Quincy Post Office.

Letters unclaimed for week ending Oct. 3, is unusually large, and includes:

George L. Frost, Frank E. Hobart, George Hill, James Lawrence, M. J. McDonald, J. L. Newton.

Mrs. I. Bailey, Mrs. L. T. Brown, Mrs. A. Burgin, Mrs. W. Chagnon, Mrs. A. Comman, Mrs. J. Davola, Mrs. R. Deacon, Mrs. J. Dincen, Mrs. Dickinson, Miss Winnie Dalton, Mrs. A. Gustaara, Mrs. E. B. Hayward, Mrs. E. J. Hayes, Mrs. H. K. Horton, Mrs. C. Isaacson, Mrs. J. King, Mrs. W. Landry, Miss Martha J. Lincoln, Annie McCormack, Mrs. C. Montague, Mrs. E. Meaney, Mrs. E. Millen, Mrs. N. Matson, Mrs. J. A. McLeod, Mrs. T. Matti, Mrs. J. Nelson, Mrs. O. Nelson, Mrs. M. Oliver, Mrs. J. M. O'Donnell, Mrs. A. J. Poie, Mrs. G. M. Pirie, Mrs. J. Pirie, Mrs. S. Pamiscan, Mrs. J. Robinson, Mrs. W. T. Sullivan, Mrs. J. Sullivan, Mrs. J. Smith, Mrs. F. Sansonna, Mrs. W. Taylor, Mrs. D. Tead, Mrs. D. Treet, Mrs. J. Teefe, Mrs. A. Talivar, Mrs. W. Wilson, Mrs. S. Yelinan.

☞ It makes men tired to beat their carpets; that's why they send them to our electric beater. It does the work so thoroughly too. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS.

Advertisements in this column inserted at the following rates:

Four lines, or less, one day, - - 25 cents.
" " three days, - - - 50 cents.
" " one week, - - - - 75 cents.

Additional lines will be charged for pro rata. Seven words equal a line. Long term rates furnished on application.

LOST.

LOST—A Brown Purse with money and samples, marked Spaulding, between Neponset and Quincy. Call at Ledger office and receive reward.
Quincy, Oct. 3. 1t

WANTED.

WANTED—Board and room in a private family near the centre, by a young married couple. Address "X," Ledger office.
Quincy, Oct. 1. 3t

WANTED—Quincy & Boston R. R. Co. Stock wanted for investment; ten or more shares; state lowest figures. Address "POTTER," Ledger office. Oct. 1—3t

WANTED—Competent Swede girl for general housework. Apply at 13 Spear street, fifth house below Public Library. 1ptf

WANTED—Girl, willing and capable to take care of children and assist as second girl. MRS. GEO. H. BROWN, 44 Elm street, Quincy. sep28 tf

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—House and large lot of land at 139 Granite street. Appply to JAMES B. FLETCHER, 33 Garfield street.
Quincy, Sept. 23.—tf 24 tf

FOR SALE.

Bigelow St. Fine New Residence, 9 rooms, bath, laundry, furnace, open plumbing, cemented cellar, fireplace, etc.

R. D. CHASE,
Savings Bank Building.
Quincy, April 8-tf. 9p-tf

TO LET.

TO LET—Cottage house, No. 29 Granite street, 8 rooms, three minutes' from City Square. Apply to H. M. FAXON, 4 Adams Building. Sept. 30—tf

WANTED—First-class Pants and Vest maker and bushel girl. Apply to D. BAMFORD. Sept. 30—3t

LAND TO LET—The lot now occupied by George S. Paterson on Brackett street, will be leased for a term of years if desired. HENRY H. FAXON. Sept. 29—6t

TO LFT—Half a House of 5 rooms entirely separate on Phipps street, Mt. Pleasant. Rent, $8 a month; city water. Inquire at 17 Summer street.
Quincy, Sept. 27. 6t

FOR RENT—Desirable house with bath, corner lot, nice neighborhood, three minutes' walk from schools, churches and depot Rent reasonable. Apply at No. 6 Pleasant St.
Quincy, Sept. 7. tf

TO LET—Lower half of house on Foster street, centre of the town. All modern improvements. Fine opportunity for small family. Enquire of E. B. SOUTHER, No. 1 Granite street, Quincy. Aug. 11—tf

TO LET IN QUINCY.

SOUTHERLY Half of house with stable, 214 Hancock street, now occupied by Dr. N. S. Hunting. Modern improvements, central location. Possession given about October 15th. Apply on premises to
MISS M. F. UNDERWOOD.
Oct. 1. tf

TO LET.

APARTMENTS of five large rooms and bath, with all modern improvements. Also two large stores. Rent moderate. Apply to ARTHUR CRAIG, or J. W. HAYDEN, at Craig Building, cor. Copeland and Garfield Sts.
Quincy, July 15. pl tf

FISH.

Everything first-class at the

Cape Cod Fish Market,

Temple Street.

All kinds Fresh, Salt, Smoked and Pickeled

Quincy, Feb. 8. 1y

DR. HERBERT S. HAYFORD

195 Hancock Street.

OFFICE HOURS—11 to 12 A. M., 2 to 4 and 7 to 8 P. M.

Telephone, 4-3.

Quincy, July 5. tf

WILLIAM E. BAXTER, M. D.

Practice Limited to the

EYE AND EAR.

553 Boylston St., Boston.

QUINCY—Monday and Friday.

Hours, 9 to 11. 195 Hancock Street
May 21. 1y

King of Spain.—Save me! Save me!!!
Sagasta.—They don't want you; they want Battle Ax.

Many of our wants are satisfied with substitutes—but there is no substitute for

BattleAx PLUG

When a man wants Battle Ax there is a reason for it—and when he is offered anything "just as good" there is a reason for his insisting on Battle Ax.

This reason is that Battle Ax is better than any other chewing tobacco that money will buy.

Remember the name when you buy again.

MAKE IT HOT FOR YOU.

If your house is cold and you have become disgusted with the various devices called heaters, and you are really anxious to have warmth and comfort in your home, place an order for one of those G. B. Bates CIRCULATORS.

It will "make it hot for you" or just the temperature you desire. Its construction is based upon scientific and economical principles. Several have recently been put in right here in Quincy, and others will be put in during the next few weeks. Don't read this ad. and then forget about it till your water pipes are all frozen, but go now to

G. B. BATES,

Hancock Street, Quincy.

Lamson & Hubbard

Fall Style, 1898.

1898. Fall Style. 1898.

We are prepared to show all the latest Hats for Fall wear from the blocks of the best makers.

An early call will secure you a selection from a fine assortment.

GEO. W. JONES,

Adams Building, Quincy.

Special Opening!

Flannelette Undergarments.

New Goods and Very Low Prices When the Quality is Considered.

These Goods are made for Men, Women and Children.

Call and Examine the Goods. You will Buy Them.

D. E. WADSWORTH & CO.,

Hancock Street, - - - Quincy.

STORMBEATEN COAST.

West Indian Hurricane the Cause of Inundation.

Eight-Mile Lake In the Vicinity of Savannah.

Fear For the Safety of the Insular Population.

Belief That Many Perished From a Great Tidal Wave.

Savannah, Oct. 3.—A hurricane and a tidal wave visited this section early Sunday morning. For 18 hours the wind was at a velocity of about 75 miles. The city was not damaged materially; the serious effects of the visitation are everywhere visible in the vicinity of Savannah.

For miles in every direction around Savannah the lowlands along the rivers are submerged. Only one fatality has so far been reported—the drowning of a negro while attempting to reach the mainland from a small island near Thunder light—but heavy loss of life is feared from the South Carolina sea islands, where awful loss of life occurred during the great tidal storm of 1893. The conditions now are similar to those during that storm. Owing to the submerged country and the isolated location of the islands no news can be had from them until the water subsides.

For eight miles north of Savannah the entire country is a lake. At noon Sunday the water was eight feet above the highest tide. Driven on shore by the northeast storm, it filled the islands, and swept off banks and dams, carrying away the remnant of the rice crop that was left by the August storm and had not been gathered, and wiping out farm crops. The loss to rice growers alone will be from $50,000 to $75,000. Of the entire rice crop along the Savannah river, valued at $250,000, all but about 15 percent was lost in this and the preceding storm.

The damage to shipping is great. The Governor Ames, which was on her way to sea with a cargo of 1,500,000 feet of lumber, went adrift in the harbor, but was secured safely. The wharves at the quarantine station at the entrance to the river were partially carried away. The quarantine officer, his family and servants were rescued in the bay by a tug. Four vessels which were at anchor at the station were torn from their moorings and driven into the marshes. Three of these were the Synara, bound from St. John, N. B.; the Millville, for Millville, N. J.; the Fannie L. Childs, for Boston, all lumber laden, and the Italian bark, Franklin.

How badly these vessels are damaged is unknown. No news has been received from Tybee since early in the morning and nothing is known of the damage there. At Thunderbolt and Isle of Hope, subprbs of Savannah, all the boathousse on the banks and and hundreds of small boats were carried away.

The extent to which the railroads suffered is not fully known. The naval stores and cotton and lumber wards of the Plant system are submerged and the tracks of the Central of Georgia, and Georgia and Alabama roads around the city are covered. Telegraph wires, except one wire over the Western Union lines, the telephone, police, light and fire alarm wires are down, and the city was in darkness last night.

On Hutchinson island, opposite Savannah and separating the city from the South Carolina shore, many negro families were rescued by b oats from the revenue steamers, Tybee and Boutwell.

Arrests in Paris.

Paris, Oct. 3.—The holding of a Dreyfus demonstration Sunday was prevented by the closing of the hall. The organizer and his friends tried to force an entrance, and an uproar resulted. The police then intervened and arrested three amid shouts and countershouts of "Live revision," "Live the army" and "Live Zola." The persons taken into custody were subsequently released.

An ugly statement is made by a Little Republic writer to the effect that Colonel Picquart, who had previously taken exercise in the courtyard of the jail daily, has not left his cell since Thursday, when he was seized with symptoms of cerebral congestion, followed by coma.

Many persons were slightly injured in a disturbance which occurred last evening, though sticks were the only weapons used. Six of the persons arrested have been held.

The next exposures will be such as might tempt any ambitious foreign power to take advantage of the weakness and infamy of those upon whom France relies for her defense; but, fortunately, there is little reason to fear an attack from the quarter whence the French themselves believe it is most likely to come. The story, when told, will be an appalling object lesson on the moral effect upon those most concerned of the modern system of keeping great nations constantly on a war footing.

Lion Trainer Nearly Killed.

Butte, Mont., Oct. 3.—Walter Blankard, better known as Zeke Walters, the animal trainer with Lehman Bros.' circus, was attacked in the lions' cage by one of the lions, which felled him with a blow on the head with its paws, and continued the attack as he lay prostrate. Walters grabbed one of the bars of the cage and drew himself to his feet, at the same time attempting to fight off the brute. Almost blinded by blood from the wounds in his head, Walters dragged himself to the door at the rear of the cage. Unfastening it he leaped to the street and fell unconscious to the ground. The door slammed shut after his exit, thus preventing the escape of the animals. Walters' back is terribly lacerated. The doctors say he cannot live.

MAGNATES AS AUTOCRATS.

Novel Construction of the Tangible Value of a League Franchise.

St. Louis, Oct. 3.—The National league has decided to apply a method to improve the baseball situation in St. Louis. This decision, it is said, will result in the elimination of Von Der Ahe and all the interests allied with him in the present organization, and will give the franchise to Frank Robison of Cleveland, who will transfer the Cleveland team bodily next year.

The league holds that the franchise consists merely of the consent of the different clubs to play with one another, and if 11 of the clubs agree to withdraw this consent to play either at home or abroad with a 12th club, the 12th club has no redress. Under this ruling a franchise is considered to be a thing of no tangible value, and each so-called franchise or agreement to play games is the property of the whole league and not of any club.

This description of the value of a franchise was advanced by John T. Brush during his visit to this city last week during a discussion as to the fate of the St. Louis players. Mr. Brush said that the magnates feel that the interest of the league demands a strong team in St. Louis, and to bring this about they have determined to withdraw their consent to play with the present St. Louis club and transfer it to the Cleveland team when it is located in St. Louis.

Saturday the New Yorks were easily beaten in a double-header at Washington, but managed to keep ahead of the Philadelphias because the latter were outplayed by the Bostons. The Baltimores won two close battles from the Brooklyns. Two games were played by Cincinnati and St. Louis, each team winning a ball. The Clevelands were subdued in a pitchers' battle by the Pittsburgs.

Breitenstein and Hill of the Cincinnatis pitched great ball yesterday, allowing the St. Louis club but six hits in two games.

Two thousand people saw the Brooklyns win a splendid game from the Washingtons yesterday in Weehawken, N. J. The senators gained a lead of three runs by good hitting in the first four innings and then stopped, Dunn pitching great ball after that.

The National league standing is as follows: Bostons, 679; Baltimores, 655; Cincinnatis, 603; Clevelards, 558; Chicagoes, 549; New Yorks, 514; Philadelphias, 507; Pittsburgs, 486; Louisvilles, 460; Brooklyns, 381; Washingtons, 340; St. Louises, 259.

Hamilton is the only Boston representative among the first 10 batsmen in the country. Baltimore claims four men in that number—Keeler, McGraw, Kelley and Demont.

New York is said to have secured a very promising catcher in Lattimer of the Dayton club.

Manager Selee says that the Louisvilles were the hardest club to beat that the Bostons tackled on the road this year. Harry Weldon says that Gatins, the new shortstop of the Washingtons, is a counterpart of Corcoran of the Cincinnatis, in actions as well as looks.

Lojoie has made 41 doubles, 10 triples and 6 home runs, and is second in the league in extra hits, Collins being first with 33 doubles, 5 triples and 15 home runs.

Tomorrow's Almanac and Forecast.

Sun rises—5:42; sets, 5:34.
Moon rises—6:28 p. m.
High water—1.45 a. m.; 2 p. m.

Tuesday cloudy, cooler weather will prevail, with rain and dangerous easterly gales on the coast, the winds becoming variable, and on Wednesday partly cloudy, much cooler weather, with killing frosts in the western and lake districts.

The storm reported off the south Atlantic coast yesterday morning has moved with destructive force northwesterly, causing gales and heavy rains on the Florida, Georgia and Carolina coasts. It will advance northward today. Gales, dangerous to shipping, will extend from Cape Hatteras northward to Sandy Hook and Boston tomorrow.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

Patrick Connolly, 37 years old, the proprietor of a saloon in Jersey City, was killed by Dubois Williams, a negro.

The Montgomery has been ordered to Providence and to remain two days. Governor Dyer will act at once in preparing for a worthy reception to the warship.

The enrollment at Yale for this year is thus far known in only two departments of the university. The freshman class in the scientific department numbers 325.

The London Standard says editorially this morning that it is convinced that England could confidently reckon on the support of the United States and Japan in the execution of necessary measures in China.

A dispatch received from the Vizayas islands says the Tagalos landed in the Antigua province and were completely defeated by a Spanish column after a sharp fight in which 94 of the insurgents were killed.

Milton Nobles, the actor, whose home is in Brooklyn, has filed a petition in the United States court for relief from the payment of certain debts, amounting to nearly $20,000, contracted during his stage career.

A convention of postmasters of the first-class will be held in Detroit next week. Postmasters desiring leave to attend it can secure it by applying to Assistant Postmaster General Heath by wire or letter.

Nearly 1,800,000 people have passed the gates of the Omaha exposition. Last week the attendance was 128,854. The official figures for Saturday are 21,250. Railroads are increasing their rolling stock, anticipating the extra travel for jubilee week.

An order issued by the Prussian home minister to the governor of Erwert complains of the leniency shown by the police in recent disturbances, and enjoins them in the future to act resolutely, using the edge and not the flat of their swords if the rioters refuse to disperse. This order is believed to be directed against the socialists.

KNIFE IN HIS BREAST.

Young Man the Victim of a Murderous Italian.

Assailant Had Been Struck by a Cigar Stub.

Refused an Apology, and Healed His Honor With Blood.

Providence, Oct. 3.—George Collins, 24 years old, was probably fatally stabbed soon after midnight Sunday morning in Rumford. He was on a car platform with two Italians, and in tossing away a cigar accidentally struck one of the men with it.

Collins immediately apologized, but the Italian pushed him away in a vicious manner, and would not accept an explanation.

When the car was near the terminus of the road out in the country, Collins alighted from one end and the Italians alighted from the other end. When the car restarted, one of the Italians plunged a knife into Collins' right breast. He was barely alive when the surgeon responded to a call by men who were attracted by the injured man's cries. He was taken to the Rhode Island hospital, where he is in a precarious condition. The Italians escaped.

Canada's Quid Pro Quo.

Quebec, Oct. 3.—During the past 24 hours the American members of the international commission have received many telegrams from different parts of the United States, and particularly from Seattle, asking about the cession of American territory to give the Canadians freer access to the Yukon river in Alaska. It has been reported that the Canadian commissioners have been demanding the cession of the territory from Jakitat bay to Dixon's entrance, including the cities of Skaguay and Dyea, thus extending the Canadian boundary line to the Pacific ocean between the points named, this cession being given in return for the surrender of all British rights to the seal fisheries in the Bering sea. It is quite possible that such a proposition has been made by the Canadian commissioners, but it is stated upon official information that the matter has not been considered by the joint commission in a conclusive way, and that no proposition whatever has been accepted.

Mr. Williams' Successor Found.

Boston, Oct. 3.—The Herald says: "All circumstances now point to the fact that the next Democratic candidate for governor will be Alexander B. Bruce, mayor of Lawrence in 1886 and 1887; that the candidate for lieutenant governor will be Edward J. Slattery, state president of the A. O. H., and that the chairman of the state convention will be Philip Doherty. This is the ticket which will in all probabilty be agreed upon by the state conventon in Worcester Tuesday.

"It is understood that ex-Mayor Bruce will be nominated by Joseph J. Flynn. The latter carried the caucuses against Mr. Bruce in the Fifth congressional district, comprising, Lawrence, Lowell and Woburn, a few days ago. Mr. Bruce has allowed his name to be used and has agreed that Mr. Flynn shall place his name before the convention.

"Hon. George Fred Williams will not be the candidate. He will address the convention, it is understood, and his remarys will be of the utmost importance.

Criminal Sort of Accident.

Fall River, Oct. 3.—An open car on the Fall River and New Bedford electric railway was fired into last evening by sportsmen who had been hunting near Beulah, four miles from this city. Thomas E. Crowther, contractor and builder of this city, was struck in the nose near the left eye. Charles F. Chadwick, a musician of New Bedford, escaped with several shot entering the crown of his hat. Joseph Walker of Fall River was wounded in the cheek and neck.

George Taylor and George Brown of this city, who were near the scene of the shooting, have been arrested, but they claim that the shooting was done by another man, and that it was wholly accidental. The third man was not arrested, but his name is known.

Relieving the Destitute.

Cumberland, Wis., Oct. 3.—News of another death from forest fires comes from the town of Clinton. A boy was found dead on the bank of the Yellow river. His feet were badly burned, and the appearance indicated that he had sought the river for safety.

General Boardman has listed 73 destitute families in Turtle Lake, 52 in Cumberland, 40 in Stancord and Rice Lake, and has sent families in Clinton, Barron and Cumberland immediate assistance. The danger is mostly past, though it is unsafe to travel through some districts in the vicinity of Cumberland. The property loss in this county will aggregate $400,000, besides the farm buildings and crops. A large amount of stock has been burned, and much hardwood timber has been destroyed.

Irish-Americans Congratulated.

Cork, Oct. 3.—An orderly demonstration took place Sunday upon the occasion of the laying of the foundation stone by the mayor of a monument in memory of the Irish revolutionists of 1790, 1803, 1848 and 1867. Irish members of the house of commons were present. A resolution was adopted congratulating Irish-Americans upon their patriotic efforts to prevent the forming of an Anglo-American alliance.

Foul Play or Exposure.

Bucksport, Me., Oct. 3.—The body of Sarah Ware, who had been missing two weeks, was found Sunday by a searching party in a remote pasture about half a mile from her home. It was badly decomposed and the face mutilated. At a preliminary examination the coroner was unable to decide whether it is a case of foul play, or death from exposure. The latter theory is considered more probable.

Bon Ami

The Modern Cleaner

AND POLISH, COMPARES WITH OTHER CLEANERS AS A SEWING MACHINE WITH A NEEDLE.

BOYS' SUITS THAT SUIT BOYS

Grand Clearance Sale of Boys'

SCHOOL SUITS,

$1.50 to $3.50.

Worth Double the Price.

School begins Tuesday and your boy wants something new. Drop in to our store tonight and see how little money it takes to dress him handsomely.

Granite Clothing Co.

DURGIN & MERRILL'S BLOCK.

DR. RALPH M. FOGG,

DENTIST.

Teeth extracted absolutely without pain by the use of the

"BOSTON VEGETABLE VAPOR."

It is claimed that, while it has the required properties of ether, chloroform, nitrous oxide gas, it lacks the disagreeable and dangerous qualities of these drugs. It is certainly a boon to suffering humanity to be relieved of the nausea too often following the administering of sedatives of the old school.—Boston Transcript.

Teeth made and repaired on Gold or Rubber base. Teeth Filling a specialty.

Office in French's Building, five doors south of Post Office, Quincy, Wednesdays. Hours, 9 A. M. to 5 P. M. July18-ly Nov8-1yo

TEETH EXTRACTED.

No Pain or Danger.

Safer than vapor. Money paid for extracting goes towards teeth to be inserted. I am the only dentist in the city using the Painless Preparation for Extraction.

DR. C. B. UNDERWOOD,

9 Spear St. Rear of Public Library

ALBERT J. BOWERS

OPTICIAN

ADAMS BUILDING
OVER POST OFFICE

QUINCY MASS.

The John Hancock Stables.

Opposite Depot, Quincy, Mass.

Boarding, Baiting, Livery and Sale.

DR. J. A. DOW, Proprietor,

the well known Veterinary dentist and specialist in the treatment of lame horses. Sick horses treated at owner's risk.

The finest equipped and managed stable of its size in America.

Fine driving turnouts in light rigs; safe and good appearing. All horses let are perfectly safe for ladies to drive.

The choicest family, road and coach horses constantly on hand for sale. All horses guaranteed as represented.

☞ Will attend to veterinary practice as usual. aug18-1y

Come, Mary,

Let's go over to the Quincy Second-Hand Variety Store and see if we can't find just what we want. You say you need some more kitchen goods and a few chairs, a carpet for the chamber, some glassware and various other things, and when I was there last week I saw my cousin get a lot of goods for almost nothing. He told me that sometimes he could find new goods at less than half price. These are hard times, Mary, and we must buy where the dollar goes farthest.

WALTER P. PINEL

is the Manager, and the store is right over here at number 20 Franklin street.

aug25 1y

E. S. BECKFORD,

Electrician.

Wiring and Fitting for Incandescent, Motors, Dynamos, Bells, etc.

GRANITE STREET, Near the Bridge, QUINCY

Feb. 1. 1y

Chichester's English Diamond Brand.

PENNYROYAL PILLS

Original and Only Genuine.
SAFE, always reliable. LADIES ask Druggist for Chichester's English Diamond Brand in Red and Gold metallic boxes, sealed with blue ribbon. Take no other. Refuse dangerous substitutions and imitations. At Druggists, or send 4c. in stamps for particulars, testimonials and "Relief for Ladies," in letter, by return Mail. 10,000 Testimonials. Name Paper.
Chichester Chemical Co., Madison Square, PHILADA., PA.
Sold by all Local Druggists. Sold by Geo. C. Goodwin & Co., Boston, Mass
General Agents.

Quincy and Boston Electric Street Railway.

[Subject to change without notice.]

On and after September 21, cars will be run on the different routes as follows:

Quincy and Neponset.

Leave CITY SQUARE for Neponset at 5.55, 6.10, 6.25, 6.40 A. M. and every 15 minutes until 11.10 P. M.

Leave NEPONSET for Quincy at 6.15 A. M. and every 15 minutes until 11.30 P. M.

Cars leaving Quincy at 10 minutes past the hour go via Norfolk Downs, and those leaving Neponset at 30 minutes past go via Downs.

Cars leaving Neponset 15 minutes of and 15 minutes past the hour go via Wollaston and continue through Braintree and Holbrook to Brockton, connecting with cars for Bridgewater, Taunton, New Bedford, Fall River, Newport and Providence.

Quincy and East Weymouth.

Leave CITY SQUARE (10 minutes later from Quincy Point and 22 minutes later from North Weymouth)—5.45, 6.20, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20, 9.50, 10.20, 10.50, 11.20, 11.50 A. M.; 12.20, 12.50, 1.20, 1.50, 2.20, 2.50, 3.20, 3.50, 4.20, 4.50, 5.20, (5.30 to East Weymouth car house), 5.50, 6.20, 6.30, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20, 9.50, 10.50 P. M., (11.50 Wednesday and Saturday to Thomas' Corner only.)

Leave EAST WEYMOUTH (20 minutes later from North Weymouth and 30 minutes later from Quincy Point)—6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8, 8.30, 9, 9.30 10, 10.30, 11, 11.30 A. M.; 12, 12.30, 1, 1.30, 2, 2.30, 3, 3.30, 4, 4.30, 5, 5.30, 6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8 8.30, 9, 9.30, 10, 10.30, 11.30 P. M.

Quincy and Weymouth Landing.

Leave QUINCY at 5.30 A. M., 6.20, 7.20 and every hour until 12.20, then 1.50 and every hour until 10.50 P. M.

Leave WEYMOUTH LANDING at 5.50 A. M. and every hour until 12.50, then 2.20 and every hour until 11.20 P. M., connect with trains to Boston at Quincy.

Quincy and East Milton.

Leave CITY SQUARE, 5.55, 6.25, then every 5 minutes of and 25 minutes past the hour until 9.25 P. M., then at 10.50 P. M.

Leave EAST MILTON 6.25, 6.55 A. M., then every 5 minutes of and 25 minutes past the hour until 9.50 P. M., then 10.20 and 11.20 P. M.

Quincy and Holbrook.

Leave QUINCY for Holbrook at 6.10 and 6.40 A. M., and every half hour until 9.40 P. M., then 10.10 P. M. to South Braintree only, except on Wednesday and Saturday, when car at 10.50 runs through to Holbrook.

Quincy and Hingham.

Leave QUINCY at 7.20 A. M. and every hour until 11.20 A. M., then 1.50 and every hour until 5.50 P. M.

Leave HINGHAM at 8 A. M. and every hour until 12 M., then 2.30 and every hour until 6.30 P. M.

Neponset, Atlantic and Squantum.

Leave NEPONSET at 6.30 A. M. and every hour until 8.30 P. M., connecting at Atlantic with outward express trains.

Leave SQUANTUM at 7 A. M. and every hour until 9 P. M., connecting at Atlantic with express trains.

Quincy and Houghs Neck.

Leave QUINCY CENTRE at 6.20 A. M., and and every hour until 1.20, and then 1.50 and every hour until 9.50.

Returning, leave HOUGHS NECK at 5.45 A. M., and every hour until 12.45, and then 1.20 and every hour until 9.20.

SUNDAYS.

Cars leave City Square, Quincy, for E. Weymouth at 7.30 A. M. and West Quincy at 7 A. M and on the hour and half hour throughout the day.

Sunday time same as week days on other lines, except that the first two trips are omitted.

BENJ. J. WEEKS, Superintendent.

New York, New Haven and Hartford R. R.

Eastern District.

On and after July 1st, 1898, trains will run as follows: (See note of explanation at bottom.

TO BOSTON.			FROM BOSTON.
Leave Quincy.	Stops at	Arrive Boston.	Leave Boston.	Stops at	Arrive Quincy
r 6 12	abc	e 6 30	5 55	ihgfedcba*	6 22 r
r 6 42	abc	7 00	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	7 30	cba	7 49 r
r 7 26	ad	7 43	8 30	cba	8 49 r
r 7 42	abc	8 00	9 30	cba	9 49 r
r 8 12	abc	8 30	10 30	cba	10 49 r
r 8 26	ad	8 43	11 30	cba	11 49 r
r 8 42	abc	9 00	12 30	cba	12 49 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	1 30	cba	1 49 r
r 10 12	abc	10 30	2 30	cba	2 49 r
r 11 12	abc	11 30	3 30	cba	3 49 r
r 12 12	abc	12 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
r 1 12	abc	1 30	5 00	cba	5 19 r
r 2 12	abc	2 30	5 17	da	5 36 r
r 3 12	abc	3 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
r 4 12	abc	4 30	6 00	cba	6 19 r
r 5 12	abc	5 30	6 17	da	6 36 r
r 6 12	abc	6 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	7 00	cba	7 19 r
r 7 39	abcdefghi	8 05	7 30	cba	7 49 r
r 8 08	abcdef	8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	9 30	cba	9 49 r
r 10 08	abcdef	10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r
r 11 12	abc	11 30	11 30	cba	11 49 r

SUNDAYS.

r 7 12	abc	7 30	6 30	cba	6 r
r 8 12	abc	8 30	8 30	cba	8 49 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	12 30	cba	12 49 r
r 1 12	abc	1 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
r 5 12	abc	5 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 8 08	abcdef	8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
r 10 08	abcdef	10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r

*The letters in the same line as the figures stand for different stations and indicate that trains stop, as follows:

a, Wollaston, b, Norfolk Downs. c, Atlantic. d, Neponset. e, Pope's Hill, f, Harrison Square. g, Savin Hill. h, Crescent Avenue. i, South Boston. r, Quincy Adams. (xx), Express.

C PETER CLARK, Gen'l Supt. A. C. KENDALL, G. P. A

FRANK F CRANE,

AUCTIONEER and APPRAISER,

Office, 4 Chestnut St., Quincy, Mass.

Oct. tf

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

NORFOLK, ss. PROBATE COURT.

TO the heirs-at-law, next-of-kin, creditors and all other persons interested in the estate of

MARTHA R. FEDERHEN,

late of Quincy in said county, deceased, intestate.

Whereas, a petition has been presented to said Court to grant a letter of administration on the estate of said deceased to John Federhen, 3d, of Quincy, without giving a surety on his bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Dedham, in said County of Norfolk, on the fifth day of October, A. D. 1898, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And the petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week for three successive weeks, in the Quincy Daily Ledger, a newspaper published in Quincy the last publication to be one day at least before said Court.

Witness, George White, Esquire, Judge of said Court, this twenty-first day of September in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight.

JONATHAN COBB, Register.

Sep. 24 3t 24 30 3

QUINCY DAILY LEDGER.

VOL. 10. No. 31. QUINCY, MASS., TUESDAY, OCTOBER 4, 1898. PRICE 2 CENTS.

All goods are delivered FREE at residences in Quincy.

Carpets and Upholstery FOR Residences, Churches, Hotels, Steamers, etc., etc.

Our stock is by far the largest in Boston, and includes many private patterns obtainable nowhere else.

Our prices are always at the bottom of the market.

JOHN H. PRAY, SONS & CO.,
658 Washington St., Boston.
(Opposite Boylston St.)

Represented in Quincy by Mr. Otho A. Hayward.

THE GLORIOUS AUTUMN

Has come and Nature will soon put on her most charming costume. . .

FALL MILLINERY . . . . .

Has also arrived—an immense stock direct from New York. The latest styles, and the ladies can find all their hearts could wish for at the parlors of

E. B. COLLINS,
FAXON BLOCK, QUINCY.

Sept. 17-1m

Lamson & Hubbard

Fall Style, 1898.

1898. Fall Style. 1898.

We are prepared to show all the latest Hats for Fall wear from the blocks of the best makers.

An early call will secure you a selection from a fine assortment.

GEO. W. JONES,
Adams Building, Quincy.

MAKE IT HOT FOR YOU.

If your house is cold and you have become disgusted with the various devices called heaters, and you are really anxious to have warmth and comfort in your home, place an order for one of those G. B. Bates CIRCULATORS.

It will "make it hot for you" or just the temperature you desire. Its construction is based upon scientific and economical principles. Several have recently been put in right here in Quincy, and others will be put in during the next few weeks. Don't read this ad. and then forget about it till your water pipes are all frozen, but go now to

G. B. BATES,
Hancock Street, Quincy.

FRANK F CRANE,
AUCTIONEER and APPRAISER,
Office, 4 Chestnut St., Quincy, Mass.
Oct. tf

E. S. BECKFORD,
Electrician.
Wiring and Fitting for Incandescent, Motors, Dynamos, Bells, etc.
GRANITE STREET, Near the Bridge, QUINCY
Feb. 1. 1y

E. LANDIS SNYDER,
Organist and Choirmaster of Christ Church,
TEACHER OF
VOICE CULTURE, PIANO AND ORGAN.
Studio: Room 10 Durgin & Merrill's Block,
QUINCY, MASS.
Sept. 10. tf

JOHN EVANS,
Auctioneer and Appraiser.
Prompt Settlement.
24 COPELAND STREET, QUINCY.
Feb. 26. tf

TELEGRAPHIC.

3 O'CLOCK.

QUAY ACCUSED

Said to Have Used Public Money.

Warrants Issued For Arrest of Four.

District Attorney Speaks of Showing Up "Rottenness."

Senator's Colleague on "Character Assassination."

Philadelphia, Oct. 4.—Warrants were issued yesterday charging Senator M. S. Quay, his son, Richard Quay, ex-State Treasurer B. J. Haywood and Charles R. McKee with conspiracy with John S. Hopkins, formerly cashier of the Peoples' bank, to make use of the state's funds in stock speculation. Hopkins committed suicide last March, and an examination of the bank's condition showed that the assets had been impaired. The bank at once went into liquidation, and the president obligated himself personally to protect all creditors.

Senator Quay and his son came up from Atlantic City as soon as they heard of their intended arrest. They promptly surrendered themselves, and Magistrate Jermon held them in $5000 bail each for a hearing at noon next Thursday. By advice of their attorney they declined to discuss the case. Mr. Haywood is in Montana and Mr. McKee in New York.

The warrants were made out on Saturday at the instance of District Attorney Graham and on the affidavit of Charles F. Myers of the district attorney's office. Myers is a detective and acted on information furnished by Thomas W. Barlow, receiver of the People's bank. The affidavit on which the warrants were issued is as follows: "Charles F. Myers, being sworn according to law, doth depose and say that Matthew Stanley Quay, Benjamin J. Haywood, Richard R. Quay and Charles H. McKee and other persons to this deponent unknown, did unlawfully combine, confederate, conspire and agree to and with each other and the said persons unknown to use the public moneys of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania for their own use, and also did combine, confederate, conspire and agree to and with each other and divers persons to this deponent unknown, and to and with John S. Hopkins, deceased, formerly cashier of the People's bank of Philadelphia, a corporation duly credited and existing under the laws of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, to unlawfully buy and sell stocks, that is, shares of stock in divers corporations, and did unlawfully use and employ the moneys of the People's bank, within the county of Philadelphia, and within two years last past."

The district attorney said: "I propose to have a hearing as quickly as possible, and to produce at that hearing all the facts necessary to a binding over. Some of the facts will be reserved until the time of trial. If the state of affairs as represented to me is true it ought to be exposed. This rottenness ought to be shown up, no matter upon whom it reflects. It is not my practice to speak in advance of the trial of a case, and I will say nothing further as to its merits. It was brought to my knowledge on Friday. Although Mr. Barlow is assistant district attorney, none of these facts was given me by him. He always kept his duties as receiver entirely separate from his duties in this office. When sent for in connection with evidence we sought, he cheerfully and willingly delivered up what was in his possession."

James McManes, formerly president of the defunct People's bank, said he had known the warrants were to be issued, though he had nothing to do with the action. He asserted ignorance of any transactions justifying it. Mr. McManes added: "Senator Quay and his son, Richard, both had their personal notes discounted at the bank, the last of which matured after the bank had closed its doors. These notes were all promptly paid when due, and neither Mr. Quay nor his son is indebted to the bank one dollar that I know of. My feelings toward Mr. Quay and the other men are of the most friendly character. Mr. Quay and I had our differences in days gone by, but they were patched up long ago."

The People's bank suspended business on March 24 and it presently developed that Cashier Hopkins had committed suicide. At that time the state had on deposit in the bank $505,000 and the city $52,000, but the institution was insolvent. President McManes agreed to make good the amount of liabilities, and most of it has been paid.

The news struck politicians of all shades of faith like a thunderbolt, and a variety of explanations were given and discussed throughout the day. Secretary of the Commonwealth Martin knew nothing beyond the newspaper statement. The affair acquires additional significance from the fact that it comes in the midst of one of the most bitter campaigns ever fought between Quay and his opponents involving the question of his re-election to the senate.

Senator Penrose spoke freely about the proceeding. "I presume Senator Quay will not make any statement at this juncture," said he, "regarding this last $300; dastardly attack of his malevolent mies, though he doubtless will in the proper way and at the proper time. There is, however, no reason why I, as his colleague and personal friend, should be silent. Attempted assassination of character has been almost the sole weapon of attack employed by Senator Quay's opponents for several years, and the methods pursued have been augmented in viciousness and vindictiveness as their futility has been demonstrated. As the last despairing effort of unscrupulous conspirators comes this brutal move of the opposition, which they have had upon their program for weeks, with the desperate hope that it might, in some way, aid in the election of a Democratic legislature. The people of Pennsylvania are, above all things else, fair and just, and I believe that they can be trusted to see through the sinister motives animating the small coterie of disgruntled, defeated politicians, who are responsible for this sensational resort to the courts. In due time there will be a complete exposition of the true inwardness of this latest act in the drama of character assassination so conspicuous a feature of Pennsylvania politics."

BOIES PENROSE.

Bracer of Quinine and Brandy.

Denver, Oct. 4.—At yesterday's session of the courtmartial of Rev. Joseph P. McIntyre, chaplain of the Oregon, for sensational charges against brother officers of the navy made in a lecture in Denver Aug. 8, the chaplain went on the stand in his own defence. His testimony is intended to establish a plea of irresponsibility for his utterances on the occasion. In a straightforward, simple, yet graphic manner, he told the story of the Oregon's wonderful trip rom San Francisco around Cape Horn; of the terrible extremes of heat and cold passed through; the nervous strain which the constant dread of meeting the enemy caused; of the excitement of blockade and the great battle of July 3, followed by a nervous collapse of the present narrator.

He told how after reaching Denver in his weakened condition, he was repeatedly urged to lecture, only consenting finally because his effort might be of benefit to the Y. M. C. A., himself declining to receive a cent of the proceeds. He stated that he took quinine and brandy to brace up his failing strength, and told how, with whirling brain, he stood before the audience, and then of his horror next morning when he read the published report of what he had said. He made no denial of the report, saying that he could not remember his words. He only knew what he intended to say.

Without a Defeat.

Philadelphia, Oct. 4.—Captain Warner's cricketers won the final match from the gentlemen of Philadelphia with four wickets to spare. When stumps were drawn Saturday the Britons needed 89 runs to win, with six wickets to fall. This they accomplished with ease, the fast bowling of King and Clark having little effect. With the loss of only two more wickets they passed the Philadelphians' total of 290 for two innings, and closed their final bat with 161 for six wickets, or a total of 294 for one inning and six wickets. This gives Captain Warner two victories over the gentlemen of Philadelphia, and enables him to return to England without a defeat.

Trouble With Indians.

Washington, Oct. 4.—The following telegram from Indian Agent Sutherland, at the scene of threatened trouble with the Indians in Minnesota, was received at the interior department: "Upon further investigation I find the trouble with the Indians was caused by a deputy United States marshal arresting an Indian on a warrant. He was overpowered by the Indians, and the prisoner taken away from him and the Indian police. The rescuers declare they will not be arrested. Inspector Tinker and myself doing all in our power to induce them to surrender to the United States marshal, and troops are here."

Tommy and Danny.

New York, Oct. 4.—Tommy White and Danny McBride of New York met in the gymnasium of the Greater New York Athletic club for a 25-round bout last night, to decide the 126-pound championship. The fight only lasted a little less than one-fourth of the intended distance, with White the winner. White's reach was a big advantage to him. McBride was game to the core, but he was outclassed. In the sixth round he was sent to the floor three times in quick succession with heavy right swings on the jaw, and Referee Brown stopped the bout in order to prevent McBride being knocked out and probably seriously injured.

☞ It makes men tired to beat their carpets; that's why they send them to our electric beater. It does the work so thoroughly too. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

LAND VALUES

A Transcript From the Books of the Assessors.

Number of Feet in Each Lot and Valuation Thereof.

Also the Amount of Each Person's Tax Bill for 1898.

[Continued from yesterday.]

Something new in the publication of the taxpayers of the city is attempted this year by the Daily Ledger. There is considerable interest in the assessed value of land in the city, which is claimed to be high in some cases and low in others. So the Ledger has supplemented the amount of the tax bill in each ward with the value of each lot of land for which the person is taxed, giving in each case the number of square feet or acreage.

The amount given in the line with the person's name is his total ward tax, and may include houses, personal property, etc., in addition to the lots of land below. The Ledger gives only the valuation of the land.

To obtain a person's total tax in the city, add together the amounts paid in the several wards.

The Ledger commenced the publication Aug. 30, and has already published the land values of all persons whose names begin with A to H, and today's instalment gives those of I and J:

WARD ONE.

Valuation of Land Only.	Total Ward Tax.
Isaacson, Andrew S.	$11 00.
7,503 feet, Gothland street, $500.
Isaacson, Anthony	33 50
1-2 acre, Parker, $150.
Jacobson, Charlotte M.	24 30
5,000, Parker ave., $150.
Jacobson, Carrie L.	50 40
5,978, Whitwell, $600.
Jameson, Minnie M.	79 20
8,713, Putnam, $900.
Jenness, Charles M.	65 45
Jencen, Christian	12 60
1-8 acre, Parker, $100.
Johnson Bros.,	54 90
11,000, Rock Island, $600.
Johnson, Andrew and B. C.	42 30
9,167, Scotch Pond place, $550.
Johnson, Charles	14 40
1-4 acre, off Quarry, $150.
Johnson, Charles & Co.,	41 40
1 acre, Quarry, $500.
Johnson, Julius	102 60
5,400, Cranch, $600.
6,300, Whitwell, $700.
1-4 acre, Quarry, $400.
Johnson, John	14 40
5,000, Carleton, $100.
Johnson, Joseph W.	99 20
7,254, Russell Park, $1,900.
Johnson, Otto	26 30
5,000, Curtis, $250.
Johnson, Robert T.	37 60
4,500, Post Island, $350.
5,000, Sea, $400.
Johnson, Susanna E.	35 10
5,972, Deldorf, $350.
Johnson & Anderson,	34 20
Quarryland, $1,000.
Johnson & Peterson,	23 40
5,000, Carleton, $100.
Johnson, Victor	38 90
5,560, Cranch, $550.
Jones, Dorothy C.	21 60
3-4 acre, off Curtis, $500.
Jones, George J.	128 90
9,683, Hancock, $3,600.
Jones, George W.	92 00
Jones, Joshua, est.,	48 60
Jones, Mercy B.	4 50
5,000, Curtis, $250.
Jones, Owen M., est.,	39 60
4,320, Granite, $400.

WARD TWO.

Jacobs, Mary A.	$30 60
5,450, Washington, $300.
4,000, Broadway, $200.
Johnson, Benjamin	638 30
98,000, Mill, $2,000.
92,500, " $1,800.
1 acre, off Mill, $500.
67,192, salt marsh, $350.
Wharf, 33,000 ft. $3,300.
Johnson, John S.	2 70
3,600, Beacon, $150.
Johnson, Nellie N.	65 70
7,184, River, $500.

Continued on page 3.

Royal makes the food pure, wholesome and delicious.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER Absolutely Pure

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

ALMOST BEATEN.

Big Scores in the Boston—Baltimore Game Yesterday.

Boston, Oct. 4.—Costly errors gave the Baltimores a strong lead, but the home team then steadied down and gave a fine exhibition of ball playing. Willis' pitching was excellent throughout the game.

In the fourth inning the Bostons made six runs on five singles, a double and a home run, the latter by Bergen, and laid Maul out completely, Kitson succeeding him in the box. The latter, however, was not much of an improvement, and the Bostons had him practically at their mercy for the remainder of the game.

But seven innings were played, owing to darkness. Attendance, 6000. Score:

Bostons.	AB	R	1B	PO	A	E
Hamilton, c. f.	4	0	2	0	0	0
Tenney, 1 b.	3	4	0	4	1	0
Long, s. s.	4	2	3	0	1	3
Lowe, 2 b.	4	1	1	1	1	1
Collins, 3 b.	5	1	4	3	3	2
Stahl, r. f.	4	1	2	1	0	0
Bergen, c.	4	1	1	7	2	1
Duffy, l. f.	4	1	1	4	0	1
Willis, p.	2	2	2	1	1	0
Totals	34	13	16	21	9	8

Baltimores.	AB	R	1B	PO	A	E
McGraw, 3 b.	4	2	2	2	2	1
Keeler, r. f.	5	1	1	0	0	0
Jennings, s. s.	1	3	0	3	2	0
Kelley, c. f.	4	2	1	0	0	0
McGann, 1 b.	3	1	2	3	1	1
Holmes, l. f.	4	0	2	3	0	1
Demont, 2 b.	4	1	0	4	2	0
Robinson, c.	4	0	0	3	0	0
Maul, p.	2	0	0	0	0	0
Kitson, p.	2	0	0	0	1	1
Totals	33	10	8	18	8	4

Bostons	1	2	0	6	3	1	—	—	—	13
Baltimores	2	0	4	4	0	0	0	—	—	10

Earned runs—Bostons, 7; Baltimores, 1. Two-base hits—Long, McGann. Home run—Bergen. Sacrifice hits—Long, Kelley. First base on balls—By Willis, 3; by Maul, 2; by Kitson, 2. First base on errors—Bostons, 2; Baltimores, 2. Left on bases—Bostons, 10; Baltimores, 7. Struck out—By Willis, 6; by Kitson, 1. Double play—Collins and Tenney. Hit by pitched balls—By Willis—Jennings, McGann; by Maul—Willis; by Kitson—Willis. Time—2:18. Umpires—Gaffney and Andrews.

The St. Louis players were unable to hit Damman of the Cincinnatis in the first game, and Hawley kept their hits scattered in the second. The Ohioans won both.

Seymour of the New Yorks shut out the Phillies in a pitchers' battle. Both teams played good ball.

The Chicagoes won two games from the Louisvilles. The first was won in the 11th by three successive hits after two were out. The second game was won by base running and well-placed hits.

With the score 6 to 1 against them, the Washingtons pounded out seven runs in Brooklyn and won. Pitchers McKenna and Dunn were ineffective.

The Brooklyn club has made a raid on the minor leagues, getting Pitchers McFarland, Morse, Gaston and Gray, and Infielders Kelley and Cassidy from the Eastern, and Pitchers Fortsch and Fielder Cockman of the Atlantic. Keister of the Ottawas has been claimed, but Boston is said to have a string on him.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

John Green fell from a tree in Hudson, N. H., and broke his spine.

The miners' strike at Dillonvale and Long Run, O., has been settled. Over 1000 men were out. The settlement is a victory for the miners.

George W. Rook, chief engineer of the transport, Mohawk, fell into the hold, a distance of 40 feet, in Bath, and died from the result of his injuries. He was 40 years old.

The war commission has decided to permit the presence during the hearings of three stenographers as representatives of the press in addition to the representatives of the Press associations.

It has been decided to make Augusta the headquarters of the army corps which is to be stationed in Georgia and South Carolina. Augusta is found to be the most central point of the places named for camps.

The Rev. Charles R. Hamblin, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, Butler Center, N. Y., has been adjudged insane. He has delusions, is violent and imagines that he is Sampson. He has tried to pry his brother's jaws open, thinking him to be a lion.

A Brunswick, Ga., special says that during the tropical hurricane of Sunday a tidal wave was driven in from the sea and inundated for an average depth of five feet, practically every business house and warehouse in the city. Conservative estimates place the property loss at half a million dollars.

Motorman Fred W. Winsor of the car which killed a deaf and dumb boy named Lawton in Newport, was arrested and arraigned on a charge of manslaughter. He pleaded not guilty and bail of $5000 was furnished by the officers of the company. This fatality is the second during the 10 years the railway has been operated.

The widow of Joseph Banigan of Providence, the millionaire rubber manufacturer, and the executors under his will have come to an amicable agreement regarding Mrs. Banigan's allowance. Under the will Mrs. Banigan was allowed the use of the homestead and an annuity of $15,000, and her attorneys were ordered to contest the probate.

The Santa Fe railroad has made arrangements to light all the cars of its limited train running between Chicago and Los Angeles, a distance of 2808 miles, with electricity evolved from the friction of the car axles. The electric equipment of each train will aggregate 4928 candle power. All berths will be provided with berth lights, and this will be the first train in the world carrying such a large supply of light service exclusively from the car axles.

☞ Glenwood Ranges are the quickest and finest bakers on earth. Ask any person who ever used one. Prices $18.00 to $33.00. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

The John Hancock Stables.
Opposite Depot, Quincy, Mass.
Boarding, Baiting, Livery and Sale.
DR. J. A. DOW, Proprietor,
the well known Veterinary dentist and specialist in the treatment of lame horses. Sick horses treated at owner's risk.
The finest equipped and managed stable of its size in America.
Fine driving turnouts in light rigs; safe and good appearing. All horses let are perfectly safe for ladies to drive.
The choicest family, road and coach horses constantly on hand for sale. All horses guaranteed as represented.
☞ Will attend to veterinary practice as usual. aug18-1y

DR. RALPH M. FOGG,
DENTIST.
Teeth extracted absolutely without pain by the use of the
"BOSTON VEGETABLE VAPOR."
It is claimed that, while it has the required properties of ether, chloroform, nitrous oxide gas, it lacks the disagreeable and dangerous qualities of these drugs. It is certainly a boon to suffering humanity to be relieved of the nausea too often following the administering of sedatives of the old schcol.—Boston Transcript.
Teeth made and repaired on Gold or Rubber base. Teeth Filling a specialty.
Office in French's Building, five doors south of Post Office, Quincy, Wednesdays. Hours, 9 A. M. to 2 P. M. July18-1y Nov8-1yo

TEETH EXTRACTED.
No Pain or Danger.
Safer than vapor. Money paid for extracting goes towards teeth to be inserted. I am the only dentist in the city using the Painless Preparation for Extraction.
DR. C. B. UNDERWOOD,
9 Spear St. Rear of Public Library

TELL US . .
What you are looking for.
We can show you a fine line of FALL AND WINTER UNDERWEAR, HOSIERY, Outing Flannels, Flannelettes, Plaid Dress Goods, WRAPPERS, BLANKETS, Comforters, Dress Linings and other Dry Goods.
OUR STOCK IS FRESH.
OUR PRICES THE LOWEST.
MISS C. S. HUBBARD,
158 Hancock Street.

BOYS' SUITS
THAT SUIT BOYS
Grand Clearance Sale of Boys'
SCHOOL SUITS,
$1.50 to $3.50.
Worth Double the Price.
School begins Tuesday and your boy wants something new. Drop in to our store tonight and see how little money it takes to dress him handsomely.
Granite Clothing Co.
DURGIN & MERRILL'S BLOCK.

Come, Mary,
Let's go over to the Quincy Second-Hand Variety Store and see if we can't find just what we want. You say you need some more kitchen goods and a few chairs, a carpet for the chamber, some glassware and various other things, and when I was there last week I saw my cousin get a lot of goods for almost nothing. He told me that sometimes he could find new goods at less than half price. These are hard times, Mary, and we must buy where the dollar goes farthest.
WALTER P. PINEL
is the Manager, and the store is right over here at number 20 Franklin street.
aug25 1y

By C. H. JOHNSON, - - Auctioneer.
Office, Adams Building, Quincy, Mass.

Executor's Sale at Public Auction

of the personal property of the late EBEN A. STINCHFIELD, will be sold at residence off Howard avenue, Quincy Neck, on TUESDAY, Oct. 11, 1898, at 1 30 P. M. The property consists of Household Furniture, Stock of Groceries and 3 Carriages.

GROCERIES—Lot of Tea and Coffee, Spices, Canned Goods, Snuff, Stove Polish, Clay Pipes, Paper Bags, Clothes Pins, Vinegar, one-half barrel Molasses, Tea and Coffee Cans, Tobacco Cutter, Small Scales, Fish Scales, set Measures, large Showcase, 6-gal. Milk Cans Coffee Grinder, lot of Barrels.

HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE—5 cane seat Chairs and Rocker, Parlor Stove, open grate Coal Stove in good order, two Tables, Ice Chest, two Tables, Baby Carriage, Step Ladder, large Dish Closet, Small Stand, Desk, Oak Chamber Set in good condition, Forks, Rakes and lot Harness, Platform Scales and a variety of articles.

CARRIAGES—Buggy, open Express Wagon, Carryall and large Farm Wagon, Ladies' New Mail Bicycle.

Hen House. Terms cash. Sale positive.
Oct. 3. 6t

GRAND OPENING
— OF —
Fall and Winter Millinery
Thursday,
Friday,
Saturday,
October 6, 7 and 8,
— AT —
Miss B. J. Patterson's Millinery Parlors
At the Boston Bargain Store.

A choice and complete stock of all the latest and most desirable goods for this season,
All are cordially invited.

Music Hall Building, Quincy.
Oct. 1. tfpl

NOTICE TO VOTERS.

CITY OF QUINCY.

For the purpose of preparing the Annual Register of Voters, and of receiving evidence of qualification from persons claiming a right to Vote at the coming State Election, the Board of Registrars of Voters will be in session at the COUNCIL CHAMBER in the City Hall Building, on the evenings of

Wednesday, Sept. 14,
Saturday, Sept. 17,
Thursday, Sept. 29,
Saturday, Oct. 1,
Wednesday, Oct. 5.
Saturday, Oct. 8,
Saturday, Oct. 15,

From 7 to 9 P. M., and also on

Wednesday, Oct. 19,

From 12 o'clock M. until 10 o'clock P. M.

Every applicant for registration must appear in person before the Board, and must present either a certificate from the Assessors or a Tax bill or Notice from the Collector of Taxes, showing that he has been assessed as a resident of the City on the First day of May last; or a certificate from the Assessors that he has been a resident of the City for the six months next preceding the election at which he claims a right to vote. If a naturalized citizen he must also produce for inspection his papers of naturalization. Payment of a poll tax is not a prerequisite to voting.

No person can vote at the election unless his name has previously been placed upon the voting list of the Ward of which he was a resident on the first day of May last, and no name can be added to the list of voters unless registered previous to

Wednesday, Oct. 19th,

at 10 o'clock P. M., when registration will close.

Examine the Voting Lists posted, and see that your name is in its proper place. NO CHANGE can be made after WEDNESDAY, Oct. 19th, at 10 o'clock P. M. The Board of Assessors will be in session at their office on the same evenings.

EDWARD B. MARSH,
CORNELIUS MOYNIHAN,
EDWARD J. McKEON,
EDGAR G. CLEAVES,
Registrars.

Quincy, Sept. 6, 1898. 38t p10-2w

FISH.

Everything first-class at the

Cape Cod Fish Market,

Temple Street.

All kinds Fresh, Salt, Smoked and Pickeled

Quincy, Feb. 8. 1y

A. J. DURAND,
Piano Tuning, etc.
19 Coddington St., Quincy.
Highly recommended by Chickering & Sons, and prominent Boston musicians.
Sept. 20. 1m

Quincy Daily Ledger

ESTABLISHED IN 1889.
The ONLY DAILY in Norfolk County Massachusetts.

Published Every Evening, Sundays and Holidays Excepted, At No. 115 HANCOCK ST., City of Quincy, Mass., by

GEORGE W. PRESCOTT & SON.
Successors to Green & Prescott.

Subscription Price, $6.00 per year.
☞ A discount of $1 when paid in advance.

ALSO PUBLISHERS OF
The Quincy Patriot,
A Weekly Established in 1837, which has the Largest Circulation in Norfolk County, and
The Braintree Observer,
A Weekly Established in 1878.

TELEPHONE, 78-3 QUINCY.

Quincy Temperature at Noon.

	This Week.	Last Week.	In 1897.	In 1896.
Sunday	64	52	56	57
Monday	76	71	56	59
Tuesday	85	67	64	55
Wednesday	—	68	68	57
Thursday	—	70	68	53
Friday	—	75	64	56
Saturday	—	74	57	56

New Advertisements Today.

Good cow for sale.
E. B. Collins—Millinery opening.
Plant system of hotels.
Henry L. Kincaide & Co.—Oil heaters.
Boston Branch grocery.
Grain-O—the new food drink.
Pleasant tenement to let.

LOCAL NEWS TRACK.

Some Colts which are Sure Winners Every Heat.

Charles Crane of Greenleaf street is sick.

Ground was broke today on Franklin street for the sewer.

Miss Annie Ago of Madison street, is quite ill with malaria.

Tax Collector A. L. Baker has returned from a brief vacation.

Mrs. A. J. Higgins of Edison street has returned from New York.

Miss Nina Reid of Nova Scotia, is visiting W. L. Thompson of Squantum street.

The Webster family of Squantum have returned to their home in Dorchester.

The Fifth Massachusetts regiment won more praise at its dress parade on Saturday.

An addition is being built on to the cottage of Mr. George Sprague, Washington street.

The regular meeting of the Manager of Public Burial Places will be held Thursday evening.

Thursday will be Quincy's day at the Brockton fair, as a large number are going from this city on that day.

How many remember the year when the original concrete in front of the Hancock cemetery was built?

Many of the Whitwell people are grading their lawns and improving the street, which has built up fast.

The Rev. John E. Wildey will lecture this evening at the Presbyterian church on the "New Woman."

The bicycle riders are jubilant over the weather and the good roads are an inducement to ride these fine days.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Graham are at Lexington, Ky., for two or three weeks and will probably attend the races.

The City Council Committee on Streets meet Thursday night and the Committee on Ordinances Friday night.

The first Edwards windmill was destroyed by fire twenty years ago the same year as the Central House fire on the site of the Greenleaf.

Several parties desiring to attend the Brockton fair and avoid the crowd have chartered special cars of the Quincy & Boston street railway.

The use of the watering carts at this season of the year leaves the streets in some places somewhat muddy, and several bicyclists have been thrown.

The politicians of Quincy, are holding quiet smoke talks these days around the corners and in divers places. We wonder what the harvest will be.

Lieut. Sprague, being a commissioned officer, does not expect to leave the service if the Tenth Signal Corps is mustered out but expects to see more service in Cuba.

The trial of Daniel Fitzgerald and Frederick I. Hadyen, of Quincy, who are charged with manslaughter, which was to have been heard Wednesday, has been postponed until Saturday.

The New England Telephone Co. has commenced work in earnest, the building of its underground conduits on Hanock street. They will be laid on the east side of the street and there will be a man hole about every one hundred feet.

THE CITY COUNCIL.

Plan of Sewer Assessment Adopted.

Schedule of the Cost of the Sidewalks.

City Must Supply Drains for State Highway.

One hour was all that was necessary Monday evening to dispose of the business that came before the City Council. Councilmen Nash and Sidelinger were absent.

DAMAGES CLAIMED.

The Mayor forwarded a petition from Adah A. Bartlett for damages caused by changing the grade of Copeland street. To Committee on Claims.

STATE HIGHWAY.

The Mayor forwarded a communication from the Highway Commission, stating that it had voted to take and build a section of Washington street, provided the city would put in catch basins and drains on both sides of the street with connections, to care for the surface water and secure a right of way for drain outlet.

Laid on the table until later when Councilman Parker offered an order for $1,500 for drains. Referred to joint Committee of Streets and Finance.

IN MEMORY OF EX-OFFICIAL.

The Mayor sent a communication notifying the Council of the death of Albert Thayer, a former member of the board of Selectmen, and suggesting some action.

Laid on the table until later in the evening when Councilman McGrath moved that the President appoint a committee of two to represent the City Council at the funeral. This was passed and the President appointed Councilmen McGrath and Owens.

While the subject was before the Council ex-Mayor Porter spoke a few words of tribute to Mr. Thayer, who he said was a member of the board of Selectmen during 1862, the second year of the war, and that he was active in recruiting. He knew him well and he was sure some of the members would remember Mr. Thayer in the old days of the town government. He was well posted and took an active part.

COST OF SIDEWALKS.

A communication was received from the Commissioner of Public Works inclosing a schedule of the cost of sidewalks built. Referred to Committee on Streets.

The Commissioner had opened a ledger page with each abutter, showing the amount of work and the cost in front of each estate under the order of 1897 where concrete and gravel sidewalks have been built.

The amount expended in each ward and the cost per foot are summarized below:

	Expended.	Cost per foot.
Ward One,	$1,560.30	$1.08
Ward Two,	1,137.24	1.21
Ward Three,	1,114.45	1.46
Ward Four,	815.38	.70
Ward Five,	1,819.93	1.83
Ward Six,	1,360.00	1.30
	$7,807.30
Credit by amt. paid by abutters,	516.82
	$7,290.48

PETITIONS.

Several petitions, licenses and State Aid were received and referred.

The Boston, Quincy and Fall River Bicycle railway put in a second petition for a location in Quincy for its tracks already given in this paper. To Committee on Streets.

The Electric Light & Power Co. petitioned for location for five 35-foot poles on Old Colony avenue.

Laid on the table until later when an order was offered granting the same, which was referred to the Committee on Streets.

REPORT OF COMMITTEES.

The Committee on Licenses reported favorably upon a number of petitions for licenses which were granted.

The Committee on Sewers and Drains reported an order appropriating $400 from any unexpended balances or unappropriated receipts for brooks and bridges, $200 being for each. To Committee on Finance.

SEWER ASSESSMENTS.

The Committee on Ordinances reported as correctly engrossed, the sewer assessment order, which was upon roll call passed unanimously without debate.

The Committtee on Ordinances reported as correctly engrossed, the order for $1,000 for a culvert over Town brook on Washington street.

Passed to be ordained.

The Committee on State Aid reported a number of orders granting State Aid under Chapter 561 to those dependant upon volunteers of the war of 1898 which were adopted.

The petition of Maria Chubbuck for State aid was given leave to withdraw.

PUBLIC HEARING.

At eight o'clock a public hearing was given on the laying out of Glover avenue in Ward Six.

Jeremiah W. Donovan said if the street was accepted several houses would be built. He already had orders for three. The increase in property would amount to more than the outlay. Street had been in use 25 years.

In reply to Councilman Packard, he said it was proposed to lay it out 42 feet wide for the whole width.

To Councilman Swithin he said there would be no land damages.

No one appeared in opposition, and the hearing was closed, and the order recommitted.

The Committee on Licenses reported leave to withdraw on several applications for State and military aid, which were accepted.

POLLING PLACES.

Councilman Freeman offered an order for polling places for the State election, as follows:

Ward One, City Hall, Ward Two, Hose house; Ward Three, precinct one, Doble's hall; Ward Three, precinct two, old steamer house; Ward Four, precinct one, St. Mary's hall; Ward Four, precinct two, hose house; Ward Five, Hose house; Ward Six, Engine house. Adopted.

CALENDAR.

The order authorizing the refunding of $96.27 to Williard Walsh for taxes illegally paid was given a second reading and referred to the Committee on Ordinances.

Also the order appropriating $714.99 to pay bills of the Poor Department for 1897.

Also the order appropriating $500 and receipts for house connections with the sewer. Also, the order appropriating $172 for drain on Lincoln and Warren avenues.

The order granting the Quincy Electric Light Co. a location for ten poles on Beach street was passed to be ordained under a suspension of the rules.

Adjourned at 8.30 for one week.

LETTERS FROM CO. K.

Saturday and Sunday at the Camp Meade Annex.

Camp Meade (annex)
Highspire, Oct 1,
2d Battalion Detachment of 5th Mass. U. S. V.

The boys passed a very comfortable night, warmer than night before.

The usual setting up exercises were put through by companies today.

At sick call there was only one man from this company who responded.

The battalion of the 13th Pennsylvania struck camp this morning at 8 o'clock, leaving our battalion alone, so that today we commenced in real earnest on our work. Detail were marched over from the four different companies to unload lumber cars, and store cars so that the boys have been kept busy all day.

The boys were set to work this afternoon under command of Lieut. Spear, to clear up the rubbish that was left by the 13th Pennsylvania. This is a thing that never happens when the 5th breaks camp. We always clean our own grounds before retiring.

K again had the good fortune to be represented by another orderly. This time it was Private William Morrisey. He was the second orderly from this company to be on duty at the new camp. These selection are what show which company turns out the best men.

Artificer Severans has been kept hard at work.

Private Berry the chief cook of the officers' mess, has a fine shady tree to serve his mess under.

Corporal Delano of the Commissary Department of K, is the only angel on the field, but being so dark would not pass. He was offered the other day a choice box of cigars, and to them he remarked that he never smoked, chewed or drank. He has the distinction of being the only angel on field. We hope he will continue along the same path he has chosen.

Corporal Adams seems to be a little might homesick, but the corporal will soon pass that off.

Major Morrison ordered a dress parade tonight for 4.30 this is the first drill the battalion has executed since Wednesday last.

Private Collins is raising a heavy beard. His Quincy friends would not recognize him if he returned home now.

The details for guard Sunday will be Corporal Hermanson, Privates Newcomb, Osgood, O'Connors, Olsen, Oliver, Pirivano, Pierce, Rafferty.

Passes will be granted today for leaves of absence to Corporal Haskins, Pirvates Hennessey, Johnson, Kelliher and Hodges. The boys seem to be in good health; no serious cases.

DOC.

With Co. K, Sunday, Oct. 2.

Last night the temperature was very mild and the moon shown bright. Today is cloudy but warm; looks like rain. The boys arose at the usual time and after setting up exercises breakfast was called.

The inspection of quarters took place at 8 o'clock; inspecting officer, Lieut. Gilson, of Co. H, Charlestown; everything in good order.

Church call sounded at 9, every man in battalion answered to his name, quite a large number participated in the religious services.

The details were in command of Lieut. Gilson of H. Captain McDonald of H is officer of the day. Major Morrison and battalion, Adjutant Coleman, had their quarters moved more to the centre of the camp so that every company street could be overlooked.

Sergeant Mohan, now Sergeant Major of Battalion, enjoys having his quarters attached to headquarters, he having very comfortable and homelike quarters.

Corporal Leslie has returned from a brief visit to relatives in this state.

Corporal Johnson is found to be a very handy man with the sailor's needle, mending tears in the canvas of tents, etc.; his services are often called for.

Private Bailey, who was detailed to help on regimental canteen, had to resign his position on account of the battalion moving from headquarters. So that he had to rejoin his company.

Private Dennison, formerly known as Major Dennison, does not have much practice on his camera at present, some one having broken the glass with his picture thereon.

A new shoe black appeared in camp this morning one who is well known to the boys. The boys are thinking about patronizing him.

Private Martelle who has been sick is progressing very favorably.

No drilling of any kind is participated in on Sunday. This being a regular "Day of Rest" for the boys, for they need it very much.

The following will report for guard duty tomorrow (Monday): Sergt. Phillips, Privates Rostelli, Roberts, Rowell, Ross, Rogers, Robinson, D. Smith and W. Smith. Details to help cooks at company's cook houses are Privates Doran and Brown.

We are having a good warm afternoon, the sun came out about noon time, as warm as any summer's day.

The 203d New York Infantry, U. S. V., struck tents Sunday afternoon. They leave Camp Meade for a place distance of ten miles from here, to be quarantined. The health of the regiment is something frightful. A car full of typhoid patients were taken from ambulances. The 5th Mass. may consider itself lucky in having such competent officers, to look after its welfare.

DOC.

A Farewell Party.

Mrs. Norman McLeod, Clyde Station, P. E. I., who has been in the city for the past four weeks visiting her children, left for home Monday evening.

On Friday evening about fifty of her friends waited upon her at the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. W. J. McLeod, 24 Rodman street, to bid her farewell. Mr. A. M. I. McLeod on behalf of those assembled presented her with a handsome gift, as a token of love and good will. Refreshments were served, and the evening was very pleasantly spent with singing and games.

New Real Estate Office.

On Hancock street near Elm avenue, Mr. Andrew J. Miller has erected a cosy little office and established as headquarters for the Wollaston Park property. Saturday evening was "opening night" and a host of Mr. Miller's friends and patrons called to offer congratulations.

Anticipating such an attack the genial real estate agent had provided an abundance of choice cigars and a social smoke was enjoyed by all.

WEYMOUTH.

Miss Mabel Carter of Lowell is the guest of Miss Ella Gardner at Lovell's Corner.

Mrs. Mary A. Gardner has gone to Hampton, N. H., on a visit.

Mrs. H. Butler of Providence, R. I., has been the guest of Mrs. Charles Dawes.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hutchinson have gone to Maine on a visit.

TODAY'S COURT.

Michael McCarthy was fined $5 for drunkenness at Quincy.

Thomas Greene was fined $5 for drunkenness at Milton.

The continued case of Harvey H. Josselyn, for exposing liquor for sale at Weymouth, was called and again continued until Nov. 1.

Harry Bennett was fined $5 for being a vagabond at Quincy.

☞ Think of the fancy prices people have paid for pianos. Then think of buying an instrument fully guaranteed and a delightful tone for $190.00. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

INSOLVENCY NOTICE.

NORFOLK, ss. COURT OF INSOLVENCY.

NOTICE is hereby given that the third meeting of the creditors of

LORA C. MERRILL

of Quincy, Massachusetts, an insolvent debtor, will be held at a Court of Insolvency, at Dedham, on WEDNESDAY, the fifth day of October, 1898, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, at which meeting creditors may be present and prove their claims. The account of the assignees will be presented and creditors may appear and object to the allowance thereof.

JOHN Q. A. FIELD,
WILLIAM W. JENNESS,
Assignees.
87 Milk street, Boston, Mass. Oct.3—2t

We Try to save you money and yet to wholly satisfy you on quality. We don't imagine that you will change grocers simply because you read our advertisements, but they may lead you to ask some friend about our Teas and Coffees. If you take the trouble to enquire we are pretty sure to get a trial order. That is all we ask—we leave the rest to YOU, of course.

Our Garden Formosa Tea draws a rich, true, strong tea of fine flavor. It is the equal of any 60c. Tea sold anywhere. There are no old leaves, steams or "dust" in it. It is ALL TEA—50c. lb.

GOOD TEA 50c. a lb.

BOSTON BRANCH GROCERY,
Durgin & Merrill's Block, - Quincy.

MILLINERY.

Grand Opening Oct. 5, 6, 7,
OF CHOICE
FALL and WINTER MILLINERY,
Consisting of Imported French Hats and Millinery Novelties.

You are cordially invited to call and inspect the same.

E. B. COLLINS,
4 Faxon Block, Quincy, Mass.
☞ NO CARDS.
Oct. 4. 6t

He Was Embarrassed.

He was painfully embarrassed. He came into our store last week and said to our new man (Mr. Ryder): "I want to get a f-f-f-f-f-f-fall——" He got one. He backed up to let a couple of ladies pass from our clothing department, and fell down two short steps which lead to that department. He got up smiling and said again: "I want to get a f-f-f-f-f-fall overcoat and I'm a little sh-sh-sh-sh-short——" "Oh! That makes no difference," said our man, "as we carry overcoats for all shaped men—for the short ones as well as the tall ones," and he laid out a few different styles for him to see.

"I m-m-m-m-mean that I'm sh-sh-sh-sh-short of mun-mun-mun-money and I want to know if I paid eh-eh-eh-eh-eight dollars on one, if I could pup-pup-pup-pay the rest on Saturday night?"

He went out with 50c. and a brand new Fall Overcoat. He bought a fine light covert for $7.50 that he expected to pay $10.00 for, and he did not feel bashful about saying so, either.

We don't trust because we want to sell you all the time. If we trusted—well, you know somebody's got to pay.

Our heavy weight Fall and Winter Covert at $9.85, made with swelled seams, satin facing and without lining, is the most economical coat a man can buy.

Remember we are the Headquarters in Quincy for Children's Clothing. Over 400 suits. Prices, $1.29 to $5.00.

QUINCY CLOTHING COMPANY,
QUINCY'S CLOTHIERS,
Music Hall Block.

Great Guns

do great execution if well aimed. Advertising accomplishes great results in business conquest if well directed.

Banner Oil Heaters

It's the easiest thing in the world to catch cold during the early October evenings. Just a trifle early to start your furnace fire, and yet you need something to take the chill from your room. The BANNER OIL HEATER is just the thing. A powerful little stove going at full blast in a twinkling. Costs almost nothing to run and makes your room warm and cosy in a few minutes' time. Absolutely safe, a child can take it from one room to another. Price, $4.50.

HENRY L. KINCAIDE & CO.

COSY HOUSE FURNISHERS,

Hancock Street, : : Quincy.

SWITHIN BROS.

REAL ESTATE!

President's Hill.

President's Hill Annex.

Cranch Hill.

Choice Lots and Improved Property for Sale in West Quincy, Wollaston, South Quincy, Quincy Point, Quincy Centre.

Room 12, Durgin & Merrill's Block, Quincy.

NOTHING BETTER,

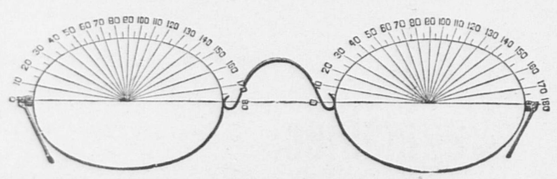

UNCLE SAM'S NAVY

Now commands the respect of the world, and we are all proud of the defenders of the Nation's Honor. To give the people of Quincy a good idea of the grand battleships, we have ordered a large supply of portfolios, giving magnificent views of the ships, crews, etc

With each purchase made at our store we will give a portfolio check to the value of the purchase. When you have $4.00 worth of these checks, return them and get a portfolio. Continue in this way until you have the set complete. Call and see these magnificent portfolios.

ROGERS BROS.,

Groceries and Provisions. Adams Building, Quincy.

ASTIGMATISM

Causes most of the distressing headaches. Properly fitted glasses will correct the error and remove the pain. Consult

WILLIAMS,

Member of the New England Association of Opticians,

104 Hancock St., Quincy.

A SICK CHILD

Can be made healthy, happy and rosy by giving it True's Elixir. Worms cause ill health in thousands of children and their presence is not suspected. True's Elixir expels worms and cures all the complaints common in children, Feverishness, Costiveness, Indigestion, Sour Stomach, etc. Made of pure, harmless, vegetable ingredients.

TRUE'S ELIXIR CURES

It has been a standard household remedy for 47 years. Restores health to adults, acts immediately on the blood, cures diseases of the mucous lining of the bowels and stomach, gives tone and vigor. Price 35 cents. Ask your druggist for it. Write for book "Children and their Diseases"—free.

DR. J. F. TRUE & CO., AUBURN, MAINE.

1,000 Men Wanted

TO INVEST

From 40 to 50 Dollars

per year, for an

ENDOWMENT POLICY

guaranteeing $1,000 in 20 years or it will be paid at death occurring within that period at any time.

Other policies at other prices.

Call and investigate.

GEORGE H. FIELD,

INSURANCE,

Durgin & Merrill's Block, Quincy

DANCING SCHOOL.

PROF. GARDNER,

the well known Boston teacher, will receive a few more pupils in his class in COLONIAL HALL, Bank Building, Quincy, on Friday Evening, Oct. 7, at 7.45. Terms: Gents, $6, Ladies, $4. All the latest dances taught. Those who wish to learn should be present next Friday as pupils cannot be accepted after that evening. lptf

WILLIAM E. BAXTER, M. D.

Practice Limited to the

EYE AND EAR.

553 Boylston St., Boston.

QUINCY—Monday and Friday.

Hours, 9 to 11. 195 Hancock Street

May 21. 1y

IN THE CITY NURSERY

Young Saplings Which Together Assume Importance.

The girl of the period—
She makes a full stop
At the bargain counter
When she goes to shop.
—Exchange.

This fine weather beats the band.

John McCarthy of Atlantic street, has gone to Saratoga, N. Y., on a visit.

Another boiler is to be added to the Electric Light Co.'s plant on Quincy avenue.

Mr. Fred H. Smith of Quincy Point has purchased a new Whiteall row boat for his son.

The new brick sidewalk from City Hall to Granite street will be appreciated. Work has commenced.

There were sixteen firemen who worked at the Edward's barn fire all night Saturday night, and two through Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Ireland of Wollaston are stopping in Randolph this week, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Young.

Miss Alla McGuan of New York state is visiting relatives and friends in Quincy. She is stopping at Mr. Crowley's, North street.

Miss Corlew's dancing class for beginners opened Monday with over twenty pupils. The advanced class will begin tomorrow afternoon

The whist season will open at the Granite City club tomorrow evening for the gentlemen, and on Wednesday evening next week for the ladies.

In the list of names published yesterday, of those who had volunteered to solicit for the hospital Aid Association, Mrs. E. G. Pratt was inadvertently omitted by the secretary.

The Dorchester Bicycle club on their first open half century run numbered 38. They made a halt in Quincy Sunday morning on their way to Brockton and at Braintree took a twenty minutes' rest.

The palace on wheels started for Brockton fair, Monday. After the children's faces were washed and the dog had his breakfast, the horses were hitched up and they departed with good wishes from the crowd who saw them off.

There are three cases against the City of Quincy, three against the Quincy & Boston Street Railway Co., and seven against the Braintree Street Railway Co. at the Superior Civil court which opened at Dedham, on Monday before Judge Fessenden.

A stranger in Quincy, visiting here from Seattle, Washington, was hunting around last night for a bath tub, and was greatly surprised that a city like Quincy could not afford a place where a man could have a good wash, coming way from Washington territory, too.

A grass fire on Goffe street, in the rear of Hon. E. C. Bumpus residence, Monday night, was thought to be getting dangerously near some new houses and the fire department was summoned upon a still alarm at 8.30. A wagon with hand chemicals was sent and extinguished the fire.

The temperature at noon today was 85 degrees, which makes this the warmest October day for three years. The highest point reached in 1897 was 83 degrees, which was Oct. 16, and the highest point reached in 1896 was 78 degrees which was on Oct 1. Thus far this year the temperature for October has been higher than in 1897 or 1896.

The bi-monthly meeting of the East Norfolk Y. P. S. C. E. Union was held at the Wollaston Congregational church on Monday evening. There was a large attendance of members from Quincy, Wollaston, Randolph, Holbrook, Braintree and South Braintree. President J. C. Pattee of Randolph presided. The address of the evening was made by the Rev. Edward Anderson, pastor of the Washington Street Congregational society. After the meeting a social time was enjoyed in the vestry. A lunch was served.

Melrose held a special town meeting Monday and voted to authorize the Selectmen to petition the next general court for a city charter. The vote was 506 for, and 335 against, which is a small vote considering that there are 2,600 voters. Last spring the effort to make Melrose a city was defeated by 31 votes. With the change to a city form of government, Melrose will become the thirty-third city in the commonwealth. Quincy ranks twenty-four by year of incorporation, and 21 or 22 by population. Verily there are younger and smaller cities.

TRY GRAIN-O! TRY GRAIN-O!

Ask your Grocer today to show you a package of GRAIN-O, the new food drink that takes the place of coffee. The children may drink it without injury as well as the adult. All who try it, like it. GRAIN-O has that rich seal brown of Mocha or Java, but it is made of pure grains, and the most delicate stomach receives it without distress. One-fourth the price of coffee. 15c. and 25c. per package. Sold by all grocers.

LATEST!

THE DEMOCRATS

Nominate their State Ticket at Worcester,

Ex-Mayor Bruce of Lawrence for Governor.

Edward J. Slattery for Lieutenant Governor.

[SPECIAL TO THE DAILY LEDGER.]

Worcester, Oct. 4—The Democratic State convention today nominated as their ticket Bruce and Slattery. Alexander B. Bruce who heads the ticket is an ex-Mayor of Lawrence, while Edward J. Slattery the candidate for lieutenant governor, is well known and hails from South Framingham.

The convention was slow in assembling, and the reading of the platform consumed considerable time. The platform again endorses the Chicago platform, and criticises the National and State administrations.

William T. Shea of Quincy represents the Tenth district on the committee on permanent organization.

The complete ticket nominated is:

For Governor—Alexander B. Bruce of Lawrence.

For Lieutenant Governor—Edward J. Slattery of South Framingham.

For Secretary of State—Levi B. Pierce of Lynn.

For Attorney General—John B. O'Donnell of Northampton.

For State Treasurer—Pierre Bonvouloir of Holyoke.

POLITICAL FIELD.

Two of the Quincy delegates to the Councillor convention Monday came near losing their votes. They arrived at the convention hall all right but as it looked as though it would be some time before the convention would be called to order and feeling the need of something for the inner man they went forth in search of something. It is unnecessary to say that they found a good restaurant but lingered so long over it that when they got back a vote was being taken and Quincy's vote had been deposited. While the vote was in progress they approached the chairman and asked permission to vote. The Chairman was in doubt and after all had voted put the matter before the convention which voted to allow them to vote, which they did.

The First Norfolk Republican Senatorial convention will be held at the American House on Wednesday instead of Wesleyan hall as has been reported, Wesleyan hall having been previously engaged by others. The hour is 12 M.

Two more opportunities this week to get registered—on Wednesday and Saturday evenings.

Two important Republican conventions tomorrow—the First Norfolk Senatorial at 12 M. at the American House, Boston; and the Tenth Congressional at 7.30 P. M. at Wesleyan hall, Boston.

It is reported upon good authority that Dr. William Everett of this city will run in this Congressional district as an independent candidate. This will further complicate affairs in the already mixed-up Tenth district.

The new order relating to the dress of employes of the N. Y., N. H. & H. railroad, moves the Boston Post's poet to sing:

Daddy's on the engine,
But he's sore dismayed.
If he fails to wax his whiskers,
Or his cuffs get frayed.
His pants have lost their creases,
And so he's full of fear,
Lest, if 'tis known some other man
Will be the engineer.

The Plant System.

The Hotel Managers of the Plant System of hotels in Florida will be as follows for the coming season of 1898-99:

Tampa Bay Hotel, Tampa, Fla., A. E. Dick, Manager.

Hotel Belleview, Belleair, Fla., W. A. Barron, Manager.

Seminole Hotel, Winter Park, Fla., O. L. Frisbee, Manager.

Ocala House, Ocala, Fla., Phil F. Brown, Manager.

Hotel Kissimmee, Kissimmee, Fla.

Port Tampa Inn, Port Tampa, Fla., S. M. Hannah, Superintendent.

For information as to hotel rates, address Managers, and as to railroad and steamship rates and schedules,

B. W. WRENN,
Passenger Traffic Manager.

—Today the Ancients are parading on the plains of Abraham at Quebec, where they will be reviewed by the Governor General. This evening they have a banquet at the Chateau Frontenac.

The lakes Superior Huron, Erie, Ontairo and Michugan have an aggregate area of 94,000 square miles, which is larger than the area of Great Britain.

☞ Furniture reupholstered and mattresses made over. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

PATRIOTIC WORK.

Adams Chapter Plans for a Busy Winter.

Adams Chapter resumed their regular monthly meetings at the John Adams house on Monday afternoon. The ladies seemed pleased to greet each other after a four months' vacation, and the meeting was a very social one.

Work for the coming season was planned, committees of three were appointed for each month to have charge of the monthly meetings, when interesting papers will be read. There will also be some music followed by a social tea. These meetings cannot prove otherwise than entertaining as well as instructive. It is expected to increase the membership to over a hundred this fall.

On October 19, John Adams birthday, which has always been observed by the chapter, an informal reception will be held at the old house in the afternoon from 2 until 5. A timely paper will be read by a well known historian, and tea will be served. Chapter members are privileged to bring a guest for the afternoon.

The Chapter has also several entertainments planned as the treasury needs replenishing for future patriotic work. This month a whist party is to be given, and next month a sale is to be held at the John Adams birthplace, when home-made candy, home-made cake, aprons and useful articles will be on sale. There will also be a loan collection of ancient and historical articles.

Adams Chapter is certainly lively and doing a great deal of work. They have had many visitors at the old house this summer, interest being centered in the room in which John Adams was born. Contributions have been received this summer in the way of antique furniture and is much appreciated. Any furniture given or loaned to Adams Chapter for the old house will be taken good care of, as the house is in the care of Mrs. Wildes, a granddaughter of a Revolutionary soldier, daughter of a soldier in the Mexican war, and widow of a veteran in the Civil war, and is full of patriotic feeling.

New Idea in Newspapers.

The Boston Journal's habit of keeping ahead is now once again brought strongly to public attention. The Sunday Journal will appear next Sunday in a new and original form, most convenient to handle, and effective in arrangement, with forty-eight pages, a large increase in space over former issues. The Sunday Journal is the first paper in the country to bring out this modern idea.

The News of Beantown.

Boston, Oct. 4.—Water Commissioner Murphy has issued a statement showing the result of the establishment of cold water drinking fountains during the past summer. The experiment has been so successful that the commissioner has already determined to extend them all over the city next year, when the cost will be reduced to a minimum, as the city proposes to harvest its own ice for the purpose.

A man giving his name as James L. Battles, 50 years old, was arrested yesterday, charged with passing bogus checks for small amounts upon various city merchants. The police say that he is wanted for similar offences in Leominster, Chelsea and other places.

William W. Davis defeated Sidney Cushing for the Second councillor district nomination at the Republican convention, the ballot standing 124 to 104.

Hiram D. Dowar, proprietor of a tea store, discovered yesterday that he had been robbed of $2000 worth of plated silverware. Mr. Dewar believes that the goods were taken in January.

Tomorrow's Almanac and Forecast.

Sun rises—5:45; sets, 5:19.
Moon rises—8:40 p. m.
High water—2 a. m.; 2:45 p. m.

On Wednesday partly cloudy weather will prevail, preceded by local rain, with slight temperature changes and fresh, variable winds, followed by a cool wave, and on Thursday fair, much cooler weather is probable.

In a recently discovered Roman tomb the skeleton of a woman was found which had a complete set of false teeth, beautifully wrought in pure gold.

consumption reaps his richest harvest where diseases of the throat and lungs are neglected.

HALE'S HONEY OF HOREHOUND AND TAR

If you have ever tried Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar you know what a safeguard it is against throat and lung troubles. Sold by druggists.

Pike's Toothache Drops cure in one minute.

LAND VALUES.

Continued from page 1.

WARD TWO.

	Valuation of Land Only.	Total Ward Tax.
Johnson, Maria F.		189 00
72,100, off Mill, $1,500.
Wharf, 20,000, ft. $2,000.
Jones, Mrs. Charles F.		143 10
46,500, South, $2,000.
Jones, Charlotte		12 60
4,695, South, $200.

WARD THREE.

Igo, John	$58 70
11,750, Intervale, $500.
4,808, Gilbert, $300.
5,728, Quincy, $400.
Igo, Patrick	67 70
5,372, Payne, $350.
Jacobson, Charlotte M.	23 40
9,119, Kendrick, $500.
James, Emily	55 80
23,000, Brook road, $800.
Jenness, William W., tr.,	56 70
6,000, Trafford, $350.
Jennings, Ruth E.	4 50
6,000, Columbia, $250.
Jenkins, James H.	39 80
6,000, Nightingale ave., $300.
Johnson, Andrew	46 10
1-2 acre, Garfield, $800.
Johnson, John L.	53 30
1-8 acre, Clark ave., $250.
19,800 feet, " " $500.
11,000, off " " $50.
Johnson, Julias	103 25
7,170, Nightingale ave., $350.
5,045, Centre, $300.
Johnson, Mary L.	23 40
6,000, Columbia, $300.
Jones, Eliza J.	45 90
4,257, Liberty, $250.
Jones, Ellen	78 30
7,200, Liberty, $450.
7,200, " $450.
7,200, " $450.
Jones, Frederick L.	50 60
11,250, Granite, $650.
Jones, Mrs. Martha A.	81 90
6,400, Pleasant, $550.
9,560, Granite, $600.
Jones, Owen W., heirs,	127 35
1,200, School, $875.
7,290, Granite, $600.
Jones, William L.	6 75
7,324, Verchile, $350.
Joss Bros. Granite Co.,	63 00
Joss, John and James	86 00
1 acre, Garfield, $1,700.

Wards Three, Four and Five of I nd J will appear tomorrow.

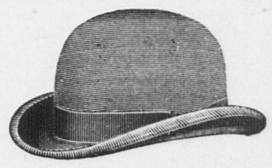

You should save a file of the Ledger while this list is being printed. We cannot supply back numbers of the paper at 2 cents per copy, but have established this rate: Papers one week old, 5 cents; papers one month old, 10 cents; papers one year old, 25 cents.

☞ Our $1.00 comforters are without a rival. Other prices from 75 cents to $3.50. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

Glass toys 1500 years old have been taken from the grave of a child in the course of some excavations at Rheinessen, Germany.

☞ A written guarantee that our prices are as low and invariably lower for better goods, than any other furaiture house in the country. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

Hats and Furnishings.

"A good Hat redeems a seedy suit." Get a

BEACONSFIELD $3.00 DERBY

and wear your old clothes gracefully.

CHAMBERLAIN'S,

Telephone, Oxford 872.

663 WASHINGTON STREET, BOSTON.

Sept. 15 L 17-4w o

TO LET.

If you have a vacant tenement, advertise the fact in the Daily Ledger. We are confident it will be let within two months, and to substantiate the claim, we will advertise it after two months. To take advantage of this offer payment must be made before the expiration of the two months. A four-line space until your house is let will cost only $5 at the outside. You cannot afford on these terms to let the house continue vacant.

FREE

Babies Thrive On It.

Gail Borden Eagle Brand Condensed Milk.

LITTLE BOOK "INFANT HEALTH" SENT FREE, Should be in Every House.

N.Y. CONDENSED MILK CO. NEW YORK.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS.

Advertisements in this column inserted at the following rates:

Four lines, or less, one day, - - - 25 cents.
" " three days, - - - - 50 cents.
" " one week, - - - - 75 cents.

Additional lines will be charged for pro rata. Seven words equal a line. Long term rates furnished on application.

WANTED.

WANTED—Board and room in a private family near the centre, by a young married couple. Address "X," Ledger office. Quincy, Oct. 1. 3t

WANTED—Experienced Salesman for Lubricating Oils, Greases and specialties: Salary or Commission. Equitable Refining Co., Cleveland, O. Sept. 29—7t-eod

WANTED—Quincy & Boston R. R. Co. Stock wanted for investment; ten or more shares; state lowest figures. Address "POTTER," Ledger office. Oct. 1—3t

WANTED—Competent Swede girl for general housework. Apply at 13 Spear street, fifth house below Public Library. lptf

WANTED—Girl, willing and capable to take care of children and assist as second girl. MRS. GEO. H. BROWN, 44 Elm street, Quincy. sep28 tf

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—An extra good family Cow at Pierce's Hotel, Hough's Neck. Quincy, Oct. 4. 3t

TO LET.

TO LET—A pleasant tenement of six rooms; newly papered and painted throughout. Centrally located on a main street within five minutes' walk of Quincy depot. Rent, $15. Address "House," Lock Box L, Quincy. Oct. 4. tf

TO LET—Cottage house, No. 29 Granite street, 8 rooms, three minutes' from City Square. Apply to H. M. FAXON, 4 Adams Building. Sept. 30—tf

LAND TO LET—The lot now occupied by George S. Paterson on Brackett street, will be leased for a term of years if desired. HENRY H. FAXON. Sept. 29—6t

TO LFT—Half a House of 5 rooms entirely separate on Phipps street, Mt. Pleasant. Rent, $8 a month; city water. Inquire at 17 Summer street. Quincy, Sept. 27. 12t

FOR RENT—Desirable house with bath, corner lot, nice neighborhood, three minutes' walk from schools, churches and depot Rent reasonable. Apply at No. 6 Pleasant St. Quincy, Sept. 7. tf

TO LET—Lower half of house on Foster street, centre of the town. All modern improvements. Fine opportunity for small family. Enquire of E. B. SOUTHER, No. 1 Granite street, Quincy. Aug. 11—tf

TO LET IN QUINCY.

SOUTHERLY Half of house with stable, 214 Hancock street, now occupied by Dr. N. S. Hunting. Modern improvements, central location. Possession given about October 15th. Apply on premises to MISS M. F. UNDERWOOD. Oct. 1. tf

TO LET.

APARTMENTS of five large rooms and bath, with all modern improvements. Also two large stores. Rent moderate. Apply to ARTHUR CRAIG, or J. W. HAYDEN, at Craig Building, cor. Copeland and Garfield Sts. Quincy, July 15. pl tf

FOR SALE.

Bigelow St. Fine New Residence, 9 rooms, bath, laundry, furnace, open plumbing, cemented cellar, fireplace, etc.

R. D. CHASE,
Savings Bank Building.
Quincy, April 8-tf. 99-tf

$30,000 TO LOAN

On Real Estate In Quincy

at 5 and 6 per cent. Interest.

HATCH & WILLIS,

172 Main Street, Room 4, Brockton Mass.

Sept. 28. 6t

MABEL F. FAIRBANKS

TEACHER OF

CHINA PAINTING and WATERCOLOR.

China Decorated to Order.

34 Grand View Avenue, Wollaston.

Sept. 29. 3m

E. W. SHACKFORD,

PAPER HANGER,

Quincy, Mass.

☞ Orders left with W. DAVENPORT, or T. B. DAVENPORT.

Sept. 14. 1m

BILLHEADS

AT PATRIOT OFFICE.

GEO. AMES,

the ONLY PRACTICAL PLUMBER in the Hardware business in the City. He has a patent SEWER TRAP which cannot be beat. Impossible for deadly sewer gas to enter your homes. See him about your Sewer Connection. He has had three years' experience in Boston and other large cities. Established here in 1889 and still in it. Work done anywhere.

Hardware, Paints and Oils, Putty and Glass, Yacht Supplies, Steam and Gas Fittings. Steam and Hot Air Heaters put in repair for the winter.

ADAMS BUILDING

Special Opening!

Flannelette Undergarments.

New Goods and Very Low Prices When the Quality is Considered.

These Goods are made for Men, Women and Children.

Call and Examine the Goods. You will Buy Them.

D. E. WADSWORTH & CO.,

Hancock Street, - - - Quincy.

Carpetings.

Buying a carpet is serious business, and the first thought is to find a carpet that will always wear well and look attractive.

We make a specialty of strong, serviceable carpetings in choice designs at money-saving prices only.

There isn't a store in the whole country that can supply your demands as well as we can.

Hundreds of the latest and choicest designs in Wools, Tapestries and Brussels. Your inspection and comparison cheerfully solicited.

Cotton and Wool Carpetings, 25c. to 45c.
All Wool Carpetings, 45c. to 65c.
Heavy Tapestries, 45c. to 85c.

HENRY L. KINCAIDE & CO.,

Reliable, Low Priced House Furnishers.

Hancock Street, - - - Quincy, Mass.

Quality Right.

Quantity Right.

Service Right.

C. PATCH & SON.

Coal and Wood.

WATCHES.

GENT'S WATCHES, $1.50 and Up.

LADIES' WATCHES, $2.50 and Up.

EVERY WATCH WARRANTED.

$2.00 Belts, $1.00 Each.
75c. Brooch Pins, 25c. Each.
25 and 35c. Stick Pins, 5 and 10c. Ea.

Quincy SOUVENIR TILES Half Price,

And Other Bargains.

A. A. LINSCOTT, Jeweler,

154 Hancock St., opp. Post Office, Quincy.

Agent for Graphophones.

aug 6. tf

SICKNESS INCREASES.

Fourth of the Porto Rican Army Incapable of Duty.

Most Numerous Cases Among the Volunteers.

Longing For Home Makes Them an Easy Prey to Malaria.

Ponce, Oct. 4.—It is the unanimous opinion of the medical staff of the army in Porto Rico that the condition of the volunteer forces necessitates their removal north. Sickness is increasing at an alarming rate. The sick report shows over 2700 in hospitals or in quarters out of a total command of 10,000 men; that is, over 25 percent of the troops are on the sick list. This, however, does not mean that there is an effective strength of 7500 men. The soldiers discharged from the hospitals as fit for duty in nine cases out of 10 are incapable of service, and if ordered on duty are almost invariably back in the hospitals within a few days. The medical officers have found that the convalescents seemingly cannot recover their strength in this climate, and they are being sent north as rapidly as possible, several hundred leaving every week.

There is a wide disparity between the sickness in the volunteer and regular commands. In the two regular infantry regiments, the Nineteenth and Eleventh, the sickness averaged only about 10 percent, while in the volunteer regiments it averages 34 percent. Undoubtedly the wide disparity between the percentages is largely due to the fact that the regulars are better able to care for themselves. Most of them are veterans who understand the rules of health in camp, and their officers from the very outset have enforced with untiring energy the sanitary regulations necessary for the preservation of health. More than that, the regulars are making soldiering a business, and they look upon their assignment for service in Porto Rico philosophocally and make the best of the situation. The volunteers enlisted for two years, but with the almost universal expectation that they would be mustered out when the war closed. Almost to a man they desire to go home, and ever since the protocol was signed they have lived in the daily hope of being recalled. Home sickness depressed their spirits and made them easy victims to the malarial conditions. It is said that some of them who did not fall sick naturally actually exposed themselves to the wet, or ate freely of tropical fruits that they might become ill and be sent home. Some, it is alleged, even feigned sickness, and quite a number of these succeeded in their designs. The other day a number of men from one of the regiments who had been ordered home as convalescents came into Ponce miles ahead of their wagon train, singing and making merry at the prospect of their release. Some were college athletes. They appeared to be more capable of service than hundreds of the soldiers who remained.

The medical staff of the army has labored unceasingly to stay the progress of disease and sickness, but the sick report grows longer at the rate of 50 or 60 a day. Every tent on the island was provided with a board flooring by the order of General Brooke; and camps, cooking places and sinks were carefully inspected time after time until their sanitary condition today seems perfect, yet the number of sick swells daily. The worst feature of the situation is the steady increase in the number of typhoid cases, which today reaches over 400.

It is possible that when the troops cross the mountains after the evacuation of the island is completed by the Spaniards, and get into barracks out of the rain, which falls almost daily, their conditions will improve; but as to this the physicians are very skeptical. There are spacious barracks in the large towns in the island. In most of the towns there are also fairly well equipped hospital buildings. It is said to be the opinion of many of the general officers that the volunteer organizations could be withdrawn and that the two regular regiments, with the three troops of cavalry and the four batteries of artillery now in the island, would be amply sufficient for garrison duty. The Eleventh and Nineteenth have already been informed that they will remain here, and preparations are being made by the officers to bring their families and regimental property. It is not improbable that one or, perhaps, both of the infantry regiments, if they are to remain, will have to be mounted, as the real service of our troops during the period of reconstruction and perhaps for many years must be to preserve order in the interior.

Company Has a Vested Right.

Lansing, Oct. 4.—The Michigan supreme court has reversed the decision of the Wayne county (Detroit) circuit court in the case brought by Governor Pingree to compel the Michigan Central Railway company to sell mileage books at a flat 2-cent rate. The court holds that the company, under its special charter, has a right to fix its own tolls; that this is a vested right which the state must pay for if it takes it away.

Insane Mother's Crime.

Montreal, Oct. 4.—Word comes from St. Severin, in this province, that while Joseph Clotier was at church Sunday his wife cut the throats of her four children and, after lacerating their bodies in a terrible manner, set fire to the house. The husband returned in time to get the bodies out of the house before they were cremated. The woman was found in an outhouse and acknowledged her crime. She is undoubtedly insane.

The Peace Commission.

Paris, Oct. 4.—Yesterday's session of the peace commissioners lasted until 4 o'clock, at which hour they adjourned to meet Friday afternoon, such interval being desirable and necessary to allow separate consideration by each commission of matters requiring such course before the joint commission. The interval will be thus filled with work by each commission, the ultimate results being so facilitated.

GEORGE DECLINES.

Not Disposed to Bear an Empty Honor as a Candidate.

New York, Oct. 4.—Henry George has declined the nomination for governor on the ticket placed in the field by the Chicago platform Democrats, and the committee having authority to fill vacancies nominated Henry M. McDonald for the place. Mr. George's letter of declination is as follows:

HENRY GEORGE.

Fort Hamilton, N. Y., Oct. 3.

Gentlemen—It is a great honor to be judged worthy of the suffrage of one's fellow citizens, and it is an especial honor to receive the nomination of a party striving for pure politics and economic freedom. I deeply appreciate the action of the party of Chicago platform Democrats in nominating me for the high office of governor of the state of New York; but after careful consideration I must decline the nomination, for I am persuaded that by pursuing uninterruptedly the duty of writing my father's biography—a duty to my father's memory and to the cause to which he gave his life—I can do no more for the principles of freedom than I could by engaging actively in politics.

For at a time when the two great political machines must excite public attention over the questions of the war and the criminal scandals growing out of it, and over the questions of official corruption and mismanagement in the state, the more remote, though far greater, economic questions would be lost sight of, and thus an independent fight would not stand on the merit of its principles, but get only such scant attention in the public eye as might be diverted from the fight over political debauchery.

I should say, moreover, in justice to myself and to those who honestly advance the silver question to the rank of first importance, that I am, no more than my father was, an advocate of free coinage. He condemned its economic soundness, being in fact a believer neither in gold nor silver, but in credit or paper money. He supported the Chicago platform, not on account of, but in spite of, its advocacy of free silver because he believed that in other respects it stood for the principles of freedom; because it took the side of the weak as against that of the monopolists; because it sided with the house of want against the house of have. I am in entire accord with those views, and I think it proper to state them freely, that there may be no room for misunderstanding on the part of any.

Henry M. McDonald was the chairman of the convention which placed Mr. George in nomination. He was born in Caledonia, Livingstone county, N. Y., in 1851. Left an orphan at an early age, Mr. McDonald earned his living as a farmhand until 17 years of age. He attended night schools, and at the age of 18 began to teach school. He made money enough to take him through Princeton college, and was graduated from that institution in 1878. He studied law in Rochester and was admitted to the bar in 1879. He practised law for four years, and then went to Pierre, S. D., where he engaged in banking. He returned to New York in 1891, and has since been in various financial businesses here. Mr. McDonald is president of the New York Bimetallic association.

Christian Endeavorers.

Manchester, Oct. 4.—The opening session of the state convention of the Christian Endeavorers was held last night. W. C. Heath, chairman of the convention committee, welcomed the visiting delegates in behalf of the local union, and Rev. Dr. T. Eaton Clapp on behalf of the local pastors and churches. Mayor Clarke was expected to extend a welcome on behalf of the city, but he could not be present. Rev. W. H. Getchell, president of the state union, responded to the welcome and made his annual address, and Rev. Dr. Francis E. Clarke, the founder of the Christian Endeavor movement, spoke on "The Christian Endeavor Birthright."

Gave Himself Up.

Providence, Oct. 4.—The man who did the stabbing at Rumford at midnight Saturday, when G. J. Collins was probably fatally wounded, is a prisoner at the East Providence station. He is Peter Jaswell, a farmhand, about 28 years old, and unmarried. He claims he was viciously abused and aggravated beyond endurance, and that he used the knife in self-defense when Collins assaulted and bit him after leaving the car. His employer advised him to surrender, as the police had traced the assault to him, and there was little prospect that he could elude them. He acted on his employer's advice.

In Old Quebec.

Quebec, Oct. 4.—The members of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery association of Boston, 300 strong, arrived here in the rain last evening, having made the trip from Boston in 11 hours and 15 minutes. It is said this is the best time ever made over the road. Dufferin terrace was illuminated with colored lights and Japanese lanterns, but the rain prevented the parade.

In Box Denuded.

Stevens Point, Wis., Oct. 4.—Joseph Steertsbach, 72 years of age, has been robbed of $15,000. This amount, consisting of $7000 in Stevens' Point bonds, $2000 in government bonds, $3600 in gold and $3000 in paper money, he has kept buried in a tin box in his woodshed. During his absence from the city it was exhumed and taken, together with his list of bond numbers.

STEAMER IN A STORM.

Lives of Many Persons In Jeopardy For Hours.

Hundreds of Birds Drown In the Vortex.

Vessel Put About In a Tremendous Sea and the Danger Point Passed.

New York, Oct. 4.—The Red D line steamer, Philadelphia, Captain Chalmers, which arrived Monday from Venzuelan ports with a cargo of coffee and full complement of passengers from Ponce, P. R., encountered a terrific storm last Monday about 400 miles north of Porto Rico. For 36 hours the steamer labored in a tremendous sea, caused by wind having a velocity estimated at 60 miles an hour.

The storm was of a rotary character, but the velocity of the wind hardly raised it to the dignity of a hurricane. It was moving northwest at the rate of, perhaps, eight miles an hour when the Philadelphia entered it. Directly in the teeth of the gale the Philadelphia held her course for 20 hours, the force of the wind increasing in the heaviest gusts from about 40 to 60 miles. Tuesday afternoon the storm center was reached. Here the wind subsided to perhaps less than 20 miles an hour, coming in fitful gusts from all directions.

In this storm center were hundreds of birds drawn into the vortex of the storm. Many of them were canaries of the variety which prevail in the islands of the Carribean sea. Their presence proved that the storm must have passed over one of these islands. There were also other varieties of land birds and a few seagulls. Many of the creatures dropped from sheer exhaustion on the decks.

As soon as the center was passed the wind shifted to the opposite direction and blew 60 miles an hour from the southeast. Captain Chalmers did not feel justified in jeopardizing the lives of his passengers by keeping on his course longer, so he put the ship about and headed southeast. He held this course until Wednesday noon, allowing the steamer to drift off to the westward, and then headed back for New York. Some of the passengers were badly frightened, and all of them were badly shaken up by their tempestuous experience, but only one was injured. Only one big sea broke aboard and the only damage it did was to one of the ship's boats. The storm delayed the Philadelphia about 48 hours.

Reports That Conflict.

Brockton, Mass., Oct. 4.—The manufacturers continue to report an increased output of goods, and the unions claim that they are constantly inducing men to come out, notably from the larger factories. The entire 616 machines under control of the union are now dismantled. The strike ordered in all districts outside of Brockton will affect only hand lasters. The list calls for a uniform price on machine lasting, and the machines, being already dismantled, the hand lasters will have to come out if the list is not accepted.

A committee appointed from the conference committee of the Lasters' union met the executive committee of the board of trade at the latter's rooms. The visiting committee returned the proposition of the board and stated that it could not be accepted, as it was contrary to the constitution of the union. A long discussion ensued on the proposition. The committee from the union said that it would like to have the manufacturers organize and send accredited representatives to the conferences with the union, but the latter would not admit that it was ready to make any concessions.

The outlook is that most of the shops will accept the list. The machine company is still pursuing the even tenor of its way, and claims that through its efforts six of the larger shops are lost to the union, and that as soon as these six shops are running a little more satisfactorily the company will aid other shops as fast as they need help.

Gigantic Combination of Capital.

Cleveland, Oct. 4.—One of the most gigantic projects for the combination of capital in the history of the country is being engineered in this city. It is nothing less than to unite the war shipbuilding interests and the armor plate and gunmaking interests of the world into a great syndicate, whose factories shall be located near Cleveland. Men of international reputation in the financial and manufacturing world are in the deal. All summer foreigners of wealth and rank have been quietly visiting Cleveland. Their going and coming has been kept as mysterious as possible. They have avoided hotels, fearing publicity might be given their plans.

It is believed every shipbuilding, gunmaking and armor plate making firm in the United States has been in the negotiations. The projectors claim they can raise a capital of $200,000,000. One of their fond dreams, which may or may not become a reality, is said to be the securing of a canal from the great lakes to the sea, all on United States territory. The yards for building warships could then be located on the lakes.

A Peculiar Accident.

Middletown, Pa., Oct. 4. — Private Joseph Cover, company A, Tenth Ohio, bled to death yesterday at Raymond & Campbell's works. Cover called at the works to sharpen his knife on a felt wheel. He was refused permission to do so, but after the foreman turned his back Cover placed the knife on the wheel. The knife was scarcely on the wheel when it caught, flew off and struck the soldier in the right leg, between the knee and thigh, severing an artery. A physician was summoned, but arrived too late, as the soldier died in five minutes.

World's Champion Won.

Scranton, Pa., Oct. 4.—"Mysterious Billy" Smith, the world's champion welterweight, administered to James Judge, the Scranton claimant, his first defeat last night. Smith had the better of it from the start and delivered a knockout chop on the jaw just 14 seconds before the gong would have sounded on the 20th round and the last

A Disgusted Woman.

It isn't any wonder that some women get disgusted with medicine and lose faith in the doctors. When a woman complains of feeling weak, nervous and despondent, and suffers from headaches, pains in the back and stitches in the sides and burning, dragging-down sensations, the average physician will attribute these feelings to heart, stomach or liver trouble. For years, possibly, she takes their prescriptions for these ailments without receiving any benefit, then, in final disgust, she throws away drugs, and hopelessly lets matters take their course. A woman who suffers in this way is almost invariably a sufferer from weakness and disease of the distinctly feminine organism. There is an unfailing and inexpensive cure for all troubles of this description. It is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It acts directly on the delicate organs concerned, making them well and strong. It heals all internal ulceration and stops debilitating drains. It takes the pressure off the nerves and makes them strong and steady. Under its marvelous merits thousands of women have been made healthy, happy and robust. The "Favorite Prescription" restores weak, nervous, pain-racked women and makes strong, healthy, capable wives and mothers. With its use all pain and suffering disappear. All good medicine stores sell it and have nothing else "just as good."

Constipation and torpid liver will make the most ambitious man or woman utterly good for nothing. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure them. One little "Pellet" is a gentle laxative and two a mild cathartic.

Dr. Pierce's 1000-page illustrated book, "People's Medical Adviser" sent, paper-bound, free for the cost of mailing only, 21 one-cent stamps; or, cloth-bound 31 stamps. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Coal!

Just Received by Barge Blackbird, a Fresh Cargo of

Pea Coal

(Small Nut.)

J. F. SHEPPARD & SONS

Quincy Sept. 7.

SOMETHING YOU WANT.

Fresh Vegetables.

We Receive Them Every Day.

All Kinds in Their Season

L. M. PRATT & CO.,

25 School Street.

Always a good assortment at our branch store, 105 Water street.

Quincy, June 18.

ALBERT J. BOWERS OPTICIAN

ADAMS BUILDING Over Post Office QUINCY MASS.

DR. HERBERT S. HAYFORD

195 Hancock Street.

OFFICE HOURS—11 to 12 A. M., 2 to 4 and 7 to 8 P. M.

Telephone, 4-3.

Quincy, July 5. tf

Quincy and Boston Electric Street Railway.

[Subject to change without notice.]

On and after September 21, cars will be run on the different routes as follows:

Quincy and Neponset.

Leave CITY SQUARE for Neponset at 5.55, 6.10, 6.25, 6.40 A. M. and every 15 minutes until 11.10 P. M.

Leave NEPONSET for Quincy at 6.15 A. M. and every 15 minutes until 11.30 P. M.

Cars leaving Quincy at 10 minutes past the hour go via Norfolk Downs, and those leaving Neponset at 30 minutes past go via Downs.

Cars leaving Neponset 15 minutes of and 15 minutes past the hour go via Wollaston and continue through Braintree and Holbrook to Brockton, connecting with cars for Bridgewater, Taunton, New Bedford, Fall River, Newport and Providence.

Quincy and East Weymouth.

Leave CITY SQUARE (10 minutes later from Quincy Point and 22 minutes later from North Weymouth)—5.45, 6.20, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20, 9.50, 10.20, 10.50, 11.20, 11.50 A. M.; 12.20, 12.50, 1.20, 1.50, 2.20, 2.50, 3.20, 3.50, 4.20, 4.50, 5.20, (5.30 to East Weymouth car house), 5.50, 6.20, 6.30, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20, 9.50, 10.50 P. M., (11.50 Wednesday and Saturday to Thomas' Corner only.)

Leave EAST WEYMOUTH (20 minutes later from North Weymouth and 30 minutes later from Quincy Point)—6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8, 8.30, 9, 9.30 10, 10.30, 11, 11.30 A. M.; 12, 12.30, 1, 1.30, 2, 2.30, 3, 3.30, 4, 4.30, 5, 5.30, 6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8 8.30, 9, 9.30, 10, 10.30, 11.30 P. M.

Quincy and Weymouth Landing.

Leave QUINCY at 5.30 A. M., 6.20, 7.20 and every hour until 12.20, then 1.50 and every hour until 10.50 P. M.

Leave WEYMOUTH LANDING at 5.50 A. M. and every hour until 12.50, then 2.20 and every hour until 11.20 P. M., connect with trains to Boston at Quincy.

Quincy and East Milton.

Leave CITY SQUARE, 5.55, 6.25, then every 5 minutes of and 25 minutes past the hour until 9.25 P. M., then at 10.50 P. M.

Leave EAST MILTON 6.25, 6.55 A. M., then every 5 minutes of and 25 minutes past the hour until 9.50 P. M., then 10.20 and 11.20 P. M.

Quincy and Holbrook.

Leave QUINCY for Holbrook at 6.10 and 6.40 A. M., and every half hour until 9.40 P. M., then 10.10 P. M. to South Braintree only, except on Wednesday and Saturday, when car at 10.50 runs through to Holbrook.

Quincy and Hingham.

Leave QUINCY at 7.20 A. M. and every hour until 11.20 A. M., then 1.50 and every hour until 5.50 P. M.

Leave HINGHAM at 8 A. M. and every hour until 12 M., then 2.30 and every hour until 6.30 P. M.

Neponset, Atlantic and Squantum.

Leave NEPONSET at 6.30 A. M. and every hour until 8.30 P. M., connecting at Atlantic with outward express trains.

Leave SQUANTUM at 7 A. M. and every hour until 9 P. M., connecting at Atlantic with express trains.

Quincy and Houghs Neck.

Leave QUINCY CENTRE at 6.20 A. M., and and every hour until 1.20, and then 1.50 and every hour until 9.50.

Returning, leave HOUGHS NECK at 5.45 A. M., and every hour until 12.45, and then 1.20 and every hour until 9.20.

SUNDAYS.

Cars leave City Square, Quincy, for E. Weymouth at 7.30 A. M. and West Quincy at 7 A. M and on the hour and half hour throughout the day.

Sunday time same as week days on other lines, except that the first two trips are omitted.

BENJ. J. WEEKS, Superintendent.

New York, New Haven and Hartford R. R.

Eastern District.

On and after July 1st, 1898, trains will run as follows: (See note of explanation at bottom.

TO BOSTON. Leave Quincy.	Stops at	Arrive Boston.	FROM BOSTON. Leave Boston.	Stops at	Arrive Quincy
r 6 12	abc	* 6 30	5 55	ihgfedcba	*6 22 r
r 6 42	abc	7 00	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	7 30	cba	7 49 r
r 7 26	ad	7 43	8 30	cba	8 49 r
r 7 42	abc	8 00	9 30	cba	9 49 r
r 8 12	abc	8 30	10 30	cba	10 49 r
r 8 26	ad	8 43	11 30	cba	11 49 r
r 8 42	abc	9 00	12 30	cba	12 49 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	1 30	cba	1 49 r
r 10 12	abc	10 30	2 30	cba	2 49 r
r 11 12	abc	11 30	3 30	cba	3 49 r
r 12 12	abc	12 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
r 1 12	abc	1 30	5 00	cba	5 19 r
r 2 12	abc	2 30	5 17	da	5 36 r
r 3 12	abc	3 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
r 4 12	abc	4 30	6 00	cba	6 19 r
r 5 12	abc	5 30	6 17	da	6 36 r
r 6 12	abc	6 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	7 00	cba	7 19 r
r 7 39	abcdefghi	8 05	7 30	cba	7 49 r
r 8 08	abcdef	8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	9 30	cba	9 49 r
r 10 08	abcdef	10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r
r 11 12	abc	11 30	11 30	cba	11 49 r

SUNDAYS.

r 7 12	abc	7 30	6 30	cba	6 1
r 8 12	abc	8 30	8 30	cba	8 49 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	12 30	cba	12 49 r
r 1 12	abc	1 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
r 5 12	abc	5 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 8 08	abcdef	8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
r 10 08	abcdef	10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r

*The letters in the same line as the figures stand for different stations and indicate that trains stop, as follows:

a, Wollaston, b, Norfolk Downs. c, Atlantic. d, Neponset. e, Pope's Hill, f, Harrison Square. g, Savin Hill. h, Crescent Avenue. i, South Boston. r, Quincy Adams. (xx), Express.

C. PETER CLARK, Gen'l Supt. A. C. KENDALL, G. P. A

LADIES ROYAL DELIVERANCE CAPSULES are a positive, safe and speedy monthly regulator, guaranteed to cure the most stubborn cases, or money refunded. Have never failed. Used by thousands of ladies, indorsed and prescribed by the medical profession. Painful and dangerous operations avoided. Price $2, at office or by return mail. 'Royal Protector' and full particulars under plain seal for 4c., stamps. ROYAL REMEDIES CO., 228 Tremont Street, Boston, Mass. Mention this paper.

J. BOWERS

TICIAN

QUINCY MASS.

ERT S. HAYFORD

hcock Street.

S—11 to 12 A. M., 2 to 4 and phone, 4-3.

tf

and Boston

Street Railway.

[hange without notice.]

eptember 21, cars will be routes as follows:

y and Neponset.

UARE for Neponset at 5.55,
. and every 15 minutes until

SET for Quincy at 6.15 A. M.
tes until 11.30 P. M.
uincy at 10 minutes past the k Downs, and those leaving utes past go via Wollaston eponset 15 minutes of and 15
hour go via Wollaston and
Braintree and Holbrook to ing with cars for Bridge-
New Bedford, Fall River,
idence.

nd East Weymouth.

UARE (10 minutes later from
22 minutes later from North
6.20, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20,
20, 10.50, 11.20, 11.50 A. M.;
50, 2.20, 2.50, 3.20, 3.50, 4.20,
East Weymouth car house),
0, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20, 11.50 Wednesday and Saturday
r only.)

EYMOUTH (20 minutes later
outh and 30 minutes later from 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8, 8.30, 9, 9.30
0 A. M.; 12, 12.30, 1, 1.30, 2, 30, 5, 5.30, 6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8
0.30, 11.30 P. M.

Weymouth Landing.

Y at 5.30 A. M., 6.20, 7.20 and
2.20, then 1.50 and every hour

MOUTH LANDING at 5.50
hour until 12.50, then 2.20 and til 11.20 P. M., connect with at Quincy.

and East Milton.

QUARE, 5.55, 6.25, then every
25 minutes past the hour until t 10.50 P. M.
MILTON 6.25, 6.55 A. M., then of and 25 minutes past the hour
then 10.20 and 11.20 P. M.

ry and Holbrook.

CY for Holbrook at 6.10 and very half hour until 9.40 P. M.,
. to South Braintree only,
esday and Saturday, when can ough to Holbrook.

cy and Hingham.

CY at 7.20 A. M. and every hour
, then 1.50 and every hour until

HAM at 8 A. M. and every hour
en 2.30 and every hour until

Atlantic and Squantum.

NSET at 6.30 A. M. and every
0 P. M., connecting at Atlantic xpress trains.
NTUM at 7 A. M. and every
M., connecting at Atlantic with

y and Houghs Neck.

CY CENTRE at 6.20 A. M., and ur until 1.20, and then 1.50 and 19.50.
eave HOUGHS NECK at 5.45
y hour until 12.45, and then 1.20
until 9.20.

SUNDAYS.

ity Square, Quincy, for E. Wey-
A. M. and West Quincy at 7 A. M ur and half hour throughout the same as week days on other lines, first two trips are omitted.

J. WEEKS, Superintendent.

ork, New Haven
Hartford R. R.

ern District.

July 1st, 1898, trains will run
e note of explanation at bottom.

TON.	FROM BOSTON.
Arrive Boston.	Leave Boston.	Stops at	Arrive Quincy
6 30	5 55	ihgfedcba	*6 22 r
7 00	6 30	cba	6 49 r
7 30	7 30	cba	7 49 r
7 45	8 30	cba	8 49 r
8 00	9 30	cba	9 49 r
8 30	10 30	cba	10 49 r
8 43	11 30	cba	11 49 r
9 00	12 30	cba	12 49 r
9 30	1 30	cba	1 49 r
10 30	2 30	cba	2 49 r
11 30	3 30	cba	3 49 r
12 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
1 30	5 00	cba	5 19 r
2 30	5 17	da	5 36 r
3 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
4 30	6 00	cba	6 19 r
5 30	6 17	da	6 36 r
6 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
7 30	7 00	cba	7 19 r
ghi 8 05	7 30	cba	7 49 r
8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
9 30	9 30	cba	9 49 r
10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r
11 30	11 30	cba	11 49 r

UNDAYS.

7 30	6 30	cba	6 1
8 30	8 30	cba	8 49 r
9 30	12 30	cba	12 49 r
1 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
5 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
7 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r

in the same line as the figures erent stations and indicate that follows:

g, Savin Hill.
wns. h, Crescent Avenue.
i, South Boston.

r, Quincy Adams.
uare. (xx), Express.
LARK, A. C. KENDALL,
upt. G. P. A

ADIES ROYAL DELIVERANCE CAPSULES are a positive, safe and speedy monthly regulator, guaranteed to cure the most stubborn cases, or money refunded. Have never failed. Used by thousands of ladies, indorsed and prescribed by the medical profession. Painful and dangerous operations avoided. Price $2, at office or by return mail. 'Royal Protector' and full particulars under plain seal for 4c., stamps. ROYAL REMEDIES CO., 228 Tremont Street, Boston, Mass. Mention this paper.

QUINCY DAILY LEDGER.

VOL. 10. No. 32. QUINCY, MASS., WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 5, 1898. PRICE 2 CENTS.

ESTABLISHED IN 1817.

John H. Pray, Sons & Co.

CARPETINGS, RUGS AND UPHOLSTERY.

Largest and Oldest in New England.

BARGAINS. Just to introduce the FALL RETAIL SEASON and to stimulate trade, we offer for ONE WEEK ONLY the following: . . . . . .

26 patterns or about 3700 yards

Standard American Brussels

— AT —

85c. Per Yard.

This is a ridiculously low price for the high grade Brussels we are offering, and is made only to close out those patterns that we shall not run in stock another season and to make room for new goods. Also a large selection of odd pieces and colorings of the Best Brussels, taken from our wholesale stock, and offered at less than jobbing prices for

90c. and 95c. PER YARD

Respectively.

Fifty patterns to select from.

☞ The price of every carpet marked on the tag in plain figures.

BEST QUALITY

American Brussels.

Over 170 patterns to select from, or about 16,000 yards, suitable for Parlors, Reception Rooms, Sitting Rooms, Libraries, Dining Room, Chambers, Halls and Stairs, at $1.25 PER YARD.

These Brussels are usually sold at $1.50 and upwards. This is a good opportunity for any one who intends refurnishing this Fall.

If convenient please bring diagrams or plans of your rooms.

☞ All purchases delivered free at residences within ten miles of our store.

John H. Pray, Sons & Co.,

Importers, Contractors, Jobbers, Retailers,

658 Washington Street,

OPPOSITE BOYLSTON STREET.

Boston, Oct. 5. lpo—1t

He Was Embarrassed.

He was painfully embarrassed. He came into our store last week and said to our new man (Mr. Ryder): "I want to get a f-f-f-f-f-f-fall——" He got one. He backed up to let a couple of ladies pass from our clothing department, and fell down two short steps which lead to that department. He got up smiling and said again: "I want to get a f-f-f-f-f-fall overcoat and I'm a little sh-sh-sh-sh-short——" "Oh! That makes no difference," said our man, "as we carry overcoats for all shaped men—for the short ones as well as the tall ones," and he laid out a few different styles for him to see.

"I m-m-m-m-mean that I'm sh-sh-sh-sh-short of mun-mun-mun-money and I want to know if I paid eh-eh-eh-eh-eight dollars on one, if I could pup-pup-pup-pay the rest on Saturday night?"

He went out with 50c. and a brand new Fall Overcoat. He bought a fine light covert for $7.50 that he expected to pay $10.00 for, and he did not feel bashful about saying so, either.

We don't trust because we want to sell you all the time. If we trusted—well, you know somebody's got to pay.

Our heavy weight Fall and Winter Covert at $9.85, made with swelled seams, satin facing and without lining, is the most economical coat a man can buy.

Remember we are the Headquarters in Quincy for Children's Clothing. Over 400 suits. Prices, $1.29 to $5.00.

QUINCY CLOTHING COMPANY,

QUINCY'S CLOTHIERS,

Music Hall Block.

Advertising Should be Continuous to be Profitable. The Ledger is the Best Medium in Quincy.

TELEGRAPHIC.

3 O'CLOCK.

CORCORAN FIRED.

Bounced from National Democratic Committee.

Bruce and Slattery the Democratic Ticket.

Roosevelt Defines Issues at Speech in New York.

New York, Oct. 5.—In accepting the nomination for governor yesterday, Colonel Roosevelt said to Mr. Depew and the other members of the committee on notification: "National issues are paramount this year. It is not more possible to conduct a state election now without regard to national issues than it was possible so to conduct one in 1861 or 1863. As it was then so it now is—the interests of the whole nation are of vital and absorbing interest to each citizen. Then, as now, the Republican party was forced to find new issues, to confront new problems. Then, as now, it was forced not to follow, but to make precedents. In 1861, we had to preserve the republic for its great destiny; in 1898, we have to take a long stride towards the accomplishment of that destiny. The Republican party therefore in its state platform does well to reiterate the promises under which it was possible to elect a Republican president, pledges which made it possible to restore prosperity to our country and to put the nation where it is possible to work out the glorious future, which is now before a reunited nation.

"The issues for honest money, for protection to American industry, for the upbuilding of a merchant marine, adequate to carry the commerce of the world, and to form a naval militia in times of war are as vital this year as they were in the great contest which was so successfully fought in 1896. We must further strengthen our navy, and build up our army, so that they may be equal to any demand made upon them, as we work out our destiny. Hawaii and Porto Rico are ours; and in the east and West Indies, the interests of the nation shall be safeguarded."

BAY STATE DEMOCRATS.

Judge Corcoran Bounced From an Honorary Office.

Worcester, Oct. 5.—So smoothly ran the wheels for the first three hours of the Democratic convention Tuesday that it looked to the observers as if no discordant voice would be raised before the convention broke up. A short and rather sharp debate on an insignificant resolution, protesting against the method of letting contracts for public work by the state, seemed to whet the appetites of the remaining members of the convention for a still warmer debate, so that when, just as the convention was about to adjourn, a motion was brought forward declaring the position on the national committee held by John W. Corcoran vacant, the delegates plunged in with the usual vigor. The debate, however, only lasted about half an hour, and the motion was carried by a close vote. The ticket nominated is as follows: For governor, Alexander B Bruce of Lawrence; lieutenant governor, Edward J. Slattery of Framingham; secretary of commonwealth, Harry Lloyd of Boston; treasurer and receiver general, Peter Bonvoulier of Holyoke; auditor, Dr. Charles F. Parker of Boston; attorney general, Patrick F. Kilroy of Springfield.

JOHN W CORCORAN.

The doctrines promulgated in Chicago in 1896 were reaffirmed, imperialism was denounced, and the following reference was made about the treatment of the soldiers:

The military administration during the recent war has been a stigma on the history of the republic and a disgrace to civilization. The army which sprang into existence has been made the prey of incompetents and favorites, who have fattened on the sorrows of American soldiers. The brave young men who fought our battle in the West Indies were left without adequate food, medicines or surgical assistance; they were deprived of the abundant provisions which a generous and patriotic people had made for their support and encouragement. They were obliged to perform menial services under intolerable hardships They were put under incompetent commanders, and were left to suffer and die with undressed wounds and burning fevers And hundreds of their comrades, who have returned alive, have come back emaciated and ghostly, to stagger through the streets as living witnesses against those who are responsible for their sufferings. We demand that a thorough investigation by congress, not by an administrative committee made up to acquit, shall expose the guilty, and drive them mercilessly from the offices which they have disgraced.

Greeting to Their Townsman.

Lawrence, Oct. 5.—A. B. Bruce, Democratic candidate for governor, was given an enthusiastic reception on his arrival from Worcester. As he alighted from the train he was cheered to the echo by the immense throng which crowded every avenue leading to the railroad station. A brass band was in waiting and carriages to convey Mr. Bruce and party to the Franklin House were also at hand. The candidate was cheered all along the line. Essex street was brilliantly illuminated, and Democrats and Republicans alike turned out to honor their fellow townsman. A public reception followed.

"An Ideal Leader."

Brooklyn, Oct. 5.—Judge Van Wyck verbally announced his acceptance of the Democratic nomination for governor when notified officially last night by the committee, the spokesman for which said: "Your love of Democracy, your spotless private life and your eminent judicial career make you an ideal leader in this fight. The affairs of the people of the state have been scandalously maladministered during the past four years by the Republican party. It seeks to escape from its odious record by hiding behind a candidate whose record in the war was honorable, but who, alas, in public life has shown that he has no sympathy with the toiling masses and the honest taxpayers, who will decide this momentous issue."

Lost Its Identity.

Frankfort, Oct. 5.—The national, or gold, Democratic organization in Kentucky towns seems to have practically lost its identity as a party in this state. Senator Lindsay and nearly all the leaders of that party, as well as a majority of the rank and file, have registered as Democrats, disregarding distinctions such as "gold" and "national Democrat." Reports from everywhere show light registration as compared with 1896 and last year, and the Goebel election law, which received its first test, seems to have given no cause of complaint to either side.

Lynn Man Defeated.

Everett, Mass., Oct. 5.—After an almost continuous session of 10 hours, the Seventh district convention nominated Senator Roberts of Chelsea for congress. It took 20 ballots to decide who should be the nominee, but, although the contest was a bitter one between Messrs. Harwood and Allen of Lynn, at the close the nomination was made unanimous.

For 19 ballots the different candidates held their own. Harwood's vote varying from 53 to 66, while Roberts' vote jumped from 41 to 47, and then back to 41. Allens' vote ballot after ballot was 33, and a few times jumped to 36.

When the seventh ballot was taken, after the intermission at 5 o'clock, Elihu B. Hayes of Lynn loomed up as a dark horse with seven votes, and Congressman William E. Barrett came in with three votes. At 10 o'clock Sweetzer of Lynn asked for an intermission of 15 minutes for the Allen and Harwood men to confer and settle on one of the Lynn candidates.

The 20th ballot was taken after an intermission and Harwood jumped up to 75, only three votes less than the required majority of 78. The 22nd ballot gave Harwood 75, Roberts 74 and Allen 2. On this vote the Allen men broke, and their vote was divided between Harwood and Roberts. The final ballot was: Roberts, 81; Harwood, 73.

Ancients In Quebec.

Quebec, Oct. 6.—Yesterday was a proud day for Major Duchesney and the members of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery company.

Their reception Monday night was cordial, but it was nothing compared with that of Tuesday.

At the welcome three cheers were given for the ancients and for the president of the United States by the Canadians, the band playing "Yankee Doodle," and then the men from Massachusetts gave three cheers for Queen Victoria and the band played, "God Save the Queen."

It was in the evening that the ancients had their triumph, it being their turn to entertain. Their annual banquet was one of the most successful and brilliant events that has ever taken place in the city. It was attended by some of the most talented men of the two countries.

Reorganizing In Brockton.

Brockton, Oct. 5.—President Tobin of the Boot and Shoe Workers' union has reorganized the treers' union and also the sole leather workers, both securing their old charters. Reorganizing has practically taken in all departments of the shops, as other branches will organize this week. The fact that the unions are being organized is significant from the fact that the present strike has not been brought to a settlement as soon as many of them thought would be. The lasters now claim to be masters of the situation, but will not call on the other branches unless it is necessary, and they think it will not be. The lasters claim to have pulled out 20 men yesterday. Among these were several Armenians, who returned to Boston.

Bryan's Regulars.

Washington, Oct. 5.—No orders have been issued to Colonel Bryan to return at once to his regiment. When Bryan left Jacksonville he had leave of absence for seven days. That leave has about expired. He has made no application to the war department to have his leave extended.

The request for the discharge of a number of men of his regiment who desire to return to their homes was granted by the secretary of war in about 15 cases.

☞ Furniture reupholstered and mattresses made over. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

LAND VALUES

A Transcript From the Books of the Assessors.

Number of Feet in Each Lot and Valuation Thereof.

Also the Amount of Each Person's Tax Bill for 1898.

[Continued from yesterday.]

Something new in the publication of the taxpayers of the city is attempted this year by the Daily Ledger. There is considerable interest in the assessed value of land in the city, which is claimed to be high in some cases and low in others. So the Ledger has supplemented the amount of the tax bill in each ward with the value of each lot of land for which the person is taxed, giving in each case the number of square feet or acreage.

The amount given in the line with the person's name is his total ward tax, and may include houses, personal property, etc., in addition to the lots of land below. The Ledger gives only the valuation of the land.

To obtain a person's total tax in the city, add together the amounts paid in the several wards.

The Ledger commenced the publication Aug. 30, and has already published the land values of all persons whose names begin with A to H, and today's instalment concludes the Is and Js in Wards Four, Five and Six.

WARD FOUR.

Valuation of Land Only.		Total Ward Tax.
Jilbert, Alfred		$4 70
9,000 feet, Sheep Rock,	$150.
Jilbert, Emma B.		19 80
5,167, West,	$300.
Johanson, Gustaff A.		7 20
6,000, Arthur,	$400.
Johnson, Alexander S.		46 60
9,000, Buckley,	$400.
Johnson, Carl		4 50
11,584, Hillside place,	$250.
Johnson, Charles		51 50
17,357, Common,	$850.
Johnson, Johan		81 20
10,016, Arthur,	$500.
Johnson, Catherine		26 55
1-4 acre, Willard,	$600.
Johnson, Charles J.		20 00
5,670, McDonald,	$200.
Johnson, John		2 70
Land on Buckley,	$150.
Johnson, Joseph F.		75 80
9,000, Buckley,	$500.
Johnson, Robert		22 25
7,690, Nelson,	$225.
Jones, John, heirs,		57 60
37,184, Hillside park,	$375.
24,000, " "	$250.
26,823, " "	$275.
29,649, " "	$300.
35,000, " "	$350.
7,000, " "	$75.
16,982, " "	$175.
12,000, " "	$125.
40,262, " "	$400.
30,000, " "	$300.
18,000, " "	$175.
36,000, " "	$350.
6,000, " "	$50.
Joyce, John, est.,		39 60
1-4 acre, Bates ave.,	$400.
Joyce, Mary		5 40
8,538, Bates ave.,	$300.
Joyce, Michael		27 20
1-4 acre, California,	$400.

WARD FIVE.

Ingraham, Margaret		$18 90
5,000 feet, Franklin ave.,	$250.
Jackson, George W.		52 20
5,000, West Elm ave.,	$400.
5,000, " " "	$400.
Jameson, Allan M.		80 30
11,250, Winthrop ave.,	$1,550.
James, Edward E.		15 30
8,500, Beach,	$850.
Jacobs, Frederick S.		48 60
5,000, Farrington,	$400.
Jefferson, Carrie E.		52 20
10,000, East Elm ave.,	$600.
5,000, " " "	$300.
Jennings, Nellie F.		52 20
6,562, Highland ave.,	$600.
Jewell, Ella L.		146 70
8,393, Grand View ave.,	$1,650.
Johnson, Gustaf		7 20
5,250, Phillips,	$400.

Continued on page 3.

Royal makes the food pure, wholesome and delicious.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

EIGHT INNINGS.

The Baltimores' Pitcher Made Success Possible For the Bostons.

Boston, Oct. 5.—Nichols and McJames fought out yesterday the most stubborn pitchers' battle seen here this season. There have been games in which fewer hits were made, and in which more men struck out, but none in which the scientific and skillful pitching, inning after inning, was so impressive to the spectators. More hits wer scored against McJames than Nichols, and the Bostons won the game; but it would be difficult to award one man rather than the other. Score:

Bostons.	AB	R	1B	PO	A	E
Hamilton, c. f.	4	0	0	2	0	0
Tenney, 1 b.	3	1	1	7	0	0
Long, s. s.	4	2	2	0	3	1
Lowe, 2 b.	4	0	1	2	1	0
Collins, 3 b.	4	1	0	2	1	0
Stahl, r. f.	4	0	3	5	0	0
Yeager, c.	4	0	0	4	0	1
Duffy, l. f.	3	0	2	2	0	0
Nichols, p.	3	0	1	0	3	0
Totals	33	4	10	24	8	2
Baltimores.	AB	R	1B	PO	A	E
McGraw, 3 b.	4	0	1	1	1	0
Jennings, s. s.	2	2	1	3	4	0
Kelley, c. f.	4	0	2	0	0	0
McGann, 1 b.	4	0	0	7	2	0
Holmes, l. f.	4	0	0	3	0	0
Demont, 2 b.	4	0	0	2	3	0
Kitson, r. f.	3	0	1	0	0	0
Clarke, c.	2	0	1	7	2	0
McJames, p.	3	0	0	1	1	1
Totals	30	2	6	24	13	1

Bostons	0	0	0	0	0	1	0	3	—4
Baltimores	0	0	0	0	0	1	0	1	—2

Earned runs—Bostons, 1; Baltimores, 1. Three-base hit—Long. Stolen bases—Stahl, Collins, Kelley, 2; Jennings. First base on balls—Off Nichols, 1; off McJames, 1. Hit by pitched ball—Jennings. Struck out—By Nichols, 4; by McJames, 5. Passed balls—Yeager, 1; Clarke, 1. Wild pitch—McJames. Time—2:11. Umpires—Gaffney and Andrews. Attendance—8000.

On account of darkness yesterday's game in St. Louis was stopped at the end of the Pittsburgs' half of the eighth inning. The pirates had made eight runs, tying the score, but the game was declared back to the seventh inning, thus making the browns the winners by the score of 7 to 3.

A shutout stared the Phillies in the face, but in the ninth they scored four runs and won from the New Yorks.

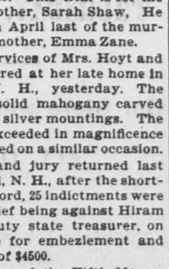

Dowling's clever pitching and perfect support won the first game in Chicago for the Louisvilles. Taylor was even more effective for the Chicagos in the second, and but for an error he would have shut the colonels out.

Ferryboat's Passengers Drowned.

Washington, Oct. 5.—A special dispatch from Bombay says that a ferryboat was capsized while crossing the Indus at Mittunkote, a town of the Punjaub, on the west bank of the river, and 100 of the passengers were drowned.

Tomorrow's Almanac and Forecast.

Sun rises—5:46; sets, 5:17.
Moon rises—9:36 p. m.
High water—3 a. m.; 3:45 p. m.

The warm wave yesterday had temperatures rising to 84 degrees in nearly all parts of New England. The cooler weather which promised to extend over this section from the west has died out, so that no change seems probable. No change seems probable before Thursday night or Friday; the unsettled conditions over the lake region and Ohio valley moving northeastward promise generally cloudy weather Thursday and occasional showers may occur.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

Ira Hall, aged 80, a prominent farmer of Dunstable, Mass., was thrown from a wagon and killed.

William H. Moody of Haverhill was renominated for congress by a unanimous vote at the Sixth Republican convention.

A schooner at Halifax landed 14 of the 16 of the crew of the Gloucester schooner Edith M. McGinnes, who had strayed from their vessel.

A Berlin correspondent says there are rumors of the formation of a combine of the German iron trade to meet the American competition.

Michael Brown of Gardiner, Me., fell through the scuttle in the roof of a coal shed, a distance of 15 feet, suffering injuries which resulted in his death.

The state council of the junior order of American Mechanics held its annual field day and parade in Windsor, Vt., and following these events came the opening of the state council for a two-days' session.

With a view of adopting a policy of extreme protection in the colonies of Portugal the government has issued a circular inviting the opinion of experts on the industries to be protected and upon collateral questions.

Eli Shaw has been placed on trial in Camden, N J, for the third time on the charge of murder. This trial is for the murder of his mother, Sarah Shaw. He was acquitted in April last of the murder of his grandmother, Emma Zane.

The funeral services of Mrs. Hoyt and her infant occurred at her late home in Charlestown, N. H., yesterday. The casket was of solid mahogany carved and barred with silver mountings. The floral tributes exceeded in magnificence any ever witnessed on a similar occasion.

When the grand jury returned last night in Concord, N. H., after the shortest sitting on record, 25 indictments were reported, the chief being against Hiram Gerrish, ex-deputy state treasurer, on six counts, five for embezlement and one for larceny of $4500.

Chaplain House of the Fifth Massachusetts regiment has organized a Christian Endeavor society with a membership of 100 at Camp Meade. The chaplain is vice president of the Christian Endeavor union of Massachusetts. He is also pastor of the Congregational church in Attleboro, Mass.

GRAND OPENING

— OF —

Fall and Winter Millinery

Thursday,
Friday,
Saturday,

October 6, 7 and 8,

— AT —

Miss B. J. Patterson's Millinery Parlors

At the Boston Bargain Store.

A choice and complete stock of all the latest and most desirable goods for this season, All are cordially invited.

Music Hall Building, Quincy.

Oct. 1. tfpl

ALBERT J. BOWERS
OPTICIAN
ADAMS BUILDING
OVER POST OFFICE
QUINCY MASS.

TELL US . .

What you are looking for.

We can show you a fine line of

FALL AND WINTER

UNDERWEAR,

HOSIERY,

Outing Flannels, Flannelettes,

Plaid Dress Goods,

WRAPPERS, BLANKETS,

Comforters,

Dress Linings and other Dry Goods.

OUR STOCK IS FRESH.

OUR PRICES THE LOWEST.

MISS C. S. HUBBARD,

158 Hancock Street.

The John Hancock Stables.

Opposite Depot, Quincy, Mass.

Boarding, Baiting, Livery and Sale.

DR. J. A. DOW, Proprietor,

the well known Veterinary dentist and specialist in the treatment of lame horses. Sick horses treated at owner's risk.

The finest equipped and managed stable of its size in America.

Fine driving turnouts in light rigs; safe and good appearing. All horses let are perfectly safe for ladies to drive.

The choicest family, road and coach horses constantly on hand for sale. All horses guaranteed as represented.

☞ Will attend to veterinary practice as usual. aug18-1y

DR. RALPH M. FOGG,

DENTIST.

Teeth extracted absolutely without pain by the use of the

"BOSTON VEGETABLE VAPOR."

It is claimed that, while it has the required properties of ether, chloroform, nitrous oxide gas, it lacks the disagreeable and dangerous qualities of these drugs. It is certainly a boon to suffering humanity to be relieved of the nausea too often following the administering of sedatives of the old school.—Boston Transcript.

Teeth made and repaired on Gold or Rubber base. Teeth Filling a specialty.

Office in French's Building, five doors south of Post Office, Quincy, Wednesdays. Hours, 9 A. M. to 9 P. M. July18-1y Nov8-1yo

TEETH EXTRACTED.

No Pain or Danger.

Safer than vapor. Money paid for extracting goes towards teeth to be inserted. I am the only dentist in the city using the Painless Preparation for Extraction.

DR. C. B. UNDERWOOD,

9 Spear St. Rear of Public Library

By FRANK F. CRANE, - Auctioneer,
Office, 4 Chestnut St., Quincy, Mass.

AUCTION SALE
OF ABOUT
15 Tons of Hay
Slightly Damaged by Water,
at the Stable in rear of the Estate of the late James Edwards, 11 School street, on MONDAY, Oct. 10th,
at 2 o'clock P. M. Sale positive. Rain or shine. Terms cash. oct5-4t

By FRANK F. CRANE, - Auctioneer.
Office, 4 Chestnut St., Quincy.

AUCTION SALE
OF THE
Real Estate
— OF —
OWEN H. OWENS, 121 Granite St.,
SATURDAY, Oct. 15th,
2 o'clock P. M.

Consists of a Cottage House of 7 rooms, about one-half acre of land.
This estate is very desirable, either as a home or for investment.
Sale positive, rain or shine.
Terms: $100 at sale. Balance in 10 days at the office of Geo. H. Brown, Adams Building. For further particulars apply to George H. Brown.
oct 5 8 11 12 13 14 8 1wp

By FRANK F. CRANE, - Auctioneer.
Office, 4 Chestnut Street, Quincy.

AUCTION SALE
OF THE
ATTRACTIVE REAL ESTATE
OF THE LATE
MICHAEL GOODHUE,
No. 40 Phipps Street,
TUESDAY, OCT. 12th,
At 3 O'clock P. M.

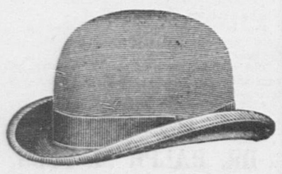

THIS Estate consists of a Modern House of seven rooms, there is a good stable on the premises, about one acre of land having a very large frontage on Phipps street. The estate contains a variety of shade and fruit trees, an extra fine lot of grapes and currants. Also a fine well containing an excellent quality of water. The buildings are in good repair and the estate is very desirable as a residence or for investment.
Sale Positive, rain or shine.
Terms $100.00 at sale, balance in ten days at the office of W. G. A. Pattee, Adams Building.
For further information apply to the auctioneer.
Quincy, Oct. 5—10t 8p—1w

— THE —
Fall Millinery Opening
. . . OF . . .
C. L. BLISS,
186 Hancock St.,
TUESDAY and WEDNESDAY
Oct. 11, 12.

The public are cordially invited to call and examine a stock of Trimmed and Untrimmed Hats and novelties in Velvets, Ribbons, Wings, Feathers and Jet.
Quincy, Oct. 5. 1po 2w

MISS HAYWARD
OF BRAINTREE
WILL OPEN A Dancing Class for Children
— IN —
COLONIAL HALL, QUINCY,
Saturday Morning, Oct. 8
From Ten to Twelve o'clock.
☞ The first lesson for classification.

Matrons—Mrs. Walter T. Babcock, Mrs. A. G. Durgin, Mrs. William P. Barker, Mrs. Richard R. Freeman.
Oct. 1. 2t 1, 5

Hats and Furnishings.

"A good Hat redeems a seedy suit." Get a
BEACONSFIELD $3.00 DERBY
and wear your old clothes gracefully.
CHAMBERLAIN'S,
Telephone, Oxford 872.
663 WASHINGTON STREET, BOSTON.
Sept. 15 L 17-4w o

Quincy Daily Ledger
ESTABLISHED IN 1889.
The ONLY DAILY in Norfolk County Massachusetts.
Published Every Evening, Sundays and Holidays Excepted, At No. 115 HANCOCK ST., City of Quincy, Mass., by
GEORGE W. PRESCOTT & SON.
Successors to Green & Prescott.
Subscription Price, $6.00 per year.
☞ A discount of $1 when paid in advance.
ALSO PUBLISHERS OF
The Quincy Patriot,
A Weekly Established in 1837, which has the Largest Circulation in Norfolk County, and
The Braintree Observer,
A Weekly Established in 1878.
TELEPHONE, 78-3 QUINCY.

Quincy Temperature at Noon.

	This Week.	Last Week.	In 1897.	In 1896.
Sunday	64	52	56	57
Monday	76	71	56	59
Tuesday	85	67	64	55
Wednesday	63	68	68	57
Thursday	—	70	68	53
Friday	—	75	64	56
Saturday	—	74	57	56

New Advertisements Today.
Frank F. Crane—Houses to let.
B. F. Curtis—Houses to let.
Purse lost.
L. M. Pratt & Co.
C. L. Bliss—Millinery opening.
Hay at auction.
Owens real estate at auction.
John H. Pray, Sons & Co.—Carpetings.
C. F. Derby—Overcoats.
Auction sale of Goodhue estate.

POLITICAL FIELD.

It took 24 ballots to nominate the new Republican candidate in the Seventh Congressional district. It may take twice that number in the Tenth district this evening.

The Republicans of Massachusetts have already nominated eight of their Congressional candidates: George P. Lawrence in the first, Frederick H. Gillett in the second, Joseph H. Walker in the third, George W. Weymouth in the fourth, William S. Knox in the fifth, William H. Moody in the sixth, Ernest W. Roberts in the seventh, and Samuel W. McCall in the eighth. All are renomination except in the seventh. Five more districts to hear from.

Killed by a Live Wire.

A valuable horse owned by Frank E. Kennard, a Wollaston milkman, was instantly killed at the corner of Brook street and Highland avenue this morning by a live electric light wire. The team was driven by Harold Kennard and the wire fell as he was passing, striking the horse upon the legs causing him to fall on to the wire and before he could be removed the animal was dead. Later the dangerous wire was removed.

It seems that some one has been sawing off limbs of a tree and had loosened the wires, and they had been twisted around the pole unknown to the Electric Light Company.

☞ It makes men tired to beat their carpets; that's why they send them to our electric beater. It does the work so thoroughly too. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

DANCING SCHOOL.
PROF. GARDNER,
the well known Boston teacher, will receive a few more pupils in his class in COLONIAL HALL, Bank Building, Quincy, on Friday Evening, Oct. 7, at 7.45. Terms: Gents, $5, Ladies, $4. All the latest dances taught. Those who wish to learn should be present next Friday as pupils cannot be accepted after that evening. lptf

L. M. PRATT & CO.
Will NOT send out any ORDER TEAMS
THURSDAY, Oct. 6th.
Our Store will be Open
ALL DAY.
Most of our clerks will be found at the Brockton Fair.
L. M. PRATT & CO.
Quincy, Oct. 5. 1t

LATEST!

WOODSUM NOMINATED

By a Large Majority at the Senatorial Convention Today.

Newcomb Elected to the Republican State Committee.

[SPECIAL TO THE DAILY LEDGER.]

Full delegation from all the towns for Norfolk Sentorial district at the Republican convention held this afternoon at the American House, Boston. Wilbur H. Powers of Hyde Park was chairman and F. F. Prescott of Quincy, secretary.

The Committee on credentials were Zenas A. French of Holbrook, Benjamin Johnson, Jr., of Quincy Franklin D. Dunbar of Canton, N. D. Canterbury of Weymouth and James Elythe, Jr., of Randolph.

A Committee of five on ballots was appointed as follows: Charles M. Bryant of Quincy, Will W. Mayhew of Braintree, Fred Y. French of Hyde Park, Jesse B. Baxter of Milton and Henry P. Kitredge of Quincy.

Their report showed four from Braintree, four from Canton, nine from Hyde Park, three from Holbrook, five from Milton, nineteen from Quincy three from Randolph and eight from Weymouth, a total of 55.

Nomiation speeches were made for three candiates as follows: Horace E. Ware of Milton, for Thomas E. Grover of Canton, Hon. Henry O. Fairbanks of Quincy for Thadeus H. Newcomb of Quincy, by C. C. Mellen of Braintree for B. Herbert Woodsum.

Upon the 1st ballot one more vote was cast than there were delgates to the convention and it was declared illegal. On the first legal ballot Woodsum had 19, Grover 16, Newcomb 20. On the second ballot Woodsum had 21, Grover 18 and Newcomb 16.

On the third ballot Woodsum had 21, Grover 17, Newcomb 16. On the fourth ballott Woodsum had 20, Grover 18, Newcomb 15. Another illegal ballot was then cast.

The next and decisive ballot gave Woodsum 36, Grover 18, Newcomb 1. and Mr. Woodsum was declared the nominee of the Senatorial Convention.

Upon motion of Hon. H. O. Fairbanks of Quincy seconded by a Grover delegate the nomination was made unanimous. T. H. Newcomb was elected a member of the Republican State convention.

Adjourned at 1.40.

Arnold Arboretum Illustrated.

The Arnold Aboretum, situated in the Jamaica Plain district of Boston, and forming part of the Metropolitan parkway, is more than a mere division of the park system. It is as a department of Harvard University and an outdoor museum of trees and shrubs that it has become so widely known. The New England Magazine in its October number takes up the Arboretum in its series on the Metropolitan parks, several articles on like reservations having already appeared. The present article is by William Howe Downes, art editor of the Boston Transcript, who describes this beautiful tract of country with full appreciation. The fine illustrations with his article were especially prepared for use in this connection.

TODAY'S COURT.

David P. McGaughey was arraigned for drunkenness at Randolph. Case continued until Oct. 19.

Patrick Murphy was arraigned for drunkenness at Quincy. Case continued until Thursday morning.

James Dean, Jr., was fined $7 for drunkenness at Randolph.

John Fueningham was arraigned for non-support at Quincy. Case continued until Nov. 1.

The case of George Anderson, who was arrested for drunkenness at Quincy, Tuesday, and later bailed, was called. George failed to appear this morning and he was defaulted.

James DeCost was arraigned for assault on Howard A. Cannon at Braintree and was fined $5.

At Braintree shortly after 5 P. M., Tuesday, Edward Conway of Lewiston, Me., while walking on the track with two others was struck by an inward train and probably fatally injured. He was taken to the Emergency hospital.

—The Providence School Committee has voted to dispense with the services of the supervisors of pennmanship, drawing, sewing, cooking and physical culture, and to have no evening schools this year. This makes a saving of $82,000 in the school expenses, and is made necessary by the refusal of the City Council to make the appropriation that the school committee desires.

A special car will leave West Quincy tomorrow evening at 7.30 from Gridley Bryant school, for the lecture, "Seven Centuries of English Song," at Quincy High school hall, returning at 10 o'clock.

LOCAL NEWS TRACK.

Some Colts which are Sure Winners Every Heat.

Summer's gone, but let's not worry;
O'er that theme let poets potter,
Other years will bring us others—
Just as hot, and may be hotter.
—Chicago Record.

Rain.

Register tonight.

The no-school signal sounded at 7.30 A. M.

Rain on a Brockton fair day is something unusual.

Mrs. Will Sidelinger of Malden, is visiting Mrs. Frank Drake, her mother.

There is talk of a candle pin league to include Quincy, Brockton and Boston clubs.

West Quincy has fared well this year in the way of having its streets put in good condition.

It was not surprising after the hot day of yesterday that we should get a little thunder shower last night. One bolt was "a pealer."

The receipts of the City Clerk's office for the month of September were $35 making the total receipts of the office since Feb. 7, $307.

The 50-cent assessment levied upon the members of the A. O. U. W., which was declared illegal has been returned in full to all members.

Mrs. Frederica C. Babcock had a two-column letter of interest in the Tuesday evening Transcript. It was "A leaf from the summer that is gone."

Many from Quincy outside of the delegates will attend the Tenth Republican Congressional convention in Boston this evening. It may be an all night job.

L. M. Pratt & Co. believe in giving their clerks a holiday occasionally, and will not send out order teams tomorrow. It is the big day at the Brockton fair.

On account of the stormy weather the opening reception at the Y. M. C. A. has been postponed one week to Wednesday, October 12, at which time will also occur the welcome to the new physical instructor.

The Royal Blue Sweeper is the one our citizens should have. They take up the dirt without injuring the carpet. Remember when ordering that this is the best in the market, and for sale at reasonable prices.

Cards are out for another church wedding. Miss Minnie F. Eaton, daughter of Hon. and Mrs. William N. Eaton, and Mr. Henry R. Holden will be married at the Unitarian church, Wednesday evening, October 19.

Chief of Police Litchfield of Quincy and Chief of Police Pierce of Milton, leave Thursday for a trip down the Hudson. During the absence of Chief Litchfield, Officer Ferguson will act as chief under appointment of the Mayor.

The twenty-fifth annual convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of the State of Massachusetts will be held in Tremont Temple, Boston, beginning Wednesday morning, Oct. 12 and closing Friday evening, Oct. 14.

The illustrated lecture on Robert Burns given by the Rev. W. W. Dornan Tuesday evening, in Orangemen hall, was largely attended. Thirty-six views were used in the lecture. Mr. Dornan spoke for one hour and fifteen minutes. The lecture was a very interesting one from beginning to the end.

The funeral of the late Albert Thayer was held Tuesday from the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Frederick Marsh on Payne street, and were attended by many of his relatives and friends. The city was represented by Councilmen McGrath and Owens. Rev. Edgar W. Preble officiated and the burial was at Mt. Wollaston cemetery.

Corporal George A. Wardwell of Co. K arrived in town last night, having received a fifteen days' furlough Oct. 4. He will go to Livermore Falls, Maine, tonight by boat, to visit his wife. He reports all the members of Co. K well, but says that several are anxious to leave the service, and that they have made applications for discharge.

Charles H. Winslow met with quite a serious accident in Boston on Thursday. He was riding on his large express team with the driver. When near the United States hotel one of the forward wheels came off, caused by losing a nut. Mr. Winslow and his driver were both thrown out. The driver escaped uninjured but Mr. Winslow received a bad cut on the head. He was taken to the Emergency hospital where the injury was dressed and he was able to return to Quincy.

WHAT DO THE CHILDREN DRINK?
Don't give them tea or coffee. Have you tried the new food drink called GRAIN-O? It is delicious and nourishing and takes the place of coffee. The more Grain-O you give the children the more health you distribute through their systems. Grain-O is made of pure grains, and when properly prepared tastes like the choice grades of coffee but costs about 1-4 as much. All grocers sell it. 15c. and 25c.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

A Cabinet Officer and His Library—Washington Relics—A Good Word For the Czar.

[Special Correspondence.]

They tell a story of a very prominent man who within recent times became a member of a president's cabinet. In any event, the story is a true one, and that is the main thing. This cabinet man hadn't been in Washington very long, hardly long enough to get used to the hotel life there, and that doesn't take long, although it involves much. He was a man of family, he had means, he wanted a suitable house, chiefly in order that he might dwell therein and incidentally for purposes of entertainment, for there are some cabinet members who have the means and the family to entertain, and he was one of them. Finally after considerable search he got just the house he wanted, fine and large and in a most convenient location with respect to the White House and the department of which he was chief. The house was completely furnished except in one respect. Its owner, who had just been summoned to represent this government at a diplomatic post, had chosen to take his books with him. The library shelves were vacant. Hardly a government report or a census record was left to accentuate the literary isolation of that once cozy room. The cabinet man was just a little vexed, only for a moment, however. He knew he could buy two or three libraries at the Washington stores if he wanted them and thus fill up the gap, but his alert mind solved the problem in a hurry, and in a very short time all the shelves were filled in response to this telegram, which he sent to an agent at his home in—well, it was not so far west as Manila or even so far distant as Ponce:

"Send me by freight 250 running feet of books for library."

Then he went to the cabinet meeting and told the president and his colleagues how he had solved the problem. And he has never understood to this day why the grave president and his serious cabinet smiled when he told how he had ordered a library by the yard.

Washington Relics.

One of the most interesting relics in the National museum and one that is attracting especial attention during these days, when warlike matters interest so many visitors to the capitol, is the camp chest used by Washington throughout the Revolution. It is a compact affair about the size of a tourist's wicker chest for cooking, of the present day, 2½ feet long, 2 feet wide, 1 foot high, and it contains an outfit consisting of tinder box, pepper and salt boxes, bottles, knives, forks, gridiron and plates. Every bit of the outfit save one bottle, which is broken at the shoulder, looks strong enough to stand another campaign.

Near by are the tents used by Washington, three in number. One is a sleeping tent, 28 feet long, with walls 6 feet high and a roof with a six foot pitch. It is made of linen. The other two are marquee tents of smaller size, one with walls, the other a shelter tent open on the sides. That the tenting material of Revolutionary days was good stuff is proved by the excellent condition of these tents, which sheltered the great commander through all his severe campaigns.

Here also is Washington's uniform, worn by him when he gave up his commission as commander in chief of the army, at Annapolis, in 1783. It consists of a big shadbelly coat of blue broadcloth, lined and trimmed with soft buckskin and ornamented with broad, flat brass buttons; buckskin waistcoat and breeches. The size of the garments (which are in a state of excellent preservation) testify to the big stature of the Father of His Country and suggest that he had an eye to a fine appearance in his dress.

A Good Word For the Czar.

"The world has not yet heard the last of the proposal of the czar of Russia in regard to cutting down the huge standing armies of Europe," said General George B. Williams. General Williams is a most competent authority on international subjects. He has visited Russia time and again and but recently sojourned several months in St. Petersburg.

"In making this announcement to the powers the czar was absolutely sincere. He believes, along with other humane, wise and philanthropic men, that the time for disarmament is ripe. He can see no reason in the system that makes of Europe an armed camp and impoverishes the people to support hordes of uniformed men in idleness. The tax is too great, the drain on productive industry too severe, and Nicholas, in voicing his opposition to a prolongation of the intolerable situation, has shown himself one of the most enlightened and farseeing statesmen of the world as well as one of the greatest hearted."

"Does Russia object to our acquisition of territory in the east?"

"No; for throughout the war Russia maintained a consistent attitude of friendship toward the United States. We can count on her friendship always. By no sort of mischance can there come a rupture in the cordial relations between the great republic and the government of the czar."

The Panama Canal.

"Although there is not much talk about it in the newspapers, the construction work now in progress on the Panama canal is on a scale of magnitude which will bring the enterprise to a successful issue," said Mr. B. L. Hewson of the isthmus of Panama.

"There are now over 4,000 men employed on the canal, and the work is being done in a thorough and scientific fashion. Had the first company proceeded as carefully as the present one, the canal would have been in operation long ere this, but the first company squandered millions of dollars without hardly leaving a thing to show for the money that was spent like water."

CARL SCHOFIELD.

Gentlemen, Buy Your....
OVERCOATS
Where you can find the best assortment in the city and the lowest prices, which is at
C. F. DERBY'S, SAVINGS BANK BUILDING, QUINCY.

MILLINERY.
Grand Opening Oct. 5, 6, 7,
OF CHOICE
FALL and WINTER MILLINERY,
Consisting of Imported French Hats and Millinery Novelties.
You are cordially invited to call and inspect the same.
E. B. COLLINS,
4 Faxon Block, Quincy, Mass.
☞ NO CARDS.
Oct. 4. 6t

Special Opening!
Flannelette Undergarments.
New Goods and Very Low Prices When the Quality is Considered.
These Goods are made for Men, Women and Children.
Call and Examine the Goods. You will Buy Them.
D. E. WADSWORTH & CO.,
Hancock Street, - - - Quincy.

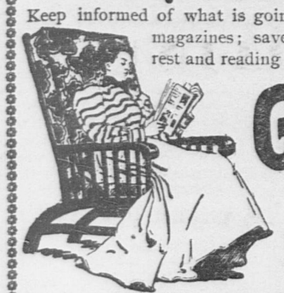

Banner Oil Heaters
It's the easiest thing in the world to catch cold during the early October evenings. Just a trifle early to start your furnace fire, and yet you need something to take the chill from your room. The BANNER OIL HEATER is just the thing. A powerful little stove going at full blast in a twinkling. Costs almost nothing to run and makes your room warm and cosy in a few minutes' time. Absolutely safe, a child can take it from one room to another. Price, $4.50.
HENRY L. KINCAIDE & CO.
COSY HOUSE FURNISHERS,
Hancock Street, : : Quincy.

WATCHES.
GENT'S WATCHES, $1.50 and Up.
LADIES' WATCHES, $2.50 and Up.
EVERY WATCH WARRANTED.
$2.00 Belts, $1.00 Each.
75c. Brooch Pins, 25c. Each.
25 and 35c. Stick Pins, 5 and 10c. Ea.
Quincy SOUVENIR TILES Half Price,
And Other Bargains.
A. A. LINSCOTT, Jeweler,
154 Hancock St., opp. Post Office, Quincy.
Agent for Graphophones.
aug 6. tf

NOTHING BETTER,
UNCLE SAM'S NAVY
Now commands the respect of the world, and we are all proud of the defenders of the Nation's Honor. To give the people of Quincy a good idea of the grand battleships, we have ordered a large supply of portfolios, giving magnificent views of the ships, crews, etc.
With each purchase made at our store we will give a portfolio check to the value of the purchase. When you have $4.00 worth of these checks, return them and get a portfolio. Continue in this way until you have the set complete. Call and see these magnificent portfolios.
ROGERS BROS.,
Groceries and Provisions. Adams Building, Quincy.

Keep in the World

Keep informed of what is going on; read the papers and magazines; save time from housework for rest and reading by using

GOLD DUST

WASHING POWDER

It saves both time and labor and gives results that please.

THE N. K. FAIRBANK COMPANY.

Chicago. St. Louis. New York. Boston. Philadelphia.

MAKE IT HOT FOR YOU.

If your house is cold and you have become disgusted with the various devices called heaters, and you are really anxious to have warmth and comfort in your home, place an order for one of those G. B. Bates CIRCULATORS.

It will "make it hot for you" or just the temperature you desire. Its construction is based upon scientific and economical principles. Several have recently been put in right here in Quincy, and others will be put in during the next few weeks. Don't read this ad. and then forget about it till your water pipes are all frozen, but go now to

G. B. BATES,

Hancock Street, Quincy.

GEO. AMES,

the ONLY PRACTICAL PLUMBER in the Hardware business in the City. He has a patent SEWER TRAP which cannot be beat. Impossible for deadly sewer gas to enter your homes See him about your Sewer Connection. He has had three years' experience in Boston and other large cities Established here in 1889 and still in it. Work done anywhere.

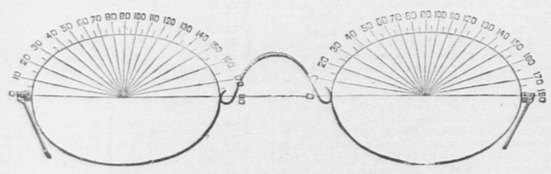

Hardware, Paints and Oils, Putty and Glass, Yacht Supplies, Steam and Gas Fittings. Steam and Hot Air Heaters put in repair for the winter.

ADAMS BUILDING

Quality Right.
Quantity Right.
Service Right.

C. PATCH & SON.

Coal and Wood.

ASTIGMATISM

Causes most of the distressing headaches. Properly fitted glasses will correct the error and remove the pain. Consult

WILLIAMS,

Member of the New England Association of Opticians,

104 Hancock St., Quincy.

If You Have a House to Let,

Advertise It in the Ledger.

CO. K SERENADED

By the Steelton Brass Band—Sick Taken to Hospital.

Headquarters, Co. K, 5th Mass.
Highspire, Penn., Oct. 3.

Colonel Whitney visited this detachment Sunday afternoon. He seemed well pleased with the order of things in camp. He extended an invitation to Major Morrison, commanding, to have his battalion march over to headquarters of the regiment, and be serenaded by the Steelton brass band. The boys enjoyed the march, it being in light marching order with rifles. They also enjoyed the band concert, as it is one of the finest bands in the Keystone state. Our "Dandy Fifth" seems to be capturing all the plums in this state; the citizens seem to recognize our regiment extensively.

A heavy mist set in about 7 last night, and towards midnight it rained heavy. This morning is quite misty, heavy clouds hanging over us.

A detachment of the 2d battalion, 1st Delaware, passed by our camp this morning on their way to embark on the Pennsylvania cars to be transported back to their state, one battalion is kept at Camp Meade for further orders. Our boys gave them a good hearty cheer. This makes the second regiment that has moved away from camp within twelve hours. The war department is commencing to move the different divisions camps.

The health of this detachment seems to be very favorable, no serious case as yet. Inspection of quarters same as usual.

The companies drilled this morning for a short period, in the firing exercises.

Nothing of special note going on at present.

The Army Christian Commission which has a tent pitched for its use, has a branch at our headquarters. Seems to do the same amount of work. The boys take advantage of the writing material, which is kindly appropriated by the commission. The tent is packed all day long with the boys who are writing to their loved ones at home. This department has done good work in this campaign, and the boys appreciate it immensely.

The guard detail from the company Tuesday will consist of Corporal Whiting, Privates Studley, Swanson, Spillane, Savoie, Sheehan, Hennessy, Sullivan, Thunstrom.

The following will be issued 24-hour passes: Bugler Johnson, Privates Logan, Malcolm, Mahoney and Martelle.

This afternoon we witnessed quite a sight; a train of five cars pulled into the junction which we are guarding, with a number of nurses and Surgeons from Philadelphia; a little later came 30 ambulances from division hospital filled with patients afflicted with typhoid and malaria fevers; there being about 100; two of this number came from our own regiment—Private Mott of Co. D, Plymouth and Musician Holmes of the Band, who have been in Division hospital for a week. They were embarked for the Philadelphia hospital, to be taken care of. We do not wish to see any more of our comrades sent away in this manner.

DOC.

The District Court has begun to naturalize foreign born residents.

☞ Our $1.00 comforters are without a rival. Other prices from 75 cents to $3.50. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

WILLIAM E. BAXTER, M. D.

Practice Limited to the

EYE AND EAR.

553 Boylston St., Boston.

QUINCY—Monday and Friday.

Hours, 9 to 11. 195 Hancock Street

May 21. 1y

BOYS' SUITS THAT SUIT BOYS

Grand Clearance Sale of Boys'

SCHOOL SUITS,

$1.50 to $3.50.

Worth Double the Price.

School begins Tuesday and your boy wants something new. Drop in to our store tonight and see how little money it takes to dress him handsomely.

Granite Clothing Co.

DURGIN & MERRILL'S BLOCK.

IN THE CITY NURSERY

Young Saplings Which Together Assume Importance.

Quincy's additional letter carrier went on duty this week.

Miss Souther and Miss Tupper have been visiting in Gardner.

Rev. W. W. Dornan will preach at Central Falls, R. I., Friday evening.

Brockton's good weather seems to have gone back upon them this year.

E. H. Doble & Co. are grading and making other improvements about their store.

The new house of Dr. Hunting on Hancock street is well along toward completion.

Over three tons of ice were used by the Quincy Yacht club this summer for cooling water.

The Lyons' Granite Company and the Blue Hill Granite Company have re-elected its board of officers.

We would call particular attention of readers to the numerous sales of F. F. Crane in our columns today.

Although there was a severe thunder storm early this morning it did not strike anywhere as far as known.

The trustees of the United Presbyterian church will give a reception Saturday evening to the congregation.

The steady rain today will interfere a little with the Brockton fair, but it will show up all the brighter tomorrow.

The hearing next Monday night on the petition of the Bicycle railroad will probably develop considerable opposition.

Commissioner Knowlton continues to receive applications for house connections to the sewer and now has something like forty.

The sewer department is leaving the streets in much better condition than was expected. This is due in a great measure, to the trenches being rolled by the steam roller.

Two hacks passed through Quincy this morning going toward Brockton. In the two hacks were eight men and on the driver's seat of each was two cases of beer; or twelve bottles for each man.

Arthur Caddy, a 13-year-old school boy, was arrested in City Square this noon by Officer Newcomb for the larceny of $8 from some party unknown. The money was recovered and the boy locked up.

The Q. & B. street railway Co. will replace its poles from Quincy Point bridge to Commercial square, East Weymouth, with hard pine poles, and the Weymouth Light & Power Co. will place their wires on the same poles, which will do away with many of the poles now in use.

WEYMOUTH.

The Wessagussett Club held its first regular monthly banquet at their rooms on Bridge street. Messrs. Charles W. Blanchard, B. F. Thomas and R. B. Whiting were committee of arrangements. The affair proved very enjoyable. The evening was spent in an informal manner at whist, billiards and music.

Bon Ami

The Improved Cleaner.

WILL DO FIFTY PER CENT. MORE WORK THAN AN EQUAL AMOUNT OF SCOURING OR SAND SOAP.

Coal!

Just Received by Barge Blackbird, a Fresh Cargo of

Pea Coal

(Small Nut.)

J. F. SHEPPARD & SONS

Quincy Sept. 7.

LAND VALUES.

Continued from page 1.

WARD FIVE.

Valuation of Land Only.	Total Ward Tax.
Johnson, Benjamin,	89 10
5,000, Lot 10, Blk. 20, Sec. 6, $350.
6,030, " 11, " 2, " 6, $400.
5,000, " 3, " 3, " 6, $300.
4,000, " 13, " 13, " 6, $300.
Johnson, Julius	7 20
5,250, Phillips, $400.
Jones, Mrs. Anna W.	19 90
10,875, Grand View, $1,650.
Jones, Ann T.	48 60
7,337, Beale, $500.
6,612, " $400.
Jones, Olive S., Elizabeth C. and Thomas A.	6 30
5,000, Lot 11, Blk. 18, Sec. 6, $350.
Jones, Robert S.	68 60
10,000, Central ave., $800.
12,920, " " $900.
Jordon, Eugenia E.	36 00
6,030, Taylor, $300.
Josselyn, Anna C.	114 30
26,692, Hancock, $2,800.
Josselyn, Helen V. and Maria C.	37 80
9,133, Standish ave., $509.
Josselyn, Melissa	14 40
9,490, Standish ave., $500.
Joy, Harriett B.	27 90
3,445, Willow, $150.
Judkins, Ella F.	72 00
11,250, Highland ave., $1,000.

WARD SIX.

Irving, Annie M.	$1 80
5,000 feet, Squantum street, $200.
James, Laura F.	37 80
5,000, Rawson road, $400.
Jenlenick, Frances E.	40 95
5,000, Botolph, $300.
4,400, " $275.
Johnson, Benjamin	5 40
5,000, Everett, $300.
Johnson, Charles O.	61 85
3,750, Hollis, $325.
Johnson, Charles H.	26 75
4,082, Appleton, $350.
Jones, Charles E.	76 50
16,637, Hancock, $1,600.
Jones, Charles S.	7 20
8,000, Broadway, $400.
Jones, Emma Z.	46 80
5,000, Calumet, $300.

[To be continued.]

You should save a file of the Ledger while this list is being printed. We cannot supply back numbers of the paper at 2 cents per copy, but have established this rate: Papers one week old, 5 cents; papers one month old, 10 cents; papers one year old, 25 cents.

The Plant System.

The Hotel Managers of the Plant System of hotels in Florida will be as follows tor the coming season of 1898-99:

Tampa Bay Hotel, Tampa, Fla., A. E. Dick, Manager.

Hotel Belleview, Bellcair, Fla., W. A. Barron, Manager.

Seminole Hotel, Winter Park, Fla., O. L Frisbee, Manager.

Ocala House, Ocala, Fla., Phil F. Brown, Manager.

Hotel Kissimmee, Kissimmee, Fla.

Port Tampa Inn, Port Tampa, Fla., S. M. Hannah, Superintendent.

For information as to hotel rates, address Managers, and as to railroad and steamship rates and schedules,

B. W. WRENN,
Passenger Traffic Manager.

Dr. Hall's Funeral Service.

New York, Oct. 75.—The funeral service over the remains of Rev. Dr. John Hall, late pastor of the Fifth avenue Presbyterian church, was held at the church yesterday afternoon. The body of the deceased divine lay in a plain coffin in which it was brought from Ireland. Delegations from religious institutions were present. The burial took place this afternoon in Woodlawn cemetery.

Was a Tame Affair.

Lynn, Oct. 5.—Before the Hoffman club last night Austin Rice of New London fought a 15-round draw with George Murray of this city. It was a tame affair, no damage being done by either man For the first half of the bout Murray cut the pace, but Rice did nearly all the leading after that.

Immediate Evacuation.

Havana, Oct. 5.—According to report the Spanish evacuation commissioners have declared it an impossibility for them to evacuate the island immediately. The American commissioners insisted that their instructions called for immediate evacuation. A definite agreement was not reached.

Wages of Sin.

Evansville, Ind., Oct. 5.—J. B. Connors was seen taking a skiff across the river. When he reached the Kentucky shore he opened fire on a man and woman who were concealed. It transpired that Connors' wife was with Charles Williams. Mrs. Connors and Williams were killed. Connors escaped.

In the Japanese temples there is a large drum used in worship. It is called the kagura-taiko, and it gives a tone much like a gong.

☞ Glenwood Ranges are the quickest and finest bakers on earth. Ask any person who ever used one. Prices $18.00 to $33.00. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

A. J. DURAND,

Piano Tuning, etc.

19 Coddington St., Quincy.

Highly recommended by Chickering & Sons, and prominent Boston musicians.

Sept. 20. 1m

DR. HERBERT S. HAYFORD

195 Hancock Street.

OFFICE HOURS—11 to 12 A. M., 2 to 4 and 7 to 8 P. M.

Telephone, 4-3.

Quincy, July 5. tf

MABEL F. FAIRBANKS

TEACHER OF

CHINA PAINTING and WATERCOLOR.

China Decorated to Order.

34 Grand View Avenue, Wollaston.

Sept. 29. 3m

TO THE FRONT!

RAYMOND'S FLAG CIGAR

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DISTRIBUTOR,

A. G. DURGIN,

QUINCY, MASS.

WM. H. RAYMOND GROCERY CO.

45 and 47 Commercial Street, Boston.

FISH.

Everything first-class at the

Cape Cod Fish Market,

Temple Street.

All kinds Fresh, Salt, Smoked and Pickeled

Quincy, Feb. 8. 1y

NOTICE TO VOTERS.

CITY OF QUINCY.

For the purpose of preparing the Annual Register of Voters, and of receiving evidence of qualification from persons claiming a right to Vote at the coming State Election, the Board of Registrars of Voters will be in session at the COUNCIL CHAMBER in the City Hall Building, on the evenings of

Wednesday, Sept. 14,
Saturday, Sept. 17,
Thursday, Sept. 29,
Saturday, Oct. 1,
Wednesday, Oct. 5.
Saturday, Oct. 8,
Saturday, Oct. 15,

From 7 to 9 P. M., and also on

Wednesday, Oct. 19,

From 12 o'clock M. until 10 o'clock P. M.

Every applicant for registration must appear in person before the Board, and must present either a certificate from the Assessors or a Tax bill or Notice from the Collector of Taxes, showing that he has been assessed as a resident of the City on the First day of May last; or a certificate from the Assessors that he has been a resident of the City for the six months next preceding the election at which he claims a right to vote. If a naturalized citizen he must also produce for inspection his papers of naturalization. Payment of a poll tax is not a prerequisite to voting.

No person can vote at the election unless his name has previously been placed upon the voting list of the Ward of which he was a resident on the first day of May last, and no name can be added to the list of voters unless registered previous to

Wednesday, Oct. 19th,

at 10 o'clock P. M., when registration will close.

Examine the Voting Lists posted, and see that your name is in its proper place. NO CHANGE can be made after WEDNESDAY, Oct. 19th, at 10 o'clock P. M. The Board of Assessors will be in session at their office on the same evenings.

EDWARD B. MARSH,
CORNELIUS MOYNIHAN,
EDWARD J. McKEON,
EDGAR G. CLEAVES,
Registrars.

Quincy, Sept. 6, 1898. 38t p10-2w

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS.

Advertisements in this column inserted at the following rates:

Four lines, or less, one day, - - 25 cents.
" " three days, - - - 50 cents.
" " one week, - - - - 75 cents.

Additional lines will be charged for pro rata. Seven words equal a line. Long term rates furnished on application.

LOST.

LOST—A Brown Purse with money and samples, marked Spaulding, between Neponset and Quincy. Call at Ledger office and receive reward.

Quincy, Oct. 5. 2t

WANTED.

WANTED—Competent Swede girl for general housework. Apply at 13 Spear street, fifth house below Public Library. lptf

WANTED—Girl, willing and capable to take care of children and assist as second girl. MRS. GEO. H. BROWN, 44 Elm street, Quincy. sep28 tf

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—An extra good family Cow at Pierce's Hotel, Hongh's Neck.

Quincy, Oct. 4. 3t

TO LET.

TO LET—A pleasant tenement of six rooms; newly papered and painted throughout. Centrally located on a main street within five minutes' walk of Quincy depot. Rent, $15. Address "House," Lock Box L, Quincy. Oct. 4. tf

TO LET—Cottage house, No. 29 Granite street, 8 rooms, three minutes' from City Square. Apply to H. M. FAXON, 4 Adams Building. Sept. 30—tf

LAND TO LET—The lot now occupied by George S. Paterson on Brackett street, will be leased for a term of years if desired. HENRY H. FAXON. Sept. 29—6t

TO LFT—Half a House of 5 rooms entirely separate on Phipps street, Mt. Pleasant. Rent, $8 a month; city water. Inquire at 17 Summer street.

Quincy, Sept. 27. 12t

FOR RENT—Desirable house with bath, corner lot, nice neighborhood, three minutes' walk from schools, churches and depot Rent reasonable. Apply at No. 6 Pleasant St.

Quincy, Sept. 7. tf

B. F. CURTIS,

40 Elm Street, Quincy.

TO LET—House of 10 rooms at 43 Elm street. City water. Rent, $18 per month.

Half House of 4 rooms, 19 Union street; city water. Rooms just painted and papered. Rent, $7.50 per month.

TO LET.

Half House on Granite street, near depot; $15.00.

Half House on Washington street, near Universalist church; $11.00.

New House, 6 rooms and bath; Back Bay land, $16.50.

Apply to FRANK F. CRANE,
Oct. 5—6t 4 Chestnut St., Quincy.

TO LET IN QUINCY.

SOUTHERLY Half of house with stable, 214 Hancock street, now occupied by Dr. N. S. Hunting. Modern improvements, central location. Possession given about October 15th.

Apply on premises to MISS M. F. UNDERWOOD.

Oct. 1. tf

TO LET.

APARTMENTS of five large rooms and bath, with all modern improvements. Also two large stores. Rent moderate.

Apply to ARTHUR CRAIG, or J. W. HAYDEN, at Craig Building, cor. Copeland and Garfield Sts.

Quincy, July 15. pl tf

TO LET.

If you have a vacant tenement, advertise the fact in the Daily Ledger. We are confident it will be let within two months, and to substantiate the claim, we will advertise it after two months. To take advantage of this offer payment must be made before the expiration of the two months. A four-line space until your house is let will cost only $5 at the outside. You cannot afford on these terms to let the house continue vacant.

FREE

FOR SALE.

Bigelow St. Fine New Residence, 9 rooms, bath, laundry, furnace, open plumbing, cemented cellar, fireplace, etc.

R. D. CHASE,
Savings Bank Building.

Quincy, April 8-tf. 9y-tf

R. D. CHASE

QUINCY MASS.

Savings Bank Building, Quincy.

INSOLVENCY NOTICE.

NORFOLK, ss. COURT OF INSOLVENCY.

NOTICE is hereby given that the third meeting of the creditors of

LORA C. MERRILL

of Quincy, Massachusetts, an insolvent debtor, will be held at a Court of Insolvency, at Dedham, on WEDNESDAY, the fifth day of October, 1898, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, at which meeting creditors may be present and prove their claims. The account of the assignees will be presented and creditors may appear and object to the allowance thereof.

JOHN Q. A. FIELD,
WILLIAM W. JENNESS,
Assignees

87 Milk street, Boston, Mass. Oct.3—2t

Sagasta to McKinley.

The people of Spain say—Keep Cuba, Porto Rico, and the Philippines—but give us

BattleAx PLUG

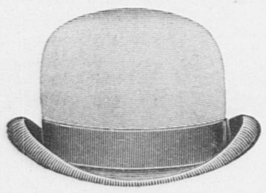

HIGH QUALITY LOW PRICE

It is impossible to stop the progress of a good thing—men want it—people want it—nations want it! There is no country on the face of the Globe where Battle Ax is not wanted.

Every tobacco chewer in the world will chew Battle Ax when once he tries it and finds out for himself how good it is.

Remember the name when you buy again.

Lamson & Hubbard

1898. Fall Style. 1898.

We are prepared to show all the latest Hats for Fall wear from the blocks of the best makers.

An early call will secure you a selection from a fine assortment.

Fall Style, 1898.

GEO. W. JONES,

Adams Building, Quincy.

Carpetings.

Buying a carpet is serious business, and the first thought is to find a carpet that will always wear well and look attractive.

We make a specialty of strong, serviceable carpetings in choice designs at money-saving prices only.

There isn't a store in the whole country that can supply your demands as well as we can.

Hundreds of the latest and choicest designs in Wools, Tapestries and Brussels. Your inspection and comparison cheerfully solicited.

Cotton and Wool Carpetings, 25c. to 45c.
All Wool Carpetings, 45c. to 65c.
Heavy Tapestries, 45c. to 85c.

HENRY L. KINCAIDE & CO.,

Reliable, Low Priced House Furnishers.

Hancock Street, - - - Quincy, Mass.

FRANK F CRANE,
AUCTIONEER and APPRAISER,
Office, 4 Chestnut St., Quincy, Mass.
Oct. tf

E. S. BECKFORD,
Electrician.
Wiring and Fitting for Incandescent, Motors, Dynamos, Bells, etc.
GRANITE STREET, Near the Bridge, QUINCY
Feb. 1. 1y

E. LANDIS SNYDER,
Organist and Choirmaster of Christ Church,
TEACHER OF
VOICE CULTURE, PIANO AND ORGAN.
Studio: Room 10 Durgin & Merrill's Block,
QUINCY, MASS.
Sept. 10. tf

JOHN EVANS,
Auctioneer and Appraiser.
Prompt Settlement.
24 COPELAND STREET, QUINCY.
Feb. 26. tf

NO BASIS FOR CHARGES

That the Inference From Wheeler's Statements.

Officials Not Remiss In Looking After the Men.

Life In Field and Camp Devoid of Alleged Horrors.

Slight Suffering In Santiago From a Scarcity of Supplies.

Untrue Statements by Women as to the Hospital Conditions at Wikoff.

Washington, Oct. 5.—General Wheeler was the only witness before the war investigators at their sitting Tuesday, occupying the entire time. General Beaver conducted the examination. The witness let it be understood that as far as he knew, nobody was remiss, and that the sufferings were incidental to such a war as was waged in Cuba.

The supplies in Santiago he considered sufficient except in a few instances, and in those instances the deficiency was only temporary. "General Shafter," he said, "deserves great credit for the zeal he displayed in this respect. He devoted himself to the task, and I think there is no doubt that he succeeded. We used pack trains, and there was comparatively little suffering because of the shortness of quartermaster's supplies."

Speaking of the medical department, he said that at times there were complaints, but that they were not serious. On occasions there was a shortage of surgeons, some of the surgeons being sick or wounded. According to General Wheeler's belief the wounded in battle were promptly cared for. General Wheeler had no control over any of the supplies which were taken to Santiago on the transports when he left Tampa. This was attended to by the different staff officers. He only knew from conversation with those that there was an abundance of the supplies of all character. Only two regiments had reported a shortage of rations, and he had immediately telephoned to the rear, and the shortage, which was due to accident, had been adjusted. There was suffering when the men were compelled to lie in the breastworks. The meat was poor, and they had no bread but hardtack. They were forced to lie in the sun and water alternately, and necessarily there was much sickness. While they had the full quota of doctors and nurses, he thought that if more had been furnished the men would have been better cared for. As for rations, three days' supplies were generally issued. Whenever the troops went into action they would throw their food away as well as their packs, and they often did not recover them.

General Wheeler took up the common report that the Cubans stole everything thus discarded. It was not fair, he said, to thus accuse the natives, for there was so much of this flotsam and jetsam that hungry and poorly clothed as the Cubans were, they were not to be blamed for helping themselves. He said he had seen among the 22,000 people who came out of Santiago many ladies of refinement emaciated and evidently hungry.

In reply to questions, he stated he never had heard of any shortage of commissary or ordnance supplies in Santiago, but he had been told that the medical supplies were short. He had no personal knowledge on this point. He had seen some wounded men crawling to the rear in the engagements, but as a rule as soon as a man fell in battle he was carried to the hospitals by the medical corps. As a rule the quality of the hardtack was good. When there was any deterioration it was due to local rains and not to the fact of original inferiority. The spirit of the army was such that there was no disposition to complain. "They were all proud to be there and willing to undergo hardships."

Captain Howell asked to what he attributed the development of disease after the capitulation of Santiago, and General Wheeler replied that it was due to the climate and to the exposure. All the men seemed to be more or less affected by the conditions. He had known of no instance of a sick or wounded man dying from want of care from the physicians. So far as he knew there was general commendation of the medical corps except that on one or two occasions there had been some grumbling in regard to general conditions. He thought there was deficiency in the number of ambulances, but this deficiency was due to the exigencies of the campaign. His memory was not distinct as to complaints from officers in his command as to the scarcity of medical supplies, but he thought there were such complaints, and in such cases he had them supplied as promptly as possible. There had been difficulty in getting the transports to lie as near in shore as was desirable, rendering it difficult to get at supplies promptly. In this connection General Wheeler revealed the fact that he had felt somewhat hurt that his had been the fourth command ordered to be landed when he thought his rank entitled him to the first landing. General Shafter had given the order which thus affected him.

The tents had been left on the transports because of the feeling that no time should be consumed in removing them. "We were there for business," he said, "and we felt that prompt disembarkation and a speedy movement to the front would impress the enemy more than anything else we could do." If they had had the tents they would have used them. There was also a shortage at this time of transportation facilities towards the front. His own illness had been caused by the exposure, and he himself had not been supplied with a tent. "I was more shifty than some of the soldiers," he said. "I stretched a little oilcloth from a tree to protect my face from the dew, but any soldier could have done the same thing."

Referring to the sleeping apartments of the transports, General Wheeler said they were quite warm and there was some discomfort. He had often gone down among the men at night and found that there was comparatively little complaint except for the heat. He recommended that in the future hammocks should be used instead of cots for the transportation of troops. Coming back from Santiago to Montauk, he had sailed on the Miami, having chosen it because it was said to be the worst. He had found it to be very comfortable, and when they landed there were only 34 sick, and only three or four of these were too ill to stand up for inspection. There was plenty of water on the vessel and a sufficiency of ice for the sick, though not for others.

At Camp Wikoff the surgeons at his request had made a list of special articles to be purchased for the sick. This he had asked them to do in obedience to the president's desire. The list of articles included evaporated fruits, green corn in cans, sugar cured hams, oatmeal, fish, ice, canned peas, prunes, soups, pickles, lemons, oranges, eggs, tea, milk and many other articles in addition to their regular rations. "The people came with many kinds of food, and I undertake to say," he declared, "that no army on earth was ever so abundantly supplied with luxuries."

The transportation facilities of the camp were poor. There was but one line of railroad, and that a single track and without adequate terminal facilities. The camp could have been supplied by water, but unfortunately there was a contract with the railroad company owning the land which gave it the control of all transportation except on government transports. This contract had been made, he understood, in return for the use of the land. He did not know who had made the contract.

He stated that visiting ladies had made frequent complaints to him of specific cases in which sick men were not properly cared for, but he found upon investigation in each case that the physicians said the ladies were mistaken. As a rule when the parents or other relatives came to visit the soldiers they expressed satisfaction at the care the men were given. He knew of no complaints from relatives. General Wheeler explained that the reason there was so much complaint about the burials was that the burial ground was so near and so plainly in view. Only 260 of the men had died in the existence of the camp. He knew nothing of the details of interments, and could not say whether any bodies had been buried without clothing. Upon the whole he thought the fact that there had been no spread of yellow fever from the camp was quite marvellous. One of the greatest difficulties he had encountered was to properly control the removal of sick soldiers by their relatives, in cases where sympathy and affection often acted instead of discretion. He had no medical director, but gave his orders to various physicians, who seemed to be equally in charge. General Wheeler considered the hospital facilities ample after the erection of the division hospitals. There were times when they were crowded for a day or two, but, on the other hand, there were many times when the buildings were not filled.

Replying to Dr. Jenkins, as quoted in the New York World's specifications, General Wheeler said that if the soldiers had not been landed at some isolated place, such as Montauk point, the fear of yellow fever would have caused a general outcry. The experts had differed in opinion as to whether there had been any yellow fever at Wikoff. Even at Santiago he had found that the experts were unable to determine whether a patient had yellow fever. He thought it would have been cruel to have sent the men home within five days after their landing, as Dr. Jenkins had suggested. As a matter of fact many of them were sick men and needed attention in the hospitals. They would have fallen sick on trains and attracted general attention to the situation. The distress was due to the topographical or climatic conditions. Ninety percent had the fever in them, and the officers suffered as much as the men. Montauk point, he thought, was necessary for quarantine purposes.

He had read to the regular soldiers the assertion that they had been in an almost starving condition, and they laughed at the report. The men asserted that the only trouble was that they had too much, and as a matter of fact no soldiers had ever been so well supplied. It was true that some of the employes had used articles intended for the sick, and he had been told by some ladies that physicians had used some of the articles, including appollinaris water, provided for the hospitals. He had issued an order for the arrest of those engaged in such a practice. He had himself seen a boy distributing oranges among his fellows. "There were undoubtedly individual cases of suffering and of neglect, but they were the exception." He had investigated the charge that the hospitals were overcrowded and he was satisfied that such was not the case. He made almost daily visits to the hospitals, and if he had found them overcrowded the deficiency would have been made good immediately.

"We had no redtape about this or any other matter," said the general, "but we ordered a thing done, and it was done. Our aim at Wikoff was to supply the necessities of the men, and we attempted to do so without resorting to the formalities necessary in times of peace."

Boycott May Extend.

Marlboro, Oct. 5.—There are indications that the difficulty between the shoe manufacturers and the lasters which began in Brockton may extend to this city. The lasters held a largely attended meeting last night and discussed the whole matter, and while they were very reticent it was learned that the manufacturers would probably be notified that they must have nothing to do with the machine company which is being fought in Brockton under penalty of a strike. There are over 100 machines in the city and 300 lasters.

NANNIE WAS SPONSOR

Broke Bottle of Wine on the Prow of the Illinois.

Successful Launching of the Big Battleship.

Immense Concourse Cheered the Craft as She Left the Ways.

Newport News, Oct. 5.—Amid the enthusiastic plaudits of nearly 40,000 intensely interested people, the salutation of steam whistles from many boats and the strains of "The Star Spangled Banner," the first-class battleship, the Illinois, slid into the water Tuesday. The launch was a brilliant success in every particular. The assemblage of spectators was unprecedented in the history of the Newport News Shipbuilding and Drydock company. The sponsor of the vessel, Nannie Leiter of Chicago, was accompanied by Governor Tanner of Illinois, his staff in full uniform and a crowd of distinguished Chicagoans.

As the hour for the christening of the battleship drew near, the approach of the christening party was heralded by a chorus of voices, and as Miss Leiter and party ascended the gaily decorated platform alongside the prow of the vessel, all eyes were on the vessel to be launched, while the crowd expectantly waited while the keel blocks on which the hull rested and the shores along her sides were carefully removed until the weight rested upon the sliding ways. The vessel was held then only by the oaken planks between the sliding and ground ways. As these were being severed by the saw, the sponsor stood waiting to perform her part in the ceremony.

MISS NANCY LEITER.

Suddenly the painted mass of steel quivered, and then slowly and more rapidly began sliding toward the water. Just as the motion fairly began, Miss Leiter, who had been standing with the christening bottle poised in the air, let it swing sharply against the bow, uttering the words, "I christen thee Illinois," and then amid deafening applause the waving of banners and the din of steam whistles, the gaily decorated hull, with more than 100 persons aboard, glided gracefully into the James river.

Later a banquet was spread to the distinguished guests in the beautifully decorated ball room of the Chamberlain hotel. Covers were laid for 600 persons, and the assemblage was a brilliant and distinguished one, including besides the notables at the launching many army and naval officers. President C. B. Orcutt of the shipbuilding plant was toastmaster. The toasts and speakers were: "Our President," by J. G. Hamlin of Shelbyville, Ills.; "The State of Illinois," by Governor John R. Tanner; "Our Navy," by Rear Admiral Howell; "Chicago," by Mayor Harrison; "Virginia," Governor J. H. Tyler. Calls for "Billy" Mason elicited an extemporaneous, but eloquent, response from the Illinois senator.

President Orcutt read the following telegram from C. P. Huntington: "The great battleship takes her plunge too late for the war, but her mission is none the less grand and noble, for she will go forth not only as a defender of the flag and the honor of the nation, but as another guarantee of protection to American citizens everywhere in the pursuit of peace, prosperity and happiness. May her record be such that the great central state whose name she bears shall ever be proud of her namesake."

The banquet was followed by a ball.

The News of Beantown.

Boston, Oct. 5.—A man said by bystanders to be James Sullivan was overcome by heat yesterday afternoon. He was taken to a hospital, where he lies in a dangerous condition. Sullivan was dressed for a warm day, having on a straw hat, a flannel shirt and lightweight trousers.

Nearly $300 in cash were taken from a safe in the office of George Murray, a money lender, while he was absent yesterday, and pages were torn out of the ledger and cash books, and mortgages and private papers were destroyed.

At the Suffolk county Republican convention District Attorney Stevens was defeated for renomination, John S. Richardson receiving the endorsement of the convention. Mr. Stevens, although a Democrat, has held the office for more than 15 years, being nominated each time by both parties. John B. O'Brien was renominated for sheriff and Elijah George for register of probate.

The Republican state committee had its annual dinner last night.

Joseph Kelley dropped dead yesterday afternoon, and the medical examiner said death was undoubtedly hastened by the excessive heat.

TO CURE NERVOUS DYSPEPSIA.

To Gain Flesh, to Sleep Well, to Know What Appetite and Good Digestion Mean, Make a Test of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Interesting Experience of an Indianapolis Gentleman.

No trouble is more common or more misunderstood than nervous dyspepsia. People having it think that their nerves are to blame, are surprised that they are not cured by nerve medicines and spring remedies; the real seat of mischief is lost sight of; the stomach is the organ to be looked after.

Nervous dyspeptics often do not have any pain whatever in the stomach, nor perhaps any of the usual symptoms of stomach weakness. Nervous dyspepsia shows itself not in the stomach so much as in nearly every other organ; in some cases the heart palpitates and is irregular; in others, the kidneys are affected; in others the bowels are constipated, with headaches still others are troubled with loss of flesh and appetite, with the accumulation of gass, sour risings and heartburn.

Mr. A. W. Sharper of No. 61 Prospect street, Indianapolis, Ind., writes as follows: "A motive of pure gratitude prompts me to write these few liens regarding the new and valuable medicine, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I have been a sufferer from nervous dyspepsia for the last four years have used various patent medicines and other remedies without any favorable result. They sometimes gave temporary relief until the effects of the medicine wore off. I attributed this to my sedentary habits, being a bookkeeper with little physical exercise, but I am glad to state that the tablets have overcome all the obstacle, for I have gained in flesh, sleep better, and am better in every way. The above is written not for notority, but is based on actual facts."

Repectfully yours,
A. W. Sharper,
61 Prospect street, Indianapolis, Ind.

It is safe to say that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will cure any stomach weakness or disease except cancer of the stomach. They cure sour stomach, gas, loss of flesh and appetite, sleeplessness, palpitation, heartburn, constipation and headache.

Send for valuable little book on stomach diseases by addressing Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

All drggists sell full-sized packages at 50 cents. 3t-357.

☞ A written guarantee that our prices are as low and invariably lower for better goods, than any other furniture house in the country. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

E. W. SHACKFORD,
PAPER HANGER,
Quincy, Mass.

☞ Orders left with W. DAVENPORT, or T. B. DAVENPORT.
Sept. 14. 1m

By CHAS. H. JOHNSON, - Auctioneer.

Mortgagee's Sale of Real Estate.

BY Virtue of a power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed given by Eben A. Stinchfield to Louisa M. Butterworth, dated August 18, 1890, and recorded in Norfolk Registry of Deeds, libro 642, folio 228, will be sold at public auction for breach of the conditions of said mortgage, on the premises hereinafter described on MONDAY, the Twenty-fourth day of October, 1898, at one o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed and therein described substantially as follows:

A certain lot of land with all the buildings thereon, situated in said Quincy and bounded and described as follows, viz.: Beginning at a point at the intersection of a certain private way with Howard avenue; thence running in a southeasterly direction along the line of said Howard avenue, three hundred and nineteen (319) feet to a stone post; thence turning and running in a southwesterly direction along the line which divides the granted premises from land of E. A. Kingman to Hayward's creek, three hundred and thirteen (313) feet; thence in a southerly direction eighty-nine and one-half (89 1-2) feet on line of land of C. R. Mitchell; thence turning and running along said creek in a northwesterly direction to the wharf of Sargent, Meade & Sampson; then turning and running in a northeasterly direction, ninety-one (91) feet along the line of said wharf and the reserved way to the point of intersection of this reserved way with the line of the granted premises, along the private way above named; thence running in a northeasterly direction along the line of said private way, three hundred and thirty-eight (338) feet to the point of beginning. Be all these measurements more or less or however otherwise measured, bounded or described. The wharf above named is subject to a right of way by parties owning the lower wharf.

This property will be sold subject to a mortgage of $1,100 dollars held by the Quincy Savings Bank and also to all unpaid taxes and assessments. Terms, $200 cash at sale, balance cash in ten days from said sale on delivery of deed.

LOUISA M. BUTTERWORTH,
Mortgagee.
Quincy, Sept. 28,1898. 28 5 12

Mortgagee's Sale.

BY Virtue and in pursuance of a power of sale in a mortgage deed given by Charles W. Higgins to Josiah H. Benton, Jr., dated June 8, 1889, and recorded with Norfolk Deeds, Libro 622, Folio 393, and by said Josiah H. Benton, Jr., assigned to John E. Benton, by assignment dated June 25, 1898, for breach of the conditions thereof, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, there will be sold at public auction on or near the premises, on FRIDAY, October, 14th, 1898, at 2 o'clock P. M., all and singular the premises by said mortgage deed conveyed and hereinafter described, viz.:

A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon, situated on the westerly side of Clive street, so called, in that part of Quincy in the County, of Norfolk called Atlantic, and being lot numbered 54 on plan showing sub-division of a part of the Gibbons Estate, Quincy, H. T. Whitman, Surveyor, recorded with said Norfolk Deeds, and bounded, further described, and measuring as follows: Beginning on said Clive street at the corner of lot numbered 55 on said plan, thence the boundary line runs westerly on said lot numbered 55, one hundred thirty-four and twenty-four one-hundredths (134.24) feet to land now or formerly of Watson; there turns and runs northerly on said land of Watson, by a line parallel with said street, sixty and one one-hundredths (60.01) feet to lot numbered 53 on said plan; then turns and runs easterly on said lot numbered 53, one hundred thirty-four and thirteen one-hundredths (134.13) feet to said street; then turns and runs southerly on said street, sixty (60) feet to the point of beginning, being the same premises now or formerly supposed to be owned by Maria A. Newcomb.

Terms at the sale.
Sept. 21—3t 21 28 5

☞ Think of the fancy prices people have paid for pianos. Then think of buying an instrument fully guaranteed and a delightful tone for $190.00. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

Come, Mary,

Let's go over to the Quincy Second-Hand Variety Store and see if we can't find just what we want. You say you need some more kitchen goods and a few chairs, a carpet for the chamber, some glassware and various other things, and when I was there last week I saw my cousin get a lot of goods for almost nothing. He told me that sometimes he could find new goods at less than half price. These are hard times, Mary, and we must buy where the dollar goes farthest.

WALTER P. PINEL

is the Manager, and the store is right over here at number 20 Franklin street.

aug25 1y

Quincy and Boston Electric Street Railway.

[Subject to change without notice.]

On and after September 21, cars will be run on the different routes as follows:

Quincy and Neponset.

Leave CITY SQUARE for Neponset at 5.55, 6.10, 6.25, 6.40 A. M. and every 15 minutes until 11.10 P. M.

Leave NEPONSET for Quincy at 6.15 A. M. and every 15 minutes until 11.30 P. M.

Cars leaving Quincy at 10 minutes past the hour go via Norfolk Downs, and those leaving Neponset at 30 minutes past go via Downs.

Cars leaving Neponset 15 minutes of and 15 minutes past the hour go via Wollaston and continue through Braintree and Holbrook to Brockton, connecting with cars for Bridgewater, Taunton, New Bedford, Fall River, Newport and Providence.

Quincy and East Weymouth.

Leave CITY SQUARE (10 minutes later from Quincy Point and 22 minutes later from North Weymouth)—5.45, 6.20, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20, 9.50, 10.20, 10.50, 11.20, 11.50 A. M.; 12.20, 12.50, 1.20, 1.50, 2.20, 2.50, 3.20, 3.50, 4.30, 4.50, 5.20, (5.30 to East Weymouth car house), 5.50, 6.20, 6.30, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20, 9.50, 10.50 P. M., (11.50 Wednesday and Saturday to Thomas' Corner only.)

Leave EAST WEYMOUTH (20 minutes later from North Weymouth and 30 minutes later from Quincy Point)—6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8, 8.30, 9, 9.30 10, 10.30, 11, 11.30 A. M.; 12, 12.30, 1, 1.30, 2, 2.30, 3, 3.30, 4, 4.30, 5, 5.30, 6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8 8.30, 9, 9.30, 10, 10.30, 11.30 P. M.

Quincy and Weymouth Landing.

Leave QUINCY at 5.30 A. M., 6.20, 7.20 and every hour until 12.20, then 1.50 and every hour until 10.50 P. M.

Leave WEYMOUTH LANDING at 5.50 A. M. and every hour until 12.50, then 2.20 and every hour until 11.20 P. M., connect with trains to Boston at Quincy.

Quincy and East Milton.

Leave CITY SQUARE, 5.55, 6.25, then every 5 minutes of and 25 minutes past the hour until 9.25 P. M., then at 10.50 P. M.

Leave EAST MILTON 6.25, 6.55 A. M., then every 5 minutes of and 25 minutes past the hour until 9.50 P. M., then 10.20 and 11.20 P. M.

Quincy and Holbrook.

Leave QUINCY for Holbrook at 6.10 and 6.40 A. M., and every half hour until 9.40 P. M., then 10.10 P. M. to South Braintree only, except on Wednesday and Saturday, when can at 10.50 runs through to Holbrook.

Quincy and Hingham.

Leave QUINCY at 7.20 A. M. and every hour until 11.20 A. M., then 1.50 and every hour until 5.50 P. M.

Leave HINGHAM at 8 A. M. and every hour until 12 M., then 2.30 and every hour until 6.30 P. M.

Neponset, Atlantic and Squantum.

Leave NEPONSET at 6.30 A. M. and every hour until 8.30 P. M., connecting at Atlantic with outward express trains.

Leave SQUANTUM at 7 A. M. and every hour until 9 P. M., connecting at Atlantic with express trains.

Quincy and Houghs Neck.

Leave QUINCY CENTRE at 6.20 A. M., and and every hour until 1.20, and then 1.50 and every hour until 9.50.

Returning, leave HOUGHS NECK at 5.45 A. M., and every hour until 12.45, and then 1.20 and every hour until 9.20.

SUNDAYS.

Cars leave City Square, Quincy, for E. Weymouth at 7.30 A. M. and West Quincy at 7 A. M and on the hour and half hour throughout the day.

Sunday time same as week days on other lines, except that the first two trips are omitted.

BENJ. J. WEEKS, Superintendent.

New York, New Haven and Hartford R. R.

Eastern District.

On and after July 1st, 1898, trains will run as follows: (See note of explanation at bottom.

TO BOSTON. Leave Quincy.	Stops at	Arrive Boston.	FROM BOSTON. Leave Boston.	Stops at	Arrive Quincy
r 6 12	abc	* 6 30	5 55	ihgfedcba	*6 22 r
r 6 42	abc	7 00	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	7 30	cba	7 49 r
r 7 26	ad	7 43	8 30	cba	8 49 r
r 7 42	abc	8 00	9 30	cba	9 49 r
r 8 12	abc	8 30	10 30	cba	10 49 r
r 8 26	ad	8 43	11 30	cba	11 49 r
r 8 42	abc	9 00	12 30	cba	12 49 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	1 30	cba	1 49 r
r 10 12	abc	10 30	2 30	cba	2 49 r
r 11 12	abc	11 30	3 30	cba	3 49 r
r 12 12	abc	12 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
r 1 12	abc	1 30	5 00	cba	5 19 r
r 2 12	abc	2 30	5 17	da	5 36 r
r 3 12	abc	3 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
r 4 12	abc	4 30	6 00	cba	6 19 r
r 5 12	abc	5 30	6 17	da	6 36 r
r 6 12	abc	6 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	7 00	eba	7 19 r
r 7 39	abcdefghi	8 05	7 30	cba	7 49 r
r 8 08	abcdef	8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	9 30	cba	9 49 r
r 10 08	abcdef	10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r
r 11 12	abc	11 30	11 30	cba	11 49 r

SUNDAYS.

r 7 12	abc	7 30	6 30	cba	6 1
r 8 12	abc	8 30	8 30	cba	8 49 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	12 30	cba	12 49 r
r 1 12	abc	1 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
r 5 12	abc	5 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 8 08	abcdef	8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
r 10 08	abcdef	10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r

*The letters in the same line as the figures stand for different stations and indicate that trains stop, as follows:

a, Wollaston, b, Norfolk Downs, c, Atlantic, d, Neponset, e, Pope's Hill, f, Harrison Square, g, Savin Hill, h, Crescent Avenue, i, South Boston, r, Quincy Adams, (xx), Express.

C PETER CLARK, Gen'l Supt. A. C. KENDALL, G. P. A

BILLHEADS AT PATRIOT OFFICE.

QUINCY DAILY LEDGER.

VOL. 10. No. 33. QUINCY, MASS., THURSDAY, OCTOBER 6, 1898. PRICE 2 CENTS.

All goods are delivered FREE at residences in Quincy.

Carpets and Upholstery FOR Residences, Churches, Hotels, Steamers, etc., etc.

Our stock is by far the largest in Boston, and includes many private patterns obtainable nowhere else.

Our prices are always at the bottom of the market.

JOHN H. PRAY, SONS & CO.,
658 Washington St., Boston.
(Opposite Boylston St.)

Represented in Quincy by Mr. Otho A. Hayward.

MILLINERY.

Grand Opening Oct. 5, 6, 7,
OF CHOICE
FALL and WINTER MILLINERY,
Consisting of Imported French Hats and Millinery Novelties.
You are cordially invited to call and inspect the same.

E. B. COLLINS,
4 Faxon Block, Quincy, Mass.
☞ NO CARDS.
Oct. 4. 6t

He Was Embarrassed.

He was painfully embarrassed. He came into our store last week and said to our new man (Mr. Ryder): "I want to get a f-f-f-f-f-f-fall——" He got one. He backed up to let a couple of ladies pass from our clothing department, and fell down two short steps which lead to that department. He got up smiling and said again: "I want to get a f-f-f-f-f-fall overcoat and I'm a little sh-sh-sh-sh-short——" "Oh! That makes no difference," said our man, "as we carry overcoats for all shaped men—for the short ones as well as the tall ones," and he laid out a few different styles for him to see.

"I m-m-m-m-mean that I'm sh-sh-sh-sh-short of mun-mun-mun-money and I want to know if I paid eh-eh-eh-eh-eight dollars on one, if I could pup-pup-pup-pay the rest on Saturday night?"

He went out with 50c. and a brand new Fall Overcoat. He bought a fine light covert for $7.50 that he expected to pay $10.00 for, and he did not feel bashful about saying so, either.

We don't trust because we want to sell you all the time. If we trusted—well, you know somebody's got to pay.

Our heavy weight Fall and Winter Covert at $9.85, made with swelled seams, satin facing and without lining, is the most economical coat a man can buy.

Remember we are the Headquarters in Quincy for Children's Clothing. Over 400 suits. Prices, $1.29 to $5.00.

QUINCY CLOTHING COMPANY,

QUINCY'S CLOTHIERS,

Music Hall Block.

E. S. BECKFORD,
Electrician.
Wiring and Fitting for Incandescent, Motors, Dynamos, Bells, etc.
GRANITE STREET, Near the Bridge, QUINCY
Feb. 1. ly

TEETH EXTRACTED.
No Pain or Danger.
Safer than vapor. Money paid for extracting goes towards teeth to be inserted. I am the only dentist in the city using the Painless Preparation for Extraction.
DR. C. B. UNDERWOOD,
9 Spear St. Rear of Public Library

TELEGRAPHIC.

3 O'CLOCK.

WHEELER AND BOYNTON

War Department Sustained by Both Generals.

Admitted Little or No Ground For the Onslaught.

Neither Well Nor Sick Suffered Through Deprivation.

Promptitude and Zeal In the Furnishing of Necessaries.

Washington, Oct. 6.—General Wheeler completed his testimony before the war investigating commission Wednesday. He was followed by General Boynton, who was on the stand when the day's session closed. General Wheeler's statement dealt entirely with the conditions at Camp Wikoff, and General Boynton's with those at Camp Thomas, where he is now in command. General Boynton described in detail the provisions for supplying the Georgia camp with water and told interesting facts about the location of the troops and the precautions taken to care for and protect them whether sick or well. He said that the men wasted more food than the army of the Cumberland consumed during the Civil war in the siege of Chattanooga, and he eulogized the supply methods of the war department throughout.

MAJOR GENERAL JOSEPH WHEELER

General Dodge asked the witness for a general expression of his opinion as to the conduct of the various bureaus of the war department. Replying, he praised the work of all the supply departments, saying they were actuated by zeal and characterized by intelligence. He had found the medical department, from General Sternberg down, to be efficient and anxious to promote the best interests of his department. The same was true of the ordnance, commissary and other departments. General Wheeler said the mortality among the Spanish soldiers was quite equal to that among the American troops.

CHICKAMAUGA PARK.

General Boynton Said That It Was a Good Location For a Camp.

General H. V. Boynton next took the stand. He said that since July 8 he had been on duty at Camp Thomas as an army officer. Governor Beaver called his attention to the criticisms of the camp site and asked him his opinion of the location. General Boynton, who has been a member of the park commission for nine years, has always been sion for nine years, said that the park had always been considered one of the most healthful spots in the country. There has never been a death in the park force, and never a case of typhoid fever. Out of 2300 men employed, there were only seven deaths, and none of them was due to typhoid. In 1890, in the two counties in which the park was situated, there had been only 12 cases of typhoid fever. The park was 650 to 700 feet above the sea level, and the land was rolling and well drained, being free from swamps. The whole park was underlaid by magnesian limestone, and it was from under this that most of the water was secured. There were three sources for the supply, a number of springs, the river and artesian well. There were now 36 of these wells, and there were nine when the camp site was selected. The five springs, so far as he knew, were inexhaustible, and only one had been exhausted during the occupancy of the camp by the troops. The wells were also apparently inexhaustible. In addition 1,000,000 gallons were pumped every 24 hours from the river, and this water was distributed through the camp by means of pipes. The river supply was not designed originally for drinking purposes, but for cooking, washing and other uses. However, the water had been found to be quite pure. The stream was fed wholly by mountain springs. The river water had been analyzed three times chemically and once bacteriologically. The water had in each case been pronounced pure and entirely suitable for drinking and domestic purposes. General Boynton remarked: "It was impossible for the river water to be contaminated. I know all about that, and I do not consider there is any foundation for that charge."

The sinks were from 30 to 90 feet from the tents, and in some instances the kitchens were not farther than 20 feet from the sinks. Much of the kitchen offal was burned, but in other cases the offal was dumped into kitchen sinks, and then at times it was hauled off and dumped in the woods contrary to orders. Men were obdurate about such matters, and it was difficult to properly police so extensive a camp. The chief surgeon of the camp had assured him that there was a daily inspection of the sinks.

The typhoid fever in the camp did not excite serious attention until about the middle of July, when the cases averaged about two per 1000. It afterwards increased until there were about 400 cases among the 50,000 men. He had given especial attention to the hospital of the second division of the Third corps, as it had received the especial attention of the sensational press. He had found that out of 2462 cases of illness in this hospital there had been only 276 cases of typhoid. The fever had in all cases been of a mild character. At one time, after measles broke out in the camp, the hospitals were crowded, though he did not think such had been the case at any other time. Practically all the sickness was among volunteers. The regulars were not sick. Asked if each regiment had a sutler, General Boynton replied that they had something worse than a sutler; each one had a canteen. He said that 375 carloads of beer had been sold in the camp. Captain Howell asked about whisky sales, and General Boynton replied that it had been difficult to cut out the sharp moonshiners from Captain Howell's state. Chattanooga was a splendid town, but the saloons were open day and night. He deprecated the fact that army regulations permitted the canteen system.

He had never seen such efficiency in the supply departments of the army in the field as in the case of Camp Thomas. Sufficient medicines were sent to Atlanta from Camp Thomas to supply 50 regiments for a campaign. There was no lack of rations, and the rations were all good. The variety was equal to that supplied by a family grocery.

"No army was ever so well supplied with food, and if the men did not know how to cook it, certainly Secretary Alger nor President McKinley nor anyone in Washington can be held responsible," said the general.

General Boynton commended the Young Men's Christian association tents which, he said, were the best things in the service. He condemned the outside drinking houses where slop was sold that was worse than whisky. There was no lack of transportation, especially in coming. Most of the complaints were from the typhoid fever patients, who were kept on low rations as a medical precaution. There was never any shortage of rations. General Boynton said he had found some garbage receptacles left by the First Illinois cavalry the day after it broke camp, which were full of vermin. The regiment, however, was a good one, and he did not desire to cast any reflection upon it.

The News of Beantown.

Boston, Oct. 6.—At the annual meeting of the Vessel Owners' and Captains association Jacob J. Winslow of Boston was elected president; Frank Harrington, Boston, treasurer, and R. R. Freeman, Boston, secretary. The following board of commissioners was chosen: W. T. Donnell, Bath; H. A. Dean, Taunton; C. D. Hall, New Haven; C. W. Morse and A. J. Newbury, New York.

After nearly five months of duty the First regiment has returned home with a perfect record. Not a man has been lost by desertion, not one has died; it saw no foe and heard the hum of no shot other than those fired by its own guns. More to be remarked than that is the fact that it escaped the inroads of disease which has ravaged the ranks of other commands.

The report of the supreme trustees of the Sons of St. George, submitted at yesterday's session of the supreme lodge showed a balance on hand of $261,575.91. The total receipts of the past year were $117,203.63. During that time there had been expended for the relief of members $7380.48; for funeral benefits, $31,680.46, and in donations and charity, $4872.90. The membership of the organization May 31 was 22,094, divided among 301 lodges in 12 states.

The careless use of a rifle, with which he was playing, was the cause of the death of Ray Brock, a 17-year-old boy. The direct cause of the accident is unknown, but the ball struck him below the heart.

The Historical Genealogical society has received $1000 from W. C. Todd of Atkinson, N. H., the income to be used for the purchase of town histories. Mr. Todd, among his gifts, gave $50,000 for the newspaper room of the public library.

The National Game.

The St. Louis team had Maupin, a Missouri youngster, in the first game yesterday. He did well for eight innings, but weakened in the last, the Pittsburgs batting out a victory. The second game was called in the third inning on account of darkness.

Yeager of the Brooklyns lost his own game in the fourth inning when, with the bases full, he gave "Jud" Smith of the Washingtons a pass, forcing in a run. A long fly by Farrell brought in the other.

"The present Cleveland club will play in St. Louis next year," said President Muckenfuss of the St. Louis club yesterday. Further than this he refused to talk.

Nancy Guilford's Double.

Bridgeport, Oct. 6.—A remarkable incident in the mill pond tragedy has come to light. Charles B. Baker, a dentist of this city, has received a letter from a prominent dentist in New York, whose name Dr. Baker would not disclose, in which the writer states that he did some work for a young woman who was known as Katherine Wilber, who went to Los Angeles last spring and who said she was going abroad this fall. The letter also states that the woman's maiden name began with a "G" and that the description of the woman arrested in London fits Mrs. Wilber to the dot.

☞ Glenwood Ranges are the quickest and finest bakers on earth. Ask any person who ever used one. Prices $18.00 to $33.00. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

LAND VALUES

A Transcript From the Books of the Assessors.

Number of Feet in Each Lot and Valuation Thereof.

Also the Amount of Each Person's Tax Bill for 1898.

[Continued from yesterday.]

Something new in the publication of the taxpayers of the city is attempted this year by the Daily Ledger. There is considerable interest in the assessed value of land in the city, which is claimed to be high in some cases and low in others. So the Ledger has supplemented the amount of the tax bill in each ward with the value of each lot of land for which the person is taxed, giving in each case the number of square feet or acreage.

The amount given in the line with the person's name is his total ward tax, and may include houses, personal property, etc., in addition to the lots of land below. The Ledger gives only the valuation of the land.

To obtain a person's total tax in the city, add together the amounts paid in the several wards.

The Ledger commenced the publication Aug. 30, and has already published the land values of all persons whose names begin with A to J, and today's instalment begins the Ks:

WARD ONE.

Valuation of Land Only.	Total Ward Tax.
Keating, Annie M.	$195 30
17,900 feet, Washington street, $2,500.
11,000, Canal, $1,000.
Keenan, Terence	2 70
2 1-2 acres, salt marsh, $150.
Kelley, Alice T.	7 20
4,050, Rogers, $400.

WARD TWO.

Keating, Annie M.	$66 60
11,814 feet, Washington street, $1,600.
Keegan, Margaret	23 40
7,020, Glencoe, $300.
Keenan, Elizabeth T.	23 40
6,000, South Walnut, $300.
Keenan, Terence, heirs,	189 00
20 acres, South, $7,000.
Keenan, Mrs. Mary	59 40
4.04 acres, South, $2,200.
Keith, Aubrey R.	29 00
7,615, River, $300.
Kelliher, Cornelius	34 20
1 acre Quincy ave., $800.
Kelliher, Patrick	20 00
1-4 acre, Quincy ave., $350.
Kelley, Arthur F.	133 85
32,950, Washington, $1,800.
Kelley, Mrs. James	23 40
1 acre, Quincy ave., $800.
Kelley, Rose N.	33 30
23,000, Main, $900.

WARD THREE.

Kain, Elizabeth	$25 20
12,000 feet, Jackson Lane, $200.
Keating, Albert	26 10
8,040, Water, $550.
Kelley, Ellen	31 50
7,200, Penn, $450.
Kelley, Harriet J.	36 90
6,000, Centre, $350.
10,134, " $500.
Kelley, James D.	52 40
7,000. Taber, $500.
Kelley, James F.	41 40
6,485, Water, $500.
Kelley, Margaret	34 20
5,000, Liberty, $390.
Kelley, William	29 00
1-4 acre, Mt. Pleasant, $200.
1-2 " " " $400.
Kelley, William A.	3 60
3,165, Penn, $200.
Kelman, John	28 10
5,225, Quincy, $400.

WARD FOUR.

Kane, John	$41 60
20,400 feet, Willard street, $1,000.
Kane, John J.	39 80
5,175, Willard, $300.
Kapples, Mary E.	5 40
3,625, Copeland, $300.
Keenan, Ellen C.	6 30
17,776, Malden, $350.
Keene, W. Ward	30 80
6,600, Buckley, $300.

Continued on page 3.

Royal makes the food pure, wholesome and delicious.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

INDIANS ON WARPATH.

Fierce Attack Upon a Body of Soldiers on a Minnesota Island.

Walker, Minn., Oct. 6.—Owing to the threatening attitude of the redskins on Bear island, troops under General Bacon were hurried to the scene in tugs. After a landing had been effected, a shot was fired from a house, the ball striking Edward Harris, ex-marshal of Walker, a halfbreed. His arm was broken. Immediately the attack became general. It seemed that a shot came from every bush. Three of General Bacon's men dropped.

When the first shot was heard every man in the command sprang for cover. General Bacon stood straight up, and, supported by Major Wilkinson, looked right into the eyes of the foe. "Steady, men," he called; "keep cool, now; keep cool!"

Again there came a volley from the Indians, and then the Krag-Jorgensens opened up with a frightful rattle just as the pillagers made a terrific rush. Half a dozen of them dropped and the rest fell back, yelling like fiends. There must have been 150 or 200 Indians.

Lieutenant Morrison, with 20 men, made a rush to prevent the recapture of old Mah-Quod and Bap-Dway-We-Dung. The marshals had these men under arrest. Morrison's squad scattered the Indians who tried to rescue the prisoners. The Indians later fired in a desultory way, and the order was given the troops to charge.

The soldiers ran, ducking and dropping like grasshoppers. They made the most of their opportunity. Suddenly a volley was fired by the Indians at the tug, Flora, which lay off shore. A score of bullets went through the frail woodwork of the boat, and every man except the pilot sought cover. Some blazed away in return with revolvers, but the range was too long. A volley was then fired at the tug, Chief, of Duluth. Inspector Tinker was shot through the leg, and his coatsleeves were torn to ribbons by another ball. The Flora steamed for the agency under orders from Marshal O'Connor to get the 20 men under Lieutenant Humphrey who had been left there. O'Connor escaped death by a miracle. The Indians fired a volley directly at him.

On board the Flora when she started for reinforcements were Marshal O'Connor, Deputy Morrison, Indian Agent Sutherland and the Indian prisoners. A guard of two men under Corporal Nettokoven was sent with the Flora. She will return at once with rations and ammunition.

Lieutenant Humphrey was white with rage when the news reached him. The fire of the Krag-Jorgensens, 20 miles distant, was distinctly audible in Walker. A man just in says that we have lost four killed and nine wounded up to date. The wounded ex-marshal of Walker was brought home under a Red Cross flag aboard the Flora. He will recover, but his life is not worth a pinch of snuff so long as there are any Bear island Indians remaining in the country. Marshal O'Connor and Deputy Marshal Sheehan behaved with the utmost bravery.

Lieutenant Morrison had never been under fire before, but he was steady. The men behaved splendidly. O'Connor was put ashore in a hostile country, and he ran four miles over thistles and through brush to reach the Leech Lake agency. All families are being removed.

The Pillager and neighboring Indians of the White Earth reservation claim to have many reasons for their outbreak, although the direct trouble with the Pillagers comes over attempts to bring in some of the Indians to the United States court at Duluth in connection with liquor selling. Their grievances go back through many years and there have been legislative and other attempts to settle them, one of the latest being the Nelson law regarding the sale of the timber on the Indian lands. However, the Indians claimed that the method of disposing of this was both cumbersome and expensive, and that they were the sufferers. In regard to serving as witnesses in liquor selling cases, they claim that the deputy marshals left them to find their own way home from Duluth without having paid them the proper mileage. This is denied by the deputies.

A dispatch boat that has just arrived announces that although they cruised up and down the scene of the battle for two hours they were unable to see a man and fear that all soldiers and officers have fallen. About 100 armed citizens, including the detachment from Brainerd, are about to start for the scene.

Yale Defeated Amherst.

New Haven, Oct. 6.—Yale defeated Amherst at football by the score of 20 to 0. The game was quite the contrary of the poor showing made last Saturday against Wesleyan, and from start to finish was a good one. It was largely a kicking game, with little line bucking, and the most remarkable thing about it was perhaps the utter uselessness of the university of Pennsylvania tactics which Amherst used. The new ends-in trick was ripped to pieces by the Yale line.

Serious Accident Averted.

London, Oct. 6.—Queen Victoria, her daughter, the ex-Empress Frederick of Germany, and Princess Adolphe of Schaumburg-Lippe, had a narrow escape from injury while driving in Balmoral, Scotland. The horses of her majesty's carriage bolted, the coachman lost control of them, and a serious accident was only averted by the horses turning into the woods, where the carriage stuck.

Cylinder Blew Out.

Taunton, Oct. 6.—A cylinder head in the new 250-horse-power Fischer engine of the A. Fields' factory of the Atlas tack corporation blew out and wrecked the engine. The engineer, A. F. Dunbar, was standing behind the engine and, in spite of the terrific volume of steam, shut down the engine, and fell unconscious. His injuries are supposed to be fatal.

Suicide of a Consumptive.

Manchester, Oct. 6.—William Deichel, aged 42 years, who was in the last stages of consumption, shot himself through the heart with a revolver, dying instantly. He was employed by the Amoskeag corporation as a loom fixer.

GRAND OPENING
OF
Fall and Winter Millinery
Thursday,
Friday,
Saturday,
October 6, 7 and 8,
AT
Miss B. J. Patterson's Millinery Parlors
At the Boston Bargain Store.

A choice and complete stock of all the latest and most desirable goods for this season,
All are cordially invited.
Music Hall Building, Quincy.
Oct. 1. tfpl

THE
Fall Millinery Opening
OF
C. L. BLISS,
186 Hancock St.,
TUESDAY and WEDNESDAY
Oct. 11, 12.

The public are cordially invited to call and examine a stock of Trimmed and Untrimmed Hats and novelties in Velvets, Ribbons, Wings, Feathers and Jet.
Quincy, Oct. 5. lpo 2w

BOYS' SUITS
THAT SUIT BOYS

Grand Clearance Sale of Boys'
SCHOOL SUITS,
$1.50 to $3.50.
Worth Double the Price.

School begins Tuesday and your boy wants something new. Drop in to our store tonight and see how little money it takes to dress him handsomely.

Granite Clothing Co.
DURGIN & MERRILL'S BLOCK.

ALBERT J. BOWERS
OPTICIAN
ADAMS BUILDING
OVER POST OFFICE
QUINCY MASS.

A. J. DURAND,
Piano Tuning, etc.
19 Coddington St., Quincy.
Highly recommended by Chickering & Sons, and prominent Boston musicians.
Sept. 20. 1m

DR. RALPH M. FOGG,
DENTIST.
Teeth extracted absolutely without pain by the use of the
"BOSTON VEGETABLE VAPOR."
It is claimed that, while it has the required properties of ether, chloroform, nitrous oxide gas, it lacks the disagreeable and dangerous qualities of these drugs. It is certainly a boon to suffering humanity to be relieved of the nausea too often following the administering of sedatives of the old school.—Boston Transcript.
Teeth made and repaired on Gold or Rubber base. Teeth Filling a specialty.
Office in French's Building, five doors south of Post Office, Quincy, Wednesdays. Hours, 9 A. M. to 5 P. M. July18-ly Nov8-1yo

Come, Mary,

Let's go over to the Quincy Second-Hand Variety Store and see if we can't find just what we want. You say you need some more kitchen goods and a few chairs, a carpet for the chamber, some glassware and various other things, and when I was there last week I saw my cousin get a lot of goods for almost nothing. He told me that sometimes he could find new goods at less than half price. These are hard times, Mary, and we must buy where the dollar goes farthest.

WALTER P. PINEL

is the Manager, and the store is right over here at number 20 Franklin street.
aug25 1y

By FRANK F. CRANE, - Auctioneer,
Office, 4 Chestnut St., Quincy, Mass.

AUCTION SALE
OF ABOUT
15 Tons of Hay
Slightly Damaged by Water,
at the Stable in rear of the Estate of the late James Edwards, 11 School street, on MONDAY, Oct. 10th,
at 2 o'clock P. M. Sale positive. Rain or shine. Terms cash. oct5-4t

By FRANK F. CRANE, - Auctioneer.
Office, 4 Chestnut Street, Quincy.

AUCTION SALE
OF THE
ATTRACTIVE REAL ESTATE
OF THE LATE
MICHAEL GOODHUE,
No. 40 Phipps Street,
TUESDAY, OCT. 18th,
At 3 O'clock P. M.

THIS Estate consists of a Modern House of nine rooms, there is a good stable on the premises, about one acre of land having a very large frontage on Phipps street. The estate contains a variety of shade and fruit trees, an extra fine lot of grapes and currants. Also a fine well containing an excellent quality of water. The buildings are in good repair and the estate is very desirable as a residence or for investment.
Sale Positive, rain or shine.
Terms: $100.00 at sale, balance in ten days.
For further information apply to the auctioneer.
Quincy, Oct. 5—10t 8p—1w

By C. H. JOHNSON, - - Auctioneer.
Office, Adams Building, Quincy, Mass.

Executor's Sale at Public Auction

of the personal property of the late EBEN A. STINCHFIELD, will be sold at residence off Howard avenue, Quincy Neck, on TUESDAY, Oct. 11, 1898, at 1 30 P. M. The property consists of Household Furniture, Stock of Groceries and 3 Carriages.

GROCERIES—Lot of Tea and Coffee, Spices, Canned Goods, Snuff, Stove Polish, Clay Pipes, Paper Bags, Clothes Pins, Vinegar, one-half barrel Molasses, Tea and Coffee Cans, Tobacco Cutter, Small Scales, Fish Scales, set Measures, large Showcase, 6-gal. Milk Cans Coffee Grinder, lot of Barrels.

HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE—5 cane seat Chairs and Rocker, Parlor Stove, open grate Coal Stove in good order, two Tables, Ice Chest, two Tables, Baby Carriage, Step Ladder, large Dish Closet, Small Stand, Desk, Oak Chamber Set in good condition, Forks, Rakes and lot Harness, Platform Scales and a variety of articles.

CARRIAGES—Buggy, open Express Wagon, Carryall and large Farm Wagon, Ladies' New Mall Bicycle.
Hen House. Terms cash. Sale positive.
Oct. 3. 6t

DANCING SCHOOL.
PROF. GARDNER,
the well known Boston teacher, will receive a few more pupils in his class in COLONIAL HALL, Bank Building, Quincy, on Friday Evening, Oct. 7, at 7.45. Terms: Gents, $6, Ladies, $4. All the latest dances taught. Those who wish to learn should be present next Friday as pupils cannot be accepted after that evening. lptf

The John Hancock Stables.
Opposite Depot, Quincy, Mass.
Boarding, Baiting, Livery and Sale.
DR. J. A. DOW, Proprietor,
the well known Veterinary dentist and specialist in the treatment of lame horses. Sick horses treated at owner's risk.
The finest equipped and managed stable of its size in America.
Fine driving turnouts in light rigs; safe and good appearing. All horses let are perfectly safe for ladies to drive.
The choicest family, road and coach horses constantly on hand for sale. All horses guaranteed as represented.
☞ Will attend to veterinary practice as usual. aug18-1y

E. W. SHACKFORD,
PAPER HANGER,
Quincy, Mass.
☞ Orders left with W. DAVENPORT, or T. B. DAVENPORT.
Sept. 14. 1m

E. LANDIS SNYDER,
Organist and Choirmaster of Christ Church,
TEACHER OF
VOICE CULTURE, PIANO AND ORGAN.
Studio: Room 10 Durgin & Merrill's Block,
QUINCY, MASS.
Sept. 10. tf

FRANK F CRANE,
AUCTIONEER and APPRAISER,
Office, 4 Chestnut St., Quincy, Mass.
Oct. tf

JOHN EVANS,
Auctioneer and Appraiser.
Prompt Settlement.
24 COPELAND STREET, QUINCY.
Feb. 26. tf

Quincy Daily Ledger
ESTABLISHED IN 1889.
The ONLY DAILY in Norfolk County Massachusetts.
Published Every Evening, Sundays and Holidays Excepted, At No. 115 HANCOCK ST., City of Quincy, Mass., by
GEORGE W. PRESCOTT & SON.
Successors to Green & Prescott.
Subscription Price, $6.00 per year.
☞ A discount of $1 when paid in advance.
ALSO PUBLISHERS OF
The Quincy Patriot,
A Weekly Established in 1837, which has the Largest Circulation in Norfolk County, and
The Braintree Observer,
A Weekly Established in 1878.
TELEPHONE, 78-3 QUINCY.

Quincy Temperature at Noon.

	This Week.	Last Week.	In 1897.	In 1896.
Sunday	64	52	56	57
Monday	76	71	56	59
Tuesday	85	67	64	55
Wednesday	63	68	68	57
Thursday	64	70	68	53
Friday	—	75	64	56
Saturday	—	74	57	56

New Advertisements Today.
Ghorge H. Field—Insurance.
Chamberlain—Hats and furnishings.
Desirable house to let.
Boston Branch Grocery—Salt.

Surprise is expressed in many quarters today that the Quincy delegates to the Republican Senatorial convention did not stand by the Quincy candidate. It is said he did not receive the whole Quincy support on any ballot, although he was the leading candidate on the first ballot with more vtoes than the total from Quincy.

Immediately other Quincy delegates deserted him, although the chances were excellent to secure his nomination. It is to be regretted that Quincy gentlemen are not more loyal to their city and their townsmen.

Quincy with a united front would be in a position to command some attention in the conventions, and secure some of the officials. As it was in the senatorial convention, so it will probably be in the Norfolk County convention. There are very urgent reasons why Quincy should be represented on the Board of County Commissioners, yet there are those who will trade, and delegates who permit themselves to be sold, and the politics of the city are becoming demoralized.

Not only in politics but in other vital matters Quincy should get together. No ward should hold aloof, but all unite and secure improvements. There is now in the State treasury already in our grasp a large appropriation for a State boulevard in Quincy, but there is a hitch and unless our people unite and overcome them soon the money will go to another city. The boulevard would be a great benefit to Quincy and with it and the new South Terminal station the city would boom.

Gannett—Perry.

Miss Imogene Mabel Perry, daughter of Mr. James P. Perry of Wollaston and Mr. Edwin L. Gannett son of Mr. Howard Gannett were married at the First Baptist church, Wollaston, on Wednesday evening at eight o'clock.

The ceremony, which was very simple, was performed by the Rev. Preston Gurney, the pastor of the society. The church was beautifully trimmed with autumn flowers and foliage.

The bride was attired in a gown of white Swiss organdie with garniture of satin ribbon, with a white tulle veil fastened with a fleur-de-lis of diamonds and pearls. She carried a bouquet of brides' roses.

The ushers were Mr. Howard Gannett, Jr., Mr. Curtis Clapp, Jr., of Roxbury, Mr. George W. Walker of Boston, and Mr. Walter E. Simmons, Jr., of Wollaston.

Many costly and beautiful gifts were received.

After the ceremony an informal reception was held in the church vestry.

Mr. and Mrs. Gannett will reside in Whitman.

Challenges for Cup.

Mr Charles D. Mower, the skipper of the cup challenger "Duchess," made a call on one of the leading officers of the Quincy Yacht club this week. Mr. Mower's visit was partially of a social nature and partially for business. He informed the club official that he was at work on the designs for a 21 foot cup challenger and desired the Quincy Yacht Club's Regatta Committee to informally guarantee to him that "freak" boats would be bared in the deed of trust from sailing for the cup. Mr. Mower also stated that he understood that the Nahant crew, who at present own the "Duchess" would challenge for the cup, as well as Mr. F. L. Pigeon of Gloucester.

THERE IS A CLASS OF PEOPLE
Who are injured by the use of coffee. Recently there has been placed in all the grocery stores a new preparation called GRAIN-O, made of pure grains, that takes the place of coffee. The most delicate stomach receives it without distress, and but few can tell it from coffee. It does not cost over 1-4 as much. Children may drink it with great benefit. 15 cts. and 25 cts. per package. Try it. Ask for GRAIN-O.

DRAWN BATTLE

At Tenth Congressional Republican Convention.

Ballot After Ballot Without a Majority.

Barrows in Lead on Every Ballot—Atwood Second.

The folly of calling the Tenth Congressional convention at 8 o'clock in the evening, especially, when there is a contest, was again forcibly illustrated last night.

The convention was called at 8 o'clock at Wesleyan hall, Boston, and five minutes after that hour, Chairman George A. Hillard called order.

Secretary Thomas C. Batchelder read the call. At that time everybody but delegates and reporters were excluded from the hall.

The first squabble was over the choice of temporary chairman. W. W. Towle of Ward 12 and John H. S. Colby of Ward 18 were nominated.

Mr. Berry moved that the convention proceed to ballot for a chairman.

Henry H. Faxon objected. It would take too much time. While Henry was objecting a Boston newspaper artist was hastily transferring the outline of Henry's profile to a block of paper as though there was not a newspaper in the State who did not possess a cut of him.

At this time Mr. Faxon and the Ward One delegation were seated in the Atwood stronghold but he did not seem to feel anyway out of place. The balance of the Quincy delegation was somewhat scattered although Wards Three, Four, Five and Six were well bunched at the right of the chairman.

The motion to proceed to ballot was carried. The result of this ballot was the first victory of the Atwood supporters for Mr. Colby was elected by a vote of 61 to 53 for Mr. Towle. Mr. Batchelder was elected temporary chairman without opposition.

A committee on credentials consisting of Marshall of Ward 14, Ward of Ward 12, Hayward of Ward 24, Cobb of Milton and Lifter of Ward 19, was appointed.

They reported that the convention was entitled to 116 delegates as follows: Ward 12, 12; Ward 14, 9; Ward 15, 8; Ward 16, 11; Ward 17, 9; Ward 18, 8; Ward 19, 7; Ward 20, 14; Ward 24, 14; Quincy, 19; Milton 5, and that all were present.

It was here noticed that Mr. T. King's credential from Ward One, Quincy, was held by a Mr. Gallagher of South Boston.

The temporary organization was maode permanent and it was voted an informal ballot be taken.

A motion by Mr. Marshall of Ward 14 that under no consideration should the informal ballot be made formal was ruled out of order by the chairman.

Messrs. Gove of Ward 15; Laing of Ward 24; Durant of Ward 12; Wiggin of Ward 17; and Truene of Ward 20 were appointed as tellers.

The result of the informal ballot was 115 votes, the chairman not voting of which, Samuel J. Barrows had 54, Harrison A. Atwood 24, Milton C. Paige 22, W. W. Towle 10, J. Payson Bradley 4 and Bliss 1.

At this time the outer doors were opened and the waiting crowd permitted to enter. The room was full of smoke, and someone wanted to prohibit smoking, which raised a chorus of No's.

The air was heavy and Mr. Faxon stepped to the platform to open a window. The window stuck but after some work it came down and everybody cheered.

Upon motion, an informal ballot was taken, resulting as follows: Barrows, 50; Atwood, 31; Paige, 20; Towle, 11; Bradley, 4.

From what could be seen the Quincy delegates were voting as follows: Ward One for Bradley, Ward Two and a part of Ward Three for Atwood, and the remainder of Ward Three, Wards Four, Five and Six were supporting Barrows.

From this time on ballots were taken as fast as possible. On some Atwood would gain one, only to lose it on the next ballot, and it was so with the other candidates, although the twelve votes from Ward 12, stuck firmly to Towle. When either of the candidates gained there were cheers.

On the sixth ballot Paige gained three votes and as Mr. Paige entered the hall about that time there was a shout of "What is the matter with Paige!" "What is the matter with Paige!" "He's all right!" "There's plenty of cream in that milk!"

Mr. Barrows was not present, but Mr. Atwood was, and he was constantly on the move among his supporters, and when his ward was called to vote it frequently happened that the tellers had to shout Ward 24 several times before his attention was attracted.

About 11 o'clock a few sandwiches found their way into the hall, and later they came in larger quantities.

Some thought that the Quincy delegations would leave for the late train, but that is where they made their mistake, for they were stayers, and were prepared to stay a week if necessary. Only one Quincy delegate left for the late train, but his place was filled.

After midnight several attempts were made to adjourn but it did not go and the balloting went merrily on. It was about 3.30 when the 35th ballot was announced with no choice, and at this time a motion to adjourn until next Wednesday was carried. A summary of the balloting follows:

	Barrows	Atwood	Paige	Towle	Bradley	Total
First,	54	24	22	10	4	115
Second,	50	31	20	11	4	116
Third,	50	30	21	11	4	116
Fourth,	49	30	21	12	4	116
Fifth,	49	32	20	12	3	116
Sixth,	48	32	23	12	1	116
Seventh,	48	30	22	12	4	116
Eighth,	47	31	22	12	4	116
Ninth,	47	31	22	12	4	116
Tenth,	47	31	23	12	4	117
Eleventh,	47	30	23	12	4	116
Twelfth,	47	30	23	12	4	116
Thirteenth,	49	29	22	12	4	116
Fourteenth,	48	30	22	12	4	116
Fifteenth,	45	32	22	13	4	116
Sixteenth,	48	31	21	12	4	116
Seventeenth,	48	31	23	12	1	115
Eighteenth,	48	30	24	12	2	116
Nineteenth,	47	33	21	12	5	118
Twentieth,	46	30	23	12	5	116
Twenty-first,	50	31	21	12	2	116
Twenty-second,	49	31	20	12	4	116
Twenty-third,	49	30	19	11	5	114
Twenty-fourth,	51	31	19	12	3	116
Twenty-fifth,	49	31	20	12	4	116
Twenty-sixth,	49	31	20	12	4	116
Twenty-seventh,	48	23	19	12	5	117
Twenty-eighth,	50	30	22	12	2	116
Twenty-ninth,	48	30	20	12	5	115
Thirtieth,	51	34	24	2	5	116
Thirty-first,	53	35	25	0	3	116
Thirty-second,	50	33	22	8	3	116
Thirty-third,	48	33	21	10	4	116
Thirty-fourth,	49	31	23	10	2	115
Thirty-fifth,	48	31	22	12	3	115

Mr. Bliss receives one vote on the first ballot.

Fifty-nine votes were necessary for a choice and Congressman Barrows often had over 50 and once 53.

An adjournment was made until next Wednesday.

Old Landmarks.

Quincy, October 5th, 1898.

Editors Quincy Ledger:

Hon. Chares Francis Adams in the appendix to his address in commemoration of the one hundredth anniversary of the incorporation of the Town of Quincy decries forcibly, intelligently and justly, the indifference of the bulk of our townspeople to old landmarks and nomenclature. Among other silly changes he mentions the renaming of "President's Lane," built by President John Adams to reach his cow pasture in "Stony Field," now known to us as the Whitwell street region. Quincy's first postmaster, Hon. Richard Cranch, who kept the post office in a small building on the estate owned by the late James Edwards on School street built a house in Stony Field the cellar of which may be seen to this day. This ancient lane well known to our forebears as President's Lane, was for some unknown and incomprehensible reason renamed "Goffe street," although there is not the slightest doubt that the Regicide Goffe never stepped foot in Quincy, and probably not in Massachusetts.

There is common sense and reason in Mr. Adams' complaint, and it is time that this silly vandalism ceased. How interesting it is to read of "Furnace Brook" and learn that is has borne that name since the first iron furnace in the United States was built upon its banks. The most glaring instance of this vandalism was when the name of the locality known as Massachusetts Fields, the parade ground of the Indians tribe from which this Commonwealth took its name, was changed to Norfolk Downs, an inapplicable Anglo-Maniac distortion. The defeat of the efforts of certan residents in the southern end of the city to change the name of historic "Lawyers' Lane" into something "modern" will be remembered with joy by all lovers of history.

It is time this sort of thing should cease and by giving space to this letter a few more converts may be made.

Your reader, SETTLER.

Incendiary Frustrated.

Officer Bradley saved the members of the fire department from having their sleep disturbed this morning. It was about 1.30 o'clock when the officer discovered on fire the old stone sheds of Thomas Carey, which are located in the triangle bounded by Copeland, Centre and West streets.

The fire at that time was in the blacksmith shop, and was working through the sides. The officer was able to extinguish the fire with water without calling out the department. An examination of the premises showed that oil had been used to start the fire.

☞ It makes men tired to beat their carpets; that's why they send them to our electric beater. It does the work so thoroughly too. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

LOCAL NEWS TRACK.

Some Colts which are Sure Winners Every Heat.

A large number of Atlantic people went to the Brockton fair today.

Timothy Golden, clerk at T. Gurney's, is enjoying his vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Sidelinger of Melrose, Mass., are visiting relatives in Quincy.

Mayor Sears is a guest of the Brockton city government today at the Brockton fair.

The Hibernians of Atlantic will hold a dance in Music hall, the middle of the month.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Burkhardt have returned to their winter home in Brookline.

The first foot ball game in the dual league will be played at Merrymount Park, Friday afternoon between Adams and Thayer academies.

The many who enjoyed the popular series of dances in Music hall, Atlantic, last winter, will be pleased to learn that they are to be continued the coming winter.

Sagamore street was in a very bad condition Wednesday, during the rain. On account of the new concrete sidewalk the water could not run off and consequently settled in the street.

This evening the fifth anniversary of the installation of the Rev. James E. Bagley as pastor of the Wollaston Unitarian society will be appropriately observed by a reception tendered to him in the church vestry.

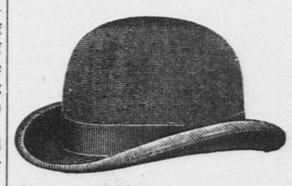

Mr. A. W. Stetson leaves today for Pittsburg, Pa., to take part in the Knight Templars Conclave, going by the way of Philadelphia, Gettysburg, and Luray Caverns, returning by the way of Harpers Ferry, Washington and Old Point Comfort.

One of the society events of the season at Wollaston will be the reception tendered by the officers and the executive committee of the Unity club to the members and friends on Friday evening, Oct. 14, at the Unitarian church.

The evening service at the Atlantic Methodist church on Sunday will be made attractive and instructive by a stereopticon exhibition of Lew Wallace's great book, Ben Hur. The pictures as nearly as possible represent the interesting and critical events in the short career of the hero. A brief recitation of the story will follow the pictures.

George H. Brown & Co. report the following recent real estate sales: House on Rock View road for Alfred F. Powers to M. A. Galvin. Lot of land at the lot of land at the corner of Independence avenue and Bennington street, for estate of S. Henry Barnicoat, to Margaret A. McDonald, who will build for her own occupancy. Cottage at Bay Side, North Weymouth, for Alfred Shales to M. A. Parker.

Mutual Life
OF NEW YORK.
Do You Want
Life Insurance?
Do You Want
Fire Insurance?
If so, call on
GEORGE H. FIELD,
1 Durgin & Merrill's Block, Quincy,
and you will find the best Companies at Lowest Rates.
MONEY LOANED ON REAL ESTATE.

DISSATISFIED
BUYERS OF HATS
Can best be suited by buying
CHAMBERLAIN'S BEACONSFIELD $3.00 DERBY,
OR HIS
REVELATION $2.00 DERBY.
They hold their Shape and Color.
663 WASHINGTON STREET, BOSTON.
Opposite Beach Street.
Hats and Furnishings.
Sept. 15 L 17-4w o

Gentlemen, Buy Your....
OVERCOATS
Where you can find the best assortment in the city and the lowest prices, which is at
C. F. DERBY'S, SAVINGS BANK BUILDING, QUINCY.

"Please Pass the Salt."
You often lay the fault to the salt shaker when the salt won't sift out. In nine cases out of ten you may blame the salt itself—it cakes!
Crystaline Salt won't cake because all the moisture has been dried out by intense heat. It is all salt—pure salt crystals.
It is not an "earthy" salt—there is too much dirt in ordinary salt because it is simply ground and not sifted as it ought to be.
CRYSTALINE SALT--- 8 CENTS.
BOSTON BRANCH GROCERY,
Durgin & Merrill's Block, - Quincy.

WATCHES.
GENT'S WATCHES, $1.50 and Up.
LADIES' WATCHES, $2.50 and Up.
EVERY WATCH WARRANTED.
$2.00 Belts, $1.00 Each.
75c. Brooch Pins, 25c. Each.
25 and 35c. Stick Pins, 5 and 10c. Ea.
Quincy SOUVENIR TILES Half Price,
And Other Bargains.
A. A. LINSCOTT, Jeweler,
154 Hancock St., opp. Post Office, Quincy.
Agent for Graphophones.
aug 6. tf

Lamson & Hubbard

Fall Style, 1898.
1898. Fall Style. 1898.
We are prepared to show all the latest Hats for Fall wear from the blocks of the best makers.
An early call will secure you a selection from a fine assortment.
GEO. W. JONES,
Adams Building, Quincy.

GEO. AMES,
the ONLY PRACTICAL PLUMBER in the Hardware business in the City. He has a patent SEWER TRAP which cannot be beat. Impossible for deadly sewer gas to enter your homes. See him about your Sewer Connection. He has had three years' experience in Boston and other large cities. Established here in 1889 and still in it. Work done anywhere.
Hardware, Paints and Oils, Putty and Glass, Yacht Supplies, Steam and Gas Fittings. Steam and Hot Air Heaters put in repair for the winter.
ADAMS BUILDING

....

ATS

rtment in the city and

AVINGS BANK BUILDING,
QUINCY.

ou often lay the fault he salt shaker when salt won't sift out.
nine cases out of ten may blame the salt
lf—it cakes!
Crystaline Salt won't en dried out by in-crystals.

CRYSTALINE
SALT---
8 CENTS.

ROCERY, k, - Quincy.

IES.

and Up.
HES, $2.50 and Up.
RRANTED.
ch.
c. Each.
ns, 5 and 10c. Ea.
LES Half Price,
rgains.

T, Jeweler,
st Office, Quincy. phones.
tf

898. Fall Style. 1898.

We are prepared to show
the latest Hats for Fall ear from the blocks of the st makers.
An early call will secure u a selection from a fine sortment.

JONES,
Quincy.

MES,
UMBER in the Hard-
has a patent SEWER Impossible for deadly mes. See him about has had three years' ther large cities. Esstill in it. Work done ass, Yacht Supplies, Steam and in repair for the winter.
ILDING

Carpetings.

Buying a carpet is serious business, and the first thought is to find a carpet that will always wear well and look attractive.

We make a specialty of strong, serviceable carpetings in choice designs at money-saving prices only.

There isn't a store in the whole country that can supply your demands as well as we can.

Hundreds of the latest and choicest designs in Wools, Tapestries and Brussels. Your inspection and comparison cheerfully solicited.

Cotton and Wool Carpetings, 25c. to 45c.
All Wool Carpetings, 45c. to 65c.
Heavy Tapestries, 45c. to 85c.

HENRY L. KINCAIDE & CO.,
Reliable, Low Priced House Furnishers.
Hancock Street, - - - Quincy, Mass.

Quality Right.
Quantity Right.
Service Right.

C. PATCH & SON.

Coal and Wood.

SWITHIN BROS.
REAL ESTATE!

President's Hill.
President's Hill Annex.
Cranch Hill.

Choice Lots and Improved Property for Sale in West Quincy, Wollaston, South Quincy, Quincy Point, Quincy Centre

Room 12, Durgin & Merrill's Block, Quincy.

SOMETHING YOU WANT.

Fresh Vegetables.

We Receive Them Every Day.

All Kinds in Their Season

L. M. PRATT & CO.,
25 School Street.

Always a good assortment at our branch store, 105 Water street.

Quincy, June 18.

TELL US . .
What you are looking for.

We can show you a fine line of

FALL AND WINTER
UNDERWEAR,
HOSIERY,
Outing Flannels, Flannelettes,
Plaid Dress Goods,
WRAPPERS, BLANKETS,
Comforters,
Dress Linings and other Dry Goods.

OUR STOCK IS FRESH.
OUR PRICES THE LOWEST.

MISS C. S. HUBBARD,
158 Hancock Street.

LATEST!

ENTHUSIASM

By Republicans for the Old State Ticket.

Gov. Wolcott Again the Standard Bearer.

Convention in Favor of Retaining Captured Territory.

[Special Dispatch to the Daily Ledger.]

The Republican State convention which convened this morning at ten o'clock at Music hall, Boston, was harmonious and enthusiastic.

The report on credentials showed 1,178 present.

The address of Congressman Moody the permanent chairman seemed to have the right ring to please the delegates and was received with approval.

Senator Lodge made one of his masterly speeches on the issues of the day.

The platform was of unusual interest and declared in favor of retaining the territory seized in the late war.

The old ticket was renominated and received with cheers as follows:

For Governor—Roger Wolcott of Boston.

For Lieutenant Governor—W. Murray Crane of Dalton.

For Secretary of State—William M. Olin of Boston.

For Treasurer—Edward P. Shaw of Newburyport.

For Auditor—John W. Kimball of Fitchburg.

For Attorney General—Hosea M. Knowlton of New Bedford.

More New Voters.

The rain Wednesday night doubtless prevented a large number from calling upon the Registrars of Voters. The total number added was twenty-three, of which eight were restored, viz:

Ward One—Andrew A. Meyers, William T. Crockett, George Mullen, Martin Nicholson, William R. Bateman, Stephen R. Gurney, John Houlihan.

Ward Two—Jeffrey Durant, Edward J. Gloney, Herbert F. Caldwell, Hugh P. Tracey, John J. Day.

Ward Three, Precinct One—Peter Buchanan.

Ward Three, Precinct Two—Timothy O'Brien.

Ward Four, Precinct One—Charles Belanger, Jr.

Ward Four, Precinct Two—Joseph F. Dillon, William R. Bissett, John O'Donovan.

Ward Five—Norris W. Buckler, Ephraim A. Snow.

Ward Six—Patrick H. Parry, Louis H. Rinn, James W. Sullivan.

Freedom Party.

Mr. Edgar E. Prince of Newport avenue, Wollaston, has attained his majority and was tendered a freedom party at his home Monday evening in honor of the occasion. A number of his friends were present from Quincy and Dorchester. The young man was given a gold watch by his mother, Mrs. L. E. Prince. A general good time followed and refreshments were served. During the evening musical selections on an Æolian were enjoyed and when the party left they showered Mr. Prince with wishes for a long and happy life.

Library Branch.

Rev. H. C. Wright of the Methodist church at Atlantic was present at the meeting of the trustees of the Thomas Crane public library, Wednesday evening, and presented the desire of a few Atlantic people that a branch reading room be opened there. He thought the people would provide room and care if the library would supply books. The reverend gentleman said he had consulted but few other people of the ward. The board requested that Mr. Wright secure the opinion of Atlantic generally, by petition or otherwise and report.

The Plant System.

The Hotel Managers of the Plant System of hotels in Florida will be as follows for the coming season of 1898-99:

Tampa Bay Hotel, Tampa, Fla., A. E. Dick, Manager.

Hotel Belleview, Belleair, Fla., W. A. Barron, Manager.

Seminole Hotel, Winter Park, Fla., O. L Frisbee, Manager.

Ocala House, Ocala, Fla., Phil F. Brown, Manager.

Hotel Kissimmee, Kissimmee, Fla.

Port Tampa Inn, Port Tampa, Fla., S. M. Hannah, Superintendent.

For information as to hotel rates, address Managers, and as to railroad and steamship rates and schedules,

B. W. WRENN,
Passenger Traffic Manager.

TODAY'S COURT.

Arthur Caddy was arraigned for the larceny of $8 at Quincy from some party unknown. Case continued until next Thursday.

Allen McKay was fined $5 for larceny at Quincy.

The continued cases against Patrick Murphy of Quincy for non support and drunkenness were again continued two weeks.

IN THE CITY NURSERY

Young Saplings Which Together Assume Importance.

A grand day.

Brockton is in it yet.

Almost everybody has gone to the Brockton fair today.

Some preferred Wednesday's weather to that of Tuesday.

Mrs. Ralph J. Saxe of Wollaston is visiting friends at Hartford, Conn.

There was a steady stream of tally hos and stylish turnouts passing through the city today for the Brockton fair.

Auctioneer Johnson will have a sale of groceries and furniture at Quincy Neck next Tuesday at the residence of the late Eben A. Stinchfield.

The next meeting of the Norfolk County Teachers' Association will be held Oct 2 at Tremont Temple, Boston. A particularly interesting programme has been prepared and will include an address by Supt. Lull on primary work and a paper by Miss Miriam Lane.

The many admirers of Leon H. Vincent, the popular biographical and critical lecturer on English and American literature, will welcome the announcement that he is to deliver another course of lectures at the Wollaston Congregational church, under the auspices of the Ladies' Benevolent society. The subject of the first lecture, will be "William Dean Howells." Other lectures will be: "Lowell as a Critic and Letter Writer"; "Trollope and Reade"; and "Barrie and the New Scotch School."

AT CAMP MEADE.

Co. K Pleased to Receive Large Box of Delicacies.

Headquarters Co. K, 5th Mass.
Camp Meade (annex) Oct. 4

The evening parade held last night was reviewed by our commanding officer, Major Morrison. The parade formed on grounds recently vacated by the battalion of the 13th Pennsylvania. Although the ground is not level, the line was kept straight.

A large box was received by the Commissary Department of Co. at 5 last night. When Quartermaster Sergeant Crane opened the case his eyes fell upon a quantity of canned tomatoes, consomme, ox-tail soup, canned roast beef, 5 pound canister of Java and Mocha coffee, a number of cans of cocoa, etc. He ordered Chief Cook Delano to open some cans of ox-tail soup, and he quickly responded, so that by 5.30, when the supper call was sounded by the battalion bugler, the company marched up for their rations. To their great surprise, they were issued some steaming hot soup, and a dipper of Java and Mocha coffee, the best we have had since we were in service. We greatly appreciate the kind act of the donors, for at present our Commissary is rather short. It helps make up our needed rations.

Corporal Delano has resigned his position as chief cook at company's kitchen and will hereafter reside in K street. Private Tucker will fill the vacancy. We hope he will be successful in his new undertaking. It is a hard task to run a kitchen, for the feeding of 103 men every day. Some tall figuring must be done. Then company cooks have to remain up all night sometimes to have rations ready for the morning's meal. Privates G. P. Clapp and F. E. Clapp were detailed to assist in company kitchen. Private F. E. Clapp is an experienced cook, so that the boys will enjoy some dainties in the near future.

Our renowned baker, Private Myles Clarke, has decided to return with the other cooks to company street. He was renowned for the best baker of bread, that was at Camp Dalton. Here a large bakery is established near Brigade Headquarters, so that it does away with all company bakers.

This morning is very misty again. The drill of one hour's duration, consisted of platoon movements, skirmishing and firings.

No serious cases of sickness in this detachment; the boys are getting acclimated to Pennsylvania air and water.

The guard details for tomorrow will consist of Corporal Haskins, Privates Serberg, Briggs, Bailey, Brown, Belcher, Burns, Bowler, J. Buckley, R. F. Buckley.

These will receive 24 hour passes: Corporal Johnson, McPhee, Mead, Morales, Malcolm.

After a warm muggy day it rained hard this afternoon, making the air much cooler and pleasanter. DOC.

☞ A written guarantee that our prices are as low and invariably lower for better goods, than any other furniture house in the country. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

—Horse-chestnuts are dropping now, and the children are picking them up on the way home from school with great delight.

☞ Furniture reupholstered and mattresses made over. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

A Cabinet Officer and His Library—Washington Relics—A Good Word For the Czar.

[Special Correspondence.]

They tell a story of a very prominent man who within recent times became a member of a president's cabinet. In any event, the story is a true one, and that is the main thing. This cabinet man hadn't been in Washington very long, hardly long enough to get used to the hotel life there, and that doesn't take long, although it involves much. He was a man of family, he had means, he wanted a suitable house, chiefly in order that he might dwell therein and incidentally for purposes of entertainment, for there are some cabinet members who have the means and the family to entertain, and he was one of them. Finally after considerable search he got just the house he wanted, fine and large and in a most convenient location with respect to the White House and the department of which he was chief. The house was completely furnished except in one respect. Its owner, who had just been summoned to represent this government at a diplomatic post, had chosen to take his books with him. The library shelves were vacant. Hardly a government report or a census record was left to accentuate the literary isolation of that once cozy room. The cabinet man was just a little vexed, only for a moment, however. He knew he could buy two or three libraries at the Washington stores if he wanted them and thus fill up the gap, but his alert mind solved the problem in a hurry, and in a very short time all the shelves were filled in response to this telegram, which he sent to an agent at his home in—well, it was not so far west as Manila or even so far distant as Ponce:

"Send me by freight 250 running feet of books for library."

Then he went to the cabinet meeting and told the president and his colleagues how he had solved the problem. And he has never understood to this day why the grave president and his serious cabinet smiled when he told how he had ordered a library by the yard.

Washington Relics.

One of the most interesting relics in the National museum and one that is attracting especial attention during these days, when warlike matters interest so many visitors to the capitol, is the camp chest used by Washington throughout the Revolution. It is a compact affair about the size of a tourist's wicker chest for cooking, of the present day, 2½ feet long, 2 feet wide, 1 foot high, and it contains an outfit consisting of tinder box, pepper and salt boxes, bottles, knives, forks, gridiron and plates. Every bit of the outfit save one bottle, which is broken at the shoulder, looks strong enough to stand another campaign.

Near by are the tents used by Washington, three in number. One is a sleeping tent, 28 feet long, with walls 6 feet high and a roof with a six foot pitch. It is made of linen. The other two are marquee tents of smaller size, one with walls, the other a shelter tent open on the sides. That the tenting material of Revolutionary days was good stuff is proved by the excellent condition of these tents, which sheltered the great commander through all his severe campaigns.

Here also is Washington's uniform, worn by him when he gave up his commission as commander in chief of the army, at Annapolis, in 1783. It consists of a big shadbelly coat of blue broadcloth, lined and trimmed with soft buckskin and ornamented with broad, flat brass buttons; buckskin waistcoat and breeches. The size of the garments (which are in a state of excellent preservation) testify to the big stature of the Father of His Country and suggest that he had an eye to a fine appearance in his dress.

A Good Word For the Czar.

"The world has not yet heard the last of the proposal of the czar of Russia in regard to cutting down the huge standing armies of Europe," said General George B. Williams. General Williams is a most competent authority on international subjects. He has visited Russia time and again and but recently sojourned several months in St. Petersburg.

"In making this announcement to the powers the czar was absolutely sincere. He believes, along with other humane, wise and philanthropic men, that the time for disarmament is ripe. He can see no reason in the system that makes of Europe an armed camp and impoverishes the people to support hordes of uniformed men in idleness. The tax is too great, the drain on productive industry too severe, and Nicholas, in voicing his opposition to a prolongation of the intolerable situation, has shown himself one of the most enlightened and farseeing statesmen of the world as well as one of the greatest hearted."

"Does Russia object to our acquisition of territory in the east?"

"No; for throughout the war Russia maintained a consistent attitude of friendship toward the United States. We can count on her friendship always. By no sort of mischance can there come a rupture in the cordial relations between the great republic and the government of the czar."

The Panama Canal.

"Although there is not much talk about it in the newspapers, the construction work now in progress on the Panama canal is on a scale of magnitude which will bring the enterprise to a successful issue," said Mr. B. L. Hewson of the isthmus of Panama.

"There are now over 4,000 men employed on the canal, and the work is being done in a thorough and scientific fashion. Had the first company proceeded as carefully as the present one, the canal would have been in operation long ere this, but the first company squandered millions of dollars without hardly leaving a thing to show for the money that was spent like water."

CARL SCHOFIELD.

LAND VALUES.

Continued from page 1.

WARD FOUR.

Kelliher, Dennis, est., 5 40
10,233, Grove, $400.
Keating, Mrs. Elizabeth 29 70
8,140, Filbert, $250.
5,440, " $200.
Keeley, Rosanna
34,000, off Common, $300.
Kelley, Alice 38 70
22,000, Copeland, $1,300.
Kelley, Annie F., guardian, 75 60
9,180, Crescent, $1,200.
Kelley, Bridget 2 70
6,032, Hillside park, $150.
Kelley, James E. 52 20
32,000, West, $1,300.
20,869, Centre, $900.
Kelley, James W. 7 40
18,000, Sheep Rock, $300.
Kelley, William 45 20
6,113, Buckley, $300.
Kelley, Patrick 17 30
5,000, off Grove, $250.
Kelliher, Patrick 2 70
7,041, Hillside park, $150.

WARD FIVE.

Kay, Simpson, $84 60
About 15,000 feet, Beale street, $1,200.
Keep, Alice W. 9 00
10,187, Lot 1, Bl. 1, Sec., 4, $500.
Keith, Margaret 41 40
4,250, Wendall ave., $250.
Keith, Havelock 38 90
4,250, Wendall ave., $250.
Keith, Mary R. 90 90
24,877, Hancock, $2,500.
Kelso, James L. 7 20
6,030, Lot 18, Sec. 6, $400.
Kennedy, Charles F. 57 80
4,900, Davis, $400.
Kennedy, William H, Jr., 4 95
4,200, Beach, $275.
Keating, Emily F. 46 80
4,850, Brooks, $600.

WARD SIX.

Kelcher, Michael $37 10
5,764 feet, Myrtle street, $350.
Kelleher, Elizabeth 45 90
9,570, Old Colony, $650.

[To be continued.]

You should save a file of the Ledger while this list is being printed. We cannot supply back numbers of the paper at 2 cents per copy, but have established this rate: Papers one week old, 5 cents; papers one month old, 10 cents; papers one year old, 25 cents.

NOTICE TO VOTERS.

CITY OF QUINCY.

For the purpose of preparing the Annual Register of Voters, and of receiving evidence of qualification from persons claiming a right to Vote at the coming State Election, the Board of Registrars of Voters will be in session at the COUNCIL CHAMBER in the City Hall Building, on the evenings of

Wednesday, Sept. 14,
Saturday, Sept. 17,
Thursday, Sept. 29,
Saturday, Oct. 1,
Wednesday, Oct. 5.
Saturday, Oct. 8,
Saturday, Oct. 15,

From 7 to 9 P. M., and also on

Wednesday, Oct. 19,

From 12 o'clock M. until 10 o'clock P. M.

Every applicant for registration must appear in person before the Board, and must present either a certificate from the Assessors or a Tax bill or Notice from the Collector of Taxes, showing that he has been assessed as a resident of the City on the First day of May last; or a certificate from the Assessors that he has been a resident of the City for the six months next preceding the election at which he claims a right to vote. If a naturalized citizen he must also produce for inspection his papers of naturalization. Payment of a poll tax is not a prerequisite to voting.

No person can vote at the election unless his name has previously been placed upon the voting list of the Ward of which he was a resident on the first day of May last, and no name can be added to the list of voters unless registered previous to

Wednesday, Oct. 19th,

at 10 o'clock P. M., when registration will close.

Examine the Voting Lists posted, and see that your name is in its proper place. NO CHANGE can be made after WEDNESDAY, Oct. 19th, at 10 o'clock P. M. The Board of Assessors will be in session at their office on the same evenings.

EDWARD B. MARSH,
CORNELIUS MOYNIHAN,
EDWARD J. McKEON,
EDGAR G. CLEAVES,
Registrars.

Quincy, Sept. 6, 1898. 38t p10-2w

MABEL F. FAIRBANKS
TEACHER OF
CHINA PAINTING and WATERCOLOR.
China Decorated to Order.
34 Grand View Avenue, Wollaston.
Sept. 29. 3m

DR. HERBERT S. HAYFORD
195 Hancock Street.
OFFICE HOURS—11 to 12 A. M., 2 to 4 and 7 to 8 P. M.
Telephone, 4-3.
Quincy, July 5. tf

WORMS
In Children or Adults. The safest and most effectual remedy made is
TRUE'S PIN WORM ELIXIR
In use 47 years. 25c. Ask your Druggist for it.
Dr. J. F. TRUE & CO., Auburn, Me.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS.

Advertisements in this column inserted at the following rates:

Four lines, or less, one day, - - 25 cents.
" " three days, - - - 50 cents.
" " one week, - - - - 75 cents.

Additional lines will be charged for pro rata Seven words equal a line. Long term rates furnished on application.

LOST.

LOST—A Brown Purse with money and samples, marked Spaulding, between Neponset and Quincy. Call at Ledger office and receive reward.
Quincy, Oct. 5. 2t

WANTED.

WANTED—Girl, willing and capable to take care of children and assist as second girl. MRS. GEO. H. BROWN, 44 Elm street, Quincy. sep28 tf

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—An extra good family Cow at Pierce's Hotel, Hough's Neck.
Quincy, Oct. 4. 3t

TO LET.

TO LET—On Washington street, at the corner of Wibird street, a very desirable house for a small family. Six rooms, two of them new, and all in good repair. Rent, $15. City water. Concrete sidewalk in front of the house extending to the depot. Apply only to FRANK F. PRESCOTT, at the Ledger office or at 14 Bigelow street. tf

TO LET—Cottage house, No. 29 Granite street, 8 rooms, three minutes' from City Square. Apply to H. M. FAXON, 4 Adams Building. Sept. 30—tf

TO LET—Half a House of 5 rooms entirely separate on Phipps street, Mt. Pleasant. Rent, $8 a month; city water. Inquire at 17 Summer street.
Quincy, Sept. 27. 12t

FOR RENT—Desirable house with bath, corner lot, nice neighborhood, three minutes' walk from schools, churches and depot Rent reasonable. Apply at No. 6 Pleasant St.
Quincy, Sept. 7. tf

TO LET—A pleasant tenement of six rooms; newly papered and painted throughout. Centrally located on a main street within five minutes' walk of Quincy depot. Rent, $15. Address "House," Lock Box L, Quincy.
Oct. 4. tf

TO LET.

Half House on Granite street, near depot; $15.00.

Half House on Washington street, near Universalist church; $11.00.

New House, 6 rooms and bath; Back Bay land, $16.50.

Apply to FRANK F. CRANE,
Oct. 5—6t 4 Chestnut St., Quincy.

TO LET IN QUINCY.

SOUTHERLY Half of house with stable, 214 Hancock street, now occupied by Dr. N. S. Hunting. Modern improvements, central location. Possession given about October 15th.
Apply on premises to MISS M. F. UNDERWOOD.
Oct. 1. tf

TO LET.

APARTMENTS of five large rooms and bath, with all modern improvements. Also two large stores. Rent moderate. Apply to ARTHUR CRAIG, or J. W. HAYDEN, at Craig Building, cor. Copeland and Garfield Sts.
Quincy, July 15. pl tf

TO LET.

If you have a vacant tenement, advertise the fact in the Daily Ledger. We are confident it will be let within two months, and to substantiate the claim, we will advertise it after two months. To take advantage of this offer payment must be made before the expiration of the two months. A four-line space until your house is let will cost only $5 at the outside. You cannot afford on these terms to let the house continue vacant.

FREE

FOR SALE.

Bigelow St. Fine New Residence, 9 rooms, bath, laundry, furnace, open plumbing, cemented cellar, fireplace, etc.
R. D. CHASE,
Savings Bank Building.
Quincy, April 8-tf. 9p-tf

FISH.

Everything first-class at the

Cape Cod Fish Market,

Temple Street.

All kinds Fresh, Salt, Smoked and Pickeled

Quincy, Feb. 8. 1y

GAIL BORDEN EAGLE BRAND CONDENSED MILK.

TAKE NO SUBSTITUTE FOR THE "EAGLE BRAND"
THOUSANDS OF MOTHERS TESTIFY TO ITS SUPERIORITY.
"INFANT HEALTH" SENT FREE. NEW YORK CONDENSED MILK CO. N.Y.

Special Opening!

Flannelette Undergarments.

New Goods and Very Low Prices When the Quality is Considered.

These Goods are made for Men, Women and Children.

Call and Examine the Goods. You will Buy Them.

D. E. WADSWORTH & CO.,
Hancock Street, - - - Quincy.

Banner Oil Heaters

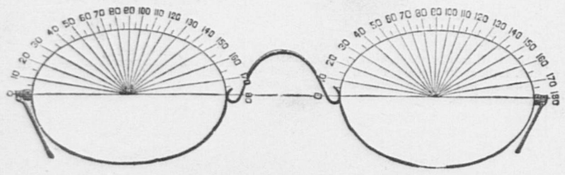

It's the easiest thing in the world to catch cold during the early October evenings. Just a trifle early to start your furnace fire, and yet you need something to take the chill from your room. The BANNER OIL HEATER is just the thing. A powerful little stove going at full blast in a twinkling. Costs almost nothing to run and makes your room warm and cosy in a few minutes' time. Absolutely safe, a child can take it from one room to another. Price, $4.50.

HENRY L. KINCAIDE & CO.
COSY HOUSE FURNISHERS,
Hancock Street, : : Quincy.

MAKE IT HOT FOR YOU.

If your house is cold and you have become disgusted with the various devices called heaters, and you are really anxious to have warmth and comfort in your home, place an order for one of those G. B. Bates CIRCULATORS. It will "make it hot for you" or just the temperature you desire. Its construction is based upon scientific and economical principles. Several have recently been put in right here in Quincy, and others will be put in during the next few weeks. Don't read this ad. and then forget about it till your water pipes are all frozen, but go now to

G. B. BATES,
Hancock Street, Quincy.

ASTIGMATISM

Causes most of the distressing headaches. Properly fitted glasses will correct the error and remove the pain. Consult

WILLIAMS,
Member of the New England Association of Opticians,
104 Hancock St., Quincy.

NOTHING BETTER,
UNCLE SAM'S NAVY

Now commands the respect of the world, and we are all proud of the defenders of the Nation's Honor. To give the people of Quincy a good idea of the grand battleships, we have ordered a large supply of portfolios, giving magnificent views of the ships, crews, etc.

With each purchase made at our store we will give a portfolio check to the value of the purchase. When you have $4.00 worth of these checks, return them and get a portfolio. Continue in this way until you have the set complete. Call and see these magnificent portfolios.

ROGERS BROS.,
Groceries and Provisions. Adams Building, Quincy.

ROOSEVELT'S RALLY.

Big Turnout of Admirers of the Cuban Fighter.

Political Fight In the Metropolis Opened.

Urged the Abandonment of the Life of "Fossilized Isolation."

New York, Oct. 6.—Jammed from top to bottom with a cheering throng, Carnegie hall was the scene last night of the mass meeting that opened the campaign of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt. In the rush to secure admission, men fought each other and women screamed that they were being crushed to death. A hundred policemen tried to keep the people back, but were powerless to do so. When Colonel Roosevelt appeared on the platform the spectators leaped up, cheering and waving hats and handkerchiefs.

Colonel Roosevelt was given an ovation, being cheered for several minutes when he arose to speak. He said: "First and foremost this campaign is a campaign for good government in the nation and the state. If I am elected governor I shall try to make good the promises, both expressed and implied, made on behalf of my candidacy for I shall try to so administer the affairs of the state as to make each citizen a little prouder of the state, and I shall do my best to serve my party by helping it serve the people. So far as in me lies, I shall see that every branch of the government under me is administered with integrity and capacity, and when I deal with any public servant, I shall not be very patient with him if he lacks capacity, and short indeed will be his shrift if he lacks integrity.

"There comes a time in the life of a nation, as in the life of an individual, when it must face great responsibilities, whether it will or no. We have now reached that time. We cannot avoid facing the fact that we occupy a new place among the people of the world and have entered upon a new career. All that we can decide is whether we shall bear ourselves well or ill in following out this career. We can see by the fate of China how idle is the hope of courting safety by leading a life of fossilized isolation. If we stand aside from that keen rivalry with the other nations of the world to which we are bidden alike by our vast material resources and the restless, masterful spirit of our people, we would perhaps for a few decades be allowed to busy ourselves unharmed with interests which to the world at large seem parochial; but sooner of later, as the fate of China teaches us, the safety which springs from the contemptuous forbearance of others would prove a broken reed.

"We are ages from the millennium; and because we believe with all our hearts in the mighty mission of the American republic, we must spare no effort and shrink from no toil to make it great. Greatness means strife for nation and man alike. We must dare to be great; and we must realize that greatness is the fruit of toil and sacrifices and high courage. The guns of our warships in the tropic seas of the west and the remote east have awakened us to the knowledge of new duties. Our flag is a proud flag, and it stands for liberty and civilization. Where it has once floated, there must and shall be no return to tyranny or savagery. We are face to face with our destiny, and we must meet it with a high and resolute courage. For us is the life of action, of strenuous performance, of duty; let us live in the harness, striving mightily; let us rather run the risk of wearing out than rusting out.

"I should ask the people of this country to support the administration of President McKinley if for no other reason than because, say what you like, the victory at the polls of the men who are opposing and denouncing his administration in this election will be interpreted abroad as meaning on the part of America a repudiation of the war from which we have just emerged triumphant. It will strengthen the hands of every hostile power which views with jealousy our victories in the Antilles and the Philippines; it will mean that the nations that now secretly and enviously wish to clip the wings of our pride will be emboldened. It will result in the partial undoing of what our army and navy have accomplished. It will mean the chance of grave complications and the likelihood of our meeting obstacles when it comes to reaping the fruit of our triumph. We will gain less than we ought to from this war if the administration is not sustained at these elections.

"That the question of our national defences is a very real question and may at any time become of vital moment has been brought home to all of us within the last six months. This nation is a great, peaceable nation, both by the temper of its people and by its fortunate geographical situation, and is freed from maintaining such armament as those that cramp the limbs of powers of continental Europe. Nevertheless, events have shown that war is always a possibility even for us. Now the surest way to avert war, if it can be averted, is to be prepared to do well if forced to go to war. If we don't prepare for war in advance, then other powers will have a just contempt for us. They may at any time do things which would force us to make war, and which they would carefully refrain from doing if they were sure we were ready to resent them. Moreover, to go to war with a first-class power without adequate preparation is to invite humiliation and disaster at the outset. Our experience with the navy offers a case in point. Very soon after the Civil war, we let our navy run down until on the seas we became of less moment than any thrid-rate power. In consequence, we had occasionally to suffer from Spain, as in the Virginius affair, injuries which she would not have dreamed of inflicting had we been ready to retaliate.

"We want to build up our army, exactly as the navy has been built up within the last 15 years. We have got to show forethought, to spend money that is necessary for the task. We need a far larger regular army than we now have, and we need to have it trained on a larger scale than it has been trained on for the last quarter of a century. We don't need it in the least for police purposes at home, but we need it to protect our interests abroad."

Old Ticket Renominated.

Boston, Oct. 6.—In conformity with the custom so agreeable to officeholders and the convention delegates the night before the Republican convention was devoted to conferences, reunions, a great deal of handshaking and much refreshment. The miserable weather had much to do with a decreased attendance, but nevertheless the scenes were just as lively and interesting as usual. A band enlivened the air in the American House, and when it struck up "Hail to the Chief" in greeting to Governor Wolcott, Senator Lodge, and a party of state officials and prominent men of the party, there was a great rush to be in the reception.

When Chairman Goetting of the state committee called the delegates to order this forenoon in Music hall, few seats were vacant. Congressman Moody was introduced as permanent chairman and made an eloquent address.

After the formality of the appointing of committees, Senator Lodge was called on for a speech and responded with a forceful presenation of the issues of the day. The present officials were renominated by acclamation.

The most interesting plank of the platform is the position taken in regard to the territory taken in the war with Spain. The resolutions declare strongly against turning back to the conquered nation any territory where the American flag has been planted by American soldiers and sailors.

Democratic Majority Doubled.

Atlanta, Oct. 6.—Georgia voted yesterday for a governor, a full ticket of state officers and for a constitutional amendment, providing that judges and solicitors be elected by the people. Allen D. Candler, Democratic nominee for governor, was elected over Hogan, Populist, by not less than 70,000 majority this being more than double the Democratic majority for governor two years ago. The constitutional amendment is adopted.

Tomorrow's Almanac and Forecast.

Sun rises—5:48; sets, 5:15.
Moon rises—10:36 p. m.
High water—4:15 a. m.; 4:30 p. m.

The storm moved eastward over New England Wednesday, causing general rains, but at 8 p. m. the weather rapidly cleared, and fair, generally clear weather now seems certain the remainder of the week, with cooler, seasonable temperatures, and winds generally westerly. There are likely to be killing frosts in the northern districts, and light frosts in the southern mountain districts. Saturday, clear slightly cooler weather.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

The Chinese legation in Paris published an official communication denying all reports of the death of the emperor of China.

The Harvards defeated the Bowdoins easily yesterday afternoon, but not until the boys from Maine had scored a touchdown and a goal, making the final tally 28 to 6.

The ultimatum of the powers to Turkey insists that the Turkish troops must evacuate Crete within a month, and their withdrawal must commence within a fortnight at the latest.

Ambassador Porter gave a dinner to the American peace commissioners and Major General Merritt yesterday. He took the commissioners and their wives to Versailles in a four-in-hand coach.

Secretary Long has named the four new monitors contracted for last week as follows: That at Bath, the Connecticut; at Nixon's, the Florida; at Newport News, the Arkansas, and at San Francisco, Wyoming.

Secretary Long has made the positive announcement that he intended to recommend to congress that the grade of admiral be revived and that that rank be conferred on Rear Admiral Dewey. The president endorses the idea.

The American Sugar Refining company, in its war with the Arbuckles and other independent refiners, has made another reduction in the price of refined sugar. All domestic grades were reduced ⅛ cent, bringing granulated sugar down to 5⅛ cents.

City Treasurer Bonvouloir of Holyoke, who was nominated for state treasurer at the Democratic convention, intimates very strongly that he will decline the nomination. He does not positively refuse to accept, but will confer with the state committee before acting.

Governor Budd of California issued extradition papers in the case of Cordelia Botkin, accused of the poisoning of Mrs. John P. Dunnigan and her sister, Mrs. Joshua P. Deane of Wilmington, Del. The governor took this action to throw the case into the courts for decision.

The triple jubilee, to mark the 30th year of Bishop McQuade's service in the American Catholic hierarchy, his 50th year in the Roman Catholic priesthood and the 75th anniversary of the creation of St. Patrick's cathedral into a parish, was celebrated in Rochester, N. Y., yesterday.

A petition from Receiver J. W. Mason of the Hampshire County National bank of Northampton, Mass., has been granted, allowing for the compromise of a claim which the bank holds against Lewis Warner for six notes for $1000 each. The petition stated that Warner was unable to pay the full amount, and the receiver asked permission to compromise for $900.

Ornithologists have discovered that crows have no less than 27 cries, each distinctly referable to different action.

☞ Our $1.00 comforters are without a rival. Other prices from 75 cents to $3.50. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

SENATOR TO BE TRIED.

Preliminary Hearing Resulted to Quay's Disadvantage.

Prosecution Made Out a Very Strong Case.

Letters and Telegrams Sent to an Accommodating Cashier.

Philadelphia, Oct. 6.—United States Senator Quay, his son, Richard R. Quay and Charles R. McKee of Pittsburg, law partner of Lieutenant Governor Walter Lyon, appeared before a magistrate yesterday afternoon to answer to the charge of conspiracy in the alleged misuse of public monies in connection with John S. Hopkins, former cashier of the People's bank of this city, who committed suicide soon after the failure of the bank in March last. Ex-State Treasurer Haywood, for whom a warrant has been issued in connection with the conspiracy charge, was not in court but it is promised that he will be here on Friday to answer to his accuser.

After a hearing lasting over three hours, the three were bound over for appearance at the next term of court. Bail was fixed at $5000 in each case. The case goes on the list for trial at the term of court beginning in November.

The testimony produced by District Attorney Graham was in the shape of about 20 letters and numerous telegrams covering a period from September, 1897, to February, 1898, addressed by Senator Quay to Cashier Hopkins, directing the purchase and sale of large blocks of stock and arranging for the placing of margins, a letter from State Treasurer Haywood to the president of the People's bank; a letter and telegram from Haywood to the cashier of the bank, and a private memorandum book of Cashier Hopkins. The lawyers representing the accused fought hard against the introduction of the latter, but it went in as evidence nevertheless.

The district attorney averred that the evidence produced showed that Senator Quay had the use of $200,000 of the state's deposit of over $500,000 in the People's bank for stock speculation; that State Treasurer Haywood placed $100,000 of state funds in the People's bank to certain accounts, one-third of it going to Mr. McKee, all of which he claimed was a violation of the state law prohibiting a bank official from making such transactions, and that the accused persons were guilty of conspiracy in joining with Hopkins in these transactions.

There were only three witnesses. The first was Thomas W. Barlow, receiver for the People's bank, and who is also a special assistant district attorney. Mr. Barlow stated that in his capacity as receiver he opened the dead cashier's desk and found among other things a number of letters and telegrams, and a book containing memoranda in Hopkins' handwriting. This book, referred to by Lawyer Shields as "the red book," was about a foot square and contained 200 pages. It figured sensationally in the day's proceedings and was the subject of much controversy. Mr. Graham did not succeed in getting the "red book" in evidence until he placed his third witness, Mr. Goldsmith, an expert accountant, who has worked on the bank's books, on the stand. Mr. Shapley protested that all of the rules of evidence were against the admission of a private memorandum book in the manner sought by the district attorney and insisted that the bank's books should be produced. The magistrate finally stated that this case was of such importance he felt constrained to admit anything that would throw light upon the transactions. The lawyers for the accused were compelled to acquiesce in this, and the case proceeded rapidly to a close.

Quay Makes Denial.

Philadelphia, Oct. 6.—In response to an inquiry for a statement Mr. Quay said: "I think that no one who was present at the hearing today entertains any doubt as to the truthfulness of the charge boldly made by my counsel, that this proceeding was instigated by political enemies of mine who hide behind the district attorney and will not permit him to reveal their names; and that their sole purpose was to manufacture campaign literature by false charges that could not be met and answered except on a trial in court.

"Of course everybody knows that on such a hearing I could not be permitted to make any defense or show the falsity of these charges, and my counsel advise me it would be worse than useless to attempt to do so at this time and in such a proceeding; but you may be sure that I have instructed them to force this case to a speedy trial in a court where both sides can be heard, and after that to expose legally and punish to the utmost the instigators of this proceeding.

"As to the charges I have simply this to say that they are absolutely false and wholly without foundation. I have always had an account with the People's bank, and have frequently instructed Mr. Hopkins to have brokers buy for me stocks which I thought were likely to rise in value; but they were always bought with my own money, or upon my own credit, and upon thoroughly good collateral, and the People's bank was always amply protected for any loans I obtained from it. Not a single share of stock was ever bought for me either directly or indirectly with public money, and my letters which were offered in evidence themselves clearly show this; nor did I ever have the use or benefit, either directly or indirectly, to the extent of one penny of any of the state's money on deposit in the People's bank; nor did I ever obtain from the bank the loan of a single dollar because of the deposit without of state moneys; nor did I owe the People's bank a single penny, for every dollar I ever borrowed from it was promptly paid back by me at maturity."

After the magistrate had bound the three men over for court, the senator and his son went back to their rooms at the hotel, where there was a constant stream of visitors.

Heavy Damage by Freshets.

Bennington, Vt., Oct. 6.—The heaviest and most destructive freshet in this section for 29 years is raging here, and thousands of dollars worth of property has been destroyed. Rain began falling heavily Tuesday night and continued with little intermission for 18 hours, the total precipitation being six inches. All the main streams are full to overflowing.

Yesterday afternoon a branch of the large and rapid Otter river broke over its channel at the head of County street, sending a vast flood of water through its entire length, nearly a mile. In leaving County street it broke over the meadows near the soldiers' home and continued mostly along the highway for three or four miles toward North Bennington. Great damage done was over this long stretch of territory, the surging flood taking away bridges, culverts, fences and washing it at points almost beyond repair. A supposedly substantial iron bridge of the Bennington and Hoosic Valley electric railroad at the north part of the village was carried away, and the roadbed so badly washed at places that no cars will run over the road for at least two weeks.

The Bennington and Rutland railroad lost a bridge at South Shaftsbury, seven miles from here, and no cars can be run north. The Fitchburg railroad lost a culvert, had a landslide, the track being covered with three feet of water, and two freight cars are off the iron at Walloomaac. This blocks all travel into Bennington from the south and west.

"No Quarter!" There is no sense in trifling with disease. Death is a foe ready enough to overpower poor humanity at the least opportunity without our adding anything to the deadly chances by uncertainty or inaction. Death is not the sort of an enemy to dilly-dally with, nor give the slightest quarter. He should be bayoneted to the earth with a sure and vigorous thrust.

There is just one medicine which can be counted on with absolute certainty to overcome the deadly assault of wasting disease and restore the rugged, masterly power of perfect health. The "Golden Medical Discovery" of Dr. R. V. Pierce of Buffalo, N. Y., creates that keen digestive and nutritive capacity, which makes healthy, nourishing red blood, and keeps it pure and alive with bounding vitality. It nourishes, vitalizes and builds up every organ and tissue in the body; tones the liver; heals the lungs; strengthens the heart, and restores complete energy and cheerfulness.

"I had been troubled for several years with spells of liver complaint," writes H. N. Dransfield, Esq., of Centennial, Monroe Co., W. Va., "and about two years ago my health gave way. I tried Sarsaparilla. I was getting worse all the time. I had a weakness in my left side and limbs, palpitation of the heart at times, cramping pains in the stomach after eating; nerves weak, and no energy for anything. I took Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and began to mend from the start. I soon felt like a new person. I am now enjoying splendid health and have a splendid appetite, good digestion, and also a peaceful, quiet mind."

Dr. Pierce's thousand-page book, "The Common Sense Medical Adviser" contains over two hundred reliable prescriptions, with directions for self-treatment of all such diseases as are curable without a physician. Anatomy, physiology and the laws of reproduction are explained, with over seven hundred illustrations. One copy, paper-covered, sent absolutely free for 21 one-cent stamps, to pay cost of mailing only. Address, World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y. For a handsome cloth binding send 31 stamps.

Coal!

Just Received by Barge Blackbird, a Fresh Cargo of

Pea Coal

(Small Nut.)

J. F. SHEPPARD & SONS

Quincy Sept. 7.

WILLIAM E. BAXTER, M. D.
Practice Limited to the
EYE AND EAR.
553 Boylston St., Boston.
QUINCY—Monday and Friday.
Hours, 9 to 11. 195 Hancock Street
May 21. ly

Chichester's English Diamond Brand.
PENNYROYAL PILLS
Original and Only Genuine.
SAFE, always reliable. LADIES ask Druggist for Chichester's English Diamond Brand in Red and Gold metallic boxes, sealed with blue ribbon. Take no other. Refuse dangerous substitutions and imitations. At Druggists, or send 4c. in stamps for particulars, testimonials and "Relief for Ladies," in letter, by return Mail. 10,000 Testimonials. Name Paper.
Chichester Chemical Co., Madison Square, PHILADA., PA.
Sold by all Local Druggists.
Sold by Geo. C. Goodwin & Co., Boston, Mass
General Agents.

LADIES ROYAL DELIVERANCE CAPSULES are a positive, safe and speedy monthly regulator, guaranteed to cure the most stubborn cases, or money refunded. Have never failed. Used by thousands of ladies, indorsed and prescribed by the medical profession. Painful and dangerous operations avoided. Price $2, at office or by return mail. 'Royal Protector' and full particulars under plain seal for 4c., stamps. ROYAL REMEDIES CO., 228 Tremont Street, Boston, Mass. Mention this paper.

it's a death tap at your life door. If you knew it you wouldn't neglect such a cough.

HALE'S HONEY OF HOREHOUND AND TAR

Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar is a simple remedy but it acts like magic in all cases of throat or bronchial trouble. Sold by druggists.

Pike's Toothache Drops cure in one minute.

Quincy and Boston Electric Street Railway.

[Subject to change without notice.]

On and after September 21, cars will be run on the different routes as follows:

Quincy and Neponset.

Leave CITY SQUARE for Neponset at 5.55, 6.10, 6.25, 6.40 A. M. and every 15 minutes until 11.10 P. M.

Leave NEPONSET for Quincy at 6.15 A. M. and every 15 minutes until 11.30 P. M.

Cars leaving Quincy at 10 minutes past the hour go via Norfolk Downs, and those leaving Neponset at 30 minutes past go via Downs.

Cars leaving Neponset 15 minutes of and 15 minutes past the hour go via Wollaston and continue through Braintree and Holbrook to Brockton, connecting with cars for Bridgewater, Taunton, New Bedford, Fall River, Newport and Providence.

Quincy and East Weymouth.

Leave CITY SQUARE (10 minutes later from Quincy Point and 22 minutes later from North Weymouth)—5.45, 6.20, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20, 9.50, 10.20, 10.50, 11.20, 11.50 A. M.; 12.20, 12.50, 1.20, 1.50, 2.20, 2.50, 3.20, 3.50, 4.20, 4.50, 5.20, (5.30 to East Weymouth car house), 5.50, 6.20, 6.30, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20, 9.50, 10.50 P. M., (11.50 Wednesday and Saturday to Thomas' Corner only.)

Leave EAST WEYMOUTH (20 minutes later from North Weymouth and 30 minutes later from Quincy Point)—6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8, 8.30, 9, 9.30 10, 10.30, 11, 11.30 A. M.; 12, 12.30, 1, 1.30, 2, 2.30, 3, 3.30, 4, 4.30, 5, 5.30, 6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8 8.30, 9, 9.30, 10, 10.30, 11.30 P. M.

Quincy and Weymouth Landing.

Leave QUINCY at 5.30 A. M., 6.20, 7.20 and every hour until 12.20, then 1.50 and every hour until 10.50 P. M.

Leave WEYMOUTH LANDING at 5.50 A. M. and every hour until 12.50, then 2.20 and every hour until 11.20 P. M., connect with trains to Boston at Quincy.

Quincy and East Milton.

Leave CITY SQUARE, 5.55, 6.25, then every 5 minutes of and 25 minutes past the hour until 9.25 P. M., then at 10.50 P. M.

Leave EAST MILTON 6.25, 6.55 A. M., then every 5 minutes of and 25 minutes past the hour until 9.50 P. M., then 10.20 and 11.20 P. M.

Quincy and Holbrook.

Leave QUINCY for Holbrook at 6.10 and 6.40 A. M., and every half hour until 9.40 P. M., then 10.10 P. M. to South Braintree only, except on Wednesday and Saturday, when car at 10.50 runs through to Holbrook.

Quincy and Hingham.

Leave QUINCY at 7.20 A. M. and every hour until 11.20 A. M., then 1.50 and every hour until 5.50 P. M.

Leave HINGHAM at 8 A. M. and every hour until 12 M., then 2.30 and every hour until 6.30 P. M.

Neponset, Atlantic and Squantum.

Leave NEPONSET at 6.30 A. M. and every hour until 8.30 P. M., connecting at Atlantic with outward express trains.

Leave SQUANTUM at 7 A. M. and every hour until 9 P. M., connecting at Atlantic with express trains.

Quincy and Houghs Neck.

Leave QUINCY CENTRE at 6.20 A. M., and and every hour until 1.20, and then 1.50 and every hour until 9.50.

Returning, leave HOUGHS NECK at 5.45 A. M., and every hour until 12.45, and then 1.20 and every hour until 9.20.

SUNDAYS.

Cars leave City Square, Quincy, for E. Weymouth at 7.30 A. M. and West Quincy at 7 A. M and on the hour and half hour throughout the day.

Sunday time same as week days on other lines, except that the first two trips are omitted.

BENJ. J. WEEKS, Superintendent.

New York, New Haven and Hartford R. R.

Eastern District.

On and after July 1st, 1898, trains will run as follows: (See note of explanation at bottom.

TO BOSTON. Leave Quincy.	at	Stops	Arrive Boston.	FROM BOSTON. Leave Boston.	at	Stops	Arrive Quincy
r 6 12	abc	*	6 30	5 55	ihgfedcba	*6 22	r
r 6 42	abc		7 00	6 30	cba	6 49	r
r 7 12	abc		7 30	7 30	cba	7 49	r
r 7 26	ad		7 43	8 30	cba	8 49	r
r 7 42	abc		8 00	9 30	cba	9 49	r
r 8 12	abc		8 30	10 30	cba	10 49	r
r 8 26	ad		8 43	11 30	cba	11 49	r
r 8 42	abc		9 00	12 30	cba	12 49	r
r 9 12	abc		9 30	1 30	cba	1 49	r
r 10 12	abc		10 30	2 30	cba	2 49	r
r 11 12	abc		11 30	3 30	cba	3 49	r
r 12 12	abc		12 30	4 30	cba	4 49	r
r 1 12	abc		1 30	5 00	cba	5 19	r
r 2 12	abc		2 30	5 17	da	5 36	r
r 3 12	abc		3 30	5 30	cba	5 49	r
r 4 12	abc		4 30	6 00	cba	6 19	r
r 5 12	abc		5 30	6 17	da	6 36	r
r 6 12	abc		6 30	6 30	cba	6 49	r
r 7 12	abc		7 30	7 00	eba	7 19	r
r 7 39	abcdefghi		8 05	7 30	cba	7 42	r
r 8 08	abcdef		8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53	r
r 9 12	abc		9 30	9 30	cba	9 49	r
r 10 08	abcdef		10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53	r
r 11 12	abc		11 30	11 30	cba	11 49	r

SUNDAYS.

r 7 12	abc		7 30	6 30	cba	6 1	r
r 8 12	abc		8 30	8 30	cba	8 49	r
r 9 12	abc		9 30	12 30	cba	12 49	r
r 1 12	abc		1 30	4 30	cba	4 49	r
r 5 12	abc		5 30	5 30	cba	5 49	r
r 7 12	abc		7 30	6 30	cba	6 49	r
r 8 08	abcdef		8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53	r
r 10 08	abcdef		10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53	r

*The letters in the same line as the figures stand for different stations and indicate that trains stop, as follows:

a, Wollaston, g, Savin Hill.
b, Norfolk Downs. h, Crescent Avenue.
c, Atlantic. i, South Boston.
d, Neponset.
e, Pope's Hill, r, Quincy Adams.
f, Harrison Square. (xx), Express.

C. PETER CLARK, Gen'l Supt. A. C. KENDALL, G. P. A.

☞ Think of the fancy prices people have paid for pianos. Then think of buying an instrument fully guaranteed and a delightful tone for $190.00. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

ath our HALE'S
HONEY
OF HOREHOUND such AND TAR lorehound and Tar is a t acts like magic in all onchial trouble. Sold by Drops cure in one minute.

and Boston
treet Railway.

ange without notice.]

ptember 21, cars will be outes as follows:

and Neponset.

ARE for Neponset at 5.55,
and every 15 minutes until

ET for Quincy at 6.15 A. M. s until 11.30 P. M.
ncy at 10 minutes past the Downs, and those leaving tes past go via Downs.
onset 15 minutes of and 15
our go via Wollaston and
Braintree and Holbrook to ng with cars for Bridge-
New Bedford, Fall River, ience.

t East Weymouth.

ARE (10 minutes later from
minutes later from North
6.20, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20,
20, 10.50, 11.20, 11.50 A. M.;
50, 2.20, 2.50, 3.20, 3.50, 4.20,
East Weymouth car house),
0, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20,
1.50 Wednesday and Saturday
only.)

EYMOUTH (20 minutes later
outh and 30 minutes later from 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8, 8.30, 9, 9.30
A. M.; 12, 12.30, 1, 1.30, 2, 0, 5, 5.30, 6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8
.30, 11.30 P. M.

Weymouth Landing.

at 5.30 A. M., 6.20, 7.20 and
.20, then 1.50 and every hour

OUTH LANDING at 5.50
ur until 12.50, then 2.20 and 11.20 P. M., connect with
Quincy.

and East Milton.

UARE, 5.55, 6.25, then every
5 minutes past the hour until
10.50 P. M.

ILTON 6.25, 6.55 A. M., then and 25 minutes past the hour
en 10.20 and 11.20 P. M.

and Holbrook.

Y for Holbrook at 6.10 and ery half hour until 9.40 P. M.,
to South Braintree only,
sday and Saturday, when car
gh to Holbrook.

y and Hingham.

Y at 7.20 A. M. and every hour
then 1.50 and every hour until

AM at 8 A. M. and every hour
n 2.30 and every hour until

lantic and Squantum.

SET at 6.30 A. M. and every
P. M., connecting at Atlantic ress trains.

TUM at 7 A. M. and every , connecting at Atlantic with

and Houghs Neck.

Y CENTRE at 6.20 A. M., and until 1.20, and then 1.50 and
.50.

ve HOUGHS NECK at 5.45
hour until 12.45, and then 1.20
til 9.20.

SUNDAYS.

Square, Quincy, for E. Wey-
M. and West Quincy at 7 A. M and half hour throughout the me as week days on other lines,

st two trips are omitted.

WEEKS, Superintendent.

rk, New Haven
artford R. R.

rn District.

uly 1st, 1898, trains will run
note of explanation at bottom.

N.	FROM BOSTON.
rrive oston.	Leave Boston.	Stops at	Arrive Quincy
6 30	5 55	ihgfedcba	*6 22 r
7 00	6 30	cba	6 49 r
7 30	7 30	cba	7 49 r
7 43	8 30	cba	8 49 r
8 00	9 30	cba	9 49 r
8 30	10 30	cba	10 49 r
8 43	11 30	cba	11 49 r
9 00	12 30	cba	12 49 r
9 30	1 30	cba	1 49 r
10 30	2 30	cba	2 49 r
11 30	3 30	cba	3 49 r
12 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
1 30	5 00	cba	5 19 r
2 30	5 17	da	5 36 r
3 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
4 30	6 00	cba	6 19 r
5 30	6 17	da	6 36 r
6 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
7 30	7 00	eba	7 19 r
8 05	7 30	cba	7 42 r
8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
9 30	9 30	cba	9 49 r
10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r
11 30	11 30	cba	11 49 r

UNDAYS.

7 30	6 30	cba	6 r
8 30	8 30	cba	8 49 r
9 30	12 30	cba	12 49 r
1 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
5 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
7 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r

the same line as the figures nt stations and indicate that lows:

g, Savin Hill.
h, Crescent Avenue.
i, South Boston.

r, Quincy Adams.
re. (xx), Express.

ARK, A. C. KENDALL,
G. P. A

the fancy prices people have Then think of buying an guaranteed and a delightful
Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

QUINCY DAILY LEDGER.

VOL. 10. No. 33. QUINCY, MASS., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1898. PRICE 2 CENTS.

Gentlemen, Buy Your....

OVERCOATS

Where you can find the best assortment in the city and the lowest prices, which is at

C. F. DERBY'S, SAVINGS BANK BUILDING, QUINCY. 5-1m

He Was Embarrassed.

He was painfully embarrassed. He came into our store last week and said to our new man (Mr. Ryder): "I want to get a f-f-f-f-f-f-fall——" He got one. He backed up to let a couple of ladies pass from our clothing department, and fell down two short steps which lead to that department. He got up smiling and said again: "I want to get a f-f-f-f-f-fall overcoat and I'm a little sh-sh-sh-sh-short——" "Oh! That makes no difference," said our man, "as we carry overcoats for all shaped men—for the short ones as well as the tall ones," and he laid out a few different styles for him to see.

"I m-m-m-m-mean that I'm sh-sh-sh-sh-short of mun-mun-mun-money and I want to know if I paid eh-eh-eh-eight dollars on one, if I could pup-pup-pup-pay the rest on Saturday night?"

He went out with 50c. and a brand new Fall Overcoat. He bought a fine light covert for $7.50 that he expected to pay $10.00 for, and he did not feel bashful about saying so, either.

We don't trust because we want to sell you all the time. If we trusted—well, you know somebody's got to pay.

Our heavy weight Fall and Winter Covert at $9.85, made with swelled seams, satin facing and without lining, is the most economical coat a man can buy.

Remember we are the Headquarters in Quincy for Children's Clothing. Over 400 suits. Prices, $1.29 to $5.00.

QUINCY CLOTHING COMPANY,

QUINCY'S CLOTHIERS,

Music Hall Block.

Banner Oil Heaters

It's the easiest thing in the world to catch cold during the early October evenings. Just a trifle early to start your furnace fire, and yet you need something to take the chill from your room. The BANNER OIL HEATER is just the thing. A powerful little stove going at full blast in a twinkling. Costs almost nothing to run and heats your room warm and cosy in a few minutes' time. Absolutely safe, a child can take it from one room to another. Price, $4.50.

HENRY L. KINCAIDE & CO.

COSY HOUSE FURNISHERS,

Hancock Street, : : Quincy.

TEETH EXTRACTED.

No Pain or Danger.

Safer than vapor. Money paid for extracting goes towards teeth to be inserted. I am the only dentist in the city using the Painless Preparation for Extraction.

DR. C. B. UNDERWOOD,

9 Spear St. Rear of Public Library

E. S. BECKFORD,

Electrician.

Wiring and Fitting for Incandescent, Motors, Dynamos, Bells, etc.

GRANITE STREET, Near the Bridge, QUINCY

Feb. 1 1y

TELEGRAPHIC.

3 O'CLOCK.

REBELLIOUS INDIANS.

Great Show of Friendship Preceded Outbreak.

Reinforcements Hastily Dispatched to General Bacon.

Reports of Additions to the Ranks of Redskins.

Extreme Gravity of the Situation Painted by Milwaukee Editors.

Walker, Minn., Oct. 7.—Indian Agent Sutherland, who was with General Bacon at Sugar Point, gives the following account of the conflict up to the time of his leaving for supplies: "When the arrest of two fugitives had been accomplished, the Indians, with a profession of friendship, showed the soldiers their tepees, and called attention to their neatness, all the time stating, 'Me good Indian.' General Bacon, who has great experience with the Sioux, and other savages, did not take much stock in these professions of friendship, and ordered a part of his company to search the adjoining timber for any lurking savages, but none were to be seen. They must have been hidden in the thick underbrush, and those unaccustomed to searching timber could easily have been deceived, for it was not 10 minutes after this before the firing had commenced. Had the Indians not contemplated a general massacre they would have fired on the men who were searching the timber. These Pillagers are well armed and are good marksmen, and they had the advantage at the start."

No courier has reached here from the island, and it is impossible to learn the result of yesterday's fight. A posse of citizens succeeded in landing on Bear island, secured the bodies of four of the men killed in Wednesday's fight and brought away nine wounded soldiers. The citizens were driven to their boats by Indians firing from the bush, but no fatalities are reported.

The condition of Bacon's men, even if they are safe from annihilation, must be deplorable. They are ill-supplied with overcoats and blankets. Tents they have none. Their food supplies were short when they landed, and they were in no shape to stand a long siege.

Major M. C. Wilkinson and Mr. Sheehan, who are among the killed, were well known. Major Wilkinson was a volunteer in the civil war, served throughout that conflict and received on its close a commission in the regular army. He had participated in several Indian campaigns since the rebellion. His regiment was stationed at Fort Snelling for 12 years and was dispatched to Santiago at the opening of the war, but he was left at the fort on recruiting service. He was over 60 years of age, and his family is at Redlands, Cal., where he had for two years been building an orange farm with a view to spending his closing years there.

Wilkinson was shot first through the leg. Having had his leg dressed, he took the field again and was shortly afterwards shot through the body. Lying in a pool of blood, he raised himself to one elbow and shouted to General Bacon: "Give them hell, general; never mind about me." These were his last words. Lieutenant Morrison won his spurs. "Aim straight," he shouted. "Don't get rattled, boys. Those devils can't get us. Try again," he said laughing as a ball knocked his hat off. The men cheered him right in the thick of it.

T. J. Sheehan was captain in the Fifth Minnesota in the civil war and participated in the Sioux Indian massacre in 1862, when he was placed in command of Fort Ridgeley on the frontier. There with a force of but 125 men he withstood for two days the attack and siege of over 1000 Indians, finally repulsing them and saving the lives of his command. For 20 years after the close of the rebellion he was sheriff of Freeborn county, Minnesota, and lately had been United States deputy marshal. He was about 65 years of age and married.

There was a big conference at the agency. Lieutenant Humphrey and Dr. Hart, the agency surgeon, were invited, with half a dozen bad characters who had stirred up sentiment in favor of joining the Pillagers. Dr. Hart told them that if they went on the warpath there would not be a live Indian on Leech Lake in a week. Lieutenant Humphrey backed the statement. After several hours' talk the Indians decided to be good Indians, at least for the present. The assurance may not be worth much.

A special train with 215 of the Third infantry from Fort Snelling, under command of Lieutenant Colonel Harbach of the department of Dakota, arrived yesterday afternoon. Another special is expected from Brainerd with 200 or 250 more soldiers. Inspector Tinker expresses the opinion that with 500 soldiers the Indians will be subdued, but thinks there will be bloodshed and maybe lots of it.

It is said that the Indians from the Mille Lacs reservation have started, 60C strong, to join the Leech Lake Indians, and if this is the case it will require 50C additional troops to quell the disturbance.. The Indians are reported to be well armed and going north at a rapid rate. They will probably reach Leech lake and Bear island by tomorrow at daylight. Two hunters came in this afternoon, and reported a band of 15 or 20 Indians going north, and it is supposed that they are an advance guard of the Mille Lac Indians, or a party of their scouts.

The inhabitants of Walker, Lothrop and Hachensack are terrified beyond measure, and are armed as far as arms and ammunition are procurable. Little sleep is taken by the majority of the citizens.

Since the uprising of the Bear island Indians, the Indians at the Leech lake agency have been quiet, but word has arrived from the agency that the Indians have broken out and the authorities have no control over them, and fear there will be more bloodshed.

Editors Advise McKinley.

Milwaukee, Oct. 7.—The following telegram has been sent to President McKinley by the local editors: "Advices from conservative sources lead us to believe that a force not less than 600 soldiers, preferably 800, should be at once available at Leech Lake and vicinity. We believe such a force needed not only to rescue General Bacon and the survivors of his command, but properly to overawe the agency Indians, in whose professions of friendship and neutrality no one acquainted with them puts credence. A general outbreak at or around Walker would probably result in the massacre of many citizens. In a country so heavily wooded the present force is in our judgment wholly inadequate. The gravity of the situation is not overestimated in the above suggestion."

QUARTET OF PRISONERS.

Boston a Winter Resort For Many of the Lawless.

Boston, Oct. 7.—Three alleged highwaymen and a burglar are locked up in the tombs. According to Chief Inspector Watts, the men make up one of the most dangerous quartets taken into custody in Boston for many months. By their arrest, he says, there is a reason to believe that the epidemic of "hold-ups," pocket-book snatching and street robberies is brought to a close.

Charges have already been brought against three of the men. The fourth is held on suspicion. Information which the chief has is to the effect that the fourth man is a burglar by profession and has been making a tour of New England towns, burglarizing and robbing as he went. He is suspected of being connected in a safe burglary in a town in Worcester county last week, during which the burglars were surprised and an officer shot. He is held pending an investigation of the story.

The men under arrest are: Rocco Bernardi, for being an accomplice in a robbery at a hotel, Sept. 28, when a young woman was strangled and robbed; William Johnson, 28, claiming residence in New York city, charged with the holdup and robbing of James McFarland of Cambridgeport; John Brown of Jersey City, alleged to have been a "pal" of Billy Dalton, and accused of robbing Cornelius Lynch, a Belmont farmer, Labor day; Frank Wilson, the suspected burglar, is 32 years old, and claims residence in Trenton.

"The many hold-up cases in Boston recently are what led to the arrests of these men," said Chief Watts to a newspaper man. "There have been several bad hold-up cases. It was plain to the police that the approaching cold weather had driven thieves who plunder in the rural districts in summer to big cities. They come every fall. Boston gets its share of this class, and unless measures are taken many crimes are committed. I got information several days ago that a number of thieves had already reached the city, and knew pretty near where they could be found. Yesterday, after consultation with Captain Dugan, I decided to round up as many as possible. The west end district was the one decided to start in on. We knew that thieves were hiding there. Inspectors Gilmore and Abbott, and Patrolmen Horgan and Hennessey were selected to do the work. They started in early in the evening, and worked late into the night. The arrest of these men is the result of their work. I think that highway robberies and other crimes will have a set-back as a result."

Match Called Off.

New York, Oct. 7.—The Corbett-McCoy fight has been declared off. At a meeting of men interested in the fight, W. D. Gray, manager for McCoy, showed a letter he had received from David Nugent, the manager of the Hawthorne Athletic club of Buffalo, in which he stated that, owing to the many complications that had arisen, the club had decided to call the match off.

Tom O'Rourke of the Lenox Athletic club said that he had resigned as manager of that club and was going to California with Tom Sharkey, Joe Wolcott and Tom Bayard. He said that McCoy had some kind of a grievance against him and would not fight at the Lenox club. O'Rourke said that after he had gone McCoy might be induced to fight there.

John Considinne, the Detroit sporting man, was ready to put up a purse of $20,000 for the fight. George Considine, his brother, shook $5000 in bills in the air and said he was ready to match Corbett against anybody in the world. He asked Gray if McCoy would fight, and Gray said he would have to see McCoy before making a match.

Lasters Serve Notice.

Marlboro, Mass., Oct. 7.—The Lasters' union has notified the shoe manufacturers that if the difficulty regarding the lasting machines is not settled by Tuesday next the members would decline to last any more on those machines. It is said that the manufacturers will decline to yield to the demand.

Lazed a Good Mile.

St. Louis, Oct. 7.—Star Pointer paced a mile against time yesterday at the fair grounds, making it in 2:02 1-4, under adverse circumstances. As the track was heavy, it is considered as good a mile as Pointer ever paced.

☞ Furniture reupholstered and mattresses made over. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

LAND VALUES

A Transcript From the Books of the Assessors.

Number of Feet in Each Lot and Valuation Thereof.

Also the Amount of Each Person's Tax Bill for 1898.

[Continued from yesterday.]

Something new in the publication of the taxpayers of the city is attempted this year by the Daily Ledger. There is considerable interest in the assessed value of land in the city, which is claimed to be high in some cases and low in others. So the Ledger has supplemented the amount of the tax bill in each ward with the value of each lot of land for which the person is taxed, giving in each case the number of square feet or acreage.

The amount given in the line with the person's name is his total ward tax, and may include houses, personal property, etc., in addition to the lots of land below. The Ledger gives only the valuation of the land.

To obtain a person's total tax in the city, add together the amounts paid in the several wards.

The Ledger commenced the publication Aug. 30, and has already published the land values of all persons whose names begin with A to J, and today's instalment is the second of the Ks:

WARD ONE.

Valuation of Land Only.	Total Ward Tax.
Kemp, John J.	$63 20
13,850 feet, Newcomb street, $1,100.
Kimball, Margaret A.	51 30
9,126, Cottage, $1,100.
Kincaide, Henry L. & Co.,	126 90
Kingman, Mrs. Annie	93 60
9,076, Maple, $2,700.
King, Helen M.	925 20
about 12 1-2 acres, off Adams, $25,000.
" 5 1-2 " Whitwell, $6,500.
" $5,000 ft., " $3,400.
King, Theophilus	789 95
4 1-2 acres, Granite, $6,500.
Klang, Lourentius	47 90
8,013, North Common, $325.
Kerwin, Michael J.	14 85
6,064, Manet, $500.
4,050, Rogers, $325.

WARD TWO.

Kerrigan, Agnes	34 20
2 acres, Quincy ave., $1,000.
Kittredge, Preston	11 90
7 acres, salt marsh, $350.

WARD THREE.

Kemp, Alexander	30 80
6,000, Trafford, $400.
Kemp, John F.	48 60
1-8 acre, Water, $400.
Kemp, William L. S.	53 10
7,000, Payne, $450.
Kendrick, Henry C., est.,	72 00
6 3-4 acres, Franklin, $4,000.
Kenn, Alexander	39 35
12,000, Columbia, $600.
Kenney, Margaret A.	48 60
11,700, Taber $700.
Kerr, Annie	137 70
2 13-16 acres, Water, $3,000.
Kilmartin John	99 90
5,625, Smith, $250.
5,840, " $300.
Kilshaw, John, heirs,	66 60
13,350, Water, $1,100.
King, Lydia	4 50
6,000, off Centre, $250.
Kincaide, Sarah E.	154 80
9,280, Water, $1,400.
18,690, Franklin, $1,800.
Knight, Samuel	9 20
7,205, Franklin, $400.
Knowling, Jane S.	22 50
6,000, Nightingale ave., $250.

WARD FOUR.

Kent, Mary A.	27 00
4,365, Kent, $250.
Kenan, Eliza A.	27 00
3-8 acre Willard, $600.
7,850, Copeland, $1,550.
Keiley, Ellen	34 20
10,233, Grove, $400.
10,233, " $300.
20,466, " $400.
Kerwin, Michael J.	42 50

Continued on page 3.

Royal makes the food pure, wholesome and delicious.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

ANOTHER TO THE STRING.

Team of Champions Had a Tussle In Brooklyn Thursday.

Brooklyn, Oct. 7.—The Bostons won the first game of the final trip yesterday in a well-played contest. Lewis, who has not lost a game to the Brooklyns since he became a league player, was in the box, and kept his record of victories intact. He was not batted to any considerable extent, and received faultless support.

Lowe had the bulk of the work to do in the infield, and it was gilt-edge, while Duffy made a splendid showing in the outfield. The batting of Long was very lively. Stahl and Duffy also hit well.

The play of the game was made by Long in the ninth inning. It was really too dark to play, and it was a matter of wonder to many that Long could see the ball at all. Gaston, the first man, met the ball squarely. Few saw its progress, but they did see Long lean in the air and stick out his left hand. He had the ball fair enough, and the Boston rooters fairly howled. Score:

Brooklyns.	AB	R	1B	PO	A	E
Griffin, c. f.	2	1	1	3	0	0
Jones, r. f.	4	0	1	2	0	0
Anderson, 1 b.	5	1	1	8	1	1
Magoon, s. s.	3	1	1	2	4	0
Daly, 2 b.	2	1	0	6	2	0
Shecard, l. f.	4	0	1	4	0	0
Wagner, 3 b.	4	0	1	1	2	1
Smith, c.	4	0	1	0	2	0
Gaston, p.	4	0	0	1	3	1
Totals	32	4	7	27	14	3

Bostons.	AB	R	1B	PO	A	E
Hamilton, c. f.	3	0	0	2	0	0
Tenney, 1 b.	5	1	2	13	0	0
Long, s. s.	4	2	2	2	3	0
Lowe, 2 b.	2	0	1	2	3	0
Collins, 3 b.	4	1	1	3	2	0
Stahl, r. f.	4	1	2	1	0	0
Bergen, c.	5	1	1	1	0	0
Duffy, l. f.	4	1	2	3	0	0
Lewis, p.	4	1	2	0	3	0
Totals	35	7	12	27	15	0

Brooklyns' ... 0 0 0 1 2 0 0 1 0—4
Bostons ..... 0 0 0 4 0 1 0 2 0—7

Earned runs—Brooklyns, 2; Bostons, 3. Three-base hits—Anderson, Shecard. Two-base hits—Collins, Stahl, Duffy. First base on error—Boston, 1. Left on bases—Brooklyns, 8; Bostons, 10. Struck out—By Lewis, 1. Stolen bases—Griffin, Hamilton. Sacrifice hits—Long, Lowe. Base on balls—Off Gaston, 6; off Lewis, 5. Double plays——Gaston and Anderson; Magoon, Daly and Anderson; Long, Lowe and Tenney. Hit by pitched ball—Griffin. Wild pitches——Gaston, 1; Lewis, 1. Time—1:58. Umpires—Hunt and Connolly. Attendance—1100.

The Philadelphias moved into the first division yesterday by defeating the Washingtons. Dineen was unsteady in the first inning, which, with rocky fielding, enabled the Phillies to score three runs.

The Baltimores scored three runs in the first inning in New York and secured a winning lead. Jennings' nose was broken in the first inning by a pitched ball.

The St. Louis players played gilt-edged ball against the Clevelands, winning the first game and making a draw of the second. Darkness stopped the second game in the fifth.

Tannehill of the Pittsburgs pitched good ball, and he was greatly assisted by Umpire McDonald, who rendered several decisions against the Louisville team.

Tomorrow's Almanac and Forecast.

Sun rises—5:48; sets, 5:14.
Moon rises—11:37 p. m.
High tide—5:15 a. m.; 5:30 p. m.

Fair weather conditions now prevail in all parts of the country, and generally the temperatures are normal. The clear and pleasant weather now seems certain to continue through Saturday, and probably fair Sunday, though there may be more cloudiness. It will probably be slightly warmer after today, with winds becoming southwest.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

In the district court in Fall River the Arkwright corporation was found guilty of running overtime and was fined $50.

A freight wreck in the Burlington yards in Indianola, Neb., resulted in the death of Engineer Brace, Fireman Walters and Brakeman Carl. Four other trainmen were injured.

The French Democratic club of Lawrence held its annual banquet last night, having as guests Candidate A. B. Bruce, G. F. Williams, J. F. Fitzgerald of Boston and J. L. Chalifoux of Lowell.

Surgeon General Sternberg has invited the attention of the war commission to various telegrams as evidence of his earnest desire that our troops in the field should be provided with all necessary supplies.

A warrant has been sworn out for the arrest of William Schmidt, a prominent real estate dealer and member of the Cincinnati board of education, who is charged with embezzling $26,000 from a building association.

Fire on Sunday at Hankow destroyed over a square mile of the city, including government buildings and temple. It is feared that 1000 lives were lost. Hankow is a treaty port on the Yang-Tse-Kiang, China, at the mouth of one of its tributaries, 700 miles from the sea.

The chamber of commerce of the state of New York compliments President McKinley upon the magnificent victory achieved by the army and navy of the United States and renews the assurance of its confidence in his wisdom, judgment and statesmanship in dealing with the difficult international problems yet to be solved.

Henry A. Castle, auditor for the post-office department, in his annual report shows that the deficiency for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1898, was $9,020,903, the smallest in some years. The postal revenue for 1898 was $89,012,618, an increase of $6,347,156. The expenditures increased $4,252,236, and the deficit was reduced by $2,094,920.

☞ Read Saturday's Ledger.

TELL US . .

What you are looking for.

We can show you a fine line of

FALL AND WINTER

UNDERWEAR,

HOSIERY,

Outing Flannels, Flannelettes,

Plaid Dress Goods,

WRAPPERS, BLANKETS,

Comforters,

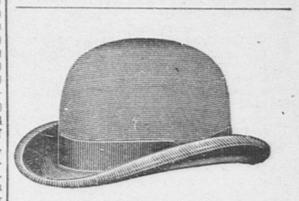

Dress Linings and other Dry Goods.

OUR STOCK IS FRESH.

OUR PRICES THE LOWEST.

MISS C. S. HUBBARD,

158 Hancock Street.

DISSATISFIED HATS

BUYERS OF

Can best be suited by buying

CHAMBERLAIN'S BEACONSFIELD $3.00 DERBY,

OR HIS

REVELATION $2.00 DERBY.

They hold their Shape and Color.

663 WASHINGTON STREET, BOSTON.

Opposite Beach Street.

Hats and Furnishings.

Sept. 15 L 17-4w o

— THE —

Fall Millinery Opening

... OF ...

C. L. BLISS,

186 Hancock St.,

TUESDAY and WEDNESDAY

Oct. 11, 12.

The public are cordially invited to call and examine a stock of Trimmed and Untrimmed Hats and novelties in Velvets, Ribbons, Wings, Feathers and Jet.

Quincy, Oct. 5. lpo 2w

GRAND OPENING

— OF —

Fall and Winter Millinery

Thursday,
Friday,
Saturday,

October 6, 7 and 8,

— AT —

Miss B. J. Patterson's Millinery Parlors

At the Boston Bargain Store.

A choice and complete stock of all the latest and most desirable goods for this season, All are cordially invited.

Music Hall Building, Quincy.

Oct. 1. tfpl

MABEL F. FAIRBANKS

TEACHER OF

CHINA PAINTING and WATERCOLOR.

China Decorated to Order.

34 Grand View Avenue, Wollaston.

Sept. 29. 3m

A. J. DURAND,

Piano Tuning, etc.

19 Coddington St., Quincy.

Highly recommended by Chickering & Sons, and prominent Boston musicians.

Sept. 20. 1m

☞ Glenwood Ranges are the quickest and finest bakers on earth. Ask any person who ever used one. Prices $18.00 to $33.00. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

By FRANK F. CRANE, - - Auctioneer.
Office, 4 Chestnut St., Quincy.

Auction Sale

— OF —

TWO DESIRABLE

HOUSES

Billings Street,

ATLANTIC, MASS.,

Saturday, Oct. 15th

At 3.30 and 4.30, respectively.

AT 3.30 P. M. we shall offer a modern house of 10 rooms and bath and 4,500 feet of land, the second house on the right from Prospect street. This is a new house, has never been occupied, has oak floor in front hall, oak staircase, all the finish on the first floor is hard wood, frescoed ceilings, nicely papered, open plumbing, concrete cellar, and is fitted for a furnace. Has open fireplaces, good closet room and city water. The location is high and dry, the neighborhood is excellent and the house is within 3 minutes of railroad, electric cars, postoffice, churches, schools, and stores. The house can be seen at any time before the sale by applying to Mr. Geo. V. Bryant at the adjoining house now building at the corner of Prospect and Billings streets.

Terms: $100.00 at sale, balance in ten days at the office of Geo. H. Brown, Trustee, Adams Building, Quincy.

At 4.30 P. M. we shall offer one of the most desirable and attractive houses that has ever been sold in this city, located on Billings street, near Squantum street, 5,746 sq. ft. of land. Electric cars pass the house; 7 rooms and bath; fine piazza, elegant reception room, oak floor, open fire places, electric light, set range, laundry, furnace, first-class hardware all over the house, extra large bath room, fine paper hangings, large attic that could be finished into two chambers if desired, good closet room, large pantry. This house is a gem and must be seen to be appreciated; 6 minutes from R. R, stores, churches, etc.

Terms: $100 at sale; balance in ten days at the office of George H. Brown, Trustee, Adams Building, Quincy.

Oct. 7—6t 8-1wp

By FRANK F. CRANE, - Auctioneer.
Office, 4 Chestnut Street, Quincy.

AUCTION SALE

OF THE

ATTRACTIVE REAL ESTATE

OF THE LATE

MICHAEL GOODHUE,

No. 40 Phipps Street,

TUESDAY, OCT. 18th,

At 3 O'clock P. M.

THIS Estate consists of a Modern House of nine rooms, there is a good stable on the premises, about one acre of land having a very large frontage on Phipps street. The estate contains a variety of shade and fruit trees, an extra fine lot of grapes and currants. Also a fine well containing an excellent quality of water. The buildings are in good repair and the estate is very desirable as a residence or for investment.

Sale Positive, rain or shine.

Terms: $100.00 at sale, balance in ten days.

For further information apply to the auctioneer.

Quincy, Oct. 5—10t 8p—1w

By FRANK F. CRANE, - Auctioneer,
Office, 4 Chestnut St., Quincy, Mass.

AUCTION SALE

OF ABOUT

15 Tons of Hay

Slightly Damaged by Water,

at the Stable in rear of the Estate of the late James Edwards, 11 School street, on

MONDAY, Oct. 10th,

at 2 o'clock P. M. Sale positive. Rain or shine. Terms cash. oct5-4t

Coal!

Just Received by Barge Blackbird, a Fresh Cargo of

Pea Coal

(Small Nut.)

J. F. SHEPPARD & SONS

Quincy Sept. 7.

E. LANDIS SNYDER,

Organist and Choirmaster of Christ Church,

TEACHER OF

VOICE CULTURE, PIANO AND ORGAN.

Studio: Room 10 Durgin & Merrill's Block, QUINCY, MASS.

Sept. 10. tf

Quincy Daily Ledger

ESTABLISHED IN 1889.

The ONLY DAILY in Norfolk County Massachusetts.

Published Every Evening, Sundays and Holidays Excepted, At No. 115 HANCOCK ST., City of Quincy, Mass., by

GEORGE W. PRESCOTT & SON.

Successors to Green & Prescott.

Subscription Price, $6.00 per year.

☞ A discount of $1 when paid in advance.

ALSO PUBLISHERS OF

The Quincy Patriot,

A Weekly Established in 1837, which has the Largest Circulation in Norfolk County, and

The Braintree Observer,

A Weekly Established in 1878.

TELEPHONE, 78-3 QUINCY.

Quincy Temperature at Noon.

	This Week.	Last Week.	In 1897.	In 1896.
Sunday	64	52	56	57
Monday	76	71	56	59
Tuesday	85	67	64	55
Wednesday	63	68	68	57
Thursday	64	70	68	53
Friday	61	75	64	56
Saturday	—	74	57	56

New Advertisements Today.

L. M. Pratt & Co.—Potatoes.
Houses at auction.
Petition for divorce and order for hearing.
Polling places for State election.
Typewriting wanted.

Good Afternoon.

Yesterday the Ledger touched upon the need of wakefulness on the part of the citizens of Quincy or they would lose the money already appropriated for a boulevard in this city. It is pleasing to note that a correspondent has been interested, but it is hoped that many others will be active. Considerable work and united effort is needed, but it is worth all it will cost us.

Today the Herald advocates the extension of the Felsway on the north of Boston, and the Metropolitan Park Commissioners may be induced to transfer what was practically pledged to Quincy for this work. The impression in the cities and towns south of Boston is that the metropolitan district upon the north of Boston has received already more than its share in the Middlesex Fells and Revere Beach Reservation, and that now is the time to open up the Blue Hills reservation and the seashore on the south of Boston. There is today considerable undeveloped land in Quincy, so that a boulevard can be laid out at comparatively small expense, and it should not long be delayed. With the opening of the new South Terminal station in Boston and the operation of Quincy trains by electricity, the growth of the city may be astonishing. We have considerable confidence in the future of Quincy.

No Orders to Move.

The Middletown Journal of Wednesday said: "Those who prophesied the early movement of the troops from Camp Meade have not been heard from for a day or two and the officials at headquarters are wondering what is the matter. The reports flew about so thick that some began to think it was really true and had almost begun to pack up for departure. The war department is not ready to move the troops from Camp Meade and when it does it will be very sudden and then direct to Cuba. This is a settled fact as preliminary arrangements have already been made to this end. Not a few of the men are very anxious to go and declare that the order cannot come too soon. Gen. Graham and his staff think the second army corp is equipped for any kind of a campaign that may be given it.

The Journal further says that Major Walter R. Reed and Major William O. Shakespeare, have reported to Col. Girard at Camp Meade. They are members of the typhoid fever commission appointed by the War Department to study the fever problem in all its phrases. Every camp in the country has been visited. These men will endeavor to ascertain the cause of fever by personal investigation of the regimental camps and interviews with the patients.

Pay Day at Camp.

Wednesday Major Arnold, paymaster at corps headquarters, was in Middletown and brought from the office of the United States Express company ten huge iron chests of money for paying the men at Camp Meade. The cash was conveyed to camp under a guard of six men and in charge of two corporals. Paymaster Rogers arrived in camp Thursday and Major Arnold will turn the pay rolls over to him. The rolls are about all in and the work of paying the men will only be a matter of a few days. Over $500,000 will be distributed among the men.

☞ A written guarantee that our prices are as low and invariably lower for better goods, than any other furniture house in the country. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

Y. M. C. A. SUNDAY.

The Quincy Association Will Observe Eighth Anniversary.

On Sunday, October 16th, the Young Men's Christian Association of this city will observe its eighth anniverary by the holding of special serices in the various churches of the city. Addresses will be made upon the work of the Association by and for young men and annual report of the President Mr. A. D. Albee, will also be rendered.

The following services are arranged for Sunday morning:

Bethany Congregational church—Speaker, Rev. Edwin H. Hughes of Malden; report read by Mr. Delcevare King.

Atlantic Congregational church—Speaker, Mr. G. L. Richards of Malden; report read by Mr. W. F. Cummings.

Atlantic Methodist church—Speaker, Mr. W. D. Fellows, Fall River; report read by W. T. Isaac.

Wollaston Congregational church, —Speaker, Rev. Edward Norton; report read by Dr. E. R. Johnson.

Serivces will also be held Sunday evening as follows:

West Quincy Methodist church—Speaker, Mr. W. H. Breed, Boston; report read by Mr. W. H. Mitchell.

United Presbyterian church, —Speaker, Mr. W. D. Fellows, of Fall River; report read by Mr. William F. Hoehn.

Christ Episcopal church, —Speaker, Rev. W. R. Breed; report read by Mr. George H. Brown.

Wollaston Methodist church, —Speaker, Mr. S. B. Carter of Chelsea; report read by Dr. E. R. Johnson.

Wollaston Baptist church, —Speaker to be announced later; report read by Mr. A. D. Albee.

Quincy Point Congregational church, —Speaker, Rev. Edward Anderson; report read by Mr. T. B. Pollard.

The pastors of the various churches will also take part in these services.

On the same day two men's meetings have also been arranged in the afternoon at 3.30 o'clock. At the Wollaston Congregational church, speaker, Mr. W. H. Breed of Boston; and at the Presbyterian church, speaker, Mr. W. D. Fellows, of Fall River. The boys' meeting will be held at the Y. M. C. A. rooms at the same hour and will be addressed by Mr. E. W. Robinson of Nova Scotia.

Randolph vs. Holbrook.

Those old time base ball rivals, the Randolphs and Holbrooks, will meet at Highland Park, Avon, tomorrow, and play a continued game for a purse of $100. This is the third game these teams have played this season, the two preceding games resulting in a tie. Labor day they played an eleven inning game, 3 to 3, and last Saturday the game was called on account of darkness, the score standing 10 to 10. "Charlie" King, formerly with Augusta and Fawtucket, will pitch for Holbrook, and McAuliffe of this season's Tauntons will catch for Randolph. "Home Run" Breckenridge of the New England League will umpire. Game called at 2.30 sharp.

Treated Well.

The following communication has been received by the Quincy Yacht club from the Lynn Yacht club.

Lynn Oct. 5, 1898.

Secretary of the Quincy Yacht Club,

Dear Sir: At a meeting of the Lynn Yacht club it was voted that a vote of thanks be extended to the Quincy Yacht club for the courteous manner in which they treated our representative judge at the cup race.

I am yours very truly,
F. E. Newhall, secretary.

Golf Championship.

The championship match of the Wollaston golf club began Thursday, the first round resulting as follows:

John Morrill beat H. W. Porter, 1 up.
C. L. Bremer beat Barclay Tilton, 2 up.
Archie Pope beat W. K. Farrington, 1 up.
E. H. Brock beat W. W. Swan.
George T. Rice beat James F. Harlow, 6 up, 5 to play.
G. Edward Atherton beat R. R. Freeman, 4 up, 3 to play.
J. B. Tilton beat H. W. Fairbanks, 2 up.
R. Cracknell beat J. F. Muirhead, 4 up, 3 to play.

The drawings for the second round are as follows: Morrill vs. Bremer, Pope vs. Brock, Rice vs. Atherton, Tilton vs. Cracknell.

TODAY'S COURT.

The continued case of Charles Danehy, for drunkenness at Quincy, was called, and he was fined $5.

Eugene Clark was fined $5 for drunkenness at Quincy.

Joseph Connelly was arraigned for drunkenness at Quincy. This was Connelly's fourth arrest for drunkenness since Sept. 1. He was fined $15.

Mike Strudek, John Obnokla, John Smith and John Smith were arraigned for being tramps at Milton, and were sent to the State farm at Bridgewater.

DIED.

DURGIN—In Braintree, Oct. 6, Mr. George F. Durgin, formerly of Quincy, aged 43 years, 9 months and 14 days.

MOYNIHAN—In Quincy, Oct. 6, Mr. John Moynihan, aged 60 years.

QUINCY BOOMING.

Thirty-one Sales of Real Estate Last Week.

Only Three Cities Had More Conveyances.

And These Were Boston, Worcester and Springfield.

The presentation of figures last week as to Quincy real estate conveyances surprised many. In the preceding week there were 39 sales, more than in most of the cities about Boston. Today we record for the past week 31 or a total of 70 in two weeks. This is unusual activity in real estate, and our people should come to the realization of the fact that Quincy real estate is in demand and that a boom is with us.

The number of real estate conveyances in the city the past week is greatly in excess of many larger cities. In fact only two cities outside of Boston in the commonwealth recorded more sales, as the following summary shows. It should be remembered that Boston has a population of over 500,000, Worcester over 100,000, and Springfield over 50,000 while Quincy was the 24th in the City incorporated and has a population of only 25,000:

Worcester,	64
Springfield,	35
QUINCY.	31
Everett,	26
Brockton,	22
Malden,	21
Fall River,	21
Newton,	18
Lynn,	16
Chelsea,	16
Somerville,	15
Waltham,	15
Cambridge,	15
Taunton,	14
Lowell,	12
Woburn,	12
Medford,	11
New Bedford,	11
Lawrence,	11
Pittsfield,	10
Gloucester,	10
Fitchburg,	10
Chicopee,	8
Salem,	7
Haverhill,	7
North Adams,	7
Holyoke,	6
Beverly,	3
Newburyport,	2
Marlboro,	2
Northampton,	0

The Quincy conveyances:

Jos. H. Vogel, et al trs, to Loring G. Littlefield, $375.
Lillie B. Titus to Edward Billings (2), $2.
Arthur E. Linnell to Amelia J. Snow, $1.
Mary E. Whitehead to Robert L. Pond, $1.
Chas. F. Whitehead to Robt. L. Pond, $1.
Mary A. Peters to Edw. Billing, $1.
Norfolk Mut. Fire Ins. Co. to Danl. J. Falvey, $2,450.
Albt. A. Gleason to Aug. E. Scott, $1.
Aug. E. Scott to Timo. Sullivan, $1.
Andrew Chrisienson to Chas. F. M. Malley, $1.
Chas. F. M. Malley to Hannah M. Christenson, $1.
Elisha B. Holmes, et al, to Julia A. Rich, $1.
Julia A. Rich to Benj. F. Hodgkinson, $1.
Edgar F. Hayden to Wm. B. Smith, $2,600.
Hattie F. Fay to Edwin W. Baxter, $1.
John Q. A. Whittemore to Elizabeth C. Dow, $6,000.
Francis Batchelder et al, trs., to Mary A. Peters, $1.
Edwd. Daley to Annie Flynn, $1,325.
Mary A. Tingley to Alice E. Pinel, $1.
Richd. D. Chase to Peter T. Fallon et al, $1.
Florence Bodge to Adeline B. Sprague et al.
Allan Cummings to L. Maria Nightingale, $1,700.
Lillie B. Titus to Alex Vogel $1.
Lillie B. Titus to Richd. Ring, $1.
Lillie B. Titus to Thos. H. Tighe et ux, $1.
Lillie B. Titus to Geo. F. Watt, $1.
Lillie B. Titus to John C. Brown, $1.
Lillie B. Titus to Elizth. P. Hodson, $1.
Lillie B. Titus to Jos. S. Barretto, $1.
Lillie B. Titus to Herman J. Berghaus, $1.

Potatoes.

15c. Peck,

55c. Bushel.

SWEET,

25 lbs., 25c.

L. M. PRATT & CO.,

25 School Street.

LOCAL NEWS TRACK.

Some Colts which are Sure Winners Every Heat.

All of Miss Corlew's dancing classes are largely attended.

Miss Etta Williams, 184 Granite street, Quincy, received Mrs. George Pratt's lace apron.

Black ducks are beginning to be plenty along our shores. Geese will soon begin to fly southward.

The joint committee on Streets and Finance and the Committee on Ordinances ot the City Council meet tonight.

Mr. George Clapp of Canal street has leased the Murdock estate on Howard avenue, Quincy Neck, and will locate there right away.

Hose was called out on a still alarm Thursday afternoon at 3.30 to extinguish a chimney fire in the house of Louis Walters on Bates aveue.

The trains to and from Boston were all late Thursday afternoon and evening, due to the lack of cars, many of which were in use on extra trains.

The Ancient and Honorable Artillery company returned Thursday night, and those from Quincy report a delightful trip and open hearted hospitality.

Miss Lillian Lichtenhein and Mrs. Bouron of New York, are the guests of Mrs. C. A. Winslow this week. They will return to New York next week.

Miss Corlew has twenty-five pupils in her advanced class in dancing which meets on Wednesday afternoons, and several more will join at the second lesson.

The Quincy Quarry Co. held its annual meeting Wednesday evening and re-elected its old board of officers. An annual dividend of 4 per cent. was declared.

City Clerk Cleaves has received the printed instructions for using the new vote counting machines, and the method of using it is very simple after you know how.

Harry R. Osgood of Wollaston, of the 17th U. S. Infantry at Manila, is still in good health. He has fought in one battle. He expects to get mustered out before Christmas.

Representative T. H. Newcomb was one of the Norfolk County committee on ballots at the Republican State convention, and the only Quincy man to serve in any capacity.

A bicycle rider in returning from Brockton Thursday night was held up in South Braintree and relieved of $4. He had other money in another pocket which the highwaymen overlooked.

The daily letter from Co. K will be missed today. Our correspondent often finds it difficult to find time to write, and yesterday was probably unusually busy, so look out for two interesting letters tomorrow.

Another bicycle was stolen at the Thomas Crane Public library Thursday afternoon, the third within a week. The lad who lost it was in the library but a few minutes, as his list for books was prepared before he entered.

Some idea of the crowd at Brockton, Thursday may be gleaned from the fact that 7,300 excursion tickets were sold from the Boston station, and 150 from Quincy. One of the special trains that was sent out in the morning had thirteen cars.

Burto, the clown juggler, of Quincy, has just closed his third summer of fifteen weeks at the leading summer resorts in New Enlgand and New York State. Next week at Baltimore, Utica, Buffalo, Pittsburg, Cincinnati; and the Seattle, Washington, circuit of fourteen weeks, to follow.

An important sale of real estate is advertised today by Auctioneer Crane, on one of the very best streets of the city—Billings street at Atlantic. This is the growing section of the city and in a very desirable neighborhood. A new ten room house will first be offered and then a seven room cottage. Persons in search of a home in a pretty suburb will make no mistake in looking up this property.

The fifth anniversary of the installation of the Rev. James E. Bagley as pastor of the Wollaston Unitarian society was observed at the church vestry on Thursday evening, by an informal reception which was given to him by his parishioners. The guests were received by the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Bagley. During the evening there was music by Mr. and Mrs. I. P. Moorehouse, Mrs. F. A. Page and Miss. Thomas.

Resignations in Fifth.

A dispatch of Thursday to the Boston Journal says: Major Foster of Cambridge, Chief Surgeon of the Fifth Massachusetts, has resigned and Lieut. W. F. Pearl of Boston takes his place. A number of other officers will resign when they learn definitely what disposition is to be made of the corps.

☞ It makes men tired to beat their carpets; that's why they send them to our electric beater. It does the work so thoroughly too. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

Special Opening!

Flannelette Undergarments.

New Goods and Very Low Prices When the Quality is Considered.

These Goods are made for Men, Women and Children.

Call and Examine the Goods. You will Buy Them.

D. E. WADSWORTH & CO.,

Hancock Street, - - - Quincy.

MAKE IT HOT FOR YOU.

If your house is cold and you have become disgusted with the various devices called heaters, and you are really anxious to have warmth and comfort in your home, place an order for one of those G. B. Bates CIRCULATORS.

It will "make it hot for you" or just the temperature you desire. Its construction is based upon scientific and economical principles. Several have recently been put in right here in Quincy, and others will be put in during the next few weeks. Don't read this ad. and then forget about it till your water pipes are all frozen, but go now to

G. B. BATES,

Hancock Street, Quincy.

NOTHING BETTER,

UNCLE SAM'S NAVY

Now commands the respect of the world, and we are all proud of the defenders of the Nation's Honor. To give the people of Quincy a good idea of the grand battleships, we have ordered a large supply of portfolios, giving magnificent views of the ships, crews, etc.

With each purchase made at our store we will give a portfolio check to the value of the purchase. When you have $4.00 worth of these checks, return them and get a portfolio. Continue in this way until you have the set complete. Call and see these magnificent portfolios.

ROGERS BROS.,

Groceries and Provisions. Adams Building, Quincy.

STATE ELECTION.

CITY OF QUINCY.

City Clerk's Office, Oct. 7, 1898.

IN Accordance with the provisions of Chapter 548 of the Acts of 1898, notice is hereby given that by a vote of the City Council, passed October 3, 1898, the polling places for the election to be held TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1898, in the City of Quincy, were designated as follows:

WARD ONE.—Council Chamber, City Hall.
WARD TWO—Hose House, Washington street.
WARD THREE, Precinct One.—Doble's Hall, Franklin street.
WARD THREE, Precinct Two.—Old Steamer House, School street.
WARD FOUR, Precinct One.—St. Mary's Hall, Willard street.
WARD FOUR, Precinct Two.—Hose House, Copeland street.
WARD FIVE.—Polson's Building, Newport avenue.
WARD SIX.—Hose House, Newbury avenue.

Attest: EDGAR G. CLEAVES, City Clerk.

Quincy, Oct. 7, 1898. 27t

E. W. SHACKFORD,

PAPER HANGER,

Quincy, Mass.

☞ Orders left with W. DAVENPORT, or T. B. DAVENPORT.

Sept. 14. 1m

DR. HERBERT S. HAYFORD

195 Hancock Street.

OFFICE HOURS—11 to 12 A. M., 2 to 4 and 7 to 8 P. M.

Telephone, 4-3.

Quincy, July 5. tf

DANCING SCHOOL.

PROF. GARDNER,

the well known Boston teacher, will receive a few more pupils in his class in COLONIAL HALL, Bank Building, Quincy, on Friday Evening, Oct. 7, at 7.45. Terms: Gents, $6, Ladies, $4. All the latest dances taught. Those who wish to learn should be present next Friday as pupils cannot be accepted after that evening. lptf

WILLIAM E. BAXTER, M. D.

Practice Limited to the

EYE AND EAR.

553 Boylston St., Boston.

QUINCY—Monday and Friday.

Hours, 9 to 11. 195 Hancock Street

May 21. 1y

NOTICE TO VOTERS.

CITY OF QUINCY.

For the purpose of preparing the Annual Register of Voters, and of receiving evidence of qualification from persons claiming a right to Vote at the coming State Election, the Board of Registrars of Voters will be in session at the COUNCIL CHAMBER in the City Hall Building, on the evenings of

Wednesday, Sept. 14,
Saturday, Sept. 17,
Thursday, Sept. 29,
Saturday, Oct. 1,
Wednesday, Oct. 5,
Saturday, Oct. 8,
Saturday, Oct. 15,

From 7 to 9 P. M., and also on

Wednesday, Oct. 19,

From 12 o'clock M. until 10 o'clock P. M.

Every applicant for registration must appear in person before the Board, and must present either a certificate from the Assessors or a Tax bill or Notice from the Collector of Taxes, showing that he has been assessed as a resident of the City on the First day of May last; or a certificate from the Assessors that he has been a resident of the City for the six months next preceding the election at which he claims a right to vote. If a naturalized citizen he must also produce for inspection his papers of naturalization. Payment of a poll tax is not a prerequisite to voting.

No person can vote at the election unless his name has previously been placed upon the voting list of the Ward of which he was a resident on the first day of May last, and no name can be added to the list of voters unless registered previous to

Wednesday, Oct. 19th,

at 10 o'clock P. M., when registration will close.

Examine the Voting Lists posted, and see that your name is in its proper place. NO CHANGE can be made after WEDNESDAY, Oct. 19th, at 10 o'clock P. M. The Board of Assessors will be in session at their office on the same evenings.

EDWARD B. MARSH,
CORNELIUS MOYNIHAN,
EDWARD J. McKEON,
EDGAR G. CLEAVES,
Registrars.

Quincy, Sept. 6, 1898. 38t r10-2w

The John Hancock Stables.

Opposite Depot, Quincy, Mass.

Boarding, Baiting, Livery and Sale.

DR. J. A. DOW, Proprietor,

the well known Veterinary dentist and specialist in the treatment of lame horses. Sick horses treated at owner's risk.

The finest equipped and managed stable of its size in America.

Fine driving turnouts in light rigs; safe and good appearing. All horses let are perfectly safe for ladies to drive.

The choicest family, road and coach horses constantly on hand for sale. All horses guaranteed as represented.

☞ Will attend to veterinary practice as usual. aug18-1y

GOLD DUST

THE BEST WASHING POWDER

MILLINERY.

Grand Opening Oct. 5, 6, 7,

OF CHOICE

FALL and WINTER MILLINERY,

Consisting of Imported French Hats and Millinery Novelties.

You are cordially invited to call and inspect the same.

E. B. COLLINS,

4 Faxon Block, Quincy, Mass.

☞ NO CARDS.

Oct. 4. 6t

Carpetings.

Buying a carpet is serious business, and the first thought is to find a carpet that will always wear well and look attractive.

We make a specialty of strong, serviceable carpetings in choice designs at money-saving prices only.

There isn't a store in the whole country that can supply your demands as well as we can.

Hundreds of the latest and choicest designs in Wools, Tapestries and Brussels. Your inspection and comparison cheerfully solicited.

Cotton and Wool Carpetings, 25c. to 45c.
All Wool Carpetings, 45c. to 65c.
Heavy Tapestries, 45c. to 85c.

HENRY L. KINCAIDE & CO.,

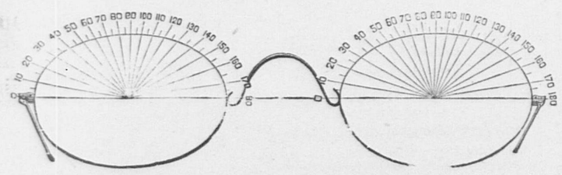

Reliable, Low Priced House Furnishers.

Hancock Street, - - - Quincy, Mass.

Quality Right.
Quantity Right.
Service Right.

C. PATCH & SON.

Coal and Wood.

ASTIGMATISM

Causes most of the distressing headaches. Properly fitted glasses will correct the error and remove the pain. Consult

WILLIAMS,

Member of the New England Association of Opticians,

104 Hancock St., Quincy.

Advertising Should be Continuous to be Profitable. The Ledger is the Best Medium in Quincy.

POLITICAL FIELD.

The Democratic tenth district Congresional convention will be held at Upham's corner, Dorchester, Tuesday, Oct. 11, and the Democratic representative convention for this district will be held in Quincy on Monday evening, Oct. 17.

The Republican City Committee met Thursday evening and fixed upon Thursday evening, Oct. 13, as the date for the Representative convention. This is the earliest possible date that Representative convention of 1898 can be held under the new law.

The Republican convention for the Second Norfolk Senatorial district will be held in Boston Saturday morning.

The Middlesex club will have a grand banquet at Young's, Saturday afternoon.

The Boston Post thinks the Atwood and Paige delegates to the covention have an understanding, and that they control the convention. That while they cannot transfer their delegates to each other they may unit on a dark horse.

City Clerk Cleaves gives notice of the polling places for the State election.

Ex-Congressman Harrison H. Atwood represented this district at the Republican State Convention on the Committee on Credentials, and Milton C. Paige served in like capacity on the Committee on Resolutions.

Teachers' Association.

A more extended notice of the annual meeting of the Norfolk County Teachers' Association will be of interest. Excellent speakers have been secured and a fine programme will be presented. Prof. Calkins of Wellesley college will speak on "The New Psychology and its Practical Applications." Members of Women's clubs will be specially interested in a paper by Mrs. Edwin I. Mead, "The Relation of Women's Clubs to the Public Schools." Dr. Edward R. Shaw of New York University will speak on "Literature in the Schools and its Influence." In the morning the primary section will be addressed by Superintendent Lull, of Quincy; Samuel W. Cole, supervisor of music in Brookline and Dedham; and Miss Howell, director of nature study in Brookline. The grammar and high school section will be addressed by Prof. William G. Ward, Mr. Samuel Thurber and Miss Lane of Quincy. Mayor Quincy will speak at the openng of the morning. The meeting promises to be an unusually good one, and a cordial invitation is extended to all who are interested in school work.

Bon Ami

Cleans and Polishes

EVERYTHING--PAINT, METALS AND GLASS, BATH TUBS, OILCLOTH, TIN WARE AND HANDS.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

NORFOLK, ss. SUPERIOR COURT.

To the Honorable the Justices of the Superior Court in and for the County of Norfolk:

RESPECTFULLY Represents your petitioner, ANTON HERMANSON of Quincy in said County of Norfolk, that he is the lawful husband of MARGARETA HERMANSON, now of Sisters in the State of Oregon; that they were married at Stonga, Gotland, Sweden, on July 5th, 1884; that they lived as husband and wife in said Sweden until April 4th, 1894, at which time they came to said Quincy to live, where they lived as husband and wife until April 24th, 1896; that there was born of said marriage one son, Junar Hermanson, who was born December 14th, 1884, which son now lives in Sweden; that your petitioner has lived in said Quincy since April, 1894; that your petitioner has ever been faithful to his marriage vows and obligations, but that said Margareta Hermanson, wholly regardless of the same, on or about the first day of January, 1894, committed the crime of adultery with one Jacob Quinberg in said Sweden, and on or about the first day of April, 1896, said Margareta Hermanson committed the crime of adultery with said Jacob Quinberg, at said Quincy, and at divers other times she has been guilty of the crime of adultery with said Quinberg, and on or about the said twenty-fourth day of April, 1896, said Margareta Hermanson and said Jacob Quinberg left the City of Quincy, and your petitioner is informed and believes that they are at the present time living together as husband and wife at said Sisters in the State of Oregon.

WHEREFORE, your petitioner asks that a decree of divorce may be granted to him and for such further relief as may seem just.

Dated at Quincy this twenty-fourth day of September, A. D. 1898.

ANTON HERMANSON.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

NORFOLK, ss. SUPERIOR COURT.

On the foregoing Libel, it is ORDERED that the Libellant give notice to the said Margareta Hermanson, the Libellee, to appear before the Justices of this Court, to be holden at Dedham, within and for said County, on the First Monday of November next, by causing an attested copy of said Libel, and of this order thereon, to be published once in a week for three successive weeks, in the Quincy Daily Ledger, a newspaper printed at Quincy in the County of Norfolk, the last publication to be fourteen days at least before the said first Monday of November next; and further, by sending through the mail, as soon as may be, by a registered letter addressed to the last known residence of the said Margareta Hermanson, an attested copy of said Libel and of this order thereon, that the said Margareta Hermanson may then and there show cause why the prayer of said Libel should not be granted.

By the Court,

LOUIS A. COOK, Clerk.

October 3, 1898.

A true copy of said Libel, and of the Order thereon.

Attest: R. B. WORTHINGTON,
oct 7 10 17 Assistant Clerk.

MILTON.

Business was suspended at East Milton on Thursday. The stores all closed and almost everybody went to the Brockton fair. Some drove and others went on the cars, and not a few were in the special car chartered of the street railway.

Albert A. Brackett is building four houses on the Bates estate.

The funeral of Mrs. William Merrill was held from the Baptist church Sunday afternoon, services being conducted by Rev. Mr. Rogers. They were largely attended. The burial was at the village cemetery.

Chief of Police Pierce is enjoying a trip down the Hudson this week.

Bert Cates is building a house on the Bates estate.

The boulevard between Mattapan and East Milton is fast nearing completion.

WEYMOUTH.

On Sunday the services at Trinity church will be of a most important nature. The festival of Harvest Home and the Feast of Tabernacles will be observed, and the church, decorated with fruits, flowers, green boughs, and the various productions of the soil in commemoration of the harvest. Booths made of green boughs and branches will be set up in the church in commemoration of the Feast of the Tabernacles; the music will be appropriate to the service, and Rev. William Hyde will preach on "The Special meaning of the Feast of Tabernacles to Our Day."

Prompt to Investigate.

Editors of Quincy Ledger:

In your last night's editorial you mention the boulevard for which the State appropriation has been made, and the necessity of union among the people to secure the improvement soon, or the money will go to some other city.

Will you mention in your columns if you have the proper knowledge, the authorities through whom the negotiations are made? If such a great benefit is in any danger of being diverted from this city it seems as though there should be immediate steps taken, as you advise, to make the Quincy boulevard a surety.

The immense value of so great an addition to the appearance of the city as well as to its land valuation must certainly commend it to all citizens, and there certainly ought to be efforts made by those who have the interests of Quincy at heart to hasten the accomplishment of so important a work, affecting not only the Quincy of today but of all succeeding years.

It seems as though Quincy ought to possess some public-spirited hustler who would be willing to contribute his energies as has been found in the other cities of our Commonwealth, which are already favored with this grand improvement.

Yes, Get Together.

Editors of the Daily Ledger:

Your editorial of Thursday interested me in regard to united front. Courage of convictions—not slaves to the almighty dollar—is what is wanted in our politics today. There were no broken ranks in the Councillor Convention on Monday (solid to a defeat as it were) but faithful to principle.

I heartily agree with you that Quincy should get together, one ward with another, and unite its interests so as to make Quincy the foremost city of the suburbs. It can be done. It should be done for several reasons. We have area, also ample water frontage and many other advantages. What we do need is more push, less politicians and more men in offices who have the good of the city at heart, and less of personal interest.

There are needed, able, steady and thoughtful men in office the coming years. Quincy is assuming many heavy expenses (of which you are well familiar) and we, the people, should see to it that competent men shall fill the offices of the city in this and future years. U. NITE.

A Candidate For Prison.

Stuttgart, Wurtemberg, Oct. 7.—At a socialistic convention, a member of the reichstag, referring to Emperor William's anti-strike speech, said: "What little monarchical sentiment survived among the proletariat has now been definitely killed. We must organize an opposition. We shall be cowardly dogs if we leave unanswered the insults heaped upon us. The emperor deems it right to throw down the gauntlet, and we have the courage to pick it up."

This remark was greeted with a tremendous outburst of applause, and the convention resolved to call protest meetings everywhere immediately after the strike bill is introduced. The meeting also resolved to rescind the Hamburg convention resolution and to leave the question of participation in the diet elections to be settled in the individual districts, with the proviso that the only candidates who are to be supported are those who are in favor of secret and direct universal suffrage, and who pledge themselves to oppose any infringement of popular rights.

LAND VALUES.

Continued from page 1.

WARD FOUR.

Valuation of Land Only.	Total Ward Tax.
Kilmartin, John 1-8 acre, Hall place, $350. 18,150, Willard, $1,450. 8,310, Crescent, $1,100.	186 95
Kilroy, Patrick, heirs, 35,550, Douglass, $1,050.	36 00
Kimball, Francis C., est., 11,180, Crescent, $900.	36 90
King, Eliza D. 11,361, Centre, $550.	40 50
King, Mrs. George 10,656, Station, $4[illegible]0.	27 00
King, James A. 5,748, Kent, $300.	21 60
King, James P. 1-4 acre, Grove, $200.	5 40
King, Lydia C. 11,424, Centre, $600.	21 60
King, William J. 5,900, Kent, $250.	19 10
King, Patrick, est. 1-4 acre, California, $400. 1-4 acre, " $400. 8,125 feet, off Willard, $150.	47 70
King, William, Jr., 6,222, Kent, $300.	25 40
Knight, James 6,722, Quarry, $300.	39 80
Kottle, Thomas, est. 25,800, Willard, $1,200.	37 80

WARD FIVE.

Kennard, Frank, E. 2 1-4 acres, Wollaston ave., $1,200.	21 60
Kennard, F. E., and H. G., 8 acres, Fenno, $5,000.	197 50
Kent, James D. 10,276 Central ave., $700.	59 40
King, Benjamin 9,135, Central ave., $600.	45 00
King, Kate P. 18,458, Clay, $900.	48 60
King, Samuel M. 5,774, Central ave., $400.	49 70
King, Theophilus, tr. Land on Beach, $900.	30 60
Kingston, Hannah M. 1,328, Elm ave., $125. 5,000, West Elm ave., $500.	47 25
Klingenhagen, William and Lillian J. 6,300, Kemper, $600.	43 20
Knight, Fred T. 8,406, Pine, $550	53 30
Knowlton, Frank W. 4,368, Beach, $350.	51 30

WARD SIX.

Kendall, Arthur S. 2 acres salt marsh, $300.	7 40
Kendall, Clara N. 45,000, Atlantic, $3,500.	100 80
Kendall, Josiah A. 8,400, Walker, $850. 7,530, Billings, $800.	67 90
Kennon, Thomas, est., 1 1-4 acres, Squantum, $2,500.	45 00
Kennon, Henrietta R., est., 20,000, Squantum, $1,500.	70 20
Kerrigan, John J. 10,125, Walnut, $550. 8,500. " $450.	78 50
Kerrigan, Margaret 5,832, Botolph, $575.	46 35
Kilpatrick, Maurice 5,000, Hollis, $450.	80 10
Kingston, Hannah, M. 5,675, Rawson road, $425. 5,242, Hancock, $700.	188 55
Kingston, Thomas H. 3,962, Webster, $325.	20 45
Kolb, Catherina C. 7,016, Clive, $700.	50 40
Kolstad, Charles O. 4,530, Moscow, $400.	52 40

[To be continued.]

You should save a file of the Ledger while this list is being printed. We cannot supply back numbers of the paper at 2 cents per copy, but have established this rate: Papers one week old, 5 cents; papers one month old, 10 cents; papers one year old, 25 cents.

The Plant System.

The Hotel Managers of the Plant System of hotels in Florida will be as follows for the coming season of 1898-99:

Tampa Bay Hotel, Tampa, Fla., A. E. Dick, Manager.

Hotel Belleview, Bellcair, Fla., W. A. Barron, Manager.

Seminole Hotel, Winter Park, Fla., O. L Frisbee, Manager.

Ocala House, Ocala, Fla., Phil F. Brown, Manager.

Hotel Kissimmee, Kissimmee, Fla.

Port Tampa Inn, Port Tampa, Fla., S. M. Hannah, Superintendent.

For information as to hotel rates, address Managers, and as to railroad and steamship rates and schedules,

B. W. WRENN,
Passenger Traffic Manager.

—The Milford Journal says, there is every indication that the telephone fight in the next Legislature will be the hottest on record.

MANY PEOPLE CANNOT DRINK

coffee at night. It spoils their sleep. You can drink Grain-O when you please and sleep like a top. For Grain-O does not stimulate; it nourishes, cheers and feeds. Yet it looks and tastes like the best coffee. For nervous persons, young people and children Grain-O is the perfect drink. Made from pure grains. Get a package from your grocer today. Try it in place of coffee. 15 and 25c.

FRANK F CRANE,

AUCTIONEER and APPRAISER,

Office, 4 Chestnut St., Quincy, Mass.

Oct. tf

JOHN EVANS,

Auctioneer and Appraiser.

Prompt Settlement.

24 COPELAND STREET, QUINCY.

Feb. 26. tf

IN THE CITY NURSERY

Young Saplings Which Together Assume Importance.

Help it along—the Quincy boom.

The Home Science Association met this afternoon in the chapel of the First church.

Quincy No. 4 in number of real estate sales in a week! Just think of it!

Corporal G. A. Wardwell's many friends were glad to see him. He is looking well and is brown as a nut.

Miss Maragret Olmsted and Master Henry Clark Prescott are spending a few days at Barnstable and West Harwich.

Miss Alice S. Hatch, one of the teachers at the Washington school, has been sick this week, but was able today to return to her home in Marshfield.

Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Mayer of Beach street, are visiting at Woodstock, N. B., for two weeks. Mr. Mayer has promised to bring back a bear. We hope he will.

Mr. J. B. Lewis of Norfolk Downs had on exhibition at the Rivet works this week, two handsome apple blossoms which he picked from a tree growing on his place near Billings road. He is now looking for a second crop of apples.

The Republican Editorial Associaion will hold its annual reunion, reception to the nominees of the State convention, at the Parker House, Boston, on Thursday afternoon next, at 1 o'clock. Tickets two dollars. Interesting addresses after the dinner.

Mr. H. S. Everett, formerly Secretary to the American Legation in Berlin, died on Tuesday at Brighton, Eng. He was a son of Edward Everett and was born in 1835 in Charlestown. He graduated at Harvard in the class of 1855. He was a brother of Dr. William Everett of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Cochran of Bromfield street, Wollaston Park, are visiting at Brookline and other towns in New Hampshire. Mr. Cochran writes that he went gunning one day this week and returned from the woods with empty cartridge belt and a pocket full of good chestnuts.

The lecture at the High school building Thursday evening, under the uspices of the Quincy Teachers' Association was largely attended and very interesting. Mr. Louis C. Elson was the lecturere, and his subject was "Seven Centuries of English Song." Mr. Elson is a polished speaker and as he posessed the power to illustrate the songs, he made it not only entertaining but insriucutive and of value to our teachers and the audience generally.

Illustrated Expression.

"CHASED SILVER." —Vim

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

A $20 goldpiece is a nice round sum.

The happier some men are the more money they possess.

The elevator in a department store is merely a shoplifter.

Popularity often wins new acquaintances and loses old friends.

It frequently rains on the just because the unjust has carried off his umbrella.

When a young man squeezes an heiress, she is apt to find herself pressed for money.

A pessimist is one who is always expecting bad luck and is surprised when it comes.

After spending a two weeks' vacation in the country but few men are patriotic enough for it.

A fisherman says fish should not be permitted to lie when they can be hung. The same might be said of fishermen.

When a woman can speak three or four languages fluently, she is foolish to throw herself away on a man who understand but one.—Chicago News.

T. Greiner tells in Farm and Fireside that he has marketed green apples (so green that the stomachache is yet inside all of them) at from 20 to 25 cents a peach basket and thinks, as the apple market promises to remain quite stiff for the whole season, more money may be made from the partial crop than could have been from a full one.

The principal feature of the second day's session of the Vermont grand lodge, Knights of Pythias, was the election of officers as follows: Chancellor, George M. Rowell, Bennington; vice chancellor, W. E. Barney, Barre; prelate, F. A. George, Hardwick; keeper of records and seals, J. M. Cady, St. Johnsbury; master of exchequer, L. M. Sprague, Bellows Falls; master at arms, D. H. Chapman, Cambridge.

☞ Think of the fancy prices people have paid for pianos. Then think of buying an instrument fully guaranteed and a delightful tone for $190.00. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS.

Advertisements in this column inserted at the following rates:

Four lines, or less, one day, - - 25 cents.
" " three days, - - - 50 cents.
" " one week, - - - 75 cents.

Additional lines will be charged for pro rata. Seven words equal a line. Long term rates furnished on application.

WANTED.

WANTED—Typewriting to to do at home. Address W. F. SKINNER, 12 Franklin street, Quincy. oct7-6t

TO LET.

TO LET—On Washington street, at the corner of Wibird street, a very desirable house for a small family. Six rooms, two of them new, and all in good repair. Rent, $15. City water. Concrete sidewalk in front of the house extending to the depot. Apply only to FRANK F. PRESCOTT, at the Ledger office or at 14 Bigelow street. tf

TO LET—Cottage house, No. 29 Granite street, 8 rooms, three minutes' from City Square. Apply to H. M. FAXON, 4 Adams Building. Sept. 30—tf

TO LFT—Half a House of 5 rooms entirely separate on Phipps street, Mt. Pleasant. Rent, $8 a month; city water. Inquire at 17 Summer street. Quincy, Sept. 27. 12t

FOR RENT—Desirable house with bath, corner lot, nice neighborhood, three minutes' walk from schools, churches and depot Rent reasonable. Apply at No. 6 Pleasant St. Quincy, Sept. 7. tf

TO LET—A pleasant tenement of six rooms; newly papered and painted throughout. Csntrally located on a main street within five minutes' walk of Quincy depot. Rent, $15. Address "House," Lock Box L, Quincy. Oct. 4. tf

TO LET.

Half House on Granite street, near depot; $15.00.

Halt House on Washington street, near Universalist church; $11.00.

New House, 6 rooms and bath; Back Bay land, $16.50.

Apply to FRANK F. CRANE,
Oct. 5—6t 4 Chestnut St., Quincy.

TO LET IN QUINCY.

SOUTHERLY Half of house with stable, 214 Hancock street, now occupied by Dr. N. S. Hunting. Modern improvements, central location. Possession given about October 15th. Apply on premises to

MISS M. F. UNDERWOOD.
Oct. 1. tf

TO LET.

APARTMENTS of five large rooms and bath, with all modern improvements. Also two large stores. Rent moderate. Apply to ARTHUR CRAIG, or J. W. HAYDEN, at Craig Building, cor. Copeland and Garfield Sts. Quincy, July 15. pl tf

TO LET.

If you have a vacant tenement, advertise the fact in the Daily Ledger. We are confident it will be let within two months, and to substantiate the claim, we will advertise it after two months. To take advantage of this offer payment must be made before the expiration of the two months. A four-line space until your house is let will cost only $5 at the outside. You cannot afford on these terms to let the house continue vacant.

FREE

FOR SALE.

Bigelow St. Fine New Residence, 9 rooms, bath, laundry, furnace, open plumbing, cemented cellar, fireplace, etc.

R. D. CHASE,
Savings Bank Building.
Quincy, April 8-tf. 9tf

FISH.

Everything first-class at the

Cape Cod Fish Market,

Temple Street.

All kinds Fresh, Salt, Smoked and Pickeled

Quincy, Feb. 8. 1y

Savings Bank Building, Quincy.

Uncle Sam.—"These are my Battle Axes."

The late war between the United States and Spain—as to what constituted Freedom—developed one quality in our army and navy that is above all others—reliability. They could be relied on.

So can BattleAx PLUG

and if YOU have any freedom of opinion you will not be satisfied with any other chewing tobacco.

Remember the name when you buy again.

WATCHES.

GENT'S WATCHES, $1.50 and Up.

LADIES' WATCHES, $2.50 and Up.

EVERY WATCH WARRANTED.

$2.00 Belts, $1.00 Each.
75c. Brooch Pins, 25c. Each.
25 and 35c. Stick Pins, 5 and 10c. Ea.

Quincy SOUVENIR TILES Half Price,

And Other Bargains.

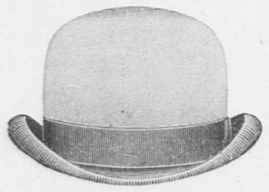

A. A. LINSCOTT, Jeweler,

154 Hancock St., opp. Post Office, Quincy.

Agent for Graphophones.

aug 6. tf

Lamson & Hubbard

1898. Fall Style. 1898.

We are prepared to show all the latest Hats for Fall wear from the blocks of the best makers.

An early call will secure you a selection from a fine assortment.

Fall Style, 1898.

GEO. W. JONES,

Adams Building, Quincy.

GEO. AMES,

the ONLY PRACTICAL PLUMBER in the Hardware business in the City. He has a patent SEWER TRAP which cannot be beat. Impossible for deadly sewer gas to enter your homes. See him about your Sewer Connection. He has had three years' experience in Boston and other large cities. Established here in 1889 and still in it. Work done anywhere.

Hardware, Paints and Oils, Putty and Glass, Yacht Supplies, Steam and Gas Fittings. Steam and Hot Air Heaters put in repair for the winter.

ADAMS BUILDING

WAR INVESTIGATION.

Boynton Concludes His Evidence as to Camp Thomas.

Fitzhugh Lee Contributes Little to the Controversy.

Expects That He Will Be on Duty In Cuba Next Month.

Washington, Oct. 7.—The war investigation commission held two sessions Thursday. In the forenoon General Boynton concluded his testimony, and General Fitzhugh Lee was heard in the afternoon. General Boynton dwelt upon the causes of disease at Camp Thomas, charging the increase toward the close of the camp to the lack of sufficient care on the part of the regimental and brigade commanders in covering the sinks.

General Lee detailed the conditions prevailing at the camp at Jacksonville. He said that the site was a good one; that the supplies were plentiful and the men well taken care of, and he had no complaint to make of the war department's treatment of his command. In June, when the expeditions were being gotten off, there was some delay, but this was natural, and since then supplies of all kinds had come with regularity and abundance. "There have, of course," he said, "been some complaints. Soldiers are like schoolboys. They sometimes complain even when there is no occasion for complaint." He thought the army ration was abundant, and in the main well suited to a campaign in a tropical climate; yet he thought some changes might be made. He was of the opinion that it would be better to send live animals to Cuba than to send refrigerator meat, as at present. According to his ideas, the men should have more fruit and less meat.

During the course of the questioning it developed that General Lee had been notified that he would be expected to move his corps to Cuba in the vicinity of Havana about the first of November, and that he considered his troops properly equipped for the campaign. He considered the Spanish uniforms better adapted to a tropical climate than ours, as they were cool and could be washed. He was fearful that the shirts and blouses of our men would be found too heavy for comfort. General Lee made the significant announcement that he was counting on landing in a friendly country, as he had received direct information that the American troops would be welcomed not only by the Cubans, but by the Spaniards as well. He said the conservative and property-owning Spaniards were especially desirous to have the American troops come for the preservation of order.

As to the efficiency of officers appointed from civil life, General Lee said some of them learned their duties very promptly; others were very slow to learn, but a majority did. He believed that volunteers would always be effective, and especially when confronted by the enemy.

Governor Beaver read a letter complaining of the situation in the Jacksonville camp. This letter said the camp was filthy, the bread moulded, the doctors generally drunk, etc.

"Is that from my command?" General Lee asked, in evident surprise. When informed that it was, he was astonished and asked for the name of the author. He said in this connection that occasional complaints had reached him, but when examined every case was found to be unfounded.

Complaints against regimental surgeons were read to the general from members of the Fourth Virginia volunteers, but he replied that he could not speak definitely of the regimental doctors in this case. Some of them he knew were not as competent as they should be. The surgeons of his rank were all competent men. He expressed the belief that division hospitals were too large. He advocated brigade hospitals as a compromise between the division and regimental hospitals.

Captain Howell asked General Lee if he considered that he had been sidetracked in the campaign. "I don't think so," he replied. "I have from time to time seen something in the newspapers to the effect that it was not the intention of the authorities that I should have an opportunity for active participation in the campaign. I, of course, had no claim to go to Santiago or to Porto Rico, as other officers in the army outranked me. It was always the understanding that my corps was organized for the Havana campaign. I had some ambition to go there because I had not been allowed to stay while I was there. I wanted to go back with some men and show our enemies that I could stay." The president had told the witness within the past few days that it was intended to send him to Havana, and in case there had been an assault upon the city that he should lead it.

General Lee dwelt upon the importance of taking proper care of the sinks as a preventive of disease. The healthiest regiment in his camp was the One Hundred and Sixty-first Indiana, which burned all its effete matter. Most of his troops were anxious to go to Cuba, but some desired to be discharged. He said, in conclusion, that he knew of no case of distress, starvation or death from any neglect, or that was due to any inefficiency on the part of the government officials. He had no complaint to make against the war department, and knew of none of his command who had.

Discussed Points of Law.

Havana, Oct. 7.—Various law points discussed by the joint commission have been left to the decision of the Paris peace commission. The Spanish commissioners were questioned regarding the armament and equipment of the irregular, provisional and volunteer troops on the island. Regarding the artillery, some of which is said to have been dismounted, the Spaniards suggested that the ordnance be appraised and sold, claiming it was to the interest of both countries to save the exorbitant freight and other charges of remounting new guns.

Owing to the vast amount of redtape required to obtain burial permits, many bodies of the poor, picked up in huts and the streets, are left for hours unburied even after they are taken to the cemetery. Two nights ago an old woman died in the street. At her head sat her little daughter in the last stages of consumption, her haggard eyes red and swollen with tears. Cars run along that thoroughfare and many persons stopped before the sad picture of distress and death. A purse was made up for the little orphan. Next morning the body was removed—12 hours after death. This sad and disgraceful incident happened in the principal suburb of the city, where apparently no distress or want exists.

Aguinaldo's Rival Dead.

Manila, Oct. 7.—Artachio, who was a fellow leader with Aguinaldo in a former revolution, and brought suit against Aguinaldo for half the money which was paid by Spain to make peace, has been shot by order of the insurgent leaders at Malolos. It is doubtful whether Aguinaldo was a consenting party to the execution.

The News of Beantown.

Boston, Oct. 7.—The feature of the Republican convention was the speech of Senator Lodge, who endorsed the platform in asserting that the country cannot thrust back under Spanish domain the people who have been set free. Governor Wolcott, speaking of the retention of the Philippines, said that an attempt to incorporate into our citizenship 8,000,000 or 10,000,000 of the other side of the world, united to us by no bonds of kindred or faith, or by any equal degree of civilization, would be a step that this people will not enter upon unless it believes that honor demands it.

Leaving Levis, opposite Quebec, at 9 o'clock yesterday morning, the special train of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery company reached this city at exactly 10 o'clock last night. The trip was entirely successful. The reception given its members by the military of Quebec was most gratifying, and the courtesies extended by the governor general and other officers were of the heartiest sort.

The closing act of the national mule spinners' convention yesterday will be a surprise to the labor organizations of the state. The delegates, all immigrants themselves, voted in favor of the further restriction of immigration.

Work of Canadian Commissioners.

Quebec, Oct. 7.—In view of the fact that the commissioners are about to conclude their work in Quebec, Senator Fairbanks, chairman of the American commission, was asked to make a statement for publication. "The commissioners have not deemed it wise hitherto," he said, "to make public any facts relating to the work of the commission. The reason for that is quite manifest, and the policy has been strictly observed. Therefore I wish to say that any and all statements relative to what the commission has determined upon with reference to any question under consideration are absolutely unreliable and without official warrant."

"Is this as true of the reports about the settlement of the Alaskan boundary question as about others?" he was asked.

"It is," he said. "The Alaskan question has not yet been settled, and so far no proposition of compromise or settlement has been made by either side. The time of the commission has been engaged in the consideration of other matters, and sometime may yet elapse before a settlement of that question is attempted."

"Can you state how much more time will be required for the commission to complete its work?"

"That I cannot say; we shall resume our work in Washington soon and hope to make good progress."

Paid the Penalty of Murder.

Salem, Oct. 7.—"Wonderful nerve," were the words used by Sheriff Johnson of Essex county, in describing the demeanor of Alfred C. Williams, whom he hung this forenoon for the murder of John Guilo. The expression used by the sheriff was borne out by a visit last night to the cell of the condemned man, who, with the thought that he had but a few hours more to live constantly before him, showed absolutely no sign of emotion, and in fact appeared to be but slightly interested in the arrangements that were being made for the execution.

His last act before the sun set last night was to request that a bouquet of fine flowers, that grow in beds at different intervals on the lawn in front of the jail, be sent to him, and when they were received he kissed them fondly. He was called at 5:30, and after breakfast was prepared for the gallows. The Rev. Mr. Puffer accompanied the prisoner in his march to death.

Drank to Drown Trouble.

London, Oct. 7.—At the inquest in Burnley, Lancaster, into the cause of the death of Mary Jones, an actress, a solicitor who attended on behalf of the deceased's father, said the latter, whose name is Lewis, resides in the United States and had regularly allowed his daughter £240 annually for some years. The verdict of the jury found that death had been accelerated by drink. The deceased woman arrived in Burnley a week ago last Monday. She told her landlady that her father was an American millionaire, from whom she received an allowance of £240 a year. She said she had been in trouble for months, and was an inmate of a London hospital. The evidence further showed that she had been ill for a week before her death, and that she appeared greatly depressed. The landlady expressed the opinion that she was not an habitual drunkard, but had taken to drink to drown her troubles.

Lead For the Championship.

Washington, Oct. 7.—A small crowd attended the races under the auspices of the National Racing Cyclists union, the opposing organization to the L. A. W. The most noted cracks in bicycle circles participated. The principal event, the great quarter-mile championship, furnished a surprise in that Kimble of Louisville carried off first honors. Taylor and Bald were placed second and third respectively. Taylor, by the addition of 40 points to his score as the result of yesterday's races, against Bald's 30, comes within two points of the white man for the lead for championship honors. Kimble's victory put him ahead of McFarland of San Francisco for third place.

WORSE THAN BULLETS

Suffering of the Army and Rural Population of Cuba.

Urgent Need of Food to Stop Horrors of Famine.

Spaniards Preventing Importation of Supplies From the Coast.

New York, Oct. 7.—The members of the Cuban junta here are much concerned about the stories of suffering from lack of food received in their advices from the Cuban army. Letters have come which state that the condition of the army and of the rural population in Cuba is worse than during the continuance of the war. The junta officials maintain that the course adopted by the Spanish is resulting as effectually in causing death to the Cuban insurgents and pacificos as did the policy of reconcentration adopted by Weyler.

HORATIO S. RUBENS.

The following is an extract from a letter received by Horatio S. Rubens, counsel to the junta: "Nobody can form an adequate idea of the horrors of our position. Famine causes more deaths in our ranks than have heretofore the bullets of the enemy. If within a month we do not receive much food, more than one third of the rural population will cease to exist, and even a month may be too late."

Counsel Rubens said this extract was but one of a score of more similar ones received by him. The Spanish hold the coast towns and the Cubans control the interior. The Spanish maintain that the status quo provided by the protocol is that they in the towns take care of themselves and the Cubans in the country, including the rural population supposedly in sympathy with the insurgents, take care of themselves, all warfare ceasing. This, continued Counsel Rubens, is carrying out the policy of reconcentration and necessarily of extermination, as the Spanish will not allow the importation of food through the coast towns.

To lay before the president the advices of this nature received here and to urge if possible the speedy insistence by the American peace commissioners in Havana on the discontinuance of the excessive Spanish duties on food importations is said to be the chief reason for the visit of Delegate Palma to Washington just now.

Haberdasher With a Temper.

Jacksonville, Oct. 7.—J. M. Coleman, a haberdasher, fired a pistol at a fleeing soldier yesterday, but fortunately failed to hit anyone, though the street was filled with people. The trouble seems to have started in Coleman's store between Coleman and a soldier, the two having some words. Coleman, who has an irascible temper, used foul language, and a crowd of soldiers gathered. Major Harrison saw the crowd and went in to see what the trouble was. Coleman called him vile names and ordered him from the store. Harrison went for a policeman, Coleman being a private citizen.

As to what occurred just here, accounts differ and are somewhat confusing. It is claimed by Coleman that a soldier entered the store and struck him over the head with a pair of brass knuckles and then ran; that he followed the soldier to the door and fired at him. No sooner had the shot been fired than the soldiers rushed into the store, and the shout went up to lynch him. Provost guards were standing by, and at once loaded their rifles. Major Harrison ordered the enraged soldiers off and thus undoubtedly prevented bloodshed. Coleman was placed under arrest.

Yacht Capsized by a Wire.

Troy, Oct. 7.—The bodies of N. L. Weatherby, Stephen J. Mallory, Mrs. William Breslin and Elizabeth Savage, who were drowned by the capsizing of a yacht in the Hudson river three miles north of this city Wednesday, have not been recovered. The accident was due to the swift current in the river, occasioned by the prevailing freshet, which threw the yacht against a wire strung near Riverdale camp, which place the party left to return to this city. Charles Converse, who conducts the camp, says that he warned Commodore Weatherby of the location of the wire, and that the latter stated that he would be cautious. Shortly after the yacht left the landing Converse heard a woman's voice shout, "Oh, my God, help, help." He tried to locate the voice, but could not, as the night was dark.

"Negro Scab Coal."

Pana, Ills., Oct. 7.—The militia continue to patrol the streets, holding up and searching all classes of citizens and relieving them of any firearms. The union miners, in conference with state labor leaders of various organizations, have adopted plans for a more vigorous war against the blacks and the mine operators. Every effort will be put forth to keep the coal mined by the blacks out of the market. Every car that leaves Pana is now mysteriously labelled with chalk: "Negro scab coal from Pana, Ills."

TO CURE NERVOUS DYSPEPSIA.

To Gain Flesh, to Sleep Well, to Know What Appetite and Good Digestion Mean, Make a Test of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Interesting Experience of an Indianapolis Gentleman.

No trouble is more common or more misunderstood than nervous dyspepsia. People having it think that their nerves are to blame, are surprised that they are not cured by nerve medicines and spring remedies; the real seat of mischief is lost sight of; the stomach is the organ to be looked after.

Nervous dyspeptics often do not have any pain whatever in the stomach, nor perhaps any of the usual symptoms of stomach weakness. Nervous dyspepsia shows itself not in the stomach so much as in nearly every other organ; in some cases the heart palpitates and is irregular; in others, the kidneys are affected; in others the bowels are constipated, with headaches still others are troubled with loss of flesh and appetite, with the accumulation of gass, sour risings and heartburn.

Mr. A. W. Sharper of No. 61 Prospect street, Indianapolis, Ind., writes as follows: "A motive of pure gratitude prompts me to write these few liens regarding the new and valuable medicine, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I have been a sufferer from nervous dyspepsia for the last four years have used various patent medicines and other remedies without any favorable result. They sometimes gave temporary relief until the effects of the medicine wore off. I attributed this to my sedentary habits, being a bookkeeper with little physical exercise, but I am glad to state that the tablets have overcome all the obstacle, for I have gained in flesh, sleep better, and am better in every way. The above is written not for notority, but is based on actual facts."

Repectfully yours,
A. W. Sharper,
61 Prospect street, Indianapolis, Ind.

It is safe to say that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will cure any stomach weakness or disease except cancer of the stomach. They cure sour stomach, gas, loss of flesh and appetite, sleeplessness, palpitation, heartburn, constipation and headache.

Send for valuable little book on stomach diseases by addressing Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

All drggists sell full-sized packages at 50 cents. 3t-357.

BOYS' SUITS THAT SUIT BOYS

Grand Clearance Sale of Boys'

SCHOOL SUITS,

$1.50 to $3.50.

Worth Double the Price.

School begins Tuesday and your boy wants something new. Drop in to our store tonight and see how little money it takes to dress him handsomely.

Granite Clothing Co.

DURGIN & MERRILL'S BLOCK.

Come, Mary,

Let's go over to the Quincy Second-Hand Variety Store and see if we can't find just what we want. You say you need some more kitchen goods and a few chairs, a carpet for the chamber, some glassware and various other things, and when I was there last week I saw my cousin get a lot of goods for almost nothing. He told me that sometimes he could find new goods at less than half price. These are hard times, Mary, and we must buy where the dollar goes farthest.

WALTER P. PINEL

is the Manager, and the store is right over here at number 20 Franklin street.

aug25 1y

DR. RALPH M. FOGG,

DENTIST.

Teeth extracted absolutely without pain by the use of the

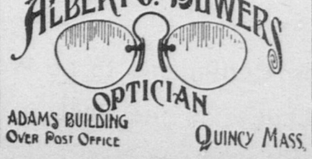

"BOSTON VEGETABLE VAPOR."

It is claimed that, while it has the required properties of ether, chloroform, nitrous oxide gas, it lacks the disagreeable and dangerous qualities of these drugs. It is certainly a boon to suffering humanity to be relieved of the nausea too often following the administering of sedatives of the old school.—Boston Transcript.

Teeth made and repaired on Gold or Rubber base. Teeth Filling a specialty.

Office in French's Building, five doors south of Post Office, Quincy, Wednesdays. Hours, 9 A. M. to 9 P. M. July18-1y Nov8-1vo

ALBERT J. BOWERS

OPTICIAN

ADAMS BUILDING
OVER POST OFFICE

QUINCY MASS.

Quincy and Boston Electric Street Railway.

[Subject to change without notice.]

On and after September 21, cars will be run on the different routes as follows:

Quincy and Neponset.

Leave CITY SQUARE for Neponset at 5.55, 6.10, 6.25, 6.40 A. M. and every 15 minutes until 11.10 P. M.

Leave NEPONSET for Quincy at 6.15 A. M. and every 15 minutes until 11.30 P. M.

Cars leaving Quincy at 10 minutes past the hour go via Norfolk Downs, and those leaving Neponset at 30 minutes past go via Downs.

Cars leaving Neponset 15 minutes of and 15 minutes past the hour go via Wollaston and continue through Braintree and Holbrook to Brockton, connecting with cars for Bridgewater, Taunton, New Bedford, Fall River, Newport and Providence.

Quincy and East Weymouth.

Leave CITY SQUARE (10 minutes later from Quincy Point and 22 minutes later from North Weymouth)—5.45, 6.20, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20, 9.50, 10.20, 10.50, 11.20, 11.50 A. M.; 12.20, 12.50, 1.20, 1.50, 2.20, 2.50, 3.20, 3.50, 4.20, 4.50, 5.20, (5.30 to East Weymouth car house), 5.50, 6.20, 6.30, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20, 9.50, 10.50 P. M., (11.50 Wednesday and Saturday to Thomas' Corner only.)

Leave EAST WEYMOUTH (20 minutes later from North Weymouth and 30 minutes later from Quincy Point)—6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8, 8.30, 9, 9.30 10, 10.30, 11, 11.30 A. M.; 12, 12.30, 1, 1.30, 2, 2.30, 3, 3.30, 4, 4.30, 5, 5.30, 6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8 8.30, 9, 9.30, 10, 10.30, 11.30 P. M.

Quincy and Weymouth Landing.

Leave QUINCY at 5.30 A. M., 6.20, 7.20 and every hour until 12.20, then 1.50 and every hour until 10.50 P. M.

Leave WEYMOUTH LANDING at 5.50 A. M. and every hour until 12.50, then 2.20 and every hour until 11.20 P. M., connect with trains to Boston at Quincy.

Quincy and East Milton.

Leave CITY SQUARE, 5.55, 6.25, then every 5 minutes of and 25 minutes past the hour until 9.25 P. M., then at 10.50 P. M.

Leave EAST MILTON 6.25, 6.55 A. M., then every 5 minutes of and 25 minutes past the hour until 9.50 P. M., then 10.20 and 11.20 P. M.

Quincy and Holbrook.

Leave QUINCY for Holbrook at 6.10 and 6.40 A. M., and every half hour until 9.40 P. M., then 10.10 P. M. to South Braintree only, except on Wednesday and Saturday, when can at 10.50 runs through to Holbrook.

Quincy and Hingham.

Leave QUINCY at 7.20 A. M. and every hour until 11.20 A. M., then 1.50 and every hour until 5.50 P. M.

Leave HINGHAM at 8 A. M. and every hour until 12 M., then 2.30 and every hour until 6.30 P. M.

Neponset, Atlantic and Squantum.

Leave NEPONSET at 6.30 A. M. and every hour until 8.30 P. M., connecting at Atlantic with outward express trains.

Leave SQUANTUM at 7 A. M. and every hour until 9 P. M., connecting at Atlantic with express trains.

Quincy and Houghs Neck.

Leave QUINCY CENTRE at 6.20 A. M., and and every hour until 1.20, and then 1.50 and every hour until 9.50.

Returning, leave HOUGHS NECK at 5.45 A. M., and every hour until 12.45, and then 1.20 and every hour until 9.20.

SUNDAYS.

Cars leave City Square, Quincy, for E. Weymouth at 7.30 A. M. and West Quincy at 7 A. M and on the hour and half hour throughout the day.

Sunday time same as week days on other lines, except that the first two trips are omitted.

BENJ. J. WEEKS, Superintendent.

New York, New Haven and Hartford R. R.

Eastern District.

On and after July 1st, 1898, trains will run as follows: (See note of explanation at bottom.

TO BOSTON.				FROM BOSTON.
Leave Quincy.	Stops at	Arrive Boston.		Leave Boston.	Stops at	Arrive Quincy
r 6 12	abc	e 6 30		5 55	ihgfedcba	*6 22 r
r 6 42	abc	7 00		6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30		7 30	cba	7 49 r
r 7 26	ad	7 45		8 30	cba	8 49 r
r 7 42	abc	8 00		9 30	cba	9 49 r
r 8 12	abc	8 30		10 30	cba	10 49 r
r 8 26	ad	8 43		11 30	cba	11 49 r
r 8 42	abc	9 00		12 30	cba	12 49r
r 9 12	abc	9 30		1 30	cba	1 49 r
r 10 12	abc	10 30		2 30	cba	2 49 r
r 11 12	abc	11 30		3 30	cba	3 49 r
r 12 12	abc	12 30		4 30	cba	4 49 r
r 1 12	abc	1 30		5 00	cba	5 19 r
r 2 12	abc	2 30		5 17	da	5 36 r
r 3 12	abc	3 30		5 30	cba	5 49 r
r 4 12	abc	4 30		6 00	cba	6 19 r
r 5 12	abc	5 30		6 17	da	6 36 r
r 6 12	abc	6 30		6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30		7 00	cba	7 19 r
r 7 39	abcdefghi	8 05		7 30	cba	7 49 r
r 8 08	abcdef	8 30		8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30		9 30	cba	9 49 r
r 10 08	abcdef	10 30		10 30	fedcba	10 53 r
r 11 12	abc	11 30		11 30	cba	11 49 r

SUNDAYS.

r 7 12	abc	7 30		6 30	cba	6 r
r 8 12	abc	8 30		8 30	cba	8 49 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30		12 30	cba	12 49 r
r 1 12	abc	1 30		4 30	cba	4 49 r
r 5 12	abc	5 30		5 30	cba	5 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30		6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 8 08	abcdef	8 30		8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
r 10 08	abcdef	10 30		10 30	fedcba	10 53 r

*The letters in the same line as the figures stand for different stations and indicate that trains stop, as follows:

a, Wollaston, b, Norfolk Downs. c, Atlantic. d, Neponset. e, Pope's Hill, f, Harrison Square. g, Savin Hill. h, Crescent Avenue. i, South Boston. r, Quincy Adams. (xx), Express.

C PETER CLARK, Gen'l Supt. A. C. KENDALL, G. P. A

☞ Our $1.00 comforters are without a rival. Other prices from 75 cents to $3.50. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

ncy and Boston
ic Street Railway.

ect to change without notice.]

after September 21, cars will be ifferent routes as follows:

uincy and Neponset.

TY SQUARE for Neponset at 5.55, .40 A. M. and every 15 minutes until

EPONSET for Quincy at 6.15 A. M. 5 minutes until 11.30 P. M.
ing Quincy at 10 minutes past the Norfolk Downs, and those leaving 30 minutes past go via Downs.
ing Neponset 15 minutes of and 15 st the hour go via Wollaston and hrough Braintree and Holbrook to connecting with cars for Bridge- nton, New Bedford, Fall River, d Providence.

cy and East Weymouth.

TY SQUARE (10 minutes later fro at and 22 minutes later from North —5.45, 6.20, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, .50, 10.20, 10.50, 11.20, 11.50 A. M.; 1.20, 1.50, 2.20, 2.50, 3.20, 3.50, 4.20, 5.30 to East Weymouth car house), .30, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20, P. M., (11.50 Wednesday and Saturday Corner only.)

AST WEYMOUTH (20 minutes later Weymouth and 30 minutes later fro nt)—6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8, 8.30, 9, 9.30 1, 11.30 A. M.; 12, 12.30, 1, 1.30, 2, 4, 4.30, 5, 5.30, 6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8 10, 10.30, 11.30 P. M. y and Weymouth Landing.

QUINCY at 5.30 A. M., 6.20, 7.20 and until 12.20, then 1.50 and every hour P. M.
WEYMOUTH LANDING at 5.50 very hour until 12.50, then 2.20 and r until 11.20 P. M., connect with o ton at Quincy.

uincy and East Milton.

ITY SQUARE, 5.55, 6.25, then every of and 25 minutes past the hour unti then at 10.50 P. M.
AST MILTON 6.25, 6.55 A. M., then nutes of and 25 minutes past the hour P. M., then 10.20 and 11.20 P. M.

Quincy and Holbrook.

QUINCY for Holbrook at 6.10 and and every half hour until 9.40 P. M., P. M. to South Braintree only, Wednesday and Saturday, when can ns through to Holbrook.

Quincy and Hingham.

QUINCY at 7.20 A. M. and every hour A. M., then 1.50 and every hour until HINGHAM at 8 A. M. and every hour M., then 2.30 and every hour until set, Atlantic and Squantum.

NEPONSET at 6.30 A. M. and every 8.30 P. M., connecting at Atlantic ard express trains.
SQUANTUM at 7 A. M. and every 9 P. M., connecting at Atlantic with ains.

uincy and Houghs Neck.

QUINCY CENTRE at 6.20 A. M., and hour until 1.20, and then 1.50 and r until 9.50.
ng, leave HOUGHS NECK at 5.45 every hour until 12.45, and then 1.20 hour until 9.20.

SUNDAYS.

ave City Square, Quincy, for E. Wey- 7.30 A. M. and West Quincy at 7 A. M e hour and half hour throughout the time same as week days on other lines, the first two trips are omitted.

NJ. J. WEEKS, Superintendent.

York, New Haven
d Hartford R. R.

astern District.

after July 1st, 1898, trains will run (See note of explanation at bottom.

FROM BOSTON.		FROM BOSTON.
Stops at	Arrive Boston.	Leave Boston.	Stops at	Arrive Quincy bc c	6 30	5 55 ihgfedcba*	6 22 r
bc	7 00	6 30 cba	6 49 r
bc	7 30	7 30 cba	7 49 r
	7 43	8 30 cba	8 49 r
c	8 00	9 30 cba	9 49 r
bc	8 30	10 30 cba	10 49 r d	8 43	11 30 cba	11 49 r
bc	9 00	12 30 cba	12 49 r
bc	9 30	1 30 cba	1 49 r
bc	10 30	2 30 cba	2 49 r
bc	11 30	3 30 cba	3 49 r
bc	12 30	4 30 cba	4 49 r
bc	1 30	5 00 cba	5 19 r
bc	2 30	5 17 da	5 36 r
bc	3 30	5 30 cba	5 49 r
bc	4 30	6 00 cba	6 19 r
bc	5 30	6 17 da	6 36 r
bc	6 30	6 30 cba	6 49 r
bc	7 30	7 00 cba	7 19 r
bcdefghi	8 05	7 30 cba	7 42 r
bcdef	8 30	8 30 fedcba	8 53 r
bc	9 30	9 30 cba	9 49 r
bcdef	10 30	10 30 fedcba	10 53 r
bc	11 30	11 30 cba	11 49 r

SUNDAYS.

bc	7 30	6 30 cba	6 r
bc	8 30	8 30 cba	8 49 r
bc	9 30	12 30 cba	12 49 r
bc	1 30	4 30 cba	4 49 r
bc	5 30	5 30 cba	5 49 r
bc	7 30	6 30 cba	6 49 r
bcdef	8 30	8 30 fedcba	8 53 r
bcdef	10 30	10 30 fedcba	10 53 r

tters in the same line as the figures different stations and indicate that as follows:

on, g, Savin Hill.
Downs. h, Crescent Avenue.
e. i, South Boston.
et.
Hill, r, Quincy Adams.
n Square. (xx), Express.

R CLARK, A. C. KENDALL,
'l Supt. G. P. A

r $1.00 comforters are without a her prices from 75 cents to $3.50. Kincaide & Co.

QUINCY DAILY LEDGER.

VOL. 10. No. 34. QUINCY, MASS., SATURDAY, OCTOBER 8, 1898. PRICE 2 CENTS.

THE FLOUR OF THE FAMILY.

So Long as Bread is Made

from flour and flour is made from wheat, just so long will the BEST bread be made from PILLSBURY'S BEST flour.

It commands the highest wholesale price, and has the largest sale, of any flour in the world.

For Sale by Grocers Generally
AND

COBB, BATES & YERXA CO.

BOSTON.

F. H. CRANE & SONS, Agents,
QUINCY.

Sept. 24—4w 24 4t s

NOTICE EXTRAORDINARY.

MRS. B. CRAVENS, the Expert Demonstrator of

"HER MAJESTY'S CORSET,"

will fill a special one week's engagement at our store, commencing Oct. 10th and ending Oct. 15th Mrs. Cravens will be glad to explain the merits of this Celebrated Corset and give fittings, thus illustrating its superiority over others.

We desire it to be distinctly understood that ladies will not be expected to purchase a Corset after a fitting is made unless they so desire.

"Her Majesty's Corset" is Not the Cheapest, but the Best.

☞ "Her Majesty's Corset" in Fit, Wear and Comfort is unsurpassed. It is worn by well dressed women. Endorsed by Physicians and Modistes.

D. E. WADSWORTH & CO.,
Hancock Street, Quincy.

Gentlemen, Buy Your....

OVERCOATS

Where you can find the best assortment in the city and the lowest prices, which is at

C. F. DERBY'S, SAVINGS BANK BUILDING, QUINCY. 5-1m

MILLINERY.

Grand Opening Oct. 5, 6, 7,
OF CHOICE
FALL and WINTER MILLINERY,

Consisting of Imported French Hats and Millinery Novelties.

You are cordially invited to call and inspect the same.

E. B. COLLINS,
4 Faxon Block, Quincy, Mass.
☞ NO CARDS.

Oct. 4. 6t

THE TRUE TONIC TRUE'S ELIXIR

is not a stimulant but a blood purifying, cleansing and harmless mixture of vegetable ingredients which cures disorders of the digestive tract and expels worms. It does not whip the tired organs into temporary activity as most remedies do, followed by an equal reaction, but True's Elixir removes the cause of the trouble and its tonic effects are due to good, sound digestion and pure blood, which follow its use. A favorite family medicine for 47 years. Its popularity is due entirely to its cures. Ask your druggist for it. 35 cents a bottle. DR. J. F. TRUE & CO., AUBURN, ME.

THE TRANS-MISSISSIPPI EXPOSITION AT OMAHA—SCENE AT THE INDIAN CONGRESS. FROM HARPER'S WEEKLY.

AFTER A DRAWING BY W. A. ROGERS. Reproduced from Harper's Weekly. By Permission. Copyright, 1898, by Harper & Brothers.

The Trans-Mississippi exposition means so much and proves so much that it ranks very closely with the Columbian Exposition as a revelation to the visitor.

One of the most interesting features of the exposition, to an Eastern man, is the congress of Indians, which was brought together at the fair through the aid and co-operation of the government.

All the principal tribes are represented from the Apaches of the Southwest to the Assiniboins and Sioux of the North. An Indian on foot is generally a rather dignified person, but a six-foot warrior sitting back almost on the haunches of a disconsolate little pony is about the most ludicrous sight imaginable. Our illustration, for which we are indebted to Harper's Weekly, shows a scene at the Indian congress.

Many of the Indians from a distance brought their savage belongings in new tin trunks, and an ancient earthen water-jar rolled up against a new four-dollar trunk seemed to strike the sense of humor of most of the visitors. But the greatest contrast furnished by the Indian encampment is with the exposition buildings. Here is a tract of land which, up to a year and a half ago, was never disturbed by anything, except a corn-plough, since prehistoric times.

Over it, no doubt, many of the older Indians now on the exposition grounds spent their boyhood days, shooting at birds and gophers with their bows and arrows.

Today, towering around them are gilded domes, wonderful reproductions and adaptations of the architectural art of the Greeks and Romans, and exhibits of industrial arts such as the world never saw until the four great American expositions of the present decade.

To that particular class of persons who insist that the Americans are not an artistic people such an achievement as this—the building of a mimic city of the utmost grandeur and beauty on this old hunting-ground of forty years ago and corn-field of two years back—ought to be a sufficient answer. Speaking of American art, it has shown itself in the past few years in an unexpected direction Foreigners usually tell us that it is impossible for art to flourish here in these days, because this is the age and the country of invention and mechanics.

The people of the trans-Mississippi States have cause to be proud of this exposition of their success in developing the agricultural and mineral resources of the Western plains and mountains. They have much to show the President of the United States when he comes to visit the fair, much to make him feel a deeper pride in his exalted station. W. A. ROGERS.

The Social Realm.

The grace of friendship, mind and heart
Linked with their fellow heart and mind;
The gains of seeing gifts or art;
The sense of oneness with our kind;
The thirst to know and understand
A large and liberal discontent;
These are the goods in life's rich hand,
The things that are more excellent.
—William Watson.

* * *

Two weddings Tuesday evening.

* * *

The Hall-Merrill wedding is to take place next Tuesday evening at eight o'clock at the Bethany church.

* * *

Mrs. E. C. Bumpus entertained Mrs. Kate Gannett Wells and the officers of the Quincy Home Science association, at her home on Friday afternoon at the close of the meeting at the First church chapel.

* * *

Miss Mary Curtis of Norwell has been visiting friends in Quincy.

* * *

The engagement is announced of Miss Mary B. Hobart and Mr. Frederick G. Pennock of Braintree.

* * *

Every one has been to the Brockton fair this week.

* * *

The wedding reception of Miss Addie F. Perry and Mr. Edward W. Hayden is to be held next Tuesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George F. Perry, Johnson avenue.

* * *

George W. Stevens of Braintree is in Pittsburg, Penn., where he is enjoying his vacation, attending the conclave of the Knight Templars.

* * *

Hon. and Mrs. William N. Eaton of Adams street, have sent out invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Minnie Francesca, and Mr. Henry Rice Holden, at the First Unitarian church on Wednesday evening, October nineteenth, at half after seven.

* * *

Miss Elmira Simmons of Wollaston is to serve on the executive committee of the Historical and Patriotic department, at the Mechanic association fair to be held in Boston from Oct. 10 to Dec. 3.

Mr. Azel R. French of Braintree starts tonight for Pittsburg, Pa., with the Boston Commandery Knight Templars. His travelling companion will be Mr. Frank E. Russell, of the firm of Russell, Snow & Davis Company of Boston.

* * *

Miss Jennie Cannon has been stopping with her sister, Mrs. Joseph Johnson of Russell park, during the absence of Mr. Johnson, on a gunning trip in Maine.

* * *

Mrs. Ella Rice of Maine is spending a week in this city with friends. She is now the guest of Miss Julia M. Little of Spear street. Mrs. Rice at one time lived on Spear street and latter at the Point. She is sister to Wm. G. Spear of the Quincy Historical society.

* * *

Samuel Curtis is visiting at Rockland.

* * *

Miss Helen A. Belcher and Mr. Howard Randall of Randolph, were united in marriage on Wednesday, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Ephraim F. Belcher. Over fifty guests were present from neighboring towns. Mr. and Mrs. Randall are to make their home with Mrs. Belcher on North Main street, Randolph.

* * *

Mrs. Bainbridge of Wollaston has been visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. Winsor Pratt at Raudolph.

* * *

Members of Adams Chapter are to give two whist parties at Colonial hall on Tuesday, October 18. In the afternoon it will be a picnic whist; each lady will bring an inexpensive gift and at the end of the play each lady will receive a gift grab-bag fashion. The evening whist will be for ladies and men when prizes will be given for the highest scores.

* * *

C. A. Belcher and Dr. H.L. Dearing, of Braintree, with their wives, are taking a trip down the Hudson.

* * *

Dr. John A. Gordon has returned from a few weeks' outing.

Miss Ellen Thompson begins her autumn course of talks, Tuesday, October 11th, at the home of Mrs. George G. Saville, Greenleaf street. The subject for the first hour is the Coronation of Queen Wilhemia and a resume of the illustrious House of Orange—Nassau of which the young queen is the last scion.

* * *

Mr. George DeHuff a former resident of Atlantic has been spending a few days among his friends the past week.

* * *

Miss Leila Moxon has been spending a week at Hull among friends.

* * *

Mrs. Charles L. Coe spent a few days at Littleton the present week.

* * *

Mrs. James Kewen of Billings street, Atlantic, has returned from a month's visit in New Hampshire.

* * *

All Quincy must be going to dance this winter for no less than four teachers are giving lessons in our midst.

* * *

Atlantic as usual is begining to wake up, as the winter season opens, and already two dancing schools are announced for children in thi lively ward.

* * *

Miss Eliza Pratt of Weymouth Heights, starts Wednesday on a journey to Kansas, where she will remain through the winter.

Royal makes the food pure, wholesome and delicious.

ROYAL
ROYAL BAKING POWDER
BAKING POWDER
Absolutely Pure

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

The engagement is announced of Miss Emma Louise Pratt of Auburndale, daughter of Editor Pratt of the Newton Journal, of Mr. Alexander W. Ferguson, a former resident of Quincy.

* * *

Dr. Geo. B. Rice and family are not to spend the winter in Boston as usual but have settled in their new home on Washington street, Brookline. They left Quincy the first of the month.

* * *

Emily C. Wild is spending the month of October with friends at New Bedford.

* * *

Bright colors are no longer used for skirt and jacket linings, those of a subdued color, on the tone of the costume being preferred.

* * *

Mrs. L. J. Peterson of Weymouth, entertained the members of the Algonquin Whist club, on Wednesday evening. The officers were elected for the coming year are: President, H. A. Thomas; vice president, Mrs. H. W. Dyer; secretary and treasurer, Frank L. Spear. The next meeting will be held Monday evening.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Saville of Somerville are at Weymouth for a few days.

* * *

Miss Grace Lothrop Durgin, Beale street, salutatorian of Class '98, Quincy High school, has entered the College of Liberal Arts, Boston University.

* * *

Miss Bertha Frances Nichols, 35 Newport avenue, is enjoying a trip to New York and up the Hudson with her aunt, Mrs. E. S. Boland, the wife of a prominent Boston physician.

* * *

Rev. J. H. Yeoman and wife are the guests of the Misses Clean for a few days.

* * *

Mrs. Isabel Howard and daughter, Grace, returned to their home in Los Angeles, Cal., after an extended visit with her mother, Mrs. Charles Greenard of Norfolk Downs.

* * *

Mr. Charles Walsh is spending a few weeks at Randolph the guest of his uncle, Mr. Eugene Thayer.

Continued on page 8.

WOMAN'S WORLD.

SHE BECAME A LAWYER BY HER OWN UNAIDED EFFORTS.

Etiquette In the Nursery—English Army Nurses—Women and Outdoor Sports—Women In Foreign Orders. Plainly Dressed Royal Children.

Among the successful applicants for admission to practice law passed by the supreme court commissioners yesterday was Mrs. Amanda G. Peters, formerly Miss Shay of this city. She was the only woman among those who took the examination, but she made as creditable a showing as any of the rest, and although the test was rigid she proved to be soundly equipped in knowledge of the law.

It is much to the credit of Mrs. Peters that she was able to pass the examination, for what she knows of the law she has learned by her own efforts and without the aid of office instruction or a collegiate course of study. While she resided in San Francisco she worked as a compositor on a morning paper, and her hours of leisure were few, but what time she had was spent in study. Her books, too, were few in number, but she mastered them one by one and used up her small savings in the purchase of more.

MRS. A. G. PETERS.

A little over a year ago Miss Shay became the wife of C. E. Peters, and the couple removed to near Placerville, El Dorado county, where Mr. Peters was teaching school. Together they continued the study of the law, and three months ago they came to this city to prepare for the examination. Both passed, and they will now probably remain in the city.—San Francisco Examiner.

Etiquette In the Nursery.

The nursery is the child's microcosm. Here he begins to practice those gifts and graces which will stand him in stead at a later day.

Let the children be taught to avoid the use of slang. It is as well that they shall have no especial pet phrase and that their speech shall be refined.

They may play as merrily as they choose, but it is well that they shall not be too rough or boisterous. In going about a house children are not the gainers if allowed to tear from top to bottom of the stairs like little savages or suffered to shout at the tops of their voices or to interrupt conversation.

A well bred child will bring its toys and be neither a trouble nor a torment in the drawing room where his mother and her friends are talking.

About children's questions—as a rule, they should be answered as fully and clearly as possible, but children should not be encouraged in the mere asking of a long string of questions simply for the sake of putting themselves in evidence.

One needs to exercise discretion in answering the question that is asked because the child really wishes to know, and to decide what answer to give when the child is simply determined to be in the foreground. It is sometimes best to say very plainly and candidly to a child, "I cannot explain this to you now; I shall do so when you are older."

English children are kept in the nursery to an extent almost unknown among us. They see their parents less frequently than do American children.

Mamma is to them a sweet presiding genius, something very like a queen, who comes in now and then, to whom complaints are referred, who is the real sovereign, but is not always at their beck and call. The soft pillowy bosom of nurse, usually a middle aged and comfortable sort of personage, receives their little heads in their childish trials and troubles.

The nurse takes the children to walk, attends to their meals, manages all their affairs.

The plan has something to be said in its favor, for certainly a mild mannered and equable nurse is better for a child than a wearied and half hysterical mother.—Philadelphia Press.

English Army Nurses.

America, strictly speaking, has no army nurses. We have proficient nurses who care for the ills of patients in our city hospitals and in private families, but they have not received the particular training that is essential to life and work in overcrowded wards and hospital ships. Fifteen years since the English government recognized the fact that it was necessary to give women special training for military nursing, and the queen founded Netley hospital soon after Florence Nightingale's magnificent work in the Crimea. The students at Netley are taught with scrupulous care. They are required to work in the hospital, first as probationers and then as registered nurses, from five to six years, and the government gives no diplomas until the severest examinations have been passed. Once graduated from Netley school, a woman becomes a part of the British army, subject to the commands of her government and pledged to bow to the peculiar discipline under which the army nurses are held. At any day or any hour, on a moment's warning, she must be ready to embark for any part of the world where her services are required. To the shores of the Nile, the jungles of South Africa or to the frontiers of India. Like a soldier, she wears a uniform and travels with the least possible luggage. In the hospital she wears a print gown and white apron. Her voyages to distant lands are usually made in hospital ships, and she plays no part on the field of battle. Her duty is to serve in hospitals near the scene of combat, to which the wounded are sent. She is in no sense a doctor, but she is a surgeon's assistant. When the government issues a call for an ill man to be sent home from a foreign station, Netley nurses go out on a vessel to bring him home. For this reason they are obliged to be capital sailors, and they know a ship from stem to stern.—Springfield Republican.

Women and Outdoor Sports.

Roughly estimated, it is perhaps a decade since women began to take an active part in more than two or three sports. It has been predicted time and time again that their interest was only a caprice, that outdoor exercise was only a fad. These predictions have grown fainter and fainter, until they are scarcely heard at all. Instead of flaring up and out, the interest women show in suitable sports has steadily deepened and broadened. Every year women have a greater choice in the matter. A few years ago there was practically nothing but tennis and bowling open to them—both too violent to be possible for many women. That rather dubious duet of athletic blessings has now grown to a list of very respectable length, so that it seems as if almost any woman might indulge in that "much bustling about in the open air" which an eminent German physician has declared to be an essential to good health. In the nature of things, sailing is slower than most sports to enlist the active participation of women. It is making sure if slow headway among them, however. At Newport this season there were several races between 30 footers sailed by women. At Jamaica bay there was one yacht race with eight entries, all of the boats being "manned" by women. According to the rules, only one man was allowed on each yacht, but the course was carefully patrolled by the boats of the regatta committee in order to guard against accidents. To the credit of the women crews be it said the patrolling fleet found its role purely ornamental.—Harper's Bazar.

Women In Foreign Orders.

In the world of art men still monopolize to a great degree the orders of distinction. Only about 20 foreign orders are open to women, these being strictly confined to a small class.

In England, if the Order of the Hospital of St. John of Jerusalem be ignored, only three honorary titles can be conferred on the gentler sex. These are the Crown of India, the Royal Order of Victoria and Albert and the Royal Red Cross. The total membership of women in these orders is about 200, of whom 70 are of royal blood, 33 are relatives of the British governors of India or Indian princesses, 61 are nurses and the remainder are of "high distinction."

There are now 52 Frenchwomen who belong to the great national Order of the Legion of Honor, and eight other legionnaires have been removed by death. At the head of the list stands Mme. Rosa Bonheur, the great painter. The award of the French jury, which gave to her the grand prize for "The Horse Fair," carried with it the cross of the Legion of Honor. The decoration was refused to her on account of her sex in 1858, but was ultimately conferred upon her in 1865. She was promoted to the rank of officer in April, 1891. Frenchwomen may also receive the distinction of becoming officier de l'instruction publique or of being elected officier de l'academie.

Plainly Dressed Royal Children.

Those wise little mothers who decry the American habit of overdressing wee bits of babies will be interested to know that Prince Albert, the small mite of 4 years, who is in the direct line of succession to the throne of England, wears the plainest kind of frocks and bonnets.

The children of the royal family are always clothed simply. Their little arms are unhampered with frills and furbelows, and ribbons and bows are not continually getting into their precious mouths or tickling their soft, pretty necks. Little Prince Albert wears tucked skirts of pique and blouses of the same material, trimmed with braid of thin white or turkey red. The children of many of the well to do Americans are costumed in small garments every bit as costly.

Prince Albert's youngest brother, Prince Albert Frederick Arthur George of York, who is one year younger than the eldest baby of the Duke of York's interesting family, plays his baby games in ordinary frocks of nainsook, trimmed perhaps with a few dainty tucks or edgings of delicate hand embroidery. The little sister, Princess Victoria, who was 1 year old April 25 last, has for everyday wear plain, fine little slips that have neither heavy lace trimmed flounces to hamper her small legs nor elaborately made yokes to fret her infant mind.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

Flower Baths.

It is not stated who is responsible for the latest feminine caprice in the matter of baths. Neither the beautiful Mme. Recamier, however, nor Miss Anna Held, our modern authority on bathing as a fine art, is associated with the newest expedient for rendering the skin soft and smooth and fragrant as a rose.

But true it is that the flower bath has won the fashionable maiden's approbation for the moment. To be sure, there is a smart bit of expense attached to such immeasurable luxury, but beneficial effects are sufficiently pronounced to justify the curtailment of expenditure in another direction and the opening of an account with a florist.

The method of preparation is extremely simple. Roses and violets hold sway in this as in numerous other features of "my lady's" toilet. To properly impregnate the water for the bath at least two dozen roses or half a dozen bunches of violets are required. Inclosed in a linen bag, they should be placed in an earthen vessel, covered with two quarts of water and allowed to simmer until the fluid is heavy with their fragrance. This extract, imparted to a tub of tepid water, is pronounced superior to any similar toilet preparation one may purchase at a shop.—New York Herald.

Wilhelmina In Bronze.

A bronze figure on exhibition now at one of the big silversmiths represents her majesty, Wilhelmina, and her dog. The bronze is by a Dutch sculptor, and the straight, stolid little figure and round, placid face look very like the photographs of the little sovereign. The costume, portrayed as conscientiously as if intended for a pattern for the ladies of the Netherlands, is very pretty. It is a princess dress, made apparently of brocaded silk, the design small but intricate. The bodice and skirt open to show a front of some soft material, probably chiffon or mousseline, and the edges of the silk in front and around the yoke are bordered with an ostrich feather trimming. The sleeves have bands of this trimming at intervals. The little queen's hat is a shady affair trimmed with feathers and ribbon, and her hair is drawn tightly back and tied with a bow. The dress reaches to her shoe tops, and the "common sense" shoes cover feet longer and broader than those of most New York girls. The dog on whose head rests the hand that rules the Netherlands is a big and shaggy setter.—New York Commercial Advertiser.

The "Princess Christian Needle."

All lovers of art needlework who are acquainted with its fascinating as well as patient labors will hail with pleasure a clever English invention called the "Princess Christian needle." It has four separate eyes, by which embroiderers may work with from one to four threads at a time. Every woman familiar with embroidery will recognize the value of such a needle in shading figures or flowers and recall the torment and time lost in changing her silks. This needle was invented by a Miss Darrell, skilled in fine embroidery, who submitted it to Princess Christian, who was so impressed by its utility that her royal highness gave permission for it to be called by her name. Specimens of work done with this wonderful needle were exhibited at the same time and met the approbation of the princess, who has the reputation of being an expert in decorative needlework of all kinds.—Exchange.

A Dutch Supper.

Bicycle trips and costumes suggest an informality which is not altogether in accord with a caterer's spread served at one's home table, yet what party, large or small, makes a bicycle run without coming home ready to eat a substantial meal? A Dutch supper, as some one has chosen to call an informal spread of wholesome and toothsome dishes, makes a pleasant variety for an evening spread. At this season an attractive centerpiece may be arranged of fruits, and at each place a stein is placed to suggest the "Dutch," if nothing more. The viands served at one such jolly party were lettuce and ham sandwiches made with brown bread, toasted crackers with cheese, sardines, pretzels and potato salad.

Wilhelmina's Favorite Flower.

The young queen of Holland is very enthusiastic about horticulture. Her favorite flower is not unnaturally the tulip. The royal gardeners make superhuman efforts to keep these flowers in bloom all the year round in view of the peculiar favoritism which their mistress has for them. There is one special variety of tulip called Queen Wilhelmina, of which she is particularly fond. It is brilliant orange, with flame colored stripes.

Miss Emily Thackeray is doing a good work among the Navajo Indians, particularly in the hospital which has recently been built. The Indians themselves selected the site. The building is of white stone, which is found in that locality. The Indians seemed much pleased to have something built expressly for their own use.

Mrs. McKinley ordered that a box of choice exotics from the conservatories of the White House should be sent to Miss Harriet Gault, who was years ago Mrs. McKinley's teacher at school, but who a few years ago entered upon her term as postmaster at Media, Pa. A personal note of felicitation accompanied the flowers.

Two young English women are going to establish a Hindoo convent at Calcutta for the spiritual regeneration of Hindooism. One of these women is a graduate of Cambridge and while in London was identified with the woman's suffrage movement.

Parisian women are wearing shoes and stockings to match their gowns. In mastic and cream tones this will do, but when it comes to bright greens, reds and blues the woman of really refined taste shudders at the mere thought of such a fad.

The empress of Austria left a will bequeathing her jewels, valued at $2,500,000, to charities. Achilleion, in the island of Corfu, she left to Princess Cissela. The bulk of her fortune is divided among her grandchildren.

Damson is one of the autumn shades. It has a great deal of rich, deep crimson in it and is seen in rich autumn materials in silk and wool.

SHORT NEWS STORIES.

Admiral Dewey's Wooden Statues—Reed as a Cyclist—Mythical Charley Noble.

Admiral Dewey has had one of his idols cruelly smashed, says a dispatch from the orient. In the arsenal at Cavite stands a beautiful statue, apparently in bronze, of Sebastian Elcano. When the admiral first saw it, he decided to have the figure removed and sent home as a trophy. He was in doubt whether he would give it to the state of Vermont or present it to congress with a pedestal of Vermont marble. One or the other he would do, and he was pleased with the whole idea. He began to plan how such a mass of metal could be successfully packed, shipped and delivered.

A few days ago he was walking in the yard with Lieutenant Hodges, when this conversation ensued:

Admiral—Pretty statue that. Going to send it home.

Hodges—Too bad it's only wooden.

Admiral—Eh? What's that? Wood? How do you know?

Hodges—Well, I got curious, climbed up and whittled off a few pieces.

Admiral—Well, that is too bad. I am sorry to hear it.

Hodges—Do you want the statue?

Admiral—No; I want to give it away. I'll send it home anyway, but I am very sorry about it. Pretty good imitation. It fooled me, and it might fool those at home, but we'll have to tell them about it. We can keep it bronzed up, can't we?

Speaker Reed as a Cyclist.

Speaker Reed is enjoying life at his Grand Beach cottage near Old Orchard. He is found in a hammock most of the time and has discarded his wheel. Grand Beach has very vivid recollections of the speaker when he learned to ride the bike. He used to wear a snow white sweater, and when mounted on his wheel he could be seen for a long distance. He had blocks of wood and old boxes scattered all up and down the beach to aid in mounting. He never was a great scorcher, despite all stories to the contrary, and the fastest clip he ever struck was one day when he lost control of the wheel and down the incline toward the ocean he went at a 2:10 clip. Had he not fallen from the bike at the water's edge, the probabilities are that he would have gone out to sea. Mr. Reed was always a little afraid to ride on the beach after that, and the most of his riding was done in the road just back of his house. There were stories afloat to the effect that Mr. Reed could ride through a thick forest on his wheel and never dismount, and that he could ride up a towering pine to the height of 40 feet, but the big congressman declares that there was no truth in these stories.—Kennebec Journal.

SPEAKER REED'S FIRST RIDE.

Mythical Charley Noble.

Charley Noble, the mythical personage on a man-of-war who is supposed to commit suicide every time any one fires a pistol shot into the galley stovepipe to clean it from soot, had an origin that is obscure. When a man on The Sun tug asked a jackie on the New York how Charley Noble had fared on the trip up, he grinned appreciatively. This mythical personage has for many years been a stumbling block to paymasters' clerks when they are green, and likewise a source of expense.

"We took a green clerk down to the West Indies with us several months ago," said a paymaster yesterday, "and one day a shot was fired up the galley stovepipe. I rushed into my office in great excitement, and my clerk asked what was the matter.

"'Charley Noble has committed suicide, poor fellow,' said I, 'and you must make up his accounts at once.' I then went on deck and took care to stand near several other officers. In a few minutes up came my clerk very much agitated, and in a voice that could be heard by every one on deck he said:

"'There has been a mistake in my accounts, sir. I have looked all through the list, and I can't find Charley Noble's name anywhere. What shall I do, sir?' The laugh which greeted this question showed very clearly what the clerk should do, and he did it."—New York Sun.

Joking With the Queen.

There is said to be only one man who has ever dared to make a joke in the presence of the queen. This is Canon Teignmouth-Shore, at one time governor to the children of the Prince of Wales, and a splendid type of Irish humorist. He was discussing with her majesty the question why it was that shoemakers were supposed to be so advanced in their heterodoxy and in the want of faith in futurity. "Why, ma'am," quietly remarked the audacious canon, "one could hardly expect a shoemaker to believe in the immortality of the sole (soul)." Her majesty enjoyed the joke and laughed heartily.

Banner Oil Heaters

It's the easiest thing in the world to catch cold during the early October evenings. Just a trifle early to start your furnace fire, and yet you need something to take the chill from your room. The BANNER OIL HEATER is just the thing. A powerful little stove going at full blast in a twinkling. Costs almost nothing to run and makes your room warm and cosy in a few minutes' time. Absolutely safe, a child can take it from one room to another. Price, $4.50.

HENRY L. KINCAIDE & CO.
COSY HOUSE FURNISHERS,
Hancock Street, : : Quincy.

WATCHES.
GENT'S WATCHES, $1.50 and Up.
LADIES' WATCHES, $2.50 and Up.
EVERY WATCH WARRANTED.
$2.00 Belts, $1.00 Each.
75c. Brooch Pins, 25c. Each.
25 and 35c. Stick Pins, 5 and 10c. Ea.
Quincy SOUVENIR TILES Half Price,
And Other Bargains.
A. A. LINSCOTT, Jeweler,
154 Hancock St., opp. Post Office, Quincy.
Agent for Graphophones.
aug 6. tf

Great Guns
do great execution if well aimed
Advertising accomplishes great results in business conquest if well directed.

Now is the time to Subscribe
One Year, - $4.00
HARPER'S WEEKLY
will be remembered for its famous "War Numbers" of the Civil War. Its value during the war with Spain will be even greater because of vastly improved facilities. History is being rapidly made. The gravest questions of our time are coming to the front, and every American should have each week an accurate, concise from now until peace is assured. A brilliant staff of artists and correspondents are representing the WEEKLY at the front. Rufus F. Zogbaum, Carlton T. Chapman, Frederic Remington, T. de Thulstrup, W. A. Rogers, Clyde, D. V. Hunt, and others, with a large staff of photographers, are accurately portraying the movements of our army and navy and happenings at Washington and elsewhere. Among the WEEKLY'S correspondents are Frank D. Millet, John F. Bass, and O. K. Davis, in the Philippines, John Fox, Jr., with General Shafter's army, Harold Martin, at St. Thomas, and others. By subscribing now for one year, you will obtain the WEEKLY during the most important engagements.
PICTORIAL HISTORY OF THIS WAR
Subscription for One Year
$4.00
HARPER & BROTHERS
Franklin Sq., N. Y. City

the ghastly terror of consumption stares a man in the face who neglects a cold.

HALE'S HONEY OF HOREHOUND AND TAR

It's so simple to get rid of a cough or throat trouble by Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar. Acts like magic. Sold by druggists.

Pike's Toothache Drops cure in one minute.

JOHN EVANS,
Auctioneer and Appraiser.
Prompt Settlement.
24 COPELAND STREET, QUINCY.
Feb. 25. tf

Meadow Brook Ice.

THE WAY

We Do Our Business.

POLITE, COURTEOUS DRIVERS

Who do not damage your chest.

25c. per 100 lbs.

Telephone Connection.

BOYS' SUITS
THAT SUIT BOYS

Grand Clearance Sale of Boys'
SCHOOL SUITS,
$1.50 to $3.50.
Worth Double the Price.

School begins Tuesday and your boy wants something new. Drop in to our store tonight and see how little money it takes to dress him handsomely.

Cranite Clothing Co.
DURGIN & MERRILL'S BLOCK.

DR. RALPH M. FOGG,
DENTIST.

Teeth extracted absolutely without pain by the use of the

"BOSTON VEGETABLE VAPOR."

It is claimed that, while it has the required properties of ether, chloroform, nitrous oxide gas, it lacks the disagreeable and dangerous qualities of these drugs. It is certainly a boon to suffering humanity to be relieved of the nausea too often following the administering of sedatives of the old school.—Boston Transcript.

Teeth made and repaired on Gold or Rubber base. Teeth Filling a specialty.

Office in French's Building, five doors south of Post Office, Quincy, Wednesdays. Hours, 9 A. M. to 5 P. M. July18-ly Nov8-1yo

GREENE-LEE-HERSEY.

These Three Before the Inquiry Board Friday.

Superabundance of Redtape In the Regulations.

Men Blamed For Expecting Too Much From the Department.

Washington, Oct. 8.—General Greene, in his testimony before the inquiry commission Friday, spoke in high terms of the spirit of the men. They made no complaint, and all were anxious to do their share of fighting and of work. Comparing the experience of his troops with those of Turkey and Russia, he said he had seen more suffering in the Turkish army in a day than he had seen in the American troops in a month, and there were 60,000 Russian troops ill with typhoid fever at the close of the Russian campaign. He spoke from observation, and said the comparison at every point was favorable to the American troops. Of the efficiency of the officers appointed from civil life, he said that they were willing, but as a rule were without experience, and "the difficulty was that there were not enough regular army officers to go around."

General Greene stated that the most flagrant evidence of neglect that he had seen during the war was in the case of the transports at New York. Their condition was of a character that should have been remedied. He had also seen green coffee issued both in Florida and in Manila. The army guns should be adapted more to campaign exigencies than at present. The commissary was so restricted that in a case where a lighter sank with rations for a regiment the commissary could not issue others without the authority of a board of survey. Since the Civil war there had been a determined effort to refine the regulations until they had been gotten down to "so fine a point that you can hardly move under them." The site of Camp Merritt in San Francisco was very poor, but he did not know whether a better site could have been secured. The location was made by General Otis, and the general felt safe in denying the report that there had been collusion with the railroad authorities in choosing the site. The sinks and the crowded condition of the camp caused the greatest annoyance.

Major Hersey said the men were generally in good health at San Antonio, as they were also in the main at Tampa, which was the next stopping place. He complained, however, that at the latter place the camp was low and flat, and toward the close of his stay there in July there was an increase of fever and kindred diseases. The troops were well supplied from the commissary and other departments, but there were some complaints against the physician who was left with the squadron at this point. The chief cause of criticism appeared to be his bearing toward the men.

Major Hersey gave details concerning the camp of his regiment at Santiago, saying that it was as good as it was possible to secure. He ascribed the sickness of the men to the climate and the hardships of the campaign. The transportation facilities were necessarily limited and the roads poor at times, causing the supplies to be slow in arrival. The roads were so bad that wagons would sink to the axles.

He considered Camp Wikoff the most perfect camp he had ever seen, the location, the climate, the surroundings and the topography being all that could be desired. The water was wholesome and the sinks were carefully attended to. The sickness of the command increased rapidly at this camp. The men had not expected to find a picnic and had no complaints to make. Soldiers were never taken care of so well as at Montauk; there was no suffering caused by neglect.

Major Hersey was asked about the circumstances leading to the deaths of Messrs. Tiffany and Wrenn of the rough riders. He said that Tiffany had yellow fever before leaving camp. He thought the young man had suffered more from the kindness of his friends on his landing in Boston than from any other source. He needed quiet when he arrived in his debilitated condition. Mr. Wrenn was given a furlough to attend the tennis tournament. Major Hersey next heard of him as being ill, though he was in good condition when he left camp. (Wrenn is alive at his home in Chicago.)

Camp Thomas' Quartermaster.

This witness was followed by Colonel James G. C. Lee, who was chief quartermaster at Camp Thomas during the history of that camp. He said that neither the regulars nor the volunters had sufficient transportation facilities when they came in, and their wants in this respect were supplied. He had immediately made estimates for supplies, and all had been met with a remarkable degree of promptitude. The clothing came in the main quickly, though it was not always possible to get it so soon as was desired. There was also some delay in securing tentage, owing to the fact that a supply had to be manufactured. On this account it was necessary in the beginning to crowd the men in the tents.

Colonel Lee dwelt upon the natural difficulties of supplying an army of 50,000 men. They were impatient as a rule and seemed to expect to be able to turn a faucet and get everything they wanted upon the spur of the moment. The hospital and ambulance corps had been fully fitted out with everything, including floors. He had not furnished water boilers as promptly as at first demanded, because the commanding officer had not given the order. He ordered them later, and many of them were not used. "They seemed to want them before they got them, and not to want them after they came," said the colonel. There were some articles of which they were never able to get a sufficient supply—army trousers, for instance.

He remembered one case in which there appeared likely to be a clash in the making of contracts with the railroads for the transportation of troops, in which men who were his juniors in the Washington headquarters were manifesting a disposition to interfere with him by prescribing conditions with which it was impossible to comply. He had protested in sharp and vigorous language, and thereafter there was no trouble, as the Washington office receded from its position. General McCook asked for the names of those who had interfered, and insisted upon having them. After hesitating somewhat, Colonel Lee said the difficulty arose in the transportation branch of the department in charge of Colonels Hecker and Bird. Pressed to enter into particulars, Colonel Lee said that his contention was that he should be allowed to make all the rates. He found that the passenger rates had been made in Washington, and while these were very low he found when he came to getting freight rates they were too high. He had felt that he could give better results if allowed to make both lines of contracts, as with one rate already made the government would be in the power of the railroad. He had contended for this, and it was conceded. Colonel Lee said that the officials of the railroad lines with which he had transacted business had been exceptionally considerate and prompt in meeting all demands upon them, and these qualities had been so marked that he had commended them especially in his official report.

He did not believe that any actual suffering had arisen on account of the insufficiency of officers. He thought, on the other hand, the suffering had been caused by the failure of the men to control themselves. He thought the beer drinking in the camp and the whisky drinking outside had much to do in causing distress and disease. "The contiguity of Chattanooga with its saloons, and the freedom with which the selling of pies and cakes was permitted were," he said, "far more prolific causes of disease, to my mind, than the sleeping of the men on the ground or any other cause that has been suggested."

In conclusion, Colonel Lee said he believed that the department should have credit for what it had done and not be blamed for what it had not done, and he thought the accomplishments of the past five months were simply marvelous.

SMALL MARGINS OF PROFIT.

Large Business Being Done Without Very Satisfactory Returns.

New York, Oct. 8.—Bradstreet's says this week, that with the exception of parts of the south, where heavy storms and yellow fever with resulting quarantines check distribution, a very large business appears to be doing, though complaints of narrow margins of profit are well nigh unanimous. While the bank clearings of September point to a slightly smaller business done the country over than one year ago, this week's figures point to a fair gain over last year, and therefore over all previous records for this week of the year. The volume of distribution, as a whole, is well up to or above that reported a year ago in most sections, and therefore far in advance of recently preceding annual periods.

At leading eastern markets recently favorable reports are fully maintained, particularly in cotton and woolen goods, least favorably situated. The general industrial situation is a very favorable one. Marked activity continues to be a feature of the iron and steel trades, but the immense rate of production at present, in the absence of immediately new demands, has caused a shading of some few grades of pigiron and steel billets. Movements in an upward direction, however, are reported from the west.

The situation as to prices generally is one of sustained strength, wheat being prominent in this respect, while the most important reduction is that growing out of the refined sugar war. To the exceptional strength of ocean freights is charged some of the falling off in exports from southern points.

For nine months the clearings aggregate $49,003,861,150, 21.7 percent heavier than last year. Only three cities out of 77 show decreases for the nine months as compared with last year, and these three are Providence, Fall River and Augusta, all centers of cotton manufacturing, which, in common with the raw material, has been depressed this year. Bank clearings this week show a fair gain over last year's immense total, aggregating as they do $1,466,185,000.

Business failures are still down to a minimum, numbering 163 for the week, against 166 last week, 237 in this week a year ago, 291 in 1896, 274 in 1895 and 238 in 1894.

The Brockton Strike.

Brockton, Oct. 8.—The officials of the Lasters' union deny that the lasters employed by Hathaway, Soule & Harrington of Middleboro have gone back to work at the old price list. They say that the firm signed an agreement with the union for an entirely new list, and it was under these conditions that the employes of the factories in Middleboro and New Bedford had returned to work.

According to the strike officials there is no change in the situation in this city and the neighboring towns, but the manufacturers claim that they are getting out a large number of cases, and are feeling the effect of the strike less and less every day. To substantiate their claim a comparison is made of the output of shops which have been settled with and those which have not.

Accused of Bigamy.

Geneva, N. Y., Oct. 8.—Eugene L. Vangorder, quartermaster sergeant of company I, Two Hundred and Second regiment, New York volunteer infantry, was arrested yesterday on a warrant from Rochester, charging him with bigamy. It is claimed that he has two wives, whose maiden names were Emma Myers of Broadbrook, Mass., and Lizzie Henry of Lavonia, N. Y. Vangorder claims it is a case of blackmail, and that he can clear himself.

Drowned Like Rats.

Seattle, Oct. 8.—Oriental advices dated Sept. 21 say: Nearly 250 Chinese were drowned like rats in a trap on Sept. 1 by the overturning of a crowded canton passage boat in East river. The Chinese were pilgrims returning from the shrine of Hong Kong Chue Shul.

The American bark, Comet, was wrecked on Pak Sa point, and four of her Chinese crew drowned. Captain and Mrs. Broadhurst and 14 others were saved.

Call Man Killed.

Fall River, Oct. 8.—James Blackwell, a call man in the fire department, was killed while attempting to board a moving ladder truck, which was called out to a false alarm. He fell under the wheels, and his neck was broken, death being instant.

Gail Borden Eagle Brand Condensed Milk
HAS NO EQUAL AS AN INFANT FOOD.
"INFANT HEALTH" SENT FREE ON APPLICATION.
NEW YORK CONDENSED MILK CO. N.Y.

FISH.

Everything first-class at the

Cape Cod Fish Market,
Temple Street.

All kinds Fresh, Salt, Smoked an Pickeled

Quincy, Feb. 8. 1y

The John Hancock Stables.
Opposite Depot, Quincy, Mass.
Boarding, Baiting, Livery and Sale.
DR. J. A. DOW, Proprietor,
the well known Veterinary dentist and specialist in the treatment of lame horses. Sick horses treated at owner's risk.
The finest equipped and managed stable of its size in America.
Fine driving turnouts in light rigs; safe and good appearing. All horses let are perfectly safe for ladies to drive.
The choicest family, road and coach horses constantly on hand for sale. All horses guaranteed as represented.
Will attend to veterinary practice as usual. aug18-1y

TO THE FRONT!

RAYMOND'S FLAG CIGAR
WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DISTRIBUTOR,
A. G. DURGIN,
QUINCY, MASS.
WM. H. RAYMOND GROCERY CO.
45 and 47 Commercial Street, Boston.

ALBERT J. BOWERS
OPTICIAN
ADAMS BUILDING
OVER POST OFFICE
QUINCY MASS

TEETH EXTRACTED.
No Pain or Danger.
Safer than vapor. Money paid for extracting goes towards teeth to be inserted. I am the only dentist in the city using the Painless Preparation for Extraction.
DR. C. B. UNDERWOOD,
9 Spear St. Rear of Public Library

ASSASSINATED.

Mrs. McKinley's Brother Shot Dead In Canton by a Woman.

Canton, Oct. 8.—Anna C. George is under arrest on a charge of wilful murder. George Saxton, a brother of Mrs. McKinley, ascended the steps of the home of Mrs. Althouse, a widow, when he was assassinated by somebody, presumably a woman, standing in the driveway. Five shots were fired, three of them entering Saxton's body and causing death in a few minutes.

Henry Bederman, residing about 200 feet from the Althouse residence, said: "I was in the Boren grocery at 314 Lincoln avenue when I heard two shots from a revolver and saw the flash from the mouth of a gun. I went immediately to the door of the store, and after about two minutes had elapsed I heard two more. Before I heard these, however, I saw a woman, or some one dressed in woman's clothes, go away from the Althouse steps rather slowly, then turn around and go back again. At that time I heard the two additional shots. This time the woman started to run. She left the pavement and ran up a vacant lot. We men then went across the road and found Saxton lying there."

Mrs. George is the divorced wife of Sample C. George, and formerly was a tenant of Mr. Saxton in his downtown business block, conducting a dressmaking business. Her divorce was obtained in Dakota, and a proceeding later filed in local courts by the husband against Saxton charged that Saxton had sent her there to secure the divorce, the proceeding here being a suit for damages for the alleged alienation of the wife's affections. This case has been through all the intermediate courts and was passed upon by the state supreme court on an inter-pleading, and finally remanded for hearing on its merits here. Wednesday a settlement was effected, Saxton paying George $1825 on the claim set up of $20,000 for damages. Mrs. George has also had several cases against Saxton, claiming the detention of furniture, the defense of Saxton being that the articles were held for overdue rent on the rooms. Mrs. Althouse several months ago began peace roceeding against Mrs. George, alleging that her life had been threatened.

For sometime Mrs. George had been living about five blocks away from where the shooting occurred. Early in the week she is said to have packed up her household goods and to have shipped them to her mother's home at Hanoverton. She had been living since at the rooms of Mrs. Oberlin, in the same house. While the officers were talking to Mrs. Oberlin, Mrs. George was seen coming across a lot nearby. As she attempted to go around the house to get in at the back way she was arrested and brought to police headquarters. When she was brought into the station house she seemed to be self-possessed. She was given a chair. Prosecuting Attorney Pomerent pulled his chair in front of her and said: "Mrs. George, where were you at about 6 o'clock?"

She answered in a perfectly calm and quiet tone, "Pardon me, sir, I will talk when the proper time comes."

It is common talk that Mrs. George made frequent threats to take Saxton's life. Many of these threats are said to have been sent through the mails, and the federal jury sitting in Cleveland last fall indicted her for alleged improper use of the mails. Mrs. George gave bond and the indictment, so far as is known here, is still alive. She claimed that Saxton deceived her and deserted her for another.

Tomorrow's Almanac and Forecast.

Sun rises—5:50; sets, 5:12.
Moon rises—12:40 p. m.
High tide—6 a. m.; 6:15 p. m.

An area of slightly disturbed weather, with scattered rainfall, covered Tennessee and the Ohio valley yesterday, and advanced last night, causing local rains, with haze or fogs on the coasts.

Sunday's indications are for partly cloudy to fair weather, with slowly rising temperature and light to fresh, variable winds, Monday probably will be fair and slightly cooler.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

Ex-Mayor A. Oakey Hall died in New York, aged 73.

Queen Victoria is reported as having invited Emperor Nicholas to Balmoral with a view to a discussion of the far eastern situation.

The British Chess club of London has accepted the challenge of the Brooklyn Chess club to a cable match for the Nownes trophy, to be played early next year.

Fire in Levis, Ind., destroyed the workshops and lumber yards of Joseph Gosselin, a couple of residences and damaged King Bros.' shoe factory. Loss, $60,000.

Altogether about 150 arrests have been made in connection with the riots by Paris strikers, and military preparations are being made to guard against any renewal.

In the superior criminal court in Springfield, Justice Bond sentenced Dominique Krathofski, who murdered his step-daughter, Victoria Pinkus, Jan. 17, 1897, to be hanged Dec. 30.

Harry Elkes, who holds the hour record of the world, defeated Frank Waller, the 50-mile champion bicycle rider of the United Sates, in a 50-mile paced race in Baltimore. His time was 1:47:30 3-5.

A 3-year-old child of Joseph Seiglar, a wealthy resident of Bridgeport, died at a late hour last night from being maliciously poisoned by a discharged servant. The girl managed to escape arrest.

William Ogilvie, Yukon administrator, has been appointed by the Canadian government to enquire into and report upon the alleged scandals among government officials at Dawson. The gold commissioner, A. A. Fawsett, has been removed.

The Oregon Republicans have decided to drop H. W. Corbett and will vote for Joseph Simon for United States senator. Simon is president of the senate and a well-known lawyer and politician of Portland. In the ballot yesterday Corbett led as usual with 36 votes.

Many a woman throws away the flower of her youth—her beauty, her amiability and her capacity for wifehood and motherhood—without realizing it. There is no sadder sight than that of a young woman who has for years been bearing up bravely and silently under physical tortures that would drive a man to the mad-house.

Thousands of women suffer in this way and ask neither aid nor sympathy. They realize that they are the victims of weakness and disease of the distinctly womanly organism. They do not consult a physician because of the well-founded fear that he will insist upon disgusting "examinations" and "local treatment." Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription does away with all necessity for these ordeals. It cures in the privacy of the home. It restores health and strength and vigor to the delicate organs concerned in wifehood and motherhood. It tones, invigorates and builds up the nerves and transforms nervous, overwrought, sickly invalids into healthy, happy wives and mothers. Dr. Pierce is an eminent and skillful specialist who has been for thirty years chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo, N. Y. He will answer, without charge, all letters from ailing women. The "Favorite Prescription" is for sale by all good dealers.

"I suffered from womb trouble for about twelve years," writes Mrs. Harry Pomeroy, of Box 258, Monona, Clayton Co., Iowa. "I doctored with six different physicians, but found only temporary relief. I then used six bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and three of 'Pleasant Pellets.' I am a new woman. I hope and pray that this will induce other poor sufferers to use Dr. Pierce's medicines and be cured."

Coal!

Just Received by Barge Blackbird, a Fresh Cargo of

Pea Coal
(Small Nut.)

J. F. SHEPPARD & SONS
Quincy Sept. 7.

Come, Mary,

Let's go over to the Quincy Second-Hand Variety Store and see if we can't find just what we want. You say you need some more kitchen goods and a few chairs, a carpet for the chamber, some glassware and various other things, and when I was there last week I saw my cousin get a lot of goods for almost nothing. He told me that sometimes he could find new goods at less than half price. These are hard times, Mary, and we must buy where the dollar goes farthest.

WALTER P. PINEL

is the Manager, and the store is right over here at number 20 Franklin street.

aug25 1y

HARPER'S BAZAR

has had its experts on fashion busily at work for three months securing the coming spring styles Therefore, if you wish to know

WHAT TO WEAR THIS SPRING

see the special Spring Number of the BAZAR. Here you will find a rich variety to choose from, including tailor-made gowns from London, shirt-waists and washable skirts. A description will accompany each fashion, giving practical suggestions on

HOW TO MAKE IT AT HOME

The newest designs in men's clothes, what is the proper thing in livery, maid-servants' dresses, etc., all will be found

IN THE SPRING NUMBER OF HARPER'S BAZAR, MAR. 12th

These fashions are given in season to enable you to have your spring clothes ready for Easter time. HARPER'S BAZAR, including the Easter Number, if the issue is not exhausted, will be sent to any one for 25c.

4 WEEKS 25c. ON TRIAL

10 Cents a Copy - Sub., $4 00 a year

Address HARPER & BROTHERS, Publishers, N. Y. City

E. S. BECKFORD,
Electrician.

Wiring and Fitting for Incandescent, Motors, Dynamos, Bells, etc.

GRANITE STREET, Near the Bridge, QUINCY

Feb. 1 1y

By FRANK F. CRANE, - - Auctioneer.
Office, 4 Chestnut St., Quincy.

Auction Sale

— OF —

TWO DESIRABLE

HOUSES

Billings Street,

ATLANTIC, MASS.,

Saturday, Oct. 15th

At 3.30 and 4.30, respectively.

AT 3.30 P. M. we shall offer a modern house of 10 rooms and bath and 4,500 feet of land, the second house on the right from Prospect street. This is a new house, has never been occupied, has oak floor in front hall, oak staircase, all the finish on the first floor is hard wood, frescoed ceilings, nicely papered, open plumbing, concrete cellar, and is fitted for a furnace. Has open fireplaces, good closet room and city water. The location is high and dry, the neighborhood is excellent and the house is within 3 minutes of railroad, electric cars, postoffice, churches, schools, and stores. The house can be seen at any time before the sale by applying to Mr. Geo. V. Bryant at the adjoining house now building at the corner of Prospect and Billings streets.

Terms: $100.00 at sale, balance in ten days at the office of Geo. H. Brown, Trustee, Adams Building, Quincy.

At 4.30 P. M. we shall offer one of the most desirable and attractive houses that has ever been sold in this city, located on Billings street, near Squantum street, 5,746 sq. ft. of land. Electric cars pass the house; 7 rooms and bath; fine piazza, elegant reception room, oak floor, open fire places, electric light, set range, laundry, furnace, first-class hardware all over the house, extra large bath room, fine paper hangings, large attic that could be finished into two chambers if desired, good closet room, large pantry. This house is a gem and must be seen to be appreciated; 6 minutes from R. R, stores, churches, etc.

Terms: $100 at sale; balance in ten days at the office of George H. Brown, Trustee, Adams Building, Quincy.

Oct. 7—6t 8-1wp

By FRANK F. CRANE, - Auctioneer.
Office, 4 Chestnut street, Quincy.

AUCTION SALE

— OF —

HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE

Carpenters' Tools, Lumber, etc.,

At the Residence of

ERNEST G. BACON,

Clark Street, Atlantic,

Thursday, Oct. 13th,

at 1.30 o'clock P. M., consisting of Black Walnut Marble Top Chamber Set, Ash Chamber Set, Oak Folding Bed, lot of odd Chairs, Baby Carriage, Croquet Set, Kitchen Goods, lot of Hot Bed Sash, Window Frames, a good Hand Cart, Wheelbarrow, Garden Tools, lot of good Posts, 6 or 8 good ladders, set of Painters' Falls, some good White-wood, odd Desk, and a large variety of small articles too numerous to mention.

Sale positive, rain or shine. Terms cash.
Oct. 8. 4t

By FRANK F. CRANE, - Auctioneer.
Office, 4 Chestnut St., Quincy.

AUCTION SALE

OF THE

Real Estate

— OF —

OWEN H. OWENS, 121 Granite St.,

SATURDAY, Oct. 15th,

2 o'clock P. M.

Consists of a Cottage House of 7 rooms, about one-half acre of land.

This estate is very desirable, either as a home or for investment.

Sale positive, rain or shine.

Terms: $100 at sale. Balance in 10 days at the office of Geo. H. Brown, Adams Building. For further particulars apply to George H. Brown.

oct 5 8 11 12 13 14 8 1wp

By FRANK F. CRANE, - Auctioneer.
Office, 4 Chestnut Street, Quincy.

AUCTION SALE

OF THE

ATTRACTIVE REAL ESTATE

OF THE LATE

MICHAEL GOODHUE,

No. 40 Phipps Street,

TUESDAY, OCT. 18th,

At 3 O'clock P. M.

THIS Estate consists of a Modern House of nine rooms, there is a good stable on the premises, about one acre of land having a very large frontage on Phipps street. The estate contains a variety of shade and fruit trees, an extra fine lot of grapes and currants. Also a fine well containing an excellent quality of water. The buildings are in good repair and the estate is very desirable as a residence or for investment.

Sale Positive, rain or shine.

Terms: $100.00 at sale, balance in ten days.

For further information apply to the auctioneer.

Quincy, Oct. 5—10t 8p—1w

By FRANK F. CRANE, - Auctioneer,
Office, 4 Chestnut St., Quincy, Mass.

AUCTION SALE

OF ABOUT

15 Tons of Hay

Slightly Damaged by Water,

at the Stable in rear of the Estate of the late James Edwards, 11 School street, on

MONDAY, Oct. 10th,

at 2 o'clock P. M. Sale positive. Rain or shine. Terms cash. oct5-4t

Quincy Daily Ledger

ESTABLISHED IN 1889.

The ONLY DAILY in Norfolk County Massachusetts.

Published Every Evening, Sundays and Holidays Excepted, At No. 115 HANCOCK ST., City of Quincy, Mass., by

GEORGE W. PRESCOTT & SON.

Successors to Green & Prescott.

Subscription Price, $6.00 per year.

☞ A discount of $1 when paid in advance.

ALSO PUBLISHERS OF

The Quincy Patriot.

A Weekly Established in 1837, which has the Largest Circulation in Norfolk County, and

The Braintree Observer,

A Weekly Established in 1878.

TELEPHONE, 78-3 QUINCY.

Quincy Temperature at Noon.

	This Week.	Last Week.	In 1897.	In 1896.
Sunday	64	52	56	57
Monday	76	71	56	59
Tuesday	85	67	64	55
Wednesday	63	68	68	57
Thursday	64	70	68	53
Friday	61	75	64	56
Saturday	61	74	57	56

New Advertisements Today.

R. D. Chase—House to let.
Gold watch lost.
Household furniture at auction.
D. E. Wadsworth & Co.—Corsets.

Good Afternoon.

Foremost among the volunteers who pushed forward the work of the Massachusetts Volunter Aid Association was Hon. Sherman Hoar, an ex-Congressman, and it was with surprise and regret that Massachusetts learns of his death last night. After weeks visiting the camps and hospitals of our soldiers, which overtaxed his strength, he was threatened with pneumonia. Then typhoid fever developed, and for several days his case has been critical. Mr. Hoar was only 38 years of age, and was an able and energetic lawyer. He was district attorney at the first Bram trial.

No recent article in the Ledger has caused such an awakening of the citizens as the editorial of Thursday, and it is not all along one line. Two communications yesterday and two more today endorse the sentiments, but two are in favor of action on the parkway, and two for political unity and push.

It is is suggested that Quincy stand by ex-Commissioner John Q. A. Field for County Commissioner. If he is the only candidate from Quincy, we hope he will receive a complimentary vote from our delegates, but Mr. Field is not a strong candidate locally, and he failed to carry his own ward, where the only issue was made on county Commissioner. For the good of the city we believe Mr. Field should withdraw, and we have to suggest in his place such men as Representative James Thomson, Representative T. H. Newcomb, Councilman William E. Badger, ex-Mayor Henry O. Fairbanks ex-Councilman Luther S. Anderson or ex-Councilman Roger H. Wilde.

Our correspondent on the Parkway says it may already be too late for Quincy to save the appropriation which was pledged to build a parkway from Neponset along the shore and through Quincy to the Blue Hills reservation. His suggestion that a public meeting immediately be held has merit, and should be pushed.

We were on the point of endeavoring to interest the City Council, when we learn that that body is only luke warm on a similar improvement—the State highway at Quincy Point, and that that also may be lost. Quincy wants both, and must interest its Councilmen.

They mean much to the progress of this city along the right lines. They will invite wealth to Quincy. We have a city that is naturally beautiful, and with our water works, sewer system, good schools, efficient fire department, street railways, electric lights, gas, a daily newspaper, and all that goes to make up a progressive city, we are bound to grow fast. Shall we recognize our advantages and plan for a beautiful as well as a great city?

—It is very evident that the present tariff law is working to the advantage of our people. This is shown in many ways, even though there is more or less dullness in certain quarters. While it is not all that could be desired, yet the condition of business is vastly more encouraging than at the close of the last administration. That is reason enough for continuing in power the party that has brought about this change.

☞ Glenwood Ranges are the quickest and finest bakers on earth. Ask any person who ever used one. Prices $18.00 to $33.00. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

PUSH IT ALONG.

It Is a Good Thing and Should Not Be Lost.

A Public Meeting on Boulevard Suggested.

Want the Money Appropriated for Quincy to be Spent Here.

Editors of the Daily Ledger:

Seeing the article today in the Quincy Ledger about the Quincy Parkway, I write to say that it is high time the citizens of Quincy were aroused to secure the Quincy boulevard before it is too late. Few persons realize the amount of time that was spent a year ago at the State House, by our Representatives, Messrs. Thompson and Newcomb, also Charles F. Adams, the late Sigourney Butler and Mr. Nelson V. Titus, to secure the appropriation of a million dollars, which was finally secured; one condition being that the sum of $250,000 should be expended in the Quincy Parkway. These gentlemen attended numerous hearings and worked early and late to secure the appropriations.

Two years ago, Mr. G. F. Burkhardt and Mr. Nelson V. Titus offered to give land enough for a boulevard 100 feet wide from Atlantic to the City of Boston Park at Squantum Head. Other property owners along the Quincy shore have offered to give their land freely, and it is only a few short-sighted property owners, who prevent the whole Quincy shore being offered free of cost to the Metropolitan Park Commissioners.

This beautiful strip of five miles of water front on the south side of Boston can be acquired today at the trifling cost, and will in years to come prove of inestimable avlue to the people of Boston, Roxbury, Milton and Dorchester as well as to the towns on the South side of Boston to whom the Middlesex Fells are remote and inaccessible for ordinary pleasure driving.

The south side of Boston seems to have been persistently neglected by the Metropolitan Park Commissioners. Already the delay is beginning to prove fatal. Large sums have been expended at Revere Beach and more is yet to be spent there. Nothing has been done yet on the south side of Boston except at the Blue Hills.

Quincy is fast asleep and when the money is all spent then it will be too late. A meeting should be called without delay in Quincy to protest against the money which was appropriated for the Quincy Parkway being spent elsewhere. Let Quincy people attend this meeting. Let a protest go forth that the Park Commissioners must hear and heed. They may be given ample power by the State, but the Quincy people should know why the money appropriated last winter at the State House for the Quincy Parkway has not been spent in acquiring this beautiful shore. It is to be hoped that some of our public spirited citizens will call a meeting at once in Quincy. Within a week it may be too late.

ONE WHO KNOWS.

Facts.

Editors of the Quincy Daily Ledger:

I read with a great deal of satisfaction the editorial in a recent issue of the Ledger in regard to the late Senatorial convention. It is time that the Republicans of Quincy laid aside petty grievances and jealousies and came together for the advancement of the many worthy citizens who are fully able to fill these several offices.

Now, Mr. Editor, the city of Quincy has yet an opportunity to place an honored and respected citizen in an important office. I refer to Mr. John Q.A. Field, who is a candidate for the office of County Commissioner. The last few days has shown that Mr. Field has a large following outside the city and it only requires the solid vote of Quincy to secure him the nomination.

Republican.

By C. H. JOHNSON, - - Auctioneer.
Office, Adams Building, Quincy, Mass.

Executor's Sale at Public Auction

of the personal property of the late EBEN A. STINCHFIELD, will be sold at residence off Howard avenue, Quincy Neck, on TUESDAY, Oct. 11, 1898, at 1 30 P. M. The property consists of Household Furniture, Stock of Groceries and 3 Carriages.

GROCERIES—Lot of Tea and Coffee, Spices, Canned Goods, Snuff, Stove Polish, Clay Pipes, Paper Bags, Clothes Pins, Vinegar, one-half barrel Molasses, Tea and Coffee Cans, Tobacco Cutter, Small Scales, Fish Scales, set Measures, large Showcase, 6-gal. Milk Cans Coffee Grinder, lot of Barrels.

HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE—5 cane seat Chairs and Rocker, Parlor Stove, open grate Coal Stove in good order, two Tables, Ice Chest, two Tables, Baby Carriage, Step Ladder, large Dish Closet, Small Stand, Desk, Oak Chamber Set in good condition, Forks, Rakes and lot Harness, Platform Scales and a variety of articles.

CARRIAGES—Buggy, open Express Wagon, Carryall and large Farm Wagon, Ladies' New Mail Bicycle.

Hen House. Terms cash. Sale positive.
Oct. 3. 6t

WITH COMPANY K.

No Liquors on Sale at the Canteen as at Others.

Headquarters Co. K, 5th Mass.
Camp Mead (Annex), Oct. 5.

The air has been full of humidity the last few days. Last night and today it has rained steady, which makes the walking very disagreeable.

This morning at guard mount Lieut. C. F. Spear of this command, acted as battalion adjutant, he inspecting all rifles. No complaint was heard about rusty rifles. They looked very neat and clean, which is a hard task to perform during all this damp weather.

The inspection of quarters was by Lieut. Gilson of H Co., Charlestown.

We are pleased to note that there are no serious cases of sickness in this battalion.

The commanding officers of the several companies look sharply after their men, and see that everything is in its proper place, and kept perfectly clean. So that every precaution will be carried out to keep away disease, our Commanding Officer, Major Morrison, takes his morning walk around camp, and also sees that quarters are kept as they should be. It is to the good credit of regiment that we have such efficient, energetic, officers. A canteen is established in camp, run by this command, so the boys will have a chance to procure a few dainties. It is run under the management of Private Bailey of this company.

One special feature should be mentioned, that in our canteen no liquors are sold same as in other regiments. Our boys can do their duty in a creditable manner without the use of intoxicating liquors.

An investigation is being made by officers of this battalion as to rations. We find that our rations fall shy every day some companies not having enough to go around. This is not the fault of government, as hundreds of Armour's cars laden with fresh beef arrive daily. They supply the 1st, 2d and 3d army corps with meat. The carelessness must come from Commissary department.

It is probable that this battalion will remain here for four weeks.

The 1st and 3d battalions will move shortly for the South. This command will be the last to leave camp, as we are to guard government stores. We will join the other two battalions down South.

That Quincy coffee is still issued out to the boys; it is something elegant. Very rare thing when we are issued with milk and sugar in coffee. It is often minus the sugar. Our past cook, Private Delano, says he is feeling far healthier since leaving the kitchen.

Those for guard duty tomorrow are Sergt. McGrath, Corp. McIntosh, Privates Carlson, Capaccioli, Currie, Collins, Deslauries, Dougherty, Doran, Dean.

But for the supervision of Private Dougherty, who helped to outfit and make presentable to the adjutant for orderlies, Privates Deslauries and Currie, we would not have received the honor. Joe wished to have an orderly from K, so he took pains himself to outfit some one. Having tried before and not suceeding he was willing some one else should receive it. Private Bowler has worked on his rifle every spare minute so that the shank of rifle looks like a piece of mahogany. We expect something will drop today, Wednesday. Look out for next letter.

DOC.

— THE —

Fall Millinery Opening

. . . OF . . .

C. L. BLISS,

186 Hancock St.,

TUESDAY and WEDNESDAY

Oct. 11, 12.

The public are cordially invited to call and examine a stock of Trimmed and Untrimmed Hats and novelties in Velvets, Ribbons, Wings, Feathers and Jet.

Quincy, Oct. 5. 1po 2w

GRAND OPENING

— OF —

Fall and Winter Millinery

Thursday,
Friday,
Saturday,

October 6, 7 and 8,

— AT —

Miss B. J. Patterson's Millinery Parlors

At the Boston Bargain Store.

A choice and complete stock of all the latest and most desirable goods for this season,

All are cordially invited.

Music Hall Building, Quincy.

Oct. 1. tfpl

LOCAL NEWS TRACK.

Some Colts which are Sure Winners Every Heat.

The weather today is just the kind to make the smelts bite.

Mrs. John A. McAloon has returned from a two weeks' visit to Portsmouth N. H.

Miss Katherine Roche is the new bookkeeper at Henry L. Kincaide & Co.'s.

Brockton had to content itself with but two pleasant days for its fair this year.

It is the intention of the Grand Army this year to have their fair eclipse all previous efforts.

A new street sign at the corner of Billings street and Newbury avenue is appreciated in Atlantic.

Work is to be commenced soon by the Street Railway Co. rebuilding its loop through Norfolk Downs.

Next Thursday Auctioneer Crane will sell household furniture and carpenters' tools at Atlantic.

The Gleaners will meet at the home of Mrs. W. H. Brasee, Grand View avenue, on Monday, Oct. 10, at 2.30 P. M.

Mrs. B. Cravens, representing Her Majesty's corset, will be at the store of D. E. Wadsworth & Co. all of next week.

Mr. Ernest G. Bacon of Atlantic has accepted a business position in Albany and will remove his family to that city.

The rains this week have somewhat hindered rapid progress on the permanent sidewalks in the sevral sections of the city.

Mr. Dornan delivered an address at Chicopee, Monday evening on "The teaching of the Early Christian church."

Walter W. Gardner, private secretary to the executive department of the Quincy & Boston street railway is at Niagara Falls on his vacation.

Mr. Ralph W. Hobbs has bought the house on Clark street, Atlantic, occupied by Mr. Bacon, and will remove to the same in November.

A musical and literary entertainment will be held under the auspices of Faxon lodge, I. O. G. T., in the vestry of the Atlantic M. E. church on Monday evening

Mr. Frank Tilton of Billings street, Atlantic, will soon move his family to Norfolk Downs where he will have a more convenient place for his farming implements.

The joint committee on Finance and Streets of the City Council met Friday evening and considered the order appropriating $1,500 for drains and catch basins on Washington street.

The Quincy & Boston Street railway company is to build a car house near Neponset bridge on what is known as Robinson's wharf. The dimensions of the buiding will be 96x23x144 and will cost $15,000.

Mr. John Moynihan, an old and respected resident of Quincy Neck died Thursday. He was a shoe maker by trade, and worked for many years for Edward Newcomb. He leaves three sons and four daughters.

The Atlantic foot ball eleven think they can put up a pretty stiff game, and will soon tackle some of the amateur clubs in this vicinity. Next Saturday we are informed they will play the Quincy High a practice game and quite a lively time is looked for.

Miss Marcia L. Baldwin of the Agassiz school, Cambridge, will lecture on Harriet Beecher Stowe at Bethany chapel on Wednesday evening Oct. 12. She is a colored lady and comes highly recommended. School teachers should not fail to hear her.

The tunnelling of Hanccok street just north of Carruth street for the sewer is an interesting piece of work as the bottom of the tunnel is over twenty feet below the street level. There is also another tunnel being dug at Wollaston under the railroad tracks just north of the depot.

At the annual meeting of the Ladies' Benevolent society connected with the Atlantic Memorial church the following officers were chosen: President, Mrs. Theo. Parker; Vice President, Mrs. Willam F. Cummings; Secretary, Miss Susie Hall. Treasurer, Mrs. Alonzo Priest. The first supper of the season will be given next week. Preperations are also being made for their annual fair to be held in November.

The people of Ward Six are very much exercised over the condition of Sagamore street. Every time a rain storm prevails the water is from four to six inches deep, and often runs over the sidewalks, making them impassable. This has been the case for months, and last spring the City Council voted to build a catch basin for the puprose of draining this water off. If it is not attended to before the ground freezes up a serious time will result. Prompt attention should be given this matter.

THE LADIES' AID SOCIETY

OF THE

UNIVERSALIST CHURCH

Will Hold its Annual

Harvest Fair and Sale

AT THE VESTRY,

Tuesday and Wednesday Evenings,

Oct. 11th and 12th.

Meals will be served from 6 to 7.30 P. M. and will consist of an old fashioned Boiled Dinner, the first night, with a Baked Bean repast for the second night, both of which will be excellent in style and quality.

A SHORT FARCE

with a miscellaneous entertainment will be given Wednesday evening, and a fine Phonographic entertainment with several other features of interest will be in order Wednesday eve.

There will be a harvest table and domestic article table, so those who desire to do so can lay in a stock of vegetables, preserves, pickles, etc., as well as aprons and other domestic necessities. Home-made candy, ice cream and cake will be on sale as usual.

Admission, 10c. Suppers, 15c. each.

Oct. 8. 1w

TELL US . .

What you are looking for.

We can show you a fine line of

FALL AND WINTER

UNDERWEAR,

HOSIERY,

Outing Flannels, Flannelettes,

Plaid Dress Goods,

WRAPPERS, BLANKETS,

Comforters,

Dress Linings and other Dry Goods.

OUR STOCK IS FRESH.
OUR PRICES THE LOWEST.

MISS C. S. HUBBARD,

158 Hancock Street.

Potatoes.

15c. Peck,

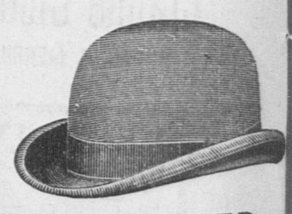

55c. Bushel

SWEET,

25 lbs., 25c.

L. M. PRATT & CO.

25 School Street.

DISSATISFIED

BUYERS OF HATS

Can best be suited by buying

CHAMBERLAIN'S
BEACONSFIELD
$3.00 DERBY,
OR HIS REVELATION
$2.00 DERBY.

They hold their Shape and Color

663 WASHINGTON STREET, BOSTON.

Opposite Beach Street.

Hats and Furnishings.

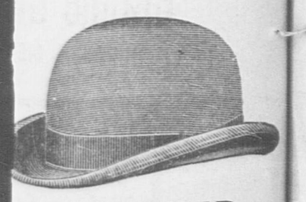

Sept. 15 L 17-4w o

☞ Think of the fancy prices people have paid for pianos. Then think of buying an instrument fully guaranteed and a delightful tone for $190.00. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

E LADIES' AID SOCIETY
OF THE
ERSALIST CHURCH
Will Hold its Annual est Fair and Sale
AT THE VESTRY,
y and Wednesday Evenings,
Oct. 11th and 12th.
ill be served from 6 to 7.30 P. M. and t of an old fashioned Boiled Dinner, ght, with a Baked Bean repast for the ht, both of which will be excellent in uality.
SHORT FARCE
scellaneous entertainment will be dnesday evening, and a fine Phonoertainment with several other fea-terest will be in order Wednesday ill be a harvest table and domestic le, so those who desire to do so can ck of vegetables, preserves, pickles, well as aprons and other doessities. Home-made candy, ice cake will be on sale as usual.
on, 10c. Suppers, 15c. each.
1w

LL US . .
hat you are looking for.
We can show you a fine line of
L AND WINTER
NDERWEAR,
HOSIERY,
Flannels, Flannelettes, aid Dress Goods,
PPERS, BLANKETS,
Comforters,
Linings and other Dry Goods.
STOCK IS FRESH.
OUR PRICES THE LOWEST.
S C. S. HUBBARD,
58 Hancock Street.

otatoes.
15c. Peck,
55c. Bushel.
VEET,
25 lbs., 25c.
M. PRATT & CO.,
25 School Street.

SSATISFIED
BUYERS OF HATS
Can best be suited by buying HAMBERLAIN'S
EACONSFIELD
3.00 DERBY,
OR HIS VELATION
$2.00 DERBY.
hold their Shape and Color.
63 WASHINGTON STREET, BOSTON.
Opposite Beach Street.
Hats and Furnishings.
t. 15 L 17-4w o
Think of the fancy prices people have for pianos. Then think of buying a ment fully guaranteed and a delightful for $190.00. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

"Please Pass the Salt."

You often lay the fault to the salt shaker when the salt won't sift out. In nine cases out of ten you may blame the salt itself—it cakes!

Crystaline Salt won't cake because all the moisture has been dried out by intense heat. It is all salt—pure salt crystals.

It is not an "earthy" salt—there is too much dirt in ordinary salt because it is simply ground and not sifted as it ought to be.

CRYSTALINE SALT--- 8 CENTS.

BOSTON BRANCH GROCERY,
Durgin & Merrill's Block, - Quincy.

Quality Right.
Quantity Right.
Service Right.
C. PATCH & SON.
Coal and Wood.

Carpetings.

Buying a carpet is serious business, and the first thought is to find a carpet that will always wear well and look attractive.

We make a specialty of strong, serviceable carpetings in choice designs at money-saving prices only.

There isn't a store in the whole country that can supply your demands as well as we can.

Hundreds of the latest and choicest designs in Wools, Tapestries and Brussels. Your inspection and comparison cheerfully solicited.

Cotton and Wool Carpetings, 25c. to 45c.
All Wool Carpetings, 45c. to 65c.
Heavy Tapestries, 45c. to 85c.

HENRY L. KINCAIDE & CO.,
Reliable, Low Priced House Furnishers.
Hancock Street, - - - Quincy, Mass.

SWITHIN BROS.
REAL ESTATE!
President's Hill.
President's Hill Annex.
Cranch Hill.
Choice Lots and Improved Property for Sale in West Quincy, Wollaston, South Quincy, Quincy Point, Quincy Centre.
Room 12, Durgin & Merrill's Block, Quincy.

ADAMS NOT IN IT.

Only Featherweights Before Their Rivals.

Thayer Academy Team Won, 44 to 0.

Another Match in Dual League on October 21.

The first game of foot ball between Adams Academy and Thayer Academy in the new dual league series was played on the field at Merrymount Park, Quincy, yesterday afternoon. The two elevens lined up as follows:

ADAMS.	POSITIONS.	THAYER.
Doble	r. e.	Brigham, Newall
Hatch	t.	Bassett
Bennett	g.	Southworth
Cashman	c.	Harrison
Turner	g.	Adams
Donaher	t.	McMahon
Mahon	l. e.	Plumer
Burchsted	g. b.	Nixon
Whitman	r. h. b.	Tinkham
Mueller	l. h. b.	Chase
Hodges	f. b.	Uniac, Bridgham

In the second half Thayer put in several substitutes, Adams had no fresh men to play.

The first half opened with Adams in possession of the ball for the kick-off. Doble kicked. Thayer brought the ball up the field by short rushes and in four minutes play took the ball around the right end for a touchdown. The try for the goal was successful. Score 6-0.

At the second kick off the same tactics were again used and a touchdown was made around the left end. No goal. Score, 11-0.

It was at once evident that the Thayer team was much too heavy for the light Adams team, and this was borne out by what followed. Thayer's mass plays following a rush of 25 yards soon carried the ball across the line, and a goal was kicked. Score 17-0.

Adams braced up a little after this and at the next kick-off Hatch downed the Thayer players on their 35-yard line. But a rush of 40 yards by Chase, on the criss-cross trick made up for this apparent gain. Chase was finally tackled by Whitman. At this point Uniac who had been doing good work for Thayer, received some injury to his leg, and gave way to a substitute. A touchdown, without goal, followed. Score, 22-0.

At the end of twenty minutes, time was called with the ball on Adams' 35-yard line. At no time during this half did Adams have posesession of the ball except for the kick-off.

At the beginning of the second half Adams secured the ball and Doble made a slight gain, but a fumble lost the all to Nixon, who took it from the quarter-backs hands and scored a touchdown. No goal. Score, 27-0

At the next kick-off Thayer's men carried the ball 60 yards but it came to Adams on a foul and was brought back Mueller made a slight gain, but on three downs Bennett was forced to punt. The kick was successful, and the Thayer man who caught the ball was thrown on the spot. Weight again told and the superior interference and mass plays of Thayer soon gained a anoher touchdown from which a goal was kicked. Score 33-0.

At this point Adams held better in the line and it looked as though she might get the ball, but Bridgham made a rush of 15 yards and the ball went over once more. The goal was kicked. Score 39-0.

At the next attempt Bennett punted from the Adams 10-yard line and Cashman by a good tackle put Thayer back to the centre of the field. But it was only a question of a few minutes before another touchdown was made. No goal. Sore 44-0. There were two minutes left of the twenty-five in this half, and Thayer tried hard to score again but failed, and the game ended with the score 44-0 in favor of Thayer.

The winning eleven played well together, and were superior to Adams in a number of points of team play but the great discrepancy in the score was due to the much greater weight of the Thayer eleven.

The game was refered by Mr. Manning for Adams. Lineman, Mr. Burnham. Timekeeper, Mr. Linfield.

The next game will be at Braintree, probably October 21st.

Strong Foot Ball Team.

Manager Harlow Waite of the Braintree A. A. foot ball team has got together a very strong eleven which will make it very hot for all contesting teams. Following are the men and the positions they play:

Left end, Hamlinton
Left tackle, Ambie Gannon.
Left Guard, Henry Dugan.
Centre, Richard Harrison.
Right Guard, Patrick Ganon.
Right tackle, ———
Right end, George Reviere.
Quarter back, John Coughlan.
Right half back, Theo Allen.
Left half back, Nelson Hayden.
Full back, Harlow Waite.

GIVEN A BLACK EYE.

City Council Committees Not Enthusiastic Over State Highway.

It is understood that the taking of a part of Washington street as a State road by the Massachusetts Highway Commission was given a black eye Friday evening at the meeting of the joint committees of the City Council on Finance and Streets. The part of the street taken by the Commissioners was between Chubbuck street and the Quincy Point bridge, and the amount allotted for this work was $7,000, which was to re-surface the street to a width of thirty-five feet, or all of the travelled way between the street railway tracks and the sidewalk on the north side, the only condition being that the city should put in catch basins and drains to take care of the surface water on the street.

To comply with this request an order was offered at the last meeting of the City Council appropriating $1,500 for drains. This was the matter considered by the joint committee Friday night and some opposition was developed, so much so that the committee came to no definite conclusion, and will not report at next Monday night's meeting of the City Council.

This means a delay, which will probably prevent the street being rebuilt this year and may in the end kill the matter entirely, as the Highway Commission are not begging the city to accept their proposition, as they have more demands than they can supply.

Child Scalded.

Loud cries from a child were heard on Hamilton street, Wollaston park yesterday morning about ten o'clock, which brought many of the residents near by to their doors to ascertain the cause. Mrs. Fred Loud looking from the rear of her house on Beach street, saw a little girl about four years old, lying on the front piazza of a house occupied by Mr. Scott and his four children. Mrs. Loud hastily ran to the child, and found the little one suffering from a severe scald on its forehead and left side of the face extending down to the neck and shoulder. On inquiry of the little sufferers oldest sister, Geraldine, it was learned that the accident was caused by the child getting up from under a table, striking its head, and upsetting a cup of cocoa, the contents slopping over the child's face with the result described. Mrs. Loud immediately applied soothing lotions and comforted the little one as best she could, which relieved her greatly. The case is a particularly distressing one from the fact that the mother is sick in a hospital and has been for several weeks. The father is a plumber and goes to his work in the morning, leaving his four children, three little girls and one boy, all under nine years of age, to look out for themselves during the day.

MILTON.

The regular monthly meeting of the Milton Woman's club was held in the Milton High school assembly hall, Saturday, Oct. 1.

Mr. Wallace Richardson, superintendent of the Milton schools, read a most excellent paper on the "Public Schools of Today." He stated that in the United States only nine out of every ten children in the grammar school enter the high. In consequence of this fact he very clearly showed in order for these nine to adapt themselves to the variety of walks in life that it was of the most vital importance that each should receive as much of many studies as it was possible.

A very interesting discussion of the paper was opened by Mrs. Emily Fifield who is so well known from having been connected with the Boston public schools for so many years. At the next meeting on Saturday, Nov. 5th, Mr. Mead, principal of the High school will deliver an address.

Braintree Literary Club.

The Literary club met with Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Norris on Monday evening. Quotations from "As You Like It." Mr. E. E. Abercrombie presided for the first time. He thanked the club for the sympathy extended to him and Mrs. Abercrombie during their affliction

The line of work as laid out by the board of instruction was presented and accepted. It promises to be an exceedingly interesting and profitable one. All class work has been suspended and it is proposed that the second hour will hereafter be devoted to reading standard English plays.

The board of instruction is composed of Mr J. W. West, Mr. A. E. Avery, Mr. A. M. Hunt, Miss Miriam Lane and Mrs. W. E. Morrison.

The next meeting will be held October 17, with Miss Sara Lane.

☞ A written guarantee that our prices are as low and invariably lower for better goods, than any other furniture house in the country. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

BRAINTREE.

Charles Sprague and family, returned from Nantasket on Monday.

Josephus Sampson has harvested his cranberries on Broad Meadow.

John Robery has the contract to build several new streets in Squantum.

Alfred N. Smith is wearing a large smile these days. It's a boy, born Thursday morning. Both mother and babe are doing well.

Harry Marston went on the excursion that left Boston Thursday for a trip to Albany, N. Y., and down the Hudson river and spent a day in New York city.

Harry C. Thayer took a spin on his bicycle to Wolfboro, N. H., on Sunday, and spent the day with Lewis F. Kenney, a former resident of South Braintree.

Rev. Joseph Kyte is recovering from his illness at the Massachusetts General Hospital. His family are rejoiced to think that he will recover without an operation being performed.

The Board of Registrars meet next Saturday evening to place names on the voting list. The final meeting will be at the Town Hall from 7.30 to 10 on the evening of October 29.

The first meeting of the Union Choral society will be held next Wednesday evening. Members are requested to bring their apographs, also the names of their friends who desire to take advantage of this grand musical opportunity.

Another chapter in the series of town meeting was enacted Wednesday evening when the subject of indefinite postponement was discussed until a late hour. An attempt was made to have the debate stopped at 8.45 but the motion was lost and the debate went on. The speakers confined themselves more to the subject, and those who went there with the expectation of seeing the usual display of oratorical fireworks were disappointed.

Have you noticed the handsome tablet on the front of the First church?

Rev. F. A. Palmer of "The Education" is to make his home among us having engaged the Summer's house on Middle street.

The Jonas Perkins School association held their first regular meeting last Tuesday evening at Mr. D. G. Doane's. Mr. J. W. West read a paper on "Literary clubs and associations and their influence on a community." Five new members were admitted.

Division No. 12, A. O. H., are making great preparations for their banquet complimentary to the Ladies' Auxiliary connected with the order. Caterer Nash of Quincy has been engaged to serve the supper and H. A. Webber will furnish ice cream. The banquet will be held in Red Men's hall.

Miss Edna Goullaud soprano has been engaged by Mr. John Thomas for his concert company the coming season. The company left for the south and west, October 7th, and does not return east until February when they will be heard in the Boston Star Course. Braintree wishes her favorite soprano success.

As the 6.05 electric from Braintree on the Braintree & Weymouth line was approaching that dangerous Kelley corner, on Thursday evening, a little late, the 6.15 car from Weymouth was seen coming around the curve. The motorman on the first named car made a desperate and successful effort to stop his car but several passengers were so frightened that they jumped off and in doing so, Mr. Edwin Clapp dislocated his shoulder Mr. James Mahoney had a leg injured and others received bruises.

The supper and social held in the First church parlors, Wednesday evening, were fully up to the standard of interest and pleasure. The supper is said to have been excellent and the coffee way beyond all former efforts.

The Union Company has challenged the "Conqueror" of Weymouth to play for a purse of $300 ($150 a side) and half the gate money. The contest will take place on the Weymouth Fair ground, October 15. The Union is now in fine condition and the boys are out for blood.

TODAY'S COURT.

James Dean, Jr., was sent to the house of correction for three months for drunkenness at Randolph.

The continued case of Daniel Cronin for violation of the liquor law at Quincy was called and again continued until Dec. 23, as Cronin is now serving time in Dedham jail.

John Shiorzi, 9 years; Thomas Peccararo, 10 years; James Peccararo, 11 years, and John Moran 10 years, were arraigned for larceny at Weymouth. Cases continued until next Thursday.

The continued cases of William L. Convoy of South Weymouth for drunkenness and disturbing the peace was called and he was defaulted.

☞ It makes men tired to beat their carpets; that's why they send them to our electric beater. It does the work so thoroughly too. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS.

Advertisements in this column inserted at the following rates:

Four lines, or less, one day, - - 25 cents.
" " three days, - - - 50 cents.
" " one week, - - - - 75 cents.

Additional lines will be charged for pro rata-Seven words equal a line. Long term rates furnished on application.

LOST.

AT the foot ball game between Adams Academy and Thayer, yesterday at Wollaston Park, a Gold Watch and Chain. Finder will be rewarded by leaving the same at Ledger office or 18 Greenleaf street, Quincy.
Oct. 8—1w 8-3t

WANTED.

WANTED—Typewriting to to do at home. Address W. F. SKINNER, 12 Franklin street, Quincy. oct7-6t

TO LET.

TO LET—On Washington street, at the corner of Wibird street, a very desirable house for a small family. Six rooms, two of them new, and all in good repair. Rent, $15. City water. Concrete sidewalk in front of the house extending to the depot. Apply only to FRANK F. PRESCOTT, at the Ledger office or at 14 Bigelow street. tf

TO LET—Cottage house, No. 29 Granite street, 8 rooms, three minutes' from City Square. Apply to H. M. FAXON, 4 Adams Building. Sept. 30—tf

TO LFT—Half a House of 5 rooms entirely separate on Phipps street, Mt. Pleasant. Rent, $8 a month; city water. Inquire at 17 Summer street.
Quincy, Sept. 27. 12t

FOR RENT—Desirable house with bath, corner lot, nice neighborhood, three minutes' walk from schools, churches and depot Rent reasonable. Apply at No. 6 Pleasant St.
Quincy, Sept. 7. tf

TO LET—A pleasant tenement of six rooms; newly papered and painted throughout. Csntrally located on a main street within five minutes' walk of Quincy depot. Rent, $15. Address "House," Lock Box L, Quincy.
Oct, 4. tf

TO LET—Furnished room with furnace heat and bath. Apply at 27 Chestnut street, Quincy.

B. F. CURTIS,

40 Elm Street, Quincy.

TO LET—House of 10 rooms at 43 Elm street. City water. Rent, $18 per month.
Half House of 4 rooms, 19 Union street; city water. Rooms just painted and papered. Rent, $7.50 per month.

TO LET.

Half House on Granite street, near depot; $15.00.
Half House on Washington street, near Universalist church; $11.00.
New House, 6 rooms and bath; Back Bay land, $16.50.
Apply to FRANK F. CRANE,
Oct. 5—6t 4 Chestnut St., Quincy.

TO LET IN QUINCY.

SOUTHERLY Half of house with stable, 214 Hancock street, now occupied by Dr. N. S. Hunting. Modern improvements, central location. Possession given about October 15th.
Apply on premises to
MISS M. F. UNDERWOOD.
Oct. 1. tf

TO LET.

APARTMENTS of five large rooms and bath, with all modern improvements. Also two large stores. Rent moderate.
Apply to ARTHUR CRAIG, or J. W. HAYDEN, at Craig Building, cor. Copeland and Garfield Sts.
Quincy, July 15. pl tf

TO LET.

House of 8 rooms, etc., No. 20 Canal street, Quincy. Nice house, excellent location.
R. D. CHASE,
Savings Bank Building.
Quincy, Oct. 8. pl tf

TO LET.

If you have a vacant tenement, advertise the fact in the Daily Ledger. We are confident it will be let within two months, and to substantiate the claim, we will advertise it after two months. To take advantage of this offer payment must be made before the expiration of the two months. A four-line space until your house is let will cost only $5 at the outside. You cannot afford on these terms to let the house continue vacant.

FREE

FOR SALE.

Bigelow St. Fine New Residence, 9 rooms, bath, laundry, furnace, open plumbing, cemented cellar, fireplace, etc.
R. D. CHASE,
Savings Bank Building.
Quincy, April 8-tf. 9p-tf

The Great Ink-ubator

For Hatching Out Business Is the Daily Ledger.

TROOPS IN SANTIAGO.

Their General Health at No Time So Good as Now.

Fight With the Spanish Very Narrowly Averted.

Call to Arms Sounded After a Hot Discussion.

The Evacuation of Manzanillo the Cause of the Clash.

Respite of Three Days Refused by the American Colonel Without Orders.

Santiago, Oct. 8.—The general health of the American troops is now better than ever before. The recent rains have done much for the health of the camps. There has been a slight increase of ordinary fever; but all cases in the detention hospital of yellow fever are convalescent and practically ready to be discharged. The cooler weather is having an excellent effect on the sick. The troops stationed at San Luis have benefitted greatly by a change of camp. General Ewer reports a reduction of sickness among his men from 700 to 30; the second immunes at Altesongo have only 15 sick, with light attacks of malaria and dysentery.

Friday will be a day long to be remembered in the history of Manzanillo. A fight was narrowly averted between the Spanish garrison under Colonel Parron and the United States troops under Colonel Ray, who have arrived there from Santiago to take possession of the city. The timely arrival of a dispatch from Havana to the American officer was all that prevented a possible reopening of the war.

Thursday morning Ray's command Manzanillo, to the evident astonishment of the Spanish authorities, who claimed that they had not expected the United States troops for a few days. Colonel Ray, accompanied by Collector Donaldson of Santiago and an interpreter, visited Colonel Parron, in command of the local garrison, numbering 200. He informed the colonel that he had arrived to take charge of the government buildings and to assume military command of the city in accordance with the agreement reached between the United States and Spanish evacuation commissioners at Havana. Colonel Parron, who was exceedingly courteous, welcomed the American officer, said he had received a telegraphic communication from General Blanco informing him that the date for the American occupation had been changed to Oct. 10, and requested Colonel Ray to cable General Lawton at Santiago for further instructions. Colonel Ray offered to take over the customs house and to allow the other buildings to await a formal surrender until next Tuesday. Colonel Parron objected to this, saying that all or none should be delivered. It was finally arranged that both commanders should telegraph their superiors.

The next question that arose was regarding the landing of troops. Colonel Parron wanted Colonel Ray to pitch his camp two miles off, for fear of a clash. Colonel Ray objected to this, saying that he wanted his men in the city and, moreover, to have them on land Friday. He pledged his word that there would be no clash so far as his men were concerned. Colonel Parron answered that he also could answer for his own garrison, but he feared the Cuban element. The Spanish commander courteously offered the American officer half his commissariat supplies, if necessary. Colonel Ray thanked him for the offer, but declined to take advantage of it.

Colonel Ray, not having heard from General Lawton to the contrary, sent word to Colonel Parron that in accordance with his instructions he should march his men to the city from the dock a mile away, where the United States transport had moved at the request of the Spanish commander, and would take possession of the public buildings in the name of the United States. At 8 o'clock the battalion was in motion, with colors flying. Colonel Ray marched toward the city, but before the troops reached the city gate, Adjutant Collins arrived with Colonel Parron's reply. The latter said he had no objections to surrendering the customs house at once provided the American flag was not raised. Colonel Ray retorted that the United States was not accustomed to taking possession without displaying the insignia of its sovereignty. The march was then continued. When the troops passed the guard at the gate, a body of 25, the latter lined up and saluted. The report quickly spread through the city that the Americans had arrived with colors flying; and the streets were soon thronged by apparently the whole population, men women and children turning out by thousands, as the regiment marched toward the principal square, where it halted.

At this point a Spanish bugler sounded the call to arms, and the Spanish garrison turned out to the number of 500 men on the other side of the square. Colonel Ray visited Colonel Parron at the palace and a somewhat stormy interview took place between them, with the aid of an interpreter. The Spanish commander said he had understood from Colonel Ray that matters were to remain over until Oct. 10, and that he considered himself tricked. Colonel Ray explained that he had never said anything of that sort; that his instructions were to take possession of the city Oct. 7; that he had cabled for further instructions, and, not having received any, had proceeded to act upon his original orders. Thereupon Colonel Parron declared he would use force. Colonel Ray answered: "If you wish to precipitate further hostilities with the United States I am unable to prevent it, but so far as I am concerned I have certain orders which, as a soldier, I am bound to carry out. I appreciate the position in which you find yourself, but am unable to help you. After the United States troops are fired upon I believe the men who are with me are quite able to take care of themselves, even though a little outnumbered. Although I am opposed to a useless waste of life I shall face the issue in any way it suits you."

Colonel Parron said he would immediately order the arrest of the officer who allowed the American troops to pass the city gate.

Colonel Ray retorted: "If he had refused I should have been under the unpleasant necessity of shooting him and of then forcing an entrance."

After considerable discussion and many requests on the part of Colonel Parron that Colonel Ray should take his men out of the city until General Blanco could be communicated with, it was decided not to take action until the cable office had closed that afternoon, Colonel Ray asserting that if at that time no further instructions had been received he would take action immediately.

In the meantime the United States troops were to be marched up to the barracks which the Spaniards left on departing for Cienfuegos, Colonel Ray consenting to encase the colors out of deference to Colonel Parron's fear that the sight of the American flag might excite the Spanish element beyond restraint and so provoke an overt act leading to bloodshed.

On leaving the palace the two colonels walked to the square, where they arrived just in time to prevent a collision of their forces. It appears that some Spanish officer, who had misunderstood an order from Colonel Parron, had just notified the American troops that they must leave immediately. Captain Frost, in command during Colonel Ray's absence, refused to comply, whereupon he was told that the blood of his men would be upon their own heads. At this moment Colonel Ray came up, and Captain Frost reported the occurrence. Colonel Parron promptly ordered his overzealous subordinate away.

Then began the march of a mile to the barracks through the crowded streets, most of the on-lookers being evidently pro-Spanish, judging from their scowling looks and uncomplimentary remarks. The march led around the square. As the Americans passed the Spanish garrison the latter presented arms. The barracks were found in a healthy locality and in good condition. It was Colonel Ray's firm intention to take action as soon as the cable station closed, and it was evident that the soldiers on both sides were quite ready to try conclusions, the Spanish officers especially not taking at all kindly to evacuation.

Sometime before the cable station closed Colonel Ray received a dispatch from General Wade, explaining that the commander of the Spanish troops in Manzanillo had requested a delay until Oct. 10, and that the formal evacuation was therefore postponed.

FUSSY ACTIVITY.

English Statesman Not In Favor of an Anglo-American League.

London, Oct. 8.—Sir Edward Clarke, the former solicitor general, in a letter declining an invitation to support the Plymouth branch of the Anglo-American league, says: "With all respect to the distinguished members of the general committee, I think such an organization is unnecessary and not unlikely to be mischievous. The fussy activity of a society representing one particular view of foreign affairs is very seldom of public benefit. I have always labored to promote the most friendly relations between Great Britain and the United States, but we can all do much to secure peace between the two countries and friendly rivalry by promoting the civilization of the world, without binding ourselves to a society for whose action we should be responsible, although we could not control it.

"Great Britain and the United States have no doubt many ties of sympathy, but they are two nations and not one. They must often have divergent interests, and I prefer to be unshackled by membership in a society which binds itself to constant co-operation with the United States government. Many have probably joined, simply desiring to promote a better understanding and thereby diminish the probability of a conflict; but if this is the object I think that an Anglo-German, Anglo-French and Anglo-Russian league are much more needed. Friendly relations between ourselves and the European nations are quite as important as with the United States, and with them we have not the sentiment of kinship which, in the case of the United States, goes for to allay suspicion, soothe jealousies and prevent the peace of the world from being imperilled by any controversies over a trifling question."

Civil Governor Sat Upon.

Havana, Oct. 8.—The civil governor is at swords' points with the municipal authorities. The former, a few days ago, ordered the city to be divided into zones for the purpose of increasing the tariff of fares for the benefit of the cab companies and livery stables simultaneously. The mayor, in whose province such affairs belong, published an open disapproval of the regulation, warning the public against paying the new rates and advising the people to pay only the old fares, for which they would be protected by the law. Thereupon the governor revoked the order.

The mayor is standing his ground resolutely in the interests of public welfare, and public feeling is much exercised over the civil governor's new attitude, as, heretofore, he has always appeared as a strong advocate of the people's rights and benefits.

Spanish Troops In Singapore.

Washington, Oct. 8.—Admiral Dewey has cabled the navy department that he has been advised that a number of Spanish troops have arrived at Singapore, bound for the Philippines to reinforce the Spanish garrison in Iloilo, on the island of Panay. The weight of opinion is that this action will not constitute a breach of the terms of the protocol suspending hostilities unless the Spaniards [illegible] to carry on an offensive war

LARGE PURSE OFFERED

Another Effort to Get McCoy and Corbett Together.

Prize of $20,000 For a Bout In Virginia.

The Location Said to Be Within a Few Miles of Washington.

Baltimore, Oct. 8.—Al Hereford, manager of the Eureka Athletic club, is prepared to deposit $20,000 for the Corbett-McCoy fight, one fourth of it in the shape of a guarantee that he will pull off the contest. He sent telegrams to New York to George Considine, manager for Corbett, and to W. B. Gray, who looks after the interests of McCoy, saying: "Will post $5000 to pull off Corbett-McCoy fight in Virginia. Twenty thousand purse. Answer."

Within an hour Considine replied: "Satisfactory to me, but McCoy does not want to fight."

Beyond the statement that the amphitheatre in which he purposes to have the men meet will seat 12,000 persons and that it is located in Virginia, "not very far from Washington," Mr. Hereford declined to go. He prefers Nov. 7 at 11 a. m. as the time for the fight, but will acquiesce to any change agreed upon by the principals.

Heralded as Dangerous.

New York, Oct. 8.—"Mysterious" Billy Smith of this city is still the champion welterweight pugilist. He met Charles McKeever of Philadelphia at the rooms of the Lenox Athletic club in a 25-round bout at 142 pounds, and though McKeever stayed, the bout was all in Smith's favor. Mac was heralded as the most dangerous proposition which Smith had ever tackled, but his showing was a great disappointment, as he was at no time capable of making an impression.

There was more fast work in the 22nd than in any of the rounds. In the 23rd round McKeever led with a left to the face and followed it with a short right to the jaw, and Smith went down. He got up quickly and hugged his man until the referee pulled them apart. Billy rushed matters in the 24th and raised a lump over McKeever's right eye with a left jab. Smith rained a torrent of blows on McKeever and staggered him with a right hook on the head. In the last round Smith knocked McKeever clean off his feet with a right swing on the jaw, but McKeever was up inside of three seconds. Billy tried hard to get his right over to the mark, but could not land it, and McKeever lasted the limit. The referee awarded the bout to Smith.

WON IN THE EIGHTH.

Three Singles and a Double Resulted In Another Fall For the Church People.

Brooklyn, Oct. 8.—Willis, the telescopic twirler of the Bostons, cut loose with a supply of speed and drop balls at Washington park yesterday afternoon that palsied the batting arms of the home nine and reduced their stick work to nothingness. The tall pitcher was a bit wild, and this, together with a muff by Tenney, put the opposition in the way of their only two runs. The game was the champions' from the start, for they hit the ball squarely, fielded cleanly, and scurried around the bases in a dashing and peppery manner. Score:

Brooklyns.	AB	R	1B	PO	A	E
Griffin, c. f.	3	1	0	1	0	0
Jones, r. f.	3	1	1	1	0	0
Anderson, 1 b.	3	0	0	8	0	0
Magoon, s. s.	3	0	0	4	4	1
Daly, 2 b.	2	0	0	4	2	0
Sheckard, l. f.	4	0	0	2	0	0
Wagner, 3 b.	4	0	2	3	2	1
Smith, c.	3	0	0	1	0	0
Dunn, p.	2	0	0	0	4	0
Totals	27	2	3	24	12	2
Bostons.	AB	R	1B	PO	A	E
Hamilton, c. f.	3	2	2	1	0	0
Tenney, 1 b.	4	2	2	9	0	1
Long, s. s.	4	0	1	2	2	0
Lowe, 2 b.	5	1	2	1	3	0
Collins, 3 b.	5	0	1	2	1	0
Stahl, r. f.	4	1	2	2	0	0
Bergen, c.	5	0	1	5	0	0
Duffy, l. f.	2	1	1	1	0	0
Willis, p.	4	0	0	1	3	0
Totals	36	7	12	24	9	1

Brooklyns ..... 1 0 1 0 0 0 0 0—2
Bostons ..... 2 0 0 1 0 0 1 3—7

Called on account of darkness.

Earned runs—Bostons, 4. Two-base hits—Long, Stahl. Stolen bases—Griffin, Jones, Magoon, Hamilton, Duffy. Sacrifice hits—Long, Smith. First base on errors—Brooklyns, 1; Bostons, 2. Left on bases—Brooklyns, 9; Bostons, 12. Struck out—By Willis, 4; by Dunn, 1. Base on balls—Off Willis, 7; off Dunn, 5. Double play—Magoon and Anderson. Wild pitch—Willis. Time—1:53. Umpires—Brown and Connolly. Attendance—700.

The Clevelands won both games in St. Louis. The first was a pitchers' battle. The second was called after the sixth inning on account of darkness.

Errors by the New Yorks were responsible for three of the Baltimores' runs yesterday, and gave that team the victory. Umpire Gaffney called the game at the end of the sixth inning on account of darkness, though the sun was still shining.

The Philadelphias took a double header from the Washingtons by consecutive hitting. The fielding was good all around. Darkness stopped the second game in the fifth inning.

Anson was an unsuccessful applicant for manager of the Brooklyns.

Has a Penchant For Diamonds.

New York, Oct. 8.—Captain McClusky has been notified that Jacob Ullman has been arrested in Albany. Ullman is wanted for ingratiating himself into the good graces of women and then stealing their diamonds and jewelry. Captain McClusky says that Ullman has stolen at least $5000 worth of jewelry in this city alone.

Ever since last July complaints have been coming in to police headquarters concerning the operations of Ullman, who is wanted in Boston, Philadelphia, Washington, Troy and other cities. Captain McClusky received a telegram from Albany stating that the Albany police have surrendered Ullman to the Troy

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Topic For the Week Beginning Oct. 9. Comment by Rev. S. H. Doyle.

TOPIC. — "Patriotism."—Ps. xxxiii, 1-22. "Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord and the people whom He hath chosen for His own inheritance."—Ps. xxxiii, 12.

The God of the American nation is the Lord, and He hath blessed it. Since the days of God's chosen people no people have had such evidences of God's special favor and blessing as the American people. The hand of God can be clearly seen in the history of our beloved country from the day of its discovery until the present moment. He hath clearly chosen us for his own inheritance. God has blessed us with many blessings. One of the greatest of these blessings is a God given patriotism. American patriotism is of a high and lofty character. The country seems to have a peculiar power of inspiring the intensest love and devotion of its citizens.

A study of a few of the characteristics of this patriotism will prove that this is true and show that it is one of God's choicest blessings to the American nation.

1. It is a patriotism that pervades all classes. The development of classes is one of the greatest dangers that confronts a republic, but so long as all classes fervently love the nation and are willing to make heroic sacrifices for it this danger is not present. To the present time at least this has been true. In the trying times of a foreign war rich and poor alike have proved their patriotism. Wealthy, aristocratic, educated Hamilton Fish gave his life for his country just as willingly as the poorest and most ignorant volunteer, and this is but an illustration of what has been universally true. May it always be so!

2. It is a patriotism that pervades all sections. The war with Spain has forever destroyed all sectional feeling. A patriotic son of the south was the first American soldier to shed his life's blood on Cuban soil. In every way the south has shown its loyalty and devotion to the flag. The word "rebel" is forever obsolete in the American vocabulary. There is one country, one flag, one patriotism—the greatest blessing that has come to us as a result of the war.

3. It is a patriotism that pervades all nationalities. Our nation is young. It has been populated by all nationalities. Our national existence depended upon our ability to assimilate these various nationalities and to make them first Americans, and then English, Germans or French. Had we not been able to do this, instead of having one great American nation we would have had a country made up of a little England, a little Germany and a little France. Under the blessing of God this work has been done. No matter from what nation we may have come we are Americans first and Americans all.

4. It is a religious patriotism—a patriotism that sees the hand of God in the destiny of nations, and that acknowledges His leadership and that looks upon patriotism itself as a religious duty, solemnly owed to God Himself.

Bible Readings.—Ex. xxxii, 31, 32; Ruth i, 16, 17; I Kings xi, 14-22; Ps. cxxxvii, 1-6; cxlvii, 20; Prov. xiv, 34; Isa. lxii, 1; Math. xxiii, 37; Luke xiii, 34, 35; xix, 41-44; Rom. ix, 1-5; I Tim. ii, 1, 2.

Self Forgetfulness.

Jesus seemed never to think of Himself, while we seem seldom to think of anybody else. If He was tired and sought rest for body and brain, He quickly forgot it all if some one met Him who needed His help.

What a different institution the church would be if every member lived a life of self forgetfulness! What a society yours would be if each member imitated the Divine Model in this respect! How quickly would the world be brought to Christ if all who bear His name would deny self for the sake of the perishing millions who never will be saved until the love of souls takes the place of the love of ease and pleasure which now so largely control us all. —Presbyterian Journal.

Good Will to Others.

Poor human nature, so sadly twisted by the fall, is ever ready to believe evil, and this is often true of the very ones we justly regard with contempt, and David did not err when he prayed that he might not be delivered into the hand of man. When we have to do with God, we may confidently rely upon His holiness and His mercy, but when we are concerned with man, and much of our happiness and usefulness are in a measure dependent upon our relations with our fellows, we shall be wise to depend but little upon either their equity or their gentleness when we desire their good will.—Episcopal Recorder.

The Thinking Post.

The "thinking post" was a droll conceit of the English wit, Sidney Smith. Not far from his gate he had a post set, at which every one going out was to stop and think whether he had left anything behind. Some thinking posts we need very frequently in life, where there shall be some pause for reflection. The best thinking post given to any of us is the divine ordinance of the Sabbath, with its frequent returns, its cessation of toil and withdrawal from the world, and its appearance in the presence of God.—Central Presbyterian.

"Abide In Me."

Abide in me, o'ershadow by Thy love
Each half formed purpose and dark thought of sin;
Quench, ere it rise, each selfish, low desire
And keep my soul as Thine—calm and divine.

Abide in me. There have been moments pure
When I have seen Thy face and felt Thy power;
Then evil lost its grasp, and passion, hushed,
Owned the divine enchantment of the hour.

These were but seasons, beautiful and rare;
Abide in me, and they shall ever be.
I pray Thee now fulfill my earnest prayer—
Come and abide in me, and I in Thee.
—Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe.

He Was Embarrassed.

He was painfully embarrassed. He came into our store last week and said to our new man (Mr. Ryder): "I want to get a f-f-f-f-f-f-fall——" He got one. He backed up to let a couple of ladies pass from our clothing department, and fell down two short steps which lead to that department. He got up smiling and said again: "I want to get a f-f-f-f-f-fall overcoat and I'm a little sh-sh-sh-sh-short——" "Oh! That makes no difference," said our man, "as we carry overcoats for all shaped men—for the short ones as well as the tall ones," and he laid out a few different styles for him to see.

"I m-m-m-m-mean that I'm sh-sh-sh-sh-short of mun-mun-mun-money and I want to know if I paid eh-eh-eh-eh-eight dollars on one, if I could pup-pup-pup-pay the rest on Saturday night?"

He went out with 50c. and a brand new Fall Overcoat. He bought a fine light covert for $7.50 that he expected to pay $10.00 for, and he did not feel bashful about saying so, either.

We don't trust because we want to sell you all the time. If we trusted—well, you know somebody's got to pay.

Our heavy weight Fall and Winter Covert at $9.85, made with swelled seams, satin facing and without lining, is the most economical coat a man can buy.

Remember we are the Headquarters in Quincy for Children's Clothing. Over 400 suits. Prices, $1.29 to $5.00.

QUINCY CLOTHING COMPANY,

QUINCY'S CLOTHIERS,

Music Hall Block.

NOTHING BETTER,

UNCLE SAM'S NAV

Now commands the respect of the world, and we are all proud of the de of the Nation's Honor. To give the people of Quincy a good idea of th battleships, we have ordered a large supply of portfolios, giving mag views of the ships, crews, etc.

With each purchase made at our store we will give a portfolio check value of the purchase. When you have $4.00 worth of these checks, them and get a portfolio. Continue in this way until you have the se plete. Call and see these magnificent portfolios.

ROGERS BROS.,

Groceries and Provisions. Adams Building, Q

MAKE IT HOT FOR YOU.

If your house is cold you have become disgu with the various devices heaters, and you are anxious to have warmth comfort in your home, an order for one of thos B. Bates CIRCULAT

It will "make it hot for you" or just the temperature you desire. construction is based upon scientific and economical principles. eral have recently been put in right here in Quincy, and others wi put in during the next few weeks. Don't read this ad. and then get about it till your water pipes are all frozen, but go now to

G. B. BATES,

Hancock Street, Quincy.

GEO. AMES,

the ONLY PRACTICAL PLUMBER in the ware business in the City. He has a patent SE TRAP which cannot be beat. Impossible for sewer gas to enter your homes. See him your Sewer Connection. He has had three experience in Boston and other large cities tablished here in 1889 and still in it. Work anywhere.

Hardware, Paints and Oils, Putty and Glass, Yacht Supplies, Gas Fittings. Steam and Hot Air Heaters put in repair for the winter arrassed.

ADAMS BUILDIN

He came into our store
(Mr. Ryder): "I want to
. He backed up to let a hing department, and fell that department. He got to get a f-f-f-f-f-fall over-short——" "Oh! That
"as we carry overcoats es as well as the tall ones," for him to see.
sh-sh-sh-sh-short of mun-now if I paid eh-eh-eh-eh-up-pup-pup-pay the rest on and new Fall Overcoat. He .50 that he expected to pay ful about saying so, either.

ant to sell you all the time.
body's got to pay.

Fall and Winter
de with swelled and without lin-onomical coat a e the Headquar-Children's Cloth-

s. Prices, $1.29

NG COMPANY,

LOTHIERS,

ll Block.

BETTER,
M'S NAVY
, and we are all proud of the defen ple of Quincy a good idea of the g ply of portfolios, giving magnifi e we will give a portfolio check to $4.00 worth of these checks, re this way until you have the set o rtfolios.

S BROS.,
Adams Building, Qui

If your house is cold an you have become disgust with the various devices calle heaters, and you are rea anxious to have warmth an comfort in your home, plac an order for one of those
B. Bates CIRCULATOR
st the temperature you desire. It c and economical principles. Ser t here in Quincy, and others will b Don't read this ad. and then for e all frozen, but go now to

BATES,

reet, Quincy.

AMES,
L PLUMBER in the H
y. He has a patent SE beat. Impossible for d ar homes. See him a
. He has had three y nd other large cities and still in it. Work and Glass, Yacht Supplies, S eaters put in repair for the winter.
BUILDIN

Cuba Libre.

Two Step.

Composed by S. F. Ayers.

Copyright, 1898, by The Musical Chimes, New York.

FRUIT AND FLOWERS

A FINE BEGONIA.

A Useful Sort For Winter Flowering—How to Propagate and Treat It.

The begonia Gloire de Sceaux is herewith figured, after Gardening, as one of the most useful sorts for spring and winter flowering. The stems are stout, erect and from one to three feet high, with leaves dark green, tinged reddish beneath and from six to eight inches in width. Flowers are pale pink and 1½ inches broad.

A correspondent of the journal mentioned says: Plants 2 years old are best for decorative purposes, as they then send out numerous flowering shoots from such portions of the previous year's stems as have been retained. Older plants are not reliable. In propagating I prefer to take the cuttings in spring if they are obtainable. These will make nice specimens the following spring. Usually, however, it is impossible to procure good material for cuttings until the old plants are cut down later in the year, and when started so late they seldom make fully developed specimens before the second year.

BEGONIA GLOIRE DE SCEAUX.

For this and most other winter flowering begonias I use a rather coarse compost made up of good loam, leaf mold, cow manure and sand, two parts loam to one part each of the other constituents, with the addition of a small quantity of charcoal. Good drainage is very necessary, and during the winter months the plants should be kept in a temperature of 60 degrees.

Overbearing and Black Knot.

I have grown plums and cherries for years and have never had any serious trouble with black knot. It is very likely this trouble will be more common this season than last owing to the large crop of fruit last season. In this section there was the largest crop of plums ever known, and growers have not yet come to a realizing sense of the necessity of thinning the fruit. The plum trees were so weakened by overbearing that they became an easy prey to the black knot and all other diseases of the plum.

Black knot is always more prevalent in years following a heavy crop of fruit. I do not believe that spraying with anything will prevent this troublesome disease. Keep the trees in a healthy, growing condition, and never allow them to overbear. This will do more good than spraying. On my 200 plum and over 300 cherry trees I do not find from year to year three pieces of black knot. Therefore I cannot say that any one variety is more subject to it than another.

If I had a tree that persisted in bringing forth a crop of black knot, I would certainly move it, root and branch. The secret of success in growing fine plums lies in keeping the trees in a thrifty, growing condition and never letting them overbear. Never prop up the branches of a tree, but thin the fruit until the tree can bear up its burden. By following this plan there will be no off years of fruiting, no black knot, no small, inferior fruit, and no glut in the fruit market, says A. A. Halliday of Vermont in Rural New Yorker.

The Care of Hardy Ferns.

During the hot and dry summer months the fernery should be watered frequently, particularly that containing delicate leaved plants like Osmunda regalis and Onoclea sensibilis. These require plenty of moisture to be at their best, and there should be no excuse for not having small beds look well until cold weather. At least keep the soil cool around the roots by a light mulch of ripened hay. All evergreen kinds can well stand a certain amount of dryness, and for this reason as well as for the winter effect they should always be included in plantings. — Meehan's Monthly.

Floral Notes.

If flowers in the house are desired from November to late spring, nothing will supply them with greater ease and certainty than the winter blooming bulbs, especially hyacinths, which are a good old standby.

When asters are in full show, one realizes their great value as a feature of the late flower garden.

Vick advises not to cut back the carnations intended for winter blooming later than August.

Keep the asters free from weeds and fertilize freely for big blooms and plenty of them.

☞ Furniture reupholstered and mattresses made over. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

SMILE TEMPTERS.

After a Bargain.

"One dollar a yard!" she exclaimed when the shop assistant had told her the price. "Why, that's exorbitant."

"We can't afford to sell it for any less," replied the young man.

"Well, I know where I can get it for less," she replied, "and I am too good a business woman to pay more than a thing is worth."

And then she marched out of the shop and paid 50 cents for a hansom to go to a place where she could get the same thing for 98 cents.—Metropolitan.

The Ruling Attraction.

The Proprietor—Did you put up the biggest "Friday Bargain Sale" card?

The Clerk—Yes, sir.

The Proprietor—And the "Less Than Cost" banner, and the "For Two Hours Only" placard, and the "But One to Each Purchaser" sign?

The Clerk—Yes, sir, all of them.

The Proprietor—Then what in Tophet caused all those women to run out of the store?

The Clerk—A passing soldier, sir.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Aguinaldo.

I've no Wagnerian outfit,
No horns nor big bassoon,
But, just the same, I'm happy
To sound my little tune.
I am my own director,
And when I'd have my way
No bilious solo player
Steps forth to say me nay.

They sneered at my ambitions,
But my music is endured
By an audience of nations
Whose attention I've secured.
My heart is full of rapture,
My mood is ever bland,
For when I blow my whistle
I'm the leader of the band.
—Washington Star.

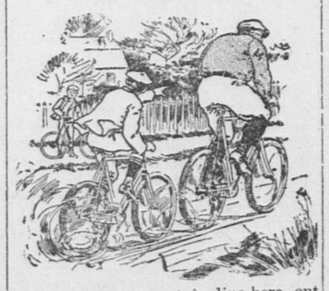

Limitations.

The young man with the military uniform had been telling of his hardships and dwelt with particular emphasis on the rations. He was eloquently indignant, when his mother interrupted.

"Ronald, people who hear you might think you do not love your country."

"Yes, I do love my country," he answered, "and I'm willing to overlook faults, but I'm blessed if I can go so far as to praise its cooking."—Washington Star.

Very Pleasant Indeed.

"Hey, Jimmie, get in line here, out of the wind!"—Up to Date.

All He Needed.

"If I kin find another kind lady—one what has sons wid outgrown bicycles, me name is Walker no longer."—Scribner's.

Give Them Credit For This.

"There's one good thing about these conceited people."

"What's that?"

"They don't come around and wear you out because they've got the blues."—Chicago Record.

A Suggestion.

A bounty on the fierce wolf's head
The States should all restore;
Then maybe people won't object
To have him at their door.
—New York Journal.

Speaking of Clocks.

You cannot always judge by appearances. A clock appears to be terribly modest, with its hands always before its face, but you'll find that there's a deal of brass in its composition.—Boston Transcript.

Sidewalk Perils.

You may buy, you may scatter the fruit if you will,
But the rind of bananas will trip you up still.
—Chicago Record.

Jealousy.

Canny Scot—Yours is a poor country.
Paddy—Well, we can afford to wear breeches anyhow.—Tit-Bits.

Musings.

The poesy that fills my soul
As far as I have long time seen
Will never fill my empty bowl
Nor ever fill a magazine.
—Town Topics.

Quincy and Boston Electric Street Railway.

[Subject to change without notice.]

On and after September 21, cars will be run on the different routes as follows:

Quincy and Neponset.

Leave CITY SQUARE for Neponset at 5.55, 6.10, 6.25, 6.40 A. M. and every 15 minutes until 11.10 P. M.

Leave NEPONSET for Quincy at 6.15 A. M. and every 15 minutes until 11.30 P. M.

Cars leaving Quincy at 10 minutes past the hour go via Norfolk Downs, and those leaving Neponset at 30 minutes past go via Downs.

Cars leaving Neponset 15 minutes of and 15 minutes past the hour go via Wollaston and continue through Braintree and Holbrook to Brockton, connecting with cars for Bridgewater, Taunton, New Bedford, Fall River, Newport and Providence.

Quincy and East Weymouth.

Leave CITY SQUARE (10 minutes later from Quincy Point and 22 minutes later from North Weymouth)—5.45, 6.20, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20, 9.50, 10.20, 10.50, 11.20, 11.50 A. M.; 12.20, 12.50, 1.20, 1.50, 2.20, 2.50, 3.20, 3.50, 4.20, 4.50, 5.20, (5.30 to East Weymouth car house), 5.50, 6.20, 6.30, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20, 9.50, 10.50 P. M., (11.50 Wednesday and Saturday to Thomas' Corner only.)

Leave EAST WEYMOUTH (20 minutes later from North Weymouth and 30 minutes later from Quincy Point)—6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8, 8.30, 9, 9.30 10, 10.30, 11, 11.30 A. M.; 12, 12.30, 1, 1.30, 2 2.30, 3, 3.30, 4, 4.30, 5, 5.30, 6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8 8.30, 9, 9.30, 10, 10.30, 11.30 P. M.

Quincy and Weymouth Landing.

Leave QUINCY at 5.30 A. M., 6.20, 7.20 and every hour until 12.20, then 1.50 and every hour until 10.50 P. M.

Leave WEYMOUTH LANDING at 5.50 A. M. and every hour until 12.50, then 2.20 and every hour until 11.20 P. M., connect with trains to Boston at Quincy.

Quincy and East Milton.

Leave CITY SQUARE, 5.55, 6.25, then every 5 minutes of and 25 minutes past the hour until 9.25 P. M., then at 10.50 P. M.

Leave EAST MILTON 6.25, 6.55 A. M., then every 5 minutes of and 25 minutes past the hour until 9.50 P. M., then 10.20 and 11.20 P. M.

Quincy and Holbrook.

Leave QUINCY for Holbrook at 6.10 and 6.40 A. M., and every half hour until 9.40 P. M., then 10.10 P. M. to South Braintree only, except on Wednesday and Saturday, when car at 10.50 runs through to Holbrook.

Quincy and Hingham.

Leave QUINCY at 7.20 A. M. and every hour until 11.20 A. M., then 1.50 and every hour until 5.50 P. M.

Leave HINGHAM at 8 A. M. and every hour until 12 M., then 2.30 and every hour until 6.30 P. M.

Neponset, Atlantic and Squantum.

Leave NEPONSET at 6.30 A. M. and every hour until 8.30 P. M., connecting at Atlantic with outward express trains.

Leave SQUANTUM at 7 A. M. and every hour until 9 P. M., connecting at Atlantic with express trains.

Quincy and Houghs Neck.

Leave QUINCY CENTRE at 6.20 A. M., and and every hour until 1.20, and then 1.50 and every hour until 9.50.

Returning, leave HOUGHS NECK at 5.45 A. M., and every hour until 12.45, and then 1.20 and every hour until 9.20.

SUNDAYS.

Cars leave City Square, Quincy, for E. Weymouth at 7.30 A. M. and West Quincy at 7 A. M and on the hour and half hour throughout the day.

Sunday time same as week days on other lines, except that the first two trips are omitted.

BENJ. J. WEEKS, Superintendent.

New York, New Haven and Hartford R. R.

Eastern District.

On and after July 1st, 1898, trains will run as follows: (See note of explanation at bottom.

TO BOSTON. Leave Quincy.	Stops at	Arrive Boston.	FROM BOSTON. Leave Boston.	Stops at	Arrive Quincy
r 6 12	abc	e 6 30	5 55	ihgfedcba*	6 22 r
r 6 42	abc	7 00	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	7 30	cba	7 49 r
r 7 26	ad	7 43	8 30	cba	8 49 r
r 7 42	abc	8 00	9 30	cba	9 49 r
r 8 12	abc	8 30	10 30	cba	10 49 r
r 8 26	ad	8 43	11 30	cba	11 49 r
r 8 42	abc	9 00	12 30	cba	12 49 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	1 30	cba	1 49 r
r 10 12	abc	10 30	2 30	cba	2 49 r
r 11 12	abc	11 30	3 30	cba	3 49 r
r 12 12	abc	12 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
r 1 12	abc	1 30	5 00	cba	5 19 r
r 2 12	abc	2 30	5 17	da	5 36 r
r 3 12	abc	3 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
r 4 12	abc	4 30	6 00	cba	6 19 r
r 5 12	abc	5 30	6 17	da	6 36 r
r 6 12	abc	6 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	7 00	cba	7 19 r
r 7 39	abcdefghi	8 05	7 30	cba	7 49 r
r 8 08	abcdef	8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	9 30	cba	9 49 r
r 10 08	abcdef	10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r
r 11 12	abc	11 30	11 30	cba	11 49 r

SUNDAYS.

r 7 12	abc	7 30	6 30	cba	6 r
r 8 12	abc	8 30	8 30	cba	8 49 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	12 30	cba	12 49 r
r 1 12	abc	1 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
r 5 12	abc	5 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 8 08	abcdef	8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
r 10 08	abcdef	10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r

*The letters in the same line as the figures stand for different stations and indicate that trains stop, as follows:

a, Wollaston, g, Savin Hill.
b, Norfolk Downs. h, Crescent Avenue.
c, Atlantic. i, South Boston.
d, Neponset. (xx), Express.
e, Pope's Hill, r, Quincy Adams.
f, Harrison Square.

C PETER CLARK, Gen'l Supt. A. C. KENDALL, G. P. A

FRANK F CRANE,
AUCTIONEER and APPRAISER,
Office, 4 Chestnut St., Quincy, Mass.
Oct. tf

Chichester's English Diamond Brand.
PENNYROYAL PILLS
Original and Only Genuine.
SAFE, always reliable. LADIES ask Druggist for Chichester's English Diamond Brand in Red and Gold metallic boxes, sealed with blue ribbon. Take no other. Refuse dangerous substitutions and imitations. At Druggists, or send 4c. in stamps for particulars, testimonials and "Relief for Ladies," in letter, by return Mail. 10,000 Testimonials. Name Paper.
Chichester Chemical Co., Madison Square, PHILADA., PA.
Sold by all Local Druggists. Sold by Geo. C. Goodwin & Co., Boston, Mass.
General Agents.

LADIES ROYAL DELIVERANCE CAPSULES are a positive, safe and speedy monthly regulator, guaranteed to cure the most stubborn cases, or money refunded. Have never failed. Used by thousands of ladies, indorsed and prescribed by the medical profession. Painful and dangerous operations avoided. Price $2, at office or by return mail. 'Royal Protector' and full particulars under plain seal for 4c., stamps. ROYAL REMEDIES CO., 228 Tremont Street, Boston, Mass. Mention this paper.

Quincy Daily Ledger.

FOR SALE BY NEWSBOYS

and at the following places:

BOSTON—Old Colony News Stand after 3.30
QUINCY—Ledger Office, 115 Hancock St.
Souther's Periodical Store, 1 Granite St.
Henry P. Kittredge, City Square.
J. P. O'Brien, 38 Hancock St.
C. F. Carlson, near Quincy depot.
S. A. Pierce, corner Hancock and School Sts.
QUINCY POINT—Miss Freeman's store.
A. B. Wrisley, Washington St.
SOUTH QUINCY—Peter Haverly, Water St.
F. J. Pierson, 96 Granite St.
O. D. Chick, 59 Liberty St.
WEST QUINCY—Coram's Periodical Store.
BREWER'S CORNER—Emma Lark.
WOLLASTON—Ross' news stand.
Loring's Pharmacy, Wollaston Park.
NORFOLK DOWNS—Branscheid & Marten.
ATLANTIC—Branscheid & Marten.
HOUGHS NECK—Arthur Dunham at P. O.
EAST MILTON—William Clark.
EAST WEYMOUTH—George H. Hunt.
WEYMOUTH—W. E. Cunningham.
News Agent, Weymouth Heights.
NORTH WEYMOUTH—B. F. Thomas.

1898 OCTOBER. 1898

Su.	Mo.	Tu.	We.	Th.	Fr.	Sa.
						1
2	3	4	5	6	7	8
9	10	11	12	13	14	15
16	17	18	19	20	21	22
23	24	25	26	27	28	29
30	31

MOON'S PHASES.

Third Quarter	7	1:21 p.m.	First Quarter	22	4:25 a.m.
New Moon	15	7:53 a.m.	Full Moon	29	7:34 a.m.

IN THE CITY NURSERY

Young Saplings Which Together Assume Importance.

The steamer Lewiston has been purchased by Mr. Butler who has burned several boats at Nut island, and it may be brought here and destroyed for its old metal.

Patrick E. Quill of Co. I, Ninth regiment, formerly of Co. K, Fifth regiment, arrived home Thursday from the Boston City hospital. Private William O'Leary of Quincy is still at that institution.

The Methodist Episcopal church at West Quincy will observe its 25th anniversary on Sunday and Monday, Oct. 23 and 24, when out of town pastors will assist. Rev. F. N. Upham of Dorchester will preach the anniversary sermon, and Rev. E. W. Virgin of Dedham, a former pastor, will make an address.

The third open air show of the New England Kennel club will be held at Brookdale farm at Braintree next week Friday and Saturday, and has become quite a society event. The entries closed Monday and there is a large list of bloodhounds, mastiffs, St. Bernards, pointers, setters, spaniels, poodles, terriers, etc. Many special prizes are offered.

Keith's Theatre.

One of the biggest attractions ever imported to this country will be the chief feature of the continuous show at Keith's Boston theatre the week of Oct. 10. This is Schilzonyi's Keben-Kapelle (Hungarian boys' military band), which has been creating a sensation in every city of the west, where they have played en route from San Francisco. These juveniles are natural born musicians, and play with all the grace and fire of veterans. Clad in the picturesque military costume of their native land—red uniforms rakish chapeaus, boots, spurs, and glittering sidearms, they present an appearance that appeals to the eye, as their music does to the understanding, and it goes without saying that they will not lack for enthusiastic appreciation in musical Boston. There are 40 members of the band, of whom 10 are soloists, and their repertory includes 400 pieces of all classes of music. The programme will be changed daily. That popular young actor, Harry Woodruff, will be seen in a charming one-act play, entitled, "A Bit of Instruction."

The Plant System.

The Hotel Managers of the Plant System of hotels in Florida will be as follows tor the coming season of 1898-99:

Tampa Bay Hotel, Tampa, Fla., A. E. Dick, Manager.

Hotel Belleview, Belleair, Fla., W. A. Barron, Manager.

Seminole Hotel, Winter Park, Fla., O. L Frisbee, Manager.

Ocala House, Ocala, Fla., Phil F. Brown, Manager.

Hotel Kissimmee, Kissimmee, Fla.

Port Tampa Inn, Port Tampa, Fla., S. M. Hannah, Superintendent.

For information as to hotel rates, address Managers, and as to railroad and steamship rates and schedules,

B. W. WRENN,
Passenger Traffic Manager.

TRY GRAIN-O! TRY GRAIN-O!

Ask your Grocer today to show you a package of GRAIN-O, the new food drink that takes the place of coffee. The children may drink it without injury as well as the adult. All who try it, like it. GRAIN-O has that rich seal brown of Mocha or Java, but it is made of pure grains, and the most delicate stomach receives it without distress. One-fourth the price of coffee. 15c. and 25c. per package. Sold by all grocers.

THE SOCIAL REALM.

Continued from page 1.

Mrs. John Carver is visiting friends in New York.

* * *

The first vesper service of the season will be held tomorrow at the First Unitarian church, at four o'clock.

* * *

The Century club of North Weymouth, met last evening in parlor of the Pilgrim church.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Richard DeNeill of Weymouth, are entertaining as their guest, Mrs. J. M. DeNeil, of Jefferson City, Mo.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Brown of Wollaston have issued cards for the wedding reception of their daughter, Miss Laura F. Brown, and Mr. George S. Waterhouse of Quincy, to be held at their residence on Beale street, Wednesday evening, Oct. 19.

* * *

Miss Maude Kendrick of Weymouth is spending a few days with Chelsea friends.

* * *

Councilman and Mrs. Eugene N. Hultman observed their twenty-fourth marriage anniversary Friday evening by entertaining a few friends who dropped in upon them. Cards, music and refreshments served to make the evening pass pleasantly.

* * *

The latest handle for a smart umbrella is of cloisonne.

* * *

The church wedding of the week was at St. Mary's church, West Quincy, on Wednesday morning, when Miss Margaret F. O'Brien and Mr. Patrick J. Ferguson were united in marriage. The maid of honor was Miss Annie T. O'Brien and the best man Mr. Cornelius Spillane. The ushers were Messrs. Charles White, William J. O'Brien, Francis T. O'Brien, John M. O'Brien, Henry J. McNally of Quincy and John Smith of Woburn. A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride and a large reception was held in the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson are to reside on Gay street.

* * *

Invitations are out for the church wedding of Miss Emma Carlson and Mr. Pearl Johnson for Saturday evening, Oct. 22, at the Swedish Methodist church on Fort street. They will make their future home on Cranch street, Cranch hill.

Boston Museum.

No little interest is being evinced in the appearance of the Rogers Brothers on Monday evening October 10th at the Boston Museum. The desire to see those two popular comedians in John J. McNally's latest and funniest play "A Reign of Error" has proven highly gratifying to the management. "A Reign of Error" cannot be classified under any of the headings at present in use to designate different forms of theatre representation. It is a happy combination of pure American facre comedy with the best features of French Vaudeville treated with that liberality and artistic display which has made the name of Klaw & Erlanger famous all over the United States. The musical portion of the programme is also in striking contrast to that usually heard while the comedy is in no manner dependent upon its specialties for the evening's enteratinment. The company is an exceptionally large one numbering nearly forty people among whom are besides the Rogers Brothers; Georgia Caino, George F. Marion, Maude Raymond, Ada Lewis, John Parr, Georgie Lawrence, Budd Ross, La Petite Adelaide and Edith St. Claire. The stage is under the personal direction of Mr. Ben Teal whose presence is sufficient assurance of any companies merit.

Castle Square Theatre.

The management of the Castle Square theatre announces a production of Martha Morton's modern comedy "Brother John," for the coming week. The success made by Mr. W. H. Crane in this play, five seasons ago, ensures a pleasant reception of it at this theatre; and it will afford some excellent opportunities for good work by the Castle Square players. It will be remembered that the plot deals with the experiences of a good natured New England manufacturer, whose family are led into universe extravagances from a desire to see a different view of life from that of their home in a Connecticut manufacturing town. The title character, John Hackett, known as "Brother John," will be played by Mr. James O. Barrows. Some unusually strong attractions are in preparation for early production at this theatre.

☞ The Mechanics fair will open in Boston on Monday next to continue until Dec. 3, and will be the greatest of the many grand shows held by the Massachusetts Charitable Mechanic Association. That it will be a fully up-to-date affair can be judged by the statement that it will be the first exhibition in the world's history with electricity as the motive power to operate machinery. Wireless telegraphy, which has recently come into great prominence in Europe, will here receive its first public demonstration in New England.

WEYMOUTH.

The C. E. society of the Congregational church, East Weymouth, gave a War and Peace social Friday evening, the affair being a most enjoyable one. A hearty reception was given to Mr. Will Colby who has spent the summer on the prairies. Mr. Colby spoke very interestingly of his summer's work.

Miss Kate Mann has accepted a position in the Fitchburg High School as teacher of German.

The Epworth League will give a musical entertainment in the vestry of the M. E. Church, East Weymouth, Wednesday evening.

Geo. P. Hunt has entered upon his third year studies at the Harvard Medical School.

Sydney Marr is home from a two months' visit in Maine.

The annual meeting of the Fair Mount Cemetery Association, will be held with Mrs. Charles H. Burrell, Broad street, next Thursday afternoon. This meeting is to choose officers for the ensuing year.

The Fish and Game club meet at the Masonic building, East Weymouth, tonight.

Miss Annie Coffey has resigned her position in the Duxbury school, and has accepted a position in the Dearborn school, Roxbury.

Miss Arria Allen spent the past week in Portland, Me.

Miss Helen Irons, one of our High school teachers has been granted a three months' leave of absence. Miss Tower will substitute for Miss Irons.

The officers of the L. T. L. will be installed on Sunday afternoon.

Robert Croker left Wednesday for Dartmouth College, entering the senior class.

Miss Maude Brackett of Brockton is visiting friends in town.

W. E. Cunningham, a popular newsdealer of this place, is confined to the house by injuries received while on duty at the fire at Bradley's superphosphate works.

The high school foot ball team is doing better work than at the opening of the season. Tuesday night Charles Whelan of Dartmouth '00, and Robert Croker of Boston College, coached the boys. Both of the coachers are prominent players, Mr. Whelan having participated in the Harvard-Dartmouth game, and Mr. Croker distinguished himself by playing end for Boston College last year. The members of the team have been presented with jerseys of the school color.

The new hours at the High school are giving better satisfaction than did the others.

While in service at Bradley's fire last week, Steamer No. 3 broke down and was given in charge of the Fore River Engine Company. Wednesday evening the company turned out to test the work. The steamer worked splendidly throwing a stream far beyond the expectation of the members of the department.

Pastor's Wife Surprised.

A pleasant surprise was given last night to Mrs. H. Larson, wife of Rev. H. Larson, pastor of the Swedish St. Paul's church, at 11 Parker street. About 60 friends entered the house and congratulated Mrs. Larson on her 24th birthday, wishing her many, many more to come.

Mr. Wm. Gelotte, superintendent of the Sunday school, made an interesting speech and presented Mrs. Larson with a very beautiful gold watch chain and a fine China tea-set. Several more useful and beautiful gifts were presented by various friends.

Mrs. A. Sirberg, Mrs. R. Landberg, Mrs. R. Calhmark, Mrs. Eliason and several other ladies had charge of the refreshment table, which was very handsomely decorated with cakes and flowers.

The evening was very much enjoyed by all, both old and young.

The Political Field.

Register tonight.

A Republican convention for the southeastern district to nominate a candidate for district-attorney for Plymouth and Norfolk counties will be held at Wesleyan Hall, 36 Bromfield street, Boston, next Monday at 12 M. A county committee will also be chosen James F. Merrill, one of the Quincy delegates who supported J. Payson Bradlee at the congressional convention last Wednesday says that "We intended to stand for Bradlee until the end.

Does it Pay?

Rev. C. F. Hill Crathern of South Braintree, pastor of the Baptist church, will address the Men's meeting at the Y. M. C. A., Sunday at 3.30 P. M., upon "Does it pay?" Many men are asking themselves this question. Come and hear what Bro. Crathern thinks and says about it. You are welcome.

Are you a regular reader of thy Ledger?

SUNDAY SERVICES.

18th SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

Church services are inserted in this paper without charge, but none will be accepted to run until further order. A notice should be sent each week even though it is but a renewal. Give subject and special services when possible. Let all churches be represented—Eds.]

UNITARIAN CHURCH—Rev. Ellery C. Butler pastor. Morning service at 10.30. Preaching by the pastor. Sunday school at 12 M. Vesper service at 4 o'clock.

BETHANY CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH, junction Hancock and Chestnut streets—Rev. E. N. Hardy, pastor. Morning service at 10.30. "Rally Sunday." Subject: "The Household Shrines." Bible School at 12 M. Special service in church auditorium with chalk talk by Mr. N. S. Greet of Somerville. Y. P. S. C. E. at 6.15 P. M. Evening church service at 7.30. Second address in the series on "Whence came the Bible, or how true is it?" Subject: "The four independent streams from the same fountain head. Illustrated by chart.

CHRIST CHURCH—Rev. Walter Russell Breed, rector. Morning Prayer and sermon at 10.30 o'clock. Sunday School at 12 M. Choral evening service and address to young people at 7. Subject: "The education of the will." All seats free. Rector's Bible class Tuesday at 7.45, in the rectory. First meeting of the Womans' Guild in the Parish House on Wednesday at 2.30 P. M.

CALVARY BAPTIST CHURCH, Franklin street.—Rev. David Kerr, pastor. Morning service at 10.30. Bible School at 12 M. Special class for men and for women, taught by Mr. and Mrs. Kerr. Young People's meeting at 6 P. M. Preaching at 7 o'clock. Morning subject: "An astounding announcement." Evening subject: "Four great things God promised Abram." All are welcome.

UNIVERSALIST CHURCH, Washington street—Rev. Edgar Watson Preble, pastor. Morning service at 10.45. Sermon by the pastor. Subject: "Engineers of life." Sunday School at 12 M. Y. P. C. U. at 7 P. M. Mrs. Ward, wife of Rev. Mr. Ward of Hingham, will lead and sing.

ST. JOHN'S ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH,—Rev. F. A. Frigugliett, pastor; Assistants, Rev. J. P. Cuffee, Rev. F. A. Cunningham, Rev. J. E. Johnstone, Rev. J. F. Purcell. First Mass, 8 A. M., second Mass, (High,) 10.30 A. M. Vespers at 4 o'clock. Baptisms at 5 P. M.

FIRST UNITED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, 110 Hancock street—Rev. W. W. Dornan, pastor. Preaching by the pastor at 10.30 A. M. Subject: "Entailed property of the church Sabbath School and Bible class at 11.45 A. M. Y. P. S. at 6.30 P. M. Preaching at 7.30 P. M. Subject: "Great privileges; corresponding responsibilities." Prayer meeting Thursday at 7.30 P. M. All are welcome.

WASHINGTON STREET CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH—Rev. Edward Anderson, pastor. Morning service at 10.45 o'clock. Subject: "How God is love, and yet a consuming fire." Sunday School at 12 M. Y. P. S. C. E. at 6.30 P. M. Evening service at 7.15. Subject: "The Gospel a failure." Note change in time of morning service.

SWEDISH CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH, Garfield Street—Rev. C. A. Bjornbom, pastor. Service 10.30 A. M. Sunday School at 12 M. Young ladies' prayer meeting at 6.30 P. M. Preaching at 7.30 P. M. The Scandinavians are invited.

SPIRITUALIST MEETING—Mrs. M. A. Bonney, of Weymouth, medium, will preach at Faxon Hall at 7 P. M. Circles Tuesday at 2.30 and 7.30 P. M., at the house of Henry Chubbuck off Elm place.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH, WEST QUINCY—Rev. C. W. Wilder, pastor. 10.30 A. M., preaching by the pastor. At 11.45 A. M., Sunday School. At 3.30 P. M., Junior Epworth League. Prayer meeting of Epworth League at 6.15. Praise and preaching service at 7 P. M. o'clock Friday, Oct. 14, prayer meeting at 7.30 P. M.

ST. MARY'S ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH,—Rev. F. A. Frigugliett, pastor. Assistants, Rev. J. P. Cuffe, Rev. F. A. Cunningham, Rev. J. E. Johnstone, Rev. J. F. Purcell. First Mass, 8 A. M. Second Mass, 9 A. M. Third Mass (High) 10.30 A. M. Vespers, 3.30. Baptisms, 4 P. M.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH, WOLLASTON—Morning service, 10.45, Rev. Edward Norton will preach. Subject: "The good soldier of Jesus Christ." Sabbath School at 12.15 P. M. Meeting of Y. P. S. C. E. at 6.45 P. M. Vesper service with address at 7.30. Subject: "The dress of the soul." Prayer meeting Friday evening at 7.45.

WOLLASTON UNITARIAN CHURCH—Rev. J. E. Bagley, pastor. Service at 10.45 A. M. The pastor will preach. Subject: "The value of Bible study in Intellectual Culture." Professor Marceau, soloist. Sunday School at 12 M.

WOLLASTON M. E. CHURCH—Rev. J. E. Waterhouse, pastor. Morning service at 10.45 Sermon by pastor. Sunday School and Bible class at 12 M. Epworth League at 6.30 P. M. At 7.30 P. M., grand praise service. The pastor will speak on the subject, "A wise wish!" Everybody cordially invited to all these services.

PARK AND DOWNS UNION CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH, Rawson Road—Rev. F. T. Knight, pastor. Morning service at 10.45. The pastor will exchange with Rev. E. C. Webster of Neponset. Sunday School at 12 M. Evening service at 7.30 The pastor will give the second of the series of talks upon the war between Spain and the United States.

ATLANTIC METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH.—Rev. H. C. Wright, pastor. Morning service at 10.45 A. M. Preaching by the pastor. Subject: "The beauty of Holiness." Sunday school at 12 M., the second in the series of the pictures in the life of Christ will be given by the stereoptican. Epworth League at 6 P. M. Evening service at 7 o'clock. An exhibition of "Ben Hur" by stereoptican pictures will constitute the service.

CHRISTADELPHIAN CHURCH, 86 Washington street—Lecture at 7.30 P. M. Subject: "The reward of the righteous." All welcome. Sea free.

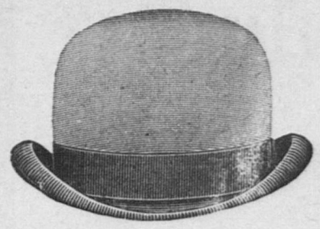

Civil Trial List.

The following cases are marked for trial at the Civil session of the District court next Tuesday.

57—Custanes vs. Crawford.
182—Marble vs. Herbert and tr.
215—Edwards et al vs. Grant et al.

☞ Read Saturday's Ledger.

Lamson & Hubbard

Fall Style, 1898.

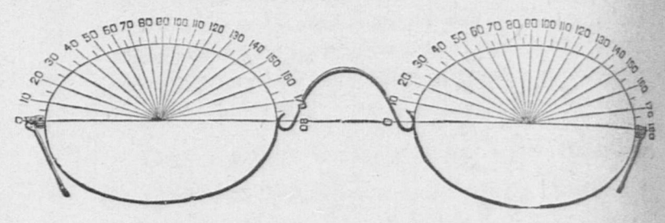

1898. Fall Style. 1898.

We are prepared to show all the latest Hats for Fall wear from the blocks of the best makers.

An early call will secure you a selection from a fine assortment.

GEO. W. JONES,

Adams Building, Quincy.

ASTIGMATISM

Causes most of the distressing headaches. Properly fitted glasses will correct the error and remove the pain. Consult

WILLIAMS,

Member of the New England Association of Opticians,
104 Hancock St., Quincy.

STATE ELECTION.

CITY OF QUINCY.

City Clerk's Office, Oct. 7, 1898.

IN Accordance with the provisions of Chapter 548 of the Acts of 1898, notice is hereby given that by a vote of the City Council, passed October 3, 1898, the polling places for the election to be held TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1898, in the City of Quincy, were designated as follows:

WARD ONE.—Council Chamber, City Hall.
WARD TWO—Hose House, Washington street.
WARD THREE, Precinct One.—Doble's Hall, Franklin street.
WARD THREE, Precinct Two.—Old Steamer House, School street.
WARD FOUR, Precinct One.—St. Mary's Hall, Willard street.
WARD FOUR, Precinct Two.—Hose House, Copeland street.
WARD FIVE.—Polson's Building, Newport avenue.
WARD SIX.—Hose House, Newbury avenue.

Attest: EDGAR G. CLEAVES,
City Clerk.

Quincy, Oct. 7, 1898. 27t

DANCING SCHOOL.
Reduced Rates.

Prof. GARDNER,

the well known Boston teacher, will receive a few more pupils in his class in COLONIAL HALL, Bank Building, Quincy, on Friday Evening, Oct. 14, at 7.45. Terms: Gents, $5, Ladies, $3. All the latest dances taught.
lp tf

MABEL F. FAIRBANKS
TEACHER OF
CHINA PAINTING and WATERCOLOR.
China Decorated to Order.
34 Grand View Avenue, Wollaston.
Sept. 29. 3m

A. J. DURAND,
Piano Tuning, etc.
19 Coddington St., Quincy.
Highly recommended by Chickering & Sons, and prominent Boston musicians.
Sept. 20. 1m

E. LANDIS SNYDER,
Organist and Choirmaster of Christ Church,
TEACHER OF
VOICE CULTURE, PIANO AND ORGAN.
Studio: Room 10 Durgin & Merrill's Block,
QUINCY, MASS.
Sept. 10. tf

WILLIAM E. BAXTER, M. D.
Practice Limited to the
EYE AND EAR.
553 Boylston St., Boston.
QUINCY—Monday and Friday.
Hours, 9 to 11. 195 Hancock Street
May 21. 1y

DR. HERBERT S. HAYFORD
195 Hancock Street.
OFFICE HOURS—11 to 12 A. M., 2 to 4 and 7 to 8 P. M.
Telephone, 4-3.
Quincy, July 5. tf

☞ Our $1.00 comforters are without a rival. Other prices from 75 cents to $3.50. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

NOTICE TO VOTERS.

CITY OF QUINCY.

For the purpose of preparing the Annual Register of Voters, and of receiving evidence of qualification from persons claiming a right to Vote at the coming State Election, the Board of Registrars of Voters will be in session at the COUNCIL CHAMBER in the City Hall Building, on the evenings of

Wednesday, Sept. 14,
Saturday, Sept. 17,
Thursday, Sept. 29,
Saturday, Oct. 1,
Wednesdav, Oct. 5.
Saturday, Oct. 8,
Saturday, Oct. 15,

From 7 to 9 P. M., and also on

Wednesday, Oct. 19,

From 12 o'clock M. until 10 o'clock P. M.

Every applicant for registration must appear in person before the Board, and must present either a certificate from the Assessors or a Tax bill or Notice from the Collector of Taxes, showing that he has been assessed as a resident of the City on the First day of May last; or a certificate from the Assessors that he has been a resident of the City for the six months next preceding the election at which he claims a right to vote. If a naturalized citizen he must also produce for inspection his papers of naturalization. Payment of a poll tax is not a prerequisite to voting.

No person can vote at the election unless his name has previously been placed upon the voting list of the Ward of which he was a resident on the first day of May last, and no name can be added to the list of voters unless registered previous to

Wednesday, Oct. 19th,

at 10 o'clock P. M., when registration will close.

Examine the Voting Lists posted, and see that your name is in its proper place. No CHANGE can be made after WEDNESDAY, Oct. 19th, at 10 o'clock P. M. The Board of Assessors will be in session at their office on the same evenings.

EDWARD B. MARSH,
CORNELIUS MOYNIHAN,
EDWARD J. McKEON,
EDGAR G. CLEAVES,
Registrars.

Quincy, Sept. 6, 1898. 38t p10-2w

E. W. SHACKFORD,
PAPER HANGER
Quincy, Mass.
☞ Orders left with W. DAVENPORT, or T. B. DAVENPORT.
Sept. 14. 1m

Mutual Life
OF NEW YORK.
Do You Want Life Insurance?
Do You Want Fire Insurance?
If so, call on
GEORGE H. FIELD,
1 Durgin & Merrill's Block, Quincy
and you will find the best Companies at Lowest Rates.
MONEY LOANED ON REAL ESTATE

BILLHEADS PRINTED
AT LEDGER OFFICE.

QUINCY DAILY LEDGER.

VOL. 10. No. 35. QUINCY, MASS., MONDAY, OCTOBER 10, 1898. PRICE 2 CENTS.

He Was Embarrassed.

He was painfully embarrassed. He came into our store last week and said to our new man (Mr. Ryder): "I want to get a f-f-f-f-f-f-fall——" He got one. He backed up to let a couple of ladies pass from our clothing department, and fell down two short steps which lead to that department. He got up smiling and said again: "I want to get a f-f-f-f-f-fall overcoat and I'm a little sh-sh-sh-sh-short——" "Oh! That makes no difference," said our man, "as we carry overcoats for all shaped men—for the short ones as well as the tall ones," and he laid out a few different styles for him to see.

"I m-m-m-m-mean that I'm sh-sh-sh-sh-short of mun-mun-mun-money and I want to know if I paid eh-eh-eh-eh-eight dollars on one, if I could pup-pup-pup-pay the rest on Saturday night?"

He went out with 50c. and a brand new Fall Overcoat. He bought a fine light covert for $7.50 that he expected to pay $10.00 for, and he did not feel bashful about saying so, either.

We don't trust because we want to sell you all the time. If we trusted—well, you know somebody's got to pay.

Our heavy weight Fall and Winter Covert at $9.85, made with swelled seams, satin facing and without lining, is the most economical coat a man can buy.

Remember we are the Headquarters in Quincy for Children's Clothing. Over 400 suits. Prices, $1.29 to $5.00.

QUINCY CLOTHING COMPANY,

QUINCY'S CLOTHIERS,

Music Hall Block.

GEO. AMES,

the ONLY PRACTICAL PLUMBER in the Hardware business in the City. He has a patent SEWER TRAP which cannot be beat. Impossible for deadly sewer gas to enter your homes. See him about your Sewer Connection. He has had three years' experience in Boston and other large cities. Established here in 1889 and still in it. Work done anywhere.

Hardware, Paints and Oils, Putty and Glass, Yacht Supplies, Steam and Gas Fittings. Steam and Hot Air Heaters put in repair for the winter.

ADAMS BUILDING

MILLINERY.

Grand Opening Oct. 5, 6, 7,

OF CHOICE

FALL and WINTER MILLINERY,

Consisting of Imported French Hats and Millinery Novelties.

You are cordially invited to call and inspect the same.

E. B. COLLINS,

4 Faxon Block, Quincy, Mass.

☞ NO CARDS.

Oct. 4. 6t

NOTHING BETTER,

UNCLE SAM'S NAVY

Now commands the respect of the world, and we are all proud of the defenders of the Nation's Honor. To give the people of Quincy a good idea of the grand battleships, we have ordered a large supply of portfolios, giving magnificent views of the ships, crews, etc.

With each purchase made at our store we will give a portfolio check to the value of the purchase. When you have $4.00 worth of these checks, return them and get a portfolio. Continue in this way until you have the set complete. Call and see these magnificent portfolios.

ROGERS BROS.,

Groceries and Provisions. Adams Building, Quincy.

A. J. DURAND,

Piano Tuning, etc.

19 Coddington St., Quincy.

Highly recommended by Chickering & Sons, and prominent Boston musicians.

Sept. 20. 1m

E. W. SHACKFORD,

PAPER HANGER,

Quincy, Mass.

☞ Orders left with W. DAVENPORT, or T. B. DAVENPORT.

Sept. 14. 1m

TELEGRAPHIC.

3 O'CLOCK.

FOOLHARDY SOLDIERS.

Desperate Chances Taken to Avoid Courtmartial.

Were Challenged While Trying to Escape.

Dash For Liberty Resulted In the Killing of a Private.

New York, Oct. 10.—Thomas Greenwald, a private in battery I, Seventh artillery, was shot and instantly killed while trying to escape from Fort Slocum, near New Rochelle. Private John Coates of the same battery escaped the bullets fired after him, but was arrested before he got away.

Greenwald and Coates had been in the guardhouse for two weeks, but escaped. Having secured civilians' clothes, they attempted to make good their escape from the fort to avoid the court-martial that was pending. They were challenged by the sentry, and in attempting to get away were fired upon. Sergeant Heck of the Twenty-second, with two privates of the guard, ran up at this moment and arrested the fugitives. Before this was accomplished, however, Greenwald knocked Sergeant Heck's bayonet to the ground and attempted to slash him with a razor, but could not get near enough to do him harm.

The shot fired by the sentry aroused the whole post. Colonel Sinclair of the artillery was one of the first to reach the scene of the trouble. When he came up Greenwald was a prisoner, being menaced by the bayonet of the guard. Coates was also under arrest. Colonel Sinclair ordered the men taken to the guardhouse in double irons. The two prisoners, in obedience to orders, stepped forward and the guard fell in behind.

After taking a few steps both prisoners bolted. Colonel Sinclair gave the order to fire, and three privates fired. Greenwald fell dead without a cry. A bullet had gone through his head. Coates threw himself beside a stone wall with a loud cry, but he was unhurt. He was taken to the guardhouse.

PARRON CURSED.

Luckless Sergeant to Be Punished For Admitting the Americans.

Manzanillo, Oct. 10.—The echoes of the excitement produced by the attempt of Colonel Ray to take possession of this city last week in spite of the threats of the Spanish commander have not died away. Although General Parron, on the surface, is courteousness and dignity personified, he created a great scene at the palace after the incident, striking terror to the hearts of his subordinates. He cursed in flowing Castilian, completely forgot his dignity, and with the oaths of a longshoreman vowed that the honor of the Spanish army had suffered a blow. The Spaniard to blame for it, he declared, must die, and that quickly.

In his fury he sent for the military commander, but it was found that this officer had left with the Spanish troops the night before. Then he sent for the adjutant general and asked him why the Americans had been let through the city gate. The reply was a disclaimer of authority and a suggestion that the inquiry should be put to the officer who was in charge of the guard. It was then discovered that the officer had been withdrawn several days before, leaving a sergeant in command. When the sergeant arrived he declared that General Parron's orders were to permit the Americans to pass. "That was the mules," shrieked Parron, "not the soldiers. Away with him to the guardhouse."

The luckless sergeant has been courtmartialled. At first it was reported that he was to be shot at daybreak. Thereupon Collector Donaldson and the Rev. Mr. Zimmerman, as private citizens, called upon General Parron to entreat him to do what he could for the unfortunate man. Parron replied that he was grateful for the sympathetic feeling displayed by the Americans in the welfare of the Spanish soldier, and promised that if there was a conviction he would inflict the minimum penalty—probably only a few days pay. As the Spanish rank and file receive no pay anyway, this would be no very great infliction.

The Spaniards had intended taking away the lantern of the Cape Cruz lighthouse, with the appurtenances, claiming the whole as movable property, but Colonel Ray objected, and the Spaniards, after being shown a copy of the evacuation agreement, abandoned their intention.

Politics Was Avoided.

Havana, Oct. 10.—The members of the United States evacuation commission gave an elaborate luncheon Sunday to the members of the Spanish evacuation commission. Owing to a slight indisposition Rear Admiral Sampson could not be present, and Major-General Wade and Brigadier-General Butler did the honors of the occasion. The Spanish commissioners were all present, with their secretary and their respective adjutants. There were 28 persons all told at the table. All the speeches carefully avoided politics.

Soldiers at Leech Lake.

Washington, Oct. 10.—The government is particularly anxious about the danger to the dams at the headwaters of the Mississippi, only a small guard having been stationed there since the trouble with the Indians came on. By tonight over 700 soldiers will be scattered all around Leech lake, protecting settlers and property from the possible attack of the uncertain number of Indians now in arms against the government because they objected to being taken to court as witnesses in prosecuting for illegal selling of liquor to Indians.

The Pennsylvania Camp.

Camp Meade, Middletown, Pa., Oct. 10.—Chief Surgeon Girard is getting ready for the movement south of the Second corps. Today he began vaccinating the troops to guard against an outbreak of smallpox. The colonel has arranged with the hospitals in Philadelphia and through the eastern end of the state to take care of the sick of the corps. As fast as the field hospitals fill up the invalids will be shipped away in a car provided by the Pennsylvania railroad.

General Graham is opposed to taking his command south and has requested the war department to forward the corps as a unit to Cuba for duty as an army of occupation. He is afraid of an outbreak of sickness among his men if they are taken from the healthy climate in the north and dropped down in the south for a month and then shipped to the West Indies. The troops are in excellent condition, and General Graham thinks if they are shipped direct across the water there will not be much sickness. Colonel Girard says the percentage of typhoid fever outside of the Two Hundred and Third New York regiment is small.

Opening of the Conclave.

Pittsburg, Oct. 10.—Not in the history of Knights Templar conclaves has a conclave ever been opened on a more beautiful day. The sun, after having been hidden behind rain-filled clouds for several days, rose clear upon the awakening city Sunday. The first formal event on the program took place in Trinity Protestant Episcopal church. The sermon was delivered by Rev. Dr. C. L. Twing, rector of Calvary church, Brooklyn, and grand prelate of the encampment. After a graphic description of Templarism as related to the relieving of distress and the uplifting of the fallen, Dr. Twing said: "We are not a beleaguering host nor an advancing army. No trumpet sounds summon us to battle; the gleam of our swords awakens no hostile emotion, nor do they incite any fear. We come in peace from all parts of a land that is at peace. The sound of war has ceased, the strife is over, the bravery of our army and navy has won a glorious victory, and a war that has lasted about 100 days has advanced civilization 100 years in the lands that have been freed from the power of a nation that has always persecuted Freemasonry and tried by inquisitorial methods to suppress it. Thank God for the victory. Thank God for the loyalty and patriotism of the United States. Thank God for the good example of the brave boys who have given up their lives for the cause of humanity and progressive liberty. Like our ancient brethren we are marching towards Jerusalem, but not the one of Judea, but the Jerusalem on the hills of heaven. 'In Hoc sigo vinces' was the motto of the heroes of the cross in the past. They put the precepts of the christian religion into practice, and it bore fruit in their lives and action. We must do likewise, or our profession is a vain and idle thing."

Alleged Murderer Missing.

Cincinnati, Oct. 10.—Sensational developments are expected in the case of W. J. Haldeman, charged with killing his brother-in-law and partner, ex-Senator J. C. Richardson of Glendale. After they quarrelled in their paper mill at Lockland and the fatal shooting occurred Sept. 22, Haldeman remained in concealment. Richardson died a week later, and the day preceding his death Halderman left for Chicago. Learning that a warrant had been sworn out by Coroner Haer, charging murder in the first degree, Haldeman returned and was bound over for manslaughter by his neighbor, the mayor of Lockland. He was admitted to bail, and has not been seen since.

The officers have never been able to serve their murder warrant, but the case will come before the grand jury for indictment for murder in the first degree, and then it will be known whether Haldeman had really disappeared. His attorneys promise that he will surrender if indicted. Owing to the prominence of both the Richardson and Haldeman families the case is attracting unusual attention.

George Saxton's Funeral.

Canton, O., Oct. 10.—The homecoming of President and Mrs. McKinley for the funeral of George D. Saxton was attended with a most touching and pathetic scene at the Pennsylvania station. Many people were at the depot when the train arrived and extended the party a silent but sympathetic welcome. The president and party went direct to the Barber home, which is the old Saxton homestead and was the Canton home of the McKinleys during his life in congress.

The funeral services were held this afternoon and were private. Rev. O. B. Milligan, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, officiated.

The train bearing the cabinet and other officials from Washington to the Omaha exposition will arrive in Canton this evening, and about 9 o'clock the private car of the president will be attached thereto, and he will join the party. Mrs. McKinley, it is thought, will not undertake the trip to Omaha, but will be with the president in Chicago.

Dublin, Oct. 10.—Sunday most of the citizens of Dublin wore the ivy leaf, it being the anniversary of the death of Charles Stewart Parnell. Thousands participated in the ceremonies at Glasnevin cemetery, the lord mayor and corporation, and delegates from the municipalities and all the chief towns of Ireland, in full regalia, taking part in the procession. This was headed by a floral car bearing a bust of Parnell, almost buried in wreaths and garlands for the grave. The members of the Parnell family, many members of the house of commons and deputations from various societies throughout the country were present. There were numerous bands and a profusion of banners. The influx of people from the country districts was enormous. The ceremony of depositing the wreaths upon the grave, though simple, was highly impressive.

LAND VALUES

A Transcript From the Books of the Assessors.

Number of Feet in Each Lot and Valuation Thereof.

Also the Amount of Each Person's Tax Bill for 1898.

[Continued from Friday.]

Something new in the publication of the taxpayers of the city is attempted this year by the Daily Ledger. There is considerable interest in the assessed value of land in the city, which is claimed to be high in some cases and low in others. So the Ledger has supplemented the amount of the tax bill in each ward with the value of each lot of land for which the person is taxed, giving in each case the number of square feet or acreage.

The amount given in the line with the person's name is his total ward tax, and may include houses, personal property, etc., in addition to the lots of land below. The Ledger gives only the valuation of the land.

To obtain a person's total tax in the city, add together the amounts paid in the several wards.

The Ledger commenced the publication Aug. 30, and has already published the land values of all persons whose names begin with A to K, and today's instalment is the first of the Ls:

WARD ONE.

Valuation of Land Only.	Total Ward Tax.
Lambart, Robert	$34 20
1-2 acre, Parker street, $200.
Lane, Mrs. Sarah E.	171 00
11,270 feet, Goffe, $1,800.
Langren, Peter	20 00
5,000, off Adams, $100.
Lapham, Catherine M.	27 60
4,443, Manet ave., $350.
Lapham, Fred F.	14 40
6,665, Sea, $600.
Larson, Mrs. Charles, est.,	41 40
1 acre, Adams, $900.
Lavers, Margaret I.	75 60
19,100, Granite, $2,000.
Lawton, Herbert	377 30
66,830, Goffe, $7,000.
15,969, Dimmock, $1,500.
616, " $50.
10,528, " $1,000.
Levendale, Elias	40 50
5,000, Curtis, $250.
LePage, Peter	19 80

WARD TWO.

Larkin, Thomas, est.,	$35 55
18,500 feet, South Walnut street, $975.
Laing, Mrs. William	40 50
13,000, Glencoe Place, $700.
Larkin, John T.	27 00
6,600, South Walnut, $300.
Lelois, Ambros B.	64 55
23,300, River, $850.
35,585, " $1,000.

WARD THREE.

Lane, Miss Annie	$33 30
10,224 feet, Water street, $750.
Langhorn, Jane A.	52 20
6,710, Quincy, $600.
Lavoie, Harmedrise	14 40
7,200, Brooks ave., $350.
9,587, Federal, $450.
Lawton, Mrs. Mary	174 60
1 1-2 acres, School, $6,000.
11,096 feet, Summer, $1,500.
Lawry, John	54 20
14,829, Nightingale ave., $900.
Leaman, Oliver H.	62 75
11,867, Independence ave., $800.
Lennon, Katherine	7 20
8,450, Branch, $300.
Lennon, Daniel	23 60
5,600, Albertina, $300.
Lennon, Edward	35 10
10,662, Liberty Park, $600.
Lennon, Martin J.	43 40
6,000, Centre, $300.
11,070, " $400.

WARD FOUR.

Lacey, Mrs. Ellen F.	$37 35
10,973 feet, Willard street, $875.
Lakin, Wilbur F.	123 50
16,650, Robertson, $600.
9 3-4 acres, Willard, $2,500.

Continued on page 3.

Royal makes the food pure, wholesome and delicious.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

REPUBLICAN SUCCESS.

Washington, Oct. 10.—The Post presents in a series of dispatches from correspondents in every state in the Union, except Maine, Vermont and Oregon, where congressional elections have already been held, a review of the political situation, with special reference to the complexion of the next house of representatives. In summarizing its dispatches The Post says: "While Democratic gains are thus outlined in many states, the figures do not yet make it positive that the Republicans will lose control of the house. There is at present in the house of representatives a Republican majority of 56 over all parties combined, and this large majority will be difficult to completely overcome. There is no doubt that it will be reduced to a very small number, but the present indications do not point to its entire disappearance. The estimates made by The Post correspondents show that 166 districts in the United States will certainly be Republican in the approaching election—unless the unexpected happens—and 13 additional districts will give the Republicans a majority of the house."

Kentucky Desperado Bites the Dust.

Owensboro, Ky., Oct. 10.—Howard Clark, who was wanted in Louisville for murder and burglary, and his girl, Hattie Mahoney, were killed while resisting arrest on the Indiana side of the river near here Sunday. Clark was wanted for the murder of Officer Hefferman at Louisville last August and was attempting to escape by rowing down the Ohio river in a skiff. Word had been sent along the river by telegraph to arrest him.

Officers from Owensboro were in pursuit when Clark tied up his skiff on the Indiana side and took to the woods. When detected at burglary in Louisville he killed the officer that caught him. When the officers came upon him Clark and the girl both opened fire in the most desperate resistance. Clark was well armed, and the girl also. Both Clark and Hattie Mahoney were shot dead. The escape of the officers was most miraculous.

Murder at a Camp.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 10.—There was a serious fight at Camp Hamilton Sunday, resulting in one death and two being seriously wounded. The trouble was the culmination of old grudges. In enforcing orders Corporal Edwards shot and instantly killed Color Sergeant Green. Both belonged to the Seventh regiment of colored immunes. During the shooting a colored private was fatally shot and another seriously injured.

Ate Their Prisoners.

Victoria, B. C., Oct. 10.—News received from Australia states that the Head Unters, a cannibal faction of the natives of Rendova, captured a village lately and after slaughtering many inhabitants returned home with 30 prisoners, who were killed and eaten at a barbaric feast. One of the most notorious of the hunting chiefs has since been captured by the British.

Tomorrow's Almanac and Forecast.

Sun rises—5:52; sets, 5:09.
Moon rises—1:41 a. m.
High tide—7:30 a. m.; 8 p. m.

All the indications now point to partly cloudy or cloudy weather Tuesday, and showers may occur during the afternoon or night. The winds will probably be easterly, possibly brisk or moderately high, with cool and nearly stationary temperature.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

There are 17 counties and 20 towns in Mississippi where yellow fever prevails.

F. M. Clark's house in Worcester was entered by professional burglars, who got away with $400 worth of jewelry and money.

The mill and yards of the Annicon Lumber company of Annicon, Mich., were burned Saturday afternoon at a loss of $60,000.

Jeremiah McCarthy of Keene, N. H., was killed by an engine while going home on the track. He was 23 years old, and at one time was a bicycle racer.

Rev. J. R. Power of Laconia, N. H., died Saturday from nervous prostration after an illness of about three years. He was born in Chelsea, Mass., in 1850.

There has been a native uprising in the New Hebrides. It started by an attack by natives upon the French company stationed at Espiritu Santo.

Burglars entered a Norwood, Mass., fruit store and cleared the place out of cigars and tobacco. They then went to a lodging house, where they obtained $11 and an overcoat.

The startling statement comes from Samoa that had not a British vessel been at Apia when King Malietoa died, the Germans would have hoisted the German flag and seized the island.

Princess Trubetzkoi, who was under arrest in Berlin on an extradition demand from the Italian government, charged with forging documents, committed suicide at the police station.

The exports for the third quarter of the present year from the southern half of Germany to the United States are officially totalled at $8,541,623, or $1,190,253 in excess of the amount for the corresponding quarter last year.

The body of Richard Holmes of Plymouth, Mass., was found in the woods Sunday with a gunshot wound in the head. It is supposed to have been a case of suicide, as he had been troubled sometime with melancholia.

Rev. Dr. Alexander Connell will probably be the successor of Rev. Dr. John Hall in New York. He is a brilliant orator, 31 years old, a Scotchman by birth and now filling the pulpit of a Presbyterian church in London.

The New South Wales chamber of commerce estimates that the coming season will produce a yield of 15,000,000 bushels of wheat, of which 10,000,000 bushels will be required for home consumption, leaving 5,000,000 bushels, or, roughly speaking, 100,000 tons of wheat to be exported.

☞ Wall Papers in the choicest and latest New York Designs, from 3c. up. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

GRAND OPENING

— OF —

Fall and Winter Millinery

Thursday,
Friday,
Saturday,

October 6, 7 and 8,

— AT —

Miss B. J. Patterson's Millinery Parlors

At the Boston Bargain Store.

A choice and complete stock of all the latest and most desirable goods for this season, All are cordially invited.

Music Hall Building, Quincy.

Oct. 1. tfpl

— THE —

Fall Millinery Opening

. . . OF . . .

C. L. BLISS,

186 Hancock St.,

TUESDAY and WEDNESDAY

Oct. 11, 12.

The public are cordially invited to call and examine a stock of Trimmed and Untrimmed Hats and novelties in Velvets, Ribbons, Wings Feathers and Jet.

Quincy, Oct. 5. lpo 2w

BOYS' SUITS

THAT

SUIT BOYS

Grand Clearance Sale of Boys'

SCHOOL SUITS,

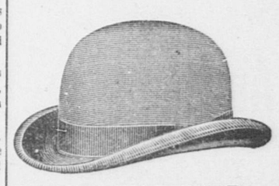

$1.50 to $3.50.

Worth Double the Price.

School begins Tuesday and your boy wants something new. Drop in to our store tonight and see how little money it takes to dress him handsomely.

Granite Clothing Co.

DURGIN & MERRILL'S BLOCK.

DISSATISFIED BUYERS OF HATS

Can best be suited by buying

CHAMBERLAIN'S BEACONSFIELD $3.00 DERBY,

OR HIS

REVELATION $2.00 DERBY.

They hold their Shape and Color.

663 WASHINGTON STREET, BOSTON.

Opposite Beach Street.

Hats and Furnishings.

Sept. 15 L 17-4w o

ALBERT J. BOWERS

OPTICIAN

ADAMS BUILDING OVER POST OFFICE QUINCY MASS

TEETH EXTRACTED.

No Pain or Danger.

Safer than vapor. Money paid for extracting goes towards teeth to be inserted. I am the only dentist in the city using the Painless Preparation for Extraction.

DR. C. B. UNDERWOOD,

9 Spear St. Rear of Public Library

MISS HAYWARD'S

DANCING CLASS

WILL MEET IN

Colonial Hall,

— ON —

THURSDAY AFTERNOON

From Four until Six O'clock.

MATRONS:

Mrs. Walter Babcock, Mrs. Richard Freeman,
Mrs. A. G. Durgin, Mrs. W. P. Barker.

Oct. 10. 3t

By FRANK F. CRANE, - Auctioneer.
Office, 4 Chestnut Street, Quincy.

AUCTION SALE

OF THE

ATTRACTIVE REAL ESTATE

OF THE LATE

MICHAEL GOODHUE,

No. 40 Phipps Street,

TUESDAY, OCT. 18th,

At 3 O'clock P. M.

THIS Estate consists of a Modern House of nine rooms, there is a good stable on the premises, about one acre of land having a very large frontage on Phipps street. The estate contains a variety of shade and fruit trees, an extra fine lot of grapes and currants. Also a fine well containing an excellent quality of water. The buildings are in good repair and the estate is very desirable as a residence or for investment.

Sale Positive, rain or shine.

Terms: $100.00 at sale, balance in ten days.

For further information apply to the auctioneer.

Quincy, Oct. 5—10t 8p—1w

By C. H. JOHNSON, - - Auctioneer.
Office, Adams Building, Quincy, Mass.

Executor's Sale at Public Auction

of the personal property of the late EBEN A. STINCHFIELD, will be sold at residence off Howard avenue, Quincy Neck, on TUESDAY, Oct. 11, 1898, at 1 30 P. M. The property consists of Household Furniture, Stock of Groceries and 3 Carriages.

GROCERIES—Lot of Tea and Coffee, Spices, Canned Goods, Snuff, Stove Polish, Clay Pipes, Paper Bags, Clothes Pins, Vinegar, one-half barrel Molasses, Tea and Coffee Cans, Tobacco Cutter, Small Scales, Fish Scales, set Measures, large Showcase, 6-gal. Milk Cans Coffee Grinder, lot of Barrels.

HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE—5 cane seat Chairs and Rocker, Parlor Stove, open grate Coal Stove in good order, two Tables, Ice Chest, two Tables, Baby Carriage, Step Ladder, large Dish Closet, Small Stand, Desk, Oak Chamber Set in good condition, Forks, Rakes and lot Harness, Platform Scales and a variety of articles.

CARRIAGES—Buggy, open Express Wagon, Carryall and large Farm Wagon, Ladies' New Mail Bicycle.

Hen House. Terms cash. Sale positive.

Oct. 3. 6t

By FRANK F. CRANE, - Auctioneer.
Office, 4 Chestnut street, Quincy.

AUCTION SALE

— OF —

HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE

Carpenters' Tools, Lumber, etc.,

At the Residence of

ERNEST G. BACON,

Clark Street, Atlantic,

Thursday, Oct. 13th,

at 1.30 o'clock P. M., consisting of Black Walnut Marble Top Chamber Set, Ash Chamber Set, Oak Folding Bed, lot of odd Chairs, Baby Carriage, Croquet Set, Kitchen Goods, lot of Hot Bed Sash, Window Frames, a good Hand Cart, Wheelbarrow, Garden Tools, lot of good Posts, 6 or 8 good ladders, set of Painters' Falls, some good White-wood, odd Desk, and a large variety of small articles too numerous to mention.

Sale positive, rain or shine. Terms cash.

Oct. 8. 4t

By FRANK F. CRANE, - - Auctioneer.

Office, 4 Chestnut St., Quincy.

Auction Sale

— OF —

TWO DESIRABLE

HOUSES

Billings Street,

ATLANTIC, MASS.,

Saturday, Oct. 15th

At 3.30 and 4.30, respectively.

AT 3.30 P. M. we shall offer a modern house of 10 rooms and bath and 4,500 feet of land, the second house on the right from Prospect street. This is a new house, has never been occupied, has oak floor in front hall, oak staircase, all the finish on the first floor is hard wood, frescoed ceilings, nicely papered, open plumbing, concrete cellar, and is fitted for a furnace. Has open fireplaces, good closet room and city water. The location is high and dry, the neighborhood is excellent and the house is within 3 minutes of railroad, electric cars, postoffice, churches, schools, and stores. The house can be seen at any time before the sale by applying to Mr. Geo. V. Bryant at the adjoining house now building at the corner of Prospect and Billings streets.

Terms: $100.00 at sale, balance in ten days at the office of Geo. H. Brown, Trustee, Adams Building, Quincy.

At 4.30 P. M. we shall offer one of the most desirable and attractive houses that has ever been sold in this city, located on Billings street, near Squantum street, 5,746 sq. ft. of land. Electric cars pass the house; 7 rooms and bath; fine piazza, elegant reception room, oak floor, open fire places, electric light, set range, laundry, furnace, first-class hardware all over the house, extra large bath room, fine paper hangings, large attic that could be finished into two chambers if desired, good closet room, large pantry. This house is a gem and must be seen to be appreciated; 6 minutes from R. R, stores, churches, etc.

Terms: $100 at sale; balance in ten days at the office of George H. Brown, Trustee, Adams Building, Quincy.

Oct. 7—6t 8-1w p

Quincy Daily Ledger

ESTABLISHED IN 1889.

The ONLY DAILY in Norfolk County Massachusetts.

Published Every Evening, Sundays and Holidays Excepted, At No. 115 HANCOCK ST., City of Quincy, Mass., by

GEORGE W. PRESCOTT & SON.

Successors to Green & Prescott.

Subscription Price, $6.00 per year.

☞ A discount of $1 when paid in advance.

ALSO PUBLISHERS OF

The Quincy Patriot,

A Weekly Established in 1837, which has the Largest Circulation in Norfolk County, and

The Braintree Observer,

A Weekly Established in 1878.

TELEPHONE, 78-3 QUINCY.

Quincy Temperature at Noon.

	This Week.	Last Week.	In 1897.	In 1896.
Sunday	66	64	68	51
Monday	53	76	54	51
Tuesday	—	85	65	50
Wednesday	—	63	78	52
Thursday	—	64	66	50
Friday	—	61	60	54
Saturday	—	61	75	50

New Advertisements Today.

House to let.

Misses Cote—Stenography, typewriting, etc.

Experienced girl wanted for housework.

Henry L. Kincaide & Co.—Carpetings.

C. Patch & Son—Coal.

Miss Hayward—Dancing class.

Henry L. Kincaide & Co.—Parlor stoves.

Administrator's notice.

Gold watch lost.

City Council Business.

The City Council will give a public hearing at its meeting tonight on the first petition of the Boston, Quincy and Fall River Bicycle railway for a location for its tracks in Quincy. As the company has a second petition before the City Council, it is doubtful if this hearing amounts to a great deal.

Other business to come before the meeting will be reports from the Committee on Streets on the petitions of the Electric Light Co. for a location of poles on Old Colony avenue; the New England Telephone Co. for a relocation for one pole on Hancock street; of McIntosh & Son for permission to run a guy wire across Columbia street; to change the name of Newcomb street extension to Woodward avenue, and on the communication of the Mayor authorizing him to contract with the Massachusetts Highway Commissioners to take a part of Washington street.

The Committee on Licenses will report on a number of petitions for licenses, and the Committee on Ordinances will report correctly engrossed on the orders appropriating $500 and receipts for sewer house connections; transferring $714.99 from receipts of Poor department to pay bills of 1897; the order refunding $96.27, tax title of Willard Walsh, and transferring $172 to the credit of Lincoln and Winthrop avenues.

Y. M. C. A. Convention.

Five hundred delegates representing the thirty thousand members of the Young Men's Christian Associations of Massachusetts and Rhode Island, will meet in their Annual Convention at Lynn, Mass, October 20-23. Among the speakers will be: Rev. Alexander McKenzie, D. D. of Cambridge; Rev. Floyd W. Tomkins, D. D. of Providence; Rev William J. Thompson of Worcester; Frank W. Ober, Editor of "Men," of Chicago; Walter C. Douglas, of Philadelphia; Don O. Shelton of New York; Rev. G. Whitfield of Newport; C. T. Kilborne of New York; and many other prominent workers.

A Few More Voters.

The board of Registrars of Voters held another session Saturday night and added 28 new names and restored 6 names to the voting lists as follows:

Ward One—Thomas H. Sullivan, Benjamin F. Macomber, John F. Bradley, Adolph E. Lorey, William H. Ferris, Jr., Herbert W. Barker, Charles Mangs, George W. White, James P. Fitzgerald, Hans P. Nelson.

Ward Two—John O'Connor, Frank L. Miller, John S. Shaw, James T. Crowley.

Ward Three, Precinct One—Patrick Cotter, John J. Bradley, James F. Walsh.

Ward Three, Precinct Two—James O'Brien, Patrick O'Brien, Patrick Kelliher, James Kelley, Nicholas N. Le Count.

Ward Four, Precinct Two—Patrick J. Fitzgerald, Charles Olsen, Alfred Ball, Charles A. Johnson.

Ward Five—L. Herbert Parcher, Fred S. Gregory, George J. Shaw, James C. Hall, Jr., Bethuel H. Wiley, Otto F. W. Schrader, James E. Dinegan, Albert M. King.

Ward Six—None.

☞ Oil Heaters worth $3.00, our price $3.98, will heat a room in a jiffy. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

STENOGRAPHY AND TYPEWRITING,

BOOKKEEPING,

And All Clerical Work.

MISSES A. B. and E. M. COTE,

Room 12 Durgin & Merrill Block, - Quincy.

Oct. 10. tf

NEW CAMP SELECTED

Co. K Will Go to Georgia the Last of Month.

With Co. K, 5th Mass.
Camp Meade Annex, Oct. 7.

This has been a glorious day, both for men and sunshine. It was chilly last night, but the sun rose hot, drying up all dampness.

The usual drills were gone through this morning. A little after dinner, a messenger came from Headquarters saying that the 1st and third battalions were being paid off. This set the boys cheering. When the commanding officer of the detachment heard the gladsome news, he ordered no drilling for this afternoon.

The bugle call for blue uniform came about two o'clock, and the men waited patiently about their quarters until 5 o'clock. Then the paymaster made his appearence in a mule team, with two guards in the rear, to protect the cash. The paying off was commenced as soon as the money was sorted. Every man in the four companies and the officers at head quarters of detachment were paid off inside of two hours, so that tonight the canteen is being patronized in royal shape.

A team load of shoes, blue suits, canvas suits, campaign hats, woollen underwear and sundry articles were delivered to each company this afternoon, so that tomorrow the boys will receive the necessary articles of clothing for which they have sighed. Some have been without shoes, in other companies, the old ones having come to pieces, so that they were unable to wear them. Such has not been the case in K. However some of our boys need them very badly.

A dispatch has been received from the Harrisburg Weather Bureau, instructing General Graham of the 2d army corps, of which this regiment is a part, that the theremometer would drop 40 degrees during night, so that officers could take proper measures for the welfare of their respective companies. Extra blankets are being issued to some of the companies, the others to receive theirs tomorrow.

Those detailed for guard from this company to report tomorrow morning are: Corporal Foster, Privates Faxon, Fitzgerald, Gunderson, Gilfeather, Gillis, Gould, Gallagher Gilbride, Hodges.

Again Private Gunderson secured the honor of being Major Morrison's orderly. No passes were issued.

The boys are all well in K, no serious cases reported as yet.

Quartermaster Sergeant Crane will be kept busy during the issuing of clothing.

A number of the boys jumped the line last night. They celebrated after being paid off.

Private Collins, alias "Buckie," had his eyes open wide to business while on guard last night, halting everyone after taps. He uses a snappy sharp command, he being complimented by Major for not allowing him to pass. He did not recognize the Major in the dark, nor did he have to, for a soldier has no friends while on guard. DOC.

With Co K, 5th Mass.
Camp Meade Annex, Oct. 8.

Today is bright, but very chilly. By tonight every man will have received an extra blanket as one is not sufficient to keep warm.

A lot of eatables arrived for sale at the canteen. The boys are clearing it completely out, so that by tonight a fresh supply will be needed.

The usual drills will go into effect today. This morning's work consists of squad drills under the supervision of non-commissioned officers. A number of the boys have filed applications for their discharges. But from information learned from Division Headquarters, they will not be granted, as the desire is to keep the regiments up to their full strength. So they will have to be disappointed. The general impression is that this regiment will not go any farther than Alabama, and that they will be mustered out about next spring. Some men who have been sick, have been refused discharge.

Privates Gunderson, Livendale, the mule driver, and Johnson have received a large box of articles which are goods tickling to the eye and stomach. Fair justice has been done to their surprise. The box was sent by the families of the above. Three families joined together and filled one box so that it costs less than shipping three separate boxes. This might act as a suggestion to the other boys' families.

Coporal Hermanson received a box this afternoon and wishes to thank the donor or donors for their kindness. He is not informed who his friends are. Another present was brought into camp; this one being for our genial Sergeant Phillips. He has not been without a dinner or supper since its arrival.

Another train arrived this afternoon for the removal of the sick from division hospital. This time the division hospital corps removed about 125 more cases to Philadelphia. We are pleased to relate that none of the 5th Mass., are among the patients.

Co. K is receiving extra woolen blankets, they are a great deal thicker and larger than the State blankets.

The American Tobacco Co., again visited our camp and the boys were greatly pleased with articles presented to them.

Those on guard tomorrow will be Coporal Johnson, Musician Piper, Privates Kelliher, Leslie, Levangie, Lord, Leonard, Lyons, Logan, Mahoney, McCarthy and Mead.

The boys are all well. Weekly inspection Saturday. DOC.

Orders to Move.

A dispatch of Oct. 8 to the Globe says: At last definite orders have been received as to the destination of the 5th Massachusetts. This morning Gen. Graham received orders providing for the disposition of the 2d corps. Corps headquarters will be at Augusta, Ga. Each brigade will have a separate camp, those of the 1st division in Georgia, the second division in South Carolina. The second brigade, comprising the 4th Missouri, 5th Massachusetts and 201st New York will be camped at Spartansburg.

The movement of the troops is to commence Oct. 27 and is to be so regulated that but one regiment of a brigade will break camp on the same day. The order says that the troops are to be ready for immediate service in Cuba.

Finns Fight.

Joseph Hill was arrested early Sunday morning by Officers Barry and Bradley for assault with a knife upon John Mackie. The two men are Finns. As near as can be learned both men were under the influence of liquor, presumably Hoffman drops, and some way got into a fight, during which Joseph drew a knife, such as those fellows always carry, and stabbed John just below the left shoulder blade, making a wound nearly two inches long and from three to four inches deep. The wound bled profusely, and it was with difficulty that Dr. Dion, who was called, was able to stop the flow of blood. It was thought at one time he would bleed to death.

The fight took place on Break Neck hill, where the two men live, and it was here that Joseph was later arrested by the officers and locked up.

The wound is considered a dangerous one, and at best it will be some time before John will be able to appear in court and give his testimony.

$400 Missing.

Sometime in the dim future, when the sewer pipe on Cottage street is opened, the workmen may come across a pocketbook. If they do and open it, they may be rewarded by finding $400, for that amount of money is probably buried there somewhere. Among the Italians at work there Friday was one who answered to the name of Tony, and in the outside pocket of Tony's overalls was $400 in good United States money. The money is now missing, and when Tony discovered his loss he went wild with grief. He accused everybody of stealing it, and Officer McKay was sent for. All of the Italians denied knowledge of the matter, and at their own request the officer searched them. They lined up and Officer McKay went through the pockets of each, but the money could not be found and the supposition is that while at work in the trench the pocketbook tumbled out of Tony's pocket and was buried up.

Admirer of Good Trotters.

A Lexington dispatch of Saturday to the Herald says:—The horse sale today developed some lively bidding. John R. Graham of Quincy, who declared himself out of the horse business some two years ago, purchased a yearling filly for $1375, which may be an indication that he has recovered from his disgust and will start in again. The new purchase is a brown filly 1, by Patchen Wilkes—Lottie Lee.

Good Scores.

Councilman R. R. Freeman made the best gross score in the open tournament of the Wollaston Golf club on Saturday, and E. C. Tarbell, also of Wollaston, captured the prize for the best net score. The summary:

Players.	Gross.	Handicap.	Net.
R. R. Freeman, Wollaston,	85	8	77
M. B. Mason, Essex County,	88	11	77
A. J. Wellington, Newton,	88	8	80
Barclay Tilton, Wollaston,	90	8	82
E. H. Brock, Wollaston,	90	8	82
W. U. Swan, Wollaston,	92	8	84
W. K. Farrington, Wollaston,	93	12	81
E. C. Tarbell, Wollaston,	95	20	75
Lieut. I. N. Howe, U. S. A.,	98	15	83
L. Richardson, Cambridge,	104	15	89
Mr. Smith, Wollaston,	93	8	85
J. B. Forsyth, Wollaston,	125	20	105
S. G. Hobbs, Cambridge,	No card.

☞ Dainty White Muslin Draperies, with ruffled edges, 89 cents per pair. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

—The charter of Fletcher Webster Post, No. 13, G. A. R. of Brockton has been restored by the Department Council.

☞ Hundreds of Lamps to choose from, the very newest and latest notions are here for your inspection; 25c. to $10.00. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

LOCAL NEWS TRACK.

Some Colts which are Sure Winners Every Heat.

Stinchfield sale tomorrow.

A new concrete sidewalk for Temple street.

Another land sale at Squantum on Saturday.

Notice change of time of Miss Hayward's dancing class.

The temporary loans of 1898 thus far amount to $178,000.

Joseph Hayden removes soon from Howard avenue to Roxbury.

Only $19,131.90 of the taxes of 1898 had been paid up to Oct. 1.

The dancing class of Miss Hayward will meet on Thursdays at Colonial hall.

Mrs. Anne Seamen and son Arthur returned Saturday after an extended visit with relatives in Nova Scotia.

A large black snake about 2 1-2 feet long was killed on Temple street near First church Saturday by boys.

Next Sunday evening the Vesper services at the Wollaston Baptist church will be resumed. The service is at 7.30 P. M.

The disbursements of the city to Oct. 1, amounted to over $550,000. The expenditures for September were $62,123.20.

Spike Sullivan, the pugilist, who has been stopping at the Brown cottage at Houghs Neck, returns to Boston Tuesday.

The ice men, who have been having the cream of business for the past few months, have now taken a back seat and the coal men have come to the front.

Officer Nicol, who is on night duty in City Square, found a bicycle near the Savings Bank building early Sunday morning. The bicycle is now at the police station.

The Ledger is now delivered by boys over President's hill and Adams street, so any one in that vicinity subscribing for the Ledger can have it left at their door every afternoon.

A pleasant surprise party was tendered Mr. Joseph Slavin at his home on Charles street, Atlantic, Saturday evening, and a most enjoyble evening was spent. Joseph was presented with handsome umbrella by his friends.

The Rev. Robert Westly Peach spent last week in Vermont, where he was elected moderator of the Presbytery of Boston. South Ryegate, where the Presbytery met, is only an hour's drive from the farm in Newbury where Mr. Peach's grandfather was born.

Vespers were resumed Sunday at First church. The attendance was not as large as expected, being less than 175, but those present listened to a fine sermon by Rev. E. C. Butler. The music was also particularly good, especially a solo by Miss Florence Emery.

It was an eventful day Sunday for the Bible school of Bethany church. It was rally day and the attendance greatly surpassed the record. The session was held in the church and was addressed by Mr. N. S. Greet of Somerville, who entertained young and old with a chalk talk.

Mr. Edwin B. Pratt returned on Wednesday from Europe and is stopping at Wellesley Hills with his sister, Mrs. Robert M. Baker. He was in Quincy Sunday to see old friends. Mr. Pratt never looked in better health. His stay of over a year in Europe evidently agreed with him.

Don't forget the fair and sale at the Universalist church Tuesday and Wednesday evenings of the present week. Suppers of the usual excellence and abundance will be served from 6 to 7.30 P. M., and each evening there will be an enjoyable entertainment. Vegetables and domestic articles in great variety will be on sale, and lovers of ice cream and cake and home-made candy will not be disappointed.

The Y. P. C. U. meetings at the Universalist church Sunday evenings, are steadily growing in interest and in attendence. Last evening, Miss Lincoln of Hingham, District Superintendent, was the leader, and helpful remarks were made by her and also by Mrs. Ward of the same place. The exercises were very enjoyable throughout, and everybody lingered to talk them over for some time afterwards, as they always do whenever they have been pleased and profited.

Sunday was observed as Rally day at the Wollaston Baptist church. At the morning service the pastor, the Rev. Preston Gurney, preached on the "Bible" with special reference to the advantages derived from its study. The Bible school which met immediately after, held an open service. To the primary class was given the place of honor, and the children certainly did their part well, showing very careful work by the teachers. Mr. Haynes of Boston sang, and Mr. H. B. Bailey spoke of his trip through Egypt and Palestine.

Durable Carpetings

It has been our good fortune to note after years of untiring study and observation, that what the general public want today in Carpetings, is something that is serviceable, attractive and not expensive in price.

To some people all carpetings look alike, but it's the wearing quality that counts fully as much as the looks.

We make a specialty of Lowell and Roxbury Carpetings, the excellence of quality being acknowledged by all who know, to be unequalled by Carpets of other manufacture.

Heavy All Wool Carpets, 45c. to 65c.

Extra Fine Tapestry Brussels, 45c. to 85c.

We guarantee that nowhere can such values in Carpetings be found as here.

HENRY L. KINCAIDE & CO.,

RELIABLE, LOW PRICED HOUSE FURNISHERS,

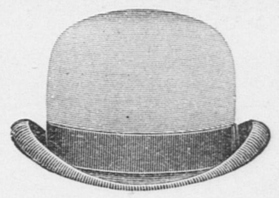

HANCOCK STREET, - - QUINCY.

ONE-TON ORDERS

Have been the making of this Coal business. Hundreds have ordered "just one ton to see if there was any difference." They found there was and they came again. Our one-ton orders have been our best advertisements. It's a better Coal at the same price, with the proof in a sample ton. When in doubt, try Patch's.

C. PATCH & SON.

Lamson & Hubbard

1898. Fall Style. 1898.

We are prepared to show all the latest Hats for Fall wear from the blocks of the best makers.

An early call will secure you a selection from a fine assortment.

Fall Style, 1898.

GEO. W. JONES,

Adams Building, Quincy.

WATCHES.

GENT'S WATCHES, $1.50 and Up.

LADIES' WATCHES, $2.50 and Up.

EVERY WATCH WARRANTED.

$2.00 Belts, $1.00 Each.

75c. Brooch Pins, 25c. Each.

25 and 35c. Stick Pins, 5 and 10c. Ea.

Quincy SOUVENIR TILES Half Price,

And Other Bargains.

A. A. LINSCOTT, Jeweler,

154 Hancock St., opp. Post Office, Quincy.

Agent for Graphophones.

aug 6. tf

If You Have a House to Let, Advertise It in the Ledger.

NOTICE EXTRAORDINARY.

MRS. B. CRAVENS, the Expert Demonstrator of

"HER MAJESTY'S CORSET,"

will fill a special one week's engagement at our store, commencing Oct. 10th and ending Oct. 15th Mrs. Cravens will be glad to explain the merits of this Celebrated Corset and give fittings, thus illustrating its superiority over others.

We desire it to be distinctly understood that ladies will not be expected to purchase a Corset after a fitting is made unless they so desire

"Her Majesty's Corset" is Not the Cheapest, but the Best.

☞ "Her Majesty's Corset" in Fit, Wear and Comfort is unsurpassed. It is worn by well dressed women. Endorsed by Physicians and Modistes.

D. E. WADSWORTH & CO.,
Hancock Street, Quincy.

Parlor Stove Talk

It isn't because people don't know or don't care, it's because they don't think and are neglectful that colds are caught and sickness of a more serious nature is contracted. A pinch of prevention is worth a barrel of cure.

It doesn't pay to sit in cold, damp rooms and become chilled during the cool fall evenings. Take no chances, buy a parlor stove now, get the good of it and protect your health.

Our parlor stoves are attractive, serviceable, economical to run, and will keep you warm. That's something to think about, but that's not all, they are wonderfully low in price, $2.90 to $25.00—that's something to dream about.

HENRY L. KINCAIDE & CO.

Reliable, Low Priced House Furnishers.

Hancock Street, - - - Quincy, Mass.

NOTICE TO VOTERS.

CITY OF QUINCY.

For the purpose of preparing the Annual Register of Voters, and of receiving evidence of qualification from persons claiming a right to Vote at the coming State Election, the Board of Registrars of Voters will be in session at the COUNCIL CHAMBER in the City Hall Building, on the evenings of

Wednesday, Sept. 14,
Saturday, Sept. 17,
Thursday, Sept. 29,
Saturday, Oct. 1,
Wednesday, Oct. 5.
Saturday, Oct. 8,
Saturday, Oct. 15,

From 7 to 9 P. M., and also on

Wednesday, Oct. 19,

From 12 o'clock M. until 10 o'clock P. M.

Every applicant for registration must appear in person before the Board, and must present either a certificate from the Assessors or a Tax bill or Notice from the Collector of Taxes, showing that he has been assessed as a resident of the City on the First day of May last; or a certificate from the Assessors that he has been a resident of the City for the six months next preceding the election at which he claims a right to vote. If a naturalized citizen he must also produce for inspection his papers of naturalization. Payment of a poll tax is not a prerequisite to voting.

No person can vote at the election unless his name has previously been placed upon the voting list of the Ward of which he was a resident on the first day of May last, and no name can be added to the list of voters unless registered previous to

Wednesday, Oct. 19th,

at 10 o'clock P. M., when registration will close.

Examine the Voting Lists posted, and see that your name is in its proper place. NO CHANGE can be made after WEDNESDAY, Oct. 19th, at 10 o'clock P. M. The Board of Assessors will be in session at their office on the same evenings.

EDWARD B. MARSH,
CORNELIUS MOYNIHAN,
EDWARD J. McKEON,
EDGAR G. CLEAVES,
Registrars.

Quincy, Sept. 6, 1898. 38t p10-2w

WILLIAM E. BAXTER, M. D.
Practice Limited to the
EYE AND EAR.
553 Boylston St., Boston.
QUINCY—Monday and Friday.
Hours, 9 to 11. 195 Hancock Street
May 21. 1y

STATE ELECTION.

CITY OF QUINCY.

City Clerk's Office, Oct. 7, 1898.

IN Accordance with the provisions of Chapter 548 of the Acts of 1898, notice is hereby given that by a vote of the City Council, passed October 3, 1898, the polling places for the election to be held TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1898, in the City of Quincy, were designated as follows:

WARD ONE.—Council Chamber, City Hall.
WARD TWO—Hose House, Washington street.
WARD THREE, Precinct One.—Doble's Hall, Franklin street.
WARD THREE, Precinct Two.—Old Steamer House, School street.
WARD FOUR, Precinct One.—St. Mary's Hall, Willard street.
WARD FOUR, Precinct Two.—Hose House, Copeland street.
WARD FIVE.—Polson's Building, Newport avenue.
WARD SIX.—Hose House, Newbury avenue.

Attest: EDGAR G. CLEAVES,
City Clerk.

Quincy, Oct. 7, 1898. 27t

Come, Mary,

Let's go over to the Quincy Second-Hand Variety Store and see if we can't find just what we want. You say you need some more kitchen goods and a few chairs, a carpet for the chamber, some glassware and various other things, and when I was there last week I saw my cousin get a lot of goods for almost nothing. He told me that sometimes he could find new goods at less than half price. These are hard times, Mary, and we must buy where the dollar goes farthest.

WALTER P. PINEL

is the Manager, and the store is right over here at number 20 Franklin street.

aug25 1y

DR. HERBERT S. HAYFORD
195 Hancock Street.

OFFICE HOURS—11 to 12 A. M., 2 to 4 and 7 to 8 P. M.
Telephone, 4-3.
Quincy, July 5. tf

LATEST!

RENOMINATED.

Thomas Blanchard Candidate for County Commissioner.

[SPECIAL TO THE DAILY LEDGER.]

The only ripple at the Norfolk County Republican convention this morning was raised by Henry H. Faxon, who at several times objected to the method of procedure.

Charles C. Henry of Wellesley was chairman.

John Kelley of Braintree renominated Thomas Blanchard of Stoughton for County Commissioner, and Clarence Burgin of Quincy nominated ex-Commissioner John Q. A. Field of Quincy.

A ballot showed 112 votes cast, of which Mr. Field received 18 and Mr. Blanchard 94, and Mr. Blanchard was declared the nominee.

The other nominations for county offices were: For Register of Probate for five years, Jonathan Cobb. For Sheriff, Samuel H. Capen of Canton.

The District Attorney convention, which followed, renominated Robert O. Harris for district attorney.

Yachts and Smelts.

Down the bay Sunday and around Rock Island the wind was not strong enough to keep the lovers of sport housed up, and a number of handsome yachts could be seen gliding to and fro under close reef. Fully 28 boats of all description were trying to catch the shiny smelt. A large amount of perch and pollock was pulled in with the aid of shrimps, but smelts were found wanting.

Several flocks of coots flying low could have been shot, and likewise yellow legs, but nobody had a gun. In the cove near Germantown the report of the rifle could be heard at intervals.

A large camp on Rock island is being altered, and several boats of all kinds are hauled up at Prior & Clark's yard, including the house boat.

A long row of large yachts was anchored off Great Hill as early 7 o'clock Sunday morning, and as early as 5 o'clock three lone silent fishermen landed at Quincy Point, who had been down all night and never got a bite. They sold their bait to others more fortunate later on.

A large black schooner yacht almost got aground near the Weymouth shore, but her jib was used and she swung around and cleared into deep water. Nevertheless it was a grand day with the breeze and the white caps and sea gulls flying overhead.

A schooner loaded with lumber laid at anchor inside Point bridge, going up the river to Weymouth.

WEYMOUTH.

Robert F. Shaw, postmaster at Weymouth Centre, is short $2400 in his accounts, and has removed. The bondsmen, B.S.Lowell, S.B.Totman and J. A. Cushing, have made good the amount, and Mr. Cushing is in charge of the office. The salary was $1600.

☞ Hot Stuff—our splendid $1.00 Comfortors. Blankets at wonderfully little prices. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

TODAY'S COURT.

Michael Wiseman was fined $5 for drunkenness at Braintree.

John Hill was arraigned for assault with intent to kill on Joseph Mackie at Quincy, and was held in $800 until next Monday.

Herbert E. Blood was arraigned for administering poison to fowl valued at $75 the property of Charles W. Peckman at Holbrook, and was fined $35.

Bon Ami

The Finest Cleaner

MADE. IT WILL NOT SCRATCH OR WEAR ANY SURFACE. YET IT CLEANS THE DIRTIEST PERFECTLY

DR. RALPH M. FOGG,
DENTIST.

Teeth extracted absolutely without pain by the use of the

"BOSTON VEGETABLE VAPOR."

It is claimed that, while it has the required properties of ether, chloroform, nitrous oxide gas, it lacks the disagreeable and dangerous qualities of these drugs. It is certainly a boon to suffering humanity to be relieved of the nausea too often following the administering of anæsthetics of the old school.—Boston Transcript.

Teeth made and repaired on Gold or Rubber base. Teeth Filling a specialty.

Office in French's Building, five doors south of Post Office, Quincy, Wednesdays. Hours, A. M. to 2 P. M. July18-1y Nov8-1yo

Administrator's Notice.

NOTICE is hereby given that the subscriber has been duly appointed Administrator of the estate of

MARTHA R. FEDERHEN,

late of Quincy, in the County of Norfolk, deceased, intestate, and has taken upon himself that trust by giving bond as the law directs.

All persons having demands upon the estate of said deceased are required to exhibit the same, and all persons indebted to said estate are called upon to make payment to

JOHN FEDERHEN, 3d, Adm.

(Address) Quincy, Mass., Oct. 10, 1898.
3t 10 17 24

LAND VALUES.

Continued from page 1.

WARD FOUR.

Valuation of Land Only.	Total Ward Tax.
Lamb, Thomas J.	328 70
17,250, Common, $600.
11,740, Crescent, $1,550.
6,859, Copeland, $1,850.
14,230, Crescent, $1,450.
Lane, Edward J.	40 25
27,400, off West, $700.
Lane, Fannie	23 40
22,600, Carlimark, $300.
Landers, Israel	52 20
1-6 acre off Common, $500.
Lancisi, Fransesco,	43 40
6,390, West, $250.
5,584, " $250.
Lark, Emma	23 40
15,898, Town Hill, $1,100.
Larson, John	5 40
1-4 acre, Nelson, $200.
Larson, Ole N.	28 10
4,190, off Smith, $125.
4,355, Prospect Hill, st., $100.
8,862, " " " $250.
Larry, Columbus, est.,	84 60
11,790, Crescent, $800.
1-2 acre, Bryant, $500.
17,480, Town Hill, $250.
17,480, " " $250.
La Pierre, Mary D.	72 90
14,400, Willard, $2,600.
Laundry, Mary	39 60
About 1-2 acre off Quarry, $600.
Leary, Timothy	30 80
4 218, Hall place, $200.
Leavitt, Charles L.	66 80
12,157, Willard, $600.
13,395, " $600.
Le Claire, Charles D.	83 00
9,000, Copeland, $700.
Le Claire, Narcisse,	91 55
9,682, Copeland, $550.
20,279, " $1,200.
Lennon, Dennis	90
1-4 acre, Copeland, $50.
Levoie, Mitchell	33 20
6,600 Barry, $300.

WARD FIVE.

Langill, Louisa	$29 70
10,000, feet, Wilson street, $250.
Landeas, Delia	51 75
7,250, Sachem, $350.
7,875, " $350.
Lane, Elizabeth C.	31 50
3,780, off Standish ave., $250.
Langelier, Henry J.	36 90
5,000, Franklin a e., $250.
Lapham, Adeline J.	73 80
5,000, Lot 10, Sec. 6, $450.
5,000, " 11, " 6, $150.
Larkin, Richard J.	63 00
12,270, Hancock, $1,000.
Levalle, Henry	45 65
10,000, Woodbine, $400.
Lawler, Charles V.	25 20
5,000, Lot 5, Sec. 6, $350.
Lavery, Catherine F.	42 30
3,360, Beach, $350.
Leake, Thomas	28 55
6,506, Ridgeway, $250.
Leake, Louisa N.	4 50
5,657, Ridgeway, $250.
Leavitt, Amos T.	64 10
5,000, Lot 16, Sec. 6, $450.
4,500, Lincoln ave., $600.
Lee, Anna K.	65 70
10,068, Lot 3, Sec. 5, $600.
7,628, Elm ave., $600.
Leigh, Evan A.	101 90
Lewis, Etta J.	43 20
10,303, Beach, $600.
Lewis, James H.	50 40
5,000, Farrington, $450.
5,000, " $450.
Lewis, Thornton	25 65
6,256, Lot 9, Sec. 6, $625.
9,000, Lot 1 and 2, Sec. 6, $800.

WARD SIX.

Larkin, Elias	$57 80
13,050 feet, Billings street, $1,100.
Langelier, Louis F. R.	64 10
5,822, Lunt, $450.
Larkin, Lucy E.	247 95
20,020, Newbury ave., $2,200.
16,980, " " $1,850.
8,991, Belleview Park, $300.
8,400, " " $275.
8,275, " " $275.
23,219, Walker, $2,300.
5,040, Billings, $550.
About 6,600 Billings, $725.
Leary, John	30 35
10 300, Hunt, $425.
7,932, " $350.

[To be continued.]

You should save a file of the Ledger while this list is being printed. We cannot supply back numbers of the paper at 2 cents per copy, but have established this rate: Papers one week old, 5 cents; papers one month old, 10 cents; papers one year old, 25 cents.

The Plant System.

The Hotel Managers of the Plant System of hotels in Florida will be as follows for the coming season of 1898-99:

Tampa Bay Hotel, Tampa, Fla., A. E. Dick, Manager.

Hotel Belleview, Belleair, Fla., W. A. Barron, Manager.

Seminole Hotel, Winter Park, Fla., O. L Frisbee, Manager.

Ocala House, Ocala, Fla., Phil F. Brown, Manager.

Hotel Kissimmee, Kissimmee, Fla.

Port Tampa Inn, Port Tampa, Fla., S. M. Hannah, Superintendent.

For information as to hotel rates, address Managers, and as to railroad and steamship rates and schedules,

B. W. WRENN,
Passenger Traffic Manager.

☞ It makes the coal man blue when he hears you've bought a Glenwood Range—$18.00 to $33.00. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

WHAT DO THE CHILDREN DRINK?

Don't give them tea or coffee. Have you tried the new food drink called GRAIN-O? It is delicious and nourishing and takes the place of coffee. The more Grain-O you give the children the more health you distribute through their systems. Grain-O is made of pure grains, and when properly prepared tastes like the choice grades of coffee but costs about 1-4 as much. All grocers sell it. 15c. and 25c.

POLITICAL SKIES.

Rosy to Some Yet Cloudy to Many Others.

Democratic conventions in which Quincy delegates participate are scheduled as follows:

Tuesday, Oct. 11—Tenth Congressional, at Winthrop hall, Upham's Corner, Dorchester, at 8 P. M.

Wednesday, October 12—Norfolk County, at Memorial hall, Dedham, at 7.30 P. M. Also at 8 P. M. the Second Councillor at the same place.

The commissioner of internal revenue, has ruled that certificates of nomination and all papers used in the enforcing of the election laws of the state are exempt from the requirements of the new war revenue law.

The adjourned Republican convention of this Congressional district will convene Wednesday evening. On the surface it looks as if all the candidates were going to stick.

It is expected that the Democrats will have something of a contest at their Congressional convention in this district tomorrow night, with Hon. Henry F. Naphen of South Boston, Francis A. Campbell of Ward 12, Hon. Richard Sullivan of Ward 19, Eugene J. O'Connor of Ward 17, and Bordman Hall as candidates.

Only two more dates upon which to register in Quincy: Saturday, Oct. 15, and Wednesday, Oct. 19.

This is the last day for holding conventions for nominating candidates to be voted for at large throughout the state. Certificates of nomination of candidates must be filed at the office of the secretary of state by 5 P. M.

The Second Norfolk Democratic Senatorial convention will be held at Dedham Wednesday evening.

The place and hour for the Republican Representative convention has not been announced.

For the New Church.

A social meeting of the First United Presbyterian congregation was held on Saturday evening in Orangemen's hall. The meeting was called to order at 8 P. M. by Mr. McKenzie, chairman of the board of trusees. Prayer was offered by the Rev. W. W. Dornan. Singing by he choir following, and then remarks by the chairman, R. A. McQueen and Elder James McDonald, singing by the choir and an address by the pastor. Some liberal pledges were made towards the building fund of the new church. Refreshments were served by the Ladies' Aid society and a pleasant evening was spent.

Q. H. S. Football Schedule.

The schedule of games arranged by the Quincy High school football team, H. W. Porter manager, is as follows:

Tuesday, 11 October—Open date.
Friday, 14 Oct.—Adams Academy at Quincy.
Tuesday, 18 Oct.—Thayer Academy at Quincy.
Saturday, 22 Oct.—Atlantics at Quincy.
Monday, 24 Oct.—Open date.
Friday, 28 Oct.—Adams Academy at Quincy.
Thursday, 3 Nov.—Dedham High at Quincy.
Monday, 7 Nov.—Open date.
Friday, 11 Nov.—Weymouth High at Weymouth.
Monday, 14 Nov.—Open date.
Wednesday, 16 Nov.—Adams Academy at Quincy. (In case of tie.)
Tuesday, 22 Nov.—Dedham High at Dedham.

☞ The Grand Mechanics fair was auspiciously opened Saturday evening.

There are over 300 separate exhibits in the fair, and their variety is even greater than usual, but electricity predominates over everything. There is one display in the shape of a gigantic representation of the earth which is in the centre of Machinery Hall. This is 25 feet in diameter, and contains a cosey reception room which will accommodate 50 people. Another exhibit displays all systems of lighting, and the furnishing heat and power, all from one wire. A leafy bower is splendidly illuminated by incandescents.

—The Eighth Massachusetts Volunteer will be moved from Lexington, Ky., to Americus, Ga.

MABEL F. FAIRBANKS
TEACHER OF
CHINA PAINTING and WATERCOLOR.
China Decorated to Order.
34 Grand View Avenue, Wollaston.
Sept. 29. 3m

DANCING SCHOOL.
Reduced Rates.
Prof. GARDNER,
the well known Boston teacher, will receive a few more pupils in his class in COLONIAL HALL, Bank Building, Quincy, on Friday Evening, Oct. 14, at 7.45. Terms: Gents, $5, Ladies, $3. All the latest dances taught.
lp tf

E. LANDIS SNYDER,
Organist and Choirmaster of Christ Church,
TEACHER OF
VOICE CULTURE, PIANO AND ORGAN.
Studio: Room 10 Durgin & Merrill's Block, QUINCY, MASS.
Sept. 10. tf

IN THE CITY NURSERY

Young Saplings Which Together Assume Importance.

City Council this evening.

The evening schools will open Oct. 24.

City Treasurer Gray is having a new combination lock placed on one of the vaults in his office.

Miss Helen Foster of Wollaston, who has been quite ill, is slowly convalescing.

The current number of "the Rudder" the yachting magazine, devotes five pages and the frontespiece to the Quincy Yacht club's cup races.

The Young Men's Christian Association is again made the recipient of a thoughtful action in the presentation to it of a carpet sweeper by Mrs. Guy and Mrs. Shaw of the Ladies' Auxiliary.

American Ideas.

Rev. Edger W. Preble spoke at the Universalist church yesterday on "engineers of life," showing how highways of righteousness and holiness must be cast up for the people, and impressing the lesson of the importance of directing the energies of men in the right channels. Among other things he said that mothers should be the best engineers in the world in order to open paths of usefulness for their children and to guide them aright. Speaking of our newly acquired possessions, he said America want no territory that cannot be Americanized. We want no people that are imperveous to American ideas. We not willing to be the leaven for the heathen mass, but we are not willing to be the mass for the heathen leaven. If the Asiatic hordes of the Philippines Islands are too heavy a burden to be lifted by the American people into civilization we don't want to take them upon our shoulders. We better leave them alone than to be crushed and smothered beneath them into paganized conditions.

TELL US . .

What you are looking for.

We can show you a fine line of

FALL AND WINTER UNDERWEAR, HOSIERY,
Outing Flannels, Flannelettes,
Plaid Dress Goods,
WRAPPERS, BLANKETS,
Comforters,
Dress Linings and other Dry Goods.

OUR STOCK IS FRESH.
OUR PRICES THE LOWEST.

MISS C. S. HUBBARD,
158 Hancock Street.

Potatoes.

15c. Peck,

55c. Bushel.

SWEET,

25 lbs., 25c.

L. M. PRATT & CO.,
25 School Street.

E. S. BECKFORD,
Electrician.
Wiring and Fitting for Incandescent, Motors, Dynamos, Bells, etc.
GRANITE STREET, Near the Bridge, QUINCY
Feb. 1 1y

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS.

Advertisements in this column inserted at the following rates:

Four lines, or less, one day, - - 25 cents.
" " three days, - - - 50 cents.
" " one week, - - - - 75 cents.

Additional lines will be charged for pro rata. Seven words equal a line. Long term rates furnished on application.

LOST.

AT the foot ball game between Adams Academy and Thayer, yesterday at Wollaston Park, a Gold Watch and Chain. Finder will be rewarded by leaving the same at Ledger office or 18 Greenleaf street, Quincy.
Oct. 8—1w 8-3t

WANTED.

WANTED—Experienced girl to do general housework; must be a good cook. Apply between 6 and 8 P. M. at 240 Washington street, Quincy Point. H. M. FEDERHEN.
Oct. 10. 3t

WANTED—Typewriting to to do at home. Address W. F. SKINNER, 12 Franklin street, Quincy. oct7-6t

TO LET.

TO LET—House 29 Chestnut street, eight rooms, furnace and bath. Near centre, within three minutes' of steam cars. Apply to CHAS. W. HALL, 212 Hancock street, Quincy. Oct. 10 tf

TO LET—On Washington street, at the corner of Wibird street, a very desirable house for a small family. Six rooms, two of them new, and all in good repair. Rent, $15. City water. Concrete sidewalk in front of the house extending to the depot. Apply only to FRANK F. PRESCOTT, at the Ledger office or at 14 Bigelow street. tf

TO LET—Cottage house, No. 29 Granite street, 8 rooms, three minutes' from City Square. Apply to H. M. FAXON, 4 Adams Building. Sept. 30—tf

TO LFT—Half a House of 5 rooms entirely separate on Phipps street, Mt. Pleasant. Rent, $8 a month; city water. Inquire at 17 Summer street.
Quincy, Sept. 27. 12t

FOR RENT—Desirable house with bath, corner lot, nice neighborhood, three minutes' walk from schools, churches and depot Rent reasonable. Apply at No. 6 Pleasant St.
Quincy, Sept. 7. tf

TO LET—A pleasant tenement of six rooms; newly papered and painted throughout. Centrally located on a main street within five minutes' walk of Quincy depot. Rent, $15. Address "House," Lock Box L, Quincy.
Oct. 4. tf

TO LET.

Half House on Granite street, near depot; $15.00.

Half House on Washington street, near Universalist church; $11.00.

New House, 6 rooms and bath; Back Bay land, $16.50.

Apply to FRANK F. CRANE,
Oct. 5—6t 4 Chestnut St., Quincy.

TO LET IN QUINCY.

SOUTHERLY Half of house with stable, 214 Hancock street, now occupied by Dr. N. S. Hunting. Modern improvements, central location. Possession given about October 15th. Apply on premises to

MISS M. F. UNDERWOOD.
Oct. 1. tf

TO LET.

APARTMENTS of five large rooms and bath, with all modern improvements. Also two large stores. Rent moderate. Apply to ARTHUR CRAIG, or J. W. HAYDEN, at Craig Building, cor. Copeland and Garfield Sts.
Quincy, July 15. pl tf

TO LET.

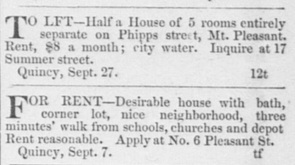

House of 8 rooms, etc., No. 20 Canal street, Quincy. Nice house, excellent location.

R. D. CHASE,
Savings Bank Building.
Quincy, Oct. 8. pl tf

FOR SALE.

Bigelow St. Fine New Residence, 9 rooms, bath, laundry, furnace, open plumbing, cemented cellar, fireplace, etc.

R. D. CHASE,
Savings Bank Building.
Quincy, April 8-tf. 9p-tf

Savings Bank Building, Quincy.

FISH.

Everything first-class at the

Cape Cod Fish Market,
Temple Street.

All kinds Fresh, Salt, Smoked and Pickeled

Quincy, Feb. 8. 1y

Surgeon.—Is there anything I can do to relieve you, my man?
Rough Rider.—Give me a chew of Battle Ax—quick!

The qualities that have brought the "Rough Riders" their envied position—courage—dash—perseverance and determined purpose—have been used in making the best known and largest selling chewing tobacco in the world. Every intrenchment of prejudice (against low price) and tradition (against large piece) has been successfully stormed and carried by Battle Ax. High value at low cost.

BattleAx PLUG

Remember the name when you buy again.

MAKE IT HOT FOR YOU.

If your house is cold and you have become disgusted with the various devices called heaters, and you are really anxious to have warmth and comfort in your home, place an order for one of those G. B. Bates CIRCULATORS. It will "make it hot for you" or just the temperature you desire. Its construction is based upon scientific and economical principles. Several have recently been put in right here in Quincy, and others will be put in during the next few weeks. Don't read this ad. and then forget about it till your water pipes are all frozen, but go now to

G. B. BATES,

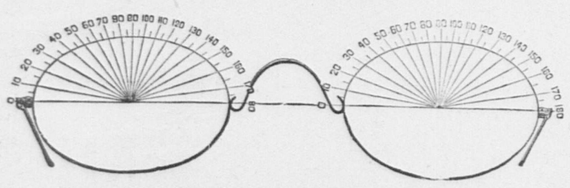

Hancock Street, Quincy.

Gentlemen, Buy Your....

OVERCOATS

Where you can find the best assortment in the city and the lowest prices, which is at

C. F. DERBY'S, SAVINGS BANK BUILDING, QUINCY. 5-1m

ASTIGMATISM

Causes most of the distressing headaches. Properly fitted glasses will correct the error and remove the pain. Consult

WILLIAMS,

Member of the New England Association of Opticians,

104 Hancock St., Quincy.

JOHN EVANS,
Auctioneer and Appraiser.
Prompt Settlement.
24 COPELAND STREET, QUINCY.
Feb. 26. tf

FRANK F CRANE,
AUCTIONEER and APPRAISER,
Office, 4 Chestnut St., Quincy, Mass.
Oct. tf

CORBETT AND SHARKEY

The Californians to Be Matched For a Big Purse.

Consolation For Ex-Champion Should He Lose.

Contest of Twenty Rounds In December In a New York Clubroom.

New York, Oct. 10.—A match betweeen Tom Sharkey and Jim Corbett has been practically arranged to be decided sometime in December. Although no articles have been signed, Corbett has given his word that he will accept. It is understood that the purse will not be less than $18,000, and that Corbett is to receive so much money whether he wins or loses.

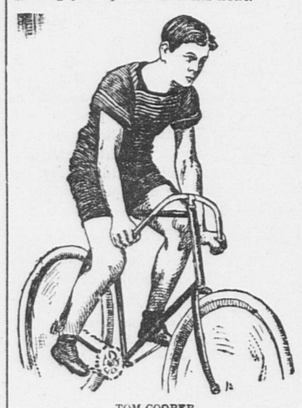

When George Considine was asked about the proposed encounter he stated that Corbett was ready to fight Sharkey and that everything is satisfactory to him. Corbett, he added, had intended to go to San Francisco to box Jeffries at one of the clubs there, but would cancel the trip if Sharkey really means business.

If the contest is brought about it will be for 20 rounds, although O'Rourke is trying to have it increased to 25. O'Rourke had a talk with Considine last night and it was agreed to hold a conference this afternoon to decide things. O'Rourke states that he will cover the $5,000 forfeit which Corbett has up.

Corbett has issued a sweeping challenge that should result in a fight. There are no "ifs" nor "ands" in this challenge, and it bars no one. All the ambitious pugilist has to do is to cover Corbett's money, which is now up, and he can get a fight. The challenge is broad, and under its terms all that Maher, Jeffries, Fitzsimmons, Sharkey or any other fighter needs to meet the ex-champion is money.

Tom Cooper's Successes.

St. Louis, Oct. 10.—Tom Cooper was in stake form Sunday at the concluding day's sportof the two days' meet given by the Cyclist Racing association, and ran Champion Bald to a dead heat in the five mile championship, won the two mile handicap from the 30-yard mark, defeating all the crackajacks, and came back in the rich mound city handicap at a mile, winning in good time after having just qualified in his heat.

TOM COOPER.

Arthur Gardiner refused to compete with Major Taylor, the colored rider Both had qualified in the five mile championship event, the trials of which were run off Saturday. Both Gardiner and Taylor made good their determination not to compete in Sunday racing, but Bald, who threatened to return to New York, decided to remain here.

ON HOME STRETCH.

National League Pennant Season Will End With This Week's Games.

Boston, Oct. 10.—Today the National league entered on the last week of play in the championship race of 1898. At this time the final positions of the 12 clubs are quite well defined, but the week's play may alter the standing of about six of the teams. The Bostons need two more victories to insure them the pennant.

The Bostons will play three games at Washington commencing this afternoon, and then three games at Baltimore conclude the season's work. Although the senators are playing strong ball, the chances favor Boston in the games today, Tuesday and Wednesday, as the senators' best pitcher, Mercer, is out of the game through injury. In the season's play with Baltimore the champions have won six games to the ex-champions four.

The Chicagoes have succeeded in tieing the Clevelands for fourth place. With St. Louis playing thrice at Chicago, and the Chicagoes finishing with three at Pittsburg, while Cleveland has six games to play at Pittsburg and Louisville, it looks like Chicago for fourth place. The last week's play may change the final positions of Chicago, Cleveland, Philadelphia, New York, Pittsburg and Louisville.

The National league standing is as follows: Bostons, 688; Baltimores, 650; Cincinnatis, 611; Chicagoes, 564; Clevelands, 552; Philadelphias, 521; New Yorks, 507; Pittsburgs, 486; Louisvilles, 455; Brooklyns, 370; Washingtons, 340; St. Louises, 260.

Pitcher Lewis of the Bostons has made arrangements to coach the Harvard pitchers, beginning after the Christmas holidays.

The Louisvilles and Pittsburgs played a close and exciting game Sunday. With the score a tie in the eleventh inning Umpire Emslie called the game to allow the Pittsburg team to catch a train.

Young of the Clevelands was easy for the Cincinnatis in the first game Sunday, and timely hitting allowed the Cincinnatis to tie the score in the second game. Miller's batting was marvellous. Out of nine times at the bat he hit safely eight times for the winners.

A double header in Chicago Saturday, in which St. Louis beat Cleveland in the first game and then succumbed to the windy city team in the second, made it possible for Burns's players to retake fourth place. The Philadelphias applied the whitewash brush to the Washingtons and drew further away from the New Yorks. The Louisvilles administered a defeat to the Pittsburgs.

The Chicagoes closed their home season Sunday by taking both games from the St. Louis club.

Cassidy of the Providences has been drafted by the manager of the Brooklyns.

Clever Burglar Caught.

New York, Oct. 10.—If the story the police tell of W. E. Travis, aged 32, is correct, they have in custody one of the cleverest of house burglars. Travis was arrested on Saturday morning just after he had alighted from a train from Hartford, where, it is alleged, he committed a series of burglaries recently. When the police here arrested "Big Bill" Mason, now committed to prison in Philadelphia and awaiting trial on the charge of murder, he told Captain McClusky that he owed his misfortunes to association with thieves in his leisure hours. He told McClusky that there was a smart thief, a man whom he knew well, but who never associated with thieves, always working alone, This mysterious person, Mason asserted, had never been arrested and fairly rolled in wealth.

On looking through some of the memoranda among "Big Bill's" effects, the captain came across several addresses. One of these was in Schermerhorn street, Brooklyn. This house was diligently watched night and day by detectives. The occupant of the house, who proved to be the prisoner, Travis, appeared at his home at intervals only. He was supposed by his neighbors to be a commercial traveler, and lived there with his wife and her mother.

In the prisoner's house the police found a trunkful of silverware and other property of doubtful value. They also found crucibles for melting gold and silver and scales for weighing the metals. His wife professed not to know the true character of her husband, and her mother gave up a diamond ring he had given her when she learned the truth. Some of his booty was found in a house occupied by his mother and sister.

Serious Warning Uttered.

Epinal, France, Oct. 10.—Jules Meline, premier of the French ministry preceding the present government of Mr. Brisson, who presided at a banquet of an association of railway employees, uttered a serious warning against the agitation and unrest in France, class troubles and strikes.

Referring to the "divided state of society, the violence of polemics and the sectarian spirit displayed in politics," he said it was impossible to see France thus torn by factions and devoured by political passions, while daily the principle of authority was undermined, the army was weakened and the institutions upon which rested the security of the nation were shaken without thinking of "that opening in the Vosges through which an invading army could pass, or without thinking of some unforseen temptation being opened to the foreigners." The adversaries of France however, had no need to declare war, said Mr. Meline.

The Indian Situation.

Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 10.—A special to the Tribune from its staff correspondent at Walker says: "The situation is more ominous than ever. At the agency yesterday a council was held between the Indians, General Bacon, Colonel Herbach, Indian Agent Sutherland and Marshal O'Connor. The result of the conference was not in any way unlike that of those previously held, except in the fact that not one of the leading men of the different bands was present. The only conclusion to be drawn is that the leaders of the different bands sent men there merely as stool pigeons and that others of their number are preparing for the warpath."

Looking For a Wife.

Boston, Oct. 10.—After having searched for over three years for his wife, after having spent a fortune travelling from city to city and employing the best detectives to look for her, Frank Cody of Philadelphia is for the second time in Boston. This visit is a last despairing effort, as it were, for if Mr. Cody does not find his wife within two days more he is going back to is real estate and insurance business to try to build it up again. Then when he has accumulated enough money he will again resume the search.

Hanna and the President.

Cleveland, Oct. 10.—Senator Hanna was asked last evening whether it is true that he will not continue the managership of the Republican national committee for the coming campaign. The senator stated that he has no intention of resigning. Should, however, the senator decline to manage the president's campaign for 1900 it would not be because of any friction between the two, but because Mr. Hanna might be convinced that the chances of the president would be enhanced by a new manager.

Dr. Guilford's Collapse.

London, Oct. 10.—According to the Mail Dr. Nancy Guilford, who no longer denies that she is the midwife of Bridgeport, Conn., but declares herself absolutely innocent of any connection with the death of Emma Gill, says that she sailed for England under an assumed name owing to "another matter, which she will explain at the proper place." She is now in the infirmary of the Holloway jail, London, suffering from nervous collapse.

An Unusual Proceeding.

Paris, Oct. 10.—The government has issued special orders to the garrisons of numerous towns near the capital to send immediately to Paris 500 infantry each. A local paper declares that these reinforcements will amount to 10,000 men The paper expresses the hope that the country is not on the eve of a revolution. All the troops will be supplied with two days' rations and 60 rounds of ball cartridge Newspaper Men In Trouble.

St. John's, N. F., Oct. 10.—Mr. Parsons, editor of The Evening Telegram of this city, and Mr. Herder, its proprietor, were sentenced to 30 days' imprisonment for contempt of court in publishing strictures upon the judges of the supreme court. Such a penalty had not been inflicted in Newfoundland in 40 years.

POSTOFFICE ROBBED.

Professionals Poorly Rewarded In New Hampshire.

The Safe Forced Open With an Explosive.

Crash a Terrific One, and Adjacent Buildings Badly Damaged.

Ashland, N. H., Oct.10.—The safe of the postoffice was blown open by burglars at 2 o'clock Sunday morning and $75 in cash and stamps were secured. Although the burglars were seen running from the building they managed to escape. The explosion was a terrific one and wrecked not only a portion of the postoffice, but damaged some of the adjoining building to the extent of $500.

The burglars had a conveyance within a short distance of the building and were thus able to make their escape before any of the awakened citizens could reach the street. Deputy Sheriff Harrington and Chief of Police Kendrick, however, immediately telephoned to neighboring towns and then started after the burglars. As the work of blowing up the safe was apparently done cleanly, it is thought that the men are professionals.

Hit During a Quarrel.

New Bedford, Oct. 10.—Albert E. Gifford was found near his home in Fairhaven Sunday morning in a serious condition. He was unconscious from a wound in the head, evidently made with a stone, or club, and his head and clothing were covered with blood. He did not regain consciousness until noon, and then he was unable to explain much about his condition, except that he had been hit during a quarrel.

Poison In Coffee.

Providence, Oct. 10.—Fracis Chiodi has been placed under arrest on suspicion of being connected with the poisoning of the members of the Choili family, who live in the Italian quarter. Chiodi formerly boarded with Choili, but last week left on account of trouble with Mrs. Choili. That night at supper Choili found that the coffee and beans had a sour taste, and he reported to the police that he suspected Chiodi of attempting to poison his family. It is said that Chiodi acknowledged the crime in the neighborhood. The city chemist found evidence that poison was added, though his analysis is not completed as yet.

Their Skiff Upset.

Newport, Oct. 10.—While William Sharpe and John R. Hammatt, Jr., were fishing in Eastern pond yesterday they started to change seats. The skiff upset and Sharpe, who was unable to swim, was drowned.

The crew of the Manitoba, which has taken the Forty-seventh New York volunteers to Porto Rico, refused to load freight Sunday morning, claiming extra pay for Sunday work. Deputy Collector Ball read the shipping articles to the striking crew and informed them that no clause on extra pay existed, and that unless they went to work their captain could place them on the beach or put them in irons The crew decided to resume.

Tramps Become Criminals.

Portland, Oct. 10.—While wheeling through the woods in Deering, John McLoud of York was held up by two men, who threatened to take his life if he resisted, and then went through him. They took $7.50 and then let him go. McLoud reported at the police station, but there is no probability of the fellows being arrested. They appeared to be tramps.

Sunday morning three tramps were seen to leave a barn owned by the Conley heirs, and soon afterward the place was found to be on fire. The building was burned, together with 75 tons of hay and farming tools. The tramps escaped.

Wound May Prove Fatal.

North Adams, Mass., Oct. 10.—A stabbing affair occurred on the road to Clarksburg Sunday night, in which Frank Dominico, an employe of the city, seriously, if not fatally, stabbed John Mansert of Clarksburg. The stabbing was done in a fight. One gash is below and the other above the heart. The doctor thinks one of the wounds may prove fatal. Dominico was arrested Passed Bad Money.

Boston, Oct. 10.—Guesseppi Voci, an Italian fruit store keeper of this city, is locked up in the tombs charged with passing counterfeit money. The entire bank squad and three detectives from headquarters are at work on the case, as hundreds of bogus $2 bills have been passed in Boston lately. If the suspicions are verified the Boston department maye be able to clear up a mystery which the government and police have been at work on for a year. Voci will be brought before United States commissioners later.

Beheaded by a Train.

Lawrence, Oct. 10.—While searching for the assailant of Cora Oakes, the police, about 2 o'clock this morning, came across the body of Joseph Graham near Kingsley's box factory. Graham was an engineer on the Boston and Maine.

Last night, shortly before midnight, Cora Oakes, wife of the fireman of Graham's engine, returned to her home and told her husband that she had been assaulted near the box factory, and then lapsed into unconsciousness.

The case was reported to the police, who in their search discovered Graham's body. It was beheaded. It is supposed that the man and woman had a struggle on the track, unconscious of the approach of a train, which bore down upon them.

Mrs. Oakes shows evidence of having had a severe encounter. She was cut and scratched about the head, and was altogether in a pitiable plight.

English Soldiers Dying.

London, Oct. 10.—A despatch to the Chronicle from Alexandria says: "The troops who have returned from Khartoum are dying like flies from enteric disorders, supposed to be due to canned beef and indulgence in cheap spirits."

GET FLESH

Get Strength, Vigor Clear Complexion and Good Digestion, Not by Patent Medicine, But in Nature's Own Way.

Any honest physician will tell you that there is but one way to get in creased flesh; all the patent medicines and cod liver oils to the contrary not withstanding.

Nature has but one way to increase flesh, strength and vigor, mind and body, and that is through the stomach, by wholesome food, well digested.

There is no reason or common sense in other method whatever.

People are thin, run down, nervous, pale, and shaky in their nerves simply. because their stomachs are weak.

They may not think they have dyspepsia, but the fact remains that they do not eat enough food, or what they eat is not quickly and properly digested as it should be.

Dr. Harlandson says the reason is because the stomach lacks certain digestive acids and peptones, and deficient secretion of gastric juice.

Nature's remedy in such cases is to supply what the weak stomach lacks. There are several good preparations which will do this, but none so readily as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, which are designed especially for all stomach troubes, and which cure all digestive weakness on the common sense plan of furnishing the digestive principles which the stomach lacks.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets give perfect digestion. First effect is to increase the appetite and increased vigor, added flesh pure blood and strength of nerve and muscle is the perfectly natural result.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are the safest tonic known and will cure any form of stomach trouble except cancer of the stomach. May be found at druggists at 50 cents for full sized package or direct by mail from Stuart Co. Marshall Mich. 10-12-14

☞ Carpets thoroughly cleaned in our electric beater. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

Coal!

Just Received by Barge Blackbird, a Fresh Cargo of

Pea Coal

(Small Nut.)

J. F. SHEPPARD & SONS

Quincy Sept. 7.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

NORFOLK, ss. SUPERIOR COURT.

To the Honorable the Justices of the Superior Court in and for the County of Norfolk:

RESPECTFULLY Represents your petitioner, ANTON HERMANSON of Quincy in said County of Norfolk, that he is the lawful husband of MARGARETA HERMANSON, now of Sisters in the State of Oregon; that they were married at Stonga, Gotland, Sweden, on July 5th, 1884; that they lived as husband and wife in said Sweden until April 4th, 1894, at which time they came to said Quincy to live, where they lived as husband and wife until April 24th, 1896; that there was born of said marriage one son, Junar Hermanson, who was born December 14th, 1884, which son now lives in Sweden; that your petitioner has lived in said Quincy since April, 1894; that your petitioner has ever been faithful to his marriage vows and obligations, but that said Margareta Hermanson, wholly regardless of the same, on or about the first day of January, 1894, committed the crime of adultery with one Jacob Quinberg in said Sweden, and on or about the first day of April, 1896, said Margareta Hermanson committed the crime of adultery with said Jacob Quinberg, at said Quincy, and at divers other times she has been guilty of the crime of adultery with said Quinberg, and on or about the said twenty-fourth day of April, 1896, said Margareta Hermanson and said Jacob Quinberg left the City of Quincy, and your petitioner is informed and believes that they are at the present time living together as husband and wife at said Sisters in the State of Oregon.

WHEREFORE, your petitioner asks that a decree of divorce may be granted to him and for such further relief as may seem just.

Dated at Quincy this twenty-fourth day of September, A. D. 1898.

ANTON HERMANSON.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

NORFOLK, ss. SUPERIOR COURT.

On the foregoing Libel, it is ORDERED that the Libellant give notice to the said Margareta Hermanson, the Libellee, to appear before the Justices of this Court, to be holden at Dedham, within and for said County, on the First Monday of November next, by causing an attested copy of said Libel, and of this order thereon, to be published once in a week for three successive weeks, in the Quincy Daily Ledger, a newspaper printed at Quincy in the County of Norfolk, the last publication to be fourteen days at least before the said first Monday of November next; and further, by sending through the mail, as soon as may be, by a registered letter addressed to the last known residence of the said Margareta Hermanson, an attested copy of said Libel and of this order thereon, that the said Margareta Hermanson may then and there show cause why the prayer of said Libel should not be granted.

By the Court,

LOUIS A. COOK, Clerk.

October 3, 1898.

A true copy of said Libel, and of the Order thereon.

Attest: R. B. WORTHINGTON,
oct 7 10 17 Assistant Clerk.

BILLHEADS PRINTED

AT LEDGER OFFICE.

The John Hancock Stables.

Opposite Depot, Quincy, Mass.

Boarding, Baiting, Livery and Sale.

DR. J. A. DOW, Proprietor,

the well known Veterinary dentist and specialist in the treatment of lame horses. Sick horses treated at owner's risk.

Fine driving turnouts in light rigs; safe and good appearing. All horses let are perfectly safe for ladies to drive.

The choicest family, road and coach horses constantly on hand for sale. All horses guaranteed as represented.

☞ Will attend to veterinary practice as usual. aug18-1y

Quincy and Boston Electric Street Railway.

[Subject to change without notice.]

On and after September 21, cars will be run on the different routes as follows:

Quincy and Neponset.

Leave CITY SQUARE for Neponset at 5.55, 6.10, 6.25, 6.40 A. M. and every 15 minutes until 11.10 P. M.

Leave NEPONSET for Quincy at 6.15 A. M. and every 15 minutes until 11.30 P. M.

Cars leaving Quincy at 10 minutes past the hour go via Norfolk Downs, and those leaving Neponset at 30 minutes past go via Downs.

Cars leaving Neponset 15 minutes of and 15 minutes past the hour go via Wollaston and continue through Braintree and Holbrook to Brockton, connecting with cars for Bridgewater, Taunton, New Bedford, Fall River, Newport and Providence.

Quincy and East Weymouth.

Leave CITY SQUARE (10 minutes later from Quincy Point and 22 minutes later from North Weymouth)—5.45, 6.20, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20, 9.50, 10.20, 10.50, 11.20, 11.50 A. M.; 12.20, 12.50, 1.20, 1.50, 2.20, 2.50, 3.20, 3.50, 4.20, 4.50, 5.20, (5.30 to East Weymouth car house), 5.50, 6.20, 6.30, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20, 9.50, 10.50 P. M., (11.50 Wednesday and Saturday to Thomas' Corner only.)

Leave EAST WEYMOUTH (20 minutes later from North Weymouth and 30 minutes later from Quincy Point)—6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8, 8.30, 9, 9.30 10, 10.30, 11, 11.30 A. M.; 12, 12.30, 1, 1.30, 2, 2.30, 3, 3.30, 4, 4.30, 5, 5.30, 6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8 8.30, 9, 9.30, 10, 10.30, 11.30 P. M.

Quincy and Weymouth Landing.

Leave QUINCY at 5.30 A. M., 6.20, 7.20 and every hour until 12.20, then 1.50 and every hour until 10.50 P. M.

Leave WEYMOUTH LANDING at 5.50 A. M. and every hour until 12.50, then 2.20 and every hour until 11.20 P. M., connect with trains to Boston at Quincy.

Quincy and East Milton.

Leave CITY SQUARE, 5.55, 6.25, then every 5 minutes of and 25 minutes past the hour until 9.25 P. M., then at 10.50 P. M.

Leave EAST MILTON 6.25, 6.55 A. M., then every 5 minutes of and 25 minutes past the hour until 9.50 P. M., then 10.20 and 11.20 P. M.

Quincy and Holbrook.

Leave QUINCY for Holbrook at 6.10 and 6.40 A. M., and every half hour until 9.40 P. M., then 10.10 P. M. to South Braintree only, except on Wednesday and Saturday, when car at 10.50 runs through to Holbrook.

Quincy and Hingham.

Leave QUINCY at 7.20 A. M. and every hour until 11.20 A. M., then 1.50 and every hour until 5.50 P. M.

Leave HINGHAM at 8 A. M. and every hour until 12 M., then 2.30 and every hour until 6.30 P. M.

Neponset, Atlantic and Squantum.

Leave NEPONSET at 6.30 A. M. and every hour until 8.30 P. M., connecting at Atlantic with outward express trains.

Leave SQUANTUM at 7 A. M. and every hour until 9 P. M., connecting at Atlantic with express trains.

Quincy and Houghs Neck.

Leave QUINCY CENTRE at 6.20 A. M., and and every hour until 1.20, and then 1.50 and every hour until 9.50.

Returning, leave HOUGHS NECK at 5.45 A. M., and every hour until 12.45, and then 1.20 and every hour until 9.20.

SUNDAYS.

Cars leave City Square, Quincy, for E. Weymouth at 7.30 A. M. and West Quincy at 7 A. M and on the hour and half hour throughout the day.

Sunday time same as week days on other lines, except that the first two trips are omitted.

BENJ. J. WEEKS, Superintendent.

New York, New Haven and Hartford R. R.

Eastern District.

On and after July 1st, 1898, trains will run as follows: (See note of explanation at bottom.

TO BOSTON. Leave Quincy.	Stops at	Arrive Boston.	FROM BOSTON. Leave Boston.	Stops at	Arrive Quincy
r 6 12	abc	6 30	5 55	ihgfedcba*	6 22 r
r 6 42	abc	7 00	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	7 30	cba	7 49 r
r 7 26	ad	7 43	8 30	cba	8 49 r
r 7 42	abc	8 00	9 30	cba	9 49 r
r 8 12	abc	8 30	10 30	cba	10 49 r
r 8 26	ad	8 43	11 30	cba	11 49 r
r 8 42	abc	9 00	12 30	cba	12 49 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	1 30	cba	1 49 r
r 10 12	abc	10 30	2 30	cba	2 49 r
r 11 12	abc	11 30	3 30	cba	3 49 r
r 12 12	abc	12 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
r 1 12	abc	1 30	5 00	cba	5 19 r
r 2 12	abc	2 30	5 17	da	5 36 r
r 3 12	abc	3 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
r 4 12	abc	4 30	6 00	cba	6 19 r
r 5 12	abc	5 30	6 17	da	6 36 r
r 6 12	abc	6 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	7 00	cba	7 19 r
r 7 39	abcdefghi	8 05	7 30	cba	7 49 r
r 8 08	abcdef	8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	9 30	cba	9 49 r
r 10 08	abcdef	10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r
r 11 12	abc	11 30	11 30	cba	11 49 r

SUNDAYS.

r 7 12	abc	7 30	6 30	cba	6 r
r 8 12	abc	8 30	8 30	cba	8 49 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	12 30	cba	12 49 r
r 1 12	abc	1 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
r 5 12	abc	5 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 8 08	abcdef	8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
r 10 08	abcdef	10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r

*The letters in the same line as the figures stand for different stations and indicate that trains stop, as follows:

a, Wollaston, g, Savin Hill.
b, Norfolk Downs. h, Crescent Avenue.
c, Atlantic. i, South Boston.
d, Neponset.
e, Pope's Hill, r, Quincy Adams.
f, Harrison Square. (xx), Express.

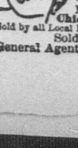

C PETER CLARK, Gen'l Supt. A. C. KENDALL G. P. A

Chichester's English Diamond Brand.

PENNYROYAL PILLS

Original and Only Genuine.

SAFE, ALWAYS reliable. LADIES ask Druggist for Chichester's English Diamond Brand in Red and Gold metallic boxes, sealed with blue ribbon. Take no other. Refuse dangerous substitutions and imitations. At Druggists, or send 4c. in stamps for particulars, testimonials and "Relief for Ladies," in letter, by return Mail. 10,000 Testimonials. Name Paper. Chichester Chemical Co., Madison Square, PHILADA., PA.

Sold by all Local Druggists. Sold by Geo. C. Goodwin & Co., General Agents. Boston, Mass

QUINCY DAILY LEDGER.

VOL. 10. No. 36. QUINCY, MASS., TUESDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1898. PRICE 2 CENTS.

All goods are delivered FREE at residences in Quincy.

Carpets and Upholstery FOR Residences, Churches, Hotels, Steamers, etc., etc.

Our stock is by far the largest in Boston, and includes many private patterns obtainable nowhere else.

Our prices are always at the bottom of the market.

JOHN H. PRAY, SONS & CO.,
658 Washington St., Boston.
(Opposite Boylston St.)

Represented in Quincy by Mr. Otho A. Hayward.

NOTICE EXTRAORDINARY.

MRS. B. CRAVENS, the Expert Demonstrator of

"HER MAJESTY'S CORSET,"

will fill a special one week's engagement at our store, commencing Oct. 10th and ending Oct. 15th Mrs. Cravens will be glad to explain the merits of this Celebrated Corset and give fittings, thus illustrating its superiority over others.

We desire it to be distinctly understood that ladies will not be expected to purchase a Corset after a fitting is made unless they so desire.

"Her Majesty's Corset" is Not the Cheapest, but the Best.

☞ "Her Majesty's Corset" in Fit, Wear and Comfort is unsurpassed. It is worn by well dressed women. Endorsed by Physicians and Modistes.

D. E. WADSWORTH & CO.,
Hancock Street, Quincy.

ONE-TON ORDERS

Have been the making of this Coal business. Hundreds have ordered "just one ton to see if there was any difference." They found there was and they came again. Our one-ton orders have been our best advertisements. It's a better Coal at the same price, with the proof in a sample ton. When in doubt, try Patch's.

C. PATCH & SON.

NOTHING BETTER,

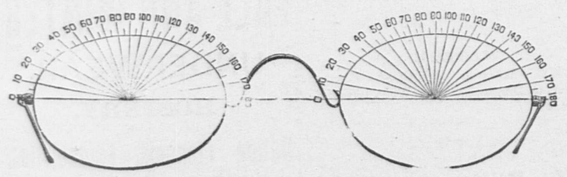

UNCLE SAM'S NAVY

Now commands the respect of the world, and we are all proud of the defenders of the Nation's Honor. To give the people of Quincy a good idea of the grand battleships, we have ordered a large supply of portfolios, giving magnificent views of the ships, crews, etc.

With each purchase made at our store we will give a portfolio check to the value of the purchase. When you have $4.00 worth of these checks, return them and get a portfolio. Continue in this way until you have the set complete. Call and see these magnificent portfolios.

ROGERS BROS.,

Groceries and Provisions. Adams Building, Quincy.

ASTIGMATISM

Causes most of the distressing headaches. Properly fitted glasses will correct the error and remove the pain. Consult

WILLIAMS,

Member of the New England Association of Opticians,
104 Hancock St., Quincy.

A. J. DURAND,
Piano Tuning, etc.
19 Coddington St., Quincy.
Highly recommended by Chickering & Sons, and prominent Boston musicians.
Sept. 20. 1m

E. W. SHACKFORD,
PAPER HANGER,
Quincy, Mass.
☞ Orders left with W. DAVENPORT, or T. B. DAVENPORT.
Sept. 14. 1m

TELEGRAPHIC.

3 O'CLOCK.

SESSION OF WAR BOARD

Three Witnesses Heard on Camp Conditions.

Admissions by a Major as to Deficiencies.

Responsibility For Conditions Due to Other Than Official Causes.

Washington, Oct. 11.—Of the three witnesses who appeared Monday before the commission on the conduct of the war—Captain Culver of Grigsby's rough riders, Dr. Hysell, a surgeon at Camp Thomas, and Major Gallagher, who was in charge of commissary depots in Santiago and Montauk—only Gallagher admitted the existence of conditions not conducive to the welfare of officers and men. His testimony was so qualified, however, as to place the responsibility upon the operations of nature.

Captain Howell interrupted the proceedings to inquire the object of the examination of Witness Culver, to which General Beaver, who was conducting the examination, replied that it was to show what the different bureaus of the war department had done, and how they did it, and he thought the inquiry very pertinent. To this Mr. Howell responded: "The proper men from whom to secure this information are the officers who supplied the equipment."

This explanation satisfied Howell and the investigation proceeded.

Captain Culver stated that at one time 22 of his men were sick. He thought the proportion not excessive—no greater than during the first days of the civil war, and until the men learned to depend upon the army ration and not to go outside for food. He thought the pies sold to the men were unwholesome, and also that much stale chicken was sold to them. In conclusion Captain Culver said he had no complaint to make of treatment except in the location of his troops in the woods. He had protested against this.

At the afternoon session the committee examined Major Hugh J. Gallagher. He had served as depot commissary at Siboney, San Juan and Santiago, and recently occupied this position at Montauk Point, having been made chief commissary of General Shafter's corps. The rations, he said, were forwarded almost as rapidly as they were landed. Only very small quantities could be accumulated, yet the commissary, during his stay at Siboney, had been able to meet all requisitions made for rations by the troops. He heard no complaint of lack of rations at the front. At first they were able to forward about 30,000 rations per day. From Siboney the depot was moved to El Poso, seven miles distant, and at this point there were never enough rations on hand for even a day ahead, and it was impossible to fill all the requisitions. There was a shortage in coffee and sugar, which continued for two or three days. It was due to the difficulty in landing supplies because of the high surf at Siboney. All the rations were good, but in some cases the hard bread would be injured by sudden showers. When this happened the bread was thrown aside and not issued. After El Poso was reached the officers were supplied with the same rations that were given the men. This was against the law, as rations are not supplied to officers, but the emergency made the distribution to them necessary.

Major Gallagher said there was one instance when the canned roast beef spoiled, and it was destroyed. Some potatoes, onions and tomatoes were also thrown away at Santiago for the same reason.

There was a shortage of lighters, but the major was not able to say why this was so. Speaking of the facilities for landing the men in Cuba, he expressed the opinion that if the war were to be fought over again a large supply of lighters should be furnished. In addition to the American army the refugees were also fed. No effort was made to give the full ration, but articles were sent to them as could be spared from our own troops. He thought enough was given to supply 2000 men. After his depot was located at Santiago there was no shortage. While at this point the Spanish prisoners were also supplied from the general depot, as were some of the citizens of the place. Giving his opinion as to the ration, Major Gallagher said it had too much meat in it for a tropical climate. The men seemed to demand more tomatoes and rice than they received. On one occasion it had been necessary to issue green coffee to men on the firing lines, but the issue had only been for a day, and the emergency was unavoidable. He thought the ration should contain more dried and canned fruits, and also rice and syrup, and there should be more tea and coffee.

Colonel Denby pressed for information as to the shortage of coffee and sugar, and Major Gallagher stated that there were probably two days when the men were without these articles. He said the storm was the immediate cause of this deficiency, but that if there had been a sufficiency of lighters this difficulty would not have occurred. The major said there was not to his knowledge a shortage in any any other article of food during the campaign.

Mr. Denby told him there was a complaint of deficiency covering a month's time, but Major Gallagher said he knew nothing of it.

"Suppose," said General McCook, "this shortage of rations had lasted for seven days instead of two, what would have been the result?"

"We would probably have had to fall back," replied Major Gallagher. "Men cannot fight on short rations." It was General Shafter's orders that no formal requisitions for rations should be required and that food should be given to those needing it. Gallagher had applied for extra stores aboard the Grand Duchese, lying in Santiago harbor, but the application had not been favorably considered, for the reason that the vessel was needed for transporting troops to Camp Wikoff.

General Beaver received a letter from Mrs. Hugh Lange of Brooklyn, who participated in the relief work at Montauk Point, relating to her interview with President McKinley when he visited Camp Wikoff. She was reported to have said to the president that some of the men were "carried out in a dying condition in order to get rid of them." This, she says, she did not say, but she asked if, in passing through the wards, the president noticed the number of empty cots. He replied that he had noticed them, and then she requested him to ask why the men were without care in the detention and in some of the regimental hospitals. The letter continues: "I will also ask you to go back of the conditions at the time General Wheeler arrived, and investigate why no preparation was made to receive and care for our sick and suffering soldiers. I never saw more devoted or more self-sacrificing work under the most trying conditions, or greater patience and perseverance than was always exhibited by the executive officers of Camp Wikoff, particularly Major Heiseman, Major Brown and Major Thomasson. The sanitary condition at the general hospital was appalling until the general police work was taken up by Lieutenant Durfee of the Second en-

Army Changes.

Washington, Oct. 11.—Major General Joseph C. Breckenridge will return to duty Nov. 30 as inspector general of the army. It is understood that there will be other changes in the commands of army corps stationed in the south. General Wheeler, who will command the Fourth corps, stated before leaving Washington that he expected to resume his seat in the house soon after the beginning of the session. General Graham, who is to command the Second corps, has retired as a brigadier general, and the question has arisen whether he shall be continued longer in the volunter service. The attorney general has rendered an opinion that there is no reason why he should not, but there is a feeling among army officers that it is not altogether fair to the younger men, who should have an opportunity to secure higher commands. It is altogether likely that Generals Bates and Chaffee later on will succeed to the command of the Second and Fourth corps, and General Wilson will continue to command the First corps.

Yellow Fever Situation.

Washington, Oct. 11.—Surgeon-General Wyman of the marine hospital service and Acting Secretary of the Treasury Spalding had a conference yesterday concerning the yellow fever situation in the south, with special reference to the appeal of the governor of Mississippi for aid. It was decided that the government could not undertake to extend aid in the form of subsistence and nurses to individual families in which there were cases of fever. In the detention camps, however, physicians, nurses and supplies will be supplied as a measure to prevent the spread of the disease. Guards will be furnished for the same purpose. Physicians of the marine hospital service are under instructions to do all in their power for people suffering from the fever. The government will leave nothing undone that could be done properly to prevent the further spread of the disease, or to aid those who were victims of it.

Empress Dowager a Tyrant.

London, Oct. 11.—The Pekin correspondent of the Times says: "The retrograde movement spreads. An imperial edict orders the suppression of the native press and the punishment of the editors. It also cancels all the new methods of examination promulgated during the last 12 months. The latter step must give general satisfaction, since the proposed changes were too radical for the people.

"All officials who have signed memorials in favor of reform have been dismissed from office. The board of agriculture is abolished, its president being deprived of his rank. A memorial impeaches him as a 'slave of foreign devils.'"

The News of Beantown.

Boston, Oct. 11.—Twenty-five members of the Massachusetts Press association dined here yesterday, and later held a business meeting. Six applications for membership were accepted after some discussion as to the advisability of receiving as members those who are neither editors nor owners of papers in the state.

At the American House last evening the Maine and Connecticut roller polo league delegates held a conference regarding a plan for mutual protection. Committees from each league were appointed to consider the matter at greater length.

Shot and Stabbed.

Selins Grove, Pa., Oct. 11.—Daisy Smith, aged 16 years, a daughter of Henry Smith, a wealthy farmer of Boile's Run, near here, was found murdered in a field near her home. Her body was riddled with shot and there was a gaping knife wound in her throat. The affair is mysterious.

William Krissinger, an ex-convict, was arrested tonight on suspicion of being the assassin. It is thought the murderer attempted to assault the girl and meeting with resistance killed her.

JOHN EVANS,
Auctioneer and Appraiser.
Prompt Settlement.
24 COPELAND STREET, QUINCY.
Feb. 26. tf

☞ Carpets thoroughly cleaned in our electric beater. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

LAND VALUES

A Transcript From the Books of the Assessors.

Number of Feet in Each Lot and Valuation Thereof.

Also the Amount of Each Person's Tax Bill for 1898.

[Continued from yesterday.]

Something new in the publication of the taxpayers of the city is attempted this year by the Daily Ledger. There is considerable interest in the assessed value of land in the city, which is claimed to be high in some cases and low in others. So the Ledger has supplemented the amount of the tax bill in each ward with the value of each lot of land for which the person is taxed, giving in each case the number of square feet or acreage.

The amount given in the line with the person's name is his total ward tax, and may include houses, personal property, etc., in addition to the lots of land below. The Ledger gives only the valuation of the land.

To obtain a person's total tax in the city, add together the amounts paid in the several wards.

The Ledger commenced the publication Aug. 30, and has already published the land values of all persons whose names begin with A to K, and today's instalment is the second of the Ls:

WARD ONE.

Valuation of Land Only.	Total Ward Tax.
Land on Quarry street, $300.
Lindquist, Oscar F.	$9 00
5,739 feet, Whitwell street, $500.
Linnehan, Dennis	24 30
1.11 acres, Gas place, $700.
Littlefield, Nellie A.	81 00
8,410, Ratchford, $300.
3,810, " $200.
52,504, Sea, $2,600.
Livermore, George K., heirs,	124 20
14,315, Spear, $2,200.
6,616, Canal, $500.
Ljungguist, E. Edward	3 60
Land off Quarry, $50.
Loddengard, Nils	32 40
12,795, Deldorf, } $400.
1,096, " }
Lombard, Joseph W., est.,	63 45
15,000, Hancock, $2,225.
Loud, Angeline,	111 60
16,900, Washington, $3,400.
Loud, Francis P.	25 40
4,047, Fort, $400.

WARD TWO.

Lincoln, Thomas W., est.,	203 60
14,488, Washington, $800.
Lincoln, Thomas W., Jr.,	59 60
21,400, Washington, $1,200.
10,007, " $500.
Litchfield, Amos M,	95 85
5,000, South Walnut, $250.
10,077, " " $500.
9,405, Main, $475.
Litchfield, Ira	52 20
5,462, Washington, $400.
Loring, J. A., trs.,	140 40
Lowe, Mrs. M. E.	23 40
5,400, Washington, $300.
Lyons, John	43 20
24,700, Quincy ave., $800.
Lyons Timothy, est.,	124 20
15,153, off Quincy ave., $2,000.

WARD THREE.

Lindburg, Olif P.	36 90
5,200, Trafford, $250.
Liner, Mrs. Patrick	4 50
14,200, Mt. Pleasant, $450.
Litchfield, Amos M.	83 90
10,400, Marsh, $850.
Litchfield, A. L.	67 05
1-4 acre, Quincy, $800.
Litchfield, Elwood N.	55 55
4,087, Quincy ave., $450.
Litchfield, Ira	90 65
6,450, Pearl, $500.
1-4 acre, Pearl, $700.
Litchman, Fannie	50 40
9,885, Water, $700.
Long & Saunders	90 00
9,000, off Penn, $900.
Lorando, Ida	37 80
6,000, Gilbert, $300.
Lorando, Sydney, heirs,	31 50
6,000, Nightingale ave., $350.

Continued on page 3.

Royal makes the food pure, wholesome and delicious.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

Gentlemen, Buy Your....

OVERCOATS

Where you can find the best assortment in the city and the lowest prices, which is at

C. F. DERBY'S, SAVINGS BANK BUILDING, QUINCY. 5-1m

MILLINERY.

Grand Opening Oct. 5, 6, 7,
OF CHOICE
FALL and WINTER MILLINERY,
Consisting of Imported French Hats and Millinery Novelties.
You are cordially invited to call and inspect the same.

E. B. COLLINS,
4 Faxon Block, Quincy, Mass.
☞ NO CARDS.
Oct. 4. 6t

Parlor Stove Talk

It isn't because people don't know or don't care, it's because they don't think and are neglectful that colds are caught and sickness of a more serious nature is contracted. A pinch of prevention is worth a barrel of care.

It doesn't pay to sit in cold, damp rooms and become chilled during the cool fall evenings. Take no chances, buy a parlor stove now, get the good of it and protect your health.

Our parlor stoves are attractive, serviceable, economical to run, and will keep you warm. That's something to think about, but that's not all, they are wonderfully low in price, $2.90 to $25.00—that's something to dream about.

HENRY L. KINCAIDE & CO.
Reliable, Low Priced House Furnishers.
Hancock Street, - - - Quincy, Mass.

The John Hancock Stables.
Opposite Depot, Quincy, Mass.
Boarding, Baiting, Livery and Sale.
DR. J. A. DOW, Proprietor,
the well known Veterinary dentist and specialist in the treatment of lame horses. Sick horses treated at owner's risk.
The finest equipped and managed stable of its size in America.
Fine driving turnouts in light rigs; safe and good appearing. All horses let are perfectly safe for ladies to drive.
The choicest family, road and coach horses constantly on hand for sale. All horses guaranteed as represented.
☞ Will attend to veterinary practice as usual. aug18-1y

E. S. BECKFORD,
Electrician.
Wiring and Fitting for Incandescent, Motors, Dynamos, Bells, etc.
GRANITE STREET, Near the Bridge, QUINCY
Feb. 1 1y

BOYS' SUITS THAT SUIT BOYS

Grand Clearance Sale of Boys'
SCHOOL SUITS,
$1.50 to $3.50.
Worth Double the Price.

School begins Tuesday and your boy wants something new. Drop in to our store tonight and see how little money it takes to dress him handsomely.

Granite Clothing Co.
DURGIN & MERRILL'S BLOCK.

DISSATISFIED BUYERS OF HATS
Can best be suited by buying
CHAMBERLAIN'S BEACONSFIELD $3.00 DERBY,
OR HIS
REVELATION $2.00 DERBY.
They hold their Shape and Color.

663 WASHINGTON STREET, BOSTON.
Opposite Beach Street.
Hats and Furnishings.
Sept. 15 L 17-4w o

ALBERT J. BOWERS
OPTICIAN
ADAMS BUILDING OVER POST OFFICE QUINCY MASS.

DR. RALPH M. FOGG,
DENTIST.
Teeth extracted absolutely without pain by the use of the
"BOSTON VEGETABLE VAPOR."
It is claimed that, while it has the required properties of ether, chloroform, nitrous oxide gas, it lacks the disagreeable and dangerous qualities of these drugs. It is certainly a boon to suffering humanity to be relieved of the nausea too often following the administering of sedatives of the old school.—Boston Transcript.
Teeth made and repaired on Gold or Rubber base. Teeth Filling a specialty.
Office in French's Building, five doors south of Post Office, Quincy, Wednesdays. Hours, 9 A. M. to 9 P. M. July18-1y Nov8-1yo

By FRANK F. CRANE, - Auctioneer.
Office, 4 Chestnut Street, Quincy.

AUCTION SALE
OF THE
ATTRACTIVE REAL ESTATE
OF THE LATE
MICHAEL GOODHUE,
No. 40 Phipps Street,
TUESDAY, OCT. 18th,
At 3 O'clock P. M.

THIS Estate consists of a Modern House of nine rooms, there is a good stable on the premises, about one acre of land having a very large frontage on Phipps street. The estate contains a variety of shade and fruit trees, an extra fine lot of grapes and currants. Also a fine well containing an excellent quality of water. The buildings are in good repair and the estate is very desirable as a residence or for investment.

Sale Positive, rain or shine.

Terms: $100.00 at sale, balance in ten days.

For further information apply to the auctioneer.

Quincy, Oct. 5—10t 8p—1w

By FRANK F. CRANE, - Auctioneer.
Office, 4 Chestnut street, Quincy.

AUCTION SALE
— OF —
HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE
Carpenters' Tools, Lumber, etc.,
At the Residence of
ERNEST G. BACON,
Clark Street, Atlantic,
Thursday, Oct. 13th,

at 1.30 o'clock P. M., consisting of Black Walnut Marble Top Chamber Set, Ash Chamber Set, Oak Folding Bed, lot of odd Chairs, Baby Carriage, Croquet Set, Kitchen Goods, lot of Hot Bed Sash, Window Frames, a good Hand Cart, Wheelbarrow, Garden Tools, lot of good Posts, 6 or 8 good ladders, set of Painters' Falls, some good White-wood, odd Desk, and a large variety of small articles too numerous to mention.

Sale positive, rain or shine. Terms cash.

Oct. 8. 4t

By FRANK F. CRANE, - Auctioneer.
Office, 4 Chestnut St., Quincy.

AUCTION SALE
OF THE
Real Estate
— OF —
OWEN H. OWENS, 121 Granite St.,
SATURDAY, Oct. 15th,
2 o'clock P. M.

Consists of a Cottage House of 7 rooms, about one-half acre of land.

This estate is very desirable, either as a home or for investment.

Sale positive, rain or shine.

Terms: $100 at sale. Balance in 10 days at the office of Geo. H. Brown, Adams Building. For further particulars apply to George H. Brown.

oct 5 8 11 12 13 14 8 1wp

By FRANK F. CRANE, - - Auctioneer.
Office, 4 Chestnut St., Quincy.

Auction Sale
— OF —
TWO DESIRABLE
HOUSES
Billings Street,
ATLANTIC, MASS.,
Saturday, Oct. 15th
At 3.30 and 4.30, respectively.

AT 3.30 P. M. we shall offer a modern house of 10 rooms and bath and 4.500 feet of land, the second house on the right from Prospect street. This is a new house, has never been occupied, has oak floor in front hall, oak staircase, all the finish on the first floor is hard wood, frescoed ceilings, nicely papered, open plumbing, concrete cellar, and is fitted for a furnace. Has open fireplaces, good closet room and city water. The location is high and dry, the neighborhood is excellent and the house is within 3 minutes of railroad, electric cars, postoffice, churches, schools, and stores. The house can be seen at any time before the sale by applying to Mr. Geo. V. Bryant at the adjoining house now building at the corner of Prospect and Billings streets.

Terms: $100.00 at sale, balance in ten days at the office of Geo. H. Brown, Trustee, Adams Building, Quincy.

At 4.30 P. M. we shall offer one of the most desirable and attractive houses that has ever been sold in this city, located on Billings street, near Squantum street, 5,746 sq. ft. of land. Electric cars pass the house; 7 rooms and bath; fine piazza, elegant reception room, oak floor, open fire places, electric light, set range, laundry, furnace, first-class hardware all over the house, extra large bath room, fine paper hangings, large attic that could be finished into two chambers if desired, good closet room, large pantry. This house is a gem and must be seen to be appreciated; 6 minutes from R. R, stores, churches, etc.

Terms: $100 at sale; balance in ten days at the office of George H. Brown, Trustee, Adams Building, Quincy.

Oct. 7—6t 8-1wp

TEETH EXTRACTED.
No Pain or Danger.

Safer than vapor. Money paid for extracting goes towards teeth to be inserted. I am the only dentist in the city using the Painless Preparation for Extraction.

DR. C. B. UNDERWOOD,
9 Spear St. Rear of Public Library

☞ Hundreds of Lamps to choose from, the very newest and latest notions are here for your inspection; 25c. to $10.00. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

Quincy Daily Ledger
ESTABLISHED IN 1889.

The ONLY DAILY in Norfolk County Massachusetts.

Published Every Evening, Sundays and Holidays Excepted, At No. 115 HANCOCK ST., City of Quincy, Mass., by

GEORGE W. PRESCOTT & SON.
Successors to Green & Prescott.

Subscription Price, $6.00 per year.

☞ A discount of $1 when paid in advance.

ALSO PUBLISHERS OF

The Quincy Patriot,
A Weekly Established in 1837, which has the Largest Circulation in Norfolk County, and

The Braintree Observer,
A Weekly Established in 1878.

TELEPHONE, 78-3 QUINCY.

Quincy Temperature at Noon.

	This Week.	Last Week.	In 1897.	In 1896.
Sunday	66	64	68	51
Monday	53	76	54	51
Tuesday	75	85	65	50
Wednesday	—	63	78	52
Thursday	--	64	66	50
Friday	—	61	60	54
Saturday	—	61	75	50

New Advertisements Today.
Geo. W. Jones—Sweaters.
W. E. Nightingale—Variety store.
Quincy Clothing Co.
Miss B. J. Patterson—Fall millinery.
For sale or to let—Nash's Hotel.
Capable girl wanted.
Half house to let.

Good Afternoon.

If Quincy loses its great shore boulevard, which has been within her grasp, it will be a severe commentary on some of her citizens who hold public office. To let a great public work of that nature slip out of our hands without a fight, will be a crime to ourselves as well as to future generations.

The building of that boulevard means the ultimate adding of thousands of dollars to our taxable valuation, enriching our city not only by beautiful residences which in time would be built upon or adjacent to it, but by throwing open to the vast public for all time our beaches, where the people have untrammelled access.

Quincy's future depends upon its adaptibility as a residential suburb of Boston The most feasible and profitable thing for Quincy is to encourage the building up of a well-to-do community. Realty in large quantities that is assessed from $5,000 to $20,000, makes a formidable showing and assists materially in keeping the tax rate down.

But in order to encourage extensive residential co-operations it is necessary to have besides the necessities of life, such as water, sewers and electric lights, that which might be short-sightedly called luxuries, good roads and sidewalks, boulevards and parks. These add to the attractiveness of a place, and when we start into the race and propose to compete with such places as Brookline, Milton, and the Newtons, they become absolute necessities. Why should strangers in casting about for a site for a new home care about settling in a place where everything is run in a slip-shod manner.

Let our public officials be made to understand that if they desire to hold office they must be competent to grapple with these question in an intelligent manner and see that Quincy gets her dues.

THERE IS A CLASS OF PEOPLE
Who are injured by the use of coffee. Recently there has been placed in all the grocery stores a new preparation called GRAIN-O, made of pure grains, that takes the place of coffee. The most delicate stomach receives it without distress, and but few can tell it from coffee. It does not cost over 1-4 as much. Children may drink it with great benefit. 15 cts. and 25 cts. per package. Try it. Ask for GRAIN-O.

At the Turnout
On Water street you will find the variety store under new management. Cigars, Tobacco, Fruits, Newspapers, and 1,001 other things.

W. E. NIGHTINGALE,
80 Water Street.
Oct. 11—4t

STENOGRAPHY AND TYPEWRITING,
BOOKKEEPING,
And All Clerical Work.
MISSES A. B. and E. M. COTE,
Room 12 Durgin & Merrill Block, - Quincy.
Oct. 10. tf

WILLIAM E. BAXTER, M. D.
Practice Limited to the
EYE AND EAR.
553 Boylston St., Boston.
QUINCY—Monday and Friday.
Hours, 9 to 11. 195 Hancock Street
May 21. 1y

MABEL F. FAIRBANKS
TEACHER OF
CHINA PAINTING and WATERCOLOR.
China Decorated to Order.
34 Grand View Avenue, Wollaston.
Sept. 29. 3m

THE CITY CUUNCIL.

Many Out to Oppose Boynton Railway.

Hearing Wanted on the Boulevard Issue.

Favorable Report on the State Highway but a Hitch.

Resolved— The Mayor is hereby requested to ask the Metropolitan Park Commission to give a public hearing on the proposed Quincy boulevard, and that a Committee of Six, one of whom shall be the President of the Council, be appointed to attend said hearing.

This was the important order introduced at the meeting of the City Council last evening by Councilman Parker, and passed unanimously. The committee appointed are: President Pinkham, Councilmen Parker, Willard, Clark, McGrath and Owen.

Messrs. Badger Merrick and Nash were the only absentees.

The advertised public hearing on the first petition of the Boston, Quincy and Fall River Bicyle railroad served to draw a gathering of representative citizens at this meeting, and while all did not participate in the hearing, it was evident that the sentiment was against the building of the line, especially upon either of the locations asked for.

AUTOMATIC WHISTLE.

The Mayor forwarded a communication relative to the need of better fire alarm service at Wollaston. At present the whistle at the Tubular Rivet & Stud work is pulled by hand, which occasions some delay as the engineer must wait until the first round has been sounded on the bells before he can sound the whistle. The communication further stated that the Chief Engineer had obtained an estimated cost of connecting the whistle with the circuit, which was $395. To Committe on Fire Department.

PETITIONS.

Several petitions for State aid and licenses were received and referred.

A petition was received from Mary E. Thorp that Blake street between Hancock and Morton streets be accepted as a public way. Under the rules this was referred to the next Council. Later in the evening upon motion of Councilman Jameson the rules were suspended and the petition was refered to the Committee on Streets.

A petition was received from W. W. Dornan and others that School street be widened and straightened between Marsh and Pleasant streets. Referred under the new rule to the next Council. Later an effort to suspend the rules in favor of the petition was defeated.

A petition was received that Walker street be extended. Rules suspended and order referred to Committee on streets.

BOYNTON RAILWAY.

At this hour the public hearing was called. Mr. Boynton had not arrived and a gentlemen in the audience requested a postponement until the train arrived. A recess of ten minutes was declared and the joint Committee on Finance and Streets retired to prepare a report on the order for $1,500 for drains on Washington street.

When again called to order it was seen that Mr. Boynton had not arrived. No one spoke in favor of the petition for a location and the remonstrants were heard.

Gus. B. Bates was opposed to granting the location. First, because it deprived him of his home and business, and again, because he did not believe it necessary to have the line so near the N. Y., N. H. & H. R. R. For the best interest of the City the location should not be granted.

Councilman Jameson asked if he objected to the location or the railroad?

Mr. Bates replied he had no objection to the railroad if it did not strike the heart of the city. It looked to him like a flying machine on wheels and he did not think it a public necessity. With the completion of the new Union station Quincy would have better service.

In reply to Councilman Nicolls, Mr. Bates said he had no recollections of telling the committee he thought it would be a benefit to the city.

In reply to another question by the same Councilman, Mr. Bates said the line was going through his home now in the process of erection.

Edwin W. Marsh asked if this was dead or live issue, as he had seen a plan of another location.

President Pinkham replied that there was another petition which the road preferred.

Mr. Marsh then said, as a life long resident of Marsh street, he objected to the road going through that street. It is entirely too narrow. If it was too narrow for a street railway as once contemplated it certainly is too narrow for this. Before the location is granted something should be found out as to what is to be done. There was not an engineer that would lay out a railroad on the second plan and he did not believe a survey was ever made.

Luther S. Anderson opposed, as he did not believe it a true location. The location if granted should follow the New Haven road or at some distance from it. This running around house corners was a detriment. If built it should be in a place where it will give the least trouble.

Brooks Adams objected to both locations, especially the one now before the Council, because such a railroad as this passing by houses must destroy entirely the value of property. If it amounts to anything it means an elevated railway with cars running at a rate of two miles a minute and it would make a house, unless, for people could not get out of their doors in safety. As this line passed within a few feet of his gateway it would shut off his entrance and for residential purposes his house would be useless. It should pass through some portion where it will not be a detriment to property. It was little short of injustice to put such an affair directly in front of people's houses or through their yards. He did not think the city was ready to grant a location through its centre where as far as we know it is impracticable.

Before anything was done it should be put somewhere where it will not cause inconvenience.

In response to Councilman Jameson Mr. Adams said he had never seen the road. The line passed within a few feet of his house. He could not see that anybody in Quincy would be benefited by it. Next year we are to have fifteen minute service to Boston. He did not understand that the Boynton road had a right to go beyond the Neponset river.

A gentlemen in the audience said that the road had a location in Boston to Dudley street.

Ex-Mayor C. F. Adams said while Mayor, Mr. Boynton wanted to work up a little sentiment in Quincy, and I locked up the matter some. Men who have seen a piece of road built report it was not advantageous. The scheme has been before us for years but we do not find a railroad man who believes in it. When Mr. Boynton comes here wih a company with something behind it, then it will be time to consider the advisability of giving it a location. It would be unfortunate to force us to give a location through our towns. Mr. Boynton went to the Legislature many times before he got his charter, and now he asks the very best location in his interest that he can get.

We want to be convinced that we can get better service than now. If he can show that he can bring you a real system then it is time enough. Presidents Hill is the best residential part of Quincy. How many are coming here to build with that railroad there. In closing Mr. Adams counseled the council to see to it that the road goes where it will be for the best interest of the city not the corporation.

Richard D. Chase could simply endorse what had been said. There is nothing tangible about it. It has not been tried and we know nothing of it. We should not be asked to waste time until it is put in more practicable form.

Representative Thompson told of the fight before the Legislature. It is not what we understand as an elevated road. It is a one stilt affair, that was utterly impossible to locate in the centre of the street, and if placed on side of street would destroy all trees. Mr. Boynton asks that he may be given a reasonably direct route. The bill requires that he shall build twenty miles in the first two years. That time expires next June. He had not the least fear that the road would ever be

Continued on page 3.

ARE YOU WEDDED TO ANY PARTICULAR STORE?
Or Do You Seek the Place
Where the BEST GOODS can be Found at the LOWEST PRICES.

We Don't Claim to Know Much About Shoes or Groceries, but

WE HAVE MADE A STUDY OF CLOTHING FOR YEARS.

We were brought up in the business. It is the only business at which we have ever worked. We have a buyer in the market every day and he should surely know what is going on. We never buy a thing because it looks better than it is. We never buy a shoddy garment because it looks to be all wool, but buy goods that not only look well to begin with but stay looking well to end with.

THE OVERCOATS AND SUITS WE ARE SHOWING ARE ALL 1898 GOODS,

and not goods of last season. They are made of good, honest Kerseys, Meltons, Coverts, Cassimeres and Worsteds, and we guarantee every garment to be honest before and honest beyond. (Before you buy it and beyond the time you've had your money's worth.)

OUR OVERCOATS COMMENCE AT $5.00 AND END AT $20.00, AND OUR SUITS AT $4.98 AND END AT $16.50,
And They Are ALL WOOL (Mind You.)

If You Do Not Save 10 to 25 per cent. We will Pay You Your Money Back.

QUINCY CLOTHING CO.,
QUINCY'S RELIABLE CLOTHIERS,
MUSIC HALL BLOCK.

LOCAL NEWS TRACK.

Some Colts which are Sure Winners Every Heat.

Rather cold last night.

Two weddings tonight.

Munroe Crane, Esq., of New York, visited in town this week.

Mr. Richard J. Larkin of Hancock street is reported sick with typhoid fever.

Work on excavating for the sewer on Brook street, Wollaston, has commenced.

Probate court for Norfolk County will be held in this city tomorrow, Wednesday.

Brother Faxon of Quincy is still the stormy Petrel of Republican conventions.—Globe.

George W. Jones makes a leader of sweaters this week, and makes a good window display.

Dr. George H. Tuttle is home from the camp at Fort Thomas, on a two weeks' furlough.

Painters are scraping the exterior of Bethany church prior to painting. Gullickson & Sons will do the job.

The fakirs will have to find a new place to sell their goods, as a fence is to be erected on Temple street. The public has encroached considerably on the abutters.

Regular trips of the Houghs Neck line of the street railway will be discontinued after next Sunday, except at morning, noon and night, when one trip will be run each way.

Newcomb Square at the Neck, is being overhauled this week, large stones are being used for paving a new sidewalk and there is a large drain pipe to carry off water. The street is being widened at foot of hill.

Mr. Arthur H. Doble, who is in the Roach pond region of the Maine woods, has shot three deer, two of them being killed in one day. His brother, D. E. E. Doble, and Mr. Joseph W. Johnson, are with him.

Mr. Leon H. Vincent of Philadelphia lectured before a large audience on Monday evening at the Wollaston Congregational church under the auspices of the Ladies' Benevolent society on "William Dean Howells."

Miss Anna Granahan of Atlantic, entertained her little friends at her home on Old Colony street, Saturday afternoon, the occasion being her seventh birthday. A pleasant time was had, and greatly enjoyed by the little ones.

The Misses Cote, who have opened an office in the D. & M. block, are qualified by experience to do stenography, typewriting and bookkeeping, and such an office will be a convenience in Quincy, where typewriting is coming more and more into use.

The annual 100 mile run of the Boston Bicycle club was held on Saturday in conjunction with the Boston Athletic Association both events being under the direction of Dr. W. G. Kendall of Atlantic. The riding time for the 100 miles was exactly eight hours.

Mr. E. W. Branch, as Superintendent of Bethany Sunday school, is receiving many congratulations. The school last Sunday in attendance broke all former records reaching 452. The growth in efficiency has been as rapid as in numbers. The school is carefully graded and the corps of teachers of the very best. One of the most interesting departments is the kindergarten where about twenty of the little people meet each Sunday.

☞ It makes the coal man blue when he hears you've bought a Glenwood Range—$18.00 to $33.00. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

SWEATERS.

We think we can show you the best assortment of Sweaters to be found in the city.

BOYS' SAILOR COLLAR, GARNET OR NAVY BLUE,	$ .50
" " " " " " "	.75
" " " " " " "	1.00
" ROLL " " " " "	1.00
MEN'S SAILOR " " " " "	2.00
" " " " " " "	2.50

Look at Our Window Display.

GEO. W. JONES,
Adams Building, Quincy.

"Please Pass the Salt."

You often lay the fault to the salt shaker when the salt won't sift out. In nine cases out of ten you may blame the salt itself—it cakes!

Crystaline Salt won't cake because all the moisture has been dried out by intense heat. It is all salt—pure salt crystals.

It is not an "earthy" salt—there is too much dirt in ordinary salt because it is simply ground and not sifted as it ought to be.

CRYSTALINE SALT--- 8 CENTS.

BOSTON BRANCH GROCERY,
Durgin & Merrill's Block, - Quincy.

MISS HAYWARD'S
DANCING CLASS
WILL MEET IN Colonial Hall,
— ON —
THURSDAY AFTERNOON
From Four until Six O'clock.

MATRONS:
Mrs. Walter Babcock, Mrs. Richard Freeman,
Mrs. A. G. Durgin, Mrs. W. P. Barker.
Oct. 10. 3t

— THE —
Fall Millinery Opening
. . . OF . . .
C. L. BLISS,
186 Hancock St.,
TUESDAY and WEDNESDAY
Oct. 11, 12.

The public are cordially invited to call and examine a stock of Trimmed and Untrimmed Hats and novelties in Velvets, Ribbons, Wings, Feathers and Jet.

Quincy, Oct. 5. 1po 2w

TELL US . .
What you are looking for.

We can show you a fine line of
FALL AND WINTER
UNDERWEAR,
HOSIERY,
Outing Flannels, Flannelettes,
Plaid Dress Goods,
WRAPPERS, BLANKETS,
Comforters,
Dress Linings and other Dry Goods.

OUR STOCK IS FRESH.
OUR PRICES THE LOWEST.

MISS C. S. HUBBARD,
158 Hancock Street.

STATE ELECTION.

CITY OF QUINCY.

City Clerk's Office, Oct. 7, 1898.

IN Accordance with the provisions of Chapter 548 of the Acts of 1898, notice is hereby given that by a vote of the City Council, passed October 3, 1898, the polling places for the election to be held TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1898, in the City of Quincy, were designated as follows:

WARD ONE.–Council Chamber, City Hall.
WARD TWO–Hose House, Washington street.
WARD THREE, Precinct One.–Doble's Hall, Franklin street.
WARD THREE, Precinct Two.–Old Steamer House, School street.
WARD FOUR, Precinct One.–St. Mary's Hall, Willard street.
WARD FOUR, Precinct Two.–Hose House, Copeland street.
WARD FIVE.–Polson's Building, Newport avenue.
WARD SIX.–Hose House, Newbury avenue.

Attest: EDGAR G. CLEAVES, City Clerk.

Quincy, Oct. 7, 1898. 27t

NOTICE TO VOTERS.

CITY OF QUINCY.

For the purpose of preparing the Annual Register of Voters, and of receiving evidence of qualification from persons claiming a right to Vote at the coming State Election, the Board of Registrars of Voters will be in session at the COUNCIL CHAMBER in the City Hall Building, on the evenings of

Wednesday, Sept. 14,
Saturday, Sept. 17,
Thursday, Sept. 29,
Saturday, Oct. 1,
Wednesday, Oct. 5,
Saturday, Oct. 8,
Saturday, Oct. 15,

From 7 to 9 P. M., and also on

Wednesday, Oct. 19,

From 12 o'clock M. until 10 o'clock P. M.

Every applicant for registration must appear in person before the Board, and must present either a certificate from the Assessors or a Tax bill or Notice from the Collector of Taxes, showing that he has been assessed as a resident of the City on the First day of May last; or a certificate from the Assessors that he has been a resident of the City for the six months next preceding the election at which he claims a right to vote. If a naturalized citizen he must also produce for inspection his papers of naturalization. Payment of a poll tax is not a prerequisite to voting.

No person can vote at the election unless his name has previously been placed upon the voting list of the Ward of which he was a resident on the first day of May last, and no name can be added to the list of voters unless registered previous to

Wednesday, Oct. 19th,

at 10 o'clock P. M., when registration will close.

Examine the Voting Lists posted, and see that your name is in its proper place. NO CHANGE can be made after WEDNESDAY, Oct. 19th, at 10 o'clock P. M. The Board of Assessors will be in session at their office on the same evenings.

EDWARD B. MARSH,
CORNELIUS MOYNIHAN,
EDWARD J. McKEON,
EDGAR G. CLEAVES,
Registrars.

Quincy, Sept. 6, 1898. 38t p10-2w

Come, Mary,

Let's go over to the Quincy Second-Hand Variety Store and see if we can't find just what we want. You say you need some more kitchen goods and a few chairs, a carpet for the chamber, some glassware and various other things, and when I was there last week I saw my cousin get a lot of goods for almost nothing. He told me that sometimes he could find new goods at less than half price. These are hard times, Mary, and we must buy where the dollar goes farthest.

WALTER P. PINEL

is the Manager, and the store is right over here at number 20 Franklin street.

aug25 1y

E. LANDIS SNYDER,
Organist and Choirmaster of Christ Church,
TEACHER OF
VOICE CULTURE, PIANO AND ORGAN.
Studio: Room 15 Durgin & Merrill's Block, QUINCY, MASS.
Sept. 10. tf

Mutual Life
OF NEW YORK.

Do You Want Life Insurance?
Do You Want Fire Insurance?
If so, call on
GEORGE H. FIELD,
1 Durgin & Merrill's Block, Quincy,
and you will find the best Companies at Lowest Rates.
MONEY LOANED ON REAL ESTATE

THE CITY COUNCIL.

Continued from page 2.

built. It was unwise for the City Council to grant the location asked for. It would be very detrimental to the interest of our city. It would decrease value of property, and he hoped the City Council would consider it carefully, and what was for the best interest of the city.

In reply to questions of Councilman Jameson, Mr. Thompson said the matter of whether he would object if the affair was a success depended upon where it was located. He was yet to be convinced that the road was a success.

Ex-Mayor C. H. Porter could see a location where it would be of benefit, but he objected to having it so near the present steam and surface road as it would not be of any advantage. Even if the road does go to Dudley street it will not benefit us as it means a fifteen minute ride from there to the business section. There is a part of the city, provided the scheme is successful, where it would be a help, but he felt the location asked would not be a benefit to Quincy. It would be a cloud on real estate and he did not think Mr. Boynton himself believed he could interest capital in his favor.

The hearing closed and the order was recommitted.

A petition for the widening of Prospect street Atlantic was received, and under the new rule was referred to the next City Council.

The Committee on Licenses reported an order granting several licenses which was adopted.

STATE HIGHWAY.

The Committee on Streets and Finance reported a perfecting amendment to the order for drains for the State Highway on Washington street, which was adopted and the order given one reading.

Coucilman Jameson raised the point that a public hearing might be necessary before control of this street was given over to the State.

The President ruled that this was question for the City Solicitor.

Councilman Little thought it should be obtained before adjournment if possible, but the City Solicitor was not present and could not be found. The matter was laid on the table.

The appropriation for brooks and bridges was increase to $500 and passed unanimously on roll call.

MAYOR'S SALARY.

The Committee on Salaries reported adversely on the resolve to increase the salary of the Mayor, which under the charter was $1,000 for the first ten years. Report accepted.

The committee reported an order authorizing the Mayor to contract for the building of the State Highway on Washington street. The order took one reading.

The Committee on Streets reported an order naming the Newcomb street extension Woodward avenue. Read once.

The Committee on Streets reported favorably on the petition of McIntosh & Son to run a wire guy over Columbia street. Read once.

Also for a pole on Hancock street. Read once.

The order for a location for poles on Old Colony avenue was passed. An order granting State Aid to different persons was passed.

The order appropriating $500 and receipts for Sewer connections was passed.

Also the order appropriating $714.99 to pay bills of Poor department of 1897.

Also order to refund tax of Willard Welsh.

Also $172 for drain on Lincoln and Winthrop avenues.

ANOTHER HEARING.

After a recess, the Committee on Streets reported a hearing on the second petition of the Fall River, Quincy & Boston railway for Oct 31.

The pool table license of Alfred Anderson was transferred to Harry Johnson.

Adjourned at 9.47.

Baths in Quincy.

The following appeared in the Ledger last Thursday:

"A stranger in Quincy, visiting here from Seattle, Washington, was hunting around last night for a bath tub, and was greatly surprised that a city like Quincy could not afford a place where a man could have a good wash, coming way from Washington territory, too."

The writer overlooked the fact that the Young Men's Christian Association does have bath rooms with tub (and a porcelain one at that,) shower and needle baths complete in every way, and fitted up with Mott's nickle and brass fixtures; lighted with electric light and the room is in every way a perfection in cleanliness.

This privilege belongs to the physical department and may be had for $5 a year, and if the stranger from Washington or any where else for all of, that, including a resident of Quincy, desires but a single bath, the Association is courteous enough to allow it for the usual cost. Quincy is therefore not without its bath tub, and an average record of nearly 600 baths per month at the Association, proves that Quincy is also not without its bathers.

A TRUE QUINCITE.

LIEUT WHITNEY.

Writes of the Fifth Massachusetts At Camp Meade.

Camp Meade Middletown, Pa., Saturday, Oct. 8, 1898.

Editors of the Daily Ledger:

I wish to thank you heartily for the Ledgers I have received through your kindness. It has been a pleasure to read them so far from home, as we get news of all that is going on in Quincy.

Sometimes when reading a Ledger I look up and see the camp and for a second I am surprised, the paper taking me back while I am reading and for the time I am at home.

I have been trying to get time to write before, but since the captain left I have had all the papers and everything else too do, and all my spare time has been taken up. I tell you a militia captain and commander of a United States army company are two different things.

The fifth took the cake at the review yesterday, even the General and his staff had to applaud the regiment as they passed. We had a bugler detailed at Corps Headquarters and he told us about it.

The men are getting along in fine shape; no sickness of importance and they seem to enjoy themselves. The food is all right and no need of any one starving. We have a pretty place, a little damp perhaps but not the same dampness that we got at Framingham. The rifles do not rust as much.

I have just received an official letter from the ordance department at Washington about returns that I have not yet received and which should have been sent in September 30. So you see that when one think he has a little time, something is bound to come up, and then we have to hustle and get the things straightened out, or as in this case, our pay will be stopped.

Thanking you again for your kindness I am, Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

WILLIAM H. WHITNEY,
1st Lieut., 5th Regt., Mass. Inf., U. S. V., commanding Co. K.

Current Fads.

Editors Daily Ledger:

The latest definition of a "fad" is, "a capricious hobby" (Funk & Wagnalls Dic., 1896.) How many and varied are the forms in which humanity manifests its freaky and eccentric deviation from the line of sound, sober, commonsense, which is, according to the definition of Edward Everett, "The final judgment on great practical questions to which the mind of the community is pretty sure eventually to arrive."

How silly, how senseless, yea, how often dangerous to others, are the vagaries of those whom Puck must have had in mind when he said "What fools these mortals be."

The "razor-toed" shoe—how really grotesque; how painful to the wearer; how deforming to the foot.

The "high hand-shake" — how clumsy and affected it in reality is.

"The Kneipp cure"—an amusing lot of barefoot dupes scuffing about, at early dawn, in the grass, in the amazing belief that dew can cure disease!

The "girl and bull-pup" fad—a young girl with an ugly, snub-nosed bob-tailed brute which she avowedly loves, but secretly fears and distrusts.

The "bare-foot child" fad—a tender tot, paraded through muddy streets, without either shoes or stockings to protect it, on a bleak October day, at the imminent danger of its innocent life, to the open mouth amazement of traditional mothers, and grinning rustics.

The "English accent"—a nasal toned, pork and beans, East Wind Yankee, aping the accent and grimaces of the London cockney and bakers boy.

The "social line" fad—that money and birth, and not character and worth, is the real standard of social desirability.

All these and many more we have in our own modern Vanity Fair, which go to make up the great puzzle called life. Respectfully your reader,

PETER PARLEY, JR.

☞ Wall Papers in the choicest and latest New York Designs, from 3c. up. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

IN THE CITY NURSERY

Young Saplings Which Together Assume Importance.

The Ledger is now delivered by boys over President's hill and Adams street, so any one in that vicinity subscribing for the Ledger can have it left at their door every afternoon.

The annual meeting of the Y. M. C. A. for the election of directors, as well as officers and for the reception of reports will be held this evening in the hall at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. William F. Hoehn left today to attend the State Conference of Women's Auxiliaries of the Y. M. C. A. at Fitchburg. Mrs. T. B. Pollard and Mrs. A. B. Hatch are also delegates and will leave early Wednesday.

The approach of election always brings forward many who desire to become citizens by naturalization, and this year is no exception to the rule. Several oaths of allegience are administered every day at the District court.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Graham arrived home from Lexington, Ky., Monday night. Mr. Graham denies the published report that he has purchased a three-year old filly, and says that he simply bid it in for a New York party.

Mrs. Charles F. Spear, the wife of 2d Lieut. Spear of Co. K, 5th Mass. regiment, U. S. V., will leave Thursday for Camp Meade to join her husband. She will also accompany the regiment if it goes South. Mrs. Spear has made her home with Mrs. George Bean, her sister, at Atlantic.

Dr. Everett's Brother.

Mr. Henry Sidney Everett, A. M., who died at Brighton, Eng. on Tuesday, was the second son of Hon. Edward Everett. He was born in Charlestown in 1835, and was a graduate of the Harvard class of 1855. Among his classmates were Bishop Phillips Brooks, Hon. Robert Treat Paine, Judge Leonard H. Jones, Messrs. Frank Sanborn and Parkman Blake. Seven years after graduation the degree of master of arts was conferred on Mr. Everett by Harvard college. He married the eldest daughter of Richard S. Fay, and served in the army during the civil war, reaching the rank of major. He entered the diplomatic service of the United States and in 1857 was appointed secretary of legation at Berlin, serving under Bayard Taylor and Andrew D. White. He remained there till 1885, when he left that post to accept that of chief of the diplomatic bureau of the state department at Washington. Dr. William Everett of Quincy is his brother and Mr. Charles Francis Adams of Boston is his cousin. He leaves a widow and five children, one of them being Mr. Sidney B. Everett, now consul to Java. —Globe.

Political.

The Republican Representative convention will meet on Thursday evening of this week in the Music hall annex, at 8 o'clock. Ward One is entitled to 7 delegates, Ward Two to 5 delegates, Ward Three to 7 delegates, Ward Four to 5 delegates, Ward Five to 7 delegates, and Ward Six to 3 delegates; a total of 34.

It has been decided to change the date of the Democratic convention of the Tenth congressional district from Oct. 11 to Oct. 18. This will give them more time to look over the field, and may also allow them to go into their convention knowing who the Republican candidate is to be.

Brooks Adams will address the William E. Russell Democratic club at its annual meeting in Grant Hall, 671 Massashusetts avenue, Cambridge, this evening, on the "Application of Democratic principles to the Present Problems in Connection with Cuba, Hawaii, and the Philippines." A discussion from the floor will follow. The public is invited.

For Sale or To Let,
FURNISHED,
NASH' HOTEL.

Full of Boarders and a good transient trade. Cheap rent. My catering business is all I can attend to.

Apply at HOTEL, 148 Hancock street, Quincy, Mass. oct11 tf lo

GO TO....
Miss B. J. PATTERSON'S
Millinery Parlors
AT THE
Boston Bargain Store,
FOR YOUR
FALL MILLINERY.

A fine assortment of Trimmed Goods. Also, all the latest and best shapes in untrimmed hats, walking hats and sailors.

New Velvets, Ribbons, Fancy Feathers and Ostrich goods.

Lowest possible prices for first-class goods.

Music Hall Building, Quincy.
Oct. 1. tfpl

LAND VALUES.

Continued from page 1.

WARD THREE.

Lucche, Antonio D. 7,987, Independence ave., $400.	29 00
Lundin, Andrew E. F. 5,400, Albertina, $225.	34 85
Lundin, Andrew E. F., & Annie A., 5,400, Branch, $300.	5 40

The L's will be concluded tomorrow by the publication of Wards Four, Five and Six.

You should save a file of the Ledger while this list is being printed. We cannot supply back numbers of the paper at 2 cents per copy, but have established this rate: Papers one week old, 5 cents; papers one month old, 10 cents; papers one year old, 25 cents.

Y. M. C. A. Reception.

The eighth annual reception and opening of the Young Men's Christian Association of this city, will be held tomorrow evening at eight o'clock at the rooms of the Association on Hancock street. The entire building will be open to visitors. Members of the Auxiliary and the board of directors will receive in the parlor, and refreshments will be served in the hall. There will be a few short addresses and the following musical programme

1. Piano duet, Messrs. Bradford and Ellis.
2. Reading, Mr. Charles E. Snow of Wollaston.
3. Violin Duet, Wason brothers.
4. Piano Solo, Everett Hayden.
5. Reading, Mr. Charles E. Snow.
6. Flute and Piano Trio, The Weymouth Trio.

All friends of the Association are very cordially invited to attend and bring their friends.

Academy Games.

Games arranged up to date by the Adams Academy foot ball team.

Oct. 12, Wednesday—Milton High at Quincy.
Oct. 14, Friday—Quincy High at Quincy.
Oct. 15, Saturday—Milton Academy at Milton.
Oct. 18, Tuesday—Weymouth High at Weymouth.
Oct. 21, Friday—Thayer Academy at Braintree.
Oct. 26, Wednesday—Hingham High at Hingham.
Oct. 28, Friday—Quincy High at Quincy.
Nov. 1, Tuesday — Weymouth High at Quincy.
Nov. 4, Friday—Thayer Academy at Neutral.
Nov. 16, Wednesday — Quincy High at Quincy,
Nov. 9—Open date.

WEYMOUTH.

Mr. F. A. Sherman and Miss Eva M. Barnes were married at the home of the bride on Saturday evening, Oct. 8. Rev. H. S. Snyder officiated. They expect to live at Damariscotta Mills, Maine.

The Endeavor society holds its Clark Union services at Rockland on Wednesday, Oct. 12. A barge will be at Washington square at 6.30 P. M., for all who wish to go from Weymouth and East Braintree.

The Union Congregational church expects to have a Sunday School rally on the first Sunday of the opening of the new church. All are invited to help make the occasion one of interest by contributing speeches, music, flowers and everything that will add to the interest and profit of those who attend.

What's in a name! One of the patrons of the Braintree schools objects to his daughter's study physics, but thinks that natural philosophy is of great value.

Miss Jessie Stuart and Mr. Henry Garfield were united in marriage October 6, by Rev. D. S. Sharp of Brockton at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Anna J. Stuart.

Miss Addie Jenkins and Mr. James Van Tassle were united in marriage Tuesday, Oct. 4 by Rev. William Kirkby.

Rev. Mr. Bass, the presiding elder, preached at the Porter M. E. church, Sunday afternoon and evening.

☞ Dainty White Muslin Draperies, with ruffled edges, 89 cents per pair. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

TODAY'S COURT.

Daniel Hill was arraigned for drunkenness at Quincy. Case continued one week.

Wollaston Post Office.

Letters unclaimed for week ending Oct. 8:

Mr. George E. Nash, Thomas Fitzgerald, Esq., Mr. W. Fowler, Mr. J. C. Kimball, Mr. Frederick E. Kendall, Mr. Eugene C. Page, Charles P. Sherwin, Mr. Falcom Shedrick, Mrs. C. L. Hall, Miss Tressa Long, Miss Jessie Darling, Miss Grace Tibbetts, (2).

☞ Oil Heaters worth $6.00, our price $3.98, will heat a room in a jiffy. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

DIED.

STEWART—In Milton, Oct. 8, Peter R., son of Mr. Peter S. and Mrs. Flora B. Stewart, aged 5 months.

WEBB—In Weymouth Heights, Oct. 8, Mr. Charles Henry Webb, aged 81 years.

O'BRIEN—In East Milton, Oct. 9, Susie, daughter of the late John and Annie O'Brien.

Attempted Suicide.

John Henry Thayer, formerly of Quincy, made an unsuccessful attempt Sunday afternoon to take his own life at the Braintree almshouse, of which he was an inmate. Mr. Thayer, who is about 75 years of age, was taken to Braintree about two weeks ago, as he was losing his mind.

Sunday noon his dinner was carried up to his room, and later when the girl went for the dishes, she was horrified to see great pools of blood all over the room. Physicians were summoned who had a hard time stopping the flow of blood, for he had cut the main artery in his left wrist. It was also learned that he first attempted to cut his throat, but was unsuccessful, as the knife was too dull.

Mr. Thayer is still in a precarious state, and it is a grave question as to his recovery.

School Attendance.

The average daily attendance at our public schools for the four weeks ending Sept. 30, was 4,341, the average per cent. being 96 plus. The report of Supt. Lull is as follows:

	Whole Number at Date.	Average Daily Attendance.	Per Cent. of Daily Attendance.	Tardinesses.	Dismissals.	Truants.
High	407	396.6	96.5	16	23	0
Adams	418	409.1	97.	21	19	0
Coddington	441	427.3	97.	6	20	8
Gridley Bryant	345	331.3	97.1	1	18	0
John Hancock	429	415.4	97.3	8	34	0
Lincoln	403	396.4	97.8	15	9	0
Mass. Fields	262	253.8	95.9	14	17	0
Quincy	370	351.8	95.6	12	25	0
Washington	294	285.4	97.	14	10	0
Willard	805	779.5	96.9	9	31	0
Wollaston	312	294.9	97.	7	41	9
	4486	4341.5	96.9	123	247	17

Physicians Endorse Dr. True's Elixir.

"Our medical staff has made free use of your Pin Worm Elixir, and they find the return so satisfactory that they have asked us to always keep it in stock. We have gladly done this and obtained our supply from the local wholesale druggist from whom we procure our regular stock of drugs." The above extract from a letter to Dr. J. F. True, of Auburn, Me., from Albert C. Smith, president of the Suffolk Dispensary, Boston, gives evidence of the regard which the medical profession has for Dr. True's famous vegetable remedy. It has been used with constant success for 47 years in thousands of households for the cure of worms of all kinds, for diseases of the stomach, liver and intestines, and for all the common complaints of children.

☞ Hot Stuff—our splendid $1.00 Comfort ors. Blankets at wonderfully little prices. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

Quincy Post Office.

Letters unclaimed for week ending Oct. 10:

Herbert Davis, Domeniko Favoretson, F. E. Hobart, W. Murphy, E. H. Remington, W. W. Russell.

Mrs. Johnstone, Mrs. J. H. Marshall, Miss Louisa A. Nightingale, Mrs. Annie Robin, Mrs. Lilla Seamon.

Potatoes.
15c. Peck,
55c. Bushel.

SWEET,
25 lbs., 25c.

L. M. PRATT & CO.,
25 School Street.

DANCING SCHOOL.
Reduced Rates.
Prof. GARDNER,

the well known Boston teacher, will receive a few more pupils in his class in COLONIAL HALL, Bank Building, Quincy, on Friday Evening, Oct. 14, at 7.45. Terms: Gents, $5, Ladies, $3. All the latest dances taught.

lp tf

DR. HERBERT S. HAYFORD
195 Hancock Street.

OFFICE HOURS—11 to 12 A. M., 2 to 4 and 7 to 8 P. M. Telephone, 4-3.

Quincy, July 5. tf

CHILDREN

and their Diseases. Write for book containing facts every mother should know. Sent free. Thousands of afflicted children have been cured by True's Pin Worm Elixir. Purely vegetable and harmless. Est. 47 years. Price 25c. At druggists.

DR. J. F. TRUE & CO., Auburn, Me.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS.

Advertisements in this column inserted at the following rates:

Four lines, or less, one day, - - 25 cents.
" " three days, - - - 50 cents.
" " one week, - - - - 75 cents.

Additional lines will be charged for pro rata. Seven words equal a line. Long term rates furnished on application.

LOST.

AT the foot ball game between Adams Academy and Thayer on Friday at Wollaston Park, a Gold Watch and Chain. Finder will be rewarded by leaving the same at Ledger office or 18 Greenleaf street, Quincy.

Oct. 8—1w 8-3t

WANTED.

WANTED—Capable Girl for general housework in a family of three. Call or address Mrs. E. E. Jameson, cor. Brook and Farrington streets, Wollaston.

Oct. 11—6t p15—1w

WANTED—Experienced girl to do general housework; must be a good cook. Apply between 6 and 8 P. M. at 240 Washington street, Quincy Point. H. M. FEDERHEN.

Oct. 10. 3t

WANTED—Typewriting to to do at home. Address W. F. SKINNER, 12 Franklin street, Quincy. oct7-6t

TO LET.

TO LET—Half a House of 5 rooms entirely separate on Phipps street, Mt. Pleasant. Rent, $8 a month; city water. Inquire at 17 Summer street.

Quincy, Sept. 27. 18t

TO LET—House 29 Chestnut street, eight rooms, furnace and bath. Near centre, within three minutes' of steam cars. Apply to CHAS. W. HALL, 212 Hancock street, Quincy. Oct. 10 tf

TO LET—On Washington street, at the corner of Wibird street, a very desirable house for a small family. Six rooms, two of them new, and all in good repair. Rent, $15. City water. Concrete sidewalk in front of the house extending to the depot. Apply only to FRANK F. PRESCOTT, at the Ledger office or at 14 Bigelow street. tf

TO LET—Cottage house, No. 29 Granite street, 8 rooms, three minutes' from City Square. Apply to H. M. PAXON, 4 Adams Building. Sept. 30—tf

FOR RENT—Desirable house with bath, corner lot, nice neighborhood, three minutes' walk from schools, churches and depot Rent reasonable. Apply at No. 6 Pleasant St.

Quincy, Sept. 7. tf

TO LET—A pleasant tenement of six rooms; newly papered and painted throughout. Centrally located on a main street within five minutes' walk of Quincy depot. Rent, $15. Address "House," Lock Box L, Quincy.

Oct. 4. tf

TO LET.

Half House on Granite street, near depot; $15.00.

Half House on Washington street, near Universalist church; $11.00.

New House, 6 rooms and bath; Back Bay land, $16.50.

Apply to FRANK F. CRANE,
Oct. 5—6t 4 Chestnut St., Quincy.

TO LET IN QUINCY.

SOUTHERLY Half of house with stable, 214 Hancock street, now occupied by Dr. N. S. Hunting. Modern improvements, central location. Possession given about October 15th. Apply on premises to

MISS M. F. UNDERWOOD.
Oct. 1. tf

TO LET.

APARTMENTS of five large rooms and bath, with all modern improvements. Also two large stores. Rent moderate. Apply to ARTHUR CRAIG, or J. W. HAYDEN, at Craig Building, cor. Copeland and Garfield Sts.

Quincy, July 15. pl tf

TO LET.

House of 8 rooms, etc., No. 20 Canal street, Quincy. Nice house, excellent location.

R. D. CHASE,
Savings Bank Building.
Quincy, Oct. 8. pl tf

FOR SALE.

Bigelow St. Fine New Residence, 9 rooms, bath, laundry, furnace, open plumbing, cemented cellar, fireplace, etc.

R. D. CHASE,
Savings Bank Building.
Quincy, April 8-tf. 9p-tf

Coal!

Just Received by Barge Blackbird, a Fresh Cargo of

Pea Coal
(Small Nut.)

J. F. SHEPPARD & SONS

Quincy Sept. 7.

FRANK F CRANE,
AUCTIONEER and APPRAISER,
Office, 4 Chestnut St., Quincy, Mass.
Oct. tf

BABIES THRIVE ON IT — GAIL BORDEN EAGLE BRAND CONDENSED MILK.

OUR ILLUSTRATED PAMPHLET ENTITLED "BABIES" SHOULD BE IN EVERY HOUSEHOLD. SENT ON APPLICATION.
NEW YORK CONDENSED MILK CO. NEW YORK.

WATCHES.

GENT'S WATCHES, $1.50 and Up.

LADIES' WATCHES, $2.50 and Up.

EVERY WATCH WARRANTED.

$2.00 Belts, $1.00 Each.
75c. Brooch Pins, 25c. Each.
25 and 35c. Stick Pins, 5 and 10c. Ea.

Quincy SOUVENIR TILES Half Price,

And Other Bargains.

A. A. LINSCOTT, Jeweler,

154 Hancock St., opp. Post Office, Quincy.

Agent for Graphophones.

aug 6. tf

MAKE IT HOT FOR YOU.

If your house is cold and you have become disgusted with the various devices called heaters, and you are really anxious to have warmth and comfort in your home, place an order for one of those G. B. Bates CIRCULATORS. It will "make it hot for you" or just the temperature you desire. Its construction is based upon scientific and economical principles. Several have recently been put in right here in Quincy, and others will be put in during the next few weeks. Don't read this ad. and then forget about it till your water pipes are all frozen, but go now to

G. B. BATES,

Hancock Street, Quincy.

Durable Carpetings

It has been our good fortune to note after years of untiring study and observation, that what the general public want today in Carpetings, is something that is serviceable, attractive and not expensive in price.

To some people all carpetings look alike, but it's the wearing quality that counts fully as much as the looks.

We make a specialty of Lowell and Roxbury Carpetings, the excellence of quality being acknowledged by all who know, to be unequalled by Carpets of other manufacture.

Heavy All Wool Carpets, 45c. to 65c.

Extra Fine Tapestry Brussels, 45c. to 85c.

We guarantee that nowhere can such values in Carpetings be found as here.

HENRY L. KINCAIDE & CO.,

RELIABLE, LOW PRICED HOUSE FURNISHERS,

HANCOCK STREET, - - QUINCY.

GEO. AMES,

the ONLY PRACTICAL PLUMBER in the Hardware business in the City. He has a patent SEWER TRAP which cannot be beat. Impossible for deadly sewer gas to enter your homes. See him about your Sewer Connection. He has had three years' experience in Boston and other large cities. Established here in 1889 and still in it. Work done anywhere.

Hardware, Paints and Oils, Putty and Glass, Yacht Supplies, Steam and Gas Fittings. Steam and Hot Air Heaters put in repair for the winter.

ADAMS BUILDING

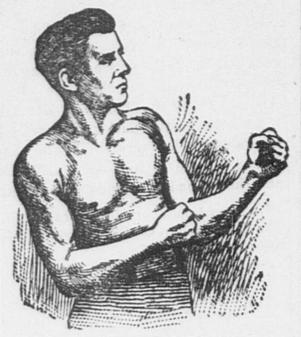

LOSER GIVEN THE BOUT

Boxer Zeigler Deprived of His Laurels by the Referee.

Had Opponent Beaten From the Start.

Crowd Vented Its Displeasure by Hissing the Judge.

New York, Oct. 11.—Last night's contest between John Daly of Wilmington and Owen Zeigler of Philadelphia was witnessed by 3,000 persons. The fighting throughout was lively. Daly's nose began to bleed in the seventh round after a rapid exchange of left and right swings. In the eighth Zeigler chased him around the ring, but had his aggressiveness stopped by a series of left and right swings.

OWEN ZIEGLER.

In the eleventh Zeigler swung his left to the head, staggering Daly, who was almost carried off his feet, and repeated the dose. In the next round Zeigler rushed Daly to the ropes, where they clinched, and on the rebound both fell to the floor heavily, with Daly on top. As soon as they got up they got into another clinch, out of which Daly slipped to the floor.

In the fifteenth Zeigler forced Daly to the ropes and drove his right straight into the stomach. This was the hardest blow of the fight so far. In the sixteenth round Daly, in stepping back, tripped and fell backward to his hips. There was a good deal of roughing in the eighteenth round, the men fighting at close quarters. Owen slipped to the floor in the twenty-first round. Zeigler kept forcing the pace in the twenty-fourth and was the stronger. He forced the pace, and at the close both were in a mixup, raining rights and lefts with all their speed.

Referee Brown awarded the bout to Daly, presumably because the real winner said insinuatingly at the beginning that he wanted no draw declared. The decision was so clearly improper that the spectators roundly hissed the referee, cheered Zeigler and ignored Daly.

"Whirlwind" In a Forced Sleep.

Rochester, N. Y., Oct. 11.—Goulette hooked his right to Joe Hopkins' jaw in the middle of the ninth round of what was to have been a 25-round bout and put the colored whirlwind to sleep. The knockout, the first ever administered to Hopkins in his career of eight years in the ring, was delivered before a wildly enthusiastic audience of 1,000 persons.

Hopkins did most of the aggressive work, but Goulette countered beautifully, his defense was good and he seldom failed to land when he led. In the third round Hopkins drew blood from Goulette's nose and later swelled up his left eye. Goulette gave Hopkins a fearful thumping in the body.

BOSTONS GAIN.

They Defeat the Senators, While Baltimores Play a Tie.

Washington, Oct. 11.—The Boston champions beat the senators yesterday afternoon, making 100 victories for the season, something unprecedented in the National league. Boston is the only league team to win two games for every one lost, and for the last five weeks the champions have won 10 games to every one lost, another league record and one that is likely to stand for many seasons. Score:

Washington.	AB	R	1B	PO	A	E
Mercer, c f	2	0	1	1	0	0
Selbach, l f	4	0	0	2	0	2
Casey, 3 b	3	2	1	0	1	1
Freeman, r f	4	0	3	5	1	0
Smith, 1 b	4	0	0	1	0	1
McGuire, c	4	0	2	9	0	0
Reitz, 2 b	4	0	0	4	1	1
Gatins, s s	3	0	0	1	0	1
Dineen, p	3	0	0	0	0	0
Gettman, c f	3	0	0	1	0	0
Totals	34	2	7	24	3	6

Boston.	AB	R	1B	PO	A	E
Hamilton, c f	3	3	1	2	0	0
Tenney, 1 b	5	2	2	12	1	0
Long, s s	5	1	1	3	5	1
Lowe, 2 b	5	0	2	2	2	0
Collins, 3 b	5	0	1	3	3	0
Stahl, r f	4	0	3	1	0	0
Bergen, c	4	0	0	2	1	0
Duffy, l f	4	2	1	1	0	0
Nichols, p	4	0	0	1	3	0
Totals	39	8	11	27	15	1

Washington ..1 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 0—2
Boston .....3 1 0 0 0 2 0 2 —8

Earned runs—Washington, 1; Boston, 3. Two-base hits—Freeman, Tenney. Three-base hits—Long, Lowe. Home run—Duffy. Stolen bases—Casey, Freeman, Hamilton (2), Tenney, Bergen. Double plays—Collins to Lowe to Tenney; Freeman to McGuire. First base on balls—Off Dineen, 2; off Nichols, 1. Struck out—By Dineen, 8; by Nichols, 2. Passed balls—McGuire, 2. Left on bases—Washington, 5; Boston, 7. Time—2 hours. Umpires—Connolly and Heydler.

The ex-champions presented a poor exhibition of fielding yesterday, but in the ninth inning they woke up and tied the score with the New Yorks.

The Pittsburg-Cleveland game was full of fine pitching and splendid fielding on both sides. Not a Cleveland player reached third base.

The Brooklyns won the first game with the Philadelphias. Howell of the Meriden, Conn., team kept the Quakers guessing, while the Brooklyns hit Donohue constantly. In the second game Hopper, a Ridgewood, N. J., youngster, came near preventing the Phillies from scoring. The Brooklyns were shut out by Platt's effective pitching and good support.

Hill was very effective until the seventh inning, when the Louisvilles, on four singles and a triple, netted four runs.

Seymour and Doheny of New York hold the season's record at strike-out pitching, both "fanning" 12 in one game. Doheny did his act while the season was young and the hitters were minus their "batting lamps," but Seymour worked in his job on Sept. 11, when the sluggers were in full bloom.

McBride, who pitched one game for Cleveland under the name of Peters, is a North Adams pitcher who worked with Taunton, Newport and Augusta in the New England league, and last spring surprised the college world by his fine work against Yale.

Ladies Kept Step to Music.

Pittsburg, Oct. 11.—With a brilliancy of incandescence emanating from nearly half a million electric lights, the conclave of the Knights Templar has now fairly started. Except a few stragglers, every commandery which was expected to be represented has a delegation on the ground.

The sights on the streets have never been equalled in this city, as far as the crowds are concerned. Car traffic is at a standstill and vehicles of all descriptions are banished from many thoroughfares, while every inch of ground is monopolized by tens of thousands of pedestrians. The brilliancy of the city's street decorations marks an epoch in the history of electric illumination. Within a radius of four blocks from the heart of the city 400,000 incandescent lamps burn every night. Huge crosses and other emblems of Templarism are suspended on the sides and fronts of the city's tallest buildings, and from nearly every store or shop in the down-town district.

An interesting feature in the informal parade of the knights was furnished by the Boston commanderies, which marched up Fifth avenue, accompanied by the ladies. The way in which the latter kept step to the music evoked great enthusiasm.

Concerning Von Buelow's Recall.

Berlin, Oct. 11.—There is no truth in the rumor that Germany contemplates not filling the post of minister at the vatacan. It is added that Baron Von Buelow's successor has already been chosen and that his name will shortly be announced.

Von Buelow's recall is regarded here as due to the annoyance of Emperor William and the government at the pope's recent declaration in favor of France's traditional protectorate over Catholics in the east. Germany insists on protecting her own subjects, and the pope's attitude on the eve of Emperor William's eastern tour is resented.

Though there is no breach with the vatican, sometime will probably elapse before Von Buelow's successor takes up his post; but there is no doubt that he will be instructed to acquaint the vatican with the German feeling on the subject.

Tomorrow's Almanac and Forecast.

Sun rises—5:54; sets, 5:07.
Moon rises—2:46 p. m.
High tide—8:30 a. m.; 9 p. m.

The unsettled conditions that gave promise of extending to New England have changed their course, and excepting that there may be some cloudiness tonight or Wednesday morning, fair and generally clear weather seems most likely to continue. It now promises to be warmer during the next 24 or 36 hours, followed by cooler westerly winds Wednesday afternoon or night.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

The Massachusetts W. C. T. Union opened its silver jubilee convention this afternoon with a reception, followed by a banquet. Mrs. Fessenden, the state president, presided.

An assistant attorney general holds that the refund check given passengers on railroad trains who pay cash in excess of the regular fare is not subject to the stamp tax. Checks for excess baggage are not taxable.

Edward Tomlinson, vice president and manager of the Milliken-Tomlinson company of Portland, died suddenly yesterday. Mr. Tomlinson was a native of Nova Scotia, but had lived in Portland since boyhood. He leaves a widow, a daughter and a son.

The Richelieu hotel, a four-story structure in Pittsburg, caught fire yesterday, and for a time the entire block was in danger of destruction. The guests of the hotel included a number of knights from different commanderies, but fortunately none was hurt.

Advices received at the war department indicate that the evacuation of Cuba by the Spanish forces is progressing satisfactorily and smoothly. The threatened trouble at Manzanillo has blown over, and the Spaniards have yielded control to the American forces.

That there may be no question when congress meets of the right of Admiral Sampson to the promotion that has been given him, and to settle for all time the positions occupied by the New York and Brooklyn during the battle with Cervera's fleet, Secretary Long has directed the assembling of a board to make a thorough investigation of the matter.

Democrats of the first Mass. congressional district nominated Charles Palmer Davis of Agawam for congress and endorsed the Chicago platform. Mr. Davis was an editorial writer on the Boston Globe from 1886 to 1891, writing a series of "tariff talks" in the campaigns of 1888 and 1891. He was one of the first of the advocates of the Australian ballot system. Since 1891 he has been engaged in farming in Agawam.

The city coroner of Ogdensburg, N. Y., has been summoned to Wallington to hold an inquest. Five laborers left Sunday morning to go to the Canadian canal works. All were intoxicated and ran their boat into Galoupe rapids. The boat was upset and three of the men were drowned. The two others got back into the boat and paddled ashore with their hands. One of them died before help arrived.

DEPEW IN CHICAGO.

Speech In Which He Described Achievements Since November, 1896.

Chicago, Oct. 11.—C. M. Depew was the principal speaker at the annual Chicago day celebration of the Hamilton club yesterday. Battle songs and national anthems were given by a chorus of 200 voices. Mr. Depew was introduced amid wild applause. He said: "Certainly what has transpired since November, 1896, astonished even the American people. It does more; it astonishes even the most imaginative and prophetic of them. It was not in the power of the human mind to conceive the wonderful and beneficial changes which would happen in 24 months. From industrial paralysis has come industrial activity; from labor vainly seeking employment has come employment seeking labor; from capital hidden, and locked up, and unremunerative, and worse than useless, has come capital flowing into channels which add to the strength, prosperity and wealth of the whole country; from gloom we are in the light, and from despair we are happy. From an isolated nation living within itself, seeking only the development of its own resources, and unknown in the politics and policies of other countries, we have become by a series of victories which surpass the achievements on sea or land of any period a great world power.

"The political atmosphere was cleared of clouds, the financial atmosphere of distrust, the business atmosphere of despair and the American mind of dreams by the election of William McKinley. The American people realized instantly after the election of a Republican president that the protective policy would be re-established and that our currency would remain stable on the gold basis. There is no marvel of electrical invention or appliance which equals the effect which this confidence had upon American industries. The bugaboo of the scarcity of gold to meet the standard of the world has disappeared in the increased supply. Our imports have decreased $148,000,000 since the inauguration of a Republican president and our exports have increased $200,000,000. This $148,000,000 decrease in imports during a period when we have been exceptionally prosperous is the most significant tribute to the workings of the system of protection of American industries. It means that American manufacturers and American workmen are producing that vast amount more of fabrics which were formerly bought on the other side. It means the nearer approach to the dream of Alexander Hamilton of the independence of our country for all that it requires from the rest of the world."

Canon on Marriage and Divorce.

Washington, Oct. 11.—The marriage and divorce canon under consideration by the Episcopalian bishops yesterday was as follows:

Section 1—No minister shall solemnize a marriage the parties to which are within the degrees of consanguinity and affinity defined in the 18th chapter of the book, Leviticus.

Sec. 2—It shall be the duty of the minister to admonish the people from time to time that the church discountenances clandestine marriage. No minister shall solemnize the marriage of any person who is a minor under the law of the place of marriage, unless the parent or guardian of such minor is present, or shall have given written consent to the marriage, or is permanently resident in a foreign country. No minister shall solemnize a marriage except in the presence of at least two witnesses, himself or the witnesses being personally acquainted with the parties. Every minister of the church shall at the time of the marriage record in the register of the parish in which the marriage takes place the name, birthplace, age and residence of each party, and such record shall be signed by the minister who performs the ceremony and by at least two witnesses of the marriage.

Sec. 3—No minister of the church shall solemnize the marriage of either party to a divorce during the lifetime of the other party.

The Gladstonian Policy.

Glasgow, Oct. 11.—John Dillon, anti-Parnellite member of parliament for East Mayo, at a banquet given here last evening in his honor, made a practical bid for the reunion of the sections of the Irish party. He said he wished that a conference of 10 representative Irishmen, half nominated by John Redmond and the other half by himself, could meet and draft a scheme to reconcile the difference among the Irish nationalists, the scheme then to be submitted to the leading Irishmen of the country at a convention.

Mr. Dillon said he would be willing to enter such a conference on the basis of absolute independence of all the English parties, and declared himself convinced that there were no real, substantial differences to prevent the co-operation of all nationalist members of parliament in support of the Gladstonian policy of home rule.

Conference With Indians.

Walker, Minn., Oct. 11.—The Indian council was held at the agency yesterday. General Bacon and Inspector Tinker told the Bear islanders that if they would give up the men for whom warrants were issued and come in themselves they could go home. If they resisted, the government would not rest until the recalcitrants had been captured and the islanders would not then be permitted to occupy the island again. This message will reach the hostiles by runners. The chiefs signified approval of the terms. It is believed the Pillagers will accept them.

Held on a Charge of Arson.

Fitchburg, Mass., Oct. 11.—The case of Max Kulwinski, charged with setting fire to a block in which lived eight families, who barely escaped with their lives, and in a part of which he kept a store, came up in the police court Monday. The examination of witnesses consumed nearly the entire day. The principal testimony was offered by Fire Marshal Shaw and his agents, and on the strength of it Kulwinski was held in $5,000 for the superior court.

Went to His Death.

New York, Oct. 11.—While the Berlin was off Robbins' reef, Steward John McKenna jumped overboard. He said just before he went over the side that he was "going to take a swim." Oiler Dominick of the transport jumped into the water to save McKenna, who had evidently been taken with cramps, but before he could render assistance McKenna was drowned.

Travis' Spoils Displayed.

New York, Oct. 11.—The articles found at Burglar Travis' home in Brooklyn and at the house of his mother in this city were spread out on tables at police headquarters Monday and made an imposing display. There were all sorts of silver articles in the collection, valuable bric-a-brac and women's garments and purses. The articles are worth from $1500 to $2000.

Juliet Sumner of Hartford called on Captain McCluskey and identified part of the stolen property. It consisted of spoons, knives and forks, all of solid silver and gold plated, and had been stolen from Miss Sumner's residence last Thursday night.

Will Provoke Disorders.

Berlin, Oct. 10.—Emperor William is instigating legislation to curtail the rights of workingmen to form unions. He has announced that a bill is in preparation providing that persons inciting others to strike shall be punished by imprisonment at hard labor. The laws against intimidation of workmen are already of the most stringent character, prescribing punishment of from three months to two years' imprisonment, and the emperor's new proposals have excited such hostility as to make it certain that there will be grave disturbances both in the parliament and throughout the country if their enactment is forced.

Ah, that sad moment when we hear Death's awful pinions hovering near Above the one we hold most dear.

We know that death must sooner or later come to all, but we can never surely foretell when the dread angel will appear. No matter how imminent the summons may seem, it may still, in God's good providence, be far away. It is part of man's humanity to man to avert sickness and death as far as lies in mortal power. Nearly thirty years ago, an institution was founded in Buffalo, N. Y., known as the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, which has since become one of the most famous institutions in the world for its enormous benefits to the sick and suffering all over the United States. Thousands have come there for treatment and tens of thousands have received professional advice by mail with suggestions for inexpensive home-treatment, whereby they have been cured of severe, and in many instances, apparently hopeless diseases.

A Massachusetts man, Mr. John Brooks, of Boylston, Worcester Co., writes: "About a year ago I was taken with a bad cold which settled on my lungs. The doctors said I was in consumption and could not get well. I took Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil and it did me no good. After taking it four months I heard of your 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and wrote to you for advice. I have taken your medicine and it saved my life. I felt so sick when I wrote to you that I thought I would not live through the winter. In the morning I raised an awful lot and would spit all the time and had pains in my chest. My bowels would not move more than once or twice a week; my strength was nearly gone; I could not do a whole day's work. Now, my bowels are regular every day and I feel no more pain in my chest. I feel a great deal stronger. I am working hard every day, driving a team in the woods, and I owe my thanks to Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I know it saved my life."

The most difficult diseases to cure are those which are aggravated by constipation. In such cases Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets should be taken in conjunction with the "Discovery." They never gripe. All good dealers sell them.

FISH.

Everything first-class at the

Cape Cod Fish Market,

Temple Street.

All kinds Fresh, Salt, Smoked an Pickeled

Quincy, Feb. 8. 1y

LADIES ROYAL DELIVERANCE CAPSULES are a positive, safe and speedy monthly regulator, guaranteed to cure the most stubborn cases, or money refunded. Have never failed. Used by thousands of ladies, indorsed and prescribed by the medical profession. Painful and dangerous operations avoided. Price $2, at office or by return mail. 'Royal Protector' and full particulars under plain seal for 4c., stamps. ROYAL REMEDIES CO., 228 Fremont Street, Boston, Mass. Mention this paper.

it is what a cough may lead to that makes it so dangerous. HALE'S HONEY OF HOREHOUND AND TAR Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar is a medicine that has long been tested in private practice. Sold by druggists generally.

Pike's Toothache Drops cure in one minute.

Quincy and Boston Electric Street Railway.

[Subject to change without notice.]

On and after October 10, cars will be run on the different routes as follows:

Quincy and Neponset.

Leave CITY SQUARE for Neponset at 5.55, 6.10, 6.25, 6.40 A. M. and every 15 minutes until 11.10 P. M.

Leave NEPONSET for Quincy at 6.15 A. M. and every 15 minutes until 11.30 P. M.

Cars leaving Quincy at 20 minutes of the hour and Neponset on the hour, go via. Hancock street direct.

Cars leaving Quincy at 25 and 55 minutes past the hour go via Newport avenue, Wollaston.

Cars leaving Quincy at 10 minutes past the hour go via Norfolk Downs, and those leaving Neponset at 30 minutes past go via Downs.

Cars leaving Neponset 15 minutes of and 15 minutes past the hour go via Wollaston and continue through Braintree and Holbrook to Brockton, connecting with cars for Bridgewater, Taunton, New Bedford, Fall River, Newport and Providence.

Quincy and East Weymouth.

Leave CITY SQUARE (10 minutes later from Quincy Point and 22 minutes later from North Weymouth)—5.45, 6.20, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20, 9.50, 10.20, 10.50, 11.20, 11.50 A. M.; 12.20, 12.50, 1.20, 1.50, 2.20, 2.50, 3.20, 3.50, 4.20, 4.50, 5.20, (5.30 to East Weymouth car house), 5.50, 6.20, 6.30, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20, 9.50, 10.50 P. M., (11.50 Wednesday and Saturday to Thomas' Corner only.)

Leave EAST WEYMOUTH (20 minutes later from North Weymouth and 30 minutes later from Quincy Point)—6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8, 8.30, 9, 9.30 10, 10.30, 11, 11.30 A. M.; 12, 12.30, 1, 1.30, 2, 2.30, 3, 3.30, 4, 4.30, 5, 5.30, 6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8 8.30, 9, 9.30, 10, 10.30, 11.30 P. M.

Quincy and Weymouth Landing.

Leave QUINCY at 5.30 A. M., 6.20, 7.20 and every hour until 12.20, then 1.50 and every hour until 10.50 P. M.

Leave WEYMOUTH LANDING at 5.50 A. M. and every hour until 12.50, then 2.20 and every hour until 11.20 P. M., connect with trains to Boston at Quincy.

Quincy and East Milton.

Leave CITY SQUARE, 5.55, 6.25, then every 5 minutes of and 25 minutes past the hour until 9.25 P. M., then at 10.50 P. M.

Leave EAST MILTON 6.25, 6.55 A. M., then every 5 minutes of and 25 minutes past the hour until 9.50 P. M., then 10.20 and 11.20 P. M.

Quincy and Holbrook.

Leave QUINCY for Holbrook at 6.10 and 6.40 A. M., and every half hour until 9.40 P. M., then 10.10 P. M. to South Braintree only, except on Wednesday and Saturday, when car at 10.50 runs through to Holbrook.

Quincy and Hingham.

Leave QUINCY at 7.20 A. M. and every hour until 11.20 A. M., then 1.50 and every hour until 5.50 P. M.

Leave HINGHAM at 8 A. M. and every hour until 12 M., then 2.30 and every hour until 6.30 P. M.

Neponset, Atlantic and Squantum.

Leave NEPONSET at 6.30 A. M. and every hour until 8.30 P. M., connecting at Atlantic with outward express trains.

Leave SQUANTUM at 7 A. M. and every hour until 9 P. M., connecting at Atlantic with express trains.

Quincy and Houghs Neck.

Leave QUINCY CENTRE at 6.20 A. M., and and every hour until 1.20, and then 1.50 and every hour until 9.50.

Returning, leave HOUGHS NECK at 5.45 A. M., and every hour until 12.45, and then 1.20 and every hour until 9.20.

SUNDAYS.

Cars leave City Square, Quincy, for E. Weymouth and Weymouth Landing at 7.30 A. M. and West Quincy at 7 A. M. and on the hour and half hour throughout the day.

Sunday time same as week days on other lines, except that the first two trips are omitted.

BENJ. J. WEEKS, Superintendent.

New York, New Haven and Hartford R. R.

Eastern District.

On and after July 1st, 1898, trains will run as follows: (See note of explanation at bottom.

TO BOSTON. Leave Quincy.	Stops at	Arrive Boston.	FROM BOSTON. Leave Boston.	Stops at	Arrive Quincy
r 6 12 abc	e	6 30	5 55 ihgfedcba	e	6 22 r
r 6 42 abc		7 00	6 30 cba		6 49 r
r 7 12 abc		7 30	7 30 cba		7 49 r
r 7 26 ad		7 43	8 30 cba		8 49 r
r 7 42 abc		8 00	9 30 cba		9 49 r
r 8 12 abc		8 30	10 30 cba		10 49 r
r 8 26 ad		8 43	11 30 cba		11 49 r
r 8 42 abc		9 00	12 30 cba		12 49 r
r 9 12 abc		9 30	1 30 cba		1 49 r
r 10 12 abc		10 30	2 30 cba		2 49 r
r 11 12 abc		11 30	3 30 cba		3 49 r
r 12 12 abc		12 30	4 30 cba		4 49 r
r 1 12 abc		1 30	5 00 cba		5 19 r
r 2 12 abc		2 30	5 17 da		5 36 r
r 3 12 abc		3 30	5 30 cba		5 49 r
r 4 12 abc		4 30	6 00 cba		6 19 r
r 5 12 abc		5 30	6 17 da		6 36 r
r 6 12 abc		6 30	6 30 cba		6 49 r
r 7 12 abc		7 30	7 00 eba		7 19 r
r 7 39 abcdefghi		8 05	7 30 cba		7 49 r
r 8 08 abcdef		8 30	8 30 fedcba		8 53 r
r 9 12 abc		9 30	9 30 cba		9 49 r
r 10 08 abcdef		10 30	10 30 fedcba		10 53 r
r 11 12 abc		11 30	11 30 cba		11 49 r

SUNDAYS.

r 7 12 abc		7 30	6 30 cba		6 1
r 8 12 abc		8 30	8 30 cba		8 49 r
r 9 12 abc		9 30	12 30 cba		12 49 r
r 1 12 abc		1 30	4 30 cba		4 49 r
r 5 12 abc		5 30	5 30 cba		5 49 r
r 7 12 abc		7 30	6 30 cba		6 49 r
r 8 08 abcdef		8 30	8 30 fedcba		8 53 r
r 10 08 abcdef		10 30	10 30 fedcba		10 53 r

*The letters in the same line as the figures stand for different stations and indicate that trains stop, as follows:

a, Wollaston, b, Norfolk Downs, c, Atlantic. d, Neponset. e, Pope's Hill, f, Harrison Square. g, Savin Hill. h, Crescent Avenue. i, South Boston. r, Quincy Adams. (xx), Express.

C PETER CLARK, Gen'l Supt. A. C. KENDALL, G. P. A what a may

HALE'S HONEY OF HOREHOUND AND TAR makes rous.

ey of Horehound and Tar is hat has long been tested actice. Sold by druggists che Drops cure in one minute.

y and Boston Street Railway.

change without notice.]

October 10, cars will be nt routes as follows:

cy and Neponset.

QUARE for Neponset at 5.55,
. M. and every 15 minutes until

NSET for Quincy at 6.15 A. M.
utes until 11.30 P. M.

uincy at 20 minutes of the hour
n the hour, go via. Hancock uincy at 25 and 55 minutes past

Newport avenue, Wollaston.

Quincy at 10 minutes past the olk Downs, and those leaving
inutes past go via Downs.

Neponset 15 minutes of and 15
e hour go via Wollaston and
Braintree and Holbrook to cting with cars for Bridge-
New Bedford, Fall River,
vidence.

nd East Weymouth.

QUARE (10 minutes later from
22 minutes later from North
5, 6.20, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20,
0.20, 10.50, 11.20, 11.50 A. M.; 1.50, 2.20, 2.50, 3.20, 3.50, 4.20,
to East Weymouth car house),
3.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20, (11.50 Wednesday and Saturday er only.)

WEYMOUTH (20 minutes later mouth and 30 minutes later from 6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8, 8.30, 9, 9.30
30 A. M.; 12, 12.30, 1, 1.30, 2, .30, 5, 5.30, 6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8
10.30, 11.30 P. M.

d Weymouth Landing.

CY at 5.30 A. M., 6.20, 7.20 and
12.20, then 1.50 and every hour

MOUTH LANDING at 5.50
hour until 12.50, then 2.20 and til 11.20 P. M., connect with at Quincy.

y and East Milton.

SQUARE, 5.55, 6.25, then every 25 minutes past the hour until
t 10.50 P. M.

MILTON 6.25, 6.55 A. M., then of and 25 minutes past the hour
then 10.20 and 11.20 P. M.

cy and Holbrook.

CY for Holbrook at 6.10 and every half hour until 9.40 P. M., M. to South Braintree only, nesday and Saturday, when car rough to Holbrook.

cy and Hingham.

CY at 7.20 A. M. and every hour
, then 1.50 and every hour until

HAM at 8 A. M. and every hour
en 2.30 and every hour until

Atlantic and Squantum.

NSET at 6.30 A. M. and every
P. M., connecting at Atlantic press trains.

NTUM at 7 A. M. and every ., connecting at Atlantic with

y and Houghs Neck.

CY CENTRE at 6.20 A. M., and until 1.20, and then 1.50 and 9.50.

ave HOUGHS NECK at 5.45
hour until 12.45, and then 1.20
until 9.20.

SUNDAYS.

y Square, Quincy, for E. Weymouth Landing at 7.30 A. M. y at 7 A. M. and on the hour
roughout the day.

ame as week days on other lines,
irst two trips are omitted.

. WEEKS, Superintendent.

rk, New Haven Hartford R. R.

ern District.

July 1st, 1898, trains will run
note of explanation at bottom.

N.	FROM BOSTON.
Arrive Boston.	Leave Boston.	Stops at	Arrive Quincy
6 30	5 55	ihgfedcba	*6 22 r
7 00	6 30	cba	6 49 r
7 30	7 30	cba	7 49 r
7 43	8 30	cba	8 49 r
8 00	9 30	cba	9 49 r
8 30	10 30	cba	10 49 r
8 43	11 30	cba	11 49 r
9 00	12 30	cba	12 49 r
9 30	1 30	cba	1 49 r
10 30	2 30	cba	2 49 r
11 30	3 30	cba	3 49 r
12 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
1 30	5 00	cba	5 19 r
2 30	5 17	da	5 36 r
3 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
4 30	6 00	cba	6 19 r
5 30	6 17	da	6 36 r
6 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
7 30	7 00	eba	7 19 r
8 05	7 30	cba	7 49 r
8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
9 30	9 30	cba	9 49 r
10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r
11 30	11 30	cba	11 49 r

NDAYS.

7 30	6 30	cba	6 1
8 30	8 30	cba	8 49 r
9 30	12 30	cba	12 49 r
1 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
5 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
7 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r

the same line as the figures nt stations and indicate that ows:

g, Savin Hill.
h, Crescent Avenue.
i, South Boston.

r, Quincy Adams.
e. (xx), Express.

RK, A. C. KENDALL
G. P. A

QUINCY DAILY LEDGER.

VOL. 10. No. 37. QUINCY, MASS., WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 12, 1898. PRICE 2 CENTS.

SWEATERS.

We think we can show you the best assortment of Sweaters to be found in the city.

BOYS' SAILOR COLLAR, GARNET OR NAVY BLUE,	$ .50
" " " " " " "	.75
" " " " " " "	1.00
" ROLL " " " " "	1.00
MEN'S SAILOR " " " " "	2.00
" " " " " " "	2.50

Look at Our Window Display.

GEO. W. JONES,

Adams Building, Quincy.

NOTICE EXTRAORDINARY.

MRS. B. CRAVENS, the Expert Demonstrator of

"HER MAJESTY'S CORSET,"

will fill a special one week's engagement at our store, commencing Oct. 10th and ending Oct. 15th Mrs. Cravens will be glad to explain the merits of this Celebrated Corset and give fittings, thus illustrating its superiority over others.

We desire it to be distinctly understood that ladies will not be expected to purchase a Corset after a fitting is made unless they so desire.

"Her Majesty's Corset" is Not the Cheapest, but the Best.

☞ "Her Majesty's Corset" in Fit, Wear and Comfort is unsurpassed. It is worn by well dressed women. Endorsed by Physicians and Modistes.

D. E. WADSWORTH & CO.,
Hancock Street, Quincy.

WATCHES.

GENT'S WATCHES, $1.50 and Up.

LADIES' WATCHES, $2.50 and Up.

EVERY WATCH WARRANTED.

$2.00 Belts, $1.00 Each.
75c. Brooch Pins, 25c. Each.
25 and 35c. Stick Pins, 5 and 10c. Ea.

Quincy SOUVENIR TILES Half Price,

And Other Bargains.

A. A. LINSCOTT, Jeweler,

154 Hancock St., opp. Post Office, Quincy.

Agent for Graphophones.

aug 6. tf

ONE-TON ORDERS

Have been the making of this Coal business. Hundreds have ordered "just one ton to see if there was any difference." They found there was and they came again. Our one-ton orders have been our best advertisements. It's a better Coal at the same price, with the proof in a sample ton. When in doubt, try Patch's.

C. PATCH & SON.

NOTHING BETTER,

UNCLE SAM'S NAVY

Now commands the respect of the world, and we are all proud of the defenders of the Nation's Honor. To give the people of Quincy a good idea of the grand battleships, we have ordered a large supply of portfolios, giving magnificent views of the ships, crews, etc.

With each purchase made at our store we will give a portfolio check to the value of the purchase. When you have $4.00 worth of these checks, return them and get a portfolio. Continue in this way until you have the set complete. Call and see these magnificent portfolios.

ROGERS BROS.,

Groceries and Provisions. Adams Building, Quincy.

TELEGRAPHIC.

3 O'CLOCK.

ALL CUBA OURS DEC. 1.

Determination That Spanish Control Must Cease.

Conclusion of Negotiations Not to Be Awaited.

Presence of the Enemy's Troops Will Make No Difference.

Washington, Oct. 12.—When the attention of the officials of the war department was called to a statement made in Madrid, that a strong force of Spanish troops would be kept in Cuba until the treaty of peace had been signed, it was simply stated that there had been and would be no change in the movements of the United States troops, and that the instructions given to the American military commission in Havana to take possession of the island Dec. 1, irrespective of the presence or absence of the Spanish officials, would be rigorously adhered to. The Spanish troops may stay in Cuba for a time after that date if evacuation is not complete, but they will not be the masters of the island, and the United States officials will administer all of its affairs.

This order was not intended to work hardship to the Spanish troops or government, but it was thought best to fix a definite time to end Spanish rule and to begin operations under the United States. It is probable that United States troops will go to Cuba before the time mentioned. By Dec. 1 it is expected to have troops so stationed that there will be no need of Spanish troops to preserve order.

Major General Brooke will assume absolute command of Porto Rico. It is possible that all the Spanish troops will not have left Porto Rico at the time. If so, they will be quartered in barracks until they can be taken away. The United States will not ship the remaining troops to Spain at its own expense; that was no part of the protocol. The custom houses, the money received from customs and the government of the island will pass completely from Spanish control on the date set.

THE SECRETARY'S REPLY.

Furnishes the War Investigators the Information They Sought.

Washington, Oct. 12.—These are the answers returned by Secretary Alger to the inquiries of the war investigators:

1—Plan of campaign proposed immediately after the declaration of war; was it intended to move at once on Havana, or that the campaign should be postponed until the autumn?

Answer—Immediate blockade by the navy of the important ports of Cuba, as directed by the president's proclamation; the holding of troops at points nearest to Cuba to be available in any emergency which might arise, and especially to be ready for prompt assistance in case the operations of the navy should make the use of land forces desirable. Early in May a plan was partially matured to land a force at Mariel, a point about 26 miles west of Havana, reports having been received that in its immediate vicinity were high grounds, well watered and suitable for camping troops preparatory to a movement upon Havana later if it was deemed advisable, the thought being that possibly an assault might be made upon the forces defending that city before the rainy season set in. Orders were issued to that effect in May, but subsequently plans were changed on account of further information that there would be great danger to the health of the troops in that vicinity, and also on account of the uncertainty of the movements of the enemy's fleet. It was then determined to keep the forces in the United States at points as near Cuba as possible for immediate embarkation should an emergency demand it. The Santiago campaign proved to be that emergency. It should be added further that it was believed, after consultation with medical authorities, that troops camping in southern states during the summer would become somewhat acclimated for their service in Cuba.

2—When was the Santiago campaign determined upon?

Answer—The Santiago campaign was made necessary by the presence of Admiral Cervera's fleet in Santiago harbor, but had previously been contemplated as one point on the coast where a reconnoisance in force was to be made to ascertain the strength of the enemy in the different localities in eastern Cuba.

3—Why was Tampa selected as the base of operations?

Answer—On account of the shipping facilities at that point and its comparatively short distance from Cuba, rendering any movement of the troops possible on short notice as the progress of the blockade or any other sudden condition might require.

4—Why were summer camps organized at Fernandina, Jacksonville and Tampa?

Answer—All of the early camps in the south were selected with special regard for the health of the troops and their convenience for prompt movement by rail and water. The camp at Fernandina was organized on the recommendation of the major general commanding the army. The camp at Jacksonville was selected on the recommendation of Major General Lee, U. S. V., commanding the Seventh army corps. A permanent camp was never contemplated at Tampa. Troops were sent there preparatory for embarkation and were kept there to be ready for any emergency and later to embark for Porto Rico; and upon the signing of the protocol the troops, being no longer required at Tampa, were sent to Huntsville, Ala., a camp selected by officers detailed to ascertain the best camping site, having in view health and comfort of the soldiers.

5—When was the Porto Rico campaign determined upon?

Answer—The Porto Rico campaign had been long under consideration and the orders to carry it out were issued June 26, 1898.

6—Why were the troops held on transports after embarkation at Tampa?

Answer—Troops were held on transports after embarkation at Tampa on account of advice received from Commodore Remy that "Spanish cruiser second class and Spanish torpedo boat destroyer seen by Eagle, Nicholas channel, Cuba; destroy convoy."

ONLY ONE WITNESS.

General Graham Describes Conditions at the Famous Camp Alger.

Washington, Oct. 12.—The only witness before the war investigating commission yesterday was Major-General Graham. He was in command at Camp Alger, Va., at the beginning of the war, and detailed the conditions which prevailed at that camp. There was only one railroad to the camp, and the station was about one and a half miles distant. No running stream was near by, but there were fine springs and small brooks formed by the springs. He thought the water supply was sufficient when the camp numbered no more than five regiments of troops, but as the troops increased in number it became necessary to dig wells. There was delay in digging the wells, 40 of which were sunk, one for each regiment. The supply was ample for all purposes except bathing. The wells were well cased and there was no surface pollution of them. Before the wells were sunk, General Graham said, there undoubtedly was some inconvenience on account of the necessity of going a long distance for water. It was also his impression that there had been some complaints of sickness on account of the water famine which had continued from the 20th of May until the 25th of June, with varying degrees of intensity. He had been through campaigns in which the water supply was not equal to that at Camp Alger.

General Graham did not believe that the spring and well water had been responsible for the sickness at Camp Alger, but was inclined to attribute much of the trouble to the fact that the soldiers insisted upon taking the water from the little streams running through the camp. There had been considerable typhoid fever at the camp, but it did not originate there, and the first cases were isolated. During the entire stay at the camp less than 4 percent of the command was sick. There were 69 deaths, five being those of officers. Much of the sickness, in his opinion, was due to delicacies sent to the soldiers from home, and he issued an order prohibiting the sale of ice cream, pies, etc., in the camp, and all the milk sold was analyzed.

When typhoid fever began to be considered an epidemic he issued strict orders for the detailing of guards for the care of the sinks, making any neglect an offense punishable by arrest. Other precautions were taken to protect the men from contamination, including the removal of the sick to a proper distance from the kitchens.

Work of the Peace Commissioners.

Paris, Oct. 12.—After a joint session yesterday afternoon the American and Spanish peace commissions adjourned without having reached a final conclusion as to any point in the protocol. Thus far there has been no joint formulation or crystallization of views to be returned by each commission to its government for embodying the final treaty.

The question of the Philippines has not yet been considered in joint session, though the Americans at their separate sessions have acquired exhaustive information from persons who have lived in the Philippine islands and done business there. They are, therefore, well equipped to discuss the subject when it comes up.

The Spanish, it is believed, have asked to have the Cuban debt assumed by the United States, urging that the debt should pass with the sovereignty. The debt covers the expense of the ten years' war, the recent insurrection and the war with the United States, so far as Spain's outlay in the war can be classified against Cuba. The Americans probably have replied that if indeed any part of the so-called Cuban debt is allowable the part incurred in suppressing insurrections or in the war with the United States is not allowable.

The Spanish will doubtless also urge equities in stocks, water front betterments, public buildings and perhaps war material. It is possible that this contention will receive consideration on the basis of equities between mortgagor and mortgagee. Thus far no disposition has been developed on either side to delay the ultimate conclusions and the end of the work in hand.

A Transport Afire.

New York, Oct. 12.—The Obdam arrived at quarantine yesterday afternoon with about 250 sick and convalescent soldiers and about 35 passengers. The Obdam sailed from Santiago for this port on Oct. 2, but when two days at sea fire was discovered in her bunkers and she was compelled to return to Santiago, where the fire was extinguished. The transport sailed again on Oct. 5. On the 9th a fire broke out again, and though every effort was made to get it under control the fire was still smouldering when the Obam reached quarantine.

The fire proved very stubborn and caused much uneasiness on board, more especially as the transport had stowed in her hold a very large quantity of ammunition and a large number of rifles.

Matching of Pugilists.

New York, Oct. 12.—Articles of agreement for a fight between James J. Corbett and Thomas Sharkey, to take place Nov. 22, under the auspices of the Lenox Athletic club, for a $20,000 purse, were signed last night by George F. Considine for Corbett, Tom O'Rourke for Sharkey and Joseph Vacius for the Lenox club. A forfeit of $2,500 is to be deposited by each party and by the club to guarantee the fulfillment

LAND VALUES

A Transcript From the Books of the Assessors.

Number of Feet in Each Lot and Valuation Thereof.

Also the Amount of Each Person's Tax Bill for 1898.

[Continued from yesterday.]

Something new in the publication of the taxpayers of the city is attempted this year by the Daily Ledger. There is considerable interest in the assessed value of land in the city, which is claimed to be high in some cases and low in others. So the Ledger has supplemented the amount of the tax bill in each ward with the value of each lot of land for which the person is taxed, giving in each case the number of square feet or acreage.

The amount given in the line with the person's name is his total ward tax, and may include houses, personal property, etc., in addition to the lots of land below. The Ledger gives only the valuation of the land.

To obtain a person's total tax in the city, add together the amounts paid in the several wards.

The Ledger commenced the publication Aug. 30, and has already published the land values of all persons whose names begin with A to K, and today's instalment is third and last of the Ls:

WARD FOUR.

Valuation of Land Only.	Total Ward Tax.
Lindberg, Andrew	55 10
14,690, Arthur, $500.
Lindberg, Olif	50 60
6,295, Wilson, $300.
Linton, Benjamin F.	29 00
9,553, Copeland, $500.
Little, Daniel C.	51 50
22,350, Willard, $1,100.
10,890, Common, $500.
Ljungguist, Edward E.	20 00
5,000, Quarry, $250.
5,000, " $250.
Ljungguist, Axel	20 25
7,750, Nelson, $125.
Looney, Cornelius	22 70
1-2 acre, Grove, $500.
Loud, William F.	115 40
13,800, Hall place, $700.
Lyons, Mrs. Ellen	23 40
1-2 acre, Miller, $400.
Lyons Granite Co.	459 00
7.42 acres, Bedbug Quarry, $5,000.
7 " Quarry Land, $2,000
Lyons, Jeremiah J.	44 30
33,800, West, $1,350.

WARD FIVE.

Lincoln, Daniel B.	80 10
7,500, Safford, $600.
9,000, Block, 6, Sec. 1, $1,350.
2,500, " 12, " 6, $200.
Lincoln, Jennie W.	231 75
25,275, Grand View ave., $3,750.
16,000, " " " $1,600.
Lingley, Catherine W.	30 15
6,472, Newton, $375.
Linnell, Arthur E.	39 80
4,210, Davis. $300.
Litchfield, Charles I.	6 30
6,533, Lot 51, $350.
Litchfield, Festus	66 60
11,340, Lot 2, Sec. 1, $1,500.
Litchfield, Fred E.	104 85
6,430, Lot 26, Sec. 1, $1,000.
8,967, " 1, " 3, $275.
6,413, " 2, " 3, $200.
9,296, " 3, " 3, $300.
6,742, " 4, " 3, $250.
10,875 " 5, " 3, $300.
10,083, Lot 5, Sec. 4, $550.
Litchfield, Mrs. John H.	63 90
9,450, Prospect ave., $1,150.
Litchfield, John H. Jr.,	78 50
11,250, Lot, 10, Sec. 2, $1,000.
Litchfield, Liba	63 00
12,624, Beale, $350.
10,083, Lot 5, Sec. 4, $550.
Litchfield, Ruth R.	141 30
2,000, Park, $350.
6,000, " $1,000.
6,100, " $1,000.
Locke, Caroline P.	47 70
8,414, Freeman, $450.
Logan, Elizabeth S.	24 30
5,000, Farrington, $350.

Continued on page 3.

Royal makes the food pure, wholesome and delicious

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

Parlor Stove Talk

It isn't because people don't know or don't care, it's because they don't think and are neglectful that colds are caught and sickness of a more serious nature is contracted. A pinch of prevention is worth a barrel of cure.

It doesn't pay to sit in cold, damp rooms and become chilled during the cool fall evenings. Take no chances, buy a parlor stove now, get the good of it and protect your health.

Our parlor stoves are attractive, serviceable, economical to run, and will keep you warm. That's something to think about, but that's not all, they are wonderfully low in price, $2.90 to $25.00—that's something to dream about.

HENRY L. KINCAIDE & CO.

Reliable, Low Priced House Furnishers.

Hancock Street, - - - Quincy, Mass.

GEO. AMES,

the ONLY PRACTICAL PLUMBER in the Hardware business in the City. He has a patent SEWER TRAP which cannot be beat. Impossible for deadly sewer gas to enter your homes. See him about your Sewer Connection. He has had three years' experience in Boston and other large cities. Established here in 1889 and still in it. Work done anywhere.

Hardware, Paints and Oils, Putty and Glass, Yacht Supplies, Steam and Gas Fittings. Steam and Hot Air Heaters put in repair for the winter.

ADAMS BUILDING

Gentlemen, Buy Your....

OVERCOATS

Where you can find the best assortment in the city and the lowest prices, which is at

C. F. DERBY'S, SAVINGS BANK BUILDING, QUINCY. 5-1m

TELL US . .

What you are looking for.

We can show you a fine line of

FALL AND WINTER UNDERWEAR,

HOSIERY,

Outing Flannels, Flannelettes,

Plaid Dress Goods,

WRAPPERS, BLANKETS,

Comforters,

Dress Linings and other Dry Goods.

OUR STOCK IS FRESH.
OUR PRICES THE LOWEST.

MISS C. S. HUBBARD,

158 Hancock Street.

ALBERT J. BOWERS OPTICIAN

ADAMS BUILDING OVER POST OFFICE QUINCY MASS.

DR. RALPH M. FOGG,

DENTIST.

Teeth extracted absolutely without pain by the use of the

"BOSTON VEGETABLE VAPOR."

It is claimed that, while it has the required properties of ether, chloroform, nitrous oxide gas, it lacks the disagreeable and dangerous qualities of these drugs. It is certainly a boon to suffering humanity to be relieved of the nausea too often following the administering of sedatives of the old school.—Boston Transcript.

Teeth made and repaired on Gold or Rubber base. Teeth Filling a specialty.

Office in French's Building, five doors south of Post Office, Quincy, Wednesdays. Hours, 9 A. M. to 5 P. M. July18-ly Nov8-1yo

The John Hancock Stables.

Opposite Depot, Quincy, Mass.

Boarding, Baiting, Livery and Sale.

DR. J. A. DOW, Proprietor,

the well known Veterinary dentist and specialist in the treatment of lame horses. Sick horses treated at owner's risk.

The finest equipped and managed stable of its size in America.

Fine driving turnouts in light rigs; safe and good appearing. All horses let are perfectly safe for ladies to drive.

The choicest family, road and coach horses constantly on hand for sale. All horses guaranteed as represented.

☞ Will attend to veterinary practice as usual. aug18-1y

E. S. BECKFORD,

Electrician.

Wiring and Fitting for Incandescent, Motors, Dynamos, Bells, etc.

GRANITE STREET, Near the Bridge, QUINCY

Feb. 1 1y

BOYS' SUITS THAT SUIT BOYS

Grand Clearance Sale of Boys'

SCHOOL SUITS,

$1.50 to $3.50.

Worth Double the Price.

School begins Tuesday and your boy wants something new. Drop in to our store tonight and see how little money it takes to dress him handsomely.

Granite Clothing Co.

DURGIN & MERRILL'S BLOCK.

By FRANK F. CRANE, - Auctioneer.
Office, 4 Chestnut Street, Quincy.

AUCTION SALE
OF THE
ATTRACTIVE REAL ESTATE
OF THE LATE
MICHAEL GOODHUE,
No. 40 Phipps Street,
TUESDAY, OCT. 18th,
At 3 O'clock P. M.

THIS Estate consists of a Modern House of nine rooms, there is a good stable on the premises, about one acre of land having a very large frontage on Phipps street. The estate contains a variety of shade and fruit trees, an extra fine lot of grapes and currants. Also a fine well containing an excellent quality of water. The buildings are in good repair and the estate is very desirable as a residence or for investment.

Sale Positive, rain or shine.

Terms: $100.00 at sale, balance in ten days.

For further information apply to the auctioneer.

Quincy, Oct. 5—10t 8p—1w

By FRANK F. CRANE, - Auctioneer.
Office, 4 Chestnut street, Quincy.

AUCTION SALE
— OF —
HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE
Carpenters' Tools, Lumber, etc.,
At the Residence of
ERNEST G. BACON,
Clark Street, Atlantic,
Thursday, Oct. 13th,

at 1.30 o'clock P. M., consisting of Black Walnut Marble Top Chamber Set, Ash Chamber Set, Oak Folding Bed, lot of odd Chairs, Baby Carriage, Croquet Set, Kitchen Goods, lot of Hot Bed Sash, Window Frames, a good Hand Cart, Wheelbarrow, Garden Tools, lot of good Posts, 6 or 8 good ladders, set of Painters' Falls, some good White-wood, odd Desk, and a large variety of small articles too numerous to mention.

Sale positive, rain or shine. Terms cash.

Oct. 8. 4t

By FRANK F. CRANE, - Auctioneer.
Office, 4 Chestnut St., Quincy.

AUCTION SALE
OF THE
Real Estate
— OF —
OWEN H. OWENS, 121 Granite St.,
SATURDAY, Oct. 15th,
2 o'clock P. M.

Consists of a Cottage House of 7 rooms, about one-half acre of land.

This estate is very desirable, either as a home or for investment.

Sale positive, rain or shine.

Terms: $100 at sale. Balance in 10 days at the office of Geo. H. Brown, Adams Building. For further particulars apply to George H. Brown.

oct 5 8 11 12 13 14 8 1wp

By FRANK F. CRANE, - - Auctioneer.
Office, 4 Chestnut St., Quincy.

Auction Sale
— OF —
TWO DESIRABLE
HOUSES
Billings Street,
ATLANTIC, MASS.,
Saturday, Oct. 15th
At 3.30 and 4.30, respectively.

AT 3.30 P. M. we shall offer a modern house of 10 rooms and bath and 4,500 feet of land, the second house on the right from Prospect street. This is a new house, has never been occupied, has oak floor in front hall, oak staircase, all the finish on the first floor is hard wood, frescoed ceilings, nicely papered, open plumbing, concrete cellar, and is fitted for a furnace. Has open fireplaces, good closet room and city water. The location is high and dry, the neighborhood is excellent and the house is within 3 minutes of railroad, electric cars, postoffice, churches, schools, and stores. The house can be seen at any time before the sale by applying to Mr. Geo. V. Bryant at the adjoining house now building at the corner of Prospect and Billings streets.

Terms: $100.00 at sale, balance in ten days at the office of Geo. H. Brown, Trustee, Adams Building, Quincy.

At 4.30 P. M. we shall offer one of the most desirable and attractive houses that has ever been sold in this city, located on Billings street, near Squantum street, 5,746 sq. ft. of land. Electric cars pass the house; 7 rooms and bath; fine piazza, elegant reception room, oak floor, open fire places, electric light, set range, laundry, furnace, first-class hardware all over the house, extra large bath room, fine paper hangings, large attic that could be finished into two chambers if desired, good closet room, large pantry. This house is a gem and must be seen to be appreciated; 6 minutes from R. R, stores, churches, etc.

Terms: $100 at sale; balance in ten days at the office of George H. Brown, Trustee, Adams Building, Quincy.

Oct. 7—6t 8-1wp

TEETH EXTRACTED.
No Pain or Danger.

Safer than vapor. Money paid for extracting goes towards teeth to be inserted. I am the only dentist in the city using the Painless Preparation for Extraction.

DR. C. B. UNDERWOOD,
9 Spear St. Rear of Public Library

☞ Hundreds of Lamps to choose from, the very newest and latest notions are here for your inspection; 25c. to $10.00. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

Quincy Daily Ledger

ESTABLISHED IN 1889.

The ONLY DAILY in Norfolk County Massachusetts.

Published Every Evening, Sundays and Holidays Excepted, At No. 115 HANCOCK ST., City of Quincy, Mass., by

GEORGE W. PRESCOTT & SON.

Successors to Green & Prescott.

Subscription Price, $6.00 per year.

☞ A discount of $1 when paid in advance.

ALSO PUBLISHERS OF

The Quincy Patriot,

A Weekly Established in 1837, which has the Largest Circulation in Norfolk County, and

The Braintree Observer,

A Weekly Established in 1878.

TELEPHONE, 78-3 QUINCY.

Quincy Temperature at Noon.

	This Week.	Last Week.	In 1897.	In 1896.
Sunday	66	64	68	51
Monday	53	76	54	51
Tuesday	75	85	65	50
Wednesday	71	63	78	52
Thursday	--	64	66	50
Friday	—	61	60	54
Saturday	—	61	75	50

New Advertisements Today.

Cat boats for sale.

Experienced stitchers wanted.

POLITICAL SKIES.

Rosy to Some Yet Cloudy to Many Others.

Congressman Green of Fall River was renominated Tuesday by the Republicans in the 13th district.

Republican mathematicians have been busily at work for several days attempting to solve the nominations for Representative to the General Court. The last solution given out is that Messrs. Sheppard and Sprague are sure of 21 votes on the first ballot, three more than is necessary to elect.

The Democratic convention for the 1st Norfolk Senatorial District will be held at City Hall, Quincy, on Oct. 15, at 3 P. M.

Y. M. C. A. Officers.

The Quincy Young Men's Christian Association held its annual meeting Tuesday evening and elected these officers:

President, — Delcevare King of Quincy.

Vice President,—H. B. Bailey of Wollaston.

Recording Secretary,—E. D. Gourd of Quincy.

Treasurer,— W. F. Cummings of Atlantic.

The following additional directors were elected: W. T. Isaac, F. H. Crane, Rev. Edward Norton, Alexander Clark, George E. Thomas.

Those with A. D. Albee, W. F. Cummings, H. T. Whitman, E. D. Gourd, H. B. Bailey, A. N. Weeden, W. E. Burke, T. H. Watson, Dr. J. A. Gordon, W. H. Mitchell and N. G. Nickerson constitute the present board of directors.

The meeting adopted new constitution changing the Association year from October to June.

Public Bequests.

The will of Caroline Tucker Downs, late of Canton, which was presented for Probate at Quincy today by Judge White makes the following public bequests: First Unitarian Congregational church, Canton, in trust for support of ministers, $5,000; town of Canton, in trust for the income to be used for books for the public library, $2,000; Children's Mission of Destitue, $10,000; Massachusetts Infant Asylum, $10,000; New England Hospital for Women and Children, $20,000; Children's Hospital of Boston, $20,000; Perkins Institute for the blind for support of kindergarten, $5,000; Young Men's Christian Union, $5,000; the remainder of estate, if any, to be divided prorata among the above charitable institutions. The will also provides that no part of the fund or income is to be applied for buildings but shall be invested and the income applied to the support of the above charities. The will is dated Feb. 8, 1893, and names A. William Dunbar and Amos L. Hollingsworth as executors. The will was not allowed today.

—The 40 lasters employed in the Rice & Hutchins Shoe manufactory at Rockland have quit work because the firm refused to accept the new list of prices. The cutters have been ordered to closed up their work. The factory employes between 300 and 400 hands.

☞ Oil Heaters worth $6.00, our price $3.98, will heat a room in a jiffy. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

At the Turnout

On Water street you will find the variety store under new management. Cigars, Tobacco, Fruits, Newspapers, and 1,001 other things.

W. E. NIGHTINGALE,
80 Water Street.

Oct. 11—4t

MARRIAGE BELLS.

"What future bliss He gives thee not to know,
But gives that hope to be thy blessing now."

Hall--Merrill Wedding at Bethany Church.

An exceedingly pretty wedding was solemnized at the Bethany Congregational church last evening when Miss May Merrill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Merrill, was married to Mr. Arthur Williams Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. John O. Hall. The many friends of the bride and groom were shown to their seats by the following ushers: Mr. Harry E. Russell, Mr. Walter E. Burke, Mr. C. Eaton Pierce, Mr. Frank Merrill, Mr. Herbert W. Barker, and Mr. J. O. Hall, Jr. The church was decorated in a very effective manner with green and hydrangea blossoms. Graceful palms and ferns were massed in front of the organ and across the pulpit platform, while festoons of green brier gave a very artistic effect above the heavier decorations.

Before the wedding ceremony while the guests were being seated, an excellent organ concert was given by Mrs. Jennie Hockins Hunt, the newly appointed organist at the church. Much favorable comment was heard of the selections played and of the skill of the player. In justice to her it ought to be said that the motor which runs the organ proved to be totally inadequate to the high order of concert music which she played, and in several instances defects were noticeable for which the organist was in no way responsible, but which were due to mechanical deficiency in the organ.

At eight o'clock, to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, the bride's attendant, Miss Bessie Merrill, entered at the front of the church and came down the aisle to meet the wedding procession. She was dressed in a dainty gown of pink silk covered with Swiss muslin, and wore a handsome wreath-pin, a gift from the groom. After removing the ribbon barrier which crossed the aisle, she met the ushers and preceded them to the altar. After the ushers came the bridesmaid, Miss Clara Merrill, another sister of the bride. She was gowned in white satin covered with Swiss muslin, with trimmings of ribbon and lace. She also wore a broach, a gift from the groom, and carried a bunch of pinks.

The bride entered with her father. Her gown was of white satin, made very plain, and was most effective on that account. Her veil was caught up with orange blossoms and maiden hair fern. She was met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Mr. Arthur R. Wendall, who is a classmate of the groom, and came on from New York for the wedding. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. N. Hardy, who read the Episcopal service from the prayer book carried by the bride. The bride was given away by her father. During the service the organist played the soft, dreamy strains of Schumann's Traumerei, and this was followed by Mendelssohn's Wedding March, while the wedding party were leaving the church.

A reception at the bride's home, 75 Washington street, followed the services at the church. The parents of the bride and groom assisted in receiving. Congratulations were showered upon the newly made husband and wife. Refreshments were served by Caterer Besse, of Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall were the recipients of many handsome gifts, which were all so well chosen that to mention any one would be to slight the rest. The groom's gift to the bride was a ring, set with a handsome diamond and pearl.

After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Hall left on a short wedding trip. On their return they will come to their new home, 203 Hancock street, where they will be at home to friends on the evenings of December sixth and eighth.

The Up-to-Date Journal.

The new Sunday Journal should soon take front rank in circulation, a position it has long held in enterprise and cleanliness among the Boston newspapers. The new pages are of very convenient size, only five columns to a page, and the increased amount of reading and new features and departments make the Sunday Journal almost indispensable. The Journal made an enviable record in printing the war news and among the features at hand are signed articles by the officers and men who fought in the Cuban campaign; also stories by Conan Doyle, Bret Harte, Charles Dicken's daughter, Walter Besant, fashion articles by those famous costumers of Europe, Felix, Drecoll, Manning and others, signed articles by Walter Barnes, Jr., and I. S. Clark, well known as experts in "gentlemen's sports." The half-tone photographic section is intended to be to New England what Harper's Weekly is to the country, printing the same style of photographs, but devoting them to local events. The Magazine given with the Journal has proved a great feature, thousands of readers having been added on account of its pages of photographs and magazine articles.

☞ Carpets thoroughly cleaned in our electric beater. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

Large Reception by Mr. and Mrs. Hayden.

There was a quiet family wedding last evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Perry, No. 4 Johnson avenue, when their daughter, Miss Addie Florence, and Mr. Edward Warren Hayden were united in marriage by Rev. Edwin Noah Hardy of Bethany Congregational church.

The reception, however, which followed, was very largely attended by the friends of the young people, including guests from New York, Worcester, Hingham and elsewhere, as well as Quincy.

The bride was charmingly attired in an ivory brocaded satin, cut en traine, with chiffon trimmings; a white tulle veil was fastened with orange blossoms, and she carried a bouquet of Bride roses.

Miss Mabelle S. Perry, a sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and was gowned in a white organdie over pink silk. The groom was attended by Mr. George D. Langley.

Mr. and Mrs. Hayden were assisted in receiving by their parents—Mr. and Mrs. George F. Perry and Mr. and Mrs. Albert A. Hayden.

The ushers were: Mr. Arthur T. Perry, Mr. George A. Taylor, Mr. Ernest D. Gourd of Quincy, and Mr. John H. Burroughs of Dorchester.

Mr. Clifford C. Bradford was organist during the evening, and for the wedding ceremony played Lohengren's march.

The house was prettily decorated with smilax, evergreen and cut flowers, palms and ferns.

Delicious ices were served by Cook.

The wedding gifts were displayed in one of the rooms on the first floor, and included silver, cut glass, dainty dishes and many useful article.

Many lingered until after ten o'clock to give the bridal couple a "send off," and assisted in showering rice upon them.

Mr. and Mrs. Hayden will be missed, as they are to reside in Worcester. They will be at home at No. 6 1-2 Westfield street, after Jan. 1.

Cleveland—Adams.

At Hingham last night at the First Baptist church, Miss Elizabeth E. Adams of Hingham and Rev. Frederick L. Cleveland of Chapel Hill, N. C., were united in marriage in the presence of many friends by Rev. Maurice Levy. Miss Grace I. Corthell of Boston and Miss Jessie Holbrook of Hingham were bridemaids, and Rev. Charles Scheikert of New York the best man. A grand reception followed at the residence of the bride's parents on School street.

Beach House Burned.

The house of Joseph Hill situated at the corner of Sea street and Manet avenue, Houghs Neck, was entirely destroyed by fire at 10.15 o'clock last night. It was about that time when Mr. Hill, who was in his house reading, detected a strong smell of smoke, and upon investigating found the room to be on fire. The Houghs Neck department responded but the building was beyond saving, and an alarm on the fire alarm circuit was not sounded.

The building is a small beach affair, little more than a shell and as it was made of old dry lumber it was quickly consumed. Just what the cause was is at present a mystery. The loss will not be heavy.

LOCAL NEWS TRACK.

Some Colts which are Sure Winners Every Heat.

There was another heavy shower early this morning.

Adjourned Republican Congressional convention tonight.

A horse was sold at auction in Quincy this week for $4.

Coal vessels are unloading both at Patch's and Sheppard's wharves.

Will the party who found a fountain pen in City Square this morning kindly return to the Ledger office.

Driver Meade of Hose 4 is having his vacation, and is the last permanent man in the vacation list.

Fifty girls wanted by a rich gentleman—no, no,—by the Congress Manufacturing Company on Washington street.

Judge White was on the bench at the session of the Probate Court in Quincy this morning for the first time since last January.

The value of each of the lots at Houghs Neck owned by the Manet Land Company, will be a feature of tomorrow's Ledger.

The regular Sabbath evening song and preaching service of the Wollaston Methodist church will begin hereafter at 7 o'clock instead of 7.30.

There will be a fine entertainment and supper at the Universalist vestry this evening. One of the best that has been given for many months.

There are other parts of Washington street, than that proposed to be taken by the Highway Commission, that needs rebuilding, but the work may be extended year by year to the Boston line.

The first large card party of the season is to be given next week Tuesday, at Colonial hall under the auspices of Mrs. E. G. Pratt and Mrs. A. H. Gilson. Already a large attendance is promised.

The Bethany Ladies circle is being entertained this afternoon by Mrs. Theophilus King of Adams street. It is the custom to hold the first fall meeting with Mrs. King and large numbers annually enjoy her hospitality.

The ladies are to give a supper and dance at the Wollaston Yacht club house on Thursday night of next week. The supper is put first because it comes first, and from the menu prepared it will be of first importance.

Miss Marcia L. Baldwin of the Agassiz school, Cambridge, will lecture on Harriet Beecher Stowe at Bethany chapel this evening. She is a colored lady and comes highly recommended. School teachers should not fail to hear her.

Many Quincy people will be interested in the announcement of the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Chester P. Dodge of Beverly, Tuesday. Mrs. Dodge was formerly well known here as Miss Maude Cummings. She is a sister of Mrs. A. E. Sproul of Hancock street.

Brooks Adams, in his address at Cambridge Tuesday evening favored taking the Philippines. He said in part: "I think we need the Philippines to fight our commercial enemies with and push forward our commercial interests. It is a question of destroying our common enemy or being destroyed ourselves. Terrible changes will ensue unless we are successful."

To the list of things made from wood, silk must be added. This fact is due to the experiment of a Frenchman named Chardonnier. The process of manufacture differs little from the making of paper.

DISHES WASHED

Gold Dust does it. Morning, noon and night. Makes all dull things bright. Housework's a delight with

GOLD DUST Washing Powder

It gives to an humble home or a palace the cleansing touch that both alike require. It's woman's best friend and dirt's worst enemy.

THE N. K. FAIRBANK COMPANY, Chicago. St. Louis. New York. Boston. Philada.

SWITHIN BROS.
REAL ESTATE!

President's Hill.
President's Hill Annex.
Cranch Hill.

Choice Lots and Improved Property for Sale in West Quincy, Wollaston, South Quincy, Quincy Point, Quincy Centre

Room 12, Durgin & Merrill's Block, Quincy.

Durable Carpetings

It has been our good fortune to note after years of untiring study and observation, that what the general public want today in Carpetings, is something that is serviceable, attractive and not expensive in price.

To some people all carpetings look alike, but it's the wearing quality that counts fully as much as the looks.

We make a specialty of Lowell and Roxbury Carpetings, the excellence of quality being acknowledged by all who know, to be unequalled by Carpets of other manufacture.

Heavy All Wool Carpets, 45c. to 65c.

Extra Fine Tapestry Brussels, 45c. to 85c.

We guarantee that nowhere can such values in Carpetings be found as here.

HENRY L. KINCAIDE & CO.,
RELIABLE, LOW PRICED HOUSE FURNISHERS,
HANCOCK STREET, - - QUINCY.

STENOGRAPHY AND TYPEWRITING, BOOKKEEPING,
And All Clerical Work.
MISSES A. B. and E. M. COTE,
Room 12 Durgin & Merrill Block, - Quincy.
Oct. 10. tf

MABEL F. FAIRBANKS
TEACHER OF
CHINA PAINTING and WATERCOLOR.
China Decorated to Order.
34 Grand View Avenue, Wollaston.
Sept. 29. 3m

ARE YOU WEDDED TO ANY PARTICULAR STORE?
Or Do You Seek the Place
Where the BEST GOODS can be Found at the LOWEST PRICES.

We Don't Claim to Know Much About Shoes or Groceries, but

WE HAVE MADE A STUDY OF CLOTHING FOR YEARS.

We were brought up in the business. It is the only business at which we have ever worked. We have a buyer in the market every day and he should surely know what is going on. We never buy a thing because it looks better than it is. We never buy a shoddy garment because it looks to be all wool, but buy goods that not only look well to begin with but stay looking well to end with.

THE OVERCOATS AND SUITS WE ARE SHOWING ARE ALL 1898 GOODS,

and not goods of last season. They are made of good, honest Kerseys, Meltons, Coverts, Cassimeres and Worsteds, and we guarantee every garment to be honest before and honest beyond. (Before you buy it and beyond the time you've had your money's worth.)

OUR OVERCOATS COMMENCE AT $5.00 AND END AT $20.00, AND OUR SUITS AT $4.98 AND END AT $16.50,
And They Are ALL WOOL (Mind You.)

If You Do Not Save 10 to 25 per cent. We will Pay You Your Money Back.

QUINCY CLOTHING CO.,
QUINCY'S RELIABLE CLOTHIERS,
MUSIC HALL BLOCK.

Bon Ami

Will not Scratch

AND WILL DO ALL THE WORK A SAND SOAP OR SCOURING SOAP IS MADE TO DO. TRY IT.

MISS HAYWARD'S

DANCING CLASS

WILL MEET IN

Colonial Hall,

— ON —

THURSDAY AFTERNOON

From Four until Six O'clock.

MATRONS:

Mrs. Walter Babcock, Mrs. Richard Freeman,
Mrs. A. G. Durgin, Mrs. W. P. Barker.

Oct. 10. 3t

STATE ELECTOIN.

CITY OF QUINCY.

City Clerk's Office, Oct. 7, 1898.

IN Accordance with the provisions of Chapter 548 of the Acts of 1898, notice is hereby given that by a vote of the City Council, passed October 3, 1898, the polling places for the election to be held TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1898, in the City of Quincy, were designated as follows:

WARD ONE.—Council Chamber, City Hall.
WARD TWO—Hose House, Washington street.
WARD THREE, Precinct One.—Doble's Hall, Franklin street.
WARD THREE, Precinct Two.—Old Steamer House, School street.
WARD FOUR, Precinct One.—St. Mary's Hall, Willard street.
WARD FOUR, Precinct Two.—Hose House, Copeland street.
WARD FIVE.—Polson's Building, Newport avenue.
WARD SIX.—Hose House, Newbury avenue.

Attest: EDGAR G. CLEAVES, City Clerk.

Quincy, Oct. 7, 1898. 27t

NOTICE TO VOTERS.

CITY OF QUINCY.

For the purpose of preparing the Annual Register of Voters, and of receiving evidence of qualification from persons claiming a right to Vote at the coming State Election, the Board of Registrars of Voters will be in session at the COUNCIL CHAMBER in the City Hall Building, on the evenings of

Wednesday, Sept. 14,
Saturday, Sept. 17,
Thursday, Sept. 29,
Saturday, Oct. 1,
Wednesday, Oct. 5,
Saturday, Oct. 8,
Saturday, Oct. 15,

From 7 to 9 P. M., and also on

Wednesday, Oct. 19,

From 12 o'clock M. until 10 o'clock P. M.

Every applicant for registration must appear in person before the Board, and must present either a certificate from the Assessors or a Tax bill or Notice from the Collector of Taxes, showing that he has been assessed as a resident of the City on the First day of May last; or a certificate from the Assessors that he has been a resident of the City for the six months next preceding the election at which he claims a right to vote. If a naturalized citizen he must also produce for inspection his papers of naturalization. Payment of a poll tax is not a prerequisite to voting.

No person can vote at the election unless his name has previously been placed upon the voting list of the Ward of which he was a resident on the first day of May last, and no name can be added to the list of voters unless registered previous to

Wednesday, Oct. 19th,

at 10 o'clock P. M., when registration will close.

Examine the Voting Lists posted, and see that your name is in its proper place. NO CHANGE can be made after WEDNESDAY, Oct. 19th, at 10 o'clock P. M. The Board of Assessors will be in session at their office on the same evenings.

EDWARD B. MARSH,
CORNELIUS MOYNIHAN,
EDWARD J. McKEON,
EDGAR G. CLEAVES,
Registrars.

Quincy, Sept. 6, 1898. 38t r10-2w

Come, Mary,

Let's go over to the Quincy Second-Hand Variety Store and see if we can't find just what we want. You say you need some more kitchen goods and a few chairs, a carpet for the chamber, some glassware and various other things, and when I was there last week I saw my cousin get a lot of goods for almost nothing. He told me that sometimes he could find new goods at less than half price. These are hard times, Mary, and we must buy where the dollar goes farthest.

WALTER P. PINEL

is the Manager, and the store is right over here at number 20 Franklin street.

aug25 1y

☞ Hot Stuff—our splendid $1.00 Comforters. Blankets at wonderfully little prices. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

CO. K LETTERS.

Cleanliness of Battalion Camp Surprises the Officials.

With Co. K, 5th Mass.
Camp Meade, Annex, Oct. 9.

We are once more enjoying good warm weather. Saturday was very wet, so that no inspection was ordered. The boys remained in quarters about all day. Towards evening it cleared, so that a review was ordered

We had two distinguished Massachusetts visitors in camp yesterday afternoon, Surgeon General Blood and Adjutant General Dalton. They walked through the company streets, accompanied by Major Morrison. The remark was heard, that our quarters looked very pleasant. They next proceeded to our battalion hospital, where Sergeants Hunting and Matthews awaited their arrival, having just placed some patients in the new hospital. They seemed to be well pleased with the outlook of the camp.

Our old friends, the American Tobacco Co. paid us another visit. We welcomed their presence; each man receiving tobacco, pipes and matches.

Lieut. Whitney of Co. K was officer of the day Saturday.

Today another regiment, the 4th New Jersey, landed here, and will camp until the middle of this month.

Private Mahoney was yesterday selected as orderly to Major Morrison. Today Private Osgood and O'Connors both of this company were picked from the guard to be orderlies to our commanding officer. K seems to have either one or both orderlies every day. It is a good record for a company to be able to accomplish.

Those who are on guard today from this company are Corporal Gannon, Privates Malcolm, McPhee, Mead, Morales, Osgood, O'Connors, Olsen, Oliver, Ryan and Robinson.

Passes are not issued regularly every day, they being stopped the other day, so many of the men who received passes staying over their limited time, has hurt others in procuring a leave of absence.

The boys seem to be well, no complaints have been heard. Today is very quiet. Boys are resting after the hard week, no new orders as yet about moving away. DOC.

With Co. K, 5th Mass.,
Camp Meade Annex, Oct. 10.

Today is a fine day, but cool. It is more refreshing to have cooler weather. Mornings are very chilly, but toward eight they become considerably warmer.

The usual inspection of quarters takes place every morning. At guard mount, Lieut. Coleman, battalion adjutant, selected another K man for orderly; this time it being Private Sheehan. We have not missed a day since our company has been stationed here but there has been either one or two orderlies. The company intends to keep up its good record.

A new guard house is being built of wood under the superintendency of Major Morrison. He is very strict with ill doers.

1st Sergt. Colbert is kept at work about all day, making out his daily reports. The sergeant has his hands full about all the time.

Sergt. Crane of the Commissary department had a few hours of leave yesterday, so that every place of interest was visited. He carried his camera along with him. Private Chase, the company's clerk, accompanied the sergeant on his travels.

Our boys are still in good health, no serious sickness in the whole battalion.

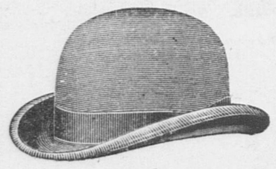

Artificer Seaverns is kept steadily at carpentering about all the time. The General of this division visited the government store which we are guarding this morning. He asked the Commissary Quartermaster in charge, who had cleaned up the freight yard, and being told it was the battalion of the 5th Mass., he remarked that he thought it must have been as their camp was the cleanest of the whole army corps. As they had performed their work in a satisfactory manner, he intended to keep them detached so that he might have some one to depend upon to do the duty in a creditable manner.

Those on guard today are Sergeant Phillips, Corporal Mahoney, Privates Rafferty, D. Smith, Studley, Swanson, Spillane, Savoie, Sheehan, Sullivan, Serberg.

Passes are not issued regularly. They are limited as the men are needed for details over the Commissary department. Col. Whitney came down this morning and looked around. He seemed pleased.

Dinner today consisted of some of that delicious soup sent by our Quincy friends. The boys seemed to relish it immensely. Private Tucker has the knowledge necessary to prepare a dainty dish.

The camp still remains quiet; nothing sensational occurring. DOC.

Dissatisfied Buyers

... OF ...

HATS

Can Best be Suited by Buying

CHAMBERLAIN'S BEACONSFIELD $3.00 DERBY,

OR HIS

REVELATION $2.00 DERBY.

They hold their Shape and Color.

663 WASHINGTON STREET, BOSTON.

Opposite Beach Street.

Hats and Furnishings.

Sept. 15 L 17-4w o

Welcome to Chaplain.

Rev. E. L. House, chaplain of the th Massachusetts regiment, received an enthusiastic welcome home at Attleboro Tuesday evening. From 8 until 9.30 o'clock there was a continuous line of people passing in front of Chaplain and Mrs. House, anxious to shake his hand and question him about the boys at Camp Meade. Mr. and Mrs. House stood under an American flag.

In conversation with a Herald man, Mr. House said that the 5 h regiment is the admired of all regiments, and if the others at Camp Meade were as well disciplined and officered there would be no cause for dissension and illness. It is generally admitted at the camp that the 5th is the best regiment on the ground.

During the evening the Attleboro band was stationed at one end of the hall and gave a concert of patriotic airs.

"Out of Order."

There was a queer occurrence in the Republican county convention of Norfolk county on Monday. A candidate for county commissioner was put in nomination there. Mr. Faxon of Quincy objected to him on the ground that he had been identified with some of the scandalous proceedings in that body a few years ago. The chairman of the convention remarked that this was irrelevant, as the convention was not a board of inquiry, and its duty was not that of investigation as to the record of candidates. Upon this Mr. Faxon rejoined: "I should like to know what we are here for, then." This inquiry does not seem to have met with a response, but it strikes us that it called for one. Without regard to the merits of this particular case, it is a strange doctrine, indeed, if discussion as to the fitness of candidates for an office, as seen in their action in the same office, is to be declared out of order. It illustrates forcibly the thoughtlessness of avowal into which politics as now conducted has brought those who participate in it.—Herald.

Unity Club Reception.

The reception of the Unity club of Wollaston will be held at the Wollaston Unitarian church on Friday evening from 8 to 10 o'clock. The members and guests will enter the auditorium and after leaving their outer garments will pass into the vestry where the reception will be held. The receiving committee will consist of the officers of the club, and will be as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Finch, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Collyer, Mr. Clifton H. Baker, Rev. and Mrs. James E. Bagley, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Lull, and Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Allison Tupper.

There will be addresses by President Finch and the Rev. James E. Bagley. During the evening there will be orchestral and vocal music. The vestry will be decorated with potted plant. A light lunch will be served.

Golf Championship.

The second round of the club championship of the Wollaston Golf club was completed, Tuesday, and two of the matches proved to be the hardest fought of any yet played. While C. L. Bremer had little difficulty in defeating J. F. Morrill, and E. H. Brock won from A. K. Pope by default, the matches between G. E. Atherton and T. G. Rice, Ralph Cracknell and J. B. Tilton, proved exceedingly close and interesting.

The third round will be played tomorrow, Bremer playing Brock, and Atherton playing Cracknell.

TODAY'S COURT.

Nestor Hendricksen was fined $5 for drunkenness at Quincy, and Lewis Chase $5 for the same offense at Braintree.

BORN.

DODGE—In Beverly, Oct. 11, a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Chester P. Dodge.

PROBATE COURT.

Judge White Holds the Regular Monthly Session in Quincy.

George White held Probate Court for Norfolk County at Quincy today and transacted the following business:

WILLS ALLOWED.

Of Thomas W. Sampson, late of Braintree; Martha J. Sampson executrix; bond $6,000

Of Michael Ryan, late of Weymouth; Hannah A. Ryan executrix; bond $200.

Of John Maloney, late of Braintree; Julia Ann Maloney executrix; bond $5,000.

Of Rachel J. Knight, late of Randolph; Edwin F. Knight executor; bond $2,500.

Of Sarah B. Tupper, late of Braintree; Lucy F. Whitty executrix; bond $4,000.

Of Susan K. Chesley, late of Quincy; William A. Harper, executor; bond $40,000.

ADMINISTRATIONS GRANTED.

Albert F. Hayden, on estate of Edward B. Hayden, late of Braintree; bond $2,000.

George T. Waldron, on estate of Harriet E. Bass, late of Quincy; bond $5,000.

Selena H. Bailey, on the estate of Sally H. Tirrell, late of Weymouth; bond $2,000.

Eliza A Penniman, on estate of Ebenezer N. Denton, late of Braintree; bond $700.

William S. Cutter, on estate of Lucy Ann Clark, late of Brookline; bond $15,000.

INVENTORIES FILED.

On estate of Martha W. Hobart, late of Braintree; personal estate, $664.08.

On estate of Sarah A. Hall, late of Quincy; personal estate, $852.03.

ACCOUNTS ALLOWED.

First and Second of Edward W. E. Thompson; executor of will of Samuel Thompson, late of Brookline.

TRUSTEES.

Emery L. Crane was appointed trustee of certain estate of Columbus Lary, late of Quincy, for the benefit of Caroline Lary and others; bond $7,000.

SALE OF REAL ESTATE.

Fred M. French, administrator of estate of Cynthia Smith, late of Braintree, was granted permission to sell real estate to the amount of $897.41.

Edward J. Fuller, administrator of estate of George S. Fuller, late of Walpole, was granted permission to sell real estate to the amount of $1,673.62.

John M. Forbes Dead.

The Hon. John M. Forbes died at his home at Milton last night, at the ripe old age of 85 years, his death being due to old age and a general breaking up, as he has been in feeble health for some time. Mr. Forbes has had an interesting history. His long life has been filled with varied activities, and his financial enterprises have reached to every clime. He comes of a Scotch family, whose ancestors figured in the wars of Wallace and Bruce. He was born in France, Feb. 23, 1813, while his father, a Boston merchant, was stopping in Bordeaux with his family. Napoleon was then in the zenith of his fame. When the young Master Forbes was 3 months old, the family took passage for Boston. On the way they encountered two British cutters, but shot away their opponent's masts and escaped for that time. The next day the were captured by a British frigate and obliged to put in at a port in Spain. Ten days later Mr. Forbes made a second venture, this time on the Leda of Baltimore, and after a run of 36 days reached New York.

Bancroft, the historian, was young Forbes' teacher at the school in Milton. The course was brief but thorough, and at the age of 15 the lad was ready to begin a business career that has lasted for more than 60 years. Two years later he went to China as clerk in the house of Russell & Co. of Canton, and became a member of the firm before he reached 21. He then became the agent of the house in the United States. Later he engaged in shipping interests, and made his name known in all the ports where the American flag floated. He built the clipper bark Racehorse, long famous for speedy trips between Boston and Smyrna. In the war of the rebellion, Mr. Forbes though not able to take the field himself, played a conspicuous part. War Governor Andrews found him a zealous supporter. With his brother, Capt. Russell B. Forbes, he built the war sloop Meteor. His son, Col. William H. Forbes, distinguished himself in the field. Mr. Forbes was a personal friend of Gen. Grant, and when the latter visited Boston after the war, he entertained him at his island down the harbor.

Mr. Forbes is, however, best known to the younger men as a railroad man. He was long president of the Michigan Central, and chairman of directors of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy. Mr. Forbes married before he was of age. In 1884 he and his brother and his brother-in-law, R. S. Watson, all celebrated their golden weddings together. His son, Col. Forbes, married Edith, daughter of Ralph Waldo Emerson.

His second son, J. Malcolm Forbes, has a national fame as a yachtsman and owner of fine horses.

The Gallas tribe in Africa is reported by a Belgian authority to regard it as a sacred duty to kill cows on every possible occasion, with a view of discovering a certain volume of sacred lore which a cow once swallowed.

☞ It makes the coal man blue when he hears you've bought a Glenwood Range—$18.00 to $33.00. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

LAND VALUES.

Continued from page 1.

WARD FIVE.

Valuation of Land Only.	Total Ward Tax.
Lord, Joseph H.	$105 30
5,000 feet, Arlington street, $500.
5,000, " $500.
Loring, Florence W.	79 20
9,000, Willow, $900.
Loud, Sarah M.	8 10
5,000. Lot 4, Sec. 6, $450.
Loud & Tribou	55 80
6,988, Hancock, $500.
10,572, Beach, $700.
Longhead, Rebecca D.	50 40
5,000, Brooks, $500.
Lovett, Joseph	20 00
10,000, Lot 1 and 2, Sec. 6, $1,000.
Lovett, Joseph W.	9 65
3,333, Lot 15, Sec. 6, $250.
Lovett, Mary E.	69 30
2,500, Brooks, $250.
5,000, " $500.

WARD SIX.

Lincoln, Harriet L.	53 55
7,479, Clive, $775.
Lincoln, Sarah A.	140 40
11,760; Edwin, $500.
11,606, Squantum, $850.
5,180, " $400.
5,046, " $400.
8,072, Edwin, $500.
Lincoln, Manley D.	65 90
10,790, Appleton, $850.
Livingston, Maude	171 00
3 3-4 acres, Squantum, $6,000.
Lucas, John S.	68 60
20,475, Hancock, $1,700.
Luca, Eliza	30 60
3,240, Old Colony, $200.
Lyons, Charles S.	42 50
3,500, Squantum, $300.
6,000, Wilson Court, $350.

[To be continued.]

You should save a file of the Ledger while this list is being printed. We cannot supply back numbers of the paper at 2 cents per copy, but have established this rate: Papers one week old, 5 cents; papers one month old, 10 cents; papers one year old, 25 cents.

War Relics.

Henry P. Kittredge has another lot of war relics on exhibition in the show window of his store. This collection includes a copy of the naval navigation laws in Spanish, picked up by Lieut. Abele in the Reina Mercedes, and a United States Soldier's kit at Cuba. The latter includes his rubber blanket, knife, fork and spoon, frying pan and coffee dipper, grub bag, canteen, etc., also a collection of Colt's revolver, Springfield and Mauser cartridges, and a grain of powder used in one of Uncle Sam's big guns.

Sewer Connections.

Up to the present time Commissioner Knowlton has received forty applications for house connections with the sewer. Of this number the following have been connected: C. A. Spear, Newcomb street; Wilson Tisdale, Whitney road; Dr. N. S. Hunting, Whitney road; John O. Hall, Hancock street; F. P. Waterhouse, Prospect avenue; James T. Penniman, Saville street; C. H. Hardwick, estates at 40 and 40 1-2 Canal street; Julius Johnson, Avon way; Miss Eliza F. Dolan, Bigelow street.

☞ Wall Papers in the choicest and latest New York Designs, from 3c. up. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

TO THE FRONT!

RAYMOND'S FLAG CIGAR

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DISTRIBUTOR,

A. G. DURGIN,

QUINCY, MASS.

WM. H. RAYMOND GROCERY CO.

45 and 47 Commercial Street, Boston.

JOHN EVANS,

Auctioneer and Appraiser.

Prompt Settlement.

24 COPELAND STREET, QUINCY.

Feb. 26. tf

MANY PEOPLE CANNOT DRINK coffee at ight. It spoils their sleep. You can drink Grain-O when you please and sleep like a top. For Grain-O does not stimulate; it nourishes, cheers and feeds. Yet it looks and tastes like the best coffee. For nervous persons, young people and children Grain-O is the perfect drink. Made from pure grains. Get a package from your grocer today. Try it in place of coffee. 15 and 25c.

GO TO....

Miss B. J. PATTERSON'S

Millinery Parlors

AT THE

Boston Bargain Store,

FOR YOUR

FALL MILLINERY.

A fine assortment of Trimmed Goods. Also, all the latest and best shapes in untrimmed hats, walking hats and sailors.

New Velvets, Ribbons, Fancy Feathers and Ostrich goods.

Lowest possible prices for first-class goods.

Music Hall Building, Quincy.

Oct. 1. tfpl

— THE —

Fall Millinery Opening

... OF ...

C. L. BLISS,

186 Hancock St.,

TUESDAY and WEDNESDAY

Oct. 11, 12.

The public are cordially invited to call and examine a stock of Trimmed and Untrimmed Hats and novelties in Velvets, Ribbons, Wings, Feathers and Jet.

Quincy, Oct. 5. 1po 2w

E. LANDIS SNYDER,

Organist and Choirmaster of Christ Church,

TEACHER OF

VOICE CULTURE, PIANO AND ORGAN.

Studio: Room 10 Durgin & Merrill's Block,

QUINCY, MASS.

Sept. 10. tf

Potatoes.

15c. Peck,

55c. Bushel.

SWEET,

25 lbs., 25c.

L. M. PRATT & CO.,

25 School Street.

FISH.

Everything first-class at the

Cape Cod Fish Market,

Temple Street.

All kinds Fresh, Salt, Smoked and Pickeled

Quincy, Feb. 8. 1y

FRANK F CRANE,

AUCTIONEER and APPRAISER,

Office, 4 Chestnut St., Quincy, Mass.

Oct. tf

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS.

Advertisements in this column inserted at the following rates:

Four lines, or less, one day, - - 25 cents.
" " three days, - - - 50 cents.
" " one week, - - - - 75 cents.

Additional lines will be charged for pro rata. Seven words equal a line. Long term rates furnished on application.

WANTED.

WANTED—50 Experienced Stitchers on Shirts. Steady work. Also girls to sew on buttons. Apply, CONGRESS MFG. CO., 141 Washington street, Quincy.
Oct. 12-6t 15-po 1w

WANTED—Capable Girl for general housework in a family of three. Call or address Mrs. E. E. Jameson, cor. Brook and Farrington streets, Wollaston.
Oct. 11—6t p15—1w

WANTED—Experienced girl to do general housework; must be a good cook. Apply between 6 and 8 P. M. at 240 Washington street, Quincy Point. H. M. FEDERHEN.
Oct. 10. 3t

WANTED—Typewriting to to do at home. Address W. F. SKINNER, 12 Franklin street, Quincy. oct7-6t

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—Well known and fast Cape Cat Boat, Hustler, winner Quincy Yacht Club Handicap Championship, '98. New sails and rigging, tight cock fit, very easy to handle, o. a. 23 ft. 10 in., b. 11 ft., draft 28 in., large cabin; head room 52 in. Also 1 13-ft. Cat Boat, 7 ft. b., 12 in. draft; very able; a bargain; seat 7. C. C. C., 63 Lawrence street, Waltham, Mass. oct12-6t

TO LET.

TO LET—Half a House of 5 rooms entirely separate on Phipps street, Mt. Pleasant. Rent, $8 a month; city water. Inquire at 17 Summer street.
Quincy, Sept. 27. 18t

TO LET—House 29 Chestnut street, eight rooms, furnace and bath. Near centre, within three minutes' of steam cars. Apply to CHAS. W. HALL, 212 Hancock street, Quincy. Oct. 10 tf

TO LET—On Washington street, at the corner of Wibird street, a very desirable house for a small family. Six rooms, two of them new, and all in good repair. Rent, $15. City water. Concrete sidewalk in front of the house extending to the depot. Apply only to FRANK F. PRESCOTT, at the Ledger office or at 14 Bigelow street. tf

TO LET—Cottage house, No. 29 Granite street, 8 rooms, three minutes' from City Square. Apply to H. M. FAXON, 4 Adams Building. Sept. 30—tf

FOR RENT—Desirable house with bath, corner lot, nice neighborhood, three minutes' walk from schools, churches and depot Rent reasonable. Apply at No. 6 Pleasant St.
Quincy, Sept. 7. tf

TO LET—A pleasant tenement of six rooms; newly papered and painted throughout. Centrally located on a main street within five minutes' walk of Quincy depot. Rent, $15. Address "House," Lock Box L, Quincy.
Oct. 4. tf

For Sale or To Let,

FURNISHED,

NASH' HOTEL.

Full of Boarders and a good transient trade. Cheap rent. My catering business is all I can attend to.

Apply at HOTEL, 148 Hancock street, Quincy, Mass. oct11 tf lo

B. F. CURTIS,

40 Elm Street, Quincy.

TO LET—House of 10 rooms at 43 Elm street. City water. Rent, $18 per month.

Half House of 4 rooms, 19 Union street; city water. Rooms just painted and papered. Rent, $7.50 per month.

TO LET.

Half House on Granite street, near depot; $15.00.

Half House on Washington street, near Universalist church; $11.00.

New House, 6 rooms and bath; Back Bayland, $16.50.

Apply to FRANK F. CRANE,
Oct. 5—6t 4 Chestnut St., Quincy.

TO LET IN QUINCY.

SOUTHERLY Half of house with stable, 214 Hancock street, now occupied by Dr. N. S. Hunting. Modern improvements, central location. Possession given about October 15th. Apply on premises to

MISS M. F. UNDERWOOD.
Oct. 1. tf

TO LET.

APARTMENTS of five large rooms and bath, with all modern improvements. Also two large stores. Rent moderate. Apply to ARTHUR CRAIG, or J. W. HAYDEN, at Craig Building, cor. Copeland and Garfield Sts.
Quincy, July 15. pl tf

TO LET.

House of 8 rooms, etc., No. 20 Canal street, Quincy. Nice house, excellent location.

R. D. CHASE,
Savings Bank Building.
Quincy, Oct. 8. pl tf

FOR SALE.

Bigelow St. Fine New Residence, 9 rooms, bath, laundry, furnace, open plumbing, cemented cellar, fireplace, etc.

R. D. CHASE,
Savings Bank Building.
Quincy, April 8-tf. 9p-tf

Savings Bank Building, Quincy.

WILLIAM E. BAXTER, M. D.

Practice Limited to the

EYE AND EAR.

553 Boylston St., Boston.

QUINCY—Monday and Friday.

Hours, 9 to 11. 195 Hancock Street

May 21. 1y

Officer.—How is it you have such sound teeth?
Recruit.—I chew Battle Ax.
Officer.—Does Battle Ax preserve the teeth?
Recruit.—Look at mine.

Did you ever notice how few men who chew have any trouble with their teeth? Battle Ax is a sound chew:—sound in all its qualities—and men of sound judgment chew it in preference to any other tobacco.

BattleAx PLUG

It is more good tobacco for the money than you can get in any other way.

Remember the name when you buy again.

MILLINERY.

Grand Opening Oct. 5, 6, 7,

OF CHOICE

FALL and WINTER MILLINERY,

Consisting of Imported French Hats and Millinery Novelties.

You are cordially invited to call and inspect the same.

E. B. COLLINS,

4 Faxon Block, Quincy, Mass.

☞ NO CARDS.

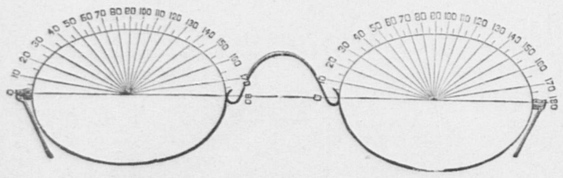

Oct. 4. 6t

MAKE IT HOT FOR YOU.

If your house is cold and you have become disgusted with the various devices called heaters, and you are really anxious to have warmth and comfort in your home, place an order for one of those G. B. Bates CIRCULATORS. It will "make it hot for you" or just the temperature you desire. Its construction is based upon scientific and economical principles. Several have recently been put in right here in Quincy, and others will be put in during the next few weeks. Don't read this ad. and then forget about it till your water pipes are all frozen, but go now to

G. B. BATES,

Hancock Street, Quincy.

ASTIGMATISM

Causes most of the distressing headaches. Properly fitted glasses will correct the error and remove the pain. Consult

WILLIAMS,

Member of the New England Association of Opticians,

104 Hancock St., Quincy.

A. J. DURAND,

Piano Tuning, etc.

19 Coddington St., Quincy.

Highly recommended by Chickering & Sons, and prominent Boston musicians.

Sept. 20. 1m

E. W. SHACKFORD,

PAPER HANGER,

Quincy, Mass.

☞ Orders left with W. DAVENPORT, or T. B. DAVENPORT.

Sept. 14. 1m

SOLDIERS IN A FIGHT

One of Them Killed and Two Injured Fatally.

General Firing Followed an Arrest.

Belligerent Negroes Scattered by a Platoon With Sabres.

Huntsville, Ala., Oct. 12.—The Tenth cavalry (colored) arrived from Montauk yesterday morning, and had not been off the train an hour before some of its members became involved in a difficulty with the provost guard. One man was killed and five wounded, two fatally.

Soon after the men left the train one of the cavalrymen went to a house frequented by white men and attempted to clean out the place. He was arrested by a corporal's detail of four men of the provost guard.

The arrest was quickly noised about and the colored cavalrymen attempted to rescue the prisoner.

The first man who advanced toward the guard was halted, and as he turned to run he was fired upon. Firing then became almost general and continued several minutes. Corporal McLaughlin, commanding the detail, was killed at the first fire. Private Wiles, Company M, Sixth infantry, was shot in the knee and Private Larkin, Company D, Sixteenth infantry, received a ball in the leg. Wiles' leg was amputated later. Private James Gleeton, Tenth cavalry, received a bullet in the spine and will die. Two other cavalrymen whose names are not known, were wounded, one of them fatally.

The affair would have been attended by more serious consequences had not a mounted platoon from the Tenth cavalry scattered the belligerent negroes with drawn sabres. The white soldiers hold a bitter feeling against the troopers, and it is feared that trouble will occur whenever the races meet. The Tenth was given a camp situated more than a mile from the other regiments.

PARADE OF KNIGHTS.

Most Attractive Feature of the Conclave of the Templars.

Pittsburg, Oct. 12.—Tuesday started with not a cloud in the sky, and long before the booming cannon announced the start of the parade of Knights Templars there was a multitude of people packed along the line, extending from the heart of Alleghany City over into Pittsburg, out on Fifth avenue to Schenley park, a distance of seven miles. The number of onlookers on the streets, in the windows, on the roofs and in the reviewing stands has been variously estimated at from 500,000 to 1,000,000.

At 10 o'clock the cavalcade had completed its formation and the march began. Three hours later the detachment passed the same point. The rain commenced at 1.30 o'clock, and for awhile it looked as if the parade might be broken up, but the knights walked along with the same spirit and displayed the same martial bearing in the rain as they had done under the sunshine. The applause that had been thunderous now became more enthusiastic than before. The arrangementes were all perfect.

Immediately after the parade the grand commandery met in Carnegie hall for the first business session of the conclave. After addresses of welcome the grand encampment was declared open and Grand Master Warren La Rue Thomas delivered the annual address, in which he said:

"The best, the purest, the noblest men in our country acknowledge fealty to this grand body and practice the virtues they have learned in our asylums. The great truths we teach, founded as they are on the word of God, have taken root in the hearts of men, and will continue to grow and spread until they shall penetrate the darkest spots of the earth."

The report of Grand Treasurer Lines showed receipts of $26,791 and disbursements of $9,727. The net cash resources are $42,154.

The report of the grand recorder contained much information. The gains since the last conclave have been: Knighted, 6,995; affiliated, 973; reinstated, 406; total, 8,374. The losses have been: Died, 1,658; dimitted, 1,789; suspended, unknightly conduct, 64; suspended for non-payment of dues, 2,060; expelled, 67; total, 5,638. The net gain was 2,736.

The social features of the conclave took place at the Duquesne garden. This was the reception exclusively for members of the different commanderies, and no laymen or anyone, except ladies, without a Templar uniform was admitted. The guest of honor was Grand Master of the Grand Encampment Thomas. After the reception there was a grand ball, and the gathering did not break up until a late hour.

Zola's Friends Rallied.

Paris, Oct. 12.—Tuesday was the day fixed for the sale of the house and furniture of Emile Zola to satisfy a judgment of 30,000 francs obtained against him by three handwriting experts, who recently won a libel suit growing out of the Dreyfus case against the novelist. The sale was ordered to take place in spite of the facts that the late Lieutenant Colonel Henry confessed to having forged a letter instrumental in bringing about the conviction of Dreyfus, which sustained the attitude assumed by Zola toward the experts, and that Octave Mirbeau offered to be responsible for the amount. The proposed sale resulted in a sensation. The friends of Zola ran up the bidding on the first article, a walnut table which was originally bought for 120 francs, to 32,000 francs, thus producing the amount required and stopping the sale.

Will Take His Medicine.

Edgartown, Mass., Oct. 12.—Rev. Prescott F. Pernegan of sea water gold fame says that he contemplates a return to this country, when he will surrender himself and his property to the directors of the Electrolytic Marine Salts company, and stand for whatever punishment his actions have made him liable. His father dwells here.

VAN WYCK AND ROOSEVELT.

One Declared His Views In Writing, and the Other Spoke.

New York, Oct. 12.—The formal letter of Augustus Van Wyck, addressed to the chairman of the state committee, accepting the Democratic nomination for governor of New York, was made public last night. The letter deals entirely with state issues, particularly with legislating in connection with the canal matter. It endorses the platform unreservedly and declares that the governor of the state is not officially concerned in any of the questions which our national authorities are called upon to settle.

JUSTICE A. VAN WYCK.

It says: "Experience has convinced me that a substantial advance for the cause of good government would be made if voters could be persuaded, at all times, to deal with municipal candidates on municipal grounds and state candidates on state grounds. It is certainly much easier to understand why politicians with records that will not bear the light should desire to divert attention to irrelevant questions than to discover how honesty and efficiency in office are to be promoted by such arts."

About 2000 Roosevelt admirers gathered to hear the gubernatorial candidate last night. It was the ratification of the Republicans of the Twenty-seventh district. Colonel Roosevelt was enthusiastically received by the people of the district, whom he had represented in the legislature. In part he said: "Very many of you know me well during the three years I represented this district in the legislature. You know I never made you a promise on the stump that I failed to keep afterwards, and you know also that whatever of merit my career as your representative had lay in the fact that so far as I could I insisted upon the observance in public life of the same principles of rigid honesty that are considered indispensable by all honorable men in private life. To you I do not have to say that I shall follow the same course if I am elected governor. The indespensable requisite on every public servant with whom I have to deal shall be honesty."

President at the Exposition.

Omaha, Oct. 12.—President McKinley and party were greeted on their arrival in Omaha by the largest crowd that has ever lined the streets of the city. The welcome was enthusiastic in the extreme.

The procession started under escort of the two esquestrian clubs for the city hall. Along the whole line the crowds on each side of the street and in every window kept up a continuous ovation. The buildings were gorgeously decorated with red, white and blue, and numerous pictures of the president appeared in the windows of stores and offices. At the city hall the visitors were assigned to seats on a temporary platform from which they reviewed a magnificent parade of 40 floats.

The gathering of people at Cedar Rapids broke the day's record for numbers and enthusiasm.

After saying his journey was to help the people of trans-Mississippi celebrate the triumphs of their skill and industry, the president said: "This war that was so speedily closed through the valor and intrepidity of our soldiers will bring to us, I trust, blessings that are now beyond calculation. It will bring also burdens, but the American people never shirk a responsibility and never unload a burden that carries forward civilization. We accepted war for humanity. We can accept no terms of peace which shall not be in the interest of humanity."

The News of Beantown.

Boston, Oct. 12.—The will of J. W. D. Joy of this city contains a large number of public bequests, the principal one being that of $30,000 to Tufts college, in case the estate proves to be valued at $250,000 the testator bequeaths $1,000 each to the following institutions: The home for aged men, Bethany home for young women, home for aged couples, Boston Provident association, Massachusetts Unitarian convention, Universalist general convention, Universalist publishing house, Universalist Sabbath School union, children's hospital and Women's Universalist Missionary society of Massachusetts. Should the estate be appraised at $500,000 these bequests are increased to $5,000 in each instance, and should the estate be valued at $600,000 the amounts are increased to $10,000.

John F. Fitzgerald, the only Democratic congressman in New England, was nominated last night by the Democrats of the Ninth district. A number of the wards in the district, however, were not represented in the convention, and it is thought that this denotes the fact that Senator James Gallivan, who was favored by the absent delegates, will be an independent candidate.

A Wedding, or a Funeral.

Canton, O., Oct. 12.—It is reported that Mrs. George, supposed to have killed Mrs. McKinley's brother, purchased a self-acting revolver in Chicago recently and said that she expected to use it to kill a man. She is alleged to have said to a friend immediately after the settlement of the damage case of her former husband against Saxton last week: "Now there will be either a wedding or a funeral."

One who was present when Prosecutor Pomerene conferred with the Barber family and President McKinley says the latter, speaking for the family, said they did not wish to appear as prosecutors, nor did they wish to have any unusual method in treating their case.

CHAMPIONS SURE.

The Bostons Clinched Their Hold on First Place Again.

Washington, Oct. 12.—Hail to the league champions of 1898. The Bostons had the Washingtons beaten to a standstill yesterday afternoon in the fourth inning, and from that time until the close of the game all eyes were turned on the big blackboard down in left field, showing the Baltimore-New York second game. A defeat for the orioles meant the championship for Boston. At the end of the fourth inning the score stood 2 to 1 in favor of Baltimore, and it looked as if the Boston men would have to win one more game to make it a sure thing. While the home team was at the bat in the ninth the boy hung up the figure 5 for New York, showing five innings played, with the giants in the lead by a score of 6 to 3.

The Boston players brightened up, for it was fast growing dark and there was big chance of the game being called Still, uncertainty held the boys back from a burst of joy, which was fast coming to the front in every player's honest heart. Just as the game closed the final score showed that the giants won, 6 to 3, and the long struggle was over, after the longest race ever known in baseball. Score:

Washington.	AB	R	IB	PO	A	E
Gettman, c f	5	1	1	3	1	0
Selbach, l f	4	0	0	3	0	1
Casey, 3 b	2	0	0	2	4	2
Freeman, r f	3	1	0	0	0	1
Smith, 1 b	4	2	2	10	1	1
Farrell, c	4	0	1	0	3	0
Reitz, 2 b	4	0	1	5	2	2
Gatins, s s	4	1	1	0	2	4
Baker, p	4	0	1	1	4	0
Totals	34	5	7	24	17	11

Boston.	AB	R	1B	PO	A	E
Hamilton, c f	5	3	3	1	0	0
Tenney, 1 b	5	2	2	8	0	0
Long, s s	5	2	3	1	7	0
Lowe, 2 b	4	1	2	5	0	1
Collins, 3 b	5	1	3	1	0	0
Stahl, r f	4	0	2	2	0	0
Yeager, c	5	1	0	5	1	0
Duffy, l f	5	2	2	4	0	1
Lewis, p	5	2	2	0	1	0
Totals	43	14	19	27	9	2

Boston ....2 1 0 9 0 0 1 1 —14
Washington .1 0 0 0 0 0 0 2 0 2— 5

Earned runs—Washington, 2; Boston, 7. Two-base hits—Smith, Tenney, Stahl, Duffy. Three- base hits—Baker, Tenney. Stolen bases—Casey, Hamilton. Double play—Casey to Reitz to Smith. First on balls—Off Baker, 3; off Lewis, 3. Struck out—By Lewis, 3. Passed balls—Yeager, 4. Left on bases—Washington, 5; Boston, 7. Time, 2 hours. Umpires, Connolly and Heidler.

Southpaw curves were too much for the Phillies, and but for Delehanty's triple in the sixth they would have been shut out in Brooklyn. The game was called in the seventh on account of darkness.

In the first contest with the New Yorks the Baltimores got five of their six hits in the second and fifth innings and tallied enough runs to win. Four singles a two bagger, a hit batsman and an error gave the giants five runs and the victory in the fifth inning of the second game.

Tomorrow's Almanac and Forecast.

Sun rises—5:55; sets, 5:05.
Moon rises—3:51 p. m.
High tide—9:15 a. m.; 9:45 p. m.

The storm that caused showers in the eastern lake region and brisk southerly winds on the New England coast yesterday will pass eastward today and the fair, clear weather following promises to continue through Thursday and probably Friday. Except that in all probability it will be cooler Thursday morning the temperature promises to continue warm, with southwest and west winds.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

The reclaimer of the Boston Rubber Shoe company in Malden, Mass., exploded last night, a greater portion of it being blown through the brick building in which it was situated, and completely wrecking the structure.

At Tuesday afternoon's session of the Vermont house, Representative Emery introduced a bill amending the statute on quadrennial appraisals of real estate so that the oath may be taken before anyone empowered to administer it instead of only before a justice of the peace.

Mrs. William Hazel of Ledyard, Conn., aged 33, died from a dose of carbolic acid administered with suicidal intent. Mrs. Hazel was the mother of four children, who had just recovered from a long sickness, and the strain in caring for them is believed to have unsettled her mind.

The annual report of the superintendent of the military academy says that the discipline of the cadets has been very good with some exceptions, and the high standard of drill has been maintained. A slight increase in the number of annual appointments of cadets is recommended.

Some anxiety is beginning to be felt because of the non-arrival of Lieutenant Peary's Arctic steamer, the Windward, which is now due on her return from Sherard Osborne fiord, west of Greenland, where it was planned that she should land Lieutenant Peary and the members of his expedition.

The interpreter to the United States evacuation commissioners in Havana delivered several documents to the Spanish commissioners yesterday, among which was one, it is reported, calling attention to the small number of troops evacuating the island in steamers sailing for Spain from Havana.

The Tourist hotel in Tacoma, under construction by the Northern Pacific Land company, was burned last night. There had been expended on the structure up to date $600,000, on which there is no insurance. It was the purpose of the company to make this one of the finest hotels in the country, and it would have cost completed over $1,000,000.

The New York court of appeals has decided that to sell prison made goods from other states unlabelled is lawful. The defendant had been indicted for having in his possession scrubbing brushes which had been manufactured at the penitentiary in Cleveland, but bore no mark, brand or label indicating the fact. This is a misdemeanor, but the court decided the statute unconstitutional.

GET FLESH.

Get Strength, Vigor, Clear Complexion and Good Digestion, Not by Patent Medicine, But in Nature's Own Way.

Any honest physician will tell you that there is but one way to get increased flesh; all the patent medicines and cod liver oils to the contrary notwithstanding.

Nature has but one way to increase flesh, strength and vigor, mind and body, and that is through the stomach, by wholesome food, well digested. There is no reason or common sense in other methods whatever.

People are thin, run down, nervous, pale and shaky in their nerves simply because their stomachs are weak.

They may not think they have dyspepsia, but the fact remains that they do not eat enough food, or what they eat is not quickly and properly digested as it should be.

Dr. Harlandson says the reason is because the stomach lacks certain digestive acids and peptones, and deficient secretion of gastric juice.

Nature's remedy in such cases is to supply what the weak stomach lacks. There are several good preparations which will do this, but none so readily as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, which are designed especially for all stomach troubles, and which cure all digestive weakness on the common sense plan of furnishing the digestive principles which the stomach lacks.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets give perfect digestion. First effect is to increase the appetite and increased vigor, added flesh, pure blood, and strength of nerve and muscle is the perfectly natural result.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are the safest tonic known and will cure any form of stomach trouble except cancer of the stomach. May be found at druggists at 50 cents for full-sized package, or direct by mail from Stuart Co. Marshall Mich. 10-12-14

☞ Dainty White Muslin Draperies, with ruffled edges, 89 cents per pair. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

Coal!

Just Received by Barge Blackbird, a Fresh Cargo of

Pea Coal

(Small Nut.)

J. F. SHEPPARD & SONS

[Quincy Sept. 7.

DANCING SCHOOL.

Reduced Rates.

Prof. GARDNER,

the well known Boston teacher, will receive a few more pupils in his class in COLONIAL HALL, Bank Building, Quincy, on Friday Evening, Oct. 14, at 7.45. Terms: Gents, $5, Ladies, $3. All the latest dances taught. lp tf

DR. HERBERT S. HAYFORD

195 Hancock Street.

OFFICE HOURS—11 to 12 A. M., 2 to 4 and 7 to 8 P. M.

Telephone, 4-3.

Quincy, July 5. tf

By CHAS. H. JOHNSON, - Auctioneer.

Mortgagee's Sale of Real Estate.

BY Virtue of a power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed given by Eben A. Stinchfield to Louisa M. Butterworth, dated August 18, 1890, and recorded in Norfolk Registry of Deeds, libro 642, folio 228, will be sold at public auction for breach of the conditions of said mortgage, on the premises hereinafter described on MONDAY, the Twenty-fourth day of October, 1898, at one o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed and therein described substantially as follows:

A certain lot of land with all the buildings thereon, situated in said Quincy and bounded and described as follows, viz.: Beginning at a point at the intersection of a certain private way with Howard avenue; thence running in a southeasterly direction along the line of said Howard avenue, three hundred and nineteen (319) feet to a stone post; thence turning and running in a southwesterly direction along the line which divides the granted premises from land of E. A. Kingman to Hayward's creek, three hundred and thirteen (313) feet; thence in a southerly direction eighty-nine and one-half (89 1-2) feet on line of land of C. R. Mitchell; thence turning and running along said creek in a northwesterly direction to the wharf of Sargent, Meade & Sampson; then turning and running in a northeasterly direction, ninety-one (91) feet along the line of said wharf and the reserved way to the point of intersection of this reserved way with the line of the granted premises, along the private way above named; thence running in a northeasterly direction along the line of said private way, three hundred and thirty-eight (338) feet to the point of beginning. Be all these measurements more or less or however otherwise measured, bounded or described. The wharf above named is subject to a right of way by parties owning the lower wharf.

This property will be sold subject to a mortgage of $1,100 dollars held by the Quincy Savings Bank and also to all unpaid taxes and assessments. Terms, $200 cash at sale, balance cash in ten days from said sale on delivery of deed.

LOUISA M. BUTTERWORTH, Mortgagee.

Quincy, Sept. 28, 1898. 28 5 12

Quincy and Boston Electric Street Railway.

[Subject to change without notice.]

On and after October 10, cars will be run on the different routes as follows:

Quincy and Neponset.

Leave CITY SQUARE for Neponset at 5.55, 6.10, 6.25, 6.40 A. M. and every 15 minutes until 11.10 P. M.

Leave NEPONSET for Quincy at 6.15 A. M. and every 15 minutes until 11.30 P. M.

Cars leaving Quincy at 20 minutes of the hour and Neponset on the hour, go via. Hancock street direct.

Cars leaving Quincy at 25 and 55 minutes past the hour go via Newport avenue, Wollaston.

Cars leaving Quincy at 10 minutes past the hour go via Norfolk Downs, and those leaving Neponset at 30 minutes past go via Downs.

Cars leaving Neponset 15 minutes of and 15 minutes past the hour go via Wollaston and continue through Braintree and Holbrook to Brockton, connecting with cars for Bridgewater, Taunton, New Bedford, Fall River, Newport and Providence.

Quincy and East Weymouth.

Leave CITY SQUARE (10 minutes later from Quincy Point and 22 minutes later from North Weymouth)—5.45, 6.20, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20, 9.50, 10.20, 10.50, 11.20, 11.50 A. M.; 12.20, 12.50, 1.20, 1.50, 2.20, 2.50, 3.20, 3.50, 4.20, 4.50, 5.20, (5.30 to East Weymouth car house), 5.50, 6.20, 6.30, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20, 9.50, 10.50 P. M., (11.50 Wednesday and Saturday to Thomas' Corner only.)

Leave EAST WEYMOUTH (20 minutes later from North Weymouth and 30 minutes later from Quincy Point)—6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8, 8.30, 9, 9.30 10, 10.30, 11, 11.30 A. M.; 12, 12.30, 1, 1.30, 2, 2.30, 3, 3.30, 4, 4.30, 5, 5.30, 6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8 8.30, 9, 9.30, 10, 10.30, 11.30 P. M.

Quincy and Weymouth Landing.

Leave QUINCY at 5.30 A. M., 6.20, 7.20 and every hour until 12.20, then 1.50 and every hour until 10.50 P. M.

Leave WEYMOUTH LANDING at 5.50 A. M. and every hour until 12.50, then 2.20 and every hour until 11.20 P. M., connect with trains to Boston at Quincy.

Quincy and East Milton.

Leave CITY SQUARE, 5.55, 6.25, then every 5 minutes of and 25 minutes past the hour until 9.25 P. M., then at 10.50 P. M.

Leave EAST MILTON 6.25, 6.55 A. M., then every 5 minutes of and 25 minutes past the hour until 9.50 P. M., then 10.20 and 11.20 P. M.

Quincy and Holbrook.

Leave QUINCY for Holbrook at 6.10 and 6.40 A. M., and every half hour until 9.40 P. M., then 10.10 P. M. to South Braintree only, except on Wednesday and Saturday, when car at 10.50 runs through to Holbrook.

Quincy and Hingham.

Leave QUINCY at 7.20 A. M. and every hour until 11.20 A. M., then 1.50 and every hour until 5.50 P. M.

Leave HINGHAM at 8 A. M. and every hour until 12 M., then 2.30 and every hour until 6.30 P. M.

Neponset, Atlantic and Squantum.

Leave NEPONSET at 6.30 A. M. and every hour until 8.30 P. M., connecting at Atlantic with outward express trains.

Leave SQUANTUM at 7 A. M. and every hour until 9 P. M., connecting at Atlantic with express trains.

Quincy and Houghs Neck.

Leave QUINCY CENTRE at 6.20 A. M., and and every hour until 1.20, and then 1.50 and every hour until 9.50.

Returning, leave HOUGHS NECK at 5.45 A. M., and every hour until 12.45, and then 1.20 and every hour until 9.20.

SUNDAYS.

Cars leave City Square, Quincy, for E. Weymouth and Weymouth Landing at 7.30 A. M. and West Quincy at 7 A. M. and on the hour and half hour throughout the day.

Sunday time same as week days on other lines, except that the first two trips are omitted.

BENJ. J. WEEKS, Superintendent.

New York, New Haven and Hartford R. R.

Eastern District.

On and after July 1st, 1898, trains will run as follows: (See note of explanation at bottom.

TO BOSTON. Leave Quincy.	Stops at	Arrive Boston.	FROM BOSTON. Leave Boston.	Stops at	Arrive Quincy
r 6 12	abc	* 6 30	5 55	ihgfedcba*	6 22 r
r 6 42	abc	7 00	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	7 30	cba	7 49 r
r 7 26	ad	7 43	8 30	cba	8 49 r
r 7 42	abc	8 00	9 30	cba	9 49 r
r 8 12	abc	8 30	10 30	cba	10 49 r
r 8 26	ad	8 43	11 30	cba	11 49 r
r 8 42	abc	9 00	12 30	cba	12 49 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	1 30	cba	1 49 r
r 10 12	abc	10 30	2 30	cba	2 49 r
r 11 12	abc	11 30	3 30	cba	3 49 r
r 12 12	abc	12 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
r 1 12	abc	1 30	5 00	cba	5 19 r
r 2 12	abc	2 30	5 17	da	5 36 r
r 3 12	abc	3 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
r 4 12	abc	4 30	6 00	cba	6 19 r
r 5 12	abc	5 30	6 17	da	6 36 r
r 6 12	abc	6 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	7 00	eba	7 19 r
r 7 39	abcdefghi	8 05	7 30	cba	7 49 r
r 8 08	abcdef	8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	9 30	cba	9 49 r
r 10 08	abcdef	10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r
r 11 12	abc	11 30	11 30	cba	11 49 r

SUNDAYS.

r 7 12	abc	7 30	6 30	cba	6 r
r 8 12	abc	8 30	8 30	cba	8 49 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	12 30	cba	12 49 r
r 1 12	abc	1 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
r 5 12	abc	5 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 8 08	abcdef	8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
r 10 08	abcdef	10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r

*The letters in the same line as the figures stand for different stations and indicate that trains stop, as follows:

a, Wollaston, b, Norfolk Downs, c, Atlantic, d, Neponset, e, Pope's Hill, f, Harrison Square, g, Savin Hill, h, Crescent Avenue, i, South Boston, r, Quincy Adams, (xx), Express.

C PETER CLARK, Gen'l Supt. A. C. KENDALL, G. P. A

and Boston
Street Railway.

[ange without notice.]

October 10, cars will be routes as follows:

and Neponset.

ARE for Neponset at 5.55,
and every 15 minutes until

ET for Quincy at 6.15 A. M. s until 11.30 P. M.

cy at 20 minutes of the hour he hour, go via. Hancock cy at 25 and 55 minutes past port avenue, Wollaston.

ncy at 10 minutes past the Downs, and those leaving es past go via Downs.

onset 15 minutes of and 15
our go via Wollaston and
Braintree and Holbrook to g with cars for Bridge-
New Bedford, Fall River, ence.

l East Weymouth.

ARE (10 minutes later from
minutes later from North
.20, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20,
0, 10.50, 11.20, 11.50 A. M.;
0, 2.20, 2.50, 3.20, 3.50, 4.20,
East Weymouth car house),
7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20,
.50 Wednesday and Saturday
only.)

YMOUTH (20 minutes later uth and 30 minutes later from
.30, 7, 7.30, 8, 8.30, 9, 9.30
. M.; 12, 12.30, 1, 1.30, 2, 5, 5.30, 6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8
30, 11.30 P. M.

Weymouth Landing.

at 5.30 A. M., 6.20, 7.20 and 20, then 1.50 and every hour

UTH LANDING at 5.50
until 12.50, then 2.20 and 11.20 P. M., connect with uincy.

d East Milton.

ARE, 5.55, 6.25, then every
minutes past the hour until
0.50 P. M.

LTON 6.25, 6.55 A. M., then nd 25 minutes past the hour 10.20 and 11.20 P. M.

and Holbrook.

for Holbrook at 6.10 and half hour until 9.40 P. M., o South Braintree only,
ay and Saturday, when car
i to Holbrook.

nd Hingham.

t 7.20 A. M. and every hour
n 1.50 and every hour until

M at 8 A. M. and every hour
.30 and every hour until

ntic and Squantum.

T at 6.30 A. M. and every ., connecting at Atlantic
trains.

M at 7 A. M. and every nnecting at Atlantic with

d Houghs Neck.

CENTRE at 6.20 A. M., and il 1.20, and then 1.50 and

HOUGHS NECK at 5.45
until 12.45, and then 1.20
9.20.

NDAYS.

uare, Quincy, for E. Wey-
th Landing at 7.30 A. M.
7 A. M. and on the hour
out the day.

s week days on other lines,
vo trips are omitted.

EEKS, Superintendent.

New Haven
tford R. R.

District.

st, 1898, trains will run
of explanation at bottom.

FROM BOSTON.

Leave Boston.	Stops at	Arrive Quincy
5 55	ihgfedcba	*6 22 r
6 30	cba	6 49 r
7 30	cba	7 49 r
8 30	cba	8 49 r
9 30	cba	9 49 r
10 30	cba	10 49 r
11 30	cba	11 49 r
12 30	cba	12 49 r
1 30	cba	1 49 r
2 30	cba	2 49 r
3 30	cba	3 49 r
4 30	cba	4 49 r
5 00	cba	5 19 r
5 17	da	5 36 r
5 30	cba	5 49 r
6 00	cba	6 19 r
6 17	da	6 36 r
6 30	cba	6 49 r
7 00	cba	7 19 r
7 30	cba	7 49 r
8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
9 30	cba	9 49 r
10 30	fedcba	10 53 r
11 30	cba	11 49 r

DAYS.

6 30	cba	6 r
8 30	cba	8 49 r
12 30	cba	12 49 r
4 30	cba	4 49 r
5 30	cba	5 49 r
6 30	cba	6 49 r
8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
10 30	fedcba	10 53 r

ame line as the figures tions and indicate that

Savin Hill.
Crescent Avenue.
South Boston.

Quincy Adams.
x), Express.

A. C. KENDALL
G. P. A.

QUINCY DAILY LEDGER.

VOL. 10. No. 38. QUINCY, MASS., THURSDAY, OCTOBER 13, 1898. PRICE 2 CENTS.

GEO. AMES,

the ONLY PRACTICAL PLUMBER in the Hardware business in the City. He has a patent SEWER TRAP which cannot be beat. Impossible for deadly sewer gas to enter your homes. See him about your Sewer Connection. He has had three years' experience in Boston and other large cities. Established here in 1889 and still in it. Work done anywhere.

Hardware, Paints and Oils, Putty and Glass, Yacht Supplies, Steam and Gas Fittings. Steam and Hot Air Heaters put in repair for the winter.

ADAMS BUILDING

Gentlemen, Buy Your....

OVERCOATS

Where you can find the best assortment in the city and the lowest prices, which is at

C. F. DERBY'S, SAVINGS BANK BUILDING, QUINCY. 5-1m

MAKE IT HOT FOR YOU.

If your house is cold and you have become disgusted with the various devices called heaters, and you are really anxious to have warmth and comfort in your home, place an order for one of those G. B. Bates CIRCULATORS. It will "make it hot for you" or just the temperature you desire. Its construction is based upon scientific and economical principles. Several have recently been put in right here in Quincy, and others will be put in during the next few weeks. Don't read this ad. and then forget about it till your water pipes are all frozen, but go now to

G. B. BATES,

Hancock Street, Quincy.

GO TO....

Miss B. J. PATTERSON'S

Millinery Parlors

AT THE

Boston Bargain Store,

FOR YOUR

FALL MILLINERY.

A fine assortment of Trimmed Goods. Also, all the latest and best shapes in untrimmed hats, walking hats and sailors.

New Velvets, Ribbons, Fancy Feathers and Ostrich goods.

Lowest possible prices for first-class goods.

Music Hall Building, Quincy.

Oct. 1. tfpl

☞ Hundreds of Lamps to choose from, the very newest and latest notions are here for your inspection; 25c. to $10.00. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

DR. RALPH M. FOGG,

DENTIST.

Teeth extracted absolutely without pain by the use of the

"BOSTON VEGETABLE VAPOR."

It is claimed that, while it has the required properties of ether, chloroform, nitrous oxide gas, it lacks the disagreeable and dangerous qualities of these drugs. It is certainly a boon to suffering humanity to be relieved of the nausea too often following the administering of sedatives of the old school.—Boston Transcript.

Teeth made and repaired on Gold or Rubber base. Teeth Filling a specialty.

Office in French's Building, five doors south of Post Office, Quincy. Wednesdays. Hours, 9 A. M. to 2 P. M. July18-ly Nov8-1yo

E. S. BECKFORD,

Electrician.

Wiring and Fitting for Incandescent, Motors, Dynamos, Bells, etc.

GRANITE STREET, Near the Bridge, QUINCY

Feb. 1 1y

All goods are delivered FREE at residences in Quincy.

Represented in Quincy by Mr. Otho A. Hayward.

NOTICE EXTRAORDINARY.

MRS. B. CRAVENS, the Expert Demonstrator of

"HER MAJESTY'S CORSET,"

will fill a special one week's engagement at our store, commencing Oct. 10th and ending Oct. 15th Mrs. Cravens will be glad to explain the merits of this Celebrated Corset and give fittings, thus illustrating its superiority over others.

We desire it to be distinctly understood that ladies will not be expected to purchase a Corset after a fitting is made unless they so desire.

"Her Majesty's Corset" is Not the Cheapest, but the Best.

☞ "Her Majesty's Corset" in Fit, Wear and Comfort is unsurpassed. It is worn by well dressed women. Endorsed by Physicians and Modistes.

D. E. WADSWORTH & CO.,
Hancock Street, Quincy.

SWEATERS.

We think we can show you the best assortment of Sweaters to be found in the city.

BOYS' SAILOR COLLAR,	GARNET OR NAVY BLUE,	$ .50
" " "	" " " "	.75
" " "	" " " "	1.00
" ROLL "	" " " "	1.00
MEN'S SAILOR "	" " " "	2.00
" " "	" " " "	2.50

Look at Our Window Display.

GEO. W. JONES,

Adams Building, Quincy.

JOHN EVANS,

Auctioneer and Appraiser.

Prompt Settlement.

24 COPELAND STREET, QUINCY.

Feb. 26. tf

DR. HERBERT S. HAYFORD

195 Hancock Street.

OFFICE HOURS—11 to 12 A. M., 2 to 4 and 7 to 8 P. M.

Telephone, 4-3.

Quincy, July 5. tf

The John Hancock Stables.

Opposite Depot, Quincy, Mass.

Boarding, Baiting, Livery and Sale.

DR. J. A. DOW, Proprietor,

the well known Veterinary dentist and specialist in the treatment of lame horses. Sick horses treated at owner's risk.

The finest equipped and managed stable of its size in America.

Fine driving turnouts in light rigs; safe and good appearing. All horses let are perfectly safe for ladies to drive.

The choicest family, road and coach horses constantly on hand for sale. All horses guaranteed as represented.

☞ Will attend to veterinary practice as usual. aug18-1y

ARE YOU WEDDED TO ANY PARTICULAR STORE?

Or Do You Seek the Place

Where the BEST GOODS can be Found at the LOWEST PRICES.

We Don't Claim to Know Much About Shoes or Groceries, but

WE HAVE MADE A STUDY OF CLOTHING FOR YEARS.

We were brought up in the business. It is the only business at which we have ever worked. We have a buyer in the market every day and he should surely know what is going on. We never buy a thing because it looks better than it is. We never buy a shoddy garment because it looks to be all wool, but buy goods that not only look well to begin with but stay looking well to end with.

THE OVERCOATS AND SUITS WE ARE SHOWING ARE ALL 1898 GOODS,

and not goods of last season. They are made of good, honest Kerseys, Meltons, Coverts, Cassimeres and Worsteds, and we guarantee every garment to be honest before and honest beyond. (Before you buy it and beyond the time you've had your money's worth.)

OUR OVERCOATS COMMENCE AT $5.00 AND END AT $20.00, AND OUR SUITS AT $4.98 AND END AT $16.50,

And They Are ALL WOOL (Mind You.)

If You Do Not Save 10 to 25 per cent. We will Pay You Your Money Back.

QUINCY CLOTHING CO.,

QUINCY'S RELIABLE CLOTHIERS,

MUSIC HALL BLOCK.

TELEGRAPHIC.

3 O'CLOCK.

BLOODSHED!

Clash Between Illinois Strikers and Miners.

Fierce Fusilade and Several Killed or Wounded.

Awful Experience of the Coal Company's Superintendent.

Fought Desperately For Life on Rooftops of Buildings.

Virden, Ills., Oct. 13.—For two weeks there has been a report that a train with a large number of colored miners from Alabama would reach the city, and the Chicago and Alton depot has been surrounded by vigilant miners determinedly awaiting the arrival. Wednesday the Chicago and Alton limited, due to pass here at 10 o'clock, shot through to Chicago an hour late, displaying flags on the rear, indicating that a special was following. Immediately the word was spread, and a dense crowd of miners lined the station platform, while another crowd collected at the entrance of the stockade, a half mile north of the station. D. B. Kiley, a Chicago and Alton detective, stood guard at a switch at the south end of the station platform to see that it was not tampered with. At 12:40 the special train passed the station and signal shots were fired from the south end of the train, announcing the special's arrival.

Immediately shots were fired from the moving train and outside, and the battle was on. A few moments after the train had passed the switch where Kiley was stationed, and while he was talking with two citizens, he threw up his arms and dropped dead with a bullet through his brain. He was the first man killed. The train continued to the stockade, the miners firing into it all along the route and the negro passengers returning the fire. The moment the train reached the stockade the miners opened a desperate fire with rifles, revolvers and firearms of all kinds. The negroes answered with a steady fire. The miners and the train were enveloped in a cloud of smoke, and the shooting sounded like a continuous volley. Engineer Burt Tigar received a bullet in the arm and dropped from his seat. His fireman seized the throttle, pulled it open with a jerk, and the train was under speed, carrying a load of wounded passengers to Springfield.

The train stopped at the stockade but two minutes. Its departure did not cause the firing to cease. The tower of the stockade was filled with sharpshooters armed with winchesters, and they kept up a steady fire into the crowd of union miners. Eye witnesses say the dead miners were killed after the train had departed. It is not known how many men are stationed behind the walls of the stockade, but they are estimated at between 25 and 40. It is claimed that six within the stockade were wounded, but those inside refused to hold any communication with the outside and nothing authentic was learned. Word, however, was sent from the stockade to physicians in town that their services were needed.

Desperate Struggle Against Odds.

The supply and provision store of the Chicago-Virden Coal company is known as the Climax Trading company, with Superintendent J. F. Eyster in charge. After the firing at the stockade had subsided, an attack without a parallel in the history of the trouble was made on Eyster in his store one block from the depot, which will probably cost him his life. He was sitting in his store when the telephone rang, and he was instructed from the stockade to secure physicians and hurry them to the place. Eyster jumped into his delivery wagon and, securing two doctors, rushed them to the mines. He returned to his store, climbed out of his wagon and was just entering the door when the cry was raised that Manager Fred Lukens of the mines was with him. A throng of infuriated miners rushed toward the store. Eyster ran behind a counter with a revolver in each hand. The miners pressed hard after him, and as Eyster sprang upstairs he and the miners began shooting simultaneously. He ran to the top of his building and jumped behind a chimney, while the miners ran into the street and opened fire on him again. Chips flew from the brick chimney, and Eyster ran from cover across to the roof of another store, firing into the street below as he ran. From there he crossed to the roof of the bank of Virden, where he reloaded his revolvers. Blood was flowing from a wound in his side, but with dogged determination and against terrible odds, he continued the fight. Jumping to the roof of a drug store he halted behind a projection from the roof of the building he had just left and emptied both his six-chambered revolvers. Then springing from cover, Eyster dashed ahead amid the rain of bullets to the roof of the Steed building, the upper story of which is known as Miner's hall. He either fell or jumped through the skylight and landed in the arms of a crowd of miners, who seized him and carried him downstairs to the street. Other hands seized the almost unconscious man and he was dragged into the middle of the street. Policemen drove back the crowd and carried Eyster to the City square, across the street and laid him on the grass. Eyster was motionless and supposedly dead. The police left him lying there and attempted to disperse the crowd.

In a few minutes Eyster was seen to raise his hand and wipe the blood from his face. Two men sprang at him and with the ferocity of tigers began jumping on his body and striking him on the head with stones. With a yell the angry crowd charged into the square to kill Eyster. The police charged in a body and fought their way to the center of the mob, where they took a stand over the prostrate, battered and bleeding man. A carrier was procured and Eyster was taken to a hotel. He had been shot through the groin and is terribly battered about the head. The physician states that he has barely a chance for recovery.

The dead miners were removed from the vicinity of the stockade to hotels and stables, and the wounded miners were taken on litters to the station and sent to Springfield.

A reporter who secured admittance to the stockade found one dead and seven wounded. Two doctors were at work with the wounded, and communication with them was prohibited. The stockade surrounds about 20 acres of ground in a square, is made of pine boards an inch thick, set edge to edge, and is about 12 feet high. On each of the four sides, about midway, is a watch tower, containing a guard armed with a winchester. There are three entrances, which are closely guarded by half a dozen armed sentries day and night. The fight occurred at the east entrance.

Arraignment of the Executive.

Virden, Ill., Oct. 13.—"The blood of every man shed here is on the governor's head," said Manager Lukens after the tragedy. "He is absolutely outside of the law, and has no justification whatever in refusing to send troops. If this train had come in before the interview with the governor was printed there would have been no bloodshed, as the men knew they were disobeying the law and had exhibited an entirely different spirit from what they showed after the interview was published. Most of them were ignorant enough to believe that they had a right to do as the governor said they had.

"His statement that the miner had the same right to fight for his property, which was his labor, as the mine owner did to protect his property inspired these men to the action which they took in firing upon this train as soon as it came into our town. At least 500 shots were fired into that train by the time it reached the shaft, and no shots were fired from the train until at least 150 shots were fired into it, I think killing and wounding a good many of the people on the train. No shots were fired from the stockade until after several of our men had been wounded. Several of the men came back without having fired their guns at all. Most of the shooting was done by the guards on the train, who were authorized by the railroad company."

Origin of the Trouble.

Chicago, Oct. 13.—The difficulty at the Virden mines originated April 1, 1898, when the miners of the fourth district of Illinois went out on a strike instituted by the United Mine Workers' union. Trouble followed at once at Pana, but the Virden miners remained quiet through the summer. The strikers had asked for 40 cents a ton and were offered 28 cents. Actual disturbances began Sept. 25, when the Chicago-Virden company, the principal mine owner at that point, imported 100 negroes from Birmingham. When the train arrived with them on board it was met by a large body of armed miners, who threatened to shoot the first negro that stepped from the cars. The negroes were finally prevailed upon to return to the south and the mines were not operated. The governor steadily refused to call out the state troops, and charged the operators with importing ex-convicts and an undesirable class of workmen.

Another Man Killed.

Virden, Oct. 13.—A detail of militia last night killed ex-Lieutenant of Police Preston of Chicago at the stockade. He was standing outside as a guard. The militia gave the bystanding miners the command to halt, and Preston stepped back to the gate. The militia fired, and he was shot in the stomach. He was carried into the office in the stockade, where he expired. Battery D of Galesburg, under Captain Craig, numbering 160 men, arrived last night from Pana.

Royal makes the food pure, wholesome and delicious.

ROYAL
ROYAL BAKING POWDER
BAKING POWDER
Absolutely Pure

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK

LAND VALUES

A Transcript From the Books of the Assessors.

Number of Feet in Each Lot and Valuation Thereof.

Also the Amount of Each Person's Tax Bill for 1898.

[Continued from yesterday.]

Something new in the publication of the taxpayers of the city is attempted this year by the Daily Ledger. There is considerable interest in the assessed value of land in the city, which is claimed to be high in some cases and low in others. So the Ledger has supplemented the amount of the tax bill in each ward with the value of each lot of land for which the person is taxed, giving in each case the number of square feet or acreage.

The amount given in the line with the person's name is his total ward tax, and may include houses, personal property, etc., in addition to the lots of land below. The Ledger gives only the valuation of the land.

To obtain a person's total tax in the city, add together the amounts paid in the several wards.

The Ledger commenced the publication Aug. 30, and has already published the land values of all persons whose names begin with A to L, and today begins the M's. This instalment however, includes only the land of the Manet Land Company at Houghs Neck. All Wards on the M's tomorrow:

WARD ONE.

Valuation of Land Only.			Total Ward Tax.
Manet Land Company			$1025 10
30 acres, salt marsh,		$1,800.
2,371 feet,	Rogers street,	$100.
4,454,	Rogers,	$225.
3,600,	"	$175.
4,500,	"	$250.
4,050,	"	$200.
4,500,	"	$250.
4,500,	"	$250.
4,500,	"	$250.
5,000,	Turner,	$250.
2,919,	Littlefield,	$175.
4,812,	River road,	$350.
4,000,	Centre road,	$200.
5,000,	Bird,	$250.
5,000,	Charles,	$250.
About 10,000,	"	$100.
4,500,	"	$225.
4,588,	River,	$350.
5,000,	Charles,	$300.
5,000,	"	$250.
5,000,	"	$250.
5,000,	"	$300.
5,000,	"	$250.
5,000,	"	$250.
5,000,	Centre road,	$150.
5,000,	Turner,	$150.
4,500,	Littlefield,	$125.
6,498,	Sea,	$375.
5,000,	Ratchford,	$200.
5,000,	Winthrop,	$200.
5,200,	"	$200.
About 6,000,	Ratchford,	$200.
5,200,	Shennen,	$200.
5,200,	"	$200.
5,200,	"	$200.
10,000,	"	$400.
5,000,	"	$250.
55,290,	"	$3,000.
7,906,	Sea,	$450.
7,992,	Parkhurst,	$300.
7,896,	"	$300.
6,224,	"	$200.
9,188,	Shennen	$275.
5,000,	"	$150.
5,000,	"	$150
10,000,	"	$300.
5,000,	"	$150.
5,000,	"	$150·
5,302,	Sea,	$250.
5,409,	"	$250.
5,516,	"	$250.
5,623,	"	$250.
5,800,	"	$275.
5,907,	"	$300.
10,000,	Parkhurst,	$350.
10,000,	Weymouth,	$400.
15,000,	"	$450.
15,000,	Hull,	$450.
15,000,	"	$450.
15,000,	Manet ave.,	$450.
16,296,	" "	$175.
16,296,	" "	$175.
10,000,	" "	$100.
7,118,	Winthrop,	$75.
30,000,	"	$300.
7,844,	Morton,	$250.
About 6,000,	"	$50.
About 5,500,	"	$150.
6,389,	Winthrop,	$175.
5,500,	Winthrop place,	$150.
4,030,	Morton,	$125.
4,742,	"	$150.
8,250.	Winthrop,	$75.
35,372,	Winthrop place,	$1,000.
11,250,	Quincy Bay.	$350.
5,625,	Winthrop place,	$175.
6,615,	Winthrop,	$175.
6,025,	"	$175.
10,000,	Parkhurst,	$250.
About 5,250	"	$50.
5,000,	"	$100.
15,000,	Winthrop,	$300.
5,000,	"	$50.
15,000,	Hull	$300.
5,250,	"	$50.

Continued on page 3.

By FRANK F. CRANE, - - Auctioneer.
Office, 4 Chestnut St., Quincy.

Auction Sale

— OF —

TWO DESIRABLE

HOUSES

Billings Street,

ATLANTIC, MASS.,

Saturday, Oct. 15th

At 3.30 and 4.30, respectively.

AT 3.30 P. M. we shall offer a modern house of 10 rooms and bath and 4,500 feet of land, the second house on the right from Prospect street. This is a new house, has never been occupied, has oak floor in front hall, oak staircase, all the finish on the first floor is hard wood, frescoed ceilings, nicely papered, open plumbing, concrete cellar, and is fitted for a furnace. Has open fireplaces, good closet room and city water. The location is high and dry, the neighborhood is excellent and the house is within 3 minutes of railroad, electric cars, postoffice, churches, schools, and stores. The house can be seen at any time before the sale by applying to Mr. Geo. V. Bryant at the adjoining house now building at the corner of Prospect and Billings streets.

Terms: $100.00 at sale, balance in ten days at the office of Geo. H. Brown, Trustee, Adams Building, Quincy.

At 4.30 P. M. we shall offer one of the most desirable and attractive houses that has ever been sold in this city, located on Billings street, near Squantum street, 5,746 sq. ft. of land. Electric cars pass the house; 7 rooms and bath; fine piazza, elegant reception room, oak floor, open fire places, electric light, set range, laundry, furnace, first-class hardware all over the house, extra large bath room, fine paper hangings, large attic that could be finished into two chambers if desired, good closet room, large pantry. This house is a gem and must be seen to be appreciated; 6 minutes from R. R, stores, churches, etc.

Terms: $100 at sale; balance in ten days at the office of George H. Brown, Trustee, Adams Building, Quincy.

Oct. 7—6t 8-1wp

By FRANK F. CRANE, - Auctioneer.
Office, 4 Chestnut St., Quincy.

AUCTION SALE

OF THE

Real Estate

— OF —

OWEN H. OWENS, 121 Granite St.,

SATURDAY, Oct. 15th,

2 o'clock P. M.

Consists of a Cottage House of 7 rooms, about one-half acre of land.

This estate is very desirable, either as a home or for investment.

Sale positive, rain or shine.

Terms: $100 at sale. Balance in 10 days at the office of Geo. H. Brown, Adams Building. For further particulars apply to George H. Brown.

oct 5 8 11 12 13 14 8 1wp

By FRANK F. CRANE, - Auctioneer.
Office, 4 Chestnut Street, Quincy.

AUCTION SALE

OF THE

ATTRACTIVE REAL ESTATE

OF THE LATE

MICHAEL GOODHUE,

No. 40 Phipps Street,

TUESDAY, OCT. 18th,

At 3 O'clock P. M.

THIS Estate consists of a Modern House of nine rooms, there is a good stable on the premises, about one acre of land having a very large frontage on Phipps street. The estate contains a variety of shade and fruit trees, an extra fine lot of grapes and currants. Also a fine well containing an excellent quality of water. The buildings are in good repair and the estate is very desirable as a residence or for investment.

Sale Positive, rain or shine.

Terms: $100.00 at sale, balance in ten days.

For further information apply to the auctioneer.

Quincy, Oct. 5—10t 8p—1w

Dissatisfied Buyers

... OF ...

HATS

Can Best be Suited by Buying

CHAMBERLAIN'S
BEACONSFIELD
$3.00 DERBY,
OR HIS REVELATION
$2.00 DERBY.

They hold their Shape and Color.

663 WASHINGTON STREET, BOSTON.

Opposite Beach Street.

Hats and Furnishings.

Sept. 15 L 17-4w o

Quincy Daily Ledger

ESTABLISHED IN 1889.

The ONLY DAILY in Norfolk County Massachusetts.

Published Every Evening, Sundays and Holidays Excepted, At No. 115 HANCOCK ST., City of Quincy, Mass., by

GEORGE W. PRESCOTT & SON.

Successors to Green & Prescott.

Subscription Price, $6.00 per year.

☞ A discount of $1 when paid in advance.

ALSO PUBLISHERS OF

The Quincy Patriot,

A Weekly Established in 1837, which has the Largest Circulation in Norfolk County, and

The Braintree Observer,

A Weekly Established in 1878.

TELEPHONE, 78-3 QUINCY.

Quincy Temperature at Noon.

	This Week.	Last Week.	In 1897.	In 1896.
Sunday	66	64	68	51
Monday	53	76	54	51
Tuesday	75	85	65	50
Wednesday	71	63	78	52
Thursday	55	64	66	50
Friday	—	61	60	54
Saturday	—	61	75	50

New Advertisements Today.

Boston Branch Grocery.
Sale of lots at Squantum Park.
Mortgagee's sale.
Dr. Solomon—Cancer cured.
Henry H. Faxon—Houses, Stores and Land to let.

LOCAL NEWS TRACK.

Some Colts which are Sure Winners Every Heat.

The talkers may talk, and the kickers may kick,
But our congressmen's certain to win.
And in gallant array on election day
The voters will wheel Barrows in.

The City Council committee on Streets meets tonight.

A concert to Miss Tula Rice is to be given at St. Mary's hall next week.

Charles S. Joss returns this week from a three weeks' visit to Saco, Maine.

Frank Ginn has completed his labors at E. H. Doble & Co.'s store and has been succeeded by Mr. Cole.

Dr. Clarence C. Byard, formerly of West Quincy, is in town on a brief visit. Dr. Byard is now located in Bangor, Me.

Miss Cassie McDonnell fell Wednesday, while coming down the steps at E. H. Doble & Co's. store and bruised herself somewhat.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Washington Street Congregational church will tender a reception to their pastor, Rev. Edward Anderson, Tuesday evening, Oct. 18, from 7.30 to 9.30 P. M.

—Miss Harriet Loring Cushing and Mr. Chauncey Gilbert Whiton representatives of two old Hingham families were married last evening in the Second Unitarian church by Rev. Charles H. Porter, Jr., assisted by Rev. John W. Day.

But one more opportunity is to be given to purchase at auction one of those desirable shore lots at Squantum Park. Take an outing Saturday afternoon and see what a delightful spot this elevated location really is. Many do not know that there is such a charming summer resort so near home.

Mr. Thomas O'Brien, a well known citizen of West Quincy, died at his residence on Willard street, Wednesday afternoon of appendicitis, after an illness of but a few days duration. He was to have had an operation performed but passed away before this could be done. He was a stone cutter by trade and had been employed by J. N. White for a number of years. He leaves a widow and three children.

The lecture given Wednesday evening at Bethany church by Miss Marcia Baldwin on "Harriet Beecher Stowe" was pronounced by several excellent literary judges the best they had ever heard in Quincy. Miss Baldwin is a colored lady, principal of the Agassiz school, Cambridge. Her use of English is superb, and the treatment of her subject shows her splendid intellectual power. Withal she is a woman of rare refinement. A leader among her people, like Booker Washington, she is proving in every way the grand possibilities of her race.

West Quincy people are anxious to see the completion of the game of ball between the St. Marys and the Rails. These two nines were matched recently for a purse of $40. There were also numerous side bets. The first game was postponed on account of darkness and the second game ended in a dispute over the umpire, at which the money was drawn and the game declared off. This end however is not satisfactory and lovers of the game would like to see it played off at Merrymount park, and umpired by out of town men who would not be acquainted with either nine.

RENOMINATED.

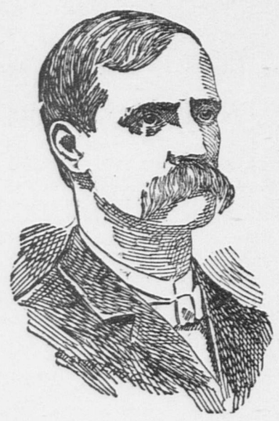

Congressman Barrows Pulls Out Victory.

Majority of Quincy Delegates Were With Him.

T. F. Burke and C. M. Bryant on District Committee.

The Tenth District Republican Congressional Convention was successful in selecting a candidate sooner than some anticipated, for many feared a dead-lock until the time limit for nominations expired. At the adjourned convention Wednesday evening the first ballot (really the 37th) gave Barrows 53, Atwood 25, Paige 22, Towle 12, Bradley 4; a total of 116.

Mr. Barrows dropped to 50, while Atwood wavered between 23 and 30, and Paige between 21 and 31.

The vote on the decisive ballot was apportioned as follows:

	Barrows.	Paige.	Atwood.	Towle.	Bradley.
Quincy,	11	—	4	—	4
Milton,	5	—	—	—	—
Ward 12,	3	5	—	4	—
Ward 14,		9	—	—	—
Ward 15,		8	—	—	—
Ward 16,	11	—	—	—	—
Ward 17,	9	—	—	—	—
Ward 18,	—	3	5	—	—
Ward 19,	7	—	—	—	—
Ward 20,	14	—	—	—	—
Ward 24,	—	—	14	—	—
Totals,	60	25	23	4	4

At the request of Mr. Paige, the renomination of Congressman Barrows was made unanimous, although there were some noes.

Candidate Barrows was sought out and introduced to the convention. In his acceptance he spoke facetiously, and paid a warm tribute to Mr. Paige, and said in a more serious vein:

"If the Republican party goes to the polls with a united front and with its full strength, there can be no doubt about the result in November. The Democratic party in this country today has practically no leaders and it has no cause. It has lost its head and it has lost its heart, and a party without intelligent guidance and the courage of strong convictions is pretty sure to lose its feet. Its mission today is not to lead but to follow. Its strongest and best men could not stand the rotten timber of the Chicago platform. They had sense enough to leave it. The men that are most fitted to lead that party are the men who are least wanted by its incompetent managers.

"The traditions of the Republican party are grand. Its great names are memorable; but it is not obliged to read the roll of its leaders from the tombstones of the past. In this brilliant hour of our history as in the dark hours of 1861 the great leaders of the party have become the leaders of the nation. The men who are making history today, whether in the executive or legislative departments, are in the van of the Republican party.

"The Republicanism of McKinley, Reed, Long, Gage, Hoar, may not be the Republicanism of yesterday, but it is the Republicanism of today.

"It is living men we need to meet living issues. It is its vitality which has gained for the Republican party the confidence of the nation. When Lincoln took the helm of State it was to find one-third of the nation arrayed against him. He could not be then the President of the whole people, but the Chief Magistrate elected two years ago by the Republican party has had the grandest opportuity ever offered to a President of the United States—the opportunity to become the President of a united people in a great national exigency, and today the whole nation says that William McKinley has proved worthy of his opportunity.

"Every party has to bear the opprobrium of its mistakes; it is entitled therefore to the glory of its successes. If President McKinley has been a success, it is the Republican party who placed him there. If his policy has been wise, it is the policy of the Republican party which he has guided and administered.

"Unexpected responsibilities have been laid upon the Republican party. There are some duties immediately obvious. We must continue to protect our national credit, and maintain the soundness of our currency until free silverism is swallowed up in the new wave of prosperity which is rising in this land.

"We must hold our aegis over Cuba until stable government is established; we must cut the isthmus band between North and South America and by a good canal save 11,000 miles to the Pacific, and as Land Commissioner Hermann has said extend commercially the mouth of the Mississippi to the Pacific Ocean and the mouth of the Columbia River to the Gulf of Mexico. We must reorganize our army, reorganize and instruct our militia; we must thoroughly investigate the administration of the army and fix responsibility for bad camps and bad methods, and bring the two into harmonious relation; we must give the Secretary of the Navy what he needs for his responsible task, being sure that he will not ask too much, and that he will not misuse what he gets. Finally when the Peace Commission has made his report we must accept the responsibility that comes with it. It is not our business to usurp the functions of that court; it is premature to speculate upon the conditions of peace until we know them, but we may hope that they will be honorable to the United States, magnanimous to Spain and just to the heroic insurgents whether in Cuba or the Philippines. Neither the President nor the American people will agree to turn a war for peace and humanity into a war of conquest; neither will they basely desert the men who have bravely struggled for their liberty.

"I have supreme confidence, gentlemen, in American institutions. The great principles of free government are sufficient for any exigency to which we are called. We only need the wisdom to apply them. The splendid history of the Republican party furnishes us with example, monition and inspiration. Only let us remember that our policy is not cast in a mould and a flask shaped in a political convention. Rather is it to be hammered out on an anvil to fit conditions and circumstances.

"One of the most straight-grained, heart-of-oak men that ever sat in the Presidential chair was Rutherford B. Hayes. In delivering his inaugural address as President of the United States, he said: "He serves his party best who serves his country best." Such words remind us of that for which a party exists. If President Hayes be right the highest Republicanism is that which declares that the organization shall exist for the party, not the party for the oragnization, that the party shall exists for the country and not the country for the party. In other words, it is the mission of a party to fulfill the highest duties of patriotism.

"It is because President McKinley is living up to this precept of President Hayes, because he is serving his party by serving his country, because he has abolished sectionalism, because he stands for national honesty, national industry and national prosperity, because he stands for the things which make any nation truly great that the people of the United States mean to stand by the party that is standing by the President. And I am glad to be one of its standard bearer."

Each ward of Boston in the district and Milton have a representative on the district committee while Quincy has two, Thomas F. Burke and Charles M. Bryant.

Wires Underground.

Work laying the underground conduits of the New England Telephone Co. on Hancock street has been delayed somewhat by the non-arrival of the pipes which should have arrived last week, but for some reason have been side-tracked somewhere. The laying of these under-ground conduits is an interesting one. The trench dug is not over three feet, and in this there in first laid a square box, the wood of which has been soaked in creosote. This gives them the appearance of having been scorched by fire. The bath of creosote preserves the wood, and it is said that many years will elapse before the wood rots. The bottom and sides of the boxes are first placed in position. Then two pipes or ducts made of cucumber wood are placed in the boxes and the whole covered up and the trench filled in. Manholes are placed every two hundred feet, and from these the cables of fifty pairs of wires each are fed into the cucumber ducts.

☞ Carpets thoroughly cleaned in our electric beater. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

TRY GRAIN-O! TRY GRAIN-O!

Ask your Grocer today to show you a package of GRAIN-O, the new food drink that takes the place of coffee. The children may drink it without injury as well as the adult. All who try it, like it. GRAIN-O has that rich seal brown of Mocha or Java, but it is made of pure grains, and the most delicate stomach receives it without distress. One-fourth the price of coffee. 15c. and 25c. per package. Sold by all grocers.

DIED.

OLSON—In Quincy, Oct. 12, Emma E. K., daughter of Mr. John and Mrs. Jennie Olson, aged 3 months.

STEELE—In Braintree, Oct. 10, Miss Eliza A. Steele, aged 55 years, 8 months and 14 days.

O'BRIEN—In Quincy, Oct. 12, Mr. Thomas O'Brien.

POLITICAL FIELD.

An Appeal to the Stomach-Democratic Nominations.

The indications now are that Messrs. Sprague and Sheppard will be nominated for the General Court on the first ballot at tonight's Republican convention. The list of candidates for Representative has dwindled down to three, viz. Eugene H. Sprague, Eben W. Sheppard and Philip Halvosa, Mr. Shackley of Ward Four having drawn out of the contest. Mr. Halvosa is assured of the delegations from Wards Three and Four, while Messrs. Sprague and Sheppard are said to be assured of Wards One, Two, Five and Six. It is reported that Ward Four has made an unsuccessful attempt with Ward Five to trade off Sheppard for Halvosa.

The Norfolk county Democrats at their convention at Dedham last evening made the following nominations:

County Commissioner, Charles C. Sanderson of Dedham.

Special Commissioners, Robert B. Martin of Hyde Park and Timo hy F. Quinn of Sharon.

For Register of Deeds, Jonathan Cobb.

For Sheriff, Samuel Capen of Canton.

A committee will confer with a Plymouth county committee to nominate a candidate for district attorney.

If a good supper with all the fixin's will make Candidate Boardman Hall solid with the Quincy delegates to the Tenth Democratic Congressional convention then he can assure himself that he has worked his way through the stomach into the good graces of a good part of the delegates. Unusual activity was observed Tuesday on the part of certain of the shining lights of Quincy's Democracy, and that evening carriages were seen carrying, those bidden to the feast, from their homes to The Greenleaf. They were welcomed by Candidate Hall. Quincy is entitled to eleven delegates to the Congressional convention and from what can be learned Tuesday night's affair was an informal supper to them by Mr. Hall. All of the delegates, however, were not bidden to the feast, particularly those from Ward Two, and they naturally feel that they were slighted. There was also a notable absence of the Ward Three delegates at the feast but whether they were invited is not known. It is however known that the two gentlemen from Ward Two were not. Some explain that this was due not to Mr. Hall, but to the Quincy gentleman who managed this end of the affair, who for reasons best knqwn to himself, did not find the Ward Two gentlemen.

The party that sat down to Mr. Hall's dinner was composed of eleven, besides the host, among whom were noticed the two delegates from Ward One, Philip D. Cook and J. E. Dorgan; two from Ward Four, Matthew Lyons and John W. Burke; W. A. Jordan of Ward Five and Stephen H. Edwards of Ward Six. The balance of the little party came from Ward Four and were William T. Shea, James A. White, J. F. Rooney, E. J. Murphy and J. Gilraine, making seven of the party of eleven from that ward.

Henry J. Jaquith of Wellesley is the Democratic candidate for Senator in the Second Norfolk district.

The Democratic State ticket will be ratified in Faneuil hall, Boston next Monday night.

Ferdinand F. Favor of Dedham is the Democratic candidate for the General Court in the First Norfolk district.

It is stated, says the Journal, that nomination papers in the interest of Mr. Torrey E. Wardner for Congress in the Tenth Congressional District, as a Democratic independent, were started through the district Wednesday morning for signatures. The designation against the name of Mr. Wardner is Democratic Independent, and the circulation of the papers is taken to mean that he is in deadly earnest in his declaration that he will be a candidate at the polls.

Q. H. S. Debating Society.

One of the most important adjuncts to the Quincy High school in recent years is the Debating society, which has been an excellent training for its members. The society was reorganized on Wednesday for the school year.

Mr. Tupper called Mr. Foss, '99 to the chair as temporary chairman. These nominations for officers were made and those with an an assterick elected:

President,—Mr. Linnell, '99; *Mr. Thomas, '99.

Vice President,—*Miss Vogler, '99; Miss Ross, 1900.

Secretary,—*Mr. Northcott, '99; Mr. Ford, '99.

Treasurer,—*Mr. Swift, '99; Miss Comins, '99.

The society was addressed by Mr. Tupper on the purpose and methods of the organization.

☞ Dainty White Muslin Draperies, with ruffled edges, 89 cents per pair. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

Your Last Chance!

So Don't Be Too Late.

THIRD and LAST GRAND AUCTION SALE

...OF...

CHOICE HOUSE LOTS

AT BEAUTIFUL

SQUANTUM PARK,

COMMENCING AT 12 O'CLOCK, NOON, SATURDAY, OCT. 15.

THIS is the chance of a life time. Never again will you have the opportunity to secure a choice lot in this section at your own price. BEAR THAT FACT IN MIND. Squantum Park is one of the most beautifully situated tracts of land ever placed on sale near Boston. All high and having a commanding view of the surrounding country and ocean, including Dorchester Bay, Milton Hills, Boston Harbor, etc. Squantum Park is only 5 miles from the State House, and but 11 minutes' ride from the Kneeland street station over the O. C. R. R. to Atlantic, and only 7 minutes' ride on electrics from Atlantic to the Park; 87 trains daily and electrics hourly. If you are looking for a beautiful all-year-round seaside home, DON'T MISS THIS SALE; if you are looking for an investment, DON'T MISS THIS SALE, for you will double your money in one year's time. Remember, never again will you have an opportunity like this, for this is positively our last sale. Come out and look the property over. The Boston Cadet Band will furnish the music for the day. Band concert from 12 to 1 o'clock. Sale commences prompt at 1 o'clock, right opposite the Squantum Inn, and there will be plenty of hot coffee and substantial food free to everyone. Sale positive, rain or shine. So DON'T MISS THIS SALE. For plans and full particulars call or address

L. L. P. ATWOOD, Auctioneer, 31 State St., Boston.

Oct. 13.—2t P lw

The Family Table.

Groceries must stand the test of the family table. We recognize this fact and keep it in mind when buying our goods. They must be pure and fresh or they will be dangerous to the health of the consumer.

We stake our reputation on the purity and freshness of our goods. Bring back any article you buy from us that isn't satisfactory and we will cheerfully refund your money.

Fresh, firm, white Lard. No acids in it—it is absolutely pure. It is as good lard as money, and skill, and care can make. . . .

PURE LARD, 75c. for a 10 lb. Tub

BOSTON BRANCH GROCERY,
Durgin & Merrill's Block, - Quincy.

BOYS' SUITS

THAT

SUIT BOYS

Grand Clearance Sale of Boys'

SCHOOL SUITS,

$1.50 to $3.50.

Worth Double the Price.

School begins Tuesday and your boy wants something new. Drop in to our store tonight and see how little money it takes to dress him handsomely.

Granite Clothing Co.

DURGIN & MERRILL'S BLOCK.

Come, Mary,

Let's go over to the Quincy Second-Hand Variety Store and see if we can't find just what we want. You say you need some more kitchen goods and a few chairs, a carpet for the chamber, some glassware and various other things, and when I was there last week I saw my cousin get a lot of goods for almost nothing. He told me that sometimes he could find new goods at less than half price. These are hard times, Mary, and we must buy where the dollar goes farthest.

WALTER P. PINEL

is the Manager, and the store is right over here at number 20 Franklin street.

aug25 1y

ALBERT J. BOWERS
OPTICIAN
ADAMS BUILDING
OVER POST OFFICE
QUINCY MASS

☞ Oil Heaters worth $5.00, our price $3.98, will heat a room in a jiffy. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

WILLIAM E. BAXTER, M. D.
Practice Limited to the
EYE AND EAR.
553 Boylston St., Boston.
QUINCY—Monday and Friday.
Hours, 9 to 11. 195 Hancock Street
May 21. 1y

A. J. DURAND,
Piano Tuning, etc.
19 Coddington St., Quincy.
Highly recommended by Chickering & Sons, and prominent Boston musicians.
Sept. 20. 1m

E. LANDIS SNYDER,
Organist and Choirmaster of Christ Church,
TEACHER OF
VOICE CULTURE, PIANO AND ORGAN.
Studio: Room 10 Durgin & Merrill's Block,
QUINCY, MASS.
Sept. 10. tf

Coal!

Just Received by Barge
Blackbird,
a Fresh Cargo
of

Pea Coal

(Small Nut.)

J. F. SHEPPARD & SONS

Quincy Sept. 7.

E. W. SHACKFORD,
PAPER HANGER,
Quincy, Mass.
☞ Orders left with W. DAVENPORT, or T. B. DAVENPORT.
Sept. 14. 1m

Chance!
oo Late.
D AUCTION SALE
SE LOTS
UL
PARK,
N, SATURDAY, OCT. 15. ill you have the opportunity to secure a
THAT FACT IN MIND. Squantum ever placed on sale near Boston. All country and ocean, including Dorches-rk is only 5 miles from the State House, n over the O. C. R. R. to Atlantic, and
; 87 trains daily and electrics hourly.
ome, DON'T MISS THIS SALE; if SALE, for you will double your money an opportunity like this, for this is over. The Boston Cadet Band will o'clock. Sale commences prompt at be plenty of hot coffee and substantial
So DON'T MISS THIS SALE. Fo
, 31 State St., Boston.
P lw

roceries must stand test of the family
c. We recognize this and keep it in mind
n buying our goods.
y must be pure and h or they will be ner.
purity and freshness
e you buy from us eerfully refund your PURE
LARD, 75c. for a 10 lb. Tub
ROCERY,
, - Quincy.

ILLIAM E. BAXTER, M. D.
Practice Limited to the
E AND EAR.
53 Boylston St., Boston.
NCY—Monday and Friday. to 11. 195 Hancock Street
ly
. J. DURAND,
no Tuning, etc.
Coddington St., Quincy.
recommended by Chickering & Sons,
inent Boston musicians.
0. 1m
LANDIS SNYDER,
and Choirmaster of Christ Church,
TEACHER OF CULTURE, PIANO AND ORGAN.
Room 10 Durgin & Merrill's Block,
QUINCY, MASS. tf
Coal!
Just Received by Barge
Blackbird,
a Fresh Cargo
of ea Coal
(Small Nut.)
HEPPARD & SONS
ept. 7.
W. SHACKFORD, ER HANGER,
uincy, Mass.
s left with W. DAVENPORT,
VENPORT. 1m

TELL US . .

What you are looking for.

We can show you a fine line of

FALL AND WINTER

UNDERWEAR,

HOSIERY,

Outing Flannels, Flannelettes,

Plaid Dress Goods,

WRAPPERS, BLANKETS,

Comforters,

Dress Linings and other Dry Goods.

OUR STOCK IS FRESH.

OUR PRICES THE LOWEST.

MISS C. S. HUBBARD,

158 Hancock Street.

DANCING SCHOOL.

Reduced Rates.

Prof. GARDNER,

the well known Boston teacher, will receive a few more pupils in his class in COLONIAL HALL, Bank Building, Quincy, on Friday Evening, Oct. 14. at 7.45. Terms: Gents, $5, Ladies, $3. All the latest dances taught.
1p tf

MABEL F. FAIRBANKS

TEACHER OF

CHINA PAINTING and WATERCOLOR.

China Decorated to Order.

34 Grand View Avenue, Wollaston.
Sept. 29. 3m

STATE ELECTOIN.

CITY OF QUINCY.

City Clerk's Office, Oct. 7, 1898.

IN Accordance with the provisions of Chapter 548 of the Acts of 1898, notice is hereby given that by a vote of the City Council, passed October 3, 1898, the polling places for the election to be held TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1898, in the City of Quincy, were designated as follows:

WARD ONE.—Council Chamber, City Hall.

WARD TWO—Hose House, Washington street.

WARD THREE, Precinct One.—Doble's Hall, Franklin street.

WARD THREE, Precinct Two.—Old Steamer House, School street.

WARD FOUR, Precinct One.—St. Mary's Hall, Willard street.

WARD FOUR, Precinct Two.—Hose House, Copeland street.

WARD FIVE.—Polson's Building, Newport avenue.

WARD SIX.—Hose House, Newbury avenue.

Attest: EDGAR G. CLEAVES, City Clerk.

Quincy, Oct. 7, 1898. 27t

NOTICE TO VOTERS.

CITY OF QUINCY.

For the purpose of preparing the Annual Register of Voters, and of receiving evidence of qualification from persons claiming a right to Vote at the coming State Election, the Board of Registrars of Voters will be in session at the COUNCIL CHAMBER in the City Hall Building, on the evenings of

Wednesday, Sept. 14,
Saturday, Sept. 17,
Thursday, Sept. 29,
Saturday, Oct. 1,
Wednesday, Oct. 5.
Saturday, Oct. 8,
Saturday, Oct. 15,

From 7 to 9 P. M., and also on

Wednesday, Oct. 19,

From 12 o'clock M. until 10 o'clock P. M.

Every applicant for registration must appear in person before the Board, and must present either a certificate from the Assessors or a Tax bill or Notice from the Collector of Taxes, showing that he has been assessed as a resident of the City on the First day of May last; or a certificate from the Assessors that he has been a resident of the City for the six months next preceding the election at which he claims a right to vote. If a naturalized citizen he must also produce for inspection his papers of naturalization. Payment of a poll tax is not a prerequisite to voting.

No person can vote at the election unless his name has previously been placed upon the voting list of the Ward of which he was a resident on the first day of May last, and no name can be added to the list of voters unless registered previous to

Wednesday, Oct. 19th,

at 10 o'clock P. M., when registration will close.

Examine the Voting Lists posted, and see that your name is in its proper place. NO CHANGE can be made after WEDNESDAY, Oct. 19th, at 10 o'clock P. M. The Board of Assessors will be in session at their office on the same evenings.

EDWARD B. MARSH,
CORNELIUS MOYNIHAN,
EDWARD J. McKEON,
EDGAR G. CLEAVES,
Registrars.

Quincy, Sept. 6, 1898. 38t p10-2w

CANCER CURED

BY ABSORPTION

NO KNIFE.

The result of years of scientific research by America's greatest blood specialist. A pleasant treatment that relieves immediately, cures permanently all forms of CANCERS, TUMORS and CHRONIC DISEASES. Hundreds of wonderful cures effected in and around Boston. Read the following:

BLOOD EVIDENCE

Then come to our offices and investigate the hundreds of other marvellous cures produced by ABSORPTION when all other treatment failed. Consult this living patient. "Dr. James M. Solomon: Dear Sir: The following is my testimonial, which I hope will help others. That after suffering several years with something that was never reached, getting only temporary help from different doctors, and each attack being more severe, I was advised by a friend, who had been cured of a tumor, to see her doctor. I was then unable for any work, and feeling worse from day to day; realizing that something was preying upon me of a serious nature, I was discouraged about my condition, and sought Dr. Solomon with little faith—it was more of an experiment. He got my confidence on the first interview, when, without a word of description of my feelings from me, he at once located my trouble, and I could not help believing that he knew from what I was suffering, although was greatly surprised and somewhat terrified when he told me it was cancer of the stomach. I began treatment at once, Nov. 3, 1892, and was faithful to his directions, with just the results promised I would get, till the following June (1893) I felt like a new being, and the doctor pronounced me recovered. I am sure that I have, and I can never repay the gratitude I owe to Dr. J. M. Solomon. Sincerely, EBEN FISH, 222 Harvard St., Dorchester, Mass." Today he is one of the many living witnesses of the only painless method that positively CURES when all others fail.

We want you to call and examine references of people you know—people we all know, who would not vouch for ABSORPTION had they not been cured. Ask for references marked H.

James M. Solomon, M.D.

SPECIALIST IN CANCERS, TUMORS AND CHRONIC DISEASES.

2 A Beacon Street, BOSTON.

Oct. 13. 1y lo

Mutual Life

OF NEW YORK.

Do You Want Life Insurance?

Do You Want Fire Insurance?

If so, call on

GEORGE H. FIELD,

1 Durgin & Merrill's Block, Quincy,

and you will find the best Companies at Lowest Rates.

MONEY LOANED ON REAL ESTATE

— THE —

Fall Millinery Opening

. . . OF . . .

C. L. BLISS,

186 Hancock St.,

TUESDAY and WEDNESDAY

Oct. 11, 12.

The public are cordially invited to call and examine a stock of Trimmed and Untrimmed Hats and novelties in Velvets, Ribbons, Wings, Feathers and Jet.

Quincy, Oct. 5. 1po 2w

Potatoes.

15c. Peck,

55c. Bushel.

SWEET,

25 lbs., 25c.

L. M. PRATT & CO.,

25 School Street.

At the Turnout

On Water street you will find the variety store under new management. Cigars, Tobacco, Fruits, Newspapers, and 1,001 other things.

W. E. NIGHTINGALE,
80 Water Street.

Oct. 11—4t

COURT MARTIALED.

Some of the Boys of Co. K. Punished for Misdoings.

With Co. K, 5th Mass.
Camp Meade, Oct. 11.

The parade last night was reviewed by Capt. Butler of D Co, Plymouth.

Adjutant Coleman's father, Mr. Coleman of Attleboro, is visiting at our camp today. He is a Grand Army man and in witnessing the parade, thought that the boys were perfect.

The following will report for guard duty today: Corporal Adams, Bugler Piper, Privates Briggs, Brown, Belcher, Burns, Bowler, R. Buckley, Clements, Colbury, Carlson.

The boys have been busy all day grading the company street so that the rain will not settle in pools. A number of the Knight Templars who were at Pittsburg and Gettysburg, made a run over to the headquarters of the camp. We would have liked to see them, but they must have missed this detachment.

A photographer is doing rushing business in camp today, taking a number of the boys' pictures.

Private Newcomb has again become a boy, shaving off his fine silky moustache.

Private Studley after having a slight sickness, is well again, and moving round.

Corporal Haskins is altering his appearance, having grown a moustache and goatee, which give him the appearance of a French nobleman.

Privates Frank Hodges and Al Garbutt miss their bowling tournaments. They intend to make up for lost time when they return, so that nothing can beat them.

Private Brown served on the cook house squad yesterday, and poured out some fine courses; he will make a good cook to go on fishing parties with the boys when he once more strikes the Point.

Private Collins, alias "Buckey" is still growing his beard and looks like a little man.

Private Mead seems to be the only one that wishes to stay in service.

Musician J. F. Johnson is one of the finest buglers in the 2d Army Corps today. He maks his bugle calls loud and clear.

There is nothing heard about our next commander as yet, 1st Lieut. Whitney is still in command of company, with 2d Lieut. Spear.

Private Morales formerly known as "Jackey" says he would like to be driving his old four in hand once more.

Last night was very chilly, but it looks as if it would be a pleasant day.

Sick call brought no serious patients from the company. The boys are same as usual. DOC.

With. Co. K, 5th Mass.
Camp Meade, Annex, Oct. 11.

Today is warmer; a regular summer day.

Nothing stirring around camp of any importance Lieut. Whitney is officer of the day. The health of this detachment is excellent. Privates F. Hodges, J. G. Clark are on 24 hours leave of absence.

Major Morrison will issue a new call list which will take effect tomorrow. It is appended to this letter. Also general orders which will be read to battalion at evening parade tonight they may be of interest to friends of our boys.

Private Bailey formerly of the canteen, is to be detailed as orderly to Drs. Hunting and Matthews of the Hospital staff. Our former corporal is kept busy all day, making his rounds among the patients which occupy all his time. At present Dr. Hunting is on the sick list, so that assistant Surgeon Matthews has all the work on his hands.

A number of the boys are being court marshaled by Major Morrison for their misdoings.

The following will report for guard duty tomorrow (Wednesday): Corporal Leslie, Privates Restelli, Roberts, Rowell, Ross, Rogers, Thumstrum, Currie, Collins, Doubgherty. In next letter will ascertain who the orderly will be, if any.

The new call of Second battalion:

First call for reveille,	Sunrise
Reveille,	15 minutes later.
Breakfast,	15 minutes after reveille.
General police of camp,	6.45 A. M.
Sick call,	7.30 A. M.
Drill, school of solidier including calithenics,	7.45 A. M.
Recall,	8.15 A. M.
Guard mounting,	9.00 A. M.
Company drill,	9.30 A. M.
Recall,	10.30 A. M.
Theoretical instruction of Officers and non-commissioned officers, 10.45 A. M. to	11.45 A. M.
Dinner.	12 M.
Battalion drill,	1.30 P. M.
Recall.,	2.30 P. M.

Regimental drill twice each week on days designated by Brigade Commanders. 3.00 P. M.

Recall,	4.30 P. M.
Supper,	5.00 P. M.
Parade,	Sunset.
Tattoo call to quarters	9.15. P. M.
Taps,	9.30 P. M.

The new orders in part:

(1) Indulgences granted to enlisted men of absence with leave from camp will be evidenced by passes or by furloughs. A pass will be issued to authorize absence of enlisted men up to (24) hours and the printed forms supplied by the Ass't. Adj't. General at Corps Headquarters will be issued in all cases. A furlough on printed form supplied by the Adjutant General of the Army, will be issued for authorizing absence of enlisted men for a longer period than twenty-four hours.

(4) Brigade Commanders are authorized to grant passes for periods of seven days or less to the enlisted men of their commands, but the restriction upon the number absent, stated in Sub. Par. 7 of this order will be strictly observed.

(6) The furloughs for more than 7 days require the approval of the Division Commander, except granted by the Surgeon in charge of the Division Hospital under the provisions of G. O. No. 114, C. S. War Department, A. G. O.

(7) The total number of enlisted men absent on furloughs at one time must not exceed ten per cent. of the enlisted strength of any organization but in reckoning the number thus absent, those on convalescent and sick furloughs are not counted.

(9) The indulgence of furloughs will be allowed only two men who are correct in their deportment, and the discharge of duty.

(10) Soldiers going on pass will wear the blue fatigue uniform which must be neat and clean, the blouse buttoned. Company Commanders will take passes on return of the men DOC.

Y. M. C. A. Reception.

The postponed annual opening reception of the Y. M. C. A., was held Wednesday evening at the Association rooms and was largey attended. The affair was entirely informal but none the less enjoyable. During the evening there was piano and flute duets and selections by the gramophone. A lunch was also served by the ladies auxillary and Rev. Edward Anderson gave an address on association work. Secretary Hoehn spoke of the coming winter's work of the Association. An opportunity was afforded during the evening to inspect the rooms.

Secretary Hoehn in his remarks announced that the classes in educational work for free hand drawing and clay modelling would be commenced Oct. 24, under the direction of Herbert W. Beattie. Classes in Swedish, English, bookkeeping and penmanship would be commenced the same week. In the religious work, men's meetings will be held every Sunday and a Bible class during the week. The physical department and gymnasium classes will be held Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evening.

A Famous Band.

Brooke and his famous Chicago Marine Band which will be heard at Music Hall next Monday afternoon, scored a great success in Boston last Sunday. Here is what the Boston Globe says: "The concerts given by Brooke and his famous Chicago Marine Band for the benefit of the Red Cross at Music Hall yesterday afternoon and evening, were attended by large and appreciative audiences.

The programmes were well arranged, embracing selections of both a light and classic nature. Of the latter type were "Mignon" overture, and Bach fantasia, "A Fairy Tale," and selections from Leoncavalla's "Pagliacci." Among the airy melodies was a composition bearing the title of "The Troubles of Miss McLeod," which was much enjoyed.

One of the most interesting features of the concerts was the new march written by Mr. Brooke, entitled "Our National Guard" which has been dedicated to the U. S. Volunteers, and was played in Boston for the first time. So pleased were the audiences with this number that they demanded its repetition several times at both concerts.

"Georgia Camp Meeting" was one of the hits of the evening." Miss Sibyl Simmis, soprano voice was heard to good advantage at both concerts. She sang the "Flower Song" from "Faust" and the pages aria from "Les Huguenots."

HOUSES, STORES, LAND,

ROOMS, OFFICES, AND WHARVES,

To Let In Quincy, Mass.

The Houses are in Complete Repair.

Half-house, 10 rooms, 6 Chester street, Wollaston.
House, 10 rooms with stable, 16 Cottage street.
Half-house, 5 rooms, 16 Cottage street.
House, 8 rooms, 29 Granite street.
Half house, 4 rooms, 4 Water street, $7 per month.
Tenement, 5 rooms, 59 North street.
Half-house, 6 rooms, Pond street, $10 per month.
Half-house, 5 rooms, 13 Field street, $8 per month.
Tenement, 3 rooms, 28 Howard street, $3 per month.
Tenements, 51 Howard street, $4, $5 and $6 per month.
Room, 12 Washington street, $5 per month.
Large building, suitable for manufacturing purposes on Brackett's wharf.
Small stable, 2 Quincy street, $3 per month.
Small stable, 28 Coddington street, $5 per month.
100 windows, and blinds, various sizes.
Wharf, stone sheds, etc., Quincy Neck.
Basement, head of Granite street.
100 tons ballast for sale.
Land to rent for tillage or pasturing purposes.
Gravel and sand for sale.
50 loads of loam for sale.
The buildings are in the very best condition.
For particulars, enquire of, or address

HENRY H. FAXON,

Quincy, Mass.

Quincy, Oct. 13, 1898. 1m

IN THE CITY NURSERY

Young Saplings Which Together Assume Importance.

The rebuilding of Crescent street will be completed this week.

Norfolk Downs and Wollaston Park people are happy now, having a night officer on duty in their section.

The police overhauled two Italian girls that were floating about the streets Wednesday and making a nuisance of themselves, and shipped them back to Boston where they claimed to belong.

The Quincy delegates to the annual state convention of the Y. M. C. A., which will be held at Lynn, Oct. 20-23, thus far appointed, are: Amos D. Albee, William F. Hoehn, W. F. Cummings, George E. Thomas, A. N. Weeden and George H. Brown.

Money or Your Life.

The family of Simeon Scammell received quite a scare Tuesday night. It was about 9.30 o'clock, just as Mr. Scammel was retiring. His son was down stairs reading when suddenly the stillness was disturbed by a knock at the door. This was followed by a second knock, at which the son started for the door. As he opened the door he was confronted by a man who shouted "I want your money or your life." Without waiting to reply, the young man shut the door with a bang and ran up stairs. The family had been aroused by the demand which had been uttered in a loud voice, and Mr. Scammell opened the window, but could not see anyone. He however thought he saw an object in the bushes opposite, and he fired two shots from a revolver in that direction. Hardly had the report died away when he saw a man leave the bushes and run toward South street It was a peculiar method for a man bent upon robbery and the affair is rather mysterious.

☞ It makes the coal man blue when he hears you've bought a Glenwood Range—$18.00 to $33.00. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

—At the town meeting held in Braintree last night the selectmen were instructed to grant the location to the Boynton Bicycle road after a red hot discussion in which the Moderator F. A. Hobart took a prominent part in favor of the "silent" road.

☞ Wall Papers in the choicest and latest New York Designs, from 3c. up. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

☞ Hot Stuff—our splendid $1.00 Comforters. Blankets at wonderfully little prices. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

Lafayette Memorial Day.

The State Board of Education endorses the observance of Lafayette day next week, and Secretary Hill issues a circular in sympathy therewith, requesting that authorities in charge of the instruction of youth in the public and private schools of the Commonwealth shall set apart some portion of Wednesday, October 19, for appropriate Lafayette exercises. Let the story of Lafayette be told new. Let his service in behalf of American liberty be revived. And let what may be said and done go to swell the kindly feeling that should strengthen the friendship of the two great countries whose interesting relations are reviewed.

It is the desire of the Commissioner General, of the Lafayette Memorial Commission, and of other eminent citizens that the spirit of good will to men shall pervade the exercises. Let there be, therefore, on the same occasion, expressions of joy that peace has returned to our borders and of fervent hope that relations of improving amity shall be culitivated with all nations.

Took French Leave.

The Herald reports, that a number of men have taken "French leave" of their command, the 5th Massachusetts regiment, and are at present in Boston and vicinity. One of these men, who was talked with on the street Wednesday, said that there were at least 28 members of the regiment now in the East who were absent without furloughs. He said that company I of Attleboro had the largest number away from duty. I company hails from the same city as does the regiment chaplain, who by the way, is at home on leave.

When asked what the men expected to do, the man who gave this information stated that they intended returning to Camp Meade before the 10 days were up which would mark them as deserters, and stand trial for their fun. He thought they would get 30 days in the guard house and have to stand a fine of $10, but the fun they would have would pay for the trouble and expense.

STENOGRAPHY AND TYPEWRITING,

BOOKKEEPING,

And All Clerical Work.

MISSES A. B. and E. M. COTE,

Room 12 Durgin & Merrill Block, - Quincy.
Oct. 10. tf

LAND VALUES.

Continued from page 1.

WARD ONE.

Valuation of Land Only.		Total Ward Tax.
About 7,500,	near Pond,	$75.
About 10,000,	Sea,	$500.
10,000,	"	$450.
About 20,250,	"	$200.
About 20,250,	Babcock,	$300.
6,528,	Sea,	$250.
9,839,	Winthrop,	$550.
About 3,750,	Babcock	$175.
4,443,	Manet ave.,	$175.
4,760,	" "	$250.
6,112,	" "	$350.
3,500,	" "	$200.
5,177,	" "	$300.
28,461,	Babcock,	$1,150.
5,000,	"	$400.
5,000,	"	$200.
6,500,	Oswega,	$250.
15,325,	Babcock,	$600.
About 10,400,	"	$300.
5,000,	"	$150.
30,000,	"	$900.
7,542,	"	$300.
44,824,	"	$1,350.
80,000,	"	$2,400.
About 13,750,	Manet ave.,	$550.
80,000,	Stoughton,	$800.
43,014,	"	$450.
22,900,	"	$225.
35,000,	"	$350.
5,000,	"	$50.
About 9,000,	"	$100.
7,500,	Lennox,	$75.
25,000,	"	$250.
60,000,	"	$600.
About 7,500,	"	$150.
25,000,	"	$500.
60,000,	"	$1,200.
50,000,	"	$1,000.
13,000,	"	$250.
About 11,370,	Sea,	$550.
65,000,	"	$2,500.
60,000,	"	$2,500.
35,000,	"	$1,400.
About 6,250,	"	$250.
35,000,	"	$700.
20,000,	"	$400.
800,00,	"	$800.
85,000,	"	$850.
29,000,	"	$300.
About 5,200,	Winthrop,	$200.
10,000,	"	$200.
7,500,	"	$100.
40,000,	"	$400.
10,000,	"	$100.
20,000,	"	$200.
5,500,	"	$50.
About 16,825,	"	$150.
47,325,	"	$475.
12,000,	"	$125.
4,975,	"	$50.
12,500,	"	$125.
30,450,	"	$300.
5,750,	"	$50.
3,750,	"	$50.
19,000,	"	$200.
5,200,	"	$50.
7,500,	"	$75.
4,750,	"	$50.
4,500,	"	$75.
1-2 acre,	Sea,	$50.
1-4 "	"	$25.
4 "	Winthrop,	$400.
3 3-4 "	Stoughton,	$375.
3-4 "	"	$75.
2,000 feet,		$500.

[To be continued.]

You should save a file of the Ledger while this list is being printed. We cannot supply back numbers of the paper at 2 cents per copy, but have established this rate: Papers one week old, 5 cents; papers one month old, 10 cents; papers one year old, 25 cents.

A Perfect Infant Food

Gail Borden Eagle Brand Condensed Milk

A PERFECT SUBSTITUTE FOR MOTHERS MILK. FOR 40 YEARS THE LEADING BRAND.

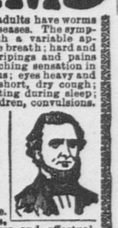

"INFANT HEALTH" SENT FREE.

N.Y. CONDENSED MILK CO. NEW YORK.

WORMS

Hundreds of Children and adults have worms but are treated for other diseases. The symptoms are:—indigestion, with a variable appetite; foul tongue; offensive breath; hard and full belly with occasional gripings and pains about the navel; heat and itching sensation in the rectum and about the anus; eyes heavy and dull; itching of the nose; short, dry cough; grinding of the teeth; starting during sleep; slow fever; and often in children, convulsions.

TRUE'S PIN WORM ELIXIR

is the best worm remedy made. It has been in use 47 years, is purely vegetable, harmless and effectual. Where no worms are present it acts as a Tonic, and corrects the condition of the mucous membrane of the stomach and bowels. A positive cure for Constipation and Biliousness, and a valuable remedy in all the common complaints of children. Price 35c. Ask your druggist for it. Dr. J. F. TRUE & CO., Auburn, Me.

Special treatment for Tape Worms. Write for free pamphlet.

FRANK F CRANE,

AUCTIONEER and APPRAISER,

Office, 4 Chestnut St., Quincy, Mass.

Oct. tf

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS.

Advertisements in this column inserted at the following rates:

Four lines, or less, one day, - - - 25 cents.
" " three days, - - - 50 cents.
" " one week, - - - - 75 cents.

Additional lines will be charged for pro rata. Seven words equal a line. Long term rates furnished on application.

WANTED.

WANTED—50 Experienced Stitchers on Shirts. Steady work. Also girls to sew on buttons. Apply, CONGRESS MFG. CO., 141 Washington street, Quincy.
Oct. 12-6t 15-po 1w

WANTED—Capable Girl for general housework in a family of three. Call or address Mrs. E. E. Jameson, cor. Brook and Farrington streets, Wollaston.
Oct. 11—6t p15—1w

WANTED—Typewriting to to do at home. Address W. F. SKINNER, 12 Franklin street, Quincy. oct7-6t

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—Well known and fast Cape Cat Boat, Hustler, winner Quincy Yacht Club Handicap Championship, '98. New sails and rigging, tight cock fit, very easy to handle, o. a. 23 ft. 10 in., b. 11 ft., draft 28 in., large cabin; head room 52 in. Also 1 13-ft. Cat Boat, 7 ft. b., 12 in. draft; very able; a bargain; seat 7. C. C. C., 63 Lawrence street, Waltham, Mass. oct12-6t

TO LET.

TO LET—Half a House of 5 rooms entirely separate on Phipps street, Mt. Pleasant. Rent, $8 a month; city water. Inquire at 17 Summer street.
Quincy, Sept. 27. 18t

TO LET—House 29 Chestnut street, eight rooms, furnace and bath. Near centre, within three minutes' of steam cars. Apply to CHAS. W. HALL, 212 Hancock street, Quincy. Oct. 10 tf

TO LET—On Washington street, at the corner of Wibird street, a very desirable house for a small family. Six rooms, two of them new, and all in good repair. Rent, $15. City water. Concrete sidewalk in front of the house extending to the depot. Apply only to FRANK F. PRESCOTT, at the Ledger office or at 14 Bigelow street. tf

TO LET—Cottage house, No. 29 Granite street, 8 rooms, three minutes' from City Square. Apply to H. M. FAXON, 4 Adams Building. Sept. 30—tf

FOR RENT—Desirable house with bath, corner lot, nice neighborhood, three minutes' walk from schools, churches and depot Rent reasonable. Apply at No. 6 Pleasant St.
Quincy, Sept. 7. tf

TO LET—A pleasant tenement of six rooms; newly papered and painted throughout. Centrally located on a main street within five minutes' walk of Quincy depot. Rent, $15. Address "House," Lock Box L, Quincy.
Oct. 4. tf

For Sale or To Let,

FURNISHED,

NASH' HOTEL.

Full of Boarders and a good transient trade. Cheap rent. My catering business is all I can attend to.

Apply at HOTEL, 148 Hancock street, Quincy, Mass. oct11 tf lo

TO LET.

Half House on Granite street, near depot; $15.00.

Half House on Washington street, near Universalist church; $11.00.

New House, 6 rooms and bath; Back Bayland, $16.50.

Apply to FRANK F. CRANE,
Oct. 5—6t 4 Chestnut St., Quincy.

TO LET IN QUINCY.

SOUTHERLY Half of house with stable, 214 Hancock street, now occupied by Dr. N. S. Hunting. Modern improvements, central location. Possession given about October 15th. Apply on premises to

MISS M. F. UNDERWOOD.
Oct. 1. tf

TO LET.

APARTMENTS of five large rooms and bath, with all modern improvements. Also two large stores. Rent moderate. Apply to ARTHUR CRAIG, or J. W. HAYDEN, at Craig Building, cor. Copeland and Garfield Sts.
Quincy, July 15. pl tf

TO LET.

House of 8 rooms, etc., No. 20 Canal street, Quincy. Nice house, excellent location.

R. D. CHASE,
Savings Bank Building.
Quincy, Oct. 8. pl tf

FOR SALE.

Bigelow St. Fine New Residence, 9 rooms, bath, laundry, furnace, open plumbing, cemented cellar, fireplace, etc.

R. D. CHASE,
Savings Bank Building.
Quincy, April 8-tf. 9p-tf

Mortgagee's Sale.

BY Virtue of the power of sale contained in a certain mortgage given by Thomas M. Elcock to Mary C. Barry, dated September 24, A. D. 1884, recorded with Norfolk Deeds, libro 561, folio 433, for breach of the conditions of said mortgage and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction upon the premises hereinafter described, on MONDAY, the seventh day of November, A. D. 1898, at one o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises described in and conveyed by said mortgage deed, viz.:

All that lot of land, with the buildings erected or to be erected thereon, numbered eleven upon a plan of lots of Pemis Hill Farm made by Whitman & Breck, dated 1885, and measuring and bounded as follows, to wit: Easterly on Quincy street, sixty feet; northerly on lot numbered ten, one hundred and twenty feet; westerly on lot numbered twenty, sixty feet; and southerly on lot numbered twelve, one hundred and twenty feet, containing seven thousand and two hundred square feet of land.

Terms at sale. $300 to be paid at sale.

MARY C. BARRY, Mortgagee.

P. A. COLLINS, Attorney for Mortgagee, No. 535 Tremont Building, Boston.
Oct. 13. 3t 13 20 27

TEETH EXTRACTED.

No Pain or Danger.

Safer than vapor. Money paid for extracting goes towards teeth to be inserted. I am the only dentist in the city using the Painless Preparation for Extraction.

DR. C. B. UNDERWOOD,

9 Spear St. Rear of Public Library

Parlor Stove Talk

It isn't because people don't know or don't care, it's because they don't think and are neglectful that colds are caught and sickness of a more serious nature is contracted. A pinch of prevention is worth a barrel of cure.

It doesn't pay to sit in cold, damp rooms and become chilled during the cool fall evenings. Take no chances, buy a parlor stove now, get the good of it and protect your health.

Our parlor stoves are attractive, serviceable, economical to run, and will keep you warm. That's something to think about, but that's not all, they are wonderfully low in price, $2.90 to $25.00—that's something to dream about.

HENRY L. KINCAIDE & CO.

Reliable, Low Priced House Furnishers.

Hancock Street, - - - Quincy, Mass.

ONE-TON ORDERS

Have been the making of this Coal business. Hundreds have ordered "just one ton to see if there was any difference." They found there was and they came again. Our one-ton orders have been our best advertisements. It's a better Coal at the same price, with the proof in a sample ton. When in doubt, try Patch's.

C. PATCH & SON.

WATCHES.

GENT'S WATCHES, $1.50 and Up.

LADIES' WATCHES, $2.50 and Up.

EVERY WATCH WARRANTED.

$2.00 Belts, $1.00 Each.
75c. Brooch Pins, 25c. Each.
25 and 35c. Stick Pins, 5 and 10c. Ea.

Quincy SOUVENIR TILES Half Price,

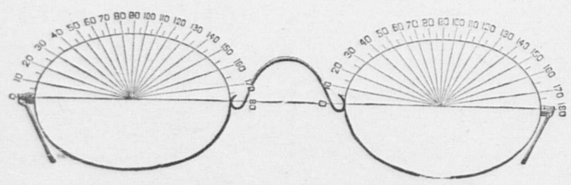

And Other Bargains.

A. A. LINSCOTT, Jeweler,

154 Hancock St., opp. Post Office, Quincy.

Agent for Graphophones.

aug 6. tf

ASTIGMATISM

Causes most of the distressing headaches. Properly fitted glasses will correct the error and remove the pain. Consult

WILLIAMS,

Member of the New England Association of Opticians,

104 Hancock St., Quincy.

NOTHING BETTER,

UNCLE SAM'S NAVY

Now commands the respect of the world, and we are all proud of the defenders of the Nation's Honor. To give the people of Quincy a good idea of the grand battleships, we have ordered a large supply of portfolios, giving magnificent views of the ships, crews, etc.

With each purchase made at our store we will give a portfolio check to the value of the purchase. When you have $4.00 worth of these checks, return them and get a portfolio. Continue in this way until you have the set complete. Call and see these magnificent portfolios.

ROGERS BROS.,

Groceries and Provisions. Adams Building, Quincy.

SPAIN'S BAD PROTEGES

Released From the Penal Settlement In Africa.

People of Cuba Are In Fear of Their Return.

Representatives of the Most Depraved Types of Men.

Havana, Oct. 13.—A pamphlet addressed to the United States evacuation commission has been printed and widely circulated, asking the American authorities to prevent the return here, where they would be a constant menace to order and safety, of the 700 nanigos, who have been released from African prisons by the Spanish government since the protocol was signed. The nanigos are murderers, burglars, thieves and criminals of the lowest and most depraved types. They form clubs binding members to commit murder at fixed rates and hours for the mere sake of shedding blood.

Mr. Porrua, formerly civil governor of Havana, dealt strenuously with these ruffians, practically breaking up their clubs and sending more than 700 to Spain's penal settlements in Africa. These are the proteges whom Spain has released, to return to Havana and renew their criminal vocations as a fresh obstacle to the peaceful and quiet reconstruction of the island by the Americans. The nanigo clubs have branches in every town and village in Cuba, forming a very powerful interprotective criminal class.

All the Americans are greatly shocked by the death of Major Beebe, which was quite unexpected. There is no case of sickness among the members of the various commissions, though on board the Resolute yellow fever broke out Tuesday. Lieutenant Pullen had a mild attack. For this reason the Resolute was ordered to return to the Dry Tortugas, where Pullen will be left. The vessel will be thoroughly disinfected before returning. Lieutenant Pullen apparently occupied the berth used by Major Beebe on his return trip from Nuevitas, contracting the infection in that way.

All the editorials in the local press of late exhorting the Cubans to lay down their arms and return to the cultivation of their lands, and pointing out that future prosperity lies in Cuban co-operation with and observance of American institutions and laws, and showing the folly of talk about absolute independence and uprisings, have been religiously suppressed by the official censor. Notices at the head of the editorial columns announcing the censorial death of an article are matters of daily occurrence, though the articles themselves give good advice to the Cubans and are absolutely harmless.

The volunteer officers who submitted to General Parrado their wishes on the question of disbandment of the volunteer regiments asked in their note to be relieved of garrison duty, to continue in commission until disbanding has been ordered by a special decree of Captain General Blanco, requesting disbandment upon the basis of Spain surrendering her sovereignty in the island, and to have the flags of every company of infantry and cavalry excepting the flag of the Santiago volunteers, which was surrendered to the Americans, taken to Spain by a special commission of senior officers of the volunteers and deposited in the ancient church in Madrid, where, since the middle ages, the flags of every regiment honorably disbanded have been deposited. Regarding the question of garrison duty, General Parrado promised to relieve them as soon as a sufficient number of regular troops should arrive here for garrison duty. He said he had not done so before for fear of offending the volunteer organizations.

It is officially announced that the American flag will be raised over San Juan on Oct. 18. The joint meetings of the evacuation commissions terminated yesterday. Hereafter the American commission will meet privately to settle the final details of transfer.

MORE OF GRAHAM.

Further Testimony on the Conditions at Camp Alger.

Washington, Oct. 13.—General Graham informed the war commission yesterday afternoon that he had no complaint to make as to the management of the war department, but he thought the war was such an emergency that the department was not at first prepared to meet its demands as promptly as might have been considered desirable. The criticisms of citizens concerning the conduct of the war were due to the ignorance of people who meddled without sufficient information to enable them to speak wisely.

In the case of most of the regiments there was considerable delay in supplying them with arms and ammunition, first attention being always given to the troops to be forwarded to the front. The command, however, was fully armed and in every way equipped to take the field before Camp Alger was abandoned for Camp Meade. For a time during an epidemic of measles there was shortage of hospital linen for the beds, but the deficiency was only temporary. In many instances the men declined to have sheets on their beds, being used to sleeping between blankets. Secretary Alger had spoken to him personally about keeping up the supplies for the sick, asking to be personally informed when there was a deficiency and assuring him that the demand would be immediately met. There were occasional shortages in other supplies, such as ice, but he did not believe that any deaths had been due to this cause.

Mr. Woodbury and Dr. Connor examined General Graham in regard to the space occupied by the camp. Originally it was much too small, and the general had from time to time extended it, removing the tents farther from each other. Dr. Connor said it had been definitely stated to him by a medical officer that the surface drainage had found its way into the wells.

"I positively deny it," responded General Graham.

A letter from Philadelphia complained of the presence of green fruit booths. General Graham said he had ordered the booths outside of the lines and had tried to protect his men from them. There had been complaint of the hospital at Dunn Loring, charging drunkenness on the part of medical attendants. The institution was inspected, the result being that the attendants were entirely vindicated.

Taking it all in all, General Graham said he had no doubt that the medical department at Camp Alger was administered in a competent manner. No doubt there were individual instances of neglect, but they were not the rule. With the reforms inaugurated Camp Alger would have been very healthful, and the removal to Camp Meade was largely sentimental and in obedience to public clamor.

Delegate to Cuba.

Washington, Oct. 13.—Pope Leo has appointed Archbishop Chappelle of New Orleans as apostolic delegate to Cuba. The archbishop is in Paris at present, and the dispatch came from him. It simply stated that his holiness had made the appointment. Archbishop Chappelle will retain his present position at the head of the New Orleans archdiocese, the mission to Cuba being in addition to his other duties. His choice for this important and delicate duty was commended by Cardinal Gibbons and other prelates who assembled at the university. He speaks both Spanish and French. It was said that Archbishop Chappelle's duties would depend entirely upon the instructions he received at the vatican, and as to these no intimation has been received here thus far.

ARCHBISHOP CHAPELLE.

Want and Destitut on.

Havana, Oct. 13.—Colonel Rowen and his aide-de-camp have arrived here, thus completing their trip from Santiago. They travelled most of the distance on horseback and visited a number of Cuban camps, where, Colonel Rowen says, want and destitution abound. The colonel had an interview with General Gomez, and found the insurgent commander eager to co-operate with the United States. Gomez was in favor of the Cubans being disbanded so soon as the Spaniards evacuated the island and a permanent form of government is established. It is probable that Gomez will be elected president. He is in favor of a general election in which all taxpayers will have a voice and vote.

At a conference held at the palace, General Wade requested Captain General Blanco to cause the evacuation at the earliest possible date of troops on the island, in order to facilitate the immediate bringing of relief rations into Cuba.

The News of Beantown.

Boston, Oct. 13.—After a contest waged with much bitterness, the Republicans of the Tenth district have renominated Samuel J. Barrows for congress.

The convention met for the first time a week ago, and the 116 delegates from nine wards in this city and Quincy and Milton were divided in their preferences among Barrows, ex-Congressman H. H. Atwood, Senator W. W. Towle, ex-Alderman M. C. Page and J. Payson Bradley. Thirty-five ballots were taken without result, the convention adjourning at 3.30 o'clock the following morning. Barrows was the favorite throughout, but lacked on an average of 10 less than the required majority. An endeavor was made after the first session to reach a compromise, but without effect, and last night the convention again assembled. The first ballot disclosed a slight gain for Barrows, but a dozen ballots were taken without result. At last the Towle delegates went to Barrows, giving him one more than the required number of votes necessary for choice.

Mr. Barrows' delegates cheered loudly as he was escorted into the hall and accepted the nomination, but the others remained silent.

Governor Wolcott, Senator Lodge and Postmaster Thomas were the guests of the Chickatawbut club, which observed ladies' night last night. Addresses were delivered by each of the guests. The importance of supporting the Republican candidates at the congressional elections was strongly emphasized by all.

At the afternoon session of the W. C. T. union it was decided to let the national convention, to meet next month, settle the Chicago temple question. Mrs. Purrington, superintendent of the health department, read an interesting paper on "Health and Heredity," Rev. Mary T. Whitney on "Purity," Daisy Earle on "Physical Culture," and Mrs. Hoes on "Work Among Foreigners." President Susan S. Fessenden's annual address was the feature of the session.

The Knights' Conclave.

Pittsburg, Oct. 13.—At the business session of the Knights Templars grand encampment Grand Master Warren Thomas appointed a committee of five western men to consider the place of holding the next encampment in 1891, which would indicate that the next conclave would be held in a western city.

The meeting discussed at length, but without definite conclusion, the advisability of changing several features of the constitution.

The proposition to make Washington the permanent conclave city apparently will not carry.

Among the social functions last evening was the reception of the grand commandery. At the banquet at Duquesne gardens, tendered to Grand Master Thomas and members of the grand encampment by the members of the executive committee, covers were laid for 1,000 guests.

BEATEN IN WASHINGTON.

Inability to Hit One Reason Why the Champions Lost.

Washington, Oct. 13.—The senators had the satisfaction yesterday afternoon of defeating the champions in a one-sided game. Frank Killen pitched in grand form, and had the Boston men on his staff in good shape, while "Kloby" was the easiest kind of a proposition for Irwin's boys.

Twenty-two men reached first through "Kloby's" department, 16 on hits, five on balls and one as the result of being hit by a pitched ball. Ten of these men got around the bases, helped along by Yeager and Long, the former making misplays that wore green whiskers. Kloby was slower than a ton of coal in covering first and going for bunts, although he did his best. Score:

Washington.	AB	R	1B	PO	A	E
Gettman, c f	6	2	4	4	0	0
Selbach, l f	6	1	3	3	0	0
Casey, 3 b	6	0	2	1	3	0
Freeman, r f	4	1	3	4	0	0
Smith, 1 b	5	0	1	8	0	0
Maguire, c	4	2	3	5	0	0
Reitz, 2 b	5	2	3	2	0	1
Gatins, s s	4	1	0	0	3	1
Killen, p	3	1	0	0	3	1
Totals	43	10	19	27	9	3

Boston.	AB	R	1B	PO	A	E
Hamilton, c f	4	1	1	4	1	0
Tenney, 1 b	4	0	0	11	0	0
Long, s s	4	0	2	4	2	2
Lowe, 2 b	4	0	1	1	3	0
Collins, 3 b	4	0	0	1	0	0
Stahl, r f	4	0	0	1	1	0
Yeager, c	3	0	0	2	0	0
Duffy, l f	4	0	1	2	1	0
Klobedanz, p	3	0	0	0	3	0
Totals	34	1	5	26	11	2

Washington .0 2 0 0 0 7 1 0 0—10
Boston .....0 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 0— 1

Earned runs—Washington, 4. Two-base hits—Reitz, Lowe. Home run—Gettman. Stolen bases—Casey, Freeman, Maguire 2, Reitz. Double play—Stahl to Tenney. First base on balls—Off Killen, 1; off Klobedanz, 5. Hit by pitched ball—Freeman. Struck out—By Killen, 5. Left on bases—Washington, 11; Boston, 7. Wild pitch—Killen. Time—1:37. Umpires — Connolly and Heydler.

The Clevelands and Pittsburgs broke evn. In the first game the Clevelands could not hit Leever. The second was called at the end of the fifth inning owing to darkness.

The Brooklyns and Philadelphias played the last game of the season yesterday. It was a pitchers' battle, in which Piatt had the better of it.

The Brooklyn club's losses for the season amount to about $15,000.

Two games were played by the Cincinnatis and Louisvilles, each team scoring a victory. The colonels could not bunch hits on Damman in the first game, and Magee kept the reds guessing in the second.

Tomorrow's Almanac and Forecast.

Sun rises—5:56; sets, 5:04.
Moon rises—4:58 a. m.
High tide—4:58 a. m.; 10:30 p. m.

The cloudiness on the New England coast yesterday cleared away before midday, and otherwise fair weather prevailed over the country except in the upper lakes, where a weak disturbance caused rain. This storm will move eastward and will probably cause cloudy weather, possibly with showers Friday morning, but the afternoon and night now promise to be fair and cooler with westerly winds, and the conditions promise fair weather for Saturday also.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

The International Typographical union has selected Detroit as the place of meeting for 1900.

The Duke of Sutherland presided at a meeting held in Edinburg last evening, at which it was decided to found an Anglo-American association.

James H. Mellen has been nominated without opposition as the Democratic candidate to the general court from the Eighteenth Worcester district.

An unknown man committed suicide on a train which left New London at 4.10 yesterday afternoon. He went out on the platform and shot himself.

A meeting of the general committee of the German-American Reform union was held last night, at which the Democratic ticket in New York was endorsed.

The United Typothetae of America has agreed that the nine and a half day, or the 57-hour week, commence Nov. 21, and the nine-hour day, or 54-hour week, Nov. 21, 1899.

Joseph Chamberlain, British secretary of state for the colonies, and his wife and daughter, who have been visiting the Endicotts in Massachusetts, have sailed for England.

A Rome correspondent persists in his assertion that diplomatic relations between Prussia and the vatican have actually been broken off and that Cardinal Rampolli is making frantic efforts to repair the error.

The football team of Princeton university defeated the team from Lafayette yesterday in an exciting game. The final score stood: Princeton, 34; Lafayette, 0. Lafayette played a strong game and on several occasions gained many yards through the tiger line.

In response to the suggestion of David Murray, the novelist and playwright, that a statue to Washington should be erected in London by public subscription, Arthur Conan Doyle, the novelist, offers the first subscription, the sum of 10 guineas.

The fire loss in the United States for the month of September has just been compiled. It aggregates $14,203,650, which is $5,000,000 larger than in September, 1896. This is the heaviest loss sustained in one month for several years, and is due largely to the heavy forest fires in the northwest and the great losses at Prescott, Ari., and New Westminster.

The population of Lansing, Mich., was augmented yesterday by upwards of 30,000 residents of other portions of the state, who assembled to witness the unveiling of a statue of Austin Blair, erected on the state house grounds to commemorate the life, deeds and character of Michigan's famous war governor. A feature of the occasion was the presence of Major General Shafter, who was tendered an informal reception before the exercises began.

Union Official Assaulted.

Springfield, Ills., Oct. 13.—The special train which brought the Alabama negroes from Virden had eight wounded men—all deputies, except one, who was a colored miner—who were taken to the Springfield city hospital. Of these one man died, W. M. Carroll, a deputy sheriff. He was shot three times, one bullet passing through his neck from the right side; another passing into the temple on the right side, and the third entering the brain over the eye, crushing the skull. Another train brought up six wounded men.

John M. Hunter of Pontiac, president of the Illinois district of the United Mine Workers of America, lies at the Collins House in a critical condition. Mr. Hunter got on the train which bore the colored miners to this city and engaged in conversation with two of them. Some of the deputy sheriffs attacked Hunter and pushed him off the train. A man who happened along in a buggy saw Hunter lying near the track unconscious, placed him in his buggy and took him to the Collins House, where a physician dressed his wounds. He is terribly cut about the face and his ribs are injured.

Governor Tanner wired the war department asking if the Fifth Illinois infantry could not be placed at his disposal for use at Virden. Colonel Culver, the commander of the Fifth, has tendered his services and those of the regiment to the governor.

Governor Tanner said: "I shall give Captain Craig, who will command the troops at Virden, orders to suppress the riot, protect life and property, and to not allow imported laborers to be unloaded at that place, since the mine owners have carried out their threats, influenced by avarice and gain, to precipitate this riot and bloodshed. I do not propose that they shall further disturb the peace of the state. The mine owners and managers are responsible for and guilty of the murder brought about by this conflict, and should be indicted by the grand jury for murder, as I believe they will be."

A Tandem.

What woman in all the wide world would not be glad to be a tandem for two happy, healthy, prattling babies?

When Nature whispers the sweet assurance in a woman's ear that soon a little stranger will come to caress with baby fingers her cheek and neck, she makes the fondest preparations for its arrival. Everything that a woman's dainty taste can imagine is provided for the new-comer's wardrobe. Nothing is overlooked save one thing, and that one thing is the most important. Too many mothers forget that baby's strength and health, its ability to withstand the usual ailments of childhood, and its vigor and welfare, as a man or woman, are dependent upon her own health and physical condition during the period of prospective maternity. If, during that critical time, she is weak, sickly, nervous and despondent, because of troubles peculiar to her sex, these conditions are bound to have their influence upon her baby's health. Neglect of these conditions invariably means that baby will be weak, puny and peevish. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is an unfailing cure for all troubles of this nature, and it will reinforce a woman's bodily and nerve strength so that she can safely undergo the trials of maternity. It gives health, strength, vigor, elasticity and endurance to the organs specially concerned in motherhood. It gives bodily and nervous hardihood to the child.

"After using fifteen bottles of your 'Favorite Prescription' and a few vials of your 'Pleasant Pellets,' I am entirely cured of uterine trouble. I had suffered for nearly three years," writes Mrs. F. W. Fogel, of 273 Highland Ave., Newark, N. J. "I had such terrible bearing down pains that I could hardly walk. My back and head ached, had terrible cramps in my legs, was very nervous at times, and felt miserable. With my first child I had to be chloroformed and the child was delivered with instruments. I took the 'Favorite Prescription' with my second child, and instead of suffering for two days, I was in labor only an hour and a beautiful child was born. I was able to leave my bed the fifth day. I commenced your medicine about four months before confinement. My baby is three months old now and is a fine, big, fat baby. I am in very good health; have no more pains or aches. I would be pleased to advise any woman who suffers as I did to use your medicine."

FISH.

Everything first-class at the

Cape Cod Fish Market,

Temple Street.

All kinds Fresh, Salt, Smoked an Pickled

Quincy, Feb. 8. 1y

Chichester's English Diamond Brand.

PENNYROYAL PILLS

Original and Only Genuine.

SAFE, ALWAYS reliable. LADIES ask Druggist for Chichester's English Diamond Brand in Red and Gold metallic boxes, sealed with blue ribbon. Take no other. Refuse dangerous substitutions and imitations. At Druggists, or send 4c. in stamps for particulars, testimonials and "Relief for Ladies," in letter, by return Mail. 10,000 Testimonials. Name Paper.

Chichester Chemical Co., Madison Square, PHILADA., PA.

Sold by all Local Druggists. Sold by Geo. C. Goodwin & Co., Boston, Mass General Agents.

LADIES ROYAL DELIVERANCE CAPSULES are a positive, safe and speedy monthly regulator, guaranteed to cure the most stubborn cases, or money refunded. Have never failed. Used by thousands of ladies, indorsed and prescribed by the medical profession. Painful and dangerous operations avoided. Price $2, at office or by return mail. 'Royal Protector' and full particulars under plain seal for 4c., stamps. ROYAL REMEDIES CO., 228 Tremont Street, Boston, Mass. Mention this paper.

that cough or throat trouble may go to your lungs. What does that mean?

HALE'S HONEY OF HOREHOUND AND TAR

Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar isn't claimed to cure consumption, but it will often prevent it. A positive cure for a cough. Sold by druggists.

Pike's Toothache Drops cure in one minute.

Quincy and Boston Electric Street Railway.

[Subject to change without notice.]

On and after October 10, cars will be run on the different routes as follows:

Quincy and Neponset.

Leave CITY SQUARE for Neponset at 5.55, 6.10, 6.25, 6.40 A. M. and every 15 minutes until 11.10 P. M.

Leave NEPONSET for Quincy at 6.15 A. M. and every 15 minutes until 11.30 P. M.

Cars leaving Quincy at 20 minutes of the hour and Neponset on the hour, go via. Hancock street direct.

Cars leaving Quincy at 25 and 55 minutes past the hour go via Newport avenue, Wollaston.

Cars leaving Quincy at 10 minutes past the hour go via Norfolk Downs, and those leaving Neponset at 30 minutes past go via Downs.

Cars leaving Neponset 15 minutes of and 15 minutes past the hour go via Wollaston and continue through Braintree and Holbrook to Brockton, connecting with cars for Bridgewater, Taunton, New Bedford, Fall River, Newport and Providence.

Quincy and East Weymouth.

Leave CITY SQUARE (10 minutes later from Quincy Point and 22 minutes later from North Weymouth)—5.45, 6.20, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20, 9.50, 10.20, 10.50, 11.20, 11.50 A. M.; 12.20, 12.50, 1.20, 1.50, 2.20, 2.50, 3.20, 3.50, 4.20, 4.50, 5.20, (5.30 to East Weymouth car house), 5.50, 6.20, 6.30, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20, 9.50, 10.50 P. M., (11.50 Wednesday and Saturday to Thomas' Corner only.)

Leave EAST WEYMOUTH (20 minutes later from North Weymouth and 30 minutes later from Quincy Point)—6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8, 8.30, 9, 9.30 10, 10.30, 11, 11.30 A. M.; 12, 12.30, 1, 1.30, 2, 2.30, 3, 3.30, 4, 4.30, 5, 5.30, 6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8 8.30, 9, 9.30, 10, 10.30, 11.30 P. M.

Quincy and Weymouth Landing.

Leave QUINCY at 5.30 A. M., 6.20, 7.20 and every hour until 12.20, then 1.50 and every hour until 10.50 P. M.

Leave WEYMOUTH LANDING at 5.50 A. M. and every hour until 12.50, then 2.20 and every hour until 11.20 P. M., connect with trains to Boston at Quincy.

Quincy and East Milton.

Leave CITY SQUARE, 5.55, 6.25, then every 5 minutes of and 25 minutes past the hour until 9.25 P. M., then at 10.50 P. M.

Leave EAST MILTON 6.25, 6.55 A. M., then every 5 minutes of and 25 minutes past the hour until 9.50 P. M., then 10.20 and 11.20 P. M.

Quincy and Holbrook.

Leave QUINCY for Holbrook at 6.10 and 6.40 A. M., and every half hour until 9.40 P. M., then 10.10 P. M. to South Braintree only, except on Wednesday and Saturday, when car at 10.50 runs through to Holbrook.

Quincy and Hingham.

Leave QUINCY at 7.20 A. M. and every hour until 11.20 A. M., then 1.50 and every hour until 5.50 P. M.

Leave HINGHAM at 8 A. M. and every hour until 12 M., then 2.30 and every hour until 6.30 P. M.

Neponset, Atlantic and Squantum.

Leave NEPONSET at 6.30 A. M. and every hour until 8.30 P. M., connecting at Atlantic with outward express trains.

Leave SQUANTUM at 7 A. M. and every hour until 9 P. M., connecting at Atlantic with express trains.

Quincy and Houghs Neck.

Leave QUINCY CENTRE at 6.20 A. M., and and every hour until 1.20, and then 1.50 and every hour until 9.50.

Returning, leave HOUGHS NECK at 5.45 A. M., and every hour until 12.45, and then 1.20 and every hour until 9.20.

SUNDAYS.

Cars leave City Square, Quincy, for E. Weymouth and Weymouth Landing at 7.30 A. M. and West Quincy at 7 A. M. and on the hour and half hour throughout the day.

Sunday time same as week days on other lines, except that the first two trips are omitted.

BENJ. J. WEEKS, Superintendent.

New York, New Haven and Hartford R. R.

Eastern District.

On and after July 1st, 1898, trains will run as follows: (See note of explanation at bottom.

TO BOSTON. Leave Quincy.	Stops at	Arrive Boston.	FROM BOSTON. Leave Boston.	Stops at	Arrive Quincy
r 6 12	abc	6 30	5 55	ihgfedcba*	6 22 r
r 6 42	abc	7 00	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	7 30	cba	7 49 r
r 7 26	ad	7 43	8 30	cba	8 49 r
r 7 42	abc	8 00	9 30	cba	9 49 r
r 8 12	abc	8 30	10 30	cba	10 49 r
r 8 26	ad	8 43	11 30	cba	11 49 r
r 8 42	abc	9 00	12 30	cba	12 49 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	1 30	cba	1 49 r
r 10 12	abc	10 30	2 30	cba	2 49 r
r 11 12	abc	11 30	3 30	cba	3 49 r
r 12 12	abc	12 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
r 1 12	abc	1 30	5 00	cba	5 16 r
r 2 12	abc	2 30	5 17	da	5 36 r
r 3 12	abc	3 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
r 4 12	abc	4 30	6 00	cba	6 19 r
r 5 12	abc	5 30	6 17	da	6 36 r
r 6 12	abc	6 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	7 00	cba	7 19 r
r 7 39	abcdefghi	8 05	7 30	cba	7 49 r
r 8 08	abcdef	8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	9 30	cba	9 49 r
r 10 08	abcdef	10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r
r 11 12	abc	11 30	11 30	cba	11 49 r

SUNDAYS.

r 7 12	abc	7 30	6 30	cba	6 r
r 8 12	abc	8 30	8 30	cba	8 49 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	12 30	cba	12 49 r
r 1 12	abc	1 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
r 5 12	abc	5 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 8 08	abcdef	8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
r 10 08	abcdef	10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r

*The letters in the same line as the figures stand for different stations and indicate that trains stop, as follows:

a, Wollaston, b, Norfolk Downs. c, Atlantic. d, Neponset. e, Pope's Hill, f, Harrison Square. g, Savin Hill. h, Crescent Avenue. i, South Boston. r, Quincy Adams. (xx), Express.

C PETER CLARK, Gen'l Supt. A. C. KENDALL G. P. A ugh

at HALE'S
HONEY
OF HOREHOUND
AND an? TAR of Horehound and Tar cure consumption, but it it. A positive cure for y druggists.
Drops cure in one minute.

and Boston
treet Railway.
nge without notice.]
ctober 10, cars will be outes as follows:
and Neponset.
ARE for Neponset at 5.55,
and every 15 minutes until
T for Quincy at 6.15 A. M.
until 11.30 P. M. y at 20 minutes of the hour e hour, go via. Hancock y at 25 and 55 minutes past
port avenue, Wollaston.
ey at 10 minutes past the Downs, and those leaving s past go via Downs.
nset 15 minutes of and 15
ur go via Wollaston and raintree and Holbrook to g with cars for Bridge-
ew Bedford, Fall River, nce.
East Weymouth.
ARE (10 minutes later from
minutes later from North 20, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20,
, 10.50, 11.20, 11.50 A. M.; 0, 2.20, 2.50, 3.20, 3.50, 4.20,
ast Weymouth car house),
7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20,
50 Wednesday and Saturday
nly.)
YMOUTH (20 minutes later
th and 30 minutes later from 30, 7, 7.30, 8, 8.30, 9, 9.30
. M.; 12, 12.30, 1, 1.30, 2, 5, 5.30, 6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8
0, 11.30 P. M.
Weymouth Landing.
at 5.30 A. M., 6.20, 7.20 and
0, then 1.50 and every hour
UTH LANDING at 5.50
until 12.50, then 2.20 and 11.20 P. M., connect with uincy.
d East Milton.
ARE, 5.55, 6.25, then every minutes past the hour until
.50 P. M.
LTON 6.25, 6.55 A. M., then d 25 minutes past the hour
10.20 and 11.20 P. M.
and Holbrook.
for Holbrook at 6.10 and
half hour until 9.40 P. M., o South Braintree only,
ay and Saturday, when can n to Holbrook.
and Hingham.
t 7.20 A. M. and every hour
n 1.50 and every hour until f at 8 A. M. and every hour
.30 and every hour until ntic and Squantum.
T at 6.30 A. M. and every
M., connecting at Atlantic
trains.
M at 7 A. M. and every nnecting at Atlantic with
d Houghs Neck.
CENTRE at 6.20 A. M., and til 1.20, and then 1.50 and
.
HOUGHS NECK at 5.45
r until 12.45, and then 1.20 9.20.
NDAYS.
quare, Quincy, for E. Weyuth Landing at 7.30 A. M. t 7 A. M. and on the hour hout the day.
as week days on other lines,
wo trips are omitted.
WEEKS, Superintendent.

, New Haven
rtford R. R.
n District.
1st, 1898, trains will run
of explanation at bottom.

	FROM BOSTON.
e	Leave	Stops	Arrive
n.	Boston.	at	Quincy
30	5 55	ihgfedcba*	6 22 r
00	6 30	cba	6 49 r
30	7 30	cba	7 49 r
43	8 30	cba	8 49 r
00	9 30	cba	9 49 r
30	10 30	cba	10 49 r
43	11 30	cba	11 49 r
00	12 30	cba	12 49 r
30	1 30	cba	1 49 r
30	2 30	cba	2 49 r
30	3 30	cba	3 49 r
30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
30	5 00	cba	5 19 r
30	5 17	da	5 36 r
30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
30	6 00	cba	6 19 r
30	6 17	da	6 36 r
30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
30	7 00	cba	7 19 r
05	7 30	cba	7 49 r
30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
30	9 30	cba	9 49 r
30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r
30	11 30	cba	11 49 r

DAYS.

30	6 30	cba	6 r
30	8 30	cba	8 49 r
30	12 30	cba	12 49 r
30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r

same line as the figures stations and indicate that
:
g, Savin Hill.
h, Crescent Avenue.
i, South Boston.
r, Quincy Adams.
(xx), Express.
A. C. KENDALL
G. P. A

QUINCY DAILY LEDGER.

VOL. 10. No. 240. QUINCY, MASS., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 14, 1898. PRICE 2 CENTS.

SWEATERS.

We think we can show you the best assortment of Sweaters to be found in the city.

BOYS' SAILOR COLLAR, GARNET OR NAVY BLUE,	$ .50
" " " " " " "	.75
" " " " " " "	1.00
" ROLL " " " " "	1.00
MEN'S SAILOR " " " " "	2.00
" " " " " " "	2.50

Look at Our Window Display.

GEO. W. JONES,

Adams Building, Quincy.

WATCHES.

GENT'S WATCHES, $1.50 and Up.

LADIES' WATCHES, $2.50 and Up.

EVERY WATCH WARRANTED.

$2.00 Belts, $1.00 Each.
75c. Brooch Pins, 25c. Each.
25 and 35c. Stick Pins, 5 and 10c. Ea.

Quincy SOUVENIR TILES Half Price,

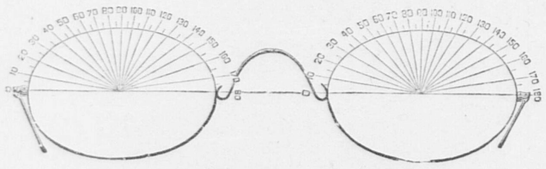

And Other Bargains.

A. A. LINSCOTT, Jeweler,

154 Hancock St., opp. Post Office, Quincy.

Agent for Graphophones.

aug 6. tf

ASTIGMATISM

Causes most of the distressing headaches. Properly fitted glasses will correct the error and remove the pain. Consult

WILLIAMS,

Member of the New England Association of Opticians,

104 Hancock St., Quincy.

E. LANDIS SNYDER,

Organist and Choirmaster of Christ Church,

TEACHER OF

VOICE CULTURE, PIANO AND ORGAN.

Studio: Room 10 Durgin & Merrill's Block, QUINCY, MASS.

Sept. 10. tf

A. J. DURAND,

Piano Tuning, etc.

19 Coddington St., Quincy.

Highly recommended by Chickering & Sons, and prominent Boston musicians.

Sept. 20. 1m

TELEGRAPHIC.

3 O'CLOCK.

PRESIDENTIAL PARTY.

Mr. McKinley Kept Busy on His Homeward Journey.

Crowds Cheer Him at the Stations In Iowa.

Felicitous Addresses on the General State of the Country.

Glenwood, Ia., Oct. 14.—As the presidential train proceeded eastward through Iowa from Omaha the throngs of people seemed to increase at every point, and the applause and enthusiasm never abated. At some points, after he had finished speaking, Mr. McKinley presented to the people the members of the cabinet who are with him, and the cheers for Secretaries Bliss, Gage, Wilson and Postmaster-General Smith were almost as hearty as those given for the executive. A large delegation accompanied the party to the train, including Senators Allen and Thurston and Governor Holcomb.

Just across the river, at Council Bluffs, Mr. McKinley again responded to the cheers of a great crowd, and said: "My fellow citizens, I am very much gratified at your reception. I have just come from the great city of the west and have witnessed a wonderful exhibition of your genius, skill and industry as shown at the trans-Mississippi exposition. Nothing has given me greater satisfaction as I have journeyed through the country than to look into the cheerful faces of the people and to be assured from their appearance that despair no longer hangs over the west, but that you are having a fair share of prosperity; and, not only that, but you are having a baptism of patriotism in which we all rejoice."

At Hastings President McKinley spoke as follows: "It has given me great pleasure, as I have journeyed through this glorious state, to observe evidence both of patriotism and of prosperity. We have pretty much everything in this country to make it happy. We have good money, we have ample revenues, we have unquestioned national credit, but what we want is new markets; and as trade follows the flag, it looks very much as if we were going to have new markets."

At Red Oak, Ia., the president faced a crowd of 3000. He said: "What nation of the world has more to be thankful for than ours? We have material wealth; we have rich and fertile lands; we have great shops and great factories that make everything. We have skilled workmen; we have genius for invention, and in the last 30 years we have achieved commercial triumphs which have been the wonder of the world. We have come out of events of the last five months glorious in our victories and more glorious in the results which are to follow them. We are fortunate in the virtue of our people, and in the valor of our soldiers and sailors. We have been patriotic in every crisis of our history, and never more patriotic than from April, 1898, to the present hour. Our patriotism must be continued. We must not permit it to abate, but we must stand unitedly until every settlement of the recent contest shall be written in enduring form and shall record a triumph for civilization and humanity. I am glad to be at the home of that gallant young hero who went down in the harbor of Havana, Ensign Merritt. I am glad to pay a fitting tribute to him and to all the other heroes of the war. His name and his fame will be sacredly guarded by his own neighbors and fellow citizens, and will be always held in remembrance by a grateful people."

The president then introduced Secretary Gage, who said: "It is to me a source of pride and satisfaction that you, the people of this mighty west, can be brought into contact as you have been brought into contact with this man, the president of the United States, to whose judgment, wisdom, courage, virtue, fortitude, zeal and patriotism the fortunes of the American people are so fully committed. Citizens, he is worthy of your confidence and love; support him by your sympathies and your confidence."

Postmaster General Smith spoke next. "You are here," said he, "to greet the president of the United States. You have given him your confidence and your support through the greatest crisis and emergency which this country has faced since the civil war, because you knew that he is firmly devoted to the welfare of the entire American people, and has given his earnest purpose to the promotion of the interests of our whole country. In his further work you will continue the confidence and support which you have thus far given him, and in the settlements which are to come he will have the support of the American people as he has had in the great conflict through which we have passed."

By far the largest and most vociferous crowd of the day had gathered at Creston. When the presidential party ascended the platform 12,000 persons cheered the president. Mr. McKinley said: "I do not know a period of our history when the country enjoyed more real and substantial prosperity than it does today. In every one of the great industries of the country we are feeling a degree of prosperity which gives new hope to all our people. Not only are the people reasonably prosperous, but the government is alike prosperous. We have had no bad luck lately. We have got along fairly well thus far, thanks to the patriotism of the American people and thanks to the valor and courage and heroism of the boys of Iowa and of the rest of the United States."

At Chariton, Ia., the president said: "We have been very fortunate as a nation in the last six months. We have made much progress in a very little while. We have made some substantial gains without resort to arms. We have the people of Hawaii that came to us free and independent and asked to be annexed to the United States. Wherever our flag floats it is always for the sake of humanity and the advancement of civilization. Territory sometimes comes to us when we go to war in a holy cause, and wherever it does, the banner of liberty will float over it and bring, I trust, blessings and benefits to all of the people."

Explosion In a Colliery.

Coaldale, Pa., Oct. 14.—By an explosion in a colliery Thursday afternoon, five men were killed and 11 others were seriously injured. In consequence of a fire, which originated in the left section of the mines some months ago, shifts of men were put to work driving holes from the gangway through which water was to be forced upon the flames. While the men were building a dam to back up the water, the gangway caught fire. Nearly 100,000 gallons of water were turned into the holes, and almost instantly a terrific explosion occurred, followed in quick succession by four lighter explosions. The gangway was torn up for over 300 feet and workmen were blown about in all directions.

Rescue gangs were put to work, and an hour later it was thought that all the dead and injured had been found. The supposition is that the great body of water sent into the holes forced volumes of escaping gas from some of the old workings back upon the flames, causing the explosion.

Royal makes the food pure, wholesome and delicious.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

LAND VALUES

A Transcript From the Books of the Assessors.

Number of Feet in Each Lot and Valuation Thereof.

Also the Amount of Each Person's Tax Bill for 1898.

[Continued from yesterday.]

Something new in the publication of the taxpayers of the city is attempted this year by the Daily Ledger. There is considerable interest in the assessed value of land in the city, which is claimed to be high in some cases and low in others. So the Ledger has supplemented the amount of the tax bill in each ward with the value of each lot of land for which the person is taxed, giving in each case the number of square feet or acreage.

The amount given in the line with the person's name is his total ward tax, and may include houses, personal property, etc., in addition to the lots of land below. The Ledger gives only the valuation of the land.

To obtain a person's total tax in the city, add together the amounts paid in the several wards.

The Ledger commenced the publication Aug. 30, and has already published the land values of all persons whose names begin with A to L, and today gives the second instalment of the M's:

WARD ONE.

Valuation of Land Only.	Total Ward Tax.
Macomber, Angeline L.	$18 90
5,000 feet, Winthrop street, $250.
Macomber, Benjamin F.	19 10
5,000, Winthrop, $250.
Maloney, Mrs. Annie	21 60
13,843, Brackett, $600.
Mangs, Mrs. Charles	13 50
About 5,000, off Hancock, $150.
Mannex, Thomas F.	11 70
4,050, Bird, $350.
4,050, Rogers, $300.
Marsh, Charles, est.,	268 20
56,491, Irving place, $6,000.
4,250, " " $650.
4,500, " " $650.
Marsh, Ephriam R.	20 00
1-4 acre, Bicknell, $200.
Marsh, Thomas M. heirs	93 60
11,977, Hancock, $4,200.
Matterson, Peter	24 75
5,000, off Curtis, $250
2,500, North Common, $125.
Matthaur,s Thomas, Jr.	15 30
5,000, Manet ave., $400.

WARD TWO.

Maloney, Mary E.	$35 10
5,136 feet, Arnold street, $250.
1,750, Washington, $150.
Malone, Mary	18
10,890, South, $300.
Malone, Peter	16 20
48,550, South, $600.
Malcolm, James	28 80
7,890, South, $400.
Maloney, Timothy	28 80
3-8 acre, Quincy ave., $600.
Marre, Bridget, est.	39 60
41,925, South Walnut, $1,700.
Martin, Louise C.	118 80
3 1-4 acres, Quincy avenue, $3,500.
7,150 feet, " " $3,000.
Mayburry, William F.	37 10
15,360, off South, $450.

WARD THREE.

Maham, James
5,000, Penns Hill, $200.
Mahoney, James J.	$2 00
7,131 feet, Nightingale ave., $250.
Mahoney, Michael F.	6 30
7,200, Madison ave., $350.
Malnati, Angelo	199 10
13,000, Taber street, $750.
24,186 " $1,600.
Manet, Granite Company	63 00
22,931, Centre, $800.
Malnati, Joseph	27 20
6,000, Penn, $400.
Manhire, John E.	34 40
5,952, Albertina, $300.
Marnock, Alex	34 40
7,200, Penn, $500.
Marnock, A. & Co.	72 90
17,500 Liberty, $1,000.
Marsh, Annie L.	40 50
13,620, Payne, $1,000.
Marsh, Edward W.	39 60
13,350, Marsh, $1,000.
Marsh, Jucy J., and Lillie F.	33 30
9,514, School, $850.
Marsh, Mayhew, heirs,	32 40
18,200, Marsh, $1,800.
Martin, Edward J.	22 50
6,000, Rodman, $350.
Martin, Napoleon L.	5 40
8,000, Centre, $300.
Martin, William	48 80
7,500, Franklin, $600.
Mason & Co.,	80 10
15,600, Brook Road, $750.
Masson, John	38 00
7,250, Quincy, $500.
Mavers, Robert	84 35
6,585, Liberty, $400.
6,875, Bennington, $400.

WARD FOUR.

Madliner, Frank	$18 20
10,578 feet, Sheep Rock, $200.
Mahoney, John D., est.,
6,600 feet, Barry street, $350.

Continued on page 3.

AN EXPERT'S DISCOVERY.

Books of a Former Collector of Taxes Show a Deficiency.

Holyoke, Mass., Oct. 14.—At a meeting of the finance committee of the city government Thursday Mr. Estes, an accountant employed to examine the books of ex-Collector Keough, made a partial report, showing an apparent deficiency of about $118,000. According to Keough's books there were unpaid taxes amounting to $16,842 in 1895, $93,959 in 1896 and $165,365 in 1897, a total of $276,-164. According to the city treasurer's ledger the outstanding taxes for the different years are: 1895, $17,063; 1896, $100,170, and 1897, $152,408, a total of $269,641.

In examining the books Mr. Estes says that he found many cases in which credits had evidently been made in lead pencil and then erased. The amount represented by these marks was about $118,000. He exhibited to the committee a check for $4,002, drawn on the City National bank by the George C. Gill Paper company, in payment for its 1897 taxes, which was indorsed by Mr. Keough as tax collector, and which had also passed through the city treasurer's hands, but for which there was no credit on the books. He also cited an item of $500 interest paid by the same concern for which no corresponding credit appeared. Another instance of absence of credit was the case of the Deane Steam Pump company, the tax collector's books showing an unpaid balance of $700 in 1896 taxes and no credits for its 1897 taxes. Mr. Estes said he had seen the checks given in payment for these taxes.

The News of Beantown.

Boston, Oct. 14.—The eighth annual reunion and dinner of the Republican Editorial association of Massachusetts was held yesterday afternoon, and brought together a distinguished gathering of newspaper men, beside a large number of Republicans. Governor Wolcott dropped in just to tell the members of the association that other matters would prevent him from staying to dinner.

T. Maloney of Rutland, late candidate for governor of Vermont, has accepted the invitation of the Democratic state committee to speak at the ratification meeting of the state ticket next Monday night. The chairmen of the various city and town committees throughout the state have been invited to meet the state committee for a conference.

Secret Service Agent D. Redforn says that New Englanders cannot be too careful in scrutinizing paper money. The amount of counterfeit money in circulation hereabouts is astonishing. Among some of the seizures made within the past few days are a bill of the denomination, one of the $20, several tens, a large number of fives and a much larger number of twos.

The Massachusetts Single Tax league held a meeting last night andelected the following officers: President, William Garrison; secretary, H. Fillebrown; treasurer, Mrs. Twitchell; auditor, Edward Twitchell. Several speeches were made and $630 were raised by subscription to carry on the work. The treasurer showed the receipts and expenditures to be $1,100.

Boot and shoe manufacturers in this city and vicinity have claims aggregating $75,000 against J. McD. Scott & Company of Pittsburg, wholesalers, whose failure was announced today.

A girl calling herself Frances H. Waldron of East Providence, with punishment for alleged theft staring her in the face, tried to kill herself with chloroform while confined in a cell in police station 7. She was discovered before she had quite become stupefied, and it is expected that she will not suffer any serious permanent effect from the drug. When her act was discovered she was lying on the floor of her cell with a handkerchief, saturated with chloroform, over her nose and mouth.

Distress of Colored People.

Washington, Oct. 14.—Mr. Lyons, the register of the treasury, has received a letter from James Hill, collector of internal revenue in Jackson, Miss., in which he makes an appeal for aid in behalf of the colored people there who, owing to the quarantine against yellow fever, are unable to obtain work. The letter says: "Nearly all of the white people have left the city. We have at least 4,000 or 5,000 colored people in the city, and from 2,500 to 3,000 have to be fed by charity. The city is strictly quarantined. Many are suffering for the necessities of life."

Your Last Chance!

So Don't Be Too Late.

THIRD and LAST GRAND AUCTION SALE

...OF...

CHOICE HOUSE LOTS

AT BEAUTIFUL

SQUANTUM PARK,

COMMENCING AT 12 O'CLOCK, NOON, SATURDAY, OCT. 15.

THIS is the chance of a life time. Never again will you have the opportunity to secure a choice lot in this section at your own price. BEAR THAT FACT IN MIND. Squantum Park is one of the most beautifully situated tracts of land ever placed on sale near Boston. All high and having a commanding view of the surrounding country and ocean, including Dorchester Bay, Milton Hills, Boston Harbor, etc. Squantum Park is only 5 miles from the State House, and but 11 minutes' ride from the Kneeland street station over the O. C. R. R. to Atlantic, and only 7 minutes' ride on electries from Atlantic to the Park; 87 trains daily and electrics hourly. If you are looking for a beautiful all-year-round seaside home, DON'T MISS THIS SALE; if you are looking for an investment, DON'T MISS THIS SALE, for you will double your money in one year's time. Remember, never again will you have an opportunity like this, for this is positively our last sale. Come out and look the property over. The Boston Cadet Band will furnish the music for the day. Band concert from 12 to 1 o'clock. Sale commences prompt at 1 o'clock, right opposite the Squantum Inn, and there will be plenty of hot coffee and substantial food free to everyone. Sale positive, rain or shine. So DON'T MISS THIS SALE. For plans and full particulars call or address

L. L. P. ATWOOD, Auctioneer, 31 State St., Boston.

Oct. 13.—2t P lw

TELL US . .

What you are looking for.

We can show you a fine line of

FALL AND WINTER

UNDERWEAR,

HOSIERY,

Outing Flannels, Flannelettes,

Plaid Dress Goods,

WRAPPERS, BLANKETS,

Comforters,

Dress Linings and other Dry Goods.

OUR STOCK IS FRESH.

OUR PRICES THE LOWEST.

MISS C. S. HUBBARD,

158 Hancock Street.

— THE —

Fall Millinery Opening

... OF ...

C. L. BLISS,

186 Hancock St.,

TUESDAY and WEDNESDAY

Oct. 11, 12.

The public are cordially invited to call and examine a stock of Trimmed and Untrimmed Hats and noveltics in Velvets, Ribbons, Wings, Feathers and Jet.

Quincy, Oct. 5. 1po 2w

GO TO ....

Miss B. J. PATTERSON'S

Millinery Parlors

AT THE

Boston Bargain Store,

FOR YOUR

FALL MILLINERY.

A fine assortment of Trimmed Goods. Also, all the latest and best shapes in untrimmed hats, walking hats and sailors.

New Velvets, Ribbons, Fancy Feathers and Ostrich goods.

Lowest possible prices for first-class goods.

Music Hall Building, Quincy.

Oct. 1. tfpl

Come, Mary,

Let's go over to the Quincy Second-Hand Variety Store and see if we can't find just what we want. You say you need some more kitchen goods and a few chairs, a carpet for the chamber, some glassware and various other things, and when I was there last week I saw my cousin get a lot of goods for almost nothing. He told me that sometimes he could find new goods at less than half price. These are hard times, Mary, and we must buy where the dollar goes farthest.

WALTER P. PINEL

is the Manager, and the store is right over here at number 20 Franklin street.

aug25 1y

ARE YOU WEDDED TO ANY PARTICULAR STORE?

Or Do You Seek the Place

Where the BEST GOODS can be Found at the LOWEST PRICES.

We Don't Claim to Know Much About Shoes or Groceries, but

WE HAVE MADE A STUDY OF CLOTHING FOR YEARS.

We were brought up in the business. It is the only business at which we have ever worked. We have a buyer in the market every day and he should surely know what is going on. We never buy a thing because it looks better than it is. We never buy a shoddy garment because it looks to be all wool, but buy goods that not only look well to begin with but stay looking well to end with.

THE OVERCOATS AND SUITS WE ARE SHOWING ARE ALL 1898 GOODS,

and not goods of last season. They are made of good, honest Kerseys, Meltons, Coverts, Cassimeres and Worsteds, and we guarantee every garment to be honest before and honest beyond. (Before you buy it and beyond the time you've had your money's worth.)

OUR OVERCOATS COMMENCE AT $5.00 AND END AT $20.00, AND OUR SUITS AT $4.98 AND END AT $16.50,

And They Are ALL WOOL (Mind You.)

If You Do Not Save 10 to 25 per cent. We will Pay You Your Money Back.

QUINCY CLOTHING CO.,

QUINCY'S RELIABLE CLOTHIERS,

MUSIC HALL BLOCK.

By FRANK F. CRANE, - Auctioneer.
Office, 4 Chestnut St., Quincy.

AUCTION SALE
OF THE
Real Estate
— OF —
OWEN H. OWENS, 121 Granite St.,
SATURDAY, Oct. 15th,
2 o'clock P. M.

Consists of a Cottage House of 7 rooms, about one-half acre of land.

This estate is very desirable, either as a home or for investment.

Sale positive, rain or shine.

Terms: $100 at sale. Balance in 10 days at the office of Geo. H. Brown, Adams Building. For further particulars apply to George H. Brown.

oct 5 8 11 12 13 14 8 1wp

By FRANK F. CRANE, - Auctioneer.
Office, 4 Chestnut Street, Quincy.

AUCTION SALE
OF THE
ATTRACTIVE REAL ESTATE
OF THE LATE
MICHAEL GOODHUE,
No. 40 Phipps Street,
TUESDAY, OCT. 18th,
At 3 O'clock P. M.

THIS Estate consists of a Modern House of nine rooms, there is a good stable on the premises, about one acre of land having a very large frontage on Phipps street. The estate contains a variety of shade and fruit trees, an extra fine lot of grapes and currants. Also a fine well containing an excellent quality of water. The buildings are in good repair and the estate is very desirable as a residence or for investment.

Sale Positive, rain or shine.

Terms: $100.00 at sale, balance in ten days.

For further information apply to the auctioneer.

Quincy, Oct. 5—10t 8p—1w

THE FALL SEASON
IS HERE
For the Purchase of
Fruit and Ornamental Trees,
Shrubs and Vines.

Buy now that your plants may get a good start by spring.

Remember that I carry all the desirable novelties, as well as the old standard varieties of nursery stock.

I call special attention to my Flowering Shrubs, Perpetual Roses, Clematis, and Rhododendrons.

Buy at home and save agents' commissions. None but strictly first-class stock, well acclimated, furnished. Call and examine.

Orders by mail receive prompt attention.

Wollaston Park Nursery,
Fenno St., Wollaston.
MARTIN PFAFFMANN, Prop.
P. O. Box 44, Wollaston. Residence, 2 Clay St.
Oct. 14—1m p-3w

POTATOES,
15c. Pk.
Sweet Potatoes,
15c. Pk.
CHICKENS, 15c. lb.
CELERY, 10c. bunch
L. M. PRATT & CO.,
25 School Street.

FRANK F CRANE,
AUCTIONEER and APPRAISER,
Office, 4 Chestnut St., Quincy, Mass.
Oct. tf

MABEL F. FAIRBANKS
TEACHER OF
CHINA PAINTING and WATERCOLOR.
China Decorated to Order.
34 Grand View Avenue, Wollaston.
Sept. 29. 3m

DR. HERBERT S. HAYFORD
195 Hancock Street.
OFFICE HOURS—11 to 12 A. M., 2 to 4 and 7 to 8 P. M.
Telephone, 4-3.
Quincy, July 5. tf

Quincy Daily Ledger
ESTABLISHED IN 1889.
The ONLY DAILY in Norfolk County Massachusetts.

Published Every Evening, Sundays and Holidays Excepted, At No. 115 HANCOCK ST., City of Quincy, Mass., by
GEORGE W. PRESCOTT & SON.
Successors to Green & Prescott.
Subscription Price, $6.00 per year.
☞ A discount of $1 when paid in advance.

ALSO PUBLISHERS OF
The Quincy Patriot,
A Weekly Established in 1837, which has the Largest Circulation in Norfolk County, and
The Braintree Observer,
A Weekly Established in 1878.
TELEPHONE, 78-3 QUINCY.

Quincy Temperature at Noon.

	This Week.	Last Week.	In 1897.	In 1896.
Sunday	66	64	68	51
Monday	53	76	54	51
Tuesday	75	85	65	50
Wednesday	71	63	78	52
Thursday	55	64	66	50
Friday	59	61	60	54
Saturday	—	61	75	50

New Advertisements Today.
Public hearing.
Wollaston Park Nursery.
Granite Clothing Co.
L. M. Pratt & Co.—Potatoes, Chickens, etc.
Loam for sale.

Good Afternoon.

"If the platform adopted at Chicago was then a menace to the manufacturing and industrial prosperity of this country, if it was a threat to the financial stability, yes, and even to the honor of the nation, a re-affirmation of that platform again constitutes a national danger. I say to you my friends that it is the duty not only of the Republicans, but I will put them first but it is the duty of all American citizens to hold up and sustain the government of President McKinley. It is the duty of the Republicans to see that there is no division, by carelessness or apathy, of any or another congressional district which may cause its loss to the Republicans. Any such loss would be hailed as strengthening of the Democratic party; it would be hailed as showing some faltering on the part of Massachusetts in its support of the National Government, and it would be heralded as a promising sign for the Democratic party in the presidential election two years from now. I trust that the Commonwealth of Massachusetts in its congressional districts, will make a good reply to the demands of the times."—Gov. Wolcott in address to Chickatawbut club.

Mayor Rode the Goat.

John Adams Council, No. 1210 Royal Arcanum, Wollaston, at its regular meeting Monday evening, initiated as a new member Hon. Russell Adams Sears, Mayor of Quincy. The degree staff of the Council and the Elmwood quartette made the ceremony of special interest. District Deputy Grand Regent, Walter M. Howard, accompanied by Past D. D. G. R. Walter H. Lyons was also present on an official visit. There was a good attendance of members, and after the business work of the Council had been concluded refreshments were served and remarks made by His Honor, the Mayor, and the District Deputy Grand Regents.

Universalist Fair.

The fair and sale at the Universalist church on Wednesday evening was well attended, the supper table well patronized and the entertainment well appreciated. The weird music of the phonograph, manipulated by Mr. Williams, delighted all, and especially the young people, while the vocal and instrumental selections of Mr. Bradford, and the recitations of Miss Niel and Miss Ethel Chubbuck gave pleasure to everybody. A farce in two scenes, called the Siamese twins, raised a hearty laugh and formed a fitting finale to the entertainment.

O'Hagan in Court.

Arthur O'Hagan and John H. Chance, the alleged murderers of Charles H. Russell the Boston drug clerk on the night of April 4, were brought together at the Charles street jail Wednesday, and this morning O'Hagan was arraigned in court.

☞ It makes the coal man blue when he hears you've bought a Glenwood Range—$18.00 to $33.00. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

WHAT DO THE CHILDREN DRINK?
Don't give them tea or coffee. Have you tried the new food drink called GRAIN-O? It is delicious and nourishing and takes the place of coffee. The more Grain-O you give the children the more health you distribute through their systems. Grain-O is made of pure grains, and when properly prepared tastes like the choice grades of coffee but costs about 1-4 as much. All grocers sell it. 15c. and 25c.

At the Turnout
On Water street you will find the variety store under new management. Cigars, Tobacco, Fruits, Newspapers, and 1,001 other things.
W. E. NIGHTINGALE,
80 Water Street.
Oct. 11—4t

ON FIRST BALLLOT.

Sheppard and Sprague for Representatives.

Nominations Made Unanimous----All Harmonious.

Speeches of Acceptance by the Candidates.

The Republican Representative convention held on Thursday evening was a most harmonious affair and resulted in the nomination upon the first ballot of Eben W. Sheppard of Ward One and Eugene H. Spargue of Ward Five.

The convention was called to order at 8 o'clock by President R. R. Freeman of the City Committee, who read the call. Upon motion of Charles M. Bryant, Harry W. Read of Ward Six was elected chairman, and upon motion of Charles M. Jenness, Frank F. Prescott of Ward One was elected secretary.

Upon motion of John S. Gay a committee of three on credentials was appointed by the chair consisting of John S. Gay of Ward Two, John E. Poland of Ward Six and Peter W. Dakers of Ward Three.

This committee reported that Ward One was entitled to seven votes; Ward Two to five; Ward Three to seven; Ward Four to five; Ward Five to seven; and Ward Six to three, and that all were present.

Upon motion of Hon. Henry O. Fairbanks the temporary organization was made permanent.

Upon motion of Walter Hatch, a committee of three to receive ballots was appointed by the chair, as follows: Walter Hatch of Ward Five; John F. Merrill of Ward One; Peter W. Dakers of Ward Three.

Ex-Mayor Henry O. Fairbanks then presented the name of Eugene H. Sprague; Hon. John F. Merrill the name of Eben W. Sheppard; Tobias H. Burke, the name of Jonas Shackley; and Peter W. Dakers, the name of Philip Halvosa.

Upon motion of Charles M. Bryant the convention proceeded to ballot by wards for two candidates. The ballot resulted as follows:

Whole number of votes,	34
Necessary for choice,	18
Eben W. Sheppard had	22
Eugene H. Sprague had	19
Philip Halvosa had	15
Jonas Shackley had	12

Messrs. Sheppard and Sprague were declared the nominees.

Upon motion of Mr. Dakers of Ward Three the nomination was made unanimous.

Upon motion of Mr. Bryant, a committee of two, consisting of Hon. John F. Merrill and Hon. Henry O. Fairbanks were appointed by the chair to retire and introduce the candidates.

It was then voted that in case of a vacancy by death or other causes the Ward and City Committee be empowered to fill the vacancy.

A recess was then taken, at the close of which the committee entered with the two candidates, who were introduced to the convention.

Mr. Sheppard thanked the convention for the nomination and assured them that if elected he would do his best to do his duty to the city and no act of his would cause the voters to feel ashamed.

Mr. Sprague deeply appreciated the honor of being nominated to represent 25,000 people in the Legislature. If elected, he would help the growth and do nothing to taint its history. He would always be ready to look after the interests of Quincy and at all times ready to heed any petitions. If when my term is ended you can only say, I did what I thought to be right, I shall be satisfied.

The remarks of both gentlemen were greeted with approval and applause, and at 8.40 the convention adjourned.

Wollaston Sociable.

The opening sociable of the season given under the auspices of the Ladies' Benevolent society of the Wollaston Congregational church was a very successful affair and attracted a large crowd of people to the supper as well as to the entertainment which followed.

The entertainment consisted of the baritone solo from Clay, "Gipsy John" by Mr. Charles F. Wilde, and an encore from Osgood, "The Flower may hide its lovely face." Miss Avice Williams and Miss Mabel Winship rendered with spirit a piano duet and an encore.

The "Art Museum" was one of the taking features of the entertainment. "The Hunter" by an anonymous artist was considered the master piece of the exhibition.

The committee of arrangements consisted of Mrs. N. G. Nickerson, Mrs. John A. Barbour, Mrs. George Nash, Mrs. Albert H. Sayward, Mrs. James H. Lewis and Mrs. John Cornish.

☞ Hot Stuff—our splendid $1.00 Comfortors. Blankets at wonderfully little prices. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

POLITICAL FIELD.

All the regularly elected delegates to the Republican Representative convention were present except Archibald F. Macleod, John P. Bigelow and A. T. Rodman whose places were duly filled by Edward L. Goodridge, Daniel McLennon and Tobias H. Buke.

Peter Halvosa expressed himself to the Ledger as perfectly satisfied with the result of the Republican convention. He did not enter the field until the delegates were all elected and was pleased to receive 15 out of 34 votes. He says the Republican candidates will have the hearty support of the party in Ward Three.

The Republicans have nominated two successful business men for Representatives. These are the kind that we should send to the legislature.

The Democrats may nominate but one candidate for Representative.

Registration will close at 10 P. M. next Wednesday. Saturday evening and Wednesday are the only dates now to register.

Torrey E. Wardner has already received more than half the requisite number of signatures necessary to nominate him for Congress in the Tenth district. Neither he nor his aides-de-camp will admit that it is his purpose to run as an independent candidate, if the convention rebuffs him, but there is the best of reason to state that he is not taking his present step singly, for the reason that there may be a deadlock convention until it is too late for anybody to go upon the ticket as a party candidate.—Journal.

Mayor Ramsdell of Lynn has been nominated by the Democrats for Congress in the Seventh district

The Democratic Senatorial convention for this district will be held in the City Council chamber.

☞ The Grand Mechanics fair was auspiciously opened Saturday evening. There are over 300 separate exhibits in the fair, and their variety is even greater than usual, but electricity predominates over everything. There is one display in the shape of a gigantic representation of the earth which is in the centre of Machinery Hall. This is 25 feet in diameter, and contains a cosey reception room which will accommodate 50 people. Another exhibit displays all systems of lighting, and the furnishing heat and power, all from one wire. A leafy bower is splendidly illuminated by incandescents.

☞ Dainty White Muslin Draperies, with ruffled edges, 89 cents per pair. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

A concert by the Boston Cadet band should be a big drawing card for the land auction at Squantum park on Saturday. There will also be hot coffee and refreshments. Don't miss this sale.

THE SATURDAY
8 Page Ledger 8
Will include among its special articles:

An extended report of the Unity Club reception at Wollaston.
The "Mc's" of the Assessors' land values.
An article on one of the Quincy Point public buildings.
Fashion plate and description—a Paris walking costume.
The Social Realm of Quincy and vicinity.
The Sunday services of about twenty churches.
Our weekly illustration—Volunteers before Fort San Antonio at a critical time.
A story for the ladies.
Christian Endeavor column.
Fruit and flower column—Floral attractions.
Paul Laurence and his talented bride.
Report of the foot ball game between Adams Academy and the Quincy High school.
Quincy, Weymouth and Braintree local news.

48 BALLOTS 48
And the tenth district nominated a candidate for Congress, but it needn't take you half so long to decide where to buy
Fall and Winter Suits
FOR MEN AND BOYS.
The Granite Clothing Store has always carried honest goods at low prices, and this year beats all previous years. Every purchaser is bound to be Absolutely Satisfied.
Boys are satisfied because the suits are neat and stylish, and their parents are satisfied with the price.
Call and see for yourself.
Granite Clothing Co.
DURGIN & MERRILL'S BLOCK.

LOCAL NEWS TRACK.

Some Colts which are Sure Winners Every Heat.

Lafayette day will be observed at the Coddington school.

A series of socials are to be held in Brasee's hall throughout the winter.

Saturday's Ledger will contain a full account of the Unity club's reception.

The funeral services of John M. Forbes on Thursday were strictly private.

The chains around the First church yard are being fixed and the grounds cleaned.

The cucumber wood ducts for the underground telephone system arrived this morning.

The public schools will have a holiday next Friday — Norfolk County Teachers' convention.

Mr. James C. Porter of Wollaston, has leased the lot of land between his place and the Granville place.

The curbing for the gravel sidewalk between Butler and Merrymount park on the east side is being placed in position.

A fine deer is on exhibition at Johnson Bros.'s store. It was shot by Joseph Johnson on his recent gunning trip.

It is said that F. W. Tirrell is at work on a new band wagon, and that C. F. Pettengill has clock springs at wholesale.

The Thayer Academy foot ball team will play Burdett College today at South Braintree, and Winchester Y. M. C. A. on Saturday.

Miss Mina Reid, who has been the guest of Mrs. W. L. Thompson of Squantum street, has returned to her home in Truro, N. S.

The section of the sewer on Franklin street is being connected with the section on School street at the junction of these two streets.

George H. Brown & Co., real estate, have sold the H. Gardner Whiting estate on Cottage street, to Mr. A. Petterson, who buys for occupancy.

Mrs. Eliza Nickerson of Everett has leased the Brownville place on Brook street, Wollaston. Mr. A. E. Brownville and family have moved to Needham.

Sir Knight Arthur W. Stetson has sent copies of the Dispatch of Pittsburg with illustrated reports of the Knight Templars parade and festivities.

The brick sidewalk in front of the Hancock cemetery is or will be a great improvement over the concrete walk, the original of which was put down in 1871.

All Quincy Point people over fourteen years of age are cordially invited to the reception to Rev. Edward Anderson, the new pastor, next Tuesday evening.

Sunday morning Rev. Mr. Preble will begin a short series of sermons on the Bible, giving the results of a critical investigation of the world's greatest religious work.

The sewer gang has opened up a trench on Newport avenue near Adams street to connect with the main that comes across Hancock street from the brick sewer.

The Atlantic foot ball team will attempt to defeat the Dorchester High school eleven at Townfield, Dorchester, on Saturday afternoon. The game will be called at 3.30 and promises to be a very interesting one.

If the fellow who called at Simeon Scammell's house the other night and demanded the young man's money or his life, did it for a joke, as reported, it came near proving a serious one for him. It's too much of a joke.

N. G. Nickerson, real estate, has sold a house which he has recently erected on Prospect street, Atlantic, to Thomas Borst of Boston. He has started the foundation for another house on the same street, as well as for a double one on Marion street, Wollaston.

Tax Collector Baker is a star in his line of duty. He has collected over $100,000 of back taxes since he entered office, which were assessed in the years '93, '94, '95 and '96. Nobody can say but what he performs his duty impartially, treating the rich and poor alike as was recently evinced by his advertising for sale the property of one of the wealthiest citizens of the city for non-payment of taxes.

There is a good deal of kicking at Wollaston by the abutters who have to be assessed for the new concrete sidewalks. A larger part of the sidewalks which have been torn up to be replaced by concrete were new binding gravel walks with rounded sod borders. These walks were laid on regularly prepared foundations and rolled down hard. They were good walks. The new sidewalk and sewer assessments and regular tax bill made it hard sleding for many people.

Gentlemen, Buy Your....
OVERCOATS
Where you can find the best assortment in the city and the lowest prices, which is at
C. F. DERBY'S, SAVINGS BANK BUILDING, QUINCY. 5-1m

ONE-TON ORDERS
Have been the making of this Coal business. Hundreds have ordered "just one ton to see if there was any difference." They found there was and they came again. Our one-ton orders have been our best advertisements. It's a better Coal at the same price, with the proof in a sample ton. When in doubt, try Patch's.
C. PATCH & SON.

NOTICE EXTRAORDINARY.
MRS. B. CRAVENS, the Expert Demonstrator of
"HER MAJESTY'S CORSET,"
will fill a special one week's engagement at our store, commencing Oct. 10th and ending Oct. 15th Mrs. Cravens will be glad to explain the merits of this Celebrated Corset and give fittings, thus illustrating its superiority over others.
We desire it to be distinctly understood that ladies will not be expected to purchase a Corset after a fitting is made unless they so desire.
"Her Majesty's Corset" is Not the Cheapest, but the Best.
☞ "Her Majesty's Corset" in Fit, Wear and Comfort is unsurpassed. It is worn by well dressed women. Endorsed by Physicians and Modistes.
D. E. WADSWORTH & CO.,
Hancock Street, Quincy.

Durable Carpetings
It has been our good fortune to note after years of untiring study and observation, that what the general public want today in Carpetings, is something that is serviceable, attractive and not expensive in price.
To some people all carpetings look alike, but it's the wearing quality that counts fully as much as the looks.
We make a specialty of Lowell and Roxbury Carpetings, the excellence of quality being acknowledged by all who know, to be unequalled by Carpets of other manufacture.
Heavy All Wool Carpets, 45c. to 65c.
Extra Fine Tapestry Brussels, 45c. to 85c.
We guarantee that nowhere can such values in Carpetings be found as here.
HENRY L. KINCAIDE & CO.,
RELIABLE, LOW PRICED HOUSE FURNISHERS,
HANCOCK STREET, - - QUINCY.

SWITHIN BROS.
REAL ESTATE!
President's Hill.
President's Hill Annex.
Cranch Hill.
Choice Lots and Improved Property for Sale in West Quincy, Wollaston, South Quincy, Quincy Point, Quincy Centre.
Room 12, Durgin & Merrill's Block, Quincy.

Which Half is the Better Half

The housewife's dutjes are harder than men realize. Cleaning alone is a constant tax on her strength, a never-ended task. More than half the work of cleaning she can have done for her, if she will, and the expense will be next to nothing.

GOLD DUST Washing Powder.

Does the better half of cleaning; does it better than any other way known; does it easily, quickly and cheaply. Largest package—greatest economy.

THE N. K. FAIRBANK COMPANY,
Chicago. St. Louis. New York. Boston. Philadelphia.

NOTHING BETTER,

UNCLE SAM'S NAVY

Now commands the respect of the world, and we are all proud of the defenders of the Nation's Honor. To give the people of Quincy a good idea of the grand battleships, we have ordered a large supply of portfolios, giving magnificent views of the ships, crews, etc.

With each purchase made at our store we will give a portfolio check to the value of the purchase. When you have $4.00 worth of these checks, return them and get a portfolio. Continue in this way until you have the set complete. Call and see these magnificent portfolios.

ROGERS BROS.,

Groceries and Provisions. Adams Building, Quincy.

GEO. AMES,

the ONLY PRACTICAL PLUMBER in the Hardware business in the City. He has a patent SEWER TRAP which cannot be beat. Impossible for deadly sewer gas to enter your homes. See him about your Sewer Connection. He has had three years' experience in Boston and other large cities Established here in 1889 and still in it. Work done anywhere.

Hardware, Paints and Oils, Putty and Glass, Yacht Supplies, Steam and Gas Fittings. Steam and Hot Air Heaters put in repair for the winter.

ADAMS BUILDING

CANCER CURED

BY ABSORPTION
NO KNIFE.

The result of years of scientific research by America's greatest blood specialist. A pleasant treatment that relieves immediately, cures permanently all forms of CANCERS, TUMORS and CHRONIC DISEASES. Hundreds of wonderful cures effected in and around Boston. Read the following:

BLOOD EVIDENCE

Then come to our offices and investigate the hundreds of other marvellous cures produced by ABSORPTION when all other treatment failed. Consult this living paticut. "Dr. James M. Solomon: Dear Sir: The following is my testimonial, which I hope will help others. That after suffering several years with something that was never reached, getting only temporary help from different doctors, and each attack being more severe, I was advised by a friend, who had been cured of a tumor, to see her doctor. I was then unable for any work, and feeling worse from day to day; realizing that something was preying upon me of a serious nature, I was discouraged about my condition, and sought Dr. Solomon with little faith—it was more of an experiment. He got my confidence on the first interview, when, without a word of description of my feelings from me, he at once located my trouble, and I could not help believing that he knew from what I was suffering, although was greatly surprised and somewhat terrified when he told me it was cancer of the stomach. I began treatment at once, Nov. 3, 1892, and was faithful to his directions, with just the results promised I would get, till the following June (1893) I felt like a new being, and the doctor pronounced me recovered. I am sure that I have, and I can never repay the gratitude I owe to Dr. J. M. Solomon. Sincerely, EBEN FISH, 232 Harvard St., Dorchester, Mass." Today he is one of the many living witnesses of the only painless method that positively CURES when all others fail.

We want you to call and examine references of people you know—people we all know, who would not vouch for ABSORPTION had they not been cured. Ask for references marked H.

James M. Solomon, M.D.

SPECIALIST IN CANCERS, TUMORS AND CHRONIC DISEASES.

2 A Beacon Street BOSTON.

Oct. 13. 1y lo

DR. RALPH M. FOGG,

DENTIST.

Teeth extracted absolutely without pain by the use of the

"BOSTON VEGETABLE VAPOR."

It is claimed that, while it has the required properties of ether, chloroform, nitrous oxide gas, it lacks the disagreeable and dangerous qualities of these drugs. It is certainly a boon to suffering humanity to be relieved of the nausea too often following the administering of sedatives of the old school.—Boston Transcript.

Teeth made and repaired on Gold or Rubber base. Teeth Filling a specialty.

Office in French's Building, five doors south of Post Office, Quincy, Wednesdays. Hours, 9 A. M. to 2 P. M. July18-1y Nov8-1yo

Savings Bank Building, Quincy.

STENOGRAPHY AND TYPEWRITING,

BOOKKEEPING,

And All Clerical Work.

MISSES A. B. and E. M. COTE,

Room 12 Durgin & Merrill Block, - Quincy.

Oct. 10. tf

WILLIAM E. BAXTER, M. D.

Practice Limited to the

EYE AND EAR.

553 Boylston St., Boston.

QUINCY—Monday and Friday.

Hours, 9 to 11. 195 Hancock Street

May 21. 1y

E. W. SHACKFORD,

PAPER HANGER,

Quincy, Mass.

Orders left with W. DAVENPORT, or T. B. DAVENPORT.

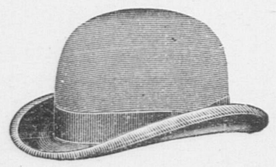

Sept. 14. 1m

DANCING SCHOOL.

Reduced Rates.

Prof. GARDNER,

the well known Boston teacher, will receive a few more pupils in his class in COLONIAL HALL, Bank Building, Quincy, on Friday Evening, Oct. 14, at 7.45. Terms: Gents, $5, Ladies, $3. All the latest dances taught. lp tf

Dissatisfied Buyers

... OF ...

HATS

Can Best be Suited by Buying

CHAMBERLAIN'S BEACONSFIELD $3.00 DERBY,

OR HIS

REVELATION $2.00 DERBY.

They hold their Shape and Color.

663 WASHINGTON STREET, BOSTON.

Opposite Beach Street.

Hats and Furnishings.

Sept. 15 L 17-4w o

E. S. BECKFORD,

Electrician.

Wiring and Fitting for Incandescent, Motors, Dynamos, Bells, etc.

GRANITE STREET, Near the Bridge, QUINCY

Feb. 1 1y

CAMP OF FIFTH.

It is a Model—Food Ample and Well Cooked.

Robert A. Blood, Surgeon General, who was detailed by the Governor to visit the camps of the Fifth and Eighth Regiments to see if anything were needed for the troops, has written Gen. Dalton a letter relative to the Fifth Regiment camp, in which he says: "I have thoroughly been over the camp of the Fifth. The camp is a model. I have seen nothing better this summer, and few that could be called as good. The sanitary arrangements are most excellent. I visited the men at meals. Food was ample, generally well cooked. No company has been able to eat all the food supplied. I have never seen such clean sinks. Hospitals clean and well arranged. Number of sick 27, and all told. All cases in quarters are mild, and number of sick growing less each week. I could find no officer or man who had any complaint to make of the food or the amount of same. The men, without exception look well, in fine, seem contented. The regiment is one of the finest, and I see no reason why it should not keep so. The whole camp is an ideal one and I am proud of it."

Col. J. H. Whitney commanding the Fifth Regiment Massachusetts Infantry U. S. V. has forwarded to the Governor a number of nominations and the commissions will issue from the Adjutant General's office dated Oct. 14.

Imperialism vs Munroe Doctrine

Editors Daily Ledger:

The Munroe Doctrine says in effect, Other nations shall acquire no more territory in the Western Hemisphere."

Imperialism says "The United States shall acquire territory in the Eastern Hemisphere."

Is this consistent? Can any logical argument or sound principle be advanced to sustain and reconcile these two positions? Are they destitute of all defence except the bully's subterfuge that might makes right; or, are the apparent conflicts merely imaginary?

Aside from its moral and ethical aspects, the matter is one fraught with great and perplexing practical questions, which the combined wisdom, experience and common-sense of the whole nation seems hardly able to solve, and which the partisan efforts of any one political party will be utterly unable to cope with successfully. Should the United States retain the Philippine Islands, with their hordes of restless and untaught savages; or simply reserve for themselves one island of the group, for a coaling station, and establish a protectorate over the rest until a permanent free government of and by their own people should be assured? All these questions involve tremendous possibilities of future trouble with foreign nations, actuated with jealous distrust of our territorial aggrandizement, and lucky indeed will we be if we settle them all wisely, without foreign complications.

It seems to the writer as if on the solution of these problems depends the continuance of peace, and in great degree the future prosperity of the nation, but that country which produced Washington and Lincoln, father and saviour of their country, will in this emergency yield up a counsel, whose wisdom and advice will point the way to a successful surmounting of these present trying difficulties.

Very truly yours,
READER.

Brock or Cracknell.

The two matches in the semi-final round in the club championship of the Wollaston Golf Club were played Wednesday and as a result, the winners, E. H. Brock and Ralph Cracknell, will meet for a 36-hole match on Saturday to determine who is the best player in the club.

In matches, Cracknell had no difficulty in defeating G. E. Atherton, notwithstanding the latter's fine record in previous matches, but the defeat of C. L. Bremer by Brock was in the nature of a surprise.

--Although the Brockton fair had only two pleasant days out of four, the attendance was over 75,000, and the total receipts in excess of last year.

☞ Oil Heaters worth $6.00, our price $3.98, will heat a room in a jiffy. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

DIED.

BAXTER—In Quincy, Oct. 14, Mrs. Lauretta wife of Daniel S. Baxter, aged 70 years and 8 months.
Funeral from late residence, 171 Washington street, Sunday, Oct. 16, at 2.30 P. M. Relatives and friends invited. Burial private.

Bon Ami

The New Cleaner.

HAS MERITS THAT ARE UNEQUALED. THOSE WHO USE IT SAY, "COULDN'T DO WITHOUT IT."

IN THE CITY NURSERY

Young Saplings Which Together Assume Importance.

Mrs. W. M. Marden has returned from a week's visit at Fall River.

Mrs. Harriet Burley of New Hampshire is visiting friends in this city.

Councilman John W. Nash has returned from a two weeks' visit in Vermont.

Mrs. Burbeck of Plymouth is spending a week with Mrs. George Monk, of 111 Washington street.

A party of nine ladies from this city enjoyed the play of the "Little Minister" on Wednesday evening.

Pastors of all churches are invited to send each Friday morning, for insertion in Saturday's Ledger, the announcement of their Sunday services.

Mrs. W. W. Ewell and Mrs. E. W. H. Bass secured the prizes of handsome hat pins at the whist party of the Granite City club on Wednesday evening.

The many friends of Mr. Charles Crane, will be pleased to know that he is improving from his serious illness, and was able to walk up to City Square on Wednesday.

The gold watch and chain lost at the foot ball game on Saturday was found by Wesley Sargent of Quincy Neck who returned it to its owner and would accept no reward.

The many friends of Mrs. Mary F. Dexter, of Cross street, West Quincy, will be sorry to learn that next week she leaves Quincy, to make her home with friends at Saxton River, Vt.

Mr. William Loud of Waltham, son of F. P. Loud of this city, after eighteen years of labor with the Waltham Watch factory, has resigned his position and accepted one with Bigelow, Kennard & Co. of Washington street, Boston.

MILTON.

Rev. A. S. Gilbert, pastor of the Congregational church, has accepted a call to become assistant pastor of the Hansum place Methodist church, of Brooklyn, N. Y., which office he will assume Nov. 1.

The first anniversary of the Mission of Our Saviour church will be observed Sunday, Oct. 23, for which a special programme is being arranged.

Rev. H. C. Vrooman, formerly of East Milton is visiting friends here, and will preach Sunday at the Congregational church. Mrs. Vrooman who is an East Milton lady has been here some weeks.

The Thursday Evening club held a whist party in Ellsworth hall, Thursday evening.

A party of East Milton gentlemen went on a fishing trip Wednesday. George Ellis was high man, having hooked over one hundred fish.

The Milton A. A. defeated the Laurel A. A. at foot ball last Saturday by a score of 33 to 0. Next Saturday they will play the St. Joseph A. A. at East Milton.

That flag in East Milton square is little more than a piece of colored rag and should either be replaced with a new flag or removed altogether.

TODAY'S COURT.

Robert McNally and John Brown were fined $5 each for drunkenness at Quincy.

James Flynn was arraigned for assault on George A. Bates at Milton. Case continued until next Tuesday.

William Bugbee was arraigned for malicious mischief at Quincy. Case continued until next Thursday.

☞ Dr. W. H. Prescott, now Lieut. Prescott, who was associated with the late Sherman Hoar in the Volunteer Aid work, especially at Montauk Point, says: "Mr. Hoar's death comes to me as a direct personal loss. His work for the soldiers cannot be too highly valued. He was the means of securing from the war department special orders which have done much to alleviate the condition of the sick. His large acquaintance with public men was invaluable in the relief work. He was not a strong man, despite his activity, and from the time I learned of his sickness I was fearful for the result. When I met him in New York he was sick."

The Norfolk Hunt Club held a drag hounds meet at Dedham yesterday. The members started from the club house at Connecticut Corner and met at the Kingsbury Farm, Westwood, from which place they started across country. Joseph Balch acted as master of hounds. Fifteen gentleman and one lady joined in the hunt.

—The total number of pupils in the State normal schools is 1,256, the Bridgewater being by far the largest of the nine, having 277.

☞ Wall Papers in the choicest and latest New York Designs, from 3c. up. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

LAND VALUES.

Continued from page 1.

WARD FOUR.

Valuation of Land Only.	Total Ward Tax.
Malcolm, Bessie L. 5,720, Hill, $250.	20 70
Malone, John 7,152, Whitman, $350.	57 50
Malone, Patrick 7,062, Side, $350.	8 30
Maglott, Peter, Josephine and Leo 5,925, Wetland, $300.	38 00
Malvin, Mary 10,947, Copeland, $400.	39 60
Mangs, Charles and Matilda 9,672, Quarry, $450.	15 20
Mannex, Alice B. 29,895, Hall's Hill, $1,500 14,000, off Hall place, $550.	105 30
Mannex, Patrick W. 11,090, off Hall place, $450.	87 50
Mannex, Thomas F. 23,568, off Bates ave., $950. 10,890, Hall place, $500. 7,712, Willard, $350.	199 10
Manter Ai C. 18,000, Common, $725.	27 45
Marcille, Winifred 1-4 acre, Furnace ave., $100,	1 80
Martelle, Frederick 1-2 acre off Common, $500.	60 05
Martelle, Severn, Jr., est., 8,255, Filbert, $300.	34 40
Martin, Catherine G., and Michael J., 5,376, Rustic place, $250.	38 70
Matthaurs, Thomas 6,530, off Quarry, $200,	25 40
Mayo, Annie P. 2,697, Copeland, $400.	52 20

WARD FIVE.

Manning, Edward M. 11,250 feet, Lot 11, Sec. 1, $1,650.	$101 70
Mann, Barney D. 8,291, Lot 5, Sec. 2, $550.	46 10
Mansfield, Edward A. 3,280, Davis $250. 945, " $75.	36 65
Magnuson, Charles G. 4,317, Beale, $1,450.	82 10
Marr, Ida J. 9,204, Beach, $450. 4,200, " $300.	76 50
Marr, Lucy M. 6,500, Hamilton, $400.	40 50
Marple, Susan M. T. 9,375, Everett, $600.	46 80
Marsh, Charles, est., 5,934, Standish ave., $375. 8,153, " " $300. 7,929, Old Colony ave., $300. 7,903, " " " $300. 11,577, " " " $500. 10,194, Newton, $400. 8,953, " $350. 10,221, Atlantic ave., $300.	95 85
Marsh, Edwin W., adm., 6,000, Eaton, $500. 8,700, " $500. 7 acres, swamp land, $300.	23 40
Marshall, Joseph F. 6,847 Highland ave., $700. 6,847, " " $700.	81 20
Martin, Alex and Josephine L. 4,500, Hamden Circle, $350.	6 30
Martin, William 7,536, Franklin ave., $350.	6 30
Mayer, Marie E. 4,200, Beach, $300.	31 20
Maxwell, Mrs. Charles E. 7,949, Berlin, $475. 8,340, " $500.	71 55
Maxwell, Lorana A. 5,397, Hampden Circle, $300.	41 40

WARD SIX.

Mahoney, William, est., 36,700 feet, Hancock street, $2,600. 2.9 acres, Billings, $900.	$88 20
Marshall, Hannah and Bartholomew 4,000, Ruthem, $225.	4 05
Martin, Peter, est., 8,700, Walnut, $450.	29 70
Massey, Francis A. 26,208, Oak, $1,050.	38 90

[To be continued.]

The War Exposition.

The War Exposition, one of the most remarkable exhibitions ever given in Boston is now in progress at the Boston auditorium on Tremont street near Dover.

The entire interior of this commodious structure, formerly the Cyclorama-Casino building, has been reconstructed and is devoted to the most unique and timely display ever witnessed. The purpose of this war exposition is to delight the visitor and arouse the best patriotic impulses by the display of artistic and soul-stirring momentoes of the war with Spain. To this end the distinguished artist, Mr. John G. Ohnimus, with competent assistants, has been at work for weeks upon a mammoth creation of the brush, which will serve to place before the eye at a single glance the most stirring events of the war. The visitor enters the auditorium through a structure representing the gates of Santiago. In the centre he is confronted by a life-like representation of Morro Castle. Ascending this and looking in any direction he experiences the same impression as if standing within a great rotunda upheld by broad columns of white marble, he were gazing out upon the more inspiriting events of the war. While the effect is one of completeness, as a matter of fact one looks upon a series of gigantic paintings covering many thousands of square feet. Here are represented such thrilling scenes as the victory of Dewey at Manila, the destruction of Cervera's fleet, the attack of the Rough Riders at Los Guasinos on June 27, Hobson sinking the Merrimac, the raising of the American flag over the municipal building of Santiago, the surrender of Toral to General Shafter and last, but not least, the farewell of the lamented Colonel Bogan to his beloved Ninth regiment. Some idea of the magnitude of this exhibition may be gained when it is said that the figures of the officers and soldiers shown are of heroic size. That representing the farewell of Colonel Bogan will show the regiment under arms. This picture will be formally presented to the Ninth by the management. But this exhibition is a fair as well. War relics from Cuba and elsewhere are on view and from the patriotically decorated booths, which will fill the floor space, sample souvenirs and "war rations" will be issued free to visitors. Judged as a whole the exposition is the most unique and interesting ever given in this country.

It is open daily from 10 A. M. to 10 P. M. No one should visit Boston without seeing it.

PUBLIC HEARING.

CITY OF QUINCY.

In Council, Oct. 10, 1898.

ORDERED: On the petition of the Boston, Quincy and Fall River Bicycle Railway Company, by its president, E. Moody Boynton, for the right to cross with its railway either above or below grade, Centre street at a point 600 feet from the line of Braintree, measured on said street, over and along Penn street from the southerly end thereof to Liberty street, across Liberty street opposite its junction with Penn street, across Water street 10 feet from the west line of Pleasant street, across Pleasant street 15 feet from Water street, across Jackson street 148 feet east of Pleasant street, across Quincy street 250 feet east of Pleasant street, across School street 85 feet west of Marsh street, across Granite street and Whitwell street at their junction, across, over and along Goffe street from a point 315 feet north of Granite street to a point 550 feet south of Saville street, across Saville street 90 feet east of Goffe street, across Dimmock street 110 feet east of Goffe street, across Adams street over the railroad bridge, across Carruth street 105 feet east of the railroad, across Gilmore street 110 feet from the railroad line, across the next street north of Gilmore street and parallel with it 125 feet east of the railroad, over and along Old Colony avenue from the southerly end thereof to Beale street, across Beale street at the head of Old Colony avenue, across Woodbine street at the head of Weston avenue, over and along Weston avenue from Woodbine street to Linden street, across Linden street at the head of Weston avenue, across Hayward street 115 feet from the railroad, over and along Holmes street from Hayward street to Squantum street, across Squantum street at the head of Holmes street, across Linden street 50 feet from Hancock street, over and along Hancock street from a point 350 feet north of Walnut street to Neponset line. All as shown upon the plans submitted and made a part of their petition. That a public hearing be given to all parties interested, by the City Council, on MONDAY evening, October 31, 1898, at 7.45 o'clock, in the Council Chamber, City Hall, and that public notice of the same be given by publishing a copy of this order in the Quincy Daily Ledger and Quincy Advertiser at least fourteen days before the time of said hearing.

Adopted Oct. 10, 1898.

Attest: CHRISTOPHER A. SPEAR,
14 15 Clerk of Council.

STATE ELECTOIN.

CITY OF QUINCY.

City Clerk's Office, Oct. 7, 1898.

IN Accordance with the provisions of Chapter 548 of the Acts of 1898, notice is hereby given that by a vote of the City Council, passed October 3, 1898, the polling places for the election to be held TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1898, in the City of Quincy, were designated as follows:

WARD ONE.—Council Chamber, City Hall.

WARD TWO—Hose House, Washington street.

WARD THREE, Precinct One.—Doble's Hall, Franklin street.

WARD THREE, Precinct Two.—Old Steamer House, School street.

WARD FOUR, Precinct One.—St. Mary's Hall, Willard street.

WARD FOUR, Precinct Two.—Hose House, Copeland street.

WARD FIVE.—Polson's Building, Newport avenue.

WARD SIX.—Hose House, Newbury avenue.

Attest: EDGAR G. CLEAVES,
City Clerk.
Quincy, Oct. 7, 1898. 27t

NOTICE TO VOTERS.

CITY OF QUINCY.

For the purpose of preparing the Annual Register of Voters, and of receiving evidence of qualification from persons claiming a right to Vote at the coming State Election, the Board of Registrars of Voters will be in session at the COUNCIL CHAMBER in the City Hall Building, on the evenings of

Wednesday, Sept. 14,
Saturday, Sept. 17,
Thursday, Sept. 29,
Saturday, Oct. 1,
Wednesday, Oct. 5.
Saturday, Oct. 8,
Saturday, Oct. 15,

From 7 to 9 P. M., and also on

Wednesday, Oct. 19,

From 12 o'clock M. until 10 o'clock P. M.

Every applicant for registration must appear in person before the Board, and must present either a certificate from the Assessors or a Tax bill or Notice from the Collector of Taxes, showing that he has been assessed as a resident of the City on the First day of May last; or a certificate from the Assessors that he has been a resident of the City for the six months next preceding the election at which he claims a right to vote. If a naturalized citizen he must also produce for inspection his papers of naturalization. Payment of a poll tax is not a prerequisite to voting.

No person can vote at the election unless his name has previously been placed upon the voting list of the Ward of which he was a resident on the first day of May last, and no name can be added to the list of voters unless registered previous to

Wednesday, Oct. 19th.

at 10 o'clock P. M., when registration will close.

Examine the Voting Lists posted, and see that your name is in its proper place. NO CHANGE can be made after WEDNESDAY, Oct. 19th, at 10 o'clock P. M. The Board of Assessors will be in session at their office on the same evenings.

EDWARD B. MARSH,
CORNELIUS MOYNIHAN,
EDWARD J. McKEON,
EDGAR G. CLEAVES,
Registrars.

Quincy, Sept. 6, 1898. 38t r10-2w

☞ Hundreds of Lamps to choose from, the very newest and latest notions are here for your inspection; 25c. to $10.00. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS.

Advertisements in this column inserted at the following rates:

Four lines, or less, one day, - - - 25 cents.
" " three days, - - - 50 cents.
" " one week, - - - - 75 cents.

Additional lines will be charged for pro rata. Seven words equal a line. Long term rates furnished on application.

WANTED.

WANTED—50 Experienced Stitchers on Shirts. Steady work. Also girls to sew on buttons. Apply, CONGRESS MFG. CO., 141 Washington street, Quincy.
Oct. 12-6t 15-po 1w

WANTED—Capable Girl for general housework in a family of three. Call or address Mrs. E. E. Jameson, cor. Brook and Farrington streets, Wollaston.
Oct. 11—6t p15—1w

FOR SALE.

LOAM FOR SALE. Inquire at No. 71 Granite street.
Quincy, Oct. 14. 2t

FOR SALE—Well known and fast Cape Cat Boat, Hustler, winner Quincy Yacht Club Handicap Championsh p, '98. New sails and rigging, tight cock fit, very easy to handle, o. a. 23 ft. 10 in., b. 11 ft., draft 28 in., large cabin; head room 52 in. Also 1 13-ft. Cat Boat, 7 ft. b., 12 in. draft; very able; a bargain; seat 7. C. C. C., 63 Lawrence street, Waltham, Mass. oct12-6t

TO LET.

TO LET—Half a House of 5 rooms entirely separate on Phipps street, Mt. Pleasant. Rent, $8 a month; city water. Inquire at 17 Summer street.
Quincy, Sept. 27. 18t

TO LET—House 29 Chestnut street, eight rooms, furnace and bath. Near centre, within three minutes' of steam cars. Apply to CHAS. W. HALL, 212 Hancock street, Quincy. Oct. 10 tf

TO LET—On Washington street, at the corner of Wibird street, a very desirable house for a small family. Six rooms, two of them new, and all in good repair. Rent, $15. City water. Concrete sidewalk in front of the house extending to the depot. Apply only to FRANK F. PRESCOTT, at the Ledger office or at 14 Bigelow street. tf

TO LET—Cottage house, No. 29 Granite street, 8 rooms, three minutes' from City Square. Apply to H. M. FAXON, 4 Adams Building. Sept. 30—tf

FOR RENT—Desirable house with bath, corner lot, nice neighborhood, three minutes' walk from schools, churches and depot Rent reasonable. Apply at No. 6 Pleasant St. Quincy, Sept. 7. tf

TO LET—A pleasant tenement of six rooms; newly papered and painted throughout. Centrally located on a main street within five minutes' walk of Quincy depot. Rent, $15. Address "House," Lock Box L, Quincy. Oct. 4. tf

HOUSES, STORES, LAND,

ROOMS, OFFICES, AND WHARVES,

To Let In Quincy, Mass.

The Houses are in Complete Repair.

Half-house, 10 rooms, 6 Chester street, Wollaston.
House, 10 rooms with stable, 16 Cottage street.
Half-house, 5 rooms, 16 Cottage street.
House, 8 rooms, 29 Granite street.
Half house, 4 rooms, 4 Water street, $7 per month.
Tenement, 5 rooms, 59 North street.
Half-house, 6 rooms, Pond street, $10 per month.
Half-house, 5 rooms, 13 Field street, $8 per month.
Tenement, 3 rooms, 28 Howard street, $3 per month.
Tenements, 51 Howard street, $4, $5 and $6 per month.
Room, 12 Washington street, $5 per month.
Large building, suitable for manufacturing purposes on Brackett's wharf.
Small stable, 2 Quincy street, $3 per month.
Small stable, 28 Coddington street, $5 per month.
100 windows, and blinds, various sizes.
Wharf, stone sheds, etc., Quincy Neck.
Basement, head of Granite street.
100 tons ballast for sale.
Land to rent for tillage or pasturing purposes.
Gravel and sand for sale.
50 loads of loam for sale.
The buildings are in the very best condition.
For particulars, enquire of, or address

HENRY H. FAXON,
Quincy, Mass.

Quincy, Oct. 13, 1898. 1m

For Sale or To Let,

FURNISHED,

NASH'S HOTEL.

Full of Boarders and a good transient trade. Cheap rent. My catering business is all I can attend to.

Apply at HOTEL, 148 Hancock street, Quincy, Mass. oct11 tf lo

TO LET IN QUINCY.

SOUTHERLY Half of house with stable 214 Hancock street, now occupied by Dr. N. S. Hunting. Modern improvements, central location. Possession given about October 15th. Apply on premises to

MISS M. F. UNDERWOOD.
Oct. 1. tf

TO LET.

APARTMENTS of five large rooms and bath, with all modern improvements. Also two large stores. Rent moderate. Apply to ARTHUR CRAIG, or J. W. HAYDEN, at Craig Building, cor. Copeland and Garfield Sts.
Quincy, July 15. pl tf

TO LET.

House of 8 rooms, etc., No. 20 Canal street, Quincy. Nice house, excellent location.

R. D. CHASE,
Savings Bank Building.
Quincy, Oct. 8. pl tf

FOR SALE.

Bigelow St. Fine New Residence, 9 rooms, bath, laundry, furnace, open plumbing, cemented cellar, fireplace, etc.

R. D. CHASE,
Savings Bank Building.
Quincy, April 8-tf. 9p-tf

Uncle Sam.—"You're a credit to the nation!"

Every man who chews Battle Ax has the satisfaction of having helped the U. S. Government pay the expenses of the war with Spain.

BattleAx PLUG

pays four million dollars' tax into the U. S. Treasury!!! More than all the money paid by any five other brands of chewing tobacco.

It is QUALITY that does this—real excellence:—actual superiority.

Remember the name when you buy again.

MAKE IT HOT FOR YOU.

If your house is cold and you have become disgusted with the various devices called heaters, and you are really anxious to have warmth and comfort in your home, place an order for one of those G. B. Bates CIRCULATORS. It will "make it hot for you" or just the temperature you desire. Its construction is based upon scientific and economical principles. Several have recently been put in right here in Quincy, and others will be put in during the next few weeks. Don't read this ad. and then forget about it till your water pipes are all frozen, but go now to

G. B. BATES,

Hancock Street, Quincy.

Parlor Stove Talk

It isn't because people don't know or don't care, it's because they don't think and are neglectful that colds are caught and sickness of a more serious nature is contracted. A pinch of prevention is worth a barrel of care.

It doesn't pay to sit in cold, damp rooms and become chilled during the cool fall evenings. Take no chances, buy a parlor stove now, get the good of it and protect your health.

Our parlor stoves are attractive, serviceable, economical to run, and will keep you warm. That's something to think about, but that's not all, they are wonderfully low in price, $2.90 to $25.00—that's something to dream about.

HENRY L. KINCAIDE & CO.

Reliable, Low Priced House Furnishers.

Hancock Street, - - - Quincy, Mass.

TEETH EXTRACTED.

No Pain or Danger.

Safer than vapor. Money paid for extracting goes towards teeth to be inserted. I am the only dentist in the city using the Painless Preparation for Extraction.

DR. C. B. UNDERWOOD,

9 Spear St. Rear of Public Library

ALBERT J. BOWERS

OPTICIAN

ADAMS BUILDING OVER POST OFFICE

QUINCY MASS.

WHO STARTED THE ROW

Trying to Fix the Responsibility For the Illinois Tragedy.

Miners Say First Shots Came From the Train.

Coal Company's Arms and Ammunition Seized by the Militia.

Virden, Ill., Oct. 14.—Coroner Hart impanelled a jury of six yesterday and began an inquest into Wednesday's tragedy. The jurymen include Justice of the Peace A. J. Roberts and J. D. Foley, a member of the executive committee of the miners. Six union miners were examined. They were unanimous in testifying that the first shots were fired from the train, at about 100 feet south of the station. They testified that their men shot into the air until the train came to a stop.

M. Turner, one of the guards stationed in the yards south of the town to announce the approach of the train carrying the negroes, says he fired the first shot as a signal to the main body of miners near the depot. The miners had agreed that 10 shots in rapid succession should be the signal that the train was approaching. Turner fired the shots, shooting in the air, and the men on the train answered with a volley into the crowd, whereupon the firing became general.

Thursday all the arms and ammunition of the Chicago-Virden Coal company were confiscated by Captain Fervior, commanding the state militia. There were 125 Springfield rifles and 2,500 rounds of ammunition.

The rear of the Climax Trading company's store and adjacent buildings bear evidence of the terrific firing that took place when J. F. Eyster was the target, springing across the roofs. The plate glass windows in the front of the store are broken. In the rear the building is riddled with bullets and buckshot. All the window panes bear bullet holes, and the roof of the coal shed was mowed by a charge of buckshot that was fired at Eyster just as he sprang through the skylights into the miners' hall. Gunwads and cartridge shells lie scattered around the rear of the store. Six feet from the rear of the Climax store stands the covered delivery wagon in which Eyster made the trip to the stockade with physicians. A load of buckshot riddled the rubber curtains, dents from bullets are visible in the sides of the wagon, the tongue is broken off short, and the stub end is bloodstained. It is learned that the team of horses, shot and goaded to madness by the wounds, broke the tongue and ran. They went two blocks and fell dead.

Wednesday's shooting has resulted in 14 deaths. The coal company has shown no sign of a purpose to abandon its plan of operating its mines with imported negroes, as was evidenced yesterday afternoon, when another trainload arrived at the stockade. Captain Fevior, who was in command there, shouted: "Don't allow anyone to disembark from that train."

The gate was opened and a file of soldiers rushed out in the double quick with fixed bayonets and lined up alongside of the train. General Manager Lukens made a formal request that his employes be allowed to land and enter the stockade. Captain Fevior declined to grant this. Then Mr. Lukens put it in a form of a demand, but the officer replied that he was under orders from Governor Tanner to prevent the disembarkating of any negro miners at the works. Lukens protested in vain, and the train pulled out, headed south.

By this time the advance guard of strikers gathered at the depot had advanced up the track to within 100 yards of the stockade, where they remained until the train passed, when they greeted it with waving hats and cheers for Governor Tanner. After the departure of the train, Mr. Lukens said: "From my own personal knowledge I can say that no shots were fired from the train carrying the negro miners until at least 500 shots had been fired into it and several of the guards were wounded. The strikers commenced firing on the train just after it had passed the depot and kept it up as long as the train was within gunshot. When the train stopped at the gate, our guards were there to assist in unloading the cars. But few shots were fired by them, most of the defense firing being done by the train guards."

Knight Templars' Officers.

Pittsburg, Oct. 14.—The turning point in the Knights Templar's conclave came yesterday when some of the visitors began to prepare for their return. The resources of the local entertainers were by no means exhausted, however. Several detachments went out sightseeing early in the morning. Street car parties went to local points of interest. For those who remained in the city there were concerts and other entertainments at the headquarters of the various commanderies.

Officers were elected and Louisville was selected as the place where the next conclave is to be held. Reuben H. Lloyd of San Francisco was chosen master, H. B. Stoddard of Texas deputy, C. M. Moulton of Chicago generalissimo, H. W. Rugg of Providence captain general, W. B. Mellish of Ohio senior warden.

Joseph A. Locke of Portland was elected junior warden, Wales L. Lines of Meriden, Conn., and W. Mayo of St. Louis were re-elected grand treasurer and grand recorder respectively.

Quarrels of Soldiers.

Cincinnati, Oct. 14.—A Lexington special to the Times says that the trial of Private Kitchen, who killed Private Nygram, Twelfth New York, was postponed till Saturday because a new outrage had stirred up such feeling that violence was feared. Sergeant McClellan of the Third Kentucky was caught after midnight by a party of Twelfth New York solidiers and so mistreated that he may be injured for life. This aroused bitterness against the New York regiment on the part of the Kentucky regiment, and it was deemed unwise to risk an outbreak by proceeding with the trial of Kitchen.

BEATEN IN BALTIMORE.

Champions Lose the Game With Their Closest Rivals.

Baltimore, Oct. 14.—The champions drew about 1000 persons to Union park yesterday afternoon, and among them were a few partisans who evidently did not know that the championship had been won, or else they were so sore because their own team did not win it that they had to give vent to their prejudices.

They saw a first-class game of ball and went away satisfied because their favorites were victorious. The Baltimores could not do much against Willis, but after loose fielding had given them three runs, they won in the seventh because he became unsteady. Score:

Baltimores.	AB	R	1B	PO	A	E
McGraw, 3 b	1	2	0	2	0	0
Keeler, r f	4	0	1	3	0	0
Jennings, s s	4	0	1	1	5	0
Kelley, c f	4	1	1	2	0	0
Demont, 2 b	4	1	1	1	4	0
Holmes, l f	4	0	0	1	0	0
Clarke, 1 b	3	0	0	14	0	1
Heydon, c	1	1	0	2	1	1
McJames, p	3	1	1	1	4	0
Totals	28	6	5	27	14	2

Boston.	AB	R	1B	PO	A	E
Hamilton, c f	3	1	1	2	0	0
Tenney, 1 b	4	1	1	10	2	0
Long, 2 b	4	1	1	2	2	0
Duffy, l f	4	1	1	1	0	1
Collins, 3 b	4	0	3	2	3	0
Stahl, r f	4	0	0	0	0	1
Yeager, c	4	0	0	4	3	1
Smith, s s	4	1	1	2	3	1
Willis, p	3	0	0	1	1	1
Stafford, x	1	0	0	0	0	0
Totals	35	5	8	24	14	5

x—Batted for Willis in ninth inning.

Baltimore ....2 0 0 0 0 1 3 0 .—6
Boston .....4 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 0—5

Stolen bases—McGraw, 2. Three-base hit—Jennings. Earned runs—Boston, 2. First base on balls—Off McJames, 1; off Willis, 4. Hit by pitched ball—Heydon. Struck out—By McJames, 3; by Willis, 1. Passed balls—Heydon, 1. Wild pitches—McJames, 1. Left on bases—Baltimore, 3; Boston, 4. Umpires—Gaffney and Brown.

Gardner pitched a good game for the Pittsburghs, but Taylor did better for the Chicagoes, and was better supported at critical stages.

The Phillies won a double header from the Brooklyns, and thereby clinched their place in the first division.

Every run tallied at the polo grounds in New York excepting one had an error attached to it. The Washingtons were the worst sinners in this respect and the giants won easily. The New Yorks tried Puhl, an infielder from the Connecticut league.

Frauds In Chili.

Valparaiso, Oct. 14.—Frauds amounting to millions of dollars have been discovered in the arsenal. The chief accountant has committed suicide.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

The difference between Prussia and the vatican has been satisfactorily settled, and Prussia will soon appoint a new envoy to succeed Von Bulow.

Four buildings in Ryegate, Vt., were destroyed by fire yesterday, the loss being $20,000. Eight horses and several carriages were lost.

Madison, Miss., reports five new cases of yellow fever; Starksville, one new case; Oxford, one death; Wayaland, two new cases and one death; Hattiesburg, six new cases since Sunday; Harriston, 16 new cases.

Major General Greene has been ordered to report to General Lee of the Seventh army corps, and will command a division of the army of Cuban occupation. General Greene took part in the battle of Manila.

H. E. Doughty, aged 35, who was at work on a barge at Bald island, Me., was knocked overboard and drowned by the breaking of a guy rope, which caused the boom to sweep the deck. He leaves a widow.

It is reported that Chang-Ying-Houan, who was recently dismissed from his office and banished to Ili, Chinese Turkostan, was murdered while en route to the place of exile on a secret order of the empress dowager.

A dispatch was received at the war department from Minnesota yesterday, asking for 500 Springfield rifles and 50,000 rounds of ammunition for the use of the people of that state in protecting themselves against hostile Indians.

The Knights of the Golden Eagle chose New York city as the place to hold the convention next year. The officers elected include W. C. Hunter of New Jersey as supreme chief and John B. Roberts of Massachusetts as vice chief.

The Democrats of the Seventh Massachusetts congressional district nominated Mayor Walter L. Ramsdell of Lynn on the first ballot. Mayor Ramsdell had 71 votes. Philip J. Doherty of Boston 32 votes and Mayor E. M. Winn of Malden 5 votes.

The membership in Yale university is practically the same as last year. The figures for the various departments are: Academic, 1,237; scientific, 572; law school, 196; medical school, 104; divinity school, 96; total, 2,205. Last year the total was 2,213.

Eight thousand students are in attendance at the institutions of learning in Massachusetts and Rhode Island where Young Men's Christian associations are organized. Fifteen hundred of them are members of the association, 1,100 being active members.

The four volunteer regiments which have been ordered home from Porto Rico, the Third Illinois, Sixth Massachusetts, Fourth Ohio and Third Wisconsin, will go immediately to their state headquarters when they arrive in the United States, be given 60 days furlough and mustered out.

Tomorrow's Almanac and Forecast.

Sun rises—5:57; sets, 5:02.
Moon sets—Eve.
High water—10:45 a. m.; 11:15 p. m.

Fair weather prevailed yesterday, except rains in the lake region, where a storm of considerable energy is central. It is moving over slowly eastward, and the cloudy weather and showers probable from it is likely to continue through tonight, probably followed by clearing weather Saturday morning and fair afternoon and night. At this time no great change is indicated in the temperature for the remainder of the week.

WAR INQUIRY.

Admissions by a Surgeon About Affairs In Camp Thomas.

Washington, Oct. 14.—Besides examining Dr. Hoff, who was chief surgeon at Camp Thomas, the war investigators yesterday gave some attention to the papers submitted by Secretary Alger, with his statement concerning the conduct of the war. The documents reveal that General Miles recommended the occupation of the Isle of Pines about the time of the battle of Santiago, and that Secretary Alger disapproved the suggestion; that he recommended that a point between Santiago and Porto Rico be taken previous to the beginning of either campaign; that there was an apparent conflict of authority between the general and Shafter at Tampa before the Santiago campaign was inaugurated, and that orders were issued by the secretary of war that, in the event that General Shafter should be disabled by sickness or other cause, the command of the troops at Santiago should devolve upon General Wheeler, and upon the next in command in case of disability of both Shafter and Wheeler.

During Dr. Hoff's examination he said that he knew of no case in which men in the hospitals had been compelled to lie on the ground; but he thought there were probably cases in which sick men had been kept under flies for several days. He was asked if it was true that at night there was an average of only one nurse to each 40 patients in the hospital of the second division of the Third corps, and said this could not be true.

Dr. Conner read an extract from a letter from the Arkansas governor saying that he had made a personal investigation of the conditions in this hospital, and that he had found "the conditions deplorable — simply disgraceful." He charged that the doctors in the institution were all northern men, unfamiliar with diseases incidental to the south; that there were cases of fever in which patients had gone without water for 24 hours and in which sick men went without attention from a surgeon, or without receiving a dose of medicine for a week. Replying, Dr. Hoff said that several southern physicians were engaged at the hospital, and that he did not think it possible that men could have been neglected as indicated by the governor's letter. He had not heard of such cases.

Dr. Hoff said that there had been a shortage in medical supplies for several weeks, but there was generally sufficient to meet the immediate demands. Some requisitions had been returned by the Washington authorities because improperly filled, and he was under the impression that there had been complaints of some suffering on this account. There was considerable delay in securing flooring for the tents.

"Was there any deprivation on account of the shortage of tents and of medical supplies," asked Governor Woodbury.

"It was so reported," responded Dr. Hoff.

"Whose fault was it?" was asked.

"Not mine," he replied.

Maso Calls on Ray.

Santiago, Oct. 14.—Bartholomew Maso, accompanied by two members of his staff, arrived yesterday morning at Manzanillo.

Colonel Ray received Maso courteously, expressed pleasure at the opportunity of an interview and said he hoped the caller would arrange for disbanding the Cubans under General Rios in the neighborhood of Manzanillo so that the work in the fields could begin. He also earnestly advised the president of the so-called Cuban provisional government to disband the Cuban troops at all points now in possession of the United States forces, in order that the men might give the assistance so greatly needed to place the country in a position to recover from the evils of the three years' war.

Thoroughly in accord with Colonel Ray's proposal to get the Cuban soldiery at work throughout the province of Santiago, he promised to do all in his power to bring about this result, believing, he said, that the sooner the country was prosperous and happy the sooner "Cuba libre" would be an accomplished fact, and believing also that the best policy for the Cubans now was to cooperate with the Americans in their plans for building up the country.

Colored Officers Complained.

Santiago, Oct. 14.—A question has cropped up that is causing General Wood, who, in the absence of General Lawton, is in command of the military department of Santiago, not a little perplexity. A majority of the officers of the immune regiments from the southern states object to eating at the same restaurants with colored officers, most of whom are from the northern states. Some of the colored men, apparently desirous of bringing the matter to an issue, formally reported that they could not get served at the principal Spanish restaurant, under Spanish law, whereas the American law compelled a proprietor of any house of public entertainment to serve all who paid. The proprietor involved complained that if he served the colored officers he would lose almost his entire patronage, as a majority of his customers were southerners. General Wood appealed to the common sense of the colored officers, and advised that the restaurant be turned into a club.

Garrison For Porto Rico.

Washington, Oct. 14.—General Brooke has been directed to consider the subject of a permanent garrison for Porto Rico. With the troops now on the island and those en route, exclusive of those who have been ordered home, General Brooke's command consists of about 8000 men. He is inclined to the belief that a force of 6000 or 7000 will be ample as a garrison for the island.

Whether regiments of regulars will be sent to Porto Rico will depend upon the recommendation. At all events it is not likely in the opinion of war department officials that any regulars will be ordered to the island before the first of next year.

Want to Get Out.

Washington, Oct. 14.—In spite of all the precautions taken by the war department and all the warnings uttered against applications for discharge except through the regular channels of the army, the department is besieged with letters and by callers who want enlisted men released from the service. These applications are granted for the most part, and the discharges are issuing at such a rate as to give concern in some quarters at the perceptible diminution of company strength.

GET FLESH.

Get Strength, Vigor, Clear Complexion and Good Digestion, Not by Patent Medicine, But in Nature's Own Way.

Any honest physician will tell you that there is but one way to get increased flesh; all the patent medicines and cod liver oils to the contrary notwithstanding.

Nature has but one way to increase flesh, strength and vigor, mind and body, and that is through the stomach, by wholesome food, well digested. There is no reason or common sense in other methods whatever.

People are thin, run down, nervous, pale and shaky in their nerves simply because their stomachs are weak.

They may not think they have dyspepsia, but the fact remains that they do not eat enough food, or what they eat is not quickly and properly digested as it should be.

Dr. Harlandson says the reason is because the stomach lacks certain digestive acids and peptones, and deficient secretion of gastric juice.

Nature's remedy in such cases is to supply what the weak stomach lacks. There are several good preparations which will do this, but none so readily as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, which are designed especially for all stomach troubles, and which cure all digestive weakness on the common sense plan of furnishing the digestive principles which the stomach lacks.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets give perfect digestion. First effect is to increase the appetite and increased vigor, added flesh, pure blood, and strength of nerve and muscle is the perfectly natural result.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are the safest tonic known and will cure any form of stomach trouble except cancer of the stomach. May be found at druggists at 50 cents for full-sized package, or direct by mail from Stuart Co. Marshall Mich. 10-12-14

☞ Carpets thoroughly cleaned in our electric beater. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

FISH.

Everything first-class at the

Cape Cod Fish Market,

Temple Street.

All kinds Fresh, Salt, Smoked an Pickeled

Quincy, Feb. 8. 1y

Coal!

Just Received by Barge Blackbird, a Fresh Cargo of

Pea Coal

(Small Nut.)

J. F. SHEPPARD & SONS

Quincy Sept. 7.

The John Hancock Stables.

Opposite Depot, Quincy, Mass.

Boarding, Baiting, Livery and Sale.

DR. J. A. DOW, Proprietor,

the well known Veterinary dentist and specialist in the treatment of lame horses. Sick horses treated at owner's risk.

The finest equipped and managed stable of its size in America.

Fine driving turnouts in light rigs; safe and good appearing. All horses let are perfectly safe for ladies to drive.

The choicest family, road and coach horses constantly on hand for sale. All horses guaranteed as represented.

☞ Will attend to veterinary practice as usual. aug18-1y

JOHN EVANS,

Auctioneer and Appraiser.

Prompt Settlement.

24 COPELAND STREET, QUINCY.

Feb. 26. tf

Quincy and Boston Electric Street Railway.

[Subject to change without notice.]

On and after October 10, cars will be run on the different routes as follows:

Quincy and Neponset.

Leave CITY SQUARE for Neponset at 5.55, 6.10, 6.25, 6.40 A. M. and every 15 minutes until 11.10 P. M.

Leave NEPONSET for Quincy at 6.15 A. M. and every 15 minutes until 11.30 P. M.

Cars leaving Quincy at 20 minutes of the hour and Neponset on the hour, go via. Hancock street direct.

Cars leaving Quincy at 25 and 55 minutes past the hour go via Newport avenue, Wollaston.

Cars leaving Quincy at 10 minutes past the hour go via Norfolk Downs, and those leaving Neponset at 30 minutes past go via Downs.

Cars leaving Neponset 15 minutes of and 15 minutes past the hour go via Wollaston and continue through Braintree and Holbrook to Brockton, connecting with cars for Bridgewater, Taunton, New Bedford, Fall River, Newport and Providence.

Quincy and East Weymouth.

Leave CITY SQUARE (10 minutes later from Quincy Point and 22 minutes later from North Weymouth)—5.45, 6.20, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20, 9.50, 10.20, 10.50, 11.20, 11.50 A. M.; 12.20, 12.50, 1.20, 1.50, 2.20, 2.50, 3.20, 3.50, 4.20, 4.50, 5.20, (5.30 to East Weymouth car house), 5.50, 6.20, 6.30, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20, 9.50, 10.50 P. M., (11.50 Wednesday and Saturday to Thomas' Corner only.)

Leave EAST WEYMOUTH (20 minutes later from North Weymouth and 30 minutes later from Quincy Point)—6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8, 8.30, 9, 9.30 10, 10.30, 11, 11.30 A. M.; 12, 12.30, 1, 1.30, 2, 2.30, 3, 3.30, 4, 4.30, 5, 5.30, 6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8 8.30, 9, 9.30, 10, 10.30, 11.30 P. M.

Quincy and Weymouth Landing.

Leave QUINCY at 5.30 A. M., 6.20, 7.20 and every hour until 12.20, then 1.50 and every hour until 10.50 P. M.

Leave WEYMOUTH LANDING at 5.50 A. M. and every hour until 12.50, then 2.20 and every hour until 11.20 P. M., connect with trains to Boston at Quincy.

Quincy and East Milton.

Leave CITY SQUARE, 5.55, 6.25, then every 5 minutes of and 25 minutes past the hour until 9.25 P. M., then at 10.50 P. M.

Leave EAST MILTON 6.25, 6.55 A. M., then every 5 minutes of and 25 minutes past the hour until 9.50 P. M., then 10.20 and 11.20 P. M.

Quincy and Brockton.

Leave QUINCY for Brockton at 6.10 and 6.40 A. M., and every half hour until 9.10 P. M., except on Wednesday and Saturday, when car at 9.40 runs through to Brockton. Cars at 9.40 and 10.10 to South Braintree every night.

Quincy and Hingham.

Leave QUINCY at 7.20 A. M. and every hour until 11.20 A. M., then 1.50 and every hour until 5.50 P. M.

Leave HINGHAM at 8 A. M. and every hour until 12 M., then 2.30 and every hour until 6.30 P. M.

Neponset, Atlantic and Squantum.

Leave NEPONSET at 6.30 A. M. and every hour until 8.30 P. M., connecting at Atlantic with outward express trains.

Leave SQUANTUM at 7 A. M. and every hour until 9 P. M., connecting at Atlantic with express trains.

Quincy and Houghs Neck.

Leave QUINCY CENTRE at 6.20 A. M., and and every hour until 1.20, and then 1.50 and every hour until 9.50.

Returning, leave HOUGHS NECK at 5.45 A. M., and every hour until 12.45, and then 1.20 and every hour until 9.20.

SUNDAYS.

Cars leave City Square, Quincy, for E. Weymouth and Weymouth Landing at 7.30 A. M. and West Quincy at 7 A. M. and on the hour and half hour throughout the day.

Sunday time same as week days on other lines, except that the first two trips are omitted.

BENJ. J. WEEKS, Superintendent.

New York, New Haven and Hartford R. R.

Eastern District.

On and after Oct. 16, 1898, trains will run as follows: (See note of explanation at bottom.

TO BOSTON. Leave Quincy.	Stops at	Arrive Boston.	FROM BOSTON. Leave Boston.	Stops at	Arrive Quincy
r 6 12	abc	e 6 30	5 55	ihgfedcba	*6 22 r
r 6 42	abc	7 00	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	7 30	cba	7 49 r
r 7 26	ad	7 43	8 30	cba	8 49 r
r 7 42	abc	8 00	9 30	cba	9 49 r
r 8 12	abc	8 30	10 30	cba	10 49 r
r 8 26	ad	8 43	11 30	cba	11 49 r
r 8 42	abc	9 00	12 30	cba	12 49 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	1 30	cba	1 49 r
r 10 12	abc	10 30	2 30	cba	2 49 r
r 11 12	abc	11 30	3 30	cba	3 49 r
r 12 12	abc	12 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
r 1 12	abc	1 30	5 00	cba	5 19 r
r 2 12	abc	2 30	5 17	da	5 36 r
r 3 12	abc	3 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
r 4 12	abc	4 30	6 00	cba	6 19 r
r 5 12	abc	5 30	6 17	da	6 36 r
r 6 12	abc	6 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	7 00	cba	7 19 r
r 7 39	abcdefghi	8 05	7 30	cba	7 49 r
r 8 08	abcdef	8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	9 30	cba	9 49 r
r 10 08	abcdef	10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r
r 11 12	abc	11 30	11 30	cba	11 49 r

SUNDAYS.

r 7 12	abc	7 30	6 30	cba	6 r
r 8 12	abc	8 30	8 30	cba	8 49 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	12 30	cba	12 49 r
r 1 12	abc	1 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
r 5 12	abc	5 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 8 08	abcdef	8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
r 10 08	abcdef	10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r

*The letters in the same line as the figures stand for different stations and indicate that trains stop, as follows:

a, Wollaston, b, Norfolk Downs. c, Atlantic. d, Neponset. e, Pope's Hill, f, Harrison Square. g, Savin Hill. h, Crescent Avenue. i, South Boston. r, Quincy Adams. (xx), Express.

C PETER CLARK, Gen'l Supt. A. C. KENDALL G. P. A

Hancock Stables.
Depot, Quincy, Mass.
iting, Livery and Sale.
. DOW, Proprietor,
Veterinary dentist and specialist t of lame horses. Sick horses s risk.
pped and managed stable of its rnouts in light rigs; safe and All horses let are perfectly safe family, road and coach horses d for sale. All horses guarau-d.
nd to veterinary practice as
aug18-1y

N EVANS, and Appraiser.
pt Settlement.
ND STREET, QUINCY.
tf

and Boston
Street Railway. change without notice.]
October 10, cars will be t routes as follows:
y and Neponset.
QUARE for Neponset at 5.55,
M. and every 15 minutes until
SET for Quincy at 6.15 A. M.,
tes until 11.30 P. M.
incy at 20 minutes of the hour
the hour, go via. Hancock incy at 25 and 55 minutes past ewport avenue, Wollaston.
incy at 10 minutes past the k Downs, and those leaving utes past go via Downs.
eponset 15 minutes of and 15
hour go via Wollaston and
Braintree and Holbrook to ng with cars for Bridge-
New Bedford, Fall River,
idence.
d East Weymouth.
QUARE (10 minutes later from
22 minutes later from North
, 6.20, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20,
.20, 10.50, 11.20, 11.50 A. M.;
.50, 2.20, 2.50, 3.20, 3.50, 4.20,
East Weymouth car house),
0, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20,
1.50 Wednesday and Saturday
only.) EYMOUTH (20 minutes later
outh and 30 minutes later from 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8, 8.30, 9, 9.30
A. M.; 12, 12.30, 1, 1.30, 2, 0, 5, 5.30, 6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8
.30, 11.30 P. M.
Weymouth Landing.
at 5.30 A. M., 6.20, 7.20 and
2.20, then 1.50 and every hour
OUTH LANDING at 5.50
ur until 12.50, then 2.20 and 11.20 P. M., connect with
Quincy.
nd East Milton.
UARE, 5.55, 6.25, then every
minutes past the hour until
10.50 P. M.
ILTON 6.25, 6.55 A. M., then and 25 minutes past the hour
n 10.20 and 11.20 P. M. y and Brockton.
for Brockton at 6.10 and ry half hour until 9.10 P. M.
day and Saturday, when car
h to Brockton. Cars at 9.40
Braintree every night.
and Hingham.
at 7.20 A. M. and every hour
en 1.50 and every hour until
M at 8 A. M. and every hour
2.30 and every hour until antic and Squantum.
ET at 6.30 A. M. and every M., connecting at Atlantic ss trains.
UM at 7 A. M. and every onnecting at Atlantic with
nd Houghs Neck.
CENTRE at 6.20 A. M., and until 1.20, and then 1.50 and 0.
HOUGHS NECK at 5.45
ur until 12.45, and then 1.20 l 9.20.
UNDAYS.
Square, Quincy, for E. Weyouth Landing at 7.30 A. M.
at 7 A. M. and on the hour
ghout the day.
as week days on other lines,
two trips are omitted.
WEEKS, Superintendent.

k, New Haven
rtford R. R.
n District.
. 16, 1898, trains will run
e of explanation at bottom.

	FROM BOSTON.
re	Leave Stops	Arrive
on.	Boston. at	Quincy
30	5 55 ihgfedcba	*6 22 r
00	6 30 cba	6 49 r
30	7 30 cba	7 49 r
43	8 30 cba	8 49 r
00	9 30 cba	9 49 r
30	10 30 cba	10 49 r
43	11 30 cba	11 49 r
00	12 30 cba	12 49 r
30	1 30 cba	1 49 r
30	2 30 cba	2 49 r
30	3 30 cba	3 49 r
30	4 30 cba	4 49 r
30	5 00 cba	5 19 r
30	5 17 da	5 36 r
30	5 30 cba	5 49 r
30	6 00 cba	6 19 r
30	6 17 da	6 36 r
30	6 30 cba	6 49 r
30	7 00 eba	7 19 r
05	7 30 cba	7 49 r
30	8 30 fedcba	8 53 r
30	9 30 cba	9 49 r
30	10 30 fedcba	10 53 r
30	11 30 cba	11 49 r
DAYS.
30	6 30 cba	6 r
30	8 30 cba	8 49 r
30	12 30 cba	12 49 r
00	4 30 cba	4 49 r
0	5 30 cba	5 49 r
0	6 30 cba	6 49 r
30	8 30 fedcba	8 53 r
30	10 30 fedcba	10 53 r

same line as the figures tations and indicate that
:
g, Savin Hill.
h, Crescent Avenue.
i, South Boston.
r, Quincy Adams.
(xx), Express.

A. C. KENDALL
G. P. A

QUINCY DAILY LEDGER.

VOL. 10. No. 241. QUINCY, MASS., SATURDAY, OCTOBER 15, 1898. PRICE 2 CENTS.

TELL US . .

What you are looking for.

We can show you a fine line of

FALL AND WINTER
UNDERWEAR,
HOSIERY,
Outing Flannels, Flannelettes,
Plaid Dress Goods,
WRAPPERS, BLANKETS,
Comforters,
Dress Linings and other Dry Goods.

OUR STOCK IS FRESH.
OUR PRICES THE LOWEST.

MISS C. S. HUBBARD,
158 Hancock Street.

— THE —
Fall Millinery Opening
. . . OF . . .
C. L. BLISS,
186 Hancock St.,
TUESDAY and WEDNESDAY
Oct. 11, 12.

The public are cordially invited to call and examine a stock of Trimmed and Untrimmed Hats and novelties in Velvets, Ribbons, Wings, Feathers and Jet.

Quincy, Oct. 5. lpo 2w

GO TO . . .
Miss B. J. PATTERSON'S
Millinery Parlors
AT THE
Boston Bargain Store,
FOR YOUR
FALL MILLINERY.

A fine assortment of Trimmed Goods. Also, all the latest and best shapes in untrimmed hats, walking hats and sailors.

New Velvets, Ribbons, Fancy Feathers and Ostrich goods.

Lowest possible prices for first-class goods.

Music Hall Building, Quincy.
Oct. 1. tfpl

E. LANDIS SNYDER,
Organist and Choirmaster of Christ Church,
TEACHER OF
VOICE CULTURE, PIANO AND ORGAN.
Studio: Room 10 Durgin & Merrill's Block,
QUINCY, MASS.
Sept. 10. tf

ALBERT J. BOWERS
OPTICIAN
ADAMS BUILDING
OVER POST OFFICE
QUINCY MASS.

THE FLOUR OF THE FAMILY.
So Long as Bread is Made
from flour and flour is made from wheat, just so long will the BEST bread be made from PILLSBURY'S BEST flour.
It commands the highest wholesale price, and has the largest sale, of any flour in the world.
For Sale by Grocers Generally
AND COBB, BATES & YERXA CO.
BOSTON.
F. H. CRANE & SONS, Agents,
QUINCY.

Sept. 24—4w 24 4t s

NOTICE EXTRAORDINARY.

MRS. B. CRAVENS, the Expert Demonstrator of

"HER MAJESTY'S CORSET,"

will fill a special one week's engagement at our store, commencing Oct. 10th and ending Oct. 15th Mrs. Cravens will be glad to explain the merits of this Celebrated Corset and give fittings, thus illustrating its superiority over others.

We desire it to be distinctly understood that ladies will not be expected to purchase a Corset after a fitting is made unless they so desire.

"Her Majesty's Corset" is Not the Cheapest, but the Best.

☞ "Her Majesty's Corset" in Fit, Wear and Comfort is unsurpassed. It is worn by well dressed women. Endorsed by Physicians and Modistes.

D. E. WADSWORTH & CO.,
Hancock Street, Quincy.

TEETH EXTRACTED.
No Pain or Danger.
Safer than vapor. Money paid for extracting goes towards teeth to be inserted. I am the only dentist in the city using the Painless Preparation for Extraction.
DR. C. B. UNDERWOOD,
9 Spear St. Rear of Public Library

STENOGRAPHY AND TYPEWRITING,
BOOKKEEPING,
And All Clerical Work.
MISSES A. B. and E. M. COTE,
Room 12 Durgin & Merrill Block, - Quincy.
Oct. 10. tf

ARE YOU WEDDED TO ANY PARTICULAR STORE?
Or Do You Seek the Place
Where the BEST GOODS can be Found at the LOWEST PRICES.
We Don't Claim to Know Much About Shoes or Groceries, but
WE HAVE MADE A STUDY OF CLOTHING FOR YEARS.
We were brought up in the business. It is the only business at which we have ever worked. We have a buyer in the market every day and he should surely know what is going on. We never buy a thing because it looks better than it is. We never buy a shoddy garment because it looks to be all wool, but buy goods that not only look well to begin with but stay looking well to end with.
THE OVERCOATS AND SUITS WE ARE SHOWING ARE ALL 1898 GOODS,
and not goods of last season. They are made of good, honest Kerseys, Meltons, Coverts, Cassimeres and Worsteds, and we guarantee every garment to be honest before and honest beyond. (Before you buy it and beyond the time you've had your money's worth.)
OUR OVERCOATS COMMENCE AT $5.00 AND END AT $20.00, AND OUR SUITS AT $4.98 AND END AT $16.50,
And They Are ALL WOOL (Mind You.)
If You Do Not Save 10 to 25 per cent. We will Pay You Your Money Back.
QUINCY CLOTHING CO.,
QUINCY'S RELIABLE CLOTHIERS,
MUSIC HALL BLOCK.

The Social Realm.

That man may last, but never lives,
Who much receives, but nothing gives;
Whom none can love, whom none can thank,
Creation's blot, creation's blank.
—Thomas Gibbons.

• • •

The engagement is announced of ex-Mayor Charles F. Adams, 2d, of Quincy and Miss Lovering of Taunton.

• • •

The engagement was announced on Wednesday of Miss Grace Carolyn North of West Medford and Mr. Edmund Foster Clark of Boston, Harvard '97. Miss North is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. North, and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Magee of this city.

• • •

Miss May Gavin is spending two weeks in New York.

• • •

Mrs. Perkins and Miss Mary Perkins, who have lived for several years in the Foster house, on Chestnut street, are to move to Washington street, opposite Foster street.

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. Percy M. Blake of Hyde Park are to celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage Wednesday evening, Oct. 26.

• • •

Miss Clara Burrell returned Friday from a visit to her aunt at Brockton.

• • •

Mrs. Benjamin F. Curtis returned on Tuesday from Point Allerton. She has been quite ill but is now slowly recovering.

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. Cushman of Braintree have been in Newburyport for a week.

• • •

Miss Thompson's talk on Queen Wilhemina, fully proving lineal descent from William the Silent, Prince of Orange, was much enjoyed by those who were fortunate enough to hear her. Each year Miss Thompson gains in sympathetic interpretation and enthusiastic presentation of her subjects. Full of especial interest will be the next talk on The Wayside Inn at Sudbury and The Saga of King Olaf, at the home of Mrs. John O. Hall, Jr., Merrymount road.

• • •

Mr. Arthur R. Wendall of New York has been in town several days this week. He was best man at the Hall-Merrill wedding on Tuesday evening.

• • •

Mrs. Caroline W. Merritt will be ninety years old next Tuesday, October 18. She is the smartest as well as one of the oldest ladies in the city.

• • •

The Society of the Daughters of 1812 is to hold a large meeting at the old North church, Boston, on Friday October 21. A great many prominent people are to be present. The tickets are complimentary to any patriotic people interested.

• • •

A very pretty October wedding took place at the home of Rev. Leonard B. H. Hatch in Whitman Tuesday evening. The contracting parties being Mr. Clarence R. Bestick, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. R. M. Bestick and Miss Annie Glover Reviere youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Reviere, both of South Braintree.

• • •

The Electric whist club of Weymouth holds its second meeting with Miss Euphemia Beveridge, next Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur William Hall are to reside on Hancock street at the corner of Saville avenue where they will be at home the evenings of December sixth and eighth.

• • •

Eaton-Holden wedding on Wednesday evening at First church.

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. E. Warren Hayden who were married on Tueday evening are to make their future home at Worcester where they will receive their friends after January first.

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. John Heffernan were at West Norwell last week.

• • •

Miss Eleanor W. M. Partridge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Ordway Partridge of Milton, was married Wednesday to Mr. Alexander Haven Ladd, son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Ladd of Milton. The ceremony was performed at the First Unitarian church by Dr. Edward Everett Hale, Rev. Rodrick R. Stebbins assisting. The bridesmaids were Misses Anna Wigglesworth, Helen Thaxter, Jessie Merriam and Louise Comins. Miss Eleanor Ladd of Milton, acted as maid of honor and Mr. William Johnson of Washington was best man. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents on Adams street. After a short tour, Mr. and Mrs. Ladd will reside in Milton.

• • •

Mrs. A. J. Shaw gave an afternoon tea, Thursday, at her home on Sea street, Weymouth.

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Collyer of Weymouth have returned from Providence, R. I.

• • •

Miss Mary Tucker of Weymouth has been visiting friends at Topsfield during the past week.

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Newton of Weymouth, have been entertaining frends from Philadelphia, Pa.

• • •

A picnic whist is a novelty to a great many and so all the ladies are buying pretty ten cent souvenirs to take to the whist party at Colonial hall on Tuesday afternoon. A the close of the contest each lady will receive one of the souvenirs. In the evening a large party is to be given for men and women under the same auspices.

• • •

Miss Georgie Goodale of Boston has been visiting Miss Anna Newton, at Weymouth.

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Fay have been visiting their daughter, Mrs. W. Ray Spear, at Randolph.

• • •

Miss Elizabeth Thayer of Wollaston will leave for Baltimore, on Monday, where she will pass three weeks. While there she will be a bridesmaid at a wedding.

• • •

Miss E. A. Bates, of Braintree has gone to Taunton for three weeks to visit friends.

• • •

Miss Hannah Litchfield passed her eleventh birthday yesterday and celebrated the event last evening by entertaining a number of her young friends at the residence of her parents at 16 Quincy street. The evening was passed in a pleasant manner with games, music and refreshments. Miss Hannah received a number of birthday gifts.

• • •

Irving L. Shaw of Weymouth entertained friends at dinner Wednesday evening.

• • •

The members of the Young Ladies' Mission Circle were entertained by Mrs. T. H. Vincent at her home on Curtis street, Weymouth.

• • •

John Adams' birthday is to be observed at his birthplace next Wednesday afternoon by Adams Chapter and friends.

• • •

Miss Slyvester of Point Allerton is visiting Mrs. Annie Curtis Arnold.

• • •

Miss Hayward, the new dancing teacher comes to Quincy highly recommended by Judge French's family and Mrs. E. E. Abercrombie of Braintree. A part of the lesson is devoted to the Delsarte system, in which Miss Hayward is proficient. She is a very graceful and engaging teacher.

• • •

The Quincy Point church is to tender a reception to their new pastor, Rev. Edward Anderson on Tuesday evening.

• • •

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Rogers have taken a house in Brookline for the winter.

THE UNITY CLUB.

Brilliant Reception Opens the Season.

To Study Italy this Year---Address by President.

Refreshments and Music and a Social Evening.

Unity Club reception at the Wollaston Unitarian church last evening was a most successful affair. The vestry was tastefully decorated with potted plants and cut flowers.

The members and guests were received by Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Finch, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Collyer, Mr. Clifton H. Baker, Mrs. James E. Bagley, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Lull and Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Allison Tupper.

The committee on refreshments consisted of Mrs. George W. Bennett and Mrs. E. G. Thayer; and on programmes, Miss Sibley, Miss Sprague and Miss Comins.

The cocoa table was in charge of Miss Thayer and Mrs. Charles S. Comins. Miss Elizabeth Thayer and Miss Eugenia Hatch poured.

During the evening there was music by an orchestra consisting of Mr. I. W. Faunce, Mr. S. P. Moorehouse, Mrs. Alma Faunce Smith, Mr. W. M. Wight, Mr. C. Nelson Smith, Jr., Mr. George H. Critchley, and Mr. Ray F. Weston. Mrs. George H. Colyer rendered with great expression a vocal solo, as did also Mr. E. Walter Arnold. Miss Downer, the teacher of elocution at the Quincy Mansion school, read a selection in a very pleasing manner.

The address of the evening was by the president of the club, Mr. Charles E. Finch, Jr., The Rev. James E. Bagley, the chairman of the Executive Committee was also to have delivered an address, but a sudden attack of illness confined him at home. The club, mindful of the great amount of work which he had put into its arrangements for the coming season, passed a vote of sympathy and regret, after a few eulogistic remarks by Mr. Finch and Mr. Lull.

Mr. Finch, in his address, said in part:

It seems but a few nights since, gathered around the festive board, we closed the season's work on Germany.

We enter tonight upon our sixth year, anticipating many pleasant and profitable evenings in the study of Italy.

Managers of our great industries have come to recognize the fact that bye-products, i. e. those that seem to be of lesser value determine in a large measure the profit of the business.

Most of us find ourselves confronted with the fact that if we care to develop our intellectual powers, and give to the soul nourishing ideas upon which to feed, we must become bye-students

Continued on page 8.

Royal makes the food pure, wholesome and delicious.

THE FEAST OF THE BUTTERFLIES.

On the track of a sunbeam shining through
The blossoming hedge the wind cars flew
As only the trains of the fairies do.

And every butterfly came down,
From Lilac vale to Bluebell town,
In a velvet bodice and satin gown.

With green leaf plates was the board complete,
With drops of dew for their bread and meat,
And in blue delft cups the honey wine sweet.

And they only staid to dance and sup
Nor cleared the table of platter and cup,
For the rain washed all the dishes up.
—Virna Woods in Woman's Home Companion.

A GRAND JUROR.

The day Mary Hammond accepted Joyce her mother handed her a $1,000 bond, her share of her father's life insurance. She thought of pretty gowns—to be worn as a bride. Then she sobered up. David would think her silly; she was so practical. She was sorry for David.

About a month after the engagement John Alroy was made postmaster of Garret. He was young, quick, clever and handsome.

Joyce was busy at the store, so Mary often went to social gatherings without him, he calling for her later on in the evening. He did not dance; Alroy did. It gradually dawned upon him that Mary danced a good deal with the postmaster.

In April he made his usual spring trip to buy goods. He had been away a week, when he received a letter from Mary. She asked to be absolved from her engagement with him. He was stunned and hastened home. The calmness with which Mary met him told him his doom.

"It is Alroy, of course?" he said.

"It may seem to you that I treat you badly," she returned, "but I never knew what love was until I met him," and Joyce went away.

Throughout the summer he saw little of the happy pair, invented business excuses taking him often away from home. Winter came, and the store claimed him. April loomed up—the anniversary of his shattered hopes—and he heard that Mary would be married in June. In June the marriage was put off until autumn.

This was the reason: The postoffice at Garret was third class. Out of his salary the postmaster was expected to defray all office expenses. In a second class office clerk hire and other liabilities were met by the government, while the salary of the master was considerably increased. Alroy proposed to raise his office to the second class, so as to be able to marry. To do this he must prove that the business of his office had increased for a year to such an extent that it equalled existing second class offices. Late in the summer he said that this was so. In September an expert discovered that, while the sale of stamps for a year equaled that of an office of the higher grade, it did not represent a corresponding increase in mailed matter. Alroy was accused of fraud.

In January Joyce was summoned to act as grand juror on the 20th of February in the city more than 100 miles away.

The afternoon of the 18th brought Garret a blinding snowstorm. The streets were deserted. Business was at a standstill. About 4 o'clock and nearly dark a lady entered Joyce's private room at the store. It was Mary Hammond.

"I have heard," she said at once, "that you are a grand juror in the February term. The postmaster's case comes up before you."

Joyce's heart gave a bound. He had not thought of that.

"The grand jury, I am informed," she went on, "decide if there is sufficient ground to make out a case to go before the court. You will have a voice in deciding whether or not there is a case against the postmaster."

Joyce's eyes were like coals of fire.

"If it were in your power, you would convict the postmaster," she said.

Joyce found his voice.

"If I knew him to be guilty, yes," he said.

"He is guilty," she went on. "The stamps were bought by me with the $1,000 of my father's insurance. I proposed the fraud. Love for him made me do as I have done. Love for me made him do the rest."

Without another word she went from the room out into the snowstorm.

Joyce trembled in every limb. The insult drove him wild. She knew that he still loved her, and she called upon that love to save Alroy even at the expense of honor. The outrage of it! Alroy was guilty, and there was but one thing to do. Love and honor contended—hopeless love, inalienable honor. There could be no question as to which would win.

The following day, the outrage—the insult—gnawing at him, he went on the 100 mile journey. On the morning of the 20th he took oath that he would do his duty as a good and loyal man in the matters to be placed before the grand jury. In a few minutes more he was sitting, with 23 other men, around a long table, listening to detectives and others testifying against unseen people.

How many cases were disposed of he hardly knew, when he heard the name he had waited for. Joyce raised his head. Now would come his revenge for all the pain he had silently suffered, and yet his revenge would be only his honest duty. His face grew hard and dim.

A postoffice expert testified among other things that Alroy had openly boasted that he would raise his office to second grade so that the increase of salary would warrant his marriage. Two other witnesses testified as to the facts already known.

"Well, gentlemen," said the foreman of the jury.

"I move that a true bill be found," cried a juror.

"I second the motion," said another.

"All in favor of a true bill signify their assent by saying 'aye.'"

Several "ayes."

"Contrary, 'no.'"

Several "noes."

The foreman and an officer of the court looked around the table.

"He may or may not have thought the sales legitimate," said one.

"Oughtn't he to have the benefit of the doubt?" asked another. "It is getting very easy to accuse men of dishonesty."

"An official like a postmaster," said a third, "should be above suspicion."

"Rather unfair to make his wish to be married the cause for his rascality," said the youngest juryman.

"And to blame him for his ambition in trying to raise his office," said a kind voice.

"Gentlemen," said the court officer, "a majority of one is sufficient to make out a true bill, and a like majority of one may ignore a bill. Those in favor of a true bill will please rise."

The man next to Joyce sprang up to his feet. Another got up. Joyce counted three, four, five.

"If he knew that the bare sale of the stamps did not substantiate his claim, that would make a true bill against him," said a juror. Another man stood up, still another.

"Only seven. Ah, eight, nine, ten, eleven."

The juror on the other side of Joyce rose.

"Twelve."

Joyce, with a feeling of exultation that his revenge was to be even greater that he had hoped—when he could give the casting vote which would decide the case against Alroy—straightened out his knees to rise and form the majority of one. At that moment he heard a low, tremulous voice: "I proposed the fraud. Love for him made me do as I have done; love for me made him do the rest." He glanced furtively around, almost expecting to see the owner of that voice—the woman he loved, the woman who had treated him so badly—the woman who had gauged his honor and love.

("Your duty as a good and loyal man"—)

"No majority," sang out the court officer. "A tie. Let me try again another way. Those in favor of ignoring the bill please to rise."

("Your duty as a good and loyal man"—)

Twelve men were standing up.

"How is this, gentlemen?" said the court officer. "Still a tie."

("I proposed the fraud," came that low, tremulous voice. "Love for him made me do as I have done.")

Love! Did Joyce know what love was? Did he know the power Mary's love must have exercised over the man she loved—the man she had ruined? Did he know her suffering now that she realized what she had done? And did he think of Alroy's love for her, of his striving after happiness with her even at the price of that which men hold to be the first principle of manhood—honor? Was there not yet a chance for retrieving, a chance for their peace, made purer by their mistake and suffering? Was there nothing higher than mere duty? Was it duty to irretrievably ruin two lives which might yet be made better? Mary would never be sure of the part her discarded lover played in this case, despite her guessing, and—oh, his honor, his honor, and, oh, his pain, his hopeless love!

"Still a tie," impatiently said the court officer.

Oh, his honor, and, oh, his pain, his hopeless love! But, oh, Mary's happiness!

Joyce, the thirteenth juror, suddenly shot up on his feet, making the majority of one.

"Majority!" proclaimed the court officer. "The bill is ignored."

The thirteenth juror fell into a heap on the floor.—Robert C. V. Myers in Buffalo Times.

OUR WEEKLY FASHION PLATE.

COSTUME WITH POLONAISE DRAPERY FROM HARPER'S BAZAR

Polonaises, or modifications of them, which are seen on many of the imported gowns from Paris, are often simulated by long apron effects, which may be of the same or of a different material from the skirt, since tunic overdresses in various forms are a promise of the autumn.

A typical French cloth costume in brown and blue—a combination of the season—is made with a long pointed apron front closed in the centre below the waist-line with several oxidized silver buttons. This polonaise drapery is short at the sides, and then descends in long points towards the back, the fullness of the under circular skirt flaring out between the points in fan effect, but with no gathers or pleats at the waist. Stitched cords border the entire over-dress and trim the under-skirt in many parallel rows. The width of skirt at foot is four yards. The stylish bolero coat has a straight front, buttoned double-breasted over a draped corsage of a blue peau de sole, trimmed at the throat with a knotted cravat. The broad revers are of Persian lamb, and the little turban with bird-of-paradise plume is of black velvet, furnishing with the fur a touch of black to the costume. The proper cut of the gown can be obtained from Harper's Bazar cut paper patterns.

Quantity of material for gown—6 yards of 54-inch cloth; 1 yard of silk.

Fitting Punishment.

The playwright half his play had stolen,
Yet when first nighters mocked it madly
That author's cheeks with rage were swollen—
He thought his audience used him badly!

But, though the "gods" so fiercely roared,
We can't about unfairness quiz 'em;
It strikes us that the right reward
For plagiarism is play-jeer-ism!
—Ally Sloper.

☞ Furniture reupholstered and mattresses made over. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

A PAIR OF POETS.

The Talented Bride of Paul Laurence Dunbar.

Here is a recent portrait of Alice Ruth Moore, the bride of Paul Laurence Dunbar, the Afro-American poet who has become famous within the past two years. She is a fitting match for the talented young poet, who is hailed by critics, press and public as a genius.

Mrs. Dunbar is from Louisiana and is a representative of the best of the colored race. She is highly accomplished and is a poetess of rare gifts and is well known among the colored people not only in the Pelican State, but throughout the Union. She contributes bright and interesting articles to some of the eastern dailies. "Violets and Other Stories," a collection of short stories and poems, is one of her works. Mr. and Mrs. Dunbar have a beautiful home in Washington and by their cordial hospitality have drawn about them an admiring circle of friends. The photograph is one given to her friend, Mrs. J. Napier Kemp of this city.—Minneapolis Journal.

ALICE RUTH MOORE DUNBAR.

She Made an Impression.

Queen Victoria lately accorded a special reception to Mrs. Harriet Lane Johnston at Windsor castle, and it is announced that the Prince and Princess of Wales are to pay a similar honor to this distinguished American woman, who, while her uncle, James Buchanan, was president of the United States, filled the onerous position of "lady of the White House" most graciously. Miss Harriet Lane's first appearance in public life was as the companion of her uncle in London, where, from the spring of 1854 to the fall of 1855, she shared with him the social duties of the American minister at the court of St. James. She appears to have made a deep impression upon English society, and more than one Englishman of high rank has paid court to her.—Boston Woman's Journal.

The Perfect Pompadour.

It is wrong to attempt to roll your front hair over a "rat" for wear with a hat when you are to be safe under a veil and the pompadour cannot slip. The only satisfactory pompadour is the result of combing down over the face locks long enough to come at least as low as the chin. Brush thoroughly. Get the hair fluffy by whipping it out with the brush. When it is so, turn it back with the comb. Let the roll stand as high as is becoming; then tuck in under it the ends. They serve to support the roll, and the edge of the hair, where it thus turns under, may be caught by the side comb and held perfectly. This turning under should take place far enough back to conceal the parting. Such a pomapdour will never slip.

Cycling Skirt Novelty.

For wear beneath the circular cycling skirt is a novelty which will meet with delighted acceptance. It is a combination of knickerbockers and underskirt. To a very deep fitted yoke is added a moderately full pair of bloomers drawn in below the knee by an elastic. Above these and added at the same seam is a full divided skirt open on the outside to the hip and edged by a narrow ruffle. This new garment is called the Cythere and is made up in china silk, taffeta and pongee. It is for wear with a golfing suit also. The singlegored yoke for the two garments does away with all clumsiness, and the dainty frills and drapery of the divided skirt atone for the severity of the trousers, always distasteful to the feminine mind.

Misbehavior at Weddings.

So much has been said and written about misbehavior at weddings, says The Lady's Pictorial, that one would have supposed that the necessity had passed for reminding fashionable guests that a church is the last place in the world wherein to indulge in small talk in a loud voice, to say nothing of climbing on chairs and seats for a better view of the bridal procession. At the marriage of Princess Dolgorouki in St. Margaret's, Westminster, the scrambling for "coigns of vantage" and the incessant chattering and laughing of the guests before and after the marriage ceremony provided enough material for half a dozen homilies from the clergy. And it was certainly not the men who were the worst offenders.

Women Prize Winners.

Mrs. Martha McCulloch Williams, New York, won the first prize of $300 in a short story contest recently closed by the S. S. McClure syndicate. The scene of the story is in Tennessee, where much of the life of this writer has been passed. There were over 2,000 competitors, representing every state in the Union. The third prize—$100—also went to a woman, a Miss Hitt of Nebraska.

Durable Carpetings

It has been our good fortune to note after years of untiring study and observation, that what the general public want today in Carpetings, is something that is serviceable, attractive and not expensive in price.

To some people all carpetings look alike, but it's the wearing quality that counts fully as much as the looks.

We make a specialty of Lowell and Roxbury Carpetings, the excellence of quality being acknowledged by all who know, to be unequalled by Carpets of other manufacture.

Heavy All Wool Carpets, 45c. to 65c.
Extra Fine Tapestry Brussels, 45c. to 85c.

We guarantee that nowhere can such values in Carpetings be found as here.

HENRY L. KINCAIDE & CO.,
RELIABLE, LOW PRICED HOUSE FURNISHERS,
HANCOCK STREET, - - QUINCY.

SWITHIN BROS.
REAL ESTATE!

President's Hill.
President's Hill Annex.
Cranch Hill.

Choice Lots and Improved Property for Sale in West Quincy, Wollaston, South Quincy, Quincy Point, Quincy Centre.

Room 12, Durgin & Merrill's Block, Quincy.

SWEATERS.

We think we can show you the best assortment of Sweaters to be found in the city.

BOYS' SAILOR COLLAR, GARNET OR NAVY BLUE,	$ .50
" " " " " " "	.75
" " " " " " "	1.00
" ROLL " " " " "	1.00
MEN'S SAILOR " " " " "	2.00
" " " " " " "	2.50

Look at Our Window Display.

GEO. W. JONES,
Adams Building, Quincy.

WATCHES.

GENT'S WATCHES, $1.50 and Up.
LADIES' WATCHES, $2.50 and Up.

EVERY WATCH WARRANTED.

$2.00 Belts, $1.00 Each.
75c. Brooch Pins, 25c. Each.
25 and 35c. Stick Pins, 5 and 10c. Ea.

Quincy SOUVENIR TILES Half Price,
And Other Bargains.

A. A. LINSCOTT, Jeweler,
154 Hancock St., opp. Post Office, Quincy.
Agent for Graphophones.

aug 6. tf

o note after years of un-what the general public thing that is serviceable, ce.
look alike, but it's the s much as the looks.
and Roxbury Carpetings,
knowledged by all who
of other manufacture.

5c.

45c. to 85c.

n such values in Carpet-

DE & CO.,
FURNISHERS,
- QUINCY.

ROS.

TATE!

Hill.

Annex.

ill.

roperty for Sale in Quincy, Quincy

s Block, Quincy.

RS.

ssortment of Sweat-

VY BLUE, $ .50
" .75
" 1.00
" 1.00
" 2.00
" 2.50

Display.

ONES,
uincy.

ES.

Up.
S, $2.50 and Up.

TED.

Each.
5 and 10c. Ea.

S Half Price, ins.

Jeweler,
Office, Quincy.
es. tf

shortness of breath—a sensation of dryness and heat in the throat. Neglect is dangerous.

HALE'S HONEY OF HOREHOUND AND TAR

Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar acts like a charm on the throat and bronchial tubes. Use it before it's too late. Sold by druggists.

Pike's Toothache Drops cure in one minute.

Coal!

Just Received by Barge Blackbird, a Fresh Cargo of

Pea Coal

(Small Nut.)

J. F. SHEPPARD & SONS

Quincy Sept. 7.

FRANK F CRANE,
AUCTIONEER and APPRAISER,
Office, 4 Chestnut St., Quincy, Mass.
Oct. tf

MABEL F. FAIRBANKS
TEACHER OF
CHINA PAINTING and WATERCOLOR.
China Decorated to Order.
34 Grand View Avenue, Wollaston.
Sept. 29. 3m

DR. HERBERT S. HAYFORD
195 Hancock Street.
OFFICE HOURS—11 to 12 A. M., 2 to 4 and 7 to 8 P. M.
Telephone, 4-3.
Quincy, July 5. tf

FISH.

Everything first-class at the

Cape Cod Fish Market,

Temple Street.

All kinds Fresh, Salt, Smoked an Pickeled

Quincy, Feb. 8. 1y

MINING TOWN STRIKE.

Suppressed Excitement Over Reports About Negroes.

Officials of the Mine to Be Arrested For Murder.

Legal Phase of the Interference With a Common Carrier.

Virden, Ills., Oct. 15.—A quiver of excitement swept over this town hourly throughout Friday afternoon. From 2 o'clock till nightfall rumor followed rumor, and not even the best informed had any idea as to what would develop during the night. Rumors that another trainload of negroes was on its way kept the excitement at a high tension, but the militia are in complete possession of the stockade and closely guarding the railroad property.

Warrants were sworn out before the local magistrate by an officer of the Miners' union, charging President Loucks, Manager Lukens and others with "conspiracy to murder," but on the advice of Captain Craig and other officers in charge here, they were not served. This action, however, caused Colonel Young to refuse to allow several guards who had been employed by the coal company to depart for their homes in Chicago, as he thought they might be needed as witnesses. Six ex-guards from St. Louis, who came up on the train carrying the blacks Wednesday, and who were more or less seriously wounded, were allowed to leave for home after a consultation participated in by Colonel Young with Manager Lukens and and Coroner Hart. Three of the men were so badly injured that it was necessary to carry them to the train.

CAPTAIN C. CRAIG.

Magistrate Roberts, who is foreman of the coroner's jury, began yesterday's session of the inquest within the stockade. Dr. Peterson of the Thiel detective agency was the first witness called. He recited the incidents leading up to Wednesday's battle, and told the story of the fight at the north gate, where he was in charge of the company guards. He was sure that his men did not open the battle, and he asserted that he cautioned them not to fire on numerous occasions.

J. A. Debarrow of East St. Louis, who was in charge of the special guards on one of the cars of the train fired on, testified that when the train carrying the imported negroes had reached a point 100 yards south of the depot the firing began from the exterior on either side of the tracks. He gave orders to the men to drop to the floor of the car. He stated that the occupants of the car were colored men, women and children, and that when he gave those orders he could hear the women and children screaming that they had been shot. After the depot was passed he said the fire became very fierce again on the outside, and continued until the train reached the stockade. When the train drew up alongside the enclosure it was met with another volley of shots from the east side of the track opposite to the stockade. After the firing ceased he heard the order from the gate of the stockade: 'Come out, pile out quick," which he thought came from Dr. Peterson, captain of the stockade guards. Debarrow stated that he and six negroes ran straight into the enclosure without stopping. He claimed that the guards on the train had not fired a single shot during the whole engagement.

The wounded guards, 11 in number, who were on the train with the negroes, testified that the firing was begun by the strikers. Some acknowledged that the guards returned the fire, but none would admit that he had fired. The men said they were under strict orders not to fire except in selfdefense. One of the wounded guards, who had been at the stockade previous to Wednesday, stated that he positively knew there were no guards in the tower over the shafts, and that none of the firing came from the stockades.

Pay of Diggers of "Dusky Diamonds."

Virden, Oct. 15.—General Manager Lukens has made the following statement in regard to the wages paid by his company and the demands of the strikers: "Under the old scale of wages prior to the summer of 1897 the pay at our mines was 25 cents per ton mine run, and fairly good miners could and did earn $2.25 per day of 10 hours, free of all expenses. The payrolls show an average of $2.20 per day net for every miner in the mine, with a range of $1.10 to $4.56 per day. The price of powder has been reduced 50 cents a keg since then, which makes a material increase in the miners' wages. At the price miners are demanding, 40 cents per ton, an average miner can make from $3 to $4 per day, and a good workman would have no difficulty in earning $6 per day. We have had men in our Virden mine working at 55 cents per ton, screened coal, which equals about 23 cents per ton at mine run, who make over $6 per day.

"The charge that the Chicago-Virden Coal company is oppressing its miners and is not willing to pay its employes living wages, is perfectly absurd, and is not entertained for a moment by people who are familiar with the situation. The miners are fighting to get all they possibly can for their labor. We do not object to the men making good wages; the more the better. All we desire is an opportunity to get out coal dug at a price that will allow us to enter the market and sell without loss to ourselves, and this is impossible at the rate of pay demanded by the union workmen. The state has taken absolute possession of our property, and has practically prohibited us from operating our mines."

SEAMAN IRASCIBLE.

Contumacious Witness at Friday's Session of the Inquiry Commission.

Washington, Oct. 15.—During his examination Friday afternoon Dr. Seaman, who had asserted that the supplies furnished the Porto Rico army were not suited to a tropical climate and unfit for hospitals, grew somewhat irascible under Dr. Connor's questioning, and in reply to an inquiry insisted upon putting a question to his questioner. When Dr. Connor attempted to repeat the question Dr. Seaman said he had given his reply and would not answer again, adding: "The questions put me here are of a character calculated to place me in the false position of accusing the medical department of the army of maladministration. Such i s not the case. I regard the conduct of this department by Dr. Sternberg as above reproach, and whatever fault there is was in another department." After sharp crossfiring Dr. Connor declared he would ask no more questions of the witness.

Governor Beaver told Dr. Seaman that no question would be put to him that was not proper, but he (Governor Beaver) would insist upon his answering, and if he did not do so he must take the consequences. General Beaver then asked as to the conduct of the quartermasters serving with him or in his vicinity. Dr. Seaman declined to answer, saying that he understood he was expected to appear before the war department after getting through with this board; "and," he said, "I do not want to criticise any superior officers while I wear the shoulder straps of an army officer." He continued by saying that he had been so much misrepresented by the press that he did not wish to further commit himself. He detailed the circumstances leading to the representations concerning his views in the newspapers. He had authorized no interview since he landed, and the article in a New York paper grew out of a conversation between himself and a superior officer in New York which a reporter overheard. He also denied having read the article before it was printed, as had been represented.

Lieutenant Hill was an officer on the Iowa when the army landed near Santiago, and was in charge of the debarkation of the troops at Baiquiri. He said the navy supplied 11 launches and 52 small boats for the landing, but the army brought only one lighter. The army was entirely unprepared to land, and as he viewed the matter the army would have been unable to land and subsist after the landing without the aid of the navy. A great deal of trouble was experienced with the captains of the transports, who had refused to go nearer the shore until he had secured an order to them from General Shafter. There was no wharf, but the witness had understood that they talked of building one on which to land General Shafter. "Personally?" asked a member of the commission.

"Yes."

"Had they no derricks?"

"Yes, but they were not strong enough."

This personal allusion to the avoirdupois of the commander of the Santiago campaign created a general laugh.

Federal Law on Divorce.

Washington, Oct. 15.—Spencer Trask, lay delegate from Albany to the Episcopal assembly, presented the following at the session Friday:

"Whereas, if congress has the power, as it now has, to provide for the determination of the financial status of citizens of various states by establis uniform laws on the subject of bankruptcy throughout the United States, there can be no reason why it sho not have the power to establish uniform laws on subjects of marriage and divorce.

"Now therefore be it resolved that it is the sense of this convention that the interests of the entire country would subserved, the social order thereof safeguarded and the existing evils and abuses remedied by the establishment of such laws.

"Be it further resolved that a joint committee of the two houses be appointed to prepare a suitable memorial to be submitted to the congress of the United States and to the legislatures of the several states, expressing the sense of this convention, and urging that appropriate steps be taken to secure an amendment to the constitution which shall give power to congress to establish uniform laws on the subjects of marriage and divorce throughout the United States."

The News of Beantown.

Boston, Oct. 15.—A fine bath house for winter bathing was opened last night by the city.

A feat in telephony, marking the farthest advance yet in the science, w accomplished yesterday by talking ov the wire from this city to Kansas Ci The distance is 1560 miles, and it is t longest distance ever covered by a sing telephonic circuit.

A WARNING TO POWERS

Leader of the Liberals Advises Them Against Rashness.

Ancient Spirit of Great Britain Not Dead.

Intrepid Spirit of a United People Has to Be Dealt With.

London, Oct. 13.—Lord Rosebery, the Liberal leader and former premier, while presiding at an agricultural dinner in Epsom, referred to the critical situation on the upper Nile. He said: "As I was responsible, both personally and ministerially, for the declaration of Sir Edward Grey, on which the present policy in regard to Fashoda is founded, and as I have no disposition to recede from a word or a syllable of that declaration, I feel bound to say a few guarded and, I hope, inoffensive words on a subject so vital to our interests.

LORD ROSEBERY.

"There are two or three considerations in connection with the question which make it of supreme gravity, the greatest being that, in face of a deliberate warning, that a particular act would be considered an unfriendly act, that act, in spite of great geographical difficulties, great hardships and almost insurmountable obstacles, has been deliberately committed. The word 'unfriendly,' used diplomatically, is of exceptional weight and gravity, and, when used to denote an act committed by one government against another, the situation is grave. On that point I will say no more.

"Behind the policy of the government in this matter there is the untiring and united strength of the nation. It is the policy of the nation itself, and no government that attempted to recede from it or palter therewith would last a week. I am perfectly certain that no idea of any weakening on this question has entered the heads of her majesty's present advisers. They have only to maintain the attitude revealed in the blue book and the nation will make any sacrifice and go to any length to sustain their action.

"On the other side of the channel the question of the flag is an element of great gravity. We all honor that flag and would not wish it the slightest disrespect, but, after all, a flag is portable, and I have some hope that the flag in this case is not the flag of France, but of an individual explorer, and not, therefore, carrying the full weight of the republic behind it.

"Among the reassuring features is the fact that Mr. Delcasse, the French minister of foreign affairs, has received the representations of Great Britain in a conciliatory spirit. By denying the existence of a Marchand mission he has deprived Major Marchand of the official character which would give the hoisting of the flag a much more serious aspect. In spite of the contrary statements of Captain Lictard and Major Marchand, I hope to find that the mission of Major Marchand, conducted far from French territory and across territory to which France has no claim, though other nations have, will prove to be of a local and not of an authoritative character.

"In urging the supremacy of Egypt in the territories temporarily abandoned, we are using not so much our own arguments as the arguments of French ministers and ambassadors of recent years. If Lord Salisbury and Sir Edmund Monson respectively use the language employed by Mr. Hanotaux and Baron DeCourcel when I was in office, they will put the claims of Egypt to these territories in a manner so authoritative that it will not be in the power of any government to repudiate them."

After mentioning the untenability of Major Marchand's isolated position, Lord Rosebery said: "These considerations lead me to hope that the incident will be pacifically settled in a conciliatory manner, but France must understand that there can be no compromise of the rights of Egypt."

Referring, in concluding his speech, to the "general disposition in recent years to treat Great Britain as a negligible quantity and to infringe upon her rights in various parts of the world," his lordship said: "The present government has shown no want of conciliation—some think too much—and a conciliatory disposition that is widely misunderstood. If the nations of the world are under the impression that the ancient spirit of Great Britain is dead, that her resources are weakened and that her population is less determined than ever to maintain her rights and the honor of her flag, they make a mistake that can only end in disastrous conflagration. The strength of British ministers does not lie in the votes they can command in parliament, but in the intrepid spirit of a united people. Let other nations remember that cordiality between nations can only rest upon mutual respect for one another's rights. Both Africa and Asia have recently furnished strange object lessons in international law and international practice. If that mutual respect be not cultivated we shall ultimately relapse into a state of things most perilous to peace and the welfare of humanity."

FRUIT AND FLOWERS

FLORAL ATTRACTIONS.

A Fine Bush From Japan—Showy Flowers For Decorative Uses.

Some novelties and specialties in flowers are reported upon by a writer in Vick's Magazine as follows:

The Flowering Pea Bush is a grand new plant from Japan and one that at once jumped into favor among gardeners everywhere. Our public parks now show some very fine specimens, and they attract a great deal of attention. The bush grows four or five feet tall, the branches being of drooping habit, which is especially beautiful at the blooming season, when each one is loaded with the delicate pea shaped flowers. They bloom during August and September, the flowers, a pale purple color, produced in long clusters. The plant is entirely hardy, but the top dies down each season.

The Rudbeckia Golden Glow is another hardy plant that was a favorite from its first introduction. It is entirely hardy, having originated in northern Illinois where the thermometer often reaches 25 degrees to 30 degrees below zero. The plants grow to great size, six to ten feet high, and in a short time forming large clumps, which increase in beauty every year. The blooming season is from August until frost, and the flowers are very numerous. They are of a brilliant golden yellow color, double and borne on long stiff stems. For decorations no flowers can be finer, and they are in great demand for that purpose.

Hibiscus Crimson Eye has been in our garden for two years and makes a grand display. Few plants will furnish flowers as large as a saucer, but this one produces many of that size. With us the branches die down to the ground every winter, coming up with increased vigor in the spring. Immense blossoms four to six inches are produced in abundance. They are pure white with a rich crimson center, which latter affords a fine contrast to the pure white petals. The plant is perfectly hardy, will succeed anywhere and blooms the first season.

Anemone Whirlwind is a great favorite wherever known and is especially adapted for cemetery planting. I have one in my garden, and it is a thing of beauty in the blooming season. The plant grows two to three feet high, with large, handsome foliage. The flowers are white, double, two to three inches in diameter and have good lasting qualities when cut.

Abutilon Souvenir de Bonn is one of my standbys as a winter house plant. It is a beautiful plant when not in blossom, as the silver edges contrast beautifully with the green of the leaves. The flowers are large and of a peculiar red color.

Leading Apples For Export.

American apple growers long ago learned that comparatively few varieties are suited to the requirements of the commercial orchard. Many of those which are of the highest quality for dessert use are prevented by delicate texture, unattractive color, inferior size, unsuitable season of ripening or insufficient productiveness from becoming profitable varieties even for domestic markets.

In the export trade the requirements are still more exacting, and but a few of the reputable varieties of our home markets have been found suitable for transatlantic shipment and sale. Of the thousand or more varieties now propagated and for sale by American nurserymen it is doubtful if more than 20 have been found adapted to the export trade as now conducted.

In view of these facts and for the guidance of prospective planters notes on ten of the leading export varieties have been published by the department of agriculture as part of bulletin No. 7 on "The Fruit Industry." These notes are such as to be of interest and value to apple growers all over the country, who will do well to consult them for details about the ten varieties named. These are Baldwin, Ben Davis, Jonathan, Northern Spy, Rhode Island, Roxbury, Tompkins King, Winesap, Yellow Newtown and York Imperial.

Handy In the Fruit Picking.

A correspondent has sent to the Ohio Farmer a sketch of a fruit picker that is easily made and which he has found not cumbersome in use. Take a piece of No. 7 or 8 wire and bend into the shape shown in the figure—oval, with a notch at top and bottom in which to slip the twig bearing the apple or whatever fruit it is. Extend the two ends of the wire long enough to insert into a handle. Then attach a strong cloth, sewing to the wire, as shown. It is better to solder the ends of the wire so they will not twist around in the handle. The wires at ends of the pocket should be about three-quarters of an inch apart. This lets the stem of the fruit in readily, when it is easily pulled off and drops into the pocket.

A FRUIT PICKER.

A Tonic For the Orchard.

For keeping up the vigor and health of an orchard a manure consisting of three parts of wood ashes and one of bonemeal will be useful, says Professor Kedzie. If wood ashes cannot be had, then a mixture of two parts of muriate of potash and three of bonemeal may be substituted, as recommended by Professor Voorhees.

Snow Balling.

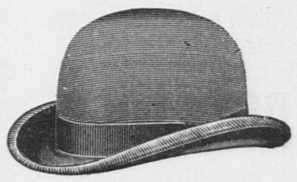

About one young woman in ten nowadays would dare to run out bare headed and bare handed and frolic and snow ball in midwinter. They have to be muffled up like hot-house flowers before they dare venture out in severe weather, and even then would shudder at the thought of rollicking in the snow as their grandmothers did.

The trouble lies in the fact that too few women enjoy perfect health and strength of the special womanly organism. A woman who is not well and strong locally cannot enjoy good general health. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures all weakness and disease of the delicate and important organs concerned in wifehood and motherhood. It is the most perfect and scientific remedy ever devised for the peculiar ailments of women. It restores womanly power, strength and virility. It tones and builds up the nerves which have been shattered by suffering and disease. It corrects all irregularities and derangements and stops exhausting drains. It restores weak, nervous invalids to perfect health. It is intended for this one class of disorders and is good for no other. It is the discovery of Dr. R. V. Pierce, for thirty years chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo, N. Y. No other known medicine can take its place.

"I have been troubled with female weakness that my physician called catarrh of the womb," writes Miss Tean Conner, of Catfish, Clarion Co., Pa. "I doctored for it and did not get better. At last I commenced taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I got better right along and when I had taken four bottles was cured. I recommended the 'Favorite Prescription' to a friend of mine. She has been using it and thinks it is wonderful."

Constipation is a little illness that if neglected builds a big one. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. One little "Pellet" is a gentle laxative and two a mild cathartic. They never gripe.

A. J. DURAND,
Piano Tuning, etc.
19 Coddington St., Quincy.
Highly recommended by Chickering & Sons, and prominent Boston musicians.
Sept. 20. 1m

Dissatisfied Buyers
... OF ...
HATS
Can Best be Suited by Buying
CHAMBERLAIN'S BEACONSFIELD $3.00 DERBY,
OR HIS REVELATION
$2.00 DERBY.
They hold their Shape and Color.
663 WASHINGTON STREET, BOSTON.
Opposite Beach Street.
Hats and Furnishings.
Sept. 15 L 17-4w o

Come, Mary,

Let's go over to the Quincy Second-Hand Variety Store and see if we can't find just what we want. You say you need some more kitchen goods and a few chairs, a carpet for the chamber, some glassware and various other things, and when I was there last week I saw my cousin get a lot of goods for almost nothing. He told me that sometimes he could find new goods at less than half price. These are hard times, Mary, and we must buy where the dollar goes farthest.

WALTER P. PINEL

is the Manager, and the store is right over here at number 20 Franklin street.

aug25 1y

HARPER'S BAZAR

has had its experts on fashion busily at work for three months securing the coming spring styles. Therefore, if you wish to know

WHAT TO WEAR THIS SPRING

see the special Spring Number of the BAZAR. Here you will find a rich variety to choose from, including tailor-made gowns from London, shirt-waists and washable skirts. A description will accompany each fashion, giving practical suggestions on

HOW TO MAKE IT AT HOME

The newest designs in men's clothes, what is the proper thing in livery, maid-servants' dresses, etc., all will be found

IN THE SPRING NUMBER OF HARPER'S BAZAR, MAR. 12th

These fashions are given in season to enable you to have your spring clothes ready for Easter time. HARPER'S BAZAR, including the Easter Number, if the issue is not exhausted, will be sent to any one for 25c.

4 WEEKS 25c. ON TRIAL

10 Cents a Copy - Sub., $4 00 a year

Address HARPER & BROTHERS, Publishers, N. Y. City

By FRANK F. CRANE, - Auctioneer.
Office, 4 Chestnut Street, Quincy.

AUCTION SALE

OF THE

ATTRACTIVE REAL ESTATE

OF THE LATE

MICHAEL GOODHUE,

No. 40 Phipps Street,

TUESDAY, OCT. 18th,

At 3 O'clock P. M.

THIS Estate consists of a Modern House of nine rooms, there is a good stable on the premises, about one acre of land having a very large frontage on Phipps street. The estate contains a variety of shade and fruit trees, an extra fine lot of grapes and currants. Also a fine well containing an excellent quality of water. The buildings are in good repair and the estate is very desirable as a residence or for investment.

Sale Positive, rain or shine.

Terms: $100.00 at sale, balance in ten days.

For further information apply to the auctioneer.

Quincy, Oct. 5—10t 8p—1w

48 BALLOTS 48

And the tenth district nominated a candidate for Congress, but it needn't take you half so long to decide where to buy

Fall and Winter Suits

FOR MEN AND BOYS.

The Granite Clothing Store has always carried honest goods at low prices, and this year beats all previous years. Every purchaser is bound to be Absolutely Satisfied.

Boys are satisfied because the suits are neat and stylish, and their parents are satisfied with the price.

Call and see for yourself.

Granite Clothing Co.

DURGIN & MERRILL'S BLOCK.

POTATOES,

15c. Pk.

Sweet Potatoes,

15c. Pk.

CHICKENS, 15c. lb.

CELERY, 10c. bunch

L. M. PRATT & CO.,

25 School Street.

E. W. SHACKFORD,

PAPER HANGER,

Quincy, Mass.

☞ Orders left with W. DAVENPORT, or T. B. DAVENPORT.

Sept. 14. 1m

DANCING SCHOOL.

Reduced Rates.

Prof. GARDNER,

the well known Boston teacher, will receive a few more pupils in his class in COLONIAL HALL, Bank Building, Quincy, on Friday Evening, Oct. 14, at 7.45. Terms: Gents, $5, Ladies, $3. All the latest dances taught.

lp tf

Mortgagee's Sale.

BY Virtue of a power of sale contained in a certain mortgage-deed given by Marcena R. Sparrow (sometimes called Marcenar R. Sparrow) to George W. Smith, dated November 16th, 1896, and recorded in Norfolk Deeds, Book 774, page 413, for breach of the conditions contained in said mortgage, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction, on the premises hereinafter described, on MONDAY, November 7, 1898, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, all and singular the property described in said mortgage, namely:

A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon, situated in that part of Quincy called Wollaston, being lot 12 in Block "C" of Section 2 extended, as shown on a plan of said section of the land of the Wollaston Land Associates, drawn by D. Granger & Son, and bounded and described as follows: Northeasterly on Prospect avenue, seventy-five (75) feet; northwesterly on lot thirteen (13) of said Block and Section, one hundred and fifty (150) feet; southwesterly on lot 5 of said Block and Section seventy-five (75) feet; and southeasterly on lot 11 of said Block and Section, one hundred and fifty (150) feet.

Said property will be sold subject to a mortgage for $1,400 and all unpaid taxes and assessments. $200 to be paid at the time and place of sale, the balance within ten days at the office of my attorney.

GEORGE W. SMITH, Mortgagee.

W. W. Jeaness, Attorney,
87 Milk street, Boston.

October 15, 1898. 15 22 29

Quincy Daily Ledger

ESTABLISHED IN 1889.

The ONLY DAILY in Norfolk County Massachusetts.

Published Every Evening, Sundays and Holidays Excepted, At No. 115 HANCOCK ST., City of Quincy, Mass., by

GEORGE W. PRESCOTT & SON.

Successors to Green & Prescott.

Subscription Price, $6.00 per year.

☞ A discount of $1 when paid in advance.

ALSO PUBLISHERS OF

The Quincy Patriot.

A Weekly Established in 1837, which has the Largest Circulation in Norfolk County, and

The Braintree Observer,

A Weekly Established in 1878.

TELEPHONE, 78-3 QUINCY.

Quincy Temperature at Noon.

	This Week.	Last Week.	In 1897.	In 1896.
Sunday	65	64	68	51
Monday	53	76	54	51
Tuesday	75	85	65	50
Wednesday	71	63	78	52
Thursday	55	64	66	50
Friday	59	61	60	54
Saturday	60	61	75	50

New Advertisements Today.

Competent woman wants work.
Salesman wanted.
Harper's Weekly.
A sum of money found.
Silver watch lost.
Mortgagee's sale.

VERY ILL ADAPTED.

Washington Schoolhouse Has Outgrown Its Usefulness.

If there is any section of the city that needs a new school building, or better accommodations, it is the Washington school district at Quincy Point. The present building is entirely unfit for the purposes for which it was built, or in other words has outgrown its usefulness. Changes have converted the large rooms so well remembered by scholars of years ago, into small rooms which are not only poorly lighted, but are poorly ventilated as well. The system of light, heat and ventilation of a school building is one to which the State board pays particular attention, as upon this much of the good health of the pupil depends, and to these items can be attributed the expense of our modern school buildings.

During the past few years the demands for school buildings at West Quincy, South Quincy and Norfolk Downs have been great, but the needs of Quincy Point cannot be neglected much longer. Last year there were many complaints on the part of the scholars in some of the rooms, of the gas from the old, broken-down furnace, and poor ventilation caused many headaches, and there were days when parents were obliged to keep their children at home. Yet in 1897 notwithstanding the complaints, but $37.58 was expended in repairs against very much larger amounts expended on the newer buildings.

It was supposed that when school closed this year a general overbauling of the building would take place and something done to remedy the evils. The teachers, however, found the same old furnace, and the same ill lighted and poorly ventilated rooms, and the result has been that on cold days the gas that fills some of the rooms makes them unfit for school purposes.

Something had to be done, for parents were threatening to take their children out of school. The old furnace could not be repaired and it was found necessary to put in a new one, which is being done today so that the new furnace will be in position for use when school opens Monday.

This will remedy one evil but there remain many other things that should be done, although it seems like a waste of money to make any great outlay upon this building. The only proper thing to do is for the School Committee to ask the City Council for a new school building, and ask every year until it is granted. One is sadly needed and should be built, for it makes one shudder to think what the result would be should a fire start in the building while school was in session.

Dog Show.

The third open air dog show, under the auspices of the New England Kennel club, opened yesterday and although it was not exactly a dog day the dogs were there in great variety, size and value. The little dog for the vest pocket or the shawl strap was there, the savage bull dog, the gentle shepherd, the spaniel, the majestic St. Bernard, and many others each received their share of attention. Today the important feature will be the whippet race.

☞ It makes the coal man blue when he hears you've bought a Glenwood Range—$18.00 to $33.00. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

HIGH DOWNS ADAMS.

It Was a Whitewash for the Academy Boys.

A 60-yard Run by Foss for a Touchdown.

High Made Another Touchdown which Was Not Allowed.

The High School easily defeated Adams Academy in yesterday's foot ball game at the Park, and the wonder to all was that the score was not larger.

The star play of the game was Foss's 60-yard run for a touchdown in the first half. Bennett punted, and Foss catching the ball in the middle of the field, ran to the goal line. Magnuson kicked a pretty goal.

In the second half Magnuson made a 50-yard run for a touch-down which was not allowed. The play was entirely fair, and all agreed that the touch-down was earned. But as the High School was sure of winning the game, they conceded the point to Adams in order to avoid a dispute.

Magnuson punted well, one kick going more than 50 yards. The High School line held well, and Adams's gains were rare. Several times the ball was given to the High school on downs.

Adams never came near scoring, in the first half they got to the High School's 30-yard line. Then they lost the ball on downs, as they could not gain a yard through the High School line. After this brace, Adams played an up-hill game all the time.

The next meeting of these teams on Oct. 28, will be watched with interest.

The line-up.

QUINCY HIGH.	ADAMS ACADEMY.
Estabrooks, r. e.	l. e., Mahon
Ahearn, r. t.	l. t., Doneher
O'Brien, r. g.	l. g., Turner
Pitts, c.	c., Cashman
Sargent, l. g.,	r. g., Bennett
Ford, l. t.,	r. t., Hatch
Murphy (Swift) l. e.	r. e., Whitman
Foss (Captain), q. b.	q. b., Burchsted
Magnuson, r. h. b.	l. h. b., Hodges (Captain)
Bates, l. h. b.,	r. h. b., Doble
Flaherty, f. b.	f. b., Mueller

Score—Q. H. S, 6; Adams Academy, 0. Touch-down—Foss. Goal—Magnuson. Umpire—Chapman. Referee—Bates. Time—15 minute halves.

Y. M. C. A. SUNDAY

Many Speakers to Occupy Pulpits in Behalf of Association.

Nearly every church in Quincy will have some special and interesting service tomorrow in observing the eighth anniversary of our local Young Men's Christian Association. The annual report of Mr. A. D. Albee the retiring president of the Association will be read at each service. The report is a brief one, but interesting because of its good showing. The following services are arranged.

SUNDAY MORNING.

Bethany Congregational church—Speaker, Rev. Edwin H. Hughes pastor Central Methodist of Malden; report read by H. T. Wason.

Atlantic Congregational church—Speaker, Mr. G. L. Richards of Malden; report read by Mr. K. F. Cummings.

Atlantic Methodist church—Speaker, Mr. W. D. Fellows, General secretary Y. M. C. A., Fall River; report read by W. T. Isaac.

Wollaston Congregational church,—Speaker, Rev. Edward Norton report read by Dr. E. R. Johnson.

SUNDAY EVENING.

West Quincy Methodist church,—Speaker, Mr. W. H. Breed of Boston, report read by Mr. W. H. Mitchell.

United Presbyterian church,—Speaker, Mr. W. D. Fellows, general secretary Y. M. C. A., of Fall River;—report read by Mr. William F. Hoehn.

Christ Episcopal church,—Speaker, Rev. W. R. Breed; report read by Mr. George H. Brown.

Wollaston Methodist church,—Speaker, Mr. S. B. Carter of Chelsea; report read by Dr. E. R. Johnson.

Wollaston Baptist church,—Speaker, Mr. W. J. B. Oliver, Secretary Army Christian Commision, 8th Mass., Regt., U. S. V., Report read by Mr. A. D. Albee.

Quincy Point Congregational church—Speaker, Rev. Edward Anderson; report read by Mr. T. B. Pollard.

The pastors of the various churches will also take part in these services.

See Sunday service column for other announcements.

TO LET IN QUINCY.

SOUTHERLY Half of house with stable 214 Hancock street, now occupied by Dr. N. S. Hunting. Modern improvements, central location. Possession given about October 15th. Apply on premises to

MISS M. F. UNDERWOOD.

Oct. 1. tf

FLAG RAISING.

The Second Battalion Now Fly Old Glory at Camp Meade.

With Co. K, 5th Mass.
Camp Meade Annex, Oct. 14

Yesterday pleasant. Major Morrison took a few hours' vacation, accompanied by Mrs. Morrison to visit the other camp. Private Gunderson again gained the orderly's position.

The artiefiers have been kept busy scraping a large tree which is to be used as a flagstaff. The pole is 51 feet long and was set into the ground yesterday afternoon in front of Major's quarters. The flag raising will take place on Saturday.

Capt. McDonald of H Charlestown was the reviewing officer at the evening parade last night. He took the place of Major Morrison during his absence.

Lieut. Spear of this company was acting battalion adjutant. The writer standing aside overheard two gentleman remark that he acted more like a West Pointer than a volunteer. His commands being loud and distinct.

After evening parade most of the boys took exercise at climbing the tall pole to place a ball on it that had dropped off when being put into position. Private A. Garbutt makes a good sailor he climbed more than half way, but for the sappy nature of wood, he had to succumb to all efforts. Then our past cook, Corporal Delano, thought he would take a hand in the game. So he tried, but had to give up. Anyway the Major thought it best to let the staff go without a ball as it was useless to try and climb to top.

Last night was quite chilly. This morning it commenced raining about 7, and is still cloudy and dark.

The health of the boys seem to be satisfactory.

Those detailed for guard today, consists of Sergeant Barrett, Corporal Hermanson, Privates Leslie, Lord, Jones, Johnson, Leonard, Kelliher, Levangie.

There are only three passes issued to each company instead of five. Some days there are no passes issued. Private C. W. Deslauries has returned once more to duty, after being absent for a number of days, visiting relatives. He looks healthier than when he left. Private Tucker is still stirring the tomato soups. He is the busiest man in company, working both night and day.

The boys want to get into Cuba, and finish their three months, so that they may return home again about next spring. DOC.

With Co. K, 5th Mass.,
Camp Meade Annex, Oct. 12.
(Delayed in transit.)

Last night about 9.15 we encountered a heavy gale with considerable rain, but towards morning cleared away. Today has been fine and warm.

General mount this morning, Lieut. Spear acting battalion adjutant. K had another orderly selected; this time Private Dean. He has seen service before, having served in the regular army, so that he makes a model soldier.

Through the kindness of Sergeant Barrett the battalion hospital has today unfurled a beautiful red cross flag, the sergeant having made a flag pole to be extended on top of ridge pole of hospital tent. His kindness is appreciated by the hospital stewarts.

Corporal Hermanson is today enjoying visiting the rooms of the Harrisburg Y. M. C. A.

Private Robinson is on leave of absence.

We have no serious cases of sickness in this battalion as yet.

Those to report for duty tomorrow, Wednesday, are Coproral Haskins, Privates Hodges, Capaccioli, Dennison, Egan, Faxon, Gunderson, Gilfeather, Gillis, Gallagher.

The nights continue very chilly, and the new issue of blankets comes in useful for keeping the boys warm.

Major Morrison's wife is in camp visiting the major.

No definite orders have been received as yet about our removal direct to Cuba. The boys are enjoying the Pennsylvania air immensely. Having a good chance to visit all places of historic importance.

The sentinels call is "alls well." We hope that it may continue so. Our regiment veryis fortunate in keeping such a large body of men away from disease. DOC.

Lobster Men in Court.

Andrew Swanson, Hans Palmquist and Peter Dixon, the three men who were overhauled in a schooner in Quincy Bay, July 22, by Fish and Game officers Thayer and Hunt, were brought into court this morning. When the officers overhauled the three men they had in their possession 162 mutilated lobsters. The men were not arrested at that time as they agreed to come into court. Instead of doing so they skipped and have managed to keep out of sight until Friday when they were arrested a Rockport where they reside.

☞ Dainty White Muslin Draperies, with ruffled edges, 89 cents per pair. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

GRAND OPENING.

Quincy Music Hall.

A. G. DURGIN, Manager.

SEASON 1898-99.

MONDAY AFTERNOON, OCT. 17,

BROOKE'S CHICAGO MARINE BAND

AND

MISS SIBYL SAMMIS,

Popular Prices, 25, 35 and 50 cents.

Tickets now on sale at Durgin's Drug Store. Doors open at 1.15. Concert begins at 2.

Monday Afternoon, Oct. 17th.

Oct. 15-1w 15-1t

THE FALL SEASON

IS HERE

For the Purchase of

Fruit and Ornamental Trees,

Shrubs and Vines.

Buy now that your plants may get a good start by spring.

Remember that I carry all the desirable novelties, as well as the old standard varieties of nursery stock.

I call special attention to my Flowering Shrubs, Perpetual Roses, Clematis, and Rhododendrons.

Buy at home and save agents' commissions. None but strictly first-class stock, well acclimated, furnished. Call and examine.

Orders by mail receive prompt attention.

Wollaston Park Nursery,

Fenno St., Wollaston.

MARTIN PFAFFMANN, Prop.

P. O. Box 44, Wollaston. Residence, 2 Clay St.

Oct. 14—1m p-3w

Gentlemen, Buy Your....

OVERCOATS

Where you can find the best assortment in the city and the lowest prices, which is at

C. F. DERBY'S, SAVINGS BANK BUILDING, QUINCY. 5-1m

ONE-TON ORDERS

Have been the making of this Coal business. Hundreds have ordered "just one ton to see if there was any difference." They found there was and they came again. Our one-ton orders have been our best advertisements. It's a better Coal at the same price, with the proof in a sample ton. When in doubt, try Patch's.

C. PATCH & SON.

Parlor Stove Talk

It isn't because people don't know or don't care, it's because they don't think and are neglectful that colds are caught and sickness of a more serious nature is contracted. A pinch of prevention is worth a barrel of cure.

It doesn't pay to sit in cold, damp rooms and become chilled during the cool fall evenings. Take no chances, buy a parlor stove now, get the good of it and protect your health.

Our parlor stoves are attractive, serviceable, economical to run, and will keep you warm. That's something to think about, but that's not all, they are wonderfully low in price, $2.90 to $25.00—that's something to dream about.

HENRY L. KINCAIDE & CO.

Reliable, Low Priced House Furnishers.

Hancock Street, - - - Quincy, Mass.

GEO. AMES,

the ONLY PRACTICAL PLUMBER in the Hardware business in the City. He has a patent SEWER TRAP which cannot be beat. Impossible for deadly sewer gas to enter your homes. See him about your Sewer Connection. He has had three years' experience in Boston and other large cities. Established here in 1889 and still in it. Work done anywhere.

Hardware, Paints and Oils, Putty and Glass, Yacht Supplies, Steam and Gas Fittings. Steam and Hot Air Heaters put in repair for the winter.

ADAMS BUILDING

FALL SEASON
IS HERE
r the Purchase of
and nental Trees,
ubs and Vines.
y that your plants may get a
by spring.
er that I carry all the desires, as well as the old stans of nursery stock.
al attention to my Flower-Perpetual Roses, Clematis, endrons.
ome and save agents' com-
None but strictly first-class cclimated, furnished. Call e.
y mail receive prompt at-ton Park Nursery,
nno St., Wollaston.
N PFAFFMANN, Prop.
Wollaston. Residence, 2 Clay St.
p-3w

TS
nt in the city and
S BANK BUILDING,
QUINCY. 5-1m
. Hundreds as any dif-
came again.
ertisements.
proof in a & SON. because they don't ss of a more serious
arrel of cure.
chilled during the now, get the good of al to run, and will at's not all, they are g to dream about.
DE & CO.
hers.
ncy, Mass.
ES,
ER in the Hard-patent SEWER sible for deadly See him about ad three years'
arge cities. Es-
it. Work done
ut Supplies, Steam and for the winter.
DING

PUBLIC HEARING.

CITY OF QUINCY.

In Council, Oct. 10, 1898.

ORDERED: On the petition of the Boston, Quincy and Fall River Bicycle Railway Company, by its president, E. Moody Boynton, for the right to cross with its railway either above or below grade, Centre street at a point 600 feet from the line of Braintree, measured on said street, over and along Penn street from the southerly end thereof to Liberty street, across Liberty street opposite its junction with Penn street, across Water street 10 feet from the west line of Pleasant street, across Pleasant street 15 feet from Water street, across Jackson street 148 feet east of Pleasant street, across Quincy street 250 feet east of Pleasant street, across School street 85 feet west of Marsh street, across Granite street and Whitwell street at their junction, across, over and along Goffe street from a point 315 feet north of Granite street to a point 550 feet south of Saville street, across Saville street 90 feet east of Goffe street, across Dimmock street 110 feet east of Goffe street, across Adams street over the railroad bridge, across Carruth street 105 feet east of the railroad, across Gilmore street 110 feet from the railroad line, across the next street north of Gilmore street and parallel with it 125 feet east of the railroad, over and along Old Colony avenue from the southerly end thereof to Beale street, across Beale street at the head of Old Colony avenue, across Woodbine street at the head of Weston avenue, over and along Weston avenue from Woodbine street to Linden street, across Linden street at the head of Weston avenue, across Hayward street 115 feet from the railroad, over and along Holmes street from Hayward street to Squantum street, across Squantum street at the head of Holmes street, across Linden street 50 feet from Hancock street, over and along Hancock street from a point 350 feet north of Walnut street to Neponset line. All as shown upon the plans submitted and made a part of their petition. That a public hearing be given to all parties interested, by the City Council, on MONDAY evening, October 31, 1898, at 7.45 o'clock, in the Council Chamber, City Hall, and that public notice of the same be given by publishing a copy of this order in the Quincy Daily Ledger and Quincy Advertiser at least fourteen days before the time of said hearing.

Adopted Oct. 10, 1898.

Attest: CHRISTOPHER A. SPEAR,
14 15 Clerk of Council.

STATE ELECTOIN.

CITY OF QUINCY.

City Clerk's Office, Oct. 7, 1898.

IN Accordance with the provisions of Chapter 548 of the Acts of 1898, notice is hereby given that by a vote of the City Council, passed October 3, 1898, the polling places for the election to be held TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1898, in the City of Quincy, were designated as follows:

WARD ONE.—Council Chamber, City Hall.
WARD TWO—Hose House, Washington street.
WARD THREE, Precinct One.—Doble's Hall, Franklin street.
WARD THREE, Precinct Two.—Old Steamer House, School street.
WARD FOUR, Precinct One.—St. Mary's Hall, Willard street.
WARD FOUR, Precinct Two.—Hose House, Copeland street.
WARD FIVE.—Polson's Building, Newport avenue.
WARD SIX.—Hose House, Newbury avenue.

Attest: EDGAR G. CLEAVES,
City Clerk.
Quincy, Oct. 7, 1898. 27t

NOTICE TO VOTERS.

CITY OF QUINCY.

For the purpose of preparing the Annual Register of Voters, and of receiving evidence of qualification from persons claiming a right to Vote at the coming State Election, the Board of Registrars of Voters will be in session at the COUNCIL CHAMBER in the City Hall Building, on the evenings of

Wednesday, Sept. 14,
Saturday, Sept. 17,
Thursday, Sept. 29,
Saturday, Oct. 1,
Wednesday, Oct. 5.
Saturday, Oct. 8,
Saturday, Oct. 15,

From 7 to 9 P. M., and also on

Wednesday, Oct. 19,

From 12 o'clock M. until 10 o'clock P. M.

Every applicant for registration must appear in person before the Board, and must present either a certificate from the Assessors or a Tax bill or Notice from the Collector of Taxes, showing that he has been assessed as a resident of the City on the First day of May last; or a certificate from the Assessors that he has been a resident of the City for the six months next preceding the election at which he claims a right to vote. If a naturalized citizen he must also produce for inspection his papers of naturalization. Payment of a poll tax is not a prerequisite to voting.

No person can vote at the election unless his name has previously been placed upon the voting list of the Ward of which he was a resident on the first day of May last, and no name can be added to the list of voters unless registered previous to

Wednesday, Oct. 19th.

at 10 o'clock P. M., when registration will close.

Examine the Voting Lists posted, and see that your name is in its proper place. NO CHANGE can be made after WEDNESDAY, Oct. 19th, at 10 o'clock P. M. The Board of Assessors will be in session at their office on the same evenings.

EDWARD B. MARSH,
CORNELIUS MOYNIHAN,
EDWARD J. McKEON,
EDGAR G. CLEAVES,
Registrars.

Quincy, Sept. 6, 1898. 38t p10-2w

☞ Hundreds of Lamps to choose from, the very newest and latest notions are here for your inspection; 25c. to $10.00. Henry L. Kincaide Co.

IN MANILLA BATTLE.

Very Interesting Letter from Harry Osgood of Wollaston.

Mr. Harry R. Osgood of Wollaston, who is in the 17th U. S. (Regulars) Infantry, writes an interesting letter on the capture of Manila, in which he took an active part. The letter was written to his aunt, Mrs. H. A. Low.

MANILA, Philippine Islands,
Aug. 15, 1898.

Manila is taken and they never touched me, although the bullets were flying pretty close. If it hadn't been for Dewey we would have lost a lot of men, for we never could have taken that inner fort without his big guns. The Spaniards are scared to death of him, and when he sent a few shots in there, that was enough for them. We left camp six o'clock Saturday morning, Aug. 13th, with two days' rations and 200 rounds of ammunition apiece. It poured all the morning so you can imagine how wet we got. Our breastworks were in a swamp and we had to wade through water two feet deep to say nothing of mud. The minute we got there we had to dig another intrenchment and Uncle Harry knows what it is to fill bags with mud and clay and pile them up.

At quarter of ten, bang went a big field piece from the Utah battery, and the bombardment had begun. When that first gun sounded about two-thirds of our men dropped their tools and ran for the ditch. It made me think of a lot of hens when a hawk flies over. They were scared of their own guns. We had to lay in that mud and water for an hour listening to the shells rushing through the air, and then the order was given for us to form on the left flank and go ahead, and if we were fired on to deploy as skirmishers.

It wasn't long before the bullets were cutting the trees over our heads and we scattered out over a marshy ground and made for the first line of Spaniards. The Colorado boys got there first, as they had hard ground to charge on, while we had to run through tall grass and water. They didn't wait for us to come up, but ran when we started firing, and when we got to their intrenchment not a live Spaniard was there, but I saw one or two awful sights that I won't describe.

The Colorado regiment hoisted the first American flag, but two men were shot in raising it. We started on toward the city, and when we were almost there we heard loud cheering, and looking up saw a white flag waving over the big fort in the center of the city, and then we knew that Manila was taken and the Maine had been remembered in the good old fashioned way.

When we marched through the gates and came into the big parade ground that is right in front of the fort, I thanked God that we didn't have to take that fort by force, as it would have meant hundreds of lives, and then I don't think we could have taken it without our navy. They had a big moat full of water, and barb wire fences, and the walls were 25 feet high. They could have slaughtered us when we came across the open ground and we couldn't hardly see them.

Of course if they hadn't surrendered Dewey would have held the fort and the city too, and he would completely destroyed Manila, and then we would march in and take the city. It was a wise thing for them and a good thing for us. We sat down to eat at 4 o'clock and wasn't I hungry, having had nothing to eat since five o'clock in the morning, and I never knew bacon and hard tack to taste so good before. We had to sleep on the sidewalks Saturday and we all had to take a turn at guard. Sunday we moved into Spanish barracks, and when we get some bunks it will be all right.

I started this letter yesterday about 11 o'clock but at 12 I had to go on guard mount and I will be on until 12 today. It is 8 o'clock now and I am resting until 10, and then I will stand guard two more hours, and then I will be through. We have to go on every three days as the United States government is responsible for the order kept in the city and it takes a lot of soldiers to carry it out. We have the most trouble from the insurgents and we disarm every one we see as they would kill a Spaniard in a minute. They are not very friendly with us now, for they are mad to think we wouldn't let them plunder the town and kill all the Spaniards.

I hope this will end the war, but I suppose they will have to take Havana, yet I wish that they would hurry up. As our fighting is all done I want to come home. I have been in a battle, and while it wasn't the kind of a one I wanted to be in, I suppose I ought to be satisfied to come out of it without a scratch except one I got crawling through a wire fence.

Manila is a pretty city but I wouldn't want to stay here three years. I hear that our pay is to be doubled. I hope it is true as we deserve a little more than those who are at home among friends, receiving all kinds of presents as we did in Camp Merritt, for we are in a hostile country and have to watch out for dangers all the time, and endure all kinds of hardships. If Manila had been taken before I got here I should have called my time wasted, but now I never shall regret that I enlisted in the army and all I want now is a speedy return to my friends at home.

I wrote you a letter at Cavite and I suppose you will get it the same time you do this. The day I joined my own company in Camp Dewey I got 19 letters, 5 papers, a bundle and two pictures, all at one time. That is the record for E company and I think it is the record for the army. I received a letter and paper from you. I didn't think Uncle Harry would give me such a call down when he said the Spaniards wouldn't be able to catch me. I never would run from one of those little sawed offs.

I hope you will excuse this paper as I haven't got my things from camp yet, but as this is captured paper it is quite a souvenir. I suppose you know all about Manila having fallen while I am so I don't give any figures at all as I won't know them any way until I get a United States paper. Well, auntie, I must close now, hoping you are both well and "enjoying yourselves."

HARRY R. OSGOOD.

LOCAL NEWS TRACK.

Some Colts which are Sure Winners Every Heat.

Regular meeting of the City Council next Monday evening.

Eight pages were not enough today to contain all the good things in type for this issue.

The dance held at Music hall, Altanic, last evening by the A. O. H., was very largely attended.

There will be a church wedding at the First Presbyterian church, Water street, next Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, the first for two or three years.

Mrs. C. W. Staten and daughter Ethel, of New York City, who have been visiting in Salem, are again the guests of Mrs. W. S. Russell of Billings street.

Five geese were shot at one of the gunning stands Thursday morning. This is early in the season for geese and is evidently a forerunner of a severe winter.

There is one thing that can be said about the Telephone company and that is, it is leaving the streets in good condition after laying their underground conduits.

The old mile stone in the wall of the Brackett estate on Hancock street is being raised from the bottom to the top of the wall so that it will not be covered by the new concrete sidewalk.

The First Presbyterian church, of Water street, was dedicated Sunday, Oct. 16, 1887, and the eleventh anniversary of its dedication will be commemorated on Sunday evening which is also the 16th.

Now is the time to set out young trees and plants, that they may get a good start in the spring. Reliable goods and desirable novelties may be secured at the Wollaston Park nursery on Fenno street.

The T. R. & S. A. A. held its monthly smoke talk at its rooms last night after the business part of the meeting was over the "talent" of the club indulged in song and recitations. The entertainment committee, consisting of Mr. K. S. Comee chairman, president J. H. Whitehead, J. Y. Hamilton, H. C. Seymour, E. A. Mansfield, George Lavelle and Frank Merrill, have in hand plans for entertainment during the winter, beginning with four socials to be held in Music hall, Atlantic, the first to take place on Saturday evening, Oct. 22 and continuing each succeeding Saturday night, till Nov. 12, Music, Spragues orchestra, Mr. William Wilson prompter.

The oldest herbarium in the world is to be found in the Egypiologist museum at Cairo. It consists of a large number of wreaths and garland flowers collected together from ancient Egyptian graves. These floral remains are practically all in a well-preserved condition.

THERE IS A CLASS OF PEOPLE

Who are injured by the use of coffee. Recently there has been placed in all the grocery stores a new preparation called GRAIN-O, made of pure grains, that takes the place of coffee. The most delicate stomach receives it without distress, and but few can tell it from coffee. It does not cost over 1-4 as much. Children may drink it with great benefit. 15 cts. and 25 cts. per package. Try it. Ask for GRAIN-O.

For Sale or To Let,
FURNISHED,
NASH'S HOTEL.

Full of Boarders and a good transient trade. Cheap rent. My catering business is all I can attend to.

Apply at HOTEL, 148 Hancock street, Quincy, Mass. oct11 tf lo

LAND VALUES

A Transcript From the Books of the Assessors.

Number of Feet in Each Lot and Valuation Thereof.

Also the Amount of Each Person's Tax Bill for 1898.

[Continued from yesterday.]

Something new in the publication of the taxpayers of the city is attempted this year by the Daily Ledger. There is considerable interest in the assessed value of land in the city, which is claimed to be high in some cases and low in others. So the Ledger has supplemented the amount of the tax bill in each ward with the value of each lot of land for which the person is taxed, giving in each case the number of square feet or acreage.

The amount given in the line with the person's name is his total ward tax, and may include houses, personal property, etc., in addition to the lots of land below. The Ledger gives only the valuation of the land.

To obtain a person's total tax in the city, add together the amounts paid in the several wards.

The Ledger commenced the publication Aug. 30, and has already published the land values of all persons whose names begin with A to L, and today gives the second instalment of the M's:

WARD ONE.

Valuation of Land Only.	Total Ward Tax.
McAnarney, Thomas F.	$52 20
6,300 feet, Whitwell street, $650.
McCarty, Lucy C.	9 00
6,194, Manet ave., $500.
McClay, John	41 60
4,079, Cherry ave., $400.
McConarty, Peter	34 20
10,525, Canal, $500.
12,810, Gravel Pit, $650.
McConnell, Martin H.	27 20
3-4 acre, Bicknell, $500.
McDonald, Ellen	50 40
6.837, Deldorf, $300.
McDonnell, Patrick, est.,	583 65
60,930, School, $12,000.
50,820, Brackett. $2,500.
14,050, Canal, $850.
McDonnell, Patrick, Jr.,	5 40
5,000, Winthrop, $300.
McDonnell & Sons,	39 60
1-2 acre, Quarry street, $750.
1.4 " Anderson est., $200.
3,000 ft. off Wharf, $550.
McDonnell, Thomas	165 80
3.31 acres, Bridge, $6,000.
McFarlane, George	132 05
18,720, Commonwealth Terrace, $1,900.
1,380, Merry Mount road, $100.
McGrath, Mrs. Terrence	47 25
27,000, Brackett's Wharf, $800.
McKay, Margaret L.	43 20
6,168, Roselin ave., $600.
McKenzie, Gordon, heirs,	25 20
1-2 acre, Quarry, $1,000.
McLaughlin, Charles	101 45
9,000, Field, $400.
18,200, Brackett's Wharf, $600.
1-8 acre, " " $75.
McVittie, Robert P.	10 35
5,400, Whitwell, $500.
McTeer, Louisa E.	36 00
1-4 acre, Fort, $800.

WARD TWO.

McDonald, John A.	$190 10
5 acres, Elm street, $6,000.
McDonald, Agnes G.	30 80
4,000, Madison ave., $200.
McCarthy, Daniel C.	4 50
5,750, off Quincy ave., $250.
McDonnell, Theresa	41 85
12,000, South Walnut, $625.
McGillicuddy, Eugene H.	56 00
1-8 acre, Sumner, $200.
21,675, " $800.
McGuane, Michael	5 40
7,827, Arnold, $400.

WARD THREE.

McCabe, Alexander	$43 30
12,000 feet, Penn street, $800.
McCauley, Theresa J.	24 30
6,000, Liberty, $350.
McLellan, James	17 30
7,250, Mt. Pleasant, $300.
McConarty, Peter	61 85
5,213, Pearl, $400.
9,882, Phipps, $550.
3,000, Penn, $175.
McConnell, Jane and William	46 80
16,727, Bradford, $900.
McDonald, Agnes	43 40
4,927, Smith, $300.
McDonald, James	5 40
6,000, Rodman, $300.
McDonald, Mary	36 00
1-8 acre, Garfield, $500.
McDonald, Mary	4 95
4,520, Smith, $275.
McDonald, Mrs. Rose	48 60
6,750, Granite, $500.
McDonald, Sarah J.	27 00
5,200, Trafford, $350.
McDonnell & Cook;	69 30
McDonnell, James S.	274 70
7,581, Franklin, $800.
6,748 President's ave., $625.
5,250, Adams place, $400.
28,300, Water, $2,500.
9,000, " $1,700.
McDonnell, Mrs. Maria	40 50
5,200, Intervale, $350.
McDonnell, Patrick Jr., heirs,	105 30
12,000, Quincy, $900.
6,000, Brook road, $300.
15,534, High, $450.
McDonnell, Patrick, guardian,	79 65
3,748, Quincy, $325.
5,490, Water, $500.
McDonnell, Theresa	23 40
6,000, Brook road, $300.
McDonnell, Thomas	167 40
9,290, Quincy, $700.
4,248, " $250.
11,823, " $1,150.
McDonnell, John A.	226 50
9,840, Jackson, $800.
19,000, Water, $1,800.
7,344, Quincy, $550.
McDonnell & Sons,	309 60
1 acre, Quarry, $2,400.
McDonnell & Kelly	61 20
4,300, Brook road, $1,500.
McFarlane, George	96 30
17,800, Penn, $1,350.
McFarlane, James W.	44 30
7,330, Verchild, $350.
McFarlane, Annie J.	36 00
7,200, Penn, $500.
McGowan, Annie	79 20
8,850, Franklin, $1,700.
McGilvary & Jones,	167 40
24,635, Liberty, $3,000.
McGinty, Mrs. Annie	9 00
3,506, Payne, $250.
3,860, " $250.
McGinty, John, est.,	27 90
4,050, Payne, $350.
McGinty, Mrs. Bridget	48 60
5,374, Goddard ave., $400.
McGrath Bros.,	304 20
30,332, Water, $3,600.
7,200, Penn, $550.
7,200, " $550.
11,940, " $800.
McGrath, Henry	98 30
27,110, Pleasant, $3,000.
McGrath, James	31 25
6,558, Pleasant, $600.
McGrath, Mary	68 40
16,667, Pleasant, $1,600.
McGregor, Alex D.	33 50
7,000, Jackson, $600.
McInnis, Miles	5 40
6,000, Gilbert, $300.
McIntosh, Andrew	7 40
5,929, Trescott, $300.
McIntosh, Andrew & Son,	134 10
8,249, Franklin, $800.
16,294, Columbia, $800.
McIntosh, Andrew, Jr.,	11 00
7,500, Franklin, $500.
McIntire, A. Laviana	5 40
6,000, Rodman, $300.
McIntire, James	26 10
9,000, Albertina, $350.
McKay, John	44 30
9,480, Liberty, $550.
McKenzie, Margaret	45 00
6,000, Intervale, $350.
McLennon, John	94 25
6,300, Caladonia ave., $350.
6,000, Trafford, $375.
McLennon, Dr. Roderick	83 45
8,216, Federal ave., $850.
McLennon, Daniel	47 90
5,851, Federal ave., $550.
McLeod, Andrew	37 80
6,000, Rodman, $350.
McPherson, Robert	5 40
8,000, Centre, $300.
McVey, James	22 70
9,600, Albertina, $450.

To be continued.

To Parade at Philadelphia

The Middletown Journal says: "It was reported that General Graham's visit to Washington was for a two-fold purpose, namely that of appearing before the War Investigating Commission and to arrange for the sudden movement of the troops. The latter is denied at headquarters as the General is expected back to camp in a very few days. His presence will be required here in the preparations for the trip to Philadelphia as well as for the movement of the troops to the South. At the Adjutant General's office there is an unusually large force of clerks at work, who will go with the corps to its camp.

"A schedule of trains to leave Camp Meade for Philadelphia will be prepared so that there will be no delay whatever in the movement to that city. Eighty cars can be loaded on the sidings at the camp at one time. The present purpose is to limit the companies to about eighty men each, so as to accommodate them to the width of the narrowest street to be covered by the parade. The men will take three days' rations with their blankets, overcoats, haversacks and canteens. They will leave the camp on October 25th so as not to impede the local traffic on the day of the civic parade, which occurs on the 26th. The return trip will be made on the 28th and the present plan is to start the first regiments to the South the same day.

Great Men's Meeting.

Sunday will see two Men's meeting: one in Quincy at the Presbyterian church, where Mr. W. D. Fellows of Fall River will talk to men only, at 3.30 o'clock; and the other at Wollason in the Congregational church at the same hour, to be addressed by Mr. W. H. Breed, a prosperous Christian merchant of Boston. All men are invited to these services.

Civil Docket.

The following cases are marked for trial at the civil session of the District Court next Tuesday:

182—Marble vs. Herbert and tr.
183—Skully vs. Yourell.
215—Edwards et al vs. Grant et al.
218—McKay vs. Click.

☞ Hot Stuff—our splendid $1.00 Comforters. Blankets at wonderfully little prices. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

FOR SALE.

Bigelow St. Fine New Residence, 9 rooms, bath, laundry, furnace, open plumbing, cemented cellar, fireplace, etc.

R. D. CHASE,
Savings Bank Building.
Quincy, April 8-tf. 9p-tf

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS.

Advertisements in this column inserted at the following rates:

Four lines, or less, one day, - - - 25 cents.
" " three days, - - - 50 cents.
" " one week, - - - - 75 cents.

Additional lines will be charged for pro rata. Seven words equal a line. Long term rates furnished on application.

LOST.

LOST—A Silver open-face Waltham Watch, with leather chain, probably on Hancock street. Notify J. H. ARCHIBALD, 41 Quarry street extension.
Quincy, Oct. 15. 3t

FOUND.

FOUND—An amount of Money. Apply at 11 Parker street.
Quincy, Oct. 15. 3t

WANTED.

WANTED—Capable Girl for general housework in a family of three; one who understands English. Call or address Mrs. E. E. Jameson, cor. Brook and Farrington streets, Wollaston.
Oct. 15—6t pl5—1w

WANTED—Salesman; salary from start, permanent place. BROWN BROS. CO., Nurserymen, Rochester, N. Y.
Oct. 15. 1t

WANTED—By competent woman, work by the hour, washing, plain ironing or cleaning. Address M., Ledger office.
Quincy, Oct. 15. 1t

WANTED—50 Experienced Stitchers on Shirts. Steady work. Also girls to sew on buttons. Apply, CONGRESS MFG. CO., 141 Washington street, Quincy.
Oct. 12-6t 15-po 1w

FOR SALE.

LOAM FOR SALE. Inquire at No. 71 Granite street.
Quincy, Oct. 14. 2t

FOR SALE—Well known and fast Cape Cat Boat, Hustler, winner Quincy Yacht Club Handicap Championsh p, '98. New sails and rigging, tight cock fit, very easy to handle, o. a. 23 ft. 10 in., b. 11 ft., draft 28 in., large cabin; head room 52 in. Also 1 13-ft. Cat Boat, 7 ft. b., 12 in. draft; very able; a bargain; seat 7. C. C. C., 63 Lawrence street, Waltham, Mass. oct12-6t

TO LET.

TO LFT—Half a House of 5 rooms entirely separate on Phipps street, Mt. Pleasant. Rent, $8 a month; city water. Inquire at 17 Summer street.
Quincy, Sept. 27. 18t

TO LET—On Washington street, at the corner of Wibird street, a very desirable house for a small family. Six rooms, two of them new, and all in good repair. Rent, $15. City water. Concrete sidewalk in front of the house extending to the depot. Apply only to FRANK F. PRESCOTT, at the Ledger office or at 14 Bigelow street. tf

TO LET—Cottage house, No. 29 Granite street, 8 rooms, three minutes' from City Square. Apply to H. M. FAXON, 4 Adams Building. Sept. 30—tf

FOR RENT—Desirable house with bath, corner lot, nice neighborhood, three minutes' walk from schools, churches and depot Rent reasonable. Apply at No. 6 Pleasant St.
Quincy, Sept. 7. tf

TO LET—A pleasant tenement of six rooms newly papered and painted throughout. Centrally located on a main street within five minutes' walk of Quincy depot. Rent, $15. Address "House," Lock Box L, Quincy.
Oct. 4. tf

B. F. CURTIS,
40 Elm Street, Quincy.

TO LET—House of 10 rooms at 43 Elm street. City water. Rent, $18 per month.
Half House of 4 rooms, 19 Union street; city water. Rooms just painted and papered. Rent, $7.50 per month.

TO LET.

House of 8 rooms, etc., No. 20 Canal street, Quincy. Nice house, excellent location.
R. D. CHASE,
Savings Bank Building.
Quincy, Oct. 8. pl tf

TO LET.

APARTMENTS of five large rooms and bath, with all modern improvements. Also two large stores. Rent moderate. Apply to ARTHUR CRAIG, or J. W. HAYDEN, at Craig Building, cor. Copeland and Garfield Sts.
Quincy, July 15. pl tf

HOUSES, STORES, LAND,
ROOMS, OFFICES, AND WHARVES,
To Let In Quincy, Mass.

The Houses are in Complete Repair.

Half-house, 10 rooms, 6 Chester street, Wollaston.
House, 10 rooms with stable, 16 Cottage street.
Half-house, 5 rooms, 16 Cottage street.
House, 8 rooms, 29 Granite street.
Half-house, 4 rooms, 4 Water street, $7 per month.
Tenement, 5 rooms, 59 North street.
Half-house, 6 rooms, Pond street, $10 per month.
Half-house, 5 rooms, 13 Field street, $8 per month.
Tenement, 3 rooms, 28 Howard street, $3 per month.
Tenements, 51 Howard street, $4, $5 and $6 per month.
Room, 12 Washington street, $5 per month.
Large building, suitable for manufacturing purposes on Brackett's wharf.
Small stable, 2 Quincy street, $3 per month.
Small stable, 28 Coddington street, $5 per month.
100 windows, and blinds, various sizes.
Wharf, stone sheds, etc., Quincy Neck.
Basement, head of Granite street.
100 tons ballast for sale.
Land to rent for tillage or pasturing purposes.
Gravel and sand for sale.
50 loads of loam for sale.
The buildings are in the very best condition.
For particulars, enquire of, or address

HENRY H. FAXON,
Quincy, Mass.
Quincy, Oct. 13, 1898. 1m

LOSS OF 161.

Passengers and Crew of a Liner Perish.

Mohegan Driven Ashore at a Bad Spot.

Only a Few Were Rescued by Life Savers.

London, Oct. 15.—Word came late last night that the Mohegan of the Atlantic Transport company, formerly owned by the Wilson, Furness and Leyland line and called the Cleopatra, had gone ashore off the Lizzard, with a great loss of life. She left this city Thursday for New York with 50 passengers and a crew of 150. The message represented the passengers as drowning like rats.

Another account says: "Bodies are washing ashore, one being of a lady, lashed to a plank, with both legs severed."

When the Mohegan struck a gale was blowing and the sea was running high. Lifeboats put off from the Lizard and from Falmouth, one returning filled with passengers. Several were drowned, however, on the passage to the shore. Another lifeboat saved six persons.

A later dispatch from Falmouth says that the Mohegan foundered, and was probably blown ashore by the heavy east wind after her machinery was disabled. Out of the 200 persons constituting the passengers and crew only 31 were saved.

The coast at that point is extremely dangerous and has been the scene of numerous wrecks. Some years ago there was a movement sent on foot to get a lightship there, but it failed.

The Mohegan (then the Cleopatra) made her maiden trip in August from London to New York. She had been launched a few months before at the yards of the Earles at Hull, Eng. She was a single screw steel vessel of 4510 tons register, 480 feet long by 52 feet beam, and about 36 feet in depth of hold. She had accommodations for 125 passengers and a capacity for between 7000 and 8000 tons of freight and 700 cattle. Her commander was Captain Griffiths, commodore of the Atlantic Transport fleet.

Rains Caused Sickness In Santiago.

Santiago, Oct. 15.—Heavy rains have been causing much sickness, especialy among the members of the signal service. Out of 53 men only 17 are available for duty. People who have lived here a lifetime are unable to understand the extraordinarily low death rate, averaging for October up to date 10 per day. During the same period of last year the deaths averaged 183 per diem.

General Wood is indefatigable. He is here, there and everywhere, and his friends fear he is overworking himself. The result of his labors is apparent in every branch of the service. The general visited the hospital and found considerable negligence. The patients are reaping the result of his visit in better attention and improved food and cooking.

The 300 prisoners in Santiago prison will be made to build roads for the city. The railroad has offered to deliver 500 tons of rock free, as its share of the work of improving the city.

General Wood has received word from Guantanamo that General Perez, the insurgent commander there, refuses to disband his men. This is not understood here, as previous reports announced that Perez had disbanded his troops. The American officer in charge at Guantanamo during the absence of Colonel Ray has been requested to report on the subject to General Wood.

Young Bicycle Thieves.

Pawtucket, Oct. 15.—The police of this city are of the opinion that they have broken up a gang of young men who have been engaged in stealing bicycles in Rhode Island and Massachusetts. Last Tuesday Charles Riley and Frank McGee of Central Falls were arrested in Mansfield on the charge of stealing two wheels. The police say that Magee confessed that he was one of a gang that had stolen 10 bicycles in Attleboro, South Attleboro, Providence and Pawtucket.

Lewis Hague was arrested at Central Falls charged with being a member of the gang. Magee is alleged to have confessed that he and Hague broke into a drug store in Pawtucket on Sept. 23, and on Oct. 3 broke into a grocery in Central Falls.

James Mulaney, who gave considerable information to the police concerning the disposal of the stolen property, was arrested on a charge of receiving stolen property.

An Independent Investigation.

Boston, Oct. 15.—The Massachusetts Reform club will investigate the war. Such was the decision arrived at last evening, when the club met to dine and listen to speeches on "What Reforms Are Necessary in Our Military System."

The resolutions adopted provide for the appointment of a committee to consist of two military men, two lawyers and one doctor. Rosters of all the New England regiments will be obtained and a list of questions will be drawn up to be submitted to the soldiers. Notices will be printed in the press asking soldiers to submit statements. The committee will receive evidence and sworn statements relative to the conditions of camp equipment, commissary, etc., and the information obtained will be submitted to the government investigating committee.

DISTRIBUTIVE TRADE.

Beneficial Effect of a Foreign Demand For Staple Cereals.

New York, Oct. 15.—While the advent of cooler weather in most sections has been instrumental in causing some of the improvement in the tone of distributive trade perceptible at most markets this week, Bradstreet's advises that the beneficial effect upon general business, and particularly upon agricultural products, of the reported improved demand abroad for our staple cereals, should not be lost sight of.

A quiet and even slow trade is indicated by reports from most eastern points, the drygoods and textile trades generally reporting demand slower than expected, print cloths weak and the general cotton goods situation is not very strong, while wool and woolens are slow and dull.

Railroad earnings and bank clearings show healthy increases over corresponding periods one year ago, when activity was especially marked. The general tone of prices is firm, all the prominent cereals figuring in the list of advances, while cotton decreased in price owing primarily to the heavy crop movement. The leather situation has attracted more attention because of the reported intention to shut down large numbers of tanneries in an effort to affect the price of hides, which are now said to be relatively higher than the finished product. The boot and shoe trade continues good, an example being furnished in the statistics of Boston shipments for the year, which exceed those of one year ago by 245,000 cases, or about 80 percent.

Bank clearings aggregate $1,389,261,652,, 5 percent less than last week, but 6 percent larger than last year and 40 percent larger than in 1896. The total earnings of 13 roads, operating 91,000 miles of track, aggregate $46,653,354, a gain of 6 percent over last year, which month in turn showed an increase of 14 percent over September, 1896.

Business failures for the week number 233, against 196 in this week a year ago, 279 in 1896, 289 in 1895 and 253 in 1894.

GUEST OF ST. LOUIS.

Good part of the Population Listened to President McKinley.

St. Louis, Oct. 15.—Last night in the exposition building the greatest throng of people addressed by President McKinley under cover thus far during his present trip gave him a magnificent greeting. As he entered the Coliseum the immense crowd of probably 20,000 people arose to its feet and cheered for several minutes. Outside there were twice as many unable to gain admittance. It was sometime before quiet could be restored and the president could begin his speech, of which the following is an abstract:

"The people have borne the additional taxation made necessary by the war with the same degree of patriotism with the same degree of patriotism that characterized the soldier who enlisted to fight the country's battles. We have not only prospered in every material sense, but we have established a sentiment of good feeling and a spirit of brotherhood such as the nation has not enjoyed since the earlier years of its history. Not since the beginning of the agitation of the question of slavery have there been such a common bond in name and purpose; such genuine affection; such a unity of the sections; such obliteration of party and geographical divisions. National pride has been again enthroned; national patriotism has been restored; the national union cemented closer and stronger; the love for the old flag enshrined in all hearts. North and south have mingled their best blood in a common cause, and today rejoice in a common victory.

"We must guard this restored union with zealous and sacred care, and while awaiting the settlements of the war and meeting the problems which follow, we must stand as one man, not in the spirit of party, but united in a common effort for that which will give to the nation its widest influence in the sphere of activity and usefulness to which the war has assigned it. Let nothing distract us; let no discordant voice intrude to embarrass us in the solution of the mighty problems which involve such vast consequences to ourselves and posterity. Let us remember that God bestows upon no nation supreme opportunity which is not ready to respond to the call of supreme duty."

Many Men Sick.

Charleston, Oct. 14.—The great amount of typhoid and malaria among the enlisted men at Sullivan's island is causing the commandant, Colonel Rawles, much concern. At present 400 men are confined to quarters. The mortality has been light up to date, though the roll may be considerably swelled unless there is an improvement in the conditions, particularly a cessation of rain.

Regarding the sickness Colonel Rawles said: "I acknowledge there has been a great deal of sickness at this post, but I could not really give an estimate of the fever patients. At present three fourths of the garrison are confined to their quarters. Some are fever patients, and besides, there are quite a number with other ailments. Fever, both typhoid and malarial, has caused much of the trouble, and it is entirely due to the great amount of rain water that has remained for days on the surface. I have done everything to keep the temporary barracks well drained, and only recently had a large cistern built. The old building called the Moultrie house, which, I believe was a hotel, is the pest hole of the island. Out of 600 and odd men quartered on the island, I am forced to put 80 men in this place. Every sanitary precaution has been taken to guard against fever, but it seems to do no good."

Colonel Rawles thinks that if he had regular barracks there would be no troubles of this kind.

A Censorship Established.

Bayonne, France, Oct. 15.—According to advices received from Madrid, a rigorous censorship has been revived there. Sagasta and his colleagues are said to be greatly concerned regarding the demands of the United States government, which, they assert, not only refuses to assume any of Spain's colonial debts, but wants to take the heavy artillery in Cuba and the floating dock recently sent to Havana.

The same advices say that the Madrid Impartial announces that the government has cabled Captain General Blanco not to turn over any further territory to the Americans until the peace treaty has been definitely signed.

UNEASINESS IN PARIS.

Report of a Military Plot the Cause of General Disquiet.

Orleanists at the Bottom of the Movement.

Semiofficial Statement Purporting to Furnish an Explanation.

Paris, Oct. 15.—It is impossible to pick out the truth from the mass of rumors current regarding an alleged plot by generals against the government, which was announced Friday. The general idea is that it was intended by a pretended revisionist demonstration to insult and provoke the army into some act which would lead to the arrest and incarceraion of a Dreyfusite and the proclamation of a military government. Apparently the Orleanists were at the bottom of the movement, and an English duke is mentioned. There is little doubt that the plot has been frustrated, but a very uneasy feeling prevails.

A long and vague semi-official statement appeared last evening suggesting various possible motives—such as Dreyfus intrigues or an attempt by the socialists to frighten the government into dispersing the troops who prevent the success of the strike—to explain the rumors of a military conspiracy. The mysterious allusions, however, and the absence of any straightforward denial tend to encourage the belief that there must be some ground for the rumors, especially as the statement mentions telegrams alleged to have been sent by a French general to Prince Napoleon which, it says, it is "difficult to believe possible in view of the control exercised by the telegraph authorities."

According to the Day the rumor of the plot arose from a forged letter, purporting to have been sent by General Boisdeffre to Genera Zurlinden, containing the words: "Let us be ready for Saturday."

The Times suggests that misinterpretation was placed on some of the numerous despatches now being exchanged between the different garrisons in connection with the present movements of troops, which led to strange reports of plots.

The fact that General Boisdeffro has just undergone an operation for anthrax is regarded as showing that he had nothing to do with the conspiracy. On the other hand, it appears that quite recently the gendarmie were withdrawn from the great towns of Normandy and Picardy to Paris because, it may be assumed, this fine body, under orders from the prefect of police and the minister of the interior, can be put in movement without first proclaiming a state of siege. A reliable estimate of the troops recenty brought to the capital on account of the strike puts the number now here or within easy distance at 40,000 men.

Duke Watching Events.

Brussels, Oct. 15.—The Duke of Orleans has arrived here to watch events. The papers here believe the reports of a coup. One regards it as "the last desperate effort of the French general staff to save itself from downfall. Others say that the conspirators had been meeting clandestinely at Varsailes, and that Mr. Brisson has intercepted cipher correspondence pointing to a design to seize 50 principal republicans.

New Vanderbilt Heir.

London, Oct. 15.—The Duchess of Marlborough, formerly Consuela Vanderbilt of New York city, gave birth to a son yesterday. Mother and child are doing well according to the latest reports from the attending physicians.

DUCHESS OF MARLBOROUGH.

Applications Rejected.

Middletown, Pa., Oct. 15.—A big batch of applications for honorable discharges from the service came back Friday from the war department to Camp Meade marked: "Rejected by order of secretary of war." The applications were endorsed by regimental commanders, and a majority of the applicants were etiher college students desiring to return to their studies, or men of family. No reason for the refusal was vouchsafed, and it looks as though the government intended shutting off discharges except for the best of reasons.

Tomorrow's Almanac and Forecast.

Sun rises—5:58; sets, 5.
Moon sets—5:18 p. m.
High tide—11:20 a. m.; 11:45 p. m.

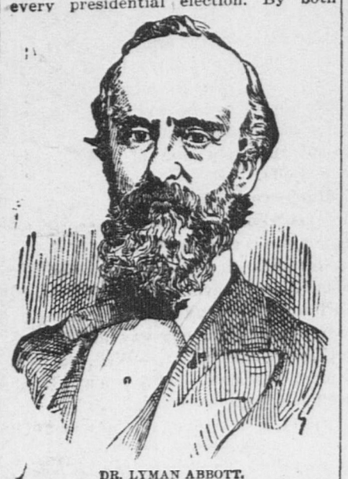

The storm over the lower lake region continued to move very slowly eastward yesterday, causing light rains in that section, New York and south to Virginia. While, owing to its slow movement, it may cause threatening weather to continue most of today, clearing weather is probable and fair Sunday. It now promises to be warmer Sunday, with winds becoming southwest. Monday, fair to partly cloudy, warmer weather and southerly winds, followed by rain in the northern districts.

OUR INDIAN POLICY.

Some Caustic Criticism by Lyman Abbott and Others.

Lake Mohonk, N. Y., Oct. 15.—Rev. Dr. Lyman Abbott, chairman of the business committee of the Indian conference, reported a platform Friday which was adopted. The platform says: "A needlessly expensive system is maintained, nominally to care for the Indian; in large measure to care for party and political favorites. The schools, the clerks in the bureau at Washington and the agency physicians have been brought under the civil service law, but with these exceptions the Indian bureau remains a political machine, subject to change in all its personnel at every presidential election. By both

DR. LYMAN ABBOTT.

Democratic and Republican administrations men have been put at the head of the Indian bureau who were neither familiar with Indian affairs nor acquainted with methods of education. Indian agents and Indian inspectors have been appointed without training, or any evidence of their fitness for the office. In more than one instance drunken officials have been appointed in the reservations, and well authenticated complaints have failed to secure their removal, or have resulted only in transfer to another field, with an increased salary.

"In cases where the reservation has been discontinued and the land has been allotted in severalty, the entire machinery of the agency has been retained, though no considerable service is required and the retention is clearly against the spirit of the law. These evils have shown themselves alike when the appointments have been left with the Indian commissioner, when they have been reserved by the secretary of the interior to himself, and when they have been left to local politicians. Some excellent officials have been appointed and some excellent work has been accomplished, but this is not because, but in spite, of the system. Two illustrations of the evils of this system have been afforded during the past year. The first is the removal of Dr. Hallman, notwithstanding his splendid record as superintendent of Indian schools, attested by protests against his removal from men of all parties and all sections who were familiar with his work, including many educational experts. The second is the outbreak of some of the Chippewa Indians, whose valuable pine timber the government by the treaty of 1889 covenanted to sell for their benefit, and is still appraising and reappraising as a preliminary to such sale, two successive appraisements extravagantly conducted having already been set aside as worthless, with a third appraisement now in progress.

"We have appealed to successive administrations to remedy these abuses, and the abuses still continue. We must appeal to the people of the United States to demand of their government that the Indian bureau be taken out of politics; that the Indian commissioner be no longer treated as a political officer, to be changed with every change of administration; that the work of the bureau be entrusted to experts and left in their hands until it is accomplished.

"We also appeal to them to demand of congress that it set on foot at once measures to bring the Indian bureau and its work to an early close; that it expedite the dissolution of the reservations and the allotment of the land in severalty; that it give all Indians everywhere a right to appeal to the courts, and render all Indians everywhere accountable to the courts, and that it thu prepare the way for the abolishment of a costly policy, unjust to the Indians, injurious to the whites and an impediment to civilization."

NEWS IN BRIEF.

Rev. Hazelton A. Spencer, presiding elder of the St. Johnsbury, Vt., district, died of heart failure, aged 61 years. He was born in Ontario in 1837.

At the Indian conference in New York Friday a platform was adopted condemning the policy of using the bureau as a political machine, and urging a reform.

Francis M. Jordan, for over 30 years a prominent business man in Auburn, Me., and Lewiston, has assigned. The liabilities are understood to be in the neighborhood of $50,000. The assets consist largely of real estate.

The Louisvilles had a walkover in the first game with the Clevelands yesterday, pounding Powell al. over the lot. Fraser pitched well in the second game and helped the Ohio team to victory with a timely double in the seventh inning.

The 205 public schools of Chicago held special exercises Friday, and the total amount contributed to the Lafayette fund will approach $10,000. This does not include parochial schools, but from returns received it is probable they will not be behind the public schools in the amount donated.

The commissioner of internal revenue has decided that persons engaged in buying and selling merchandise on a board of trade for present and future delivery, for themselves exclusively and not for others, are not commercial brokers within the meaning of the definition of the war revenue act.

Murderer John Miller was hanged in San Quentin, Cal., yesterday. After the drop, the blood spurted in great quantities from his neck. He was nearly decapitated. Miller was executed for killing James Childs of San Francisco. Miller tried to shoot Nellie Ryan, who had rejected his attentions. Childs went to her rescue, and was shot dead.

GAIL BORDEN EAGLE BRAND CONDENSED MILK

HAS NO EQUAL AS AN INFANT FOOD.

"INFANT HEALTH" SENT FREE. N.Y. CONDENSED MILK CO. NEW YORK

MAKE IT HOT FOR YOU.

If your house is cold and you have become disgusted with the various devices called heaters, and you are really anxious to have warmth and comfort in your home, place an order for one of those G. B. Bates CIRCULATORS. It will "make it hot for you" or just the temperature you desire. Its construction is based upon scientific and economical principles. Several have recently been put in right here in Quincy, and others will be put in during the next few weeks. Don't read this ad. and then forget about it till your water pipes are all frozen, but go now to

G. B. BATES,

Hancock Street, Quincy.

The Family Table.

Groceries must stand the test of the family table. We recognize this fact and keep it in mind when buying our goods. They must be pure and fresh or they will be dangerous to the health of the consumer.

We stake our reputation on the purity and freshness of our goods. Bring back any article you buy from us that isn't satisfactory and we will cheerfully refund your money.

Fresh, firm, white Lard. No acids in it—it is absolutely pure. It is as good lard as money, and skill, and care can make. . . . .

PURE LARD, 75c. for a 10 lb. Tub

BOSTON BRANCH GROCERY,
Durgin & Merrill's Block, - Quincy.

Now is the time to Subscribe
One Year, - $4 00
10 Cents a Copy

HARPER'S WEEKLY

during 1899 will contain complete, concise, and accurate accounts of all noteworthy and interesting occurrences as they transpire in our own and in foreign lands. Eminent men of letters and distinguished artists will contribute to its columns, and its readers will have the most impartial and the best

PICTORIAL HISTORY OF THE YEAR

During 1899 HARPER'S WEEKLY will be especially rich in fiction, containing serial stories from the pen of H. G. Wells, author of "The War of the Worlds"; "The Conspirators," by Robert W. Chambers; a romance of De Soto's last voyage, by E. S. Van Zile, and short fiction by authors of international fame. Articles by special correspondents in our new possessions — Manila, Honolulu, Cuba, and Puerto Rico, with other interesting matter, will fill the space left by contemporary events.

Trial Subscription, Four Weeks

25c.

HARPER & BROTHERS
Franklin Square, New York

f your house is cold and have become disgusted he various devices called rs, and you are really us to have warmth and rt in your home, place
der for one of those G.
Bates CIRCULATORS.
erature you desire. Its omical principles. Sevincy, and others will be this ad. and then for-but go now to

TES,

incy.

eries must stand t of the family
We recognize this l keep it in mind
uying our goods.
ust be pure and r they will be

y and freshness u buy from us ully refund your

URE
LARD,
5c. for a
0 lb. Tub
OCERY,
- Quincy.

EEKLY

oncise, and ac-nd interesting own and in rs and distinlumns, and its
and the best

ORY
R ill be especial-ories from the e War of the Robert W.

last voyage,
by authors of al correspon-ila, Honolulu, esting matter,
y events.

ur Weeks

SAMPSON AND SCHLEY

Naval Board's Decision on the Santiago Achievement.

Issue Not Decided by Signals From the Brooklyn.

Rear Admiral Arranged the Details and Therefore Entitled to the Glory.

Brooklyn, Oct. 12.—The report of the naval board which has been investigating with a view to determining who should be given the credit for the Santiago victory, Rear Admiral Sampson or Rear Admiral Schley, says in substance that, although the American fleet obeyed the general orders of Sampson, given in advance to meet just such an emergency, it was essentially a "captains' fight."

The full text of the report must come from Washington, but interesting points were obtained after the board finally adjourned. The board finds that each ship in the fleet knew exactly what to do should Cervera come out, and did it when he actually came out. Each captain fought his ship on plans prepared and orders given by Sampson. Even had Schley directed the general movement of the fleet in the battle, which it was unnecessary for him to do, that would have been because of the preparation made by Sampson and within his general orders. The board proceeded along those well defined lines in making the inquiry:

1—The relative positions of the American ships when Cervera came out, and throughout the battle.

2—The course of the Brooklyn immediately after the alarm.

3—The distance of the New York from the Colon when the Spaniards surrendered.

4—The signals made by the Brooklyn.

5—The orders issued by Sampson in preparation for an attempted escape of Cervera.

The findings of the board are summarized as follows:

1—The battle was fought and won upon plans prepared by Rear Admiral Sampson.

2—Any directing of the movements of ships done by Schley during the battle was inconsiderable. It was a captains' battle.

3—The New York had no active part in the fight.

4—The Brooklyn was not engaged at so close quarters as has been represented by the first report. On an average she was two miles away from the enemy.

5—The brunt of the fighting was borne by the Oregon, Texas and Iowa.

6—The New York was about nine miles from the Colon when that ship surrendered, and between four or five miles from the nearest sister ships engaged (from which signal distance is taken).

7—The average range of the ships most engaged was about a mile and a half.

8—No American ship at any time during the battle was within a mile of an unsurrendered Spanish ship.

While charts were made and the battle fought over and over again, as on a chess board, by the members, showing the positions of all the ships on both sides in the entire engagement, the main discussion, as far as could be learned, was in regard to the Brooklyn and New York. According to the testimony the Brooklyn was lying further out to sea than any of the American ships. She headed in at once, and when about 2000 yards from the Maria Teresa, which was leading the Spanish fleet out, she turned to the eastward, then doubled southward to sea for a short distance. Schley then followed a parallel course with the Spaniards, keeping up a running fight. He was well outside the course of the other American vessels and in the lead. He kept this position an average distance of about two miles from the Colon until that ship surrendered.

The issue of the battle, the board learned, was not affected by any signals that Schley made from his flagship. The Oregon dashed out from the very beginning of the engagement and kept within range of the enemy until the fight ended.

The New York, the board finds, did nothing to affect the issue of the battle. When the Colon's flag came down the New York was nearly 10 miles to the eastward. Sampson, on the New York, was near Siboney, where he heard the firing, and turned about and came back as fast as a forced draught could bring him. The New York was further inshore than any of the other vessels, but too far away to assist any in the destruction of the Spanish fleet. All she did was to fire two shots at long range at a torpedo boat destroyer. She did not reach the Colon until three-quarters of an hour after the Oregon and Brooklyn, and 15 minutes after the Texas reached there. The Texas signalled the Vixen, and the Vixen the New York, but the New York did not answer.

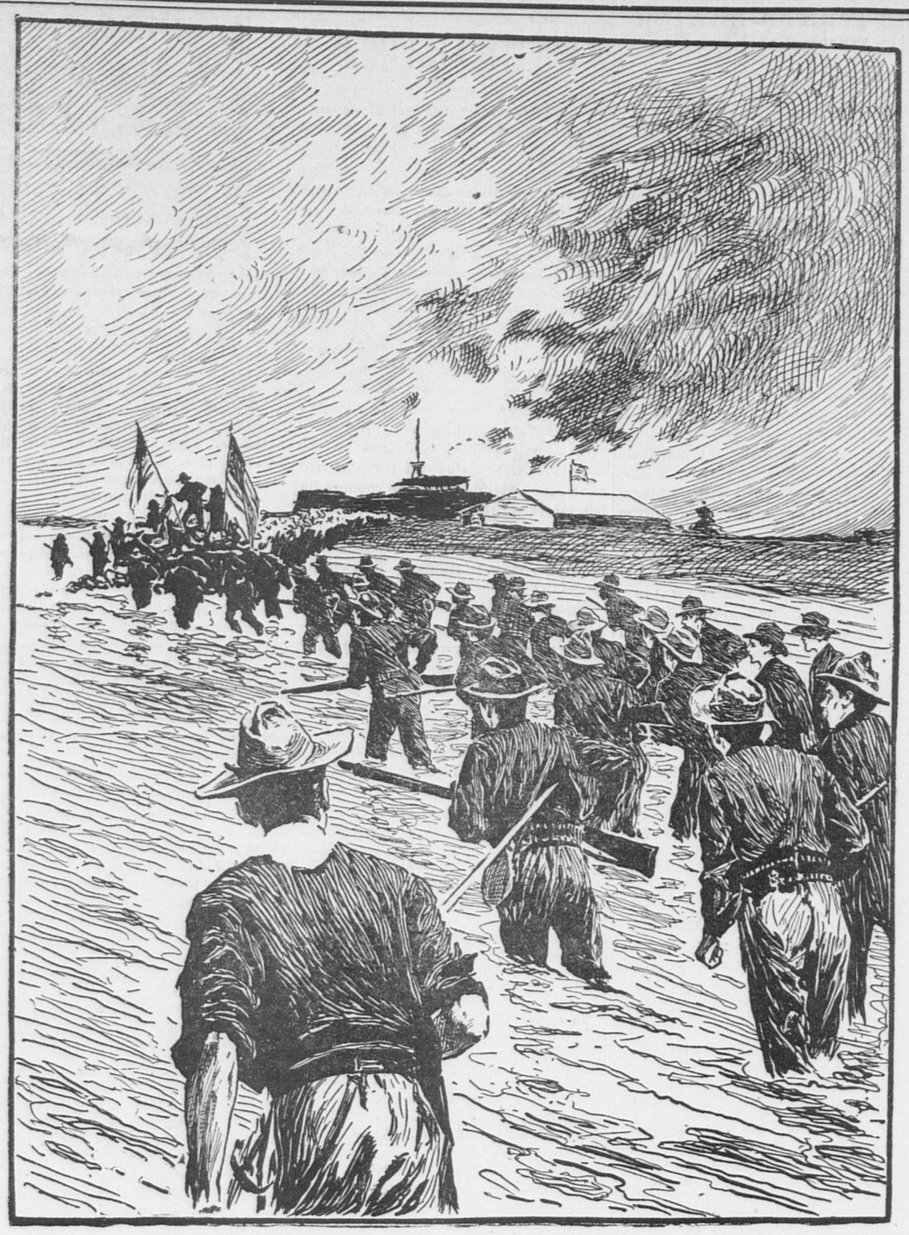

At the time of the hottest fighting (between 10 and 10:15 a. m.) the Brooklyn was in line with the Oregon, but three-quarters of a mile further out to sea. The Oregon at that time was pouring fire into the Maria Teresa. The Oquendo was about 3000 yards distant with the Texas and Iowa a half mile to the rear of her.

The navigators of the ships were before the board because they better than any others knew the positions of the ships in the fight. The navigator is the actual sailing master. He is on the bridge nearly all the time of a battle, and it is his business to know just what the ship is doing, and to keep an accurate record of her movements.

The board was made up as follows: Commander Richard Wainwright of the Gloucester, presiding officer; Lieutenant Comley of the Indiana, Lieutenant Hellner of the Texas, Lieutenant Schuetze of the Iowa, Lieutenant Hoigson of the Brooklyn, Lieutenant Allen of the Oregon and Lieutenant Capehart of the New York.

Four Thousand Gave Up.

Madrid, Oct. 12.—The government has received an official despatch from General Rios, the Spanish commander in the Visayan islands, saying that 4,000 insurgents, including 38 chiefs, have submitted unconditionally.

THE FALL OF MANILA—THE ATTACK ON FORT SAN ANTONIO ABAD. From HARPER'S WEEKLY.

After a Drawing by T. de Thulstrup. Reproduced from Harper's Weekly. By Permission. Copyright, 1898, by Harper & Brothers.

"First Company, Colorado, forward!" With a cheer the men went over the trenches, and we after them. At 100 yards from our works the company halted and lay down in the swamp. From the water our fleet continued to pound the Spanish fort and trenches. After a time our signal station notified them to stop fire. Colonel Hale and Lieutenant Colonel McCoy, First Colorado, joined the one company in the swamp.

"Up and on," shouted the colonel. Before the fort could be reached there was a stream to ford. The men went up to their chests in water, holding their rifles well over their heads to keep them dry. Our illustration, taken from Harper's Weekly, depicts the volunteers at this critical moment. Were the Spaniards waiting to annihilate this handful of men? On our right, in the direction of the First Brigade, there was heavy firing. At 100 yards from the fort the company knelt and fired. Just then the magazine in the fort blew up with a flash and a puff of smoke. Another series of short rushes, and the company was within twenty-five yards of the fort. At that moment the flag-ship Olympia, about three thousand yards from shore, sent a single shell from one of her 8-inch guns. It was a splendid shot; it cut along the back of the Spanish wall which ran from the sea to the fort and drive out any Spaniar's that were left there Then there was a dash for the wall and a scramble to get to the door of the fort.

Outside lay a wounded soldier on a stretcher, abandoned by his companions in their haste. Inside the fort no one stopped to notice the few dead, but climbed over the debris to get the Spanish flag. To Lieutenant Colonel McCoy bel ongs the honor of pulling it down, and up went the stars and stripes.

Suddenly, from our left, the Spaniards opened a brisk fire and our men took refuge behind garden walls as best they could. Stray shots came from houses where Spanish sharpshooters had secreted themselves. Reinforcements kept coming up. Down the long street leading to the walls of Manila we could see the Spanish soldiers retreating.

General Greene and staff, at the head of the Second Brigade, came up. Gallopers came and went, carrying the general's orders. This was a dangerous occupation, for the Spanish sharpshooters were still at work.

The rumor spread that the white flag had been raised on the walls of Manila, and sure enough, as the advanced regiments broke into the open before the city walls, there on one corner a white flag streamed to the wind. Cheer after cheer rose from our men.

All honor to our generals! all honor to our soldiers! all honor to our country! Such a thing has never happened before in the history of wars. One hour after the city was taken the tram-cars were driving about and women were walking unmolested in the streets. As I write, our men—wet, tired, and hungry—lie about the streets in the rain as a safeguard to the property, and lives of our conquered enemy.

Mutual Life
OF NEW YORK.

Do You Want
Life Insurance?
Do You Want
Fire Insurance?

If so, call on

GEORGE H. FIELD,

1 Durgin & Merrill's Block, Quincy,

and you will find the best Companies at Lowest Rates.

MONEY LOANED ON REAL ESTATE

The John Hancock Stables.

Opposite Depot, Quincy, Mass.

Boarding, Baiting, Livery and Sale.

DR. J. A. DOW, Proprietor,

the well known Veterinary dentist and specialist in the treatment of lame horses. Sick horses treated at owner's risk.

The finest equipped and managed stable of its size in America.

Fine driving turnouts in light rigs; safe and good appearing. All horses let are perfectly safe for ladies to drive.

The choicest family, road and coach horses constantly on hand for sale. All horses guaranteed as represented.

☞ Will attend to veterinary practice as usual. aug18-1y

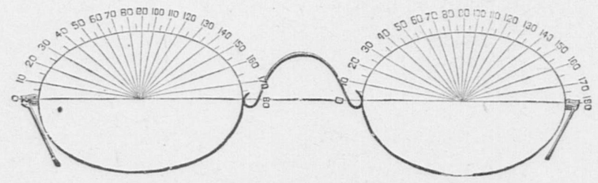

E. S. BECKFORD,

Electrician.

Wiring and Fitting for Incandescent, Motors, Dynamos, Bells, etc.

GRANITE STREET, Near the Bridge, QUINCY

Feb. 1 1y

ASTIGMATISM

Causes most of the distressing headaches. Properly fitted glasses will correct the error and remove the pain. Consult

WILLIAMS,

Member of the New England Association of Opticians,

104 Hancock St., Quincy.

NOTHING BETTER,

UNCLE SAM'S NAVY

Now commands the respect of the world, and we are all proud of the defenders of the Nation's Honor. To give the people of Quincy a good idea of the grand battleships, we have ordered a large supply of portfolios, giving magnificent views of the ships, crews, etc.

With each purchase made at our store we will give a portfolio check to the value of the purchase. When you have $4.00 worth of these checks, return them and get a portfolio. Continue in this way until you have the set complete. Call and see these magnificent portfolios.

ROGERS BROS.,

Groceries and Provisions. Adams Building, Quincy.

If You Have a House to Let,

Advertise It in the Ledger.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Topic For the Week Beginning Oct. 16. Comment by Rev. S. H. Doyle.

Topic.—"Our society work and how to better it."—Judg. vii, 1-8, 19-22. (A meeting to consider all branches of society work, to be led by the president.)

The principle of better work in our societies is aptly illustrated in the topical reference. It is the story of Gideon and his band of 300 men and their glorious victory over the Midianites. The one great lesson of that interesting story is that success in work for God depends primarily upon God Himself and not upon men. God reduced Gideon's army from thousands to hundreds to illustrate this truth. This story is an actual demonstration of the principle that success in Christian life and enterprise is "not by might, nor by power, but by My spirit," saith the Lord of Hosts.

Realizing this dependency upon God, as Endeavorers we must consecrate ourselves anew to God. Perhaps we have been depending too much upon our glorious membership for success in Endeavor work. If so, let us henceforth depend more upon God. But there is work for us to do. We are "colaborers with God." It was "the sword of the Lord and Gideon" that defeated the Midianites. We need God, and although God does not need us, yet He wants us, and if we work, depending upon Him for success, we cannot but succeed.

Realizing our dependence upon God and reconsecrating ourselves to Him, let us aim in the year before us to better our work by having

1. Better prayer meetings. The prayer meeting is the inspiration of the society. It inspires us to better work along all lines. Let leaders prepare themselves more prayerfully and carefully than ever before. Let us have more variety than ever before. Let no member fail to take some part in the meeting. Let prayers be more definite. Let us have more faith in our prayers. Let us have a more intelligent and Scriptural discussion of the P. M. topic.

2. A better membership. The work of the society depends entirely upon the character of the individual membership. Raise the standard of membership. God teaches us by the story of Gideon's band to drop the names of those who are disloyal and insincere from the roll of membership.

3. Better committee work. Have the monthly meetings of committees been abandoned? Begin them at once. Have written reports declined into a verbal report of "progress?" If so, change them at once. If you have done nothing, write out that fact, and it will insure a report of a different character for the next business meeting.

4. Better socials. Begin and close all social gatherings with prayer. Then do nothing between times that would make the prayers a mockery. Make the socials entertaining, educational and sociable.

Bible Readings.—II Chron. xxxi, 20, 21; xxxiv, 1-12; Ps. xc, 17; Prov. xvi, 3; Eccl. iii, 17; ix, 10; Zech. iv, 6; Isa. xlix, 1-6; Math. xxv, 14-30; John ix, 4; I Cor. x, 31; xv, 58; Eph. iv, 11-16; Col. iii, 17; I Pet. iv, 11.

Out of Prospective.

Events in themselves of little importance we often esteem of the greatest moment, because in some surface way they minister to our natural affections or our worldly interests. Opportunities of life we generally value in strange disproportion. Opportunities placed within easy reach, by which the blessings of spiritual life are made possible to us, we often accept as a matter of course without any special thought about it, while the chance for a little gain of a worldly kind, a little advantage over our fellow man, we value in our thoughts as a remarkable piece of good fortune. And do we not congratulate our friends upon all the good earthly fortune that comes to them, but how little do we have to say to them on account of the kingdom of God in their lives. Even our good will for our friends is out of perspective.—Helper.

Exalting Christ.

The battle that began in Eden between selfishness, whose other name is sin, and obedience to divine dictates of incarnate love has raged through all the ages since. Shall the serpent or the Creator be obeyed? Shall men do as they please or shall they please God? It is a contest for kingship, and whenever the alluring temptations of sin are spurned and the loving words of the wise Lord are obeyed, in that moment Jesus Christ is exalted afresh. Our victories, our achievements, our spiritual advancements, all are means of lifting higher the conquering Christ.—William T. Ellis.

Approved of God.

The ruling desire of every member of the church should be to show himself "approved of God, a workman that needeth not be ashamed." To be approved of men, that is to be popular in the world, is the most dangerous thing that can befall a Christian. "Woe unto you when all men speak well of you," said the Master Himself. "The friendship of the world is enmity with God." To have the approval of the world, then, is to have the disapproval of God. No Christian can afford that.—Christian Instructor.

Painful, but Wholesome.

Strive daily and hourly to be calm, to stop yourself forcibly and recall your mind to a sense of what you are, where you are going and whither you ought to be tending. This is most painful discipline, but most wholesome.—Reformed Church Messenger.

To Be Miserable.

Think about yourself, about what you want, what respect people ought to pay to you and what people think of you—in other words, center all your thoughts on self—and you will have abundance of misery.—Charles Kingsley.

Quincy and Boston Electric Street Railway.

[Subject to change without notice.]

On and after October 10, cars will be run on the different routes as follows:

Quincy and Neponset.

Leave CITY SQUARE for Neponset at 5.55, 6.10, 6.25, 6.40 A. M. and every 15 minutes until 11.10 P. M.

Leave NEPONSET for Quincy at 6.15 A. M. and every 15 minutes until 11.30 P. M.

Cars leaving Quincy at 20 minutes of the hour and Neponset on the hour, go via. Hancock street direct.

Cars leaving Quincy at 25 and 55 minutes past the hour go via Newport avenue, Wollaston.

Cars leaving Quincy at 10 minutes past the hour go via Norfolk Downs, and those leaving Neponset at 30 minutes past go via Downs.

Cars leaving Neponset 15 minutes of and 15 minutes past the hour go via Wollaston and continue through Braintree and Holbrook to Brockton, connecting with cars for Bridgewater, Taunton, New Bedford, Fall River, Newport and Providence.

Quincy and East Weymouth.

Leave CITY SQUARE (10 minutes later from Quincy Point and 22 minutes later from North Weymouth)—5.45, 6.20, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20, 9.50, 10.20, 10.50, 11.20, 11.50 A. M.; 12.20, 12.50, 1.20, 1.50, 2.20, 2.50, 3.20, 3.50, 4.20, 4.50, 5.20, (5.30 to East Weymouth car house), 5.50, 6.20, 6.30, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20, 9.50, 10.50 P. M., (11.50 Wednesday and Saturday to Thomas' Corner only.)

☞ Leave EAST WEYMOUTH (20 minutes later from North Weymouth and 30 minutes later from Quincy Point)—6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8, 8.30, 9, 9.30 10, 10.30, 11, 11.30 A. M.; 12, 12.30, 1, 1.30, 2, 2.30, 3, 3.30, 4, 4.30, 5, 5.30, 6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8 8.30, 9, 9.30, 10, 10.30, 11.30 P. M.

☞ Quincy and Weymouth Landing.

Leave QUINCY at 5.30 A. M., 6.20, 7.20 and every hour until 12.20, then 1.50 and every hour until 10.50 P. M.

Leave WEYMOUTH LANDING at 5.50 A. M. and every hour until 12.50, then 2.20 and every hour until 11.20 P. M., connect with trains to Boston at Quincy.

Quincy and East Milton.

Leave CITY SQUARE, 5.55, 6.25, then every 5 minutes of and 25 minutes past the hour until 9.25 P. M., then at 10.50 P. M.

Leave EAST MILTON 6.25, 6.55 A. M., then every 5 minutes of and 25 minutes past the hour until 9.50 P. M., then 10.20 and 11.20 P. M.

Quincy and Brockton.

Leave QUINCY for Brockton at 6.10 and 6.40 A. M., and every half hour until 9.10 P. M., except on Wednesday and Saturday, when car at 9.40 runs through to Brockton. Cars at 9.40 and 10.10 to South Braintree every night.

Quincy and Hingham.

Leave QUINCY at 7.20 A. M. and every hour until 11.20 A. M., then 1.50 and every hour until 5.50 P. M.

Leave HINGHAM at 8 A. M. and every hour until 12 M., then 2.30 and every hour until 6.30 P. M.

Neponset, Atlantic and Squantum.

Leave NEPONSET at 6.30 A. M. and every hour until 8.30 P. M., connecting at Atlantic with outward express trains.

Leave SQUANTUM at 7 A. M. and every hour until 9 P. M., connecting at Atlantic with express trains.

Quincy and Houghs Neck.

Leave QUINCY CENTRE at 6.20 A. M., and and every hour until 1.20, and then 1.50 and every hour until 9.50.

Returning, leave HOUGHS NECK at 5.45 A. M., and every hour until 12.45, and then 1.20 and every hour until 9.20.

SUNDAYS.

Cars leave City Square, Quincy, for E. Weymouth and Weymouth Landing at 7.30 A. M. and West Quincy at 7 A. M. and on the hour and half hour throughout the day.

Sunday time same as week days on other lines, except that the first two trips are omitted.

BENJ. J. WEEKS, Superintendent.

New York, New Haven and Hartford R. R.

Eastern District.

On and after Oct. 16, 1898, trains will run as follows: (See note of explanation at bottom.

TO BOSTON. Leave Quincy.	Stops at	Arrive Boston.	FROM BOSTON. Leave Boston.	Stops at	Arrive Quincy
r 6 12	abc	* 6 30	5 55	ihgfedcba	*6 22 r
r 6 42	abc	7 00	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	7 30	cba	7 49 r
r 7 26	ad	7 43	8 30	cba	8 49 r
r 7 42	abc	8 00	9 30	cba	9 49 r
r 8 12	abc	8 30	10 30	cba	10 49 r
r 8 26	ad	8 43	11 30	cba	11 49 r
r 8 42	abc	9 00	12 30	cba	12 49 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	1 30	cba	1 49 r
r 10 12	abc	10 30	2 30	cba	2 49 r
r 11 12	abc	11 30	3 30	cba	3 49 r
r 12 12	abc	12 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
r 1 12	abc	1 30	5 00	cba	5 19 r
r 2 12	abc	2 30	5 17	da	5 36 r
r 3 12	abc	3 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
r 4 12	abc	4 30	6 00	cba	6 19 r
r 5 12	abc	5 30	6 17	da	6 36 r
r 6 12	abc	6 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	7 00	eba	7 19 r
r 7 39	abcdefghi	8 05	7 30	cba	7 49 r
r 8 08	abcdef	8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	9 30	cba	9 49 r
r 10 08	abcdef	10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r
r 11 12	abc	11 30	11 30	cba	11 49 r

SUNDAYS.

r 7 12	abc	7 30	5 30	cba	6 r
r 8 12	abc	8 30	8 30	cba	8 49 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	12 30	cba	12 49 r
r 1 12	abc	1 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
r 5 12	abc	5 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 8 08	abcdef	8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
r 10 08	abcdef	10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r

*The letters in the same line as the figures stand for different stations and indicate that trains stop, as follows:

a, Wollaston, g, Savin Hill.
b, Norfolk Downs. h, Crescent Avenue.
c, Atlantic. i, South Boston.
d, Neponset.
e, Pope's Hill, r, Quincy Adams.
f, Harrison Square. (xx), Express.

C PETER CLARK, Gen'l Supt. A. C. KENDALL G. P. A

☞ Wall Papers in the choicest and latest New York Designs, from 3c. up. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

Chichester's English Diamond Brand.

PENNYROYAL PILLS

Original and Only Genuine.

SAFE, always reliable. LADIES ask Druggist for Chichester's English Diamond Brand in Red and Gold metallic boxes, sealed with blue ribbon. Take no other. Refuse dangerous substitutions and imitations. At Druggists, or send 4c. in stamps for particulars, testimonials and "Relief for Ladies," in letter, by return Mail. 10,000 Testimonials. Name Paper. Chichester Chemical Co., Madison Square, PHILADA., PA.

Sold by all Local Druggists. Sold by Geo. C. Goodwin & Co., Boston, Mass. General Agents.

LADIES ROYAL DELIVERANCE CAPSULES are a positive, safe and speedy monthly regulator, guaranteed to cure the most stubborn cases, or money refunded. Have never failed. Used by thousands of ladies, indorsed and prescribed by the medical profession. Painful and dangerous operations avoided. Price $2, at office or by return mail. 'Royal Protector' and full particulars under plain seal for 4c., stamps. ROYAL REMEDIES CO., 228 Tremont Street, Boston, Mass. Mention this paper.

Quincy Daily Ledger.

FOR SALE BY NEWSBOYS
and at the following places:

BOSTON—Old Colony News Stand after 3.30
QUINCY—Ledger Office, 115 Hancock St.
Souther's Periodical Store, 1 Granite St.
Henry P. Kittredge, City Square.
J. P. O'Brien, 38 Hancock St.
C. F. Carlson, near Quincy depot.
S. A. Pierce, corner Hancock and School Sts.
QUINCY POINT—Miss Freeman's store.
A. B. Wrisley, Washington St.
SOUTH QUINCY—Peter Haverly, Water St.
F. J. Pierson, 96 Granite St.
O. D. Chick, 59 Liberty St.
WEST QUINCY—Coram's Periodical Store.
BREWER'S CORNER—Emma Lark.
WOLLASTON—Ross' news stand.
Loring's Pharmacy, Wollaston Park.
NORFOLK DOWNS—Branscheid & Marten.
ATLANTIC—Branscheid & Marten.
HOUGHS NECK—Arthur Dunham at P. O.
EAST MILTON—William Clark.
EAST WEYMOUTH—George H. Hunt.
WEYMOUTH—W. E. Cunningham.
News Agent, Weymouth Heights.
NORTH WEYMOUTH—B. F. Thomas.

1898 OCTOBER. 1898

Su.	Mo.	Tu.	We.	Th.	Fr.	Sa.
						1
2	3	4	5	6	7	8
9	10	11	12	13	14	15
16	17	18	19	20	21	22
23	24	25	26	27	28	29
30	31

MOON'S PHASES.

Third Quarter 7 1:21 p. m. | First Quarter 22 4:25 a. m.
New Moon 15 7:53 a. m. | Full Moon 29 7:34 a. m.

WEYMOUTH.

Mr. W. J. Deslauses, Co. K, 5th Regt., is at his home in East Weymouth on a furlough.

Miss Maud Townsend of Lovell's Corner has been engaged to sing at Lynn.

The parish guild of Trinity church, Weymouth, had a large and interesting meeting this week at the residence of Mrs. J. Sidney Smith on Front street. Arrangements were made for the annual Hallow Eve supper and entertainment, which will be held Oct. 31. The next meeting of the guild will be with Mrs. E. F. Parlee, in East Braintree, Oct. 25.

In addition to the regular services at Trinity church, Weymouth, next Sunday, the Rev. William Hyde, will preach in Gardner Street chapel, South Hingham, at 2.30 P. M.

Rev. Judson P. Marvin, of the Third Universalist church, has moved into the Cormac house, on Saunders street.

The Ladies' Social Circle of the Pilgrim church meets in the church parlors next Wednesday afternoon and evening.

The factory of J. E. Sto dard on Lowell street is being remodelled into tenements.

The Weymouth High School Alumni Association held a meeting at the Bicknell school, East Weymouth, last evening and a permanent organization was established.

Division 9 A. O. H. will hold a social dance at Masonic hall, East Weymouth Oct. 20.

The Ladies' Social Union of the Congregational church, East Weymouth hold their twenty-fifth anniversary in the church vestry next Wednesday evening.

Harold M. Curtis who has been seriously ill at Los Angeles, is slowly improving.

Frank Colson who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Pratt of Curtis street, returned to his home in Elmira, N. Y., last Thursday.

The Ladies' Social Circle of the M. E. church, East Weymouth, meet Wednesday next; supper at 6.30; entertainment at 7.30.

The schedule of the W. H. S. football team is as follows: W. H. S, 2d, vs Quincy, 2d, Monday, 17th; W.H.S. vs. Adams Academy, Tuesday, 18th.

The East Weymouth W. C. T. U. meet Wednesday, Oct. 19, at Temperance hall.

—The Somerville Journal says the need of a subway under Washington street in Boston is impressing itself more deeply every day on the minds of the inhabitants.

The schools at Hingham Centre were closed Thursday, owing to the prevalence of diphtheria and the rapid spread of the disease. There are now fifteen children sick with the disease, and there is a general feeling of uneasiness among parents for fear that the disease may further spread.

—The Stoughton Sentinel says, a Lynn concern was incorporated in Maine with a capital of $30,000 of which $75.00 was paid in. Great Expectations.

BRAINTREE.

Mrs. Henry Shedd passed her 82d birthday last Friday.

Division No. 12, A. O. H., will hold their supper and dance in Red Men's hall this evening.

There has been but little frost except on the low lands and vegetables in Braintree are still green.

Mr. Emery Thayer, while riding home from work on his bicycle, struck a wheel of a wagon and fractured two ribs.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Abbell of Washington street are happy over the advent of a little daughter who arrived the first of the week.

The factory of D. B. Closson & Co. is now running full time and the places of the striking lasters have nearly all been filled satisfactorily.

The Daughters of Rebekah held a supper and installed their officers for the coming year in their hall on Pearl street, Thursday evening.

John H. Simmons is on a shooting trip through the wilds of Maine. The sports say that Johnny took a roll of "long green" to purchase some fine deer.

Mr. Edward Stone and Harold Jones have been spending their vacation fishing for smelts in Quincy bay. The largest amount caught was seventy-seven.

Company H, 8th Regiment, W. B. B. A., held their drill in lower Town Hall, Tuesday evening. The drill was under the direction of Drill master Cullis of Somerville.

On Thursday John Kelley and Bert Tenney visited Mr. White, the manager of the Weymouth Roller skating rink, and made arrangements for games in that rink for the coming winter.

Court Autumna, L. K. & L., were present by invitation Tuesday evening, at the installation of the officers of Waverly Court, L. K. & L., recently formed at the north part of the town.

Corporal Whiting of Co. K, 5th Mass. Regiment, is at home from Camp Meade. He is on an eight day furlough. He reports that everything as fine there and all the boys are well and like very much.

A number of witnesses from this town and Holbrook have been summoned to Dedham to testify in the case of Mrs. Jackson vs. Braintree, Randolph & Holbrook street railway. Mrs. Jackson is suing for damages, she being in an accident of the company at Holbrook about a year ago.

The Ladies' Aid society connected with the South M. E. church met at the home of Mrs. Lydia A. Hollis on Taylor street, Wednesday afternoon. A most excellent supper was enjoyed by those present from 5.30 to 7 o'clock. The rest of the evening was taken up in singing, instrumental music, speech making and readings.

The Old Folks' dinner and annual reunion took place in the South church, yesterday.

The piano for Monatiquot lodge, K. of P., arrived yesterday and the committee feel well pleased with it.

The house now being built by Dr. T. H. Dearing is nearing completion and is a beauty. It is to be occupied by Mr. E. W. Stone.

The Ladies' Social Circle connected with the Baptist church held a very successful and financial supper and entertainment in the Lower Town hall, Wednesday evening. The supper was served from 6 to 7.30, and was enjoyed by about 100 people. Following the supper an entertainment was given consisting of vocal and instrumental music and readings. The success of te affair was due to the following committee of arrangements:

New School Laws.

In last April, May and June the state legislature enacted seven chapters of new school laws, which in some cases make radical changes from the former school laws.

The legal school age now is from seven to fourteen years of age.

No child under fourteen shall be employed for wages during the hours when the public schools are in session.

No child under sixteen who cannot read and write shall be employed in a factory, workshop or mercantile establishment unless his or her employer sends to the superintendent of schools the name of such child.

No child under sixteen years of age shall be permitted to wander about the town when the schools are in session.

The school registers shall be kept according to law.

The parent is subject to a maxinum fine of twenty dollars for at least ten half day session of unexplained or unexcused absence of the child in any six months of school.

The school census shall be taken in September instead of in May as formerly.

The chapters of new school law are 315, 394, 466, 493, 494, 496 and 580.

☞ Oil Heaters worth $5.00, our price $3.98, will heat a room in a jiffy. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

UNITY CLUB.

Continued from page 1.

and utilize that portion of our time which heretofore may have seemed of little account.

Moreover we enjoy the world about us in proportion to the degree in which the inner self responds to its environment. The artist sees much in the picture that we little suspect is there, the musician listens to sweet tones that we never hear, while the scientist reads pages of history in what seems to us mere rocks.

It gives me great pleasure to act as the president of a club that has for its object the promotion of intellectual and social activity among its members, together with the mutual improvement of those who attend its meetings, and which believes with Mathew Arnold, that the great source of culture is the best things that have been thought and said, and we might add—done.

We have selected a country for study, which is rich in its supply of good things, and we invite all to come with us while we study its history, literature, art, and music. Those who expend the greatest effort, whether in preparation of papers or in collateral reading are sure to reap the richest harvest.

Coming directly to the work of the year let me suggest three things.

First, I desire volunteers on subjects in the programme that especially appeal to their individual tastes.

Second plan, which is about books. I would like to have at least ten members each purchase a book on Italy and loan it to the club for the use of the members, the books to be returned to the owner at the end of the season.

Lastly let us have for our motto during the year, Ruskins ideal, which is given in his essay on the Lamp of Life—"We are not sent into this world to do anything into which we cannot put our hearts. We have certain work to do for our bread, and that is to be done strenuously; other work to do for our delight, and that is to be done heartily; neither is to be done by halves or shifts, but with a will; and what is not worth this effort is not to be done at all.

Perhaps all that we have to do is meant for nothing more than an exercise of the heart and of the will, and is useles in itself; but, at all events, the little use it has may well be spared if it is not worth putting our hands and our strength to. It does not become our immortality to take an ease inconsistent with its authority, and since our life must be, at the best, but a vapor that appears for a little time and then vanishes away, let it appear as a cloud in the height of Heaven, not as a thick darkness that broods over the blast of the furnace, and rolling of the wheel.

Brooks Band Coming.

It will be a brilliant opening for the musical season at Quincy Music hall when Brooke and his famous Marine Band will appear for the first time before a Quincy audience. Manager Durgin having tried on several occasions to secure this attraction, as it is regarded as the foremost band in American for playing the light popular and inspiring music which really constitutes the field of the military band, and the line which advertises it as the greatest popular music band in the world is said to be not at all in variance with the fact. The band comes direct from Willow Grove Park, Philadelphia, where it has drawn the largest concerts crowds in history for 8 weeks, playing in place of Walter Damrosch and his New York Symphony Orchestra who were located there all the preivous season. The band was organized by some wealthy Chicago member of the Naval Militia after the World's Fair and in the three years of its active concert giving Conductor Brooke has brought it to the foremost rank in public esteem, and aside from the one famous band of New York, the Chicago Marine Band has done more playing and had more of continued success than any other of present or past fame, and the present year it has done twice as much playing as any other. The best field of this band has been mostly New England and Canada and the west, but two tours have been made through the South. In Chicago nothing has ever equaled the continued success of the Brooke concerts. The programe here will be very patriotic and Brooke's reputation for originality will insure many surprises during his stay. He will give the national airs with the greatest inspiration and many thrilling accessories.

Miss Sibyl Sammis the beautiful young Chicago girl, who is said to have the voice of a Gerster will sing, and as she is young and beautiful and thoroughly American, she will very appropriately sing some national airs of the country.

POLITICAL FIELD.

The Democratic Senatorial convention for this district is being held in Quincy this afteanoon. As the Ledger went to press it was uncertain who would accept the nomination for senator, but Hon. C. F. Adams is suggested. The most interest is centered over a contest for State committeeman.

For the first time in twenty-five years Brother Moseley of Hyde Park was not a delegate this year, to the County Convention, but he isn't kicking. He's got the postoffice and he don't mind staying at home.

In speaking of the nomination of B. H. Woodsum for the senate the Stoughton Sentinel says: "Candidate Woodsum has been chairman of the Executive Committee for the past two years, and well deserves the honors he has received. He is well equipped for he duties of his office, and all his fellow members of the committee are warm in congratulations to him on his success."

Papers nominating Harrison A. Atwood for Congress from the Tenth district are being circulated in Quincy and up to Friday night has received over one hundred signatures.

New Books.

The following works have recently been added to the Thomas Crane public library:

Bradford, William. History "of Plimoth plantation."	*382 35
Call, Annie P. As a matter of course.	492 78
Civil service guide: a manual for applicants for government positions under the U. S. civil service examinations.	80 38
Doyle, A. Conan. Desert drama.	217 49
Gunsaulus, F. W. William Ewart Gladstone.	432 38
Merriam, Florence A. Birds of village and field.	502 50
Pater, Walter. Renaissance: studies in art and poetry.	94 31
Appreciations; with an essay on style.	94 32
Marius the Epicurean: his sensations and ideas.	311 11
Stevens, J. E. Yesterdays in the Philippines, [1893-95].	205 33
Taylor, Thomas. Student's hand-book of mushrooms of America, edible and poisonous.	505 55
Watts, H. E. Christian recovery of Spain, 711-1492. [Story of the nations.]	362 21
Wiley, F. B. Flowers that never fade.	505 45

*Restricted.

TODAY'S COURT.

Enock Baker was arraigned for drunkenness at Quincy. Case continued until next Monday.

George N. Damon of Cohasset was arraigned for non-support of his wife, Lillian C. Damon. Damon was arrested upon a similar complaint some months ago and ordered to pay his wife $2.50 per week and the case was continued from time to time. Each time Damon reported to the Court he said he had been paying his wife as ordered. It appears however that he has paid his wife but $5 since April. He was discharged for want of jurisdiction, as his residence was in Scituate, which is in Plymouth county.

Jeremiah Pitts was arraigned for defrauding a boarding house at Quincy. Case continued until Nov. 12.

Andrew Swanson, Hans Palmgust and Peter Dixon were arraigned for mutilating four lobsters at Quincy. They were fined $20 each.

The continued cases of Frederick L. Hayden and Daniel Fitzgerald, for manslaughter at Quincy were called and again continued until Saturday, Oct. 22.

Geo. Bavin was arraigned for larceny at Quincy. Case continued until next Thursday.

Boston Museum.

The history of the Boston Museum Chronicle has many stage successes but in no time in its remarkable career has an attraction merited greater praise, or been more enthusiastically received than the first presentation of John J. McNally's latest and funniest effort entitled "A Reign of Error" in which are the inimitable Rogers Brothers under the direction of Messrs. Klay & Erlanger. When the curtain was run up on the first act last Monday night, standing room was at a premium. At first the audience laughed at the bright lines, clever songs, and new specialists. Afterward they roared, and finally went into convulsions of merriment. Of the Rogers Brothers, words cannot bestow sufficient praise. They are unequalled in their respective lines, and if the uproarious scenes of enthusiasm with which their efforts were received can be taken as a critereon, then they have established forever their reputation as mirth producers in the city of Boston. The engagement is limited to two weeks longer, and there will be the usual Wednesday and Saturday matinees.

Keith's Theatre.

No attraction offered at Keith's has created half the talk, or excited the admiration of the patrons of that popular resort, as has the advent of the Hungarian boys' band, which is in several respects the most wonderful musical organization that has ever visited this country. The band is made up of three dozen players, most of whose feet, as they sit in the high back, white and gilt chairs, do not touch the stone floor. And they play like archangels. The intricate Hungarian overtures are given with a precision and nerve that would be wonderful in adults, and Sousa's marches are rendered with a swing and go that the March King's own musicians might envy. The boys' band will continue the feature of the show for the week of Oct. 17, with a change of programme daily. Other features of next week's show are Harry Woodruff, the talented young actor, and Giacinta della Rocca, the Italian violinist, both of whom will be seen for the last times; Macarte Sisters, noval wire artists; Rofix, a wonderful equilibrist; Morton and Revelle, conversational comedians; Gloss Brothers, gymnasts; Lynch and Jewel, dancers; Zimmer, a clown juggler, and the biograph, with a new series of views.

☞ Carpets thoroughly cleaned in our electric beater. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

SUNDAY SERVICES.

19th SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

Church services are inserted in this paper without charge, but none will be accepted to run until further order. A notice should be sent each week even though it is but a renewal. Give subject and special services when possible. Let all churches be represented—Eds.]

CHRIST CHURCH—Rev. Walter Russell Breed, rector. Morning Prayer and sermon and Litany at 10.30 o'clock. Sunday School at 12 M. Choral evening song and address by the pastor on the work of the Y. M. C. A. Subject: "Character." All seats free. Everybody welcome. Offering at each service.

UNITARIAN CHURCH—Rev. Ellery C. Butler pastor. Morning service at 10.30. Preaching by the pastor. Sunday school at 12 M.

BETHANY CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH, junction Hancock and Chestnut streets—Rev. E. N. Hardy, pastor. Morning service at 10.30. Preaching by the Rev. E. N. Hughes, D. D., of Malden. Subject: "Work for men." Bible School at 12 M. Y. P. S. C. E. at 6.15 P. M. Evening church service at 7.30 o'clock. Subject: "Evidences written in blood."

UNIVERSALIST CHURCH, Washington street—Rev. Edgar Watson Preble, pastor. Morning service at 10.45. Sermon by the pastor. Subject: "The Bible of Faney and the Bible of fact, or the Old Testament under a new light." Sunday School at 12 M. Y. P. C. U. at 7 P. M. Extra musical service. All welcome.

WASHINGTON STREET CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH—Rev. Edward Anderson, pastor. Morning service at 10.45 o'clock. Subject: "The Y. M. C. A., and our responsibility to it." Sunday School at 12 M. Y. P. S. C. E. at 6.30 P. M. Evening service at 7.15. Subject: "The Young Man."

CALVARY BAPTIST CHURCH, Franklin street.—Rev. David Kerr, pastor. Morning service at 10.30. Subject: "Our true position in Christ prefigured." Bible School at 12 M. Young people's meeting at 6 P. M. Preaching service at 7 o'clock. Subject: "Christ's first interrogatory public utterance." Prayer meeting Friday evening at 7.30 o'clock. All welcome.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, Water street—Rev. Robert Westly Peach, pastor. Morning service at 10.30. Sunday School at 11.45 A. M. Y. P. S. C. E. at 6 P. M. Evening service at 7. The eleventh anniversary of the dedication of the church will be commemorated. Prayer meeting Thursday at 7.30 P. M. Subject: "Our church-home."

SWEDISH METHODIST CHURCH,—Fort street, Rev. H. Larson, pastor. Morning service at 10.30. Sunday School at 12. M. Prayer meeting at 6.30. P. M. Evening service at 7.30. Class meeting on Tuesday evening. Prayer meeting on Thursday evening.

ST. JOHN'S ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH,—Rev. F. A. Frigulietti, pastor; Assistants, Rev. J. P. Cuffee, Rev. F. A. Cunningham, Rev. J. E. Johnstone, Rev. J. F. Purcell. First Mass, 8 A. M., second Mass, (High,) 10.30 A. M. Vespers at 4 o'clock. Baptisms at 5 P. M.

ST. MARY'S ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH,—Rev. F. A. Frigulietti, pastor. Assistants, Rev. J. P. Cuffe, Rev. F. A. Cunningham, Rev.. J. E. Johnstone, Rev. J. F. Purcell. First Mass, 8 A. M. Second Mass, 9 A. M. Third Mass (High) 10.30 A. M. Vespers, 3.30. Baptisms, 4 P. M.

WOLLASTON UNITARIAN CHURCH—Rev. J. E. Bagley, pastor. Service at 10.45 A. M. The pastor will preach. Subject: "Standing up for one's duties as well as for one's rights.' Professor Marceau, soloist. Sunday School at 12 M.

WOLLASTON M. E. CHURCH—Rev. J. E. Waterhouse, pastor. Morning service at 10.45 Sermon by pastor. Sunday School and Bible class at 12 M. Epworth League at 6 P. M. Evening service at 7 o'clock. The service of song will be followed by the Y. M. C. A. anniversary, with Mr. Carter of Chelsea as speaker. Strangers welcome. Notice change of time of evening service.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH, WOLLASTON—Morning service, 10.45, Rev. Edward Norton will preach. Subject: "The glory of young men." A plea for our Y. M. C. A. Sabbath School at 12.15 P. M. Meeting of Y. M. C. A. for men at 3:30 P. M. Mr. W. H. Breed of Boston will speak. Y. P. S. C. E. at 6.45 P. M. Evening service at 7.30. Subject: "Listening for God." Prayer meeting Friday evening at 7.45.

PARK AND DOWNS UNION CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH, Rawson Road—Rev. F. T. Knight, pastor. Morning service at 10.45. Subject: 'The true vision." Sunday School at 12 M. Evening service at 7.30. The pastor will give the third of the series of talks upon the war between Spain and the United States.

ATLANTIC METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH.—Rev. H. C. Wright, pastor. Morning service at 10.45 A. M. The service will be in charge of the Y. M. C. A. of Quincy. All persons should aid this worthy work of much as possible. A good service is promised. Sunday School at 12 M. Epworth League installation service at 7 o'clock.

MEMORIAL CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH, Atlantic—Rev. J. H. Whitaker, pastor. Residence, 21 Billings street. Morning service at 10.45. Anniversary service—Quincy Y. M. C. A. Sabbath School at 12 M. Evening service at 7 o'clock. Master Oliver Green will play two violin solos. Friday evening prayer service at 7.30 o'clock. You are cordially invited.

SPIRITUALIST MEETING—Mrs. M. A. Bonney, of Weymouth, medium, will preach at Faxon Hall at 7 P. M. Circles Tuesday at 2.30 and 7.30 P. M., at the house of Henry Chubbuck off Elm place.

Castle Square Theatre.

The management of the Castle Square theatre will afford the patrons of this play house a much desired opportunity of enjoying Belasco and De Mille's charming comedy "Men and Women" the coming week. This play was given by the Castle Square company a year ago, but the sudden indisposition of Mr. Gilmour prevented his appearance in the cast; and he will add much to the interest of the coming revival by appearing with the company. The cast is made up of nearly the full Castle Square company. For the week beginning Monday, Oct. 24th, the Castle Square theatre management announces a production of the dramatic sensation of the day "Cyrano de Bergerac," the version used having been made especially for this house, the translation by Mr. Howard M. Ticknor and the stage adaptation by Mr. J. H. Gilmour. The staging of the play will be from original design by Mr. Ansell Cook with mechanical effects by Mr. Ben W. Craig.

☞ Read Saturday's Ledger.

CANCER CURED
BY ABSORPTION
NO KNIFE.

The result of years of scientific research by America's greatest blood specialist. A pleasant treatment that relieves immediately, cures permanently all forms of CANCERS, TUMORS and CHRONIC DISEASES. Hundreds of wonderful cures effected in and around Boston. Read the following:

BLOOD EVIDENCE

Then come to our offices and investigate the hundreds of other marvellous cures produced by ABSORPTION when all other treatment failed. Consult this living patient. "Dr. James M. Solomon: Dear Sir: The following is my testimonial, which I hope will help others. That after suffering several years with something that was never reached, getting only temporary help from different doctors, and each attack being more severe, I was advised by a friend, who had been cured of a tumor, to see her doctor. I was then unable for any work, and feeling worse from day to day; realizing that something was preying upon me of a serious nature, I was discouraged about my condition, and sought Dr. Solomon with little faith—it was more of an experiment. He got my confidence on the first interview, when, without a word of description of my feelings from me, he at once located my trouble, and I could not help believing that he knew from what I was suffering, although was greatly surprised and somewhat terrified when he told me it was cancer of the stomach. I began treatment at once, Nov. 3, 1892, and was faithful to his directions, with just the results promised I would get, till the following June (1893) I felt like a new being, and the doctor pronounced me recovered. I am sure that I have, and I can never repay the gratitude I owe to Dr. J. M. Solomon. Sincerely, EBEN FISH, 232 Harvard St., Dorchester, Mass." Today he is one of the many living witnesses of the only painless method that positively CURES when all others fail.

We want you to call and examine references of people you know—people we all know, who would not vouch for ABSORPTION had they not been cured. Ask for references marked H.

James M. Solomon, M.D.
SPECIALIST IN CANCERS, TUMORS AND CHRONIC DISEASES.
2 A Beacon Street, BOSTON.
Oct. 13. 1y lo

WILLIAM E. BAXTER, M. D.
Practice Limited to the
EYE AND EAR.
553 Boylston St., Boston.
QUINCY—Monday and Friday.
Hours, 9 to 11. 195 Hancock Street
May 21. 1y

TO THE FRONT!

RAYMOND'S FLAG CIGAR
WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DISTRIBUTOR,
A. G. DURGIN,
QUINCY, MASS.
WM. H. RAYMOND GROCERY CO.
45 and 47 Commercial Street, Boston.

DR. RALPH M. FOGG,
DENTIST.
Teeth extracted absolutely without pain by the use of the
"BOSTON VEGETABLE VAPOR."
It is claimed that, while it has the required properties of ether, chloroform, nitrous oxide gas, it lacks the disagreeable and dangerous qualities of these drugs. It is certainly a boon to suffering humanity to be relieved of the nausea too often following the administering of sedatives of the old school.—Boston Transcript.
Teeth made and repaired on Gold or Rubber base. Teeth Filling a specialty.
Office in French's Building, five doors south of Post Office, Quincy. Wednesdays. Hours, 9 A. M. to 5 P. M. Julv18-1y Nov8-1vo

True's PIN WORM Elixir
The only sure, safe, entirely vegetable remedy for worms in children or adults. Harmless under any conditions. A speedy cure for all disorders of the blood and the digestive organs.
Price 35c., at your druggist's. Write for free book on "Children"
DR. J. F. TRUE & CO., Auburn, Me.

JOHN EVANS,
Auctioneer and Appraiser.
Prompt Settlement.
24 COPELAND STREET, QUINCY.
Feb. 26. tf

NCER
URED BSORPTION
O KNIFE.
years of scientific research by test blood specialist. A pleasant relieves immediately, cures perrms of CANCERS, TUMORS DISEASES. Hundreds of effected in and around Boston.
ng:
D EVIDENCE
our offices and investigate the er marvellous cures produced by when all other treatment failed.
ving patient. "Dr. James M.
Sir: The following is my testi-
I hope will help others. That several years with something reached, getting only temporary ent doctors, and each attack bee, I was advised by a friend, who of a tumor, to see her doctor.
ble for any work, and feeling to day; realizing that something on me of a serious nature, I was out my condition, and sought Dr.
little faith—it was more of an ex-got my confidence on the first n, without a word of description rom me, he at once located my ould not help believing that he t I was suffering, although was d and somewhat terrified when s cancer of the stomach. I beat once, Nov. 3, 1892, and was directions, with just the results ld get, till the following June a new being, and the doctor recovered. I am sure that I ever repay the gratitude I owe
mon. Sincerely, EBEN FISH,
., Dorchester, Mass." Today
e many living witnesses of the ethod that positively CURES ail.
to call and examine references know—people we all know, who for ABSORPTION had they
Ask for references marked H.
. Solomon, M.D.
IN CANCERS, TUMORS HRONIC DISEASES.
eacon Street,
OSTON.
ly lo
E. BAXTER, M. D. tice Limited to the
AND EAR.
ylston St., Boston.
Monday and Friday.
195 Hancock Street
ly
HE FRONT!

MOND'S LAG CAR AND RETAIL DISTRIBUTOR, DURGIN,
NCY, MASS.
YMOND GROCERY CO. mmercial Street, Boston.
LPH M. FOGG, ENTIST.
bsolutely without pain by the use of the EGETABLE VAPOR."
t, while it has the required er, chloroform, nitrous oxide disagreeable and dangerous drugs. It is certainly a boon anity to be relieved of the following the administering of old school.—Boston Trand repaired on Gold or Rubber ge a specialty.
e Building, five doors south
uincy. Wednesdays. Hours,
July18-ly Nov8-1vo
The only sure, safe, entirely vegetable remedy for worms in children or adults. Harmless under any conditions. A speedy cure for all disorders of the blood and the digestive organs.
Price 25c., at your druggist's.
Write for free book on "Children."
DR. J. F. TRUE & CO.,
Auburn, Me.
N EVANS,
and Appraiser.
t Settlement.
D STREET, QUINCY.
tf

QUINCY DAILY LEDGER.

VOL. 10. No. 242. QUINCY, MASS., MONDAY, OCTOBER 17, 1898. PRICE 2 CENTS.

SWEATERS.

We think we can show you the best assortment of Sweaters to be found in the city.

BOYS' SAILOR COLLAR, GARNET OR NAVY BLUE,	$ .50
" " " " " " "	.75
" " " " " " "	1.00
" ROLL " " " " "	1.00
MEN'S SAILOR " " " " "	2.00
" " " " " " "	2.50

Look at Our Window Display.

GEO. W. JONES,

Adams Building, Quincy.

NOTHING BETTER,

UNCLE SAM'S NAVY

Now commands the respect of the world, and we are all proud of the defenders of the Nation's Honor. To give the people of Quincy a good idea of the grand battleships, we have ordered a large supply of portfolios, giving magnificent views of the ships, crews, etc.

With each purchase made at our store we will give a portfolio check to the value of the purchase. When you have $4.00 worth of these checks, return them and get a portfolio. Continue in this way until you have the set complete. Call and see these magnificent portfolios.

ROGERS BROS.,

Groceries and Provisions. Adams Building, Quincy.

ONE-TON ORDERS

Have been the making of this Coal business. Hundreds have ordered "just one ton to see if there was any difference." They found there was and they came again. Our one-ton orders have been our best advertisements. It's a better Coal at the same price, with the proof in a sample ton. When in doubt, try Patch's.

C. PATCH & SON.

TELL US . .

What you are looking for.

We can show you a fine line of

FALL AND WINTER UNDERWEAR,

HOSIERY,

Outing Flannels, Flannelettes,

Plaid Dress Goods,

WRAPPERS, BLANKETS,

Comforters,

Dress Linings and other Dry Goods.

OUR STOCK IS FRESH.

OUR PRICES THE LOWEST.

MISS C. S. HUBBARD,

158 Hancock Street.

The John Hancock Stables.

Opposite Depot, Quincy, Mass.

Boarding, Baiting, Livery and Sale.

DR. J. A. DOW, Proprietor,

the well known Veterinary dentist and specialist in the treatment of lame horses. Sick horses treated at owner's risk.

The finest equipped and managed stable of its size in America.

Fine driving turnouts in light rigs; safe and good appearing. All horses let are perfectly safe for ladies to drive.

The choicest family, road and coach horses constantly on hand for sale. All horses guaranteed as represented.

☞ Will attend to veterinary practice as usual. aug18-1y

GO TO....

Miss B. J. PATTERSON'S

Millinery Parlors

AT THE

Boston Bargain Store,

FOR YOUR

FALL MILLINERY.

A fine assortment of Trimmed Goods. Also, all the latest and best shapes in untrimmed hats, walking hats and sailors.

New Velvets, Ribbons, Fancy Feathers and Ostrich goods.

Lowest possible prices for first-class goods.

Music Hall Building, Quincy.

Oct. 1. tfpl

— THE —

Fall Millinery Opening

... OF ...

C. L. BLISS,

186 Hancock St.,

TUESDAY and WEDNESDAY

Oct. 11, 12.

The public are cordially invited to call and examine a stock of Trimmed and Untrimmed Hats and novelties in Velvets, Ribbons, Wings, Feathers and Jet.

Quincy, Oct. 5. 1po 2w

JOHN EVANS,

Auctioneer and Appraiser.

Prompt Settlement.

24 COPELAND STREET, QUINCY.

Feb. 26. tf

TELEGRAPHIC.

3 O'CLOCK.

AGAINST FREE SILVER.

Committee of Sound Money Democrats Issues an Address.

Opposed to the Chicago Platform Doctrines.

Main Principles Not Affected by Local Political Conditions.

Indianapolis, Oct. 17.—The national Democratic committee has issued the following address to the national Democrats: "Your national committee, speaking for the national Democratic party, congratulates the country on the emphatic and merited condemnation at the polls by the people in 1896 of the dishonorable and dangerous doctrines promulgated by the Chicago platform. The moral influence exerted by the Indianapolis convention has amply compensated for the efforts made in behalf of unalloyed Democratic principles as held and taught by Jefferson, Jackson, Tilden and Cleveland; and today this platform is the rock and firm foundation on which alone a Democrat can rest his political faith. We therefore take this opportunity to reaffirm with accumulated force the principles of our party as enunciated at Indianapolis in 1896.

"We believe that the theory of so-called protection, which, in its last analysis, involves the spoilation of the many for the benefit of the few, is dishonest, and that it directly and inevitably breeds trusts, monopolies, and those special privileges by which the cunning and unscrupulous prey on their unsuspecting and credulous fellow-citizens. The protective tax is not only dishonest and oppressive, but it obstructs that free and natural interchange of commodities which would increasingly tend to lessen the cost of the necessities and comforts of life to our wave-earning classes. It has destroyed our merchant navy. It has practically driven our flag from the seas, and has forced us into the humiliating necessity of paying vast and constant tribute to other nations for ocean carriage. We oppose the extension of this insular system to any colonies that we have acquired, or hereafter may acquire, and favor, as we always have favored, the widest freedom of trade. It is folly to think of securing foreign markets, unless we are willing to trade with foreign countries. Especially do we denounce the Chicago platform for its virtual abandonment of this great and time-honored principle.

"The doctrine of free silver is an extension of the protective principle. Free coinage is the protection of a few silver mine owners at the expense of our laboring classes. This policy, were it adopted, would rob the workers of half their earnings, and by unsettling values would bring about a paralysis of trade and commerce, and reduce us financially to the level of barbarous and uncivilized nations. We are unreservedly for the single gold standard, and oppose international bimetalism, so called, as both impracticable and undesirable. We believe that the theory of one standard, and the selection of gold as that standard, has been struck off in the mint of human experience as the result of a slowly developed and beneficent evolution in civilization. We protest against the pollution of the Democratic party by alliances with those financial declarations that are at war with its old and true creed.

"With the situation as it exists in some of the various states, we have no province to interfere. The national Democrats of each state must solve their local problems in such a way as may seem to them most likely to insure the triumphs of the principles for which the national organization stands, and to the main tenance of which it is solemnly pledged. We seek no offices and wish for no rewards except those that flow from the consciousness of duty done. Our principles—the gold standard, monetary reform, tariff for revenue only, civil service reform, rigid economy in the administration of the government, the maintenance of law and order, freedom of contract, and the protection of all contract rights—must triumph if our representative federal republic is to be perpetuated. In behalf of these principles, we appeal to the sober, settled judgment of the American people. We should be prepared now and at all times to defend them against assault from any quarter.

Royal makes the food pure, wholesome and delicious.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

CROKER'S IRE AROUSED.

New York, Oct. 11.—Richard Croker and other members of the Democratic club are aroused over the action taken by the Bar association against David Leventritt, the Democratic candida e for justice of the supreme court, at a meeting on Saturday night. Mr. Croker has given out a statement regarding the affair, in which he says: "It is just what might be expected from the Bar association, as it is constituted at present. It is nothing more or less than a partisan machine annex to the Republican party run by Elihu Root, a Republican attorney for corporations and trusts. What right has he to select a man for us to endorse? Root is assisted in his manipulation of this machine by Joseph H. Choate, who is also a Republican attorney for big trusts and corporations in this state, and I would like to know if he is a fit man to dictate nominations to Tammany hall in regard to its selections for the bench. These men would not endorse a good, sound Democrat for office, no matter how fit he was.

RICHARD CROKER.

"I am informed that a majority of the signers of the petition do not vote in New York city. The Democratic party is not yet ready to entrust its nominations for the judiciary to a clique of lawyers representing the biggest trusts and corporations in the state, and who are working in the interests of the Republican party. Root and his clique have destroyed the usefulness of the association by turning it to partisan purposes."

Our Place Among the Nations.

Boston, Oct. 17.—Rev. Dr. Harcourt of Baltimore delivered a lecture Sunday on "Our Place Among the Nations." He said in part: "The birth of the American republic was a wonderful event in the world's history. It had in it the promise of a great and glorious future. The age in which it was born was an age of expectancy.

"For 90 days we have been at war with a nation without a conscience, without a principle; with the fag end of a race that once had in it the promise of greatness and glory. Once Spain owned a larger part of Europe and the greater part of America; but her oppressions, cruelty and injustice have reduced her to less than a fourth rate power; indeed she seems now to be in the very agonies of dissolation. The victory we have gained over Spain, properly translated, means tyranny cannot endure, and liberty based on justice is, irrespective of race or religion, the universal ideal and must become the common possession of all humanity. The American people are not easily provoked, but when once aroused their enemies had better sue for peace."

NEWS IN BRIEF.

The Forty-seventh New York has the honor of being the first American organization to enter the capital of Porto Rico.

The annual parade in Providence of the Knights of Columbus of Rhode Island was a most successful event. About 1,000 were in line.

Richard Palmer of Brooklyn arrived at the city hall in New York yesterday, having ridden from Cincinnati in 88 hours. The former record was 101 hours.

Fire destroyed a three-story brick building in Plainfield, N. J., entailing a loss of about $60,000. The building was occupied by the Barge Cycle company and a number of families.

It is expected in the highest circles that the Chinese emperor will be formally deposed Nov. 23, the birthday of the empress dowager, and that Prince Jun, a boy of 13, will be nominated as his successor.

Dr. Charles J. Milliken, a prominent citizen of Cherryfield, Me., and one of the leading physicians of eastern Maine, died Sunday of paralysis. He was a graduate of the Harvard medical school, and had been in continuous practice for 30 years.

A cash balance in bank exceeding $30,000 now stands to the credit of the trans-Mississippi exposition. There are 15 days remaining. All railroads in this territory have made a half cent a mile rate for the last week of the fair. Today was Odd Fellows' day.

The American Lamp Chimney company, composed of eastern and Toledo capital amounting to $750,000, has been organized to start a factory. The first factory will be built in Toledo, the ground to be broken this week. Other factories will be put up as business progresses.

Philip Layeux of Lewiston, about 19 years of age, became intoxicated, it is alleged, and was stowed away by his friends in a cellar. Later it was discovered that he was dead, and further examination showed that his neck was broken. The supposition is that he fell down the cellar stairs.

The stars and stripes will be formally raised at San Juan Tuesday. Brigadier General Fred D. Grant will be given command of the district of San Juan, comprising the jurisdictions of Arecibo, Bayamon and Humacoa, with the adjacent islands. Brigadier General Guy V. Henry will be given command of the other portions of Porto Rico.

LAND VALUES

A Transcript From the Books of the Assessors.

Number of Feet in Each Lot and Valuation Thereof.

Also the Amount of Each Person's Tax Bill for 1898.

[Continued from Saturday.]

Something new in the publication of the taxpayers of the city is attempted this year by the Daily Ledger. There is considerable interest in the assessed value of land in the city, which is claimed to be high in some cases and low in others. So the Ledger has supplemented the amount of the tax bill in each ward with the value of each lot of land for which the person is taxed, giving in each case the number of square feet or acreage.

The amount given in the line with the person's name is his total ward tax, and may include houses, personal property, etc., in addition to the lots of land below. The Ledger gives only the valuation of the land.

To obtain a person's total tax in the city, add together the amounts paid in the several wards.

The Ledger commenced the publication Aug. 30, and has already published the land values of all persons whose names begin with A to L, and today gives the fourth instalment of the M's:

WARD FOUR.

Valuation of Land Only.	Total Ward Tax.
McAloon, Helen	$23 40
About 10,500 feet, Ballou, 4,950, Ballou, } $400.
McAloon, Helen E.	33 30
1-2 acre, Grove, $450.
McBain, David	13 50
6,189, Hill, $250.
McCarty, Michael	27 20
5,709, Town Hill, $150.
13,363 " " $250.
McCormick, John	20 00
6,686, Hillside Terrace, $200.
McCormack, James R.	36 20
11,550, Hall place, $700.
McCormack, Gene M.	13 70
10,230, Hall place, $650.
McCormack, William A.	60 50
24,790, Willard, $1,250.
6,000, Larry, $300.
McDevitt, Edward	30 80
1-2 acre, Willard, $600.
McDonald, Daniel J.	43 40
10,000, Nelson, $400.
McDonald, Michael L.	43 40
About 1-2 acre off West, $400.
McDonald, Murdock A.	45 20
16,000, Centre, $900.
McDonald, Ronald	29 90
8,800, Town Hill, $250.
McDonnell, Arthur	53 30
1 acre, West, $1,200.
McDonnell, Thomas, est.,	12 60
7.18 acres, $700.
McDonnell, Thomas H.	20 70
7,670, Smith, $350.
McDonough, Mrs. Bridget	119 70
8,952, California, $500.
8,900, Bates ave., $600.
18,413, Hillside park, $350.
7,741, " " $150.
McDonough, Bessie	36 90
6,000, off Rodgers, $250.
McGann, William	32 60
16,210 Copeland, $1,400.
McGilvary, Andrew est.,
3,000, Willard, $300.
McGilvary, John B.	41 60
11,830, Crescent, $1,200.
McGilvary & Jones	21 60
3.66 acres, Quarry land, $1,000.
McGovern, Michael	35 30
7,170, Copeland, $1,050.
McGowan, John	4 70
7,485, Malden, $150.
McGrath, John	1 80
1-8 acre, Town Hill, $100.
McGrath, Thomas	29 00
19,029, Douglass, $500
McIntosh, Jane	61 20
9,360, Arthur, $400.
About 950, Copeland, $100.
McKennon, John C.	23 40
4,950, Ballou, $200.
McLane, Christian and Mary	47 70
9,000, Buckley, $350.
McLoughlin, Mary A.	5 40
1-4 acre, Grove, $300.
McLoughlin, Thomas	24 50
12,000, Bates ave., $250.
McLoughlin, William	24 50
4,991, Kent, $250.
McLeod, Alexander M. I.	119 70
15,501, Smith, $500.
21,806 " $800.
4,970, rear Smith, $300.
McLeod, Archibald F.	7 90
7,363, Bryant, $400.
McNeil, John T.	105 50
6,260, Willard, $450.
58,750, " $1,300.
14,117, Halls Hill, $500.
McNeil, Peter J.	45
450, Robertson, $25.
McNeil, Timothy, heirs,	39 60
12,000, Crescent, $1,200.
McTiernan John	83 00
27,550, Common, $1,600.
11,300, " $650.

Continued on page 3.

☞ Furniture reupholstered, mattresses made over, carpets cleaned. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

Couches, $5.98.

Good, substantial couches, well made and built for service, made on best tempered steel springs, covered with Persian Velours, Figured Corduroys or Belgian Velvets and fringed to the floor.

People ask, "How can you sell them at such a fabulously low price?" Couches for $5.98 that are easily worth $15.00.

We sometimes wonder ourselves, but that's a matter of minor consideration, the couches are here in a variety of covers ready to send to your home in an hour's time if need be. Luxurious, dreamy couches, and our price but $5.98.

Fifty other patterns of couches to select from, prices from $4.75 to $30.00.

HENRY L. KINCAIDE & CO.

Reliable, Low Priced House Furnishers.

Hancock Street, : : Quincy.

GEO. AMES,

the ONLY PRACTICAL PLUMBER in the Hardware business in the City. He has a patent SEWER TRAP which cannot be beat. Impossible for deadly sewer gas to enter your homes. See him about your Sewer Connection. He has had three years' experience in Boston and other large cities Established here in 1889 and still in it. Work done anywhere.

Hardware, Paints and Oils, Putty and Glass, Yacht Supplies, Steam and Gas Fittings. Steam and Hot Air Heaters put in repair for the winter.

ADAMS BUILDING

Gentlemen, Buy Your....

OVERCOATS

Where you can find the best assortment in the city and the lowest prices, which is at

C. F. DERBY'S, SAVINGS BANK BUILDING, QUINCY. 5-1m

THE FALL SEASON

IS HERE

For the Purchase of

Fruit and Ornamental Trees,

Shrubs and Vines.

Buy now that your plants may get a good start by spring.

Remember that I carry all the desirable novelties, as well as the old standard varieties of nursery stock.

I call special attention to my Flowering Shrubs, Perpetual Roses, Clematis, and Rhododendrons.

Buy at home and save agents' commissions. None but strictly first-class stock, well acclimated, furnished. Call and examine.

Orders by mail receive prompt attention.

Wollaston Park Nursery,

Fenno St., Wollaston.

MARTIN PFAFFMANN, Prop.

P. O. Box 44, Wollaston. Residence, 2 Clay St.

Oct. 14—1m p-3w

E. LANDIS SNYDER,

Organist and Choirmaster of Christ Church,

TEACHER OF

VOICE CULTURE, PIANO AND ORGAN.

Studio: Room 10 Durgin & Merrill's Block, QUINCY, MASS.

Sept. 10. tf

E. S. BECKFORD,

Electrician.

Wiring and Fitting for Incandescent, Motors, Dynamos, Bells, etc.

GRANITE STREET, Near the Bridge, QUINCY

Feb. 1 1y

TEETH EXTRACTED.

No Pain or Danger.

Safer than vapor. Money paid for extracting goes towards teeth to be inserted. I am the only dentist in the city using the Painless Preparation for Extraction.

DR. C. B. UNDERWOOD,

9 Spear St. Rear of Public Library

DR. RALPH M. FOGG,

DENTIST.

Teeth extracted absolutely without pain by the use of the

"BOSTON VEGETABLE VAPOR."

It is claimed that, while it has the required properties of ether, chloroform, nitrous oxide gas, it lacks the disagreeable and dangerous qualities of these drugs. It is certainly a boon to suffering humanity to be relieved of the nausea too often following the administering of sedatives of the old school.—Boston Transcript.

Teeth made and repaired on Gold or Rubber base. Teeth Filling a specialty.

Office in French's Building, five doors south of Post Office, Quincy. Wednesdays. Hours, 9 A. M. to 5 P. M. July18-1y Nov8-1vo

Coal!

Just Received by Barge Blackbird, a Fresh Cargo of

Pea Coal

(Small Nut.)

J. F. SHEPPARD & SONS

Quincy Sept. 7.

ALBERT J. BOWERS

OPTICIAN

ADAMS BUILDING OVER POST OFFICE QUINCY MASS.

STENOGRAPHY AND TYPEWRITING,
BOOKKEEPING,
And All Clerical Work.
MISSES A. B. and E. M. COTE,
Room 12 Durgin & Merrill Block, - Quincy.
Oct. 10. tf

DANCING SCHOOL.
Reduced Rates.
Prof. GARDNER,
the well known Boston teacher, will receive a few more pupils in his class in COLONIAL HALL, Bank Building, Quincy, on Friday Evening, Oct. 14, at 7.45. Terms: Gents, $5, Ladies, $3. All the latest dances taught.
lp tf

STATE ELECTOIN.

CITY OF QUINCY.

City Clerk's Office, Oct. 7, 1898.

IN Accordance with the provisions of Chapter 548 of the Acts of 1898, notice is hereby given that by a vote of the City Council, passed October 3, 1898, the polling places for the election to be held TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1898, in the City of Quincy, were designated as follows:

WARD ONE.—Council Chamber, City Hall.
WARD TWO—Hose House, Washington street.
WARD THREE, Precinct One.—Doble's Hall, Franklin street.
WARD THREE, Precinct Two.—Old Steamer House, School street.
WARD FOUR, Precinct One.—St. Mary's Hall, Willard street.
WARD FOUR, Precinct Two.—Hose House, Copeland street.
WARD FIVE.—Polson's Building, Newport avenue.
WARD SIX.—Hose House, Newbury avenue.

Attest: EDGAR G. CLEAVES, City Clerk.
Quincy, Oct. 7, 1898. 27t

NOTICE TO VOTERS.

CITY OF QUINCY.

For the purpose of preparing the Annual Register of Voters, and of receiving evidence of qualification from persons claiming a right to Vote at the coming State Election, the Board of Registrars of Voters will be in session at the COUNCIL CHAMBER in the City Hall Building, on the evenings of

Wednesday, Sept. 14,
Saturday, Sept. 17,
Thursday, Sept. 29,
Saturday, Oct. 1,
Wednesday, Oct. 5.
Saturday, Oct. 8,
Saturday, Oct. 15,

From 7 to 9 P. M., and also on

Wednesday, Oct. 19,

From 12 o'clock M. until 10 o'clock P. M.

Every applicant for registration must appear in person before the Board, and must present either a certificate from the Assessors or a Tax bill or Notice from the Collector of Taxes, showing that he has been assessed as a resident of the City on the First day of May last; or a certificate from the Assessors that he has been a resident of the City for the six months next preceding the election at which he claims a right to vote. If a naturalized citizen he must also produce for inspection his papers of naturalization. Payment of a poll tax is not a prerequisite to voting.

No person can vote at the election unless his name has previously been placed upon the voting list of the Ward of which he was a resident on the first day of May last, and no name can be added to the list of voters unless registered previous to

Wednesday, Oct. 19th.

at 10 o'clock P. M., when registration will close.

Examine the Voting Lists posted, and see that your name is in its proper place. NO CHANGE can be made after WEDNESDAY, Oct. 19th, at 10 o'clock P. M. The Board of Assessors will be in session at their office on the same evenings.

EDWARD B. MARSH,
CORNELIUS MOYNIHAN,
EDWARD J. McKEON,
EDGAR G. CLEAVES,
Registrars.

Quincy, Sept. 6, 1898. 38t p10-2w

48 BALLOTS 48

And the tenth district nominated a candidate for Congress, but it needn't take you half so long to decide where to buy

Fall and Winter Suits
FOR MEN AND BOYS.

The Granite Clothing Store has always carried honest goods at low prices, and this year beats all previous years. Every purchaser is bound to be Absolutely Satisfied.

Boys are satisfied because the suits are neat and stylish, and their parents are satisfied with the price.

Call and see for yourself.

Granite Clothing Co.
DURGIN & MERRILL'S BLOCK.

Quincy Daily Ledger
ESTABLISHED IN 1889.
The ONLY DAILY in Norfolk County Massachusetts.

Published Every Evening, Sundays and Holidays Excepted, At No. 115 HANCOCK ST., City of Quincy, Mass., by
GEORGE W. PRESCOTT & SON.
Successors to Green & Prescott.
Subscription Price, $6.00 per year.
A discount of $1 when paid in advance.
ALSO PUBLISHERS OF
The Quincy Patriot,
A Weekly Established in 1837, which has the Largest Circulation in Norfolk County, and
The Braintree Observer,
A Weekly Established in 1878.
TELEPHONE, 78-3 QUINCY.

Quincy Temperature at Noon.

	This Week.	Last Week.	In 1897.	In 1896.
Sunday	50	66	83	60
Monday	48	53	53	56
Tuesday	—	75	51	50
Wednesday	—	71	70	48
Thursday	—	55	62	56
Friday	—	59	49	62
Saturday	—	60	53	49

New Advertisements Today.

Fur cape found.
Henry L. Kincaide & Co.—Couches.
D. E. Wadsworth & Co.—Embroidery classes.
Henry L. Kincaide & Co.—Pianos.
Probate notice.
Experienced girl wanted for housework.

Good Afternoon.

There has been, in some quarters, says Henry Clews, the banker, a good deal of loose talk about the condition of trade, which has encouraged the "bears" and led some "bulls" to keep out of the market. To tell the truth, the talk about dullness of trade is a purely local misconception. It is not to be denied that, in many articles, there is still a dowdward tendency in prices, which, in the wholesale trades, deprives business of its snap and makes buying gradual and continuous instead of occasional and in large parcel. As New York stands between the interior buyer and the Eastern manufacturer it is the focus at which this unsatisfactory movement is most conspicuous, and hence the impression is received that business is dull, whilst in reality its volume will be found, at the end of the season, to have been usually large. This difference in feeling between New York and the interior cities is nothing new; it generally happens in times of disturbance in prices.

A Good Improvement.

Work was commenced this morning widening Hancock street, on the west side, at its junction with Granite street, carrying out the order recently passed by the City Council. The cut starts at nothng at the corner of the building occupied by John W. Nash and makes a graceful curve to the front of the store of E. B. Souther where the cut is three feet back of the present line of the sidewalk. The widest cut at any point is fifteen feet. A large part of the present sidewalk, and at some points all of it, will be thrown into the street and for this purpose the old elm trees on the corner, which have about outlived their usefulness, are being removed.

There are seven trees along the present sidewalk six of which will be removed. When the improvements are completed there will be a brick side walk around the corner ten feet wide which will make a contiuous brick walk from City Hall to Granite street.

City Council Business.

The Committee on streets will report at tonight's meeting of the City Council on the petition of the New England Telephone Co. for a location of poles on Farrington street and the Committee on Finance will probably report upon some of the matters before them. The orders granting the New England Telephone Co. a relocation for one pole on Hancock street, granting permission to McIntosh & Son to run a gong wire and authorizing the Mayor to contract with the Highway Commissioner to take a part of Washington street will come upon this second reading. The order for $1500 for drains on Washington street which is on the table may be taken up.

Oil Heaters that will heat any room in your house, $3.98. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

BORN.

DOUTHER—In Quincy, Oct. 14, a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. William Laing A. Douther, 5 Trafford street.

DIED.

BUSH—In Malden, Oct. 15, Prof. George Gary Bush.
Funeral from Bethany church, Quincy, Tuesday, Oct. 18, at 2 o'clock. Relatives and friends invited. Burial private.
YORK—In Wollaston, Oct. 16, Mr. Joseph York, aged 60 years.
DREW—In Atlantic, Oct. 16, Mrs. Ruth A., wife of Mr. Joshua E. Drew.
PIERCE—In Scituate, Oct. 15, Mr. Silas Pierce, aged 72 years.

RIVERS NOMINATED.

Ex-Councilman Shea Elected on State Committee.

The first Norfolk Democratic Senatorial convention was held Saturday afternoon in the City Council chamber at City Hall.

In the absence of chairman Orcutt, James B. Grant read the call and was elected temporary chairman and W. H. Sampson, Jr., secretary. The committee on credentials: John H. Russell of Hyde Park, William A. Hodges of Quincy and Mr. Lyons of Randolph reported twenty-seven delegates present as follows: Quincy 10; Hyde Park 2; Holbrook 1; Randolph 2; Braintree 2; Weymouth 6; Canton 2; Milton 2.

The temporary organization was then made permanent.

George R. R. Rivers of Milton was then nominated by acclamation as candidate for Senator.

Mr. Rivers in accepting said he realized the responsibility but considered it a great honor to be nominated from this district. No matter what the result the fact of a unanimous nomination was sufficient honor. Now that the Democracy was once more united he saw no reason why the party should not throw a strong vote. He had been a gold Democrat but between Bryan and free silver and McKinley and gold he would now take Bryan.

The next business was the election of a member of the State Committee.

Mr. Grant the present member declined to be a candidate. The meetings for organization of the committee had always resulted in a free fight that was a disgrace to the Democracy. For the past year the committee had done nothing for the the benefit of the party, the majority being simply ambitious to further their own ends.

It was then voted that the convention ballot for a member of the committee which resulted in the unanimous election of William T. Shea of Quincy.

Mr. Shea thanked the convention and assured them that he would at all times try and discharge the duty of the office or the best interest of the party.

It was then voted that the chairman and secretary be empowered to fill all vacancies.

The following were then selected as the Senatorial District Committee: Michael T. Sullivan of Quincy; Peter B. Hand of Randolph; James B. Grant of Hyde Park; John Fennell of Weymouth; Maurice P. Duffy of Milton; Franklin Jackson of Braintree; Frederick W. Whitcomb of Holbrook; Thomas Griffin of Canton.

Brief remarks were then made by John Cavanagh, William A. Hodges and James B. Grant after which the convention adjourned.

Prof. Bush Dead.

Prof. George Gary Bush, Ph. D., whose wife was a Quincy lady, died on Saturday at Malden. The body will be brought to Quincy for interment, the funeral services being held tomorrow in Bethany Congregational church.

The following sketch is from the Herald:

George Gary Bush was born in the town of Turin, northern New York, March 19, 1843. He was prepared for college at Cazenovia Seminary, N. Y., and graduated from the Wesleyan University at Middletown, Ct., in 1866. For the succeeding eight years he was engaged in teaching either as principal or superintendent of schools, and later as professor of Latin and Greek in the seminary at Montpelier, Vt. His work was everywhere very successful, and in Vermont he soon ranked with the best classical teachers in the state.

Resigning his chair in the summer of 1874, he spent the next four years in Europe in the study of languages, history and archæology. Upon his return to America in 1878 two universities invited him to a place in their faculties, but his health had become so seriously impaired that he was obliged to decline. In 1889 he filled for a time a vacancy in the Latin chair at Middlebury College, but with that exception he did not again engage in teaching. Until his health no longer permitted, he devoted much time to the writing of newspaper and magazine articles, and to the preparation of monographs upon the history of education in this country and in Germany. Among the latter that have been published are "The First German Universities," "The First Common Schools of New England," "Harvard: The First American University," "The History of Education in Florida" and "The History of Higher Education in Massachusetts." He also prepared histories of eduaction in New Hampshire and in Vermont, which are to be published, as were those of Florida and Massachusetts, by the United States bureau of education.

In 1878 Prof. Bush received the degree of doctor of philosphy, and was elected a member of the Phi Beta Kappa Society, and in 1885 of the American Historical Association, which is composed of the leading historical scholars of America.

Prof. Bush was twice married, but leaves no children.

Read Saturday's Ledger.

BY HOME LABOR.

Intercession of Mayor Gives Employment to Many.

It is perhaps not generally known that the putting in of underground conduits by the New Enlgand Telephone Co. is a great benefit to Quincy. First, because it will remove many of the wires from the street and, second, and most important, because it is giving employment to a large number of citizens who are in need of work.

The amount to be expended in Quincy at present is over $20,000, of which amount over three-fourths is to be expended in labor. Aside, from the two or three, men from Boston who superintend the work, all the labor is being done by citizens of Quincy. In many cities and towns where this work is being done, the labor is by non-residents, but when the Telephone Co. signified its intention to commence work in Quincy the management was waited upon by Mayor Sears, who requested them to have the work in Quincy performed by citizens of Quincy. The request was readily granted with the result that the crowd that have followed the company from place to place doing this work were unable to obtain a job in Quincy.

This means much to our laboring people for the men are paid the same as city laborers and the money goes into the pockets of our own citizens. The only regret is that the company could not have commenced work earlier in the season, which however, was impossible. They report that it is their intention to keep the men at work just as long as possible, which means until snow flies or ground is frozen too hard to dig.

ONE MORE CHANCE.

Many Names Put on Voting Lists on Saturday.

The Registrars of Voters held another busy session Saturday night and from 7 to 9 o'clock were kept upon the jump. The result of their evening's work was 20 names restored and and 54 new names added. Registration closes on Wednesday of this week, and the board will be in session from 12 M. to 10 P. M. The new voters are:

Ward One—Austin O'Toole, Lars Dahlberg, August Broberg, Arthur Adams, Augustus Ellison, Peter A. Nelson, Olaf Pearson, Patrick Ferguson, Edward Johnson, Frank A. Skinner.

Ward Two—Michael J. Conner, Thomas C. Hewson, William S. Smith, Albert C. Marr, John C. McGuane, John C. Gilligan, John Bergfors.

Ward Three—precinct one—Thomas Douglass, John J. Murray, Thomas J. Carey, E. Sargent Sampson, Frederick A. Reinhartt, Patrick J. Moore, Edward L. Beane, Hugh Owens, James B. Haydes, John Callahan.

Ward Three—precinct two—Esdrauss Decelle, James McIntyre, Jacob Laugren, Gustaf A. Lundberg, Martin D. Nelson, Joseph L. Casey, James W. McLaughlin, Carl A. Johnson.

Ward Four, preinct one—John Malone, Nicholas Reinhalter, Edward Walsh, William Byron, Clarence H. Trask, Dennis F. Crowley, Michael Corry, George Wineskein, John R. Mitchell, Walter L. Forbes, James F. Kelly. George Eckl.

Ward Four, precinct two—Cornelius Mullen, Michael Michaelson, Thomas F. Curry, John E. Shatzl, Jr., Frank Rouleau, James M. Conway, Joseph Roale, John A. Anderson, John Flynn, John Sulivan, Peter Rosenholn, Alfred Wessman, Charles J. Russell.

Ward Five—Walter E. Merrill, Francis E. Bergeron, Herbert J. Gurney, John B. Cornish, Oliver F. Swift, Alfred H. Richards, Ernest M. Tribou, Lincoln F. Crowell, James N. Nowland.

Ward Six—David Moore, John P. Cavanagh, George H. Varney, William M. Dickinson, Thomas Dolan.

Prominent Odd Fellow Dead.

Mr. Joseph York of Wollaston died suddenly on Sunday of heart disease. Mr. York was one of the most prominent and best known Odd Fellows of the State, holding the responsible position of Grand Instructor, which took him several nights per week among the lodges. He was a member of Bethesda lodge of South Boston, Mt. Washington encampment and Bernice Rebekah lodge. He succeeded James M. Price as Grand Instructor in 1890 and for several years previous was Assistant Grand Instructor. At the reinstitution of Mt. Wollaton lodge of Odd Fellows in this city in 1884, he was one of the grand officers and delivered the Past Grand's charge.

Mr. York was also a member of Wollaston lodge, Knights of Honor.

He was 60 years old and leaves a widow and one daughter.

Daughter of the Regiment.

A Camp Meade dispatch of Saturday to the Herald says, the 5th Massachusetts regiment paraded today with its handsome new flag, the gift of Miss Reed of Boston. The banner was presented Thursday afternoon. Col. Whitney received the flag with appropriate remarks and Miss Reed was accorded the title of "Daughter of the Regiment.

Full sized, well made comfort bringing comforters, $1.00. Others 75 cents to $3.50. Blankets from 45 cents per pair up. Henry L Kincaide & Co.

LOCAL NEWS TRACK.

Some Colts which are Sure Winners Every Heat.

Furnace fires were not out of place Sunday with the cool winds.

Save interest and costs by paying your taxes before the first of November.

The concreting of the sidewalks on Hancock street will be put down this week.

Mr. B. F. Nay has closed his summer house on Howard avenue and returned to Roxbury.

Officer James W. Murray left Saturday for a two weeks' vacation trip to the Provinces.

The annual meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. will be held this afternoon.

The wind blew too hard for the Sunday fishermen to have any luck with smelts. But few were out.

The H. T. Owen estate on Granite street was sold by Auctioneer Crane on Saturday to Charlotte M. Johnson for $2,225.

The three masted schooner S. V. Ballard sailed Sunday for Gardiner, Maine, to load with ice for Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. William Fenton, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Ball have taken apartments on Blackwood street, Boston, for the winter.

Allie Williams is now on the U. S. S. "Sterling." He is acting assistant paymaster. When last reported he was at Boliva, Brazil.

The Cooperative bank of Wollaston paid a dividend of 6 1-4 per cent. the past year. Shares of the first series are now worth $156.59.

Joseph N. Smith of Wollaston, inspector of brakes, testified at the inquest held at Stoughton Saturday on the accident at Sharon Aug. 21.

Miss Annie T. Kelley was the purchaser of the George V. Bryant estate on Billings street, sold at auction by F.F. Crane on Saturday: price, $2876.

Capt. Kincaide, company K, 5th regiment, having resigned from the volunteer force and been discharged, has reported for duty with the 5th infantry, M. V. M.

Abby Christina Howes of this city was elected a member of the Society of Mayflower Descendants on Saturday, being ninth in descent from William Brewster.

The Sunday noon temperature was the coolest of the season, and the lowest since May 9. On Oct. 18, 1896, and Oct. 21 1897, the noon temperature was below 50. Today it is 48.

"Reggie" Brown, the famous Harvard full-back, is to come to Quincy today to coach the High School foot ball team, in preparation for tomorrow's game with Thayer Academy.

The ladies are admiring the very pretty embroidery work shown at D. E. Wadsworth & Co.'s and are pleased to learn that classes are to be reopened by the same teacher who was here last year.

Rev. Mr. Rogers of East Milton preached at the Wollaston Baptist church on Sunday morning. His text was taken from Rev. 1:15. In the evening a vesper service was held and instead of the usual sermonette by the pastor, speakers were provided by the Y. M. C. A.

Henry D. Federhen has purchased through the office of Charles H. Johnson, real estate, the lot of land corner of Washington street and Baxter avenue, being a portion of the Baxter land, containing 38,940 square feet. Mr. Federhen will erect a fine residence on the same at once.

The finals for the championship of the Wollaston Golf club were played Saturday, Ralph Cracknell winning by a score of 1 up over E. H. Brock. It necessitated the full 36 holes to decide, For the final hole Cracknell made a fine drive well over the hill, while Brock sliced into the road, and in trying to play out drove his ball under a rock, and being unable to play it gave up the hole and match.

Pasquale Scolamiero, of 6 Arthur street, took the 5.30 train from Boston Sunday night for South Quincy. When the train arrived he jumped off before the train had stopped. The result was that he landed on his head and received a severe shaking up as well as some bruises. He was taken to his his home in one of Bisson's carriages and a physician summoned. This morning it is reported that he was not seriously injured.

The executive committee of the Y. R. A. of M. has voted in regard to the Recruit's record for the season, that the Wintbrop race should not count for a start, but the Wollaston, Quincy and Hull were to be counted as starts. The Arab-Privateer protest was laid on the table which leaves undecided the championship of the class. Medals and pennants were awarded to the Meemer, Hermes, Bud, Duchess, Vitesse and Jilt.

All That's Needed

No soap, no soda, no borax, no ammonia—nothing but water is needed to make things white and bright and beautifully clean with

GOLD DUST Washing Powder.

It cleans everything quickly, cheaply, thoroughly. Sold everywhere. Largest package—greatest economy.

THE N. K. FAIRBANK COMPANY,
Chicago. St. Louis. New York. Boston. Philadelphia.

EMBROIDERY LESSONS.

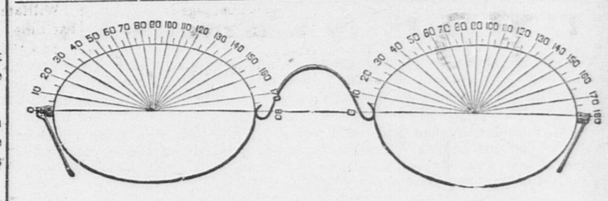

We have engaged the same teacher for our Embroidery Classes this season that was so successful last year. Classes start TUESDAY MORNING.

Also the Finest Line of LINENS of All Designs to be gotten in the Market.

Our Line of Embroidery Silks is Complete in Every Detail.

WE CARRY IN STOCK A NEW LINE OF
OPULESCENT AND RAINBOW EDGE SILKS.
Sofa Cushions in a Large Variety.

D. E. WADSWORTH & CO.,
Hancock Street, Quincy.

ASTIGMATISM

Causes most of the distressing headaches. Properly fitted glasses will correct the error and remove the pain. Consult

WILLIAMS,
Member of the New England Association of Opticians,
104 Hancock St., Quincy.

New Pianos,
$185.00.

Just why people pay fancy profits and fancy prices for pianos, when they can't afford to, is hard to tell. Truth is, they don't know themselves.

Everyone can and should own a piano, a piano to be proud of, a piano with perfect touch and delightful tone, a piano you'll never have to apologize for, a piano that's sold at an honest price within the reach of everyone. A piano honestly built, with a rich, beautifully carved case; a piano that's fully guaranteed. A piano just the same kind exactly that sells for $450.00 with a different name stenciled on the case, but our price to everyone is $185.00.

It's worth considering, and the time to buy is now. Do not delay but have a piano in your home at once. These pianos are not merely a bargain, they are almost a gift. Time payments for those who wish.

HENRY L. KINCAIDE & CO.,
The People's Cut Price House Furnishers,
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

Held for Grand Jury.

A hearing was held in the Quincy court this morning in the assault case of John Hill on Joseph Mackie.

This is an affair that took place on Break Neck Hill early Sunday morning, Oct. 9, in which the defendant Hill is alleged to have stabbed Mackie with a knife. The evidence was that Hill had hid a bottle of whiskey in the woods. Mackie went out after it and on his way back he met Hill who stabbed him in the left shoulder. Later he went to Dr. Dion who dressed the wound.

Dr. Dion testified that the wound was just over the shoulder blade. The wound was seven-eights to an inch in depth and from an inch and a half to two inches in length. It would probably be three weeks before the man would be able to return to work.

No defense was offered. Hill was then held in $800 for the grand jury.

DR. HERBERT S. HAYFORD
195 Hancock Street.
OFFICE HOURS—11 to 12 A. M., 2 to 4 and 7 to 8 P. M.
Telephone, 4-3.
Quincy, July 5. tf

MABEL F. FAIRBANKS
TEACHER OF
CHINA PAINTING and WATERCOLOR.
China Decorated to Order.
34 Grand View Avenue, Wollaston.
Sept. 29. 3m

BILLHEADS PRINTED
AT PATRIOT OFFICE.

POTATOES,
15c. Pk.
Sweet Potatoes,
15c. Pk.
CHICKENS, 15c. lb.
CELERY, 10c. bunch
L. M. PRATT & CO.,
25 School Street.

WILLIAM E. BAXTER, M. D.
Practice Limited to the
EYE AND EAR.
553 Boylston St., Boston.
QUINCY—Monday and Friday.
Hours, 9 to 11. 195 Hancock Street
May 21. ly

ARE YOU WEDDED TO ANY PARTICULAR STORE?

Or Do You Seek the Place

Where the BEST GOODS can be Found at the LOWEST PRICES

We Don't Claim to Know Much About Shoes or Groceries, but

WE HAVE MADE A STUDY OF CLOTHING FOR YEARS.

We were brought up in the business. It is the only business at which we have ever worked. We have a buyer in the market every day and he should surely know what is going on. We never buy a thing because it looks better than it is. We never buy a shoddy garment because it looks to be all wool, but buy goods that not only look well to begin with but stay looking well to end with.

THE OVERCOATS AND SUITS WE ARE SHOWING ARE ALL 1898 GOODS,

and not goods of last season. They are made of good, honest Kerseys, Meltons, Coverts, Cassimeres and Worsteds, and we guarantee every garment to be honest before and honest beyond. (Before you buy it and beyond the time you've had your money's worth.)

OUR OVERCOATS COMMENCE AT $5.00 AND END AT $20.00, AND OUR SUITS AT $4.98 AND END AT $16.50,

And They Are ALL WOOL (Mind You.)

If You Do Not Save 10 to 25 per cent. We will Pay You Your Money Back.

QUINCY CLOTHING CO.,

QUINCY'S RELIABLE CLOTHIERS,

MUSIC HALL BLOCK.

CANCER CURED

BY ABSORPTION

NO KNIFE.

The result of years of scientific research by America's greatest blood specialist. A pleasant treatment that relieves immediately, cures permanently all forms of CANCERS, TUMORS and CHRONIC DISEASES. Hundreds of wonderful cures effected in and around Boston. Read the following:

BLOOD EVIDENCE

Then come to our offices and investigate the hundreds of other marvellous cures produced by ABSORPTION when all other treatment failed. Consult this living patient. "Dr. James M. Solomon: Dear Sir: The following is my testimonial, which I hope will help others. That after suffering several years with something that was never reached, getting only temporary help from different doctors, and each attack being more severe, I was advised by a friend, who had been cured of a tumor, to see her doctor. I was then unable for any work, and feeling worse from day to day; realizing that something was preying upon me of a serious nature, I was discouraged about my condition, and sought Dr. Solomon with little faith—it was more of an experiment. He got my confidence on the first interview, when, without a word of description of my feelings from me, he at once located my trouble, and I could not help believing that he knew from what I was suffering, although was greatly surprised and somewhat terrified when he told me it was cancer of the stomach. I began treatment at once, Nov. 3, 1892, and was faithful to his directions, with just the results promised I would get, till the following June (1893) I felt like a new being, and the doctor pronounced me recovered. I am sure that I have, and I can never repay the gratitude I owe to Dr. J. M. Solomon. Sincerely, EBEN FISH, 232 Harvard St., Dorchester, Mass." Today he is one of the many living witnesses of the only painless method that positively CURES when all others fail.

We want you to call and examine references of people you know—people we all know, who would not vouch for ABSORPTION had they not been cured. Ask for references marked H.

James M. Solomon, M.D.

SPECIALIST IN CANCERS, TUMORS AND CHRONIC DISEASES.

2 A Beacon Street, BOSTON.

Oct. 13. 1y lo

A. J. DURAND,

Piano Tuning, etc.

19 Coddington St., Quincy.

Highly recommended by Chickering & Sons, and prominent Boston musicians.

Sept. 20. 1m

Come, Mary,

Let's go over to the Quincy Second-Hand Variety Store and see if we can't find just what we want. You say you need some more kitchen goods and a few chairs, a carpet for the chamber, some glassware and various other things, and when I was there last week I saw my cousin get a lot of goods for almost nothing. He told me that sometimes he could find new goods at less than half price. These are hard times, Mary, and we must buy where the dollar goes farthest.

WALTER P. PINEL

is the Manager, and the store is right over here at number 20 Franklin street.

aug25 1y

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

NORFOLK, ss. PROBATE COURT.

TO the heirs-at-law, next-of-kin, creditors and all other persons interested in the estate of

ELIZABETH A. DAVIS,

late of Quincy in said county, deceased, intestate.

Whereas, a petition has been presented to said Court to grant a letter of administration on the estate of said deceased to John Hall of said Quincy, or to some other suitable person.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Quincy in said County of Norfolk, on the ninth day of November, A. D. 1898, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week for three successive weeks, in the Quincy Daily Ledger, a newspaper published in Quincy the last publication to be one day at least before said Court.

Witness, George White, Esquire, Judge of said Court, this fourteenth day of October in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight.

JONATHAN COBB, Register.

Oct. 17. 3t 17 24 31

LAND VALUES.

Continued from page 1.

WARD FIVE.

McAloon, Helen E.
5,250 feet, Philips street, $350.		$6 30
McCann, Michael, est.,
3,780, Standish ave., $300.		30 60
McCarthy, Daniel
3,600. Willow, $150.		11 70
McClintock, Delia A.
16,542, Beale, $900,		88 20
6,606 " $400.
McCormick, Francis
1-4 acre, Greenleaf place, $500.		56 00
McDonnell, Patrick, est.,
6,000, Old Colony ave., $400		57 60
6,535, " " " $400.
McDonald, Alexander
4,000, Franklin ave., $300.		39 80
McDonald, Hugh A.
4,000, Sachem, $300.		39 80
McFarlane, James and Charles A.
5,000, Brook, $750.		51 75
5,000, " $750.
McFarlane, Mrs. Mary
5,000, Arlington, $550.		54 00
McIntyre, Lora E.
4,192, Hampden Circle, $450.		33 30
McKay, Mrs. Susanna
5,005, Central ave., $400.		39 60
McKie, Mrs. John A.
5,000, Brooks, $400.		68 40
5,000, " $500.
5,000, " $500.
5,000, " $400.
McNamara, Francis B.
7,200, Beach, $400.		45 20
McPherson, Andrew
5,005, Central ave., $400.		46 80

WARD SIX.

McCarty, Daniel
1-4 acre, off Atlantic street, $150.		$18 90
McCarthy, Mary
3-4 acre, Atlantic, $500.		19 80
McClure, Charles F.
15,629, Appleton, $1,500.		33 05
McGrath, Mrs. Addie F.
4,497, Botolph, $450.		41 40
5,026, " $500.
McGovern, Edward J.
13,478, Newbury, $800.		14 40
McIntyre, Robert
3,750, Hollis ave., $250.		42 50
McKay, Marshall
3,750, Newbury ave., $300.		5 40
McKeon, Edward J.
5,208, Glover ave., $450.		42 50
McNiece, Daniel
4,786, Holmes, $400.		7 20
McNamara, Francis B.
3,600, Montclair ave., $175.		3 15
McNally, Thomas
4,950, Holmes, $400.		34 40
McPartland, Peter
9,881, Walnut, $450.		43 40
5,310, " $250.

To be continued.

Y. M. C. A. Sunday.

The eighth anniversary of the Quincy Young Men's Christian Association was observed Sunday by a series of services in many of the churches, the aim being to place before the people the work and object of the Association, and as such it was successful, for the several services were largely attended. At many of the churches out-of-town speakers delivered the address and in addition the annual report of President Albee was read. This report dealt with the different departments of Association work in general and Quincy in particular, and also indirectly made an appeal for financial support.

As a result collections were taken in some of the churches. One very gratifying statement can be made in relation to the Quincy Association, and that is that at the close of the year it finds itself in the best financial condition that it has ever been.

The speakers at the different services were with one or two exceptions, the same as published in the Ledger.

TODAY'S COURT.

Sophia Carlson and Ambrose Redmond were fined $5 each for drunkenness, and James Sullivan $10 for drunkenness at Quincy.

The continued case of Enoch Baker for drunkenness was called and he was fined $5.

The continued case of John Hill, Jr. for assault with intent to kill on Joseph Mackie at Quincy, was heard. Hill was held for the grand jury.

WEYMOUTH.

William White, the well known baritone, is home for a few days.

The Weymouth High and the Hingham High met for the second time on the gridiron Friday, Oct. 14. Although the Hingham team is much heavier than the local team, they were unable to score a point. The Weymouth boys played great foot ball, going into the scrimmage with a vigor that won the applause from all present. A large crowd witnessed the game, and saw the Weymouth's wipe out the remembrance of the defeat 29 to 5, they suffered at the hands of the Hingham the first of the season. The pupils of the Weymouth High were out in full force and the school colors, crimson and old gold, were very much in evidence.

About 75 friends of Miss Lillian Smith, tendered her a surprise party at Lincoln hall, Friday evening, Oct. 14.

A large number of people from this town attended the dog show of the New England Kennel club at Braintree, Friday and Saturday.

Robert Croker of this place, who distinguished himself by his end playing for Boston college last season, and who has been coaching the Weymouth High, this season, entered Dartmouth, last week, and is reported as having made the eleven.

The tables for the physical laboratory of the High school arrived Friday and have been placed in position. As a side remark it might be well to state that the Weymouth High has one of the best equipped physical and chemical laboratories in the State.

A second eleven has been formed at the High school with Hall '01 as captain, and Cook '01 as manager.

The new hose wagon at station 3 is calling forth the admiration of all who have seen it. It is the work of Weymouth citizens throughout, having been built by Thomas South, Jr., and painted by Walsh Brothers.

The foot ball team of the Weymouth High will line up against that of the Quincy High, Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Waterman Burrell is visiting friends at Worcester.

Miss Alice AnToine of Cohasset has been staying a few days with Mrs. Simon Gallant of Lovell's Corner.

Miss Taffs of Avon is the guest of Mrs. Austin Shaw.

A concert will be held in the Porter M. E. Church Friday evening, Oct. 21.

Mrs. Lester Bates has gone to Belchertown on a visit.

The High-Adams Game.

MR. EDITOR: As a member of the Adams Academy foot ball team I hereby ask you for a small space in your paper in which to denounce the report sent in by the High School's scorer.

In the first place, the High school team did not easily defeat Adams, as the score will show. Then Magnuson's 50 yard run was made after he had deliberately taken the ball from the Adams player and had committed a very bad foul play. Still again Magnuson was not successful in his punts, making four failures out of the five attempts.

Again the report is wrong in saying that Adams never came near scoring, for in the second half they were working the ball up the field fast, by continuously breaking through High School's line, when time was called, leaving the ball on High Schools 25 yard line. Then Adams did not play an uphill game, playing a far cleaner game then their opponents, although the Adams team was lighter to a man; but in spite of this Adams broke through Quincy High's line easily.

A MEMBER OF ADAMS.

☞ Nickle Alarm Clocks that go off like a gattling gun, 89 cents. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

POLITICAL FIELD.

The Tenth district Democratic Congressional convention will be held at Upham's corner on Tuesday evening.

The Quincy Democratic Representative convention will be held this evening.

The Republican Committee for the Tenth Congress District met at the headquarters of the Republican Committee Friday afternoon and organized. Representative Thomas C. Batchelder of Ward 24 was chosen Chairman and Joseph Lundy of Ward 17 vice chairman. Stephen M. Marshall of Ward 14 was elected secretary and James F. Bliss of Ward 12, treasurer.

Will it be Cain and Jordan for Democratic candidates for the Legislature?

George F. Wilder of Holbrook has been nominated by the Republicans of the Seventh Norfolk district for the Leigslature.

Quincy is to be honored by a visit from Governor Wolcott on Friday evening of next week, when he will speak on the political issues of the day, and in the interests of the reelection of Congressman Barrows of this district.

The Republican club of Massachusetts will have its annual dinner with speeches on Wednesday evening, Oct. 26, at Music hall, Boston.

Democratic ratification meeting tonight in Music hall, Boston.

Bordman Hall seems to be the leading candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress in this district, but he has so many rivals that the result is doubtful.

New Books.

W. B. Rands, the English author and the writer of the Lilliput Lectures, contributes a book of value to children in "Lazy Lessons and Essays on Conduct." The work illustrates the relations of lessons to life, presenting facts and ideas in an entertaining style. Mr. Rands evidently loves the young and works with the single-minded purpose of making them happier and better. His style is essentially conversational, easy direct and bright. Lazy Lessons are to some extent on the lines of kindergarten. The Essays on Conduct set forth the whole duty of a child in thoughtful but very easy language, teaching reverence to God and man, unselfish love, truthfulness, fair play, etc. The work is designed to stimulate inquiry beyond the information actually given and to inspire a longing for further knowledge. Published by M. F. Mansfield, 22 East 16th street, New York.

"Through Armenia on Horseback" is a new and entertaining volume by George H. Hepworth, describing the journey of the author among the Turks, the Kurds and the Armenians of Eastern Anatobia. So many books have been written either in eulogy or as a libel on the Turks, that this impartial statement of facts by one who has looked upon both sides of the Armenian question has considerable merit. A large map of Turkey in Asia appears as a frontispiece, and outlines the route of Mr. Hepworth, and there are over twenty-five illustrations. In a summary the closing chapter, the author says in part: "When I say that the Armenian massacres were caused by Armenian revolutionists, I tell the truth, and a very important truth, but it is not the whole truth. It would be more correct to say that the presence of the revolutionists gave occasion and excuse for the massacres." E. P. Dutton & Co., publishers, New York.

☞ A Glenwood Range will make your wife happy, will save your fuel, and cook your food as no other range can. $18.00 to $33.00. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

THE PARKWAY.

Our People Must Take It Up Earnestly.

Quincy Must Share in Growth of Greater Boston.

Hancock Street Should be Widened and Have Reservation.

Editors of the Daily Ledger:

If Quincy is to keep pace with other towns and cities of Greater Boston, she ought to move at once to secure one or more wide public ways which should have in the centre ample space for electric railway, and on either side macadamized roadway for pleasure riding, as well as good sidewalks for pedestrians. Effort should be immediately made to secure from the Metropolitan Park Commission the laying out and building of the shore parkway on the promise of which the representatives to the legislature, from Quincy and adjoining towns are said to have been induced to vote last winter for the larger appropriation to be expended by that board.

The writer believes that if the City of Quincy would secure for a reasonable sum, the water front through Norfolk Downs and Wollaston Park, the Metropolitan Park Commission would immediately locate and build the parkway, with funds already in their hands.

Some few years ago, this water front was offered free provided the parkway was built within a reasonable time. The writer is informed that the price set upon the land now is deemed by the commission, prohibitory. If Quincy wants this great improvement she must act at once.

Hancock street from the Neponset bridge to Quincy Square should be straightened and widened, so that a space in centre might be reserved for electric railway, surface or elevated, or both.

On one side should be a macadamized way reserved for light carriages, on the other a paved way for heavier teams. This fine wide avenue would make a gateway to Quincy to compare in some degree with the ways from Boston to other cities in the district.

Some three years ago when the Quincy Board of Trade was considering this improvement it was estimated by the Commissioner of Public Works that the cost would be about eighty thousand dollars. Others estimated it as high as a hundred thousand. Supposing it cost more than the latter amount. The money can be borrowed on long time at from 3 to 3 1-2 per cent. The right to use the portion set apart for electric surface and elevated ought to earn an annual rental sufficient to pay the annual interest charged and provide a sinking fund to pay the bonds at maturity.

Quincy has doubled in population, while the facilities other than street railways, for getting to Boston have stood still or gone backward. In this day of wonderful improvement, we ought to provide some way of going to Boston as often as every quarter of an hour and in, not exceeding fifteen or twenty minutes' time. If we do not get these facilities then we shall fall behind other section of the Metropolitan district.

A parkway should connect Merrymount Park with the State Reservation at West Quincy. We have a right to expect that this work will be done sooner or later by the State, but it never will be begun until our people take up the matter earnestly. In all this the writer does not express his own personal desires. He would much prefer to put back the march of progress in Quincy at least twenty years, so far as population or street transportation is concerned. That is old fogyism and the writer confesses it, but he recognizes that the world moves; particularly that portion clustered around Massachusetts bay.

Nothing can prevent the doubling of this Metropolitan district in the next twenty years, both in population and commercial importance. Quincy must share in it. If we don't like it, and can't stand it, then we must get out. The great majority do like it, and will remain. If the people demand an ugly elevated structure through our streets, somebody will find the men and money to build it. If we begin now we may guide and direct these movements so that they will mar as little as possible, and be conducted, on the whole for the general welfare.

William B. Rice.

Quincy Post Office.

Letters unclaimed for week ending Oct. 17:

W. W. Bates, Ezra E. Clark, William H. Dinsmore, Herbert F. Kneeland, Charles Olson, Edward Roach, L. E. White.

Bessie Adams, Margaret Finlan, Mrs. E. W. Hutchinson, Annie S. Kinner, Mrs. Cristie McLeod, Mrs. A. McFadden, Mrs. Isaac Sloane, Mrs. M. E. Stover.

☞ Parlor Stoves that are economical in fuel and powerful heaters. $2.98 to $25.00. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

NO FAITH CURE.

ABOUT STUART'S DYSPEPSIA TABLETS.

They Cure Stomach Trouble and Indigestion Anyway, Whether you Have Faith in Them or Not.

Mere faith will not digest your food for you, will not give an appetite, will not increase your flesh and strengthen your nerves and heart, but Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will do these things, because they are composed of the elements of digestion, they contain the juices, acids and peptones necessary to the digestion and assimilation of all wholesome food.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest food if placed in a jar or bottle in water heated to 98 degrees, and they will do it much more effectively when taken into the stomach after meals, whether you have faith that they will or not.

They invigorate the stomach, make pure blood and strong nerves, in the only way that nature can do it, and that is, plenty of wholesome food well digested. It is not what we eat, but what we digest that does us good.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold by nearly all druggists at 50 cents for full sized package, or by mail from the Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

3t.-17-19-21

East Braintree Boom.

The boom at East Braintree is now on in earnest. The new buildings at the Fore River Engine works are being rushed to completion and the forethought, hard work and enterprise of this firm has been repaid by the receipt of two contracts for torpedo boat destroyers, as has already been announced.

These boats, numbers 8 and 9 are the Lawrence and the Macdonough, are each 245 feet long, 22 feet beam, draft 6 feet they are to be fitted with engines that will develop 8,400 horse power. Four boilers that will carry 250 pounds of steam and develop a speed of thirty knots per hour. The engines will have a st roke of 20 inches and make 360 revolutions a minute.

They will have a bunker capacity of 125 tons and be mounted with four 12-pound guns, three 6 pound guns, and two 18 inch torpedo tubes. These boats are to cost Uncle Sam $281,000 each; and to build them this company will employ about 300 extra hands.

When the bid was made, a certified check for $31,000 was deposited at Washington where it will remain till the boats are completed to the satisfaction of the government.

Next in point of interest at the present time are the works of the new Victor Metal Company that has been in town but a few months, but has already increased its business beyond its acommodations and a new building one hundred feet long is soon to be erected.

This company has a metal entirely noncorosive the color of either gold or silver; stronger than steel, and will maintain a high polish. Twelve different metals are made here and among them are the monganese bronze, and an anti-friction metal.

Mr. Victor C. Lassen, the inventor, is president of the company and the stock of $500,000 is all sold.

The navy department is much interested in the new metal and the maxim gun people are also using it. The company has also received an order to supply all the metal fixtures for the new Masonic building in Boston.

Mr. Joel F. Sheppard with his customary push and enterprise is adding new facilities to his coal business. New buildings are going up in other parts of the village. The new church is nearly completed and a general air of prosperity pervades the whole village. Few places of its size have seen such a boom for many year.

As Good as Victory.

The Atlantic A. A. foot ball team made a very satisfactory showing on Saturday in their game at Dorchester with the Dorchesters. Neither side was able to score but the Atlantics had a little the best of it, carrying the ball twice to within a few yards of the opponents goal.

The line up:

DORCHESTER HIGH.	ATLANTIC A. A.
Small (Sparrow), l. e.	r. e., Briggs
Simmons (Harding), l. t.	r. t., Wales
Marr (Small), l. g.	r. g., Stenzil
Schultz, c.	c., Kellar
Stone, r. g.	l. g., E. Burch
McDonald, r. t.	l. t., Curtin (Pierce)
Austin, r. e.	l. e., Jordan
Wheelock, q. b.	q. b., Nelson
Stone, l. h. b.	r. h. b., Rinn
Leitch, r. h. b.	l. h. b., Moxon
Fisher, f. b.	f. b., Kolb

Umpire—Hendrie. Referee—Bates. Linesmen—McLaughlin and Olmstead. Time—15 m. halves.

For Sale or To Let, FURNISHED,

NASH'S HOTEL.

Full of Boarders and a good transient trade. Cheap rent. My catering business is all I can attend to.

Apply at HOTEL, 148 Hancock street, Quincy, Mass. oct11 tf lo

Savings Bank Building, Quincy.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS.

Advertisements in this column inserted at the following rates:

Four lines, or less, one day, - - 25 cents.
" " three days, - - - 50 cents.
" " one week, - - - - 75 cents.

Additional lines will be charged for pro rata. Seven words equal a line. Long term rates furnished on application.

LOST.

LOST—A Silver open-face Waltham Watch, with leather chain, probably on Hancock street. Notify J. H. ARCHIBALD, 41 Quarry street extension.
Quincy, Oct. 15. 3t

FOUND.

FOUND—At the auction of Ernest G. Bacon, Atlantic, one Fur Cape. The owner can obtain the same by calling at my office, 4 Chestnut street, Quincy, and proving property. FRANK F. CRANE, Auctioneer.
Oct. 17. 6t

FOUND—An amount of Money. Apply at 11 Parker street.
Quincy, Oct. 15. 3t

WANTED.

WANTED—Experienced girl to do general housework; must be a good cook. Apply to MRS. JOHN W. HALL, 212 Hancock street.
Quincy, Oct. 17, 6t

WANTED—Capable Girl for general housework in a family of three; one who understands English. Call or address Mrs. E. E. Jameson, cor. Brook and Farrington streets, Wollaston.
Oct. 15—6t p15—1w

WANTED—50 Experienced Stitchers on Shirts. Steady work. Also girls to sew on buttons. Apply, CONGRESS MFG. CO., 141 Washington street, Quincy.
Oct. 12-6t 15-po 1w

FOR SALE.

LOAM FOR SALE. Inquire at No. 71 Granite street.
Quincy, Oct. 14. 2t

FOR SALE—Well known and fast Cape Cat Boat, Hustler, winner Quincy Yacht Club Handicap Championsh p, '98. New sails and rigging, tight cock fit, very easy to handle, o. a. 23 ft. 10 in., b. 11 ft., draft 28 in., large cabin; head room 52 in. Also 1 13-ft. Cat Boat, 7 ft. b., 12 in. draft; very able; a bargain; seat 7. C. C. C., 63 Lawrence street, Waltham, Mass. oct12-6t

TO LET.

TO LET—On Washington street, at the corner of Wibird street, a very desirable house for a small family. Six rooms, two of them new, and all in good repair. Rent, $15. City water. Concrete sidewalk in front of the house extending to the depot. Apply only to FRANK F. PRESCOTT, at the Ledger office or at 14 Bigelow street. tf

TO LET—Cottage house, No. 29 Granite street, 8 rooms, three minutes' from City Square. Apply to H. M. FAXON, 4 Adams Building. Sept. 30—tf

FOR RENT—Desirable house with bath, corner lot, nice neighborhood, three minutes' walk from schools, churches and depot Rent reasonable. Apply at No. 6 Pleasant St.
Quincy, Sept. 7. tf

TO LET.

House of 8 rooms, etc., No. 20 Canal street, Quincy. Nice house, excellent location.

R. D. CHASE,
Savings Bank Building.
Quincy, Oct. 8. pl tf

TO LET.

APARTMENTS of five large rooms and bath, with all modern improvements. Also two large stores. Rent moderate. Apply to ARTHUR CRAIG, or J. W. HAYDEN, at Craig Building, cor. Copeland and Garfield Sts.
Quincy, July 15. pl tf

TO LET IN QUINCY.

SOUTHERLY Half of house with stable 214 Hancock street, now occupied by Dr. N. S. Hunting. Modern improvements, central location. Possession given about October 15th. Apply on premises to

MISS M. F. UNDERWOOD.
Oct. 1. tf

HOUSES, STORES, LAND, ROOMS, OFFICES, AND WHARVES, To Let In Quincy, Mass.

The Houses are in Complete Repair.

Half-house, 10 rooms, 6 Chester street, Wollaston.
House, 10 rooms with stable, 16 Cottage street.
Half-house, 5 rooms, 16 Cottage street.
House, 8 rooms, 29 Granite street.
Half house, 4 rooms, 4 Water street, $7 per month.
Tenement, 5 rooms, 59 North street.
Half-house, 6 rooms, Pond street, $10 per month.
Half-house, 5 rooms, 13 Field street, $8 per month.
Tenement, 3 rooms, 28 Howard street, $3 per month.
Tenements, 51 Howard street, $4, $5 and $6 per month.
Room, 12 Washington street, $5 per month.
Large building, suitable for manufacturing purposes on Brackett's wharf.
Small stable, 2 Quincy street, $3 per month.
Small stable, 28 Coddington street, $5 per month.
100 windows, and blinds, various sizes.
Wharf, stone sheds, etc., Quincy Neck.
Basement, head of Granite street.
100 tons ballast for sale.
Land to rent for tillage or pasturing purposes.
Gravel and sand for sale.
50 loads of loam for sale.
The buildings are in the very best condition.
For particulars, enquire of, or address

HENRY H. FAXON,
Quincy, Mass.
Quincy, Oct. 13, 1898. 1m

FOR SALE.

Bigelow St. Fine New Residence, 9 rooms, bath, laundry, furnace, open plumbing, cemented cellar, fireplace, etc.

R. D. CHASE,
Savings Bank Building.
Quincy, April 8-tf. 9p-tf

John Bull.—Let's form an alliance.
Uncle Sam.—All right, John—have a chew of my Battle Ax.

The most solid and enduring alliance is one that is founded on the qualities of sincerity and worth, together with mutual respect.

BattleAx PLUG

HIGH QUALITY LOW PRICE

is allied, in the minds of millions of men who chew it, with these qualities and it is respected by all. Will you join this alliance? 10 cents at nearest store will do it.

Remember the name when you buy again.

MAKE IT HOT FOR YOU.

If your house is cold and you have become disgusted with the various devices called heaters, and you are really anxious to have warmth and comfort in your home, place an order for one of those G. B. Bates CIRCULATORS.

It will "make it hot for you" or just the temperature you desire. Its construction is based upon scientific and economical principles. Several have recently been put in right here in Quincy, and others will be put in during the next few weeks. Don't read this ad. and then forget about it till your water pipes are all frozen, but go now to

G. B. BATES,

Hancock Street, Quincy.

WATCHES.

GENT'S WATCHES, $1.50 and Up.

LADIES' WATCHES, $2.50 and Up.

EVERY WATCH WARRANTED.

$2.00 Belts, $1.00 Each.
75c. Brooch Pins, 25c. Each.
25 and 35c. Stick Pins, 5 and 10c. Ea.

Quincy SOUVENIR TILES Half Price,

And Other Bargains.

A. A. LINSCOTT, Jeweler,

154 Hancock St., opp. Post Office, Quincy.

Agent for Graphophones.

aug 6. tf

Great Guns

do great execution if well aimed. Advertising accomplishes great results in business conquest if well directed.

NOBODY WILL SUFFER.

Officers and Men of the Army May Speak Freely.

Browbeating Not Attempted by the Department.

Explicit Declaration on This Point by the Secretary of War.

Washington, Oct. 17.—Secretary Alger was asked Sunday if it was the purpose of the war department to take official action concerning the statements made by Major Seaman, surgeon of the First volunteer engineers. "Not at all," replied the secretary, "not at all."

"I want it to be understood distinctly that any officer or man in the army may speak freely and unreservedly concerning his observations of the war without the slightest fear of possible consequences. While I am secretary of war no man shall be the sufferer for speaking what he believes to be the truth. Above all, the witnesses who appear before the war investigation commission shall be protected to the fullest extent. The commission and the country want the facts, and no obstacle shall be placed in the way of getting them. We are all interested in having the clearest light thrown upon the conduct of the war, and the standing or promotion of no enlisted man or commissioned officer shall be affected in the slightest way by any testimony or other assistance he may give the commission. We mean to keep absolute faith with the witnesses. I cannot be more explicit than that."

DR. LOUIS L. SEAMAN.

HOBSON AND HIS WORK.

Feels Sanguine That He Will Have the Colon Afloat.

Santiago, Oct. 17.—Naval Constructor Hobson, who arrived here from the wreck of the Cristobal Colon, has gone to Guantanamo on business connected with the Infanta Maria Teresa, which he expects to get off to the United States before the end of the month. Mr. Hobson has built a trolley line out to the Colon, a distance of 150 feet, with a suspension bridge; and the compressed air pumps are in position. On his return from Guantanamo he will push his operations vigorously, as he still feels absolutely certain of raising the hull uninjured.

In Guantanamo bay there are several schooners loaded with coal for the fleet. Demurrage expenses being very heavy, the senior officer, Captain Chester, ordered sheds to be built on shore so that the vessels might unload, thus making a temporary coaling depot. This act has raised a hubbub among the Cubans, and is one reason given by the Cuban general, Perez, for not disbanding his troops. He claimed that the Americans have no right to establish a coaling station without the permission of the Cuban government. It is generally believed in Santiago among the Cubans that his promise to disband was only a scheme to obtain rations for himself and his troops by pretending to go to work, whereas now he makes several excuses for not disbanding.

Lieutenant Colonel A. A. Wiley, lieutenant governor of Santiago, has returned from a trip to Guantanamo. In his report to General Wood regarding the condition of the civil government, there, he says the rotten and cumbersome machinery of the clerical staffs is large enough to keep going a city of 10 times the size and population of Guantanamo. In the mayor's office he found 10 clerks, a messenger and a janitor at salaries ranging from $150 a month down to $40. All wanted pay from July 26, claiming that they had been ordered by the American authorities to stay on duty. The police department consists of a chief, a lieutenant, a sergeant, a corporal and 14 men at salaries of from $175 a month down to $45. Lieutenant Colonel Wiley recommends that the mayor's staff be reduced to one clerk and an office boy and the police department to one marshal and three assistants.

Sunday morning the city was alive with flags, music and processions. The church bells at dawn began to celebrate the 13th anniversary of the declaration of Cuban independence, which was postponed from Oct. 10 on account of the rain. The principal procession went to the cemetery, where were unveiled the monuments presented by Cuban refugees, who lived in Jamaica, in honor of Marti and Cespedes. The widow of Cespedes was the guest of honor. The procession marched through the principal streets, which were decorated with flags and flowers. The ceremonies at the cemetery were very impressive. The procession then went from the cemetery to the slaughter house famed as the scene of the massacre of the crew of the Virginius and of Cubans without number.

Traveling In Style and Comfort.

Washington, Oct. 17.—The war investigating commission left Sunday for the south. The party comprised 24 persons, who expect practically to live on the train during the absence from Washington. It has been fitted out with the view of rendering the party comfortable, and at the same time making it possible for the members to pursue their labors very much as if they were in their quarters in Washington. It consists of a combination baggage and parlor smoker, dining car, a sleeper composed exclusively of drawing rooms for the members of the commission, a 12-section double drawing room sleeper and the private car of General Dodge, chairman of the commission. Jacksonville was reached at noon.

Suggestion of Arbitration.

Madrid, Oct. 17.—The conservative organ renews the suggestion of a semi-official paper regarding arbitration between the United States and Spain. It says: "The negotiations at present are going on without touching the question of the Philippines, which is most obscure and which lends itself to the gravest dissensions. Owing to the vagueness and lack of clearness of the protocol, the commissioners are meeting with serious difficulties. It has been said that if our adversaries are obstinate in their exaggerated demands. Mr. Sagasta should address the European governments, asking arbitration at least upon the points as to which an agreement should not be reached; but in view of the electoral struggle now in full vigor in the United States and of the declamations of the jingo press, which affirms without limits the rights of the conqueror, it is safe to assume that a request for arbitration would be without avail and serve no other purpose than loss of time."

Peace Jubilee In Chicago.

Chicago, Oct. 17.—The national peace jubilee of Chicago was inaugurated last night with a union thanksgiving service at the auditorium. President McKinley attended, and listened to addresses by a Jewish rabbi, a Roman Catholic priest, a Presbyterian clergyman and a noted colored orator. The applause for the president was terrific, and at one time he was compelled to rise in his box and respond to the frantic cheering of the audience. The services, however, were of a religious character.

Booker T. Washington was the last speaker. He said in part: "This country has been most fortunate in her victories. She has twice measured arms with England and has won. She has met the spirit of rebellion within her own borders and was victorious. She has met the proud Spaniard and he lies prostrate at her feet. All this is well, it is magnificent. But there remains one other victory for Americans to win—a victory as far-reaching and important as any that has occurred. We have succeeded in every conflict except in the effort to conquer ourselves in the blotting out of racial prejudices. We can celebrate the era of peace in no more effectual way than by a firm resolve on the part of the northern and southern men, black men and white men, that the trenches which we together dug around Santiago shall be the eternal burial place of all that which separates us in our business and civil relations. Let us be as generous in peace as we have been brave in battle. Until we thus conquer ourselves I make no empty statement when I say that we shall have, especially in the southern part of our country, a cancer gnawing at the heart of this republic that shall one day prove as dangerous as an attack from an army from without or within."

"The Lad From Lowell."

New York, Oct. 17.—Martin Flaherty, the Lowell featherweight, is out with a challenge to meet any man in the world from 126 to 130 pounds, Tommy White of Chicago preferred. Flaherty's manager says that his man disputes White's right to the 126-pound championship, on the strength of his defeat of Danny McBride at Coney island two weeks ago. He says that Flaherty has beaten McBride twice at that weight, and also won from Larry Burns of Cohoes. With these victories, as well as a decision over Frank Erne and "draws" with Spike Sullivan and Jack Downey to his credit Harvey claims that White must meet the lad from Lowell before the championship at 126 pounds can be positively decided.

Victim of Alcoholism.

Worcester, Oct. 17.—George W. Andrews, 37 years old, formerly of New York city, was found in the woods in a terrible condition. He was so weak he was unable to move, and his entire body was covered with vermin, which had eaten his flesh in various places. He was removed to the city hospital, where he died from alcoholism and exhaustion.

Andrews was a member of Munn lodge, F. and A. M., of New York. He had recently been employed by the New England Railroad company as delivery clerk. He had been drinking heavily and left his boarding place last Monday morning. Since that time nothing had been seen of him until his body was found.

Annie Sellers' Pile of Jewelry.

Lawrence, Oct. 17.—Upon receipt of a message from Pittsfield that Patrick Klierin and Annie Sellers of this city had been arrested for larceny, the police searched the home of the latter's mother and secured a large quantity of jewelry, which is believed to have been stolen. The articles included brooches, pins and rings set with diamonds and other precious stones, and ranging in value from $12 to $125. The police appraise the value of all the jewelry recovered at nearly $600. Several pieces tally with descriptions of stolen goods furnished by the North Adams and Pittsfield authorities.

Five Were Killed.

Winnipeg, Oct. 17.—A Galician and his four children were found dead in their house near Dominion City Sunday by a neighbor. The wife is missing and is suspected to be guilty of the crime. The weapon used was an axe. The man's head was nearly severed from his body, and the children's bodies were more or less mutilated. It is understood the man and woman had frequently quarreled.

A War Movement.

Paris, Oct. 17.—A despatch from Toulon declares that Vive-Admiral Fournier, who is now at Tunis with the minister of marine, will return immediately to Toulon, where orders have been received to speedily prepare four armored cruisers for active service, and also to send to Brest without delay the largest possible number of gunners to man the forts and batteries.

BOSTON'S TRIUMVIRS.

Their National League Season Successful In All Respects.

Boston, Oct. 17.—Saturday the Bostons closed the season by downing the Baltimores, and the Washingtons lost to the New Yorks in a game of 11 innings. The Brooklyns finished with a victory over the Philadelphia team, and Louisvilles beat the Clevelands. In three cities attempts were made to play second games, but darkness stopped the contests before the required number of innings could be played. Cold weather interfered with the games in Pittsburg.

Not only has the season been a great success in Boston from a playing standpoint, but financially the game has been exceedingly profitable. The club has made more money than any other team, and the three owners will receive good sized dividends. The Baltimore club, on the other hand, has had a disastrous season, and, though the club has finished second, the season has been a financial failure, resulting in a loss of fully $15,000. But for the Sunday ball some of the clubs would have fared far worse than has been the case. Chicago and Cincinnati had record-breaking crowds, and Louisville played to far better business than the previous year. New York and Pittsburg joined the Sabbath-playing clubs, the former only playing Sunday games at home at the close of the season. This left the Boston and Philadelphia clubs as the only ones that did not play Sunday ball.

The double umpire system proved a success, and will undoubtedly be retained another season. The choice of incumbents was not happy in all cases, and the men were not mated as well as could have been desired. One great fault of the system was that the umpires did not work intelligently together.

The champion Bostons beat the orioles in an exhibition game at Weehawken, N. J., Sunday. The game was well contested, and 2000 persons were present despite the cold weather. The score was 4 to 3.

The Atlantic league managers have applied for protection for Worcester.

Hallman says he won't stand the transfer to Milwaukee.

Detroit had four managers and 39 players in the past season.

It looks as if Catcher Zimmer would be divorced from the Clevelands.

The slate makers have "Connie" Mack down to manage the Brooklyns in '99.

The contract of Tom News with the New York club has been promulgated.

The Bostons will pass the week in making a dollar on the road. They have designs on Bridgeport, Torrington, Northampton, Spencer, Webster and Grafton.

"No better play could be made for New York than to take Joyce out and put Anson in charge of the club," says a veteran. "Anson is a card and a character with a great following—just the man for a city like New York, but he must be his own master to be successful."

At a benefit tendered to the Louisville league players yesterday, Hans Wagner, the colonels' first baseman, beat the long distance throwing record, made by John Hatfield in 1872, by one yard and one-half inch. Wagner threw the ball 134 yards, one foot and eight inches. Twenty-six years ago Hatfield, then a member of the Mutuals, made a world's record of 133 yards, one foot, 7½ inches at Brooklyn.

An Exodus of Ruffians.

London, Oct. 17.—With an important act enabling prisoners to testify in their own defence, which has hitherto not been permitted in England, there also came into operation a law fromed with a view to ridding London of a vile phase of life which has increased rapidly in recent years. A magistrate may now sentence to hard labor as a rogue and vagabond a man whom the police know to be living off the proceeds of a woman's prostitution. Hitherto these women have been so degraded and terrorized that they would not prosecute these men even when brutally ill-treated by them.

The fellows hitherto have frequented nightly the haunts of impurity, knowing that the police did not dare to interfere with them. The new law is being rigorously enforced, and as a consequence the exodus of ruffians from the notorious quarters has already begun. They are mostly going to South Africa.

Arrest of a Suspect.

Chicago, Oct. 17.—William Lichtenberg, who was arrested in Milwaukee Saturday, and who is suspected of having been implicated in the murder of Francis D., Sarah A. and Elsia Newton, father, mother and daughter, who were mysteriously killed last January in Brookfield, Mass., is being held here pending an investigation. Lichtenberg is also known as Paul Miller, and the man wanted for the murder is known to the Massachusetts authorities as P. J. Mueller. Notification of the arrest of Lichtenberg has been sent to the Brookfield police and a full description of the murderer was asked for. Lichtenberg says he never was in Massachusetts.

Will Stop Senseless Strikes.

New York, Oct. 17.—All the unions affiliated with the board of walking delegates have ratified the proposed agreement between the organization of employers known as the United Building Trades and the board, whereby sympathetic strikes are to be done away with and all questions in dispute will be settled by an arbitration board composed of an equal number of employers and employes.

This agreement will have no effect on the speculative builders who have an association of their own. It is thought, however, that the speculative builders will take similar action.

Tomorrow's Almanac and Forecast.

Sun rises—6; sets, 4:58.
Moon sets—7:07 p. m.
High tide—12 a. m.; 12:30 p. m.

The weather yesterday was fair and clear except in parts of the western valleys, where showers occurred. These unsettled conditions are moving slowly eastward, and promise partly cloudy to cloudy weather Tuesday, with showers in the evening or night; it will be warmer Tuesday, with southerly winds, probably followed during the night or Wednesday by colder westerly winds.

Spasm of Virtue.

Buffalo, Oct. 17.—The police authorities, acting under instructions from the police board, enforced in the most rigorous manner yesterday every Sunday law, old or new, that was on their books. In consequence not a drink was to be had at any price; cheap clothing stores were tightly locked, and grocers and meat merchants were tied down to the letter of the law. Almost open defiance of the Raines law by hotels and saloons brought about the action.

Hen Thief's Double Crime.

Fall River, Oct. 17.—Coleman Susmanovitz of this city found Joseph Auclair stealing hens Sunday morning, and in attempting to capture him was shot in the breast. The police succeeded in arresting Auclair, who confessed to the theft and claimed to have parents in Providence. He is 16 years old.

☞ All the latest notions in lamps. Hundreds of patterns to choose from. 25 cents to $10.00. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

MANY PEOPLE CANNOT DRINK

coffee at ight. It spoils their sleep. You can drink Grain-O when you please and sleep like a top. For Grain-O does not stimulate; it nourishes, cheers and feeds. Yet it looks and tastes like the best coffee. For nervous persons, young people and children Grain-O is he perfect drink. Made from pure grains. Get a package from your grocer today. Try it in place of coffee. 15 and 25c.

FISH.

Everything first-class at the

Cape Cod Fish Market,

Temple Street.

All kinds Fresh, Salt, Smoked an Pickeled

Quincy, Feb. 8. 1y

FRANK F CRANE,

AUCTIONEER and APPRAISER,

Office, 4 Chestnut St., Quincy, Mass.

Oct. tf

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

NORFOLK, ss. SUPERIOR COURT.

To the Honorable the Justices of the Superior Court in and for the County of Norfolk:

RESPECTFULLY Represents your petitioner, ANTON HERMANSON of Quincy in said County of Norfolk, that he is the lawful husband of MARGARETA HERMANSON, now of Sisters in the State of Oregon; that they were married at Stonga, Gotland, Sweden, on July 5th, 1884; that they lived as husband and wife in said Sweden until April 4th, 1894, at which time they came to said Quincy to live, where they lived as husband and wife until April 24th, 1896; that there was born of said marriage one son, Junar Hermanson, who was born December 14th, 1884, which son now lives in Sweden; that your petitioner has lived in said Quincy since April, 1894; that your petitioner has ever been faithful to his marriage vows and obligations, but that said Margareta Hermanson, wholly regardless of the same, on or about the first day of January, 1894, committed the crime of adultery with one Jacob Quinberg in said Sweden, and on or about the first day of April, 1896, said Margareta Hermanson committed the crime of adultery with said Jacob Quinberg, at said Quincy, and at divers other times she has been guilty of the crime of adultery with said Quinberg, and on or about the said twenty-fourth day of April, 1896, said Margareta Hermanson and said Jacob Quinberg left the City of Quincy, and your petitioner is informed and believes that they are at the present time living together as husband and wife at said Sisters in the State of Oregon.

WHEREFORE, your petitioner asks that a decree of divorce may be granted to him and for such further relief as may seem just.

Dated at Quincy this twenty-fourth day of September, A. D. 1898.

ANTON HERMANSON.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

NORFOLK, SS. SUPERIOR COURT.

On the foregoing Libel, it is ORDERED that the Libellant give notice to the said Margareta Hermanson, the Libellee, to appear before the Justices of this Court, to be holden at Dedham, within and for said County, on the First Monday of November next, by causing an attested copy of said Libel, and of this order thereon, to be published once in a week for three successive weeks, in the Quincy Daily Ledger, a newspaper printed at Quincy in the County of Norfolk, the last publication to be fourteen days at least before the said first Monday of November next; and further, by sending through the mail, as soon as may be, by a registered letter addressed to the last known residence of the said Margareta Hermanson, an attested copy of said Libel and of this order thereon, that the said Margareta Hermanson may then and there show cause why the prayer of said Libel should not be granted.

By the Court,
LOUIS A. COOK, Clerk.

October 3, 1898.

A true copy of said Libel, and of the Order thereon.

Attest: R. B. WORTHINGTON,
oct 7 10 17 Assistant Clerk.

Administrator's Notice.

NOTICE is hereby given that the subscriber has been duly appointed Administrator of the estate of

MARTHA R. FEDERHEN,

late of Quincy, in the County of Norfolk, deceased, intestate, and has taken upon himself that trust by giving bond as the law directs.

All persons having demands upon the estate of said deceased are required to exhibit the same, and all persons indebted to said estate are called upon to make payment to

JOHN FEDERHEN, 3d, Adm.

(Address) Quincy, Mass., Oct. 10, 1898.
3t 10 17 24

Bon Ami

The Improved Cleaner.

REMOVES ONLY THE DIRT DOES NOT INJURE OR DOES NOT WEAR DELICATE SURFACES.

Quincy and Boston Electric Street Railway.

[Subject to change without notice.]

On and after October 10, cars will be run on the different routes as follows:

Quincy and Neponset.

Leave CITY SQUARE for Neponset at 5.55, 6.10, 6.25, 6.40 A. M. and every 15 minutes until 11.10 P. M.

Leave NEPONSET for Quincy at 6.15 A. M. and every 15 minutes until 11.30 P. M.

Cars leaving Quincy at 20 minutes of the hour and Neponset on the hour, go via. Hancock street direct.

Cars leaving Quincy at 25 and 55 minutes past the hour go via Newport avenue, Wollaston.

Cars leaving Quincy at 10 minutes past the hour go via Norfolk Downs, and those leaving Neponset at 30 minutes past go via Downs.

Cars leaving Neponset 15 minutes of and 15 minutes past the hour go via Wollaston and continue through Braintree and Holbrook to Brockton, connecting with cars for Bridgewater, Taunton, New Bedford, Fall River, Newport and Providence.

Quincy and East Weymouth.

Leave CITY SQUARE (10 minutes later from Quincy Point and 22 minutes later from North Weymouth)—5.45, 6.20, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20, 9.50, 10.20, 10.50, 11.20, 11.50 A. M.; 12.20, 12.50, 1.20, 1.50, 2.20, 2.50, 3.20, 3.50, 4.20, 4.50, 5.20, (5.30 to East Weymouth car house), 5.50, 6.20, 6.30, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20, 9.50, 10.50 P. M., (11.50 Wednesday and Saturday to Thomas' Corner only.)

Leave EAST WEYMOUTH (20 minutes later from North Weymouth and 30 minutes later from Quincy Point)—6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8, 8.30, 9, 9.30 10, 10.30, 11, 11.30 A. M.; 12, 12.30, 1, 1.30, 2, 2.30, 3, 3.30, 4, 4.30, 5, 5.30, 6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8 8.30, 9, 9.30, 10, 10.30, 11.30 P. M.

Quincy and Weymouth Landing.

Leave QUINCY at 5.30 A. M., 6.20, 7.20 and every hour until 12.20, then 1.50 and every hour until 10.50 P. M.

Leave WEYMOUTH LANDING at 5.50 A. M. and every hour until 12.50, then 2.20 and every hour until 11.20 P. M., connect with trains to Boston at Quincy.

Quincy and East Milton.

Leave CITY SQUARE, 5.55, 6.25, then every 5 minutes of and 25 minutes past the hour until 9.25 P. M., then at 10.50 P. M.

Leave EAST MILTON 6.25, 6.55 A. M., then every 5 minutes of and 25 minutes past the hour until 9.50 P. M., then 10.20 and 11.20 P. M.

Quincy and Brockton.

Leave QUINCY for Brockton at 6.10 and 6.40 A. M., and every half hour until 9.10 P. M. except on Wednesday and Saturday, when car at 9.40 runs through to Brockton. Cars at 9.40 and 10.10 to South Braintree every night.

Quincy and Hingham.

Leave QUINCY at 7.20 A. M. and every hour until 11.20 A. M., then 1.50 and every hour until 5.50 P. M.

Leave HINGHAM at 8 A. M. and every hour until 12 M., then 2.30 and every hour until 6.30 P. M.

Neponset, Atlantic and Squantum.

Leave NEPONSET at 6.30 A. M. and every hour until 8.30 P. M., connecting at Atlantic with outward express trains.

Leave SQUANTUM at 7 A. M. and every hour until 9 P. M., connecting at Atlantic with express trains.

Quincy and Houghs Neck.

Leave QUINCY CENTRE at 6.20 A. M., and and every hour until 1.20, and then 1.50 and every hour until 9.50.

Returning, leave HOUGHS NECK at 5.45 A. M., and every hour until 12.45, and then 1.20 and every hour until 9.20.

SUNDAYS.

Cars leave City Square, Quincy, for E. Weymouth and Weymouth Landing at 7.30 and West Quincy at 7 A. M. and on the hour and half hour throughout the day.

Sunday time same as week days on other lines, except that the first two trips are omitted.

BENJ. J. WEEKS, Superintendent.

New York, New Haven and Hartford R. R.

Eastern District.

On and after Oct. 16, 1898, trains will run as follows: (See note of explanation at bottom.

TO BOSTON. Leave Quincy.	Stops at	Arrive Boston.	FROM BOSTON. Leave Boston.	Stops at	Arrive Quincy
r 6 12	abc	e 6 30	5 55	ihgfedcba	*6 22 r
r 6 42	abc	7 00	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	7 30	cba	7 49 r
r 7 26	ad	7 43	8 30	cba	8 49 r
r 7 42	abc	8 00	9 30	cba	9 49 r
r 8 12	abc	8 30	10 30	cba	10 49 r
r 8 26	ad	8 43	11 30	cba	11 49 r
r 8 42	abc	9 00	12 30	cba	12 49 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	1 30	cba	1 49 r
r 10 12	abc	10 30	2 30	cba	2 49 r
r 11 12	abc	11 30	3 30	cba	3 49 r
r 12 12	abc	12 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
r 1 12	abc	1 30	5 00	cba	5 19 r
r 2 12	abc	2 30	5 17	da	5 36 r
r 3 12	abc	3 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
r 4 12	abc	4 30	6 00	cba	6 19 r
r 5 12	abc	5 30	6 17	da	6 36 r
r 6 12	abc	6 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	7 00	cba	7 19 r
r 7 39	abcdefghi	8 05	7 30	cba	7 49 r
r 8 08	abcdef	8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	9 30	cba	9 49 r
r 10 08	abcdef	10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r
r 11 12	abc	11 30	11 30	cba	11 49 r

SUNDAYS.

r 7 12	abc	7 30	6 30	cba	6 r
r 8 12	abc	8 30	8 30	cba	8 49 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	12 30	cba	12 49 r
r 1 12	abc	1 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
r 5 12	abc	5 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 8 08	abcdef	8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
r 10 08	abcdef	10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r

*The letters in the same line as the figures stand for different stations and indicate that trains stop, as follows:

a, Wollaston, b, Norfolk Downs, c, Atlantic, d, Neponset, e, Pope's Hill, f, Harrison Square, g, Savin Hill, h, Crescent Avenue, i, South Boston, r, Quincy Adams, (xx), Express.

C PETER CLARK, Gen'l Supt. A. C. KENDALL G. P. A

Chichester's English Diamond Brand.

PENNYROYAL PILLS

Original and Only Genuine.

SAFE, always reliable. LADIES ask Druggists for Chichester's English Diamond Brand in Red and Gold metallic boxes, sealed with blue ribbon. Take no other. Refuse dangerous substitutions and imitations. At Druggists, or send 4c. in stamps for particulars, testimonials and "Relief for Ladies," in letter, by return Mail. 10,000 Testimonials. Name Paper.

Chichester Chemical Co., Madison Square PHILADA., PA.

Sold by all Local Druggists. Sold by Geo. C. Goodwin & Co., Boston, Mass. General Agents.

...on
...Ami
...mproved Cleaner.
...Y THE DIRT DOES NOT INJURE
...T WEAR DELICATE SURFACES.

...y and Boston
Street Railway.
...o change without notice.]
October 10, cars will be
...nt routes as follows:

...y and Neponset.
...QUARE for Neponset at 5.55,
...M. and every 15 minutes until
...NSET for Quincy at 6.15 A. M.
...utes until 11.30 P. M.
...uincy at 20 minutes of the hour
...a the hour, go via. Hancock
...uincy at 25 and 55 minutes past
Newport avenue, Wollaston.
Quincy at 10 minutes past the
...olk Downs, and those leaving
...inutes past go via Downs.
Neponset 15 minutes of and 15
...e hour go via Wollaston and
...h Braintree and Holbrook to
...ecting with cars for Bridge-
..., New Bedford, Fall River,
...vidence.

...nd East Weymouth.
...QUARE (10 minutes later from
...d 22 minutes later from North
...45, 6.20, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20,
...0.20, 10.50, 11.20, 11.50 A. M.;
..., 1.50, 2.20, 2.50, 3.20, 3.50, 4.20,
...to East Weymouth car house),
...50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20,
...(11.50 Wednesday and Saturday
...er only.)
...WEYMOUTH (20 minutes later
...mouth and 30 minutes later from
...6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8, 8.30, 9, 9.30
...30 A. M.; 12, 12.30, 1, 1.30, 2, ...30, 5, 5.30, 6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8
...10.50, 11.30 P. M.

...d Weymouth Landing.
...CY at 5.30 A. M., 6.20, 7.20 and
...12.20, then 1.50 and every hour
...MOUTH LANDING at 5.50
...hour until 12.50, then 2.20 and
...til 11.20 P. M., connect with
...at Quincy.

...y and East Milton.
...SQUARE, 5.55, 6.25, then every
...25 minutes past the hour until
...at 10.50 P. M.
...MILTON 6.25, 6.55 A. M., then
...of and 25 minutes past the hour
...then 10.20 and 11.20 P. M.

...cy and Brockton.
...CY for Brockton at 6.10 and
...very half hour until 9.10 P. M.,
...esday and Saturday, when car
...ugh to Brockton. Cars at 9.40
...th Braintree every night.

...cy and Hingham.
...Y at 7.20 A. M. and every hour
... then 1.50 and every hour until
...HAM at 8 A. M. and every hour
...en 2.30 and every hour until

...tlantic and Squantum.
...NSET at 6.30 A. M. and every
... P. M., connecting at Atlantic
...xpress trains.
...NTUM at 7 A. M. and every
...M., connecting at Atlantic with

...y and Houghs Neck.
...CY CENTRE at 6.20 A. M., and
...r until 1.20, and then 1.50 and
... 9.50.
...ave HOUGHS NECK at 5.45
... hour until 12.45, and then 1.20
...until 9.20.

SUNDAYS.
...ty Square, Quincy, for E. Wey-
...ymouth Landing at 7.30
...cy at 7 A. M. and on the hour
...roughout the day.
...ame as week days on other lines,
...irst two trips are omitted.
...J. WEEKS, Superintendent.

...rk, New Haven
...Hartford R. R.
...ern District.
...Oct. 16, 1898, trains will run
...note of explanation at bottom.

...ON. Arrive Boston.	FROM BOSTON. Leave Boston.	Stops at	Arrive Quincy
6 30	5 55	ihgfedcba	*6 22 r
7 00	6 30	cba	6 49 r
7 30	7 30	cba	7 49 r
7 43	8 30	cba	8 49 r
8 00	9 30	cba	9 49 r
8 30	10 30	cba	10 49 r
8 45	11 30	cba	11 49 r
9 00	12 30	cba	12 49 r
9 30	1 30	cba	1 49 r
10 30	2 30	cba	2 49 r
11 30	3 30	cba	3 49 r
12 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
1 30	5 00	cba	5 19 r
2 30	5 17	da	5 36 r
3 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
4 30	6 00	cba	6 19 r
5 30	6 17	da	6 36 r
6 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
7 30	7 00	cba	7 19 r
8 05	7 30	cba	7 49 r
8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
9 30	9 30	cba	9 49 r
10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r
11 30	11 30	cba	11 49 r

...UNDAYS.

7 30	6 30	cba	6 r
8 30	8 30	cba	8 49 r
9 30	12 30	cba	12 49 r
1 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
5 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
7 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r

...the same line as the figures
...nt stations and indicate that
...lows:
..., Savin Hill.
...s. h, Crescent Avenue.
..., South Boston.
..., Quincy Adams.
...re. (xx), Express.
...RK, A. C. KENDALL
G. P. A

...r's English Diamond Brand.
ROYAL PILLS
...riginal and Only Genuine.
...ALWAYS reliable. LADIES ask
...ist for Chichester's English Dia...mond Brand in Red and Gold metallic
...sealed with blue ribbon. Take
...ther. *Refuse dangerous substitu-
...tions and imitations.* At Druggists, or send 4c.
...stamps for particulars, testimonials and ...Relief for Ladies," in letter, by return
...10,000 Testimonials. Name Paper.
...Chester Chemical Co., Madison Square
...ists. PHILADA., PA.
...Geo. C. Goodwin & Co., Boston, Mass.

QUINCY DAILY LEDGER.

VOL. 10. No. 243. QUINCY, MASS., TUESDAY, OCTOBER 18, 1898. PRICE 2 CENTS.

All goods are delivered FREE at residences in Quincy.

Represented in Quincy by Mr. Otho A. Hayward.

WATCHES.

GENT'S WATCHES, $1.50 and Up.

LADIES' WATCHES, $2.50 and Up.

EVERY WATCH WARRANTED.

$2.00 Belts, $1.00 Each.
75c. Brooch Pins, 25c. Each.
25 and 35c. Stick Pins, 5 and 10c. Ea.

Quincy SOUVENIR TILES Half Price,

And Other Bargains.

A. A. LINSCOTT, Jeweler,

154 Hancock St., opp. Post Office, Quincy.

Agent for Graphophones.

aug 6. tf

ONE-TON ORDERS

Have been the making of this Coal business. Hundreds have ordered "just one ton to see if there was any difference." They found there was and they came again. Our one-ton orders have been our best advertisements. It's a better Coal at the same price, with the proof in a sample ton. When in doubt, try Patch's.

C. PATCH & SON.

SWEATERS.

We think we can show you the best assortment of Sweaters to be found in the city.

BOYS' SAILOR COLLAR, GARNET OR NAVY BLUE,	$ .50
" " " " " " "	.75
" " " " " " "	1.00
" ROLL " " " " "	1.00
MEN'S SAILOR " " " " "	2.00
" " " " " " "	2.50

Look at Our Window Display.

GEO. W. JONES,

Adams Building, Quincy.

TELEGRAPHIC.

3 O'CLOCK.

MERELY A REMINDER.

West and Southwest Get a Foretaste of Winter.

Rain Followed by Heavy Snow and a Northern Gale.

Wires Down Everywhere, and Communication Nearly Impossible.

Kansas City, Oct. 18.—The earliest winter storm in the southwest in 25 years and the worst early storm on record almost completely shut Kansas City off from wire communication with the south, the west and the north Monday. An opening on the east alone kept the city from being totally isolated.

After midnight Sunday night the rain turned to snow and the temperature dropped perceptibly. Steadily afterwards a dense, wet snow, driven by a north wind at points reaching the velocity of a gale, fell. Hundreds of telegraph and telephone poles have either been blown down or broken by the weight of the snow covered wires.

At Fairmount, near Kansas City, and at Leavenworth, Kansas, where portions of the Third and Fifth Missouri and the Twenty-first and Twenty-second Kansas regiments respectively are encamped, many tents were blown down and the soldiers suffered acutely.

The storm came up with great suddenness. Railroad traffic, while more or less hampered, was not badly interrupted.

Heavy Fall of Rain.

Des Moines, Oct. 18.—Rain has been falling in Iowa almost continuously since Tuesday morning. Over two inches of rain have fallen, according to the official observation.

A blizzard is reported from Atlantic and snow from various places. The temperature is down to 35 and the wind blowing from the north. Nearly all wires in western Iowa are down.

A January Northwester.

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 18.—Snow fell steadily through Nebraska during Monday, accompanied by a gale and low temperature. The storm had all the marks of a January northwester. Farmers and stockmen were unprepared for the visitation.

Heavy Snow and Strong Wind.

Lawrence, Kan., Oct. 18.—From daybreak to three o'clock Monday afternoon communication with the outside world was impossible as a result of a storm. Trees were stripped and broken, telephone and telegraph lines demolished and other damage was done. A damp, heavy snow, driven by a north wind, fell steadily all day.

Canada as the Open Door.

Washington, Oct. 18.—Commissioner Powderly of the immigration bureau has received a voluminous report from Robert Watchorn, an immigration inspector at New York, who some months ago was instructed by Mr. Powderly to go to Europe and investigate the causes which have resulted in diverting the flow of immigration from United States to Canadian ports, and also the facts as to the practice of charitable institutions in assisting paupers, criminals and other classes to emigrate to the United States. Mr. Watchorn finds that the strict enforcement of our immigration laws, particularly at New York, has resulted in compelling unscrupulous agents abroad to seek to evade them by sending the most undesirable classes to Canada, at the same time assuring them that they would find little or no difficulty in passing the border into the United States. In very many instances Mr. Watchorn thinks this scheme has been successfully carried out.

He finds upon investigation that much more stringent immigration laws than formerly are being enacted by all the new countries, including Australia, so that practically this is the only country now left open forf the undesirable classes. Nearly all of the old countries of Europe are also more strictly enforcing their immigration laws, and at the same time they offer little objection to the departure of the indignant and criminal classes. Mr. Watchorn says that a large number of emigrants receive help from charitable societies and institutions in nearly all of the European capitals.

New Move to Be Tried.

Brockton, Oct. 18.—The lasters are again trying to be aggressive in the strike and have had several speakers recently who have greatly stirred up the men. The reports of the alleged weakening on their part have aroused the officials, who are more urgent than ever to the men. A new move will be tried at once to bring about the much wanted finish of the strike.

The chief of pickets has a new method with which he is believed to expect to let the manufacturers know that the strikers are still active and as determined as ever. Every shop which they have marked as unfair was picketed by quite a sizable delegation last night, and every laster who came out was accosted. In most cases one of the former employes was stationed with the other pickets, and he pointed out the men to see. At a number of shops there were 100 or more assembled, but no violence was offered.

Collision In England.

London, Oct. 18.—A collision has occurred on the Great Cnetral railroad near Barnet. Nine persons were killed and 22 were injured.

☞ Oil Heaters that will heat any room in your house, $3.98. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

INQUEST BEGUN.

Trying to Fix the Blame For the Wreck of the Mohegan.

Falmouth, Oct. 18.—There was an inquest Monday into the Mohegan disaster, because it was necessary formally to identify the dead. A. S. Williams, the company's London manager, described the ship as in the finest condition. He said they had had trouble with her boilers on her first voyage and had withdrawn her from one trip, devoting several weeks to repairing the machinery, which was perfectly adjusted. He described the officers of the Mohegan in the highest terms, laying stress upon the abstemiousness of Captain Griffiths.

A juror—Was Captain Griffiths in good health?

Mr. Williams—I saw him just before the Mohegan started, and he seemed perfectly well then.

The juror—Is it not a fact that he was lying on a couch most of the day?

Mr. Williams—I should be extremely surprised to hear that. Unfortunately, there is no officer of the Mohegan living. We know that they and the crew did all they could to save the passengers.

Richard Kelly (passenger)—There was not an officer on the deck when the crew were trying to get out the boats. The only officers I saw were Captain Griffiths and another on the bridge.

Mr. Williams—I can prove that all the officers were on deck and aiding to get out the boats.

Mr. Kelly insisted that the boats were improperly arranged, being surrounded by railings, instead of swung on davits, so that they were with difficulty launched. Mr. Williams contended that the launching of four boats in 20 minutes was good work.

The coroner adjourned the inquest for a week to secure the attendance of a nautical expert representing the board of trade.

England and the Emperor.

London, Oct. 18.—A dispatch to a London news agency from Shanghai says: "Reports from Japanese sources are in circulation to the effect that Sir Claude MacDonald, British minister at Pekin, has informed the Chinese government that sovereignty appertains solely to the emperor, who has been forcibly abducted and deposed, and that he must be restored to his position, while Kang Yu Wei and the other reformers must be pardoned. Failing compliance, Great Britain will enforce these demands.

KANG YUWEI.

"A rebellion in Hu-Nan province is certain. Foreigners at Yang-Tse ports are in great danger. Most of the residents have left Chun-King, in the province of Se-Chuen, and foreigners at other ports are preparing for a hurried departure."

Remarriages and Church Unity.

Washington, Oct. 18.—Important action was taken by the respective bodies of the Episcopal council here Monday on two subjects which have caused much discussion. The house of bishops, by a vote of 31 to 24, rejected resolutions bearing on the subject of remarriages of divorced persons, designed to take the place of those now in existence. The present canons on that subject therefore remain in force.

In the house of deputies, after a debate which had continued for several days, a step in the direction of church unity was taken. The discussion was precipitated by the offering of an amendment to the constitution by Rev. Dr. Huntington of New York. While agreeing with the principle of this, the deputies finally decided to adopt a briefer amendment, as follows: "But provision may be made by the canon for the temporary use of other forms and directories of worship by congregations not already in union with this church, who are willing to accept the spiritual oversight of the bishop of the diocese." The amendment, if adopted by the bishops, will go to the dioceses for action and must be acted upon by the next convention before it becomes operative.

Accused of Forgery.

Marshalltown, Iowa, Oct. 18.—Rev. G. R. Parrish, pastor of the Congregational church of this city, was arrested Monday by officers from Sandwich, Ill., charged with forging a check for $300 three years ago under the name of Rev. Mark Thompson and drawn on the Illinois Home Missionary society. He is also charged with issuing checks for $500 on Watertown and Elkhorn, Wis., banks, purporting to have been drawn on the American board of missions, but which were not cashed. Parrish was positively identified as Thompson.

He came here three weeks ago from Constantine, Mich., where he was pastor of a Congregational church. He is a married man and a brilliant preacher.

Woman Shot Herself.

Readsboro, Vt., Oct. 18.—Mrs. George Dix, wife of a well-to-do farmer of Whitingham, committed suicide by shooting. She first slung a double-barrelled shotgun across a bed and discharged it by pulling the trigger with a the bed and, pulling the cord again, blew cord, after which she sat down beside her brains out. Mrs. Dix had been despondent because of her husband's illness.

☞ All the latest notions in lamps. Hundreds of patterns to choose from. 25 cents to $10.00. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

LAND VALUES

A Transcript From the Books of the Assessors.

Number of Feet in Each Lot and Valuation Thereof.

Also the Amount of Each Person's Tax Bill for 1898.

[Continued from yesterday.]

Something new in the publication of the taxpayers of the city is attempted this year by the Daily Ledger. There is considerable interest in the assessed value of land in the city, which is claimed to be high in some cases and low in others. So the Ledger has supplemented the amount of the tax bill in each ward with the value of each lot of land for which the person is taxed, giving in each case the number of square feet or acreage.

The amount given in the line with the person's name is his total ward tax, and may include houses, personal property, etc., in addition to the lots of land below. The Ledger gives only the valuation of the land.

To obtain a person's total tax in the city, add together the amounts paid in the several wards.

The Ledger commenced the publication Aug. 30, and has already published the land values of all persons whose names begin with A to L, and today give sthe fifth instalment of the M's:

WARD ONE.

Valuation of Land Only.	Total Ward Tax.
Mears, Cassie A. and Susan D. 4,972 feet, Great Hill, $450.	$15 30
Melcher, Agnes E. est., 10,275, Bigelow street, $1,100.	82 80
Mellquist, Charles 1-4 acre, North Common, $150.	15 50
Merrill, John F. 34,243, Park Lane, $3,500.	317 00
Milne, Andrew and Thomas Swithin, 29,296, Merry Mount road, $3,000.	54 00
Milne, Andrew, and others, trs., 9 acres, Golfe, $25,000.	450 00
Milton, Mrs. Jessie 8,300, Sea, $600.	30 50
Merry Mount Granite Co. 1 acre, Quarry, $5,000.	129 60

WARD TWO.

Mead, Benjamin V., heirs, 4,150 feet, Washington street, $300.	$15 30
Mead, Mrs. Mary, heirs, 17,000, Washington, $1,000.	39 60
Mead, Mrs. Mary H. 8,450, Washington, $800.	68 40
Meaney, Jeremiah 6,630, South Walnut, $300.	21 60
Menhinick, Edward 9,690, South Walnut, $600.	73 10
Merrill, Eugene H. 5,000, Madison ave., $200.	3 60
Merrill, John F. 11,400, Washington, $1,100.	19 80

WARD THREE.

Mecagni, Enrico 9,745 feet, Independence ave., $550.	$52 40
Menhinick, Edward 12,000, Liberty, $706.	41 40
Mercurio, Mary 11,240, Water, $500.	31 50
Merry Mount Granite Co, 27,439, Liberty, $3,300.	88 20
Merritt, Arthur C. 5,500, Madison, $300.	5 40
Michael, Margaret S. 6,300, Caledonia ave., $350.	42 30
Milligan, George 12,000, Clark ave., $600.	73 35

WARD FOUR.

Meaney, Margaret 17,480 feet, Centre street, $500.	$19 80
Methodist Episcopal Society, 1-8 acre, Hall place, $400.	$36 00
Milford, Mary L. 5,550, Centre, $300.	23 40
Milford, Mary J. 13,043, Kent, $600. 1-8 acre, Faxon Hill, $200.	36 00

WARD FIVE.

Meany, James 4,648, Standish ave., $350.	$35 10
Merrill, Laurelia 3,750, Fayette, $375. 3,750, " $375.	71 10
Merrill, H. Elizabeth 7,500, Woodbine, $350. 10,500, " $450.	71 10

Continued on page 3.

Royal makes the food pure, wholesome and delicious.

THE FALL SEASON

IS HERE

For the Purchase of

Fruit and Ornamental Trees,

Shrubs and Vines.

Buy now that your plants may get a good start by spring.

Remember that I carry all the desirable novelties, as well as the old standard varieties of nursery stock.

I call special attention to my Flowering Shrubs, Perpetual Roses, Clematis, and Rhododendrons.

Buy at home and save agents' commissions. None but strictly first-class stock, well acclimated, furnished. Call and examine.

Orders by mail receive prompt attention.

Wollaston Park Nursery,

Fenno St., Wollaston.

MARTIN PFAFFMANN, Prop.

P. O. Box 44, Wollaston. Residence, 2 Clay St.

Oct. 14—1m p-3w

FISH.

Everything first-class at the

Cape Cod Fish Market,

Temple Street.

All kinds Fresh, Salt, Smoked and Pickeled

Quincy, Feb. 8. 1y

48 BALLOTS 48

And the tenth district nominated a candidate for Congress, but it needn't take you half so long to decide where to buy

Fall and Winter Suits

FOR MEN AND BOYS.

The Granite Clothing Store has always carried honest goods at low prices, and this year beats all previous years. Every purchaser is bound to be Absolutely Satisfied.

Boys are satisfied because the suits are neat and stylish, and their parents are satisfied with the price.

Call and see for yourself.

Granite Clothing Co.

DURGIN & MERRILL'S BLOCK.

ALBERT J. BOWERS OPTICIAN

ADAMS BUILDING OVER POST OFFICE QUINCY MASS.

DR. RALPH M. FOGG,

DENTIST.

Teeth extracted absolutely without pain by the use of the

"BOSTON VEGETABLE VAPOR."

It is claimed that, while it has the required properties of ether, chloroform, nitrous oxide gas, it lacks the disagreeable and dangerous qualities of these drugs. It is certainly a boon to suffering humanity to be relieved of the nausea too often following the administering of sedatives of the old school.—Boston Transcript.

Teeth made and repaired on Gold or Rubber base. Teeth Filling a specialty.

Office in French's Building, five doors south of Post Office, Quincy, Wednesdays. Hours, 9 A. M. to 2 P. M. July18-1y Nov8-1yo

GO TO....

Miss B. J. PATTERSON'S

Millinery Parlors

AT THE

Boston Bargain Store,

FOR YOUR

FALL MILLINERY.

A fine assortment of Trimmed Goods. Also, all the latest and best shapes in untrimmed hats, walking hats and sailors.

New Velvets, Ribbons, Fancy Feathers and Ostrich goods.

Lowest possible prices for first-class goods.

Music Hall Building, Quincy.

Oct. 1. tfpl

— THE —

Fall Millinery Opening

... OF ...

C. L. BLISS,

186 Hancock St.,

TUESDAY and WEDNESDAY

Oct. 11, 12.

The public are cordially invited to call and examine a stock of Trimmed and Untrimmed Hats and novelties in Velvets, Ribbons, Wings, Feathers and Jet.

Quincy, Oct. 5. 1po 2w

Mutual Life

OF NEW YORK.

Do You Want Life Insurance?
Do You Want Fire Insurance?

If so, call on

GEORGE H. FIELD,

1 Durgin & Merrill's Block, Quincy,

and you will find the best Companies at Lowest Rates.

MONEY LOANED ON REAL ESTATE.

The John Hancock Stables.

Opposite Depot, Quincy, Mass.

Boarding, Baiting, Livery and Sale.

DR. J. A. DOW, Proprietor,

the well known Veterinary dentist and specialist in the treatment of lame horses. Sick horses treated at owner's risk.

The finest equipped and managed stable of its size in America.

Fine driving turnouts in light rigs; safe and good appearing. All horses let are perfectly safe for ladies to drive.

The choicest family, road and coach horses constantly on hand for sale. All horses guaranteed as represented.

☞ Will attend to veterinary practice as usual. aug18-1y

MABEL F. FAIRBANKS

TEACHER OF

CHINA PAINTING and WATERCOLOR.

China Decorated to Order.

34 Grand View Avenue, Wollaston.

Sept. 29. 3m

WILLIAM E. BAXTER, M. D.

Practice Limited to the

EYE AND EAR.

553 Boylston St., Boston.

QUINCY—Monday and Friday.

Hours, 9 to 11. 195 Hancock Street

May 21. 1y

TELL US . .

What you are looking for.

We can show you a fine line of

FALL AND WINTER

UNDERWEAR,

HOSIERY,

Outing Flannels, Flannelettes,

Plaid Dress Goods,

WRAPPERS, BLANKETS,

Comforters,

Dress Linings and other Dry Goods.

OUR STOCK IS FRESH.

OUR PRICES THE LOWEST.

MISS C. S. HUBBARD,

158 Hancock Street.

SELECT SOCIALS!
EVERY FRIDAY EVENING,
Beginning Oct. 21, 8.30 to 11,
COLONIAL HALL, Bank Bldg., Quincy.
Given in connection with
Prof. Gardner's Dancing School.
Tickets: Gent or Couple, 50c. Extra Lady, 25c.
LAST HALF TERM. Those who desire to learn the latest Fancy Dances can join the class at 7.30. Terms: 8 lessons from 7.30 to 8.30, Gents $4, Ladies $3. oct18—6t

MARY WENT.

LAST Week Mary and everybody else were invited to call at the Quincy Second Hand Variety Store. They went, and Mary tells us that she was delighted with what she found. She bought an excellent stove for half its value, a chamber set for a remarkably low figure, and small ware in abundance for almost nothing. In fact, she was so well pleased, she sent her husband, who bought all the tools he could carry off for a few dollars.

WALTER P. PINEL

is the Manager, and the store is right over here at number 20 Franklin street.
aug25 1y

POTATOES,
15c. Pk.

Sweet Potatoes,
15c. Pk.

White Seal Flour,
4.75 Bbl. Cash.

We guarantee this Flour to be old wheat and one of the best Bread Flours in the market.

L. M. PRATT & CO.,
25 School Street.

STENOGRAPHY AND TYPEWRITING,
BOOKKEEPING,
And All Clerical Work.
MISSES A. B. and E. M. COTE,
Room 12 Durgin & Merrill Block, - Quincy.
Oct. 10. tf

E. LANDIS SNYDER,
Organist and Choirmaster of Christ Church,
TEACHER OF
VOICE CULTURE, PIANO AND ORGAN.
Studio: Room 10 Durgin & Merrill's Block,
QUINCY, MASS.
Sept. 10. 3f

A. J. DURAND,
Piano Tuning, etc.
19 Coddington St., Quincy.
Highly recommended by Chickering & Sons, and prominent Boston musicians.
Sept. 20. 1m

DR. HERBERT S. HAYFORD
195 Hancock Street.
OFFICE HOURS—11 to 12 A. M., 2 to 4 and 7 to 8 P. M.
Telephone, 4-3.
Quincy, July 5. tf

Coal!

Just Received by Barge Blackbird, a Fresh Cargo of

Pea Coal
(Small Nut.)

J. F. SHEPPARD & SONS
Quincy Sept. 7.

BILLHEADS PRINTED
AT PATRIOT OFFICE.

Quincy Daily Ledger
ESTABLISHED IN 1889.
The ONLY DAILY in Norfolk County Massachusetts.

Published Every Evening, Sundays and Holidays Excepted,
At No. 115 HANCOCK ST.,
City of Quincy, Mass., by
GEORGE W. PRESCOTT & SON.
Successors to Green & Prescott.
Subscription Price, $6.00 per year.
A discount of $1 when paid in advance.
ALSO PUBLISHERS OF
The Quincy Patriot,
A Weekly Established in 1837, which has the Largest Circulation in Norfolk County, and
The Braintree Observer,
A Weekly Established in 1878.
TELEPHONE, 78-3 QUINCY.

Quincy Temperature at Noon.

	This Week.	Last Week.	In 1897.	In 1896.
Sunday	50	66	83	60
Monday	48	53	53	56
Tuesday	50	75	51	50
Wednesday	—	71	70	48
Thursday	—	55	62	56
Friday	—	59	49	62
Saturday	—	60	53	49

New Advertisements Today.

Unfurnished rooms wanted.
Quincy second hand variety store.
Boston Branch Grocery.
L. M. Pratt & Co.
Select socials.
Quincy Clothing Co.

Good Afternoon.

An article from Hon. William B. Rice is always read with interest, and many who read his communication in yesterday's Ledger relative to boulevards believe that he has about the right ideas. When such progressive men as Mr. Rice interest themselves in a movement of this kind others are sure to take it up. It is hoped they will, and that there will be a large and representative gathering of Quincy people at the hearing to be given by the Metropolitan Park Commissioners at their rooms in the Congregational Building, Boston, at 2.30 P. M. on Monday next. It should be brought out by questions just what has prevented the consummation of their plans for which the money is still in the State treasury.

Temple Quartette.

A large audience gathered at the Wollason Unitarian church on Monday to hear Mr. E. E. Bullock of that place and his associates of the Temple quartette, — Messrs. Robert Bruce, baritone; E. E. Webber, 2d tenor; Robert Bruce, baritone; and B. G. Willard, basso; and also the assisting talent, — Mrs. F. A. Page, soprano; Wulf Fries, cellisst; Mrs. I. P. Moorehouse, accompanist; and J. E. Nickerson, organist.

It was the first appearance of Mr. Bullock with his famous organization in this place, and it must be said that the gathering of last night set its seal of approval upon his mangificient tenor voice. His voice is of fine timbre and he well knows how to obtain very pleasing effects with it.

The harmonies of the quartette were perfect and their blending beautiful.

Mrs. Page of course captivated the audience. She sang with a delicacy of expression and perfection of phrasing beyond criticism.

Wulf Fries, with his 'cello gave the audience a rare musical treat as did Mr. Nickerson on the organ.

—A traveler in Porto Rico says that a cigar equal to the present average American 10-center can be purchased there for 2 cents.

—The theatres of Paris have popular representations on certain days, when the seats cost only a quarter or half the usual price.

—The wide utilization of waterfalls for the generation of power has suggested to a French engineer the title of white coal.

E. S. BECKFORD,
Electrician.
Wiring and Fitting for Incandescent, Motors, Dynamos, Bells, etc.
GRANITE STREET, Near the Bridge, QUINCY
Feb. 1 1y

TEETH EXTRACTED.
No Pain or Danger.
Safer than vapor. Money paid for extracting goes towards teeth to be inserted. I am the only dentist in the city using the Painless Preparation for Extraction.
DR. C. B. UNDERWOOD,
9 Spear St. Rear of Public Library

JOHN EVANS,
Auctioneer and Appraiser.
Prompt Settlement.
24 COPELAND STREET, QUINCY.
Feb. 26. tf

THE STATE HIGHWAY

Appropriation Made and Mayor Authorized.

Opinion Wanted on Different Location for Boynton Road.

A Short Session of City Council but Important Measures.

The business at Monday night's meeting of the City Council was put through with dispatch and an adjournment was reached at 7.55.

Councilmen Cain, Hill and Prout were absent.

PETITIONS.

Several petitions for licenses and State Aid were received and referred.

REPORT OF COMMITTEES.

The Committee on Streets reported leave to withdraw on the petition of the New England Telephone Co. for a location for poles on Farrington and Beale streets and Elmwood avenue. Adopted.

The Committee on Licences reported favorably upon several petitions for licenses which were adopted.

BOYNTON RAILWAY.

Councilman Parker offered a resolution that the City Solicitor give his opinion in writing at the next meeting whether the City Council could grant the Boynton Bicycle railroad a location, other than those upon which public hearings have been held, without giving a further public hearing. Adopted.

STATE HIGHWAY.

The Mayor forwarded the opinion of the City Solicitor relative to the taking of Washington street by the Highway Commission that the City Council can legally turn the control of a street to the Massachusetts Highway Commission without a public hearing.

The order for $1,500 for drains on Washington street according to plans of the State Highway Commission was taken from the table and under suspension of the rules passed to be ordained.

CALENDAR.

The order granting the New England Telephone Co. a relocation for one pole on Hancock street took its second reading.

The order granting McIntosh & Son permission to run a guy wire across Columbia street took its second reading, and was passed to be ordained under suspension of the rules.

The order authorizing the Mayor to contract with the Massachusetts Highway Commission to take a part of Washington street as a State road took its second reading and under suspension of the rules was passed to be ordained.

Adjourned at 7.55.

A Dangerous Character.

Arthur J. O'Neil, aged 14 years, better kown by the nickname of "Coxey," is in trouble again, and according to the police who placed him under arrest Monday night on his arrival from Boston, he has been doing more breaking and entering. The break is alleged to have taken place Sunday afternoon at the laundry of Charlie Wong at 80 Hancock street, who claims that Monday he missed $50 in money which he had. It was developed Monday that Coxey was the prime mover in the affair and his companions were David Lee and John Marcalini. One of the boys confessed that they broke into the laundry but all deny taking any money. Their method of gaining entrance was an ingenious one. According to the confession of one of the boys they got into Town brook which they followed beneath the building and gained entrance by pushing open a trap door in the floor. Their exit was made by opening the back door.

When arrested Monday night O'Neil was returning home from the theatre. He denied all knowledge of the break and said that he had got a job from Mr. Tower of Hingham, who paid him a dollar of his week's wages in advance, and part of this he had expended in a theatre trip.

It was about a month ago that O'Neil was arrested for breaking into the house of Mr. Edwards on Saville street, but as they did not care to push the case he was placed on probation, which term has not yet expired.

—The Yacht Racing Association of Massachusetts will hold its fall meeting Thursday evening and anticipates a lively time over proposed amendments.

TRY GRAIN-O! TRY GRAIN-O!
Ask your Grocer today to show you a package of GRAIN-O, the new food drink that takes the place of coffee. The children may drink it without injury as well as the adult. All who try it, like it. GRAIN-O has that rich seal brown of Mocha or Java, but it is made of pure grains, and the most delicate stomach receives it without distress. One-fourth the price of coffee. 15c. and 25c. per package. Sold by all grocers.

LOCAL NEWS TRACK.

Some Colts which are Sure Winners Every Heat.

Miss Alma Pike of Maine is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. James Pike of Squantum.

Miss Alice Askew of Brockton has been the guest of Mrs. George Rose the past week.

Mr. Warren Higgins has completed his term on jury and has gone to Dublin, N. H., again.

The sewer is being run under the New Haven's tracks at Wollaston, from Woodbine to Brook street.

A handicap match for members is scheduled by the Wollaston golf club for Friday and Saturday.

The Wollaston Unitarian Sunday School will give a harvest concert on Sunday evening, Oct 23, at 6 o'clock.

Another effort is being made to organize a colony of Pilgrim Fathers in this city, and this time it promises to be a success.

Rev. C. A. Parker, who was the pastor of the Calvary Baptist church, has moved with his family to Colorado.

Miss Audrey Rhines, a pupil of Thayer academy, had the misfortune to sprain her ankle in the gymnasium on Monday.

The Quincy Clothing Company advertises an all-wool kersey overcoat with lap seams and raw-edge for $7.50 today.

Mr. John H. Osborne of Wollaston is the guest of Mr. Charles M. Bryant at his shooting box at Whitman's pond, Weymouth.

Mr. and Mrs. James F. Harlow are to occupy the J. F. Hayward place on Mill street this winter, taking the house all furnished.

The Quincy Point church has been prettily decorated today for the reception this evening to Rev. Edward Anderson, the new pastor.

The Quincy Neck people are pleased with the job that the city is doing on Howard street. The travelled way has been widened out, a sidewalk built, and other improvements made.

Stillman B. Pratt, formerly of Marlboro and Weymouth, who has established no less than forty weekly newspapers in Massachusetts, died Monday at Attleboro. One of his sons, Herbert E. Pratt, resides in Quincy.

Work was commenced Monday laying the sewer on Granite street commencing at Hancock street. The sewer pipe being laid on Canal street is progressing and ground has been opened to Hancock street.

We would call attention to the select socials given at Colonial Hall every Friday evening by Prof. Gardner, in connection with his dancing school. Those desiring to learn the latest fancy dances this offers a good opportunity.

Late Sunday night Officer Barry found a young girl wandering about West Quincy, and after some questioning he took her to is own home for the night. Monday morning he sent her to her home in Wollaston.

On Monday evening Mr. Leon H. Vincent of Philadelphia delivered the second in his course of lectures under the auspices of the Ladies' Benevolent society before a large audience at the Wollaston Congregational church. Mr. Vincent spoke on "Lowell as a critic and letter writer."

The funeral of Mr. Joseph York will be held tomorrow at 2 P. M. from the Methodist church at Wollaston, and there promises to be a notable gathering of Odd Fellows in attendance, as the deceased has been for many years one of the officers of the Grand Lodge of Massachusetts.

Miss Tula Rice, the well known dancer of Boston, gave an excellent concert Monday evening at St. Mary's hall. Miss Rice was assisted by Miss White and other well known local and out-of-town talent. The programme consisted of vocal selections, readings and mandolin and piano solos.

There is rejoicing in Braintree and Quincy over the arrival early this morning of a girl baby at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eben Prescott of Middle street, Braintree. The little daughter is the first granddaughter on "both sides of the house," which have already been blessed with several grandsons.

The popularity of our bachelor Councilman of Ward Two is further attested, and he is not only assured a reelection this year but twenty-one years from now. The city this year named a locality at Quincy Neck "Newcomb Square," and now Mr. and Mrs. Federick A. Thayer have named a new arrival Arthur Newcomb Thayer.

The season of 1898-99 at Music hall was opened Monday afternoon with Brooke's Chicago marine band, assisted by Miss Sibyl Sammis. While the audience was not as large a one as should have greeted this famous band, those that did attend speak in the highest terms of the concert which was very enjoyable. The solos by Miss Sammis captivated her hearers.

CAIN AND JORDAN

Democratic Candidates for the Legislature.

Mr. Cain Challenges One or Both of His Rivals to Debate.

And Offers to Provide Hall and Pay All the Expenses.

The Democratic Representative convention for this district was held Monday evening at room 20, Hancock House. Michael T. Sullivan, chairman of the City Committee, called the meeting to order and W. H. Sampson, Jr., the secretary, read the call.

Michael T. Sullivan was elected temporary chairman and Timothy J. Carey secretary.

Messrs. M. B. Garey, P. D. Cook and Martin W. Cunniff, the Committee on Credentials, reported the convention entitled to twelve delegates all of whom were present.

The temporary organization was made permanent.

Phillip D. Cook placed the name of Thomas F. Cain of Ward Four in nomination; M. W. Cunniff of Ward Six the name of John A. Duggan of Ward Six, and Timothy Carey of Ward One, the name of William A. Jordan of Ward Five.

Voted, that the convention proceed to ballot for one candidate at a time.

Messrs. Fallon of Ward One, Murphy of Ward Two and Little of Ward Four were appointed a committee on ballot.

The first ballot resulted as follows:

Whole number of votes	12
Necessary for choice	7
Thomas F Cain had	8
Jordan A. Duggan had	1
William A. Jordan had	2
Stephen B. Little had	1

Mr. Cain was declared one of the nominees.

Mr. Little wished it understood that he was not a candidate.

The second ballot resulted as follows:

Whole number of votes	12
Necessary for choice	8
William A. Jordan had	10
John A. Duggan had	2

Mr. Jordan was declared the second nominee.

Candidate Cain was called upon and thanked the delegates for the honor. He realized the responsibility and duties of a candidate.

When things look so bright for the Democracy as at present there was a good chance for all candidates to be successful. All that was needed was hard work. He knew a fight must be made. He had done considerable work and was favorably impressed for all Democratic candidates. We need candidates who will represent the city and he would leave it to the delegates whether or not he would represent them. He would be willing to pay all expenses and meet the Republican candidates for the Legislature in a joint debate. If elected he would pledge himself to bring about legislation for boulevards for the city. He then told what he had done in Ward Four last year and he would do the same work this year, and he asked all who want to see Quincy represented in the Legislature to help him out. If elected nothing would satisfy him unless the citizens were proud of his record.

Voted that a committee of three, one of whom shall be the chairman, be appointed to draw up resolutions expressing sympathy for Richard J. Larkin, treasurer of the City Committee, at his illness.

The chairman and secretary were impowered to fill any vacancies.

Adjourned.

POLITICAL FIELD.

A Republican rally in the interests of Congressman Barrows and the State ticket will be held at Putnam hall, 1165 Tremont street, Boston, on Tuesday evening next, to be addressed by Rev. Edward Everett Hale, Senator Towle, C. J. Engstrom, and Candidate Barrows. Others rallies will be held in the district.

—The extensive work at Readville which abolished two grade crossings over the N. Y., N. H. & H. and New England railroads is practically completed. It cost $1,200,000.

—The Hingham veteran firemen's association observed its third annual field day on Saturday. A banquet was enjoyed in the evening.

—An eating house proprietor in Tacoma, arrested for selling game out of season, escaped on evidence, satisfactory to the jury, that his wife could prepare mutton to make it taste like venison.

☞ A Glenwood Range will make your wife happy, will save your fuel, and cook your food as no other range can. $18.00 to $33.00. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

Compare.

We would like to have you compare our prices with those you may get elsewhere, but don't overlook quality when comparing. For instance, you may be able to buy a fairly good Tea for 50 cents—the price we name for our best Garden Formosa. But compare the richness and strength and aroma with the best 60 cent Tea you can get—then judge of our price and its lowness.

Tea, 50c. lb.

BOSTON BRANCH GROCERY,
Durgin & Merrill's Block, - Quincy.

EMBROIDERY LESSONS.

We have engaged the same teacher for our Embroidery Classes this season that was so successful last year. Classes start TUESDAY MORNING.

Also the Finest Line of LINENS of All Designs to be gotten in the Market.

Our Line of Embroidery Silks is Complete in Every Detail.

WE CARRY IN STOCK A NEW LINE OF

OPULESCENT AND RAINBOW EDGE SILKS.

Sofa Cushions in a Large Variety.

D. E. WADSWORTH & CO.,
Hancock Street, Quincy.

GEO. AMES,

the ONLY PRACTICAL PLUMBER in the Hardware business in the City. He has a patent SEWER TRAP which cannot be beat. Impossible for deadly sewer gas to enter your homes See him about your Sewer Connection. He has had three years' experience in Boston and other large cities. Established here in 1889 and still in it. Work done anywhere.

Hardware, Paints and Oils, Putty and Glass, Yacht Supplies, Steam and Gas Fittings. Steam and Hot Air Heaters put in repair for the winter.

ADAMS BUILDING

Couches,
$5.98.

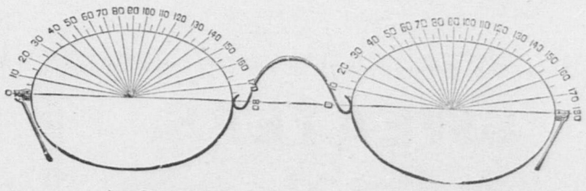

Good, substantial couches, well made and built for service, made on best tempered steel springs, covered with Persian Velours, Figured Corduroys or Belgian Velvets and fringed to the floor.

People ask, "How can you sell them at such a fabulously low price?" Couches for $5.98 that are easily worth $15 00.

We sometimes wonder ourselves, but that's a matter of minor consideration, the couches are here in a variety of covers ready to send to your home in an hour's time if need be. Luxurious, dreamy couches, and our price but $5.98.

Fifty other patterns of couches to select from, prices from $4.75 to $30.00.

HENRY L. KINCAIDE & CO.
Reliable, Low Priced House Furnishers.
Hancock Street, : : Quincy.

ASTIGMATISM

Causes most of the distressing headaches. Properly fitted glasses will correct the error and remove the pain. Consult

WILLIAMS,
Member of the New England Association of Opticians,
104 Hancock St., Quincy.

A SICK CHILD

Can be made healthy, happy and rosy by giving it True's Elixir. Worms cause ill health in thousands of children and their presence is not suspected. True's Elixir expels worms and cures all the complaints common in children, Feverishness, Costiveness, Indigestion, Sour Stomach, etc. Made of pure, harmless, vegetable ingredients.

TRUE'S ELIXIR CURES

It has been a standard household remedy for 47 years. Restores health to adults, acts immediately on the blood, cures diseases of the mucous lining of the bowels and stomach, gives tone and vigor. Price 35 cents. Ask your druggist for it. Write for book "Children and their Diseases"—free.
DR. J. F. TRUE & CO., AUBURN, MAINE.

HOW TO MAKE MONEY.

Take a silver dollar and drop it on a jeweler's show case and you'll get a ring. Take a quarter and saw it in two in the middle and get two halves. Take a two-dollar bill and fold it once and you double it—and you can keep on monkeying with money and make imaginary capital for an hour. But if you want to get a new wrinkle in money, just take a new ten dollar bill and fold it corner-ways and you'll get a new wrinkle every time. But don't fool with your money and don't let anybody else fool with it. Don't let anybody fool you with the idea that they'll give you a $10 bill with every $2 suit or overcoat.

The new store has earned a reputation for selling straight goods at straight prices. We don't monkey with your money, or flim-flam you with any imaginary values. We give you good goods, charge a fair-profit price for everything you buy and expect you to come back the second time because you were used right the first.

We can sell a good Overcoat for $5.00 and an all wool one for $6.50. But for $7.50 we can show you a dandy all wool Kersey, made with new edge and lap seams and lined with well-lasting linings. The same coat our competitors (in Boston) get $10 for.

Our $10 coat we have in Blacks, Blues, Olives and Browns. Then we have them for $11, $12, $13, $13.50, $15, $15.50 and upwards to $19, in all the different style goods this season.

For this week and next too, if they are not all gone, we will sell all wool Dickey Pants at $1.48. All the other stores get $2.00.

QUINCY CLOTHING CO.,

LOWEST PRICED CLOTHIERS IM NORFOLK COUNTY.

MUSIC HALL BLOCK.

STATE ELECTOIN.

CITY OF QUINCY.

City Clerk's Office, Oct. 7, 1898.

IN Accordance with the provisions of Chapter 548 of the Acts of 1898, notice is hereby given that by a vote of the City Council, passed October 3, 1898, the polling places for the election to be held TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1898, in the City of Quincy, were designated as follows:

WARD ONE.–Council Chamber, City Hall.
WARD TWO–Hose House, Washington street.
WARD THREE, Precinct One.–Doble's Hall, Franklin street.
WARD THREE, Precinct Two.–Old Steamer House, School street.
WARD FOUR, Precinct One.–St. Mary's Hall, Willard street.
WARD FOUR, Precinct Two.–Hose House, Copeland street.
WARD FIVE.–Polson's Building, Newport avenue.
WARD SIX.–Hose House, Newbury avenue.

Attest: EDGAR G. CLEAVES, City Clerk.

Quincy, Oct. 7, 1898. 27t

NOTICE TO VOTERS.

CITY OF QUINCY.

For the purpose of preparing the Annual Register of Voters, and of receiving evidence of qualification from persons claiming a right to Vote at the coming State Election, the Board of Registrars of Voters will be in session at the COUNCIL CHAMBER in the City Hall Building, on the evenings of

Wednesday, Sept. 14,
Saturday, Sept. 17,
Thursday, Sept. 29,
Saturday, Oct. 1,
Wednesday, Oct. 5.
Saturday, Oct. 8,
Saturday, Oct. 15,

From 7 to 9 P. M., and also on

Wednesday, Oct. 19,

From 12 o'clock M. until 10 o'clock P. M.

Every applicant for registration must appear in person before the Board, and must present either a certificate from the Assessors or a Tax bill or Notice from the Collector of Taxes, showing that he has been assessed as a resident of the City on the First day of May last; or a certificate from the Assessors that he has been a resident of the City for the six months next preceding the election at which he claims a right to vote. If a naturalized citizen he must also produce for inspection his papers of naturalization. Payment of a poll tax is not a prerequisite to voting.

No person can vote at the election unless his name has previously been placed upon the voting list of the Ward of which he was a resident on the first day of May last, and no name can be added to the list of voters unless registered previous to

Wednesday, Oct. 19th.

at 10 o'clock P. M., when registration will close.

Examine the Voting Lists posted, and see that your name is in its proper place. NO CHANGE can be made after WEDNESDAY, Oct. 19th, at 10 o'clock P. M. The Board of Assessors will be in session at their office on the same evenings.

EDWARD B. MARSH,
CORNELIUS MOYNIHAN,
EDWARD J. McKEON,
EDGAR G. CLEAVES,
Registrars.

Quincy, Sept. 6, 1898. 38t r10-2w

For Sale or To Let,

FURNISHED,

NASH'S HOTEL.

Full of Boarders and a good transient trade. Cheap rent. My catering business is all I can attend to.

Apply at HOTEL, 148 Hancock street, Quincy, Mass. oct11 tf lo

FOR SALE.

Bigelow St. Fine New Residence, 9 rooms, bath, laundry, furnace, open plumbing, cemented cellar, fire place, etc.

R. D. CHASE, Savings Bank Building.

Quincy, April 8-tf. 9o-tf

CAUSES UNEASINESS.

Feeling That the Spanish Are Not Ready to Yield Cuba.

Influenced by Reports About Our Army.

Impression Prevails That the Soldiers Cannot Stand Hardship.

Washington, Oct. 18.—Information has reached the war department that a high officer of the Spanish army very recently made the statement that had the Spaniards been aware of the condition of the American army, its inability to withstand the hardships of a campaign, its lack of medical and other supplies and general inefficiency as told in the American papers, the Spaniards would not have given up, but would have continued fighting for a long time to come, fully believing that they would have been able to prevent the capture of Cuba by American arms. This statement is known to have been made to the American officers now in Cuba, and causes some uneasiness in official circles, as it may mean that the Spaniards are not ready to yield the island under the terms of the protocol.

By those who are in a position to know, it is asserted that the Madrid government was aware when it asked for peace and when negotiations were opened that it was useless to ask that the Cuban debt be taken into consideration by any commission; and that it is only since the reports of the bad condition of the United States army have reached Madrid that the question has been raised.

Another matter that causes grave consideration in the war department is the temper of the Spaniards in Cuba, and the fear that the impression which now prevails there may lead them to regard the American troops of not much account, and act accordingly after the occupancy by the United States. It is probable that when the troops are sent to Cuba there will be a force of such size and character as to give the islanders a different impression of United States soldiers from that which they now entertain.

"The impression among the Spaniards in Cuba," said an officer who is in a position to know what is going on, "is that the American soldiers are weak and puny, incapable of withstanding hardship, and whom it will be an easy matter to vanquish. This feeling may make it difficult for the Americans at first. This impression is due to the charges that have been made against the war department with such virulence and insistence during the past few months."

Concerning Revenue Stamps.

Washington, Oct. 18.—The acting commissioner of the internal revenue bureau has held that adhesive internal revenue stamps sold to persons exclusively for resale may be redeemed upon presentation of the same through the collector from whom they were purchased, accompanied by a claim for allowance, together with an affidavit of the fact of purchase. This ruling is made upon the assumption that in many cases the purchase of adhesive stamps for resale was for the disinterested purpose of assisting the government in the distribution of the stamps when such assistance was eagerly sought, and so exercised for the time being quasi public duties. This rule, however, does not apply to stamps imprinted on checks, drafts or other instruments, nor to any adhesive documentary stamps other than those of the denomination of two cents. Therefore the only stamps for which allowance can be made are the adhesive documentary stamps of the denomination of two cents and proprietary stamps other than private die stamps.

Daly Given the Decision.

Syracuse, Oct. 18.—"Jack" Daly of Wilmington, Del., was given the decision over James Curran, English champion lightweight, in a 20-round bout last evening. The bout was exceedingly tame and but little fast fighting was done. The decision was received with hisses. Lavigne was challenged from the ringside in behalf of Daly.

Wollaston Post Office.

Letters unclaimed for week ending Oct. 15: Mrs. Lorrey, Mrs. Henry Chapman, Mrs. E. B. Bird, Miss Jennie Smith, Miss D. L. Brown, Miss Stina P. Cameron, Miss Tressa Long.

LAND VALUES.

Continued from page 1.

WARD FIVE.

Valuation of Land Only.	Total Ward Tax.
Merrill, Elizabeth W. 5,250, Morton, $400.	7 20
Merrill, Emma D. 4,317, Beale, $1,000.	28 80
Merrill, Eugene A. 4,200, Bromfield, $300.	52 20
Merrill, Fred C. 10,780, Beale, $5,400.	282 80
Merrill, Laura G. 5,000, Lot 13, Sec. 6, $300.	41 40
Merrill, Laura C., and others, ass. 5,000, Safford, $250. 5,000, " $750. 15,000, " $700.	154 10
Milane, Cecilia, 20,400, Greenleaf place, $800.	27 90
Milberry, Levi H. 5,000, West Elm ave., $400.	7 20
Milbery, Olive B. 5,000, West Elm ave., $400.	43 20

WARD SIX.

Mellett, Robert 10,815, Bayfield road, $700.	$45 00
Merrick, Sarah E. 5,280, Atlantic $575.	46 35
Merrill, John F. 5,000, Rawson road, $350.	63 90
Meek, William T. 7,600, Appleton, $625. 11,196, " $800.	115 85
Meir, Frederick A. 5,667, Felton, $500.	57 80
Meir, Frederick, Jr., 5,500 Felton, $500.	55 80
Miles, Alice J. 7,600, Botolph, $525.	47 25
Miles, Henry H. 5,000, Botolph, $350.	26 90

To be continued.

TODAY'S COURT.

Michael Marino was arraigned for carrying firearms in the Metropolitan Park Reservation and was fined $5.

David Hill came into court and paid a fine of $5 for drunkenness.

The continued case of James Flynn of Milton for assault on George A. Bates was called and he was fined $12.

Arthur O'Neil was arraigned for breaking and entering the building occupied by Charlie Wong and the larceny therefrom of $50. Case continued until Thursday. In default of $300 bail he was committed.

Alleged Detective's Troubles.

Washington, Oct. 17.—Chief Wilkie of the secret service has been informed of the arrest at Swainsboro, Ga., of Thomas F. Pierce, on a charge of having in his possession raised notes and moulds for making counterfeit coins. Pierce, representing himself as a private detective, wrote the bureau recently that he knew the hiding place of a fugitive counterfeiter. He informed a secret service detective, who was sent to investigate the matter, that he wanted $30 for expenses and a guarantee of $400 reward for the capture of the counterfeiter, which the detective was not authorized to furnish.

Pierce then repeated his offer to the bureau, adding that he had in his possession incriminating evidence against the counterfeiters, consisting of moulds for making coin and raised notes. The case looked so suspicious that Chief Wilkie ordered the arrest of Pierce, and he was taken to Atlanta. The detective found in his possession two $5 notes raised to $50, moulds for making silver dollars and 50-cent pieces, and a quantity of spurious coin.

—Snakes are one of the scourges of India. Thousands of people die yearly from their bite. In the last 22 years the number of deaths attributed to this cause has reached the enormous total of 433,289.

—An Atchison girl, who wrote the advertisements for a millinery store, allowed her mind to run so much upon her business that one day when she wrote to her lover to meet her that night at home she unonsciously added as a postscript, "Come early and avoid the rush!"

—Physicians carriages have the right of way in the streets of Berlin.

☞ Nickle Alarm Clocks that go off like a gattling gun, 89 cents. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

A SUDDEN DEATH.

R. J. Larkin Succumbs to Typhoid—Prominent in Societies.

Mr. Richard J. Larkin of Hancock street died at his home early this morning of typhoid pneumonia. He had taken to his bed, but little more than a week ago, but the malady had evidently made such ravages upon his system that the best of medical care, and nursing were powerless to stay the disease.

Mr. Larkin was born in Quincy in 1858, and except at short intervals has always live here. After leaving school he began work in the stone yards, and later was apprenticed to the stonecutters' trade. He became a very skilful workman and had employment in the best yards of the city. Later he entered the employ of Swithin Bros. as a solicitor, and in this capacity did more than any other man to develop the local granite business. He was a pioneer in the work of dealing directly with the purchaser, and by his perseverance, and complete knowledge of the business soon built for his employers an immense local trade. Mr. Larkin had a wide acquaintance and a large friendship list in three of the New England states, and all with whom he had been engaged will be pained to hear of his sudden death.

He married Miss Annie Heany of Clinton in 1882, and the blessings of the union were seven children, three girls and four boys. The widow and children have the sympathy of the community in the loss of a dutiful husband and kind father.

The deceased was a Past Chief Ranger of West Quincy Court of Foresters, and the present head of Quincy Council, Knights of Columbus.

He joined the latter body in June, 1894, and was chosen as the first warden. Later he filled other offices, and last December was elected to the chief office in the gift of a subordinate council. Years ago when the Knights of Labor were in the fullness of power the subject of this sketch held office in the local assembly and by his fellows was esteemed a man of tact and good judgment. In January of this year he was elected treasurer of the Democratic City Committee.

The several bodies of which he was a member will hold special meetings to take action on his death and to make arrangements for the funeral, which will be held from his late home on Thursday morning. Mass of requiem will be celebrated in St. John's church, and the interment will be in St. Mary's cemetery, West Quincy.

☞ Parlor Stoves that are economical in fuel and powerful heaters. $2.98 to $25.00. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

—Russia is said to own one-half of the horses of the world.

Babies Thrive On It.

Gail Borden Eagle Brand Condensed Milk.

LITTLE BOOK "INFANT HEALTH" SENT FREE, Should be in Every House.

N.Y. CONDENSED MILK CO. NEW YORK.

CO. K DISGUSTED.

Rumors of an Outside Man For Captain.

Company to Issue a Vigorous Protest to Colonel.

Urge Quincy Friends to Take Some Immediate Action.

With Co. K, 5th Mass., Camp Meade Annex, Oct. 16.

This is a fine warm Sunday, the sun rising bright. The usual guard mount took place.

Those on guard today are Corporal Gannon, Privates Olson, Perivano, D. Smith, Swanson, Spillane, Savoie, Sheehan, Sullivan, Serberg, Private Spillane was orderly.

We are sorry to hear the news that Lieut. Whitney is not to be commander of our noble company. Rumor has it that Lieut, Nielson of Co. E is to take command of our company.

If our company is not competent enough to have one of our officers promoted, we do not want any outsider to step in. This is the only company from Norfolk county, and we believe it the duty and honor to have our 1st Lieutenant promoted to the Captaincy. He has served for a number of years in the State militia, enlisting as a private, and advancing upward until he has now reached the highest promotion of a line officer. Besides being a soldierly bearing officer, he is also a fine tactician, able to compete with any captain who may be set before him. The boys will stand by their two lieutenants. We want a commander from Norfolk county and no other.

A vigorous protest will be issued by the members of this command. It is a disheartening affair to have our boys work together and make this company, what it is today, the best and most experienced of any in the whole 5th Regiment, and possibly the 2d division.

We wish the friends of Co. K to take this as an informal caution, and help our company out of the danger, which will menace them. There is not another company on the field, that turn out more neat and clean men for duty than K. Its record for orderlyship will tell.

We do this for the best interest of our officers. Having men who know their business, and a company that is disciplined to do whatever company that may be given.

Lieut. Whitney must feel very disheartened after all his effort to make a fine company and then not succeed when the time comes for his promotion.

Sergeant Phillips took a morning walk and came across a cranberry bog. He picked some fine large cranberries. He and Sergeants McGrath and Barrett will enjoy them for dinner, they making an elegant sauce.

We are pleased to have a warm day once more, having experienced the last few days very damp weather. Our boys are all well. This being Sunday, makes it a very quiet day. Nothing of any importance occurring. DOC.

With Co. K, 5th Mass. Camp Meade, Annex, Oct. 15.

The weather was something severe all day yesterday; rained and was very chilly; but towards sunset it began to clear. Then turned very damp and cold. Last night was the coldest night yet.

Private O. A. Johnson was selected as orderly yesterday.

The ball on the flag staff was at last put in position, it being accomplished by a member of Co. H. Major Morrison had a lantern lit and hoisted to top of pole, so that the boys could designate their camp. At reveille this morning, the Major hoisted Old Glory, so that we have our flag of freedom waving to the breeze. Today the wind is very high, and chilly. The weekly inspection is on the programme for this morning, the Major will make inspection of rifles and other equipments.

The company streets after so much rain are in a fearful condition. The boys seem to be well, for this cool weather is more bracing, although we don't want it too cool.

The last report from Division Headquarters is that the 2d Army Corps will not be moved from Camp Meade until the middle of November. Then it will be embarked direct for Cuba, there being so much sickness down south that the General protested against moving until he could have his troops stationed in Cuba.

Those detailed for guard duty are Corporal Johnson, Bugler Johnson, Privates Lyons, Martell, Malcolm, Mahoney, Morrissey, McPhee, Mead, Moreales, Osgood.

Private Daniel P. Lyons was selected as orderly.

Mrs. Spear, wife of Lieut. C. F. Spear, arrived in camp this morning.

The boys are today wearing their great overcoats. Without them, they would be frozen. It still remains cloudy, like more rain.

Private Tucker had a severe cold yesterday, but with a good day's rest he is once more able to be around. He and Private Brown have gone for a trip to Harrisburg.

Sergeant McGrath is today in charge of company.

Sergt. Phillips has taken some good views of the camp with his camera.

Major Morrison and Adjutant Coleman are having their quarters fixed with boards around tents, to keep out the cold, they intend to prepare for winter.

We can hear our regimental band playing in the distance, the wind carrying the sound to our camp. It is quite enjoyable to sit and hear the music.

The Major and Mrs. Morrison are enjoying a drive to the city this afternoon.

No drill this afternoon. The boys are playing a game of rugby out on the parade ground.

Through all this severe weather, we cannot hear any word about sickness. The boys are all well. DOC.

CAPT. WHITNEY.

Co. K. Will Petition for Promotion of the Lieutenant.

Efforts are being made both in Quincy and at Camp Meade to have Lieut. Whitney promoted to captain of Co. K. From what can be learned his promotion to captain is almost assured but his assignment to Co. K is still a matter of doubt. Letters received from Camp Meade this morning indicate that the matter is not fully settled as yet and friends of Lieut. Whitney in this city, and they are legion, have set the wheels in motion to further that end. It is reported that one of the most effective ways to have him promoted is by a petition from the company to Col. Whitney which those who know the latter gentlemen say would have more effect than a petition signed by thousands of citizens. This petition will probably be drawn up and given the Colonel today.

Lieut. Whitney is very popular with the members of Co. K and there is not one of them but wishes and would do all in their power to have him promoted.

Made a Doctor of Laws.

Chicago, Oct. 18.—The University of Chicago has conferred upon President McKinley the degree of doctor of laws. Eight hundred people applauded to the echo as President Harper placed around the shoulders of the nation's executive the hood of purple—purple to indicate, as Dr. Harper said in Latin, that the recipient of the degree "had surpassed other men in native genius and devotion to it."

The address on behalf of the trustees was given by Rev. Dr. Alonzo K. Parker. He spoke on "The Firm Foundation of National Peace," and his concluding sentences were terse and significant. He finished as follows: "Divine indeed were the tasks for which the good sword excalibar was appointed. It must drive out the heathen hordes from the fair fields they would lay waste; it must ruthlessly cut down the cruel and bloody men by whom the defenceless were oppressed. In holy vengeance it must make short work with all who withstand established order and defy righteous laws; but to the divinely appointed task of the sword there is an end. Hail the promise of that day. Then in the great banqueting hall, where the feast of the jubilee of peace is spread, men shall turn from the solemn glory of the windows which emblazon righteous wars to fix their eyes upon the great western window, vacant no longer, but glowing with the pictured record of that achievement most illustrious and memorable in human annals, in which war itself is conquered and the sword of warfare is cast away."

After leaving the university the president was driven to the First regiment armory, where he received the public informally. Great crowds thronged the streets, clamoring for admission to the armory, and only a part succeeded in meeting the president during the time scheduled for the reception. In the evening a dinner was tendered the president at a hotel by President Harper of the university.

☞ Full sized, well made comfort bringing comforters, $1.00. Others 75 cents to $3.50. Blankets from 45 cents per pair up. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

BORN.

PRESCOTT—In Braintree, Oct. 18, a daughter to Mr. Eben and Mrs. Helen Arnold Prescott of Middle street.

DIED.

CATE—In Wollaston, Oct. 17, Mrs. Lavina T., widow of Mr. Andrew J. Cate, aged 82 years.
PRESCOTT—In Randolph, Oct. 15, Mr. Charles Prescott, aged 53 years.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS.

Advertisements in this column inserted at the following rates:

Four lines, or less, one day, - - 25 cents.
" " three days, - - - 50 cents.
" " one week, - - - - 75 cents.

Additional lines will be charged for pro rata. Seven words equal a line. Long term rates furnished on application.

LOST.

LOST—A Silver open-face Waltham Watch, with leather chain, probably on Hancock street. Notify J. H. ARCHIBALD, 41 Quarry street extension.
Quincy, Oct. 15. 3t

FOUND.

FOUND—At the auction of Ernest G. Bacon, Atlantic, one Fur Cape. The owner can obtain the same by calling at my office, 4 Chestnut street, Quincy, and proving property. FRANK F. CRANE, Auctioneer.
Oct. 17. 6t

FOUND—An amount of Money. Apply at 11 Parker street.
Quincy, Oct. 15. 3t

WANTED.

WANTED—Two Unfurnished Rooms with or without board. Quincy Point preferred. Address "B," Ledger office,
Quincy, Oct. 18. 3t

WANTED—Experienced girl to do general housework; must be a good cook. Apply to MRS. JOHN W. HALL, 212 Hancock street.
Quincy, Oct. 17, 6t

WANTED—Capable Girl for general housework in a family of three; one who understands English. Call or address Mrs. E. E. Jameson, cor. Brook and Farrington streets, Wollaston.
Oct. 15—6t p15—1w

WANTED—50 Experienced Stitchers on Shirts. Steady work. Also girls to sew on buttons. Apply, CONGRESS MFG. CO., 141 Washington street, Quincy.
Oct. 12-6t 15-po 1w

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—Well known and fast Cape Cat Boat, Hustler, winner Quincy Yacht Club Handicap Championship, '98. New sails and rigging, tight cock fit, very easy to handle, o. a. 23 ft. 10 in., b. 11 ft., draft 28 in., large cabin; head room 52 in. Also 1 13-ft. Cat Boat, 7 ft. b., 12 in. draft; very able; a bargain; seat 7. C. C. C., 63 Lawrence street, Waltham, Mass. oct12-6t

TO LET.

TO LET—Half a House of 5 rooms entirely separate on Phipps street, Mt. Pleasant. Rent, $8 a month; city water. Inquire at 17 Summer street.
Quincy, Sept. 27. 24t

TO LET—On Washington street, at the corner of Wibird street, a very desirable house for a small family. Six rooms, two of them new, and all in good repair. Rent, $15. City water. Concrete sidewalk in front of the house extending to the depot. Apply only to FRANK F. PRESCOTT, at the Ledger office or at 14 Bigelow street. tf

TO LET—Cottage house, No. 29 Granite street, 8 rooms, three minutes' from City Square. Apply to H. M. FAXON, 4 Adams Building. Sept. 30—tf

FOR RENT—Desirable house with bath, corner lot, nice neighborhood, three minutes' walk from schools, churches and depot Rent reasonable. Apply at No. 6 Pleasant St.
Quincy, Sept. 7. tf

TO LET.

House of 8 rooms, etc., No. 20 Canal street, Quincy. Nice house, excellent location.

R. D. CHASE, Savings Bank Building.
Quincy, Oct. 8. pl tf

TO LET.

APARTMENTS of five large rooms and bath, with all modern improvements. Also two large stores. Rent moderate. Apply to ARTHUR CRAIG, or J. W. HAYDEN, at Craig Building, cor. Copeland and Garfield Sts.
Quincy, July 15. pl tf

TO LET IN QUINCY.

SOUTHERLY Half of house with stable 214 Hancock street, now occupied by Dr. N. S. Hunting. Modern improvements, central location. Possession given about October 15th. Apply on premises to
MISS M. F. UNDERWOOD.
Oct. 1. tf

HOUSES, STORES, LAND,

ROOMS, OFFICES, AND WHARVES,

To Let In Quincy, Mass.

The Houses are in Complete Repair.

Half-house, 10 rooms, 6 Chester street, Wollaston.
House, 10 rooms with stable, 16 Cottage street.
Half-house, 5 rooms, 16 Cottage street.
House, 8 rooms, 29 Granite street.
Half-house, 4 rooms, 4 Water street, $7 per month.
Tenement, 5 rooms, 59 North street.
Half-house, 6 rooms, Pond street, $10 per month.
Half-house, 5 rooms, 13 Field street, $8 per month.
Tenement, 3 rooms, 28 Howard street, $3 per month.
Tenements, 51 Howard street, $4, $5 and $6 per month.
Room, 12 Washington street, $5 per month.
Large building, suitable for manufacturing purposes on Brackett's wharf.
Small stable, 2 Quincy street, $3 per month.
Small stable, 28 Coddington street, $5 per month.
100 windows, and blinds, various sizes.
Wharf, stone sheds, etc., Quincy Neck.
Basement, head of Granite street.
100 tons ballast for sale.
Land to rent for tillage or pasturing purposes.
Gravel and sand for sale.
50 loads of loam for sale.
The buildings are in the very best condition.
For particulars, enquire of, or address

HENRY H. FAXON, Quincy, Mass.

Quincy, Oct. 13, 1898. 1m

☞ Furniture reupholstered, mattresses made over, carpets cleaned. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

Gentlemen, Buy Your....

OVERCOATS

Where you can find the best assortment in the city and the lowest prices, which is at

C. F. DERBY'S, SAVINGS BANK BUILDING, QUINCY. 5-1m

NOTHING BETTER,

UNCLE SAM'S NAVY

Now commands the respect of the world, and we are all proud of the defenders of the Nation's Honor. To give the people of Quincy a good idea of the grand battleships, we have ordered a large supply of portfolios, giving magnificent views of the ships, crews, etc.

With each purchase made at our store we will give a portfolio check to the value of the purchase. When you have $4.00 worth of these checks, return them and get a portfolio. Continue in this way until you have the set complete. Call and see these magnificent portfolios.

ROGERS BROS.,

Groceries and Provisions. Adams Building, Quincy.

New Pianos, $185.00.

Just why people pay fancy profits and fancy prices for pianos, when they can't afford to, is hard to tell. Truth is, they don't know themselves.

Everyone can and should own a piano, a piano to be proud of, a piano with perfect touch and delightful tone, a piano you'll never have to apologize for, a piano that's sold at an honest price within the reach of everyone. A piano honestly built, with a rich, beautifully carved case; a piano that's fully guaranteed. A piano just the same kind exactly that sells for $450.00 with a different name stenciled on the case, but our price to everyone is $185.00.

It's worth considering, and the time to buy is now. Do not delay but have a piano in your home at once. These pianos are not merely a bargain, they are almost a gift. Time payments for those who wish.

HENRY L. KINCAIDE & CO.,

The People's Cut Price House Furnishers,

HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

MAKE IT HOT FOR YOU.

If your house is cold and you have become disgusted with the various devices called heaters, and you are really anxious to have warmth and comfort in your home, place an order for one of those G. B. Bates CIRCULATORS. It will "make it hot for you" or just the temperature you desire. Its construction is based upon scientific and economical principles. Several have recently been put in right here in Quincy, and others will be put in during the next few weeks. Don't read this ad. and then forget about it till your water pipes are all frozen, but go now to

G. B. BATES,

Hancock Street, Quincy.

SWITHIN BROS.

REAL ESTATE!

President's Hill.

President's Hill Annex.

Cranch Hill.

Choice Lots and Improved Property for Sale in West Quincy, Wollaston, South Quincy, Quincy Point, Quincy Centre.

Room 12, Durgin & Merrill's Block, Quincy.

CUBAN SOVEREIGNTY,

Idea of Accepting It Rejected by the Commissioners.

Island In a State of Anarchy, Spanish Declare.

Want to Be Relieved of the Responsibility For the Debt.

London, Oct. 18.—The Paris correspondent of The Times says: "At the sitting of the peace commission Monday afternoon the American commissioners officially—and, it would seem, definitely—rejected the idea of accepting sovereignty over Cuba for the United States. The Spanish commissioners thereupon remarked that Spain, having abandoned such sovereignty under pressure from the United States, and the United States having denied that sovereignty henceforth belongs to them, Cuba is de facto in a state of anarchy, as an intermission of sovereignty cannot be viewed in any other light."

"The American commissioners rejoined that, without accepting sovereignty, the United States considered itself deputied and bound to maintain security for all the inhabitants; that it would not fail to introduce and uphold order, and in short that it would do all that was necessary to put the island as speedily as possible in a state of normal organization, to be transformed at the earliest moment into a legal regularity satisfactory for the security of all.

"Upon this the Spanish commissioners, with what seems striking logic, promptly replied that by the fact of the declaration just made them and of the United States undertaking to restore legality, order and security, the United States was invested with veritable sovereignty, and consequently could not refuse to accept the consequences of such sovereignty, seeing that it admittedly could not tolerate the relapse into anarchy of an island placed under its supervision and direction.

"Notwithstanding these striking objections, the American commissioners persisted in their refusal and officially declared that the United States cannot be considered invested with sovereignty, and that the commissioners could not deviate from this definitive declaration.

"According to impressions I have been able to collect in various circles unconnected with either side, but entitled to weight, the refusal of the United States is not of so positive a character as would at first sight seem to result from the formal declarations mentioned. The reasoning given me is this: The United States have declared that it made a war not of conquest, but of liberation and order, because it could not allow the prolongation at its very doors of a state of things which was, in its eyes, a blow to the cause of humanity and civilization. Therefore it made a public declaration that the war was not one of conquest, and it now considers that by agreeing to be invested with the sovereignty of Cuba it would give itself the appearance of having conquered the island for territorial aggrandizement. It refuses to give itself the appearance of a conquering nation. Hence it positively refuses to accept that capacity of sovereignty which would be inconsistent with the character of humanitarian disinterestedness essential to the honor of America.

"The United States quite comprehends that the firm refusal to accept sovereignty does not exclude obligation, on the footing of justice and equity, to make Spain real concessions as to financial burdens which would be crushing if she were saddled with the whole Cuban debt. We may be certain that on this point the Americans will be less inflexible than on the principle of sovereignty. The proof, I am told, that the United States is disposed to meet Spain in an equitable fashion is that the Spanish commissioners, who would not at first accept an invitation to dine with General Horace Porter until the end of the conference, have now accepted. Friends of the United States here think it might have been better if it had proceeded more openly and if, instead of conquering the island indirectly, the Washington government had frankly accepted sovereignty in Cuba with all the rights and obligations involved."

GENERAL HORACE PORTER.

What Spaniards Contend For.

Paris, Oct. 18.—The interchanges regarding Cuba are now so advanced that the Spaniards will not fail to understand the United States' determination, disclosed in these despatches on Saturday, not to assume part or the whole of the so-called Cuban debt of $100,000,000. It should not, however, be understood that the Americans during the course of the controversy have been unmindful of certain local burdens, like the municipal obligations of the Cuban cities, railroads and kindred properties, local and permanent. The American attitude in Cuba is held not to be that of an acquiring power, either of territory or of its real or constructive obligations.

The opposing Spaniards keenly contend that sovereignty involves burdens as well as blessings, and that both should pass together from Spain. Closely following this contention the Spaniards are pressing for a construction of the word "relinquish" in the Cuban article of the protocol. "We must," they urge, "relinquish sovereignty over Cuba, but to whom? We have not agreed to relinquish it to the Cubans; we relinquish it to the United States." Thus, crystallizing their reasoning and insistence, the Spaniards bind debt and sovereignty together and urge that the relinquishment must be to "the United States.

While this contention is keenly and vigorously supported, it has not shaken the position of the Americans, who cut the thread of Spanish diplomacy in the middle of "relinquish" by practically assuring the Spaniards that they need not cherish anxiety as to whom to relinquish, but to conform to the fourth article of the protocol, which pledges Spain "that Cuba, Porto Rico and the other Spanish islands of the West Indies shall be immediately evacuated."

Raising of the Flag.

San Juan, Oct. 18.—The Sixth Massachusetts volunteer regiment will leave for the United States on or about Oct. 29 on the Mississippi.

The final ceremony in the delivery of the island and the raising of the United States flag upon the captain general's palace and the public buildings of San Juan took place at noon. National salutes were fired by the American artillery and the forts. All the insular officials and the foreign consuls received invitations to attend the function.

Spanish Colonel's Rowdyism.

Havana, Oct. 18.—Sunday afternoon Regla, a suburb of Havana, was thoroughly aroused by a sensational incident. On the Havana train stopping at the Cuban camp of Rafael de Cardenas, several hundred passengers were picked up. Many who boarded the train displayed Cuban insignia. A Spanish colonel objected to this and tore the badges from the breasts of the wearers, at the same time giving orders to the civil guard accompanying the train to arrest the engineer and conductor if they dared to stop again at a Cuban camp.

Distributing Soldiers' Mail.

Washington, Oct. 18.—Acting Postmaster General Heath has made the following statement regarding published statements that soldiers' mail is being received at the dead letter office in large quantities: "In order to overcome the confusion and sometimes delay caused by failure to address mail properly to troops, the war department began two or three months ago to furnish the post-office department official bulletins showing the location of the troops. Copies of these were furnished each headquarters of regiments, and with the regular roster of troops in possession of regimental commanders it became only a matter of labor to locate a soldier and to deliver his mail to him through the company's letter carriers designated by regimental commanders.

"Special attention is given to every piece of mail received at the dead letter office addressed to a soldier or sailor. Every possible effort is made to locate the addresses, and the mail is forwarded with the greatest possible expedition. I believe that less than one-half as great a percentage of soldiers' mail is being received now at the dead letter office than has been received of mail addressed to the ordinary business or commercial men of the country."

Seaman's Charge Refuted.

Washington, Oct. 18.—The subsistence department of the army has a statement refuting some features of the testimony of Major Seaman before the war investigating commission. Seaman said that nobody could get supplies for the sick from the commissary, yet when he left Ponce the chief commissary there had at his disposal $244,000 subject to requisition of surgeons for just such supplies as Seaman said he wanted. Major Daly, a surgeon who came here about the same time, made a requisition and secured $3600 for the purchase of supplies for the sick, and turned the unexpended balance over to the department here when he arrived.

Federation of Christian Workers.

Cleveland, Oct. 18.—Commander Ballington Booth of the Volunteers of America announces that he has almost perfected plans for a new organization of christian workers which will be distinct from, but to a certain extent affiliated with, the movement inaugurated by the volunteers. It will be known as the Federation of Christian Workers, and will have branches all over the country. Its object is to organize church workers and develop their talents. The federation will aim to extend religious teaching among the thousands of working people who are not now under church influence. The movement will be entirely non-sectarian and will have the support of many of the leading denominations. Commander Booth will be the president of the federation, and there will be about 15 vice presidents, who will be selected from among the different bishops.

Duchess Loses Her Jewelry.

Paris, Oct. 18.—The Duchess of Sutherland, while on board a train from Calais bound for London, lost a satchel containing jewelry worth £30,000. Her grace left the train at Amiens and returned here to report her loss to the police. It is believed that the satchel was stolen, but there is no clew to the thief.

It is supposed that the satchel was taken when the duchess left her compartment in the train for a moment to speak with friends at the railroad station here after having deposited it near her seat in the compartment.

Police Charged the Crowd.

Dublin, Oct. 18.—There was great excitement Sunday night at Ballinrobe, county Mayo, due to serious collisions between the people and the police, owing to the United Irish league meeting, announced for that evening, being proclaimed. About 20,000 persons assembled, and Michael Davitt and William O'Brien, who were to be the speakers, were met outside the town by a detachment of 200 police and prevented from entering the place. The police were forced to charge the crowd frequently during the night, and many persons were injured.

Indians Give In.

Washington, Oct. 18.—Adjutant General Corbin late last night received the following dispatch from General Bacon, dated Walker, Minn.: "At a council with hostile Indians the latter said they wanted no more fighting with United States soldiers, and agreed to come in and surrender on Wednesday. This is the result of their defeat when engaged with me on the 5th."

OUT OF THE SLOUGH.

Fall River Manufacturers to Restrict Sales and Curtail Production.

Fall River, Oct. 18.—Makers of the common print cloth have reached an agreement finally in an undertaking to benefit the market, which is now in a much depressed state. It is intended to put the goods in charge of two committees. One committee of five will direct all the trading, and another committee of two will act as sellers. The trading is to be done in the usual way through brokers. There are four varieties of goods to be controlled by this committee. They are designated as follows: Twenty-eight-inch, 64x64s (the standard regulars forming the basis for market prices); 28-inch, 64x60s; 27-inch, 60x56s; 27-inch, 56x56s. These weaves comprise the great bulk of plain goods made here, excepting wide goods.

The proceeds from the sales will be distributed among the mills in proportion to the amounts furnished. All business relating to prices will be left to the judgment of the committee.

The curtailment, so far as it is agreed upon at present, is to be for four weeks during the next three months. Whether or not there will be a further curtailment will depend upon the market conditions. Agents entered into the agreement are not absolutely bound to curtail, but must pay a forfeit for running if they are not stopped the full period required.

A meeting of the manufacturers concerned is to be called to elect committees and to confirm details. It is probable that some of the mills will begin on their curtailment next week, if the final arrangements are completed in time.

As far as is known the following mills will not be affected: Barnaby, Border City No. 2, Bourne, Conanicut, Cornell, Davol, Fall River Iron Works company, Globe, Granite No. 3, Hargraves Nos 2 and 3, Kerr, King Philip, Osborn No. 2, Parker, Sanford, Stevens, and parts of some of the other mills. The purpose is to curtail the production of looms that can make the common print cloth.

The News of Beantown.

Boston, Oct. 18.—Paul Tyner of Denver has purchased a controlling interest in The Arena, the radical review founded in Boston by B. O. Flower about 10 years ago, and within a week the delayed October issue will appear under Mr. Tyner's editorial direction. The new editor's name is familiar to Arena readers as a frequent contributor of articles on sociological subjects, and he has written much for other publications.

A teamster named Patrick Shea, 27 years old and single, fell from his wagon in Brighton and was run over, being fatally injured.

Faneuil hall was crowded to the doors last night when the Democrats of Boston ratified the nominations of the state convention in Worcester. It was an enthusiastic crowd. Criticisms of Secretary of War Alger provoked the loudest applause, but the reaffirmation of the doctrines which democracy teaches was warmly received.

The three-masted schooner, Alfred Brabrook, from Hillsboro, N. S., for Philadelphia with about 800 tons of plaster, was towed in here with loss of sails while off Portland late Saturday night.

A mass meeting of members of Harvard university will be held Oct. 21 to take measures for the erection of a memorial to the Harvard men who died in the war with Spain.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

Four men were killed by the explosion of a Wilmington and Northern freight engine at Jeanna station, Pa.

At a meeting of the Lasters' union in Marlboro, Mass., it was voted to postpone the strike which had been determined upon to take place today.

The Bostons and the Bridgeports played a game of ball in Bridgeport yesterday, which was a pretty contest, the Connecticut team winning, 6 to 5.

The textile council, made up of delegates from each of the textile unions in Fall River, has decided to do all that can be done to prevent night work in the mills.

Mrs. John Sherman's condition is reported by her physicians to show further signs of improvement. She is conscious, and strong hopes of her early recovery are expected.

The barge Electra, with 1,300 tons of coal for Fall River, sprang aleak off Montauk Point Saturday and sank, her pumps failing to work. Her crew were taken off by a tug.

Thomas Tarbox, formerly sheriff of York county, Me., and for several years treasurer of Buxton and president of the Buxton and Hollis savings bank, died of heart disease Monday.

Joe Sheahy, heavyweight champion of the northwest, announces the settlement of the arrangements for his final match with Jeffries in San Francisco Dec. 10 for a purse of $5000 before the Olympic club.

The war investigating commission inspected the camps in the vicinity of Jacksonville yesterday. The commission interviewed privates and officers, and made special inquiry into the method of conducting the hospitals.

The body of a man found last Sunday in Gravesend bay with the throat cut was identified as that of John McKenna, steward on the transport Berlin. The identification was made by McKenna's father, who lives in Brooklyn.

Tom Lansing of Louisville, Corbett's sparring partner, knocked out Dick Moore of St. Paul in the 12th round of what was to have been a 25-round bout. The fighting at times was terrific, both men displaying great gameness and science.

Indictments have been returned in Kansas City against Jesse James, son of the noted outlaw; W. W. Low, a self-confessed train robber; Charles Polk, Andrew Ryan and Caleb Stone for holding up and robbing a Missouri Pacific train at Belt Line Junction on the night of Sept. 26.

Lieutenant George Foster Sanford, the Yale football coach, snapped the tendons of one arm and strained the ligaments of the other while coaching Cutten, the big candidate for center on the Yale football eleven. Sanford was in New Haven on a few days' leave of absence from the army, his regiment being encamped at Camp Meade.

Tomorrow's Almanac and Forecast.

ALMANAC, WEDNESDAY, OCT. 19.
Sun rises—6:02; sets, 4:56.
Moon sets—7:52 p. m.
High tide—1:30 a. m.; 1:45 p. m.

The indications favor fair and colder weather for Wednesday.

Died of Poisoning.

Woburn, Mass., Oct. 18.—Ellen McHugh died Sunday night in this city, and the fact that her sister was seriously ill and liable to die at any minute led to the circulation of rumors of suicide by poisoning. Medical Examiner Blake at first gave accidental poisoning as the cause of Ellen's death, but when Kate McHugh died and because of representations the medical examiner decided to ask the district attorney to order an investigation.

There are circumstances connected with the death of these sisters which lead to the belief that they were poisoned through food which they had eaten, but whether it was taken with suicidal intent or ministered by other hands is not known.

The young ladies went to Boston shopping a week ago last Saturday and purchased bologna sausage, which they ate the next day. They were taken sick afterwards and sent for a physician, who left medicine and continued to call from day to day. A gastric trouble ensued, but the physician did not feel alarmed at their condition.

Kate McHugh was to have been married last Wednesday but for her illness.

It isn't much trouble for a really healthy man to be good humored. Jollity and exhuberant health are a proverbial combination. The hearty man who is always laughing doesn't have any trouble with his digestion. It has been said that laughing makes people healthy. The truth is that health makes people laugh.

It is impossible to estimate the tremendous influence of health upon human character. A man with a headache will not be in a happy, contented frame of mind. A man who suffers from a weak stomach and an impaired digestion will sit and grumble through the best meal ever prepared. A bilious man who is not a bore, is deserving of a place in a museum. A nervous man who is not petulent and fault-finding is a curiosity. All these conditions lead to grave diseases, when the victim becomes not only disagreeable, but dependent as well. A wise wife will realize that while the old saying that a "man's heart is in his stomach," is not literally true, it is a fact that his stomach sweetens or sours his character according as it is healthy or unhealthy. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is the best of medicines for the conditions described. It makes the weak stomach strong, the impaired digestion perfect, invigorates the liver, purifies and enriches the blood and tones the nerves. It tears down half-dead, inert tissues and replaces them with the firm muscular tissues of health. It builds new and healthy nerve fibres and brain cells. It dissipates nervousness and melancholy and imparts mental elasticity and courage. It is the best of all known medicines for nervous disorders.

"Through your skillful treatment I am once more a well man," writes J. N. Arnold, Esq., of Gandy, Logan Co., Nebr. "I suffered for years and could not find relief until I commenced taking your 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I suffered with constipation and torpidity of liver which resulted in irritation of the prostate and inflammation of the bladder. I had only taken one bottle when I found great relief. The medicine has effected a permanent cure."

CANCER CURED

BY ABSORPTION

NO KNIFE.

The result of years of scientific research by America's greatest blood specialist. A pleasant treatment that relieves immediately, cures permanently all forms of CANCERS, TUMORS and CHRONIC DISEASES. Hundreds of wonderful cures effected in and around Boston. Read the following:

BLOOD EVIDENCE

Then come to our offices and investigate the hundreds of other marvellous cures produced by ABSORPTION when all other treatment failed. Consult this living patient. "Dr. James M. Solomon: Dear Sir: The following is my testimonial, which I hope will help others. That after suffering several years with something that was never reached, getting only temporary help from different doctors, and each attack being more severe, I was advised by a friend, who had been cured of a tumor, to see her doctor. I was then unable for any work, and feeling worse from day to day; realizing that something was preying upon me of a serious nature, I was discouraged about my condition, and sought Dr. Solomon with little faith—it was more of an experiment. He got my confidence on the first interview, when, without a word of description of my feelings from me, he at once located my trouble, and I could not help believing that he knew from what I was suffering, although was greatly surprised and somewhat terrified when he told me it was cancer of the stomach. I began treatment at once, Nov. 3, 1892, and was faithful to his directions, with just the results promised I would get, till the following June (1893) I felt like a new being, and the doctor pronounced me recovered. I am sure that I have, and I can never repay the gratitude I owe to Dr. J. M. Solomon. Sincerely, EBEN FISH, 232 Harvard St., Dorchester, Mass." Today he is one of the many living witnesses of the only painless method that positively CURES when all others fail.

We want you to call and examine references of people you know—people we all know, who would not vouch for ABSORPTION had they not been cured. Ask for references marked H.

James M. Solomon, M.D.

SPECIALIST IN CANCERS, TUMORS AND CHRONIC DISEASES.

2 A Beacon Street, BOSTON.

Oct. 13. 1y lo

FRANK F CRANE,

AUCTIONEER and APPRAISER,

Office, 4 Chestnut St., Quincy, Mass.

Oct. tf

LADIES ROYAL DELIVERANCE CAPSULES are a positive, safe and speedy monthly regulator, guaranteed to cure the most stubborn cases, or money refunded. Have never failed. Used by thousands of ladies, indorsed and prescribed by the medical profession. Painful and dangerous operations avoided. Price $2, at office or by return mail. 'Royal Protector' and full particulars under plain seal for 4c., stamps. ROYAL REMEDIES CO., 228 Tremont Street, Boston, Mass. Mention this paper.

a speedy cure for the most obstinate cough. It cannot fail

HALE'S HONEY OF HOREHOUND AND TAR

Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar acts like magic for a cough or any throat or bronchial trouble. Ask your druggist.

Pike's Toothache Drops cure in one minute.

Quincy and Boston Electric Street Railway.

[Subject to change without notice.]

On and after October 19, cars will be run on the different routes as follows:

Quincy and Neponset.

Leave CITY SQUARE for Neponset at 5.55, 6.10, 6.25, 6.40 A. M. and every 15 minutes until 11.10 P. M.

Leave NEPONSET for Quincy at 6.15 A. M. and every 15 minutes until 11.30 P. M.

Cars leaving Quincy at 20 minutes of the hour and Neponset on the hour, go via. Hancock street direct.

Cars leaving Quincy at 25 and 55 minutes past the hour go via Newport avenue, Wollaston.

Cars leaving Quincy at 10 minutes past the hour go via Norfolk Downs, and those leaving Neponset at 50 minutes past go via Downs.

Cars leaving Neponset 15 minutes of and 15 minutes past the hour go via Wollaston and continue through Braintree and Holbrook to Brockton, connecting with cars for Bridgewater, Taunton, New Bedford, Fall River, Newport and Providence.

Quincy and East Weymouth.

Leave CITY SQUARE (10 minutes later from Quincy Point and 22 minutes later from North Weymouth)—5.45, 6.20, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20, 9.50, 10.20, 10.50, 11.20, 11.50 A. M.; 12.20, 12.50, 1.20, 1.50, 2.20, 2.50, 3.20, 3.50, 4.20, 4.50, 5.20, (5.30 to East Weymouth car house). 5.50, 6.20, 6.30, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20, 9.50, 10.50 P. M., (11.50 Wednesday and Saturday to Thomas' Corner only.)

Leave EAST WEYMOUTH (20 minutes later from North Weymouth and 30 minutes later from Quincy Point)—6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8, 8.30, 9, 9.30 10, 10.30, 11, 11.30 A. M.; 12, 12.30, 1, 1.30, 2, 2.30, 3, 3.30, 4, 4.30, 5, 5.30, 6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8 8.30, 9, 9.30, 10, 10.30, 11.30 P. M.

Quincy and Weymouth Landing.

Leave QUINCY at 5.30 A. M., 6.20, 7.20 and every hour until 12.20, then 1.50 and every hour until 10.50 P. M.

Leave WEYMOUTH LANDING at 5.50 A. M. and every hour until 12.50, then 2.20 and every hour until 11.20 P. M., connect with trains to Boston at Quincy.

Quincy and East Milton.

Leave CITY SQUARE, 5.55, 6.25, then every 5 minutes of and 25 minutes past the hour until 9.25 P. M., then at 10.50 P. M.

Leave EAST MILTON 6.25, 6.55 A. M., then every 5 minutes of and 25 minutes past the hour until 9.50 P. M., then 10.20 and 11.20 P. M.

Quincy and Brockton.

Leave QUINCY for Brockton at 6.10 and 6.40 A. M., and every half hour until 9.10 P. M. except on Wednesday and Saturday, when car at 9.40 runs through to Brockton. Cars at 9.40 and 10.10 to South Braintree every night.

Quincy and Hingham.

Leave QUINCY at 7.20 A. M. and every hour until 11.20 A. M., then 1.50 and every hour until 5.50 P. M.

Leave HINGHAM at 8 A. M. and every hour until 12 M., then 2.30 and every hour until 6.30 P. M.

Neponset, Atlantic and Squantum.

Leave NEPONSET at 6.30 A. M. and every hour until 8.30 P. M., connecting at Atlantic with outward express trains.

Leave SQUANTUM at 7 A. M. and every hour until 9 P. M., connecting at Atlantic with express trains.

Quincy and Houghs Neck.

Leave QUINCY CENTRE at 6.20 A. M., and and every hour until 1.20, and then 1.50 and every hour until 9.50.

Returning, leave HOUGHS NECK at 5.45 A. M., and every hour until 12.45, and then 1.20 and every hour until 9.20.

SUNDAYS.

Cars leave City Square, Quincy, for E. Weymouth and Weymouth Landing at 7.30 A. M. and West Quincy at 7 A. M. and on the hour and half hour throughout the day.

Sunday time same as week days on other lines, except that the first two trips are omitted.

BENJ. J. WEEKS, Superintendent.

New York, New Haven and Hartford R. R.

Eastern District.

On and after Oct. 16, 1898, trains will run as follows: (See note of explanation at bottom.

TO BOSTON. Leave Quincy.	Stops at	Arrive Boston.	FROM BOSTON. Leave Boston.	Stops at	Arrive Quincy
r 6 12	abc	e 6 30	5 55	ihgfedcba	*6 22 r
r 6 42	abc	7 00	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	7 30	cba	7 49 r
r 7 26	ad	7 43	8 30	cba	8 49 r
r 7 42	abc	8 00	9 30	cba	9 49
r 8 12	abc	8 30	10 30	cba	10 49 r
r 8 26	ad	8 43	11 30	cba	11 49 r
r 8 42	abc	9 00	12 30	cba	12 49 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	1 30	cba	1 49 r
r 10 12	abc	10 30	2 30	cba	2 49 r
r 11 12	abc	11 30	3 30	cba	3 49 r
r 12 12	abc	12 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
r 1 12	abc	1 30	5 00	cba	5 19 r
r 2 12	abc	2 30	5 17	da	5 36 r
r 3 12	abc	3 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
r 4 12	abc	4 30	6 00	cba	6 19 r
r 5 12	abc	5 30	6 17	da	6 36 r
r 6 12	abc	6 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	7 00	cba	7 19 r
r 7 39	abcdefghi	8 05	7 30	cba	7 49 r
r 8 08	abcdef	8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	9 30	cba	9 49 r
r 10 08	abcdef	10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r
r 11 12	abc	11 30	11 30	cba	11 49 r

SUNDAYS.

r 7 12	abc	7 30	6 30	cba	6 r
r 8 12	abc	8 30	8 30	cba	8 49 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	12 30	cba	12 49 r
r 1 12	abc	1 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
r 5 12	abc	5 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 8 08	abcdef	8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
r 10 08	abcdef	10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r

*The letters in the same line as the figures stand for different stations and inuicate that trains stop, as follows:

a, Wollaston, b, Norfolk Downs, c, Atlantic, d, Neponset, e, Pope's Hill, f, Harrison Square, g, Savin Hill, h, Crescent Avenue, i, South Boston, r, Quincy Adams, (xx), Express.

C PETER CLARK, Gen'l Supt. A. C. KENDALL G. P. A edy for HALE'S

HONEY
OF HOREHOUND
AND TAR n. nnot fail
oney of Horehound and Tar
gic for a cough or any throat trouble. Ask your druggist.
ache Drops cure in one minute.

y and Boston
Street Railway.

o change without notice.]
October 10, cars will be ent routes as follows:

cy and Neponset.

QUARE for Neponset at 5.55,
M. and every 15 minutes until

NSET for Quincy at 6.15 A. M.
utes until 11.30 P. M.
uincy at 20 minutes of the hour
m the hour, go via. Hancock

uincy at 25 and 55 minutes past
Newport avenue, Wollaston.
Quincy at 10 minutes past the olk Downs, and those leaving
inutes past go via Downs.
Neponset 15 minutes of and 15
e hour go via Wollaston and
Braintree and Holbrook to
ing with cars for Bridge-
New Bedford, Fall River,
vidence.

nd East Weymouth.

QUARE (10 minutes later from
d 22 minutes later from North
45, 6.20, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20,
10.20, 10.50, 11.20, 11.50 A. M.; , 1.50, 2.20, 2.50, 3.20, 3.50, 4.20,
to East Weymouth car house).
6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20, (11.50 Wednesday and Saturday er only.)

WEYMOUTH (20 minutes later mouth and 30 minutes later from 6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8, 8.30, 9, 9.30
30 A. M.; 12, 12.30, 1, 1.30, 2, .30, 5, 5.30, 6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8
10.30, 11.30 P. M.

d Weymouth Landing.

CY at 5.30 A. M., 6.20, 7.20 and
12.20, then 1.50 and every hour

MOUTH LANDING at 5.50
hour until 12.50, then 2.20 and til 11.20 P. M., connect with at Quincy.

y and East Milton.

QUARE, 5.55, 6.25, then every 25 minutes past the hour until
at 10.50 P. M.

MILTON 6.25, 6.55 A. M., then of and 25 minutes past the hour
then 10.20 and 11.20 P. M.

cy and Brockton.

CY for Brockton at 6.10 and
very half hour until 9.10 P. M.
esday and Saturday, when car
ugh to Brockton. Cars at 9.40
th Braintree every night.

cy and Hingham.

Y at 7.20 A. M. and every hour
then 1.50 and every hour until

HAM at 8 A. M. and every hour
n 2.30 and every hour until

tlantic and Squantum.

NSET at 6.30 A. M. and every
P. M., connecting at Atlantic
ress trains.
NTUM at 7 A. M. and every connecting at Atlantic with

and Houghs Neck.

Y CENTRE at 6.20 A. M., and until 1.20, and then 1.50 and 9.50.
ve HOUGHS NECK at 5.45
hour until 12.45, and then 1.20
ntil 9.20.

SUNDAYS.

Square, Quincy, for E. Weymouth Landing at 7.30 A. M. y at 7 A. M. and on the hour
oughout the day.
ne as week days on other lines,
st two trips are omitted.
WEEKS, Superintendent.

rk, New Haven
artford R. R.

rn District.

Oct. 16, 1898, trains will run
ote of explanation at bottom.

	FROM BOSTON.
rrive	Leave	Stops	Arrive
oston.	Boston.	at	Quincy
6 30	5 55	ihgfedcba*	6 22 r
7 00	6 30	cba	6 49 r
7 30	7 30	cba	7 49 r
7 43	8 30	cba	8 49 r
8 00	9 30	cba	9 49
8 30	10 30	cba	10 49 r
8 43	11 30	cba	11 49 r
9 00	12 30	cba	12 49 r
9 30	1 30	cba	1 49 r
10 30	2 30	cba	2 49 r
11 30	3 30	cba	3 49 r
12 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
1 30	5 00	cba	5 19 r
2 30	5 17	da	5 36 r
3 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
4 30	6 00	cba	6 19 r
5 30	6 17	da	6 36 r
6 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
7 30	7 00	cba	7 19 r
8 05	7 30	cba	7 49 r
8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
9 30	9 30	cba	9 49 r
10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r
11 30	11 30	cba	11 49 r

NDAYS.

7 30	6 30	cba	6 r
8 30	8 30	cba	8 49 r
9 30	12 30	cba	12 49 r
1 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
5 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
7 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r

he same line as the figures stations and indicate that ws:

g, Savin Hill.
h, Crescent Avenue.
i, South Boston.

r, Quincy Adams.
(xx), Express.

K, A. C. KENDALL
G. P. A

QUINCY DAILY LEDGER.

VOL. 10. No. 24. QUINCY, MASS., WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1898. PRICE 2 CENTS.

Couches, $5.98.

Good, substantial couches, well made and built for service, made on best tempered steel springs, covered with Persian Velours, Figured Corduroys or Belgian Velvets and fringed to the floor.

People ask, "How can you sell them at such a fabulously low price?" Couches for $5.98 that are easily worth $15 00.

We sometimes wonder ourselves, but that's a matter of minor consideration, the couches are here in a variety of covers ready to send to your home in an hour's time if need be. Luxurious, dreamy couches, and our price but $5.98.

Fifty other patterns of couches to select from, prices from $4.75 to $30.00.

HENRY L. KINCAIDE & CO.

Reliable, Low Priced House Furnishers.

Hancock Street, : : Quincy.

ONE-TON ORDERS

Have been the making of this Coal business. Hundreds have ordered "just one ton to see if there was any difference." They found there was and they came again. Our one-ton orders have been our best advertisements. It's a better Coal at the same price, with the proof in a sample ton. When in doubt, try Patch's.

C. PATCH & SON.

SWEATERS.

We think we can show you the best assortment of Sweaters to be found in the city.

BOYS' SAILOR COLLAR, GARNET OR NAVY BLUE,	$ .50
" " " " " " "	.75
" " " " " " "	1.00
" ROLL " " " " "	1.00
MEN'S SAILOR " " " " "	2.00
" " " " " " "	2.50

Look at Our Window Display.

GEO. W. JONES,

Adams Building, Quincy.

GEO. AMES,

the ONLY PRACTICAL PLUMBER in the Hardware business in the City. He has a patent SEWER TRAP which cannot be beat. Impossible for deadly sewer gas to enter your homes. See him about your Sewer Connection. He has had three years' experience in Boston and other large cities. Established here in 1889 and still in it. Work done anywhere.

Hardware, Paints and Oils, Putty and Glass, Yacht Supplies, Steam and Gas Fittings. Steam and Hot Air Heaters put in repair for the winter.

ADAMS BUILDING

The John Hancock Stables.

Opposite Depot, Quincy, Mass.

Boarding, Baiting, Livery and Sale.

DR. J. A. DOW, Proprietor,

the well known Veterinary dentist and specialist in the treatment of lame horses. Sick horses treated at owner's risk.

The finest equipped and managed stable of its size in America.

Fine driving turnouts in light rigs; safe and good appearing. All horses let are perfectly safe for ladies to drive.

The choicest family, road and coach horses constantly on hand for sale. All horses guaranteed as represented.

☞ Will attend to veterinary practice as usual. aug18-1y

MABEL F. FAIRBANKS

TEACHER OF

CHINA PAINTING and WATERCOLOR.

China Decorated to Order.

34 Grand View Avenue, Wollaston.

Sept. 29. 3m

FRANK F CRANE,

AUCTIONEER and APPRAISER,

Office, 4 Chestnut St., Quincy, Mass.

Oct. tf

TELEGRAPHIC.

3 O'CLOCK.

A DESPERATE BATTLE.

Maddened Roofers Drop Fifty Feet to Their Death.

Had Become Involved In a Dispute Over Work.

Engaged In a Struggle on a Roof, and Were Heedless of Their Peril.

Boston, Oct. 19.—Down to death, still clutched body to body, in an iron grip that the horror of their doom could not lessen, Patrick Roach of Roxbury and John Price of South Boston were hurled some 50 feet through space yesterday afternoon, sustaining injuries from which both died later in the day.

Both men were roofers, whose occupation called them to a height far above the heads of normal humanity, a perilous enough spot, even in the utmost peace, to make any man nervous who had not been inured to the dangers of their occupation.

Far above the pavement and supported by a ladder, floored with boards, and held by ropes to a roof—so frail a support that the average man would hesitate to venture upon it—these men fought with all energy and rage. With words of rage for each other on their lips, they clinched on their narrow platform and struggled to and fro, with cries that were heard far below. The swaying platform suddenly turned under them, and in the same frenzied clasp of fighting gladiators they fell down, down to certain death. Three stories they fell, neither loosing his grip on the other, and when they were picked up unconscious they still were thus clasped.

The crushed body of Roach was taken to the city hospital, where he expired at 5:30 o'clock last evening. Price was sent to the Emergency, where he passed away one and a half hours later.

The men were roofers in the employ of James C. Smith. At their noon hour yesterday they were the best of friends, and drank together to show it. These very drinks of friendship, it is alleged, made them willing to quarrel in the insane location they had selected. Yesterday morning Mr. Smith had sent the men to put in a number of new slates on the sloping rear end of a French roof. The men rigged a staging of a ladder, floored with boards, held by ropes running to hooks placed in the border of the flat part of the roof above. A woman saw the men stop work and talk threateningly to each other. Then she saw them advance, and, after a few blows, to clutch and reel about on the scaffold. They went toward the edge; a moment they reeled, and then with a cry from both that was heard two blocks away the fighters fell to the plank covered yard, nearly half a hundred feet below.

Roach's left leg was broken in two places, his right side was fearfully crushed, five or six ribs were broken and his larynx was dislocated, although his neck, which was at first thought to be broken, was intact. Price's right hip, right jaw and several ribs on the right side were broken and his back was badly sprained. Both men were also injured severely internally.

Sinecure For Somebody.

Washington, Oct. 19.—The government industrial commission decided yesterday to adjourn until Nov. 15, when active work will begin. The members organized by the election of Senator Kyle as chairman, ex-Representative Phillips of Pennsylvania as first vice-chairman and Representative Gardner, chairman of the house committee on labor, as second vice-chairman. There was a strong fight made on the secretaryship, and an election to that office was deferred until November. This action followed the report of the committee on permanent organization, advising that the secretary should be a first-class statistician, of pronounced ability and thoroughly acquainted with labor issues.

In a general way the speeches pointed out that the chief aim of the investigation is to discover the reasons for the conflict between labor and capital, and make recommendations for remedies; that the country will look for important results and the bringing about of great good to the masses.

From Hospital to Jail.

Newport, Oct. 19.—Sabina Judge, for nine years employed by Mrs. C. L. Best, attempted suicide last Saturday by turning on the gas in her sleeping room and was taken to the Newport hospital unconscious. During her absence suspicious circumstances led to an examination of her room, where a quantity of wearing apparel, jewelry and bric-a-brac, property of Mrs. Best, was found. At the hospital the Judge woman recovered from the effect of the inhaled gas and was immediately placed under arrest.

Soldiers to Receive an Allowance.

Washington, Oct. 19.—An order has been issued by the war department regarding the commutation allowed soldiers on furlough which will affect soldiers granted furloughs previous to the issuance of orders for the muster out of their regiments. Many soldiers were granted furloughs of 30 days, and the subsistence department was authorized to pay them 25 cents a day commutation for rations. This is now prohibited, and such soldiers will receive this allowance from paymasters upon final discharge.

☞ All the latest notions in lamps. Hundreds of patterns to choose from. 25 cents to $10.00. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

NO LONGER SPANISH.

At Noon Tuesday Porto Rico Became American Territory.

Washington, Oct. 19.—In view of the fact that at noon Tuesday, with the acquisition of the island of Porto Rico by the United States, about 800,000 inhabitants of that island lose their Spanish citizenship, the question as to what shall become of these people politically becomes of importance.

Madrid advices report that leading citizens in Porto Rico have already taken steps to become naturalized as United States citizens. This is an error, for existing law provides no way in which this change of citizenship can be effected by the residents of the island.

Inquiry into this subject at the state department discloses the fact that congress will probably be called upon by the president to confer citizenship upon the Porto Ricans in the same act as that which must be passed to provide a stable form of government for the island.

Ponce, Oct. 19.—The celebrations in connection with the formal surrender of the island of Porto Rico were most enthusiastic. After the parade the bands and various trade organizations went to General Henry's headquarters. General Henry in a speech said: "Alcalde and citizens: Today the flag of the United States floats as an emblem of undisputed authority over the island of Porto Rico, giving promise of protection to life, of liberty, prosperity and the right to worship God in accordance with the dictates of conscience. The 45 states represented by the stars emblazoned on the blue field of that flag unite in vouchsafing to you prosperity and protection as citizens of the American union.

"Your future destiny rests largely with yourselves. Respect the rights of each other. Do not abuse the government which accords opportunities to the individual for advancement. Political animosities must be forgotten in unity and in the recognition of common interests. I congratulate you all on beginning your public life under new auspices, free from governmental oppression and with liberty to advance your own country's interests by your united efforts."

The News of Beantown.

Boston, Oct. 19.—In the superior court yesterday John F. Holland was sentenced to state prison for a term of not less than three years nor more than six years for breaking and entering and having in his possession burglar's tools. Holland comes from a reputable family. He is 35 years of age and a college graduate.

A young man claiming to be James J. Sullivan of New York was arrested yesterday on a charge of breaking and entering a liquor store. He was discovered in the store and attempted to escape by jumping through a plate glass window. He is 19 years old.

The biennial conference of the Universalist churches of New England was opened last evening in Roxbury. About 150 delegates were present.

The Boston light infantry (Tigers) celebrated the 100th anniversary of its organization by a banquet last night.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

Henry Farrar of East Saugus, Mass., fell under the wheels of a wagon and was killed. He leaves a family.

Colonel Waring estimates the cost of cleaning Havana, including the dredging of the bay drainage, sewerage and paving, at $22,000,000.

More than 400 delegates to the annual convention of the International Association of Fire Engineers, composed of active and retired fire chiefs in the United States and Canada, are in St. Louis.

The Minneapolis police found $51,000 worth of government bonds in an old closet. They proved to be all but $5000 of the bonds stolen from the Hardwood Manufacturing company two weeks ago.

Memorial exercises in honor of Prince Bismarck were held last night under the auspices of the united German societies of New York. After the indoor exercises there was a street parade with 5,000 Germans in line.

A committee of three, representing the commercial interests of Manzanillo, has arrived in Santiago to protest against some of Colonel Ray's appointments there. Lieutenant Colonel Wylie will try to straighten out the differences.

The report of the grand keeper of records and seals showed the existence of 59 lodges of Pythians in Connecticut, a gain of one during the year and a membership of 6151, which was a net gain of 62. The total amount of cash on hand in the treasuries of the subordinate lodges is $45,874.62.

Speaker David O. Watkins of the New Jersey house of assembly has been sworn in as acting governor. Acting Governor Voorhees resigned yesterday as senator from Union county, which carries with it the forfeiting of the governorship. Voorhees is the Republican candidate for governor.

The property of Colonel John A. White of Concord, Newbury and Warren, N. H., has been attached in a suit brought by his mother to recover $50,000, money loaned. Colonel White is the principal owner in the Somersworth machine works, which recently assigned as a result of the failure of the Sawyer woolen mills at Dover.

Tomorrow's Almanac and Forecast.

Sun rises—6:03; sets, 4:54.
Moon sets—9 a. m.
High tide—2:15 a. m.; 2:45 p. m.

Cloudy weather, with rain, prevailed yesterday in the middle states, lake region and central valleys. Though the storm is losing energy, the conditions promise to continue unsettled another 24 or 36 hours, making generally cloudy weather most probable Thursday, though most likely without rain. The temperature will probably continue seasonably cool, with variable winds.

LAND VALUES

A Transcript From the Books of the Assessors.

Number of Feet in Each Lot and Valuation Thereof.

Also the Amount of Each Person's Tax Bill for 1898.

[Continued from yesterday.]

Something new in the publication of the taxpayers of the city is attempted this year by the Daily Ledger. There is considerable interest in the assessed value of land in the city, which is claimed to be high in some cases and low in others. So the Ledger has supplemented the amount of the tax bill in each ward with the value of each lot of land for which the person is taxed, giving in each case the number of square feet or acreage.

The amount given in the line with the person's name is his total ward tax, and may include houses, personal property, etc., in addition to the lots of land below. The Ledger gives only the valuation of the land.

To obtain a person's total tax in the city, add together the amounts paid in the several wards.

The Ledger commenced the publication Aug. 30, and has already published the land values of all persons whose names begin with A to L, and today gives the Millers of each ward, making the sixth instalment of the M's:

WARD ONE.

Valuation of Land Only.			Total Ward Tax.
Miller, Sylvester			$71 30
5,328 feet, Bigelow street, $650.

WARD TWO.

Miller, John H.			3 60
4,000, Broadway, $200.

WARD THREE.

Miller, Minnie W.			72 90
9,703, Goddard ave., $1,050.
Miller, John L.			281 00
22,450, Garfield, $1,300.
59,934, Franklin, $4,600.

WARD FOUR.

Miller, George L., est.,			18 90
17,954, Miller, $1,000.
Miller, Gilbert M.			96 50
22,264, Kent, $1,500.

WARD FIVE.

Miller, Daniel			46 80
7,030, Rideway, $350.
5,832, Willett, $450.
Miller, Andrew J. and others, trs.,			$934 65
4,720 feet, Hancock street,			$500.
6,145,	"		600.
5,197,	"		500.
4,226,	Fenno,		300.
4,312,	"		300.
5,200,	"		350.
8,000,	"		550.
10,000,	Merry Mount ave.,		750.
4,720,	"	" "	300.
4,720,	"	" "	300.
4,720,	Hancock,		475.
8,230,	"		800.
25,000,	"		1,800.
2,284,	"		200.
9,653,	Wollaston ave.,		950.
6,527,	"	"	650.
13,500,	Briggs,		900.
4,818,	"		300.
8,000,	"		600.
6,400,	"		450.
6,400,	Elm avenue,		600.
4,000,	Briggs,		300.
28,050,	Green,		1,750.
6,260,	"		450.
20,000,	"		1,200.
12,000,	"		800.
6,400,	"		500.
34,700,	Kemper,		2,000.
36,750,	"		2,000.
18,900,	Elm ave.,		1,250.
10,500,	Morton,		600.
6,300,	Elm ave.,		600.
10,500,	Phillips,		525.
10,500,	Willow,		900
15,750,	"		1,000.
10,500,	"		900.
20,000,	Wollaston ave.,		1,500.
5,015,	"	"	300.
5,250,	Willow,		200.
5,250,	"		200.
5,250,	"		400.
5,250,	"		400.

Continued on page 3.

Royal makes the food pure, wholesome and delicious.

ROYAL

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

SELECT SOCIALS!

EVERY FRIDAY EVENING,

Beginning Oct. 21, 8.30 to 11,

COLONIAL HALL, Bank Bldg., Quincy.

Given in connection with

Prof. Gardner's Dancing School.

Tickets: Gent or Couple, 50c. Extra Lady, 25c.

LAST HALF TERM. Those who desire to learn the latest Fancy Dances can join the class at 7.30. Terms: 8 lessons from 7.30 to 8.30, Gents $4, Ladies $3. oct18—6t

GO TO....

Miss B. J. PATTERSON'S

Millinery Parlors

AT THE

Boston Bargain Store,

FOR YOUR

FALL MILLINERY.

A fine assortment of Trimmed Goods. Also, all the latest and best shapes in untrimmed hats, walking hats and sailors.

New Velvets, Ribbons, Fancy Feathers and Ostrich goods.

Lowest possible prices for first-class goods.

Music Hall Building, Quincy.

Oct. 1. tfpl

— THE —

Fall Millinery Opening

... OF ...

C. L. BLISS,

186 Hancock St.,

TUESDAY and WEDNESDAY

Oct. 11, 12.

The public are cordially invited to call and examine a stock of Trimmed and Untrimmed Hats and novelties in Velvets, Ribbons, Wings, Feathers and Jet.

Quincy, Oct. 5. 1po 2w

POTATOES,

15c. Pk.

Sweet Potatoes,

15c. Pk.

White Seal Flour,

4.75 Bbl. Cash.

We guarantee this Flour to be old wheat and one of the best Bread Flours in the market.

L. M. PRATT & CO.,

25 School Street.

JOHN EVANS,

Auctioneer and Appraiser.

Prompt Settlement.

24 COPELAND STREET, QUINCY.

Feb. 26. tf

TELL US . .

What you are looking for.

We can show you a fine line of

FALL AND WINTER

UNDERWEAR,

HOSIERY,

Outing Flannels, Flannelettes,

Plaid Dress Goods,

WRAPPERS, BLANKETS,

Comforters,

Dress Linings and other Dry Goods.

OUR STOCK IS FRESH.

OUR PRICES THE LOWEST.

MISS C. S. HUBBARD,

158 Hancock Street.

THE FALL SEASON

IS HERE

For the Purchase of

Fruit and Ornamental Trees,

Shrubs and Vines.

Buy now that your plants may get a good start by spring.

Remember that I carry all the desirable novelties, as well as the old standard varieties of nursery stock.

I call special attention to my Flowering Shrubs, Perpetual Roses, Clematis, and Rhododendrons.

Buy at home and save agents' commissions. None but strictly first-class stock, well acclimated, furnished. Call and examine.

Orders by mail receive prompt attention.

Wollaston Park Nursery,

Fenno St., Wollaston.

MARTIN PFAFFMANN, Prop.

P. O. Box 44, Wollaston. Residence, 2 Clay St.

Oct. 14—1m p-3w

48 BALLOTS 48

And the tenth district nominated a candidate for Congress, but it needn't take you half so long to decide where to buy

Fall and Winter Suits

FOR MEN AND BOYS.

The Granite Clothing Store has always carried honest goods at low prices, and this year beats all previous years. Every purchaser is bound to be Absolutely Satisfied.

Boys are satisfied because the suits are neat and stylish, and their parents are satisfied with the price.

Call and see for yourself.

Granite Clothing Co.

DURGIN & MERRILL'S BLOCK.

ALBERT J. BOWERS

OPTICIAN

ADAMS BUILDING OVER POST OFFICE QUINCY MASS.

DR. RALPH M. FOGG,

DENTIST.

Teeth extracted absolutely without pain by the use of the

"BOSTON VEGETABLE VAPOR."

It is claimed that, while it has the required properties of ether, chloroform, nitrous oxide gas, it lacks the disagreeable and dangerous qualities of these drugs. It is certainly a boon to suffering humanity to be relieved of the nausea too often following the administering of sedatives of the old school.—Boston Transcript.

Teeth made and repaired on Gold or Rubber base. Teeth Filling a specialty.

Office in French's Building, five doors south of Post Office, Quincy. Wednesdays. Hours, 9 A. M. to 9 P. M. July18-1y Nov8-1yo

Coal!

Just Received by Barge Blackbird, a Fresh Cargo of

Pea Coal

(Small Nut.)

J. F. SHEPPARD & SONS

Quincy Sept. 7.

By C. H. JOHNSON, - - Auctioneer.
Office, Adams Building, Quincy.

HOUSEHOLD GOODS
—AT—PUBLIC AUCTION
AT RESIDENCE OF
BARNARD SHANE,
126 Copeland Street, West Quincy,
—ON—
TUESDAY, Oct. 25, '98,
At 1.30 P. M.

THE Goods consist in part as follows: Painted Chamber Set, two Single Beds, Rocker, 3 odd Parlor Chairs, 6 Dining Room Chairs, 2 Tables, Couch, Hair Cloth Sofa, Iron Bedstead and Spring nearly new, Wood Stove, Clock, Pictures, lot of Crockery and Tinware, Mattresses, Coal Stove and a variety of useful household goods.
Sale positive. Terms cash. 19 22 24

By FRANK F. CRANE, - Auctioneer.
Office, 4 Chestnut St., Quincy.

Large Auction Sale
OF THE GRANITE WORKS and QUARRY TOOLS
—OF—
PETER CARLSON & CO.,
Quarry Street, Opposite Fallon's Quarry,
THURSDAY, OCT. 27, 1898,
At 1.30 P. M.,

Consisting of Engine House, Tool Shed, 30 horse power, double cylinder and double drum Engine built to order by Rawson & Morrison of Cambridgeport, 2 years old, This engine was made especially to order for the granite business, is extra heavy and strong, and is first-class in every respect, the boiler has 120 tubes, makes steam quickly, and is very economical with coal. New Steam Drill, built by Ingersoll & Sargent; Steam Pump, 3 inch suction, 2 1-2 discharge; one Large Derrick, good for twenty tons; one medium sized Derrick, good for 8 or 9 tons; 2 Dump Cars and about 225 feet of rails for the same, about 1,000 feet of Steam Piping from 1-2 inch to 3 inches in diameter; large lot of Chains, Dogs, Bars, Steam Drills, Blast Drills, Plug Drills, Blocks, Sheaves, Wire Rope, New Tackle and Falls of 400 feet crucible steel 5-8 rope, 1 new Tackle and Fall of 550 feet of crucible steel 5-8 rope, and various other articles too numerous to mention.
Sale positive, rain or shine. Terms cash.
Oct. 19. 7t

PARKWAY HEARING.

The Quincy Daily Ledger wishes to announce that the Metropolitan Park Commissioners will give a hearing to the Mayor and City Council of Quincy, and others interested in the Parkway from Boston via of Atlantic, Squantum and Quincy to the Blue Hills Reservation, at their rooms in the Congregational Building, Boston, on MONDAY, Oct. 24, 1898, at 2 30 P. M.
Oct. 19. 4t

STENOGRAPHY AND TYPEWRITING,
BOOKKEEPING,
And All Clerical Work.
MISSES A. B. and E. M. COTE,
Room 12 Durgin & Merrill Block, - Quincy.
Oct. 10. tf

MARY WENT.

LAST Week Mary and everybody else were invited to call at the Quincy Second Hand Variety Store. They went, and Mary tells us that she was delighted with what she found. She bought an excellent stove for half its value, a chamber set for a remarkably low figure, and small ware in abundance for almost nothing. In fact, she was so well pleased, she sent her husband, who bought all the tools he could carry off for a few dollars.

WALTER P. PINEL

is the Manager, and the store is right over here at number 20 Franklin street.
aug25 1y

TO THE FRONT!

RAYMOND'S FLAG CIGAR
WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DISTRIBUTOR,
A. G. DURGIN,
QUINCY, MASS.
WM. H. RAYMOND GROCERY CO.
45 and 47 Commercial Street, Boston.

DR. HERBERT S. HAYFORD
195 Hancock Street.
OFFICE HOURS—11 to 12 A. M., 2 to 4 and 7 to 8 P. M.
Telephone, 4-3.
Quincy, July 5. tf

Quincy Daily Ledger
ESTABLISHED IN 1889.
The ONLY DAILY in Norfolk County Massachusetts.

Published Every Evening, Sundays and Holidays Excepted, At No. 115 HANCOCK ST., City of Quincy, Mass., by
GEORGE W. PRESCOTT & SON.
Successors to Green & Prescott.
Subscription Price, $6.00 per year.
☞ A discount of $1 when paid in advance.
ALSO PUBLISHERS OF
The Quincy Patriot,
A Weekly Established in 1837, which has the Largest Circulation in Norfolk County, and
The Braintree Observer,
A Weekly Established in 1878.
TELEPHONE, 78-3 QUINCY.

Quincy Temperature at Noon.

	This Week.	Last Week.	In 1897.	In 1896.
Sunday	50	66	83	60
Monday	48	53	53	56
Tuesday	50	75	51	50
Wednesday	54	71	70	48
Thursday	—	55	62	56
Friday	—	59	49	62
Saturday	—	60	53	49

New Advertisements Today.

Stonecutter wanted and tenements to let.
Large auction sale of granite works.
Household goods at auction.
Gold brooch pin lost.
Parkway hearing.
Tenement to let.
Canvassers wanted.

Good Afternoon.

The only criticisms we hear relative to the widening at the Briesler corner are; first that it should have been done ten years ago; and second, that more land should have been taken. It promises to be a very marked improvement, and a credit to Councilmen Packard and Swithin who worked for its passage in the City Council. The next corner which should be widened is the Coddington street corner, on Washington street. Travel and safety demand it. Hancock street should also be widened twenty or thirty feet between Cottage avenue and Chestnut street, and Cottage avenue should be widened and rebuilt. These little things would greatly benefit the business section of our city. They should not be longer delayed.

A RIPE OLD AGE.

A Smart Quincy Nonagenarian Held A Reception.

Mrs. Caroline W. Merritt, a sister of Mrs. Ann M. Everson and Mr. Napoleon B. Furnald one of the smartest old ladies in Quincy celebrated her ninetieth birthday Tuesday by receiving her neighbors, relatives and friends at her home on School street.

It was an informal reception and she wore an apron made from her wedding dress in 1826 which at that time cost $1.50 per yard. She also proudly exhibited her wedding waist, which was very elaborate and all made by hand.

Mrs. Merritt is remarkably smart, and her health is good. This last summer she planted a garden herself and has had all the vegetables she wished for her own table, as well as giving to the neighbors, and only last week, she washed, starched and ironed four lace curtains, which adorned the windows of her parlor and looked like new.

Nearly all of those who called brought remembrances. The oldest caller was seventy years and the youngest was the four-year-old daughter of Mr. Henry P. Furnald.

Mrs. Merritt was born in Nottingham, N. H., Oct. 18, 1808, and was the daughter of Lemuel and Mary Furnald. Her father was a farmer, and when she was but nine years old she came to Quincy with her parents. During her early years she taugh private school in Quincy. In 1826 she married Jonathan Merritt, a ship carpenter of Scituate, and resided in that town until his death some thirty years ago. The widow then returned to Quincy, where she has since resided.

She is the mother of fifteen children, six of whom are living—four sons and two daughters: William Merritt, who resides in the West, and has a son Vernon, a hero of Santiago, Charles Merritt, who reside in Everett, Albert Merritt, who resides in New York, Amos Merritt, who resides with his mother, Mrs. Helen F. Thomas who resides in Malden, and her faithful, loving and attentive daughter, Katie F., who has always, lived with and cared for her mother.

A. J. DURAND,
Piano Tuning, etc.
19 Coddington St., Quincy.
Highly recommended by Chickering & Sons, and prominent Boston musicians.
Sept. 20. 1m

ANOTHER DEADLOCK.

Democrats of Tenth District Follow the Republicans.

The first vote at the Tenth district Democratic convention last night was a most remarkable one. Eight candidates for Congressman were voted for and all received from 11 to 20 votes. Instead of being a less number of candidates on the second ballot there was one more, and none had less than nine.

The result of the first ballot was:

Number of votes cast,	118
Necessary for a choice,	60
C. F. Adams 2d, of Quincy had	11
D. F. O'Connor, Ward 18,	12
Richard Sullivan,	12
E. J. O'Connor, Ward 17,	15
Henry F. Naphen,	15
Thomas F. Flood,	15
Bordman Hall,	17
Francis J. Campbell, Ward 12,	20

The vote given to ex-Mayor Adams by 11 of the Quincy delegates was complimentary, and after the second ballot probably went to Mr. Hall.

Other gentlemen received votes on different ballots, and most of the regulars continued in the field.

The twentieth and last ballot was taken shortly before 6.30 this morning, and there was still no choice. This ballot gave Hall 51 (nine less than a majority); Naphen, 31; Flood, 15; Campbell, 8; scattering 2.

At this hour the convention adjourned until tonight at the American house at 10.30. This late hour was fixed upon because there were two other meetings earlier in the evening.

According to the Quincy delegates, it was the hottest political convention they ever attended, yet throughout the whole the best of good nature and feeling prevailed.

THE NEW PASTOR.

Enjoyable Reception to Rev. Edward Anderson at the Point.

The reception tendered by the Ladies' Aid society of the Washington Street Congregational church to the new pastor, Rev. Edward Anderson, occurred last evening, and was a very pleasing and highly successful affair.

Through the efforts of Miss Gertrude Sampson and Miss Amy Newcomb the vestry was transformed into a commodious parlor, the decorations of which occasioned much favorable comment. Music was kindly furnished during the evening by Mr. Herbert Hayden. Refreshments were served by the Ladies' Aid in the ladies' parlor.

Col. Anderson was assisted in receiving by Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Wadsworth, and Deacon and Mrs. T. H. Newcomb.

A large number of the Point people were present also Rev. Edward Norton, Rev. Edwin Noah. Hardy and Rev W. W. Dornan of Quincy and Rev. T. H. Vincent of North Weymouth.

It was the desire of the ladies that the occasion should be one of free social intercourse, thoroughly enjoyable to all. This it proved to be. The very general response to the invitation of the Ladies' Aid showed in what high esteem the new pastor is already held.

After on evening of real social enjoyment and a few remarks from the pastor, the people dispersed to their homes, feeling that in his hands the Point church has a bright future before it.

POLITICAL FIELD.

Registration for the State election closes tonght at 10 o'clock. The number of voters in Quincy is likely to be less than last year..

The Transcript suggests distinguishing names for each of the Congressional districts, and that the Tenth be called the Boston South district. Not a bad idea.

The Briesler Corner.

The steam roller has proved its usefulness for a number of things other than rolling down streets and helping a horse up a hill with a heavy load. On Tuesday it was used to good advantage in pulling up the trees at the corner of Hancock and Granite streets. After the earth had been loosened about the roots the steam roller was made fast to the stump and it was quickly pulled out of the earth to the evident satisfaction of a large gathering of interested spectators. As the trees at this corner are being removed the improvement becomes more and more marked and everybody seems satisfied except the owners, who are not satisfied with the award of $1,000 made by the City Council. It is rumored they will bring the matter into the courts. Photographic views have been taken showing the corner as it was before work commenced which if the case is brought into the courts will be used as evidence.

—Photographs have recently been successfully taken under water at a distance of 10 or 12 feet. The camera was carried by a diver, while the light was supplied by an electric lamp carried in the diver's headpiece.

KEEP PHILIPPINES.

The United States Stands for the Fullest Development.

Editors of the Daily Ledger:

I noticed an article in the Ledger of Oct. 14 which seems to me to enlarge too much upon the difficulties of settling the problems that confront the United States at the present time.

Now let us look at the history of the United States and see what has been the policy of growth.

The independence of the United States was acknowledged by France in 1778. The area at that time was 850,000 square miles with a population (1790) of less than 4,000,000 people. The territory was that of the thirteen original colonies. At that time Lousiana and Florida, large tracts of country, were under Spanish dominion.

The free navigation of the Mississippi river and the opening of the port of New Orleans was not granted by Spain until 1795.

In 1803 Louisana was purchased from France for fifteen million dollars. This tract of land contained 1,171,931 square miles making Alabama, and Mississippi south of parallel 31 degrees all Louisiana, Arkansas, Missouri, Iowa, Nebraska, Dakota, Montana, Minnesota west of the Mississippi river, most of Kansas, a large part of Colorado and Wyoming.

There arose at that time the cry similar to the present one of Imperialism against Jefferson, his opponents claiming that he had violated the purposes of the constitution, but the President cared nothing for the criticism. Spain now claimed Florida and on Feb. 22, 1819, Forida was added to the United States from Spain by the payment of five million dollars in private claims. That added 59,268 square miles.

In February, 1845, Texas was added. That increased the United Sates territory by 237,504 square miles.

In 1848 more territory, being what is now California, New Mexico, Utah, Nevada and part of Arizona and Colorado was made a part of our country being 545,783 square miles.

In 1853 a part of Arizona 45,535 square miles was purchased.

On June 30, 1867 Alaskса containing 577,390 square miles was seceded to the United States by Russia for seven million two hundred thousand dollars.

Now then, we had at the beginning of the war with Spain 3,487,411 square miles of territory and seventy millions of people. It must be admitted that through all these years that the watchword had been expansion, and why should this stop now. It should not stop as long as events put land and people at our feet.

The United States should certainly keep the Philippines and taking the island of Luzon as a base, permeate the whole territory with the advanced civilization of America. No one can tell of the advancement that those natives can make.

Why should we fear them when 3,954,000 slaves were made citizens in '63 and '65, being one fourth of the population of the southern states? Where are the barbarians of Alaska now—the 14,000 that were considered dangerous characters when the country was purchased. Where are the man eaters of the Sandwich Islands? At this stage the United States must not be selfish but keep the leaven of liberty and happiness alive.

As regards the Munroe Doctrine, I see no conflict between the later and Imperialism or Expansion. The United States as an elder brother, who wishes the smaller republics of the New World to prosper and work out their own development looking to him as a model, simply says to the Old World "Hands Off," If Europe came to America she would come to crush, destroy and conquer. Armenia can tell of her helpfulness, her honor and her disinterestedness.

The United States stands for the fullest development that has yet been worked out and I believe her mission will not be fulfilled as long as there is a nation in distress and a man knocking at the door, as President Harrison says always swings inward and never outward.

We want no alliance with any nation because no nation stands for our principles and no nation can share our destiny, unless it throws away its traditions and becomes a part of our selves. ARTHUR W. NEWCOMB, 25 Howard street.

Drowned.

Two young men left Black Creek on Saturday night in a small flat-bottom boat, to go fishing in the bay, but have not been seen or heard from since. A boat similar was seen off Hull, Sunday, and it is supposed that they were upset and drowned. Their names were Lars Larsson and Ernest Hellmut, aged 22 and 19; and they worked in the granitequarries.

—It is estimated that there are 3,120,000 cyclists in Germany, each one of whom had to pay a tax of fifty cents to have his name entered and to receive a number for his machine, together with a book, which he must carry about him, as it contains a description of his person.

LOCAL NEWS TRACK.

Some Colts which are Sure Winners Every Heat.

The Bacon family of Atlantic have moved to Albany, New York.

Must the ice men have a pedler's license in Quincy next season?

Tonight can be called a night of weddings for several are to be held.

The annual meeting of the Quincy & Boston street railway is to be held today.

A special meeting of the Managers of Public Burial places has been called for Thursday evening.

Today is the last day of registration. The board met at 12 o'clock and will be in session until 10 P. M.

The telephone people promise to have the trench in front of the First church filled in time for the wedding tonight.

District Deputy Grace E. Mitchell of East Weymouth, is to visit George L. Gill Rebekah lodge, No. 146, tomorrow evening.

The easterly storm this afternoon is an unwelcome visitor to the many who want to participate in the social functions tonight.

The local bodies of Foresters and Knights of Columbus will attend the funeral of the late Richard J. Larkin tomorrow morning.

It was intended to commence work today laying the sewer pipe on Hancock street from School street but some delay prevented.

Mrs. Luke Rideout, mother of Mrs. Henry E. Hardwick, celebrated her eightieth birthday Tuesday, at the residence of her daughter.

Quincy will have at least six marriages this evening, two of which will be church weddings, and all will be reported in tomorrow's Ledger.

James A. Daly, one of the meat cutters at E. H. Doble & Co.'s store, is enjoying his vacation this week. When he returns there will be a Mrs. Daly.

Miss Emma D. Conklin, of New York, who has been spending the summer with Mr. and Mrs. William M. Marden, returned to her home Tuesday.

A delegation of Mt. Wollast on lodge of Odd Fellows, attended the funeral this afternon of Joseph York of Wollaston, Grand Instructor. The lodge sent a floral tribute.

Today is the last opportunity to get your name upon the voting list to vote at the State election and the registrars are in session from 12 o'clock noon until 10 o'clock tonight.

Mr. Walter H. Cobb, who has resided at the corner of Elm and Baxter street for fourteen years, has moved to the H. E. Hardwick house, corner of Edward and Washington street.

The First church is pretty well fortified now and almost surrounded with boards, lanterns, picks, shovels, tool boxes, old barrels, pails, bags, bicycles, wheel barrows, dirt and a small carpenter shop.

Spike Sullivan, the boxer, who stopped at Houghs Neck the past summer, will have a bout with Martin Flaherty of Lowell. The City Point A. C. has made them a liberal offer to meet next month.

The Quincy Quarry railroad shipped 242 car loads of granite the first half of this month which is an average of over eighteen for each working day. Supt. Anderson says the road will keep up the same record for the balance of the month.

Goss & Gould's delivery team ran away Tuesday noon on Cranch hill and William Littlewood was thrown out at the corner of Whitwell and Granite street and severely injured. Dr. Hayford dressed the wounds and found it necessary to take several stitches on the head.

At the meeting of Mt. Wollaston lodge, I. O. O. F., held Tuesday evening, it was voted to hold the annual ball this year although the date was not fixed. The following committee was appointed: Walter H. Cobb, chairman; James W. Young, secretary; Charles M. Jenness, treasurer; Henry P. Furnald, William J. Williams, E. Frank Mitchell, Frank Flowers, Walter H. Ripley, Charles L. Hammond.

The whist season has hardly opened, so that the attendance was not as large as anticipated on Tuesday at the parties of the Daughters of the Revolution, yet over fifty enjoyed the playing afternoon and evening at Colonial hall. It was a picnic whist in the afternoon and every lady was given a prize. The best scores were made by Mrs. French of Braintree, and Mrs. P. P. Comey of Worcester, a guest of Mrs. A. H. Gilson. In the evening the gentlemen's prizes were awarded to Miss Pray and Mr. George W. Prescott, and the ladies' prizes to Miss Thompson and Mrs. Thomas.

☞ Parlor Stoves that are economical in fuel and powerful heaters. $2.98 to $25.00. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

GOLD DUST
THE BEST WASHING POWDER

EMBROIDERY LESSONS.

We have engaged the same teacher for our Embroidery Classes this season that was so successful last year. Classes start TUESDAY MORNING.

Also the Finest Line of LINENS of All Designs to be gotten in the Market.

Our Line of Embroidery Silks is Complete in Every Detail.

WE CARRY IN STOCK A NEW LINE OF
OPULESCENT AND RAINBOW EDGE SILKS.
Sofa Cushions in a Large Variety.

D. E. WADSWORTH & CO.,
Hancock Street, Quincy.

New Pianos, $185.00.

Just why people pay fancy profits and fancy prices for pianos, when they can't afford to, is hard to tell. Truth is, they don't know themselves.

Everyone can and should own a piano, a piano to be proud of, a piano with perfect touch and delightful tone, a piano you'll never have to apologize for, a piano that's sold at an honest price within the reach of everyone. A piano honestly built, with a rich, beautifully carved case; a piano that's fully guaranteed. A piano just the same kind exactly that sells for $450.00 with a different name stenciled on the case, but our price to everyone is $185.00.

It's worth considering, and the time to buy is now. Do not delay but have a piano in your home at once. These pianos are not merely a bargain, they are almost a gift. Time payments for those who wish.

HENRY L. KINCAIDE & CO.,
The People's Cut Price House Furnishers,
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

MAKE IT HOT FOR YOU.

If your house is cold and you have become disgusted with the various devices called heaters, and you are really anxious to have warmth and comfort in your home, place an order for one of those G. B. Bates CIRCULATORS. It will "make it hot for you" or just the temperature you desire. Its construction is based upon scientific and economical principles. Several have recently been put in right here in Quincy, and others will be put in during the next few weeks. Don't read this ad. and then forget about it till your water pipes are all frozen, but go now to

G. B. BATES,
Hancock Street, Quincy.

Gentlemen, Buy Your....
OVERCOATS
Where you can find the best assortment in the city and the lowest prices, which is at
C. F. DERBY'S, SAVINGS BANK BUILDING,
QUINCY. 5-1m

Great Guns
do great execution if well aimed. Advertising accomplishes great results in business conquest if well directed.

REMARKABLE PLAY.

Goal Kicked from Field by Magnuson in Thayer-High Game.

Thayer academy defeated the Quincy High school in a well played game yesterday at Merry Mount Park. The High school team has improved rapidly, and made a creditable showing against their strong opponents. In spite of Thayer's great advantage in weight, the High school boys played with more snap, and were fresher at the end of the game. In the last half Thayer and Quincy each scored 5 points. In the first half, however Thayer made three touchdowns securinga safe lead of 17 points.

The High school scored a wonderful drop-kick by Magnuson. From the 30 yard line, he kicked a beautiful goal the ball sailing straight between the posts a yard over the cross-bar. The shout that went up from the High school's supporters made Thayer realize that she was scored against.

Besides kicking this goal Magnuson punted beautifully. The High school end rushes Murphy and Estabrooks never failed to tackle the Thayer fullback as soon as he attempted to run after catching the ball and thus they made the most of the advantage Magnuson's kicks gave them. Hewitson who substituted at quarter-back for Captain Foss played an exceedingly fine game distinguishing himself by several good tackles.

Thayer's playing was strong and heavy but it lacked life. In the second half without their full-back Uniac, they did no more than hold their own. They relied wholly on their ability to push the High school's line and did not punt once. Their best playing was done by Uniac, McMahon and Nixon.

The teams lined up as follows:

THAYER ACADEMY.	QUINCY HIGH.
Brigham (Newell), l. e.	r. e., Estabrooks
Bassett, l. t.	r. t., Ahearn
Southworth (Emerson), l. g.	r. g., O'Brien
Harrison, c.	Pitts
Adams (Mansfield), r. g.	l. g., Sargent
McMahan, r. t.	l. t., Ford (Swift)
Newell (Plumber), r. e.	l. e., Murphy
Nixon, q. b.	Hewitson
Wales, l. h. b.	r. h. b., Magnuson
Tinkham, r. h. b.	l. h. b., Bates
Uniac (Brigham), f. b.	Flaherty

Score—Thayer Academy, 22. Q. H. S., 5. Touchdowns—Uniac (2), Wales, Tinkham. Goals from touchdowns—Bassett (2). Goal from field—Magnuson. Umpire—Mr. Pendis, Q. H. S. Referee—Mr. Arnold, Thayer Academy. Time—20 minute halves.

LETTER FROM CO. K.

With Co. K, 5th Mass.,
Camp Meade, Annex, Oct. 17.

Last night's air very chilly. This morning there was a thin coating of ice and the grounds were covered with white frost. But the sun came out and it became quite comfortable.

Inspection of quarters by Capt. McDonald of H.

The boys intend to keep warm these cold nights besides banking the sides of their tent with earth, they have joined together in squads and procured small oil stoves, so that those who have them, are enjoying fine warm apartments.

A football team is to be organized in this battalion. Sergeant McGrath and others of the company, are around collecting for their accroutrements. Two goals were erected this morning on the parade ground. Our boys intend to have a good time and keep themselves warm if nothing else.

Those on guard duty today are Corporal Whiting, Privates Restelli, Roberts, Rowell, Ross, Rogers, Robinson, Thumstrom, Burns, Brown. The orderly was Private Roberts. This was the privates first opportunity to secure the orderlyship. We hope he may secure more.

Battalion drill this afternoon. Private Buckley is kept busy about all day, attending to the Major and adjutants horses.

The boys are still well, and hoping to continue so. DOC.

Many Ministers Pay Tribute.

The funeral of Prof. George G. Bush was held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Bethany Congregational church, and was largely attended by relatives and many of the friends of the deceased. Rev. Edwin N. Hardy, pastor of the church read the scriptures, and short addresses on the life and character of Prof. Bush were made by Rev. Mr. Davis of Lynn, a pupil at the Seminary at Montpelier under Prof. Bush; Rev. C. W. Wilder of the West Quincy Methodist church; Rev. Edward Norton pastor emeritus of the Bethany church, and by Rev. Mr. Cushing, pastor of the Methodist church at Maplewood, which Prof. Bush attended, who offered the closing prayer. The remains were taken to Mt. Wollaston cemetery where the committal service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Cushing.

—An old superstition has it that a man born in October will write poetry when young, and later in life will dabble in politics, winding up as a reformer. The woman born this month will be pretty, and late in life an apostle of total abstinence.

OTHER LOCATIONS.

Two Suggested for the Boynton Road Through Quincy.

Herbert T. Whitman, the well known civil engineer, has suggested two possible locations for the Boston, Quincy and Fall River Bicycle railroad which he has indicated on a map in the office of C. A. Spear, the clerk of the City Council. Both locations start from the same point at the Braintree and Quincy line on Centre street as asked for by the company.

The first follows Centre street its entire length to Copeland street which it crosses near its junction with Miller street. It then follows the valley between Crescent and Common streets crossing Cross street near the residence of Walter H. Ripley, thence through Reardon's field, across the upper part of Eaton's ice pond and crosses Adams street near the estate of the late Joseph W. Robertson, thence to the west of Forbes hill across Beale street at the foot of Hillside street, thence in a straight line across Revere, Ashland and Oak street, to Squantum street near the golf links, thence across the marsh and Walnut and Newbury streets to the Neponset bridge on Hancock street.

The second location suggested comes from the line between Quincy and Braintree at Centre street to near the pumping station of the water works, thence across Columbia street near Patch ice pond, across Liberty street near Brook road, across Water street just west of Quincy street to Granite street which it crosses near its junction with Quarry street and follows Packards lane through Centre Park pasture, following Whitwell street to Adams street, which it crosses near their junction to Central avenue which it follows its entire length, thence across Wilson avenue, Hamlet and Elliot streets, Broadway and Squantum streets, thence joining the first location suggested at Pope's farm. It then follows the first location suggested to the Neponset line.

Both of these locations it will be observed curve so as to go around the quarries and Forbes hill, yet they are full as direct as either of those petitioned for with their objections.

WEYMOUTH.

Gutterson and Dane's Store on Commercial street is to be removed to Washington street opposite the Weston property.

The Literary Circle met at Mr. Charles T. Crane's on Tuesday evening.

The Rev. Baker repeats his lecture on "Backbone, or the power to say no," for the benefit of the Boy's Brigade on Thursday evening at Lincoln hall. The Congregational clergy are to hold their next association meeting at the Porter church in Brockton, Tuesday, Oct. 25.

Stewart Jordan is attending a military school in Worcester.

One of Our Quincy Boys.

The first in a series of "vacation talks," at the Y. M. C. A. at Fitchburg, was given Monday evening by John G. Faxon. The getleman who introduced him, said "Journalists like poets, are born not made, etc., and that Mr. Faxon by birth and training, was easily the first in all that region."

Mr. Faxon's address was good every way, and it is pleasant to note that Quincy gave him nearly all his school training.

Leaving the Greenleaf school, he went to our High school. He graduated from Adams Academy with high honor, passed Harvard examinations well and entered the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. While there, he took good rank in literature.

Later he began at the bottom in newspaper work in the Newburyport Herald office and now represents the Boston Herald in Western Massachusetts his ground covering a large territory. He is also upon the staff of the Fitchburg Sentinel and has sometimes extended his work into New York city papers. He comes from a line of newspaper people, the Newburyport Herald being now in its second century and it was for very many years owned and controlled by Mr. Faxon's maternal relatives.

☞ Nickle Alarm Clocks that go off like a gattling gun, 89 cents. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

DIED.

LARKIN—In Quincy, Oct. 18, Mr. Richard J. Larkin, aged 41 years, 3 months and 18 days.

Bon Ami
Cleans and Polishes
WINDOWS AND MIRRORS WITHOUT CREATING ANY DUST OR DRIPPING OF ANY WATER.

MILES PARADOXICAL.

"Our Strength Our Weakness; Our Weakness Our Strength."

Tells Upon What the Nation's Growth Is Dependent.

Chapter Written That Is Gilded With Glorious Achievements.

Chicago, Oct. 19.—At one of the meetings Tuesday in observance of the peace jubilee General Miles was one of the speakers. "Our strength," said he, "is our weakness; our welfare is our strength—so strong in physical force, so great in numbers and universal intelligence, so extended over the continent that we are liable to drift into a condition of apathy, of irresponsibility and of possible danger; yet from the very fact that we feel the burdens of government so lightly we enjoy its blessing to the fullest extent, and so appreciate its advantages that we have a sentiment of devotion, loyalty and patriotism that amounts to a national strength and power unlike and unequalled by any nation on earth.

GENERAL NELSON A. MILES.

"Our government has carried us fithrough all the vicissitudes of national prosperity, of the most violent and destructive civil war, and has given us an unbroken chapter of victories in all wars with foreign countries. Shall this era of prosperity continue? Are there greater fields yet to be developed? Are there loftier heights yet to ascend in the march of civilization? Shall our nation continue to grow strong in moral power, in political purity, and both strong and just in our political relations with other nations, or shall the union, state and municipal affairs be contaminated by mercenary influence or personal and party considerations? The future alone can answer these questions, and it will be dependent entirely upon the interest and devotion that our people have for the welfare of the government

"We have thought lightly of our relations with our government and of the army and navy, which constitute the physical force of our nation; yet during the last five months we have witnessed a great uprising of the stalwart, patriotic and noble, the very flower of our splendid manhood crowding the avenues to war as to a festival, seeking the front ranks of danger, privation and suffering. While the chivalry of the south and yeomanry of the north vied with each other in their devotion to the cause of their country and in their pride in its flag, which floated over all, it is a glorious fact that the patriotism was not confined to any one section or race for the sacrifice, bravery and fortitude. The white race was accompanied by the gallantry of the black as they swept over intrenched lines, and later volunteered to succor the sick, nurse the dying and bury the dead in the yellow fever hospitals and the Cuban swamps.

"The navy and army of the United States have written upon the pages of history a chapter that is gilded with glorious things, and to which everyone can point with pride."

General Miles was again and again compelled to bow his acknowledgments of the applause that greeted him as he finished.

B. T. Washington said: "My friends, let us learn this: That God has been teaching the Spanish nation a terrible lesson. God has been teaching Spain that for every one of her subjects that she has left in ignorance, poverty and crime, the price must be paid, and it has been paid with the proudest and bluest blood of her sons and with treasure beyond computation. From this spectacle I pray God that America will learn a lesson in respect to the 8,000,000 negroes in the south."

At the armory of the First infantry a crowd that filled the immense structure to the doors gathered to hear General Shafter, who said in part: "There is nothing that is so dear to the heart of the soldier of this republic as to know that he is sustained and approved by the people. I accept your welcome so far as I am concerned as the commander of the army which so recently, by its successful campaign at Santiago, lowered the standard of Spain which for 400 years has floated on this continent, never again to be raised here; but I wish you to know that it is not to me, except in a very small degree, that this credit is due. It is due to the gallant army I commanded. A better never stood in America. This army of mine, while perfect in discipline, magnificent shots, thoroughly drilled, were deficient only in that they had never been under fire, and it is to them that credit and your thanks are due. It is to their heroism, indomitable will and pluck and strength that the country is indebted for that victory, for I tell you, my old comrades, that even after going through four years of war as I did in my youth, having been with men who fought against us, and with some of the older men who served through the war of the rebellion, I say and their unanimous voice was that American soldiers never suffered more or were in a campaign that so severely tried them as did this."

Mother and Child Saved.

Bangor, Oct. 19.—Fire destroyed the house and barn of W. Hugh Nichols at North Brewer; also most of the contents of the house and a lot of peddlar's goods stored in the barn. Mrs. Nichols and a child were alone, and they were saved in their night clothing.

HOW TO MAKE MONEY.

Take a silver dollar and drop it on a jeweler's show case and you'll get a ring. Take a quarter and saw it in two in the middle and get two halves. Take a two-dollar bill and fold it once and you double it—and you can keep on monkeying with money and make imaginary capital for an hour. But if you want to get a new wrinkle in money, just take a new ten dollar bill and fold it corner-ways and you'll get a new wrinkle every time. But don't fool with your money and don't let anybody else fool with it. Don't let anybody fool you with the idea that they'll give you a $10 bill with every $2 suit or overcoat.

The new store has earned a reputation for selling straight goods at straight prices. We don't monkey with your money, or flim. flam you with any imaginary values. We give you good goods, charge a fair-profit price for everything you buy and expect you to come back the second time because you were used right the first.

We can sell a good Overcoat for $5.00 and an all wool one for $6.50. But for $7.50 we can show you a dandy all wool Kersey, made with raw edge and lap seams and lined with good lasting linings. The same coat our competitors (in Boston) get $10 for.

Our $10 coat we have in Blacks, Blues, Olives and Browns. Then we have them for $11, $12, $13, $13.50, $15, $15.50 and upwards to $19, in all the different style goods worn this season.

For this week and next too, if they are not all gone, we will sell all wool Dickey Pants at $1.48. All the other stores get $2.00.

QUINCY CLOTHING CO.,
LOWEST PRICED CLOTHIERS IM NORFOLK COUNTY.
MUSIC HALL BLOCK.

The Anvil Bird.

At dusk in the wilds of the gloomy Brazilian forest you will think it strange to hear the clink of a hammer on an anvil. You would imagine that you were approaching some settlement, and the picture of the ruddy glow of the forge would come up before your eyes.

But if your guide were a native, he would tell you that the sound was made by a campanero, as they call it, although to foreigners it is known as the anvil bird.

This bird is a little larger than a thrush. The plumage is perfectly white, the eyes are a pale gray color, and the naked throat and skin around the eyes are of a fine bright green, while its more northerly relative is orange and black, very much like our oriole.

It is generally in the early part of the day that the campanero sends forth the wonderful note that can be heard at a distance of three miles. Marvelous indeed must be the mechanism of the vocal organs of so small a bird to produce so farreaching a note, but there is no doubt of the fact, for many travelers have heard the strange sound uttered by the bird when perched on the topmost branch of some withered tree.—Our Animal Friends.

Paper Bags For Travelers.

Comfort in traveling is an important consideration, and the newest idea for a journey is one worth regarding. Dodging railroad cinders and dust is something not to be thought of. When a thoroughly clean railroad trip is possible, the millennium will have arrived, and this period is still, according to all beliefs, a long distance off. But, owing to a simple thought of a practical man, the traveler can now protect his or her hat, which was out of the question before.

A humble paper bag, obtained from the nearest grocer, is the god of the machine. This is folded compactly and stowed away in the pocket (in the hand bag or purse if the traveler is a woman and is pocketless). Before the cars start the bag is opened, the hat placed therein, the bag pinned across its mouth and the whole laid in the rack. Thereafter, until the destination is all but reached, the traveler need have no thought of his headgear, for no dust or cinders can reach it. It will be found in the best of condition upon opening. So simple is this device that it is a wonder it was never thought of before.—New York Herald.

A Scotsman Who Ruled Russia.

Although not generally known, it is a matter of history that an alien, a Scotsman, once held the reins of government in Russia, and to him that country owes her civilization, government and present position among the nations. Patrick Gordon was born in Auchleuchries, Aberdeenshire, March 31, 1635. His father was of the Haddo branch of the Gordons, and his mother was an Ogilvie. He went to seek his fortune in Russia and became a soldier of great bravery in the Russian army in the time of Alexis I and had now attained the rank of colonel. By his bravery and success he gained the love of the army and the esteem of the whole nation and had under his control 12,000 newly formed soldiery, who were under foreign officers in the town of Moscow. Gordon himself had the czar's command not to leave the capital, but his authority extended over all provinces except those in which the southern army were engaged under General Shein, yet the latter had express orders from the czar not to undertake anything of moment with General Gordon's advice.—Scottish American.

The Fall River Plan.

Fall River, Oct. 19.—The spindleage of the city is reckoned to be about 3,000,000. Mills running 2,500,000 spindles will be represented in the new plan of selling and curtailing. All of these spindles are not engaged upon the four kinds of goods that are to be the subject of the trust, but there are 44 print cloth mills represented in the agreement.

The most important phase is the four weeks' curtailment, which will begin immediately. It is not at all unlikely that some of the mills will be shut down next week. It may be that other agents will find it impossible to shut down, and these will pay a penalty of half a cent a spindle a week to a general fund which is to be divided up among the corporations in the agreement.

☞ Read Saturday's Ledger.

LAND VALUES.

Continued from page 1.

WARD FIVE.

Valuation of Land Only.		Total Ward Tax.
10,500,	"	900,
6,500,	Elm ave.,	600.
6,473,	" "	600.
12,946,	" "	1,000.
4,700,	" "	400.
5,785,	Morton,	450.
6,300,	"	600.
3,100,	Philips,	250.
31,500,	"	2,200.
5,250,	"	400.
3,896,	"	300.
25,200,	"	200.
2,100,	Willow,	200
12,600,	"	1,025.
5,000,	Beach,	450.
5,250,	Willow,	500.
7,056,	"	600.
3,902,	Huntington square,	200.
9,880,	" "	600.
4,475,	Miller,	225.
4,475,	"	225.
5,000,	Speakman,	200.
5,000,	"	200.
8,000,	"	325.
8,000,	"	325.
8,000,	"	325.
7,500,	"	200.
7,500,	"	150.
7,500,	"	200.
4,475,	Miller,	200.
4,475,	"	200.
4,475,	"	175.
9,436,	Wendall ave.,	325.
8,800,	" "	300.
12,320,	" "	400.
10,625,	" "	350.
3,460,	" "	125.
4,892,	Huntington square,	300.
4,892,	" "	300.
12,030,	" "	650.
8,400,	Davis	560.
6,590,	West Elm ave.,	600.
5,000,	" " "	500.
5,000,	" " "	500.
5,000,	" " "	500.
5,000,	Copely,	400.
5,000,	"	400.
10,980,	Franklin ave.,	500.
5,000,	" "	500.
5,000,	Ridgeway,	400.

WARD SIX.

Miller, Jennie	$131 85
6,600 feet, Billings road, $825.

To be continued.

☞ Oil Heaters that will heat any room in your house, $3.98. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

STATE ELECTOIN.

CITY OF QUINCY.

City Clerk's Office, Oct. 7, 1898.

IN Accordance with the provisions of Chapter 548 of the Acts of 1898, notice is hereby given that by a vote of the City Council, passed October 3, 1898, the polling places for the election to be held TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1898, in the City of Quincy, were designated as follows:

WARD ONE.—Council Chamber, City Hall.

WARD TWO—Hose House, Washington street.

WARD THREE, Precinct One.—Doble's Hall, Franklin street.

WARD THREE, Precinct Two.—Old Steamer House, School street.

WARD FOUR, Precinct One.—St. Mary's Hall, Willard street.

WARD FOUR, Precinct Two.—Hose House, Copeland street.

WARD FIVE.—Polson's Building, Newport avenue.

WARD SIX.—Hose House, Newbury avenue.

Attest: EDGAR G. CLEAVES,
City Clerk.

Quincy, Oct. 7, 1898. 27t

FOR SALE.

Bigelow St. Fine New Residence, 9 rooms, bath, laundry, furnace, open plumbing, cemented cellar, fireplace, etc.

R. D. CHASE,
Savings Bank Building.

Quincy, April 8-tf. 9p-tf

☞ Furniture reupholstered, mattresses made over, carpets cleaned. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

HOUSES, STORES, LAND,

ROOMS, OFFICES, AND WHARVES,

To Let In Quincy, Mass.

The Houses are in Complete Repair.

Half-house, 10 rooms, 6 Chester street, Wollaston.

House, 10 rooms with stable, 16 Cottage street.

Half-house, 5 rooms, 16 Cottage street.

House, 8 rooms, 29 Granite street.

Half-house, 4 rooms, 4 Water street, $7 per month.

Tenement, 5 rooms, 59 North street.

Half-house, 6 rooms, Pond street, $10 per month.

Half-house, 5 rooms, 13 Field street, $8 per month.

Tenement, 3 rooms, 28 Howard street, $3 per month.

Tenements, 51 Howard street, $4, $5 and $6 per month.

Room, 12 Washington street, $5 per month.

Large building, suitable for manufacturing purposes on Brackett's wharf.

Small stable, 2 Quincy street, $3 per month.

Small stable, 28 Coddington street, $5 per month.

100 windows, and blinds, various sizes.

Wharf, stone sheds, etc., Quincy Neck.

Basement, head of Granite street.

100 tons ballast for sale.

Land to rent for tillage or pasturing purposes.

Gravel and sand for sale.

50 loads of loam for sale.

The buildings are in the very best condition.

For particulars, enquire of, or address

HENRY H. FAXON,
Quincy, Mass.

Quincy, Oct. 13, 1898. 1m

NOTICE TO VOTERS.

CITY OF QUINCY.

For the purpose of preparing the Annual Register of Voters, and of receiving evidence of qualification from persons claiming a right to Vote at the coming State Election, the Board of Registrars of Voters will be in session at the COUNCIL CHAMBER in the City Hall Building, on the evenings of

Wednesday, Sept. 14,
Saturday, Sept. 17,
Thursday, Sept. 29,
Saturday, Oct. 1,
Wednesday, Oct. 5.
Saturday, Oct. 8,
Saturday, Oct. 15,

From 7 to 9 P. M., and also on

Wednesday, Oct. 19,

From 12 o'clock M. until 10 o'clock P. M.

Every applicant for registration must appear in person before the Board, and must present either a certificate from the Assessors or a Tax bill or Notice from the Collector of Taxes, showing that he has been assessed as a resident of the City on the First day of May last; or a certificate from the Assessors that he has been a resident of the City for the six months next preceding the election at which he claims a right to vote. If a naturalized citizen he must also produce for inspection his papers of naturalization. Payment of a poll tax is not a prerequisite to voting.

No person can vote at the election unless his name has previously been placed upon the voting list of the Ward of which he was a resident on the first day of May last, and no name can be added to the list of voters unless registered previous to

Wednesday, Oct. 19th.

at 10 o'clock P. M., when registration will close.

Examine the Voting Lists posted, and see that your name is in its proper place. NO CHANGE can be made after WEDNESDAY, Oct. 19th, at 10 o'clock P. M. The Board of Assessors will be in session at their office on the same evenings.

EDWARD B. MARSH,
CORNELIUS MOYNIHAN,
EDWARD J. McKEON,
EDGAR G. CLEAVES,
Registrars.

Quincy, Sept. 6, 1898. 38t p10-2w

For Sale or To Let,

FURNISHED,

NASH'S HOTEL.

Full of Boarders and a good transient trade. Cheap rent. My catering business is all I can attend to.

Apply at HOTEL, 148 Hancock street, Quincy, Mass. oct11 tf lo

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS.

Advertisements in this column inserted at the following rates:

Four lines, or less, one day, - - - 25 cents.
" " three days, - - - 50 cents.
" " one week, - - - - 75 cents.

Additional lines will be charged for pro rata Seven words equal a line. Long term rates furnished on application.

LOST.

LOST—A Gold Brooch Pin on Water street, Sunday. The finder please leave the same at Ledger office and receive reward.
Quincy, Oct. 19. 1t lp

FOUND.

FOUND—At the auction of Ernest G. Bacon, Atlantic, one Fur Cape The owner can obtain the same by calling at my office, 4 Chestnut street, Quincy, and proving property. FRANK F. CRANE, Auctioneer.
Oct. 17. 6t

WANTED.

WANTED—Gentlemen or lady canvassers for quick-selling article in Quincy and vicinity. P. O. Box 116, Wollaston.
Oct. 19. 3t

WANTED—A good Stonecutter. Two tenements to let, one of five rooms and one of three rooms, at 14 Glencoe place. Apply on premises.
Quincy, Oct. 19. 3t

WANTED—Two Unfurnished Rooms with or without board. Quincy Point preferred. Address "B," Ledger office, Quincy, Oct. 18. 3t

TO LET.

TO LET—Tenement of six rooms, No. 19 Cottage avenue. Three minutes from City Square. Apply to CHAS. W. HALL, 212 Hancock street, Quincy. oct19-tf

TO LET—Half a House of 5 rooms entirely separate on Phipps street, Mt. Pleasant. Rent, $8 a month; city water. Inquire at 17 Summer street.
Quincy, Sept. 27. 24t

TO LET—On Washington street, at the corner of Wibird street, a very desirable house for a small family. Six rooms, two of them new, and all in good repair. Rent, $15. City water. Concrete sidewalk in front of the house extending to the depot. Apply only to FRANK F. PRESCOTT, at the Ledger office or at 14 Bigelow street. tf

TO LET—Cottage house, No. 29 Granite street, 8 rooms, three minutes' from City Square. Apply to H. M. FAXON, 4 Adams Building. Sept. 30—tf

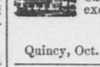

FOR RENT—Desirable house with bath, corner lot, nice neighborhood, three minutes' walk from schools, churches and depot Rent reasonable. Apply at No. 6 Pleasant St.
Quincy, Sept. 7. tf

B. F. CURTIS,

40 Elm Street, Quincy.

TO LET—House of 10 rooms at 43 Elm street. City water. Rent, $18 per month.
Half House of 4 rooms, 19 Union street; city water. Rooms just painted and papered. Rent, $7.50 per month.

TO LET.

House of 8 rooms, etc., No. 20 Canal street, Quincy. Nice house, excellent location.
R. D. CHASE,
Savings Bank Building.
Quincy, Oct. 8. pl tf

TO LET.

APARTMENTS of five large rooms and bath, with all modern improvements. Also two large stores. Rent moderate. Apply to ARTHUR CRAIG, or J. W. HAYDEN, at Craig Building, cor. Copeland and Garfield Sts.
Quincy, July 15. pl tf

TO LET IN QUINCY.

SOUTHERLY Half of house with stable 214 Hancock street, now occupied by Dr. N. S. Hunting. Modern improvements, central location. Seven rooms and bath; furnace, gas and city water. Apply on premises to
MISS M. F. UNDERWOOD.
Oct. 1. tf

Savings Bank Building, Quincy.

BILLHEADS PRINTED

AT PATRIOT OFFICE.

"Why don't you chew Battle Ax?"

BattleAx PLUG is a strong proposition:—the strongest ever known to tobacco-chewers. It is not "cheap" tobacco because it is sold at a low price.

It is the very best piece of chewing tobacco ever sold at any price, and it is possible and profitable to sell a large piece of this high-grade tobacco at so low a price because there is five times more of it sold than any other kind in the world.

Remember the name when you buy again.

NOTHING BETTER,

UNCLE SAM'S NAVY

Now commands the respect of the world, and we are all proud of the defenders of the Nation's Honor. To give the people of Quincy a good idea of the grand battleships, we have ordered a large supply of portfolios, giving magnificent views of the ships, crews, etc.

With each purchase made at our store we will give a portfolio check to the value of the purchase. When you have $4.00 worth of these checks, return them and get a portfolio. Continue in this way until you have the set complete. Call and see these magnificent portfolios.

ROGERS BROS.,

Groceries and Provisions. Adams Building, Quincy.

WATCHES.

GENT'S WATCHES, $1.50 and Up.

LADIES' WATCHES, $2.50 and Up.

EVERY WATCH WARRANTED.

$2.00 Belts, $1.00 Each.
75c. Brooch Pins, 25c. Each.
25 and 35c. Stick Pins, 5 and 10c. Ea.

Quincy SOUVENIR TILES Half Price,

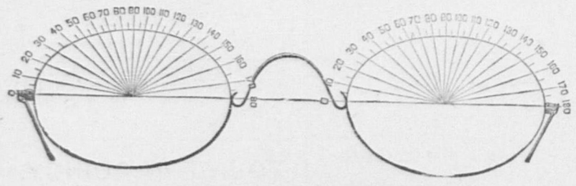

And Other Bargains.

A. A. LINSCOTT, Jeweler,

154 Hancock St., opp. Post Office, Quincy.

Agent for Graphophones.

aug 6. tf

ASTIGMATISM

Causes most of the distressing headaches. Properly fitted glasses will correct the error and remove the pain. Consult

WILLIAMS,

Member of the New England Association of Opticians,

104 Hancock St., Quincy.

E. S. BECKFORD,

Electrician.

Wiring and Fitting for Incandescent, Motors, Dynamos, Bells, etc.

GRANITE STREET, Near the Bridge, QUINCY

Feb. 1 1y

TEETH EXTRACTED.

No Pain or Danger.

Safer than vapor. Money paid for extracting goes towards teeth to be inserted. I am the only dentist in the city using the Painless Preparation for Extraction.

DR. C. B. UNDERWOOD,

9 Spear St. Rear of Public Library

POOR BEEF AND WATER.

First Witness to Offer Condemnatory Evidence.

Is Colonel of a South Carolina Regiment.

War Investigators Delving For Facts In the Florida District.

Jacksonville, Oct. 19.—The evening session was given up to Colonel Jones and others of the Second South Carolina infantry. Colonel Jones complained about the fresh beef, about the location of the camp as swampy and about the water. He said that of 934 men in the regiment, 186 were sick and about two-thirds of these were typhoid cases. He thought that other regiments were just as badly off.

General Wilson and Captain Howell, who investigated the selection of Fernandina as a camp, reported their approval of the selection. They made special inquiry into the report that the camp had been located there for the purpose of enhancing the value of land owned by a son of Secretary Alger, going through the county record as part of their work. They failed to find his name in any of these documents, and their investigation convinced them that he had never owned any real estate in that vicinity, or had been in any way interested in any.

Colonel Oliver E. Wood, chief commissary at Camp Cuba Libre, under General Lee, was before the commission at its afternoon session. He said that he had occupied this position since May 21, and he had been able to meet all requisitions made upon him for supplies, and there had never been any lack of them. As a rule also the quality was excellent. About 150,000 pounds of bacon had spoiled, and therefore ordered destroyed. There had also been weevils in some of the hard bread, but it had never been issued when found to be bad. All the fresh beef was brought to the camp in refrigerator cars. In cases where the meat was not good the contractors had replaced it without requiring official condemnation; yet it was necessary either to cook refrigerator meat, or put it on ice in order to prevent its spoiling in this climate. Colonel Wood read a letter he had written to General Lee in response to a complaint made by Colonel W. J. Bryan concerning the beef. In this letter he said that if beef was spoiled it was generally due to the almost criminal negligence of regiment and company officers. He said also in the letter that the beef must be inspected when issued; that this inspection must be final, and after this no complaints could be entertained.

Captain Chauncey V. Baker, chief quartermaster, said that he had been in Jacksonville from the beginning of the camp on the 21st day of May. He said that when he arrived the command was short of all kinds of stores, and he had been unable in the beginning to meet all requisitions for supplies when made by the regiments as they arrived. There had, for instance, been some trouble in securing tentage. There was also shortage in clothing, and in most cases he had assumed the responsibility of making purchases; and his course was afterwards approved. The first clothing received was not of good quality, but it afterwards improved. The men were, as a rule, glad to get anything, and there was no complaint. Captain Baker said that he attributed whatever delay had been experienced to the necessity of equipping so large an army in so brief a time. Explaining General Lawton's selection of the first camp here, the witness said it was due to the fact that the railroad company could offer facilities, and to the additional fact that water could be secured conveniently. The site was low, and the men were moved when the rainy season began. General Lawton had expected the troops to be ordered almost immediately to Cuba, and this circumstance controlled him entirely in the selection of the site for the first encampment. He said that the volunteer regimental quartermasters all worked hard to learn their business, and their service had been satisfactory.

Colonel Curtis Guild, Jr., inspector general of the corps, testified that he had been on duty in Jacksonville since June 1. He had made an early morning inspection of the camp each day with regard to sanitation, and he knew this had been the custom of others in his department. He had also invented a form of weekly report which had given excellent satisfaction. Colonel Guild said he had found the officers of the volunteer forces willing to accept suggestions. He had made frequent inspections of the hospitals. In the beginning there was a lack of government supplies for these institutions, but the deficiency had been supplied by the Red Cross. The witness testified to the devotion of the medical department, and instanced the fact that in the recent cyclone here not a single hospital tent had been blown down. In some instances entire brigades turned out to protect the hospitals and hold them down.

Colonel Guild mentioned some cases in which goods had been received in poor condition. In one case a large lot of canned beef had been received which was putrid, but the contractors had replaced it with acceptable goods. The Second New Jersey had suffered on account of frequent changes of the commissary, and they appeared to experience the want of food because of the ignorance of the officers of the regiment. The witness had never found a case of deprivation due to the failure of the government to furnish proper supplies. He was unable to recall any case in which there had been any suffering in a hospital on account of neglect.

Asked if he was still of the opinion that there would have been a shortage but for the great activity of the Red Cross, he said he had changed his opinion somewhat, as he had since learned that steps might have been taken to secure government supplies; but he was still of the opinion that there would have been delay.

Must Yield In December.

Havana, Oct. 19.—The Spaniards claim that it would be practically impossible to effect evacuation in the short period of time fixed by the Americans. They disclaim all authority to treat of any political subjects outside the strict limits of military evacuation. They insist that the sovereignty of Spain will continue until the final treaty of peace is signed in Paris.

Admiral Sampson has personally dictated a brief, terse note stating emphatically that Dec. 1 would positively be the date on which Spain's rights, claims and sovereignty in the island of Cuba would cease to exist.

Sold as Old Metal.

Havana, Oct. 19.—Owing to an announcement in the newspapers of a sale of materials by the Spanish ordnance department, the United States evacuation commissioners sent Captain Griscom and Captain Brooks to attend the sale and take notes of the articles auctioned. They found included in the sale several mortars and other guns.

The commissioners promptly sent a protest to the Spanish commissioners, who replied that the articles referred to were useless for service and were only being sold as old metal. The commissioners instructed Captain Brooks to make a thorough inventory in order to know the exact number and nature of the articles in case a sale should be effected despite the protest.

A Notable Event.

Paris, Oct. 19.—General Horace Porter, the United States ambassador, gave a banquet last evening at the American embassy to the United States and Spanish peace commissioners. The banqueting room was elaborately hung with tapestry and armor; flowers were in profusion, and the effects through the stained glass were very beautiful.

The meeting of the two commissions at the same table is a notable event here, and borrows special interest from the semiprediction of the Paris correspondent of the London Times that the Spanish commissioners would not meet their opponents at dinner under the roof of the American embassy.

Too Much Like a Fake.

Paris, Oct. 19.—A local paper asserts that the forthcoming visit of the Russian foreign minister, Count Muravieff, to Paris, will be undertaken on the instructions of Emperor Nicholas, in order personally to congratulate the French foreign minister, Mr. Delcasse, upon the firmness he has shown in the Fashoda affair, and to arrange as to the manner in which Russia can give her support most effectively.

Marked by Cleverness.

Washington, Oct. 1.—It is hoped, though hardly expected, by the officials here that Monday's proceedings before the peace commission at Paris marked the high tide of Spanish opposition, and that from now on the Spanish commissioners will retire gradually from their extreme position. It is recognized that their attack upon the American position was marked by the greatest cleverness and adroitness. The opinion prevails that the animating purpose of the Spaniards is to work upon the sympathies of European nations while appealing to the interests not only of the holders of Cuban bonds, but also to the holders of purely Spanish securities which would be affected by sympathy.

The Spanish argument, directed to showing that the United States must assume sovereignty, else the island will be left without legal status, is interpreted as being a distinct bid for the intervention of the foreign bondholders. The latter, according to the Spanish hope, might be expected to call upon their own governments to aid the Spanish cause by protesting to the United States against the destruction of the large values represented by the Cuban bonds owned by their own citizens. Considerations based upon equities like these have at times had great weight with international tribunals, but back of it all is apparent a purpose not to influence not so much the American peace commissioners as the government in Washington directly.

There has never been any question here as to the status of municipal and other local obligations based upon Cuban assets. As the proceeds of the bonds issued by the municipalities have presumnever been contended that these obliably gone to benefit the localities, it has gations should be repudiated. Whatever may be the outcome of the negotiations relative to the general debt of Cuba, the bonds of the municipalities and such securities will retain their validity.

Value of Electricity.

Washington, Oct. 19.—The annual report of Captain O'Neil, chief of ordnance, to the secretary of the navy recounts the accomplishments of the bureau before and during the war. He says that the guns and mounts in service were severely tested, and it is gratifying to note that their performance has been satisfactory.

It is said in the report that electricity has demonstrated its superiority to every other form of power for the manipulation of turrets, hoisting ammunition and operating machinery. The guns so operated can be more speedily and accurately laid on the object to be hit. There is no danger from bursting pipes, nor is the temperature raised as with steam. Altogether the advantages enumerated in favor of electricity are regarded as overwhelmingly demonstrated by the experience of the bureau with the ships it has already fitted up with electrical plants for gun work.

The captain notes with satisfaction that in no case has there been any attempt at extortion on the part of the numerous business concerns with which the bureau has dealt; nor any disposition shown to take advantage of the unusual needs of the government.

As one of the lessons of the war Captain O'Neil says: "While heavy guns in turrets must be regarded as one of the chief characteristics of modern battleships, the lessons of the day indicate that the greatest execution against the heaviest armor may be expected from a number of quick firing guns of smaller caliber mounted separately in armored casements or in a redoubt." He recites the weight of the big guns, making them slow to fire and aim, the heat and restricted quarters in turrets and the lack of ventilation as arguments in favor of the smaller gun mounted as he suggests.

Eulogizing the Sultan.

Berlin, Oct. 19.—The morning papers teem with articles eulogizing the sultan. The semiofficial organ praises the Ottoman sovereign at great length and in fulsome terms, characterizing him as a "great reformer who in many respects resembles the kaiser."

ANTI-EXPANSIONIST.

Insuperable Objection to Colonizing an Inferior Country.

New York, Oct. 19.—Ex-Secretary of the Navy Herbert put himself on record as an anti-expansionist at a dinner given by the Quill club last night. Speaking on the subject "Our Place Among the Nations," he said in part: "What is our place among the nations now and what will it be in the future, which is coming so fast upon us? Will this great government fall a victim to its own ambition, or will it go on in future as it has in the past?

"The United States can defend their interests upon the high seas wherever those interests may be; but there is no need for foreign alliance. We can defend our possessions all over the world and against the world.

"Our danger lies in another direction. No thoughtful man can deny that there are dangers ahead. We have passed the parting of the ways. First it was Alaska; next came Hawaii; next Porto Rico, and now it looks very much as if Cuba would gravitate in our direction, not to speak of the Philippines. No man can say that any of these countries is fit to become a part of our own. Two centuries of history show that the Danish, Dutch, French and British West Indies have not been colonized successfully. There is an insuperable objection to colonizing a country already populated by inferior people."

Election of a Democratic House.

Lynn, Oct. 19.—The theme of Congressman Boutelle's remarks last night at a meeting of the Essex club was that all questions for national settlement should be considered in a calm and patriotic spirit. He spoke of the Venezuelan dispute and how it had fallen from public attention, saying that there were probably not 20 people in the country who knew the present status of the matter. He declared that the war was a splendid achievement, and urged general support of the administration.

Senator Lodge said in a letter: "The dispatches from Europe tell us, which is no doubt perfectly true, that the Spanish minister is delaying a settlement at Paris because he is in hopes the Democrats will carry the house of representatives in opposition to the president. A vote therefore for a Democratic congressman, however patriotic and honestly intended, is, under existing circumstances, a vote for a Democratic house, and the election of the Democratic house will be an encouragement to Spain and would help her commissioners against the representatives of the United States. At a time like this every Massachusetts district ought to send to congress a man about whose support of the president there can be neither cavil nor question."

Wire Mill Employes Enjoined.

Cleveland, Oct. 19.—Judge Hammond of the United States circuit court, in granting the application of the American Steel and Wire company for an injunction against the striking wire drawers, holds that those seeking employment in the place of strikers have rights which labor unions and strikers are bound to respect; and that one of the rights of each citizen is that of unobstructed access to the place where work is to be done, and over the streets and highways and usual approaches to such place. This freedom of access is not at all inconsistent with the right of strikers to use the same streets and highways for the lawful conduct and maintenance of the strike by peaceable entreaty or argument with men intending to supplant them in employment.

The injunction restrains the strikers from in any manner interfering with the operation of the complainant's mills, and from molesting or intimidating, or threatening those desiring to work at the mills, and from congregating and picketing the mill or the houses of the employes for the purpose of intimidation.

Bloodhound's Keen Scent.

Manchester, Vt., Oct. 19.—The body of Milton Walker was located in the Battenkill river by a bloodhound yesterday morning. Walker was ill with the measles and asked his nurse to get him a drink of water. When she returned he was missing. Searching parties were organized with no success, and finally F. D. Giddings, who has a well trained bloodhound, was sent for. When the dog was brought in to the room he immediately took the scent and followed the trail until he came to the bank of the river, where he stopped and would go no further. Two men waded about two-thirds of the distance across the river and found the body.

Seven Years For Villainy.

Providence, Oct. 19.—Harry Chapman Schooley was brought before Judge Douglass yesterday at the session of the common pleas division of the supreme court at West Kingston. He was arrested at Watch Hill Aug. 12, charged with an assault upon Maria A. Flynn, which resulted in the drowning of the young woman. No indictment for murder was brought by the grand jury, but the prisoner was sentenced by the court to state prison for a term of seven years at hard labor.

William and the Sultan.

Constantinople, Oct. 19.—Replying to an address presented by a deputation of the Swiss in Constantinople, who are under German protection, the emperor said his policy in Turkish affairs was identical with his grandfather's, which was now bearing fruit. "The excellent relations subsisting between his imperial majesty, the sultan, and myself," he observed, "show how the two empires, despite difference of race and religion, can remain on terms of friendship for their mutual advancement."

Complaint of the Khedive.

London, Oct. 19.—The Chronicle this morning says that Emperor William abandoned his proposed Egyptian trip because he learned that petitions were to be thrown into his carriage praying him to help terminate the British occupation. The khedive, who, during his recent visit to European capitals, complained to public men that Egypt is under an intolerable tyranny, instigated the scheme.

Sardine Factory Burned.

Eastport, Me., Oct. 19.—The Broad Cove Packing company's sardine factory was destroyed by fire yesterday, causing a loss of from $12,000 to $15,000. The property was partly covered by insurance. One hundred and eighty employes are thrown out of work. The fire originated in the boiler room and spread rapidly.

NO FAITH CURE.

ABOUT STUART'S DYSPEPSIA TABLETS.

They Cure Stomach Trouble and Indigestion Anyway, Whether you Have Faith in Them or Not.

Mere faith will not digest your food for you, will not give an appetite, will not increase your flesh and strengthen your nerves and heart, but Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will do these things, because they are composed of the elements of digestion, they contain the juices, acids and peptones necessary to the digestion and assimilation of all wholesome food.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest food if placed in a jar or bottle in water heated to 98 degrees, and they will do it much more effectively when taken into the stomach after meals, whether you have faith that they will or not.

They invigorate the stomach, make pure blood and strong nerves, in the only way that nature can do it, and that is, plenty of wholesome food well digested. It is not what we eat, but what we digest that does us good.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold by nearly all druggists at 50 cents for full sized package, or by mail from the Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

3t.-17-19-21

☞ A Glenwood Range will make your wife happy, will save your fuel, and cook your food as no other range can. $18.00 to $33.00. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

Few ladies consider that they carry some 40 or 50 miles of hair on their head; the fair-haired may even have to dress 70 miles of thread of gold every morning.

WHAT DO THE CHILDREN DRINK?

Don't give them tea or coffee. Have you tried the new food drink called GRAIN-O? It is delicious and nourishing and takes the place of coffee. The more Grain-O you give the children the more health you distribute through their systems. Grain-O is made of pure grains, and when properly prepared tastes like the choice grades of coffee but costs about 1-4 as much. All grocers sell it. 15c. and 25c.

FISH.

Everything first-class at the

Cape Cod Fish Market,

Temple Street.

All kinds Fresh, Salt, Smoked an Pickeled

Quincy, Feb. 8. 1y

CANCER CURED

BY ABSORPTION

NO KNIFE.

The result of years of scientific research by America's greatest blood specialist. A pleasant treatment that relieves immediately, cures permanently all forms of CANCERS, TUMORS and CHRONIC DISEASES. Hundreds of wonderful cures effected in and around Boston. Read the following:

BLOOD EVIDENCE

Then come to our offices and investigate the hundreds of other marvellous cures produced by ABSORPTION when all other treatment failed. Consult this living patient. "Dr. James M. Solomon: Dear Sir: The following is my testimonial, which I hope will help others. That after suffering several years with something that was never reached, getting only temporary help from different doctors, and each attack being more severe, I was advised by a friend, who had been cured of a tumor, to see her doctor. I was then unable for any work, and feeling worse from day to day; realizing that something was preying upon me of a serious nature, I was discouraged about my condition, and sought Dr. Solomon with little faith—it was more of an experiment. He got my confidence on the first interview, when, without a word of description of my feelings from me, he at once located my trouble, and I could not help believing that he knew from what I was suffering, although was greatly surprised and somewhat terrified when he told me it was cancer of the stomach. I began treatment at once, Nov. 3, 1892, and was faithful to his directions, with just the results promised I would get, till the following June (1893) I felt like a new being, and the doctor pronounced me recovered. I am sure that I have, and I can never repay the gratitude I owe to Dr. J. M. Solomon. Sincerely, EBEN FISH, 232 Harvard St., Dorchester, Mass." Today he is one of the many living witnesses of the only painless method that positively CURES when all others fail.

We want you to call and examine references of people you know—people we all know, who would not vouch for ABSORPTION had they not been cured. Ask for references marked H.

James M. Solomon, M.D.

SPECIALIST IN CANCERS, TUMORS AND CHRONIC DISEASES.

2 A Beacon Street, BOSTON.

Oct. 13. 1y lo

E. LANDIS SNYDER,

Organist and Choirmaster of Christ Church,

TEACHER OF

VOICE CULTURE, PIANO AND ORGAN.

Studio: Room 10 Durgin & Merrill's Block, QUINCY, MASS.

Sept. 10. tf

WILLIAM E. BAXTER, M. D.

Practice Limited to the

EYE AND EAR.

553 Boylston St., Boston.

QUINCY—Monday and Friday.

Hours, 9 to 11. 195 Hancock Street

May 21. 1y

Quincy and Boston Electric Street Railway.

[Subject to change without notice.]

On and after October 10, cars will be run on the different routes as follows:

Quincy and Neponset.

Leave CITY SQUARE for Neponset at 5.55, 6.10, 6.25, 6.40 A. M. and every 15 minutes until 11.10 P. M.

Leave NEPONSET for Quincy at 6.15 A. M. and every 15 minutes until 11.30 P. M.

Cars leaving Quincy at 20 minutes of the hour and Neponset on the hour, go via. Hancock street direct.

Cars leaving Quincy at 25 and 55 minutes past the hour go via Newport avenue, Wollaston.

Cars leaving Quincy at 10 minutes past the hour go via Norfolk Downs, and those leaving Neponset at 30 minutes past go via Downs.

Cars leaving Neponset 15 minutes of and 15 minutes past the hour go via Wollaston and continue through Braintree and Holbrook to Brockton, connecting with cars for Bridgewater, Taunton, New Bedford, Fall River, Newport and Providence.

Quincy and East Weymouth.

Leave CITY SQUARE (10 minutes later from Quincy Point and 22 minutes later from North Weymouth)—5.45, 6.20, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20, 9.50, 10.20, 10.50, 11.20, 11.50 A. M.; 12.20, 12.50, 1.20, 1.50, 2.20, 2.50, 3.20, 3.50, 4.20, 4.50, 5.20, (5.30 to East Weymouth car house), 5.50, 6.20, 6.30, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20, 9.50, 10.50 P. M., (11.50 Wednesday and Saturday to Thomas' Corner only.)

Leave EAST WEYMOUTH (20 minutes later from North Weymouth and 30 minutes later from Quincy Point)—6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8, 8.30; 9, 9.30 10, 10.30, 11, 11.30 A. M.; 12, 12.30, 1, 1.30, 2, 2.30, 3, 3.30, 4, 4.30, 5, 5.30, 6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8 8.30, 9, 9.30, 10, 10.30, 11.30 P. M.

Quincy and Weymouth Landing.

Leave QUINCY at 5.30 A. M., 6.20, 7.20 and every hour until 12.20, then 1.50 and every hour until 10.50 P. M.

Leave WEYMOUTH LANDING at 5.50 A. M. and every hour until 12.50, then 2.20 and every hour until 11.20 P. M., connect with trains to Boston at Quincy.

Quincy and East Milton.

Leave CITY SQUARE, 5.55, 6.25, then every 5 minutes of and 25 minutes past the hour until 9.25 P. M., then at 10.50 P. M.

Leave EAST MILTON 6.25, 6.55 A. M., then every 5 minutes of and 25 minutes past the hour until 9.50 P. M., then 10.20 and 11.20 P. M.

Quincy and Brockton.

Leave QUINCY for Brockton at 6.10 and 6.40 A. M., and every half hour until 9.10 P. M. except on Wednesday and Saturday, when car at 9.40 runs through to Brockton. Cars at 9.40 and 10.10 to South Braintree every night.

Quincy and Hingham.

Leave QUINCY at 7.20 A. M. and every hour until 11.20 A. M., then 1.50 and every hour until 5.50 P. M.

Leave HINGHAM at 8 A. M. and every hour until 12 M., then 2.30 and every hour until 6.30 P. M.

Neponset, Atlantic and Squantum.

Leave NEPONSET at 6.30 A. M. and every hour until 8.30 P. M., connecting at Atlantic with outward express trains.

Leave SQUANTUM at 7 A. M. and every hour until 9 P. M., connecting at Atlantic with express trains.

Quincy and Houghs Neck.

Leave QUINCY CENTRE at 6.20 A. M., and and every hour until 1.20, and then 1.50 and every hour until 9.50.

Returning, leave HOUGHS NECK at 5.45 A. M., and every hour until 12.45, and then 1.20 and every hour until 9.20.

SUNDAYS.

Cars leave City Square, Quincy, for E. Weymouth and Weymouth Landing at 7.30 A. M. and West Quincy at 7 A. M. and on the hour and half hour throughout the day.

Sunday time same as week days on other lines, except that the first two trips are omitted.

BENJ. J. WEEKS, Superintendent.

New York, New Haven and Hartford R. R.

Eastern District.

On and after Oct. 16, 1898, trains will run as follows: (See note of explanation at bottom.

TO BOSTON. Leave Quincy.	Stops at	Arrive Boston.	FROM BOSTON. Leave Boston.	Stops at	Arrive Quincy
r 6 12	abc	6 30	5 55	ihgfedcba*	6 22 r
r 6 42	abc	7 00	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	7 30	cba	7 49 r
r 7 26	ad	7 43	8 30	cba	8 49 r
r 7 42	abc	8 00	9 30	cba	9 49
r 8 12	abc	8 30	10 30	cba	10 49 r
r 8 26	ad	8 43	11 30	cba	11 49 r
r 8 42	abc	9 00	12 30	cba	12 49 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	1 30	cba	1 49 r
r 10 12	abc	10 30	2 30	cba	2 49 r
r 11 12	abc	11 30	3 30	cba	3 49 r
r 12 12	abc	12 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
r 1 12	abc	1 30	5 00	cba	5 19 r
r 2 12	abc	2 30	5 17	da	5 36 r
r 3 12	abc	3 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
r 4 12	abc	4 30	6 00	cba	6 19 r
r 5 12	abc	5 30	6 17	da	6 36 r
r 6 12	abc	6 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	7 00	cba	7 19 r
r 7 39	abcdefghi	8 05	7 30	cba	7 49 r
r 8 08	abcdef	8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	9 30	cba	9 49 r
r 10 08	abcdef	10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r
r 11 12	abc	11 30	11 30	cba	11 49 r

SUNDAYS.

r 7 12	abc	7 30	6 30	cba	6 r
r 8 12	abc	8 30	8 30	cba	8 49 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	12 30	cba	12 49 r
r 1 12	abc	1 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
r 5 12	abc	5 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 8 08	abcdef	8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
r 10 08	abcdef	10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r

*The letters in the same line as the figures stand for different stations and indicate that trains stop, as follows:

a, Wollaston, b, Norfolk Downs. c, Atlantic. d, Neponset. e, Pope's Hill, f, Harrison Square. g, Savin Hill. h, Crescent Avenue. i, South Boston. r, Quincy Adams. (xx), Express.

C PETER CLARK, Gen'l Supt. A. C. KENDALL G. P. A

☞ Full sized, well made comfort bringing comforters, $1.00. Others 75 cents to $3.50. Blankets from 45 cents per pair up. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

DIS SNYDER,
hoirmaster of Christ Church,
EACHER OF
URE, PIANO AND ORGAN.
10 Durgin & Merrill's Block,
QUINCY, MASS.
tf

E. BAXTER, M. D. tice Limited to the
AND EAR.
ylston St., Boston.
Monday and Friday.
195 Hancock Street
ly

y and Boston
Street Railway. change without notice.]
October 10, cars will be nt routes as follows:
y and Neponset.
QUARE for Neponset at 5.55,
M. and every 15 minutes until
SET for Quincy at 6.15 A. M.
utes until 11.30 P. M.
uincy at 20 minutes of the hour
the hour, go via. Hancock uincy at 25 and 55 minutes past
ewport avenue, Wollaston.
Quincy at 10 minutes past the lk Downs, and those leaving nutes past go via Downs.
Neponset 15 minutes of and 15
hour go via Wollaston and
Braintree and Holbrook to tting with cars for Bridge-
New Bedford, Fall River,
idence.
d East Weymouth.
QUARE (10 minutes later from
22 minutes later from North
, 6.20, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20,
.20, 10.50, 11.20, 11.50 A. M.; 1.50, 2.20, 2.50, 3.20, 3.50, 4.20,
East Weymouth car house),
50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20, 11.50 Wednesday and Saturday
r only.) EYMOUTH (20 minutes later
outh and 30 minutes later from
, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8, 8.30, 9, 9.30
0 A. M.; 12, 12.30, 1, 1.30, 2, 30, 5, 5.30, 6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8
0.30, 11.30 P. M.
Weymouth Landing.
Y at 5.30 A. M., 6.20, 7.20 and
2.20, then 1.50 and every hour
HOUTH LANDING at 5.50 our until 12.50, then 2.20 and il 11.20 P. M., connect with Quincy.
and East Milton.
QUARE, 5.55, 6.25, then every
5 minutes past the hour until
10.50 P. M.
HILTON 6.25, 6.55 A. M., then and 25 minutes past the hour
en 10.20 and 11.20 P. M. y and Brockton.
Y for Brockton at 6.10 and
ery half hour until 9.10 P. M.
sday and Saturday, when car
gh to Brockton. Cars at 9.40
Braintree every night.
y and Hingham.
Y at 7.20 A. M. and every hour
then 1.50 and every hour until AM at 8 A. M. and every hour
n 2.30 and every hour until
lantic and Squantum.
SET at 6.30 A. M. and every
P. M., connecting at Atlantic
ess trains.
TUM at 7 A. M. and every , connecting at Atlantic with
and Houghs Neck.
Y CENTRE at 6.20 A. M., and until 1.20, and then 1.50 and
.50.
ve HOUGHS NECK at 5.45
our until 12.45, and then 1.20
til 9.20.
SUNDAYS.
Square, Quincy, for E. Weyouth Landing at 7.30 A. M.
at 7 A. M. and on the hour
ughout the day.
ne as week days on other lines,
t two trips are omitted.
WEEKS, Superintendent.

k, New Haven
artford R. R.
rn District.
ct. 16, 1898, trains will run
ote of explanation at bottom.

	FROM BOSTON.
rive	Leave Stops	Arrive
ston.	Boston. at Quincy
6 30	5 55 ihgfedcba*	6 22 r
7 00	6 30 cba	6 49 r
7 30	7 30 cba	7 49 r
7 43	8 30 cba	8 49 r
8 00	9 30 cba	9 49
8 30	10 30 cba	10 49 r
8 43	11 30 cba	11 49 r
9 00	12 30 cba	12 49 r
9 30	1 30 cba	1 49 r
0 30	2 30 cba	2 49 r
1 30	3 30 cba	3 49 r
2 30	4 30 cba	4 49 r
1 30	5 00 cba	5 19 r
2 30	5 17 da	5 36 r
3 30	5 30 cba	5 49 r
4 30	6 00 cba	6 19 r
5 30	6 17 da	6 36 r
6 30	6 30 cba	6 49 r
7 30	7 00 cba	7 19 r
8 05	7 30 cba	7 49 r
8 30	8 30 fedcba	8 53 r
9 30	9 30 cba	9 49 r
0 30	10 30 fedcba	10 53 r
1 30	11 30 cba	11 49 r

NDAYS.

7 30	6 30 cba	6 r
8 30	8 30 cba	8 49 r
9 30	12 30 cba	12 49 r
4 30	4 30 cba	4 49 r
5 30	5 30 cba	5 49 r
7 30	6 30 cba	6 49 r
8 30	8 30 fedcba	8 53 r
0 30	10 30 fedcba	10 53 r

he same line as the figures stations and indicate that
rs:
g, Savin Hill.
h, Crescent Avenue.
i, South Boston.
r, Quincy Adams.
(xx), Express.
K, A. C. KENDALL
G. P. A

ell made comfort bringing Others 75 cents to $3.50.
nts per pair up. Henry L.

QUINCY DAILY LEDGER.

VOL. 10. No. 25. QUINCY, MASS., THURSDAY, OCTOBER 20, 1898. PRICE 2 CENTS.

All goods are delivered FREE at residences in Quincy.

Carpets and Upholstery FOR Residences, Churches, Hotels, Steamers, etc., etc.

Our stock is by far the largest in Boston, and includes many private patterns obtainable nowhere else.

Our prices are always at the bottom of the market.

JOHN H. PRAY, SONS & CO.,
658 Washington St., Boston.
(Opposite Boylston St.)

Represented in Quincy by Mr. Otho A. Hayward.

NOTHING BETTER,
UNCLE SAM'S NAVY

Now commands the respect of the world, and we are all proud of the defenders of the Nation's Honor. To give the people of Quincy a good idea of the grand battleships, we have ordered a large supply of portfolios, giving magnificent views of the ships, crews, etc

With each purchase made at our store we will give a portfolio check to the value of the purchase. When you have $4.00 worth of these checks, return them and get a portfolio. Continue in this way until you have the set complete. Call and see these magnificent portfolios.

ROGERS BROS.,
Groceries and Provisions. Adams Building, Quincy.

SWEATERS.

We think we can show you the best assortment of Sweaters to be found in the city.

BOYS' SAILOR COLLAR, GARNET OR NAVY BLUE,	$ .50
" " " " " " "	.75
" " " " " " "	1.00
" ROLL " " " " "	1.00
MEN'S SAILOR " " " " "	2.00
" " " " " " "	2.50

Look at Our Window Display.

GEO. W. JONES,
Adams Building, Quincy.

EMBROIDERY LESSONS.

We have engaged the same teacher for our Embroidery Classes this season that was so successful last year. Classes start TUESDAY MORNING.

Also the Finest Line of LINENS of All Designs to be gotten in the Market.
Our Line of Embroidery Silks is Complete in Every Detail.

WE CARRY IN STOCK A NEW LINE OF
OPULESCENT AND RAINBOW EDGE SILKS.
Sofa Cushions in a Large Variety.

D. E. WADSWORTH & CO.,
Hancock Street, Quincy.

Couches, $5.98.

Good, substantial couches, well made and built for service, made on best tempered steel springs, covered with Persian Velours, Figured Corduroys or Belgian Velvets and fringed to the floor.

People ask, "How can you sell them at such a fabulously low price?" Couches for $5.98 that are easily worth $15.00.

We sometimes wonder ourselves, but that's a matter of minor consideration, the couches are here in a variety of covers ready to send to your home in an hour's time if need be. Luxurious, dreamy couches, and our price but $5.98.

Fifty other patterns of couches to select from, prices from $4.75 to $30.00.

HENRY L. KINCAIDE & CO.
Reliable, Low Priced House Furnishers.
Hancock Street, : : Quincy.

TELEGRAPHIC.

3 O'CLOCK.

INEXTRICABLE MASS.

Police and Marines Overpowered In Chicago.

Could Not Keep the Crowd In Control.

Clothing Stripped From the Bodies of the Struggling People.

Chicago, Oct. 20.—Directly the Seventh Infantry had passed in Wednesday's procession in observance of the peace jubilee President McKinley left the reviewing stand and went into the Union League clubhouse. Three cheers were given him as he left, and the three cheers were nearly the death signal for many people.

All day long the pressure of the crowd on the police lines at the two ends of the square, in the center of which the Union League clubhouse is situated, had been enormous. They opened their lines just as the crowd in front of the clubhouse was cheering the president, and the people, thinking some new excitement was on, hastened from both ends towards the center. Seeing the awful crush that must inevitably ensue, the police made desperate efforts to push the crowd back toward the ends of the square, but without avail. Detachments of soldiers and marines were hurried to their assistance, but in a short time they too were powerless. Finally, after desperate pushing, the marines cleared a small space and, forming in line, fixed bayonets and stood shoulder to shoulder, trying to hold back the spectators. The effort was futile, and, seeing that the bayonets must infallibly result in loss of life if kept on the level, the marines snatched them off and then it was all over.

Marines, soldiers and policemen were utterly helpless. Tighter and tighter the crush became, and then came from women and men cries of distress and calls for help. A large stand had been erected on the north side of the square opposite the clubhouse on vacant ground. All along the edge of this stand hands were reached to the strugglers below, and hundreds of men, women and children were dragged into the stand. Cloaks, overcoats and skirts were torn to shreds, and in numerous instances torn completely from the bodies of the wearers as the rescuers dragged them hastily over the railings. Some of those who were being hauled from the jam would be half way to safety when those below would attach themselves with a frantic clutch to the upgoing man or woman. After nearly half an hour of this sort of thing the crowd was thinned so that a long breath was possible, and comparative quiet was restored. No lives were lost.

M'KINLEY AT A BANQUET.

Territorial Expansion Not Always Necessary to National Advancement.

The jubilee festivities were shifted last night to the interior of the Auditorium, and the third and last scene to be enacted within the great hall was the most brilliant, beautiful and successful of them all. It was the banquet tendered to the president of the United States and other guests by citizens of Chicago. No similar event ever held within the Auditorium surpassed it in brilliancy and simple elegance.

In the course of his remarks Chairman MacVeagh said: "Our people welcome peace. We rejoice that our soldiers and sailors are done with battle, but we never for a moment will forget the glorious deeds they have done. We believe we are appointed to achieve and to illustrate the triumphs of peace. How shall we use this peace of ours? Some of the wisest and ablest men tell us we must be content to illustrate for mankind the evolution of a commercial and industrial nation; but heaven help us if our lives stop at that. Ought we not to make our power beneficent, and not merely make it greater? Ought we not to aspire to leadership in behalf of the things we believe in and the great ideas we stand for?"

"Our Country" was the toast to which President McKinley responded. He said: "The war has put upon the nation grave responsibilities. Their extent was not anticipated and could not have been well foreseen. We cannot avoid the serious questions which have been brought home to us by the achievements of our arms on land and sea. We are bound in conscience to keep and perform the covenants which the war has sacredly sealed with mankind. Accepting war for humanity's sake, we must accept all obligations which the war in duty and honor imposed upon us. The splendid victories we have achieved would be our eternal shame and not our everlasting glory if they led to the weakening of our original lofty purpose, or to the desertion of the immortal principles on which the government was founded and in accordance with whose ennobling spirit it has ever since been faithfully administered.

"The war with Spain was undertaken not that the United States should increase its territory, but that the oppression at our very doors should be stopped. This noble sentiment must continue to animate us, and we must give to the world the full demonstration of our purpose. Duty determines destiny. Destiny which results from duty performed may bring anxiety and perils, but never failure and dishonor. Pursuing duty may not always lead by smooth paths. Another course may look easier and more attractive, but pursuing duty for duty's sake is always sure and safe and honorable.

"The purpose of a nation can alone prevent degeneration. There must be new life and purpose or there will be weakness and decay. There must be broadening of thought as well as broadening of trade. Territorial expansion is not alone and always necessary to national advancement. There must be a constant movement toward a higher and nobler civilization, a civilization that shall make its conquests without resort to war, and achieve its greatest victories pursuing the arts of peace. In our present situation duty and duty alone should prescribe the bounds of our responsibilities and the scope of our undertakings.

"The final determination of our purposes awaits the action of the eminent men who are charged by the executive with the making of the treaty of peace and that of the senate of the United States, which, by our constitution, must ratify and confirm it. We all hope and pray that the confirmation of peace will be as just and as humane as the conduct and consummation of the war. When the work of the treaty makers is done the work of the lawmakers will begin. The one will settle the extent of our responsibilities; the other must pro[illegible] the legislation to meet them. The army and navy have nobly and heroically performed their part. May God give the executive and congress wisdom to perform their duty."

The president's utterances were greeted with vociferous applause.

Clark Howell of Atlanta eloquently responded to the sentiment, "Our Reunited Country, North and South."

Mr. Stevenson's address on "The President" was continuously interrupted by applause.

Chairman MacVeagh paid an eloquent tribute to the American soldier as he called upon the two men most prominent in the late war to reply to the toast, "The Army." The toast was drunk amid wild enthusiasm, cheer after cheer ringing through the hall, as General Miles rose to speak. Every allusion to the deeds performed by the American fighting men was greeted with a vocal outburst and the waving of napkins and handkerchiefs. General Shafter was also given an enthusiastic greeting.

Lose Part of Their Savings.

South Paris, Me., Oct. 20.—There was a hearing before the supreme judicial court yesterday relative to the finances of the South Paris Savings bank. Bank Examiner Timberlake said in substance: "I find the bank's situation to be such that the deposits must be scaled down, or the institution placed in the hands of a receiver. The chief trouble is over western mortgages taken 18 years ago. As the present management of the bank is satisfactory, I recommend a 10 percent reduction."

In reply the court said: "I believe it is for the best interests of the depositors that the bank should go into a receiver's hands. The assets are $367,000, its liabilities $376,000. A three percent scale would make them equal. To put the bank on a solid basis I decree a 10 percent reduction in each depositor's account."

Rose White's Trial For Murder.

Augusta, Oct. 20.—The trial of Rose Carson White for the alleged murder of her husband, Everett White, was begun yesterday in the superior court. County Attorney Hessleton told of the character of the woman; that she and White had been married one year and had lived together but a small part of the time; that on the day previous to the murder she had been released from jail and had gone home to Chelsea, where she had a fight with her husband; of the threats she had made and of the quarrel that was taking place before the shot was fired; how she claimed he had committed suicide, but that the flesh about the wound in the head was not burned, as would have been the case in suicide; that a grain of powder unburned was found in the right eye, and finally how Rose had attempted to have the witnesses swear that she was not in the room at the time of the shooting.

Express Officials Worried.

St. Louis, Oct. 20.—Officials of the various express companies doing business here are worried over a pamphlet issued by the National Association of Traffic Commissioners in regard to the payment of the war stamp tax on express receipts, and containing suggestions for the extension of the parcels post in the United States. The work is designed to bring about a general movement all over the country to have the interstate commerce law changed so as to place express companies under the jurisdiction of the interstate commerce commission and to regulate the companies in other ways.

Loss of Life Feared.

St. Johns, Oct. 20.—The entire coastline of the island has been swept by the recent storms, and it is feared that there has been great devastation in the northern sections and along the Labrador shore. It is also known that two men were drowned at Rose Blanche, 225 miles west of St. Johns, and it is feared that many others have shared the same fate, because a number of vessels were driven seaward near that point. Owing to the fact that most of the smaller harbors have no telegraph lines, it is impossible to obtain details, but serious damage to shipping is inevitable.

Men Firm as Ever.

Brockton, Oct. 20.—The lasters had a conference meeting, a meeting of the local board and a mass meeting last evening. The latter was largely attended and was addressed by John T. O'Sullivan of Boston. The usual picket reports were made showing that progress had been made favorable to the strikers. The press committee states that the men are as firm as ever, and are determined to hold out to the end.

Thirty Persons Drowned.

London, Oct. 20.—Reports of shipping disasters continue to come in, and the coast is strewn with wreckage. In most cases the crews have been saved, but upward of 30 persons have been drowned.

☞ Oil Heaters that will heat any room in your house, $3.98. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

LAND VALUES

A Transcript From the Books of the Assessors.

Number of Feet in Each Lot and Valuation Thereof.

Also the Amount of Each Person's Tax Bill for 1898.

[Continued from yesterday.]

Something new in the publication of the taxpayers of the city is attempted this year by the Daily Ledger. There is considerable interest in the assessed value of land in the city, which is claimed to be high in some cases and low in others. So the Ledger has supplemented the amount of the tax bill in each ward with the value of each lot of land for which the person is taxed, giving in each case the number of square feet or acreage.

The amount given in the line with the person's name is his total ward tax, and may include houses, personal property, etc., in addition to the lots of land below. The Ledger gives only the valuation of the land.

To obtain a person's total tax in the city, add together the amounts paid in the several wards.

The Ledger commenced the publication Aug. 30, and has already published the land values of all persons whose names begin with A to L, and today gives seventh instalment of the M's:

WARD ONE.

Valuation of Land Only.	Total Ward Tax.
Mischler, Catherine A. 6,000feet, Whitwell street, $550.	$45 90
Morehead, James 5,143, Curtis, $250. 4,990, " $250.	45 20
Morse, Joseph C. 24,600, Goffe, $4,100. 1,652, " $500.	229 70
Morton, George W. 1-8 acre, Houghs Neck, $375. About 7,469 feet, $300.	303 05
Morton, William S., heirs, 30,625, Spear, $7,500.	270 00
Moran, Daniel, est., 10,331, Adams, $1,200.

WARD TWO.

Milne, James 5,000, Glencoe place, $300.	33 95
Mitchell, George N. 3-4 acre, Quincy ave., $300.	14 60
Monk, George 10,000, Union, $1000.	86 15
Moody, Nathaniel D. 22,780, Silver, $875.	64 55
Moore, John G. 1-2 acre, Silver, $450.	10 10
Moran, Mrs. Mary E. 23,815, Washington, $2,000.	72 00
Moran, Peter 33,100, Main, $1,500.	52 20
Morse, Joseph C., Minnie J. Baker and Bessie L. Harlow, tr., 19,687, Quincy ave, $450.	44 10
Moriarty, John 6,500, Sumner, $450.	24 50
Morton, Alessandro 10,557, Edwards, $800.	59 15

WARD THREE.

Milne, Andrew 39,554, Penn, $4,400.	81 20
Milne, Chalmer & Co.,	163 80
Milne, Mary T. 7,200, Penn, $500.	34 20
Mitchell, Frank and Augusta Moser 6,000, Rodman, $350.	19 80
Mitchell Granite Co., 7,727, off Water, $750.	211 50
Mitchell, Lucy A. 11,654, Franklin, $1,300.	52 20
Mitchell, W. H. and W. W. 17,800, Pleasant, $1,200.	81 40
Mitchell, William A. 1-4 acre, Water, $600.	30 80
Mitchell, Thomas 7,500, Bennington, $450.	42 50
Moody, William P. 6,000, Liberty, $300.	25 40
Moody, Elizabeth 6,000, Liberty, $300.	18 00
Moody, James, Jr., 6,600, Liberty, $400. 6,600, " $400. 6,000, " $300.	38 00

Continued on page 3.

Royal makes the food pure, wholesome and delicious.

ROYAL
BAKING POWDER
Absolutely Pure

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

Gentlemen, Buy Your....

OVERCOATS

Where you can find the best assortment in the city and the lowest prices, which is at

C. F. DERBY'S, SAVINGS BANK BUILDING, QUINCY. 5-1m

WATCHES.

GENT'S WATCHES, $1.50 and Up.
LADIES' WATCHES, $2.50 and Up.
EVERY WATCH WARRANTED.

$2.00 Belts, $1.00 Each.
75c. Brooch Pins, 25c. Each.
25 and 35c. Stick Pins, 5 and 10c. Ea.

Quincy SOUVENIR TILES Half Price,
And Other Bargains.

A. A. LINSCOTT, Jeweler,
154 Hancock St., opp. Post Office, Quincy.
Agent for Graphophones.
aug 6. tf

POTATOES,
15c. Pk.

Sweet Potatoes,
15c. Pk.

White Seal Flour,
4.75 Bbl. Cash.

We guarantee this Flour to be old wheat and one of the best Bread Flours in the market.

L. M. PRATT & CO.,
25 School Street.

JOHN EVANS,
Auctioneer and Appraiser.
Prompt Settlement.
24 COPELAND STREET, QUINCY.
Feb. 26. tf

Coal!

Just Received by Barge Blackbird, a Fresh Cargo of

Pea Coal
(Small Nut.)

J. F. SHEPPARD & SONS
Quincy Sept. 7.

SELECT SOCIALS!
EVERY FRIDAY EVENING,
Beginning Oct. 21, 8.30 to 11,
COLONIAL HALL, Bank Bldg., Quincy.
Given in connection with
Prof. Gardner's Dancing School.
Tickets: Gent or Couple, 50c. Extra Lady, 25c.
LAST HALF TERM. Those who desire to learn the latest Fancy Dances can join the class at 7.30. Terms: 8 lessons from 7.30 to 8.30, Gents $4, Ladies $3. oct18—6t

GO TO....
Miss B. J. PATTERSON'S
Millinery Parlors
AT THE
Boston Bargain Store,
FOR YOUR
FALL MILLINERY.

A fine assortment of Trimmed Goods. Also, all the latest and best shapes in untrimmed hats, walking hats and sailors.
New Velvets, Ribbons, Fancy Feathers and Ostrich goods.
Lowest possible prices for first-class goods.
Music Hall Building, Quincy.
Oct. 1. tfpl

MARY WENT.

LAST Week Mary and everybody else were invited to call at the Quincy Second Hand Variety Store. They went, and Mary tells us that she was delighted with what she found. She bought an excellent stove for half its value, a chamber set for a remarkably low figure, and small ware in abundance for almost nothing. In fact, she was so well pleased, she sent her husband, who bought all the tools he could carry off for a few dollars.

WALTER P. PINEL
is the Manager, and the store is right over here at number 20 Franklin street.
aug25 1y

DR. RALPH M. FOGG,
DENTIST.
Teeth extracted absolutely without pain by the use of the
"BOSTON VEGETABLE VAPOR."
It is claimed that, while it has the required properties of ether, chloroform, nitrous oxide gas, it lacks the disagreeable and dangerous qualities of these drugs. It is certainly a boon to suffering humanity to be relieved of the nausea too often following the administering of sedatives of the old school.—Boston Transcript.
Teeth made and repaired on Gold or Rubber base. Teeth Filling a specialty.
Office in French's Building, five doors south of Post Office, Quincy, Wednesdays. Hours, 9 A. M. to 5 P. M. July18-1y Nov8-1yo

ALBERT J. BOWERS
OPTICIAN
ADAMS BUILDING OVER POST OFFICE
QUINCY MASS.

By FRANK F. CRANE, - Auctioneer.
Office, 4 Chestnut Street, Quincy.

AUCTION SALE
OF THE Household Furniture
— OF —
MRS. FRANK MUNROE, 29 Chestnut St.
Wednesday, Oct. 26,
At 1.30 P. M.

Parlor contains Gent's Smoking Chair, lounge Easy Chairs, Marble Top Table.
Front Chamber contains White Iron Bedstead, Black Walnut, Bureau, Commode and Chairs, Sewing Machine.
Middle Chamber contains Oak Chamber Set.
Side Chamber contains White Iron Single Bedstead, Bureau, etc.
End Chamber contains Bedstead, Bureau, Commode and Rocker.
Kitchen contains Table, Oil Stove, Crockery Glass Ware, Bird Cage, etc.
Also, we shall sell all the Mattresses, Bedding, etc., Pictures, Ornaments, and many other articles too numerous to mention.
Sale positive, rain or shine. Terms cash.
Oct. 20. 5t

By FRANK F. CRANE, - Auctioneer.
Office, 4 Chestnut St., Quincy.

Large Auction Sale
OF THE
GRANITE WORKS and QUARRY TOOLS
— OF —
PETER CARLSON & CO.,
Quarry Street, Opposite Fallon's Quarry,
THURSDAY, OCT. 27, 1898,
At 1.30 P. M.,

Consisting of Engine House, Tool Shed, 30 horse power, double cylinder and double drum Engine built to order by Rawson & Morrison of Cambridgeport, 2 years old, This engine was made especially to order for the granite business, is extra heavy and strong, and is first-class in every respect, the boiler has 120 tubes, makes steam quickly, and is very economical with coal. New Steam Drill, built by Ingersoll & Sargent; Steam Pump, 3 inch suction, 2 1-2 discharge; one Large Derrick, good for twenty tons; one medium sized Derrick, good for 8 or 9 tons; 2 Dump Cars and about 225 feet of rails for the same, about 1,000 feet of Steam Piping from 1-2 inch to 3 inches in diameter; large lot of Chains, Dogs, Bars, Steam Drills, Blast Drills, Plug Drills, Blocks, Sheaves, Wire Rope, New Tackle and Falls of 400 feet crucible steel 5-8 rope, 1 new Tackle and Fall of 550 feet of crucible steel 5-8 rope, and various other articles too numerous to mention.
Sale positive, rain or shine. Terms cash.
Oct. 19. 7t

By FRANK F. CRANE, - Auctioneer,
Office, 4 Chestnut St., Quincy, Mass.

AUCTION SALE

of TWO-STORY BUILDING and HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE of the estate of Edward H. Adams, Adams street, opposite the R. R. station, East Milton, MONDAY, Oct. 31, 1898, at 1.30 P. M.

The building is two-story and contains four rooms and is sold with the understanding that it will be moved within thirty days from the date of this sale.

The Household Furniture consists of large Mirror, Mahogany Desk, Turkish Sofa, Ottoman, Gent's Smoking Chair, Oak Table, Plush Rocker, Stewart Stove, Marble Top Table, Brussels Carpet, Black Walnut Dining Table, set of Oak Dining Chairs, Black Walnut Bedstead, Oak Bureau and Glass, 2 odd Bureaus, lot Mattresses and Bedding, Wilton Carpet, Wool Carpet, Decorated China Toilet Set, Rogers Group, large Hanging Lamp, Gov. Winthrop Range No. 8, Kitchen Table, large lot of Crockery and Glass Ware, Oil Cloth Carpet, and many other articles too numerous to mention,
Sale positive, rain or shine. Terms cash.
Oct. 20. L 20 22 29 p1w

MISS C. L. BLISS
186 HANCOCK STREET,
Trimmed and Untrimmed
Hats and Novelties.
Order Work a Specialty.
STAMPING, PINKING, HAIR DRESSING,
Manicuring and Glove Cleaning.
Quincy, Oct. 22. tf p1o

PARKWAY HEARING.

The Quincy Daily Ledger wishes to announce that the Metropolitan Park Commissioners will give a hearing to the Mayor and City Council of Quincy, and others interested in the Parkway from Boston via of Atlantic, Squantum and Quincy to the Blue Hills Reservation, at their rooms in the Congregational Building, Boston, on MONDAY, Oct. 24, 1898, at 2 30 P. M.
Oct. 19. 4t

THE FALL SEASON
IS HERE
For the Purchase of
Fruit and Ornamental Trees,
Shrubs and Vines.

Buy now that your plants may get a good start by spring.
Remember that I carry all the desirable novelties, as well as the old standard varieties of nursery stock.
I call special attention to my Flowering Shrubs, Perpetual Roses, Clematis, and Rhododendrons.
Buy at home and save agents' commissions. None but strictly first-class stock, well acclimated, furnished. Call and examine.
Orders by mail receive prompt attention.

Wollaston Park Nursery,
Fenno St., Wollaston.
MARTIN PFAFFMANN, Prop.
P. O. Box 44, Wollaston. Residence, 2 Clay St.
Oct. 14—1m p-3w

Quincy Daily Ledger

ESTABLISHED IN 1889.
The ONLY DAILY in Norfolk County Massachusetts.

Published Every Evening, Sundays and Holidays Excepted, At No. 115 HANCOCK ST., City of Quincy, Mass., by
GEORGE W. PRESCOTT & SON.
Successors to Green & Prescott.
Subscription Price, $6.00 per year.
A discount of $1 when paid in advance.
ALSO PUBLISHERS OF
The Quincy Patriot,
A Weekly Established in 1837, which has the Largest Circulation in Norfolk County, and
The Braintree Observer,
A Weekly Established in 1878.
TELEPHONE, 78-3 QUINCY.

Quincy Temperature at Noon.

	This Week.	Last Week.	In 1897.	In 1896.
Sunday	50	66	83	60
Monday	48	53	53	56
Tuesday	50	75	51	50
Wednesday	54	71	70	48
Thursday	61	55	62	56
Friday	—	59	49	62
Saturday	—	69	53	49

New Advertisements Today.

Pleasant house to let.
Boston Branch grocery.
Tenement of 6 rooms to let.
Household goods at auction.
Miss C. L. Bliss—Millinery.
Auction sale of building and furniture.
Harbor and land commissioners—Hearing.

Good Afternoon.

The steam roller continues its work of destruction, and has rooted up four large elm trees on the Chestnut street sidewalk in front of the residences of W. V. Hayward, H. G. O. Newcomb and Edgar G. Cleaves. The removal of these trees lets considerable more sunlight into the neighborhood and pedestrians and snow ploughs will not have to dodge any more. To make a complete job the sidewalk from Mr. Hayward's estate to Canal street should be lowered considerably. It has long been dangerous in front of Faxon hall and the residence of Mr. Cleaves, being at some points about two feet above the street. The city has run great risk from a suit for damages, as the sidewalk abuts a public hall. There is need also at this point of a stone crossing.

Checker Tournament.

It has developed that there are a few strong checker players among the employes at the T. R. & S. Co.'s works, Wollaston, and not the least among them is Mr. William H. Bennett, of Goddard street, South Quincy, who is regarded as the champion checker player in this section. Mr. Bennett loves the game and can be depended upon to defend his title when asked to do so.

To show his interest in the game he has offered a substantial prize to be contested for by players in the shop. Mr. Bennett has drawn up articles of agreement and made out a schedule of games to be played by the following gentlemen, each contestant to play one another five games: Mr. H. O. Pickney of South Braintree, Mr. Frank Nelles of Boston, Mr. W. Hoxie of Wollaston, Mr. A. E. Sanderson of Wollaston, Mr. John Calnan of Savin Hill.

Mr. Bennett will play the winner for a suitable prize to be decided upon later. There is much interest manifested and good sharp games are promised. The score will appear in the Ledger as the tournament progresses. First games to be played today.

Ladies' Auxiliary Election.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. held their annual meeting and election of officers on Monday afternoon. Quite a large number were present and listened to the encouraging reports which were offered. Mrs. H. F. Fitts was elected president for the coming year. Mrs. T. B. Pollard, vice president and Mrs. A. L. Hayden recording secretary. The membership of the auxiliary was reported as 76. Rev. Edward Anderson, the new pastor of the Point church, addressed them on "Woman's Work," and spoke very encouragingly of auxiliary work in relation to the Association and the church.

☞ Parlor Stoves that are economical in fuel and powerful heaters. $2.98 to $25.00. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

TEETH EXTRACTED.
No Pain or Danger.
Safer than vapor. Money paid for extracting goes towards teeth to be inserted. I am the only dentist in the city using the Painless Preparation for Extraction.
DR. C. B. UNDERWOOD,
9 Spear St. Rear of Public Library

A GRAND RECORD.

Seven Marriages in One Day in City of Presidents.

Holden--Eaton Wedding a Society Even.

The Others at Wollaston, South and West Quincy.

Cupid was evidently trying for a record in Quincy yesterday, and it is one of which a city of 25,000 population can be proud. There were at least seven marriages as noted below, and most of the young people were residents of the city.

HOLDEN—EATON.

Quincy society turned out en masse on Wedesday evening to witness the marriage of Miss Minnie Francesca Eaton, daughter of Hon. William N. Eaton, and Mr. Henry Rice Holden, which took place at the First Unitarian church.

Palms, ferns and pink carnations filled the pulpit and strands of white ribbon enclosed the pews.

Strains from "Lohengrin" announced the bridal party and the Rev. Charles H. Porter Jr., Mr. Harry I. Jordan of Auburn, Me., Mr. Henry W. Eaton, Mr. Walter B. Holden, Mr. Moreton T. Swallow and Mr. James S. Whiting, who acted as ushers led the bridal procession. Following came the bridemaids, Miss Edith Eaton, the Misses Wellington of Cambridge, and Miss Louise Williams, all gowned in white Swiss muslin trimmed with gauze ribbon and carrying bouquets of pinks. They were preceded by the little flower girl, Kitty Sprague of Wollaston, carrying a basket of pinks.

Preceding the bride walked the maid of honor, Miss Annie J. Eaton, a sister of the bride, in a gown of mousseline de soie over pink silk.

The bride entered on her fathers' arm. She wore a robe of white satin, en traine, with lace and pearl trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley, and her tulle veil was fastened with the same sprays.

The bridal procession was met in front of the altar by the bridegroom, attended by his best man, Mr. Arthur B. Holden, and the officiating clergyman, the Rev. Ellery C. Butler, pastor of the church. During the service, the organist, Mr. James F. Harlow, played selections from "Lohengrin."

After the ceremoy a reception was held at the home of the bride on Adams street. The decorations were of palms and cut flowers. Mr. and Mrs. Holden were assisted in receiving by Hon. and Mrs. William N. Eaton, Mrs. John O. Holden and Mr. Arthur D. Holden.

After a wedding tour, Mr. and Mrs. Holden will reside at No. 5 Adams street.

WATERHOUSE—BROWN.

Mr. George Sawyer Waterhouse of Quincy and Miss Laura Frances Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Brown of Wollaston, were married on Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Beale street, at 7 o'clock.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. E. C. Butler, pastor of the First Unitarian church of Quincy, under a floral canopy with the monogramme L—G in pink and white roses.

The bride, who was gowned in white silk crepon over white taffeta with chiffon trimmings, with tulle veil fastened with lilies of the valley and carrying a white prayer book, was attended by two little flower girls, Merle Munroe, a cousin of the bride, and Ethel Brown, niece of the bride, both dressed in white and forget-me-nots and carrying baskets of flowers preceded the bridal party.

The ushers were Mr. Charles Brown of Wollaston and Mr. Warren Edwards of Quincy. Music was discoursed by Beeyman's orchestra of Boston. The house was beautifully decorated with roses and palms.

After the ceremony a reception was held, at which Mr. and Mrs. Waterhouse were assisted in receiving by Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Brown, Mrs. Charles Waterhouse and Mr. Charles Waterhouse.

CARTER—BROWN.

There was a quiet wedding on Wednesday, Oct. 12, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Brown, 29 Arlington street, Wollaston, where their daughter, Miss Flora Elsietta, was married to Mr. Herbert Francis Carter of Atlantic, the Rev. Henry C. Wright, pastor of the Atlantic M. E. church, officiating.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Brown, the Misses Dora and Melzena Brown, Mrs. C. L. Carter, Miss Omie Carter, Mr. Charles Carter of Atlantic, Mr. and Mrs. Dana McIntyre, Mr. and Mrs. Warren McIntyre, Miss Mabel McIntyre of Malden, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney A. Brown of North Reading, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Greenleaf of Lynn, Mrs. Jennie Shute of Boston, Miss Martha Stearns of Roxbury, Miss Carrie Jennings of Wollaston Park and Mr. Frank Fergerson of South Boston.

DALEY—O'BRIEN.

West Quincy also had its wedding Wednesday, Miss Nellie C. O'Brien and Mr. James A. Daley being united in marriage at 11 A. M. by Rev. Fr. Purcell. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael O'Brien. She wore a gown of white Swiss muslin, trimmed with lace, and carried a large bouquet of white roses. Miss Alice F. O'Brien, a sister of the bride was maid of honor and also wore a white Swiss muslin trimmed with lace. Mr. John J. Daley, a brother of the groom was best man.

In the evening from 8 until 11 o'clock a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, when Mr. and Mrs. Daley were assisted in receiving by Mr. Joseph Reinhalter, Mrs. P. J. Milford, Mrs. M. M. Berry and Miss Annie Berry. The reception was attended by the officers of the Retail Clerks' Association of Boston, and also by the officers and many of the members of the Quincy Clerks' Association, of which Mr. Daley is president. There were also a large circle of friends from Quincy, Milton, Boston, Weymouth and Lexington. Mr. and Mrs. Daley will reside at No. 16 Miller street, and will be at home after Wednesday, Oct. 26.

ELLSWORTH—SHERMAN.

Mr. Alfred Jennison Ellsworth of Braintree and Miss Gertrude Sherman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Sherman of Wollaston, were married on Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents on Grand View avenue, in the presence of the relatives and immediate friends of the families.

The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock by the Rev. A. A. Ellsworth, pastor of the Congregational church, Braintree, and father of the groom. The maid of honor was Miss Marion Sherman, sister of the bride. The ushers were Dr. S. W. Ellsworth, Mr. George W. Sherman and Mr. Francis W. Davis. The house was prettily decorated with palms and chrysanthemums.

After the ceremony an informal reception was held at which Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth were assisted in receiving by Mr. and Mrs. Sherman and Rev. and Mrs. Ellsworth.

TWO AT ONE CHURCH.

At the First Presbyterian church on Water street there were two weddings. At 7.30 the pastor, Rev. Robert Westley Peach, united Miss Mary J. Fraser of Quincy and Mr. George W. Higgins of Milton. At 8 o'clock he married Miss Elizabeth G. Esson and Mr. Alexander K. Russell, both of Quincy.

OTHER WEDDINGS.

Rev. W. W. Dornan of the United Presbyterian church also married a couple, uniting Mr. John A. McLeod and Miss Maggie A. McBeth.

At Hingham, Miss Ella Loring of South Hingham and Mr. James E. Baxter of Dorchester were united by Rev. Charles H. Porter, Jr.

At Hyde Park the Rev. Samuel G. Babcock married Miss Nellie Grant, daughter of Mrs. Charles G. Norling, to Mr. Frederick A. Raymond.

NAPHEN NOMINATED.

Democratic Candidate Against Barrows in Tenth.

The adjourned Democratic Tenth Congressional convention was called to order at the American House, Boston, at 1 30 o'clock this morning, and it was near 7 o'clock before a nomination was made.

On the twenty-first ballot, the first taken, the result was: Hall 47; Naphen 39; Flood 20; Campbell 8; Gore 9; Sullivan 2.

From this on, up to the thirtieth ballot, the result was practically the same. On the thirty-first and last ballot, the Flood men went over to Naphen, which gave him 60, the number necessary to nominate. The last ballot stood. Naphen 60; Hall 47; Campbell 8; Sullivan 2.

The Quincy delegates remained the same throughout the balloting, seven voting for Hall, and five for Naphen.

THERE IS A CLASS OF PEOPLE
Who are injured by the use of coffee. Recently there has been placed in all the grocery stores a new preparation called GRAIN-O, made of pure grains, that takes the place of coffee. The most delicate stomach receives it without distress, and but few can tell it from coffee. It does not cost over 1-4 as much. Children may drink it with great benefit. 15 cts. and 25 cts. per package. Try it. Ask for GRAIN-O.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts
OFFICE OF THE
Board of HARBOR and LAND COMMISSIONERS.
State House, Boston, October 18, 1898.

NOTICE is hereby given that the Quincy and Boston Street Railway Company of Quincy, Mass., has made application to this Board for license to erect a station building on piles in Neponset river, adjoining Neponset avenue in the City of Boston, as per plans filed with said application; and WEDNESDAY, the 26th day of October, 1898, at 11 o'clock A. M., and this office, have been assigned as the time and place for hearing all parties interested therein.
For the Board,
WOODWARD EMERY,
Chairman.
2t 20 24

LOCAL NEWS TRACK.

Some Colts which are Sure Winners Every Heat.

No school tomorrow.

Quincy teachers will attend the Norfolk County convention tomorrow.

C. F. Derby shows a fine line of overcoats. Styles are right and prices right.

Today was juvenile day at the District Court and several cases were heard.

The three days' fair of the Swedish Lutheran church opens in Faxon hall tonight.

Select socials will be given by Prof. Gardner every Friday evening in Colonial hall.

Autioneer Johnson will sell the household furniture of Barnard Shane next Tuesday.

Miss Estelle Chamberlin of New York is the guest of Mrs. Frank Walters of Hancock street.

Officer David J. Barry was taken with a chill Wednesday evening and was obliged to go home.

The pumps at the sewer pumping station are under steam and running to get the bearings down.

All the dancing clases of Miss Corlew have increased largely in membership and are making rapid progress.

At the Granite City club on Wednesday evening the whist prizes were captured by Messrs. R. D. Gordon and W. H. Rideout.

Mr. J. Harvey Smith has removed from North street to 42 Chestnut street, where he will be pleased to have his friends call.

A lecture will be delivered by Rev. W. W. Dornan on Saturday, 7.45 P. M., in Wilson's hall. Subject: "A trip through IrIeand."

And now 'tis a mania among the children to go around all the stores asking for picture cards. Mister please give me a picture card.

J. B. Benson, proprietor of the Ridge Hill House at Norwell was in the city Wednesday visiting friends. He was a former resident of Quincy Point.

The Sewer department is coming across many underground blind drains that were used years ago. Our streets would be better if we had more drains today.

The board of registrars were in session from 12 o'clock noon on Wednesday until 10 o'clock last night, during which time 14 were restored and 77 new names added.

The granite works and quarry tools of Peter Carlson & Co. are to be sold at auction on Thursday of next week by Auctioneer Crane. Granite manufacturers should attend this sale.

Hon. Charles I. Quirk of Ward 17 Boston was on Wednesday evening nominated for Democratic candidate for Councillor in the Fourth district. He had as a rival Jeremiah J. McNamara.

The Quincy branch of the Salvation Army hold a coffee feast at their headquarters, corner of Franklin and School streets, Oct. 27. Charles Sowton, leader of the Army in America will be present.

Here is a good problem for the school children of the grammar grades: Six men are to play a checker tournament, each man to play five games with each of the other contestants; how many games will be played?

Adams Academy was unable to score in its game at Weymouth played on Tuesday, with the Weymouth High foot ball team. Lynch of the local team made two touchdowns in the first half from which Drown kicked one goal, and their total score was 11.

That part of Quincy, formerly known as "Point Holes," is fast building up. Four houses have already been built upon the property and another house is nearly completed. It is a very desirable place of residence. The new houses find occupants about as soon as they are built.

The two pair of rubber boots reported as missing from the Water department shops have been recovered by the police, one pair being found in Town brook under Charlie Wong's laundry where they had evidently been left by the boys who broke into the laundry last Sunday.

Atlantic people have been losing their egg layers of late and there are few coops that have not suffered. The hen stealing has stopped now, however, for Officer McCarthy caught some twelve year old boys the other night with hens in their possession that did not belong to them. The boys' parents have settled for the loss and thus kept them from being brought into court.

Arrangements are being made for a grand Republican rally in Quincy on Friday evening, Oct. 28. The speakers will probably be Governor Wolcott, Congressmen Barrows and McCall, and Hon. Albert Clark.

"Just Right."

We believe that what is worth doing at all is worth doing well—we want and try to have the quality of our goods, our prices and our promptness in atttending to your orders "just right."

A satisfied customer is the best advertisement we can have—only partly satisfied won't do. We try to please you always and make everything "just right."

Large, black, meaty prunes—they have small stones. Try them stewed—they make a delicious and healthful desert.

NEW PRUNES, 10c. a lb.

BOSTON BRANCH GROCERY,
Durgin & Merrill's Block, - Quincy.

MAKE IT HOT FOR YOU.

If your house is cold and you have become disgusted with the various devices called heaters, and you are really anxious to have warmth and comfort in your home, place an order for one of those G. B. Bates CIRCULATORS. It will "make it hot for you" or just the temperature you desire. Its construction is based upon scientific and economical principles. Several have recently been put in right here in Quincy, and others will be put in during the next few weeks. Don't read this ad. and then forget about it till your water pipes are all frozen, but go now to

G. B. BATES,
Hancock Street, Quincy.

New Pianos, $185.00.

Just why people pay fancy profits and fancy prices for pianos, when they can't afford to, is hard to tell. Truth is, they don't know themselves.
Everyone can and should own a piano, a piano to be proud of, a piano with perfect touch and delightful tone, a piano you'll never have to apologize for, a piano that's sold at an honest price within the reach of everyone. A piano honestly built, with a rich, beautifully carved case; a piano that's fully guaranteed. A piano just the same kind exactly that sells for $450.00 with a different name stenciled on the case, but our price to everyone is $185.00.
It's worth considering, and the time to buy is now. Do not delay but have a piano in your home at once. These pianos are not merely a bargain, they are almost a gift. Time payments for those who wish.

HENRY L. KINCAIDE & CO.,
The People's Cut Price House Furnishers,
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

48 BALLOTS 48

And the tenth district nominated a candidate for Congress, but it needn't take you half so long to decide where to buy

Fall and Winter Suits
FOR MEN AND BOYS.

The Granite Clothing Store has always carried honest goods at low prices, and this year beats all previous years. Every purchaser is bound to be Absolutely Satisfied.

Boys are satisfied because the suits are neat and stylish, and their parents are satisfied with the price.
Call and see for yourself.

Granite Clothing Co.
DURGIN & MERRILL'S BLOCK.

E. S. BECKFORD,
Electrician.
Wiring and Fitting for Incandescent, Motors, Dynamos, Bells, etc.
GRANITE STREET, Near the Bridge, QUINCY
Feb. 1 1y

Mortgagee's Sale.

BY Virtue of the power of sale contained in a certain mortgage given by Thomas M. Elcock to Mary C. Barry, dated September 24, A. D. 1884, recorded with Norfolk Deeds, libro 561, folio 433, for breach of the conditions of said mortgage and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction upon the premises hereinafter described, on MONDAY, the seventh day of November, A. D. 1898, at one o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises described in and conveyed by said mortgage deed, viz.:

All that lot of land, with the buildings erected or to be erected thereon, numbered eleven upon a plan of lots of Pemis Hill Farm made by Whitman & Breck, dated 1883, and measuring and bounded as follows, to wit: Easterly on Quincy street, sixty feet; northerly on lot numbered ten, one hundred and twenty feet; westerly on lot numbered twenty, sixty feet; and southerly on lot numbered twelve, one hundred and twenty feet, containing seven thousand and two hundred square feet of land.

Terms at sale. $300 to be paid at sale.

MARY C. BARRY, Mortgagee.
P. A. COLLINS, Attorney for Mortgagee, No. 535 Tremont Building, Boston.
Oct. 13. 3t 13 20 27

☞ A Glenwood Range will make your wife happy, will save your fuel, and cook your food as no other range can. $18.00 to $33.00. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

NOTABLE FUNERAL.

Prominent Odd Fellows Pay Tribute to Grand Instructor York.

The esteem in which Joseph York of Wollaston, Grand Instructor of the Grand lodge, was held by the fraternity of Odd Fellows was manifested at the funeral held Wednesday afternoon from the Methodist church. Although it rained hard, the attendance over-taxed the seating capac ty of the church and it was necessary to bring in many extra chairs.

Among the representative Odd Fellows present were: Grand Sire Alfred S. Pinkerton of Worcester, Deputy Grand Master Nathaniel J. W. Fish of Taunton, Grand Warden William F. Dusseault of Acton, Grand Secretary John U. Perkins of Chelsea, Grand Assistant Secretary George H. Fuller of Boston, Grand Treasurer J. Lawrence Martin of Boston, Grand Representatives Charles N. Alexander of Boston and John Corkhill of Pittsfield, Grand Marshal Austin S. Estey of Somerville, Grand Conductor David L. White of Boston, Grand Guardian Millard F. Moody of Lynn, Grand Herald Forrest L. Adams of Natick, Past Grand Masters J. B. Crawford of Boston, Edward H. Kaganagh of Lynn, Henry E. Ruggles of Franklin, Louis A. Cool of Weymouth.

There were large delegations present from Bethesda lodge, Mt. Washington encampment and Bernice Rebekah lodge, and Wollaston lodge, K. of H., of which the deceased was a member; also from John Hancock lodge of Wollaston, Mt. Wollaston lodge of Quincy, and Crescent lodge of East Weymouth, Carrie E. Ruggles Rebekah lodge of Wollaston and George L. Gill lodge of Quincy.

Many other lodges were represented including: Norfolk 48 of Dorchester, Hobah 53 of South Boston, Neponset 84 of Neponset, Wildey 121 of South Weymouth, Massasoit 69 of Brockton, King Phillip 44 of Taunton, Quinsigamond 4 of Worcester, Commonwealth 3 of Boston, Ancient Landmark 2 of Boston, King David 71 of Franklin, Richard W. Drown 106 of Lynn, Dorchester 158 of Mattapan, DeSoto 155 of Springfield, Vesta 156 of New Bedford, Mt. Pleasant 176 of Dorchester, Paul Revere 184 of Somerville, Electric 204 of Brockton, Sabatisa 225 of Taunton.

Among the Rebekah lodges sending members were: Mary Washington 1 of Boston, Morning Star 9 of Springfield, Amity 15 of East Cambridge, Azar 27 of Dorchester, Crescent 5 of Dorchester, Abigail Adams 90 of South Weymouth, Steadfast 98 of East Weymouth, Miriam 101 of Roxbury, Peerless 112 of Brockton, Victor 125 of Dorchester, Reliance 127 of Neponset.

Prayers were first held at the residence, conducted by Rev. J. W. Waterhouse, pastor of the Methodist church. At the church the pastor was assisted by Rev. Jesse Wagner, of the Allston M. E. church, a former pastor of the deceased, and a male quartette composed of Mr. E. E. Bullock, Mr. Benjamin Sargent, Mr. H. A. Corbett and Mr. C. F. Wilde.

The pastor read from the Scriptures and the quartette sang "Guide and Guard Us." Mr. Waterhouse spoke in eulogistic terms of Mr. York; his work for the word of God; his honesty, integrity and love of family, and his great interest in the order which was his life work. The quartette then sang "Nearer My God to Thee," and Rev. Mr. Wagner spoke from an intimate personal acquaintance with the deceased. He told of his sterling character and worth; of his faithful work as superintendent of his Sunday School and in his church, and of his intense devotion to family.

Mr. Wagner closed with prayer.

The Odd Fellows then held services conducted by Noble Grand Fred J. Parsons and Chaplain John Godfrey of Bethesda lodge; the quartette singing, "Gathering Home."

The floral tributes were numerous and beautiful, many lodges sending set pieces, and included: An open book of white carnations and maiden-hair ferns, inscribed, in blue immortelles, "Grand Instructor, Finis," from the Grand Lodge; star and crescent of roses, carnations and maiden-hair ferns, from Bernice Bebekah lodge; pillow of carnations, roses and maiden-hair ferns, from Bethesda lodge; tent of white carnations, with a background of begonia leaves, from Mt. Washington encampment; wreath of chrysanthemums and roses, from Grand Secretary John U. Perkins and Assistant Grand Secretary George H. Fuller; spray of white chrysanthemums, from Misses Etta and Bessie Hewitson; harp of white carnations and roses, from John Hancock lodge; wreath of roses, carnations and maiden-hair ferns from Carrie E. Ruggles Rebekah lodge; crescent of roses and maiden-hair ferns resting on a base of white chrysanthemums, from Mt. Wollaston lodge; pillow of roses and carnations, inscribed, in blue immortelles, "Husband," from Mrs. York; bunch of violets, from Miss Ella York; bunch of white pinks, from Assistant Gaand Instructor Harvey Clark; pillow of roses, white carnations and ferns, from Massasoit and Electric lodges; spray of pinks and maiden-hair ferns, from Steadfast Rebekah lodge; three links of roses and carnations, De Soto lodge; bunch of roses and ferns, Morning Star Rebekah lodge.

The pall bearers were John W. Perkins, J. Lawrence Martin, Harvey Clarke, J. W. Nickols, W. J. Marshal, J. J. Whall, Mr. William J. Battison and Thomas J. Mitchell.

The interment was at Mount Wollaston.

IN THE CITY NURSERY

Young Saplings Which Together Assume Importance

Horace F. Spear goes to Barnstable on a gunning trip for remainder of the week.

The hack drivers had a wet time in the old town last night, and there were a good many around the First church.

Ralph J. Merrill has severed his connections at the Boston Branch grocery and has accepted a position with the Bay State Alumnium Co., to represent them on the road.

Town river near Johnson's lumber yard has been a lucky spot for the local fishermen to pull out a few smelts. A number of small boats are anchored there almost every day.

The estate of Mrs. Annie Keating, consisting of a cottage house of seven rooms and 8,040 square feet of land, situated on Water street has been sold to James Manning by C. H. Johnson. Mr. Manning will occupy the same.

The strong winds the past few days have made the tides very high, overflowing the marshes and running in shore to a great distance. At some of the boat houses and summer cottages the water extended several inches above the foundations and reached the floorings.

Among the Missing.

G. A. Pelos, who runs the barber shop in the basement of the Y. M. C. A. building is reported as among the missing, and the shop is closed. It is said that he packed up his razors last Friday and shaking the dust of Quincy from his feet left for parts unknown. Pelos was the prime mover in the benefit recently given for the members of Co. K, and although quite a sum was netted, the proceeds are among the missing. Pelos announced at the time that Mr. Burgin of the Quincy Savings Bank was to be the treasurer of the fund, but he holds that office in title only, for the funds have not reached him as yet. The Ledger warned the people against the benefit before it occurred, and stated at the time that it thought no Quincy family of a Co. K member desired a benefit. When it does the support of responsible gentlemen can easily be enlisted.

Q. & B. Officers.

The Quincy & Boston street railway held its annual meeting Wednesday and elected these officers: Clerk and Treasurer, Frederick H. Smith; Directors, John R. Graham, Winthrop Coffin, Arthur Burnham, John F. Merrill, Thomas H. McDonnell, John A. Duggan, Josiah Quincy Roger H. Wilde and Dr. W. A. Drake.

Andy Dupont, a Kansas City prizefighter, who administered a fatal beating to William Walker Monday, has been arrested in South Omaha. He is held for murder. Walker is still alive, but beyond hope of recovery.

Admiral Schley has been placed in command of the naval station in San Juan. So far the department has no knowledge of the value of the naval property contained in this station when it was evacuated by the Spanish officials.

The backers of the Lynch brothers will accept the challenge of Bubear and Barry, the English champions, for a double scull race for $2,500, to take place during the last week in July at Halifax. The Lynches will allow the Englishmen $250 for expenses.

Colonel Sosa of the staff of the Cuban general, Diaz, visited Admiral Sampson yesterday in Havana to explain the distress and destitution of the Cuban soldiers in the province of Pinar del Rio. The United States commissioners directed that 20,000 rations be sent them.

The hosiery plant of the Hodgson & Holt Manufacturing company in Laconia, N. H., has stopped its carding, spinning and knitting machinery, preparatory to a shutdown for an indefinite period. The company employs 175 hands with a daily product of 500 dozen of hose.

The total registration of Harvard university amounts to 4,197, including 423 officers of instruction and 3,774 students. Beside this number there are 30 students on leave of absence. These figures show a gain of 37 students over last year, and the largest total in the history of the university.

General Monosal, commanding the Cuban forces in Marianao, has issued an order directing that all officers who receive leave to go to Havana shall do so without arms, or any insignia or device denoting their rank. This precaution is taken with a view of avoiding disorders and quarrels with the Spanish soldiery.

The grand lodge of Kentucky Masons has adopted resolutions reported by its special committee, which recommends non-intercourse between the grand lodge of that state and the grand lodge of Washington, because of the action of the latter in recognizing colored lodges. The motion to adopt was seconded by 50 master Masons.

MOURNED BY MANY.

K. of C. and Foresters Attend Funeral of R. J. Larkin.

The funeral of Richard J. Larkin, who died Tuesday morning after a brief illness, was held this morning at 9 o'clock from St. John's church, and was very largely attended. Quincy Council, Knights of Columbus, and St. Francis Court of Foresters, of which the deceased was a member attended in a body.

The two orders escorted the remains from his late residence on Hancock street to the church where solemn high mass of requiem was celebrated by Rev. F. A. Friguglietti as celebrant, assisted by Rev. J. P. Cuffe as deacon and Rev. J. F. Purcell as sub-deacon. Schmidts mass was sung by the choir, assisted by Mr. Daniel Padula and Miss Kate C. Sullivan.

At the conclusion of the services at the church the remains were escorted by the two orders to St. Mary's cemetery at West Quincy, Messrs. Thomas J. McGrath, Bernard Cullen, John Vogel, Edward Daley, P. F. Hughes and Henry Hughes officiating as bearers. Arriving at West Quincy the two orders performed their burial services and the remains were committed to mother earth. There were many floral tributes.

The following floral pieces were noticed: From Knights of Columbus, pillow; from M. C. O. F., pillow; Democratic City Committee, mound; Dennis Kelliher, pillow; James Devine, pillow; Mrs. Horace Spear, 41 pinks; John and Thos. Swithin, wreath "Ever Faithful;" Mrs. James H. Stetson, wreath; Sadie E. and K. F. Thomas, 41 roses; Miss B. A. Larkin, 41 pinks; Misses McEvoy and Mitchell, crescent; Mr. and Mrs H. Edson, sheaf; Mr. William McTear, chrysanthemums and bouquets from Mrs. Tear, Robbie McTear, Mrs. McCormick, Grade B, Coddington school and Mrs. J. Strachan.

GIRLS VS. THE BOYS

Which Add More to the Credit of the High School.

At the regular meeting of the Quincy High School Debating Society Mr. Thomas '99, who is a ready debater, and one of the business editors of the Goldenrod, took the chair. Mr. Northcott '99, presented a very interesting and meritous report of the last meeting. It would be well if the secretaries would prepare a report of each meeting for the GOLDEN-ROD.

On motion of Mr. Murphy whose superb tackling was one of the features of the Thayer-High game Tuesday, seconded by Mr. Foss, captain of the eleven, the report was accepted and adopted.

The entertainment included, Recitation, "Thoughts on the Seasons," Miss Hayden, '99.

Recitation, Miss Lowe, '99.

Piano solo, Miss Hultman, 1900.

All the numbers of the entertainment were excellent.

The debate was on the subject: "Resolved, that the girls of the Quincy High School add more to the credit of the school than the boys do."

Affirmative speakers: Misses Brown, Collagan, Comins, Dunn, A. Elcock, F. Elcock, Fowler.

Negative: Misses Greenerd, Hayden, Hodgkinson, King, Lingley, Lowe.

For lack of time the completion of the debate was postponed. Probably the open debate on this topic will be particularly interesting, as both girls and boys seem to know a great deal about the faults of the opposite sex.

MARRIED,

McLEOD—McBETH—In Quincy, Oct. 19, by the Rev. W. W. Dornan, Mr. John A. McLeod to Miss Maggie A. McBeth, both of Quincy.

HIGGINS—FRASER—In the First Presbyterian church, by the pastor, Rev. Robert Westly Peach, at 7.30 o'clock Wednesday evening, Oct. 19, Mr. George W. Higgins of Milton to Miss Mary J. Fraser of Quincy.

RUSSELL—ESSON—In the First Presbyterian church, by the pastor, Rev. Robert Westly Peach, at 8 o'clock, Wednesday evening, Oct. 19, Mr. Alexander W. Russell to Miss Elizabeth G. Esson, both of Quincy.

WATERHOUSE—BROWN—In Quincy, Oct. 19, by the Rev. E. C. Butler, Mr. George Sawyer Waterhouse to Miss Laura Frances Brown, both of Quincy.

ELLSWORTH—SHERMAN—In Wollaston, Oct. 19, by Rev. A. A. Ellsworth of Braintree, Mr. Alfred J. Ellsworth of Braintree to Miss Gertrude Sherman of Wollaston.

DALEY—O'BRIEN—In Quincy, Oct. 19, by Rev. Fr. Purcell, Mr. James A. Daley to Miss Nellie C. O'Brien, both of Quincy.

CARTER—BROWN—In Wollaston, Oct. 12, by Rev. Henry C. Wright, Mr. Herbert O. F. Carter of Atlantic to Miss Flora E. Brown of Wollaston.

HOLDEN—EATON—In Quincy at the First church, Oct. 19, by the Rev. E. C. Butler, Mr. Henry Rice Holden to Miss Minnie Francesca Eaton, both of Quincy.

WILLIAM E. BAXTER, M. D.

Practice Limited to the

EYE AND EAR.

553 Boylston St., Boston.

QUINCY—Monday and Friday.

Hours, 9 to 11. 195 Hancock Street

May 21. 1y

HOW TO MAKE MONEY.

Take a silver dollar and drop it on a jeweler's show case and you'll get a ring. Take a quarter and saw it in two in the middle and get two halves. Take a two-dollar bill and fold it once and you double it—and you can keep on monkeying with money and make imaginary capital for an hour. But if you want to get a new wrinkle in money, just take a new ten dollar bill and fold it corner-ways and you'll get a new wrinkle every time. But don't fool with your money and don't let anybody else fool with it. Don't let anybody fool you with the idea that they'll give you a $10 bill with every $2 suit or overcoat.

The new store has earned a reputation for selling straight goods at straight prices. We don't monkey with your money, or flim flam you with any imaginary values. We give you good goods, charge a fair-profit price for everything you buy and expect you to come back the second time because you were used right the first.

We can sell a good Overcoat for $5.00 and an all wool one for $6.50. But for $7.50 we can show you a dandy all wool Kersey, made with raw edge and lap seams and lined with good lasting linings. The same coat our competitors (in Boston) get $10 for.

Our $10 coat we have in Blacks, Blues, Olives and Browns. Then we have them for $11, $12, $13, $13.50, $15, $15.50 and upwards to $19, in all the different style goods worn this season.

For this week and next too, if they are not all gone, we will sell all wool Dickey Pants at $1.48. All the other stores get $2.00.

QUINCY CLOTHING CO.,

LOWEST PRICED CLOTHIERS IM NORFOLK COUNTY.

MUSIC HALL BLOCK.

LAND VALUES.

Continued from page 1.

WARD THREE.

Valuation of Land Only.	Total Ward Tax.
Moore, Martha A. 12,113, Gay, $1,000.	45 00
Moorehouse, Joel 6,000, Centre, $300.	27 20

WARD FOUR.

Milne, Andrew 2 acres land of Swithin, $400.	7 20
Minahan, John P. 9,325, land of Gannett, $150.	4 70
Minahan, Mary T. 10,100, land of Gannett, $150.	2 70
Minahan, Michael 1-2 acre, off Grove, $200. 30,000 feet, " " $250.	29 90
Minahan, Michael T. 11,296, land of Gannett, $150.	2 70
Minahan, Margaret 5,940, land off Gannett, $150.	2 70
Malachey, Mitchell 5,000, off Grove, $250.	20 90
Monahan, Maria, 4,000, Crescent, $450.	21 60
Monahan, Michael 19,672, Copeland, $2,000.	89 30
Morrissette, Napoleon 6,000, Side, $600.	30 60
Morrissette, Cyrille 1-8 acre, Crescent, $500.	32 60
Moriarty, John J. 5,520, off Grove, 2,880, " " $350.	22 70
Moriarty, Michael D., est., 8,490, Side, $400.	10 80
Mortenson, J. William 6,000, Arthur, $300.	47 00
Morton, George W. About 5,000, Nelson, $200.	5 40
Morrisey, Mary A. 7,410, Willard, $375.	33 75

WARD FIVE.

Mills, Mrs. Lizzie 2,500, Arlington, $250. 2,500, " $250.	41 40
Mills, Mary E. 5,000, Arlington, $500.	39 60
Mills, Forest R. 5,000, Arlington, $500.	63 00
Miner, Margaret 7,500, Old Colony, $750.	40 50
Mitchell, Clara J. 2,500, Brooks, $250. 5,000, " $400.	58 90
Mitchell, Mrs. Henrietta 6,420, Brooks, $500.	48 60
Moorhouse, Maude 6,000, Winthrop ave., $900.	84 60

WARD SIX.

Milton, Land Co., 19 1-6 acres of Squantum, $6,000.	228 60
Moffit, David 5,000, Chestnut, $250.	29 90
Moran, William T. 11,988, Hancock, $1,200.	66 80
Monroe, L. Dorr, est., 6,984, Billings road, $600. 5,538, " " $325.	137 25
Morgan, Edward A. 1-8 acre, Sagamore, $350.	27 90
Moody, Mrs. Mary E. D. 12,000, Billings, 8,250, " $2,100.	100 80
Moseley, Harry H. 40,000, Atlantic, $3,400.	115 20

To be continued.

☞ Nickle Alarm Clocks that go off like a gattling gun, 89 cents. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

TODAY'S COURT.

Thomas Shea was fined $5 for drunkenness at Quincy.

Michael Daley was fined $5 for drunkenness, and $5 for disturbing the peace at Weymouth.

Timothy Lyons was fined $5 for permitting his horse to run at large on Holmes street.

Howard Perry was fined $5 for drunkenness at Quincy.

Michael McAuliff was fined $5 for disturbing the peace at Quincy.

The continued cases of Patrick Murphy for drunkenness and non-support at Quincy were called, and again continued until Nov. 3.

The continued case of Arthur J. O'Neil, David Lee and John Marcalini for breaking and entering and larceny from the laundry of Charlie Wong at Quincy was heard and continued for a week.

☞ Furniture reupholstered, mattresses made over, carpets cleaned. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

BILLHEADS PRINTED

AT PATRIOT OFFICE.

TELL US . .

What you are looking for.

We can show you a fine line of

FALL AND WINTER UNDERWEAR,

HOSIERY,

Outing Flannels, Flannelettes,

Plaid Dress Goods,

WRAPPERS, BLANKETS,

Comforters,

Dress Linings and other Dry Goods.

OUR STOCK IS FRESH.

OUR PRICES THE LOWEST.

MISS C. S. HUBBARD,

158 Hancock Street.

STENOGRAPHY AND TYPEWRITING,

BOOKKEEPING,

And All Clerical Work.

MISSES A. B. and E. M. COTE,

Room 12 Durgin & Merrill Block, - Quincy.

Oct. 10. tf

DR. HERBERT S. HAYFORD

195 Hancock Street.

OFFICE HOURS—11 to 12 A. M., 2 to 4 and 7 to 8 P. M.

Telephone, 4-3.

Quincy, July 5. tf

E. LANDIS SNYDER,

Organist and Choirmaster of Christ Church,

TEACHER OF

VOICE CULTURE, PIANO AND ORGAN.

Studio: Room 10 Durgin & Merrill's Block, QUINCY, MASS.

Sept. 10. tf

A. J. DURAND,

Piano Tuning, etc.

19 Coddington St., Quincy.

Highly recommended by Chickering & Sons, and prominent Boston musicians.

Sept. 20. 1m

Mutual Life

OF NEW YORK.

Do You Want Life Insurance?

Do You Want Fire Insurance?

If so, call on

GEORGE H. FIELD,

1 Durgin & Merrill's Block, Quincy,

and you will find the best Companies at Lowest Rates.

MONEY LOANED ON REAL ESTATE.

WORMS

In Children or Adults. The safest and most effectual remedy made is

TRUE'S PIN WORM ELIXIR

In use 47 years. 35c. Ask your Druggist for it.

Dr. J. F. TRUE & CO., Auburn, Me.

☞ All the latest notions in lamps. Hundreds of patterns to choose from. 25 cents to $10.00. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

STATE ELECTOIN.

CITY OF QUINCY.

City Clerk's Office, Oct. 7, 1898.

IN Accordance with the provisions of Chapter 548 of the Acts of 1898, notice is hereby given that by a vote of the City Council, passed October 3, 1898, the polling places for the election to be held TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1898, in the City of Quincy, were designated as follows:

WARD ONE.—Council Chamber, City Hall.

WARD TWO—Hose House, Washington street.

WARD THREE, Precinct One.—Doble's Hall, Franklin street.

WARD THREE, Precinct Two.—Old Steamer House, School street.

WARD FOUR, Precinct One.—St. Mary's Hall, Willard street.

WARD FOUR, Precinct Two.—Hose House, Copeland street.

WARD FIVE.—Polson's Building, Newport avenue.

WARD SIX.—Hose House, Newbury avenue.

Attest: EDGAR G. CLEAVES, City Clerk.

Quincy, Oct. 7, 1898. 27t

FISH.

Everything first-class at the

Cape Cod. Fish Market,

Temple Street.

All kinds Fresh, Salt, Smoked an Pickeled

Quincy, Feb. 8. 1y

TO LET.

APARTMENTS of five large rooms and bath, with all modern improvements. Also two large stores. Rent moderate. Apply to ARTHUR CRAIG, or J. W. HAYDEN, at Craig Building, cor. Copeland and Garfield Sts.

Quincy, July 15. pl tf

TO LET IN QUINCY.

SOUTHERLY Half of house with stable 214 Hancock street, now occupied by Dr. N. S. Hunting. Modern improvements, central location. Seven rooms and bath; furnace, gas and city water. Apply on premises to MISS M. F. UNDERWOOD.

Oct. 1. tf

FOR SALE.

Bigelow St. Fine New Residence, 9 rooms, bath, laundry, furnace, open plumbing, cemented cellar, fireplace, etc.

R. D. CHASE, Savings Bank Building.

Quincy, April 8-tf. 9p-tf

For Sale or To Let,

FURNISHED,

NASH'S HOTEL.

Full of Boarders and a good transient trade. Cheap rent. My catering business is all I can attend to.

Apply at HOTEL, 148 Hancock street, Quincy, Mass. oct11 tf lo

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS.

Advertisements in this column inserted at the following rates:

Four lines, or less, one day, - - 25 cents.
" " three days, - - - 50 cents.
" " one week, - - - - 75 cents.

Additional lines will be charged for pro rata Seven words equal a line. Long term rates furnished on application.

FOUND.

FOUND—At the auction of Ernest G. Bacon, Atlantic, one Fur Cape. The owner can obtain the same by calling at my office, 4 Chestnut street, Quincy, and proving property. FRANK F. CRANE, Auctioneer.

Oct. 17. 6t

WANTED.

WANTED—Gentlemen or lady canvassers for quick-selling article in Quincy and vicinity. P. O. Box 116, Wollaston.

Oct. 19. 3t

WANTED—A good Stonecutter. Two tenements to let, one of five rooms and one of three rooms, at 14 Glencoe place. Apply on premises.

Quincy, Oct. 19. 3t

WANTED—Two Unfurnished Rooms with or without board. Quincy Point preferred. Address "B," Ledger office,

Quincy, Oct. 18. 3t

TO LET.

TO LET—Tenement of 6 rooms No. 12 Newcomb street, in good repair; city water. inquire of C. A. SPEAR, 7 Newcomb street.

Quincy, Oct. 20. tf

TO LET—A Sunny, Pleasant House of six rooms, newly papered and painted and in good repair; on Washington street, corner Wibird street. Centrally located in the Coddington school district. Apply only to FRANK F. PRESCOTT at Daily Ledger office.

Oct. 20. tf

TO LET—Tenement of six rooms, No. 19 Cottage avenue. Three minutes from City Square. Apply to CHAS. W. HALL, 212 Hancock street, Quincy. oct19-tf

TO LFT—Half a House of 5 rooms entirely separate on Phipps street, Mt. Pleasant. Rent, $8 a month; city water. Inquire at 17 Summer street.

Quincy, Sept. 27. 24t

TO LET—Cottage house, No. 29 Granite street, 8 rooms, three minutes' from City Square. Apply to H. M. PAXON, 4 Adams Building. Sept. 30—tf

FOR RENT—Desirable house with bath, corner lot, nice neighborhood, three minutes' walk from schools, churches and depot Rent reasonable. Apply at No. 6 Pleasant St.

Quincy, Sept. 7. tf

TO LET.

House of 8 rooms, etc., No. 20 Canal street, Quincy. Nice house, excellent location.

R. D. CHASE, Savings Bank Building.

Quincy, Oct. 8. pl tf

HOUSES, STORES, LAND, ROOMS, OFFICES, AND WHARVES, To Let In Quincy, Mass.

The Houses are in Complete Repair.

Half-house, 10 rooms, 6 Chester street, Wollaston.

House, 10 rooms with stable, 16 Cottage street.

Half-house, 5 rooms, 16 Cottage street.

House, 8 rooms, 29 Granite street.

Half-house, 4 rooms, 4 Water street, $7 per month.

Tenement, 5 rooms, 59 North street.

Half-house, 6 rooms, Pond street, $10 per month.

Half-house, 5 rooms, 13 Field street, $8 per month.

Tenement, 3 rooms, 28 Howard street, $3 per month.

Tenements, 51 Howard street, $4, $5 and $6 per month.

Room, 12 Washington street, $5 per month.

Large building, suitable for manufacturing purposes on Brackett's wharf.

Small stable, 2 Quincy street, $3 per month.

Small stable, 28 Coddington street, $5 per month.

100 windows, and blinds, various sizes.

Wharf, stone sheds, etc., Quincy Neck.

Basement, head of Granite street.

100 tons ballast for sale.

Land to rent for tillage or pasturing purposes.

Gravel and sand for sale.

50 loads of loam for sale.

The buildings are in the very best condition.

For particulars, enquire of, or address

HENRY H. FAXON, Quincy, Mass.

Quincy, Oct. 13, 1898. 1m

GAIL BORDEN EAGLE BRAND CONDENSED MILK.

TAKE NO SUBSTITUTE FOR THE "EAGLE BRAND"
THOUSANDS OF MOTHERS TESTIFY TO ITS SUPERIORITY.
"INFANT HEALTH" SENT FREE. NEW YORK CONDENSED MILK CO. N.Y.

SWITHIN BROS.

REAL ESTATE!

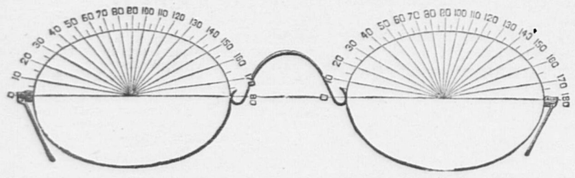

President's Hill.

President's Hill Annex.

Cranch Hill.

Choice Lots and Improved Property for Sale in West Quincy, Wollaston, South Quincy, Quincy Point, Quincy Centre.

Room 12, Durgin & Merrill's Block, Quincy.

ASTIGMATISM

Causes most of the distressing headaches. Properly fitted glasses will correct the error and remove the pain. Consult

WILLIAMS,

Member of the New England Association of Opticians,

104 Hancock St., Quincy.

ONE-TON ORDERS

Have been the making of this Coal business. Hundreds have ordered "just one ton to see if there was any difference." They found there was and they came again. Our one-ton orders have been our best advertisements. It's a better Coal at the same price, with the proof in a sample ton. When in doubt, try Patch's.

C. PATCH & SON.

GEO. AMES,

the ONLY PRACTICAL PLUMBER in the Hardware business in the City. He has a patent SEWER TRAP which cannot be beat. Impossible for deadly sewer gas to enter your homes. See him about your Sewer Connection. He has had three years' experience in Boston and other large cities. Established here in 1889 and still in it. Work done anywhere.

Hardware, Paints and Oils, Putty and Glass, Yacht Supplies, Steam and Gas Fittings. Steam and Hot Air Heaters put in repair for the winter.

ADAMS BUILDING

The John Hancock Stables.

Opposite Depot, Quincy, Mass.

Boarding, Baiting, Livery and Sale.

DR. J. A. DOW, Proprietor,

the well known Veterinary dentist and specialist in the treatment of lame horses. Sick horses treated at owner's risk.

The finest equipped and managed stable of its size in America.

Fine driving turnouts in light rigs; safe and good appearing. All horses let are perfectly safe for ladies to drive.

The choicest family, road and coach horses constantly on hand for sale. All horses guaranteed as represented.

☞ Will attend to veterinary practice as usual. aug18-1y

MABEL F. FAIRBANKS

TEACHER OF

CHINA PAINTING and WATERCOLOR.

China Decorated to Order.

34 Grand View Avenue, Wollaston.

Sept. 29. 3m

FRANK F CRANE,

AUCTIONEER and APPRAISER,

Office, 4 Chestnut St., Quincy, Mass.

Oct. tf

PUT IN A FRYE-ING PAN.

Hospital Corps, Doctors and Reporters Roasted.

Bad Word For All Given by Army Surgeon.

Medical Fledgelings Incapable of Treating Typhoid Cases In Number.

Jacksonville, Oct. 20.—Dr. R. D. Frye, major and executive officer of the Third division hospital, testified yesterday before the inquiry commission as to the management of this institution, and also as to the management of the second division hospital at Montauk Point and the military hospital at Fort McPherson, Ga. He said the Montauk patients lacked for nothing and were excellently taken care of by both physicians and nurses. At Fort McPherson there were at one time 925 patients. There was no material shortage in drugs or food at this point. Occasionally there was a slight deficiency, but it was quickly overcome.

Dr. Frye said that in all the hospitals with which he had been connected there had been a deficiency of bed linen. This had been especially true in Fort McPherson. There had been orders to prepare beds there for 1,000 patients, but this demand had by no means been met. The hospital here had also been short of lighting facilities. There was not a sufficiency of candles or lanterns. Requisitions had been made for them, but they could not be secured from the government stores, owing to the construction of orders; hence it was necessary to depend upon the Red Cross for these articles.

Dr. Frye expressed the opinion that in several instances convalescents had been sent away from the hospitals with which he was connected before they were in a condition that permitted them to go in safety. He thought these instances were due to insufficient supervision, to ignorance of physicians and a desire to clear the wards of the hospitals for new patients.

Dr. Frye spoke in uncomplimentary terms of the men engaged in the hospital corps, saying that they had been picked up at random over the country and were "generally a scabby looking lot," not fit to adorn any walk of life. He also spoke depreciatingly of the contract surgeons, saying that he would not be willing to trust his family or friends to 50 percent of them. "Many of them," he said, "are recent graduates from medical institutions, and I do not consider the average medical graduate capable of taking charge of from 25 to 50 typhoid fever cases."

There was, he said, no proper opportunity for consultation with superior officers, as the latter were as a rule so generally occupied with their administrative duties as to prevent their giving proper attention to professional matters until specially called upon. He considered this very wrong, and said that there should be more supervision in serious cases in hospital on the part of experienced men.

Major Frye gave his opinion as to the origin of the popular excitement concerning conditions at Montauk Point while the troops were stationed there. He said that from 50 to 75 percent of the men were sick when they landed there, and that insufficient provision had been made for them. As a consequence many were compelled to lie upon the bare ground and they naturally suffered from exposure. He also asserted that reporters from many newspapers had been sent to the camp under instructions to find all that was bad and nothing that was good.

"Do you know this of your own personal knowledge?" he was asked.

"No; but I was told it by men who had talked with the reporters."

Colonel Dows of the Forty-ninth Iowa regiment said there had been no deficiency in the commissary supplies." The men have the regular army rations," he said, "and if they have not had enough the fault is theirs." He had had some complaints against the meat, and in all cases the undesirable article was exchanged upon application and without going through the form of condemnation. Speaking of the medical supplies, Colonel Dows said that a physician who had been sent to the camp had spoken with surprise of the variety and quality of the medicines, medical supplies and appliances.

General E. B. Williston, in command of the First brigade of the Seventh army corps, was questioned about various points, having been stationed at Camp Thomas, Montauk Point, Anniston and other points before coming to Jacksonville. He said the principal objection to Camp Thomas, in Chickamauga park, was the fact that it was impossible, on account of formation of the ground, to have sinks more than two or three feet in depth. There had also been an insufficiency of water in the beginning of the history of the camp. The water was taken from wells and, while he did not believe the water was contaminated from the surface, he thought it had too much magnesia in it to be wholesome. He had found difficulty in getting sufficient water for stock at that period, but General Boynton had afterwards constructed two wells in the vicinity of his camp, thus removing this objection.

Speaking of the conditions at Jacksonville, he said he did not see that any fault could be found with either the administrative officers or the service performed by them in either the medical, commissary or quartermaster departments. Most of his staff officers were volunteers, but he had found them very efficient. He had also found the troops in his command splendidly equipped and the regimental officers especially zealous to maintain the best sanitary conditions possible.

General Williston had been at Montauk from Aug. 1 to Sept. 13, and had superintended the debarkation of the troops and the location of the infantry regiments in camp. "Never," said he, "was a prettier camp pitched in the United States than was that camp at Montauk." There were tents erected for the 10,000 men before a man arrived, and all they had to do was to walk into them and, so far as the men who were not sick were concerned, they were well provided for. He said the site was a splendidly adapted one to camp service, and the camp was abundantly supplied with stores of all kinds.

Spanish Asked For Delay.

Paris, Oct. 20.—The tone during the last four or five days of the Spanish and French press is significant of widening confidence by the Spanish as to the attitude they have assumed in the negotiations here and the recurring assurances of Spain's desire for arbitration may have had a meaning. The Spaniards may not have sought to promote sympathy, but had they desired to lay down a basis upon which to set up a plea to Europe to prevent what it is sought to present as her ravishment, the surface indications could not have been more favorably disposed for that purpose.

When Spain approached these negotiations she was confronted by a wall of fast agreement, which she, however, regarded as possible of break or puncture at the point o of Castillian diplomacy. Thus she poised and launched against the protocol structure of seeming solidity the keen lances of her finesse, but they have fallen broken at her feet, and now Spain's commissioners ask time to assure themselves of their previous misjudgment and also to reform their lines or arrange new ones. The assigned reason for the request for delay is believed to have been to allow an interchange of communications with Madrid and to formulate a final attitude on the Cuban matter. This attitude of the Spaniards, to be developed Friday, will be watched with no little interest. Their alternatives are few. They may accede to the American attitude, themselves assume the Cuban debt, and go forward to consider the next protocol point, or they may formally ask for arbitration; or, as an extremity, which is not likely, may retire from further negotiations.

Want to Be Free.

New York, Oct. 20.—Lieutenant-Colonel Rowan, who has arrived from Havana, said yesterday: "I don't believe a single Cuban has disarmed, not even in the Santiago district, but I do not believe there will ever be a serious disagreement between the Cubans and this country. Throughout the interior of the island I heard nothing but gratitude expressed by the people for the part we played in gaining their freedom. All seem to realize that sooner or later their country will become a part of the United States, and have no idea that they can maintain an independent government for long, but they want to be free and try their hand at self-government for a limited period from a mere sentimental standpoint."

Wealthy, but Wants More.

Santiago, Oct. 20.—Bishop Crespe, who is undoubtedly a man of considerable wealth, is calling upon his faithful for funds to enable him to return to Spain with his belongings.

The free ration distribution is about to be much curtailed. In future all able bodied persons applying for rations will have to cut a specified amount of wood. Even women must perform some task. If in good health they will have to make clothing for the destitute or do washing or some light work. The absolutely free ration is found to be demoralizing.

A Statement Discredited.

London, Oct. 20.—Major General Wesley Merritt, who has arrived here from Paris, discredits the statement attributed to Agoncillo, that the insurgents made an agreement with Dewey. From conversations with Admiral Dewey, he was satisfied that no arrangement had been entered into with the Philippine leaders. The general said: "If the Filipinos were allowed independence now it would result in fighting between the leaders, which would be more disastrous than any revolution which has hitherto broken out. Aguinaldo's following is slim, and if there was an election today I don't believe he would be president."

False Report Concerning Bryan.

Washington, Oct. 20.—The war department gave out the following Wednesday: The secretary of war, on being asked about the report that Colonel William J. Bryan, Third Nebraska, has been refused leave of absence and kept with his regiment, authorized the statement that Colonel Bryan has asked no indulgence whatever of the war department, so that none has been refused him. Any reports to the contrary are without foundation in fact.

By Way of Madrid.

London, Oct. 20.—The Madrid correspondent of the Times says: "Captain Aunon, the minister of marine, has received a despatch from Manila announcing a naval engagement between the Americans and the rebels, in consequence of Admiral Dewey forbidding the latter to fly the rebel flag from their ships. The despatch adds that there were losses on both sides, but that the Americans captured the rebel ships. The scene of the engagement is not stated, but it is supposed to have been in Manila bay."

The News of Beantown.

Boston, Oct. 20.—Lebie Bolarsky, aged 20 years, was sentenced yesterday to the reformatory prison in Sherburne for killing her infant, Aug. 4. She had been indicted for murder, but was permitted to plead to a charge of manslaughter, because of her mental and physical condition.

The body of Charles H. Dunville of Charlestown was found in the yard of a vacant house in Chelsea yesterday. By his side was a four-ounce bottle of carbolic acid. Dunville was out of work and despondent.

At the close of registration in this city there was a total of 97,247 names on the voting list, as against 94,943 at the state election last year.

At 2 a. m. the Tenth district Democratic congressional convention was in session, only two or three ballots having been taken, in addition to 20 ballots taken at Tuesday night's session. Boardman Hall still leads.

Victim of a Ravisher.

Halifax, Oct. 20.—Galton De La Rigaudiere, who has been arrested at Boston at the request of the Halifax police, is wanted under an indictment against him at Bridgewater, 40 miles from here. He is charged with criminal assault on a girl under 14 years. Rigaudiere was agent in Bridgewater for a Montreal loan and investment company. The prisoner had several days' start of the officers here, but he was traced by a circuitous route from Bridgewater to Halifax.

WARCLOUD IN EUROPE.

France Apparently Preparing For a Contingency.

Speech of Chancellor Beach Stirs the English.

Proclaims the Purpose to Uphold the Honor of the Nation.

London, Oct. 20.—A speech by Sir Michael Beach at North Shields last night, in which he said that he hoped for peace with France, but declared that the ministers were prepared to do their duty, has deeply impressed England, and the utmost concern is felt as to how France will receive it. The idea has been prevalent that the French have not realized how seriously England felt on the Fashoda question, which has been coupled with a desire that France would not force England to an armed support of Lord Salisbury's standpoint.

Most of the morning papers elaborate some of the exciting descriptions of the belligerent preparations of France. The Paris correspondent of the Mail says: "In Toulon and Brest every nerve is strained to get ready for war, which may break out on short notice. The Paris press is growing more and more determined to back up extreme measures, even to a resort to arms. The French have been excessively piqued by the threatening tone of the English papers, which is likely a more casus belli than the mere question of Fashoda. Consequently the outlook here is grave. There are reports of troops hurrying from Paris to Brest and Toulon. The artillery in the batteries and at the various ports have been confidentially intrusted for any emergency; and the cannon at all the forts and batteries are kept ready for action at any moment. Today there was a prolonged war council at Brest of the officers of the various services, and Mr. Lockroy is hastily returning to Toulon on account of the gravity of the situation."

The Paris correspondent of the Standard says: "If England keeps on saying that Marchand must go France will reply that Marchand will stay; and, if he be removed forcibly, there can be little doubt as to what the consequences will be."

On the other hand the Paris correspondent of the Graphic says: "I have good reason for stating that Count Muravieff, Russian foreign minister, has discouraged French resistance in the matter of Fashoda."

Most of the papers, however, refuse to accept the explanation that French activity is merely in pursuance of Mr. Lockroy's scheme. Several exhort the government to mobilizing the British fleet. Some of the more conservative organs, notably the Times, practically ignore the French movements and decline to perceive any war cloud.

The Daily Chronicle remarks: "Sir Michael Hicks Beach has been at it again. He is a dangerous man. He has honesty without tact."

Other papers hint that the plain speaking of the chancellor at a time when a crisis is approaching is an indiscretion.

Sensational Stories of Mobilization.

Paris, Oct. 20.—The Times, commenting upon the sensational stories of naval mobilization, says: "While the present situation necessarily induced unusual vigilance and activity, it must not be forgotten that the present naval movements are principally an inauguration of the reforms planned by Mr. Lockray when he was appointed minister of marine, and which he desires to have completed prior to Jan. 1 next—reforms whereby the squadrons and ports will always be ready and clear for action, and fully equipped within a few days."

After enumerating the proposed future strength of the various squadrons intended for coast defence, the Times concludes as follows: "Ashore our military works are quite ready; and certainly the best disposition is being made of the means at the disposal of the navy, even if before the date mentioned the hoped for solution agreeable to both countries should be found for the Fashoda question."

Russia Took Possession.

London, Oct. 20.—A dispatch from Shanghai to a London news agency says: "A Russian regiment occupied the town of New-Chwang (province of Leao-Tong) and the forts at the mouth of the river Liaou on Oct. 15, thus securing complete possession of New-Chwang. The native troops fled without making any opposition, under orders from the empress dowager and Li Hung Chang.

"A British gunboat was in the river at the time. Its non-resistance is regarded as the virtual British abandonment of the whole of Manchura to the Russians, and gives Russia an invaluable strategic position. Great Britain is certain to lose the New-Chwang trade, of which it has had 80 percent."

Killed His Wife.

San Francisco, Oct. 20.—Patsey Hogan, the ex-pugilist, shot and killed his wife and stabbed himself, but his injuries will not prove fatal. Hogan's real name is Keenan, and a few days ago his wife secured a divorce from him.

Tomorrow's Almanac and Forecast.

Sun rises—6:04; sets, 4:53.
Moon sets—10:14 p. m.
High tide—3:15 a. m.; 3:30 p. m.

Friday, fair to partly cloudy and slightly colder weather will prevail, with fresh westerly and northerly winds, followed by increasing cloudiness and rain in the southern parts of this section with the approach of a general storm. Saturday, partly cloudy to cloudy weather, and probably northeasterly and easterly winds, becoming high on the middle Atlantic coast, with rain and nearly stationary temperature.

Eastern Baseball League.

Buffalo, Oct. 20.—President Powers of the Eastern Baseball league had an informal conference with Messrs. Franklin of Buffalo, O'Neil of Montreal and Kuntzsch of Syracuse yesterday. While nothing definite regarding the proposed reorganization of the league was decided upon, it was unanimously agreed that the circuit would have to be changed next season, and that Ottawa and Wilkesbarre would be dropped. A meeting of the league directors will be held in New York about Nov. 1, when the question of reorganization will be definitely acted upon.

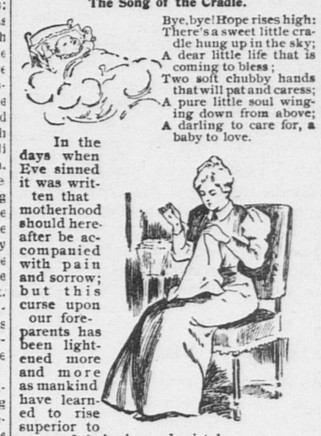

Murder and Suicide.

Youngstown, O., Oct. 20.—William H. Branton shot Constable John Jenkins last night, sent a bullet through the brain of his wife, and then shot and killed himself. Eight months ago Branton married Minnie Kennedy. Recently she left him, complaining of ill-treatment. Last night she accompanied a constable with a writ of replevin for her clothing at her former home, and the tragedy followed.

☞ Full sized, well made comfort bringing comforters, $1.00. Others 75 cents to $3.50. Blankets from 45 cents per pair up. Henry L Kincaide & Co.

—Hamburg is greatly in need of more harbor facilities. During the past six months of 1893, the number of ships arriving there was 4,919, while during the same period this year it was 9,993.

The Song of the Cradle.

Bye, bye! Hope rises high:
There's a sweet little cradle hung up in the sky;
A dear little life that is coming to bless;
Two soft chubby hands that will pat and caress;
A pure little soul winging down from above;
A darling to care for, a baby to love.

In the days when Eve sinned it was written that motherhood should hereafter be accompanied with pain and sorrow; but this curse upon our foreparents has been lightened more and more as mankind have learned to rise superior to many of their sins and mistakes.

One of the grandest agencies which enlightened Science has discovered to relieve motherhood from excessive suffering is the "Favorite Prescription" devised by Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y. This wonderful "Prescription" imbues the entire nervous system with natural, healthy vitality; gives elastic vigor to the delicate organism specially concerned in motherhood; renders the prospective mother strong and cheerful and makes the coming of baby entirely free from danger and almost free from pain. The delighted gratitude of Mrs. Pearl Walton, of Alvo, Cass Co., Neb., will find an echo in the heart of every expectant mother:

"Previous to the birth of my child," writes Mrs. Walton, "I had no appetite, was sick at my stomach, had headache, could not rest at night, was completely worn out in every way. I commenced to use Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and began to improve right away. I used two bottles of this great medicine and felt like a new person. At the time of confinement I was in labor but a little while and I owe it all to that great remedy—Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription."

Dr. Pierce's Pellets cure constipation.

CANCER CURED

BY ABSORPTION

NO KNIFE.

The result of years of scientific research by America's greatest blood specialist. A pleasant treatment that relieves immediately, cures permanently all forms of CANCERS, TUMORS and CHRONIC DISEASES. Hundreds of wonderful cures effected in and around Boston. Read the following:

BLOOD EVIDENCE

Then come to our offices and investigate the hundreds of other marvellous cures produced by ABSORPTION when all other treatment failed. Consult this living patient. "Dr. James M. Solomon: Dear Sir: The following is my testimonial, which I hope will help others. That after suffering several years with something that was never reached, getting only temporary help from different doctors, and each attack being more severe, I was advised by a friend, who had been cured of a tumor, to see her doctor. I was then unable for any work, and feeling worse from day to day; realizing that something was preying upon me of a serious nature, I was discouraged about my condition, and sought Dr. Solomon with little faith—it was more of an experiment. He got my confidence on the first interview, when, without a word of description of my feelings from me, he at once located my trouble, and I could not help believing that he knew from what I was suffering, although was greatly surprised and somewhat terrified when he told me it was cancer of the stomach. I began treatment at once, Nov. 3, 1892, and was faithful to his directions, with just the results promised I would get, till the following June (1893) I felt like a new being, and the doctor pronounced me recovered. I am sure that I have, and I can never repay the gratitude I owe to Dr. J. M. Solomon. Sincerely, EBEN FISH, 232 Harvard St., Dorchester, Mass." Today he is one of the many living witnesses of the only painless method that positively CURES when all others fail.

We want you to call and examine references of people you know—people we all know, who would not vouch for ABSORPTION had they not been cured. Ask for references marked H.

James M. Solomon, M.D.

SPECIALIST IN CANCERS, TUMORS AND CHRONIC DISEASES.

2 A Beacon Street

BOSTON.

Oct. 13. ly lo

LADIES ROYAL DELIVERANCE CAPSULES are a positive, safe and speedy monthly regulator, guaranteed to cure the most stubborn cases, or money refunded. Have never failed. Used by thousands of ladies, indorsed and prescribed by the medical profession. Painful and dangerous operations avoided. Price $2, at office or by return mail. 'Royal Protector' and full particulars under plain seal for 4c., stamps. ROYAL REMEDIES CO., 228 Tremont Street, Boston, Mass. Mention this paper.

it's neglect of throat and bronchial troubles that leads to death-dealing disease.

HALE'S HONEY OF HOREHOUND AND TAR

No wonder Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar is praised by its users. Its curative effects are like magic. Sold by druggists.

Pike's Toothache Drops cure in one minute.

Quincy and Boston Electric Street Railway.

[Subject to change without notice.]

On and after October 10, cars will be run on the different routes as follows:

Quincy and Neponset.

Leave CITY SQUARE for Neponset at 5.55, 6.10, 6.25, 6.40 A. M. and every 15 minutes until 11.10 P. M.

Leave NEPONSET for Quincy at 6.15 A. M. and every 15 minutes until 11.30 P. M.

Cars leaving Quincy at 20 minutes of the hour and Neponset on the hour, go via. Hancock street direct.

Cars leaving Quincy at 25 and 55 minutes past the hour go via Newport avenue, Wollaston.

Cars leaving Quincy at 10 minutes past the hour go via Norfolk Downs, and those leaving Neponset at 30 minutes past go via Downs.

Cars leaving Neponset 15 minutes of and 15 minutes past the hour go via Wollaston and continue through Braintree and Holbrook to Brockton, connecting with cars for Bridgewater, Taunton, New Bedford, Fall River, Newport and Providence.

Quincy and East Weymouth.

Leave CITY SQUARE (10 minutes later from Quincy Point and 22 minutes later from North Weymouth)—5.45, 6.20, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20, 9.50, 10.20, 10.50, 11.20, 11.50 A. M.; 12.20, 12.50, 1.20, 1.50, 2.20, 2.50, 3.20, 3.50, 4.20, 4.50, 5.20, (5.30 to East Weymouth car house), 5.50, 6.20, 6.30, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20, 9.50, 10.50 P. M., (11.50 Wednesday and Saturday to Thomas' Corner only.)

Leave EAST WEYMOUTH (20 minutes later from North Weymouth and 30 minutes later from Quincy Point)—6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8, 8.30, 9, 9.30 10, 10.30, 11, 11.30 A. M.; 12, 12.30, 1, 1.30, 2, 2.30, 3, 3.30, 4, 4.30, 5, 5.30, 6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8 8.30, 9, 9.30, 10, 10.30, 11.30 P. M.

Quincy and Weymouth Landing.

Leave QUINCY at 5.30 A. M., 6.20, 7.20 and every hour until 12.20, then 1.50 and every hour until 10.50 P. M.

Leave WEYMOUTH LANDING at 5.50 A. M. and every hour until 12.50, then 2.20 and every hour until 11.20 P. M., connect with trains to Boston at Quincy.

Quincy and East Milton.

Leave CITY SQUARE, 5.55, 6.25, then every 5 minutes of and 25 minutes past the hour until 9.25 P. M., then at 10.50 P. M.

Leave EAST MILTON 6.25, 6.55 A. M., then every 5 minutes of and 25 minutes past the hour until 9.50 P. M., then 10.20 and 11.20 P. M.

Quincy and Brockton.

Leave QUINCY for Brockton at 6.10 and 6.40 A. M., and every half hour until 9.10 P. M. except on Wednesday and Saturday, when car at 9.40 runs through to Brockton. Cars at 9.40 and 10.10 to South Braintree every night.

Quincy and Hingham.

Leave QUINCY at 7.20 A. M. and every hour until 11.20 A. M., then 1.50 and every hour until 5.50 P. M.

Leave HINGHAM at 8 A. M. and every hour until 12 M., then 2.30 and every hour until 6.30 P. M.

Neponset, Atlantic and Squantum.

Leave NEPONSET at 6.30 A. M. and every hour until 8.30 P. M., connecting at Atlantic with outward express trains.

Leave SQUANTUM at 7 A. M. and every hour until 9 P. M., connecting at Atlantic with express trains.

Quincy and Houghs Neck.

Leave QUINCY CENTRE at 6.20 A. M., and and every hour until 1.20, and then 1.50 and every hour until 9.50.

Returning, leave HOUGHS NECK at 5.45 A. M., and every hour until 12.45, and then 1.20 and every hour until 9.20.

SUNDAYS.

Cars leave City Square, Quincy, for E. Weymouth and Weymouth Landing at 7.30 A. M. and West Quincy at 7 A. M. and on the hour and half hour throughout the day.

Sunday time same as week days on other lines, except that the first two trips are omitted.

BENJ. J. WEEKS, Superintendent.

New York, New Haven and Hartford R. R.

Eastern District.

On and after Oct. 16, 1898, trains will run as follows: (See note of explanation at bottom.

TO BOSTON.			FROM BOSTON.
Leave Quincy.	Stops at	Arrive Boston.	Leave Boston.	Stops at	Arrive Quincy
r 6 12	abc	e 6 30	5 55	ihgfedcba*	6 22 r
r 6 42	abc	7 00	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	7 30	cba	7 49 r
r 7 26	ad	7 43	8 30	cba	8 49 r
r 7 42	abc	8 00	9 30	cba	9 49
r 8 12	abc	8 30	10 30	cba	10 49 r
r 8 26	ad	8 43	11 30	cba	11 49 r
r 8 42	abc	9 00	12 30	cba	12 49 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	1 30	cba	1 49 r
r 10 12	abc	10 30	2 30	cba	2 49 r
r 11 12	abc	11 30	3 30	cba	3 49 r
r 12 12	abc	12 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
r 1 12	abc	1 30	5 00	cba	5 19 r
r 2 12	abc	2 30	5 17	da	5 36 r
r 3 12	abc	3 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
r 4 12	abc	4 30	6 00	cba	6 19 r
r 5 12	abc	5 30	6 17	da	6 36 r
r 6 12	abc	6 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	7 00	cba	7 19 r
r 7 39	abcdefghi	8 05	7 30	cba	7 49 r
r 8 08	abcdef	8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	9 30	cba	9 49 r
r 10 08	abcdef	10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r
r 11 12	abc	11 30	11 30	cba	11 49 r

SUNDAYS.

r 7 12	abc	7 30	6 30	cba	6 r
r 8 12	abc	8 30	8 30	cba	8 49 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	12 30	cba	12 49 r
r 1 12	abc	1 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
r 5 12	abc	5 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 8 08	abcdef	8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
r 10 08	abcdef	10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r

*The letters in the same line as the figures stand for different stations and indicate that trains stop, as follows:

a, Wollaston, b, Norfolk Downs, c, Atlantic, d, Neponset, e, Pope's Hill, f, Harrison Square, g, Savin Hill, h, Crescent Avenue, i, South Boston, r, Quincy Adams, (xx), Express.

C PETER CLARK, Gen'l Supt. A. C. KENDALL G. P. A ect of and al

HALE'S
HONEY
OF HOREHOUND
AND TAR

's Honey of Horehound and its users. Its curative effects old by druggists.

Drops cure in one minute.

and Boston
Street Railway. change without notice.]
October 10, cars will be routes as follows:
and Neponset.
UARE for Neponset at 5.55,
M. and every 15 minutes until
ET for Quincy at 6.15 A. M., es until 11.30 P. M.
ncy at 20 minutes of the hour
the hour, go via. Hancock ncy at 25 and 55 minutes past wport avenue, Wollaston.
ncy at 10 minutes past the k Downs, and those leaving
utes past go via Downs.
conset 15 minutes of and 15
hour go via Wollaston and
Braintree and Holbrook to
ing with cars for Bridge-
New Bedford, Fall River,
dence.
d East Weymouth.
UARE (10 minutes later from
2 minutes later from North
6.20, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20,
.20, 10.50, 11.20, 11.50 A. M.;
.50, 2.20, 2.50, 3.20, 3.50, 4.20,
East Weymouth car house),
0, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20,
1.50 Wednesday and Saturday
only.) EYMOUTH (20 minutes later
outh and 30 minutes later from 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8, 8.30, 9, 9.30
A. M.; 12, 12.30, 1, 1.30, 2, 0, 5, 5.30, 6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8
0.30, 11.30 P. M.
Weymouth Landing.
at 5.30 A. M., 6.20, 7.20 and
2.20, then 1.50 and every hour
OUTH LANDING at 5.50
ur until 12.50, then 2.20 and 11.20 P. M., connect with
Quincy.
and East Milton.
UARE, 5.55, 6.25, then every
minutes past the hour until
10.50 P. M.
ILTON 6.25, 6.55 A. M., then and 25 minutes past the hour
en 10.20 and 11.20 P. M. y and Brockton.
X for Brockton at 6.10 and
ery half hour until 9.10 P. M.
day and Saturday, when car
gh to Brockton. Cars at 9.40
Braintree every night.
y and Hingham.
at 7.20 A. M. and every hour hen 1.50 and every hour until AM at 8 A. M. and every hour
2.30 and every hour until lantic and Squantum.
SET at 6.30 A. M. and every
P. M., connecting at Atlantic
ess trains.
TUM at 7 A. M. and every connecting at Atlantic with
nd Houghs Neck.
CENTRE at 6.20 A. M., and until 1.20, and then 1.50 and
.50.
e HOUGHS NECK at 5.45
our until 12.45, and then 1.20
til 9.20.
SUNDAYS.
Square, Quincy, for E. Weyouth Landing at 7.30 A. M.
at 7 A. M. and on the hour
ghout the day.
e as week days on other lines,
t two trips are omitted.
WEEKS, Superintendent.

k, New Haven
artford R. R.
rn District.
ct. 16, 1898, trains will run
te of explanation at bottom.

	FROM BOSTON.
ive	Leave	Stops	Arrive
ton.	Boston.	at	Quincy
6 30	5 55	ihgfedcba	*6 22 r
7 00	6 30	cba	6 49 r
7 30	7 30	cba	7 49 r
7 43	8 30	cba	8 49 r
8 00	9 30	cba	9 49
8 30	10 30	cba	10 49 r
8 43	11 30	cba	11 49 r
9 00	12 30	cba	12 49 r
9 30	1 30	cba	1 49 r
10 30	2 30	cba	2 49 r
11 30	3 30	cba	3 49 r
12 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
1 30	5 00	cba	5 19 r
2 30	5 17	da	5 36 r
3 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
4 30	6 00	cba	6 19 r
5 30	6 17	da	6 36 r
6 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
7 30	7 00	cba	7 19 r
8 05	7 30	cba	7 49 r
8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
9 30	9 30	cba	9 49 r
10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r
11 30	11 30	cba	11 49 r
NDAYS.
7 30	6 30	cba	6 r
8 30	8 30	cba	8 49 r
9 30	12 30	cba	12 49 r
1 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
3 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
5 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
7 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
9 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r e same line as the figures stations and indicate that ws:

g, Savin Hill.
h, Crescent Avenue.
i, South Boston.
r, Quincy Adams.
(xx), Express.
K, A. C. KENDALL
G. P. A

QUINCY DAILY LEDGER.

VOL. 10. No. 26. QUINCY, MASS., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 21, 1898. PRICE 2 CENTS.

Couches, $5.98.

Good, substantial couches, well made and built for service, made on best tempered steel springs, covered with Persian Velours, Figured Corduroys or Belgian Velvets and fringed to the floor.

People ask, "How can you sell them at such a fabulously low price?" Couches for $5.98 that are easily worth $15.00.

We sometimes wonder ourselves, but that's a matter of minor consideration, the couches are here in a variety of covers ready to send to your home in an hour's time if need be. Luxurious, dreamy couches, and our price but $5.98.

Fifty other patterns of couches to select from, prices from $4.75 to $30.00.

HENRY L. KINCAIDE & CO.

Reliable, Low Priced House Furnishers.

Hancock Street, : : Quincy.

GEO. AMES,

the ONLY PRACTICAL PLUMBER in the Hardware business in the City. He has a patent SEWER TRAP which cannot be beat. Impossible for deadly sewer gas to enter your homes See him about your Sewer Connection. He has had three years' experience in Boston and other large cities Established here in 1889 and still in it. Work done anywhere.

Hardware, Paints and Oils, Putty and Glass, Yacht Supplies, Steam and Gas Fittings. Steam and Hot Air Heaters put in repair for the winter.

ADAMS BUILDING

ONE-TON ORDERS

Have been the making of this Coal business. Hundreds have ordered "just one ton to see if there was any difference." They found there was and they came again. Our one-ton orders have been our best advertisements. It's a better Coal at the same price, with the proof in a sample ton. When in doubt, try Patch's.

C. PATCH & SON.

WILLIAM E. BAXTER, M. D.
Practice Limited to the
EYE AND EAR.
553 Boylston St., Boston.
QUINCY—Monday and Friday.
Hours, 9 to 11. 195 Hancock Street
May 21. ly

TEETH EXTRACTED.
No Pain or Danger.
Safer than vapor. Money paid for extracting goes towards teeth to be inserted. I am the only dentist in the city using the Painless Preparation for Extraction.
DR. C. B. UNDERWOOD,
9 Spear St. Rear of Public Library

TELEGRAPHIC.

3 O'CLOCK.

HAVE GONE TO ATLANTA

War Investigators Finished Their Labors In Jacksonville.

Little Evidence of Neglect or Mismanagement.

Congestion in Tampa Not the Fault of Railway People.

Jacksonville, Oct. 21.—The war investigators concluded their labors in Jacksonville last night and left for Atlanta. They are generally pleased with the result of their labors here. They met with complaints, but these dealt with comparatively unimportant points. In very few, if any, cases was neglect or culpable mismanagement indicated. Generally one private or non-commissioned officer from each regiment has been called, but in some cases more than one. In the case of enlisted men they were selected at random, the commissioners merely asking that men be sent to them without any specification of the purpose for which they were called. Without exception the witnesses said that they were receiving enough to eat and wear. There were occasional complaints of defects in clothing, and more or less tainted meat was received by the men.

General McCook and Colonel Saxton returned from their investigation of conditions in Tampa. They found that the congestion that occurred at that point at the beginning of the war was due to the fact that cars were shipped from all over the country without being labelled and without forwarding bills of lading.

In the afternoon Colonel Bryan appeared and requested not to be asked to give testimony for reasons which, he said, were known to the commissioners. He was not examined.

Red Cross Operations.

Dr. Alexander Kent, pastor of the People's church in Washington and field agent in Jacksonville for the Red Cross, was questioned concerning the operations of the Red Cross. He had been received cordially by the army surgeons and had cooperated with them. He had noticed the absence of sheets and pillow cases at the second division hospital in its early history. Many men lay uncovered on account of a short supply of blankets. He supplied the deficiency. There was also at that time a shortage of tents and food suitable to typhoid fever patients. He had undertaken to supply the deficiency and had distributed two carloads of necessary delicacies. "It seemed," he said, "as if the hospital was arranged upon a smaller scale than was demanded, and as a consequence there was a constant demand upon the Red Cross to supply the deficiency." Dr. Kent had heard many complaints concerning misconduct at the hospitals, and many of them were apparently well vouched for, but they had not generally proved well founded when investigated.

Replying to a question, he said he thought it had been very difficult to get medical men of sufficient administrative ability to manage such institutions as the division hospitals. Before the female nurses were secured the nurses, who were men of the hospital corps, were not capable. They were not intelligent as a class, and, while some of them were doggedly faithful, they failed to meet the requirements. They did not, for instance, seem to regard it as of consequence if flies were crawling in and out of a sick man's mouth with impunity, and he had seen as many as six cases of this kind at one time. Since the trained nurses had been secured the sick were better cared for than at home.

The witness said the principal reason of the failure of the physicians to make "equisitions on the government for supplies was found in the fear of their making demands that would not be sanctioned. The aid of his society was generally solicited and not volunteered by him.

Major James E. Pilcher of the regular army, depot surgeon for the Seventh army corps, said that since the early days of the camp there had been no difficulty in securing an abundance of medical supplies, and that they were much more plentiful and of greater variety than was usual in the regular army. In the first history of the camp supplies were ordered from Tampa, and it was difficult, sometimes impossible, to secure them. He thought the members of the medical staff here were efficient as physicians, but they were without administrative ability. Many of them knew nothing of formulating requisitions, and were not disposed to learn. To this Dr. Pilcher attributed the fact that so much of relief society supplies was asked in preference to those of the government. He thought that if the physicians had understood this line of their business they need not have called upon the relief association to such an extent. Still the relief associations were supplied with ready money, and could supply all articles required immediately. Furthermore, there was no responsibility on the part of surgeons for the articles secured from outside sources as there was for government supplies.

Dr. Connor pressed Dr. Pilcher closely on this point, saying to him that the country was full of the report that the medical department of the government was not capable of meeting the demands made upon it, and that but for the aid of such relief societies as the Red Cross there would have been actual suffering. Dr. Pilcher replied that such was not the case. He had faith in the ability of the government to take good care of its own sick. He said that it would have been ungracious not to accept the aid offered by the relief societies.

Lieutenant-Colonel Vifquain, a veteran of the Civil war and a graduate of the military school of Brussels, said that the Third Nebraska regiment was excellently equipped except that the tentage was poor. The quality of the clothing was also bad. The pork had been wormy at times, and the beef tainted, but these had been exchanged. He had thought the clothing better than in the Civil war, but the rations were not so good as then. He also thought the camp entirely too much crowded.

"New York Is Wide Open."

New York, Oct. 21.—During the week many letters have been sent to the daily papers here charging that "the town is wide open," and specifying places where dives of the worst description are permitted to carry on their traffic unmolested. A writer in a weekly paper of this week has been making an investigation for that newspaper and prints a broadside of charges.

The article was shown to Richard Croker, Dr. Parkhurst, Senator Platt, Chief Devery and others. Mr. Croker says the city is not wide open, and declares emphatically that there is no blackmail. He says that if there is any violation of the law Tammany hall will be the first to step in and punish the violators.

Dr. Parkhurst is more emphatic. He says Platt and not Tammany is to blame for the condition of affairs. He denounces Platt for defeating Low last year.

Royal makes the food pure, wholesome and delicious

ROYAL
BAKING POWDER
Absolutely Pure

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

LAND VALUES

A Transcript From the Books of the Assessors.

Number of Feet in Each Lot and Valuation Thereof.

Also the Amount of Each Person's Tax Bill for 1898.

[Continued from yesterday.]

Something new in the publication of the taxpayers of the city is attempted this year by the Daily Ledger. There is considerable interest in the assessed value of land in the city, which is claimed to be high in some cases and low in others. So the Ledger has supplemented the amount of the tax bill in each ward with the value of each lot of land for which the person is taxed, giving in each case the number of square feet or acreage.

The amount given in the line with the person's name is his total ward tax, and may include houses, personal property, etc., in addition to the lots of land below. The Ledger gives only the valuation of the land.

To obtain a person's total tax in the city, add together the amounts paid in the several wards.

The Ledger commenced the publication Aug. 30, and has already published the land values of all persons whose names begin with A to L, and today gives the eighth and last instalment of the M's:

WARD ONE.

Valuation of Land Only.	Total Ward Tax.
Murray, John C., and George S. 38,237 feet, Scotch Pond place, $500.	9.00

WARD TWO.

Moynihan, Nora 1-4 acre, Howard, $300.	18 00
Moynihan, Morto 1-4 acre, Sumner, $300.	29 00
Munday, Hugh, est., 25,562, South Walnut, $1,050.	53 10
Munday, John 5,800, Arnold, $250.	28 10
Myatt, Joseph P. 3,200, off Storey, $100.	1 80

WARD THREE.

Moynihan, Cornelius 6,325, Water, $425. 9,002, " $659. 6,100, " $300. 6,680, Phipps, $400.	109 55
Moynihan, Mrs. Julia M. 6,000, Trafford, $350.	33 30
Murphy, Garret, heirs, 3,370, Phipps, $175.	3 15
Murray, John C. 7,500, Liberty, $450.	42 50
Myers, Lemuel J. and James E. 1 acre, Franklin, $1,900.	77 40

WARD FOUR.

Moyle, John, est., 6,000, Conant, $300.
Malachy, Michael 6,000, Quarry, $300.	39 80
Mullen, Catherine 4,590, Jenness, $200. 10,740, " $500.	12 60
Mulligan, Foxwell 10,578, Wesson, $200.	29 00
Murphy, Edward 2 acres, woodland, $100.	1 80
Murphy, Mary 9,645, Grove, $400.	34 20
Murphy, Mary A. 9,545, Copeland, $850.	33 30
Murphy, Michael, est., 1-4 acre, Bates ave., $400.	1 80
Murphy, Nicholas T. 6,440, off Grove, $350.	22 70
Murray, William S. 10,004, Buckley, $500.	38 00
Murray, William T. 4,810, Arthur, $250.	24 50

WARD FIVE.

Moulton, Albert R. 5,000, Safford, $450.	49 50
Mullen, Mrs. Catherine 10,000, Adams, $200.	15 30
Murphy, Arthur 9,746, Highland, $500. 5,000, West Elm ave., $250. 5,000, Fayette, $300. 7,500, Taylor, $500.	137 00
Murphy, Ellen A. 7,500, Safford, $700.	63 00
Murray, Georgianna S. 6,750, Newport ave., $850.	64 80

WARD SIX.

Moxon, Stephen O. 16,990, Squantum, $1,200. 117,450, Swamp land off Squantum, $600.	89 10
Murphy, William E. 8,400, Walker, $850.	54 90
Murphy, Kate 4,430, Glover ave., $300.	5 40

To be continued.

☞ Nickle Alarm Clocks that go off like a gattling gun, 89 cents. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

—For the hide of a full-grown giraffe greatly sought after in Africa for whip and sandal making, the native hunters get from $15 to $25.

☞ All the latest notions in lamps. Hundreds of patterns to choose from. 25 cents to $10.00. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

POSITIONS OF WARSHIPS.

Report of the Board That Investigated For the Navy Department.

Washington, Oct. 21.—Thursday afternoon the report of the board appointed by Secretary Long to determine the positions and courses of the vessels participating in the flight of Admiral Cervera's luckless fleet was made public. It says in substance: "When the Maria Teresa came out of the harbor, the New York was nine miles east of Morro, accompanied by the Hist and Ericsson. The Brooklyn was three miles south of Morro, being 2 2-10 miles from the shore west of the mouth of the harbor. The Texas was eight-tenths of a mile east of the Brooklyn, the Iowa one and eight-tenths miles east and south of the Brooklyn, and the Oregon a half mile east of the Iowa, the Iowa being three miles directly south of Morro. The Indiana was two and two-tenths miles southwest of Morro, and the Gloucester one mile, almost directly north of the Indiana, a mile and four-tenths from Morro."

When the Vizcaya turned shoreward the Iowa was three and two-tenths miles directly astern. The New York was five miles behind the Iowa. The Ericsson had kept along with the New York all the time and was at this position half a mile in advance of her. The Indiana was four miles behind the Iowa. When the Colon surrendered the Brooklyn was the nearest American vessel, being three and four-tenths miles away. The Oregon was four and one-half miles from the Colon and more inshore than the Brooklyn. The Texas was three and four-tenths miles behind the Oregon. The New York was nine and one-half miles from the Colon. None of the other vessels had come up save the Vixen, which was abreast of the New York.

The tracings of the chart show that the Spanish vessels sailed on courses not more than three-tenths of a mile apart until the Oquendo ran ashore. Then the Vizcaya veered out to sea and the Colon kept nearer the shore, their courses being about seven-tenths of a mile apart. Up to the time the Oquendo went ashore, the Iowa, Indiana, Oregon and Texas sailed on courses within three-tenths of a mile of each other, the Iowa being the nearest and the Texas being the farthest from the course of the Spanish. The Brooklyn's course was three-tenths to a half mile outside that of the Texas. The swing to the right which the Brooklyn made at the beginning of the engagement shows an oval four-tenths of a mile across. She crossed the courses of the Texas, Oregon and Indiana twice while making the turn, but before these vessels had gone over them. The course of the New York after passing Morro was nearer the shore than any other United States vessel except the Gloucester, and a mile behind where the Oquendo turned to run ashore she passed inside the courses of the Spanish vessels. Ten miles west of the Vizcaya disaster she crossed the Colon's track, but followed very close the course of that vessel until the latter surrendered.

Transformation of Character.

London, Oct. 21.—Leonard H. Courtenay, former deputy speaker of the house of commons and now a unionist member of parliament, speaking at Tideford, Cornwall, said that one of the consequences of the war with Spain upon the American people had been to create a spirit which must in the near future lead to a great transformation of American character and policy. "Instead of being a self-contained, industrious, peaceful and non-aggressive people," said Mr. Courtenay, "the Americans, if they take sovereignty in Cuba, will have to keep a large naval and military force in order to make the influence of the United States felt.

"Although the American members of the peace commission have declared that the United States does not want Cuba or the Philippines, the history of our own country has shown that when once there was an occupation the intention to leave after disorder has been righted has seldom been put into execution.

"The war emphasizes the necessity of the peace proposals of the czar. If there had been an organized tribunal to settle international quarrels the Hispano-American conflict might have been averted even after passion had been aroused by the Maine disaster."

Private Found Dead.

New York, Oct. 21.—Reuben Dodd, Jr., a private in the Seventy-first New York volunteers, was found shot through the heart at his father's home in Bloomfield, N. J. It is not known whether he killed himself or whether his death was the result of an accident. Dodd was on a 30 days furlough, which he secured so that he might be present at the marriage of his brother. He was apparently in good spirits when called yesterday morning. Soon after that a pistol shot was heard and Dodd was found dead.

Condemned In Strong Terms.

Brockton, Oct. 21.—A mass meting of the strikers was held last night, at which representatives of the press were admitted for the first time during the present trouble. Harry J. Skeffington, former president of the Boot and Shoe Workers' union, made the address. He explained the Philadelphia system, which the Brockton board of trade favored, and wished the lasters to adopt, condemning it in the strongest terms, saying that it gave the manufacturers all the power.

MANY PEOPLE CANNOT DRINK

coffee at ight. It spoils their sleep. You can drink Grain-O when you please and sleep like a top. For Grain-O does not stimulate; it nourishes, cheers and feeds. Yet it looks and tastes like the best coffee. For nervous persons, young people and children Grain-O is perfect drink. Made from pure grains. Get a package from your grocer today. Try it in place of coffee. 15 and 25c.

DR. HERBERT S. HAYFORD
195 Hancock Street.
OFFICE HOURS—11 to 12 A. M., 2 to 4 and 7 to 8 P. M.
Telephone, 4-3.
Quincy, July 5. tf

TELL US . .
What you are looking for.
We can show you a fine line of
FALL AND WINTER
UNDERWEAR,
HOSIERY,
Outing Flannels, Flannelettes,
Plaid Dress Goods,
WRAPPERS, BLANKETS,
Comforters,
Dress Linings and other Dry Goods.
OUR STOCK IS FRESH.
OUR PRICES THE LOWEST.
MISS C. S. HUBBARD,
158 Hancock Street.

STENOGRAPHY AND TYPEWRITING, BOOKKEEPING,
And All Clerical Work.
MISSES A. B. and E. M. COTE,
Room 12 Durgin & Merrill Block, - Quincy.
Oct. 10. tf

THE FALL SEASON
IS HERE
For the Purchase of
Fruit and Ornamental Trees,
Shrubs and Vines.
Buy now that your plants may get a good start by spring.
Remember that I carry all the desirable novelties, as well as the old standard varieties of nursery stock.
I call special attention to my Flowering Shrubs, Perpetual Roses, Clematis, and Rhododendrons.
Buy at home and save agents' commissions. None but strictly first-class stock, well acclimated, furnished. Call and examine.
Orders by mail receive prompt attention.
Wollaston Park Nursery,
Fenno St., Wollaston.
MARTIN PFAFFMANN, Prop.
P. O. Box 44, Wollaston. Residence, 2 Clay St.
Oct. 14—1m p-3w

LEHIGH COAL.
When we Sell You Lehigh we Deliver what we Sell. . . . .
C. PATCH & SON.

GO TO . . . .
Miss B. J. PATTERSON'S
Millinery Parlors
AT THE
Boston Bargain Store,
FOR YOUR
FALL MILLINERY.
A fine assortment of Trimmed Goods. Also, all the latest and best shapes in untrimmed hats, walking hats and sailors.
New Velvets, Ribbons, Fancy Feathers and Ostrich goods.
Lowest possible prices for first-class goods.
Music Hall Building, Quincy.
Oct. 1. tfpl

MARY WENT.
LAST Week Mary and everybody else were invited to call at the Quincy Second Hand Variety Store. They went, and Mary tells us that she was delighted with what she found. She bought an excellent stove for half its value, a chamber set for a remarkably low figure, and small ware in abundance for almost nothing. In fact, she was so well pleased, she sent her husband, who bought all the tools he could carry off for a few dollars.
WALTER P. PINEL
is the Manager, and the store is right over here at number 20 Franklin street.
aug25 1y

HOW TO MAKE MONEY.

Take a silver dollar and drop it on a jeweler's show case and you'll get a ring. Take a quarter and saw it in two in the middle and get two halves. Take a two-dollar bill and fold it once and you double it—and you can keep on monkeying with money and make imaginary capital for an hour. But if you want to get a new wrinkle in money, just take a new ten dollar bill and fold it corner-ways and you'll get a new wrinkle every time. But don't fool with your money and don't let anybody else fool with it. Don't let anybody fool you with the idea that they'll give you a $10 bill with every $2 suit or overcoat.

The new store has earned a reputation for selling straight goods at straight prices. We don't monkey with your money, or flim flam you with any imaginary values We give you good goods, charge a fair-profit price for everything you buy and expect you to come back the second time because you were used right the first.

We can sell a good Overcoat for $5.00 and an all wool one for $6.50. But for $7.50 we can show you a dandy all wool Kersey, made with raw edge and lap seams and lined with good lasting linings. Th same coat our competitors (in Boston) get $10 for.

Our $10 coat we have in Blacks, Blues, Olives and Browns. Then we have them for $11, $12, $13, $13.50, $15, $15.50 and upwards to $19, in all the different style goods worn this season.

For this week and next too, if they are not all gone, we will sell all wool Dickey Pants at $1.48. All the other stores get $2.00.

QUINCY CLOTHING CO.,
LOWEST PRICED CLOTHIERS IM NORFOLK COUNTY.
MUSIC HALL BLOCK.

BRUSSELS CARPETS

AT

95c Per Yard.

It being late in the season, and finding ourselves largely overstocked with Brussels Carpets, we have decided to make a Sweeping Reduction in prices to close out our present stock and save carrying them over through the winter.

We shall offer MONDAY, Oct. 24th,

500 Pieces at 95c Per Yard.

Goods usually retailed by us at $1.40 and $1.25. These are the best quality, and this low price is made only to close them out at once. The assortment of patterns is large, and among them can be found carpets to suit all tastes.

In this same sale we shall also offer 200 pieces, or about 10,000 yards, of Standard American Brussels at 85c and 90c Per Yard.

The Quantities are not as large, but the patterns are all desirable.

Also 100 pieces, or about 5,000 yards, of

The Best English Brussels At $1.35 Per Yard.

Marked down for this sale from $2 00 per yard.

Also 150 pieces, or 7,500 yards, of Best Quality Axminsters At $1.50 Per Yard.

Carpets usually retailed at $2.00 to $2.25 per yard, including a good range of patterns and colors, suitable for Parlors, Dining-rooms, Libraries, Halls and Stairs. As a special pattern we call attention to 10 patterns of BIGELOW AXMINSTERS At $1.35 Per Yard.

An early call will ensure the first choice of patterns, although for that matter the whole line is a strong and desirable one.

☞ All goods delivered free at any residence within 10 miles of our store.

JOHN H. PRAY, SONS & CO.,

LARGEST AND OLDEST IN NEW ENGLAND,

Carpetings, Oriental Rugs and Upholstery Goods,

Importers, Contractors, Jobbers, Retailers.

658 WASHINGTON ST., opp. Boylston, BOSTON.

Oct. 22. lpo 1t

Hazelton Lehigh

Costs a Trifle More.
You Know Why.

C. PATCH & SON.

STATE ELECTION.

CITY OF QUINCY.

City Clerk's Office, Oct. 7, 1898.

IN Accordance with the provisions of Chapter 548 of the Acts of 1898, notice is hereby given that by a vote of the City Council, passed October 3, 1898, the polling places for the election to be held TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1898, in the City of Quincy, were designated as follows:

WARD ONE.—Council Chamber, City Hall.

WARD TWO—Hose House, Washington street.

WARD THREE, Precinct One.—Doble's Hall, Franklin street.

WARD THREE, Precinct Two.—Old Steamer House, School street.

WARD FOUR, Precinct One.—St. Mary's Hall, Willard street.

WARD FOUR, Precinct Two.—Hose House, Copeland street.

WARD FIVE.—Polson's Building, Newport avenue.

WARD SIX.—Hose House, Newbury avenue.

Attest: EDGAR G. CLEAVES, City Clerk.

Quincy, Oct. 7, 1898. 27t

HAZELTON LEHIGH

And Not Hard White Ash,
Is What You Should Burn.

C. PATCH & SON.

By FRANK F. CRANE, - Auctioneer.
Office, 4 Chestnut Street, Quincy.

AUCTION SALE OF THE

Household Furniture

OF

MRS. FRANK MUNROE, 29 Chestnut St.

Wednesday, Oct. 26,

At 1.30 P. M.

Parlor contains Gent's Smoking Chair, lounge Easy Chairs, Marble Top Table.

Front Chamber contains White Iron Bedstead, Black Walnut, Bureau, Commode and Chairs, Sewing Machine.

Middle Chamber contains Oak Chamber Set.

Side Chamber contains White Iron Single Bedstead, Bureau, etc.

End Chamber contains Bedstead, Bureau, Commode and Rocker.

Kitchen contains Table, Oil Stove, Crockery Glass Ware, Bird Cage, etc.

Also, we shall sell all the Mattresses, Bedding, etc., Pictures, Ornaments, and many other articles too numerous to mention.

Sale positive, rain or shine. Terms cash.

Oct. 20. 5t

By FRANK F. CRANE, - Auctioneer.
Office, 4 Chestnut St., Quincy.

Large Auction Sale

OF THE

GRANITE WORKS and QUARRY TOOLS

OF

PETER CARLSON & CO.,

Quarry Street, Opposite Fallon's Quarry,

THURSDAY, OCT. 27, 1898,

At 1.30 P. M.,

Consisting of Engine House, Tool Shed, 30 horse power, double cylinder and double drum Engine built to order by Rawson & Morrison of Cambridgeport, 2 years old, This engine was made especially to order for the granite business, is extra heavy and strong, and is first-class in every respect, the boiler has 120 tubes, makes steam quickly, and is very economical with coal. New Steam Drill, built by Ingersoll & Sargent; Steam Pump, 3 inch suction, 2 1-2 discharge; one Large Derrick, good for twenty tons; one medium sized Derrick, good for 8 or 9 tons; 2 Dump Cars and about 225 feet of rails for the same, about 1,000 feet of Steam Piping from 1-2 inch to 3 inches in diameter; large lot of Chains, Dogs, Bars, Steam Drills, Blast Drills, Plug Drills, Blocks, Sheaves, Wire Rope, New Tackle and Falls of 400 feet crucible steel 5-8 rope, 1 new Tackle and Fall of 550 feet of crucible steel 5-8 rope, and various other articles too numerous to mention.

Sale positive, rain or shine. Terms cash.

Oct. 19. 7t

☞ A Glenwood Range will make your wife happy, will save your fuel, and cook your food as no other range can. $18.00 to $33.00. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

Quincy Daily Ledger

ESTABLISHED IN 1889.

The ONLY DAILY in Norfolk County Massachusetts.

Published Every Evening, Sundays and Holidays Excepted, At No. 115 HANCOCK ST., City of Quincy, Mass., by

GEORGE W. PRESCOTT & SON.

Successors to Green & Prescott.

Subscription Price, $6.00 per year.

☞ A discount of $1 when paid in advance.

ALSO PUBLISHERS OF

The Quincy Patriot,

A Weekly Established in 1837, which has the Largest Circulation in Norfolk County, and

The Braintree Observer,

A Weekly Established in 1878.

TELEPHONE, 78-3 QUINCY.

Quincy Temperature at Noon.

	This Week.	Last Week.	In 1897.	In 1896.
Sunday	50	66	83	60
Monday	48	53	53	56
Tuesday	50	75	51	50
Wednesday	54	71	70	48
Thursday	61	55	62	56
Friday	56	59	49	62
Saturday	—	69	53	49

New Advertisements Today.

John H. Pray, Sons & Co.—Carpetings.
C. Patch & Son—Lehigh coal. (6)
Situation wanted by a Swede girl.
Houses to let.

THE VOTING LIST.

Smaller Than City Election But Larger than Last State Election.

The number of qualified voters in the city of Quincy is practically the same as at the last election, there probably being from 10 to 20 more, or approximately 3,930. This is, however, 127 less than at the city election last December. The gain or loss by wards during the recent registration now closed is shown by the following summary:

	Number Dropped. Sept. 1898.	Number Added Since.
Ward One,	97	89
Ward Two,	49	45
Ward Three, Pre. 1,	124	36
Ward Three, Pre. 2,	39	39
Ward Four, Pre. 1.	51	32
Ward Four, Pre. 2,	32	34
Ward Five,	65	62
Ward Six,	144	37
	601	374

The names added by the Registrars on Wednesday are appended:

Ward One—Henry W. Adrian, William A. Bradford, Andrew J. Carlson, John A. M. Riley, Vernon E. Ford, Seth W. Fiske, William Ford, Edgar A. Fogg, Albert W. Fletcher, George S. Grant, William B. Gardner, Albert F. Hayward, William Hogan, William W. Pray, George H. Phinney, Daniel F. Roche, Patrick Reily, John C. Smith, Edward P. F. Vinton.

Ward Two—Charles H. Bigelow, Walter A. Blanding, John J. Greene, Hiram A. Hayden, Daniel Kerins, John H. Lyons, Harvey W. Pray, Patrick J. Starr, Charles W. Walsh.

Ward Three, precinct one—Charles J. Casna, Henry Faccei, Patrick J. Fay, Octavis Grenai, Isaac E. Nickerson, David Rounds, Patrick J. Sullivan.

Ward Three, precinct two—James H. Connally, Joseph Casna, Martin Gibson, John Johnson, Andrew Molin, John O. Moyle, Richard J. O'Brien, Robert W. Smith, Oscar R. Wettergren.

Ward Four, Precinct one—Joseph G. Burkard, James Bennett, John J. Carroll, William F. Farrell, Edmund Foley, George H. Kinsman, John A. McDonald, Nelson Reed, Jr., Joseph Reed.

Ward Four, precinct two—Hilay Berger, James H. Cregan, Fred L. Hayden, Page E. Kjellander, Andrus Lindberg, Victor Y. Norling, Peter Swanson, Daniel M. Sullivan.

Ward Five—Willis Abbott, Charles Cartwright, Alphonso Williams, Percy A. Hall, Stephen W. Hatch, Howard W. Haskins, Jonathan Keast, James D. Kent, Jr., George H. Nicholson, William G. Rose, Charles L. Seavey. Robert H. Sumner, Herbert A. Thompson, George F. Turner, Joseph Vaughan, Joseph E. Waterhouse.

Ward Six—Paul J. Brickett, William Diersch, Charles W. Ellis, Frank B. Granahan, Claus A. Johnson, Joseph P. Kerrigan, Edward W. Millett, Patrick McNeise, Charles W. Moore, Charles M. Olfene, William F. Prescott, John H. Whitaker.

Swedish Mission Meeting.

Rev. C. A. Bjornbom, pastor of the Swedish Congregational church on Garfield street announces mission meetings to continue three days, — this evening and Saturday evening at 7.30 o'clock, and Sunday at 10 A. M., 3 and 7 P. M. Several ministers from a distance are expected and include Rev. A. A. Anderson of Worcester, Rev. J. A. Johnson of Lynn, Rev. William Liljenberg of Boston, Rev. Mr. Nelson of Manchester, N. H., and Rev. Mr. Josefson of Portland, Conn. All Scandinavian are welcome.

Special Music.

The following musical programme will be given at the Atlantic Memorial church, Sunday morning, with the assistance of Miss Catharine Milliken of Boston: Solo, "The Lord is my Shepherd," Bohm. Response, "Hear, O Father, Hear us." Quartette, "Thou Grace Divine," Carl Pflueger. Solo, "A Dream of Paradise" Hamilton Gray.

LAST DAY TO FILE.

All Nominations Must Be at State House Today.

Not until 5 o'clock tonight probably will it be known just how many candidates for Congress in the Tenth district will appear on the ticket. It is pretty certain that there will be more than the two regular candidates. The list may include:

Samuel J. Barrows Republican.
Henry F. Naphen, Democrat.
Bordman Hall, Independent Democrat.
Torrey Warner, Independent Democrat.
William Everett, Independent.
Harry Atwood, Independent Republican.
And possibly others.

As the candidates multiply the chances of Congressman Barrows for a reelection improve, and today there seems but little doubt of his reelection. Some Republicans are so enthusiastic that they say Massachusetts can elect all thirteen Republicans this year, including their candidate in the heretofore conceded Democratic district, represented by Mr. Fitzgerald, where Jesse M. Gove had only 1,914 less votes in 1894.

The vote of the Tenth district at the last Congressional election was: Barrows, 17,147, Hall, 14,259; Chase, (Republican Citizen), 2,612. Quincy gave Barrows 1818, Hall 990 and Chase 429.

Five Republican rallies have been arranged in the Tenth Congressional district, at which Candidate Barrows and other prominent speakers will speak:

At Putnam Hall, Oct. 25—Rev. Edward Everett Hale, Senator Towle, Charles H. Innis and C. O. Eustrom.

At Quincy, Oct. 28—Mayor Sears, Governor Wolcott, Congressman McCall, Col. Clark.

At Upham's Corner, Oct. 31—Senator Lodge, A. H. Washburn and G. F. Ordway.

At Field's Corner, Nov. 2—Congressman Lawrence, Speaker Bates and Thomas C. Bachelder.

At South Boston, Nov. 3,—Congressman Moody, M. J. Murray and C. T. Gallagher.

There will be music by a band at each of these rallies.

Church Anniversary.

The twenty-fifth anniversary of the West Quincy, Methodist Episcopal church will be celebrated on Sunday and Monday.

Sunday morning at 10.30 Rev. F. N. Upham of Dorchester, whose father preached the sermon at the dedication of the church, will preach the anniversary sermon.

Sunday evening at 7 o'clock there will be addresses by Rev. E. W. Virgin a former pastor and by Rev. C. W. Wilder. The church will be decorated in honor of the occasion.

On Monday evening there will be a reunion of past and present members and attendants at an anniversary banquet. From 7 to 8 o'clock there will be an informal reception in the audience room to former pastors and presiding elders and at 8 o'clock the anniversary banquet will be served in the vestry at which speeches are expected from former pastors and others.

Rebekah Visitation.

George L. Gill Rebekah lodge received an official and fraternal visit from the Special Deputy Grand Master, Miss Grace Mitchell and suite on Thursday evening. The official business was the installing of the Vice Grand into office. The lodge then proceeded to the good of the order and there were speeches by the deputy, members of her suite and other visitors. Steadfast lodge of East Weymouth and Amana lodge of South Braintree sent delegations on this occasion. There was a banquet served in the banquet hall.

The next meeting on Nov. 3 will be one which wil not soon be forgotten, for there is a live committee at work preparing for an entertainment for that evening.

Runaway.

There was a lively runaway on Washington street Thursday night. It was about 6 o'clock and Esmond Hall was driving toward Quincy Point. When on Graham's hill his horse became frightened and started to run. The animal had not gone far before he collided with one of Sheppard's coal teams. The force of the collision broke the cross-bar of Hall's carriage and clearing himself pulled Mr. Hall over the dasher into the street. Mr. Hall was stunned and for a few minutes it was thought that he was seriously injured. He, however, escaped with a few bruises. The horse ran as far as Tisdale's stable where he was stopped.

A civil service examination for inspectors in the Water department is being held at City Hall today. Seven applicants are taking the examination.

DIED.

DAVENPORT—In Milton, Oct. 19, Mr. Henry S. Davenport, aged 79 years, 3 months and 22 days.

LOCAL NEWS TRACK.

Some Colts which are Sure Winners Every Heat.

The Street Railway building is being connected with the sewer system.

Mr. Herbert F. Doble has been at Somerworths, N. H., on a brief business trip this week.

Mrs Francis E. Bonney of Derry, N. H., is spending a few days with Mrs. M. B. Macleod of Wollaston.

Mr. and Mrs. James Buckham have returned to their home in Atlantic after being away on an extended visit.

The Sewer department is staking out for the sewer on Hancock street upon which work will be commenced next week.

The change in the postoffice law now permits money orders payable at the office of issue. The old rule prevented a money order issued by the Quincy office from being paid at that office.

Mr. Samuel King, the well know vocalist of Wollaston, who this past summer sang in one of the churches at Nahant, is spoken of in the very higehest terms by the people of church, who have made him a very flattering offer to sing at the same church next season.

The fair of the Swedish Lutheran church opened at Faxon hall, Thursday evening, with a large attendance. Numerous tables for the sale of useful and fancy articles were arranged about the hall. Refreshments were served in the lower hall. The Swedish orchestra furnished music during the evening.

The Managers of Public Burial Places met Thursday evening and transacted routine business. The board voted to accept two lots for perpetual care, making the amount received thus far this year for perpetual care $1,050. Two requests for the removal of trees at Mt. Wollaston cemetery were referred to the sub-committee.

Arthur Caddy, the 14 year old boy who was before the court last week for the larceny of $8 from some party unknown, was again in court this morning. When the case against him was heard last week he was placed on probation until Oct. 27, to see if he would behave himself. Instead of doing so, it is alleged that he helped himself to a peck of William J. Williams pears without first asking permission. It is probable when the case is called next week he will be sent to the Lyman school for boys.

Who Was the Benefit for.

Henry Chubbuck informs the Ledger that he accepted the request of Gabriel Pelos, the position of treasurer of the fund for the benefit of the families of Co. K. That Mr. Pelos handed him but $10.50 as the net receipts, stating thatthe remainder had gone to pay for hall and talent. He had since paid out about $3 for talent, and nothing for benefit, for which it was claimed the need was so urgent. The impression is that the talent, such as it was, was very expensive. Pelos is still among the missing.

☞ The Massachusetts Single Tax League will give a banquet to representatives of the Young Men's Christian Associations of Massachusetts and their ladies at the Hotel Vendome, Tuesday evening, Oct. 25 at 6.30 o'clock. After the dinner the company will be asked to listen to an exposition of the "Single Tax," especially in its relation to the brotherhood of man and the social conditions necessary for advancement of spiritual lines by Kev. S. S. Craig, Toronto, Ont. At the conclusion of the address questions will be cordially invited as to the simpliciy, certainty, adequacy, and above all, the justice of the single tax as a solvent for the problems confronting young men and society today.

☞ The class for the Synthetic Study of the Bible conducted by Rev. James M. Gray, D. D., which was so popular among the Christian Endeavors last year, will be begun again this season at the same place, Clarendon Street Baptist church, corner Clarendon and Montgomery streets, Boston, commencing November 1st. Particular attention however is called to the fact, that the class will be held on Tuesday instead of Thursday evening as heretofore. The instruction is entirely free, and all are invited whether endeavors or not. There was a membership of 1,000 last year, and the indications point to even a larger interest this year.

TODAY'S COURT.

The liquors seized from Henry G. Reiley at Weymouth were forfeited.

John F. Furlong was fined $5 for using profane language upon the public streets of Weymouth.

Arthur Caddy was arraigned for the larceny of pears valued at seventy-five cents from William J. Williams at Quincy. Case continued until next Thursday.

Annie Mervis was arraigned for drunkenness at Quincy, on complaint of her husband, and was discharged for want of evidence.

N. Everett Buck was arraigned for assault on Sarah E. Law at Randolph. Case continued until Oct. 29.

The woman who has a heavy task before her—dishes to wash or a floor to scrub has a friend in this great cleaner

GOLD DUST Washing Powder

Harmless, yet efficient —costs so little the mite is never missed. Largest package—Greatest economy.

THE N. K. FAIRBANK COMPANY,

Chicago. St. Louis. New York. Boston. Philadelphia.

SWEATERS.

We think we can show you the best assortment of Sweaters to be found in the city.

BOYS' SAILOR COLLAR, GARNET OR NAVY BLUE,	$ .50
" " " " " " "	.75
" " " " " " "	1.00
" ROLL " " " " "	1.00
MEN'S SAILOR " " " " "	2.00
" " " " " " "	2.50

Look at Our Window Display.

GEO. W. JONES,

Adams Building, Quincy.

WATCHES.

GENT'S WATCHES, $1.50 and Up.

LADIES' WATCHES, $2.50 and Up.

EVERY WATCH WARRANTED.

$2.00 Belts, $1.00 Each.
75c. Brooch Pins, 25c. Each.
25 and 35c. Stick Pins, 5 and 10c. Ea.

Quincy SOUVENIR TILES Half Price,

And Other Bargains.

A. A. LINSCOTT, Jeweler,

154 Hancock St., opp. Post Office, Quincy.

Agent for Graphophones.

aug 6. tf

New Pianos, $185.00.

Just why people pay fancy profits and fancy prices for pianos, when they can't afford to, is hard to tell. Truth is, they don't know themselves.

Everyone can and should own a piano, a piano to be proud of, a piano with perfect touch and delightful tone, a piano you'll never have to apologize for, a piano that's sold at an honest price within the reach of everyone. A piano honestly built, with a rich, beautifully carved case; a piano that's fully guaranteed. A piano just the same kind exactly that sells for $450.00 with a different name stenciled on the case, but our price to everyone is $185.00.

It's worth considering, and the time to buy is now. Do not delay but have a piano in your home at once. These pianos are not merely a bargain, they are almost a gift. Time payments for those who wish.

HENRY L. KINCAIDE & CO.,

The People's Cut Price House Furnishers,

HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

NOTHING BETTER,

UNCLE SAM'S NAVY

Now commands the respect of the world, and we are all proud of the defenders of the Nation's Honor. To give the people of Quincy a good idea of the grand battleships, we have ordered a large supply of portfolios, giving magnificent views of the ships, crews, etc.

With each purchase made at our store we will give a portfolio check to the value of the purchase. When you have $4.00 worth of these checks, return them and get a portfolio. Continue in this way until you have the set complete. Call and see these magnificent portfolios.

ROGERS BROS.,

Groceries and Provisions. Adams Building, Quincy.

Bon Ami

The New Cleaner

FOR HOUSE CLEANING HAS NO SUPERIOR. IT DOES THE WORK WITH THE LEAST LABOR.

SELECT SOCIALS!

EVERY FRIDAY EVENING,
Beginning Oct. 21, 8.30 to 11,
COLONIAL HALL, Bank Bldg., Quincy
Given in connection with
Prof. Gardner's Dancing School.

Tickets: Gent or Couple, 50c. Extra Lady, 25c.

LAST HALF TERM. Those who desire to learn the latest Fancy Dances can join the class at 7.30. Terms: 8 lessons from 7.30 to 8.30, Gents $4, Ladies $3. oct18—6t

Give C. PATCH & SON

A TRIAL ORDER

For HAZELTON LEHIGH COAL.

The John Hancock Stables.

Opposite Depot, Quincy, Mass.

Boarding, Baiting, Livery and Sale.

DR. J. A. DOW, Proprietor,

the well known Veterinary dentist and specialist in the treatment of lame horses. Sick horses treated at owner's risk.

The finest equipped and managed stable of its size in America.

Fine driving turnouts in light rigs; safe and good appearing. All horses let are perfectly safe for ladies to drive.

The choicest family, road and coach horses constantly on hand for sale. All horses guaranteed as represented.

☞ Will attend to veterinary practice as usual. aug18-1y

POTATOES,

15c. Pk.

Sweet Potatoes,

15c. Pk.

White Seal Flour,

4.75 Bbl. Cash.

We guarantee this Flour to be old wheat and one of the best Bread Flours in the market.

L. M. PRATT & CO.,

25 School Street.

MABEL F. FAIRBANKS

TEACHER OF

CHINA PAINTING and WATERCOLOR.

China Decorated to Order.

34 Grand View Avenue, Wollaston.

Sept. 29. 3m

48 BALLOTS 48

And the tenth district nominated a candidate for Congress, but it needn't take you half so long to decide where to buy

Fall and Winter Suits

FOR MEN AND BOYS.

The Granite Clothing Store has always carried honest goods at low prices, and this year beats all previous years. Every purchaser is bound to be Absolutely Satisfied.

Boys are satisfied because the suits are neat and stylish, and their parents are satisfied with the price.

Call and see for yourself.

Granite Clothing Co.

DURGIN & MERRILL'S BLOCK.

E. S. BECKFORD,

Electrician.

Wiring and Fitting for Incandescent, Motors, Dynamos, Bells, etc.

GRANITE STREET, Near the Bridge, QUINCY

Feb. 1 1y

THE NEW CAPTAIN.

Neilson Now in Command of Co. K at Camp Meade.

With Co. K, 5th Mass.
Camp Meade Annex, Oct. 18.

Last night was very chilly. This morning we have a very high wind; cold but clear. The boys manage to keep warm by their oil stoves. Some quarters are made home-like and cosy.

Lieut. Neilson is to be attached to this command today. The boys appear quite blue because thereof this morning. We fear trouble will ensue. Lieut. Whitney is moving all his personal effects from the captain's tent into the lieutenant's quarters, so that Lieut's. Whitney and Spear will again bunk together. Our boys fully hoped the Lieutenant would wear the two shoulder bars by this time. There is no reason why he should not. The boys hope to accomplish it yet.

Through this cold snap which we are encountering only one drill in is ordered each morning.

At guard mounting the boys wear their great overcoats, and continue to do so through their tour of guard duty.

Major Morrison is constantly looking out for the welfare and comfort of the boys of his battalion. The Major is a thorough wide-awake man, and nothing escapes him. The boys will do most anything to comply with his orders.

Those detailed for guard duty today are: Sergeant McGrath, Corporal Mahoney, Bulger Piper, Privates Belcher, Bowler, Clements, Colbury, Chase, Clark, Carlson, Currie Dunleavy, Deslauries, Dennison, Dean and Egan. This is the largest guard that K has ever turned out for duty at one time. The other companies not having enough to fill the guard quota because some have skipped, K has to suffer and supply the remaining number. This also shows our company is contented with their two loyal and faithful officers.

Privates Dean and Chase were today chosen orderlies to Major Morrison, this is Private Dean's second term as orderly.

Corporals Leslie and Gannon and Private Fitzgerald are today on leave of absence to visit Harrisburg. The boys are all well, none on the sick list.

A dispatch from Washington read as follows, which is published in the Philadelphia "Press."

It is stated at the War department that troops will not be sent to the Southern camps until after frost has made it certain that yellow fever will not spread. This applies to troops now at Camp Meade, Lexington, and Knowville. The troops at Camp Meade in any event will be held until after the Peace Jubilee in Philadelphia, as they are to take part in that demonstration.

"Major Edie of the Medical department, who has been stationed at Lexington for some time past, was at the department today and says the health of the troops there has been steadily improving. It is said however, that it will be too cold for the troops to occupy tents during the winter season in the Kentucky highlands."

General Graham is in receipt of a telegram from the War Department revoking the order to move the Second Corps of which this regiment is a part on October 27. He has been given permission to use his discretion in the movement of troops. The general will not order a movement until all danger of yellow fever is past. Some of the troops will likely spend Thanksgiving at Camp Meade.

Colonel J. A. Corby was directed this morning by General Graham to start for Spartanburg, S. C., to establish Division headquarters for the Second Brigade. The First Division of this regiment is connected with this brigade. Three offenders of Company M, Second West Virginia, of Shepardstown were ordered from their prison quarters yesterday, by Lieutenant Gaujot, the officer of the day to do police duty, pick up scraps of paper and debris in the company streets, which they peremptorily refused to do. Lieut. Gaujot reported them, whereas they were ordered to be "spread eagled" and staked down. A detail of men was directed to cut twelve button-wood stakes and drive them into the ground, and then the three privates were laid on their backs and their hands and feet tied to the stakes by rope so that they could not move. At the end of two hours the men promised to do police duty and were released, but the humiliation put upon them was so great that they could not face their comrades, and they again refused to work and were sent back to the guard house. Colonel O'Brien of their regiment says that one of them is an old offender. The other two have had no previous military experience. All will be tried by court martial and will be dishonorably discharged for the best interests of the service. It is a thing to mention as it has never occurred in our regiment before. Every man is willing to do his part. This is where the discipline comes in. If every regiment had as good a set of officers as the Dandy 5th, the men would be just as contented as ours, and therefore everything would be harmonious. DOC.

Privates Clements and Capaccioli are today on leave of absence for 24 hours.

The boys are all well, considering the severity of the weather, more sickness would be expected, but we escape. DOC.

MILTON.

Work completing the boulevard between East Milton and Mattapan is being rushed along. The Mattapan end is about completed and work is now being done on the East Milton end.

Registrations in Milton closes, Saturday, Oct. 29.

The Boston, Milton and Brockton street railway has commenced to lay its tracks on White street and Central avenue.

A son and daughter were born to Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Whittemore on Sunday.

Miss Emma Ware, a former member of the school board, is dangerously ill at her home on Milton hill.

The Thursday Evening club are rehearsing for a minstrel show to be given early in November.

The first anniversary of the "Mission of Our Saviour" church will be observed next Sunday evening at Ellsworth hall at 7 o'clock, with a service and sermon appropriate to the occasion.

The Milton Academy and Roxbury Latin school meet on the gridiron on Saturday at Milton.

We Try To Do Too Much.

Editors Daily Ledger:

A city whose tax rate is one-half what money can be made to yield with safety as income is a mighty dear place to live in. Such a place is the City of Quincy. No new business concerns come here, and no new residents with taxable property; they are not fools enough for that. The policy of the municipal authorities is to jump up every year on all the real estate valuations, not because there is any real increase in value, but because the city "needs the money."

This is indeed the "Era of Municipal Extravagance." We try to do too much. Our schools are still teaching "frills," as all fanciful and silly branches are called. The three Rs are still all that a grammar school pupil needs. Nothing is appreciated or properly valued that comes too easy, not even an education. There is no more reason why the city should furnish text books free, than carpenters tools or horses and wagons. It is rank nonsense to teach sewing, cooking, stenography, typewriting, gymnastics, etc., etc., in the schools. The business course at the High is a big frill. If any one gets a good, old-fashioned High school education free, that ought to be enough. They can get anything further by their own efforts, and a little pluck and self-denial.

It has always been the policy of the High school to influence as many of the grammar school graduates as possible against Adams Academy; probably from the belief that the success of the High and the reputation of the officials depends on mere numbers. Probably the idea is that the more that come there, the more of a "flourishing institution," as the reporters say, it will be.

There would be no need of the additional expense of a department at the High, if the city would allow Adams a yearly amount of one-quarter what it costs to teach the classics at the High.

The city is a one-horse imitation of the Metropolitan Park System, bought a pasture on top of the hill near Eaton's ice house and built a road leading up to it. No one ever goes there, but it pleased the West Quincy voters just the same. Poor, abused property pays all the bills, but if taxes were levied for one year, of two per cent. on all that every man, rich and poor, earned, extravagance would die of heart failure in one year.

If a law was passed that all money above a certain reasonable amount should be raised by a tax on everyone's salary, it would never exceed that amount. It is a very easy thing to spend some one else's money, but a very hard thing to "chip in" yourself.

Yours truly,
CONSERVATIVE.

The Right Chord.

Editors of the Daily Ledger:

It is a pity if we have not back bone sufficient to stand upon our own feet, without asking to be hitched on to Boston.

Mr. Rice has struck the right chord. Let us do our whole duty, each one of us, and we can make our fast growing city attractive, and reduce our heavy tax rate. There are good reasons for and against annexation. Mr. James H. Slade's letter to the Ledger some time ago was good, if we wish to have Quincy our own we can do so. A talk with ex-Mayor Hodges lately made us feel that we are not faithful as citizens in all that makes good citizenship.

HEAVY TAXPAYER, WARD I.

☞ Parlor Stoves that are economical in fuel and powerful heaters. $2.98 to $25.00. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

THE QUINCY BOOM.

One Hundred and Eighteen Sales Recorded in Four Weeks.

Last week the Ledger did not publish the record of real estate sales recorded, so that today there are the sales of two weeks in the list below. It is certainly a long list even for two weeks, there being 48 sales in all. This makes 118 sales for the past four weeks and continues to show unusual activity in Quincy real estate. It cannot be denied that it is in demand and that Quincy is taking a boom.

Nellie F. Nightingale to James Nightingale (2), $2.
Robt. T. Johnson to Jas. A. Aicardi, $1.
Lillie B. Titus to John R. Graham, $1.
William E. Harmon tr. to Henry Marsh, $1.
Geo. V. Bryant by coll. to City of Quincy, $270.
Geo. L. Damon by coll. to Ambrose P. Messer, $276.
Mrs. Thos. Fihely by coll. to Ambrose P. Messer, $145.
Julia E. Hittinger, et al, by coll. to Ambrose P. Messer, $213.
R. F. Lowe by coll. to Ambrose P. Messer, $84.
Margt. McKenzie by coll. to City of Quincy, $97.
Hannah Minihan by coll. to Ambrose P. Messer $38.
Robt. H. Smith by coll. to Ambrose P. Messer, $94.
Louis Walters by coll. to City of Quincy, $400.
Corn'l Callahan to Chas. E. Cherrington, $1.
Julia E. Gay to Emma M. Cummings, $1.
Robt. T. Johnson to Jos. W. Johnson, $1,000.
David Chalmers to Alice C. Cobb, $1.
Alice C. Cobb to Christine A. Chalmers, $1.
Lillie B. Titus to John A. Rein $1.
Lillie B. Titus to Mary Bagley, $1.
Lillie B. Titus to Wm. B. Denton, $1.
Jas. R. Murphy et al, trs. to Emily I. Fisher, $1.
Mary A. H. Crane to Mary A. S. Kent, $63.
Nathl. S. Hunting to Mary E. Tisdale, $1.
Alfd. F. Powers to Margt. A. Galvin, $1.
Arthur D. McClellan to Richd. J. Powers, $1.
John Swithin, to Geo. Chrystall, $1.
Wm. R. Thomas to Geo. Chrystall, $1.
John Swithin to Geo. Chrystall, $1.
Cath. W. Sherman to Jennie M. Follett, $1.
Gus. M. Curtis to Chas. M. Hartt, $1.
E. H. Sanborn by coll. to Abington Sav. Bk., $1.
Katie W. Orcutt by coll. to Abington Sav. Bk.
John J. Cronin to Maurice P. Spillane, $1.
Maurice P. Spillane to Hannah Cronin, $1.
Jos. E. Spear to Grace M. Spear, $1.
Geo. W. Morton to Uljas Koitto Seura, $1.
Oscar E. Djerf, et al, to Uljas Koitto Seura, $1.
Jas. R. Murphy et al, trs. to John J. Day, $1.
Lillie B. Titus to Anna Callahan.
John Wolfe, by mtgee., to Charles P. Grimmer, $5.
N. Urbain Lavoi by mtgee., to Thomas Swithin, $300.
John Biesty to Edwd. Billings, $1.
Lillie B. Titus to Edwd. Billings, $1.
Caro. F. Newcomb to Fred W. Morey, Jr., et al, $1.
Damaris H. Merrill to Herbt. M. Shaw, $1.
Lora E. McIntyre to Martha Tobey, et al, $1.

Civil Trial List.

The following cases are marked for trial at the Civil session of the District court next Tuesday:

176—Taber vs. Buckley.
225—Heisson vs. Arenins and tr.
233—Havahan vs. Casna and tr.
234—Mattasson vs. Falloa et als.
237—Monti vs. Shea.
242—Mallory vs. Cannon.
243—Bradford vs. Cannon.
244—Burrell vs. Cannon.
246—Turner vs. Wentworth.

For the Ledger.

The Hospital Ten Cents.

Let us not say "no" to this modest claim. Let us not wait until some sharp, sad reminder of mutilation or disease brings closely to us, the inestimable value our "little church upon the hill," as Rev. Mr. Butler called our hospital.

It is not true when one refuses a dime that he or she is "tired of the hospital" as has been said this week. The fact is, we are too busy, to stop to think how easily the many wage earners in most households, can give ten cents each.

The ladies who ask it, take time from their many duties and it is not difficult to do, as one lady did, ask each son, daughter, guest and maids in the home to contribute, and raise a half or a whole dollar. We shall not miss one dime; a cigarette less; a pair of gloves worn a few more times; a chocolate less; and if all who really care will give, the October offering will be worthy of the work to get it.

EX-SECRETARY.

☞ The United Order of Pilgrim Fathers, one of the oldest and strongest assessment insurance societies, in New England, is about organizing a local colony in Quincy. The order is thoroughly representative, and has a membership of over 25,000 members in New England only, admitting men and women on equal terms. The social features of the order alone would seem to repay any one for connecting themselves with this body. Most of the local colonies conduct an entertainment once a month. Any person over 18 and under 50 wishing to have their name enrolled can communicate with the organizer, J. P. McClough, 177 Washington street. The charter list will close next week.

☞ Oil Heaters that will heat any room in your house, $3.98. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

SYMPATHY FOR SPAIN.

French Manifest It, but Vouchsafe No Support.

Discouraging Discovery by a Spaniard.

American Delegates Inflexible In Enforcing Their Demands.

London, Oct. 21.—The Paris correspondent of the Times says: "I had a visit today (Thursday) from a great Spanish personage, who seems to have been commissioned to ascertain the trend of public opinion on the negotiations here. He appeared much depressed. He has found great and general sympathy with Spain, but has been unable to discover any possibility of obtaining moral support against the American delegates, who are inflexible in their demands, and with much politeness of form have hitherto categorically refused to make the slightest concession on any of the instructions received by them, never having asked their government for the slightest modifications.

"I have already explained the mode of negotiation. Memoirs are handed in which are translated and replied to in the same fashion. The Spaniards from time to time endeavor to enter into conversation and to turn the discussion into a verbal exchange of views in order to obtain some deviation from the inflexible lines marked out by the American government for its representatives. Mr. Aburzuza, who is a master of the English language, is the Spanish commissioner who makes the attempts to lead to a conversation, and, as he is described as very prepossessing and eloquent, he always makes a profound impression. The Americans, however, listen attentively, but rigidly maintain the procedure of written replies.

"The friend who called told me he had found his countrymen much discouraged, being convinced that the United States are bent on a rigorous exercise of the rights of the victor. 'I have heard you say,' he remarked, 'that Prince Bismarck once said to you: 'When you have your knee on the throat of a vanquished nation you can take from it all you like; but you must always beware of abusing your victory and exaggerating your conquests. Otherwise you load yourself for many generations with a crushing burden which ends by having the most mischievous results for the victor—almost more than for the vanquished.'

"My caller remarked: 'The Americans are not adopting this wise and humane view; they seem bent on pushing the results of the war to their extreme consequences. They refuse to entertain any concession on the financial question; and, while declining to undertake sovereignty in Cuba, they maintain that the Cuban debt is a Spanish debt, and that Spain abused her sovereignty by saddling the island with the interest of a debt by which she alone profited. Vainly have we urged that they themselves accepted financial obligations toward England in the war of independence; that they accepted the burdens of Texas after the conquest; that there is no more general law than the law of the obligations of a country changing with its rulers, and that it would be an arbitrary course and a vexatious precedent to throw the Cuban debt on us. All is useless; and they stand peremptorily to their demands.

"'What our delegates should say to them, if they persist, as it is to be feared they will, is this: 'We are in your hands. You are the victors. We for once committed the folly of going to war with you because you left us no time to avoid it, because you treated us in such a way that even at the risk of suicide we were bound to plunge into war, though the result of it was evident to us; but we will not commit the fresh folly of recommencing war in any form. We are therefore at your mercy. We shall submit to your dictates and shall leave the world to judge of those dictates; but no human force will compel us to subscribe to them, and we shall not subscribe.' This is what our delegates ought to say on this Cuban question. As for the other points they will wait to hear what they are."

Almost a Panic.

Vienna, Oct. 21.—The death of an employe in the bacteriological department of Professor Nothnagle's establishment, who contracted the bubonic plague while assisting in cultivating the plague bacillus for purposes of scientific investigation has almost created a plague panic in Vienna. The remains were buried with remarkable precautions, the body being soaked in disinfectants and placed in a double metal coffin, carefully soldered. The victim's two nurses have developed alarming symptoms. They have been isolated.

War on Scalpers.

Chicago, Oct. 21.—The fight between the railroads and the ticket brokers, resulting from the efforts of the former to prevent the scalping of tickets, has been taken into court. Seven companies petitioned for an injunction restraining the sale by the brokers of excursion tickets issued by the roads on account of the peace jubilee.

The plea in each case sets up that the brokers, through alleged fraudulent transfer of the one-fare, round-trip tickets, have caused the roads great financial loss, and that through the number of offenders any remedy by a suit at law is impracticable.

Bookkeeper an Embezzler.

Louisville, Oct. 21.—It has developed that Charles Henning, individual bookkeeper at the bank of Louisville, is a defaulter in a sum ranging between $8,000 and $10,000, and that he has fled from the city. Henning's downfall is said to be due to dissipation and a broken engagement with a St. Louis girl.

Anarchy In the Philippines.

Manila, Oct. 21.—Full authenticated reports have reached here of a terrible state of anarchy in the southern Philippines. The Spaniards are cooped up in the principal towns.

EMBROIDERY LESSONS.

We have engaged the same teacher for our Embroidery Classes this season that was so successful last year. Classes start TUESDAY MORNING.

Also the Finest Line of LINENS of All Designs to be gotten in the Market.

Our Line of Embroidery Silks is Complete in Every Detail.

WE CARRY IN STOCK A NEW LINE OF

OPULESCENT AND RAINBOW EDGE SILKS.

Sofa Cushions in a Large Variety.

D. E. WADSWORTH & CO.,
Hancock Street, Quincy.

PARKWAY HEARING.

The Quincy Daily Ledger wishes to announce that the Metropolitan Park Commissioners will give a hearing to the Mayor and City Council of Quincy, and others interested in the Parkway from Boston via of Atlantic, Squantum and Quincy to the Blue Hills Reservation, at their rooms in the Congregational Building, Boston, on MONDAY, Oct. 24, 1898, at 2 30 P. M.

Oct. 19. 4t

Hazelton Lehigh

FURNACE COAL

Give C. PATCH & SON

A Trial Order.

MISS C. L. BLISS

186 HANCOCK STREET,

Trimmed and Untrimmed

Hats and Novelties.

Order Work a Specialty.

STAMPING, PINKING, HAIR DRESSING,

Manicuring and Glove Cleaning.

Quincy, Oct. 22. tf plo

FISH.

Everything first-class at the

Cape Cod Fish Market,

Temple Street.

All kinds Fresh, Salt, Smoked an Pickeled

Quincy, Feb. 8. 1y

ALBERT J. BOWERS

OPTICIAN

ADAMS BUILDING OVER POST OFFICE QUINCY MASS.

For Sale or To Let,

FURNISHED,

NASH'S HOTEL.

Full of Boarders and a good transient trade. Cheap rent. My catering business is all I can attend to.

Apply at HOTEL, 148 Hancock street, Quincy, Mass. oct11 tf lo

FOR SALE.

Bigelow St. Fine New Residence, 9 rooms, bath, laundry, furnace, open plumbing, cemented cellar, fireplace, etc.

R. D. CHASE,
Savings Bank Building.
Quincy, April 8-tf. 9p-tf

Savings Bank Building, Quincy.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS.

Advertisements in this column inserted at the following rates:

Four lines, or less, one day, - - 25 cents.
" " three days, - - - 50 cents.
" " one week, - - - - 75 cents.

Additional lines will be charged for pro rata. Seven words equal a line. Long term rates furnished on application.

FOUND.

FOUND—At the auction of Ernest G. Bacon, Atlantic, one Fur Cape. The owner can obtain the same by calling at my office, 4 Chestnut street, Quincy, and proving property. FRANK F. CRANE, Auctioneer. Oct. 17. 6t

WANTED.

WANTED—A situation to do general housework or second work by Swede girl who has been over a few months. Call at MRS. JOHNSON'S, 22 Clark avenue, Quincy. Oct. 21. 3t

WANTED—Gentlemen or lady canvassers for quick-selling article in Quincy and vicinity. P. O. Box 116, Wollaston. Oct. 19. 3t

WANTED—A good Stonecutter. Two tenements to let, one of five rooms and one of three rooms, at 14 Glencoe place. Apply on premises. Quincy, Oct. 19. 3t

TO LET.

TO LET—3 Houses of 7 rooms each, healthful location and fine views. Electrics pass often. Rent low. Inquire of F. H. GRAVES, just beyond the bridge, North Weymouth. Oct. 21. 6t

TO LET—Tenement of 6 rooms No. 12 Newcomb street, in good repair; city water. inquire of C. A. SPEAR, 7 Newcomb street. Quincy, Oct. 20. tf

TO LET—A Sunny, Pleasant House of six rooms, newly papered and painted and in good repair; on Washington street, corner Wibird street. Centrally located in the Coddington school district. Apply only to FRANK F. PRESCOTT at Daily Ledger office. Oct. 20. tf

TO LET—Tenement of six rooms, No. 19 Cottage avenue. Three minutes from City Square. Apply to CHAS. W. HALL, 212 Hancock street, Quincy. oct19-tf

TO LFT—Half a House of 5 rooms entirely separate on Phipps street, Mt. Pleasant. Rent, $8 a month; city water. Inquire at 17 Summer street. Quincy, Sept. 27. 24t

TO LET—Cottage house, No. 29 Granite street, 8 rooms, three minutes' from City Square. Apply to H. M. FAXON, 4 Adams Building. Sept. 30—tf

FOR RENT—Desirable house with bath, corner lot, nice neighborhood, three minutes' walk from schools, churches and depot Rent reasonable. Apply at No. 6 Pleasant St. Quincy, Sept. 7. tf

TO LET.

House of 8 rooms, etc., No. 20 Canal street, Quincy. Nice house, excellent location.

R. D. CHASE,
Savings Bank Building.
Quincy, Oct. 8. pl tf

TO LET.

APARTMENTS of five large rooms and bath, with all modern improvements. Also two large stores. Rent moderate. Apply to ARTHUR CRAIG, or J. W. HAYDEN, at Craig Building, cor. Copeland and Garfield Sts. Quincy, July 15. pl tf

TO LET IN QUINCY.

SOUTHERLY Half of house with stable 214 Hancock street, now occupied by Dr. N. S. Hunting. Modern improvements, central location. Seven rooms and bath; furnace, gas and city water. Apply on premises to MISS M. F. UNDERWOOD. Oct. 1. tf

HOUSES, STORES, LAND,

ROOMS, OFFICES, AND WHARVES,

To Let In Quincy, Mass.

The Houses are in Complete Repair.

Half-house, 10 rooms, 6 Chester street, Wollaston.
House, 10 rooms with stable, 16 Cottage street.
Half-house, 5 rooms, 16 Cottage street.
House, 8 rooms, 29 Granite street.
Half-house, 4 rooms, 4 Water street, $7 per month.
Tenement, 5 rooms, 59 North street.
Half-house, 6 rooms, Pond street, $10 per month.
Half-house, 5 rooms, 13 Field street, $8 per month.
Tenement, 3 rooms, 28 Howard street, $3 per month.
Tenements, 51 Howard street, $4, $5 and $6 per month.
Room, 12 Washington street, $5 per month.
Large building, suitable for manufacturing purposes on Brackett's wharf.
Small stable, 2 Quincy street, $3 per month.
Small stable, 28 Coddington street, $5 per month.
100 windows, and blinds, various sizes.
Wharf, stone sheds, etc., Quincy Neck.
Basement, head of Granite street.
100 tons ballast for sale.
Land to rent for tillage or pasturing purposes.
Gravel and sand for sale.
50 loads of loam for sale.
The buildings are in the very best condition.
For particulars, enquire of, or address

HENRY H. FAXON,
Quincy, Mass.

Quincy, Oct. 13, 1898. 1m

When this you see Remember me

BattleAx PLUG

Remember the name when you buy again

When anything suddenly recalls the happy days of childhood ("when this you see, remember me")—we are kindly disposed toward it, but when this sentiment is associated with something that we know (Battle Ax)—and have known daily and hourly—for years perhaps—it strengthens the bond of confidence and satisfaction.

Ask anyone who has chewed Battle Ax—if he would change for any other brand.

No matter what brand you have been chewing—Battle Ax is better!

Remember the name when you buy again.

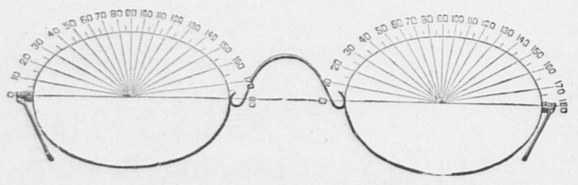

MAKE IT HOT FOR YOU.

If your house is cold and you have become disgusted with the various devices called heaters, and you are really anxious to have warmth and comfort in your home, place an order for one of those G. B. Bates CIRCULATORS.

It will "make it hot for you" or just the temperature you desire. Its construction is based upon scientific and economical principles. Several have recently been put in right here in Quincy, and others will be put in during the next few weeks. Don't read this ad. and then forget about it till your water pipes are all frozen, but go now to

G. B. BATES,

Hancock Street, Quincy.

ASTIGMATISM

Causes most of the distressing headaches. Properly fitted glasses will correct the error and remove the pain. Consult

WILLIAMS,

Member of the New England Association of Opticians,

104 Hancock St., Quincy.

Gentlemen, Buy Your....

OVERCOATS

Where you can find the best assortment in the city and the lowest prices, which is at

C. F. DERBY'S, SAVINGS BANK BUILDING, QUINCY. 5-1m

JOHN EVANS,
Auctioneer and Appraiser.
Prompt Settlement.
24 COPELAND STREET, QUINCY.
Feb. 26. tf

FRANK F CRANE,
AUCTIONEER and APPRAISER,
Office, 4 Chestnut St., Quincy, Mass.
Oct. tf

SHE WASN'T REFORMED

Colored Woman Arrested In Boston For Flat Robberies.

Just Out of Prison For a Similar Offense.

Knocked Down a Man Who Tried to Apprehend Her.

Boston, Oct. 21.—Julia Patterson, alias Church, a negress, 36 years old, is locked up with no less than six charges of breaking and entering and larceny hanging over her. With the arrest of this woman, who only a few weeks ago was released from Sherborn prison, where she had completed a term of five years for flat working, the police feel that the large number of mysterious house breaks that have recently been reported from the back bay district, Brookline and Cambridge has been satisfactorily explained. Already the Patterson woman has been identified as the culprit in two breaks.

While engaged in rummaging the rooms of a Cambridge house the police state that she was discovered by a man, who attempted to hold her, but he was knocked down by a blow on the jaw from the woman. At that time she made her escape.

It was easy to identify her, for in order to conceal her features as much as possible from the view of her victim she was in the habit, while operating, to wear glasses and a shade over her eyes. Inspector Shields needed no description of the woman, for five years ago he arrested her for breaking and entering flats and larceny, and upon being found guilty she was sentenced to a term of five years. Because of good behavior she was recently released, and immediately came back to Boston.

Bay State Endeavorers.

Brockton, Oct. 21.—It could be truly said that the city was filled to overflowing with Endeavorers yesterday in attendance on the state convention for the register showed 1,950 out of town members present, and of this number 1,115 were delegates. The accommodations at hotels gave out early, and the delegates were well distributed among private houses.

Last night the secretary, Aphia G. Tillson of Attleboro, spoke on "Christian Endeavor Labyrinths." She stated among other things that there are 600 societies in good standing, besides 73 doubtful ones. The Juniors report 562 live societies. There are 23,392 active members and 5,894 associate members, making a total of 30,286, and the 18,543 Juniors added make a grand total of 48,839 members.

The treasurer, Charles H. Wells of Fall River, reported receipts of $1,317.93 and expenditures of $877.

The committee on the '99 convention reported in favor of Springfield. After delegates from the Springfield branch had extended the invitation formally it was voted to hold the convention next year in that city.

The following officers were elected: President, Rev. Frank S. Hatch, Monson; vice-presidents, Rev. Franklin E. Hamilton, Newton; Rev. Edwin L. House, Attleboro; Rev. James E. Black, East Boston; secretary, H. M. Lathrop, Boston; treasurer, Charles H. Wells, Fall River; auditor, J. Howard Field, Brockton.

Stabbed With a Knife.

Naugatuck, Conn., Oct. 21.—Shortly before 10 o'clock Thursday morning Mary Pompance called on Angelina Rose, a neighbor. It is not known exactly what passed between the two women, but they were heard to have words, as the result of which Mrs. Pompance took a table knife and stabbed Mrs. Rose in the left side, just over the groin. The wounded woman fell to the floor and expired in a few minutes. The knife was about six inches in length and had been sharpened on the end. It made a deep wound.

After the stabbing Mrs. Pompance left the house and went to her own home, hiding the knife under a pile of stones in the back yard, where it was found later by the police. She then went to the police station and announced that she had murdered Mrs. Rose, asking to be placed under arrest.

Mrs. Pompance told the surprised official that Mrs. Rose had insulted her and that she had therefore taken her life. When pressed for a more detailed explanation Mrs. Pompance said Mrs. Rose had charged her with unfaithfulness to her husband.

Church Robber Caught.

Hudson, Mass., Oct. 21.—C. P. Elrick is spending two months in the house of correction for stealing two purses in the Catholic church here while the owners were engaged in their devotions, unconscious that in the seat behind them sat a man who is believed to be a professional operator.

After his arrest Elwick told the officers where he had left some baggage under another name, and on securing it the police found a directory of the Catholic churches of the country, many of the churches being checked off, these latter covering cities and towns in the western, middle and eastern states. A clipping from a St. Louis paper described a church thief which answered Elwick's appearance. The police say that Elwick visited Fall River and Providence churches, but had spent six weeks in Boston before coming here. He says his home is in Pittsburg.

Salvationists In Boston.

Boston, Oct. 21.—Several hundred soldiers of the Salvation army, including a large delegation from Portland, were addressed by Consul Emma Tucker, wife of the American commander, and second daughter of General Booth, last evening. Two silk flags were presented as prizes, one to the Portland corps and the other to the New England chief division.

In the Sixth Suffolk senatorial district John E. Baldwin was placed in nomination by the Democrats on the 151st ballot.

William J. Donovan and Daniel D. Rourke were nominated by rival factions in the Third Suffolk senatorial convention yesterday afternoon. The convention was marked by scenes of great disorder, and at one time it looked as though personal violence would result. Donovan's followers left the hall, while the other faction nominated Rourke.

Gave Damaging Testimony.

Augusta, Oct. 21.—John J. Reagan, an ex-inmate of the soldiers' home, testified at the trial of Rose White Thursday that the accused and her husband had quarrelled on the day before the alleged murder, when she had returned from jail, where she had served a term. While Mrs. Carson was getting supper, the prisoner tried to get her husband, who was drunk, to go to bed. The two were in the bedroom. The witness and Samuel White were in the sittingroom and Mrs. Carson in the kitchen. He heard White say "Pull, d—— you, pull," after they had been quarrelling, and then followed the shot. When he entered the room White lay upon his back, partly upon the floor and partly upon the bed, with a wound in his left temple. Rose was over him, kissing him and saying he had shot himself. A doctor was summoned after about an hour. Rose arranged a story to tell, saying that only Reagan, herself and mother were present, leaving White out.

Check For Ball Players.

Boston, Oct. 21.—The manager and members of the pennant winning team were given an enthusiastic reception and benefit in Music hall last night, in which over 1300 people participated. During an interval between numbers John F. Dever clerk of committees of the city government, presented to the audience the members of the team, who were ranged in a semicircle upon the stage, and then introduced Mayor Quincy, who expressed in flattering words the interest that Boston feels in her representative ball players.

Manager Seely made a neat response, and at the conclusion of his remarks read a letter which he had received from the club management, inclosing a check for $2500 to be divided between the manager and players.

Elect on of Officers,

Lynn, Oct. 21.—The report of the nominating committee of the state committee was as follows at the Y. M. C. A. convention: President, Henry T. Emerson, Lynn; vice presidents, Professor H. M. Tyler of Northampton, J. F. Almy of Salem, C. S. Borden of Fall River, M. L. Hamblett of Lowell and John A. Hall of Southbridge; secretary, Kitt F. Parker of Newton; assistant, Harland Vaughn of Springfield. Following the election of officers a reception and banquet were held.

Slashed In the Cheek.

Providence, Oct. 21.—Antone Delseste was stabbed by his father-in-law Michael Tella, in a dry goods store yesterday. Trouble arose over the care of Delsesto's children, and the quarrel between the men caused a panic in the store. Delsesto was slashed in the cheek with a table knife, but the wound is not serious.

Croker Issues a Challenge.

New York, Oct. 21.—An address was delivered by Richard Croker at a meeting of the executive committee of Tammany hall yesterday, in which he said in part: "I now challenge any judge ever elected through the efforts of this organization to furnish a single instance where he had been interfered with in the impartial discharge of his duties by even a single suggestion from me. You are urged to present this matter in just this way to the people of your several districts; and then let the bar association hold all the Republican meetings which it may please the management to call, and we need not fear the result. This is a Democratic year, and a victory is already assured to our candidates."

Retrogression In Some Respects.

Washington, Oct. 21.—The report to the Episcopalian house of deputies of the committee on the state of the church presented a comprehensive survey of the work of the last three years. While showing progress and healthy activity in the main, the report frankly pointed out retrogression in some respects and a falling off in the percentage of contributions for certain objects. The total contributions of the last three years for all purposes reached $31,541,178. There has been an increase of bishops from 76 to 83; of clergymen from 4022 to 4330. The number of baptisms has been 192,725; confirmations, 134,741; communicants, 681,645. The present church sittings are 1,588,901.

Seven of the Crew Died.

Astoria, Oct. 21.—The torpedo boat Davis, which started on a trial trip yesterday, was disabled by the bursting of a number of boiler tubes. Eight of the crew were badly scalded and seven of them died soon after reaching here.

Last night four of the injured died making the total dead seven.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

A majority of the Fall River cotton manufacturers met yesterday afternoon and ratified the pooling and curtailing movement.

The large barn of W. E. Briggs of Tewksbury, Mass., was destroyed by fire at midnight. Loss, $4,000. The cause is unknown, but thought to have been incendiary.

Andrew Carnegie, who has arrived from Europe, expressed himself as opposed to territorial expansion on the ground that it would result in unrestful conditions which would be injurious to trade.

Walker, the pugilist, who was knocked out Monday night, died in South Omaha after having been unconscious for 58 hours. The charge against Dupont will be changed from prize fighting to murder.

Governor Wolcott and council of Massachusetts made an official visit to the American school for the deaf in Hartford yesterday. They were entertained with dinner at the Colonial club and afterwards inspected the school.

The official batting averages for the past season of players who took part in 15 or more games show that Keller of the Baltimores leads with 381. He is closely followed by Freeman of the Washingtons, Hamilton of the Bostons, and Burkett of the Clevelands.

Superintendent Lukins of the Chicago-Virden Coal company filed a bond yesterday and was released from arrest. Warrants for the arrest of T. G. Loucks, president, and W. S. York, secretary, of the company have been issued. The charges relate to the recent trouble at the company's mines in which 15 lives were lost.

HILL IN BROOKLYN.

Assailed Those Who Covet the Glories of the War.

Brooklyn, Oct. 21.—Ex-Senator Hill was reminded of the days when he was the Democratic idol by the warmth of the greeting he received at a rally in this city last night. It was several minutes before the applause subsided sufficiently before the applause subsided sufficiently for the leader to be heard after he had been introduced by General Wingate. He said:

"It is said that the president must be sustained. This is a silly idea at this stage of events. The conflict has ceased; no armed forces confront us anywhere, and we are virtually dictating our own terms of peace. No dangers confront the country except those which may be occasioned by our own selfishness or incapacity, and under such circumstances appeals to our patriotism to sustain an adverse administration with which we do not agree must be regarded as unwarrantable and childish. During the continuance of the struggle the appeal was pertinent and was most patriotically answered. Never in the history of the nation was a president more loyally supported by an opposition party and by the people generally than during the recent conflict. Democrats vied with Republicans in the endeavor to give the administration everything it desired. There was but a common purpose manifested, which was to assist the president in every legitimate way in a vigorous prosecution of the war. That duty having been abundantly discharged, there is now no obligation resting upon anybody to sustain the national administration unles we really approve its policy. While a blind approval of an administration may be exacted in times of war, no such rule prevails in time of peace. It is no impeachment of the loyalty or patriotism of the people that they decline to condone the incompetency, the negligence, the favoritism and the corruption which characterized the conduct of some of the departments of the government, especially since the close of the war, resulting in much privation, suffering and death, saddening the glorious memories of the conflict, and demanding an official investigation. They naturally distrust an administration which desires to investigate itself, and they insist that the people's representatives in congress constitute the proper tribunal for the conduct of such an investigation.

"A wise statesmanship will satisfactorily solve the new and interesting problems arising out of the terms of settlement with Spain. These questions cannot be said to be political issues in the ordinary sense of the term, because they have not become a certainty; parties have not yet divided on them; they have not been appropriately or legitimately presented, and their discussion seems premature. Neither do the proposed increase of our army, the further strengthening of our navy, the duty which we owe to our volunteers, the greatness of our common country or the necessity for the preservation of its honor, furnish tangible isues of any importance, because they are subjects on which the people are substantially united. Busy and thoughtful men, intent on practical results, prefer the consideration of contested questions and actual issues."

A Cardinal's Views on America.

Paris, Oct. 21.—Ferdinand W. Peck, United States commissioner general to the Paris exposition of 1900, yesterday visited Rheims, where he viewed the cathedral and was introduced to Cardinal Langenieux, archbishop of Rheims, who gave him a cordial welcome. The archbishop said: "I am happy to meet a party representing the industry and energy of that brother republic which can be held up as an example of what a law-abiding nation is capable of attaining, and which, through enterprise and intelligence, has assumed a leading position among the nations and supplies the world with the products of its industry." The archbishop referred in terms of the heartiest good will to Archbishop Ireland, "whose persuasive and erudite eloquence has deeply impressed France and taught her much."

FERDINAND W. PECK.

Back to Washington.

Chicago, Oct. 21.—President McKinley and the members of his party left for Washington last night over the Pennsylvania railroad. It required the efforts of 150 policemen to restrain the throng, which packed the depot to suffocation. Just as the train pulled out the president appeared on the rear platform of the last car and bowed repeatedly as the crowd cheered him.

Thursday afternoon President McKinley proceeded to the First regiment armory, where he addressed a railroad employes' meeting. From the armory he went to the Auditorium to meet a number of friends, and while there was presented with a memorial in favor of international arbitration by the Chicago committee.

Tomorrow's Almanac and Forecast.

Cloudy weather and rain, with brisk to high easterly winds on the coast were among the probabilities this afternoon for Saturday. Clearing weather is likely during the day, and it may be fair and colder in the late afternoon and night, with westerly winds. Sunday now promises to be fair, with seasonable temperatures.

NO FAITH CURE.

ABOUT STUART'S DYSPEPSIA TABLETS.

They Cure Stomach Trouble and Indigestion Anyway, Whether you Have Faith in Them or Not.

Mere faith will not digest your food for you, will not give an appetite, will not increase your flesh and strengthen your nerves and heart, but Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will do these things, because they are composed of the elements of digestion, they contain the juices, acids and peptones necessary to the digestion and assimilation of all wholesome food.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest food if placed in a jar or bottle in water heated to 98 degrees, and they will do it much more effectively when taken into the stomach after meals, whether you have faith that they will or not.

They invigorate the stomach, make pure blood and strong nerves, in the only way that nature can do it, and that is, plenty of wholesome food well digested. It is not what we eat, but what we digest that does us good.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold by nearly all druggists at 50 cents for full sized package, or by mail from the Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

3t.-17-19-21

☞ Furniture reupholstered, mattresses made over, carpets cleaned. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

This is Lehigh Coal,

And We Have it for Sale.

C. PATCH & SON.

CANCER CURED

BY ABSORPTION

NO KNIFE.

The result of years of scientific research by America's greatest blood specialist. A pleasant treatment that relieves immediately, cures permanently all forms of CANCERS, TUMORS and CHRONIC DISEASES. Hundreds of wonderful cures effected in and around Boston. Read the following:

BLOOD EVIDENCE

Then come to our offices and investigate the hundreds of other marvellous cures produced by ABSORPTION when all other treatment failed. Consult this living patient. "Dr. James M. Solomon: Dear Sir: The following is my testimonial, which I hope will help others. That after suffering several years with something that was never reached, getting only temporary help from different doctors, and each attack being more severe, I was advised by a friend, who had been cured of a tumor, to see her doctor. I was then unable for any work, and feeling worse from day to day; realizing that something was preying upon me of a serious nature, I was discouraged about my condition, and sought Dr. Solomon with little faith—it was more of an experiment. He got my confidence on the first interview, when, without a word of description of my feelings from me, he at once located my trouble, and I could not help believing that he knew from what I was suffering, although was greatly surprised and somewhat terrified when he told me it was cancer of the stomach. I began treatment at once, Nov. 3, 1892, and was faithful to his directions, with just the results promised I would get, till the following June (1893) I felt like a new being, and the doctor pronounced me recovered. I am sure that I have, and I can never repay the gratitude I owe to Dr. J. M. Solomon. Sincerely, EBEN FISH, 232 Harvard St., Dorchester, Mass." Today he is one of the many living witnesses of the only painless method that positively CURES when all others fail.

We want you to call and examine references of people you know—people we all know, who would not vouch for ABSORPTION had they not been cured. Ask for references marked H.

James M. Solomon, M.D.

SPECIALIST IN CANCERS, TUMORS AND CHRONIC DISEASES.

2 A Beacon Street BOSTON.

Oct. 13. 1y lo

Coal!

Just Received by Barge Blackbird, a Fresh Cargo of

Pea Coal

(Small Nut.)

J. F. SHEPPARD & SONS

Quincy Sept. 7.

☞ Full sized, well made comfort bringing comforters, $1.00. Others 75 cents to $3.50. Blankets from 45 cents per pair up. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

DR. RALPH M. FOGG,

DENTIST.

Teeth extracted absolutely without pain by the use of the

"BOSTON VEGETABLE VAPOR."

It is claimed that, while it has the required properties of ether, chloroform, nitrous oxide gas, it lacks the disagreeable and dangerous qualities of these drugs. It is certainly a boon to suffering humanity to be relieved of the nausea too often following the administering of sedatives of the old school.—Boston Transcript.

Teeth made and repaired on Gold or Rubber base. Teeth Filling a specialty.

Office in French's Building, five doors south of Post Office, Quincy, Wednesdays. Hours, 9 A. M. to 2 P. M. July18-1y Nov8-1yo

E. LANDIS SNYDER,

Organist and Choirmaster of Christ Church,

TEACHER OF

VOICE CULTURE, PIANO AND ORGAN.

Studio: Room 10 Durgin & Merrill's Block, QUINCY, MASS.

Sept. 10. tf

Quincy and Boston Electric Street Railway.

[Subject to change without notice.]

On and after October 10, cars will be run on the different routes as follows:

Quincy and Neponset.

Leave CITY SQUARE for Neponset at 5.55, 6.10, 6.25, 6.40 A. M. and every 15 minutes until 11.10 P. M.

Leave NEPONSET for Quincy at 6.15 A. M. and every 15 minutes until 11.30 P. M.

Cars leaving Quincy at 20 minutes of the hour and Neponset on the hour, go via. Hancock street direct.

Cars leaving Quincy at 25 and 55 minutes past the hour go via Newport avenue, Wollaston.

Cars leaving Quincy at 10 minutes past the hour go via Norfolk Downs, and those leaving Neponset at 30 minutes past go via Downs.

Cars leaving Neponset 15 minutes of and 15 minutes past the hour go via Wollaston and continue through Braintree and Holbrook to Brockton, connecting with cars for Bridgewater, Taunton, New Bedford, Fall River, Newport and Providence.

Quincy and East Weymouth.

Leave CITY SQUARE (10 minutes later from Quincy Point and 22 minutes later from North Weymouth)—5.45, 6.20, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20, 9.50, 10.20, 10.50, 11.20, 11.50 A. M.; 12.20, 12.50, 1.20, 1.50, 2.20, 2.50, 3.20, 3.50, 4.20, 4.50, 5.20, (5.30 to East Weymouth car house), 5.50, 6.20, 6.30, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20, 9.50, 10.50 P. M., (11.50 Wednesday and Saturday to Thomas' Corner only.)

Leave EAST WEYMOUTH (20 minutes later from North Weymouth and 30 minutes later from Quincy Point)—6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8, 8.30, 9, 9.30 10, 10.30, 11, 11.30 A. M.; 12, 12.30, 1, 1.30, 2, 2.30, 3, 3.30, 4, 4.30, 5, 5.30, 6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8 8.30, 9, 9.30, 10, 10.30, 11.30 P. M.

Quincy and Weymouth Landing.

Leave QUINCY at 5.30 A. M., 6.20, 7.20 and every hour until 12.20, then 1.50 and every hour until 10.50 P. M.

Leave WEYMOUTH LANDING at 5.50 A. M. and every hour until 12.50, then 2.20 and every hour until 11.20 P. M., connect with trains to Boston at Quincy.

Quincy and East Milton.

Leave CITY SQUARE, 5.55, 6.25, then every 5 minutes of and 25 minutes past the hour until 9.25 P. M., then at 10.50 P. M.

Leave EAST MILTON 6.25, 6.55 A. M., then every 5 minutes of and 25 minutes past the hour until 9.50 P. M., then 10.20 and 11.20 P. M.

Quincy and Brockton.

Leave QUINCY for Brockton at 6.10 and 6.40 A. M., and every half hour until 9.10 P. M. except on Wednesday and Saturday, when car at 9.40 runs through to Brockton. Cars at 9.40 and 10.10 to South Braintree every night.

Quincy and Hingham.

Leave QUINCY at 7.20 A. M. and every hour until 11.20 A. M., then 1.50 and every hour until 5.50 P. M.

Leave HINGHAM at 8 A. M. and every hour until 12 M., then 2.30 and every hour until 6.30 P. M.

Neponset, Atlantic and Squantum.

Leave NEPONSET at 6.30 A. M. and every hour until 8.30 P. M., connecting at Atlantic with outward express trains.

Leave SQUANTUM at 7 A. M. and every hour until 9 P. M., connecting at Atlantic with express trains.

Quincy and Houghs Neck.

Leave QUINCY CENTRE at 6.20 A. M., and and every hour until 1.20, and then 1.50 and every hour until 9.50.

Returning, leave HOUGHS NECK at 5.45 A. M., and every hour until 12.45, and then 1.20 and every hour until 9.20.

SUNDAYS.

Cars leave City Square, Quincy, for E. Weymouth and Weymouth Landing at 7.30 A. M. and West Quincy at 7 A. M. and on the hour and half hour throughout the day.

Sunday time same as week days on other lines, except that the first two trips are omitted.

BENJ. J. WEEKS, Superintendent.

New York, New Haven and Hartford R. R.

Eastern District.

On and after Oct. 16, 1898, trains will run as follows: (See note of explanation at bottom.

TO BOSTON. Leave Quincy.	Stops at	Arrive Boston.	FROM BOSTON. Leave Boston.	Stops at	Arrive Quincy
r 6 12	abc	* 6 30	5 55	ihgfedcba	*6 22 r
r 6 42	abc	7 00	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	7 30	cba	7 49 r
r 7 26	ad	7 43	8 30	cba	8 49 r
r 7 42	abc	8 00	9 30	cba	9 49
r 8 12	abc	8 30	10 30	cba	10 49 r
r 8 26	ad	8 43	11 30	cba	11 49 r
r 8 42	abc	9 00	12 30	cba	12 49 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	1 30	cba	1 49 r
r 10 12	abc	10 30	2 30	cba	2 49 r
r 11 12	abc	11 30	3 30	cba	3 49 r
r 12 12	abc	12 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
r 1 12	abc	1 30	5 00	cba	5 19 r
r 2 12	abc	2 30	5 17	da	5 36 r
r 3 12	abc	3 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
r 4 12	abc	4 30	6 00	cba	6 19 r
r 5 12	abc	5 30	6 17	da	6 36 r
r 6 12	abc	6 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	7 00	cba	7 19 r
r 7 39	abcdefghi	8 05	7 30	cba	7 49 r
r 8 08	abcdef	8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	9 30	cba	9 49 r
r 10 08	abcdef	10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r
r 11 12	abc	11 30	11 30	cba	11 49 r

SUNDAYS.

r 7 12	abc	7 30	6 30	cba	6 1
r 8 12	abc	8 30	8 30	cba	8 49 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	12 30	cba	12 49 r
r 1 12	abc	1 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
r 5 12	abc	5 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 8 08	abcdef	8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
r 10 08	abcdef	10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r

*The letters in the same line as the figures stand for different stations and indicate that trains stop, as follows:

a, Wollaston, b, Norfolk Downs. c, Atlantic. d, Neponset. e, Pope's Hill, f, Harrison Square. g, Savin Hill. h, Crescent Avenue. i, South Boston. r, Quincy Adams. (xx), Express.

C PETER CLARK, Gen'l Supt. A. C. KENDALL G. P. A

LPH M. FOGG,
NTIST.
bsolutely without pain by the use of the EGETABLE VAPOR,"
t, while it has the required er, chloroform, nitrous oxide disagreeable and dangerous drugs. It is certainly a boon anity to be relieved of the following the administering of old school.—Boston Trand repaired on Gold or Rubber g a specialty.
's Building, five doors south uincy, Wednesdays. Hours, July18-1y Nov8-1yo

DIS SNYDER,
rmaster of Christ Church,
ACHER OF RE, PIANO AND ORGAN.
0 Durgin & Merrill's Block,
UINCY, MASS.
tf

and Boston
Street Railway.
change without notice.]
October 10, cars will be t routes as follows:
y and Neponset.
QUARE for Neponset at 5.55, M. and every 15 minutes until SET for Quincy at 6.15 A. M. tes until 11.30 P. M. incy at 20 minutes of the hour the hour, go via. Hancock incy at 25 and 55 minutes past ewport avenue, Wollaston.
uincy at 10 minutes past the k Downs, and those leaving nutes past go via Downs.
eponset 15 minutes of and 15 hour go via Wollaston and Braintree and Holbrook to ting with cars for Bridge- New Bedford, Fall River, vidence.
nd East Weymouth.
QUARE (10 minutes later from 22 minutes later from North 5, 6.20, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 0.20, 10.50, 11.20, 11.50 A. M.; 1.50, 2.20, 2.50, 3.20, 3.50, 4.20, East Weymouth car house), 50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20 11.50 Wednesday and Saturday r only.) VEYMOUTH (20 minutes later outh and 30 minutes later from , 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8, 8.30, 9, 9.30 0 A. M.; 12, 12.30, 1, 1.30, 2, 30, 5, 5.30, 6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8 0.30, 11.30 P. M. l Weymouth Landing.
Y at 5.30 A. M., 6.20, 7.20 and 2.20, then 1.50 and every hour OUTH LANDING at 5.50 our until 12.50, then 2.20 and il 11.20 P. M., connect with t Quincy.
and East Milton.
QUARE, 5.55, 6.25, then every 25 minutes past the hour until t 10.50 P. M.
MILTON 6.25, 6.55 A. M., then f and 25 minutes past the hour hen 10.20 and 11.20 P. M.
cy and Brockton.
CY for Brockton at 6.10 and very half hour until 9.10 P. M. esday and Saturday, when car gh to Brockton. Cars at 9.40 h Braintree every night.
y and Hingham.
Y at 7.20 A. M. and every hour then 1.50 and every hour until AM at 8 A. M. and every hour n 2.30 and every hour until tlantic and Squantum.
SET at 6.30 A. M. and every P. M., connecting at Atlantic ress trains.
NTUM at 7 A. M. and every , connecting at Atlantic with and Houghs Neck.
Y CENTRE at 6.20 A. M., and until 1.20, and then 1.50 and 0.50.
ve HOUGHS NECK at 5.45 hour until 12.45, and then 1.20 until 9.20.
SUNDAYS.
y Square, Quincy, for E. Wey- mouth Landing at 7.30 A. M. y at 7 A. M. and on the hour oughout the day.
me as week days on other lines, st two trips are omitted.
. WEEKS, Superintendent.

rk, New Haven
artford R. R.
rn District.
Oct. 16, 1898, trains will run note of explanation at bottom.

N.	FROM BOSTON.
rrive oston.	Leave Boston.	Stops at	Arrive Quincy
6 30	5 55	ihgfedcba*	6 22 r
7 00	6 30	cba	6 49 r
7 30	7 30	cba	7 49 r
7 43	8 30	cba	8 49 r
8 00	9 30	cba	9 49
8 30	10 30	cba	10 49 r
8 43	11 30	cba	11 49 r
9 00	12 30	cba	12 49 r
9 30	1 30	cba	1 49 r
10 30	2 30	cba	2 49 r
11 30	3 30	cba	3 49 r
12 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
1 30	5 00	cba	5 19 r
2 30	5 17	da	5 36 r
3 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
4 30	6 00	cba	6 19 r
5 30	6 17	da	6 36 r
6 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
7 30	7 00	eba	7 19 r
8 05	7 30	cba	7 49 r
8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
9 30	9 30	cba	9 49 r
10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r
11 30	11 30	cba	11 49 r

UNDAYS.

7 30	6 30	cba	6 r
8 30	8 30	cba	8 49 r
9 30	12 30	cba	12 49 r
1 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
5 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
7 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r

the same line as the figures ut stations and indicate that lows:
g, Savin Hill.
h, Crescent Avenue.
i, South Boston.
r, Quincy Adams.
e. (xx), Express.
RK, A. C. KENDALL G. P. A

QUINCY DAILY LEDGER.

VOL. 10. No. 27. QUINCY, MASS., SATURDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1898. PRICE 2 CENTS.

STENOGRAPHY AND TYPEWRITING,
BOOKKEEPING,
And All Clerical Work.
MISSES A. B. and E. M. COTE,
Room 12 Durgin & Merrill Block, - Quincy.
Oct. 10. tf

SELECT SOCIALS!
EVERY FRIDAY EVENING,
Beginning Oct. 21, 8.30 to 11,
COLONIAL HALL, Bank Bldg., Quincy
Given in connection with
Prof. Gardner's Dancing School.
Tickets: Gent or Couple, 50c. Extra Lady, 25c. LAST HALF TERM. Those who desire to learn the latest Fancy Dances can join the class at 7.30. Terms: 8 lessons from 7.30 to 8.30, Gents $4, Ladies $3. oct18—6t

MABEL F. FAIRBANKS
TEACHER OF
CHINA PAINTING and WATERCOLOR.
China Decorated to Order.
34 Grand View Avenue, Wollaston.
Sept. 29. 3m

E. LANDIS SNYDER,
Organist and Choirmaster of Christ Church,
TEACHER OF
VOICE CULTURE, PIANO AND ORGAN.
Studio: Room 10 Durgin & Merrill's Block,
QUINCY, MASS.
Sept. 10. tf

MISS C. L. BLISS
186 HANCOCK STREET,
Trimmed and Untrimmed
Hats and Novelties.
Order Work a Specialty.
STAMPING, PINKING, HAIR DRESSING,
Manicuring and Glove Cleaning.
Quincy, Oct. 22. tf plo

TELL US . .
What you are looking for.
We can show you a fine line of
FALL AND WINTER
UNDERWEAR,
HOSIERY,
Outing Flannels, Flannelettes,
Plaid Dress Goods,
WRAPPERS, BLANKETS,
Comforters,
Dress Linings and other Dry Goods.
OUR STOCK IS FRESH.
OUR PRICES THE LOWEST.
MISS C. S. HUBBARD,
158 Hancock Street.

Hazelton Lehigh
Costs a Trifle More.
You Know Why.
C. PATCH & SON

GO TO....
Miss B. J. PATTERSON'S
Millinery Parlors
AT THE
Boston Bargain Store,
FOR YOUR
FALL MILLINERY.
A fine assortment of Trimmed Goods. Also, all the latest and best shapes in untrimmed hats, walking hats and sailors.
New Velvets, Ribbons, Fancy Feathers and Ostrich goods.
Lowest possible prices for first-class goods.
Music Hall Building, Quincy.
Oct. 1. tfpl

DR. HERBERT S. HAYFORD
195 Hancock Street.
OFFICE HOURS—11 to 12 A. M., 2 to 4 and 7 to 8 P. M.
Telephone, 4-3.
Quincy, July 5. tf

SWEATERS.
We think we can show you the best assortment of Sweaters to be found in the city.

BOYS' SAILOR COLLAR, GARNET OR NAVY BLUE,	$ .50
" " " " " " "	.75
" " " " " " "	1.00
" ROLL " " " " "	1.00
MEN'S SAILOR " " " " "	2.00
" " " " " " "	2.50

Look at Our Window Display.
GEO. W. JONES,
Adams Building, Quincy.

WATCHES.
GENT'S WATCHES, $1.50 and Up.
LADIES' WATCHES, $2.50 and Up.
EVERY WATCH WARRANTED.
$2.00 Belts, $1.00 Each.
75c. Brooch Pins, 25c. Each.
25 and 35c. Stick Pins, 5 and 10c. Ea.
Quincy SOUVENIR TILES Half Price,
And Other Bargains.
A. A. LINSCOTT, Jeweler,
154 Hancock St., opp. Post Office, Quincy.
Agent for Graphophones.
aug 6. tf

New Pianos,
$185.00.
Just why people pay fancy profits and fancy prices for pianos, when they can't afford to, is hard to tell. Truth is, they don't know themselves.
Everyone can and should own a piano, a piano to be proud of, a piano with perfect touch and delightful tone, a piano you'll never have to apologize for, a piano that's sold at an honest price within the reach of everyone. A piano honestly built, with a rich, beautifully carved case; a piano that's fully guaranteed. A piano just the same kind exactly that sells for $450.00 with a different name stenciled on the case, but our price to everyone is $185.00.
It's worth considering, and the time to buy is now. Do not delay but have a piano in your home at once. These pianos are not merely a bargain, they are almost a gift. Time payments for those who wish.
HENRY L. KINCAIDE & CO.,
The People's Cut Price House Furnishers,
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

EMBROIDERY LESSONS.
We have engaged the same teacher for our Embroidery Classes this season that was so successful last year. Classes start TUESDAY MORNING.
Also the Finest Line of LINENS of All Designs to be gotten in the Market.
Our Line of Embroidery Silks is Complete in Every Detail.
WE CARRY IN STOCK A NEW LINE OF
OPULESCENT AND RAINBOW EDGE SILKS.
Sofa Cushions in a Large Variety.
D. E. WADSWORTH & CO.,
Hancock Street, Quincy.

THE TRUE TONIC TRUE'S ELIXIR
is not a stimulant but a blood purifying, cleansing and harmless mixture of vegetable ingredients which cures disorders of the digestive tract and expels worms. It does not whip the tired organs into temporary activity as most remedies do, followed by an equal reaction, but True's Elixir removes the cause of the trouble and its tonic effects are due to good, sound digestion and pure blood, which follow its use. A favorite family medicine for 47 years. Its popularity is due entirely to its cures. Ask your druggist for it. 35 cents a bottle. DR. J. F. TRUE & CO., AUBURN, ME.

The Social Realm.

Let all the good thou dost to man
A gift be, not a debt;
And he will more remember thee
The more thou dost forget.
—Richard H. Stoddard.

* * *

Dr. Anderson and his daughter, Mrs. Dexter E. Wadsworth, are a great acquisition to Quincy. Dr. Anderson has had a large experience in pulpit and camp besides traveling extensively in Europe Mrs. Wadsworth until her marriage was a leading instructor in the Chicago university and active in the social and literary circles of the college. Mr. and Mrs. Wadsworth have nearly decided upon a building site on Presidents hill.

* * *

Mrs. and Mrs. Will T. Seabury of Weyomuth have been visiting friends in Lynn the past week.

* * *

There is to be an organ recital at Christ church next Thursday evening, by Mr. S. B. Whitney, organist of the church of the Advent, Boston, assisted by Mrs. J. E. Tiffett, soprano of the Old South church, Boston. It promises to be one of the finest musical evenings ever given in Quincy.

* * *

Mrs. Lizzie Graves, the popular assistant at the East Weymouth post office, is spending her vacation with her son in New York.

* * *

Mrs. Margaret Alice Friend of Boston, announces the marriage of her daughter, Alice McKenna Friend, to Mr. I. Howland Jones, formerly of Wollaston, at the Church of the Advent, on Thursday, Oct. 20. Mr. and Mrs. Jones will be at home on Wednesdays after November 20, at their apartments at Trinity court, Boston.

* * *

Mr. Edwin B. Pratt is to pass the winter at Wellesley Hills, the guest of his sister, Mrs. Robert M. Baker.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. James T. Weeks of Braintree have been spending a few days on the Cape.

* * *

Mr. Elisha Bird of Dorchester is building a beautiful house at Wollaston and expects that it will be completed in December. The Birds are very popular at Upham's Corner where they have lived for a great many years but Dorchester's loss is Wollaston's gain and they will be a great acqusition to Wollaston society.

* * *

The engagement is announced of Miss Mary A. Sears of Hingham and Mr. Ellis G. Cornish of Carver.

* * *

Mr. Charles H. Hemmer of Boston and Miss Annie Wall of Hobart street, Hingham were united in marriage on Wednesday evening. A large reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Hemmer are at Washington, D. C., and on their return are to reside at Watertown.

* * *

Rev. W. R. Breed of Christ church has been attending the Episcopal convention at Washington, D. C., this week.

* * *

Coats and skirts of different materials are smart and new. The coats are cut long and swallow-tail fashion.

* * *

Quite a number of our people attended the meeting yesterday afternoon at the Old South Meeting house, Boston, in honor of our army and navy. It was given by the Massachusetts State Society, United States Daughters of 1812, of which Mrs. Nelson V. Titus is president.

* * *

Miss Zayma King entertained friends on Saturday evening in honor of Mr. Edwin B. Pratt, who has recently returned from Europe.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Chubbuck of Weymouth are entertaining as their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Peter W. Newcomb of Roxbury.

* * *

Miss Mabel Kingsbury of Braintree has returned from Derry, N. H.

* * *

Several young ladies connected with the guilds of Christ church are to give a dance at Faxon hall next Friday evening. Mrs. Walter Russell Breed, Mrs. Theodore Hardwick and Mrs. John Downs will matronize the affair and the ushers are: Mr. Walter Burke, Mr. Raymond Burke, Mr. Elmer Ricker and Mr. William Thomas. The music will be by Peters.

* * *

Mr. Charles H. Alden and family of Adams street returned home on Wednesday after spending the summer at Rose Cliff, Weymouth.

Mrs. Walter Russell Breed and baby returned fom Pennsylvania today with Mr. Breed.

* * *

Nearly every one went to a wedding Wednesday evening there being three church weddings and four or five home weddings on that evenng.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. David Benson of Weymouth are in New York for a few days.

* * *

Governor Wolcott is to be in town on Friday evening speaking at the Republican rally.

* * *

Miss Nellie Lowey who has been visiting friends in Weymouth, several months, returned to her home in St. Louis, Thursday, accompanied by Miss Clara Beals who will spend the winter in the West.

* * *

The Fin-de-Siecle whist club of Weymouth meet Monday evening next, with Miss Maud Townsend.

* * *

Mr. Carl Noyes, of Harvard '95 has returned to Paris to resume his studies, having decided to make literature his profession. Last winter Mr. Noyes was in Germany, studying the various German authors. Mr. Noyes spread with Mr. Delcevare King on Class day at Harvard in '95.

* * *

Mr. Frederick H. Smith has gone to Omaha and Lincoln Nebraska on a brief visit to his mother and brothers.

* * *

There was a very enjoyable gathering last week on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. K. Q. Baxter. It was also somewhat of a remarkable gathering as the average age of the eleven ladies present was seventy-eight years. The oldest of the party was Mrs. Josiah Babcock who is in her ninetieth year. These ladies are all very active and entered into the pleasures of the afternoon with much life and animation. It was a day long to be remembered by all present.

* * *

The High school suffers a loss in the resignation of Miss Miriam Lane who has accepted a position in the Newton High school at a considerable increase in salary. She will be succeeded by Mr. Charles Slade of this city, a graduate of Adams academy and of Harvard, and a son of James H. Slade, Esq., a former member of the School Committee.

* * *

Mrs. B. T. Dyer of Braintree has returned from New Hampshire.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Mayer of Wollaston Park have returned from a two weeks' visit in Woodstock, N. B., and through the state of Maine Mr. Mayer says while at Chester, Maine, he saw fourteen deer and a large number of various small game. Mrs. Mayer's brother, Mr. Joseph Boliver, of this place, section foreman on the C. P. R. R., being an expert hunter, gave Mr. Mayer some valuable points in the art of hunting. As a result Mr. Mayer brought home a plump year old buck, weighing just over a hundred pounds and a handsome red fox. The venison is sweet and juicy as your correspondent can testify. The fox will be mounted and will add to the many interesting adornments of Mr. Mayer's "den" at home

* * *

The engagement is announced of Miss Ethel G. Means and Mr. C. Arthur Stevens of Milton Lower Mills.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Clapp celebrated the twentieth anniversary of their marriage on Tuesday evening in a very social and pleasing manner, at their residence at Braintree. Music was furnished by Philbrook's orchestra and refreshments were served during the evening. Many beautiful presents and hearty good wishes were bestowed upon the host and hostess.

Royal makes the food pure, wholesome and delicious.
ROYAL
BAKING POWDER
Absolutely Pure
ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

ALL FOR BARROWS

Party Workers Rally to Support of Candidate.

Complimentary Banquet Tendered at American House.

It Was a Henry Faxon Lunch Without Henry.

If the candidacy of the Hon. Samuel J. Barrows, for a re-election to Congress in this district, needed any boom, it received it last evening at a banquet at the American House. It was a reception tendered to the candidate by the Tenth Congressional District Committee at which all members of the ward committees in the Boston South district were invited. The response was almost to a man, Quincy, Milton and the Boston ward all being represented. Many were pleased to meet Mr. Barrows personally and found him "all right."

Mr. Thomas C. Bachelder, the chairman of the committee, presided, and at the head table were his most active supporters in the recent contest and also some who had been for "the other fellow." Quincy was represented at this table by Hon. John Shaw and Thomas F. Burke, Esq.

The chairman said the gathering was for sociability and work. He felt that the election of a Silver Democrat would be a disgrace to the district, but he felt confident that the Republican nominee would be elected.

Senator Towle, who received some votes at the convention, spoke enthusiastically for Congressman Barrows. He would keep the Democrats to the issue, which was the financial question.

Mr. Shaw congratulated all. The district made no mistake two years ago and it was going to endorse its action this year.

John K. Berry, the right hand man of the candidate, was received with cheers. He didn't believe in autopsies, but paid his respects to Peabody, and set those assembled right on Congressman Barrows record on the tariff. He had voted for the measure and will always vote with the party. He is a man of marked ability a notable candidate; one who places party above personality. Would recommend that the committee work in Republican wards for Republican votes, and then they would be dead sure to win.

Benjamin M. Cram, a Paige man in the convention said all were now for Barrows and it was the duty of Republicans to support the nominee.

Congressman Barrows was received with continuous applause and cheers. He modestly acknowleged them for the party. He eulogized President McKinley. Congratulations were acknowledged from many, including his late rivals, Messrs. Paige, Bradley and Towle. The candidate believed in loyalty to the Republican party, and recognized the necessity of organization. He felt that the wave of prosperity was sure coming. Victory in the Tenth district meant an endorsement of President McKinley.

Each chairman of the ward committees was then called upon, and all were with the candidate. Councilman R. R. Freeman spoke for Quincy, and promised faithful work for Mr. Barrows.

Braintree Literary Club.

The club met Monday evening with Miss Sara Lane. Quite a large number were present.

Quotations were from Shakespeare's "Measure for Measure."

Colonization was the general subject of the first hour, and three papers were read as follows:

England's Colonial Empire, Miss Sara Lane.

The Decline of Spanish Power in the Western Hemisphere, Mrs. Keith.

Influence of Colonial Possessions upon the Home Government, Prof. Oakman.

The second hour was devoted to the reading of the first two acts of 'Twelfth Night."

Adjourned a 10 o'clock, to meet with Mrs. O. W. Allen, Monday evening, Oct. 31st.

—The president's Omaha address gave no encouragement to imperialism. "We must," he said, "avoid the temptations of conquest in the spirit of gain, avoid the temptations of undue aggression, and aim to secure only such results as will promote our own and the general good."

☞ Full sized, well made comfort bringing comforters, $1.00. Others 75 cents to $3.50. Blankets from 45 cents per pair up. Henry L Kincaide & Co.

MORTAL IRONIES.

[From the Russian.]

My soul of death's sure coming hath no dread.
Save lest he play some prank upon me dead,
Lest scalding tears be spilled upon my clay
Or blossoms squandered in my narrow bed,
Lest any but the hireling mourner pace
Behind me to the final dwelling place
Or fame, relenting at my hapless lot,
In mocking ma'ble my new merit trace;
Lest the dear dream for which I vainly yearned
Incarnate be when I to air am turned
And, leaning o'er the urn wherein they lie,
Smile at the ashes that such frenzy burned!
—Griswald Dichter in Harper's Magazine.

A SPANISH LEGEND.

In heart of the capital of Mexico lies a short block known as the Calle de Don Juan Manuel. In this street, but a moment's walk from the Plaza Mayor, stands one of the oldest houses built by the Spanish dons.

It is of stone, three stories high, ornamented with balconies along the two upper stories, and with the close set stone pinnacles on the roof that signify the abode of Spanish nobility. At right angles with the row of pinnacles and pointing menacingly toward the street is a battery of sham cannon carved out of stone that in reality are great drain pipes. They project into the air so far that they empty the tropical rains beyond the limits of the sidewalks into the cobble paved street. These are for utility, of course, but they chance to be the most decorative feature of this quaint facade.

Inside this noble structure, the arches of the patio, now, alas, divided by disfiguring walls, span 60 feet of stone paved floor and spring 30 feet upward into the great quadrangular space. Massive stone stairways, with a broad and shallow step, slope gently upward to the magnificent living apartments of Don Juan Manuel. Gayly painted carpets may still be seen on the deep set "rise" of every step, and tracings linger on the edges of the depressions worn by the countless footfalls of Don Juan Manuel, his noble visitors, his vast retinue of servants and his descendants.

Once on the upper landings of the stairway, which was evidently devised as a means to an end, not as a feature of architectural development, one looks back on a region of stony gloom which now, as it has always been, is used for servants' quarters and storerooms. Even on the upper floor the windows are iron barred, but they are numerous and large and the apartments are spacious and well proportioned. The drawing room, 40 feet square, is reached through an antesata, that is a study in itself, for on its high walls is spread in black and white the story of Paul and Virginia.

Rugged rocks and tossing seas, sylvan and umbrageous woods, depict the scenes of this lovers' tragedy, while the hero and heroine wander arm in arm, often pausing for a fond embrace, through devious paths to their sad doom.

In the midst of this splendor and the rich furnishings brought over seas in Spanish galleons, lived the priceless ornament of the house of Don Juan Manuel, his young and beautiful wife. Each day he said to himself, "She is more beautiful, more charming, more true, and I am unspeakably blessed in her love." But one day the thought came to him that he was growing old. For a long time the devotion of his lovely wife had deceived him into the belief that years did not matter. But at last he was forced to realize that the care of his great estates needed a younger head. He would send to Spain for his nephew and thus give himself more time for domestic felicity. Happy thought! The nephew came, met his youthful and beautiful aunt, devoted himself to collecting his uncle's tithes, and staid.

If the world lacks a proverb, it is one applicable to the blindness of the old and doting husband and the adroitness of his young and beautiful wife. But in time even Don Juan Manuel became suspicious, and from suspicion to jealousy the step is but a short one. Spending his evenings by the side of his wife, Don Juan Manuel suddenly began to absent himself night after night. At first the young wife wondered and was alarmed at she knew not what, but soon she begged her husband to remain with her, because it was reported that every night a murder was committed in the Calle de Don Juan Manuel. Every night the watchman would see a tall figure, wrapped in the long, black, Spanish cloak, pacing back and forth the limit of the short street. Whose this black figure was no watchman could tell—or would. When it appeared, the street became suddenly deserted, and slowly and solemnly the tall man, with bent head, marched up and down to the lonesome echo of his tread. Sometimes for hours no other form was visible throughout the length of the calle, but younger and keener eyes might have seen, stealing out on the upper balcony of the house of Don Juan Manuel, the young wife whom he had locked in her chamber. Beneath the shadow of the great stone water pipes she would crouch and wait and watch.

At last, a stranger or an overbold citizen of the street, not believing the stories of nightly murder, would turn his steps into that lone place. Directly he would be met or overtaken by the slow pacing figure in the long black cloak. "Stranger, it would say, "canst thou tell me the hour of the night?

The stranger, unsuspecting danger or timid in the commanding presence, would open his cloak and take out his repeater, when—death! Straight to his heart pierced the double edged dagger carried by the tall, black figure that paced the Calle de Don Juan Manuel. "Fortunate is the man who knows the hour of his death," the figure said, and as quickly as it had gone home to the life fount as quickly was the dagger withdrawn, wiped upon the cloak of the fallen man, sheathed in its morocco case and replaced in the folds of its owner's cloak. Suddenly the pacing figure would disappear, muttering to himself, "He is not the man," or "Another time."

In the morning the dead would be found and identified, but the murderer was never apprehended. The next night the same scene would be re-enacted. The black draped figure would reappear, the watchman would slink away, the street would become deserted by all but the mysterious personage who was questioned by none. Then the unwary victim would march down the street to his doom.

"Stranger, what is the hour of the night? Ho! So? Thrice fortunate is the man who can so accurately tell the hour of his death!"

And the jewel in the hilt of the dagger shone an instant while it was held outstretched that the blood might drip from its point, and so it went on, until at last, one night, when the deadly blow had been struck and the body of the man who had foretold the hour of his own death was about to fall to the ground, there was an unearthly shriek, prolonged into a wail as of a lost soul.

The black cloaked figure paused and let go the dagger, leaving it buried in the heart of the man before him. The awful cry came from above and sounded like the voice of an avenging angel, but in another instant Don Juan Manuel had seen and known his wife as she leaned swooning over the railing of the balcony.

He turned again quickly to the man who now lay at his feet. Hurriedly pushing back the cape that had fallen partly over the face, he exclaimed: "It is he! It is he!" and strode away, leaving the weapon that had stilled so many lives buried in the heart of his nephew.

At last old Don Juan Manuel had found the victim he so long had sought. He had no further use for the jeweled dagger. For a short time he disappeared from the street at night, but one day a funeral cortege took up its march from the door of the house of Don Juan Manuel.

Then the wraith of the black figure began to promenade back and forth on the calle. And to this day, more than two centuries later, on dark and stormy nights, the muffled figure of the jealous don may yet be seen moving with slow and stately tread, wrapped in the long, black cloak, up and down, up and down. And when the moon is hid, and the winds roar, and the rain dashes, and the hour is near midnight, passengers of the Calle de Don Juan Manuel sometimes hear a woman's long moan that dies away into a sigh. The voice always seems to come from above—from one of the balconies of the house of Don Juan Manuel—but when the startled listener looks up there is no one there.—Modern Mexico.

OUR WEEKLY FASHION PLATE.

PARIS COSTUME WITH LOUIS XVI. COAT FROM HARPER'S BAZAR

Black and white combinations, never more fashionable than at the present time, appear in costumes entirely of velvet, or in black cloth tailor-gowns, made with heavily braided white revers and waistcoat.

A velvet coat of the popular Louis shape has broad rolling revers and collar of white satin, covered with black chenille braiding. The coat-tails open to the waist in the back, and show a lining of white satin, and the blouse and cravat are of tulle appliqued with white satin. An Oriental clasp fastens the closely folded girdle. The velvet skirt is made with a tight-fitting circular upper part, lined throughout, to which is added a flounce, whose fulness is formed into narrow box-pleats taken up at intervals and held in place by three jet and gold buttons. The flounce is lined with silk, and no foundation-skirt is necessary. There is no fulness at the belt behind, and tiny buttons with loops fasten the placket. The width of the flounce at the foot is four and a half yards. A new chenille galoon, worked with metal threads—one of the attractive novelties of the season—trim the flounce and coat in bow-not designs. The close sleeves, fitted by gores, have a deep circular cuff at the hand, open on the inside.

The proper cut of this gown can be obtained only from the cut-paper patterns published by Harper's Bazar, where the gown appears.

The French felt hat, in tulip form, has a velvet fan in front from which sweeps a broad, bright-colored breast, while at the right side is a knot of the same velvet.

Quantity of material for costume—17 yards of velvet, 21 inches wide.

Three Droll Bridal Parties on a Tour.

Speaking of his experiences, Mr. Alexander said: "On one trip through eastern Kentucky I saw three of the oddest bridal couples I ever beheld. One pair was from over in the hills, and neither had ever ridden on a train before. The groom was 14 and the bride 11. They had eloped to a Virginia town where they were made one by an obliging squire. But the unusual part of the tour was that the bride had become homesick and cried all the way to her destination, never once speaking to her liege lord, a lad diked out in a suit of blue overalls.

"Another couple was seeing the train at a mountain station, that being a pleasant bit of recreation for them. The groom, so the engineer told me, was 71 and the bride 84. They were bent with age, but seemed to be as happy as any pair of prattling youngsters I ever saw.

"The third curious matrimonial alliance I ran across on that trip was a negress weighing 398 pounds, and but 21 years of age, who had just taken for better or worse a lean, cadaverous looking mulatto youth, who was in his shirt sleeves and had his trousers in his boots, having left the railroad section on which he worked to make the nuptial venture. He didn't have money enough to pay for the license and his railroad fare to Huntingdon, so the fellows on the train chipped in and got the poorly matched blacks over the first rough shoals of the matrimonial stream."—Louisville Post.

A Royal Plateroom.

The plateroom at Marlborough House contains an enormous amount of valuable property. It is absolutely fireproof and always guarded with unceasing vigilance. The floor is tiled, the fittings mahogany. Round the room, reaching from floor to ceiling, are the cases, each about three feet deep. In the center of the room is a special case, matching the others. This was constructed in the silver wedding year to receive the enormous amounts of presents given to the prince and princess.

It is lined with plain blue cloth.

It is in this room that the special dinner services—one of which is the finest in existence—are kept, besides the silver for ordinary use. Here, too, are to be seen presentation services, centerpieces, salvers, flasks, tankards, yacht racing cups and Christmas, Easter and christening gifts.

☞ All the latest potions in lamps. Hundreds of patterns to choose from. 25 cents to $10.00. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

THE LISTENER.

General Maximo Gomez, the Cuban, has grown a beard, which he now wears in the style of Napoleon III.

Governor James H. Budd of California, no longer bears so striking a resemblance to George du Maurier. He has had his beard shaved off.

A Protestant monastery is to be erected by the Duke of Newcastle, who is a strong High Churchman, at East Markham, in Nottinghamshire.

The Rev. H. A. Brown, the chaplain of the rough riders, will at once resume his duties as rector of the Episcopal Church of the Advent in Prescott, A. T.

Justice David J. Brewer has returned to Washington after a vacation spent on the shores of Lake Champlain, six miles from a railroad, postoffice or telegraph station.

Horace R. Hobart, who has just retired after 22 years of service from his position as editor of The Railway Age, has been connected with Chicago journalism since 1866.

Robert Planquette, the composer of "Rip Van Winkle" and "The Chimes of Normandy," has been made a chevalier of the Legion of Honor by the French president.

Frederick W. Lincoln, the war mayor of Boston, who died recently, was a descendant of Amos Lincoln, son-in-law of Paul Revere and a member of the famous "tea party."

Senator Thurston says that from the time he was 12 years old his desire was to become a United States senator and that now, his ambition having been gratified, he will not be a candidate for re-election.

Pundit J. C. Chatterji, the high caste Brahman who has arrived in New York, has cast aside his "thread," the distinctive Brahmanical caste mark, to become a theosophist and disciple of Annie Besant.

Lieutenant Colonel Sir Henry Edward McCalluni, the new governor of Newfoundland, is known for his project for the defense of Singapore, which he carried out in 1878, and the fortifications constructed there in 1885. In 1891 he acted as special commissioner in Pa-Hang during the disturbances and was officially thanked for his services.

Lord Ashburnham, the English agent of Don Carlos, manages also the affairs of the Princess Palaiologo, claimant to the thrones of Greece and Turkey; Princess Marie of Bavaria, who contests that of Naples; Princess Ludwig of Bavaria, who thinks herself entitled to that of England, and Queen Carola of Saxony, who claims the right to the crown of Sweden.

JEWELRY JOTTINGS.

Steel and malachite afford a new combination for buckles.

Black enamel and gold are used to secure striking and original effects in a new line of brooches.

Earrings thus far made by a jeweler whose patrons are of the most exclusive sort consist mostly of single pearls and diamonds.

Golf score books are dainty things as lately made in Russia leather, with an ornament of crossed golf sticks in gold or silver upon the cover.

Gun metal grows in popularity. An object attracting much admiration in a Broadway (New York) window is a chatelaine with watch, bonbonniere and half a dozen other trinkets in this metal.

Aigrets are a noticeable feature in the fall stock of the best establishments, and a new point about them is that the largest stones are frequently mounted highest, reversing the usual order of large stones below and small ones above.

The "American pig" promises to be as successful in jewelry as in war. Piggy has figured for some time as a popular charm, but now various other ornaments are taking on porcine outlines. Pig brooches, bangles, stickpins, paperweights, etc., seem destined to be a fad.—Jewelers' Circular.

BEAUTY SPOTS.

Cream face powder should always be used by brunettes, white and pink are only suitable for fair people.—New York Tribune.

A little borax sprinkled on a cloth and rubbed lightly on the face is a good remedy for blackheads. Care should be taken to rub lightly or it will make the skin smart.

Too much care cannot be taken to get the soap that suits the skin, and, when it is found, to use no other. A dry skin requires an entirely different kind of soap from that used for the oily skin.

The use of anything that tends to dry the skin should be avoided, such as bay rum, alcohol, camphor and ammonia. If used in great moderation, they are all good, but they will ruin the best of skins if used lavishly.

A mixture of one ounce of hydrate of chloral and one pint of water is said to be useful in preventing the unpleasant effects of profuse perspiration. A soft linen cloth should be used in applying the mixture, and it should be allowed to dry on the skin.

THE COOKBOOK.

To serve stewed figs with whipped cream put each fig on a small square of sponge cake neatly cut and pile whipped cream on the top.

To preserve vegetables keep the stalks in water until ready to cook. Eggs may be kept by burying them in salt and carrots and turnips by burying in layers in a box of sand.

If, in using sour milk with soda for griddle cakes or muffins the milk does not foam as it should to produce the desired lightness, a teaspoonful of vinegar added to the milk will give the desired result.

Housekeepers sometimes think nothing can be done with cold baked potatoes. Unless overdone, they warm up quite as satisfactorily as the boiled, and Delmonico's recipe for corned beef hash calls for "an equal quantity of chopped cold baked potatoes."

ANIMAL ODDITIES.

African elephants can climb mountains with remarkable ease.

A newly born giraffe measures about six feet from his hoof to the top of his head.

It is the habit of arctic dogs to burrow under the snow, curl up into the smallest possible bulk, and thus sleep.

The eye of the vulture is so constructed that it is a high powered telescope, enabling the bird to see objects at an almost incredible distance.

A Massachusetts family has five cats with varying tastes. One is ravenous for beet root, another eats only cucumbers, another tomatoes, another fish, and the fifth will taste nothing but bread and milk.

Couches, $5.98.

Good, substantial couches, well made and built for service, made on best tempered steel springs, covered with Persian Velours, Figured Corduroys or Belgian Velvets and fringed to the floor.

People ask, "How can you sell them at such a fabulously low price?" Couches for $5.98 that are easily worth $15.00.

We sometimes wonder ourselves, but that's a matter of minor consideration, the couches are here in a variety of covers ready to send to your home in an hou 's time if need be. Luxurious, dreamy couches, and our price but $5.98.

Fifty other patterns of couches to select from, prices from $4.75 to $30.00.

HENRY L. KINCAIDE & CO.

Reliable, Low Priced House Furnishers.

Hancock Street, : : Quincy.

SWITHIN BROS.

REAL ESTATE!

President's Hill.

President's Hill Annex.

Cranch Hill.

Choice Lots and Improved Property for Sale in West Quincy, Wollaston, South Quincy, Quincy Point, Quincy Centre.

Room 12, Durgin & Merrill's Block, Quincy.

Gentlemen, Buy Your....

OVERCOATS

Where you can find the best assortment in the city and the lowest prices, which is at

C. F. DERBY'S, SAVINGS BANK BUILDING, QUINCY. 5-1m

ONE-TON ORDERS

Have been the making of this Coal business. Hundreds have ordered "just one ton to see if there was any difference." They found there was and they came again. Our one-ton orders have been our best advertisements. It's a better Coal at the same price, with the proof in a sample ton. When in doubt, try Patch's.

C. PATCH & SON.

GEO. AMES,

the ONLY PRACTICAL PLUMBER in the Hardware business in the City. He has a patent SEWER TRAP which cannot be beat. Impossible for deadly sewer gas to enter your homes. See him about your Sewer Connection. He has had three years' experience in Boston and other large cities. Established here in 1889 and still in it. Work done anywhere.

Hardware, Paints and Oils, Putty and Glass, Yacht Supplies, Steam and Gas Fittings. Steam and Hot Air Heaters put in repair for the winter.

ADAMS BUILDING

"Just Right."

We believe that what is worth doing at all is worth doing well—we want and try to have the quality of our goods, our prices and our promptness in atttending to your orders "just right."

A satisfied customer is the best advertisement we can have—only partly satisfied won't do. We try to please you always and make everything "just right."

Large, black, meaty prunes—they have small stones. Try them stewed—they make a delicious and healthful desert.

NEW PRUNES, 10c. a lb.

BOSTON BRANCH GROCERY,
Durgin & Merrill's Block, - Quincy.

MAKE IT HOT FOR YOU.

If your house is cold and, you have become disgusted with the various devices called heaters, and you are really anxious to have warmth and comfort in your home, place an order for one of those G. B. Bates CIRCULATORS. It will "make it hot for you" or just the temperature you desire. Its construction is based upon scientific and economical principles. Several have recently been put in right here in Quincy, and others will be put in during the next few weeks. Don't read this ad. and then forget about it till your water pipes are all frozen, but go now to

G. B. BATES,

Hancock Street, Quincy.

Now is the time to Subscribe
One Year, - $4 00
10 Cents a Copy

HARPER'S WEEKLY

during 1899 will contain complete, concise, and accurate accounts of all noteworthy and interesting occurrences as they transpire in our own and in foreign lands. Eminent men of letters and distinguished artists will contribute to its columns, and its readers will have the most impartial and the best

PICTORIAL HISTORY OF THE YEAR

During 1899 HARPER'S WEEKLY will be especially rich in fiction, containing serial stories from the pen of H. G. Wells, author of "The War of the Worlds"; "The Conspirators," by Robert W. Chambers; a romance of De Soto's last voyage, by E. S. Van Zile, and short fiction by authors of international fame. Articles by special correspondents in our new possessions — Manila, Honolulu, Cuba, and Puerto Rico, with other interesting matter, will fill the space left by contemporary events.

Trial Subscription, Four Weeks

25c.

HARPER & BROTHERS
Franklin Square, New York

JOHN EVANS,
Auctioneer and Appraiser.
Prompt Settlement.
24 COPELAND STREET, QUINCY.
Feb. 25. tf

FRANK F CRANE,
AUCTIONEER and APPRAISER,
Office, 4 Chestnut St., Quincy, Mass.
Oct. tf

TRAGEDY IN TORONTO.

Three Little Children Strangled by Their Mother.

Woman Admitted Guilt When Taken Into Custody.

Had Been at Home Only a Few Days After Treatment In a Hospital.

Toronto, Oct. 22.—Emily Burrell strangled her three little children yesterday. Admitting that she killed them, she remarked: "Thank God they are in heaven now. I will be with them soon."

The woman was arrested. She had been in the hospital for months, and was discharged a day or two ago. It is supposed that she was insane.

Mod fied His Ruling.

Washington, Oct. 22.—The commissioner of internal revenue has materially modified the ruling of his office as to the taxability of receipts given to banks in lieu of checks for money withdrawn from deposit or otherwise. In accordance with the opinion of the attorney general, it is now held "that a receipt given to a bank by a person to whom the bank is indebted as a depositor or otherwise, or for whom it holds funds, is no more subject to a stamp than a receipt given for any other debt or demand."

The commissioner further says: "The purpose of the law is to require stamps upon checks which are commercial negotiable instruments. A check, however, is not required to be in any particular form. If it is in a form sufficient to constitute an order for the payment of money and assumes the character of a commercial negotiable instrument, then it is subject to the tax.

"There is much banking done, especially in savings banks, without the use of checks at all; the depositor having a book in which the bank denotes the amounts deposited on one side and the amounts drawn out on the other. Of course the depositor in such case draws the money out of the bank, but he does it in such a way as not to be subject to stamp duty, because he does not give a check. So, if a person does not give a check he does not have to pay tax, and if he goes to the bank and the bank pays him upon its dues to him and he gives a receipt, such receipt does not require a stamp; but if he issues his receipt so that it will be good in the hands of another person to draw upon his deposit for the amount of it, then it loses the character of a receipt and becomes a check, and subject to tax."

The News of Beantown.

Boston, Oct. 22.—General Woodford, minister to Spain, is the guest of the Massachusetts club.

The supreme court sustains the verdict for the defendant in the case of Stephen B. McIsaac vs. the Northampton Electric Lighting company to recover for personal injuries sustained while in defendant's employ by the breaking of a pole. The accident was caused by the pole becoming decayed below the ground. The court says that the plaintiff assumed the risk in this case, and that the company was not bound to inspect the poles below the ground to ascertain whether they were sound or not.

New complications threaten Mayor Quincy's Sunday evening concerts. The New England Sabbath Protective league proposes to wage war on the city and compel it to abandon the series. It will invoke the law to see if the city is a corporation formed for the purpose of entertaining the public and for charitable purposes, or whether it is a business institution.

Many people of prominence, not only in municipal but state affairs, met in this city last night to inaugurate a movement in favor of the abolition of the death penalty. Warren Spaulding advocated a change in the penal code making it possible to indict a man on a charge of murder in the second degree as the first step in the direction of the abolition of capital punishment. The meeting decided to work upon this line.

Catherine Harriman's residence was robbed of diamonds, jewelry and clothing, valued at between $1200 and $1500.

Five Burned to Death.

Susanville, Cal., Oct. 22.—News received here from Clairville, Plumas county, reports the burning of a hotel and the loss of five lives. The dead are: P. Pedrina, Carson Barney, Mrs. Cornado, Florence Roberts, 7 years old, and a woman whose name has not yet been ascertained.

Highwaymen In Lynn.

Lynn, Mass., Oct. 22.—Charles Peterson of Swampscott appeared at the police station last night in a badly battered condition, and reported that while passing a particularly dark place he was stopped by three men, who choked him and took from him about $3.

Explosion of Boilers.

Muskegon, Mich., Oct. 22.—The Pentwaller Furniture company's factory in Pentwaller was wrecked by an explosion of two or three of the boilers. Louis Tuppar, electrician, and Miller Sorenson, laborer, were killed. Engineer Palmer cannot survive.

Tomorrow's Almanac and Forecast.

Sun rises—6:07; sets, 4:50.
Moon sets—12:41 night.
High tide——5:15 a. m.; 5:45 p. m.

The center of the stormy conditions last night extended from the lake region to the middle Atlantic coast, cloudy skies covering the eastern half of the country and rain falling in the Ohio valley, middle states, lake region and New England, with fresh easterly winds on the southern New England and New Jersey coasts. While cloudy weather is likely to prevail tonight, little rain now seems probable. It will probably clear during Sunday morning and be fair during the day, with seasonable temperatures. Monday promises to be fair and warmer.

DISTRIBUTIVE TRADE.

Weather Conditions Induced Buying of Boots, Shoes and Rubber Goods.

New York, Oct. 22.—The dominant feature of the general business situation, as noted by Bradstreet's, is the active foreign demand for wheat, wheat flour and, indeed, nearly all our cereal products, and the business reported on this account during the past 10 days seems worthy of rank with the best recorded in any corresponding period. While straitened stocks abroad and less satisfactory advices from other countries have furnished a plausible basis for much of the recent activity, an additional stimulating feature was injected into the situation by the more warlike appearance of the Franco-British situation.

General distributive trade, particularly with the north, appears to have suffered from bad weather conditions, which have interfered with regular business and deliveries; but, on the other hand, has induced considerable buying of boots and shoes, rubber goods and heavy clothing at many markets.

Important changes in textile goods and cotton wool products appear to be impending. Rather more firmness has been imparted to the former staple by talk of frost checking further growth of the plant in the south, and the establishment in Fall River of the joint selling agency for print cloths and similar goods has stiffened the price of those products materially. In wool and woollen goods too signs of improvement are a trifle more numerous.

The foreign trade situation is about as described last week, except that large decreases in a few leading exports have been partly made up by increased shipments of American manufacturers, and the nine months figures point to a complete calendar year's business in advance of all predecessors in volume of export trade. Our import trade begins to show slight increases over corresponding periods a year ago, and the substitution of dutiable for non-dutiable goods in this movement points to an easier position in the customs situation.

Business failures in the United States this week number 213, 20 less than last week, and eight more than in this week a year ago. Bank clearings aggregate $1,321,617,000, 4.2 percent smaller than last week, and only 1 percent heavier this week a year ago, but larger by 26 percent than the total in 1896.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

The Lawrence Democrats opened the state campaign with an enthusiastic meeting last night. The speakers were Walter L. Ramsdell of Lynn and Harry Lloyd of Boston.

At the fall meeting of the Williams college trustees the proposed change in the curriculum was tabled, except that the half year system of course of study was adopted.

Writs of temporary injunction have been served on 31 railroad ticket brokers in Chicago. The petitions upon which the injunctions were granted set forth alleged fraudulent deals.

John Chatterton, whose wife had been Lillian Russell since Jan. 21, 1894, yesterday received a decree of divorce in the chancery court in Jersey City. Miss Russell is now in London.

The Austrian government has appointed a committee containing representatives of national and municipal bodies to devise measures to prevent the spread of the bubonic plague.

Reports are current that there has been some speculation in Matanzas in the Red Cross supplies; and these will be carefully investigated and the abuse, if it exists, traced to its source.

A report which attained widespread circulation, to the effect that the Brockton strike would be declared off, was positively contradicted by Secretary Smith of the Lasters' union yesterday.

The firing of cannon in honor of the presidential visit to Kokomo, Ind., was attended with disastrous results. One man was instantly killed by a premature explosion and another seriously injured.

The jury in the inquest over the body of William Walker, the prize fighter killed in a fight at South Omaha last Monday night, has returned a verdict, holding Dupont as principal and Chief of Police Carroll of South Omaha as accessory to the killing.

A New York man who arrived in Seattle from St. Michaels reports the probable loss of the schooner Annie Rowe in the North sound and the drowning of 11 passengers. When the Roanoke left St. Michaels a party was preparing to go in search of the missing schooner.

T. Jefferson-Coolidge, treasurer of the Amoskeag Manufacturing company of Manchester, has resigned and has been succeeded by C. W. Amory. Mr. Coolidge became the treasurer of the Amoskeag company in 1876, succeeding C. W. Amory's father, who held the position for 40 years.

The students of Tufts college, Medford, Mass., have voted unanimously to abolish hazing and to do away with the Greek letter organization which has been a terror to the freshmen and has been in disfavor for years. The unique custom of the "sophs" entertaining the "freshies" will be established.

Charles Washington Lapham of Sandwich, Mass., the oldest manufacturer of glassware in the country, died yesterday, aged 88 years. He was born in Campobello, N. B., and was apprenticed to a glassmaker in 1825, following the calling until a few years ago, when injuries caused him to give up his business.

The coroner's jury summoned to determine the cause of the death of Mary Murphy of Portland, who was found dead at the foot of the steps of her home Sunday morning, found that death resulted from injuries inflicted upon her by her husband, who pushed her downstairs, and beat, stamped and jumped upon her body.

The Madrid National, conservative, which is supporting General Weyler, was ordered suppressed for publishing an article not previously submitted to the censor, though its editor, a member of the chamber of deputies, had been imprisoned. The affair caused a great sensation, and the suspension ordered was eventually annulled.

There has been serious disregard of the rules governing the employment of labor in the Norfolk navy yard laid down by the department, and preferential classes have been established in clear violation of the spirit of the rules. The result will be a return to the strict application of the rules and the removal of employes chargeable with the irregularitres.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Topic For the Week Beginning Oct. 23. Comment by Rev. S. H. Doyle.

TOPIC.—"Go or send."—Acts xvi, 1-10. (A missionary topic.) "And they * * * came down to Troas, and a vision appeared to Paul in the night. There stood a man of Macedonia and prayed him, saying, 'Come over into Macedonia and help us.' And after he had seen the vision immediately we endeavored to go into Macedonia, assuredly gathering that the Lord had called us to preach the gospel unto them."—Acts xvi, 8-10.

This incident in Paul's life is very instructive from a missionary standpoint. He is at Troas, in the western part of Asia Minor, on his second great missionary journey. In a vision an inhabitant of historic Macedonia of Europe calls to him for help. He sees in the vision also a call from God. Immediately he obeyed it. He went to Macedonia, and his preaching produced blessed results. The Christian's duty toward missions is here pointedly illustrated. It says, "Go or send."

Why should we go or send? Three reasons moved Paul to action, and these three reasons appeal to us today: 1. The call from Macedonia for help. Paul must have been greatly touched by this pathetic appeal for the gospel. He was intensely anxious to take the gospel to all who wanted it. Macedonia—heathendom—is calling to us today. Not one man, but millions of human beings in Africa, India, China and the islands of the sea are calling for help. They need Christ and they want Christ. Can we refuse their cry? 2. The call from God. Paul saw in the vision a call from God. Every cry for help in this world is a call from God. God has opened the doors of the heathen world and commands us to go in and win the lands for Christ. God calls us to missionary work. Can we refuse to obey God? 3. Paul could go. He went immediately because it was possible for him to do so. We can go or send. This should decide for us. Perhaps we can go. If our church boards cannot send us, perhaps we can go and pay our own expenses. No young man or woman who has the means and the way clear to do so could use both self or means to a better purpose. But if we cannot go we can send.

A wealthy young man in one of our colleges, studying to be a missionary, supported a man actually on the field as his substitute until he himself was prepared to go. If as individuals we may not be able to have a missionary representing us on the field, perhaps as societies we could do so. A number of societies have their representatives on the foreign field, and many, many others could support at least a native worker or educate a boy or girl for future missionary work. The cost is not great. The secretary of your denominational missionary board could give all the information desired upon this subject. If, however, we cannot do this, all of us can give something, and we should liberally and systematically, for sending those who can go if we cannot.

Bible Verses.—Isa. lii, 7; Nah. i, 15; Math. xxiii, 37; xxviii, 19, 20; Luke xiv, 16-24; Acts i, 11; xiii, 1-3; Rom. i, 14-17; x, 14, 15; I Cor. ix, 16-22; Rev. xxii, 17.

Task Enough.

Our own faults and failures would supply, one would think, sufficient pangs of penitence to occupy that part of conscience which is devoted to lament over shortcomings. Few of us have reached that happy state of perfection in which we can give over repentance. We have to watch our own conduct, guard against temptation, and when overcome confess our sins to our heavenly Father with heartfelt sorrow. Conscience holds a rod to check us when erring and to drive us in the right way should the kindly impulse of duty fail to allure us, and when we reject the rod conscience becomes a scourge to punish us with remorse for our disobedience. This is task enough for conscience.—Independent.

Men of Every Condition.

It is the special mission of the church to preach the gospel to the poor, and its grandest and purest triumphs have been seen in the winning and uplifting of the despised and downtrodden classes. Yet "the glad tidings of great joy" "shall be to all people" and to men of every condition. Efforts to reach the rich and the noble may not be remitted, and the prayer of faith should accompany these efforts. God will fulfill His word of promise, and kings and queens surely become more than ever in the past potential agents in the upbuilding of the kingdom of Christ.—Christian Intelligencer.

Worthy of the Fool.

Many politicians are in the habit of laying it down as a self evident proposition that no people ought to be free till they are fit to use their freedom. The maxim is worthy of the fool in the old story who resolved not to go into the water till he had learned to swim. —Macaulay.

Points For Parents.

Christ is on trial in your home as much as he was before Pilate.

Don't poison your home life with worry and fret whenever things go wrong.

Many a fibbing mother has been puzzled to make out how her children learned to lie.

What folly for a father to warn his boys against tobacco, if he does it with a breath that smells of smoke.

How foolish for a mother to talk to her children about religion, unless she can show them what it is.

If the parental example is a sowing of bad seed, how absurd to look for a good fruitage in the lives of the children.

If you claim in church that the Lord is your rest and peace, let the children see that you told the truth about it when you get home.

Think of a father talking religion to his son on Sunday and going to the store to do business with a short yardstick on Monday!—Selected.

the danger is in the neglect—that's why so many colds lead to a fatal disease.

HALE'S HONEY OF HOREHOUND AND TAR

Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar is made for throat and lung troubles. It acts like magic. Sold by druggists.

Pike's Toothache Drops cure in one minute.

Quincy and Boston Electric Street Railway.

[Subject to change without notice.]

On and after October 10, cars will be run on the different routes as follows:

Quincy and Neponset.

Leave CITY SQUARE for Neponset at 5.55, 6.10, 6.25, 6.40 A. M. and every 15 minutes until 11.10 P. M.

Leave NEPONSET for Quincy at 6.15 A. M., and every 15 minutes until 11.30 P. M.

Cars leaving Quincy at 20 minutes of the hour and Neponset on the hour, go via. Hancock street direct.

Cars leaving Quincy at 25 and 55 minutes past the hour go via Newport avenue, Wollaston.

Cars leaving Quincy at 10 minutes past the hour go via Norfolk Downs, and those leaving Neponset at 30 minutes past go via Downs.

Cars leaving Neponset 15 minutes of and 15 minutes past the hour go via Wollaston and continue through Braintree and Holbrook to Brockton, connecting with cars for Bridgewater, Taunton, New Bedford, Fall River, Newport and Providence.

Quincy and East Weymouth.

Leave CITY SQUARE (10 minutes later from Quincy Point and 22 minutes later from North Weymouth)—5.45, 6.20, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20, 9.50, 10.20, 10.50, 11.20, 11.50 A. M.; 12.20, 12.50, 1.20, 1.50, 2.20, 2.50, 3.20, 3.50, 4.20, 4.50, 5.20, (5.30 to East Weymouth car house), 5.50, 6.20, 6.30, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20, 9.50, 10.50 P. M., (11.50 Wednesday and Saturday to Thomas' Corner only.)

Leave EAST WEYMOUTH (20 minutes later from North Weymouth and 30 minutes later from Quincy Point)—6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8, 8.30, 9, 9.30 10, 10.30, 11, 11.30 A. M.; 12, 12.30, 1, 1.30, 2, 2.30, 3, 3.30, 4, 4.30, 5, 5.30, 6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8 8.30, 9, 9.30, 10, 10.30, 11.30 P. M.

Quincy and Weymouth Landing.

Leave QUINCY at 5.30 A. M., 6.20, 7.20 and every hour until 12.20, then 1.50 and every hour until 10.50 P. M.

Leave WEYMOUTH LANDING at 5.50 A. M. and every hour until 12.50, then 2.20 and every hour until 11.20 P. M., connect with trains to Boston at Quincy.

Quincy and East Milton.

Leave CITY SQUARE, 5.55, 6.25, then every 5 minutes of and 25 minutes past the hour until 9.25 P. M., then at 10.50 P. M.

Leave EAST MILTON 6.25, 6.55 A. M., then every 5 minutes of and 25 minutes past the hour until 9.50 P. M., then 10.20 and 11.20 P. M.

Quincy and Brockton.

Leave QUINCY for Brockton at 6.10 and 6.40 A. M., and every half hour until 9.10 P. M., except on Wednesday and Saturday, when car at 9.40 runs through to Brockton. Cars at 9.40 and 10.10 to South Braintree every night.

Quincy and Hingham.

Leave QUINCY at 7.20 A. M. and every hour until 11.20 A. M., then 1.50 and every hour until 5.50 P. M.

Leave HINGHAM at 8 A. M. and every hour until 12 M., then 2.30 and every hour until 6.30 P. M.

Neponset, Atlantic and Squantum.

Leave NEPONSET at 6.30 A. M. and every hour until 8.30 P. M., connecting at Atlantic with outward express trains.

Leave SQUANTUM at 7 A. M. and every hour until 9 P. M., connecting at Atlantic with express trains.

Quincy and Houghs Neck.

Leave QUINCY CENTRE at 6.20 A. M., and and every hour until 1.20, and then 1.50 and every hour until 9.50.

Returning, leave HOUGHS NECK at 5.45 A. M., and every hour until 12.45, and then 1.20 and every hour until 9.20.

SUNDAYS.

Cars leave City Square, Quincy, for E. Weymouth and Weymouth Landing at 7.30 A. M. and West Quincy at 7 A. M. and on the hour and half hour throughout the day.

Sunday time same as week days on other lines, except that the first two trips are omitted.

BENJ. J. WEEKS, Superintendent.

New York, New Haven and Hartford R. R.

Eastern District.

On and after Oct. 16, 1898, trains will run as follows: (See note of explanation at bottom.

TO BOSTON. Leave Quincy.	Stops at	Arrive Boston.	FROM BOSTON. Leave Boston.	Stops at	Arrive Quincy
r 6 12	abc	*6 30	5 55	ihgfedcba	*6 22 r
r 6 42	abc	7 00	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	7 30	cba	7 49 r
r 7 26	ad	7 43	8 30	cba	8 49 r
r 7 42	abc	8 00	9 30	cba	9 49
r 8 12	abc	8 30	10 30	cba	10 49 r
r 8 26	ad	8 43	11 30	cba	11 49 r
r 8 42	abc	9 00	12 30	cba	12 49 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	1 30	cba	1 49 r
r 10 12	abc	10 30	2 30	cba	2 49 r
r 11 12	abc	11 30	3 30	cba	3 49 r
r 12 12	abc	12 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
r 1 12	abc	1 30	5 00	cba	5 19 r
r 2 12	abc	2 30	5 17	da	5 36 r
r 3 12	abc	3 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
r 4 12	abc	4 30	6 00	cba	6 19 r
r 5 12	abc	5 30	6 17	da	6 36 r
r 6 12	abc	6 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	7 00	cba	7 19 r
r 7 39	abcdefghi	8 05	7 30	cba	7 49 r
r 8 08	abcdef	8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	9 30	cba	9 49 r
r 10 08	abcdef	10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r
r 11 12	abc	11 30	11 30	cba	11 49 r

SUNDAYS.

r 7 12	abc	7 30	6 30	cba	6 r
r 8 12	abc	8 30	8 30	cba	8 49 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	12 30	cba	12 49 r
r 1 12	abc	1 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
r 5 12	abc	5 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 8 08	abcdef	8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
r 10 08	abcdef	10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r

*The letters in the same line as the figures stand for different stations and inuicate that trains stop, as follows:

a, Wollaston, b, Norfolk Downs. c, Atlantic. d, Neponset. e, Pope's Hill, f, Harrison Square. g, Savin Hill. h, Crescent Avenue. i, South Boston. r, Quincy Adams. (xx), Express.

C PETER CLARK, Gen'l Supt. A. C. KENDALL G. P. A

MUSIC HALL, - QUINCY,

Friday Even'g, Oct. 28,

At 8 o'clock.

GRAND TENTH DISTRICT

REPUBLICAN RALLY.

The Tenth District Congressional Committee have secured the following eminent and able speakers to address the people of Quincy upon the political issues of the day:

ROGER WOLCOTT,
Governor of Massachusetts.

SAMUEL W. McCALL,
Congressman Eighth District.

COL. ALBERT CLARKE,
Sec'y Home Market Club.

SAMUEL J. BARROWS,
Our Candidate for Congress.

HON. RUSSELL A. SEARS, Mayor of Quincy, will preside, and there will be music by the Quincy Band. The balcony will be reserved for ladies, and they are cordially invited to attend.

THOMAS C. BACHELDER,
Chairman.

STEPHEN W. MARSHALL,
Secretary.

Oct. 22.—6t

NOTICE TO VOTERS.

CITY OF QUINCY.

For the purpose of preparing the Annual Register of Voters, and of receiving evidence of qualifications from persons claiming a right to Vote at the coming City Election, the Board of Registrars of Voters will be in session in the COUNCIL CHAMBER in the City Hall Building, on the evenings of Wednesday, November 9, and Saturday, November 12, from 7 to 9 o'clock P.M., also on Wednesday, November 16, from 12 o'clock, noon, to 10 o'clock P.M.

Every applicant for registration must appear in person before the Board. Every male applicant must present either a certificate from the Assessors or a Tax bill or Notice from the Collector of Taxes, showing that he has been assessed a Poll tax as a resident of the City on the First day of May last; if a naturalized citizen he must also produce for inspection his papers of naturalization. Payment of a poll tax is not a prerequisite to voting.

Persons who have lived in the state one year, and in the city six months previous to December 6, if qualified in other respects, can be registered.

No name can be added to the list of voters unless registered previous to WEDNESDAY, Nov. 16th, at 10 o'clock P. M., when registration will close.

Examine the Voting Lists posted herewith and see that your name is in its proper place. NO CHANGE can be made after WEDNESDAY, Nov. 16th, at 10 o'clock P. M. The Board of Assessors will hold meetings at the same time.

EDWARD B. MARSH,
CORNELIUS MOYNIHAN,
EDWARD J. McKEON,
EDGAR G. CLEAVES,
Registrars.

Quincy, Oct. 22, 1898. 21t

ORGAN RECITAL,

CHRIST CHURCH, - - QUINCY,

Thursday Evening, Oct. 27,

At 7.45 o'clock.

Mr. S. B. Whitney, organist of the Church of the Advent, Boston, will give an organ recital, assisted by Mrs. J. E. Tiffett, soprano of the Old South church, Boston.

The talent is of the very highest and this promises to be one of the finest musical evenings ever given in Quincy.

Admission to the church will be by ticket and each ticket holder is asked to contribute to the offering which will be taken.

Tickets may be obtained at the Church after the services Sunday, or by writing to the Rector for them.

Oct. 22. 5t

Rain or Snow

Along the coast but fair in the interior, we read sometimes, but whether rain, snow, fair or blow outside, you may be fair, comfortable and happy inside of one of those

Warm Overcoats

that you can buy at the "Granite," and not only overcoats, but everything required for the comfort of men and boys.

Don't get caught in the storms of winter without proper protection, but go now to the

Granite Clothing Store,

DURGIN & MERRILL'S BLOCK,

QUINCY.

BILLHEADS PRINTED
AT PATRIOT OFFICE.

Quincy Daily Ledger

ESTABLISHED IN 1889.

The ONLY DAILY in Norfolk County Massachusetts.

Published Every Evening, Sundays and Holidays Excepted, At No. 115 HANCOCK ST., City of Quincy, Mass., by

GEORGE W. PRESCOTT & SON.

Successors to Green & Prescott.

Subscription Price, $6.00 per year.

☞ A discount of $1 when paid in advance.

ALSO PUBLISHERS OF

The Quincy Patriot,

A Weekly Established in 1837, which has the Largest Circulation in Norfolk County, and

The Braintree Observer,

A Weekly Established in 1878.

TELEPHONE, 78-3 QUINCY.

Quincy Temperature at Noon.

	This Week.	Last Week.	In 1897.	In 1896.
Sunday	50	66	83	60
Monday	48	53	53	56
Tuesday	50	75	51	50
Wednesday	54	71	70	48
Thursday	61	55	62	56
Friday	56	59	49	62
Saturday	70	60	53	49

New Advertisements Today.

Probate notice.
Miss Locke—Lace work.
Dog found.
Republican rally.
Prof. W. R. Carter—Chronic diseases.
Auction sale of horses, carriages and harness.
Notice to voters.
Organ recital.
Granite Clothing Store.
Mrs. I. F. Dow—Hair dressing and cutting.
Two counter girls wanted.
Lost—Hunter case watch.

Over 4,000 Voters.

There was a slight error in the totals of the list of registered voters publishec Friday. The total number on the lists at the beginning of registration was 4057; there were dropped 404 which left the number on the list 3653. During the registration 99 names were restored and 273 added, making the present total 4025 or 114 more than at the state election last year, and 27 less than at the city election in December.

The number of voters by wards now on the lists is as follows:

Ward One,	738
Ward Two,	585
Ward Three, Pre. 1,	454
Ward Three, Pre. 2,	393
Ward Four, Pre. 1.	401
Ward Four, Pre. 2,	430
Ward Five,	579
Ward Six,	445

W. Y. C. Supper.

The event of the season at Wollaston Yacht club house was held on Thursday night. It was called the ladies' supper and social, and to Mrs. William Chase and Mrs. A. T. Barstow is due the credit of a most successful affair.

The supper was from 6.30 to 8.30 P. M., after which dancing and social talk was indulged in until midnight. Tables were set for about sixty, and every chair was occupied by an appreciative epicurean. The table decorations were such that bore evidence of having been attended to by those of artistic instincts.

Everybody seemed good natured and at peace with the world. Some one remarked that many of the young men sat at the table longer than was necessary to eat what would be considered a fair, honest meal, but then as it was reasoned five pretty young ladies were doing duty as waitresses, the young men were excused for their procrastination.

Among the out-of-town people present were Mr. and Mrs. Keller and daughter of Braintree, Mrs. John Drew of Cambridge, Mr. and Mrs. Perkins of Boston, Mr. Archie Verrill of Boston and Mr. Maie, the elocutionist, who pleased all with his funny stories.

The proceeds will be added to the piano fund for the club. It was the unanimous opinion that the supper should be repeated monthly during the winter.

An Historic Anniversary.

The two hundred fiftieth anniversary of the adoption of the standards of polity and doctrine set forth by the Westminister Assembly of divines, will be celebrated by the Presbytery of Boston, by a service in the First church, Columbus avenue, corner of Berkeley street, Boston, on Tuesday evening next at 7.45 o'clock

The pastor of the church on Water street, Rev Robert Westly Peach, who is moderator of the Presbytery, will preside. The Rev. David Gregg, D. D, pastor of the Lafayette avenue Presbyterian church of Brooklyn, New York, will deliver the address. All the hymns and tunes to be sung have been chosen from those in use for more than two hundred and fifty years; and all singers are invited to sit with the chorus choir which will lead. The public is cordially invited to attend.

THE WOODWARD.

Its Good Work and Teachings Are Spreading.

Editors of the Daily Ledger:

In the matter of schools, to which you so kindly give much space in your columns, may I ask further indulgence in saying that I deem the portion of a letter from a graduate of the Woodward Institute now at college, which accompanies this to be of interest to the public as well as to all educators, and especially to such persons as are called upon to make public addresses, but peculiarly to our city clergy, as not only having to do with their audiences, but as being an innocent but a very interesting commendation of their work as managers of the Woodward Institute especially in the selection of its principal, and to the trustees of the fund who have provided so excellent a hall for study, affording the opportunity for such morning talks as the principal finds necessary in securing a morale that has reported itself beyond our limits as highly worthy of emulation.

During this week it seems that it was found to be needful that the pupils should have their minds directed to the necessity of attention to certain details affecting the morale of the individual pupil especially to the habit of attention.

This having been reported in some of the homes of Woodward scholars has brought to the knowledge of the writer the existence of this letter, which was received at that time, and speaks for itself of the good English, as well as morals taught in this free institution:

Dear Papa: I must tell you the funny thing that happened to me Sunday. We had the craziest looking man for a minister Sunday—a Mr. ——— of the University of Leipzig in Germany. He was dressed like a German with a queer short frock coat and velvet buttons and queer shoes, and his hair stood right up straight from his head. He had little fiery black eyes that peered at you from behind black rimmed spectacles, and his movements were extremely quick and his voice high pitched. Well, all this united made a lot of the girls have the giggles and especially our class. Well, I kept as straight a face as I could and paid good attention. In the evening he lectured to us on the Manuscripts of the New Testament and I sat alone on the second seat in my place. The same giggling that there was in the morning went on and I was thoroughly sorry for the man for it must have annoyed him. The lecture was intensely interesting to me and I gazed at him hard all the evening, but didn't see that he noticed me. Well Monday morning I went the third hour to one of the girls room and she said "let me congratulate you on what the Bible lecturer said about you. Of course I was surprised and asked her what it was. She said that President ———had been sending all around to find me for Mr. ——— wanted to meet me. He described me as the girl with the "'Mauve waist on" and said I had been a real inspiration to him. I gave such intelligent helpful attention and he wanted to meet me and thank me. Of course I felt queer about it as everybody in college knew about it in about an hour. I didn't see him however, and probbaly shan't, as he sailed to Leipzig today, where he is one of the most eminent scholars in Germany. You must tell Miss Small, for she used to say so much about giving attention to people who were speaking, and it may encourage some of the girls who are getting lectured about it, to know that her precepts bore some practical fruit."

Checker Tournament.

The result of the games at the Bennett checker tournament at Wollaston on Thursday and Friday was as follows:

Calnan beat Nelles, 2 out of 3.

Wright beat Sanderson, 1 and 1 draw.

Pinckney beat Sanderson three straight.

Calnan and Hoxie, one each and one draw.

Wright beat Nelles three straight.

Games will continue today.

—New York keeps 25,000 school children out of school for want of room in school buildings. In almost all the larger cities there is this same complaint. It certainly seems singular that the center of wealth can't provide ample school room.

LACE WORK.

A FEW More pupils can be received by Miss Locke at her home, 107 Washington St. All orders for Christmas work will be filled on time if given now.

Special attention paid to odd shapes and designs made to order.

Quincy, Oct. 22. 1t

LADIES' and CHILDREN'S
Hair Dressing and Cutting.

ALL KINDS OF HAIR WORK.
WIGS, SWITCHES, FRIZZES.
Sixteen Years' Experience.

MRS. I. F. DOW,
Room 10, Hotel Greenleaf.
Quincy, Oct. 22. 6t

25TH ANNIVERSARY.

Sketch of the West Quincy Methodist Episcopal Church.

A sketch of the West Quincy Methodist Episcopal church, which celebrates its 25th anniversary Sunday and Monday will be of interest:

Regular preaching services, under the auspices of the Methodist Episcopal church were begun April 28, 1872, by the Rev. Samuel Kelley, who, at that time was chaplain of the National Sailors' Home. A Sabbath school on Sunday afternoon had been held for four or five years by persons connected with the Congregational church at the center of the town. An occasional sermon had been preached, or a lecture given, but up to that time no stated public services had been conducted by any Protestant denomination.

A Class meeting was established on Sept. 6, 1872, and on January 1, 1873, the Sunday School was formally transferred to the care of the Methodist pastor and congregation. Until the church edifice was erected the services were held in E. H. Doble's hall.

On July 13, 1873, the church was organized as a separate society by Rev. W. R. Clarke, D. D., Presiding Elder of the Boston District. Two weeks later, or about the first of August, Mr. Kelley drew up a subscription paper, for the purpose of raising funds to build a church edifice for the society in West Quincy. A building which could be removed and remodeled into a church was given for that purpose by Mr. Nathaniel Beal, and Joseph W. Robertson, Esq., deeded to the society for one dollar, the lot on which the church and parsonage now stands. Owing to the depression of business, but little was done toward raising the necesary funds for the erection of the church, until the spring of 1874. Work was pushed forward as rapidly as funds could be gathered, and in September of that year, the society commenced holding services in the vestry of the new church. The audience room was completed and the building dedicated December 15, 1874.

The dedicatory sermon was preached by Rev. Samuel F. Upham, D. D., and the church was dedicated by Bishop S. W. Wiley.

Rev. Samuel Kelley familiarly known as "Father Kelley" continued to act as chaplain of the National Sailors' Home and also to supply the pulpit of the West Quincy church till April 1878. The pastors since that time have been as follows:

1878—80, Rev. R. W. Harlow.
1880—81, Rev. S. W. Truesdall.
1881—83, Rev. C. M. Westlake.
1883—85, Rev. Franklin Furber.
1885—88, Rev. Henry Dorr.
1888—90, Rev K. J. Pomfret.
1890—91, Rev. W. F. Lawford.
1891—93, Rev. J. H. Humphrey.
1893—94, Rev. W. W. Baldwin.
1894—Oct. 95, Rev. E. W. Virign.
Oct. 1895—98, Rev. A. A. Brown.
1898,—Rev. C. W. Wilder.

Owing to the changing character of the population of West Quincy, and the frequent labor troubles connected with the granite industry, the membership of the church has never been large at any one time. The organization of the Swedish churches, and the Presbyterian church at South Quincy, together with the Baptist and the Protestant Episcopal societies at East Milton, have taken away some attendants and even some members, whose former affiliations were with those denominations. The building of the electric railway has also rendered it possible for members of churches at the center who generally attended here, to reach their own churches easily.

All these influences combined, have prevented the society from becoming numerically large. During the twenty five years since the church was first organized, the names of 260 different persons have been placed on the roll of membership. The number of resident members reported at the last session of the annual conference was 60.

Jonas Shackley was elected superintendent of the Sunday School in January, 1873, when it was formally turned over to the Methodist society. With the exception of a few brief intervals, aggregating five or six years in all, he has continued to hold that position to the present time.

The first twenty-five years of the existence of the church as an organized body were completed on the 13th day of last July. As it was not practicable to observe the event appropriately in mid-summer, the celebration was deferred till October, and the programme for Sunday and Monday, Oct. 23 and 24, have already been announced in the Ledger.

—Twenty years ago a small boy with a pair of new high boots with red tops was the happiest thing in the neighborhood. If a small boy's parents should compel him to wear a pair of boots like that today, he would stay in the house out of sight of the other boys, and shed tears of rage.—Somerville Journal.

MARRIED,

GRIFFITHS—DELL—In Quincy, Oct. 19th, at the home of the Rev. David Kerr, Payne street, Mr. Lewis G. Griffiths, stone cutter, to Miss Ada Dell of Pleasant street.

LOCAL NEWS TRACK.

Some Colts which are Sure Winners Every Heat.

A rainy dry.

The "N" of the taxes today.

A new drug store is to be started in the Duggan block.

It will not be long before city politics will begin to boom.

Mr. John Sullivan of this city is working in Milford, Mass.

Rev. E. C. Butler speaks tomororw night at the Unitarian church at Neponset.

Mr. George S. Blaisdell of Neponset has been very ill, but is now fast regaining his health.

A very interesting letter has been received from Mr. Moon, and will soon appear in the Ledger.

Mr. James Ago and family have moved from Madison street to Glover avenue, Norfolk Downs.

Eight delegates are representing the Quincy Y. M. C. A. at the State Convention now in session at Lynn.

The reuglar meeting of Wollaston W. C. T. U. will be held Friday, Oct. 28, at three, in the Congregational church.

Work has been commenced laying the sewer on Hancock street, commencing at the junction of Quincy avenue Elm and School streets.

The regular monthly meeting of the School Committee will be held in their rooms in Faxon block, Tuesday evening, Oct. 25, at 8 o'clock.

The weather has called a temporary halt in the various improvements going on in City Square. A pleasant day will see them all moving again.

There have been many inquiries at City Hall of late to see a plan of the proposed boulevard or parkway from Squantum to the Blue Hills reservation.

The registrars of voters advertise today their notice for City election. Three opportunities are given those who desire to vote—Nov. 9, Nov. 12 and Nov. 16.

The two Quincy lodges of United Workmen will paticipate in the parade in Boston next Thursday evening, at the celebration of the thirtieth anniversary of the orders.

It is doubtful if work on the State Highway on Washington street is commenced this year as the season is too far advanced. Work may possibly be commenced however.

Rev. C. H. Williams of South Braintree, Mass., will speak to men on Sunday, at 3.30 P. M., at the Y. M. C. A. men's meeting, on "Silent Workers." Solos by A. L. Hayden. All men are welcome.

Rt. Wor. Charles B. Lawrence, district deputy grand master of the 24th Masonic district, will make an official visit to Rural lodge at a special communication Oct. 27. The next regular communication will be the annual.

At the annual reunion of the Prisoners of War association at Boston on Wednesday, there were present from this city, T. H. Newcomb, Albert Hayden, John Faircloth and Peter Dewey.

All women or young ladies who are desirous of entering a gymnasuim class may avail themselves of an opportunity to do so by immediately conferring with Secretary Hoehn of the Y. M. C. A.

The eighth anniversary of the Quincy Young Men's Christian Association was observed Sunday by a series of services in many of the churches, the aim being to place before the people the work and object of the Association, and as such it was successful, for the several services were largely attended.

Mayor Sears is active relative to the Quincy boulevard, and has invited several representative citizens to meet him at City Hall, this evening, at a preliminary hearing. The hearing before the Metropolitan Park Commission will be held at 14 Beacon street, Boston, on Monday, Oct. 24, at 2.30 P. M.

One of Quincy's city officials went fishing yesterday. He spent a good part of the day sitting in a boat trying to induce the smelts to swallow the bait on the end of his line. It was no go, however, for he proved a Jonah, one little smelt being the result of his trip. He says that hereafter he will devote his time to catching thieves and buy his smelts.

—The tendency of road legislation is in the direction of the requirement of wide tires, and farmers when buying new farms vehicles will do well to secure these improvements. Wide tire laws are likely to be passed in the New England states within a few years.—Ploughman.

☞ Miss Locke of 107 Washington street, is receiving pupils and orders for lace-work, where she has a fine assortment of work to choose from.

By FRANK F. CRANE, - Auctioneer.
Office, 4 Chestnut street, Quincy.

AUCTION SALE
OF Horses, Carriages,
AND THE ENTIRE
Harness and Saddlery Stock
OF
GEO. J. JONES, Harness Maker,
NO. 53 HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY,
Tuesday, Nov. 1, '98,
At 10 o'clock A. M.

The Harness Stock consists of new and second hand Driving and Express Harnesses, Riding Saddles, Horse Blankets, Robes, Whips, fine set of Double Harness, one elegant Single Harness, Brushes, Halters, Collar and Saddle Pads, one new Tip Cart Harness, large variety of Bits, Snaps, Brushes, Cards, Whip Sockets, and a full set of Harness Maker's Tools. Also a general assortment of small wares appurtaining to the trade.

TEN HORSES,

comprising trotters, pacers, driving, business and team horses; description at sale.

J. T. Smith Goddard Buggy, Rubber Tires, Cost $400, will be sold without any reserve, owner going abroad; Canopy Top Beach Wagon, 2 Open Beach Wagons, 1 Depot Wagon, 1 New Express Wagon, 1 Second Hand Express Wagon, 1 Road Sulky, 2 Goddard Buggies, 1 two-wheel Cart, 3 Poles, 1 Extra Nice Butter Wagon, cost $265, 1 Democrat Wagon, and several other carriages.

Sale positive, rain or shine. Terms cash.

Electric cars from Boston, Brockton and the Weymouths pass the shop.

5t 22 25 27 29 31 29plw

By C. H. JOHNSON, - - Auctioneer.
Office, Adams Building, Quincy.

HOUSEHOLD GOODS
AT PUBLIC AUCTION
AT RESIDENCE OF
BARNARD SHANE,
126 Copeland Street, West Quincy,
ON TUESDAY, Oct. 25, '98,
At 1.30 P. M.

THE Goods consist in part as follows: Painted Chamber Set, two Single Beds, Rocker, 3 odd Parlor Chairs, 6 Dining Room Chairs, 2 Tables, Couch, Hair Cloth Sofa, Iron Bedstead and Spring nearly new, Wood Stove, Clock, Pictures, lot of Crockery and Tinware, Mattresses, Coal Stove and a variety of useful household goods.

Sale positive. Terms cash. 19 22 24

By FRANK F. CRANE, - Auctioneer.
Office, 4 Chestnut Street, Quincy.

AUCTION SALE
OF THE
Household Furniture
OF
MRS. FRANK MUNROE, 29 Chestnut St.
Wednesday, Oct. 26,
At 1.30 P. M.

Parlor contains Gent's Smoking Chair, lounge Easy Chairs, Marble Top Table.

Front Chamber contains White Iron Bedstead, Black Walnut, Bureau, Commode and Chairs, Sewing Machine.

Middle Chamber contains Oak Chamber Set.

Side Chamber contains White Iron Single Bedstead, Bureau, etc.

End Chamber contains Bedstead, Bureau, Commode and Rocker.

Kitchen contains Table, Oil Stove, Crockery Glass Ware, Bird Cage, etc.

Also, we shall sell all the Mattresses, Bedding, etc., Pictures, Ornaments, and many other articles too numerous to mention.

Sale positive, rain or shine. Terms cash.
Oct. 20. 5t

By FRANK F. CRANE, - Auctioneer.
Office, 4 Chestnut St., Quincy.

Large Auction Sale
OF THE
GRANITE WORKS and QUARRY TOOLS
OF
PETER CARLSON & CO.,
Quarry Street, Opposite Fallon's Quarry,
THURSDAY, OCT. 27, 1898,
At 1.30 P. M.,

Consisting of Engine House, Tool Shed, 30 horse power, double cylinder and double drum Engine built to order by Rawson & Morrison of Cambridgeport, 2 years old, This engine was made especially to order for the granite business, is extra heavy and strong, and is first-class in every respect, the boiler has 120 tubes, makes steam quickly, and is very economical with coal. New Steam Drill, built by Ingersoll & Sargent; Steam Pump, 3 inch suction, 2 1-2 discharge; one Large Derrick, good for twenty tons; one medium sized Derrick, good for 8 or 9 tons; 2 Dump Cars and about 225 feet of rails for the same, about 1,000 feet of Steam Piping from 1-2 inch to 3 inches in diameter; large lot of Chains, Dogs, Bars, Steam Drills, Blast Drills, Plug Drills, Blocks, Sheaves, Wire Rope, New Tackle and Falls of 400 feet crucible steel 5-8 rope, 1 new Tackle and Fall of 550 feet of crucible steel 5-8 rope, and various other articles too numerous to mention.

Sale positive, rain or shine. Terms cash.
Oct. 19. 7t

By FRANK F. CRANE, - Auctioneer,
Office, 4 Chestnut St., Quincy, Mass.

AUCTION SALE

of TWO-STORY BUILDING and HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE of the estate of Edward H. Adams, Adams street, opposite the R. R. station, East Milton, MONDAY, Oct. 31, 1898, at 1.30 P. M.

The building is two-story and contains four rooms and is sold with the understanding that it will be moved within thirty days from the date of this sale.

The Household Furniture consists of large Mirror, Mahogany Desk, Turkish Sofa, Ottoman, Gent's Smoking Chair, Oak Table, Plush Rocker, Stewart Stove, Marble Top Table, Brussels Carpet, Black Walnut Dining Table, set of Oak Dining Chairs, Black Walnut Bedstead, Oak Bureau and Glass, 2 odd Bureaus, lot Mattresses and Bedding, Wilton Carpet, Wool Carpet, Decorated China Toilet Set, Rogers Group, large Hanging Lamp, Gov. Winthrop Range No. 8, Kitchen Table, large lot of Crockery and Glass Ware, Oil Cloth Carpet, and many other articles too numerous to mention,

Sale positive, rain or shine. Terms cash.
Oct. 20. L 20 22 29 Plw

PARKWAY HEARING.

The Quincy Daily Ledger wishes to announce that the Metropolitan Park Commissioners will give a hearing to the Mayor and City Council of Quincy and others interested in the Parkway from Boston via of Atlantic, Squantum and Quincy to the Blue Hills Reservation, at their rooms in the Congregational Building, Boston, on MONDAY, Oct. 24, 1898, at 2 30 P. M.

Oct. 19. 4t

PROF. W. R. CARTER,
SPECIALIST,
Chronic and Private Diseases,
MALE and FEMALE.
WILL BE AT
2 Chestnut Street, Quincy,
EVERY WEDNESDAY
From 10 A. M. to 9 P. M.
Consultation and Advice Free.
TEETH EXTRACTED WITHOUT PAIN.
Oct. 22. 6t

STATE ELECTION.

CITY OF QUINCY.

City Clerk's Office, Oct. 7, 1898.

IN Accordance with the provisions of Chapter 548 of the Acts of 1898, notice is hereby given that by a vote of the City Council, passed October 3, 1898, the polling places for the election to be held TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1898, in the City of Quincy, were designated as follows:

WARD ONE.—Council Chamber, City Hall.
WARD TWO—Hose House, Washington street.
WARD THREE, Precinct One.—Doble's Hall, Franklin street.
WARD THREE, Precinct Two.—Old Steamer House, School street.
WARD FOUR, Precinct One.—St. Mary's Hall, Willard street.
WARD FOUR, Precinct Two.—Hose House, Copeland street.
WARD FIVE.—Polson's Building, Newport avenue.
WARD SIX.—Hose House, Newbury avenue.

Attest: EDGAR G. CLEAVES,
City Clerk.
Quincy, Oct. 7, 1898. 27t

WILLIAM E. BAXTER, M. D.
Practice Limited to the
EYE AND EAR.
553 Boylston St., Boston.
QUINCY—Monday and Friday.
Hours, 9 to 11. 195 Hancock Street
May 21. 1y

MARY WENT.

LAST Week Mary and everybody else were invited to call at the Quincy Second Hand Variety Store. They went, and Mary tells us that she was delighted with what she found. She bought an excellent stove for half its value, a chamber set for a remarkably low figure, and small ware in abundance for almost nothing. In fact, she was so well pleased, she sent her husband, who bought all the tools he could carry off for a few dollars.

WALTER P. PINEL
is the Manager, and the store is right over here at number 20 Franklin street.
aug25 1y

TEETH EXTRACTED.
No Pain or Danger.
Safer than vapor. Money paid for extracting goes towards teeth to be inserted. I am the only dentist in the city using the Painless Preparation for Extraction.
DR. C. B. UNDERWOOD,
9 Spear St. Rear of Public Library

LEHIGH COAL.
When we Sell You Lehigh we Deliver what we Sell. . . . .
C. PATCH & SON.

A SUGGESTION.

Would Take More of the Training Field for Streets.

Editors Daily Ledger:

Permit me to call the attention of the citizens of Quincy, through your columns, to what might be a great improvement to City Square. It will be remembered that the Unitarian church stands on what remains of the old Training Field; whose original bounds have been greatly lessened by repeated encroachments on the part of the public. The present lot and its supplement, the small, enclosed green back of the fountain, are so large and of such shape that they choke up and congest the Square, particularly the approaches from Washington street and Temple street sides. All this land does not seem to be of any particular benefit of the church, and if it were taken by the City and thrown open for the purposes of a public square, to enlarge the present square, it would be a great benefit; and still enough could be retained by the church to satisfy all practical requirements. The small triangular green is useless, unornamental and an impediment to free passage, and might well be dispensed with. It is also to be hoped that the mud-hole in which the big stone wash-basin called the "Fountain" stands may be soonproperly remedied.

It does seem to the writer that public convenience would be benefited by the taking of some of the projecting sides of church triangle, and including them and the triangle back of the fountain, in the area called City Square.

Yours truly,
CLARENCE T. NEWCOMB.
48 Whitwell street.

The Quincy High.

The head master of the High school has recently received a letter of inquiry from the Teachers' College, Columbia University, New York, about the elective system in use at the Quincy High school. This is only one of the numerous inquiries made every year. It is a source of just civic pride that our High school's reputation is extending so widely. The fact that within a few years members of the High school faculty have been called to important positions at Newton, Malden, Somerville, Mount Holyoke college and elsewhere, is a gratifying commentary on the excellence of the High school teaching force.

☞ Oil Heaters that will heat any room in your house, $3.98. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

The Great Ink-ubator
For Hatching Out Business Is the Daily Ledger.

PISO'S CURE For Consumption
I have been taking Piso's Cure for Consumption since 1883, for Coughs and Colds. I had an attack of LaGrippe in 1890, and have had others since. In the Winter of 1896-7, I had a spell of Bronchitis, lasting all winter, and leaving a troublesome cough, until I again tried Piso's Cure, which relieved me.—Mrs. M. B. SMALLEY, Colorado Springs, Colo., August 19, 1898.
25 CTS. PISO'S CURE FOR CURES WHERE ALL ELSE FAILS. Best Cough Syrup. Tastes Good. Use in time. Sold by druggists. CONSUMPTION 25 CTS.
The Piso Company, Warren, Pa.

Mutual Life
OF NEW YORK.
Do You Want Life Insurance?
Do You Want Fire Insurance?
If so, call on
GEORGE H. FIELD,
1 Durgin & Merrill's Block, Quincy,
and you will find the best Companies at Lowest Rates.
MONEY LOANED ON REAL ESTATE.

Hazelton Lehigh
FURNACE COAL
Give C. PATCH & SON
A Trial Order.

ALBERT J. BOWERS
OPTICIAN
ADAMS BUILDING OVER POST OFFICE
QUINCY, MASS.

LAND VALUES

A Transcript From the Books of the Assessors.

Number of Feet in Each Lot and Valuation Thereof.

Also the Amount of Each Person's Tax Bill for 1898.

[Continued from yesterday.]

Something new in the publication of the taxpayers of the city is attempted this year by the Daily Ledger. There is considerable interest in the assessed value of land in the city, which is claimed to be high in some cases and low in others. So the Ledger has supplemented the amount of the tax bill in each ward with the value of each lot of land for which the person is taxed, giving in each case the number of square feet or acreage.

The amount given in the line with the person's name is his total ward tax, and may include houses, personal property, etc., in addition to the lots of land below. The Ledger gives only the valuation of the land.

To obtain a person's total tax in the city, add together the amounts paid in the several wards.

The Ledger commenced the publication Aug. 30, and has already published the land values of all persons whose names begin with A to M, and today gives the first instalment of the N's:

WARD ONE.

Valuation of Land Only.	Total Ward Tax.
Nash, John W. & others, trs., 12,787 feet, Hancock street, $19,000.	$394 20
Nash, John W. 15,190, Washington, $3,800. 14,930, Hancock, $14,000.	543 80
Nelson, Frank W. 13,367, Cranch, $600.	57 80
Nelson, Oscar 11,424, Curtis, $500.	45 00
Newcomb, Richard, est., 16,130, Hancock, $3,300. 3,148, Wybird, $450. 10,180, Canal, $800. 5,814, " $500.	206 10
Newcomb, James, est., 10,625, Hancock, $3,750.	121 50
Newcomb, Mrs. Richard 10,775, Newcomb, $1,000.	73 80
Newcomb, William, heirs, 10 acres, Adams, $5,000.	136 80

WARD TWO.

Nash, Albert C., est., 13,600 feet, South street, $500.	$9 00
Nash, A. E. 1 1-2 acres, off Winter, $500.	27 90
National Mt. Wollaston Bank, 7 acres, Howard ave., $3,000. 1-4 " " street, $400. 1-4 " " " $400. 27,921 feet, Howard street, $250.	187 20
Newcomb, Mrs. Caroline B., est., 21,300, Washington, $1.000. 8,000, " $400.	79 20
Newcomb, Caroline F. 41,960, Washington, $2,000. 7,439, Newcomb place, $275. 7,215, " " 275. 6,990, " " 275. 12,407, " " 400. 7,931, " " 300. 8,059, " " 300. 8,120, " " 300. 8,137, " " 300. 8,189, " " 300. 8,241, " " 300. 8,274, " " 360. 8,346, " " 350. 8,370, " " 350. 8,387, " " 350. 8,398, " " 350. 8,409, " " 350. 8,423, " " 350. 13,670, " " 800.	197 55
Newcomb, David A. 1-2 acre, Shaw, $75.	12 15
Newcomb, Edwin W. 9,300, Edwards, $650. 13,700, Main, $650.	101 00
Newcomb, Ella I. 1-4 acre, Howard, $400.	27 00
Newcomb, Everett D. 1-3 acre, Howard, $500.	9 00
Newcomb, Isaac T., heirs, 1-2 acre, Winter, $500.	26 10
Newcomb, Hattie M. 1-2 acre, Winter, $400.	19 35
Newcomb, Mrs. Margaret 36,000, Howard, $500.	25 20
Newcomb, Richard, est., 1-2 acre, Quincy ave., $600.	25 20
Newcomb, Samuel F. 1 acre, Howard, $600. 1-8 " " $200.	102 35
Newcomb, Thaddeus H. 26,080, Washington, $1,300.	55 10

WARD THREE.

Nelson, Ole D. 18,000 feet, Albertina street, $700,	$45 00
Nelson, Albert 5,200, Centre, $300.	47 00
Nelson, Martha J. 5,500, Centre, $450.	47 70
Newcomb, John H. 11,620, Quincy ave., $1,400.	54 20
Newcomb, Mary M. 14,000, Gay, $1,200.	55 80

WARD FOUR.

National Mt. Wollaston Bank, 2.08 acres, Miller street, $3,200.	$196 20
Neagle, Catherine 1-2 acre, off Common, $600.	34 20
Neagle, John 36,250 feet, Common, $1,300.	62 30
Nelson, Martin 11,000, Nelson, $450.	28 10
Nelson, Charles N. 10,200, Carlmark, $350.	44 30
Nelson, Nels 1-6 acre, Hall place, $350.	37 10
Neilson, Mrs. Augusta G. 10,000, Nelson, $400.	7 20
Newcomb, William, heirs,	32 40

WARD FIVE.

Nash, Mrs. A. B. 12,000 feet, Central ave., $750.	$58 50
Nash, Lysander, W. 7,500, Lot 13, Sec. 2, $600.	20 00
Neill, John F. 13,561, Belmont, $1,350.	72 90
Nelcamp, Charles B. 4,406, Hamilton, $400.	7 20
Nelson, Andrew G. 5,000, Farrington, $350. 5,000, " $350.	50 40
Newman, Henry A. 4,200, Beach, $350.	44 30
Nesbitt, James L. 8,157, Winthrop ave., $1,200. 5,850, " " $700.	117 20

WARD SIX.

Nelson, Catherine C. 10,560 feet, Prospect street, $1,000.	$77 40
Nelson, David C. 7,500, Atlantic, $600. 5,280, " $550.	40 70
Nelson, Mrs. Mary A. 11,000, Atlantic, $1,150.	56 70
Nelson, Mrs. Susanna J. 10,560, Atlantic, 1,100.	55 80
Newcomb, Clara M. 3,960, Webster, $325.	41 85
Newton, Lucy F. J. 21,862, Atlantic, $2,300.	72 00

To be continued.

A NEW DIRECTOR

The Y. M. C. A. Calls a Man of Experience.

At a recent meeting of the board of directors of the Y. M. C. A., a unanimous call was extended to Mr. R. N. Van Buskirk of New Bedford to become physical director of the Association, in place of Dr. E. R. Johnson of Wollaston, who has filled the position for the past four years with credit to himself and to the association, and who by reason of his rapidly increasing practice has felt obliged to devote his whole time to his profession.

Mr. Van Buskirk, his successor, was born at Ithaca, Michigan, in 1871, where he lived until fourteen years of age, receiving a common school education before removing with his parents to Florida in 1885. At Deland, Florida, he entered Stetson University and completed his high school education He then attended Centre college at Danville, Ky., and while there became interested and prominent in athletics, so much so that he was tendered the promotion of assistant physical director, serving in that capacity until called as physical director to the association at New Bedford, Mass., in 1897.

A few months ago Mr. Van Buskirk decided to give up the Physical Directorship as a life work, and to only devote part of his time to it. With this in mind he has engaged in the commission printing business in Boston, and will make Quincy his home, devoting part of his time to the work of the physical department of the Quincy Association to which he has been called.

The board of directors are to be congratulated upon securing the services of such an able and experienced man, and the physical department will expect great things from his labors.

The gymnasium classes will begin next week; meeting every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evenings at 7.45 o'clock for young men. For Juniors on Tuesday at 3.30 P. M. and on Saturday at 9.30 A. M. A business men's class will also be held to meet at least once a week.

A reception will be tendered to Mr. Van Buskirk by a committee of physical department members on next Wednesday evening, Oct. 26, from 7 to 9.30 o'clock. All members and friends of the Association are invited to attend.

☞ Nickle Alarm Clocks that go off like a gattling gun, 89 cents. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

—By the will of the late J. D. W. Joy, Tufts college receives a bequest of $30,000, payable on the death of Mrs. Joy, and is down for other sums payable to the college under certain conditions.

TO LET.

If you have a vacant tenement, advertise the fact in the Daily Ledger. We are confident it will be let within two months, and to substantiate the claim, we will advertise it after two months. To take advantage of this offer payment must be made before the expiration of the two months. A four-line space until your house is let will cost only $5 at the outside. You cannot afford on these terms to let the house continue vacant.

FREE

LETTER FROM CO. K.

With Co. K, 5th Mass.,
Camp Meade Annex, Oct. 19.

Last night the wind blew a heavy gale. Towards midnight it rained in torrents, flooding the company streets, so rafts were made to walk on. Towards 9 o'clock this morning clearing weather ensued, so that we have once more a clear bright day, but chilly. The morning's drills were dispersed with on account of parade ground being flooded. They are to be resumed again this afternoon. The camp is very quiet at this writing. The guard of yesterday encountered a severe tour of duty.

The following are on guard today for this company: Corporal Adams, Privates Gunderson, Gilfeather, Gillis, Gould, Gallagher, Hodges, Jones, Johnson, Kelliher, Leslie, Levangie, Lord. We are pleased to relate that Private Frank Hodges, son of ex-Mayor Hodges, and also Private D. P. Kelliher of K were selected as orderly to Major Morrison. This company is "gathering all the plums" lately. There being two orderlies, both yesterday and today. We are "the only company on the beach."

We are glad to welcome Corporal Wardwell back again, he having arrived last night.

With Co. K, 5th Mass.,
Camp Meade, Annex, Oct. 20.

Today is a fine sunny warm day and is drying up the ground in good shape. Last night was warmer than previous nights. The boys are still in good health no serious case of sickness prevails in this battalion.

The following are on guard today: Corporal Wardwell, Privates Leonard, Lyons, Martelle, Malcolm, Mahoney, McPhee, Mead, Morales, Osgood, O'Connors, Olsen, Oliver. Private D. P. Lyons secured the orderlyship This is Corporal Wardwell's first tour of guard duty since his arrival from home.

Private Newcomb received good news this morning from home, saying that considerable property had been left him. We hope he will be sucessful in procuring the same. Nothing of any particular interest in Camp, we are sailing smoothly along. DOC.

New Books.

A story of Custer's last rally—"The Master of the Strong Hearts" is another of Eldridge S. Brooks delightful historical works. The book tells in story fashion, as correctly as the sifted reports and records of both sides render possible, the real tale of Custer's heroic death. It is written primarily for young Americans who delight in adventures and is spiced with action. The author acknowledges valuable assistance in preparation from pale face and Indian alike; the facts are interestingly told in 3 00 pages, with eleven illustrations by William M. Cary. Published by E. P. Dutton & Co., 31 West 23d street, New York.

For Railroad Men.

A service complimentary to the railroad people will be held in the Baptist church, Braintree, Sunday. This service is gotten up especially for those connected with the railway, and their friends, and a cordial invitation is extended. The following is the order of service:

Organ Voluntary, Mr. J. H. Gutterson
Invocation.
Anthem, "The Lord is Great," Choir
Scripture and Prayer.
Anthem, "Great Jehovah," Quartette
Notices and Collection.
Organ by Miss Nellie Borden.
Duet, "Hope Beyond," Messrs. Stoddard and Murphy.
Sermon, Rev. L. B. Hatch
Anthem, "Hark! Hark! My Soul," Choir
Benediction.

The choir will consist of Miss Gertrude Milliken and Miss Alice Holbrook, soprano; Miss Angelina M. Gutterson and Mrs. G. H. Williams, alto; Mr. Eugene Murphy and Dr. E. Bent, tenor; Mr. W. Allen Stoddard and Mr. Louis Thayer, bass; Mr. John M. Gutterson. Miss Edith Stoddard and Miss Nellie Borden, Accompanists.

—The normal school at Bridgewater is filled to its utmost capacity. Never has it had such a strain put upon its equipment as now, and never was the standard of admission so high. There were 178 applicants, all of whom would have been admitted a few years ago, but this year only 131 of the best were accepted. Even this is one of the largest classes in the history of the school.

For Sale or To Let,
FURNISHED,
NASH'S HOTEL.
Full of Boarders and a good transient trade. Cheap rent. My catering business is all I can attend to.
Apply at HOTEL, 148 Hancock street, Quincy, Mass. oct11 tf lo

FOR SALE.
Bigelow St. Fine New Residence, 9 rooms, bath, laundry, furnace, open plumbing, cemented cellar, fireplace, etc.
R. D. CHASE,
Savings Bank Building.
Quincy, April 8-tf. 9p-tf

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS.

Advertisements in this column inserted at the following rates:

Four lines, or less, one day, - - 25 cents.
" " three days, - - - 50 cents.
" " one week, - - - - 75 cents.

Additional lines will be charged for pro rata. Seven words equal a line. Long term rates furnished on application.

LOST.

LOST—A Lady's Hunter Watch and Charm between Norfolk Downs and the Greenleaf Hotel, possibly in the street car. Any information will be gladly received at GREENLEAF HOTEL, and a reward paid.
Oct. 22. 3t

FOUND.

FOUND—A large yellow and white dog without a collar. Owner may have the same by proving property and paying charges.
THOS. P. HEALY,
Adams Street, Quincy.
Oct. 22. 3t

FOUND—At the auction of Ernest G. Bacon, Atlantic, one Fur Cape. The owner can obtain the same by calling at my office, 4 Chestnut street, Quincy, and proving property.
FRANK F. CRANE, Auctioneer.
Oct. 17. 6t

WANTED.

WANTED—2 Counter Girls for our new 5 and 10 cent departments. $3.00 per week. HENRY L. KINCAIDE & CO.
Quincy, Oct. 22. tf

WANTED—A situation to do general housework or second work by Swede girl who has been over a few months. Call at MRS. JOHNSON'S, 22 Clark avenue, Quincy.
Oct. 21. 3t

TO LET.

TO LET—3 Houses of 7 rooms each, healthful location and fine views. Electrics pass often. Rent low. Inquire of F. H. GRAVES, just beyond the bridge, North Weymouth.
Oct. 21. 6t

TO LET—Tenement of 6 rooms No. 12 Newcomb street, in good repair; city water. inquire of C. A. SPEAR, 7 Newcomb street.
Quincy, Oct. 20. tf

TO LET—A Sunny, Pleasant House of six rooms, newly papered and painted and in good repair; on Washington street, corner Wibird street. Centrally located in the Coddington school district. Apply only to FRANK F. PRESCOTT at Daily Ledger office.
Oct. 20. tf

TO LET—Tenement of six rooms, No. 19 Cottage avenue. Three minutes from City Square. Apply to CHAS. W. HALL, 212 Hancock street, Quincy. oct19-tf

TO LFT—Half a House of 5 rooms entirely separate on Phipps street, Mt. Pleasant. Rent, $8 a month; city water. Inquire at 17 Summer street.
Quincy, Sept. 27. 24t

TO LET—Cottage house, No. 29 Granite street, 8 rooms, three minutes' from City Square. Apply to H. M. FAXON, 4 Adams Building. Sept. 30—tf

FOR RENT—Desirable house with bath, corner lot, nice neighborhood, three minutes' walk from schools, churches and depot Rent reasonable. Apply at No. 6 Pleasant St.
Quincy, Sept. 7. tf

B. F. CURTIS,
40 Elm Street, Quincy.
TO LET—House of 10 rooms at 43 Elm street. City water, Rent, $18 per month.
Half House of 4 rooms, 19 Union street; city water. Rooms just painted and papered. Rent, $7.50 per month.

TO LET IN QUINCY.
SOUTHERLY Half of house with stable 214 Hancock street, now occupied by Dr. N. S. Hunting. Modern improvements, central location. Seven rooms and bath; furnace, gas and city water. Apply on premises to
MISS M. F. UNDERWOOD.
Oct. 1. tf

TO LET.

House of 8 rooms, etc., No. 20 Canal street, Quincy. Nice house, excellent location.
R. D. CHASE,
Savings Bank Building.
Quincy, Oct. 8. pl tf

TO LET.
APARTMENTS of five large rooms and bath, with all modern improvements. Also two large stores. Rent moderate. Apply to ARTHUR CRAIG, or J. W. HAYDEN, at Craig Building, cor. Copeland and Garfield Sts.
Quincy, July 15. pl tf

HOUSES, STORES, LAND,
ROOMS, OFFICES, AND WHARVES,
To Let In Quincy, Mass.
The Houses are in Complete Repair.

Half-house, 10 rooms, 6 Chester street, Wollaston.
House, 10 rooms with stable, 16 Cottage street.
Half-house, 5 rooms, 16 Cottage street.
House, 8 rooms, 29 Granite street.
Half-house, 4 rooms, 4 Water street, $7 per month.
Tenement, 5 rooms, 59 North street.
Half-house, 6 rooms, Pond street, $10 per month.
Half-house, 5 rooms, 13 Field street, $8 per month.
Tenement, 3 rooms, 28 Howard street, $3 per month.
Tenements, 51 Howard street, $4, $5 and $6 per month.
Room, 12 Washington street, $5 per month.
Large building, suitable for manufacturing purposes on Brackett's wharf.
Small stable, 2 Quincy street, $3 per month.
Small stable, 28 Coddington street, $5 per month.
100 windows, and blinds, various sizes.
Wharf, stone sheds, etc., Quincy Neck.
Basement, head of Granite street.
100 tons ballast for sale.
Land to rent for tillage or pasturing purposes.
Gravel and sand for sale.
50 loads of loam for sale.
The buildings are in the very best condition.
For particulars, enquire of, or address
HENRY H. FAXON,
Quincy, Mass.
Quincy, Oct. 13, 1898. 1m

Gail Borden

Eagle Brand

Condensed Milk
HAS NO EQUAL AS AN INFANT FOOD.
"INFANT HEALTH" SENT
FREE ON APPLICATION.
NEW YORK CONDENSED MILK CO. N.Y.

Coal!

Just Received by Barge
Blackbird,
a Fresh Cargo
of

Pea Coal
(Small Nut.)

J. F. SHEPPARD & SONS
Quincy Sept. 7.

POTATOES,
15c. Pk.

Sweet Potatoes,
15c. Pk.

White Seal Flour,
4.75 Bbl. Cash.

We guarantee this Flour to be old wheat and one of the best Bread Flours in the market.

L. M. PRATT & CO.,
25 School Street.

Give C. PATCH & SON

A TRIAL ORDER

For HAZELTON LEHIGH COAL.

HARPER'S BAZAR

has had its experts on fashion busily at work for three months securing the coming spring styles Therefore, if you wish to know

WHAT TO WEAR THIS SPRING

see the special Spring Number of the BAZAR. Here you will find a rich variety to choose from, including tailor-made gowns from London, shirt-waists and washable skirts. A description will accompany each fashion, giving practical suggestions on

HOW TO MAKE IT AT HOME

The newest designs in men's clothes, what is the proper thing in livery, maid-servants' dresses, etc., all will be found

IN THE SPRING NUMBER OF HARPER'S BAZAR, MAR. 12th

These fashions are given in season to enable you to have your spring clothes ready for Easter time. HARPER'S BAZAR, including the Easter Number, if the issue is not exhausted, will be sent to any one for 25c.

4 WEEKS 25c. ON TRIAL

10 Cents a Copy - Sub., $4 00 a year

Address HARPER & BROTHERS, Publishers, N. Y. City

CHEERED EVERYWHERE

President McKinley's Trip From Chicago to Columbus.

Rain Without Effect on the People's Ardor.

Addresses at Various Places Along the Route Before Large Audiences.

Cincinnati, Oct. 22.—Defying the wind and rain of a most disagreeable October day, the citizens of Indiana and Ohio yesterday congregated in great numbers at every station along the line of the presidential journey, and never were they disappointed, for the president appeared at every point to speak a few words to his constituents.

Perhaps the most imposing demonstration of the day was in Indianapolis, where the streets through which the president was driven to the state house were jammed with cheering people. Here, on the steps of the capitol, Mr. McKinley delivered one of the most striking and eloquent addresses of his western tour.

At Connersville, Ind., a two months old baby was handed over the railing from the rear platform into the arms of Secretary Wilson, who presented to the president his youngest namesake—William McKinley. Another humorous incident was when Secretary Wilson was introduced after the president had finished his remarks at Connersville. Twice Mr. Wilson commenced to speak, and twice he was interrupted by the starting of the train. Then Secretary Gage shouted: "The eloquence of the secretary of agriculture starts the wheels going." Amid great laughter Mr. Wilson then concluded his brief address.

The president in his speech in Noblesville said: "Rejoicing as we do over the victories of war, let us be careful in justice and right to gather the triumphs of peace. The soldiers have done their part; the citizens must now do theirs; and I pray God that wisdom may be given all of us to so settle this vexed and vast problem as to bring honor to our country, justice to humanity and the general good of all."

The last stop before Cincinnati was reached was Hamilton. Here the president addressed a great crowd. He said: "I trust that when we come to write the final conclusions of this struggle into the permanent forms of treaty, they shall be based on justice and right and humanity."

The presidential train reached Cincinnati at 4:30. The president bowed his acknowledgment to the crowd in waiting, but made no speech. Congressman Shattuck and a party of citizens boarded the train and shook hands with the president, but the stop was only long enough for railroad officials and newspaper men to board the train to accompany the president as far as Columbus.

The chamber of commerce telegraphed the executive, asking if he could not stop here for a reception, but the engagements in Columbus and elsewhere prevented the president from leaving his train.

Don't Know the Future.

Columbus, Oct. 22.—The presidential train arrived at Columbus about 6:30. Notwithstanding the heavy downpour an immense crowd had assembled at the depot and the building resounded with cheers. Seven thousand persons heard the president say in the Auditorium among other things: "My countrymen, the past is secured. We know the extent of our country now. Some additions have been made since I left you. Our flag floats triumphantly over Porto Rico. Our troops are in unquestioned possession of that island. The same flag floats over Hawaii. We know what our country is now, know its history, but we do not know what it may be in the near future; but whatever it is, whatever obligations shall justly come from this strife for humanity, we must take up and, as free, strong, brave people, accept the trust which civilization puts upon us."

Politics In the Bay State.

Boston, Oct. 22.—The time allowed by law in which to file independent nomination papers of candidates for congress, the state legislature and other state offices expired yesterday afternoon, and the result promises an intensely interesting campaign all over the state. The Socialist Labor party has been more active than heretofore, and has extended itself into districts left untouched in previous years.

The ballot law commissioners undoubtedly will have a busy time in straightening out the situation. Chief among the contests promised is that in the Tenth congressional, in which Harrison H. Atwood will run against Congressman Barrows as a Republican independent. At the same time Torrey E. Wardner will run as an independent Democrat against Naphen. In the Ninth Congressman Fitzgerald will have James A. Gallivan as an independent opponent. In senatorial and representative districts in and about Boston independent candidates are numerous. In the Sixth congressional district Albert L. Gillen of Haverhill runs as a "Democrat-Socialist."

Explosion at a Lecture.

New York, Oct. 22.—Professor Irving W. Fay lectured on liquified air at the Brooklyn polytechnic institute Friday, and illustrated its great freezing power with experiments. Professor Collins and eight students were watching the experiments when four or five ounces of red phosphorous, which Professor Fay had frozen in the liquified air, exploded with great force. Fay's face and eyes were severely burned, and it is probable he will lose his sight. Lincoln Burroughs, a student, was badly burned about the face.

Thrown Into a Vat.

North Adams, Mass., Oct. 22.—Severano De Stefani, aged 35 years, was arraigned in court yesterday on a charge of assault and placed under $5000 bonds. It is alleged that during a dispute with W. J. Ryan at the Arnold print works he threw Ryan into a vat of boiling water, the victim dying after 12 hours of intense suffering.

NOW IN ALABAMA.

Short Session of the Investigators In the Capital of Georgia.

Atlanta, Oct. 22.—Only two witnesses were examined by the war investigating commission after they had made an inspection of Cort McPherson. Major Taylor said he had no difficulty in securing supplies, as he had been given carte blanche to purchase them. This authority, however, had not been given until the first of August, whereas it had been asked for as early as the 25th of June. In the beginning of the camp's history he had considerable difficulty in getting requisitions filled, though he had no difficulty in having them approved by the authorities in Washington. One requisition made on the 16th of May and another on the 24th of June had not been entirely filled until recently. These requisitions had been made upon the New York supply depot, while all that were made on the St. Louis depot had been promptly filled. One hundred and sixteen cots ordered in the beginning of the season had only arrived a day or two since, and they were not now needed. Dr. Taylor, on account of delay in filling these requisitions, had been compelled to call upon the surgeon-general for a portion of his special fund, and had thus prevented any suffering among patients. Among the articles in which there was delay was bed linen. Dr. Taylor said he had found the 60 cents a day commutation fund more than sufficient to furnish food for the sick men, and expressed the opinion that 40 cents per day would be sufficient for the purpose of supplying food.

Rev. Mr. Nave had visited every patient who had been in the hospital, and he had never heard a single complaint from a man who was possessed of his reason, while on the contrary he had heard many expressions of gratitude and commendation for the excellent conduct of the hospital. Mr. Nave expressed the opinion that in the conduct of military hospitals generally there was too little care of the clothes and other property of patients. He said: "The thieving which has been going on and the petty peculation which has been practiced upon soldiers oftentimes by their comrades have been one of the saddest features of the war." While the bodies of patients were carefully guarded their property was not. "These articles were often," the chaplain said, "very sacred to the patient in case of his recovery, and to his friends and relatives in case of death." Chaplain Nave had seen some of the surgeons at the hospital under the influence of liquor, but not to a sufficient extent to interfere with the proper performance of their duties.

The commission left last night for Anniston.

President Eliot's Eloquent Words.

Cambridge, Oct. 22.—President Eliot's address at the students' meeting to decide on a memorial to the Harvard men who died in the war was one of the most eloquent that he has given. He spoke in substance as follows: "Colonel Roosevelt's phrase, 'Gave their young lives,' is a most common one, but how much it means. These men who have died in the Cuban war have given what you are now hopefully looking forward to. Human life has gone for them. What did they go for? Sometimes we get an adverse answer. Sometimes it is said that war is not worth fighting; that educated men in particular should know better than to enter it. These views seem to me unsound.

"What does this hall say to the men who have sat here? It says that they shall be remembered who gave their lives for their country. Shall we deprive them of that- What did they know, what did the young men of '61 know of the issues of the war in which they entered? So long as war is the inevitable method of settling disputes arising from human passion and ignorance, men are bound thus to answer the call of the government. Is not the reason of our success in arms as a nation that when there was a need our young men sprang to arms? Foreign nations knew that when the government called for troops they would be forthcoming. If in the future our country can get along without the standing armies and navies that are such a burden to European countries it will be because this is so."

Some of the Spoils.

Washington, Oct. 22.—The board of officers of the ordnance department which was directed to inquire into the condition of the Spanish small arms captured in Santiago finds that the Spanish arm consists of two patterns, the Spanish Mauser of seven milimetre calibre and the Turkish of 7.65 milimetre calibre. The cartridges for these arms are not interchangeable. There is only a small percentage of the latter arm, however, not enough to take into consideration the subject of restoring them for use in the army. Of the Spanish Mausers it was found that about three-fourths of them could be utilized by taking parts of the remainder and supplying deficiencies in the best arms. This would make, at a rough estimate, 7000 Mausers available for use in the army if needed. No decision has been reached as to the feasibility of introducing them into the American army, and it is possible that for the present they will be held to await an emergency.

Report Was Untrue.

Bangor, Oct. 22.—A sensational report was sent out from Biddeford the other day to the effect that Captain Dodd of Troop F, U. S. cavalry (regulars), who was wounded at Santiago was shot by one of his own men, who hated him and swore that if they ever went into actual battle that he would not come out alive.

Private Pearlstein of Troop F is now in Bangor on sick furlough, having been wounded three times at Santiago. In the engagement he was stationed near Captain Dodd, who ordered his men to lie down, while he bravely remained standing in the midst of a terrible shower of bullets. Finally a bullet struck him in the forehead. Pearlstein denounced the reports as malicious falsehoods, and says that a very good soldier, who intends to do his duty, likes Captain Dodd, who is regarded as one of the best of officers.

Murdered For His Money.

Montgomery, Ala., Oct. 22.—Friday morning Calvin McCou, sergeant-major of the Third Alabama regiment, was found dead on the street. He had been shot, the ball entering the left ear. He was seen Thursday with considerable money, and when found his pockets had been cut out and the money was gone.

AROUSED AND DEFIANT

Bellicose Attitude of the French Over Fashoda.

Disposition to Resist the British Demands.

Backs of Officials Stiffened by a Rumor as to Russian Support.

Paris, Oct. 22.—A remarkable change has come over French opinion on the Fashoda question during the last 48 hours. The attitude of the public is more inflamed and more defiant. This is partly due to the tone of the British press, but more to the threatening speech of the British chancellor of the exchequer, Sir Michael Beach, which The Authority calls "a provocation that is almost a threat of war."

The municipal council of Paris is abused on all sides for exhorting the government to avert war. In government circles the disposition seems to be to resist the British demands. It is reported that the policy of France, as definitely stated to Great Britain, includes the retention of Fashoda.

Rumors that the Russian foreign minister, Count Muravieff, has assured the French foreign minister of Russia's support in the controversy tend to stiffen the backs of the higher officials, though these continue to maintain a conciliatory tone, and declare that France is prepared to carry amiability to the utmost limits consistent with her rights and dignity.

Goverment Won't Budge.

London, Oct. 22.—Government circles here are apparently satisfied that the Fashoda question will not lead to war. At the same time the determination is reiterated not to budge from the position which the British government has taken up no matter what the outcome may be. It is said on good authority that the government has also determined not to brook unreasonable delay, and that in the event of France declining to evacuate Fashoda, the Marchand party will be removed from that place, though it is not expected that it will be necessary to go to extremes.

Cheers For Marchand.

Dublin, Oct. 22.—William Redmond, Parnellite member of parliament, addressing a home rule meeting here, called for cheers for Major Marchand, which were given with great heartiness. Mr. Redmond said: "The sympathies of Irishmen are with France."

Work For Kruger's Army.

Pretoria, Oct. 22.—Chief Opefu, with 20,000 followers, fully armed, and four cannon, supplied by white traders, has attacked the laager. Heavy fighting is proceeding. The ultimatum of the commanding officer of the Transvaal troops, General P. J. Joubert, demanding an unconditional surrender, has been ignored by the tribesmen, and he has summoned 3,000 burghers to reinforce the 5,000 now in the field. The campaign promises to be prolonged.

The scene of the fighting is the extreme northern section of Transvaal territory, west of Gasa country (Umhlegaland), and southeast of the country of the Matebele. It is in the very heart of a district inhabited by some of the bravest and most intractable of South African tribesmen. Chief Opefu has long been a thorn in the side of the Transvaal government.

General Joubert, who is conducting the operations against the tribesmen, is vice-president of the South African republic, as well as commander-in-chief of the Transvaal army. He was elected vice-president on May 13, 1896. He was one of the founders of the South African republic, constituting with Paul Kruger, now president of the republic, and Martinus Wessels Pretorius, the triumvirate who proclaimed it on Dec. 30, 1880.

The Paris Negotiations.

London, Oct. 22.—The Madrid correspondent of The Standard says: "The displeasure and disappointment felt in official circles at the failure of the skilful strategy of Montero Rios, concerted with Sagasta and Duke Almodovar, to minimize the consequences of the war, are keen and profound. Mr. Rios foresaw that all depended upon inducing the American commissioners even implicity to admit the Spanish views of the protocol. He used the incidents of the evacuation commissions in Cuba and Porto Rico to sound the opinions of the Americans; and he tried to ascertain their views regarding the Philippines by renewing the Spanish protest against America's veto of Spain's proposal to send war vessels to reinforce the Spanish commanders holding out at various ports and by asking for the liberation of Aguinaldo's prisoners.

"Then both commissions offered written suggestions as to a definitive treaty. Rios drew up a strong case in reply to the American proposals. The American commissioners, perceiving what Spain was driving at, distinctly and courteously put it upon record that President McKinley had only consented to suspend hostilities after Spain had solemnly accepted the irreducible bases for a peace treaty, clearly laid down in the protocol, in order to avoid misunderstanding."

Honors For His "Tyrantship."

Constantinople, Oct. 22. -The emperor and empress of Germany, with the sultan, reviewed 15,000 Turkish troops yesterday from a window. Their German majesties saluted the flag of each regiment. Emperor William wore the uniform of a German general, with several Turkish orders. Empress Augusta Victoria wore the Chefakat order, and the sultan the order of the black eagle.

Later in the day the prefect of police presented the visitors with silver vases, subscribed for by the populace, remarking in the speech of presentation upon the friendship between the two countries in the appreciation felt by all Mussulmans at the visit of their majesties. Sultan Abdul Hamid presided at a farewell banquet to his imperial guests, at which all the Turkish ministers and foreign envoys were present.

After the review the sultan escorted the empress to luncheon, taking her on his arm. An immense crowd of Turks surrounded the palace and cheered until Emperor William appeared upon the balcony. Considerable comment is made upon the extraordinary fraternizing of the German and Turkish soldiers.

Volunteers Aided the Regulars.

Malden, Mass., Oct. 22.—The Kernwood club, a social body well known throughout the state, held an army and navy night at its clubhouse last night, entertaining Colonel E. P. Clark of the Second Massachusetts regiment and Chaplain George A. Crawford of the navy. A reception was followed by addresses, chief of which was that of Colonel Clark, who recited the experiences of his regiment on Cuban soil. He said: "Too much praise cannot be given to the regular army, and the army is a credit to the nation. It was the regular army that did the work, and the volunteers were simply an aid to the regulars. They have not received the credit due them because they did not have the correspondents with them that the state militia regiments had.

"We remained in the vicinity of El Caney until July 11, when we encircled the city of Santiago. On the next day we were in our earthworks ready to fire upon the enemy, and a few hours later we received word that the city had surrendered. Three days later came the formal surrender, and this was one of the greatest events of the whole campaign. It was after this surrender that our hardest trials came, and it was then that disease set in. From then until we reached home came the most heart-rending scenes that I ever witnessed."

Secretary Gage Sustained.

Washington, Oct. 22.—Justice Cox sustains Secretary Gage in his action in refusing to award certain bonds of the war issue to those persons who, it is alleged, applied for allotments through the Produce Exchange Trust company of New York. He dwells upon the fact that the war loan issue of bonds was clearly intended, by the act of congress authorizing it, to be a popular one—that is, that the bonds should be held by the people instead of by the large corporations in any considerable amount.

His opinion is that the mere fact that the allotment of bonds had been made by the secretary of the treasury to the persons named in the petitioner's bill, even though they had been so notified and had made part payment, does not constitute a binding contract between the government and the applicants for bonds, were they real persons and the subscriptions genuine. He also held that the secretary of the treasury had not exhausted the discretion vested in him by congress authorizing the bond issue by simply sending out notices of allotment, and it could not be exhausted until the last act of issuing the bonds had been done, and that at any time prior thereto he might recall the allotment notices.

Horses For Food Purposes.

Boston, Oct. 22.—A petition was filed with City Clerk Galvin Friday by Charles Weiss of Somerville for a license for himself to carry on the business of slaughtering horses at Brighton abattoir for food purposes. In his petition Mr. Weiss states that the "business is to be carried on and the product to be sold or used for food, packed in barrels for export. The estimated number of animals to be slaughtered every week is 120 horses, slaughtering to be on each day, except Sundays, and at all times of the day."

The health commissioners will next be called upon to act, if the board of aldermen grant the license, as the final decision rests with them. One of the commissioners states that there is no law in Massachusetts against the slaughtering of horses for food, but that this is the first time that it has come before the health department for consideration. He also states that there is quite an export business carried on by concerns outside of the commonwealth, a very large portion of the horse meat going to Germany.

Thirteen on the Committee.

Washington, Oct. 22.—The Episcopalian deputies yesterday disposed of the question of marriage and divorce for this general convention by adopting a resolution creating a special committee of 13 members, to whom is referred the entire subject, with instructions to report prior to the next general convention.

A discussion on the christianization of Jews occupied the greater portion of the morning session of the bishops. It was started by the report on the society for the promotion of christianity among the people of that race. There was considerable difference in the views of the speakers as to the result of the work of the society. The bishop coadjutor of Minnesota said the history of the association was that of a shriveling cause. Bishop Potter of New York thought that the true agency for the Israelites was in the parish church, while Dr. Huntington of New York said the Jews were being gradually absorbed into the christian world through different channels. A resolution was finally carried recommending the society to the sympathy of the clergy.

The Sponge Thrown Up.

New York, Oct. 22.—Tom Ryan of Philadelphia put up a game fight at catchweights with Mat Matthews of Brooklyn last night. The bout was to have been a 25-round affair, but it lasted only a little more than half the distance, as Ryan's seconds threw up the sponge in the middle of the 13th round and Matthews got the decision.

The betting was two to one on the Brooklynite, but for 10 rounds Ryan met his opponent in good shape, and those who thought that Mat would have an easy job were disagreeably surprised at Ryan's staying powers. Ryan's seconds showed good judgment by acting as they did, for their man could not have withstood Matthews' punishment for another round.

Heavy Registration.

New York, Oct. 22.—The total registration for the third day in the boroughs of Manhattan and the Bronx was 67,637, total for three days, 240,224. For the third day last year the registration was 63,217; for three days, 261,974. The registration in the borough of Brooklyn was 36,215, making a total for the three days of 152,510. For the third day in 1897 in the borough the registration was 49,895, and for the three days of last year, 166,-153.

In the borough of Queens the total for the third day was 4570; for three days, 17,799. For last year the third day's registration was 5668; for three days, 20,985.

Fishing for Health.

When a man breaks down with the dread disease, consumption, and recognizes his condition, he starts out to fish for health. He tries this thing and that thing. He consults this doctor and that doctor. He indulges in all kinds of absurd athletic exercises. He tries first one climate and then another. He tries the rest cure and the work cure. He grows steadily worse.

That is the story of most consumptives. Finally, when the consumptive dies, the doctor shrugs his shoulders and pronounces consumption incurable. A thirty years' test of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has demonstrated that it cures 98 per cent. of all cases of consumption, if taken in the earlier stages of the disease, before the lungs are too far wasted. In a consumptive there is a weaker spot than even the lungs. That spot is the stomach. A consumptive never really begins to die until his stomach gives out. The "Golden Medical Discovery" not only braces up the stomach, but acts directly on the lungs, healing them and driving out all impurities. Honest medicine dealers will not urge you to take an inferior substitute.

"I had a very bad cough, also night-sweats, and was almost in my grave with consumption," writes Mrs. Clara A. McIntyre, Box 171, Ashland, Middlesex Co., Mass. "A friend of mine who had died with consumption came to me in a dream and told me to take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and, thank the Lord, I did so. By the time I had taken half of the first bottle I felt much better. I kept on until I had taken three bottles. That was all I needed. I got well and strong again."

Whenever constipation is one of the complicating causes of disease, the most perfect remedy is Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, which are always effective, yet absolutely mild and harmless. There never was any remedy invented which can take their place. They never gripe.

The John Hancock Stables.
Opposite Depot, Quincy, Mass.
Boarding, Baiting, Livery and Sale
DR. J. A. DOW, Proprietor,
the well known Veterinary dentist and specialist in the treatment of lame horses. Sick horses treated at owner's risk.
The finest equipped and managed stable of its size in America.
Fine driving turnouts in light rigs; safe and good appearing. All horses let are perfectly safe for ladies to drive.
The choicest family, road and coach horses constantly on hand for sale. All horses guaranteed as represented.
☞ Will attend to veterinary practice as usual. aug18-1y

FISH.

Everything first-class at the

Cape Cod Fish Market,
Temple Street.

All kinds Fresh, Salt, Smoked and Pickeled

Quincy, Feb. 8. 1y

Mortgagee's Sale.

BY Virtue of a power of sale contained in a certain mortgage-deed given by Marcena R. Sparrow (sometimes called Marcenar R. Sparrow) to George W. Smith, dated November 16th, 1896, and recorded in Norfolk Deeds, Book 774, page 413, for breach of the conditions contained in said mortgage, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction, on the premises hereinafter described, on MONDAY, November 7, 1898, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, all and singular the property described in said mortgage, namely:

A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon, situated in that part of Quincy called Wollaston, being lot 12 in Block "C" of Section 2 extended, as shown on a plan of said section of the land of the Wollaston Land Associates, drawn by D. Granger & Son, and bounded and described as follows: Northeasterly on Prospect avenue, seventy-five (75) feet; northwesterly on lot thirteen (13) of said Block and Section, one hundred and fifty (150) feet; southwesterly on lot 5 of said Block and Section seventy-five (75) feet; and southeasterly on lot 11 of said Block and Section, one hundred and fifty (150) feet.

Said property will be sold subject to a mortgage for $1,400 and all unpaid taxes and assessments. $200 to be paid at the time and place of sale, the balance within ten days at the office of my attorney.

GEORGE W. SMITH, Mortgagee.
W. W. Jenness, Attorney,
87 Milk street, Boston.
October 15, 1898. 15 22 29

Chichester's English Diamond Brand.
PENNYROYAL PILLS
Original and Only Genuine.
LADIES ask Druggist for Chichester's English Diamond Brand in Red and Gold metallic boxes, sealed with blue ribbon. Take no other. Refuse dangerous substitutions and imitations. At Druggists, or send 4c. in stamps for particulars, testimonials and "Relief for Ladies," in letter, by return Mail. 10,000 Testimonials. Name Paper. Chichester Chemical Co., Madison Square PHILADA., Pa.
Sold by all Local Druggists.
Sold by Geo. C. Goodwin & Co., Boston, Mass. General Agents.

LADIES ROYAL DELIVERANCE CAPSULES are a positive, safe and speedy monthly regulator, guaranteed to cure the most stubborn cases, or money refunded. Have never failed. Used by thousands of ladies, indorsed and prescribed by the medical profession. Painful and dangerous operations avoided. Price $2, at office or by return mail. "Royal Protector" and full particulars under plain seal for 4c., stamps. ROYAL REMEDIES CO., 228 Tremont Street, Boston, Mass. Mention this paper.

HUMOR OF

"What do you ca asked the visitor room.
"This," said the
with the slightly was exhibiting th
calliopiporkestrion.
"Is it automatic tor.
"Oh, at all not!"
ing exhibitor. "It tical self acting."
"Can the music
give any expressio
"The music is a ing the greatest pr
"May I ask you
"This musical w on glibly, "will productions of the splendid loud, but the ear. The mus and has own tunes doline and cymba composition are b in a masterly m built very strong a newest experience
ed by right usage.
"As to the mann
"Most elegant w fortable if desired playing one or two ed up by a pate noise. Movement the side. It is p buttons of the wh tune after a long u please tallow a lit
the noise is no long
"It is all intere
er, sidling toward barrassment, "but"
"To avoid the lames and of the s calliopiporkestrion about four hours i is determined to p up the spring. F must accept the room before organi
At this point, succeeded in escapi
ble exhibitor of th with his descripti
in Leipsic—only h Tribune.

The War Is Resp
An enthusiasti writes as follows:
My John's comin
An he'll never
He lost one arm
That's all o' the
But I'm goin t
But the above ha of the Wisconsin briefly:
John's come home
Got my love; also
—At

Advantages
Perry Patettic—more attention to Wayworn Watso
it do you?
"Just this: I'd now as a wounded
only I dunno whic to. It would be one of them outfit from home."—Ci

Dil
"Just got a lett who has reached dike."
"Answered him
"No. I'm in and I answer him.
with me all wint
it and I don't a lend me a cent."

Ne
"Since Mrs. F ow," he suggeste looks younger."
"Of course," s necessary now th
Thus do wome angling proclivit

Quizzer—Did t thing when they Guyer—No. T warning the da Journal.

Both
She—Whew! smoked a horri have married you
He—If I'd k
cigars and supp
never would have York Weekly.

Why Dasherly—I c investment.
Flasherly—W
hand, isn't it?—

P
I jes' licked h
On'y now I
But he doesn
An he likes

Runs an gits
Sets thar, s
With his heel
While he h

Wot's a fathe
With a kid
If yer lick hi
Wonder how

Runs an gits
Sets thar, s
With his heel
While he h

Fishing for Health.

…n a man breaks down with that …disease, consumption, and recognizes …ndition, he starts out to fish for … He tries this thing and that thi… …sults this doctor and that doctor, …ulges in all kinds of absurd athletic …es. He tries first one climate and …nother. He tries the rest cure and …rk cure. He grows steadily worse… …is the story of most consumptives. …, when the consumptive dies, the …shrugs his shoulders and pronounces …ption incurable. A thirty years' … Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Dis… …has demonstrated that it cures 98 …nt. of all cases of consumption, if …n the earlier stages of the disease, …the lungs are too far wasted. In a …ptive there is a weaker spot than …e lungs. That spot is the stomach. …umptive never really begins to die …is stomach gives out. The "Golden … Discovery" not only braces … …omach, but acts directly on the … healing them and driving out all …ties. Honest medicine dealers will …e you to take an inferior substitute.

…d a very bad cough, also night-sweats, … almost in my grave with consumption." Mrs. Clara A. McIntyre, Box 171, Ash…ddlesex Co., Mass. "A friend of mine …d died with consumption came to me in … and told me to take Dr. Pierce's Golden … Discovery, and, thank the Lord, I did … the time I had taken half of the first …felt much better. I kept on until I had …ree bottles. That was all I needed. I …and strong again."

…ever constipation is one of the com… …r causes of disease, the most perfect … is Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. …are always effective, yet absolutely …d harmless. There never was any… … invented which can take their… They never gripe.

John Hancock Stables.

Opposite Depot, Quincy, Mass.

…ng, Baiting, Livery and Sale.

… J. A. DOW, Proprietor,

…known Veterinary dentist and specialist … treatment of lame horses. Sick horses … owner's risk.

…est equipped and managed stable of its …merica.

…riving turnouts in light rigs; safe and …earing. All horses let are perfectly safe … to drive.

…hoicest family, road and coach horses …y on hand for sale. All horses guaran… …presented.

…ill attend to veterinary practice as … aug18-1y

…FISH.

…ything first-class at the

…e Cod Fish Market,

Temple Street.

…inds Fresh, Salt, Smoked an… …d

…y, Feb. 8. 1y

…Mortgagee's Sale.

…tue of a power of sale contained in a …ain mortgage-deed given by Marcena …w (sometimes called Marcenar R. …to George W. Smith, dated November … and recorded in Norfolk Deeds, Book …413, for breach of the conditions con…aid mortgage, and for the purpose of … the same, will be sold at public auc… …he premises hereinafter described, on …, November 7, 1898, at ten o'clock in …on, all and singular the property de…aid mortgage, namely:

…n parcel of land with the buildings …situated in that part of Quincy called … being lot 12 in Block "C" of Sec…nded, as shown on a plan of said sec…e land of the Wollaston Land Associ…n by D. Granger & Son, and bounded …bed as follows: Northeasterly on …venue, seventy-five (75) feet; north…n lot thirteen (13) of said Block and …ne hundred and fifty (150) feet; …rly on lot 5 of said Block and Section …e (75) feet; and southeasterly on lot …Block and Section, one hundred and … feet.

…perty will be sold subject to a mort… …1,400 and all unpaid taxes and assess… …200 to be paid at the time and place … balance within ten days at the office …ney.

…EORGE W. SMITH, Mortgagee.

…fenness, Attorney, …7 Milk street, Boston. …15, 1898. 15 22 29

…hichester's English Diamond Brand.

…NYROYAL PILLS

Original and Only Genuine.

SAFE, always reliable. LADIES ask Druggist for Chichester's English Diamond Brand in Red and Gold metallic boxes, sealed with blue ribbon. Take no other. Refuse dangerous substitutions and imitations. At Druggists, or send 4c. in stamps for particulars, testimonials and "Relief for Ladies," in letter, by return Mail. 10,000 Testimonials. Name Paper. Chichester Chemical Co., Madison Square Post Office, PHILADA., PA.

Sold by Geo. C. Goodwin & Co., Boston, Mass. …nts.

LADIES ROYAL DELIVERANCE CAPSULES are a positive, safe and speedy monthly regulator, guaranteed to cure the most stubborn cases, or money refunded. Have never failed. Used by thousands of ladies, indorsed and prescribed by the medical profession. Painful and dangerous operations avoided. Price $2, at office or by return mail. 'Royal Protector' and full particulars under plain seal for 4c., stamps. ROYAL REMEDIES CO., 228 Tremont Street, Boston, Mass. Mention this paper.

HUMOR OF THE HOUR.

"What do you call this instrument?" asked the visitor at the large music room.

"This," said the smiling gentleman with the slightly foreign accent who was exhibiting the new marvel, "is a calliopiporkestrion."

"Is it automatic?" inquired the visitor.

"Oh, at all not!" responded the smiling exhibitor. "It is very decided practical self acting."

"Can the music be varied so as to give any expression?"

"The music is admirable and satisfying the greatest pretensions to it."

"May I ask you how it is operated?"

"This musical wonderment," he went on glibly, "will outlast all existing productions of the concurrency. It plays splendid loud, but much agreeable to the ear. The music are full sounding and has own tunes as produced by mandoline and cymbal. The most of the composition are brought complete and in a masterly manner. The work is built very strong and constructed to the newest experiences. Repairs are excluded by right usage."

"As to the manner of its operation"—

"Most elegant walnut case, very comfortable if desired, with apparatus for playing one or two times. Is to be winded up by a patented winch without noise. Movement of the steel tune on the side. It is possible that the little buttons of the wheel moving the steel tune after a long usage begins to squeak please tallow a little these buttons and the noise is no longer visible."

"It is all interesting," said the caller, sidling toward the door in some embarrassment, "but"—

"To avoid the destruction of the lames and of the spring please unpack calliopiporkestrion and let it repose about four hours in the room where it is determined to play without winding up the spring. For all parts of steel must accept the temperature of this room before organizing of the music."

At this point, however, the caller succeeded in escaping, leaving the affable exhibitor of the calliopiporkestrion with his descriptive circular—printed in Leipsic—only half recited.—Chicago Tribune.

The War Is Responsible For These.

An enthusiastic Georgia poetess writes as follows:

My John's comin home from the army,
An he'll never do fightin no more.
He lost one arm—
That's all o' the harm—
But I'm goin to marry him—shore!

But the above hardly equals the effect of the Wisconsin poetess, who sings, briefly:

John's come home—so glad to mention!
Got my love; also his pension.

—Atlanta Constitution.

Advantages of Education.

Perry Patettic—I wish I'd of paid more attention to this here war.

Wayworn Watson—What good would it do you?

"Just this: I'd be goin around right now as a wounded soldier from Cuby, only I dunno which regiment to belong to. It would be jist my luck to name one of them outfits that never got away from home."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Dilemma.

"Just got a letter from Cousin Bill, who has reached Seattle from the Klondike."

"Answered him yet?"

"No. I'm in doubt. If he's broke and I answer him, he'll come and board with me all winter, and if he's struck it and I don't answer him, he won't lend me a cent."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

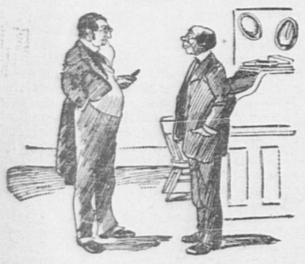

Necessary.

"Since Mrs. Black has been a widow," he suggested, "it seems to me she looks younger."

"Of course," she replied. "It is more necessary now that she should."

Thus do women betray each other's angling proclivities.—Chicago Post.

Saved.

Quizzer—Did the burglars get anything when they broke into your house?

Guyer—No. The cook had given warning the day before.—New York Journal.

Both Hated It.

She—Whew! If I'd known you'd smoked a horrid pipe, I never would have married you.

He—If I'd known I couldn't smoke cigars and support a woman, too, I never would have married you.—New York Weekly.

Why, Certainly.

Dasherly—I consider diamonds a safe investment.

Flasherly—Who doesn't? Cash on hand, isn't it?—New York Journal.

Puzzled.

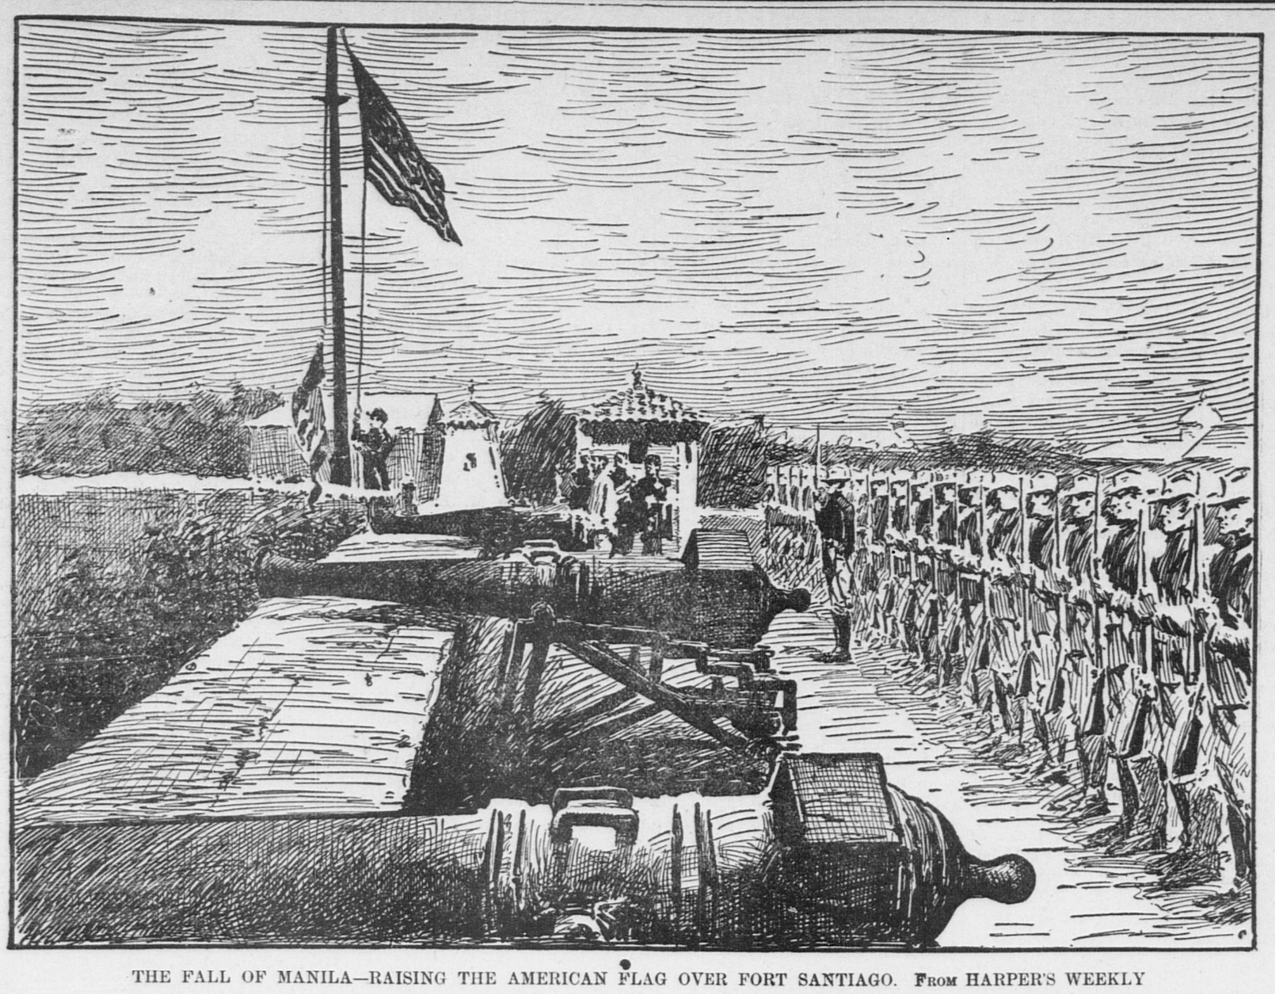

I jes' licked him with a strap;
On'y now I let him go,
But he doesn't keer a rap,
An he likes ter tell me so.

Runs an gits up on the fence;
Sets thar, sassylike an pert,
With his heels a-kickin dents
While he hollers, "Didn't hurt!"

Wot's a father goin ter do
With a kid 'at doesn't mind
If yer lick him black and blue?
Wonder how his pants is lined?

Runs an gits up on the fence;
Sets thar, sassylike an pert,
With his heels a-kickin dents
While he hollers, "Didn't hurt!"

—New York Truth.

THE FALL OF MANILA—RAISING THE AMERICAN FLAG OVER FORT SANTIAGO. From HARPER'S WEEKLY

After a Drawing by G. W. Peters. Reproduced from Harper's Weekly. By Permission. Copyright, 1898, by Harper & Brothers

The wisdom of following the strategy which, it is understood, Admiral Dewey favored, of dropping a few shells into Manila and then landing troops from transports on the waterfront to occupy the city, is proved by the experience of the Second Oregon Volunteers. Company E, acting as escort to General Merritt on board of the Zafiro, and the rest of the First and Second battalions of the Second Oregon on the steamer Kong Hoi, proceeded out with the squadron from Cavite, making for Manila. During the day the two steamers lay just back of the fleet in action, but well within the range of the silent guns on the Luneta. At four o'clock in the afternoon the Belgian tug which, after the white flag had been raised in the city, had brought out the Belgian consul, through whom terms of surrender were negotiated, came alongside of the Kong Hoi, with orders or Colonel Summers to make a landing with the two battalions of the Second Oregon and proceed to the walled city. The Kong Hoi went aground near the entrance of the Pasig River, and Colonel Summers was obliged to collect all small boats in the river to effect a landing. In the remarkably short time of forty minutes the two battalions were on shore, marching up into the walled part of Manila. Company A was ordered to lower the Spanish garrison flag and to raise the American colors. As Lieutenant Pobey raised the American flag the whole fleet saluted, and the Oregon band, which came marching up the Luneta, struck up "The Star Spangled Banner." At the mouth of the Pasig River the Spanish gunboat Subig, set afire to prevent our capturing her, blazed heavenward, as if in a last salute to the yellow and red of Spain, while in the west the setting sun streaked the clouds with gold. The day of Spanish glory and misrule was at an end in the Philippines. Our illustration, taken from Harper's Weekly, shows the raising of the American colors over Fort Santiago, Manila. It was drawn by G. W. Peters, special artist with General Merritt's forces.

The town was crowded with Spanish troops. These marched slowly into the square before the palace, the headquarters of General Merritt, and between two files of Oregon soldiers dropped their arms in great heaps. The disarming went on till one o'clock at night. Four thousand stand of arms were taken that night. The Spanish men accept the situation philosophically enough, but the women wept, and filled the air with their cries of distress.

For sixty hours 400 of out of 500 Oregon troops in Manila were on guard duty. They seized, in the different churches immense stores of provisions of the Spanish government. In the Church of St. Augustine alone they found 7,100 sacks of rice, each sack containing 150 pounds. Sardines, beans, olive oil, coffee, bacon, and dried fish were there in plenty indisputably proving that the garrison might have held out indefinitely, so far as food supply went. In the treasury 850,000 Mexican dollars were taken.

HOW TO MAKE MONEY.

Take a silver dollar and drop it on a jeweler's show case and you'll get a ring. Take a quarter and saw it in two in the middle and get two halves. Take a two-dollar bill and fold it once and you double it—and you can keep on monkeying with money and make imaginary capital for an hour. But if you want to get a new wrinkle in money, just take a new ten dollar bill and fold it corner-ways and you'll get a new wrinkle every time. But don't fool with your money and don't let anybody else fool with it. Don't let anybody fool you with the idea that they'll give you a $10 bill with every $2 suit or overcoat.

The new store has earned a reputation for selling straight goods at straight prices. We don't monkey with your money, or flim flam you with any imaginary values. We give you good goods, charge a fair-profit price for everything you buy and expect you to come back the second time because you were used right the first.

We can sell a good Overcoat for $5.00 and an all wool one for $6.50. But for $7.50 we can show you a dandy all wool Kersey, made with raw edge and lap seams and lined with good lasting linings. T l same coat our competitors (in Boston) get $10 for.

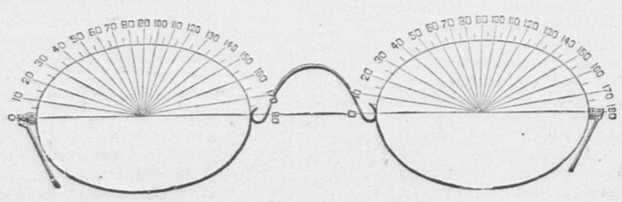

Our $10 coat we have in Blacks, Blues, Olives and Browns. Then we have them for $11, $12, $13, $13.50, $15, $15.50 and upwards to $19, in all the different style goods worn this season.

For this week and next too, if they are not all gone, we will sell all wool Dickey Pants at $1.48. All the other stores get $2.00.

QUINCY CLOTHING CO.,

LOWEST PRICED CLOTHIERS IM NORFOLK COUNTY.

MUSIC HALL BLOCK.

ASTIGMATISM

Causes most of the distressing headaches. Properly fitted glasses will correct the error and remove the pain. Consult

WILLIAMS,

Member of the New England Association of Opticians,

104 Hancock St., Quincy.

HAZELTON LEHIGH

And Not Hard White Ash,
Is What You Should Burn.

C. PATCH & SON.

E. S. BECKFORD,

Electrician.

Wiring and Fitting for Incandescent, Motors, Dynamos, Bells, etc.

GRANITE STREET, Near the Bridge, QUINCY

Feb. 1 1y

NOTHING BETTER,

UNCLE SAM'S NAVY

Now commands the respect of the world, and we are all proud of the defenders of the Nation's Honor. To give the people of Quincy a good idea of the grand battleships, we have ordered a large supply of portfolios, giving magnificent views of the ships, crews, etc.

With each purchase made at our store we will give a portfolio check to the value of the purchase. When you have $4.00 worth of these checks, return them and get a portfolio. Continue in this way until you have the set complete. Call and see these magnificent portfolios.

ROGERS BROS.,

Groceries and Provisions. Adams Building, Quincy.

Great Guns

do great execution if well aimed. Advertising accomplishes great results in business conquest if well directed.

THE TATTLER.

Mrs. Curzon in her new place will bow only to Queen Victoria.

The late Miss Julia Demuth of York, Pa., made the two missionary societies of the Presbyterian church residuary legatees of her estate.

Dr. Catherina de Farsenbroeck, who has attained fame as a gynecologist, has been appointed by the Dutch government as a member of the medical examining commission.

Mrs. Hanna Clark has given to Elkhart, Ind., the Clark Homeopathic Hospital and Training School For Nurses and Surgeons, the main building of which is valued at $15,000.

Miss Anna Bouligny of New Orleans, who assisted Miss Chanler as a nurse in Porto Rico, is the great-great-granddaughter of the Lieutenant Bienville who founded her native city.

The name of Mme. Adele Maria Juana Patti Nicolini of Craig-y-Nos castle appears in a recent London Gazette among the aliens to whom certificates of British naturalization have been granted.

Letizia, duchess dowager of Aosta, having exhausted the excitement of bicycling, has now turned to ballooning, which she is trying to make the fashionable sport for Italian society. She makes a daily ascent accompanied by her maid.

Mrs. Cynthia Conant of Springfield, Mass., who has just celebrated her hundredth birthday, is in excellent health and in conversation is bright and interesting. She saw Lafayette when he visited Boston and often tells how handsome he was and how distinguished he appeared.

The mother of the late Secretary of State Walter Q. Gresham celebrated the ninety-second anniversary of her birth in Lanesboro, Ind., not long ago. She was one of the first white children born in what is now Harrison county, Ind. She was married to Colonel Gresham 75 years ago.

Miss Elsie Reasoner is a Kansas girl. Miss Reasoner had charge of the bureau of publicity at Omaha when the war broke out, but she at once resigned her place and went away with the soldiers, going first to Kingston, Jamaica. She witnessed several engagements and will write about the war as seen by a girl.

Miss Florence Nightingale, who has never recovered from the effects of her labors during the Crimean war, presents in this respect a strong contrast to Miss Clara Barton, who, in the midst of her Red Cross work, is nearly as old as her English prototype and who says she feels as well as she ever did in her life.

THE ROYAL BOX.

Prince Arthur of Connaught upon his return to Eton is to join the army class, to prepare for his examination for the Royal Military academy, it being his father's wish that he enter the Royal artillery.

Queen Victoria sent a magnificent Indian shawl and a ring as a wedding present to Princess Dorothea of Saxe-Coburg-Gotha, while her gifts to the Duke of Augustenburg were a ring and a very handsome silver epergne.

The insignia of the Golden Fleece worn by Duke Philip, the founder of the order, is still in the possession of Don Carlos—a fact which causes much chagrin and irritation to both the queen regent of Spain and the emperor of Austria. It is a superbly jeweled affair and of high intrinsic value.

Queen Wilhelmina of the Netherlands, who is a fearless rider, is very fond of reviewing her troops, and when reviewing the Third hussars at Goolland, her majesty appeared mounted, in a light colored habit, and at the end of the parade led her regiment to the attack amid the deafening applause of the spectators.

THE BOOKMAKERS.

M. Felix Dubois, the author of the famous book on Timbuktu, has just been made a chevalier of the French Legion of Honor.

Gyp having proposed a general boycott of the Jews, her publishers, MM. Calmann-Levy, have informed her that they will no longer publish her books.

Miss Gertrude Warden (Mrs. Wilton Jones) is writing an English society novel in collaboration with Harold E. Gorst, the theme of which is said to be exceedingly fin de siecle and startling.

Ether Voynich, the author of the novel "The Gadfly," is 33 years old and is Irish by birth and English in ancestry, being the daughter of the logician Boole. Her husband is a Pole of quiet tastes who has long lived in London.

Marion Crawford says of himself: "Most of my boyhood was spent under a French governess. Not only did I learn that language from her, but all of my studies—geography, arithmetic, etc.—were taught me in French, and I learned to write it with great readiness as a mere boy because it was the language of my daily tasks."

THE ILLINOIS.

A Chicago paper suggests that the battleship Illinois be christened with water from the Chicago river. Bust a chunk of it over her bow, eh?—Denver Post.

Chicago women insist that the battleship Illinois shall be christened with water, but are considerate enough not to specify Chicago river water.—Lafayette (Ind.) Call.

Illinois is all tangled up over the question of what liquid shall be used in christening the battleship that is named after it. Either Chicago river water or Peoria whisky will do. There is not much difference in their killing power.—Kansas City Times.

FARAWAY PEACE.

The czar, with his universal peace show, evidently neglected to get a first class advance agent.—Richmond Times.

The greatest trouble in executing the czar's peace policy would be to find the power that would disarm first.—Nashville Banner.

In other words, the czar suggests the Texas rule of depositing revolvers with the usher before entering the church.—St. Paul Dispatch.

SEESAW LI.

When they don't have anything else for excitement in the Celestial Kingdom, they pitch out poor old Li Hung Chang. He must feel like a baseball player with a glass arm.—Lewiston (Me.) Journal.

The Chinese toilet is an unsolved mystery to the rest of the world, but it is probable that Li Hung Chang, stripped of his yellow jacket and peacock feathers, still has a bathrobe for state occasions.—St. Paul Globe.

Quincy Daily Ledger.

FOR SALE BY NEWSBOYS
and at the following places:

BOSTON—Old Colony News Stand after 3.30
QUINCY—Ledger Office, 115 Hancock St.
Souther's Periodical Store, 1 Granite St.
Henry P. Kittredge, City Square.
J. P. O'Brien, 38 Hancock St.
C. F. Carlson, near Quincy depot.
S. A. Pierce, corner Hancock and School Sts.
QUINCY POINT—Miss Freeman's store.
A. B. Wrisley, Washington St.
SOUTH QUINCY—Peter Haverly, Water St.
F. J. Pierson, 96 Granite St.
O. D. Chick, 59 Liberty St.
WEST QUINCY—Coram's Periodical Store.
BREWER'S CORNER—Emma Lark.
WOLLASTON—Ross' news stand.
Loring's Pharmacy, Wollaston Park.
NORFOLK DOWNS—Branscheid & Marten.
ATLANTIC—Branscheid & Marten.
HOUGHS NECK—Arthur Dunham at P. O.
EAST MILTON—William Clark.
EAST WEYMOUTH—George H. Hunt.
WEYMOUTH—W. E. Cunningham.
News Agent, Weymouth Heights.
NORTH WEYMOUTH—B. F. Thomas.

1898 OCTOBER. 1898

Su.	Mo.	Tu.	We.	Th.	Fr.	Sa.
						1
2	3	4	5	6	7	8
9	10	11	12	13	14	15
16	17	18	19	20	21	22
23	24	25	26	27	28	29
30	31

MOON'S PHASES.

Third Quarter	7	1:21 p. m.	First Quarter	22	4:25 a. m.
New Moon	15	7:53 a. m.	Full Moon	29	7:34 a. m.

DISCHARGED, BUT

They Have a Death at Their Door for Life.

Frederick Hayden and Daniel Fitzgerald, the two men who it was alleged caused Michael Saville to loose his life while guarding a railroad crossing at West Quincy, can count themselves as fortunate in getting out of the affair, and it should be a good lesson to them to remember in the future.

The two men are alleged to have been intoxicated and to have driven about West Quincy in that condition, and while doing so, came upon the railroad crossing guarded by Michael Saville, who in order to prevent their driving in front of an approaching train, grabbed the horse by the head and was forced against the train, receiving injuries from which he later died, while the two men escaped uninjured.

Hayden and Fitzgerald were arrested by Officer Bradley and first arraigned for assault and battery. Later, a warrant for murder was issued which was afterward changed to manslaughter. This case was continued from time to time until this morning. In the mean time an inquest was held.

When called this morning before Judge Cook, His Honor stated that he had received a letter from the district attorney, to the effect that the result of the inquest was that sufficient evidence to convict the two men was lacking and they were therefore discharged for want of probable cause.

☞ A Glenwood Range will make your wife happy, will save your fuel, and cook your food as no other range can. $18.00 to $33.00. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

YOU WRONG YOURSELF

If you think you are making the most of your opportunities and do not advertise liberally in the Quincy Daily Ledger, which reaches most of the families of Quincy, Wollaston, Atlantic, Norfolk Downs, Quincy Point, Quincy Neck, South and West Quincy. It also circulates in Weymouth, Braintree and Milton.

JOHN WANAMAKER,

The millionaire of Philadelphia, who made his fortune by store advertising, says "I never in my life used such a thing as a poster, or hand bill, or dodger. My plan for 20 years has been to buy so much space in a newspaper and fill it up as I want it."

BRAINTREE.

Miss Blanche Jones of Tremont street is visiting in Waltham.

Mr. Arthur Adams of Vermont is visiting relatives in East Braintree and Weymouth.

Three vessels loaded with lumber for the new building at the Fore River Engine works have arrived at East Braintree.

Report says that the Naaman White homestead on Commercial street has been sold to Mr. Berklan of Dorchester.

Mr. Peach and family of West street will move to Hyde Park next week, owing to business arrangements which make it impossible for Mr. Peach to live in Braintree.

According to all reports the young Miss Waldron, who has figured so prominently in the Boston Police Court, did not leave an enviable record in several families in this town.

The entertainment committee of the Jonas Perkins Schoool association is making arrangements for a reception to the teachers in our public schools, which will be given early in November. They have also selected a play on which rehearsals will soon begin.

The Selectmen will give a hearing Saturday evening, November 5, upon the petition of Braintree street railway to extend tracks from Washington street on Pearl street to the tracks of the N. Y., N. H. & H. railroad company of South Braintree. Also on petition of Quincy & Boston for right to extend on Quincy avenue to Weymouth line.

The Jonas Perkins school association, held a very interesting meeting at Mrs. Crocker's, last Tuesday evening. Three new members were admitted. The Association will give its first entertainment in the school hall next Thursday evening. They have been very fortunate in securing the services of Mr. J. W. Maynard and Mr. C. E. Coffin, two blind musicians, who give a very fine vocal and instrumental musical entertainment. A lady reader will asist.

The Women's Relief corps held a grand harvest supper, sale and entertainment in G. A. R. hall Tuesday evening. The beans were all right and the apple pie was, well to speak real plain was "out of sight" in no time. After the supper, Mrs. Henry Stone played a few selections upon the piano, there were readings by Mrs. William Loring, and a laughable farce "Slighted Treasures," by four young ladies, Miss Josie Wright, Miss Bernice Wright, Miss Bessie Leonard and Miss Mabel Mellen.

The sale consisted mostly of aprons and vegetables.

The case of Mrs. Jackson of Middle street against the Braintree Street Railway was settled at Dedham Tuesday. The evidence was all in and the lawyer had half finished his plea when the dinner hour was reached, and when the spectators returned after dinner they were surprised to find another set of jurors in the box, and that the Jackson case had been settled privately—the road paying her $3,500.

The Baptist Ladies' Social circle met Thursday with Mrs. William May.

At the Republican Representative Convention held in Weymouth Tuesday evening, Mr. C. C. Mellen of this town received the nomination and Braintree will give him a handsome vote.

Conductor Dignon of the street railway is being congratulated upon the birth of a daughter.

Conrad W. Crooker is now studying with Mr. Junius P. Hill, one of the finest instructors of piano and harmony in Boston.

Superintendent Maybury is putting in two new hydrants at East Braintree, one near the electric light plant and the other near the Fore River Engine works; thereby giving another circuit in case of emergency.

A movement is on foot towards the formation of a social club at the north part of the town. Mr. Will H. Shaw is the prime mover and he has sent out a large number of invitations to prominent gentlemen requesting them to attend a meeting this evening when the matter will be discussed.

By a new rule at Thayer Academy the building will be closed at 1.30 and pupils are expected to go home. This is as it should be, although the young folks feel that they are being deprived of a pleasure.

Wonder if those boys who arrive at South Braintree at 8 o'clock every morning, evidently on their way to school, would put their dirty boots upon their mother's plush furniture, as they do upon the car seats? Boys the world is looking at you.

The jury was out all night in the case of Hobart vs. the Street Railway company, and on Thursday morning awarded F. A. Hobart $431.00.

The Democratic Representative Convention took place in the Town Hall, Tuesday evening, and Mr. John B. Whelan of Weymouth was made the choice of the party.

NOMINATIONS IN.

It Will be a Four Cornered Fight in Tenth District.

Bordman Hall did not file nomination papers for congressman from the Tenth district, but Harrison A. Atwood and Torrey Warner did, so that a four-cornered fight is assured, and from the present outlook it will be a warm one, with chances greatly in favor of Congressman Barrows' re-election. Perhaps the most disappointed man in the district over the defeat of Bordman Hall, and his refusal to enter the fight upon nomination papers, is Henry H. Faxon, who is all at sea. He says he cannot vote for any of the four gentlemen named, and if there is no Prohibitional candidate he will have to vote for Henry H. Faxon.

The Tenth is not the only Congressional district in which affairs are complicated, for there are others equally as mixed. Numerous nomination papers have also been filed in some senatorial and representative districts, but as far as Quincy is concerned there is no contest aside from the regular convention nominations other than Congressional candidates.

It is perhaps a little early yet to estimate how Quincy will vote on the Congressional contest but the feeling for Barrows, the regular Republican nominee, seems to be growing stronger, and there is no question but what he will carry the city.

With B. H. Woodsum in the Senate and C. C. Mellen in the House the interests of Braintree should be well looked after, and whatever the voters feel like doing personally, that feeling of local pride, if for no other reason, should prompt us to give these gentlemen a handsome vote.

Republican Dinner.

The annual dinner of the Republican club of Massachusetts, which is to take place at Music hall, Boston, on Wednesday evening next, will be an event well worth attending.

The speakers will include Governor Wolcott, Hon. John D. Long, Secretary of the Navy; Senator Lodge and other distinguished Republicans. The meeting will be especially notable on account of the presence of Secretary Long, and he will be accorded a rousing reception by the Republicans of Massachusetts, in appreciation of the magnificent work done by the navy during the recent war under his direction.

Tickets may be obtained by applying to Henry E. Turner, Chairman of the Dinner Committee, 19 Milk street, Boston. The price of dinner tickets is two dollars, and with each ticket sold the club gives two tickets for the balconies, for the use of friends of those who participate in the dinner.

No Republican can afford to miss this dinner, which will be the greatest meeting of the campaign in Massachusetts, and early application for tickets should be made by those who desire to attend, as none will be sold beyond the comfortable seating capacity of the hall.

Memorial Church.

Last Sunday morning Mr. G. L. Richards of Malden gave a very interesting address on the work and needs of the Young Men's Christian Association. Mr. W. F. Cummings read the report of the president of the Quincy Y. M. C. A.

In the evening the means to make more effective the Christian Endeavor work were considered. The necessity of activity among members, putting heart and soul into the work was insisted upon. The same traits necessary to a successful business should be characteristic in any religious organization. There should be a constant sense of duty toward new comers, extending to them a cordial welcome and making them feel that you take a sincere interest in them. All the forces at work for the Christian Endeavor should be constant and not spasmodic.

On Wednesday afternoon and evening deleagtes from the Memorial church attended the Suffolk South Conference held at the First church, Hyde Park. Although an exceedingly forbiding day here were several hundred in attendance at the meeting. The papers and discussions were of great interest and profitable to the assembly. A fine collation was served. The conference meets with the Trinity church, Neponset in the spring.

—All town officers now have to pay their fare on the electric cars like any other mortal. Under the new law adopted at the last session of the legislature it is a misdemeanor for any officers of city, town, county or State to receive these enrollments. The only exceptions are fireman, policemen and letter carriers. The principle which underlies the matter is to remove officials from all obligations to the corporations, and is the same which some years ago caused the enactment of a statute prohibiting legislators from accepting steam railroad passes.

☞ Furniture reupholstered, mattresses made over, carpets cleaned. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

WEYMOUTH.

Mrs. Charles Hall of Atlantic was the guest of Mrs. Helen Barnes Tuesday.

Mr. Tudor Cherneff Radosslaroff, a young Bulgarian, will speak at both services at the Pilgrim church, North Weymouth, Sunday.

The Ladies' Social circle of the Third Universalist church meet next Wednesday in the church parlors. Supper at 6.30.

Charles H. Alden and family and Rev. F. A. Warfield and family have closed their Rose Cliff cottages, and returned to their winter homes.

Miss Alida Allen is the guest of friends in Everett.

The Opportunity circle of King's Daughters gave an entertainment last evening in the M. E. church, East Weymouth.

The Weymouth Musical society will hold its next meeting Tuesday evening at Washington hall, Weymouth, at 7.45.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon R. Johnson of Cambridge were in town last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Whiting gave a "Harlequin" party Thursday evening at their home on Pearl street.

The ladies of the Pilgrim church will give a "pie supper" Wednesday evening, Nov. 9.

The 3d Universalist Church will give a harvest concert Sunday evening, Oct. 30.

Rev. T. H. Vincent attended the Christian Endeavor convention at Brockton, last Wednesday.

The Fair Mount Cemetery Association holds its meeting next Thursday with Mrs. S. C. Denton.

Rev. W. Q. Ward, former pastor of the M. E. church, East Weymouth, in visiting in Weymouth.

Keith's Theatre.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Ellis, who have attained a height of popularity with vaudeville audiences which few of those who have come into the varieties from the dramatic stage, can boast of, will be the leading features of the continuous show at Keith's Boston theatre for the week of Oct. 24. They have been fitted with a new one-act play by Herbert Hall Winslow, in which Mr. Ellis impersonates a German dialect artist, while his wife is a jolly Irish woman. Other entertainers next week will be Hall and Staley, in a burlesque burgalary act, introducing musical specialities, which is one of the funniest things of the kind on the stage; Charles Kilpatrick, a celebrated one-legged trick and fancy bicycle rider; C. W. Littlefield, a mimic and general entertainer; Knoll and McNeil, cornet duetists, and Rofix, who balances heavy weights on his chin and forehead, one of his most wonderful feats being to sustain on his chin a piano at which is seated a lady performer. The Hungarian boys' band, which has been attracting the admiring attention of musicians from all over New England, will be retained, making a change of selections daily. New views in the biograph.

Boston Museum.

Laughter reigns supreme at the Boston Museum where the engagement of the Rogers Brothers in "A Reign of Error" will be brought to a triumphant conclusion this week. All New England knows the great success which this production of jollity has created. The appearance of Rogers Brothers as stars is proving the conspicuous venture of the present theatrical season and they are more popular than ever. Their songs, their parodies, their bits of repartee, all keep the house convulsed with merriment and the burlesque duet in the third act is pronounced by all to be the funniest thing of its kind that Boston has ever seen. Another of Klaw and Erlangers companies will follow at the Boston Museum on Oct. 31, when "Jack and the Beanstalk" will come back to what might be termed its home theatre. Two triumphant runs have been enjoyed there by the spectacle and now it comes back with new favorites and old to repeat what is certain to be its Boston triumph.

Castle Square Theatre.

The Castle Square theatre will be the scene of an event of unprecedented interest for the playgoers of Boston and vicinity the coming week. An original production of the dramatic sensation "Cyrano de Bergerac" is announced by the management, with the assurance that the high standard of the Castle Square theatre performances shall be fully maintained in the presentations of this new famous romantic drama. This will be essentially a Boston production of the Rostand play, the translation having been made by Mr. Howard H. Ticknor of this city, the adaptation for the stage by Mr. J. H. Gilmour, all the designs for the stage settings by Ansel Cook and B. W. Craig, and the great cast, introducing more than fifty speaking characters, being made up from the regular Castle Square stock company and resident assistants. The leading character is taken by Mr. J. H. Gilmour and Miss Lillian Lawrence is Roxane. Although an enormous expense has been incurred in this enterprising action the Castle Square management will give only 12 performances of "Cyrano de Bergerac" and on Monday Oct. 31, the stock company will appear in a revival of the thrilling melodrama "The Fatal Card."

TODAY'S COURT.

Thomas Ross was fined $5 for drunkenness at Milton.

The continued case of Frederick L. Hayden and Daniel Fitzgerald for manslaughter at Quincy was called and they were discharged for want of probable cause.

The case against the two men for assault and battery upon Michael Saville at Quincy was then called and they were discharged.

—The war investigating committee is drawing $20 a day for their services. Some people are mean enough to believe that this will not tend to hasten their deliberations.

SUNDAY SERVICES.

20th SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

Church services are inserted in this paper without charge, but none will be accepted to run until further order. A notice should be sent each week even though it is but a renewal. Give subject and special services when possible. Let all churches be represented—Eds.]

CHRIST CHURCH Quincy, — Rev. Walter Russell Breed, rector. Morning Prayer and sermon at 10.30 o'clock. Sunday School at at 12 M. Evening prayer and address at 7 o'clock. Subject: "Friends and companions." Woman's Guild at the rectory Wednesday at 2.30 P. M. Organ recital in church Thursday at 7.45 P. M. Admission by ticket.

UNITARIAN CHURCH—Rev. Ellery C. Butler pastor. Morning service at 10.30. Preaching by the pastor. Sunday school at 12 M. Vespers at 4 o'clock. Teachers' meeting in chapel Thursday evening at 7.30 o'clock.

BETHANY CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH, junction Hancock and Chestnut streets—Rev. E. N. Hardy, pastor. Morning service at 10.30. Subject: "Autumn leaves and life's business." School at 12 M. Junior C. E. at 3.30. Welsh meeting in chapel at 3.30 P. M., conducted by Evangelist R. G. Williams. Y. P. S. C. E. at 6.15 P. M. Evening service at 7.30 o'clock. Subject: "A mighty blow for liberty."

FIRST UNITED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, 110 Hancock street—Rev. W. W. Dornan, pastor. Preaching by the pastor at 10.30 A. M. Subject: "The Kingly priesthood of God's people." Sabbath School and Bible class at 11.45 A. M. Y. P. S. C. U. at 6.30 P. M. Preaching at 7.30 P. M. Subject: "The Judgment." Prayer meeting Thursday at 7.30 P. M.

UNIVERSALIST CHURCH, Washington street—Rev. Edgar Watson Preble, pastor. Morning service at 10.45. Sermon by Rev. L. Ward of Hingham. Sunday School at 12 M. Y. P. C. U. at 7 P.M. All welcome.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, Water street—Rev. Robert Westly Peach, pastor. Morning service at 10.30. The hymns to be sung in Boston Tuesday night will be sung and their history given. Sunday School at 11.45 A. M. Y. P. S. C. E. at 6 P. M. Evening service at 7 Prayer meeting Thursday at 7.30 P. M. All cordially welcome.

CALVARY BAPTIST CHURCH, Franklin street.—Rev. David Kerr, pastor. Morning service at 10.30. Subject: "A peculiar nickname; what it ought to mean for ourselves and others." Bible School at 12 M. Young people's meeting at 6 P. M. Preaching service at 7 o'clock. Subject: "Bible reading—God's wings." Prayer meeting Friday evening at 7.30 o'clock. All welcome.

WASHINGTON STREET CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH—Rev. Edward Anderson, pastor. Morning service at 10.45 o'clock. Subject: "Courageous and manly work." Sunday School at 12 M. Y. P. S. C. E. at 6.30 P. M. Evening service at 7.15. Subject: "Enlistment and muster-in."

SPIRITUALIST MEETING—Mrs. M. A. Bonney, of Weymouth, medium, will preach at Faxon Hall at 7 P. M. Circles Tuesday at 2.30 and 7.30 P. M., at the house of Henry Chubbuck off Elm place.

ST. JOHN'S ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH,—Rev. F. A. Frigulietti, pastor; Assistants, Rev. J. P. Cuffee, Rev. F. A. Cunningham, Rev. J. E. Johnstone, Rev. J. F. Purcell. First Mass, 8 A. M., second Mass, (High,) 10.30 A. M. Vespers at 4 o'clock. Baptisms at 5 P. M.

ST. MARY'S ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH,—Rev. F. A. Frigulietti, pastor. Assistants, Rev. J. P. Cuffe, Rev. F. A. Cunningham, Rev.. J. E. Johnstone, Rev. J. F. Purcell. First Mass, 8 A. M. Second Mass, 9 A. M. Third Mass (High) 10.30 A. M. Vespers, 3.30. Baptisms, 4 P. M.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH, WEST QUINCY—Rev. C. W. Wilder, pastor. Morning service at 10.30 A. M. 25th anniversary of the organization of the church. Anniversary sermon by Rev. F. N. Upham of Dorchester. Sunday School at 11.45 A. M. Junior Epworth League at 3 30 P. M. Prayer meeting of Epworth League at 6.15. Evening service at 7 o'clock. Address by Rev. E. W. Virgin of Dedham. Monday evening anniversary banquet. Prayer meeting Friday at 7.00 P. M.

SWEDISH CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH, Garfield Street—Rev. C. A. Bjornbom, pastor. Mission services at 10 A. M., and 3 and 7 P. M., with addresses by out of town ministers. Sunday School at 12 M. The Scandinavians are invited.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH, WOLLASTON—Morning service, 10.45. Preaching service by Rev. Perley B. Davis of Boston. Sabbath School at 12.15 P. M. Y. P. S. C. E. at 6.45 P. M. Evening service at 7.30. Rev. Edward Norton will preach. Subject: "The story of a human life. Prayer meeting Friday evening at 7.45.

WOLLASTON UNITARIAN CHURCH—Rev. J. E. Bagley, pastor. Service at 10.45 A. M. The pastor will preach. Subject: "Three characters." Sunday School at 12 M. Harvest concert at 6 P. M.

WOLLASTON M. E. CHURCH—Rev. J. E. Waterhouse, pastor. Morning service at 10.45 Sermon by pastor. Sunday School and Bible class at 12 M. Annual Harvest concert by the Sunday School at 6.30 P. M. All welcome.

MEMORIAL CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH, Atlantic—Rev. J. H. Whitaker, pastor. Residence, 21 Billings street. Morning service at 10.45. Subject: "The definition of a gentleman." Miss Catherine Milliken of Boston, soloist. Sabbath School at 12 M. Evening service at 7 o'clock. Friday evening prayer service at 7.30 o'clock. You are cordially invited.

ATLANTIC METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH.—Rev. H. C. Wright, pastor. Morning service at 10.45 A. M. Sermon by Rev. G. B. Dean of Forest Hills. Sunday School at 12 M. Epworth League at 6 P. M. Evening service at 7 o'clock. The stereopticon talk on Ben Hur will be continued. A reader from Boston will give the chariot race. All are welcome.

CHRISTADELPHIAN CHURCH, 86 Washington street—Lecture at 7.30 P. M. Subject: "Life in Christ only." All welcome. No collection.

☞ Parlor Stoves that are economical in fuel and powerful heaters. $2.98 to $25.00. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

THERE IS A CLASS OF PEOPLE

Who are injured by the use of coffee. Recently there has been placed in all the grocery stores a new preparation called GRAIN-O, made of pure grains, that takes the place of coffee. The most delicate stomach receives it without distress, and but few can tell it from coffee. It does not cost over 1-4 as much. Children may drink it with great benefit. 15 cts. and 25 cts. per package. Try it. Ask for GRAIN-O.

THE FALL SEASON

IS HERE

For the Purchase of

Fruit and Ornamental Trees,

Shrubs and Vines.

Buy now that your plants may get a good start by spring.

Remember that I carry all the desirable novelties, as well as the old standard varieties of nursery stock.

I call special attention to my Flowering Shrubs, Perpetual Roses, Clematis, and Rhododendrons.

Buy at home and save agents' commissions. None but strictly first-class stock, well acclimated, furnished. Call and examine.

Orders by mail receive prompt attention.

Wollaston Park Nursery,
Fenno St., Wollaston.
MARTIN PFAFFMANN, Prop.
P. O. Box 44, Wollaston. Residence, 2 Clay St.
Oct. 14—1m p-3w

This is Lehigh Coal,

And We Have it for Sale.

C. PATCH & SON.

DR. RALPH M. FOGG,
DENTIST.

Teeth extracted absolutely without pain by the use of the

"BOSTON VEGETABLE VAPOR."

It is claimed that, while it has the required properties of ether, chloroform, nitrous oxide gas, it lacks the disagreeable and dangerous qualities of these drugs. It is certainly a boon to suffering humanity to be relieved of the nausea too often following the administering of sedatives of the old school.—Boston Transcript.

Teeth made and repaired on Gold or Rubber base. Teeth Filling a specialty.

Office in French's Building, five doors south of Post Office, Quincy, Wednesdays. Hours, 9 A. M. to 2 P. M. July18-1y Nov8-1yo

CANCER CURED
BY ABSORPTION
NO KNIFE.

The result of years of scientific research by America's greatest blood specialist. A pleasant treatment that relieves immediately, cures permanently all forms of CANCERS, TUMORS and CHRONIC DISEASES. Hundreds of wonderful cures effected in and around Boston. Read the following:

BLOOD EVIDENCE

Then come to our offices and investigate the hundreds of other marvellous cures produced by ABSORPTION when all other treatment failed. Consult this living patient. "Dr. James M. Solomon: Dear Sir: The following is my testimonial, which I hope will help others. That after suffering several years with something that was never reached, getting only temporary help from different doctors, and each attack being more severe, I was advised by a friend, who had been cured of a tumor, to see her doctor. I was then unable for any work, and feeling worse from day to day; realizing that something was preying upon me of a serious nature, I was discouraged about my condition, and sought Dr. Solomon with little faith—it was more of an experiment. He got my confidence on the first interview, when, without a word of description of my feelings from me, he at once located my trouble, and I could not help believing that he knew from what I was suffering, although was greatly surprised and somewhat terrified when he told me it was cancer of the stomach. I began treatment at once, Nov. 3, 1892, and was faithful to his directions, with just the results promised I would get, till the following June (1893) I felt like a new being, and the doctor pronounced me recovered. I am sure that I have, and I can never repay the gratitude I owe to Dr. J. M. Solomon. Sincerely, EBEN FISS, 232 Harvard St., Dorchester, Mass." Today he is one of the many living witnesses of the only painless method that positively CURES when all others fail.

We want you to call and examine references of people you know—people we all know, who would not vouch for ABSORPTION had they not been cured. Ask for references marked B.

James M. Solomon, M.D.
SPECIALIST IN CANCERS, TUMORS AND CHRONIC DISEASES.
2 A Beacon Street, BOSTON.
Oct. 13. 1y lo

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

NORFOLK, ss. PROBATE COURT.

TO the heirs-at-law, next-of-kin, and all other persons interested in the estate of

JOHN B. SCHAETZL,

late of Quincy, in said County, deceased.

Whereas, a certain instrument, purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased has been presented to said Court for probate by Magdalena Schaetzl of Quincy, who prays that letters testamentary may be issued to her the executrix therein named without giving a surety on her official bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court to be held at Dedham in said County of Norfolk, on the second day of November, A. D., 1898, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week for three successive weeks, in the Quincy Daily Ledger, a newspaper published in Quincy, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court, and by mailing, postpaid, or delivering a copy of this citation to all known persons interested in the estate, seven days at least before said Court.

Witness, George White, Esquire, Judge of said Court, this twenty first day of October in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight.

JONATHAN COBB, Register.
Oct. 22. 3t 22 29 31

FALL SEASON
IS HERE
r the Purchase of
and nental Trees,
ubs and Vines.
y that your plants may get a
by spring.
er that I carry all the desires, as well as the old stan-es of nursery stock.
cial attention to my Flower-Perpetual Roses, Clematis, dendrons.
ome and save agents' com-
None but strictly first-class acclimated, furnished. Call
e.
y mail receive prompt at-
ton Park Nursery,
nno St., Wollaston.
IN PFAFFMANN, Prop.
Wollaston. Residence, 2 Clay St.
n p-3w
is Lehigh Coal,
d We Have it for Sale.
C. PATCH & SON.
RALPH M. FOGG,
DENTIST.
d absolutely without pain by the use of the VEGETABLE VAPOR." that, while it has the required ether, chloroform, nitrous oxide the disagreeable and dangerous ese drugs. It is certainly a boon umanity to be relieved of the en following the administering of the old school.—Boston Tranand repaired on Gold or Rubber Filling a specialty.
nch's Building, five doors south
, Quincy, Wednesdays. Hours,
M. July18-ly Nov8-1yo
NCER
URED
BSORPTION
O KNIFE.
of years of scientific research by atest blood specialist. A pleasant relieves immediately, cures performs of CANCERS, TUMORS IC DISEASES. Hundreds of es effected in and around Boston.
wing:
D EVIDENCE
o our offices and investigate the her marvellous cures produced by
ON when all other treatment failed.
living patient. "Dr. James M. ar Sir: The following is my testi-
I hope will help others. That g several years with something reached, getting only temporary erent doctors, and each attack be-re, I was advised by a friend, who d of a tumor, to see her doctor.
able for any work, and feeling y to day; realizing that something pon me of a serious nature, I was bout my condition, and sought Dr.
little faith—it was more of an ex-
got my confidence on the first en, without a word of description from me, he at once located my could not help believing that he at I was suffering, although was ed and somewhat terrified when as cancer of the stomach. I beat once, Nov. 3, 1892, and was directions, with just the results ould get, till the following June ke a new being, and the doctor e recovered. I am sure that I never repay the gratitude I owe olomon. Sincerely, EBEN FISH, St., Dorchester, Mass." Today the many living witnesses of the method that positively CURES fail.
to call and examine references
know—people we all know, who h for ABSORPTION had they
. Ask for references marked H.
M. Solomon, M.D.
T IN CANCERS, TUMORS CHRONIC DISEASES.
Beacon Street,
BOSTON.
1y lo wealth of Massachusetts.
PROBATE COURT.
at-law, next-of-kin, and all other nterested in the estate of OHN B. SCHAETZL,
in said County, deceased.
ertain instrument, purporting to and testament of said deceased nted to said Court for probate by chaetzl of Quincy, who prays testamentary may be issued to rix therein named without giving official bond.
reby cited to appear at a Probate held at Dedham in said County n the second day of November, nine o'clock in the forenoon,
, if any you have, why the same ranted.
tioner is hereby directed to give hereof, by publishing this citaach week for three successive Quincy Daily Ledger, a news-ed in Quincy, the last pub-one day, at least, before said mailing, postpaid, or delivering a tation to all known persons inter-tate, seven days at least before rge White, Esquire, Judge of said enty first day of October in the sand eight hundred and ninety-
JONATHAN COBB, Register.
3t 22 29 31

QUINCY DAILY LEDGER.

VOL. 10. No. 28. QUINCY, MASS., MONDAY, OCTOBER 24, 1898. PRICE 2 CENTS.

HOW TO MAKE MONEY.

Take a silver dollar and drop it on a jeweler's show case and you'll get a ring. Take a quarter and saw it in two in the middle and get two halves. Take a two-dollar bill and fold it once and you double it—and you can keep on monkeying with money and make imaginary capital for an hour. But if you want to get a new wrinkle in money, just take a new ten dollar bill and fold it corner-ways and you'll get a new wrinkle every time. But don't fool with your money and don't let anybody else fool with it. Don't let anybody fool you with the idea that they'll give you a $10 bill with every $2 suit or overcoat.

The new store has earned a reputation for selling straight goods at straight prices. We don't monkey with your money, or flim flam you with any imaginary values. We give you good goods, charge a fair-profit price for everything you buy and expect you to come back the second time because you were used right the first.

We can sell a good Overcoat for $5.00 and an all wool one for $6.50. But for $7.50 we can show you a dandy all wool Kersey, made with raw edge and lap seams and lined with good lasting linings. The same coat our competitors (in Boston) get $10 for.

Our $10 coat we have in Blacks, Blues, Olives and Browns. Then we have them for $11, $12, $13, $13.50, $15, $15.50 and upwards to $19, in all the different style goods worn this season.

For this week and next too, if they are not all gone, we will sell all wool Dickey Pants at $1.48. All the other stores get $2.00.

QUINCY CLOTHING CO.,

LOWEST PRICED CLOTHIERS IM NORFOLK COUNTY.

MUSIC HALL BLOCK.

NOTICE TO VOTERS.

CITY OF QUINCY.

For the purpose of preparing the Annual Register of Voters, and of receiving evidence of qualifications from persons claiming a right to Vote at the coming City Election, the Board of Registrars of Voters will be in session in the COUNCIL CHAMBER in the City Hall Building, on the evenings of

Wednesday, November 9, and Saturday, November 12, from 7 to 9 o'clock P.M., also on Wednesday, November 16, from 12 o'clock, noon, to 10 o'clock P.M.

Every applicant for registration must appear in person before the Board. Every male applicant must present either a certificate from the Assessors or a Tax bill or Notice from the Collector of Taxes, showing that he has been assessed a Poll tax as a resident of the City on the First day of May last; if a naturalized citizen he must also produce for inspection his papers of naturalization. Payment of a poll tax is not a prerequisite to voting.

Persons who have lived in the state one year, and in the city six months previous to December 6, if qualified in other respects, can be registered.

No name can be added to the list of voters unless registered previous to WEDNESDAY, Nov. 16th, at 10 o'clock P. M., when registration will close.

Examine the Voting Lists posted herewith and see that your name is in its proper place. NO CHANGE can be made after WEDNESDAY, Nov. 16th, at 10 o'clock P. M. The Board of Assessors will hold meetings at the same time.

EDWARD B. MARSH,
CORNELIUS MOYNIHAN,
EDWARD J. McKEON,
EDGAR G. CLEAVES,
Registrars.

Quincy, Oct. 22, 1898. 21t

STATE ELECTION.

CITY OF QUINCY.

City Clerk's Office, Oct. 7, 1898.

IN Accordance with the provisions of Chapter 548 of the Acts of 1898, notice is hereby given that by a vote of the City Council, passed October 3, 1898, the polling places for the election to be held TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1898, in the City of Quincy, were designated as follows:

WARD ONE.—Council Chamber, City Hall.

WARD TWO—Hose House, Washington street.

WARD THREE, Precinct One.—Doble's Hall, Franklin street.

WARD THREE, Precinct Two.—Old Steamer House, School street.

WARD FOUR, Precinct One.—St. Mary's Hall, Willard street.

WARD FOUR, Precinct Two.—Hose House, Copeland street.

WARD FIVE.—Polson's Building, Newport avenue.

WARD SIX.—Hose House, Newbury avenue.

Attest: EDGAR G. CLEAVES, City Clerk.

Quincy, Oct. 7, 1898. 27t

MARY WENT.

LAST Week Mary and everybody else were invited to call at the Quincy Second Hand Variety Store. They went, and Mary tells us that she was delighted with what she found. She bought an excellent stove for half its value, a chamber set for a remarkably low figure, and small ware in abundance for almost nothing. In fact, she was so well pleased, she sent her husband, who bought all the tools he could carry off for a few dollars.

WALTER P. PINEL

is the Manager, and the store is right over here at number 20 Franklin street.

aug25 1y

MAKE IT HOT FOR YOU.

If your house is cold and you have become disgusted with the various devices called heaters, and you are really anxious to have warmth and comfort in your home, place an order for one of those G. B. Bates CIRCULATORS.

It will "make it hot for you" or just the temperature you desire. Its construction is based upon scientific and economical principles. Several have recently been put in right here in Quincy, and others will be put in during the next few weeks. Don't read this ad. and then forget about it till your water pipes are all frozen, but go now to

G. B. BATES,

Hancock Street, Quincy.

SWEATERS.

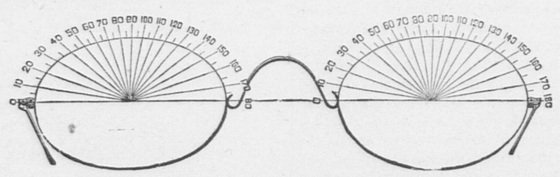

We think we can show you the best assortment of Sweaters to be found in the city.

BOYS' SAILOR COLLAR, GARNET OR NAVY BLUE,	$ .50
" " " " " " "	.75
" " " " " " "	1.00
" ROLL " " " " "	1.00
MEN'S SAILOR " " " " "	2.00
" " " " " " "	2.50

Look at Our Window Display.

GEO. W. JONES,

Adams Building, Quincy.

ASTIGMATISM

Causes most of the distressing headaches. Properly fitted glasses will correct the error and remove the pain. Consult

WILLIAMS,

Member of the New England Association of Opticians,

104 Hancock St., Quincy.

HAZELTON LEHIGH

And Not Hard White Ash,
Is What You Should Burn.

C. PATCH & SON.

E. S. BECKFORD,

Electrician.

Wiring and Fitting for Incandescent, Motors, Dynamos, Bells, etc.

GRANITE STREET, Near the Bridge, QUINCY

Feb. 1 1y

THE FALL SEASON
IS HERE
For the Purchase of
Fruit and Ornamental Trees,
Shrubs and Vines.

Buy now that your plants may get a good start by spring.

Remember that I carry all the desirable novelties, as well as the old standard varieties of nursery stock.

I call special attention to my Flowering Shrubs, Perpetual Roses, Clematis, and Rhododendrons.

Buy at home and save agents' commissions. None but strictly first-class stock, well acclimated, furnished. Call and examine.

Orders by mail receive prompt attention.

Wollaston Park Nursery,
Fenno St., Wollaston.
MARTIN PFAFFMANN, Prop.
P. O. Box 44, Wollaston. Residence, 2 Clay St.
Oct. 14—1m p-3w

Coal!

Just Received by Barge Blackbird, a Fresh Cargo of

Pea Coal
(Small Nut.)

J. F. SHEPPARD & SONS

Quincy Sept. 7.

DR. RALPH M. FOGG,
DENTIST.

Teeth extracted absolutely without pain by the use of the

"BOSTON VEGETABLE VAPOR."

It is claimed that, while it has the required properties of ether, chloroform, nitrous oxide gas, it lacks the disagreeable and dangerous qualities of these drugs. It is certainly a boon to suffering humanity to be relieved of the nausea too often following the administering of sedatives of the old school.—Boston Transcript.

Teeth made and repaired on Gold or Rubber base. Teeth Filling a specialty.

Office in French's Building, five doors south of Post Office, Quincy, Wednesdays. Hours, 9 A. M. to 9 P. M. July18-ly Nov8-1yo

TEETH EXTRACTED.
No Pain or Danger.

Safer than vapor. Money paid for extracting goes towards teeth to be inserted. I am the only dentist in the city using the Painless Preparation for Extraction.

DR. C. B. UNDERWOOD,
9 Spear St. Rear of Public Library

TELEGRAPHIC.

3 O'CLOCK.

HAS AN OMINOUS LOOK

Gravity of the Fashoda Situation Admitted by London Press.

No Negotiation Until Marchand Leaves.

Conditions Upon Which an Amicable Settlement Is Possible.

London, Oct. 24.—The French yellow book on Fashoda seems to indicate an intention on the part of the French government to utilize the Marchand affair as a means of raising the whole Egyptian question. This impression is confirmed by the comments of most of the Paris papers this morning.

The London press admits the gravity of the situation revealed by the yellow book, but the papers are unanimous in declaring that it is impossible for Lord Salisbury to consent to any negotiation until Fashoda is evacuated. As, however, the French foreign minister, Mr. Delcasse, with equal firmness declines to withdraw Marchand without previous negotiation, the situation has an ominous look.

Baron Courcel, having represented that it would be impossible for Major Marchand to retire until it was settled where he should go and how the evacuation was to be effected, Lord Salisbury, after reflecting very seriously, said he was not sufficiently acquainted with the geography of Africa to reply for the present regarding delimitation, and, moreover, that he could not enter into projects of that nature without consulting with his colleagues.

Baron Courcel concludes the dispatch of Oct. 12 by saying: "I quitted him on these explanations, which were pronounced in a conciliatory and friendly tone."

The Salisbury government has yielded and retreated so many times in the past two years that the country is eager to support it in a policy of resistance, now that it has found a question whereon it is determined to defend British rights and interests. The reaction is certainly carrying public sentiment too far. It is by its bullying attitude fast making it impossible for France to recede gracefully from a position which she almost certainly would abandon if she could do so without open humiliation.

The second danger is the French domestic situation. This is really the dominant factor, and it is as uncertain as next week's weather. The French people are far more anxious as to what may happen in Paris within the 10 days after the chamber meets than over any possible outcome of the Fashoda dispute. The genera belief in Paris is that the Brisson ministry will fall. This would really be a calamity at the present moment, for the return of the Meline cabinet or its equivalent would simply mean all manner of complications to prolong the elucidation of the Dreyfus and other army scandals.

It would, of course, be an unpopular act for any ministry to settle the Fashoda deadlock in the only way Great Britain will permit it to be settled. The withdrawal of Major Marchand would be equally dangerous to the present cabinet, trembling in the balance, and to a new one just installed. Lord Salisbury cannot ignore this fact in putting pressure upon France, unless he is willing to incur war, which is hardly conceivable. France certainly is in the midst of a grave crisis, but she is threatened far more from within than from without.

The Times, in its editorial, says Lord Salisbury has not replied to Baron Courcel's pretensions with the decision which might have been hoped for. Courcel, after a long conference with Delcasse, left Paris for London Sunday. It is said that he had an important conversation with Lord Salisbury before he left London, and will have another on returning. Another dispatch from Paris says it is rumored there that he is bringing to London definite proposals for the evacuation of Fashoda on condition that France be granted a good outlet on one of the tributaries of the Nile, entering it about 150 miles southwest of Fashoda at Mekrem-El-Bohur.

The Fashoda yellow book is voluminous, but it does not include Major Marchand's report, which will be published later. The dispatches were largely anticipated by the English Fashoda blue book. The diplomatic conversations recorded show a curious endeavor on the French side to represent that Marchand's mission was quite as important as General Kitchener's, on the ground that the struggle was against the khalifa and barbarism. Sept. 18 Mr. Delcasse, the foreign minister, informed the British ambassador to France, Sir Edmund Monson, in explicit language that France did not regard Lord Salisbury's claim to the Soudan by virtue of conquest as applying to Fashoda, on the ground that the expedition under Captain Lieotard, which dated from a period long before the declaration in the house of commons by Sir Edward Grey, under-secretary of state for foreign affairs in Lord Rosebery's cabinet, as to the policy of the British government toward the Soudan and at a time when the equatorial provinces were lost to civilization. In fact Delcasse argued that unless Great Britain possessed the sultan's mandate as well as the khedive's, to acquire all former Egyptian provinces, France considered herself equally entitled with England to possession of any point occupied by French officers.

Judging from the yellow book dispatches, the foregoing represents the French standpoint, and Mr. Delcasse contends that as Marchand reached Fashoda first, England has no right to demand an evacuation of Fashoda prior to negotiations. On Sept. 30 Delcasse declared to Mondon that such a demand would be equivalent to an ultimatum; and, while he could afford to sacrifice France's material interests, so long as her honor was intact, for the sake of the Anglo-French entente, no one could doubt what would be the reply of France to such a demand. The subsequent dispatches appearing in the yellow book relate to conversations between Baron Courcel, French ambassador in London, and Lord Salisbury, the latter contending that the capture of Khartoum entitled Egypt to possession of all the mahdi's dominions, and the French ambassador arguing that Major Marchand had captured Fashoda before General Kitchener took Khartoum, and that France had for a long time held several posts in the Bahr-el-Gazal. Lord Salisbury retorted that the French forces in the regions referred to were too weak to constitute effective occupation.

Relations Not Hostile.

Paris, Oct. 24.—It is semi-officially declared that there is "no foundation for the alarmist rumors regarding the relations between France and Great Britain." It is said to be "equally incorrect to say that extraordinary measures have been taken at any of our naval ports."

Our Trade With England.

Washington, Oct. 24.—The report of the consul general in London shows that the total imports into the united kingdom for 1896 (the last obtainable figures) exceeded in value the imports of any of the past 15 years, the increase over 1895 being no less than $125,596,730. Of this large increase the imports from the United States alone showed an excess of nearly $100,000,000, the heaviest item being oats, which showed the marvelous rate of 1,470 percent, $5,000,000. The imports of slate from the United States increased 800 percent; tires and axles, 200 percent; copper, 185 percent; butter, 125 percent, and apples, 100 percent. The cotton imports increased $25,000,000; those of oxen and bulls, $10,000,000; corn, $10,000,000; flour, $7,000,000, and maize, $7,500,000. The decreases were trifling as compared with these large figures, one of the largest being hay, which fell off 90 percent.

In the exports of British and Irish products to the United States there was no conspicuous increase in the value of any article, but decreases were discernible in alkalai, apparel, coal, cotton yarn, raw hides, metals and wool and worsteds. Of British colonial products exported to the United States the only increases calling for mention were in horses and hemp, trifling in both cases, while on the other hand there were large decreases in hides, flax, raw silk, catskins, tallow, stearine and [illegible] of all kinds, in the last case the reduction being from $21,000,000 to $11,000,000.

Sinkin of Coal Barges.

New London, Oct. 24.—The Thomas J. Scully, towing the barges, Admiral, Camarie, Wyandotte and Atlantic, while about four miles west of Cornfield light, was caught in the heavy gale. The hawser was unable to stand the strain and broke. Soon afterwards the Admiral sprang aleak and collided with the second barge which ultimately resulted in the sinking of the four barges. Two men on the Admira were lost, but the crew of the Scully, by means of the heaving line, rescued seven men, two women and a baby from the other barges. The resced parties were taken aboard the tug one by one, and the woman with the baby was dragged throgh the heavy sea, apparently little the worse for her experience.

Drowned In Lake Michigan.

Chicago, Oct. 24.—A skiff in which were Louis Lahn, a son of a wealthy manufacturer of Evanston, William Schaefer and another man whose identity has not yet been established, capsized in Lake Michigan, about five miles off Wilmette, and all were drowned.

The men started out duck hunting. A high sea was running, and, after drifting out about five miles, the boat was overturned. The unfortunate hunters clung to the overturned craft for over an hour, but weighted down with ammunition, they finaly sank.

Wound Was Mortal.

Bangor, Oct. 24.—Saturday afternoon, Walter E. Cole, aged 25 years, and Roy Clark, aged 14, went duck shooting in Hudson, 12 miles from Bangor. On returning to the shore Cole drew out a shotgun from the boat by the muzzle, the weapon being discharged by striking on the boat. Cole was shot through the right arm and side. The boy carried him on his back to their carriage, some distance, and drove him to his home in East Corinth, where Cole soon died. He leaves a widow.

—It is an inexplicable fact that men buried in an avalanche of snow hear distinctly every word uttered by those who are seeking for them, while their most strenuous shouts fail to penetrate even a few feet of snow.

Royal makes the food pure, wholesome and delicious.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

LAND VALUES

A Transcript From the Books of the Assessors.

Number of Feet in Each Lot and Valuation Thereof.

Also the Amount of Each Person's Tax Bill for 1898.

[Continued from Saturday.]

Something new in the publication of the taxpayers of the city is attempted this year by the Daily Ledger. There is considerable interest in the assessed value of land in the city, which is claimed to be high in some cases and low in others. So the Ledger has supplemented the amount of the tax bill in each ward with the value of each lot of land for which the person is taxed, giving in each case the number of square feet or acreage.

The amount given in the line with the person's name is his total ward tax, and may include houses, personal property, etc., in addition to the lots of land below. The Ledger gives only the valuation of the land.

To obtain a person's total tax in the city, add together the amounts paid in the several wards.

The Ledger commenced the publication Aug. 30, and has already published the land values of all persons whose names begin with A to M, and today's instalment concludes the N's:

Valuation of Land Only.	Total Ward Tax.
WARD ONE.
Nicholson, Henrietta W.	$63 90
14,175 feet, Goffe street, $2,350.
Nicols, James	88 40
16,652, Coddington, $2,100.
Nightingale, George, heirs,	385 20
24,152, Temple, $20,000.
Nightingale, Jeremiah	2 70
2 acres, salt marsh, $150.
Nightingale, Louisa and Ellen	158 40
10,434, Washington, $3,800.
Nilson, Selma	10 80
7,228, Whitwell, $600.
Norton, Edward	81 20
8,636, Greenleaf, $1,400.
WARD TWO.
Nightingale, Nathaniel	16 20
8,400, South Walnut, $400.
Norrie, Mrs. Jane	34 20
7,530, Newcomb place, $390.
Norrie, Alexander	7 40
7,351, Newcomb place, $300.
Nott, George L.	9 20
17,000, off North, $400.
Nugent, Joanna	45 00
32,400, North, $1,300.
WARD THREE.
Nicoll, Stewart, J.	42 30
7,200, Brooks ave., $450.
Nightingale, Charlotte, est.,	95 85
12,700, Quincy, $1,000.
11,500, " $700.
Nightingale, Jeremiah	105 30
6,262, Water, $500.
2,250, off Water, $150.
3,250, Water, $250.
1 1-2 acres, off Water, $1,000.
6,000, Liberty, $350.
Nightingale, J. Warren	84 60
6,000, Columbia, $300.
8,000, " $400.
6,500, Clark ave., $300.
Nightingale, Wyman B.	82 55
18,000, Granite, $1,400.
1,056, Water, $75.
Nichols Granite Works,	59 40
25,000, Centre, $750.
Norrie, William	66 15
6,700, Rodman, $450.
Nightingale, James	131 60
4 2-3 acres, Granite, $4,500.
Nutting, Inez	55 35
11,250, Granite, $550.
Nutting, Joshua, est.,	26 10
2 acres, Jackson Lane, $800.
WARD FOUR.
Newcomb, William, heirs,	32 40
35,151, Quarry, $1,800.
Nightingale, Isabel	37 80
7,000, Wookon, $300.
Nightingale, James	74 70
1,05 acres, Town Hill, $1,300.
17,425, West, $850.
Nightingale, Jeremiah	206 75
1.11 acres, Granite, $3,000.
Nightingale, J. Warren	139 70
5,000, Centre, $300.
5,000, " $300.
1 acre, " $900.
1.9 acres, near Reservation, $250.
30,100, Granite, $2,100.
Nightingale, Nellie F.	111 60
5,000, Station, $200.
5,000, Hillside, $200.
6,450, Ballou, $300.
Norling, Charles J.	32 15
6,000, Wilson, $200.
Nutting, John D.	29 00
12,300, Douglas, $350.
WARD FIVE.
Nichols, Levi	$62 10
6,600 feet, Everett street, $450.
7,500 " " " $500.
Nichols, Walter J.	85 70
12,000, Newport ave., $1,300.
Nickerson, Rosa B.	129 60
10,000, Winthrop ave., $1,000.
5,890, Lot 10, Sec. 6, $600.
10,682, " 11, 12, " 6, $1,100.

Continued on page 3.

MUSIC HALL, - QUINCY,
Friday Even'g, Oct. 28,
At 8 o'clock.

GRAND TENTH DISTRICT
REPUBLICAN RALLY.

The Tenth District Congressional Committee have secured the following eminent and able speakers to address the people of Quincy upon the political issues of the day:

ROGER WOLCOTT,
Governor of Massachusetts.
SAMUEL W. McCALL,
Congressman Eighth District.
COL. ALBERT CLARKE,
Sec'y Home Market Club.
SAMUEL J. BARROWS,
Our Candidate for Congress.

HON. RUSSELL A. SEARS, Mayor of Quincy, will preside, and there will be music by the Quincy Band. The balcony will be reserved for ladies, and they are cordially invited to attend.

THOMAS C. BACHELDER,
Chairman.
STEPHEN W. MARSHALL,
Secretary.
Oct. 22.—6t

ORGAN RECITAL,
CHRIST CHURCH, - - QUINCY,
Thursday Evening, Oct. 27,
At 7.45 o'clock.

Mr. S. B. Whitney, organist of the Church of the Advent, Boston, will give an organ recital, assisted by Mrs. J. E. Tiffett, soprano of the Old South church, Boston.

The talent is of the very highest and this promises to be one of the finest musical evenings ever given in Quincy.

Admission to the church will be by ticket and each ticket holder is asked to contribute to the offering which will be taken.

Tickets may be obtained at the Church after the services Sunday, or by writing to the Rector for them.
Oct. 22. 5t

Hazelton Lehigh
FURNACE COAL
Give C. PATCH & SON
A Trial Order.

TELL US . .
What you are looking for.
We can show you a fine line of
FALL AND WINTER
UNDERWEAR,
HOSIERY,
Outing Flannels, Flannelettes,
Plaid Dress Goods,
WRAPPERS, BLANKETS,
Comforters,
Dress Linings and other Dry Goods.
OUR STOCK IS FRESH.
OUR PRICES THE LOWEST.
MISS C. S. HUBBARD,
158 Hancock Street.

Rain or Snow

Along the coast but fair in the interior, we read sometimes, but whether rain, snow, fair or blow outside, you may be fair, comfortable and happy inside of one of those

Warm Overcoats

that you can buy at the "Granite," and not only overcoats, but everything required for the comfort of men and boys.

Don't get caught in the storms of winter without proper protection, but go now to the

Granite Clothing Store,
DURGIN & MERRILL'S BLOCK,
QUINCY.

Quincy Daily Ledger
ESTABLISHED IN 1889.
The ONLY DAILY in Norfolk County Massachusetts.

Published Every Evening, Sundays and Holidays Excepted, At No. 115 HANCOCK ST., City of Quincy, Mass., by
GEORGE W. PRESCOTT & SON.
Successors to Green & Prescott.
Subscription Price, $6.00 per year.
☞ A discount of $1 when paid in advance.
ALSO PUBLISHERS OF
The Quincy Patriot,
A Weekly Established in 1837, which has the Largest Circulation in Norfolk County, and
The Braintree Observer,
A Weekly Established in 1878.
TELEPHONE, 78-3 QUINCY.

Quincy Temperature at Noon.

	This Week.	Last Week.	In 1897.	In 1896.
Sunday	59	50	51	52
Monday	60	48	49	62
Tuesday	—	50	58	50
Wednesday	—	54	56	51
Thursday	—	61	55	58
Friday	—	56	59	50
Saturday	—	70	58	55

New Advertisements Today.

Mortgagee's sale.
Strong boy wanted.
Henry L. Kincaide & Co.—Parlor stoves.
Henry L. Kincaide & Co.—Upholstering.

Good Afternoon.

After attending an enthusiastic meeting of prominent gentlemen of the city at the Mayor's office Saturday evening on the proposed Quincy boulevard, we were disgusted to read a semi-official report in the Transcript of the same date on the work of the Metropolitan Park Commission, which concluded as follows:

"The projects of improving the Winthrop and the Quincy shores have, unfortunately, been definitely abandoned by the commission. The board was earnestly desirous to carry out the work at those points, as so strongly recommended by its landscape advisers, but it has found the cost so great as not to warrant the undertakings. Efforts to secure options on property were unsuccessful and the prices asked were beyond all reason. Had the local interests that were so urgent about the projects offered a substantial cooperation like that with which the commission has been assisted in other sections the results might have been different in both instances."

The commission is open to criticism in allowing such a report to go forth, when it has set a date for a hearing to Quincy, the city having had no opportunity to present its case or to cooperate as intimated. The sanction of the board seems premature, and another breach of faith on the part of the commission, who assured the committee of the Legislature that the Quincy boulevard would be built if the million dollars was appropriated.

The preliminary meeting of Quincy's influential and progressive gentlemen Saturday clearly showed that Quincy was ready to cooperate. It was there stated that if the city could not legally appropriate money to buy land and rights to the shore, that it would be done by subscription. It should not be expected that land owners will give all the land for the wide boulevard and in addition all the land between the boulevard and the water, amounting in individual cases to several acres. Most of the abutters seem willing to give the land for the boulevard itself, but rightly believe that they should be compensated for the extra land taken. The boulevard will benefit others than the abutters. It will increase the value of all the land east of the railroad in Ward Six and Five, and to some extent in Ward One, and if the owners cannot be assessed betterments they should be willing to subscribe liberally for the improvement. It is by no means certain that Quincy cannot appropriate money toward he boulevard, as the city of Medford appropriated $50,000 of the continuance of the Valley parkway from Winchester down along the shores of the lakes.

Certainly the appropriation made especially for the Quincy boulevard should not be diverted to other towns of the Metropolitan district which have already been favored. If land and rights cannot be obtained for a reasonable sum along the shore from Squantum to Merry Mount park, then seek a new location. It would seem feasible for the commission to extend the Milton boulevard from East Milton to Houghs Neck, either via. Adams street, Bridge street, Butler road and the northerly shore of the Adams farm or from East Milton by a new parkway which should intersect Beale street and continue through Merry Mount park and along the Adams shore.

When the lower end of Washington street is being built, why not leave a reserved space in the centre for the street railway wide enough for a double track, as suggested at the Saturday night conference. A double track on Washington street is something that is needed to give the general public the facilities they should have and the time is not far distant when the street railway will come before the City Council asking for a location for a double track on this street. This being true why not take time by the forelock and put them in the middle of that part of the street to be taken by the State.

Harvest Concerts.

The annual harvest concert of the Wollaston Unitarian Sunday School was held at the church on Sunday evening at six o'clock. The decorations by the Committee on Flowers,—Miss Marion Taylor, Miss Mabel F. Fairbanks, Mrs. Charles S. Adams, Miss Carrie Holmes and Miss Helen Foster, were beautiful. The fruit and preserves went to the Cty Hospital and the cut flowers to the sick at Wollaston. There was singing by a quartette consisting of Miss Isadore Chase Lull, Miss Zannetta Sprague, Mr. W. Everett Simmons, Jr., and Mr. Clifton Baker; also solos by Mrs. F. A. Page and Mrs. Lulu Phelan.

The Wollaston M. E. Sunday School held its annual harvest concert on Sunday evening at 3.30. The decorations of autumnal foliage and cut flowers, which were banked around the pulpit, were beautiful. There was an excellent musical programme and an address by the pastor, the Rev. J. E. Waterhouse.

Electrics to Plymouth.

The Weymouth selectmen give a hearing next Saturday on the petition of the Quincy & Boston street railway for a location from the line between Braintree and Weymouth, through Weymouth Landing and South Weymouth to the line between Weymouth and Hingham at Queen Anns corner. It is reported that this is the first step of the Quincy & Boston of its proposed line between Quincy and Plymouth. Such a line would open up a large tract of new undeveloped country, and would prove very popular for summer tourists. This is about the only section of the South Shore that is not reached by electric street cars from Boston.

Fire at Braintree.

The farm house, known as the old Hollis house, on Middle street, Braintree, owned by Daniel Curtin, was completely destroyed by fire at 2 o'clock Sunday morning. The fire caught near the chimney from some unknown cause and the family had a narrow excape from being burned to death. The loss on building was $3,000, and on furniture $1500. Insured.

SELECT SOCIALS!
EVERY FRIDAY EVENING,
Beginning Oct. 21, 8.30 to 11,
COLONIAL HALL, Bank Bldg., Quincy
Given in connection with
Prof. Gardner's Dancing School.
Tickets: Gent or Couple, 50c. Extra Lady, 25c.
LAST HALF TERM. Those who desire to learn the latest Fancy Dances can join the class at 7.30. Terms: 8 lessons from 7.30 to 8.30, Gents $4, Ladies $3. oct18—6t

LADIES' and CHILDREN'S
Hair Dressing and Cutting.
ALL KINDS OF HAIR WORK.
WIGS, SWITCHES, FRIZZES.
Sixteen Years' Experience.
MRS. I. F. DOW,
Room 10, Hotel Greenleaf.
Quincy, Oct. 22. 6t

MABEL F. FAIRBANKS
TEACHER OF
CHINA PAINTING and WATERCOLOR.
China Decorated to Order.
34 Grand View Avenue, Wollaston.
Sept. 29. 3m

ALBERT J. BOWERS
OPTICIAN
ADAMS BUILDING
OVER POST OFFICE
QUINCY MASS.

AT CAMP MEADE.

With Co. K, 5th Mass.
Middletown, Penn., Oct. 22.

Yesterday afternoon we experienced another rain storm, so that all drills were dispensed with. The boys stuck close to their quarters all the afternoon, giving the camp a look of desertion. Lieut. O. J. Nielson, of Co. E, Medford, reported to the Major yesterday afternoon, to take command of this company The boys are feeling discouraged, and do not intend to have their lieutenants thrown down in this manner

The following troops in the 2d Army Corps, Second Division, will take part on the 26th in the ceremonies of the Philadelphia Peace Jubilee, Major General William Montrose Graham commanding:

Second West Virginia, Lieut. Col. C. B. Moore, 18 officers, 250 men.

Fifteenth Pennslyvania Col. William A. Kreps, 36 officers, 700 men.

Fifth Massachusetts, Col. Josephus H. Whitney, 13 officers, 250 men.

Fourth New Jersey, Col. R. G. Smith, 10 officers, 250 men.

Fourth Missouri, Lieut. Col. W. P. Burnham, 17 officers, 250 men.

Two hundred and First New York, Col. H. W. Hubbell, 16 officers, 250 men.

First Rhode Island, Lieut. Col. Frank A. Cook, 21 officers, 250 men. Second Tennessee, Col. Keller Anderson, 17 officers, 250 men.

First Delaware, Capt. H. B. Carter, 12 officers, 250 men.

Total, 160 officers, 2,700 men. Brigadier General George W. Davis will be in command of Second Division.

The 3d battalion of this regiment is the one selected to go as it has no specific duty to perform in camp. Major Morrison of our battalion will be in command in the absence of Major Clements.

Through the generosity and benevolence of Mrs. James Walker of Quincy, Corporal Hermanson has today received a large box containing a number of dainties, which he and his squad are partaking of.

The Corporal wishes to thank the lady for the kindness.

Corporal McIntosh also received a box of eatables from his mother. The two packages coming in one large box.

The following are on guard today Sergeant H. F. Barrett, Corporal D. F. Foster, Privates Sheehan, Sullivan, Seberg, Thumstrom, Briggs, Brown, Belcher, Burns, Bowles, Buckley, Clements, Colbury.

Last night about 8.30 Capt. Neilson ordered some hot lemonade to be prepared and poured for the company. The boys enjoyed it very much particularly as it was wet damp night.

It rained and poured all night, though this morning looks like clearing weather.

Lieut. Spear is today acting battalion adjutant, Adjutant Coleman having gone to Philadelphia, on a brief visit.

Sergeant Phillips has a Camp Meade souvenir in the form of a black Newfoundland puppy, which he intends to ship to his home next week.

The weekly inspection did not take place this morning on account of the inclemency of the weather.

Corporal Wardwell will today take charge of the squad formerly under Corporal Matthews, who is on special duty, acting as Hospital Sergeant.

Corporal Delano will take charge of Corporal Wardwell's squad.

Private Sheehan again secured orderly.

Capt. Neilson is today busy taking account of all government stock turned over to him. All Captains are held responsible for company property.

The boys continue well. DOC.

Social at Atlantic.

Music hall, Atlantic, was the scene of a social gathering of dancers on Saturday evening, who attended the social of the T. R. & S. A. A. Mr. Sprague with his orchestra gave splendid music, and Mr. William Wilson of Quincy was prompter. The floor was efficiently looked after by Messrs. H. C. Seymour and Bartlett McLain. During the evening Mr. J. H. Whitehead, president of the association, addressed the audience, and announced that a prize consisting of a piece of silver or jewelry valued at eight dollars would be presented to the person who would sell the greatest number of tickets for the next three socials.

LEHIGH COAL.
When we Sell You Lehigh we Deliver what we Sell. . . .
C. PATCH & SON.

GO TO . . .
Miss B. J. PATTERSON'S
Millinery Parlors
AT THE
Boston Bargain Store,
FOR YOUR
FALL MILLINERY.

A fine assortment of Trimmed Goods. Also, all the latest and best shapes in untrimmed hats, walking hats and sailors.

New Velvets, Ribbons, Fancy Feathers and Ostrich goods.

Lowest possible prices for first-class goods.

Music Hall Building, Quincy.
Oct. 1. tfpl

LOCAL NEWS TRACK.

Some Colts which are Sure Winners Every Heat.

A bright morning.

The Fifth Massachusetts regiment may go South next week.

Milton academy defeated Roxbury at foot ball Saturday 15 to 0.

Wolcott, Barrows, McCall and Clark in Quincy Friday evening.

Benjamin F. Cramp has been granted a pension of $6 per month.

Mr. Q. A. Faunce of Wollaston is at Townsend, Mass., after foxes.

A Halloween party is to be given in East Milton at Washington hall.

The high wind Saturday night tore the City Hall flag beyond repair.

The evening schools at the Adams and Willard buildings open tonight.

All hands up for a boulevard from Squantum to the Blue Hills Reservation.

The engagement is announced of Miss Frances Hoar and Mr. Myles Creamer, both of Atlantic.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Clough of Wollaston are receiving congratulations on the advent of a little son.

On the Wollaston links Saturday, there will be a handicap foursomes, match play vs. bogey, open to members of invited clubs.

A. G. Olney of Wollaston has leased the Chandler place at the corner of Brook and Safford streets to Dr. William Curtis of Roxbury.

Rev. Preston Gurney of the Wollaston Baptist society preached to a large congregation on Sunday, taking his sermon from Psalms 118:23.

A Fifth Massachusetts regiment boy has won the heart of the daughter of Lieut. Col. E. M. Weaver. Lieut. Charles E. Stearns of Waltham is the happy man.

There will be no meeting of the City Council tonight but there will be one next Monday night, when there will be a second hearing to the Boynton Bicycle railway; this time on the second petition.

F. F. H. Smith won the two days' tournament of the Wollaston Golf club, having the best gross score as well as the best net: Smith, 81-8-73; Atherton, 90-8-82; Swan, 91-8-83; Freeman, 94-86-8; Farrington, 101-12-99.

At a meeting of the directors of the Quincy Cooperative Bank held on Saturday evening, a semi-annual dividend was declared to the members at the rate of 6 1-4 per cent. per anum. This is a flourishing institution, and is very successfully managed.

The East Norfolk district must be getting good, for there was no new criminal business before the District court this morning, a thing that has not happened for a long time. Monday is usually one of the busiest days in the week for criminal business.

Mr. Henry W. Marsden of Wollaston starts on Thursday for Orlando, Florida, where he will pass the winter. He goes first to New York, then takes a Clyde Line steamer for Jacksonville, and thence by train to Orlando. Two guns and his dog accompany him.

Messrs. Thomas Butler & Co. of Boston, who have bought the old steamer "Lewiston" have had her hauled up at their place at Nut island. The machinery will be taken out for old junk and the boat burned for the metal in her hull. She was for many years on the International Line between Boston, Portland and Eastport.

Miss Charlotte A. Kendall, the teacher of drawing in the Quincy schools has a brother in the Sixth Massachusetts regiment, which has been in Porto Rico. The regiment has sailed for home and is due in Boston on Thursday. The regiment was recruited from Boston, Wakefield, Fitchburg, Lowell, South Framingham, Marlboro, Stoneham, Concord, Southbridge and Milford.

A very pleasant and enjoyable social was held at Brasee's hall, Wollaston, on Saturday evening, under the management of Thomas Raiche and Charles J. McDonald. The hall was comfortably filled, and by the good music furnished by Robinson's orchestra the patrons were made happy and kept busy for four hours. Mr. Al Corey of Boston did the prompting, and did it so well that the boys said he was "all right." The floor was in charge of Messrs. William Eaton, Joe Mullen and Leslie Smith.

The Sunday's Herald say: The engagement which has been announced of Miss Frances Lovering, a daughter of the Hon. William C. Lovering of Taunton, and Hon. Charles Francis Adams, 2d, a son of Mrs. John Quincy Adams, of Quincy has been source of much congratulations from the relatives and friends of both families. Mr. Adams is a member of the Somerset Country and Eastern yacht clubs, and is a well set up, fine looking man. He is of the Harvard class of '88, and the brother of Mr. George Adams, the famous yachtsman.

☞ Real down right comfort in our blankets and comforters. That's not all, our prices the lowest on earth. Blankets from 45 cents per pair up. Comforters from 75 cents up. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

TODAY'S COURT.

Malcolm Lafayette was brought into court this morning upon a default warrant for drunkenness at Quincy, and was fined $7.

The continued case of Michael Milan, for uttering threats at Quincy, was called and continued until Saturday.

—The new South station in Boston will have an emergency room, with attendants and necesary supplies required in cases of accident, exhaustions, etc.

☞ Hundreds of handsome lamps, all the newest creations, from 25 cents to $10.00. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

By C. H. JOHNSON, - - Auctioneer.
Office, Adams Building, Quincy.
HOUSEHOLD GOODS
—AT—PUBLIC AUCTION
AT RESIDENCE OF
BARNARD SHANE,
126 Copeland Street, West Quincy,
—ON—
TUESDAY, Oct. 25, '98,
At 1.30 P. M.

THE Goods consist in part as follows: Painted Chamber Set, two Single Beds, Rocker, 3 odd Parlor Chairs, 6 Dining Room Chairs, 2 Tables, Couch, Hair Cloth Sofa, Iron Bedstead and Spring nearly new, Wood Stove, Clock, Pictures, lot of Crockery and Tinware, Mattresses, Coal Stove and a variety of useful household goods.
Sale positive. Terms cash. 19 22 24

By FRANK F. CRANE, - Auctioneer.
Office, 4 Chestnut Street, Quincy.
AUCTION SALE
OF THE Household Furniture
—OF—
MRS. FRANK MUNROE, 29 Chestnut St.
Wednesday, Oct. 26,
At 1.30 P. M.

Parlor contains Gent's Smoking Chair, lounge Easy Chairs, Marble Top Table.
Front Chamber contains White Iron Bedstead, Black Walnut, Bureau, Commode and Chairs, Sewing Machine.
Middle Chamber contains Oak Chamber Set.
Side Chamber contains White Iron Single Bedstead, Bureau, etc.
End Chamber contains Bedstead, Bureau, Commode and Rocker.
Kitchen contains Table, Oil Stove, Crockery Glass Ware, Bird Cage, etc.
Also, we shall sell all the Mattresses, Bedding, etc., Pictures, Ornaments, and many other articles too numerous to mention.
Sale positive, rain or shine. Terms cash.
Oct. 20. 5t

The John Hancock Stables.
Opposite Depot, Quincy, Mass.
Boarding, Baiting, Livery and Sale.
DR. J. A. DOW, Proprietor,
the well known Veterinary dentist and specialist in the treatment of lame horses. Sick horses treated at owner's risk.
The finest equipped and managed stable of its size in America.
Fine driving turnouts in light rigs; safe and good appearing. All horses let are perfectly safe for ladies to drive.
The choicest family, road and coach horses constantly on hand for sale. All horses guaranteed as represented.
☞ Will attend to veterinary practice as usual. aug18-1y

STENOGRAPHY AND TYPEWRITING,
BOOKKEEPING,
And All Clerical Work.
MISSES A. B. and E. M. COTE,
Room 12 Durgin & Merrill Block, - Quincy.
Oct. 10. tf

By FRANK F. CRANE, - Auctioneer.
Office, 4 Chestnut St., Quincy.
Large Auction Sale
OF THE
GRANITE WORKS and QUARRY TOOLS
—OF—
PETER CARLSON & CO.,
Quarry Street, Opposite Fallon's Quarry,
THURSDAY, OCT. 27, 1898,
At 1.30 P. M.,

Consisting of Engine House, Tool Shed, 30 horse power, double cylinder and double drum Engine built to order by Rawson & Morrison of Cambridgeport, 2 years old, This engine was made espceially to order for the granite business, is extra heavy and strong, and is first-class in every respect, the boiler has 120 tubes, makes steam quickly, and is very economical with coal. New Steam Drill, built by Ingersoll & Sargent; Steam Pump, 3 inch suction, 2 1-2 discharge; one Large Derrick, good for twenty tons; one medium sized Derrick, good for 8 or 9 tons; 2 Dump Cars and about 225 feet of rails for the same, about 1,000 feet of Steam Piping from 1-2 inch to 3 inches in diameter; large lot of Chains, Dogs, Bars, Steam Drills, Blast Drills, Plug Drills, Blocks, Sheaves, Wire Rope, New Tackle and Falls of 400 feet crucible steel 5-8 rope, 1 new Tackle and Fall of 550 feet of crucible steel 5-8 rope, and various other articles too numerous to mention.
Sale positive, rain or shine. Terms cash.
Oct. 19. 7t

Give C. PATCH & SON
A TRIAL ORDER
For HAZELTON LEHIGH COAL.

MISS C. L. BLISS
186 HANCOCK STREET,
Trimmed and Untrimmed
Hats and Novelties.
Order Work a Specialty.
STAMPING, PINKING, HAIR DRESSING,
Manicuring and Glove Cleaning.
Quincy, Oct. 22. tf plo

E. LANDIS SNYDER,
Organist and Choirmaster of Christ Church,
TEACHER OF
VOICE CULTURE, PIANO AND ORGAN.
Studio: Room 10 Durgin & Merrill's Block,
QUINCY, MASS.
Sept. 10. tf

About . . .
Your Upholstering.

Sooner or later you'll need our assistance. All kinds of furniture reupholstered. Mattresses to order and made over. Window shades to order. Cushions to order. Carpets taken up, cleaned and relaid, or made over to fit other rooms; also drapery work. We employ men of experience only and insure our patrons strictly first-class work at prices that are fair to pay. Work done as it should be done. Estimates promptly furnished.

HENRY L. KINCAIDE & CO.,
Reliable, Low Priced House Furnishers,
Hancock Street, : : : Quincy.
Telephone Connection.

SWITHIN BROS.
REAL ESTATE!
President's Hill.
President's Hill Annex.
Cranch Hill.
Choice Lots and Improved Property for Sale in West Quincy, Wollaston, South Quincy, Quincy Point, Quincy Centre.
Room 12, Durgin & Merrill's Block, Quincy.

Ask Your Neighbor

whose house is conspicuously clean, whose work worries her least, whose leisure time is greatest, how she manages. The chances are ten to one she will answer:

"I do all my cleaning with

GOLD DUST Washing Powder

Sold by all grocers. Largest package—greatest economy.

THE N. K. FAIRBANK COMPANY,

Chicago. St. Louis. New York. Boston. Philadelphia.

GEO. AMES,

the ONLY PRACTICAL PLUMBER in the Hardware business in the City. He has a patent SEWER TRAP which cannot be beat. Impossible for deadly sewer gas to enter your homes. See him about your Sewer Connection. He has had three years' experience in Boston and other large cities Established here in 1889 and still in it. Work done anywhere.

Hardware, Paints and Oils, Putty and Glass, Yacht Supplies, Steam and Gas Fittings. Steam and Hot Air Heaters put in repair for the winter.

ADAMS BUILDING

Parlor Stove Talk

All homes are not yet blessed with a furnace or a steam heating plant, and if our enormous sales of Parlor Stoves is any criterion, we can with wisdom say that Parlor Stove popularity is by no means a thing of the past.

There is a difference in Parlor Stoves just the same as in everything else,—some good, some bad, some indifferent. Years of experience have taught us just which stoves give the best service, are easiest to manage and prove economical coal burners. Such stoves as these are what we offer—40 patterns to choose from, $2.98 to $20.00. A stove to suit your notion, a stove to suit your purse.

Oil Room Heaters, $3 50 to $4 50.

HENRY L. KINCAIDE & CO.,

Reliable, Low Priced House Furnishers.

HANCOCK STREET, - - QUINCY.

ONE-TON ORDERS

Have been the making of this Coal business. Hundreds have ordered "just one ton to see if there was any difference." They found there was and they came again. Our one-ton orders have been our best advertisements. It's a better Coal at the same price, with the proof in a sample ton. When in doubt, try Patch's.

C. PATCH & SON.

Gentlemen, Buy Your....

OVERCOATS

Where you can find the best assortment in the city and the lowest prices, which is at

C. F. DERBY'S, SAVINGS BANK BUILDING, QUINCY. 5-1m

JOHN EVANS,
Auctioneer and Appraiser.
Prompt Settlement.
24 COPELAND STREET, QUINCY.
Feb. 28. tf

FRANK F CRANE,
AUCTIONEER and APPRAISER,
Office, 4 Chestnut St., Quincy, Mass.
Oct. tf

THE BOULEVARD.

Quincy Men Determined to Have It.

Ready to Subscribe Funds if Necessary.

Preliminary Meeting at Mayor's Office, City Hall.

At the request of Mayor Sears, several of Quincy's most progressive citizens met with him Saturday evening at his office a City Hall to see what was necessary to secure the Quincy boulevard, for which the Legislature made an appropriation of $250,000.

There were present Mayor Sears, ex-Mayor Porter, ex-Mayor Fairbanks, Representative Thompson, Representative Newcomb, President Pinkham of the City Council, Councilmen McGrath, Owen, Clark, Swithin, Packard, Willard, ex-Senator Merrill, Eben W. Sheppard, City Treasurer Gray, ex-Representative Graham, City Clerk Cleaves, Park Comissioner Pfaffmann, Alexander Marnock, Theophilus King, Nelson V. Titus, F. C. Pope, F. B. Rice, Clarence Burgin, John A. Duggan, William A. Glover, Frank F. Prescott and others.

Rumors of adverse action by the Metropolitan board were mentioned, but in as much as the Mayor had been notified that a hearing would be given it was thought that the matter might be reopened.

It developed that land which owners had agreed to give, was now held at exorbitant figures, or that the owners would not fix a price. The principal stick came at the property of Wood Harmon & Co., which they claim has changed hands.

F. C. Pope and W. B. Glover were ready to give the land necessary for a boulevard either 100 or 150 feet wide, but thought it was asking too much to require them to give considerable land between the boulevard and the bay, including their shore rights. Mr. Pope set a price for this extra land and rights. He thought others in the vicinity were benefitted.

Several speakers recognized the benefit of the boulevard to the city and there was an inquiry whether the city could make an appropriation. But there seemed some doubt on this point.

Representative Thompson explained the situation at length, as he understood it, but claimed that the chairman had never given him much satisfaction.

Those present realized that the commission should not proceed blindly and take rights and land by eminent domain. Inasmuch as not a cent of the money intended for Quincy had been expended, personal work was urged, and if necesary a subscription started to secure land which commission could not secure.

Attendance at the hearing was urged, and when the difficulty was unearthed all could work understandingly and unitedly. Most of those present signified their intention to attend the hearing, and a large representation has gone to Boston today, including the city editor of the Daily Ledger.

MANY PEOPLE CANNOT DRINK

coffee at ight. It spoils their sleep. You can drink Grain-O when you please and sleep like a top. For Grain-O does not stimulate; it nourishes, cheers and feeds. Yet it looks and tastes like the best coffee. For nervouspersons, young people and children Grain-O is he perfect drink. Made from pure grains. Get a package from your grocer today. Try it in place of coffee. 15 and 25c.

POTATOES,
15c. Pk.

Sweet Potatoes,
15c. Pk.

White Seal Flour,
4.75 Bbl. Cash.

We guarantee this Flour to be old wheat and one of the best Bread Flours in the market.

L. M. PRATT & CO.,
25 School Street.

RALLIES COMING.

Political Notes and Comments of Local Interest.

Politics in Quincy are a little quiet just at present, although they are likely to warm up a little before the week is out. This may be a case of a calm that preceeds a storm, for unless all signs fail the city campaign will be hot enough to please anybody. There are many "ex's" who hope to be taken in out of the cold again and others who imagine that their feelings have been injured in some way. It is rather remarkable when one looks over the list of officials who went out of office last February to see how few have done any business since that time, except possibly to prepare bombs and mines which they hope to explode and work havoc in the party now in power.

The Republicans will hold but a very few rallies this year as they are deemed unnecessary.

At 5 o'clock today the time limit for withdrawal of candidates expires. It is rumored that H. A. Atwood may step out of the contest in this Congressional district.

Several from Quincy will attend the grand dinner of the Republican club at Music hall, Boston, on Wednesday evening.

The Democrats of this Congressional district will open their speaking this evening with rallies at Roxbury and South Boston. The orators will be: G. F. Williams, A. B. Bruce, E. J. Slattery, W. H. Baker, Joseph A. Coury, H. F. Naphen, and Harry Lloyd.

All the Republicans of the 10th congressional district have to do to make a successful campaign is to hold the noses of their adversaries right down to the free coinage of silver issue to which the Democratic candidate has explicitly committed himself. With the sound money slogan, Congressman Barrows can win in a walk.—Herald.

A Democratic rally will be held at Hancock hall Wednesday evening. Among the speakers announced are George Fred Williams, Candidates Bruce and Naphen, and Mr. Slattery.

The Republicans are fortunate in having secured Governor Wolcott and two Congressman for their opening rally in Quincy on Friday. The city has Music hall this year, and it should be the best rally ever held here.

An Outing That is Healthful.

That Maine is the greatest paradise for those of sporting inclination was long since granted, but to the average New Englander the Sportsman's Show in Boston last spring was an eye-opener. Hundreds who visited this marvellous exhibition declared that this fall they should participate in this, the most fascinating sport; and that the promises are being made good is already evidenced by the great travel toward the Maine hunting grounds. On every eastbound train will be found great quantities of trappings and outfits of the huntsmen, while the sportsmen talk over and dream of the excitement incident to the deer hunt. Many are the city men now-a-days who are enjoying a palatable spread of venison, the result of the good luck of some friend; but to be able to participate in the chase of a deer or moose is an enjoyment that is finely described in a recent article in "Outing," which reads like this:—

"It was a delightful November afternoon, and the air was just invigorating enough to make one feel happy and full of life.

"It was to a barren opening about a mile from our camp that we were bound, and to reach it we were obliged to pass a small lake, when, suddenly, we saw on the shore, opposite, a great bull moose. Our guide quickly made preparations to call. The old fellow at the first challenge showed in every move that he was ready and willing to fight, and immediately started in our direction. To see that great angered beast tearing through the underbrush bellowing as only an infuriated animal can, was a most thrilling and exciting experience.

"When within a short distance from us he stopped. Tossing his head high in the air he pawed the earth,—his every manner was that of the 'King of the Woods,' that he is. We still remained under cover, and fearing that he might start in another direction we discussed in a hurried manner the advisability of another call. If successfully given, all well and good: if there happened to be the slightest flaw the chances were fatal. The call was given, and that it was rightly given we soon discovered, for toward us he came and in less time than it takes to tell it he appeared before us, his magnificent antlers raised aloft over his massive head. His eyes large and red showed that he meant business, while his mane stood erect and bristling. Shoot! they cried, and with as much calmness as my condition permitted I raised my gun and let her go. I was blinded by the smoke, but from the tearing about that was going on I knew that I had brought him down."

This experience is not exceptional, but a regular and oft-repeated occurrence, and one in which you would delight.

The Boston & Maine R. R. and its connections pervades every part of this resourceful country, and its trains are run at convenient hours; and in the parlor sleeping-car service that is in effect, you can go there in luxury and comfort.

If you want to know of the hunting regions of Maine, send a two-cent stamp to the General Passenger Agent, B. & M. R. R., Boston, for the book entitled Fishing and Hunting, which is profusely illustrated.

For Sale or To Let,
FURNISHED,
NASH'S HOTEL.

Full of Boarders and a good transient trade. Cheap rent. My catering business is all I can attend to.

Apply at HOTEL, 148 Hancock street, Quincy, Mass. oct11 tf lo

☞ Powerful oil heaters. Will heat your room in a twinkling. $3.98. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

IN THE CITY NURSERY

Young Saplings Which Together Assume Importance.

The Quincy Point church is being shingled.

Repairs are being made to the Quincy Adams depot.

Sixty degree temperature at noon is rare nowadays.

The high wind Sunday dried the mud quite as quickly as the hot sun in summer.

Now that the hedge on Wibird street has been trimmed it is possible to walk on the street.

Miss Mary Gavin, of the Water department, has returned from a two week's vacation.

Mr. Fred Smith has a new cat boat called the Josephine and is enlarging his boat house at Bent's creek.

Mr. John H. Graham and Miss Edith Graham went Saturday to Amherst, Mass., for a brief visit, returned today.

Work on the underground telephone conduits, which the rainy weather has delayed somewhat, was resumed this morning.

Mr. Ellis Jones of Wollaston, who is attending the Mt. Herman Y. M. C. A. school at Northfield, is in town on a few days' visit.

Mr. Joseph Merritt of the Springfield Y. M. C. A. training school, formerly physical director at the Quincy Y. M. C. A., is in town for a few days.

Rev. C. H. Williams of Braintree gave the address at the Y. M. C. A. mens' meeting Sunday taking for his subject "The Silent Forces, or The Unknown Hero."

Work was commenced this morning repairing the School street bridge over the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad. New timbers will be put in and the bridge replanked.

Mr. Bert Drake received a few friends Friday evening at his cozy rooms at The Greenleaf. Whist and music were enjoyed. Mrs. Winifred Drake sang a few selections with a pathetic charm which few can imitate.

The three days' fair of the Swedish Lutheran church at Faxon hall closed Saturday evening. There was a large attendance that night and a large part of the articles on the table were disposed of. The fair as a whole was a financial success.

Quincy Post Office.

Letters unclaimed for week ending Oct. 24:

John E. Fitzgerald, H. Hikkila, John Harkins, J. H. Lillmars, Allan May, M. McGowan, Joseph P. Quirk, Walter M. Rogers.

Mrs. A. Anderson, Mrs. C. P. Anderson, Miss Anna Carlson, Mrs. A. Carlson, Mrs. M. J. Caven, Mrs. C. Chisborn, Mrs. C. Croto, Mrs. A. Culle, Miss Delia Deslauriers, Mrs. P. Donovan, Mrs. P. Dwyer, Mrs. C. Edwards, Mrs. C. Erickson, Mrs. P. Erickson, Mrs. W. Gray, Mrs. S. Hamilton, Mrs. P. Hardie, Mrs. J. Holbrook, Mrs. J. H. John, Mrs. B. H. Jones, Mrs. T. H. Lee, Mrs. S. Lund, Mrs. C. W. Mattson, Mrs. E. R. Mahoney, Mrs. J. Martell, Mrs. Mathson, Mrs. McAloon, Mrs. F. C. McCarthy, Mrs. H. McLellan, Mrs. R. F. Mineos, Mrs. Sarah Nash, Mrs. J. Nelson, Mrs. H. S. Patterson, Mrs. O. H. Peterson, Mrs. L. Roberts, Mrs. M. Rogers, Mrs. J. Ross, Mrs. J. Ryland, Mrs. C. L. Sassi, Mrs. J. Sedberg, Mrs. S. Simmon, Mrs. J. Steward, Mrs. M. Swanson, Mrs. J. Twomey, Mrs. P. Whalen, Miss Ida White, Miss Allie Worden, Mrs. A. Wyman.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts

OFFICE OF THE

Board of HARBOR and LAND COMMISSIONERS.

State House, Boston, October 18, 1898.

NOTICE is hereby given that the Quincy and Boston Street Railway Company of Quincy, Mass., has made application to this Board for license to erect a station building on piles in Neponset river, adjoining Neponset avenue in the City of Boston, as per plans filed with said application; and WEDNESDAY, the 26th day of October, 1898, at 11 o'clock A. M., and this office, have been assigned as the time and place for hearing all parties interested therein.

For the Board,

WOODWARD EMERY,
Chairman.

2t 20 24

WILLIAM E. BAXTER, M. D.
Practice Limited to the
EYE AND EAR.
553 Boylston St., Boston.
QUINCY—Monday and Friday.
Hours, 9 to 11. 195 Hancock Street
May 21. 1y

DR. HERBERT S. HAYFORD
195 Hancock Street.
OFFICE HOURS—11 to 12 A. M., 2 to 4 and 7 to 8 P. M.
Telephone, 4-3.
Quincy, July 5. tf

PROF. W. R. CARTER,
SPECIALIST,
Chronic and Private Diseases,
MALE and FEMALE.
WILL BE AT
22 Chestnut Street, Quincy,
EVERY WEDNESDAY
From 10 A. M. to 9 P. M.
Consultation and Advice Free.
TEETH EXTRACTED WITHOUT PAIN.
Oct. 22. 6t

LAND VALUES.

Continued from page 1.

WARD FIVE.

	Valuation of Land Only.	Total Ward Tax.
Nickerson, Nathan G.		$486 20
5,120, Elmwood ave.,	$300.
5,000, " "	$250.
12,035, Lot 8, Sec. 3,	$600.
5,000 Central ave.,	$250.
5,000, Farrington,	$250.
5,000, "	$350.
10,000, Section 6,	$700.
5,000, 54 J. Adams,	$600.
35,812, Section 2,	$2,700.
5,000, " 6,	$250.
5,176, " "	$350.
5,352, " "	$350.
5,000, " "	$250.
25,000, " "	$1,000.
5,000, " "	$250.
6,030, " "	$300.
8,251, Old Colony ave.,	$300.
8,251, Newton,	$300.
7,929, "	$300.
9,204, Prospect ave.,	$600.
Nickerson & Sherman,		9 90
5,000, Section 6, $50.
3,350, " 5, $250.
5,000, " 6, $250.
Nickerson & Baker,		4 50
3,500, the Strand, $250.
Nickerson & Bryant,		9 00
7,020, Chick, $500.
Nickerson, N. G. and others		8 10
2,688, Strand, $200.
Nickerson, N. G. and Isaiah		64 80
20,000, Sec. 6, $1,200.
10,000, " " $600.
Nightingale, Charles W.		5 40
5,250, Morton, $300.
Noyes, Clara L.		45 00
5,000, Brooks, $500.
Nugent, Joanna		34 20
4,689, Hampden Circle, $300.
WARD SIX.
Nichols, Mary A.		$36 00
5,046 feet, Botolph street, $300.
Nickerson, Nathan G., trs.,		90 00
312,220, Squantum, $5,000.
Nickerson & Sherman,		94 50
2,639, Old Colony, $175.
2,888, " " $200.
4,050, Coe, $275.
4,050, " $275.
3,600, Atlantic ave., $250.
3,600, " " $250.
3,359, " " $225.
Nickerson, Nathan G. and Henry M. Taylor,		126 00
32,919, Billings, $3,600.
Nunn, Alfred E.		42 50
3,750, Hollis ave., $250.
Nye, Alfred		83 00
28,000, Atlantic, $2,900.
Nyhan, Daniel		41 60
5,521, Hancock, $600.

To be continued.

☞ We sell Glenwood Ranges because they are the best ranges money can buy. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

Mortgagee's Sale.

BY Virtue of the power of sale contained in a certain mortgage given by Ole Dion Nelson to Albertina M. Whitman, recorded with Norfolk Deeds, Lib. 630, Fol. 49, for breach of the condition of said mortgage deed and for the purpose of foreclosing the same will be sold at public auction on the premises hereinafter described on THURSDAY, the 17th day of November, 1898, at three o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, namely:

A parcel of land with the buildings thereon, situated in Quincy, in the County of Norfolk and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and bounded and described as follows: Beginning at a stake in the southerly side line of a private way known as Albertina street, said point of beginning being distant in a southwesterly direction seven hundred and seventy-four (774) feet from the westerly line of Centre street, thence running southwesterly and bounding northwesterly on said Albertina street a distance of one hundred (100) feet to a stake; thence at right angles and running southeasterly a distance of one hundred and eighty (180) feet to a stake; thence turning at right angles and running northeasterly a distance of one hundred (100) feet to a stake; thence at right angles and running northwesterly a distance of one hundred and eighty (180) feet to the point of begirning, and containing 18,000 square feet of land.

Said premises will be sold subject to a prior mortgage for $1,500 with interest, and also subject to any and all unpaid taxes and assessments. Terms and particulars will be given at the time and place of sale.

ALBERTINA M. WHITMAN,
Mortgagee.
Quincy, Oct. 24, 1898. Oct. 24, 31 Nov. 7

FISH.

Everything first-class at the

Cape Cod Fish Market,

Temple Street.

All kinds Fresh, Salt, Smoked an Pickeled

Quincy, Feb. 8. 1y

FOR SALE.

Bigelow St. Fine New Residence, 9 rooms, bath, laundry, furnace, open plumbing, cemented cellar, fire place, etc.

R. D. CHASE,
Savings Bank Building.
Quincy, April 8-tf. 9p-tf

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS.

Advertisements in this column inserted at the following rates:

Four lines, or less, one day, - - 25 cents.
" " three days, - - - 50 cents.
" " one week, - - - - 75 cents.

Additional lines will be charged for pro rata Seven words equal a line. Long term rates furnished on application.

LOST.

LOST—A Lady's Hunter Watch and Charm between Norfolk Downs and the Greenleaf Hotel, possibly in the street car. Any information will be gladly received at GREENLEAF HOTEL, and a reward paid.
Oct. 22. 3t

FOUND.

FOUND—A large yellow and white dog without a collar. Owner may have the same by proving property and paying charges.
THOS. P. HEALY,
Adams Street, Quincy.
Oct. 22. 3t

WANTED.

WANTED—A strong boy to work in our shipping department; $3.00 per week. HENRY L. KINCAIDE & CO.
Quincy, Oct. 24. tf

WANTED—A situation to do general housework or second work by Swede girl who has been over a few months. Call at MRS. JOHNSON'S, 22 Clark avenue, Quincy.
Oct. 21. 3t

TO LET.

TO LET—3 Houses of 7 rooms each, healthful location and fine views. Electrics pass often. Rent low. Inquire of F. H. GRAVES, just beyond the bridge, North Weymouth.
Oct. 21. 6t

TO LET—Tenement of 6 rooms No. 12 Newcomb street, in good repair; city water. inquire of C. A. SPEAR, 7 Newcomb street.
Quincy, Oct. 20. tf

TO LET—A Sunny, Pleasant House of six rooms, newly papered and painted and in good repair; on Washington street, corner Wibird street. Centrally located in the Coddington school district. Apply only to FRANK F. PRESCOTT at Daily Ledger office.
Oct. 20. tf

TO LET—Tenement of six rooms, No. 19 Cottage avenue. Three minutes from City Square. Apply to CHAS. W. HALL, 212 Hancock street, Quincy. oct19-tf

TO LET—Half a House of 5 rooms entirely separate on Phipps street, Mt. Pleasant. Rent, $8 a month; city water. Inquire at 17 Summer street.
Quincy, Sept. 27. 24t

TO LET—Cottage house, No. 29 Granite street, 8 rooms, three minutes' from City Square. Apply to H. M. FAXON, 4 Adams Building. Sept. 30—tf

FOR RENT—Desirable house with bath, corner lot, nice neighborhood, three minutes' walk from schools, churches and depot Rent reasonable. Apply at No. 6 Pleasant St.
Quincy, Sept. 7. tf

TO LET IN QUINCY.

SOUTHERLY Half of house with stable 214 Hancock street, now occupied by Dr. N. S. Hunting. Modern improvements, central location. Seven rooms and bath; furnace, gas and city water. Apply on premises to
MISS M. F. UNDERWOOD.
Oct. 1. tf

TO LET.

House of 8 rooms, etc., No. 20 Canal street, Quincy. Nice house, excellent location.
R. D. CHASE,
Savings Bank Building.
Quincy, Oct. 8. pl tf

TO LET.

APARTMENTS of five large rooms and bath, with all modern improvements. Also two large stores. Rent moderate. Apply to ARTHUR CRAIG, or J. W. HAYDEN, at Craig Building, cor. Copeland and Garfield Sts.
Quincy, July 15. pl tf

Hazelton Lehigh

Costs a Trifle More.
You Know Why.

C. PATCH & SON.

HOUSES, STORES, LAND,
ROOMS, OFFICES, AND WHARVES,
To Let In Quincy, Mass.
The Houses are in Complete Repair.

Half-house, 10 rooms, 6 Chester street, Wollaston.
House, 10 rooms with stable, 16 Cottage street.
Half-house, 5 rooms, 16 Cottage street.
House, 8 rooms, 29 Granite street.
Half-house, 4 rooms, 4 Water street, $7 per month.
Tenement, 5 rooms, 59 North street.
Half-house, 6 rooms, Pond street, $10 per month.
Half-house, 5 rooms, 13 Field street, $8 per month.
Tenement, 3 rooms, 28 Howard street, $3 per month.
Tenements, 51 Howard street, $4, $5 and $6 per month.
Room, 12 Washington street, $5 per month.
Large building, suitable for manufacturing purposes on Brackett's wharf.
Small stable, 2 Quincy street, $3 per month.
Small stable, 28 Coddington street, $5 per month.
100 windows, and blinds, various sizes.
Wharf, stone sheds, etc., Quincy Neck.
Basement, head of Granite street.
100 tons ballast for sale.
Land to rent for tillage or pasturing purposes.
Gravel and sand for sale.
50 loads of loam for sale.
The buildings are in the very best condition.
For particulars, enquire of, or address

HENRY H. FAXON,
Quincy, Mass.
Quincy, Oct. 13, 1898. 1m

When angry—don't grind your teeth—

Put BattleAx PLUG between them.

Remember the name when you buy again.

EMBROIDERY LESSONS.

We have engaged the same teacher for our Embroidery Classes this season that was so successful last year. Classes start TUESDAY MORNING.

Also the Finest Line of LINENS of All Designs to be gotten in the Market.

Our Line of Embroidery Silks is Complete in Every Detail.

WE CARRY IN STOCK A NEW LINE OF

OPULESCENT AND RAINBOW EDGE SILKS.

Sofa Cushions in a Large Variety.

D. E. WADSWORTH & CO.,
Hancock Street, Quincy.

WATCHES.

GENT'S WATCHES, $1.50 and Up.

LADIES' WATCHES, $2.50 and Up.

EVERY WATCH WARRANTED.

$2.00 Belts, $1.00 Each.
75c. Brooch Pins, 25c. Each.
25 and 35c. Stick Pins, 5 and 10c. Ea.

Quincy SOUVENIR TILES Half Price,

And Other Bargains.

A. A. LINSCOTT, Jeweler,

154 Hancock St., opp. Post Office, Quincy.

Agent for Graphophones.

aug 6. tf

NOTHING BETTER,

UNCLE SAM'S NAVY

Now commands the respect of the world, and we are all proud of the defenders of the Nation's Honor. To give the people of Quincy a good idea of the grand battleships, we have ordered a large supply of portfolios, giving magnificent views of the ships, crews, etc.

With each purchase made at our store we will give a portfolio check to the value of the purchase. When you have $4.00 worth of these checks, return them and get a portfolio. Continue in this way until you have the set complete. Call and see these magnificent portfolios.

ROGERS BROS.,

Groceries and Provisions. Adams Building, Quincy.

Advertising Should be Continuous to be Profitable. The Ledger is the Best Medium in Quincy.

THE WAR OF THE RACES

Wild State of Affairs Exists In Southern Communities.

Gulf on the Color Question Grows Wider.

A Series of Incidents In Which Much Blood Was Shed.

Vicksburg, Oct. 24.—There is a wild state of affairs in Harpersville, on the line of the Alabama asd Vicksburg railroad, in Scott county. It is stated that bad blood has existed for sometime between the whites and blacks.

The trouble originated last Friday, when a negro named Burke had an altercation with Charles Freeman, in which the negro got the better of the difficulty. The next night a crowd of white men, headed by Wallace Sibley, who was deputized to arrest the man, went to Burke's house, which is about a mile from Harpersville. When they arrived upon the scene and called for Burke they were greeted by a fusillade from the negroes concealed in ambush in the bushes surrounding the house and in the house itself. Sibley fell dead at the first volley, and three more white members of the crowd—James Johnson, James Hamilton and James Wells—were wounded. The whites returned the fire, but were unable to do any execution, as their assailants were all concealed. There were not more than eight men in the white crowd, and, finding it impossible to resist effectively, they disappeared toward Harpersville. It was not known at the time that Sibley was injured, but upon a return to the scene Sunday morning he was found dead in the yard. The wounded deputies were able to get back to the town with the assistance of their comrades. This occurrence took place early in the night.

When the crowd returned to Harpersville, the news spread like wildfire. During the night a large crowd gathered from the neighborhood and immediately went to Burke's house, getting from his mother the names of the parties who ambushed the men the night before. In all there were about 40 negroes who had gathered to prevent the arrest of Burke. All of them had fled. Then the pursuit and search for the proscribed darkies began. According to the statement of reliable citizens, six negroes were found and killed by the armed citizens before the sheriff arrived. Sheriff Stevenson was wired from Harpersville of the threatening condition of affairs, and he was asked to get together a posse and go at once to Harpersvile. The sheriff lives at Morton, 10 miles from the scene. Gathering a posse of 20 or 30 men, the sheriff started at once for the place. When he arrived in the afternoon he was joined by crowds of citizens until a conservative estimate placed the number at over 300 men. Immediately after leaving the house where the first tragedy was committed the negroes scattered. The sheriff's pursuit resolved itself into a chase of the negroes implicated and not of a mob which is keeping together, as was first reported. A reliable message states that three more negroes have been found and killed, making a total of nine to date with about 40 more to be heard from.

Sheriff Stevenson, realizing the danger apprehended, immediately wired Governor McLauren for aid. Upon the receipt of his telegram, the governor wired Adjutant General Henry at Jackson to get together a company of the national guard and proceed to the scene upon the first train. General Henry immediately reported that there was no national guard obtainable, but that he would gather at once a company of armed men and render all necessary assistance. In the meantime the governor procured a special train at Brandon, and, accompanied by a posse of 30 men armed with shotguns, proceeded to Forest. Arriving here early in the evening and finding that there was small danger of the riot assuming proportions beyond the ability of the posse on hand to keep in bounds, he wired General Henry that it would be unnecessary for him to bring his volunteers from Jackson. The posse is operating in the swamps about a mile from Harpersville, where most of the fugitives are supposed to be concealed.

Strung to a Pole.

Lafayette, Ala., Oct. 24.—John Anderson, colored, charged with the murder of Charles Holmes, a well-known white farmer, was taken from jail here by a large mob composed of people from Fredonia and West Point, Ga. Anderson was dragged to the edge of the town, his body strung up to a pole and riddled with bullets. Anderson had been for years a tenant on Holmes' farm, and the killing was the result of a dispute over money matters.

Killed a Boy.

Dallas, Oct. 24.—Negroes shot and killed Julius Reed, a 16-year-old white boy, near the Texas cotton mills. Witnesses claim the murder was unprovoked. A mob chased the negroes to a house in the outskirts of the city and surrounded them. A lynching may result.

Run Down by Hounds.

Lumberton, N. C., Oct. 24.—At 3 o'clock Sunday morning a squad of the negroes who were dispersed at Ashpole, Robinson county, crept up to the town and shot three whites stationed there as a guard. They were Albert Floyd, Robert Inman and W. D. Bullard. Bullard is seriously injured and the others slightly. A hundred whites with bloodhounds started in pursuit.

There is great excitement at all points in the state in telegraphic communication with Lumberton. The whites are telegraphing the principal towns in the state for rifles.

Four negroes have been captured near Ashpole. They were run down and brought to bay by the bloodhounds. The negroes are now confined in box cars at Ashpole and heavily guarded. It is uncertain yet what their fate may be, but it is feared that their cowardly attempt to kill the guards will so exasperate the whites as to cause further and more serious trouble. The guard was composed of eight or ten men who were standing around a fire in the open air, thus becoming easy targets for the negroes, who fired on them under cover of darkness and then fled. The Ashpole incident has increased the excitement at Wilmington, which was already near the danger line.

GOLD BRICK GAME.

Two Englishmen Saved $10,000 by the Arrest of a Swindler.

New York, Oct. 24.—The fact that two wealthy Englishmen escaped a costly experience with a swindler is due to the keenness of the detective bureau under Captain McClusky. The Englishmen are $10,000 better off on this account, and Robert Roe, alias Morton, alias Martin, 52 years of age, recognized by detectives as an old time crook, is under arrest charged with attempt at grand larceny.

About the middle of July, J. Algernon Wood received a letter at his home in England, addressed to his father, and postmarked Astoria, Ore., U. S. A. Major Wood had been dead nine months. He left a large fortune, and his son is one of the executors of the estate. The letter was signed "Edward Martin," and detailed to Major Wood movements of a party of miners in British Columbia and near the headwaters of the Peace river. Major Wood was addressed as "Dear Major," and the letter was seemingly to an old friend. It reported that the miners last season cleaned up nearly £40,000 worth of gold.

As a result of the enticing terms of the letter the younger Wood came to New York. Later he went to a hotel in Niagara Falls, where he was to meet Martin and complete negotiations. The latter was shocked when informed of the death of Major Wood. A number of interviews regarding the disposition of Major Wood's share in a bar of gold followed. Under the terms of his father's will the younger Wood could not draw more than $2500 at a time without the signature of his co-executors. Mr. Wood, however, sent to his home in England for Reginald Baiss, a friend, who was able to raise $10,000, the amount required by Mr. Martin for his share in the gold brick.

The men met in New York. A number of borings in the bar of alleged gold were made, but the borings were cleverly changed by Martin, gold being substituted for the baser metal. The assay office reported that the gold samples shown assayed 18 carats fine.

It was by mere chance that Wood happened to mention the incident to a New York lawyer, who at once sent him to Captain McClusky. The chief of detectives recognized at once the familiar game and dispatched two detectives to arrest Martin. They did so while the gold brick man was at lunch at a hotel.

Indians Declare Their Friendship.

Washington, Oct. 24.—The following unique assurance of loyalty to the government has been received at the Indian bureau from the Grand Marais band of Chippewas of Minnesota:

"The great father—The grand Marais band of Chippewa Indians of Minnesota are in council this evening, 15th of October, 1898. We wish to say to you that our forefathers for many generations have lived here in the eastern part of the state of Minnesota when there were a great many Indians and very few white men, and we have never heard of them committing any depredation or wronging any white man or the government up to the present time.

"The reason we say this to you is that we hear of those foolish Indians at Bear island, Leech lake, of the wrong they are doing and the mistake they have made in fighting the government and its laws. We also hear of what this Chief Bug-Ah-Mah-Ge-Shi said when holding upon his right hand to heaven he declared that all the Chippewas of Minnesota were backing him. When we heard of this remark that he made, we did not like it. We are now living in peace and hope that we will continue living so. We like all our friends, the pale faces, and they like us. We are christians and live up to the rules of our church. The bible tells us in the fifth commandment, 'thou shalt not kill,' and how could we wrong our neighbor? We say now as Indians living in the east of Minnesota that we do not approve of what the Bear island Indians are doing and we do not propose to help them or encourage them."

What McCoy Will Do.

Boston, Oct. 24.—Pugilist McCoy arrived in this city last evening from New York. He will appear in one of the local theatres here prior to his meeting with Peter Maher Dec. 5.

In an interview he said that under the conditions of the coming fight between Corbett and Sharkey, the former had apparently the advantage, and that Corbett would "chop Sharkey all to pieces." He further said: "I have secured Maher's signature to articles identical with those for the Corbett-Sharkey fight. Under these circumstances, I think I will have no trouble in defeating Maher. If I am successful with him I will give Corbett another chance to show whether he means business or not. I will agree to fight either Corbett or Sharkey. I have an offer of $10,000 to fight Jeffries in 'Frisco, and if I do not sign to meet either Corbett or Sharkey, I will take on Jeffries."

McCoy claims that he did not kick Corbett in New York when they met at the Gilsey House, and said that he merely gave Corbett a couple of punches when he saw the latter get ready to fight. McCoy weighs 160 pounds, and says he never felt better in his life.

Prospecting Party Lost.

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 24.—W. E. Bondey of Berkeley, Cal., who has just returned from Sunrise City on Cook's inlet, tells a story of the wrecking of a sloop four weeks ago in which it is probable that nine persons lost their lives. Bondey could learn the names of only two. They were Frank Robinson of Santa Cruz and Chris Johnson of Cook's inlet. Johnson was the owner of the sloop. About Sept. 25 Robinson and Johnson sailed to Kiniak Arm, where they took on board a party of seven prospectors bound for Sunrise. Kiniak Arm is about 20 miles north of Turnagan Arm. After leaving Kiniak Arm the party was never heard of again. A man who saw the sloop take on the party told Bondey that the sloop was loaded down within six inches of the water. A few days later Johnson's dog appeared at Sunrise half dead with exhaustion. Afterwards a part of the sloop and other wreckage were picked up at the Turnagan Arm.

SAN JUAN BOMBARDMENT.

Admiral Sampson Tells Why He Didn't Finish the Job.

Washington, Oct. 24.—Regarding his action in bombarding San Juan May 12, Admiral Sampson says in a report on the work of his fleet before the encounter with Cervera's ships: "It was clear to my own mind that the squadron would not have any great difficulty in forcing the surrender of the place, but the fact that we should be held several days in completing arrangements for holding it; that part of our force would have to be left to await the arrival of troops to garrison; that the movements of the Spanish squadron, our main objective, were still unknown; that the flying squadron was still north and not in a position to render any aid; that Havana, Cervera's natural objective, was thus open to entry by such a force as his, while we were 900 miles distant, made our immediate movement toward Havana imperative. I thus reluctantly gave up the project against San Juan and stood westward for Havana."

It appears that according to a dispatch to Secretary Long dated June 26, the channel at Santiago not having been obstructed by the sinking of the Merrimac, Admiral Sampson was preparing a torpedo attack to hasten the destruction of the Spanish vessels, though he regretted resorting to this method because of its difficulties and small chance of success. He would not do this, he says, were the present force to be kept there, as it then insured a capture, which he believed would terminate the war. In a letter to General Shafter July 2, the admiral said: "It is not so much the loss of men as it is the loss of ships which has until now deterred me from making a direct attack upon the ships within the port."

It is apparent from the following dispatch from Acting Secretary Allen to the commanding officer of the fleet that the department felt some apprehensions regarding the movements and designs of the Austrian gunboat, Maria Teresa, which appeared in the West Indies during the war: "Austrian gunboat, Maria Teresa, in the West Indies is thought to regularly visit various blockades to see if effective. Upon the arrival of our troops send without delay as many as consider necessary of the convoy to Commodore No. 10 off Cienfuegos, Cuba; and as there is some similarity between Austrian and Spanish flags, caution your ships against possible mistakes."

Alarmed by Carlists.

Washington, Oct. 24.—Information received here indicates the excited condition of the loyal citizens of Spain, particularly those of the governmental party, over the latest reported movements of the Spanish pretender and his followers.

The Spanish public is deeply stirred over the disclosures made by the secret officials of the government that the Carlists have recently succeeded in shipping 10,000 modern rifles and an abundance of ammunition from France into the Pyrenees mountains, where they have been stored in the convents of the Franciscan monks, and can be obtained at any time when the word is given to strike a blow against the government and depose Alfonso.

Notwithstanding that strenuous efforts have been made to prevent the concentration of arms along the frontier, the Carlists have been too shrewd for the officials, and have succeeded in establishing a base of supplies which will be of easy access.

A Clamorous Mob.

Havana, Oct. 24.—There was a demonstration of the displeasure of the city officials at the non-payment of arrears of salary Saturday, when about 200 entered the city hall, a clamorous mob, and demanded payment. The regular guard being unable to disperse the crowd and fearing to take drastic measures, the civil governor was advised of the situation. He appeared on the scene, addressed the crowd and ordered immediate dispersal under threat of a loss of present position in the municipal service. His energetic stand had the desired effect, but unless back salaries are paid, there will be serious trouble.

Radical Division of Sentiment.

Madrid, Oct. 24.—Lieutenant General Correa, minister of war, threatens to resign unless the government upholds the action of General Chinchilla, captain general of Madrid, who last week imprisoned Editor Figuera of The National for publishing an article not previously submitted to the censor, the imprisonment being resented in certain quarters as an infringement of Figuera's alleged immunity from arrest as a member of the chamber of deputies.

Friday the minister of public instruction and public works resigned as a protest against the arrest. His resignation, taken with the threat of General Correa, indicates a radical division of sentiment in the Sagasta ministry on the subject.

The Madrid editors have addressed a complaint to the supreme court against Chinchilla's action. The captain general, on the appearance of the uncensored article, ordered the suppression of The National, but the order was eventually annulled.

Flimsy Excuse of the Spanish.

Manila, Oct. 24.—The steamer, San Nicholas, which left Manila flying the American flag, was compelled to return by a Spanish gunboat, whose commander offered as a plea for his action that the crew consisted of Filipinos, who might smuggle contraband articles. The San Nicholas, after reporting her experience, sailed again, followed by the McCulloch.

An insurgent schooner entered Manila harbor flying the insurgent flag, which was promptly hauled down by the Americans.

The attitude of the rebel troops has become very menacing. Their supplies are growing scarce and they are becoming desperate. Their leaders assure the men, who have had no pay for months, that they will soon capture Manila. The Filipino newspapers insist upon absolute independence and denounce annexation to the United States or an American protectorate with equal energy. The American authorities, naval and military, are taking precautionary measures, although no immediate trouble is anticipated.

Killed Their Wives.

Jersey City, Oct. 24.—In this city yesterday Henry Jones, colored, shot his wife to death and then sent a bullet into his brain. Garrett French, a locomotive engineer, mortally wounded his wife and shot himself through the heart.

IS IT A TRIFLE?

THAT COMMON TROUBLE, ACID DYSPEPSIA OR SOUR STOMACH

Now Recognized as a Cause of Serious Disease.

Acid dyspepsia, commonly called heartburn or sour stomach, is a form of indigestion resulting from fermentation of the food. The stomach being too weak too promptly digest it, the food remains until fermentation begins, filling the stomach with gas and a bitter, sour, burning taste in the mouth is often present. The condition soon becomes chronic and being an every day occurrence is given but little attention. Because dyspepsia is not immediately fatal, many people do nothing for the trouble.

Within a recent period a remedy has been discovered prepared solely to cure dyspepsia and stomach troubles. It is known as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and is now becoming rapidly used and prescribed as a radical cure for every form of dyspepsia.

Stuarts' Dyspepsia Tablets have been placed before the public and are sold by druggists everywhere at 50 cents per package. It is prepared by the Stuart Chemical Co., Marshall, Mich., and while it promptly and effectually restores a vigorous digestion, at the same time is perfectly harmless and will not injure the most delicate stomach but on the contrary by giving perfect digestion strengthens the stomach, improves the appetite and makes life worth living.

Send for free book on Stomach Diseases. 24-3t-24-26-28.

—French prune growers will take advantage of the high price of California prunes to send their fruit to America in large quantities.

Bon Ami

The Finest Cleaner

MADE, CONTAINS NO SAND, GRIT OR COARSE SUBSTANCE THAT WILL SCRATCH OR INJURE.

CANCER CURED

BY ABSORPTION

NO KNIFE.

The result of years of scientific research by America's greatest blood specialist. A pleasant treatment that relieves immediately, cures permanently all forms of CANCERS, TUMORS and CHRONIC DISEASES. Hundreds of wonderful cures effected in and around Boston. Read the following:

BLOOD EVIDENCE

Then come to our offices and investigate the hundreds of other marvellous cures produced by ABSORPTION when all other treatment failed. Consult this living patient. "Dr. James M. Solomon: Dear Sir: The following is my testimonial, which I hope will help others. That after suffering several years with something that was never reached, getting only temporary help from different doctors, and each attack being more severe, I was advised by a friend, who had been cured of a tumor, to see her doctor. I was then unable for any work, and feeling worse from day to day; realizing that something was preying upon me of a serious nature, I was discouraged about my condition, and sought Dr. Solomon with little faith—it was more of an experiment. He got my confidence on the first interview, when, without a word of description of my feelings from me, he at once located my trouble, and I could not help believing that he knew from what I was suffering, although was greatly surprised and somewhat terrified when he told me it was cancer of the stomach. I began treatment at once, Nov. 3, 1892, and was faithful to his directions, with just the results promised I would, get, till the following June (1893) I felt like a new being, and the doctor pronounced me recovered. I am sure that I have, and I can never repay the gratitude I owe to Dr. J. M. Solomon. Sincerely, EBEN FISH, 232 Harvard St., Dorchester, Mass." Today he is one of the many living witnesses of the only painless method that positively CURES when all others fail.

We want you to call and examine references of people you know—people we all know, who would not vouch for ABSORPTION had they not been cured. Ask for references marked H.

James M. Solomon, M.D.

SPECIALIST IN CANCERS, TUMORS AND CHRONIC DISEASES.

2 A Beacon Street BOSTON.

Oct. 13. ly lo

Administrator's Notice.

NOTICE is hereby given that the subscriber has been duly appointed Administrator of the estate of

MARTHA R. FEDERHEN,

late of Quincy, in the County of Norfolk, deceased, intestate, and has taken upon himself that trust by giving bond as the law directs.

All persons having demands upon the estate of said deceased are required to exhibit the same, and all persons indebted to said estate are called upon to make payment to

JOHN FEDERHEN, 3d, Adm.

(Address) Quincy, Mass., Oct. 10, 1898.
3t 10 17 24

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

NORFOLK, ss. PROBATE COURT.

TO the heirs-at-law, next-of-kin, creditors and all other persons interested in the estate of

ELIZABETH A. DAVIS,

late of Quincy in said county, deceased, intestate.

Whereas, a petition has been presented to said Court to grant a letter of administration on the estate of said deceased to John Hall of said Quincy, or to some other suitable person.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Quincy in said County of Norfolk, on the ninth day of November, A. D. 1898, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week for three successive weeks, in the Quincy Daily Ledger, a newspaper published in Quincy the last publication to be one day at least before said Court.

Witness, George White, Esquire, Judge of said Court, this fourteenth day of October in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight.

JONATHAN COBB, Register.

Oct. 17. 3t 17 24 31

Quincy and Boston Electric Street Railway.

[Subject to change without notice.]

On and after October 10, cars will be run on the different routes as follows:

Quincy and Neponset.

Leave CITY SQUARE for Neponset at 5.55, 6.10, 6.25, 6.40 A. M. and every 15 minutes until 11.10 P. M.

Leave NEPONSET for Quincy at 6.15 A. M. and every 15 minutes until 11.30 P. M.

Cars leaving Quincy at 20 minutes of the hour and Neponset on the hour, go via. Hancock street direct.

Cars leaving Quincy at 25 and 55 minutes past the hour go via Newport avenue, Wollaston.

Cars leaving Quincy at 10 minutes past the hour go via Norfolk Downs, and those leaving Neponset at 30 minutes past go via Downs.

Cars leaving Neponset 15 minutes of and 15 minutes past the hour go via Wollaston and continue through Braintree and Holbrook to Brockton, connecting with cars for Bridgewater, Taunton, New Bedford, Fall River, Newport and Providence.

Quincy and East Weymouth.

Leave CITY SQUARE (10 minutes later from Quincy Point and 22 minutes later from North Weymouth)—5.45, 6.20, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20, 9.50, 10.20, 10.50, 11.20, 11.50 A. M.; 12.20, 12.50, 1.20, 1.50, 2.20, 2.50, 3.20, 3.50, 4.20, 4.50, 5.20, (5.30 to East Weymouth car house), 5.50, 6.20, 6.30, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20, 9.50, 10.50 P. M., (11.50 Wednesday and Saturday to Thomas' Corner only.)

Leave EAST WEYMOUTH (20 minutes later from North Weymouth and 30 minutes later from Quincy Point)—6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8, 8.30, 9, 9.30 10, 10.30, 11, 11.30 A. M.; 12, 12.30, 1, 1.30, 2, 2.30, 3, 3.30, 4, 4.30, 5, 5.30, 6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8 8.30, 9, 9.30, 10, 10.30, 11.30 P. M.

Quincy and Weymouth Landing.

Leave QUINCY at 5.30 A. M., 6.20, 7.20 and every hour until 12.20, then 1.50 and every hour until 10.50 P. M.

Leave WEYMOUTH LANDING at 5.50 A. M. and every hour until 12.50, then 2.20 and every hour until 11.20 P. M., connect with trains to Boston at Quincy.

Quincy and East Milton.

Leave CITY SQUARE, 5.55, 6.25, then every 5 minutes of and 25 minutes past the hour until 9.25 P. M., then at 10.50 P. M.

Leave EAST MILTON 6.25, 6.55 A. M., then every 5 minutes of and 25 minutes past the hour until 9.50 P. M., then 10.20 and 11.20 P. M.

Quincy and Brockton.

Leave QUINCY for Brockton at 6.10 and 6.40 A. M., and every half hour until 9.10 P. M. except on Wednesday and Saturday, when car at 9.40 runs through to Brockton. Cars at 9.40 and 10.10 to South Braintree every night.

Quincy and Hingham.

Leave QUINCY at 7.20 A. M. and every hour until 11.20 A. M., then 1.50 and every hour until 5.50 P. M.

Leave HINGHAM at 8 A. M. and every hour until 12 M., then 2.30 and every hour until 6.30 P. M.

Neponset, Atlantic and Squantum.

Leave NEPONSET at 6.30 A. M. and every hour until 8.30 P. M., connecting at Atlantic with outward express trains.

Leave SQUANTUM at 7 A. M. and every hour until 9 P. M., connecting at Atlantic with express trains.

Quincy and Houghs Neck.

Leave QUINCY CENTRE at 6.20 A. M., and and every hour until 1.20, and then 1.50 and every hour until 9.50.

Returning, leave HOUGHS NECK at 5.45 A. M., and every hour until 12.45, and then 1.20 and every hour until 9.20.

SUNDAYS.

Cars leave City Square, Quincy, for E. Weymouth and Weymouth Landing at 7.30 A. M. and West Quincy at 7 A. M. and on the hour and half hour throughout the day.

Sunday time same as week days on other lines, except that the first two trips are omitted.

BENJ. J. WEEKS, Superintendent.

New York, New Haven and Hartford R. R.

Eastern District.

On and after Oct. 16, 1898, trains will run as follows: (See note of explanation at bottom.

TO BOSTON.			FROM BOSTON.
Leave Quincy.	Stops at	Arrive Boston.	Leave Boston.	Stops at	Arrive Quincy
r 6 12	abc	6 30	5 55	ihgfedcba*	6 22 r
r 6 42	abc	7 00	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	7 30	cba	7 49 r
r 7 26	ad	7 43	8 30	cba	8 49 r
r 7 42	abc	8 00	9 30	cba	9 49 r
r 8 12	abc	8 30	10 30	cba	10 49 r
r 8 26	ad	8 43	11 30	cba	11 49 r
r 8 42	abc	9 00	12 30	cba	12 49 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	1 30	cba	1 49 r
r 10 12	abc	10 30	2 30	cba	2 49 r
r 11 12	abc	11 30	3 30	cba	3 49 r
r 12 12	abc	12 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
r 1 12	abc	1 30	5 00	cba	5 19 r
r 2 12	abc	2 30	5 17	da	5 36 r
r 3 12	abc	3 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
r 4 12	abc	4 30	6 00	cba	6 19 r
r 5 12	abc	5 30	6 17	da	6 36 r
r 6 12	abc	6 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	7 00	cba	7 19 r
r 7 39	abcdefghi	8 05	7 30	cba	7 49 r
r 8 08	abcdef	8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	9 30	cba	9 49 r
r 10 08	abcdef	10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r
r 11 12	abc	11 30	11 30	cba	11 49 r

SUNDAYS.

r 7 12	abc	7 30	6 30	cba	6 r
r 8 12	abc	8 30	8 30	cba	8 49 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	12 30	cba	12 49 r
r 1 12	abc	1 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
r 5 12	abc	5 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 8 08	abcdef	8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
r 10 08	abcdef	10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r

*The letters in the same line as the figures stand for different stations and indicate that trains stop, as follows:

a, Wollaston, g, Savin Hill.
b, Norfolk Downs. h, Crescent Avenue.
c, Atlantic, i, South Boston.
d, Neponset.
e, Pope's Hill, r, Quincy Adams.
f, Harrison Square. (xx), Express.

C PETER CLARK, Gen'l Supt. A. C. KENDALL G. P. A

This is Lehigh Coal,

And We Have it for Sale.

C. PATCH & SON.

Chichester's English Diamond Brand.

PENNYROYAL PILLS

Original and Only Genuine.

SAFE, always reliable. LADIES ask Druggist for Chichester's English Diamond Brand in Red and Gold metallic boxes, sealed with blue ribbon. Take no other. Refuse dangerous substitutions and imitations. At Druggists, or send 4c. in stamps for particulars, testimonials and "Relief for Ladies," in letter, by return Mail. 10,000 Testimonials. Name Paper. Chichester Chemical Co., Madison Square, PHILADA., PA.

Sold by all Local Druggists. Sold by Geo. C. Goodwin & Co., Boston, Mass

General Agents.

☞ Full sized white Iron Bedsteads, brass trimmed, $2.98. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

nd Boston
eet Railway.
ge without notice.]
ber 10, cars will be tes as follows:
d Neponset.
E for Neponset at 5.55,
d every 15 minutes until
for Quincy at 6.15 A. M.
until 11.30 P. M.
at 20 minutes of the hour hour, go via. Hancock at 25 and 55 minutes past rt avenue, Wollaston.
at 10 minutes past the owns, and those leaving past go via Downs.
et 15 minutes of and 15
go via Wollaston and atree and Holbrook to with cars for Bridge-
Bedford, Fall River,
e.
East Weymouth.
E (10 minutes later from inutes later from North
, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20,
0.50, 11.20, 11.50 A. M.;
2.20, 2.50, 3.20, 3.50, 4.20,
Weymouth car house),
20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20,
Wednesday and Saturday
y.) MOUTH (20 minutes later and 30 minutes later fron
), 7, 7.30, 8, 8.30, 9, 9.30
M.; 12, 12.30, 1, 1.30, 2,
, 5.30, 6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8
11.30 P. M.
eymouth Landing.
5.30 A. M., 6.20, 7.20 and
then 1.50 and every hour
TH LANDING at 5.50
until 12.50, then 2.20 and
1.20 P. M., connect with ncy.
East Milton.
E, 5.55, 6.25, then every utes past the hour until
P. M.
ON 6.25, 6.55 A. M., then
25 minutes past the hour
0.20 and 11.20 P. M.
nd Brockton.
r Brockton at 6.10 and alf hour until 9.10 P. M., and Saturday, when car Brockton. Cars at 9.40
intree every night.
nd Hingham.
7.20 A. M. and every hour
1.50 and every hour until at 8 A. M. and every hour
0 and every hour until ic and Squantum.
at 6.30 A. M. and every , connecting at Atlantic rains.
M at 7 A. M. and every necting at Atlantic with Houghs Neck.
NTRE at 6.20 A. M., and
1.20, and then 1.50 and OUGHS NECK at 5.45
until 12.45, and then 1.20 .20.
NDAYS. are, Quincy, for E. Weyh Landing at 7.30 A. M.
7 A. M. and on the hour
out the day.
s week days on other lines,
o trips are omitted.
EEKS, Superintendent.

New Haven
tford R. R.
District.
16, 1898, trains will run
of explanation at bottom.

	FROM BOSTON.
	Leave Boston.	Stops at	Arrive Quincy
0	5 55	ihgfedcba	*6 22 r
0	6 30	cba	6 49 r
0	7 30	cba	7 49 r
3	8 30	cba	8 49 r
0	9 30	cba	9 49 r
0	10 30	cba	10 49 r
3	11 30	cba	11 49 r
0	12 30	cba	12 49 r
0	1 30	cba	1 49 r
0	2 30	cba	2 49 r
0	3 30	cba	3 49 r
0	4 30	cba	4 49 r
5	5 00	cba	5 19 r
0	5 17	da	5 36 r
0	5 30	cba	5 49 r
0	6 00	cba	6 19 r
0	6 17	da	6 36 r
0	6 30	cba	6 49 r
0	7 00	cba	7 19 r
5	7 30	cba	7 45 r
0	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
0	9 30	cba	9 49 r
0	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r
0	11 30	cba	11 49 r

DAYS.

0	6 30	cba	6 r
0	8 30	cba	8 49 r
0	12 30	cba	12 49 r
0	4 30	cba	4 49 r
0	5 30	cba	5 49 r
0	6 30	cba	6 49 r
0	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
0	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r

same line as the figures ations and indicate that
, Savin Hill.
, Crescent Avenue.
, South Boston.
, Quincy Adams.
(xx), Express.
A. C. KENDALL
G. P. A

chigh Coal,
ave it for Sale.
. PATCH & SON.

nglish Diamond Brand.
YAL PILLS
and Only Genuine.
s reliable. LADIES ask Chichester's English Diain Red and Gold metallic with blue ribbon. Take Refuse dangerous substitutions. At Druggists, or send 4c.
particulars, testimonials and r Ladies," in letter, by return
,000 Testimonials. Name Paper.
emical Co., Madison Square,
PHILADA., PA.
C. Goodwin & Co.,
Boston, Mass

ite Iron Bedsteads, brass
y L. Kincaide & Co.

QUINCY DAILY LEDGER.

VOL. 10. No. 249. QUINCY, MASS., TUESDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1898. PRICE 2 CENTS.

All goods are delivered FREE at residences in Quincy.

Represented in Quincy by Mr. Otho A. Hayward.

WATCHES.

GENT'S WATCHES, $1.50 and Up.

LADIES' WATCHES, $2.50 and Up.

EVERY WATCH WARRANTED.

$2.00 Belts, $1.00 Each.
75c. Brooch Pins, 25c. Each.
25 and 35c. Stick Pins, 5 and 10c. Ea.

Quincy SOUVENIR TILES Half Price,

And Other Bargains.

A. A. LINSCOTT, Jeweler,

154 Hancock St., opp. Post Office, Quincy.

Agent for Graphophones.

aug 6. tf

EMBROIDERY LESSONS.

We have engaged the same teacher for our Embroidery Classes this season that was so successful last year. Classes start TUESDAY MORNING.

Also the Finest Line of LINENS of All Designs to be gotten in the Market.

Our Line of Embroidery Silks is Complete in Every Detail.

WE CARRY IN STOCK A NEW LINE OF

OPULESCENT AND RAINBOW EDGE SILKS.

Sofa Cushions in a Large Variety.

D. E. WADSWORTH & CO.,
Hancock Street, Quincy.

Advertising Should be Continuous to be Profitable. The Ledger is the Best Medium in Quincy.

TELEGRAPHIC.

3 O'CLOCK.

BULLET IN HIS HEART.

Tragedy Last Evening Near the Boston Postoffice.

Laborers' Quarrel Culminated In Murder.

Perpetrator Escaped, and the Police Are on the Hunt.

Boston, Oct. 25.—Another murder, adding to the long list of Italian affrays in Boston in which the murderer has made his escape, occurred at 5:30 o'clock last evening. Antonio Pepe, 20 years old shot and fatally injured Minchiello Bernardino, one Federal, near Milk street. Five shots were fired, three of which took effect. Pepe got away after frightening off his pursuers by flourishing his revolver, while his victim was placed in an ambulance from the emergency hospital. On the way to that institution he died.

Pepe and his victim, Bernardino, were laborers, employed at the southern union station. Although friends, they were looked upon by their companions as being of quarrelsome dispositions. In spite of this friendship, the other men state they frequently quarreled. The bone of contention was always the relative abilities of each to speak the English language. Friday last the men had a bitter quarrel and it is alleged that Bernardino struck Pepe with a shovel. The latter swore vengeance. Yesterday the men knocked off work at 5:25 and immediately Pepe walked up to his old opponent and said in Italian: "You cannot talk English fit for a parrot. You had better stick to Italian." Bernardino returned each jibe with interest.

Pepe left and walked up Federal street some distance, and disappeared in a doorway, waiting there until Bernardino appeared. The street was thronged. Pepe, when his antagonist appeared, stepped forth from his place of concealment, and, drawing a large revolver, fired point blank at the other. Bernardino had turned to flee, but before he had half-turned about the first bullet struck him full in the left breast, and as he staggered the second shattered his right arm. The enraged Pepe fired three more shots, one entering the dying man's left side.

Merritt Kept Waiting.

London, Oct. 25.—The redtape of English law threatened to be an obstacle to General Merritt's marriage to Miss Williams yesterday, but it was overcome. When General Merritt's aid applied for a certificate to the register he was informed that four days' notice was necessary. After much driving about and many interviews Mr. White of the consul's office succeeded in obtaining the desired document, though the expectant couple were kept waiting for an hour after the time fixed for the ceremony.

Protecting Emperor William

Haifa, Palestine, Oct. 25.—The police made an important arrest of a well-known anarchist Sunday. Extraordinary precautions are being taken to insure the safety of Emperor William and Empress Augusta Victoria. During the time that they are here veiled women will not be allowed in the streets, as the police fear that an anarchist might assume this disguise.

Killed a Hostler.

East Liverpool, O., Oct. 25.—George P. Brunt, president of the Brunt Porcelain company, shot and killed a colored hostler, D. E. Lee, the son of a colored minister of Pittsburg.

Brunt discharged Lee Saturday, but the latter returned last night, and an altercation ensued. Lee entered the house, and Brunt shot him. Brunt was released on $10,000 bail.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE

Started Mysteriously and Did a Great Amount of Damage.

Brooklyn, Oct. 25.—One of the most destructive fires that have occurred for two years broke out yesterday afternoon at pier 39, East river, and did damage to the amount of half a million dollars. How it started is unknown. The four-masted iron ship, Andorenha, was discharging a cargo composed principally of jute butts, saltpetre, shellac and raw silk. The flames spread to the vessel.

A north wind fanned the flames fiercely, and in a few moments the water front for four blocks, extending from Van Dyke to Walcott street, was ablaze. Three alarms and special calls were sent out, bringing to the scene all the apparatus in the lower half of the borough, together with four fireboats from Manhattan and the two belonging to Brooklyn. A black smoke settled over the East river as far as Long Island sound, and extended over the lower part of Brooklyn, so that it became necessary to light lamps in business houses in order to carry on business. Finally the fire was brought under control.

There was considerable difficulty in arriving at an accurate estimate of the losses. Among the heaviest losers is George L. Hammond, owner of naval stores, whose loss is placed at $100,000, said to be fully covered by insurance. The Andorenha is owned by Frank W. Roberts of Liverpool, and valued at $300,000. She was consigned to Ralli Bros. The blazing vessel was towed down to the Gowanus flats and will probably prove a total loss. The Brooklyn Wharf and Warehouse company, according to the best estimate, will lose $150,000.

The three-masted schooner, Wacamaw, loaded with benzine, alcohol and turpentine, which arrived from Georgetown, S. C., earlier in the day and was tied up at the foot of Coffee street, also took fire and was towed out into the stream, where the flames were extinguished without great damage to the vessel.

A large part of the cargo of the Andorenha had been discharged, and when the fire started two lighters were loaded with jute from her hold and tied between piers 39 and 40. The loss to these lighters will be about $6000.

An inspector of the fire department last night said that a number of the employes of Hammond's stores declare the fire originated in the hold of the Andorenha. The sailors, however, say that the fire started in the bales of jute on the pier. So rapidly did the fire spread that the sailors aboard the craft were compelled to jump into the water to save themselves from being burned.

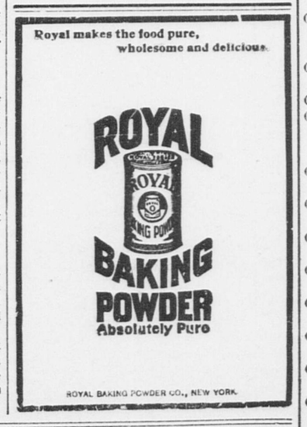

The German American stores had 500 bales of cotton and 2500 bales of jute stored on pier 39, all of which were destroyed.

Miscalculation Was Fatal.

Bridgeport, Oct. 25.—Fire in the Nonpareil Cork company's factory last night caused damage to the extent of a number of thousands of dollars.

In responding to the alarm, Henry Kempf, an engine driver, attempted to cross the railroad track in front of a train coming from the west, but miscalculated. The train struck the engine squarely, and Kempf and one of the horses attached to the engine were killed, and the engine was demolished. The engine was carried over 100 feet by the train after it was struck. Kempf leaves a wife and family.

Royal makes the food pure, wholesome and delicious.

LAND VALUES

A Transcript From the Books of the Assessors.

Number of Feet in Each Lot and Valuation Thereof.

Also the Amount of Each Person's Tax Bill for 1898.

[Continued from yesterday.]

Something new in the publication of the taxpayers of the city is attempted this year by the Daily Ledger. There is considerable interest in the assessed value of land in the city, which is claimed to be high in some cases and low in others. So the Ledger has supplemented the amount of the tax bill in each ward with the value of each lot of land for which the person is taxed, giving in each case the number of square feet or acreage.

The amount given in the line with the person's name is his total ward tax, and may include houses, personal property, etc., in addition to the lots of land below. The Ledger gives only the valuation of the land.

To obtain a person's total tax in the city, add together the amounts paid in the several wards.

The Ledger commenced the publication Aug. 30, and has already published the land values of all persons whose names begin with A to N, and today's instalment gives the O's:

WARD ONE.

	Valuation of Land Only.	Total Ward Tax.
O'Brien, John M.		$5 40
5,000 feet, Charles street, $300.
O'Brien, Kate J.		2 70
4,500, Littlefield, $150.
O'Brien, Michael J.		6 30
5,000, Gothland, $350.
O'Brien, William J.		6 30
4,500, Bird, $350.
Olson, A. P. and A. J. N.		36 90
15,286, Ryden, $500.
Olson, Alfred J. N.		5 60
5,672, North Common, $200.
Olson, Andrew		38 00
5,000, Ryden, $200.
5,000, " $200.
Osborne, Maria J.		70 20
7,139, Bigelow, $900.
Owens, Griffiths, est.,		25 20
1-16 acre, Granite, $200.
Owens, T. P. & Sons		35 10
3,600, off Adams, $700.

WARD TWO.

O'Brien, Henry J.	$4 50
6,000, Broadway, $250.
Odom, Andrew S.	9 00
5,250, McKinley ave., $250.
5,000, Wood, $250.
O'Hara, Michael	30 80
7,166, Newcomb place, $350.
Old Colony Boot & Shoe Co.,	108 00
Oxford, Mary A.	26 10
9,000, River, $450.

WARD THREE.

O'Brien, Hannah M.	$36 90
9,840 feet, Liberty street, $450.
O'Brien, Timothy J.	46 10
8,830, Liberty, $500.
O'Brien, Thomas, 2d.,	7 20
10,000, Centre, $400.
O'Brien, Mary,	25 20
11,680, Garfield, $700.
O'Brien, Francis T. and William J.	8 10
11,395, Totman, $450.
O'Connor, Eugene W.	26 75
2,900, Quincy, $400.
O'Connor, Mrs. Eugene W.	61 20
6,220, Jackson, $700.
Odom, Sydney W.	27 00
26,570, Independence ave., $600.
O'Neil, Peter	37 55
22,935, Phipps, $900.
O'Neil, Thomas P.	45 65
1-4 acre, Phipps, $400.
6,720, Pearl, $450.
Opie, Joseph	47 90
8,350, Water, $500.
Orne, Charles L.	47 70
7,500, Franklin, $650.
Owens, Jennie A.	43 20
7,500. Goddard ave., $600.
Owens, John	36 20
6.7 acres, Jackson Lane, $1,000.
7,410, off Albertina, $200.
Owens, Owen H.	43 20
21,180, Granite, $1,100.
1-4 acre, " $200.
Owens, Thomas P.	41 40
1-4 acre, Granite, $500.

WARD FOUR.

O'Brien, Francis T.	$33 50
7,165, feet, Copeland street, $550.
O'Brien, James	5 40
11,900, Morton, $300.
O'Brien, John	$56 00
3 1-4 acres West, $2,000.
O'Brien, John M.	26 30
8,700, Station, $400.
O'Brien, Michael	30 80
1-3 acre, Bates ave., $600.
O'Brien, Michael F.	31 70
7,544, Bates ave., $350.
O'Brien, Thomas	4 50
5,659, Hillside, $100.
6,982, " $150.
O'Brien, Thomas, est.,	25 20
14,200, Copeland, $700.
O'Brien, Thomas 2d., est.,	84 60
1.84 acres, Miller, $2,000.

Continued on page 3.

HOW TO MAKE MONEY.

Take a silver dollar and drop it on a jeweler's show case and you'll get a ring. Take a quarter and saw it in two in the middle and get two halves. Take a two-dollar bill and fold it once and you double it—and you can keep on monkeying with money and make imaginary capital for an hour. But if you want to get a new wrinkle in money, just take a new ten dollar bill and fold it corner-ways and you'll get a new wrinkle every time. But don't fool with your money and don't let anybody else fool with it. Don't let anybody fool you with the idea that they'll give you a $10 bill with every $2 suit or overcoat.

The new store has earned a reputation for selling straight goods at straight prices. We don't monkey with your money, or flim flam you with any imaginary values. We give you good goods, charge a fair-profit price for everything you buy and expect you to come back the second time because you were used right the first.

We can sell a good Overcoat for $5.00 and an all wool one for $6.50. But for $7.50 we can show you a dandy all wool Kersey, made with raw edge and lap seams and lined with good lasting linings. The same coat our competitors (in Boston) get $10 for.

Our $10 coat we have in Blacks, Blues, Olives and Browns. Then we have them for $11, $12, $13, $13.50, $15, $15.50 and upwards to $19, in all the different style goods worn this season.

For this week and next too, if they are not all gone, we will sell all wool Dickey Pants at $1.48. All the other stores get $2.00.

QUINCY CLOTHING CO.,

LOWEST PRICED CLOTHIERS IM NORFOLK COUNTY.

MUSIC HALL BLOCK.

Parlor Stove Talk

All homes are not yet blessed with a furnace or a steam heating plant, and if our enormous sales of Parlor Stoves is any criterion, we can with wisdom say that Parlor Stove popularity is by no means a thing of the past.

There is a difference in Parlor Stoves just the same as in everything else,—some good, some bad, some indifferent. Years of experience have taught us just which stoves give the best service, are easiest to manage and prove economical coal burners. Such stoves as these are what we offer—40 patterns to choose from, $2.98 to $20.00. A stove to suit your notion, a stove to suit your purse.

Oil Room Heaters, $3 50 to $4 50.

HENRY L. KINCAIDE & CO.,

Reliable, Low Priced House Furnishers.

HANCOCK STREET, - - QUINCY.

The News of Beantown.

Boston, Oct. 25.—Since Peter Bonvouloir's withdrawal from the Democratic state ticket, where he was named for state treasurer and receiver general, the executive committee has been casting about for a good man to fill his place. Yesterday it announced that it had selected H. J. Jaquith of Wellesley as the candidate. Mr. Jaquith was formerly a bank president of this city, and is an advocate of free silver.

The time for the withdrawal of the names of candidates from the official ballot expired at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and a number of candidates reconsidered their previous intention of running independently. In the Tenth congressional district, H. H. Atwood, independent Republican, and Torrey E. Wardner, independent Democrat, each withdrew, leaving the contest between the regular candidates. Walter L. Sears also withdrew as an independent Republican candidate in the Ninth congressional district, but Senator Galvin, whose papers as an independent Democratic candidate were filed last week, did not pull out of the contest.

G. F. Williams opened the Democratic campaign in the Tenth congressional district last night with speeches in Roxbury and South Boston. The speeches in each were the same and were his first this year in state politics. On the war issue he said: "It is our duty as citizens of a common country, regardless of party, that the probe should go to the very bottom of this business, and the disease be struck at its root. I say that the administration is responsible for these conditions no matter what the causes are."

The receivers of the Bay State Beneficiary association have filed their report upon the examination of claims that accrued prior to Nov. 6, 1897. From the total amount of securities received by them as the property of the association, $134,859, the receivers found that $42,500 was pledged as collateral security, leaving $92,359. From these securities the receivers have realized in cash $68,542.72, and they ask authority to pay to beneficiaries, whose claims have been allowed, 18 percent of the amount of their claims. To do this required the expenditure of $74,394.55, leaving in the hands of the receivers an amount sufficient to pay a like percentage on all suspended claims should they be hereafter allowed.

Prefer to Work Days.

Fall River, Oct. 25.—The incipent strike at the Hargraves mill, begun by mule-spinners and backboys, Saturday, as a rebuke to the company for running nights, was continued Monday. The textile council has decided to favor a strike in other departments should night work not be discontinued by Wednesday, and it remains now with the unions affiliated with the council to say whether or not the strike shall be a general one. The weavers' association condemned night work, but few of the Hargraves' weavers belong to that body.

A Pacific Solution.

London, Oct. 25.—The Paris correspondent of The Chronicle claims to have authority to say that a decision has already been taken by the French government speedily to evacuate Fashoda, and that Mr. Delcasse, the foreign minister, will do his utmost to facilitate a pacific solution.

Accused of Infidelity.

Boston, Oct. 25.—Rose Rosetta was stabbed by her husband at their home yesterday. Rosetta made his escape. This morning Mrs. Rosetta was reported dying at the city hospital.

Rosetta accused his wife of infidelity and ended by plunging a stiletto into her side.

Tomorrow's Almanac and Forecast.

Sun rises—6:10; sets, 4:46.
Moon sets—3:02 a. m.
High tide—8:30 a. m.; 9 p. m.

While generally cloudy weather is probable Wednesday, it is most likely to continue fair. It will probably be somewhat colder than today, with westerly winds.

☞ We sell Glenwood Ranges because they are the best ranges money can buy. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

Octavius Augustus had a mortal dread of thunder, and whenever a storm came on he retired to an underground vault built for protection.

☞ Hundreds of handsome lamps, all the newest creations, from 25 cents to $10.00. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

TELL US . .

What you are looking for.

We can show you a fine line of

FALL AND WINTER

UNDERWEAR,
HOSIERY,
Outing Flannels, Flannelettes,
Plaid Dress Goods,
WRAPPERS, BLANKETS,
Comforters,
Dress Linings and other Dry Goods.

OUR STOCK IS FRESH.
OUR PRICES THE LOWEST.

MISS C. S. HUBBARD,

158 Hancock Street.

POTATOES,

15c. Pk.

Sweet Potatoes,

15c. Pk.

White Seal Flour,

4.75 Bbl. Cash.

We guarantee this Flour to be old wheat and one of the best Bread Flours in the market.

L. M. PRATT & CO.,

25 School Street.

This is Lehigh Coal,

And We Have it for Sale.

C. PATCH & SON.

DR. RALPH M. FOGG,

DENTIST.

Teeth extracted absolutely without pain by the use of the

"BOSTON VEGETABLE VAPOR."

It is claimed that, while it has the required properties of ether, chloroform, nitrous oxide gas, it lacks the disagreeable and dangerous qualities of these drugs. It is certainly a boon to suffering humanity to be relieved of the nausea too often following the administering of sedatives of the old school.—Boston Transcript.

Teeth made and repaired on Gold or Rubber base. Teeth Filling a specialty.

Office in French's Building, five doors south of Post Office, Quincy, Wednesdays. Hours, 9 A. M. to 5 P. M. July18-ly Nov8-1yo

MUSIC HALL, - QUINCY,

Friday Even'g, Oct. 28,

At 8 o'clock.

GRAND TENTH DISTRICT

REPUBLICAN RALLY.

The Tenth District Congressional Committee have secured the following eminent and able speakers to address the people of Quincy upon the political issues of the day:

ROGER WOLCOTT,
Governor of Massachusetts.

SAMUEL W. McCALL,
Congressman Eighth District.

COL. ALBERT CLARKE,
Sec'y Home Market Club.

SAMUEL J. BARROWS,
Our Candidate for Congress.

HON. RUSSELL A. SEARS, Mayor of Quincy, will preside, and there will be music by the Quincy Band. The balcony will be reserved for ladies, and they are cordially invited to attend.

THOMAS C. BACHELDER,
Chairman.
STEPHEN W. MARSHALL,
Oct. 22.—6t Secretary.

By FRANK F. CRANE, - Auctioneer.
Office, 4 Chestnut Street, Quincy.

AUCTION SALE
OF THE
Household Furniture
OF
MRS. FRANK MUNROE, 29 Chestnut St.
Wednesday, Oct. 26,
At 1.30 P. M.

Parlor contains Gent's Smoking Chair, lounge Easy Chairs, Marble Top Table.

Front Chamber contains White Iron Bedstead, Black Walnut, Bureau, Commode and Chairs, Sewing Machine.

Middle Chamber contains Oak Chamber Set.

Side Chamber contains White Iron Single Bedstead, Bureau, etc.

End Chamber contains Bedstead, Bureau, Commode and Rocker.

Kitchen contains Table, Oil Stove, Crockery Glass Ware, Bird Cage, etc.

Also, we shall sell all the Mattresses, Bedding, etc., Pictures, Ornaments, and many other articles too numerous to mention.

Sale positive, rain or shine. Terms cash.
Oct. 20. 5t

By FRANK F. CRANE, - Auctioneer.
Office, 4 Chestnut St., Quincy.

Large Auction Sale
OF THE
GRANITE WORKS and QUARRY TOOLS
OF
PETER CARLSON & CO.,
Quarry Street, Opposite Fallon's Quarry,
THURSDAY, OCT. 27, 1898,
At 1.30 P. M.,

Consisting of Engine House, Tool Shed, 30 horse power, double cylinder and double drum Engine built to order by Rawson & Morrison of Cambridgeport, 2 years old, This engine was made especially to order for the granite business, is extra heavy and strong, and is first-class in every respect, the boiler has 120 tubes, makes steam quickly, and is very economical with coal. New Steam Drill, built by Ingersoll & Sargent; Steam Pump, 3 inch suction, 2 1-2 discharge; one Large Derrick, good for twenty tons; one medium sized Derrick, good for 8 or 9 tons; 2 Dump Cars and about 225 feet of rails for the same, about 1,000 feet of Steam Piping from 1-2 inch to 3 inches in diameter; large lot of Chains, Dogs, Bars, Steam Drills, Blast Drills, Plug Drills, Blocks, Sheaves, Wire Rope, New Tackle and Falls of 400 feet crucible steel 5-8 rope, 1 new Tackle and Fall of 550 feet of crucible steel 5-8 rope, and various other articles too numerous to mention.

Sale positive, rain or shine. Terms cash.
Oct. 19. 7t

By FRANK F. CRANE, - Auctioneer.
Office, 4 Chestnut street, Quincy.

AUCTION SALE
OF Horses, Carriages,
AND THE ENTIRE
Harness and Saddlery Stock
OF
GEO. J. JONES, Harness Maker,
NO. 53 HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY,
Tuesday, Nov. 1, '98,
At 10 o'clock A. M.

The Harness Stock consists of new and second hand Driving and Express Harnesses, Riding Saddles, Horse Blankets, Robes, Whips, fine set of Double Harness, one elegant Single Harness, Brushes, Halters, Collar and Saddle Pads, one new Tip Cart Harness, large variety of Bitsl Snaps, Brushes, Cards, Whip Sockets, and a ful. set of Harness Maker's Tools. Also a general assortment of small wares appurtaining to the trade.

TEN HORSES,

comprising trotters, pacers, driving, business and team horses; description at sale.

J. T. Smith Goddard Buggy, Rubber Tires, Cost $400, will be sold without any reserve, owner going abroad; Canopy Top Beach Wagon, 2 Open Beach Wagons, 1 Depot Wagon, 1 New Express Wagon, 1 Second Hand Express Wagon, 1 Road Sulky, 2 Goddard Buggies, 1 two-wheel Cart, 3 Poles, 1 Extra Nice Butter Wagon, cost $265, 1 Democrat Wagon, and several other carriages.

Sale positive, rain or shine. Terms cash.
Electric cars from Boston, Brockton and the Weymouths pass the shop.
5t 22 25 27 29 31 29rlw

Hazelton Lehigh
FURNACE COAL
Give C. PATCH & SON
A Trial Order.

JOHN EVANS,
Auctioneer and Appraiser.
Prompt Settlement.
24 COPELAND STREET, QUINCY.
Feb. 26. tf

Quincy Daily Ledger

ESTABLISHED IN 1889.
The ONLY DAILY in Norfolk County Massachusetts.

Published Every Evening, Sundays and Holidays Excepted, At No. 115 HANCOCK St., City of Quincy, Mass., by
GEORGE W. PRESCOTT & SON.
Successors to Green & Prescott.

Subscription Price, $6.00 per year.
☞ A discount of $1 when paid in advance.

ALSO PUBLISHERS OF
The Quincy Patriot,
A Weekly Established in 1837, which has the Largest Circulation in Norfolk County, and
The Braintree Observer,
A Weekly Established in 1878.

TELEPHONE, 78-3 QUINCY.

Quincy Temperature at Noon.

	This Week.	Last Week.	In 1897.	In 1896.
Sunday	59	50	51	52
Monday	60	48	49	62
Tuesday	68	50	58	50
Wednesday	—	54	56	51
Thursday	—	61	55	58
Friday	—	56	59	50
Saturday	—	70	58	55

New Advertisements Today.

Lost—Top Coat.
George W. Jones, Boys' shoes.
To let—House.
Wanted—Agents.
To let—Half house.
Boston Branch Grocery.

POLITICAL FIELD.

The time for withdrawals of candidate to be voted for at the coming State election expired at 5 o'clock Monday, and there were several candidates to pull out, among them being Harrison A. Atwood Independent Republican and Torrey E. Wardner independent Democratic candidates for Congress from this district, the Tenth. This leaves the field clear to Barrows and Naphen, and it is generally conceded owing to the fighting among the Democrats that Congressman Barrows stands more than a good chance of being his own successor. In withdrawing his paper Mr. Atwood writes an open letter to the Republicans of the district, thanking them for their support and defines the position he has taken in withdrawing.

Experience with Wild Cat.

Dr. Abele had quite a rough experience recently at Braintree with a mad cat. The cat had bitten its owner the day previous and Dr. Abele was sent for. When he arrived the cat was down cellar and the doctor went down to see it. He found the cat on the bottom stair looking anything but mad. He stooped down to give it a plate of meat when the cat buried her teeth in the calf of the doctor's leg. He could not shake her off and finally killed it by choking, and even then the cat's teeth were set so firmly that they had to be pried open. The doctor immediately cauterized the wound and the owner who had been bitten the day previous was sent to Pastaurs Institute in New York for treatment. The dead body of the cat was then sent to Boston where a part of its brain was inoculated into two rabbits both of which animals have since had the rabbies. Dr. Abele still has a very sore leg but as the wound was immediately cauterized he does not fear any serious results.

ORGAN RECITAL,
CHRIST CHURCH, - - QUINCY,
Thursday Evening, Oct. 27,
At 7.45 o'clock.

Mr. S. B. Whitney, organist of the Church of the Advent, Boston, will give an organ recital, assisted by Mrs. J. E. Tiffett, soprano of the Old South church, Boston.

The talent is of the very highest and this promises to be one of the finest musical evenings ever given in Quincy.

Admission to the church will be by ticket and each ticket holder is asked to contribute to the offering which will be taken.

Tickets may be obtained at the Church after the services Sunday, or by writing to the Rector for them.
Oct. 22. 5t

MISS C. L. BLISS
186 HANCOCK STREET,
Trimmed and Untrimmed
Hats and Novelties.
Order Work a Specialty.
STAMPING, PINKING, HAIR DRESSING,
Manicuring and Glove Cleaning.
Quincy, Oct. 22. tf plo

THERE'S A CHANCE.

The Quincy Boulevard Case Reopened.

A Forcible Presentation of Facts at Hearing.

Rooms of Commissioners Overcrowded by Our Citizens.

Quincy is very well satisfied with its efforts of Monday in Boston, for the Metropolitan Park Commissioners decided to reopen the Quincy boulevard project and gave those present the assurance that it might be put through if the conditions were right.

Mayor Sears handled the hearing very skilfully and it was demonstrated what Quincy can accomplish if it will only be progressive, interested and united. Among those present were Representative Thompson, City Solicitor McAnarney, President Pinkham of the City Council, Concilmen Willard, Hill, Parker, Owen and McGrath, Principal Assessor Perkins, ex-City Solicitor Blackmur, ex-Mayor Porter, ex-Mayor Adams, Theophilus King, ex-Councilmen Field, Sprague, Glover, Graham, Read, Wilde and Lamb, Engineer Whitman, Tobias H. Burke, ex-Senator Merrill, Franklin Faxon, Andrew Milne, John Vogel, H. T. Doble, Napoleon Grignon, John A. Duggan, Henry M. Faxon, F. P Waterhouse, Edward Glennon, F. C. Pope, N. V. Titus, A. G. Durgin, H. L. Rice, T. J. Collins and Frank F. Prescott.

The commissioners who heard the matter were: William B. de las Casas of Malden (chairman,) Mr. Manchester (who sat on his left,) and Edwin B. Haskell of Newton and Thomas L. Livermore of Boston (who sat on his right.)

Mayor Sears opened, saying the hearing was upon a request of the City Council, which had passed resolution. The movement was not confined to the City Government, but included the people generally, all being in favor of the boulevard. There seemed no question but it should be built if consistent to the plans for parks and boulevards in the Metropolitan district.

He understood the money was still in the treasury, which eliminated the necessity of an appropriation. Quincy had some special claim to the boulevard, inasmuch as the commission had taken from the city 2,600 acres of taxable land worth $75,000, but had not made the reservation accessible to Quincy people. The gentleman had attended this hearing, not by invitation but from general interest in the boulevard. The coast was certainly picturesque and should always remain open.

President Pinkham said the Council was unanimous for the boulevard. We had all supposed it was practically settled that Quincy should have this boulevard. When we heard it rumored that we might lose it, the City Council immediately passed resolutions for a hearing unanimously. The route was largely through parks which could be secured without expense. Merrymount park in Quincy was a beautiful park but not accessible. It contained 190 acres and with a driveway through it, would be appreciated by Dorchester, Roxbury and Milton people quite as much as by Quincy people, He hoped the rumors of an adverse vote in the commission were unfounded.

Hon. William B. Rice wanted to know the attitude of the board.

The Chairman stated that the board after mature consideration had decided that the plan was not as feasible as some other location might be.

Continuing, Mr. Rice said, Representatives in the Legislature from the South Shore had received the impression, before voting the appropriation, that a boulevard would be built in Quincy. Was it a question of land damages?

The Chairman said no vote had been taken which raised the land issue.

Mr. Rice had understood it was because of land values and shore rights. It was essential that this boulevard be built to balance the work of the commission in the district. He would have the commission condemn the land if in the way, and let us understand the situation. The project ought not to be dropped here. It will be demanded by the Metropolitan district within twenty years. We ought to pledge the city to help along the project.

The Chairman asked if he would advise a boulevard unless at the shore an unobstructed water view was attained, and he promptly answered, No.

The Chairman said that formed an important element. It was thought ill-advised to get into complication as to land values and rights as work must be completed before 1900. There was a question first as to the building of boulevards; second whether one should be built in Quincy; third, whether the flats and the sewage did not make the location undesirable; fourth what the benefit would be to the Metropolitan district.

Continuing, Mr. Rice, said the remark that work must be done before 1900 would cause the South Shore to work more energetically to secure the boulevard. It was right and fair that this commission should outline what was necessary to be done by Quincy to secure this bouleavrd. Quincy believes in parks and has already set aside over 100 acres and, they should be connected with others in the district.

Ex-Mayor Porter confessed that he was surprised at the adverse action of the board. If he was not mistaken it was the only improvement recommended by Governor Wolcott in his inaugural of 1897.

When the appropriation was made that year it was implied that Quincy boulevard would be built. The boulevard seemed to have a direct relation with the Neponset river improvement and as an extension of Franklin park. We have nothing on the South Shore except the Blue Hill reservation, for which Quincy contributed 3,000 acres and loss largely in taxable property, and at the same time received no benefit. The Quincy bay shore was exceedingly pretty. He believed the citizens of Quincy were ready to do anything in their power to bring about the boulevard.

Col. Livermore of the board thought there was no agreement by the boards either specific or implied.

Mr. Porter replied that while the board was not legally bound that there was a tacit understanding that Quincy should have a boulevard.

The Chairman volunteered that no project before the board had been more carefully considered.

Representative Thompson was next introduced and his statement was a clincher. He said he was in the Legislature in 1896, 1897, and 1898, the last two years on the Committee on Ways and Means. In 1897 a bill was pending for the appropriation of a million dollars for boulevards. It was favorably reported in a general bill.

There was no specific appropriation for Quincy. It was referred to the Committee on Ways and Means. The present chairman of the Metropolitan Park Commission appeared, and in reply to a question as to where the million dollars would be expended if appropriated, he mentioned four improvements: the speedway, the Quincy shore improvement, the Winthrop shore improvement, and the Revere Beach boulevard.

The Chairman thought the speakers would agree with him that it was only a suggestion, but Mr. Thompson said he understood it in a broader sense. He did not consider the board legally bound, but thought they were morally so. That there was an implied promise of the board that the Quincy boulevard would be built, and that it influenced the vote on the appropriation.

The Chairman inquired how far is Quincy ready to cooporate.

Mr. Thompson said others were better able to state than he was. But it was the general wish to know what the stumbling block was, and he believed it would be overcome by the Quincy people.

The Chairman explained that the board clearly understood that the Quincy boulevard was to be considered second only to the Revere Beach reservation.

The matter was put in the hands of a sub-committee and for two years it had held interviews, made plans, secured and paid for options, etc. He had to admit that options for only 16 per cent. had been obtained The boulevard had been abandoned first, because of the high price of the land; second, because of lawsuits of indefinite character as to shore rights.

Mr. Thompson said he had been led to believe that options from the National Sailors' Home, Wood, Harmon & Co., the Pope estate, and possibly the Butler's were the only stumbling blocks; that there were no other objections as stated today.

Col. Livermore said the commission was led in its decision by the claim of $20,000 for shore rights.

Mr. Thompson understood then that it was a financial objection. To a question as to what was the understanding as to the land being given, he said it was stated by the former owner of the Wood, Harmon property that the land would be given, or at most for a nominal sum if taken now. That was in 1897.

The Chairman then admitted that it was the financial question which had entered largely. He asked if the Quincy people had any proposition to advance.

Mr. Thompson thought we would have. He then enlarged on the duty of the commission to open up the Blue Hills reservation to the South Shore people. He asked the commission how much of the million dollars was unexpended, but the board was unwilling to answer.

Ex-Mayor Adams asked if a guarantee against expenses for land and rights was given if the boulevard would be built.

The Chairman said the board would consider it, and hear a committee on any proposition.

Theophilus King offered a solution.

Continued on page 3.

LOCAL NEWS TRACK.

Some Colts which are Sure Winners Every Heat.

Regular meeting of the School Committee tonight.

The City Council Committees on Finance and Health meet Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Whitcomb of Billings street have gone to Sharon for the winter.

Several aliens received their final naturalization papers at the District Court this morning.

Miss Addie B. Morse of Enfield Centre, N. H., is the guest this week of Mrs. George T. Magee.

Several fine photographs of individual members of Co. K have been received by friends in Quincy this week.

Mrs. Sarah Fletcher of Reading will spend the winter with her niece, Mrs. M. B. Macleod of Taylor street, Wollaston.

A somewhat novel social entertainment is to be given by the East Norfolk Endeavor Union this evening in the First church, Braintree. It is called "Aunt Dinah's Husking Bee."

A large delegation from the First Presbyterian church will attend the service in the Columbus Avenue church, this evening, when the Rev. David Gregg, D. D., formerly pastor of Park Street church will speak.

The estate of the late Eben Stinchfield, situated on Howard avenue, Quincy Neck, was sold Monday at auction by C. H. Johnson to C. E. Snow of Wollaston for $1,700. It is a house of 8 rooms and has 2 1-2 acres of land.

The speakers at the Democratic rally at Hancock hall tomorrow night will be the candidate for governor, Hon. Alexander S. Bruce, Hon. Edward J. Slattery, Harry Lloyd, Esq., and Hon. Henry F. Naphen, the candidate for Congress in this district.

The Rev. McLeod Harvey, late of Nova Scotia, was a visitor in Quincy Monday. He is to be installed pastor of the recently organized Presbyterian church in Haverhill, next week, by a commission of which the Rev. Robert Westly Peach is chairman.

Weekly meetings of Calvary Baptist church, Tuesday night at 7.30. Bible School at Mr. Alex. Scarborough's, Trafford street, Thusday at 2.30 P. M. Ladies' prayer meeting at the pastor's, 20 Payne street. Friday night at 7.30 Prayer meeting at the church, Franklin street.

Invitations are out, but cards are not necessary, for the public are invited, to the reception to Mr. R. N. Van Buskirk, the new physical director of the Young Men's Christian Association, at their rooms, 164 Hancock street, Quincy, Wednesday evening, at 8 o'clock. Music and refreshments.

The sewer pipe being laid on Newport avenue is a twenty-inch pipe and is what might be called the West Quincy section, as it is intended that this shall take care of West Quincy. But a few hundred feet is to be laid on Newport avenue and then it will practically follow the course of Furnace brook to West Quincy.

King's Daughters.

Miss Margaret Tyler, secretary of the "Willard Y Settlement" of Boston, and the Rev. Walter Russell Breed, rector ot Christ church, will be the speakers at the annual meeting of the united King's Daughters circles of Quincy, at the First Presbyterian church, Water street, on Saturday evening at 7.30 o'clock. The opening service will be at 5 o'clock, followed at 6.30 by luncheon and a social hour, to which those unable to be present at 5 o'clock are particularly invited. The services are open to the public.

Where Was the High?

The Atlantic A. A. football eleven went up to Merry Mount Park, Saturday afternoon, at 3.30, to play their scheduled game with the Quincy High school, which failed to appear on the grounds. After waiting until almost 4.30, the Altantics played a scrub eleven which had been formed on the field. The Atlantics scored 18 points in the first half (20 minutes.) The rain, which everybody thought had spoiled the grounds, left it in fine shape.

☞ Powerful oil heaters. Will heat your room in a twinkling. $3.98. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

TOP COAT LOST.

On the train leaving Quincy at 1.12 P. M. Monday, arriving in Boston at 1.30, a young man accidentally left in a seat in the rear car a new cheviot top coat. If the young man who was seen to take the coat, will leave it with Station Agent Coffin at Quincy, or with the Inward Baggage Master in Boston, he will be rewarded and save trouble.
Quincy, Oct. 25. 6t

The best fitting and finest wearing Boys' Shoes ever produced for the price. Try a pair and be convinced.

11 to 2 at $1.25.
2 1-2 to 5 1-2 at $1.50.

GEO. W. JONES,
Adams Building, Quincy.

GEO. AMES,

the ONLY PRACTICAL PLUMBER in the Hardware business in the City. He has a patent SEWER TRAP which cannot be beat. Impossible for deadly sewer gas to enter your homes. See him about your Sewer Connection. He has had three years' experience in Boston and other large cities. Established here in 1889 and still in it. Work done anywhere.

Hardware, Paints and Oils, Putty and Glass, Yacht Supplies, Steam and Gas Fittings. Steam and Hot Air Heaters put in repair for the winter.

ADAMS BUILDING

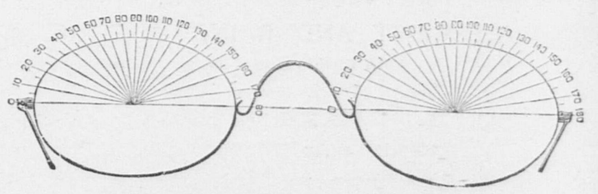

Pan-Cakes

these cool mornings? No trouble to make them if you use Hecker's "Self-Rising Buckwheat Flour. Mix it with a little water or milk and its ready to use. Have you ever tried Honey on your pan-cakes? It's delicious. We have some good Maple Syrup, though, if you prefer it.

You save time and trouble by using Self Rising Buckwheat Flour. "Hecker's" is reliable—no better quality is made.

Self Rising Buckwheat 15c. a Pck'ge

BOSTON BRANCH GROCERY,
Durgin & Merrill's Block, - Quincy.

ASTIGMATISM

Causes most of the distressing headaches. Properly fitted glasses will correct the error and remove the pain. Consult

WILLIAMS,
Member of the New England Association of Opticians,
104 Hancock St., Quincy.

MABEL F. FAIRBANKS
TEACHER OF
CHINA PAINTING and WATERCOLOR.
China Decorated to Order.
34 Grand View Avenue, Wollaston.
Sept. 29. 3m

LADIES' and CHILDREN'S
Hair Dressing and Cutting.
ALL KINDS OF HAIR WORK.
WIGS, SWITCHES, FRIZZES.
Sixteen Years' Experience.

MRS. I. F. DOW,
Room 10, Hotel Greenleaf.
Quincy, Oct. 22. 6t

E. LANDIS SNYDER,
Organist and Choirmaster of Christ Church,
TEACHER OF
VOICE CULTURE, PIANO AND ORGAN.
Studio: Room 10 Durgin & Merrill's Block,
QUINCY, MASS.
Sept. 10. tf

FRANK F CRANE,
AUCTIONEER and APPRAISER,
Office, 4 Chestnut St., Quincy, Mass.
Oct. tf

PROF. W. R. CARTER,
SPECIALIST,
Chronic and Private Diseases,
MALE and FEMALE.
WILL BE AT
22 Chestnut Street, Quincy,
EVERY WEDNESDAY
From 10 A. M. to 9 P. M.
Consultation and Advice Free.
TEETH EXTRACTED WITHOUT PAIN.
Oct. 22. 6t

MARY WENT.

LAST Week Mary and everybody else were invited to call at the Quincy Second Hand Variety Store. They went, and Mary tells us that she was delighted with what she found. She bought an excellent stove for half its value, a chamber set for a remarkably low figure, and small ware in abundance for almost nothing. In fact, she was so well pleased, she sent her husband, who bought all the tools he could carry off for a few dollars.

WALTER P. PINEL

is the Manager, and the store is right over here at number 20 Franklin street.
aug25 1y

THE FALL SEASON

IS HERE

For the Purchase of

Fruit and Ornamental Trees,

Shrubs and Vines.

Buy now that your plants may get a good start by spring.

Remember that I carry all the desirable novelties, as well as the old standard varieties of nursery stock.

I call special attention to my Flowering Shrubs, Perpetual Roses, Clematis, and Rhododendrons.

Buy at home and save agents' commissions. None but strictly first-class stock, well acclimated, furnished. Call and examine.

Orders by mail receive prompt attention.

Wollaston Park Nursery,

Fenno St., Wollaston.

MARTIN PFAFFMANN, Prop.

P. O. Box 44, Wollaston. Residence, 2 Clay St.

Oct. 14—1m p-3w

STENOGRAPHY AND TYPEWRITING, BOOKKEEPING,

And All Clerical Work.

MISSES A. B. and E. M. COTE,

Room 12 Durgin & Merrill Block, - Quincy.

Oct. 10. tf

Give C. PATCH & SON

A TRIAL ORDER

For HAZELTON LEHIGH COAL.

NOTICE TO VOTERS.

CITY OF QUINCY.

For the purpose of preparing the Annual Register of Voters, and of receiving evidence of qualifications from persons claiming a right to Vote at the coming City Election, the Board of Registrars of Voters will be in session in the COUNCIL CHAMBER in the City Hall Building, on the evenings of

Wednesday, November 9, and Saturday, November 12, from 7 to 9 o'clock P.M., also on Wednesday, November 16, from 12 o'clock, noon, to 10 o'clock P.M.

Every applicant for registration must appear in person before the Board. Every male applicant must present either a certificate from the Assessors or a Tax bill or Notice from the Collector of Taxes, showing that he has been assessed a Poll tax as a resident of the City on the First day of May last; if a naturalized citizen he must also produce for inspection his papers of naturalization. Payment of a poll tax is not a prerequisite to voting.

Persons who have lived in the state one year, and in the city six months previous to December 6, if qualified in other respects, can be registered.

No name can be added to the list of voters unless registered previous to WEDNESDAY, Nov. 16th, at 10 o'clock P. M., when registration will close.

Examine the Voting Lists posted herewith and see that your name is in its proper place. NO CHANGE can be made after WEDNESDAY, Nov. 16th, at 10 o'clock P. M. The Board of Assessors will hold meetings at the same time.

EDWARD B. MARSH,
CORNELIUS MOYNIHAN,
EDWARD J. McKEON,
EDGAR G. CLEAVES,
Registrars.

Quincy, Oct. 22, 1898. 21t

STATE ELECTION.

CITY OF QUINCY.

City Clerk's Office, Oct. 7, 1898.

IN Accordance with the provisions of Chapter 548 of the Acts of 1898, notice is hereby given that by a vote of the City Council, passed October 3, 1898, the polling places for the election to be held TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1898, in the City of Quincy, were designated as follows:

WARD ONE.—Council Chamber, City Hall.

WARD TWO—Hose House, Washington street.

WARD THREE, Precinct One.—Doble's Hall, Franklin street.

WARD THREE, Precinct Two.—Old Steamer House, School street.

WARD FOUR, Precinct One.—St. Mary's Hall, Willard street.

WARD FOUR, Precinct Two.—Hose House, Copeland street.

WARD FIVE.—Polson's Building, Newport avenue.

WARD SIX.—Hose House, Newbury avenue.

Attest: EDGAR G. CLEAVES,
City Clerk.

Quincy, Oct. 7, 1898. 27t

LADIES ROYAL DELIVERANCE CAPSULES are a positive, safe and speedy monthly regulator, guaranteed to cure the most stubborn cases, or money refunded. Have never failed. Used by thousands of ladies, indorsed and prescribed by the medical profession. Painful and dangerous operations avoided. Price $2, at office or by return mail. 'Royal Protector' and full particulars under plain seal for 4c., stamps. ROYAL REMEDIES CO., 228 Tremont Street, Boston, Mass. Mention this paper.

VERY SUCCESSFUL.

25th Anniversary of West Quincy Church.

Anniversary Sermon and a Grand Banquet.

Thought to Mark a New Era for the Church.

A beautiful autumnal morning greeted the members and attendants of the M. E. church at West Quincy, enabling a large and interested audience to assemble Sunday morning for the first service of the anniversary occasion.

The church was elaborately decorated with autumn leaves, flowers and potted plants. The choir under the leadership of Mr. Charles Goucher had arranged special music for the occasion which was tastefully rendered.

Rev. F. N. Upham of Dorchester preached the anniversary sermon. He was selected for the occasion because his father, Rev. S. F. Upham, D. D., preached the sermon at the dedication of the church. He took for his text John 1:6,—"There was a man sent from God whose name was John."

He said in part, "All force resides in a person." We speak of the power of love, but there is no power of love without one who loves. There is no law without a law-giver and some one to enforce it. So with religious truth, faith, hope, trust, etc.

The text referred to John the Baptist—he was sent from God. This would also apply to another man, John Wesley,—a man who combined the fire of Elijah and the evangelical zeal of John the Baptist. If we be the spiritual descendants of John Wesley, the marks that characterize him must also characterize us He mentioned and elaborated three characteristics of John Wesley.

1. "He was a godly man." He was a man of like passions with us, yet his name was never sullied. He might have been famous as a literary man. He was a clear prose writer, and a poet of no mean order. He was familiar with Latin, Greek and Hebrew and several modern languages. He was a prolific author, publishing 181 volumes.

He could have excelled in statesmanship. Macauley says he could have been a Richelieu. He could have been a statesman with Pitt and directed empires. He might have been a philanthropist like his contemporary John Harvard. There was a holiness about his life and character which made him a man of God of the centuries.

2. He was a providential man. He came at a time when the church had relapsed, and religious life and spirituality were at a low ebb, to reinvigorate and revive the spirit of vital piety.

He was a Providential man, in that he recognized it himself. He adapted means to ends. He preached to the lowest classes of England, in churches, barns, cemeteries and wherever the people could be gathered together. He arranged for pastoral oversight—he organized them in classes under proper leaders; he set laymen at work preaching and teaching the gospel.

3. He was a man with a Mission. He came to bear witness of a light which had shone upon himself. He came to bear witness of Jesus Christ—he constantly preached of Christ; he spoke of the necessity of spirituality and of new birth, when the pulpits of his day were preaching ethics and morality. "He became all things to all men," adapting means to ends, that he might elevate and save men. If we would be his spiritual descendants we must follow his example and partake of his spirit.

Sunday evening another large audience assembled at 7 o'clock. After an opening anthem by the choir, the whole congregation joined in a brief service of song.

The Scriptures were read and prayer offered by the pastor, Rev. C. W. Wilder.

The pastor presented a brief historical account of the beginning of the church e nterprise in West Quincy.

Rev. E. W. Virgin one of the former pastors, was present and preached a very interesing discourse from the text "Godliness is profitable unto all things, having the promise of the life that now is and that which is to come" 1st Timothy, 4:8.

The fine weather and the interest and enthusiasm of the people made the occasion a "a red letter day" for the West Quincy church.

The 25th anniversary of the West Quincy Methodist Episcopal church was fittingly closed Monday evening with the banquet in the vestry.

The interest and enthusiasm aroused by the celebration, far surpassed the most sanguine expectations of those who planned for it.

From 7 to o'clock a very pleasant informal reception was held in the audience room. Rev. E. W. Virgin and wife and Rev. W. J. Pomfret were cordially greeted by their former parishioners. Rev. Edward Norton and wife, who have been in Quincy during the entire twenty-five years, were invited to represent the clergy of the other denominations in the city. Henry H. Faxon, Esq., represented the temperance element and Dr. J. H. Mansfield as Presiding Elder, was the representative of the conference.

At a few minutes past 8 o'clock the audience were called to the vestry. Almost all the available space was filled with the heavily laden tables, yet a large number, contrary to the expectation, were obliged to wait for a second table.

At the close of the banquet the pastor called the gathering to order. A poem written and published in the Patriot nearly twenty-five years ago, describing the labors and success of the society at that time, was recited by Miss Lilllian Barnes. Short speeches were made by Rev. J. H. Mansfield, D. D., Rev. Edward Norton, H. H. Faxon, Esq., Rev. E. N. Hardy and Rev. W. J. Pomfret. Music was tastefully rendered by a quartette and trio, and at ten o'clock the enthusiastic audience dispersed to their homes. This celebration marks an era in the history of the West Quincy Methodist church.

The ushers at the reception were Mr. C. W. Wilder, Jr., Miss Cassie Thayer and Miss Isabell Moir.

LAND VALUES.

Continued from page 1.

WARD THREE.

Valuation of Land Only.		Total Ward Tax.
O'Brien, Thomas H.		29 70
7 000, off Hall place, $350.
O'Connell, Daniel		65 15
1-4 acre,	O'Connell ave., $400.
23,700,	" " $650.
6,600,	off Common, $300.

WARD FOUR.

O'Connor, John J.	30 80
6,032, Malden, $300.
O'Connor, Michael	4 05
6,110, Station, $225.
O'Connor, Thomas	17 30
10,578, Wesson, $200.
Ogle, James W.	30 80
8,658, West, $400.
O'Keefe, Timothy, est.,
4,097, Kent, $200.
3,300, " $100.
Olson, John A.	40 50
4,810, Smith $250.
15,580, " $400.
O'Neil, Bernard M. and Thomas H.	34 20
7,356, Common, $400.
O'Neil, Bernard M.	7 85
7,996, Jenness, $325.
O'Neil, Mary A.	33 75
11,737, Rogers, $475.
O'Neil, Thomas H.	7 40
6,600, Barry, $300.
Owens, Mary A.	332 20
58,320, Willard, $3,400.
Owens, Michael	36 20
14,000, Bates ave., $500.
9,195, " " $300.

WARD FIVE.

O'Dowd, Mary E.	$4 50
4,000 feet, Sachem street, $250.
Olney, Lucy M.	85 50
11,250, Grand View ave., $1,750.
Orcutt, Katie W.	90 00
9,689, Muirhead, $1,000.
Osborne, Weston W.	45 00
4,700, Elm ave., $500.
Osberg, Frank	38 00
5,337, Sewell, $300.
Osgood, Jennie R.	39 60
5,000, Farrington, $400.
Oxner, James R.	10 80
5,000, Lot 6, Sec. 6, $300.
5,000, " 5, " " $300.

WARD SIX.

Oakman, Elmer P.	77 40
10,890, Billings, $1,100.

To be continued.

Runaway.

There was a lively runaway on Hancock street early Monday evening which fortunately ended without serious mishap. Shortly before 7 o'clock a three-horse stone team was left without its driver for a few minutes on Hancock street, nearly opposite the southerly entrance to the Merry Mount park. For some unknown reason the horses started off on the run. There is a slight downward grade at this point, and as they moved along the speed of the horses increased, and when they passed Carruth street the horses were on the jump. Just before the team reached Bridge street, one of the pole horses fell, which resulted in stopping the team. No damage was done.

☞ Real down right comfort in our blankets and comforters. That's not all, our prices the lowest on earth. Blankets from 45 cents per pair up. Comforters from 75 cents up. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

WEYMOUTH.

Mr. and Mrs. George Jenkins of Lovell's Corner have moved to Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. John Webb, who have been spending the summer at Silver lake, are visiting relatives.

Mrs. Mary Ash and son of Whitman have been the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Quinn at Weymouth.

☞ Full sized white Iron Bedsteads, brass trimmed, $2.98. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

DIED.

THAYER—In Braintree, Oct. 23, Mr. David B. Thayer, aged 62 years, 11 months and 14 days.

WILLIAM E. BAXTER, M. D.

Practice Limited to the

EYE AND EAR.

553 Boylston St., Boston.

QUINCY—Monday and Friday.

Hours, 9 to 11. 195 Hancock Street

May 21. 1y

TEETH EXTRACTED.

No Pain or Danger.

Safer than vapor. Money paid for extracting goes towards teeth to be inserted. I am the only dentist in the city using the Painless Preparation for Extraction.

DR. C. B. UNDERWOOD,

9 Spear St. Rear of Public Library

LEHIGH COAL.

When we Sell You Lehigh we Deliver what we Sell. . . . .

C. PATCH & SON.

The John Hancock Stables.

Opposite Depot, Quincy, Mass.

Boarding, Baiting, Livery and Sale.

DR. J. A. DOW, Proprietor,

the well known Veterinary dentist and specialist in the treatment of lame horses. Sick horses treated at owner's risk.

The finest equipped and managed stable of its size in America.

Fine driving turnouts in light rigs; safe and good appearing. All horses let are perfectly safe for ladies to drive.

The choicest family, road and coach horses constantly on hand for sale. All horses guaranteed as represented.

☞ Will attend to veterinary practice as usual. aug18-1y

Rain or Snow

Along the coast but fair in the interior, we read sometimes, but whether rain, snow, fair or blow outside, you may be fair, comfortable and happy inside of one of those

Warm Overcoats

that you can buy at the "Granite," and not only overcoats, but everything required for the comfort of men and boys.

Don't get caught in the storms of winter without proper protection, but go now to the

Granite Clothing Store,

DURGIN & MERRILL'S BLOCK,

QUINCY.

E. S. BECKFORD,

Electrician.

Wiring and Fitting for Incandescent, Motors, Dynamos, Bells, etc.

GRANITE STREET, Near the Bridge, QUINCY

Feb. 1 1y

ALBERT J. BOWERS

OPTICIAN

ADAMS BUILDING OVER POST OFFICE QUINCY MASS.

Mutual Life

OF NEW YORK.

Do You Want Life Insurance? Do You Want Fire Insurance?

If so, call on

GEORGE H. FIELD,

1 Durgin & Merrill's Block, Quincy,

and you will find the best Companies at Lowest Rates.

MONEY LOANED ON REAL ESTATE.

GO TO . . . .

Miss B. J. PATTERSON'S

Millinery Parlors

AT THE

Boston Bargain Store,

FOR YOUR

FALL MILLINERY.

A fine assortment of Trimmed Goods. Also, all the latest and best shapes in untrimmed hats, walking hats and sailors.

New Velvets, Ribbons, Fancy Feathers and Ostrich goods.

Lowest possible prices for first-class goods.

Music Hall Building, Quincy.

Oct. 1. tfpl

THERE'S A CHANCE.

Continued from page 2.

He said all were anxious to see the completion of the splendid park and boulevard system around Boston. The commisssion has done right in turning down the Quincy boulevard under existing conditions. It is the duty of Quincy to remove those conditions. He believed they could be changed, and asked the board to appoint a committee of five or six Quincy gentlemen to see the land owners personally. He himself did not believe there should be anything left for the courts to settle.

City Solicitor McAnarney spoke on the desirability of developing the shore, and also of extending into Quincy the driveway in the park which had its outlet in a farm. Quincy with its 25,000 people was entitled to an entrance to the park. The drive should be extended to Willard on Copeland street.

Tobias H. Burke said that the land for the Blue Hills reservation was condemned and taken and probably without an examination. The commission should not hesitate to take land for boulevard in same way. He thought entrance to the reservation had been neglected but thought it was because the commission had so much on its hands. As it was the reservation was not a benefit to Quincy. Not as much so in fact as it was before the taking as then it was open to the public whereas now there were restrictions.

It was agreed that the commission would further consult with a Quincy committee. About 4 P. M. the hearing was adjourned.

AT CAMP MEADE.

With Co. K, 5th Mass.,
Middletown, Penn, Oct. 21.
(Delayed in transit.)

The review last evening was postponed on account of dampness of ground.

The companies were drawn up in alignment to hear the report of the adjutant read. Then they were marched off one at a time and dismissed.

The night air was very mild, no cold wind arising, same as on the previous nights. The boys did not find it hard keeping warm. We are also having the pleasure of making the acquaintance with the moon once more. It makes the camp look more cheerful at night.

The gladsome news to herald to our friends is that our battalion hospital has not one inmate at present. What other battalion can say this. Our officers are so keen and eager to keep away disease, that we have practically none.

Mrs. Spear, wife of Lieut. Spear, in company with Mrs. Sykes, wife of Captain Sykes of Co. I, Attleboro, visited camp this afternoon. Mrs. Spear looks well, and seems to enjoy the pleasures of her trip.

We are thankful to the Ledger for its loyaly to old Co. K men, and for its opposition to going outside the company for a captain.

Those on guard today are Corporal Hermanson, Bugler Johnson, Privates Piravanio, Rafferty, Restelli, Roberts, Rowell, Ross, Rogers, Robinson, Smith, Swanson, Spillane, Savoie. Private Spillane secured the appointment as orderly. DOC.

☞ Let me frankly say to you, gentlemen, for myself, I see no escape from an enlarged and constantly enlarging colonial policy by the United States. I could wish that it were otherwise but our flag is in Porto Rico. What will you do with it? Our flag is in Cuba. What will you do with it? Our flag is in Manila bay. What will you do with it? I do not believe that wherever the flag has gone, there, perforce, the flag must stay; but I do believe that under the forceful guidance of providence, or through the inevitable development of evolution, or through the compelling stress of fate, I do believe that the clock of the world will not move backward, and that wherever our flag has gone there the liberty, the civilization and the humanity which that flag represents and embodies must remain, and, God helping us, remain forever.—Gen. Woodford, ex-Minister to Spain in Boston.

TODAY'S COURT.

Angelo Donofrio and Vito Wardabasse were arraigned for disturbing the peace at Quincy. They were fined $3 each.

DR. HERBERT S. HAYFORD

195 Hancock Street.

OFFICE HOURS—11 to 12 A. M., 2 to 4 and 7 to 8 P. M.

Telephone, 4-3.

Quincy, July 5. tf

FOR SALE.

Bigelow St. Fine New Residence, 9 rooms, bath, laundry, furnace, open plumbing, cemented cellar, fireplace, etc.

R. D. CHASE,
Savings Bank Building.

Quincy, April 8-tf. 9p-tf

Mission of Our Saviour.

The Mission of Our Saviour at East Milton observed its first anniversary, Sunday evening, in Ellsworth hall. A large congregation was present, many coming over from the Milton Episcopal church, and a goodly contribution was taken which will go toward the building fund. The Rev. Theodore Irving Reese spoke on the work of the mission, past and future.

The mission was started one year ago in Washington hall, which soon proved too small for the needs of the people and the services were afterwards held in Ellsworth hall. From a small body of earnest workers the mission has steadily grown until it now numbers forty-three communicants and the outlook is very bright. The morning service is conducted by Mr. Frederick Sanford of Bristol, R. I., a lay-reader from the Harvard Divinity school, and the evening service is conducted by the Rev. Theodore Irving Reese, of St. Michael's church, Milton. There are several guilds conducted with the mission, which are doing good work, charitable and sociable.

TRY GRAIN-O! TRY GRAIN-O!

Ask your Grocer today to show you a package of GRAIN-O, the new food drink that takes the place of coffee. The children may drink it without injury as well as the adult. All who try it, like it. GRAIN-O has that rich seal brown of Mocha or Java, but it is made of pure grains, and the most delicate stomach receives it without distress. One-fourth the price of coffee. 15c. and 25c. per package. Sold by all grocers.

Coal!

Just Received by Barge Blackbird, a Fresh Cargo of

Pea Coal

(Small Nut.)

J. F. SHEPPARD & SONS

Quincy Sept. 7.

CHILDREN

and their Diseases. Write for book containing facts every mother should know. Sent free. Thousands of afflicted children have been cured by True's Pin Worm Elixir. Purely vegetable and harmless. Est. 47 years. Price 25c. At druggists. DR. J. F. TRUE & CO., Auburn, Me.

FISH.

Everything first-class at the

Cape Cod Fish Market,

Temple Street.

All kinds Fresh, Salt, Smoked and Pickeled

Quincy, Feb. 8. 1y

Hazelton Lehigh

Costs a Trifle More.
You Know Why.

C. PATCH & SON

For Sale or To Let,

FURNISHED,

NASH'S HOTEL.

Full of Boarders and a good transient trade. Cheap rent. My catering business is all I can attend to.

Apply at HOTEL, 148 Hancock street, Quincy, Mass. oct11 tf lo

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS.

Advertisements in this column inserted at the following rates:

Four lines, or less, one day, - - 25 cents.
" " three days, - - - 50 cents.
" " one week, - - - - 75 cents.

Additional lines will be charged for pro rata Seven words equal a line. Long term rates furnished on application.

LOST.

LOST—A Lady's Hunter Watch and Charm between Norfolk Downs and the Greenleaf Hotel, possibly in the street car. Any information will be gladly received at GREENLEAF HOTEL, and a reward paid.

Oct. 22. 3t

FOUND.

FOUND—A large yellow and white dog without a collar. Owner may have the same by proving property and paying charges.

THOS. P. HEALY,
Adams Street, Quincy.

Oct. 22. 3t

WANTED.

WANTED—A strong boy to work in our shipping department; $3.00 per week.

HENRY L. KINCAIDE & CO.

Quincy, Oct. 24. tf

AGENTS WANTED—For War in Cuba, by Senor Quesada, Cuban representative at Washington. Endorsed by Cuban patriots. In tremendous demand. A bonanza for agents. Only $1.50. Big book, big commissions. Everybody wants the only endorsed, reliable book. Outfits free. Credit given. Freight paid. Drop all trash, and make $300 a month with War in Cuba. Address today. THE NATIONAL BOOK CONCERN, 352-356 Dearborn St., Chicago. Oct. 25—21t

TO LET.

TO LET—House of six rooms, in good repair. Possession given Nov. 1. Apply at 8 Orchard place, Quincy. Oct. 25—6t

TO LET—Half a House of 5 rooms entirely separate on Phipps street, Mt. Pleasant. Rent, $8 a month; city water. Inquire at 17 Summer street.

Quincy, Sept. 27. 31t

TO LET—3 Houses of 7 rooms each, healthful location and fine views. Electrics pass often. Rent low. Inquire of F. H. GRAVES, just beyond the bridge, North Weymouth.

Oct. 21. 6t

TO LET—Tenement of 6 rooms No. 12 Newcomb street, in good repair; city water. inquire of C. A. SPEAR, 7 Newcomb street.

Quincy, Oct. 20. tf

TO LET—A Sunny, Pleasant House of six rooms, newly papered and painted and in good repair; on Washington street, corner Wibird street. Centrally located in the Coddington school district. Apply only to FRANK F. PRESCOTT at Daily Ledger office.

Oct. 20. tf

TO LET—Cottage house, No. 29 Granite street, 8 rooms, three minutes' from City Square. Apply to H. M. FAXON, 4 Adams Building. Sept. 30—tf

FOR RENT—Desirable house with bath, corner lot, nice neighborhood, three minutes' walk from schools, churches and depot Rent reasonable. Apply at No. 6 Pleasant St.

Quincy, Sept. 7. tf

TO LET IN QUINCY.

SOUTHERLY Half of house with stable 214 Hancock street, now occupied by Dr. N. S. Hunting. Modern improvements, central location. Seven rooms and bath; furnace, gas and city water. Apply on premises to

MISS M. F. UNDERWOOD.

Oct. 1. tf

TO LET.

House of 8 rooms, etc., No. 20 Canal street, Quincy. Nice house, excellent location.

R. D. CHASE,
Savings Bank Building.

Quincy, Oct. 8. pl tf

TO LET.

APARTMENTS of five large rooms and bath, with all modern improvements. Also two large stores. Rent moderate. Apply to ARTHUR CRAIG, or J. W. HAYDEN, at Craig Building, cor. Copeland and Garfield Sts.

Quincy, July 15. pl tf

HOUSES, STORES, LAND,

ROOMS, OFFICES, AND WHARVES,

To Let In Quincy, Mass.

The Houses are in Complete Repair.

Half-house, 10 rooms, 6 Chester street, Wollaston.
House, 10 rooms with stable, 16 Cottage street.
Half-house, 5 rooms, 16 Cottage street.
House, 8 rooms, 29 Granite street.
Half-house, 4 rooms, 4 Water street, $7 per month.
Tenement, 5 rooms, 59 North street.
Half-house, 6 rooms, Pond street, $10 per month.
Half-house, 5 rooms, 13 Field street, $8 per month.
Tenement, 3 rooms, 28 Howard street, $3 per month.
Tenements, 51 Howard street, $4, $5 and $6 per month.
Room, 12 Washington street, $5 per month.
Large building, suitable for manufacturing purposes on Brackett's wharf.
Small stable, 2 Quincy street, $3 per month.
Small stable, 28 Coddington street, $5 per month.
100 windows, and blinds, various sizes.
Wharf, stone sheds, etc., Quincy Neck.
Basement, head of Granite street.
100 tons ballast for sale.
Land to rent for tillage or pasturing purposes.
Gravel and sand for sale.
50 loads of loam for sale.
The buildings are in the very best condition.
For particulars, enquire of, or address

HENRY H. FAXON,
Quincy, Mass.

Quincy, Oct. 13, 1898. 1m

Savings Bank Building, Quincy.

BABIES THRIVE ON IT | GAIL BORDEN EAGLE BRAND CONDENSED MILK.

OUR ILLUSTRATED PAMPHLET ENTITLED "BABIES" SHOULD BE IN EVERY HOUSEHOLD. SENT ON APPLICATION.
NEW YORK CONDENSED MILK CO. NEW YORK.

MAKE IT HOT FOR YOU.

If your house is cold and you have become disgusted with the various devices called heaters, and you are really anxious to have warmth and comfort in your home, place an order for one of those G. B. Bates CIRCULATORS. It will "make it hot for you" or just the temperature you desire. Its construction is based upon scientific and economical principles. Several have recently been put in right here in Quincy, and others will be put in during the next few weeks. Don't read this ad. and then forget about it till your water pipes are all frozen, but go now to

G. B. BATES,

Hancock Street, Quincy.

Gentlemen, Buy Your....

OVERCOATS

Where you can find the best assortment in the city and the lowest prices, which is at

C. F. DERBY'S, SAVINGS BANK BUILDING, QUINCY. 5-1m

ONE-TON ORDERS

Have been the making of this Coal business. Hundreds have ordered "just one ton to see if there was any difference." They found there was and they came again. Our one-ton orders have been our best advertisements. It's a better Coal at the same price, with the proof in a sample ton. When in doubt, try Patch's.

C. PATCH & SON.

PISO'S CURE For Consumption

I have been taking Piso's Cure for Consumption since 1883, for Coughs and Colds. I had an attack of LaGrippe in 1890, and have had others since. In the Winter of 1896-7, I had a spell of Bronchitis, lasting all winter, and leaving a troublesome cough, until I again tried Piso's Cure, which relieved me.—Mrs. M. B. SMALLEY, Colorado Springs, Colo., August 19, 1898.

25 CTS. PISO'S CURE FOR CURES WHERE ALL ELSE FAILS. Best Cough Syrup. Tastes Good. Use in time. Sold by druggists. CONSUMPTION 25 CTS.

The Piso Company, Warren, Pa.

NOTHING BETTER,
UNCLE SAM'S NAVY

Now commands the respect of the world, and we are all proud of the defenders of the Nation's Honor. To give the people of Quincy a good idea of the grand battleships, we have ordered a large supply of portfolios, giving magnificent views of the ships, crews, etc.

With each purchase made at our store we will give a portfolio check to the value of the purchase. When you have $4.00 worth of these checks, return them and get a portfolio. Continue in this way until you have the set complete. Call and see these magnificent portfolios.

ROGERS BROS.,
Groceries and Provisions. Adams Building, Quincy.

SINKS WERE SHALLOW.

Chief Trouble at Chickamauga Attributed to That Cause.

Drinking Water of Very Poor Quality.

Privates Said to Have Fared Better Than the Officers.

Anniston, Ala., Oct. 25.—The war investigating commission set from 1 o'clock to 5:30 Monday, and examined about a dozen witnesses, including a number of volunteer officers. Major David Vickers, who was inspector general for the second division of the Third corps at Chickamauga, attributed the troubles in that camp to the shallowness of the sinks. He said also that some of the regimental officers insisted on making poor selections of camp sites and in one instance a Mississippi colonel who had put his men in a swamp, had insisted upon remaining, on the ground that a Mississippian had a natural affection for swamps. Nevertheless, his men were taken sick. Major Vickers also complained that the drinking water was poor. He thought the camp site unfit for so large an army, but so far as food went the privates were few better than the officers. He said that at one time the beds of all the patients were on the floor, and that there were some cases where they were on the ground.

Asked as to the competency of the surgeons at the hospital, he said there was one man in the hospital whose proneness to profanity unfitted him for the service. This man was Major Hubbard of the Ninth New York. "His profanity was of such a villainous character," said Vickers, "as to pretty nearly make me sick, and I know it could not have had a pleasant effect upon patients."

Replying to charges made by a signal corps patient in the Chickamauga hospital, Dr. Drake said he had seen maggots on one occasion in a box in the hospital, but never on patients. Often the men went there lousy, but they did not remain so.

Meeting the charges concerning the furloughing and shipment of members of the Eighth and Fourteenth New York regiments, he said that the men of the two regiments had not wanted to travel together, and that the delay in shipping those of the Eighth had been due to the fact that, after he had secured transportation for them over the Pennsylvania line, a major in their regiment changed the order so as to secure transportation over a more circuitous route. Dealing with the insinuation that he tried to favor the Southern road because he had been the chief surgeon of that line, he said that he had not been connected with the road since August, 1897.

Major Heatwole, chief commissary of subsistence, said the quality of the rations had been excellent. As for the quantity, a man would have to be a gormandizer to eat it.

After Major Heatwole was excused, General Dodge read a letter from Dr. Seaman of New York, who was before the commission in Washington, in which he corrected an error in his testimony. He had stated that he had received only the regular army rations for the convalescents on the Obdam, from Porto Rico to New York. He says that such supplies as had been received up to the night previous to sailing had been received from the relief societies during the night, and he continues: "The hospital ship, Relief, arrived, and early the next morning I boarded the Relief and personally secured without any requisition the additional supplies enumerated in the receipt signed by me. Until my conference yesterday with Major Bradley I believed these supplies, like many others, were brought by outside contributions, and were not government supplies." The letter is dated Oct. 16, and is directed to the surgeon general of the army.

Food Question In Santiago.

Lieutenant Colonel Bispee, in command of the First infantry, told the story of the transportation of his regiment to Santiago, described the fighting about Santiago; spoke of his experience in Cuba, of the return to Montauk Point, and of the stay at that place and the transfer south. Asked if the landing at Santiago could have been accomplished if opposed, he replied: "The facilities were so poor that I think not; at least I should say if I had been on shore, no enemy would have been permitted to land. I cannot say how it was with the Spaniards." He said there was considerable difficulty in getting food while in front of Santiago, but the soldiers had enough. If there had been more to eat the men would probably have been sicker. He expressed the opinion that the only deprivation had been in not having proper food for the sick. The rations contained too much fat meat for the climate. Colonel Bisbee stated that himself and 16 men were the only members of his regiment who had not been ill during the Santiago campaign. "It had been impossible to secure medical supplies," said the witness, "and if we had them we could not have carried them." The men were just beginning to break in health when Santiago surrendered, and the capitulation came at just the right time. After the surrender of the city there was plenty for all to eat.

Speaking of the Spanish troops, Colonel Bisbee said: "I think about three-fourths of them would have enlisted in our army but for their home ties. They found that we were giving them better treatment than their own government did. I am satisfied that their own officers were swindling them. The officers were fat and sleek looking, but the men were ill and pale, and apparently underfed."

Colonel Bisbee did not believe there was a sufficient number of doctors in the Cuban campaign. He thought the contract surgeons were capable doctors, but they were not familiar with army methods, and did not know how to get the necessary medicines. Speaking generally of the Cuban experience, he expressed the opinion that the supplies had been as liberal as could have been reasonably expected. Colonel Bisbee said he had not complained of the voyage north. He said that a distress signal had been put out for food while they lay out at sea, and when some vessel came alongside he said he had called out to those on board to bring them food. He stated in explanation that the food was wanted for the officers' mess. "The men had enough, such as it was." After this and while at Montauk Point they got more than they needed. "We got it from the people, from New York relief associations and citizens. They sent us everything, including whisky and champagne—far more than we wanted." He knew of no deprivation at Montauk. "The raw recruits were howling to get into a house, but that was all."

Major Dempsey of the Second regular infantry covered very much the same ground as Colonel Bisbee. His command had never during the Santiago campaign suffered for want of supplies. Men had sometimes at night felt the want of covering, but not of food. No more than half the men in the regiment were fit for duty at the time of the surrender of Santiago. He had heard a doctor say that quinine and castor oil were the only medicines he could get. Major Dempsey said the only deficiency he had discovered at Montauk was in the matter of transportation facilities. He had also heard a doctor say there were not sufficient beds in the regimental hospital for the accommodation of the sick.

Other witnesses testified that, while there was a deficiency in the rations issued while the troops were in the trenches near Santiago, there was no real suffering on the part of the men on this account; but for the rest they expressed themselves as satisfied that they had received as good attention as they could have expected under the circumstances.

Colonel H. S. Seaman of the Fourth Wisconsin complained that the supplies of his regiment, drawn at Camp Douglass, Wis., including clothing, shoes, arms, etc., had been poor. He did not consider the men sufficiently clad for the harsh weather.

Sale of Beer.

Colonel James P. Fife of the Third Tennessee, whose regiment had been encamped at Chickamauga as a part of the first division of the Third army corps previous to removal here, said the commissary supplies had been excellent and ample. Colonel Fife said that a canteen had been maintained in his regiment, and beer in large quantities had been sold. Most of the receipts, amounting to $400 or $500 per day of the canteen, were from beer.

"Did you consider it proper for your regiment to maintain a general beer garden for all the camp?" asked Dr. Connor, reading from a letter as his authority.

Colonel Fife answered: "No, but that beer was there to be sold." He denied that beer was sold to be carried away except to officers, and advocated the sale of beer at canteens as a protection against more serious indulgence in whisky. He expressed the opinion that Chickamauga was an excellent camp site, but he considered the water supply bad as it was arranged.

Lasted the Limit.

New York, Oct. 25.—Four thousand persons were present last night at the bout between Tom Ryan of Syracuse and Jack Bonner of Pennsylvania. The men met at the limit of 158 pounds. In the second round Bonner sent Ryan down with a right on the jaw. In the fourth round Bonner slipped to the floor three times, and was knocked down in the fifth.

In the tenth, as the result of a hot mixup, Bonner's left eye was considerably damaged, and it bled profusely. In the 13th Ryan landed almost at will and had Bonner almost in Queer street. In the 15th Bonner's face plainly showed the marks of Ryan's blows.

Bonner was almost paralyzed in the 18th round. In the 19th his left eye was completely closed. Ryan did not let up on the damaged member, which was badly swollen and bleeding freely. There were cries of "Stop it," and "Take him off."

In the 20th and last round it was evident that Ryan was desirous of dropping his man, as he refrained from using his right on the head and did all the work with his left. Bonner in consequence was enabled to last the limit and Referee Brown awarded the fight to Ryan.

Ground Glass In the Stomach.

Battle Creek, Mich., Oct. 25.—Interest in the death of Rodolphus Sanderson, who, it developed Saturday, was murdered by the putting of pounded glass in his oatmeal, is still at fever heat. His widow is under arrest charged with the crime. The principal evidence on which she is held is an alleged confession by Mary Robertson, a servant, that Mrs. Sanderson put pounded glass in her husband's oatmeal for two weeks before his death. Miss Robertson is alleged to have said that the glass was reduced to dust in a spice grinder. When officers went to the house to secure the grinder it had been removed. According to rumor, an investigation of sewer and other pipes near the Sanderson home furnishes more evidence of the use of glass which was pulverized for some purpose or other.

Professor Prescott, who made the analysis, reported to Prosecuting Attorney Lockton. The report in substance is said to be that ground glass in small quantities had been found in the stomach and intestines.

Theory of Suicide.

Augusta, Oct. 25.—The defense in the White murder trial put in testimony yesterday attempting to show that Everett White had threatened and even tried to commit suicide previous to his death. The prisoner also stated that she knew nothing of the use of firearms.

The government, in rebuttal, presented a witness who testified that the prisoner shot at him two years ago with the intention of killing him. The stenographic report of the parts of the hearing in the lower court contradicted the testimony given by the same witness.

Philadelphia's Peace Jubilee.

Philadelphia, Oct. 25.—The opening of the three days' celebration was unprecedented in magnificence and grandeur. The city wears her carnival garb. On the down-town streets, which are jammed with surging crowds of sightseers from this and other cities, there is scarcely a building which does not display bunting. Everybody sought the wharves to get a glimpse of the nation's navy as represented by the Texas, New Orleans, Topeka, Dolphin, Gloucester, Marblehead, Columbia, Minneapolis, Vixen, Winslow, Hudson, Olivette, Morrill and Algonquin.

ENGLAND'S BLUE BOOK.

Another Chapter In the Controversy Over the Control of Fashoda.

London, Oct. 25.—The British government has issued another blue book, the most important feature of which is a dispatch dated Oct. 12 from the Marquis of Salisbury to the British ambassador in Paris, reporting the previous interview with Baron DeCourcel, in which the latter wished to ascertain what solution of the Fashoda question was possible and in which the marquis says: "I generally insisted that the Nile valley had belonged and still belonged to Egypt, and that whatever diminution that title had suffered by the mahdi's conquest had been removed by the victory at Omdurman." Lord Salisbury then pointed out the helplessness of Major Marchand's position, which the baron denied, and finally the British premier, in response to DeCourcel's suggestion, offered to supply Major Marchand with food and ammunition in order that he might be able to reach French territory. Baron De Courcel then said France wanted an outlet to the Nile, and the Marquis of Salisbury requested that the whole proposition be made in writing. This was the last interview between the ambassador and the premier on this subject.

The Salisbury dispatch in conclusion said: "The extreme indefiniteness of Baron DeCourcel's propositions made it impossible for me to express or form an opinion relative to the territory claimed by France in the Bahr-el-Ghazal region. Under the circumstances the discussion has been fruitful of misapprehension. I informed him that it was in no way my duty to discuss the French claims now, but that in abstaining therefrom I must not be understood as in any degree admitting their validity."

The book also contains interesting letters from Moustapha Fehey, the regent of Egypt, to General Kitchener and Lord Cromer, the British diplomatic agent, respectively, showing Egypt's attitude. He wrote to General Kitchener, warmly thanking him for taking possession of Fashoda and thereby reconquering for Egypt the provinces which assure her existence and from which she only retired provisionally. The regent, in writing to Lord Cromer, protested against "the French violation of Egyptian territory," adding that Egypt had never lost sight of the reoccupation of the provinces of the Soudan, which are the actual sources of the vitality of Egypt and from which she only withdrew owing to greater force. He also said that the reconquest of Khartoum would fail to have its effect if the valley of the Nile was not restored to Egypt. Moustapha Fehey concluded with referring to the Anglo-French discussion on the subject of Fashoda, urging Lord Cromer to use his good offices with the Marquis of Salisbury, "in order that the incontestible rights of Egypt may be recognized, and that all the provinces occupied up to the rebellion of Mohammed Ahmed be restored to her."

Called Him "Tweed's Judge."

New York, Oct. 25.—The executive committee of Tammany hall held an important meeting yesterday, the feature of which was an address by Richard Croker on the bar association of New York city and upon the candidacy of Joseph Daly for a supreme court judgeship. Mr. Croker declared that the speakers at the recent meeting held under the auspices of the Bar association to denounce the failure of the Democracy to renominate Judge Daly were recognized as bitter opponents of the Tammany hall organization. Bourke Cockran, one of the speakers, had left the Democratic party for that party's good. He remarked: "Underneath the surface of all this manufactured clamor lies the fact that this is an attempt by Tweed's lawyers to re-elect Tweed's judge." He then asserted that during the Tweed reign and collapse, Elihu Root was ranged on the side of Tweed. Mr. Croker said: "In the very year in which Tweed elevated Daly to the bench my position was disclosed by Tweed's action legislating myself and my associates out of power." He stated that after Tweed's conviction certain property which Tweed had conveyed to his son was conveyed by the latter to Mr. Root for a nominal consideration.

Famous Killer Dead.

Middleboro, Ky., Oct. 25.—"Wild Bill" Turner, a noted character in the mountains, was shot and killed by William Coombs. He kept a moonshine saloon on the state line between Kentucky and Tennessee, and had made a fortune. He had killed several men. He is the sixth brother killed, and is the last of the family.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

An Italian anarchist was arrested in Alexandria yesterday. He was bound for Palestine.

The body of Michael Purcell of East Providence, 50 years old, was found floating Monday afternoon. He had been ill for some months, and temporary aberration is assigned as the cause of the suicide.

Captain Thomas B. Carter, chief of the secret service bureau for Kentucky, Indiana and Tennessee, was found dead in bed in his room in a Louisville hotel Monday morning. The coroner rendered a verdict of heart disease. Carter was one of the best-known men in the country.

In the Vermont legislature Monday afternoon, bills were introduced to annex a portion of Berlin to Montpelier; to pay back to Brandon $1743.94, collected and returned under a decision that the act by which the money was obtained was unconstitutional; and making Feb. 12 (Union Defenders' day) and Sept. 1 (Labor day) legal holidays.

The case of John Anderson, former cook of the Olive Pecker of Boston, who was convicted of the murder on the high seas of the master and mate of the vessel, was brought again to the United States supreme court yesterday on an appeal from the district court of the eastern district of Virginia. The district court denied the application of Anderson's attorneys for a writ of habeas corpus.

Japan's new cruiser, the Kasagi, was turned over by the Cramps yesterday to the Japanese government, as represented by Commander Kashievabra, and she at once went into commission and ran up the mikado's flag. During the naval review in Philadelphia the Kasagi will fly the stars and stripes, with her own ensign, as a special courtesy to Secretary Long and other officers of our navy.

Will Possess the Philippines.

Lowell, Oct. 25.—Congressman W. S Knox spoke at the Working Men's club last night. He made the statement that America will possess the Philippines, and referred to the great market which has been opened up to American exports as the result of the war. He said that congress is willing to do all it can for the workingman, but that there are limitations upon it.

The speaker believed that immigration should be restricted. He compared the effects of the Wilson and the Dingley bills, and made the claim that Sagasta is anxious to have the Democrats win in the coming elections. In that event the Germans will send their fleet back to Manila and the flag raised by Dewey will be cut down.

Won In the Seventh Round.

Louisville, Oct. 25.—Jim Watts of Louisville and Jim Janey of Baltimore fought for what they consider the colored middleweight championship, and Watts won the battle in the seventh round.

The fighting was fierce, but all in Watts' favor, Janey swinging wildly and being unable to land a single telling blow. Watts jabbed his opponent at will. In the seventh, when Janey was practically out and hanging helplessly on the ropes, his manager rushed into the ring to register a complaint. For this interference the referee awarded the fight to Watts, though Janey was then a beaten man.

Girls who have to stand on their feet most of the time work as hard as any day-laborer yet they do not get what is rightly called exercise. Close, confining, indoor occupation gives no exhiliration to the nervous system nor active circulation to the blood. It wears, tears and drags a woman's life away. The whole physical system grows sluggish and torpid under it.

No wonder so many sales girls and factory girls and housewives suffer from indigestion and constipation and bilious troubles. No wonder they are subject to the diseases of the delicate special organism of their sex. The wonder is rather that they can stand it as well as they do.

But "a poor weak woman," as she is termed, will endure bravely and patiently agonies which a strong man would give way under. The fact is women are more patient than they ought to be under such troubles.

Every woman ought to know that she may obtain the most eminent medical advice free of charge and in absolute confidence and privacy by writing to Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y. Occupying this position for thirty years he has had a wider practical experience in the treatment of women's diseases than any other physician in this country. His medicines are world-famous for their astonishing efficacy.

The most perfect remedy ever devised for weak and delicate women is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. His "Golden Medical Discovery" is the only permanent digestive and nutrient tonic. The two medicines taken alternately, form the most perfect and successful course of treatment ever prescribed for female troubles complicated with a sluggish, overwrought, nervous, diseased constitution. In severe constipation Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets should be occasionally taken with the others. They never gripe.

HAZELTON LEHIGH

And Not Hard White Ash,
Is What You Should Burn.

C. PATCH & SON.

CANCER CURED
BY ABSORPTION
NO KNIFE.

The result of years of scientific research by America's greatest blood specialist. A pleasant treatment that relieves immediately, cures permanently all forms of CANCERS, TUMORS and CHRONIC DISEASES. Hundreds of wonderful cures effected in and around Boston. Read the following:

BLOOD EVIDENCE

Then come to our offices and investigate the hundreds of other marvellous cures produced by ABSORPTION when all other treatment failed. Consult this living patient. "Dr. James M. Solomon: Dear Sir: The following is my testimonial, which I hope will help others. That after suffering several years with something that was never reached, getting only temporary help from different doctors, and each attack being more severe, I was advised by a friend, who had been cured of a tumor, to see her doctor. I was then unable for any work, and feeling worse from day to day; realizing that something was preying upon me of a serious nature, I was discouraged about my condition, and sought Dr. Solomon with little faith—it was more of an experiment. He got my confidence on the first interview, when, without a word of description of my feelings from me, he at once located my trouble, and I could not help believing that he knew from what I was suffering, although was greatly surprised and somewhat terrified when he told me it was cancer of the stomach. I began treatment at once, Nov. 3, 1892, and was faithful to his directions, with just the results promised I would get, till the following June (1893) I felt like a new being, and the doctor pronounced me recovered. I am sure that I have, and I can never repay the gratitude I owe to Dr. J. M. Solomon. Sincerely, EBEN FISH, 232 Harvard St., Dorchester, Mass." Today he is one of the many living witnesses of the only painless method that positively CURES when all others fail.

We want you to call and examine references of people you know—people we all know, who would not vouch for ABSORPTION had they not been cured. Ask for references marked H.

James M. Solomon, M.D.
SPECIALIST IN CANCERS, TUMORS AND CHRONIC DISEASES.
2 A Beacon Street, BOSTON.
Oct. 13. 1y lo

consumption reaps his richest harvest where diseases of the throat and lungs are neglected.

HALE'S HONEY OF HOREHOUND AND TAR

If you have ever tried Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar you know what a safeguard it is against throat and lung troubles. Sold by druggists.

Pike's Toothache Drops cure in one minute.

Quincy and Boston Electric Street Railway.

[Subject to change without notice.]

On and after October 10, cars will be run on the different routes as follows:

Quincy and Neponset.

Leave CITY SQUARE for Neponset at 5.55, 6.10, 6.25, 6.40 A. M. and every 15 minutes until 11.10 P. M.

* Leave NEPONSET for Quincy at 6.15 A. M. and every 15 minutes until 11.30 P. M.

Cars leaving Quincy at 20 minutes of the hour and Neponset on the hour, go via. Hancock street direct.

Cars leaving Quincy at 25 and 55 minutes past the hour go via Newport avenue, Wollaston.

Cars leaving Quincy at 10 minutes past the hour go via Norfolk Downs, and those leaving Neponset at 30 minutes past go via Downs.

Cars leaving Neponset 15 minutes of and 15 minutes past the hour go via Wollaston and continue through Braintree and Holbrook to Brockton, connecting with cars for Bridgewater, Taunton, New Bedford, Fall River, Newport and Providence.

Quincy and East Weymouth.

Leave CITY SQUARE (10 minutes later from Quincy Point and 22 minutes later from North Weymouth)—5.45, 6.20, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20 8.50, 9.20, 9.50, 10.20, 10.50, 11.20, 11.50 A. M.; 12.20, 12.50, 1.20, 1.50, 2.20, 2.50, 3.20, 3.50, 4.20, 4.50, 5.20, (5.30 to East Weymouth car house), 5.50, 6.20, 6.30, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20, 9.50, 10.50 P. M., (11.50 Wednesday and Saturday to Thomas' Corner only.)

Leave EAST WEYMOUTH (20 minutes later from North Weymouth and 30 minutes later from Quincy Point)—6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8, 8.30, 9, 9.30 10, 10.30, 11, 11.30 A. M.; 12, 12.30, 1, 1.30, 2 2.30, 3, 3.30, 4, 4.30, 5, 5.30, 6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8 8.30, 9, 9.30, 10, 10.30, 11.30 P. M.

Quincy and Weymouth Landing.

Leave QUINCY at 5.30 A. M., 6.20, 7.20 and every hour until 12.20, then 1.50 and every hour until 10.50 P. M.

Leave WEYMOUTH LANDING at 5.50 A. M. and every hour until 12.50, then 2.20 and every hour until 11.20 P. M., connect with trains to Boston at Quincy.

Quincy and East Milton.

Leave CITY SQUARE, 5.55, 6.25, then every 5 minutes of and 25 minutes past the hour until 9.25 P. M., then at 10.50 P. M.

Leave EAST MILTON 6.25, 6.55 A. M., then every 5 minutes of and 25 minutes past the hour until 9.50 P. M., then 10.20 and 11.20 P. M.

Quincy and Brockton.

Leave QUINCY for Brockton at 6.10 and 6.40 A. M., and every half hour until 9.10 P. M. except on Wednesday and Saturday, when car at 9.40 runs through to Brockton. Cars at 9.40 and 10.10 to South Braintree every night.

Quincy and Hingham.

Leave QUINCY at 7.20 A. M. and every hour until 11.20 A. M., then 1.50 and every hour until 5.50 P. M.

Leave HINGHAM at 8 A. M. and every hour until 12 M., then 2.30 and every hour until 6.30 P. M.

Neponset, Atlantic and Squantum.

Leave NEPONSET at 6.30 A. M. and every hour until 8.30 P. M., connecting at Atlantic with outward express trains.

Leave SQUANTUM at 7 A. M. and every hour until 9 P. M., connecting at Atlantic with express trains.

Quincy and Houghs Neck.

Leave QUINCY CENTRE at 6.20 A. M., and and every hour until 1.20, and then 1.50 and every hour until 9.50.

Returning, leave HOUGHS NECK at 5.45 A. M., and every hour until 12.45, and then 1.20 and every hour until 9.20.

SUNDAYS.

Cars leave City Square, Quincy, for E. Weymouth and Weymouth Landing at 7.30 A. M. and West Quincy at 7 A. M. and on the hour and half hour throughout the day.

Sunday time same as week days on other lines, except that the first two trips are omitted.

BENJ. J. WEEKS, Superintendent.

New York, New Haven and Hartford R. R.

Eastern District.

On and after Oct. 16, 1898, trains will run as follows: (See note of explanation at bottom.

TO BOSTON. Leave Quincy.	Stops at	Arrive Boston.	FROM BOSTON. Leave Boston.	Stops at	Arrive Quincy
r 6 12	abc	6 30	5 55	ihgfedcba	*6 22 r
r 6 42	abc	7 00	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	7 30	cba	7 49 r
r 7 26	ad	7 43	8 30	cba	8 49 r
r 7 42	abc	8 00	9 30	cba	9 49 r
r 8 12	abc	8 30	10 30	cba	10 49 r
r 8 26	ad	8 43	11 30	cba	11 49 r
r 8 42	abc	9 00	12 30	cba	12 49 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	1 30	cba	1 49 r
r 10 12	abc	10 30	2 30	cba	2 49 r
r 11 12	abc	11 30	3 30	cba	3 49 r
r 12 12	abc	12 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
r 1 12	abc	1 30	5 00	cba	5 19 r
r 2 12	abc	2 30	5 17	da	5 36 r
r 3 12	abc	3 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
r 4 12	abc	4 30	6 00	cba	6 19 r
r 5 12	abc	5 30	6 17	da	6 36 r
r 6 12	abc	6 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	7 00	cba	7 19 r
r 7 39	abcdefghi	8 05	7 30	cba	7 49 r
r 8 08	abcdef	8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	9 30	cba	9 49 r
r 10 08	abcdef	10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r
r 11 12	abc	11 30	11 30	cba	11 49 r

SUNDAYS.

r 7 12	abc	7 30	6 30	cba	6 r
r 8 12	abc	8 30	8 30	cba	8 49 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	12 30	cba	12 49 r
r 1 12	abc	1 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
r 5 12	abc	5 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 8 08	abcdef	8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
r 10 08	abcdef	10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r

*The letters in the same line as the figures stand for different stations and indicate that trains stop, as follows:

a, Wollaston, b, Norfolk Downs. c, Atlantic. d, Neponset. e, Pope's Hill, f, Harrison Square. g, Savin Hill. h, Crescent Avenue. i, South Boston. r, Quincy Adams. (xx), Express.

C PETER CLARK, Gen'l Supt. A. C. KENDALL G. P. A

...mption

...richest ...est ...e dis- ...of ...hroat ...lungs ...neglected.

HALE'S HONEY OF HOREHOUND AND TAR

...ave ever tried Hale's Honey of ...d and Tar you know what a ...d it is against throat and lung ... Sold by druggists.

...othache Drops cure in one minute.

...ncy and Boston ...ic Street Railway.

...ect to change without notice.]

... after October 10, cars will be ...ifferent routes as follows:

...uincy and Neponset.

...TY SQUARE for Neponset at 5.55, ...40 A. M. and every 15 minutes until ...

...EPONSET for Quincy at 6.15 A. M. ...5 minutes until 11.30 P. M.

...ing Quincy at 20 minutes of the hour ...set on the hour, go via. Hancock ...t.

...ing Quincy at 25 and 55 minutes past ...o via Newport avenue, Wollaston.

...ving Quincy at 10 minutes past the ... Norfolk Downs, and those leaving ...30 minutes past go via Downs.

...ing Neponset 15 minutes of and 15 ...st the hour go via Wollaston and ...rough Braintree and Holbrook to ...onnecting with cars for Bridge- ...uton, New Bedford, Fall River, ...d Providence.

...cy and East Weymouth.

...TY SQUARE (10 minutes later from ...nt and 22 minutes later from North ...—5.45, 6.20, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, ...50, 10.20, 10.50, 11.20, 11.50 A. M.; ...1.20, 1.50, 2.20, 2.50, 3.20, 3.50, 4.20, ...5.30 to East Weymouth car house), ...3.30, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20, ...P. M., (11.50 Wednesday and Saturday ...Corner only.)

...AST WEYMOUTH (20 minutes later ...Weymouth and 30 minutes later from ...nt)—6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8, 8.30, 9, 9.30 ...1, 11.30 A. M.; 12, 12.30, 1, 1.30, 2, ...4, 4.30, 5, 5.30, 6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8 ...10, 10.30, 11.30 P. M.

...and Weymouth Landing.

...UINCY at 5.30 A. M., 6.20, 7.20 and ...until 12.20, then 1.50 and every hour ...P. M.

...WEYMOUTH LANDING at 5.50 ...very hour until 12.50, then 2.20 and ... until 11.20 P. M., connect with ...ston at Quincy.

...incy and East Milton.

...TY SQUARE, 5.55, 6.25, then every ...and 25 minutes past the hour until ...hen at 10.50 P. M.

...AST MILTON 6.25, 6.55 A. M., then ...utes of and 25 minutes past the hour ...M., then 10.20 and 11.20 P. M.

...uincy and Brockton.

...UINCY for Brockton at 6.10 and ...and every half hour until 9.10 P. M. ...Wednesday and Saturday, when car ...s through to Brockton. Cars at 9.40 ...o South Braintree every night.

...uincy and Hingham.

...UINCY at 7.20 A. M. and every hour ...A. M., then 1.50 and every hour until ...

...INGHAM at 8 A. M. and every hour ..., then 2.30 and every hour until ...

...et, Atlantic and Squantum.

...EPONSET at 6.30 A. M. and every ...8.30 P. M., connecting at Atlantic ...rd express trains.

...QUANTUM at 7 A. M. and every ...9 P. M., connecting at Atlantic with ...ins.

...incy and Houghs Neck.

...UINCY CENTRE at 6.20 A. M., and ...hour until 1.20, and then 1.50 and ...until 9.50.

...g, leave HOUGHS NECK at 5.45 ...very hour until 12.45, and then 1.20 ...hour until 9.20.

SUNDAYS.

...ve City Square, Quincy, for E. Wey- ...Weymouth Landing at 7.30 A. M. ...Quincy at 7 A. M. and on the hour ...ur throughout the day.

...ime same as week days on other lines, ...the first two trips are omitted.

...NJ. J. WEEKS, Superintendent.

...York, New Haven Hartford R. R.

...stern District.

...after Oct. 16, 1898, trains will run ...(See note of explanation at bottom.

...STON.	FROM BOSTON.
...ys Arrive ...t Boston.	Leave Boston.	Stops at	Arrive Quincy
... 6 30	5 55	ihgfedcba	*6 22 r
7 00	6 30	cba	6 49 r
7 30	7 30	cba	7 49 r
7 43	8 30	cba	8 49 r
8 00	9 30	cba	9 49 r
8 30	10 30	cba	10 49 r
8 43	11 30	cba	11 49 r
9 00	12 30	cba	12 49 r
9 30	1 30	cba	1 49 r
10 30	2 30	cba	2 49 r
11 30	3 30	cba	3 49 r
12 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
1 30	5 00	cba	5 19 r
2 30	5 17	da	5 36 r
3 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
4 30	6 00	cba	6 19 r
5 30	6 17	da	6 36 r
6 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
7 30	7 00	cba	7 19 r
...defghi 8 05	7 30	cba	7 49 r
...dcf 8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
9 30	9 30	cba	9 49 r
...dcf 10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r
11 30	11 30	cba	11 49 r
SUNDAYS.
... 7 30	6 30	cba	6 1
... 8 30	8 30	cba	8 49 r
... 9 30	12 30	cba	12 49 r
... 1 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
... 5 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
7 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
...dcf 8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
...dcf 10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 55 r

...ters in the same line as the figures ...different stations and indicate that ...as follows:

...on, g, Savin Hill.
... Downs. h, Crescent Avenue.
... i, South Boston.
...et.
...Hill, r, Quincy Adams.
... Square. (xx), Express.

...S. CLARK, ... Supt. A. C. KENDALL G. P. A

QUINCY DAILY LEDGER.

VOL. 10. No. 250. QUINCY, MASS., WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 26, 1898. PRICE 2 CENTS.

The best fitting and finest wearing Boys' Shoes ever produced for the price. Try a pair and be convinced.

11 to 2 at $1.25.
2 1-2 to 5 1-2 at $1.50.

GEO. W. JONES,
Adams Building, Quincy.

ONE-TON ORDERS

Have been the making of this Coal business. Hundreds have ordered "just one ton to see if there was any difference." They found there was and they came again. Our one-ton orders have been our best advertisements. It's a better Coal at the same price, with the proof in a sample ton. When in doubt, try Patch's.

C. PATCH & SON.

NOTHING BETTER,
UNCLE SAM'S NAVY

Now commands the respect of the world, and we are all proud of the defenders of the Nation's Honor To give the people of Quincy a good idea of the grand battleships, we have ordered a large supply of portfolios, giving magnificent views of the ships, crews, etc.

With each purchase made at our store we will give a portfolio check to the value of the purchase. When you have $4.00 worth of these checks, return them and get a portfolio. Continue in this way until you have the set complete. Call and see these magnificent portfolios.

ROGERS BROS.,
Groceries and Provisions. Adams Building, Quincy.

ALBERT J. BOWERS
OPTICIAN
ADAMS BUILDING
OVER POST OFFICE
QUINCY MASS.

This is Lehigh Coal,

And We Have it for Sale.

C. PATCH & SON.

TELEGRAPHIC.

3 O'CLOCK.

DAYS OF BOULANGISM.

Turmoil In France Given an Impetus by a Crisis.

Minister of War Bolted, and His Colleagues Followed.

Stormy Scenes During the Meeting of Deputies.

Upholders of the Strong Arm Dominated the Assembly.

Violent Collision Between Royalists and Republicans

Paris, Oct. 26.—The days of Boulangism are returning without a Floquet to draw the sword against a factious general, and without a Constant to make him cross the frontier.

The cabinet has been overturned on a mere pretext, because bands of people, collected by those defying authority while pretending to defend it, have fomented agitation and almost terror. In one street the rioters tried to overturn a carriage containing three Americans, amid cries of "Down with the Jews." Evidently the taste for street demonstrations is reviving, and perhaps on Thursday, when the court of cassation will meet, there will be a renewal of the uproar.

General Chanoine is the fifth minister of war who has declared himself absolutely convinced of the guilt of Dreyfus, and the third who has resigned on that account. His total inexplicable and unexpected action in surrendering his portfolio Tuesday was the chief sensation in a day of sensational events. He dealt a veritable coup to the cabinet and precipitated a new struggle between the military and civil authorities. Yesterday was the first time that Chanoine ever sat on the ministerial bench, and his colleagues, knowing that he was unaccustomed to the tricks of oratorical effects, tried vainly to prevent him from ascending the tribune. He spoke briefly, with painful incoherence, and then literally bolted from the chamber.

The scenes that followed were almost indescribable. When Premier Brisson appeared in the tribune he was greeted with insults and imprecations from all sides, but he stood his ground calmly.

After attempts upon the part of various deputies to discuss the alleged military plot, the insults to the army, etc., their remarks being punctuated wih interruptions and cheers, Mr. Ribot, in behalf of his friends, including Mr. Meline, approved Mr. Brisson's statement, and added: "We have every confidence in the army and do not wish to see it attacked. All republicans are united on this subject."

Mr. DeMahy then proposed a resolution calling upon the government to "end the campaign of insult against the army," but Mr. Brisson refused to accept it.

Mr. Cavaignac, the former minister of war, rushed to the tribune and demanded an immediate discussion of the resolution. He was greeted with hostile shouts, including "sabre," "forgery," "razor," which caused a great uproar. The shouting of 'razor" was probably an allusion to the suicide of Lieutenant Colonel Henry, who is said to have cut his throat in his prison cell at the fortress of Mount Valerien after confessing to having forged one of the Dreyfus documents, though it has since been claimed that the razor with which the deed was committed was not found in the cell of the deceased.

Mr. Brisson accepted the order of the day, proposed by Mr. Ribot, affirming the supremacy of the civil over the military power, which was adopted by a vote of 259 ayes to 2 noes.

An amendment censuring the government "for not causing the honor of the army to be respected" was lost by 274 to 261 votes.

DeMahy renewed his resolution and a vote was taken on it amid such confusion that scrutiny was demanded. Later this showed that the government was defeated by a vote of 296 to 243.

After the result of the scrutiny had been announced, a vote of confidence in Brisson was asked for, but this was refused by 286 votes to 254. When this vote was declared the ministers left the chamber.

After the ministers had withdrawn the chamber adopted, amid cries of "Down with the Jews," the order of the day, combining the motions of Mr. Ribot and Mr. De Mahy, by a vote of 460 to 28.

A fresh tumult was aroused by the declaration of a deputy that all the ministers except General Chanoine ought to be impeached. The chamber adjourned to Nov. 4.

It is the general impression among deputies that President Faure will ask Alexander Ribot to form a cabinet.

After the adjournment there was great excitement, followed by street demonstrations, principally maintained by the anti-Semites, in the vicinity of the offices of the anti-Dreyfus papers. At many points the boulevards soon became almost impassable, and there were numerous collisions between the demonstrators and the police, who had been fasting since early morning. Only with the utmost difficulty was a semblance of order preserved, and in many cases it was necessary for the cuirassiers to clear the streets.

About midnight a mob of members of the Patriotic league smashed the windows and glass staircase of a shop whose owner is said to be a Jew.

The vigilance committee of the socialist party has issued a manifesto condemning the action of General Chanoine and denouncing the "make believe Republicans who have strangled debate in the chamber and created a crisis." The committee has decided to organize all the socialists and revolutionary Republican forces in the country against "military and clerical reaction."

About 10 o'clock a band of youthful royalists formed in front of the Military club and, after cheering for the army, marched, preceded by the tri-color, towards the newspaper offices of The Soleil and The Gaulois, singing "We need 'Gamelle;' we must have 'Gamelle.'" "Gamelle" is a nickname of the Duke of Orleans, and the reference was to the story that the duke, when entering the army, expressed the desire to eat from the gamelle, or soup bowl of a private. On arriving at the boulevard this demonstration, which had grown to several thousands, met a Republican demonstration. A violent collision took place, and the Republicans captured the royalists' flag, which increased the tumult.

Altogether some 250 arrests have been made. Nothing now is heard about Fashoda; but it is regarded as extremely probable that the cabinet crisis will be utilized to put Mr. Hanotaux back in the foreign office. Mr. Maline is also mentioned as a possible premier to succeed the retiring Brisson, who had succeeded him.

☞ Powerful oil heaters. Will heat your room in a twinkling. $3.98. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

Royal makes the food pure, wholesome and delicious.

ROYAL
ROYAL BAKING POWDER
BAKING POWDER
Absolutely Pure

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

LAND VALUES

A Transcript From the Books of the Assessors.

Number of Feet in Each Lot and Valuation Thereof.

Also the Amount of Each Person's Tax Bill for 1898.

[Continued from yesterday.]

Something new in the publication of the taxpayers of the city is attempted this year by the Daily Ledger. There is considerable interest in the assessed value of land in the city, which is claimed to be high in some cases and low in others. So the Ledger has supplemented the amount of the tax bill in each ward with the value of each lot of land for which the person is taxed, giving in each case the number of square feet or acreage.

The amount given in the line with the person's name is his total ward tax, and may include houses, personal property, etc., in addition to the lots of land below. The Ledger gives only the valuation of the land.

To obtain a person's total tax in the city, add together the amounts paid in the several wards.

The Ledger commenced the publication Aug. 30, and has already published the land values of all persons whose names begin with A to N, and today's instalment gives the O's:

WARD ONE.

Valuation of Land Only.	Total Ward Tax.
Packard, Abner B.	$1454 60
69,530 feet, Hancock, street, $41,000.
15,453, Chestnut, $4,500.
Packard, Elisha	121 70
26,651, Elm, $3,200.
Packard, Frank C.	147 80
14,800, Miller ave., $1,400.
8,544, Bigelow, $1,000.
Page, John	113 40
12,305, Foster, $3,300.
Parker, Charles A.	52 40
6,260, Whitwell, $650.
5,053, off Whitwell, $400.
Parker, Eliza S.	21 60
8,371, Dixwell ave., $1,200.
Parker, Warren S.	121 70
21,130, Hancock Court, $3,200.
Parker, Alice E.	169 20
28,261, Putnam, $2,800.
Parker, William, est.,	96 30
15,430, Hancock Court, $2,500.
Patch, Frank S.	17 10
2 1-2 acres, salt marsh, $150.
2 " Brackett, $800.
Pattee, William G. A.	508 70
18,950, School, $6,000.
6.4 acres, quarry land, $7,000.
12,160 feet, Irving place, $2,100.
Paterson, George S.	537 50
28,650, Canal, $2,000.
9,591, Newcomb, $700.
8 acres, quarry land, $7,000.

WARD TWO.

Packard, Abner B.	$93 60
3.39 acres, Washington, $4,200.
Packard, Johanna	32 40
5,130, Edwards, $500.
Page, Eugene C.	36 20
6,000, Madison ave., $300.
Page, John	99 20
16,435, Washington, $1,800.
Parker, William 2d.	25 20
20,140, Washington, $1,400.
Parker, Willard A.	43 20
6,450, Edison, $400.
Patch, Cyrus, est.,	231 75
28,300, off Wharf, $8,000.
24,450 " Washington, $1,000.
Patch, Frank S.	279 65
9,200, Washington, $800.

WARD THREE.

Park, George W.	$59 60
5 acres, Franklin street, $2,000.
Park, Mrs. Elsie	59 40
10,374 feet, Trafford, $500.
Parker, James, heirs,	35 10
7,623, Water, $550.
Parker, Warren S.	36 00
3,740, Park road, $200.
7,203, Madison ave., $300.
Parker, William, est.,	70 20
12,060, Gay, $1,200.
Parker, William 2d.,	74 00
12,865, Quincy ave., $1,200.
Parmer, Mary E.	$41 40
5,000, Trafford, $300.
Parmenter, Macy	97 20
12,870, Gay, $1,000.
Patch, Frank S.	172 80
34,416, Penn, $2,500.
3 acres, ice pond, $600.
Patterson, Walter J. and George J.	39 60
6,200, Summer, $800.
Patterson, W. H.	28 10
6,000, Liberty, $350.

WARD FOUR.

Paradise, Mary	$27 00
6,942 feet, off Common street, $350.
Paradise, John	18 45
3,300, off Quarry, $175.
Pattee, William G. A.	10 80
39,700, Quarry, $100.
12,000, Station, $400.
Patterson, James	7 20
9,425, Town Hill, $200.
1-8 acre, Copeland, $200.
Patterson, Mathew, est.,	27 90
15,100, Centre, $800.
Patriarch, Clements	43 85
5,063, Willard, $300.

Continued on page 3.

Gentlemen, Buy Your....

OVERCOATS

Where you can find the best assortment in the city and the lowest prices, which is at

C. F. DERBY'S, SAVINGS BANK BUILDING, QUINCY. 5-1m

EMBROIDERY LESSONS.

We have engaged the same teacher for our Embroidery Classes this season that was so successful last year. Classes start TUESDAY MORNING.

Also the Finest Line of LINENS of All Designs to be gotten in the Market.

Our Line of Embroidery Silks is Complete in Every Detail.

WE CARRY IN STOCK A NEW LINE OF

OPULESCENT AND RAINBOW EDGE SILKS.

Sofa Cushions in a Large Variety.

D. E. WADSWORTH & CO.,
Hancock Street, Quincy.

Has Come to an End.

Washington, Oct. 26.—After a session of three weeks, the Episcopal triennial council of 1898 has come to an end. Probably never before at one convention has the council transacted more business than at this meeting, or so much of vital importance to the church. The work accomplished includes a complete revision of a number of amendments, most of them of a minor character, to the canons. The new constitution will have to be ratified by the convention three years hence before it becomes operative.

A matter which has received the earnest attention of the council has been the question of church unity, upon which an amendment to the constitution was adopted. A readjustment has been made of the boundary lines of the missionary districts in the western and northwestern part of the United States, a new diocese in Indiana has been created, six missionary bishops have been elected, one for the church in Brazil, and there were discussions bearing on the extension of the church work in Cuba, Porto Rico and the Philippines. The failure of the new canon on marriage and divorce caused considerable surprise, but this has been left to a committee of 13 members to prepare a report to be made public nine months before the next convention.

In Hands of Receivers.

New York, Oct. 26.—The John Stephenson company, the well known car building corporation of this city, has gone into receivers' hands. The liabilities, including all the mortgage indebtedness on real estate, is placed approximately at $700,000. Attorneys for the company say the assets will probably equal the liabilities, but this is only conjectural.

The firm's failure is said to be due to the enormous outlay on the plant just completed in Bayway, N. J., making it difficult to meet certain liabilities. The plant in New Jersey is a model one, and no money was spared in making it such. The company's attorneys say that its embarrassment is only temporary, and they look for a speedy resumption of operations on a firm financial basis.

The business was established about 27 years ago by John Stephenson, who continued as owner up to three years ago, when it was made a corporation. Stephenson died two years ago. There will probably be a reorganization of the company prior to resuming operations.

A Remarkable Robbery.

Paris, Oct. 26.—The arrest of a young man named Jeanoff at the Lyons railway station has made public the story of a remarkable robbery. A telegram was received by the Paris police from Monte Carlo, saying that Polutsoff, one of the secretaries of state in the Russian empire, had been robbed at a hotel of $12,500 and a quantity of jewels. There was a furious struggle between the two men, and the thief escaped after the Russian had bitten him on the thumb.

When Jeanoff was arrested his hand was gloved. It was found upon examination that one of his thumbs was terribly lacerated, and on this evidence he was held. He had papers in the name of Lieutenant Guerko, of the Russian navy; $8500 in money and some of the stolen jewels in his posession.

Gambling In Denver.

Denver, Oct. 26.—The Denver fire and police board and the chief of police have been served with an injunction from the district court forbidding any interference with the Iroquois club, which conducts a gambling house. The board has asked the city attorney for an opinion as to the legality of the ordinance under which such institutions have hitherto been repeatedly raided until they were compelled to close. Should the board disregard the injunction, its members will be liable for punishment for contempt of court; should the board decide to obey the injunction other gambling houses and poolrooms will be opened.

☞ We sell Glenwood Ranges because they are the best ranges money can buy. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

WHAT DO THE CHILDREN DRINK?

Don't give them tea or coffee. Have you tried the new food drink called GRAIN-O? It is delicious and nourishing and takes the place of coffee. The more Grain-O you give the children the more health you distribute through their systems. Grain-O is made of pure grains, and when properly prepared tastes like the choice grades of coffee but costs about 1-4 as much. All grocers sell it. 15c. and 25c.

DR. RALPH M. FOGG,
DENTIST.

Teeth extracted absolutely without pain by the use of the

"BOSTON VEGETABLE VAPOR."

It is claimed that, while it has the required properties of ether, chloroform, nitrous oxide gas, it lacks the disagreeable and dangerous qualities of these drugs. It is certainly a boon to suffering humanity to be relieved of the nausea too often following the administering of sedatives of the old school.—Boston Transcript.

Teeth made and repaired on Gold or Rubber base. Teeth Filling a specialty.

Office in French's Building, five doors south of Post Office, Quincy, Wednesdays. Hours, 9 A. M. to 2 P. M. July18-ly Nov8-1yo

TELL US . .

What you are looking for.

We can show you a fine line of

FALL AND WINTER
UNDERWEAR,
HOSIERY,
Outing Flannels, Flannelettes,
Plaid Dress Goods,
WRAPPERS, BLANKETS,
Comforters,
Dress Linings and other Dry Goods.

OUR STOCK IS FRESH.
OUR PRICES THE LOWEST.

MISS C. S. HUBBARD,
158 Hancock Street.

POTATOES,
15c. Pk.

Sweet Potatoes,
15c. Pk.

White Seal Flour,
4.75 Bbl. Cash.

We guarantee this Flour to be old wheat and one of the best Bread Flours in the market.

L. M. PRATT & CO.,
25 School Street.

E. S. BECKFORD,
Electrician.

Wiring and Fitting for Incandescent, Motors, Dynamos, Bells, etc.

GRANITE STREET, Near the Bridge, QUINCY

Feb. 1 1y

HOW TO MAKE MONEY.

Take a silver dollar and drop it on a jeweler's show case and you'll get a ring. Take a quarter and saw it in two in the middle and get two halves. Take a two-dollar bill and fold it once and you double it—and you can keep on monkeying with money and make imaginary capital for an hour. But if you want to get a new wrinkle in money, just take a new ten dollar bill and fold it corner-ways and you'll get a new wrinkle every time. But don't fool with your money and don't let anybody else fool with it. Don't let anybody fool you with the idea that they'll give you a $10 bill with every $2 suit or overcoat.

The new store has earned a reputation for selling straight goods at straight prices. We don't monkey with your money, or flim flam you with any imaginary values. We give you good goods, charge a fair-profit price for everything you buy and expect you to come back the second time because you were used right the first.

We can sell a good Overcoat for $5.00 and an all wool one for $6.50. But for $7.50 we can show you a dandy all wool Kersey, made with raw edge and lap seams and lined with good lasting linings. The same coat our competitors (in Boston) get $10 for.

Our $10 coat we have in Blacks, Blues, Olives and Browns. Then we have them for $11, $12, $13, $13.50, $15, $15.50 and upwards to $19, in all the different style goods worn this season.

For this week and next too, if they are not all gone, we will sell all wool Dickey Pants at $1.48. All the other stores get $2.00.

QUINCY CLOTHING CO.,
LOWEST PRICED CLOTHIERS IM NORFOLK COUNTY.
MUSIC HALL BLOCK.

MUSIC HALL, - QUINCY,

Friday Even'g, Oct. 28,

At 8 o'clock.

GRAND TENTH DISTRICT

REPUBLICAN RALLY.

The Tenth District Congressional Committee have secured the following eminent and able speakers to address the people of Quincy upon the political issues of the day:

ROGER WOLCOTT,
Governor of Massachusetts.

SAMUEL W. McCALL,
Congressman Eighth District.

COL. ALBERT CLARKE,
Sec'y Home Market Club.

SAMUEL J. BARROWS,
Our Candidate for Congress.

HON. RUSSELL A. SEARS, Mayor of Quincy, will preside, and there will be music by the Quincy Band. The balcony will be reserved for ladies, and they are cordially invited to attend.

THOMAS C. BACHELDER,
Chairman.

STEPHEN W. MARSHALL,
Secretary.

Oct. 22.—6t

By FRANK F. CRANE, - Auctioneer.
Office, 4 Chestnut St., Quincy.

Large Auction Sale
OF THE
GRANITE WORKS and QUARRY TOOLS
OF
PETER CARLSON & CO.,
Quarry Street, Opposite Fallon's Quarry,
THURSDAY, OCT. 27, 1898,
At 1.30 P. M.,

Consisting of Engine House, Tool Shed, 30 horse power, double cylinder and double drum Engine built to order by Rawson & Morrison of Cambridgeport, 2 years old, This engine was made especially to order for the granite business, is extra heavy and strong, and is first-class in every respect, the boiler has 120 tubes, makes steam quickly, and is very economical with coal. New Steam Drill, built by Ingersoll & Sargent; Steam Pump, 3 inch suction, 2 1-2 discharge; one Large Derrick, good for twenty tons; one medium sized Derrick, good for 8 or 9 tons; 2 Dump Cars and about 225 feet of rails for the same, about 1,000 feet of Steam Piping from 1-2 inch to 3 inches in diameter; large lot of Chains, Dogs, Bars, Steam Drills, Blast Drills, Plug Drills, Blocks, Sheaves, Wire Rope, New Tackle and Falls of 400 feet crucible steel 5-8 rope, 1 new Tackle and Fall of 550 feet of crucible steel 5-8 rope, and various other articles too numerous to mention.

Sale positive, rain or shine. Terms cash.
Oct. 19. 7t

ORGAN RECITAL,

CHRIST CHURCH, - - QUINCY,

Thursday Evening, Oct. 27,

At 7.45 o'clock.

Mr. S. B. Whitney, organist of the Church of the Advent, Boston, will give an organ recital, assisted by Mrs. J. E. Tiffett, soprano of the Old South church, Boston.

The talent is of the very highest and this promises to be one of the finest musical evenings ever given in Quincy.

Admission to the church will be by ticket and each ticket holder is asked to contribute to the offering which will be taken.

Tickets may be obtained at the Church after the services Sunday, or by writing to the Rector for them.

Oct. 22. 5t

Hazelton Lehigh

FURNACE COAL

Give C. PATCH & SON

A Trial Order.

LADIES' and CHILDREN'S
Hair Dressing and Cutting.
ALL KINDS OF HAIR WORK.
WIGS, SWITCHES, FRIZZES.
Sixteen Years' Experience.

MRS. I. F. DOW,
Room 10, Hotel Greenleaf.
Quincy, Oct. 22. 6t

THE FALL SEASON
IS HERE
For the Purchase of

Fruit and Ornamental Trees,

Shrubs and Vines.

Buy now that your plants may get a good start by spring.

Remember that I carry all the desirable novelties, as well as the old standard varieties of nursery stock.

I call special attention to my Flowering Shrubs, Perpetual Roses, Clematis, and Rhododendrons.

Buy at home and save agents' commissions. None but strictly first-class stock, well acclimated, furnished. Call and examine.

Orders by mail receive prompt attention.

Wollaston Park Nursery,
Fenno St., Wollaston.
MARTIN PFAFFMANN, Prop.
P. O. Box 44, Wollaston. Residence, 2 Clay St.
Oct. 14—1m p-3w

Quincy Daily Ledger

ESTABLISHED IN 1889.

The ONLY DAILY in Norfolk County Massachusetts.

Published Every Evening, Sundays and Holidays Excepted, At No. 115 HANCOCK ST., City of Quincy, Mass., by

GEORGE W. PRESCOTT & SON.

Successors to Green & Prescott.

Subscription Price, $6.00 per year.

☞ A discount of $1 when paid in advance.

ALSO PUBLISHERS OF

The Quincy Patriot,

A Weekly Established in 1837, which has the Largest Circulation in Norfolk County, and

The Braintree Observer,

A Weekly Established in 1878.

TELEPHONE, 78-3 QUINCY.

Quincy Temperature at Noon.

	This Week.	Last Week.	In 1897.	In 1896.
Sunday	59	50	51	52
Monday	60	48	49	62
Tuesday	68	50	58	50
Wednesday	69	54	56	51
Thursday	—	61	55	58
Friday	—	56	59	50
Saturday	—	70	58	55

New Advertisements Today.

F. J. Pierson—Gents' Furnishings.
To Let—Rooms.

Jumbo Disabled.

One of the most dastardly acts was that of the party who attempted to ruin the steam roller, owned by the city. The roller was in use at West Quincy last week and Friday night was rolled into the yard near Hose 3 house, and left for the night. During the night some party as yet unknown entered the yard and filled some of the oil cups with chilled iron. Saturday morning when the engineer started up his machine the chilled iron worked down into the bearings. The result was that before it was discovered the bearings were ground and cut to pieces. Not only will new bearings have to be put in but the machine will be out of commission for some days, and just at the time when there is a large amount of work for it to do. If the parties who did the deed are apprehended it is safe to say that it will go hard with them.

Death of Mr. Morrison.

Mr. Ibrahim Morrison of Braintree died at his home at 9 o'clock last night after a long and painful illness. He was born in Braintree where he has always lived, and upon the retirement of his father, Mr. Alva Morrison, he became a partner in the firm of A. S. Morrison and Brothers.

He held no public office but took a living interest in town affairs. He was quiet and unassuming in manner, charitable, and a lover of home. He was an active member of Monatiquot lodge, K. of P., and in religious belief a Unitarian.

He married Miss Mary Rodgers of Quincy who survives him.

The funeral will take place on Friday at 2 o'clock from the residence on Middle street, Rev. E. C. Butler of this city will officiate.

Evening School.

Evening schools for the study of English branches opened Monday evening at the Adams and Willard buildings, the attendance at the former being 100, and at the latter 61. The evening school for mechanical drawing also opened Monday evening at the old High school building and that for free-hand drawing opened Tuesday evening. The corps of teachers for the evening schools are as follows: Adams—J. M. Nowland, Miss Minnie E. Donovan, Miss Margaret E. Haley. Willard—Austin W. Greene, Miss Frances C. Sullivan, Miss Nellie C. Gragg. Drawing—Charles C. Bryant.

Academy Sports.

Saturday will be observed as Founders day at the Adams academy and there will be the usual athletic sports. The list will include 75-yards dash, potato race, running broad jump, 220-yards dash, barrel roll, putting the shot, foot ball kick, three legged race, quarter-mile run for the challenge cup, hammer throw, 75-yards hurdle race, a relay race, running high jump, tug of war and foot ball game.

Season With Japan.

The Pickwick club the oldest literary society of the city will begin its 26th season this week, Japan will be the country this year, and its geography, history, government, literature, religions, art, manners, wars, position, etc., will be considered on successive evenings. There will, however, be interspersed a Dickens' night, the annual dinner, a musicale, and also a dramatic night, and topics of a lighter vein. Mr. John O. Hall, Jr., is the president this year.

☞ Hundreds of handsome lamps, all the newest creations, from 25 cents to $10.00. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

THE SEWER STATION.

A Model Pumping Plant All Built —Delay at Squantum.

The pumping station of the Quincy sewerage system, which is practically completed, is a model plant in every way. As perhaps everybody knows, it is situated on the north side of Merrymount park, and is built of brick.

The building is at present divided into three rooms that on the westerly end being the pump room where is located the powerful Deane pumps, that are to draw the sewerage from the well under the station and force it through a twelve inch pipe to the outlet at Squantum. These pumps are in working order but when ready for use the exposed parts will be painted and polished so that they will present an attractive appearance.

Directly in the rear of the pump room, or the east end of the building, is the boiler room in which are two large boilers which will generate the steam for the pumps. There is also considerable additional space in this room which can be utilized as a work shop, or if in the future the needs of the plant require, additional boilers can be put in.

On the south side of the building is the coal room and entrance to the well beneath the station. This coal room is also a large room and some of the surplus space will doubtless be used for a store room or other purposes.

Just how long it will be before the machinery gets down to actual work is a matter of doubt, the delay being at Squantum where the connections with the Metropolitan sewer is being made.

The delay here is, however, not due to Quincy but to the Metropolitan people, who do part of the work, and they are not rushing things along quite as fast as desired.

TRUANTS AT HIGH.

They Are Likely to be Expelled From School.

Messrs. Breed and Record were the only absent members at Tuesday night's meeting of the School Committee.

The Superintendent reported that Miss Miriam Lane of the High school, and Miss Jessie A. Eddy of the Quincy school, had resigned to go to Newton at an increase in salary.

The committee on bounds of the John Hancock, Willard and Coddington schools at the junction of Adams and Whitwell street reported no legislation necessary.

Miss Johnson of the Home Science Association requested and was granted permission to use a room at the Gridley Bryant and John Hancock buildings in November for a mothers' meeting.

The High School Alumni Association was granted the use of a small room at the High school for its annual meeting, Nov 14.

The Superintendent reported that there had been several cases of truancy at the High school and to remedy this evil the following vote was passed:

Whenver a pupil of the High school is proved guilty of truancy the parents shall be notified at once in writing and the pupil shall be placed on special probation. The parents shall also be notified that a second case of truancy will make it necessary for the parent to withdraw the pupil from the school.

The following were adopted as text books for the High school: Moulton's preparatory Latin composition, Higley's Greek composition, and Woodruff's Greek composition.

The chairman was authorized to appoint a committtee to write the annual report of the board.

The financial statement of the Superintendent of Schools, from January 1, to October 24, inclusive, was as follows:

	Appropriation.	Expended.	Balance.
Salaries,	$73,646	$51,405.70	$22,240.30
Fuel,	5,400	800.80	4,599.20
Janitors,	6,154	4,627.39	1,526.61
Transportation,	1,000	618.45	381.55
Books, Sup., etc.,	7,550	6,698.19	851.81
Evening Schools,	1,250	494.03	755.97
	$95,000	$64,644.56	$30,355.44

Badly Used Up.

Word was received by the police Tuesday night that a team supposed to belong to Stephen Gurney of Quincy had been found by the Boston police. This morning another message was received from police headquarters, Boston, that Gurney was at the Emergency Hospital, and that he was found Tuesday night in Fort Hill square with his arm broken, his jaw broken and a bad scalp wound.

No particulars were received as to how the accident, if accident it was, happened. Gurney runs an express route from Quincy, and has a brother who works at the Boston Branch store who has gone to Boston to bring home the team and learn particulars.

In Sweden there are floating canneries. They are small vessels, which follow fishing fleets, and men on them can the fish while they are fresh.

NOT SEEKING OFFICE.

The "Ex's" of Past City Governments Defended.

Editors of the Quincy Daily Ledger:

I notice in your paper of Monday under the head of "Political notes and comments of local interest" a paragraph concerning the men who had served the city during the last administration, which paragraph was quite uncalled for, to say nothing of its being extremely impertinent and altogether insulting.

The paragraph in question, after stating that Quincy politics were quite dead at present, although the signs pointed to something different later, went on to say, "There are many Ex's who hope to be taken in out of the cold again and others who imagine that their feelings have been injured in some way. It is rather remarkable when one looks over the list of officials who went out of office last February to see how few have done any business since that time, except possibly to prepare bombs and mines which they hope to explode and work havoc in the party now in power."

I presume that this article was intended to convey the impression to strangers or new comers that the men who served the city last year were loafers or political hangers on, dependent on office for an occupation or a livelihood. The gentlemen in question are now in private life. There is not any one of them so far as I know, now up for public office, and there is not the slightest excuse in any event to refer to their success or non-success so far as their business is concerned.

It may be that the Ledger reporter has been so assiduously minding business not his own that he can determine the extent of the private business of these citizens quietly residing in this community, but so far as one can properly determine by observation the occupation or business of another, it would appear that ex-Mayor Adam is now busily engaged in performing his duties as treasurer of Harvard University; that ex-Chief Williams is still building houses; that ex-Tax Collector Brasee is still engaged in the dry goods business in the centre; that ex-Chief of Police Hayden is very much engaged in building roads and acting as agent and manager for a large holder of Quincy real estate; that Mr. Ford is also engaged soliciting for a granite firm, and I take great pleasure in assuring the Ledger that it need not concern itself about my business affairs; that I am still located in Boston and Quincy in the practice of law. I believe this accounts for all of the ex-departments officials of the late administration with the exception of Mr. Keith. I know not what occupation, if any, Mr. Keith is now engaged in, but in all events he probably is quite able to take care of himself.

Paul R. Blackmur,
"Ex-City Solicitor."

It is magnanimous of our friend, Mr. Blackmur, the busiest man of all, to defend his colleagues. Gentlemen like Mayor Adams and Tax Collector Brasee, who personally withdrew, certainly should not be in the list. Some included are not very busy, while there are others of 1897 and previous not mentioned. The presumption is put rather too strong.—Eds.

Templars Installation.

South Shore Commandery, K. T., installed the following officers at its conclave Monday evening:

Eminent Commander, —Frank H. Mason.
Generalissmo,—David J. Pierce.
Captain General,—Francis A. Bicknell.
Treasurer,—Edmund G. Bates.
Recorder,—Charles N. Marsh.
Prelate,—David H. Benson.
Associate Prelate,—Irving M. Norcross.
Senior Warden,—William T. Rice.
Junior Warden, —Eben H. Cain.
Standard Bearer, — Arthur W. Stetson.
Sword Bearer,—Waldo Cushing.
Guards,—Arthur W. Burr, W. M. Burrell and Lewis K. Jones.
Assistant Guards,—George G. Black, Fred W. Baldwin and James H. Packard.
Sentinel,—John Nelson.
Armorer,—Charles T. Humphrey.
Organist,—Arthur W. Raymond.

A banquet followed the installation.

☞ I do not believe that the inhabitants of Cuba are qualified to administer a home goverment, either for their own advantage or for the protection of our great and just American interests in the island of Cuba, and I am constrained to the personal belief that it will be necessary to maintain the occupation, the American occupation of the island of Cuba until such time as Americans, Englishmen, Germans, Frenchmen, people acquainted with the methods and the theory of self-government, shall have gone into that island in sufficient numbers to enable the fever to be stamped out on the one side and good order established on the other.—Ex-Minister Woodford at Massachusetts Club banquet.

LOCAL NEWS TRACK.

Some Colts which are Sure Winners Every Heat.

Rainy.

Dark today.

Election a week from next Tuesday.

That parody which Co. K sings is a bit doleful.

The Quincys and West Quincys will bowl a match game at Costello's alleys tonight.

Work on the Ward Two section of the concrete sidewalk is about completed.

The Hingham High walked all around the Quincy High foot ball team scoring 37 to 0.

Miss Annie E. Hart of Salem was the guest of Miss Wellington of Wollaston this week.

Mr. Herbert J. Follett of R. G. Dun & Co.'s mercantile agency of Boston, is building a house for his own occupancy on Park street, Wollaston.

Tuesday night was an unusually fine night for smelting, and a large number of fishermen were seen during the early evening making their way toward the shore.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry R. Holden have been passing their honeymoon among the Berkshire hills. They also visited Niagara Falls and other adjacent points of interest.

Officer McKay finished his tour of day duty Tuesday night, and today Officer Daveron commences his tour of day duty. Officer McKay takes the Wollaston night beat.

The Quincy & Boston street railway has taken hold of what is called the "old mill property" on Iron Hill, Weymouth, and will make alterations and use it for a car repair shop.

The names of two old Quincy families were united in the marriage this week at Lennox, Mr. Louis Cranch Greenleaf of Albany and Miss Margaret Adams of New York.

Dr. F. J. Bonney, formerly a dentist in this city, on Chestnut street, was in town last night. He is looking well and as a subscriber of the Patriot keeps posted on Quincy affairs.

The demand for tickets to the organ recital at Christ church tomorrow evening will probably exceed the seating capacity. Musical people realize that a treat is in store for them.

Ladies are invited to the Republican rally Friday evening at Music hall and the balcony will be reserved for them. Many will attend to hear Governor Wolcott.

Yesterday the Rev. E. N. Hardy attended the ecclesiastical council called to install the Rev. George Walter Fiske, at Huntington, among the Berkshires, and gave the charge to the pastor.

The Hingham Journal says that Mrs. Ellen Keenan of Quincy, the recent purchaser of the Quincy Thaxter place, Hingham, latterly the parsonage of St Paul's church, has greatly improved the property.

People of South and West Quincy do not feel the necessity now of going to Boston or even Quincy Centre for clothing. At Pierson's at Brewers' Corner they find gents' furnishings and clothing at bargains.

Frank Lynch of Quincy Neck, came very near being drowned Sunday. He was crossing the creek near Hayward's grove and got into a slough hole up to his arm pits. A plank was thrown from the shore and he was rescued by a man who looks after Mr. Nay's place. Frank will walk around next time.

A three-horse load of hay was passing in the rear of the First church this morning when the load slipped off the back and fell into the street. The hay was reloaded and a start made, but the team had gone but a few feet when the load was again dumped into the street. The second attempt was more successful and the load went on toward Boston.

Checker Tournament.

Games in the Bennett checker tournament at Wollaston were continued on Saturday and Monday making four days' playing thus far. Mr. Pickering still leads. It is thought that the games of today and tomorrow will show a change in the standing of the others, as Mr. Nelles is almost sure to play in better form than he has shown up to this time.

In figuring percentages all draws are counted as half a game. The following table shows the percent of each contestant. At the end of the tournament a more comprehensive table will be given.

	Played.	Won.	Lost.	Per-cent.
W. O. Pinckney,	10	8 1-2	1 1-2	850
John Calnan,	13	7 1-2	5 1-2	577
E. L. Wright,	14	7 1-2	6 1-2	536
W. Hoxie,	8	4	4	500
F. A. Nelles,	13	4 1-2	8 1-2	346
A. E. Sanderson,	11	3	8	273

The referees are: Mr. G. H. Stevens, Mr. A. Sandburgh, Mr. I. Higgins. Wm. H. Bennett, manager.

HEADQUARTERS
— FOR —
Honest, Reliable
Gents' Furnishings

My Store is Well Stocked with Carefully Selected . . . .

Fall and Winter Goods

From Leading Wholesale Houses of New York and Boston.

We will compete with any store in Quincy or Boston. For instance we will quote a few prices on our Leaders:

1 lot of Men's Brown Suits, small plaid pattern, a bargain, only . . $5.00
1 lot of Men's Fast Black Kersey OVERCOATS, satin lining $8.00
1 lot of BOYS' SUITS, to close $1.00
1 lot of Men's and Boys' REEFERS, all kinds and sizes from . . . . $1.50 to $4.00

We make no odd prices to deceive the imagination of people, and have

Honest Goods
— FOR — Honest Money.

Come, See, and Be Convinced.

F. J. PIERSON,

144 Granite St., Quincy.

Brewer's Corner.

Oct. 26. 2m eow

WILLIAM E. BAXTER, M. D.
Practice Limited to the
EYE AND EAR.
553 Boylston St., Boston.
QUINCY—Monday and Friday.
Hours, 9 to 11. 195 Hancock Street
May 21. 1y

MABEL F. FAIRBANKS
TEACHER OF
CHINA PAINTING and WATERCOLOR.
China Decorated to Order.
34 Grand View Avenue, Wollaston.
Sept. 29. 3m

JOHN EVANS,
Auctioneer and Appraiser.
Prompt Settlement.
24 COPELAND STREET, QUINCY.
Feb. 26. tf

LEHIGH COAL.

When we Sell You Lehigh we Deliver what we Sell. . . . .

C. PATCH & SON.

NOTICE TO VOTERS.

CITY OF QUINCY.

For the purpose of preparing the Annual Register of Voters, and of receiving evidence of qualifications from persons claiming a right to Vote at the coming City Election, the Board of Registrars of Voters will be in session in the COUNCIL CHAMBER in the City Hall Building, on the evenings of

Wednesday, November 9, and Saturday, November 12, from 7 to 9 o'clock P.M., also on Wednesday, November 16, from 12 o'clock, noon, to 10 o'clock P.M.

Every applicant for registration must appear in person before the Board. Every male applicant must present either a certificate from the Assessors or a Tax bill or Notice from the Collector of Taxes, showing that he has been assessed a Poll tax as a resident of the City on the First day of May last; if a naturalized citizen he must also produce for inspection his papers of naturalization. Payment of a poll tax is not a prerequisite to voting.

Persons who have lived in the state one year, and in the city six months previous to December 6, if qualified in other respects, can be registered.

No name can be added to the list of voters unless registered previous to WEDNESDAY, Nov. 16th, at 10 o'clock P. M., when registration will close.

Examine the Voting Lists posted herewith and see that your name is in its proper place. NO CHANGE can be made after WEDNESDAY, Nov. 16th, at 10 o'clock P. M. The Board of Assessors will hold meetings at the same time.

EDWARD B. MARSH,
CORNELIUS MOYNIHAN,
EDWARD J. McKEON,
EDGAR G. CLEAVES,
Registrars.

Quincy, Oct. 22, 1898. 21t

STATE ELECTION.

CITY OF QUINCY.

City Clerk's Office, Oct. 7, 1898.

IN Accordance with the provisions of Chapter 548 of the Acts of 1898, notice is hereby given that by a vote of the City Council, passed October 3, 1898, the polling places for the election to be held TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1898, in the City of Quincy, were designated as follows:

WARD ONE.—Council Chamber, City Hall.
WARD TWO—Hose House, Washington street.
WARD THREE, Precinct One.—Doble's Hall, Franklin street.
WARD THREE, Precinct Two.—Old Steamer House, School street.
WARD FOUR, Precinct One.—St. Mary's Hall, Willard street.
WARD FOUR, Precinct Two.—Hose House, Copeland street.
WARD FIVE.—Polson's Building, Newport avenue.
WARD SIX.—Hose House, Newbury avenue.

Attest: EDGAR G. CLEAVES,
City Clerk.
Quincy, Oct. 7, 1898. 27t

Hazelton Lehigh

Costs a Trifle More.
You Know Why.

C. PATCH & SON

E. LANDIS SNYDER,
Organist and Choirmaster of Christ Church,
TEACHER OF
VOICE CULTURE, PIANO AND ORGAN.
Studio: Room 10 Durgin & Merrill's Block,
QUINCY, MASS.
Sept. 10. tf

TEETH EXTRACTED.
No Pain or Danger.

Safer than vapor. Money paid for extracting goes towards teeth to be inserted. I am the only dentist in the city using the Painless Preparation for Extraction.

DR. C. B. UNDERWOOD,
9 Spear St. Rear of Public Library

Parlor Stove Talk

All homes are not yet blessed with a furnace or a steam heating plant, and if our enormous sales of Parlor Stoves is any criterion, we can with wisdom say that Parlor Stove popularity is by no means a thing of the past.

There is a difference in Parlor Stoves just the same as in everything else,—some good, some bad, some indifferent. Years of experience have taught us just which stoves give the best service, are easiest to manage and prove economical coal burners. Such stoves as these are what we offer—40 patterns to choose from, $2.98 to $20.00. A stove to suit your notion, a stove to suit your purse.

Oil Room Heaters, $3.50 to $4.50.

HENRY L. KINCAIDE & CO.,
Reliable, Low Priced House Furnishers.
HANCOCK STREET, - - QUINCY.

TO VOTERS.

CITY

OF

QUINCY.

...e of preparing the Annual Reg... and of receiving evidence of ...om persons claiming a right to ...ing City Election, the Board of ...ters will be in session in the ...AMBER in the City Hall Build... ...ings of

..., November 9, and Sat... ...ovember 12, from 7 to ... P.M., also on Wednes... ...ember 16, from 12 ...oon, to 10 o'clock P.M.

...t for registration must appear ...e the Board. Every male ap... ...esent either a certificate from ...r a Tax bill or Notice from the ...xes, showing that he has been ...ax as a resident of the City on ...f May last; if a naturalized citi... ...produce for inspection his pa... ...ation. Payment of a poll tax is ...e to voting.

...ave lived in the state one year, ...x months previous to December ...n other respects, can be reg...

...be added to the list of voters un... ...previous to WEDNESDAY, ...0 o'clock P. M., when registration

Voting Lists posted herewith ...ur name is in its proper place. ...can be made after WEDNES... ...th, at 10 o'clock P. M. The ...ssors will hold meetings at the ...OWARD B. MARSH, ...RNELIUS MOYNIHAN, ...OWARD J. McKEON, ...OGAR G. CLEAVES, Registrars.

...22, 1898. 21t

...E ELECTION.

CITY

OF

QUINCY.

...ty Clerk's Office, Oct. 7, 1898.

...e with the provisions of Chapter ... Acts of 1898, notice is hereby ...vote of the City Council, passed ... the polling places for the elec... ...I TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 8, ...y of Quincy, were designated as

...ONE.—Council Chamber,

...WO—Hose House, Wash... ...et.

...HREE, Precinct One.— ...ll, Franklin street.

...HREE, Precinct Two.— ...r House, School street.

...OUR, Precinct One.— ... Hall, Willard street.

...FOUR, Precinct Two.— ...se, Copeland street.

...IVE.—Polson's Building, ...venue.

...SIX.—Hose House, New... ...ue.

...: EDGAR G. CLEAVES, City Clerk.

... 7, 1898. 27t

...on Lehigh

...Costs a Trifle More.

...You Know Why.

...PATCH & SON

...NDIS SNYDER,

... Choirmaster of Christ Church,

...TEACHER OF

...TURE, PIANO AND ORGAN.

...m 10 Durgin & Merrill's Block, QUINCY, MASS.

tf

...H EXTRACTED.

...Pain or Danger.

...por. Money paid for extracting ...eth to be inserted. I am the only ...ty using the Painless Preparation

...B. UNDERWOOD, Rear of Public Library

...furnace or a steam ...of Parlor Stoves is ...Parlor Stove pop...

...st the same as in ... some indifferent. ...ch stoves give the ...e economical coal ... offer—40 patterns ... suit your notion,

...& CO., ...nishers.

QUINCY.

Brooms and Brushes must be cleaned often, else they become dangerous germ collectors. Hair brushes demand special attention from the standpoint of both health and cleanliness. They can be cleaned quickly and thoroughly by washing in a weak suds made from

GOLD DUST Washing Powder

Gold Dust cleans everything quickly, cheaply, thoroughly, and saves both time and worry.

THE N. K. FAIRBANK COMPANY,

Chicago. St. Louis. New York. Boston. Philadelphia.

WATCHES.

GENT'S WATCHES, $1.50 and Up.

LADIES' WATCHES, $2.50 and Up.

EVERY WATCH WARRANTED.

$2.00 Belts, $1.00 Each.
75c. Brooch Pins, 25c. Each.
25 and 35c. Stick Pins, 5 and 10c. Ea.

Quincy SOUVENIR TILES Half Price,

And Other Bargains.

A. A. LINSCOTT, Jeweler,

154 Hancock St., opp. Post Office, Quincy.

Agent for Graphophones.

aug 6. tf

About... Your Upholstering.

Sooner or later you'll need our assistance. All kinds of furniture reupholstered. Mattresses to order and made over. Window shades to order. Cushions to order. Carpets taken up, cleaned and relaid, or made over to fit other rooms; also drapery work. We employ men of experience only and insure our patrons strictly first-class work at prices that are fair to pay. Work done as it should be done. Estimates promptly furnished.

HENRY L. KINCAIDE & CO.,

Reliable, Low Priced House Furnishers,

Hancock Street, : : : Quincy.

Telephone Connection.

SWITHIN BROS.

REAL ESTATE!

President's Hill.

President's Hill Annex.

Cranch Hill.

Choice Lots and Improved Property for Sale in West Quincy, Wollaston, South Quincy, Quincy Point, Quincy Centre.

Room 12, Durgin & Merrill's Block, Quincy.

DR. HERBERT S. HAYFORD
195 Hancock Street.

OFFICE HOURS—11 to 12 A. M., 2 to 4 and 7 to 8 P. M.

Telephone, 4-3.

Quincy, July 5. tf

STENOGRAPHY AND TYPEWRITING, BOOKKEEPING,

And All Clerical Work.

MISSES A. B. and E. M. COTE,

Room 12 Durgin & Merrill Block, - Quincy.

Oct. 10. tf

THE SONG THEY SING

Co. K's Parody on the Banks of the Wabash.

With Co. K, 5th Mass.

Middletown, Penn., Oct. 23.

Last night we again experienced a cold night, but today is a fine sunny atmosphere.

A large number of the boys attended church this morning. It is a quiet day in camp. Our new Captain, Captain Neilson, is officer of the day, with the following members from company on guard with him: Corporal Johnson, Privates Carlson, Capaccioli, Currie, Delano, Dunleavy, Doran, Dennison, Dean, Egan, Fitzgerald, Gunderson and Gilfeather. Privates Gunderson and Dean are again the orderlies.

Towards taps last night quite a stranger made his appearance, in the person of Private McLaughlin, he having returned from a sick furlough. He looks better than when he left the camp. A number of the boys have given up all hopes of getting furloughs, as a number of applications have been returned unapproved by the War department.

The new captain seems to be an energetic man. He stands at ration table during every mess and sees that each man secures his just amount of rations. He is also particular that the boys obtain the proper clothing due them. Taking all in all he seems to be a gentlemanly appearing officer. The boys feel as though they could secure justice at his hands. This is something the boys did not think they always obtained from their late commander. We hope the boys will become harmonious, and again pull together. Under the circumstances we are disappointed to have an outsider step in, and take command. However we must make the best of it and become united. The boys are still well.

The attached poetry was kindly handed writer by Corporal McIntosh of K Co.

A PARODY ON THE BANKS OF THE WABASH.

All along old Middletown are few houses,
You see nothing but big hills and fields of hay.
Along the dusty roads the Fifth Mass. are marching,
Where they pitch their tents to stay for many days.

There's lots of things much needed in this regiment,
And without these the boys are incomplete,
How we long to see our requisition coming,
For we have almost worn our shoes from off our feet.

CHORUS.

Oh the moon is hid tonight behind the mountains,
Where the weary and tired, hungry soldiers lay,
Where we have to walk three miles to get some water
From a spring in the mountains far away.

Oh the grub is something awful in this regiment,
Fat pork and beans, and coffee made of clay,
And the meat so tough you can't bite the gravy,
That is what we get three times a day.
And the hardtack that we get is made of marble,
It's a case of fill your dish and walk away.

If you don't, why you can stand around and whistle,
From the soup call until the judgment day.

CHORUS.

Oh, the cooks are on the bum in the whole regiment;
And they have nerve enough to ask for corporal's pay.
And we have to wade on stilts to get our rations,
Through the mud to our cook-house far away.

Oh, army life is not what it's been painted,
And for joining it we were a lot of jays.
For the government runs this thing as it's a mind to,
And by false pretenses we've been led astray.
We enlisted for to go and fight the Spaniards,
And all of us were eager for the fray,
But instead of that they put us all to farming,
In the fields of Camp Meade far away.

CHORUS.

Oh the rain pours down tonight upon our dog tents,
Where the boys of Co. K in wet blankets lay.
They are dreaming of the good things they are missing
In their homes in Massachusetts far away.

☞We have grown rapidly, gloriously, but we have grown because the seed that was sown was sound. We have builded the superstructure so superbly because the foundations were laid upon the hard pan of statesmanship and are broad and deep. While I would not cabin, crib, or confine what we are disposed to call sometimes "the infant republic" within any swaddling clothes that prevent its just development, I am not just yet ready to believe that the fundamental principles of the Declaration of Independence have become obsolete, nor do I believe we have reached the time yet to repeal any portion of that most magnificent creation of state craft and patriotism, the constitution of the United States.—Congressman Boutelle at Massachusetts club banquet.

PROF. W. R. CARTER,
SPECIALIST,
Chronic and Private Diseases,
MALE and FEMALE.
WILL BE AT
22 Chestnut Street, Quincy,
EVERY WEDNESDAY
From 10 A. M. to 9 P. M.
Consultation and Advice Free.
TEETH EXTRACTED WITHOUT PAIN.
Oct. 22. 6t

NEW CANDIDATE.

Ex-Councilman Bryant Suggested for Mayor—Political Notes.

Rumor has it this morning that the Democrats have given up both ex-Mayor Hodges and ex-Postmaster Burke as possible candidates for Mayor at the coming municipal convention and they are looking for a compromise in some gentleman who will lead them to victory. The rumor still further says that the name of ex-Councilman Charles M. Bryant is being favorably considered as a possible candidate, the belief being that Mr. Bryant's long experience in the City Council would make him amply qualified to fill the position.

George R. R. Rivers of Milton has written a letter accepting the Democatic nomination for Senator. Although he endorsed Mr. Barrows at the last Congressional election, he now thinks the administration should be rebuked. He says: "Such rebuke will be best administered by voting against the candidates of the party which has made these things possible. It is upon these national issues that we have today a reunited party—a party which henceforward should grow more and more in public favor until it is again triumphant, because it deserves to be. As to my course if elected, I can only say this—I will serve my party by serving the whole people, and will endeavor to do my duty as senator in the same spirit in which I did that as representative. Further than this I can promise nothing."

The same speakers who address the Democratic rally in Quincy tonight will also speak at Braintree.

Music hall, Boston, will be crowded tonight with Republicans, and Secretary Long will receive an enthusiastic reception. The seating capacity of the hall will be taxed.

The Democratic candidate for Congress in the Lynn district will stump the cities on an electric car tour.

How true and significant the remarks of Congressman Barrows at the opening rally in the Tenth district last night: "Two years have passed since the people of this country were marshaled to the polls on national issues. In that time I know of but one thing in the world that has stood stock still, and that is the Democratic party. It has taken no step in advance nor has it honorably retreated from the pit which it dug for itself in Chicago."

Three more votes for Governor Wolcott last year would have given Ward One one more delegate to the Representative convention. Will they make it 325 this year. The other wards will be entitled to one more each if they make the following gains: Ward Two, 25; Ward Three, 7; Ward Four, 13; Ward Five, 46; Ward Six 12. The basis of representation is different to the other conventions and the following gains will be necessary to secure an additional delegate: Ward One, 128; Ward Two, 100; Ward Three, 132; Ward Four, 88; Ward Five, 21; Ward Six, 37. Gov. Wolcott's vote last year was: Ward One, 322; Ward Two, 200; Ward Three, 318; Ward Four 212; Ward Five, 279; Ward Six, 113.

Wollaston Post Office.

Letters remaining uncalled for Oct. 22:

Thomsonian Remedies Co., Mrs. Will Badger, Mrs. A. Q. Miller, (2,) Miss Marguerte Holbrook.

HAZELTON LEHIGH

And Not Hard White Ash,
Is What You Should Burn.

C. PATCH & SON.

Rain or Snow

Along the coast but fair in the interior, we read sometimes, but whether rain, snow, fair or blow outside, you may be fair, comfortable and happy inside of one of those

Warm Overcoats

that you can buy at the "Granite," and not only overcoats, but everything required for the comfort of men and boys.

Don't get caught in the storms of winter without proper protection, but go now to the

Granite Clothing Store,

DURGIN & MERRILL'S BLOCK,

QUINCY.

LAND VALUES.

Continued from page 1.

WARD FIVE.

	Valuation of Land Only.	Total Ward Tax.
Packard, Herbert L.		$54 20
6,472 feet, Standish avenue, $300.
Packard, John A., 2d,		38 70
12,000, Central ave., $850.
Page, Alice L.		7 20
Land at beach, $400.
Page, Charles W.		45 20
4,200, Beach, $1,900.
Page, Emeline E.		88 20
19,175, Beach, $300.
Parmer, George E,		40 50
3,750, Hamilton, $300.
1,875, " $150.
Parish of Chrysostom,		95 40
12,859, Hancock, $1,300.
Parker, Newell		56 00
6,780, Belmont, $700.
Parker, Walter O.		61 40
5,625, Lincoln ave., $800.
Partridge, Martha A.		58 50
25,666, Lot 9, Sec. 4, $1,600.
10,100, " 10, " " $900.
9,750, " 11, " " $750.
Partridge, Mary A. W.		40 50
4,5000, Taylor, $350.
Patten, George W.		5 40
5,000, Royal, $300.
Patten, Ida L.		5 40
4,000, Watkins, $300.
Patterson, Lewis F.		47 70
5,000, Farrington, $350.
Patterson, William		104 60
59,000, Central ave., $2,000.

WARD SIX.

Packard, James E.	$46 80
5,162, Billings, $600.
Packard, Walter M.	10 80
24,000, Squantum, $600.
Parker, Harry O.	62 10
15,700, Billings, $1,650.
Parker, Chase, est.,	585 90
120,000, Atlantic, $8,400.
40,000, " $2,400.
4 1-2 acres, Atlantic, $2,800.
17,135 feet, Billings, $1,750.
1-4 acre, Hancock, $1,000.
15,915 feet, Atlantic ave., $1,200.
5 acres, salt marsh, $500.
1 1-4 acres, salt marsh, $150,
40,000, feet, Atlantic, $2,800.

To be continued.

Nigger on a Pond.

Weymouth should adopt the Quincy system in its schools and not make itself so ridiculous. The Gazette says:

In a school, not many miles from here, it has been the custom for the teacher to have her pupils repeat in concert the answers to some of her questions. That this parrot-like chirping of words and phrases has little result in adding to the children's understanding is shown from the following incident which actually happend not long since. A parent related the story as being an actual occurrence:

One night his bright little boy came home from school repeating words which he had some difficulty in determining what they were but finally made them out to be: "Angie two times, Nigger on a pond." The child kept repeating the jumble and to his father's questions as to what it meant and who taught him to say it, said, "Teacher made us all say it together in school and told us not to forget it."

The parent was puzzled and troubled, thinking that perhaps his son was affected with some brain trouble. He called on the teacher and asked her if she had been teaching his child such words, and she said she had never given the children any such sentence.

The father went away more puzzled than ever.

The teacher thought long over the matter and determined to take special notice of the following day's lessons and review to see if she could discover anything that the child could have misconstrued.

The next day, in reviewing the concert exercises she came to the question, "What is an angle?" and the answer to it was, "An angle is two lines meeting at a point." Something in the sound of the answer as it came to her ears spoken in concert by the children sounded similar to the "Angie two times, Nigger on a pond," and she called the little boy up to her and solved the matter by asking him to repeat the answer to the question, "What is an angle?" Promptly the little fellow replied, "Angle two times, Nigger on a pond," which overwhelmed the teacher with chagrin that her teaching had been so ineffective.

TODAY'S COURT.

George M. Brigg was found guilty of drunkenness at Weymouth and his case was continued one month.

Daniel Norton of Braintree and Nellie Stone of Holbrook were found guilty of drunkenness and their cases were placed on file.

Chester A. West was arraigned for the illegal sale of liquor at Holbrook. He was found not guilty and discharged.

—To "dance attendance" is an expression borrowed from the medieval custom which compelled the bride at a wedding to dance with whomsoever asked her. No matter how low the condition or how objectionable the person, the bride could not refuse.

FOR SALE.

Bigelow St. Fine New Residence, 9 rooms, bath, laundry, furnace, open plumbing, cemented cellar, fireplace, etc.

R. D. CHASE,
Savings Bank Building.

Quincy, April 8-tf. 9p-tf

MISS C. L. BLISS

186 HANCOCK STREET,

Trimmed and Untrimmed

Hats and Novelties.

Order Work a Specialty.

STAMPING, PINKING, HAIR DRESSING, Manicuring and Glove Cleaning.

Quincy, Oct. 22. tf plo

Give C. PATCH & SON

A TRIAL ORDER

For HAZELTON LEHIGH COAL.

The John Hancock Stables.

Opposite Depot, Quincy, Mass.

Boarding, Baiting, Livery and Sale.

DR. J. A. DOW, Proprietor,

the well known Veterinary dentist and specialist in the treatment of lame horses. Sick horses treated at owner's risk.

The finest equipped and managed stable of its size in America.

Fine driving turnouts in light rigs; safe and good appearing. All horses let are perfectly safe for ladies to drive.

The choicest family, road and coach horses constantly on hand for sale. All horses guaranteed as represented.

☞ Will attend to veterinary practice as usual. aug18-1y

FISH.

Everything first-class at the

Cape Cod Fish Market,

Temple Street.

All kinds Fresh, Salt, Smoked and Pickeled

Quincy, Feb. 8. 1y

Coal!

Just Received by Barge Blackbird, a Fresh Cargo of

Pea Coal

(Small Nut.)

J. F. SHEPPARD & SONS

Quincy Sept. 7.

For Sale or To Let,
FURNISHED,
NASH'S HOTEL.

Full of Boarders and a good transient trade. Cheap rent. My catering business is all I can attend to.

Apply at HOTEL, 148 Hancock street, Quincy, Mass. oct11 tf lo

Savings Bank Building, Quincy.

TOP COAT LOST.

On the train leaving Quincy at 1.12 P. M. Monday, arriving in Boston at 1.30, a young man accidentally left in a seat in the rear car a new cheviot top coat. If the young man who was seen to take the coat, will leave it with Station Agent Coffin at Quincy, or with the Inward Baggage Master in Boston, he will be rewarded and save trouble.

Quincy, Oct. 25. 6t

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS.

Advertisements in this column inserted at the following rates:

Four lines, or less, one day, - - 25 cents.
" " three days, - - - 50 cents.
" " one week, - - - - 75 cents.

Additional lines will be charged for pro rata Seven words equal a line. Long term rates furnished on application.

WANTED.

WANTED—A strong boy to work in our shipping department; $3.00 per week. HENRY L. KINCAIDE & CO.

Quincy, Oct. 24. tf

AGENTS WANTED—For War in Cuba, by Senor Quesada, Cuban representative at Washington. Endorsed by Cuban patriots. In tremendous demand. A bonanza for agents. Only $1.50. Big book, big commissions. Everybody wants the only endorsed, reliable book. Outfits free. Credit given. Freight paid. Drop all trash, and make $300 a month with War in Cuba. Address today. THE NATIONAL BOOK CONCERN, 352-356 Dearborn St., Chicago. Oct. 25—21t

TO LET.

TO LET—2 Rooms, Furnished or Unfurnished, with steam heat and bath. 3 minutes from depot. Rent reasonable. L., Post Office. Oct. 26—6t

TO LET—House of six rooms, in good repair. Possession given Nov. 1. Apply at 8 Orchard place, Quincy. Oct. 25—6t

TO LET—Half a House of 5 rooms entirely separate on Phipps street, Mt. Pleasant. Rent, $8 a month; city water. Inquire at 17 Summer street.

Quincy, Sept. 27. 31t

TO LET—3 Houses of 7 rooms each, healthful location and fine views. Electrics pass often. Rent low. Inquire of F. H. GRAVES, just beyond the bridge, North Weymouth.

Oct. 21. 6t

TO LET—Tenement of 6 rooms No. 12 Newcomb street, in good repair; city water. inquire of C. A. SPEAR, 7 Newcomb street.

Quincy, Oct. 20. tf

TO LET—A Sunny, Pleasant House of six rooms, newly papered and painted and in good repair; on Washington street, corner Wibird street. Centrally located in the Coddington school district. Apply only to FRANK F. PRESCOTT at Daily Ledger office.

Oct. 20. tf

TO LET—Cottage house, No. 29 Granite street, 8 rooms, three minutes' from City Square. Apply to H. M. FAXON, 4 Adams Building. Sept. 30—tf

FOR RENT—Desirable house with bath, corner lot, nice neighborhood, three minutes' walk from schools, churches and depot Rent reasonable. Apply at No. 6 Pleasant St.

Quincy, Sept. 7. tf

B. F. CURTIS,

40 Elm Street, Quincy.

TO LET—House of 10 rooms at 43 Elm street. City water. Rent, $18 per month.

Half House of 4 rooms, 19 Union street; city water. Rooms just painted and papered. Rent, $7.50 per month.

TO LET IN QUINCY.

SOUTHERLY Half of house with stable 214 Hancock street, now occupied by Dr. N. S. Hunting. Modern improvements, central location. Seven rooms and bath; furnace, gas and city water. Apply on premises to

MISS M. F. UNDERWOOD.

Oct. 1. tf

TO LET.

House of 8 rooms, etc., No. 20 Canal street, Quincy. Nice house, excellent location.

R. D. CHASE,
Savings Bank Building.

Quincy, Oct. 8. pl tf

TO LET.

APARTMENTS of five large rooms and bath, with all modern improvements. Also two large stores. Rent moderate. Apply to ARTHUR CRAIG, or J. W. HAYDEN, at Craig Building, cor. Copeland and Garfield Sts.

Quincy, July 15. pl tf

HOUSES, STORES, LAND,

ROOMS, OFFICES, AND WHARVES,

To Let In Quincy, Mass.

The Houses are in Complete Repair.

Half-house, 10 rooms, 6 Chester street, Wollaston.

House, 10 rooms with stable, 16 Cottage street.

Half-house, 5 rooms, 16 Cottage street.

House, 8 rooms, 29 Granite street.

Half-house, 4 rooms, 4 Water street, $7 per month.

Tenement, 5 rooms, 59 North street.

Half-house, 6 rooms, Pond street, $10 per month.

Half-house, 5 rooms, 13 Field street, $8 per month.

Tenement, 3 rooms, 28 Howard street, $3 per month.

Tenements, 51 Howard street, $4, $5 and $6 per month.

Room, 12 Washington street, $5 per month.

Large building, suitable for manufacturing purposes on Brackett's wharf.

Small stable, 2 Quincy street, $3 per month.

Small stable, 28 Coddington street, $5 per month.

100 windows, and blinds, various sizes.

Wharf, stone sheds, etc., Quincy Neck.

Basement, head of Granite street.

100 tons ballast for sale.

Land to rent for tillage or pasturing purposes.

Gravel and sand for sale.

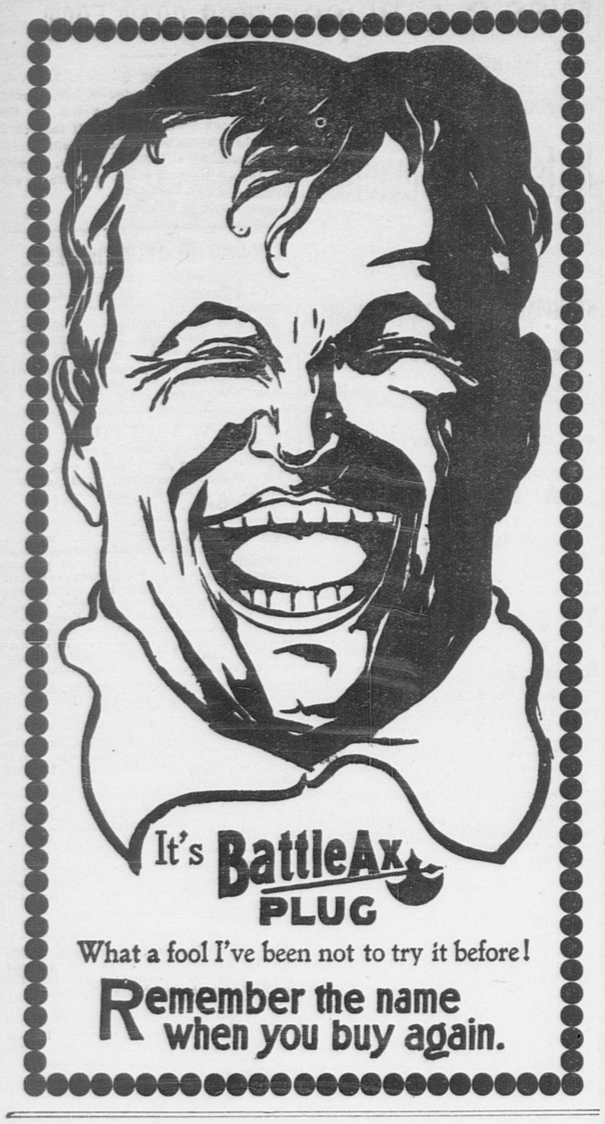

50 loads of loam for sale.

The buildings are in the very best condition.

For particulars, enquire of, or address

HENRY H. FAXON,
Quincy, Mass.

Quincy, Oct. 13, 1898. 1m

What a fool I've been not to try it before!

Remember the name when you buy again.

MAKE IT HOT FOR YOU.

If your house is cold and you have become disgusted with the various devices called heaters, and you are really anxious to have warmth and comfort in your home, place an order for one of those G. B. Bates CIRCULATORS. It will "make it hot for you" or just the temperature you desire. Its construction is based upon scientific and economical principles. Several have recently been put in right here in Quincy, and others will be put in during the next few weeks. Don't read this ad. and then forget about it till your water pipes are all frozen, but go now to

G. B. BATES,

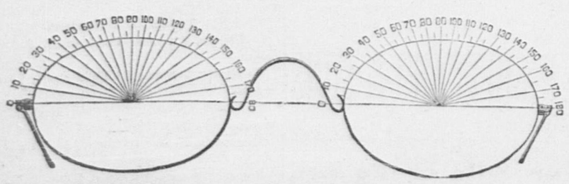

Hancock Street, Quincy.

GEO. AMES,

the ONLY PRACTICAL PLUMBER in the Hardware business in the City. He has a patent SEWER TRAP which cannot be beat. Impossible for deadly sewer gas to enter your homes. See him about your Sewer Connection. He has had three years' experience in Boston and other large cities. Established here in 1889 and still in it. Work done anywhere.

Hardware, Paints and Oils, Putty and Glass, Yacht Supplies, Steam and Gas Fittings. Steam and Hot Air Heaters put in repair for the winter.

ADAMS BUILDING

ASTIGMATISM

Causes most of the distressing headaches. Properly fitted glasses will correct the error and remove the pain. Consult

WILLIAMS,

Member of the New England Association of Opticians,

104 Hancock St., Quincy.

Advertising Should be Continuous to be Profitable. The Ledger is the Best Medium in Quincy.

GREELY SEEKS GLORY.

Asserts His Right to Recognition For Signalling Service.

General Shafter Subjected to a Mild Rebuke.

Blamed For Ordering the War Balloon to the Skirmishing Line.

Washington, Oct. 26.—General Greely is confident that during the single month of July the line of comunication maintained by his corps in Cuba was worth more to the nation than has been the cost of the signal corps of the army from its inception to the present day. He refers to the ease with which the major general commanding the army communicated with Washington, giving important information and receiving important orders. He then adds: "In addition, it is not pleasant to surmise what might have been the fate of the fever stricken army in Santiago had its fortune and movements been directed by mail instead of by electrical communication."

General Greely strongly commends the use of the war balloon and declares that its utility was thoroughly demonstrated. Concerning the criticism made of the balloon operating at Santiago he says: "The forcing of the signal corps balloon to the skirmish line, where its position is reported to have caused serious loss to the troops by disclosing their movements and attracting the enemy's fire, was the action of Major General Shafter, through his chief engineer, Colonel G. M. Derby, in the face of the professional advice given by Lieutenant Colonel Maxfield of the United States volunteer signal corps, who was charged with the practical operation of the balloon, and who, besides sharing absolutely every danger to which Colonel Derby was subjected, in addition had his horse shot under him in a previous reconnoisance of the ground." General Greely says that "the signal corps failed to receive from Major General Shafter in his original report even a notice that it participated in the Santiago campaign."

The Press Censorship.

An interesting part of General Greely's report is that which relates to the telegraph censorship. Upon this feature he says: "There has been a misapprehension on the part of many that the signal corps exercised a press censorship during the war, an opinion that is entirely unfounded, as the chief signal officer ignored all suggestions looking to an interference with the free and untrammelled publication of press matter, even by the most sensational and unpatriotic of journals. It may be added that the Associated Press and many of the leading journals, in a most patriotic spirit, expressed freely and frequently not only their willingness but also their desire to refrain from the publication of any information that would embarrass the administration or be detrimental to the success of military operations. These offers were not pickwicklan, for in more than one instance information of the highest interest to the public has never been published to this day, being held secret by press associations, newspaper correspondents and editors as calculated, if given publicity, to injure the national cause."

Located Cervera's Fleet.

General Greely's report indicates that the credit for the location of Admiral Cervera's fleet in Santiago harbor belongs to the signal corps, and says that "in the interest of history, let alone justice to the signal corps of the army, the truth should be told. The location of Cervera's squadron at Santiago was first made by Colonel James Allen, and later verified independently by Lieutenant Colonel J. E. Maxfield, both officers of the signal corps. The blockading of Cervera's squadron was due to the conservative action of the president and secretary of the navy, based on reports and representations made personally to them by the chief signal officer of the army. Secretary Long, alive to the situation, in an official dispatch says: "All military and naval movements depend upon that point" (the presence of Cervera in Santiago harbor.) On May 19 Admiral Cervera entered the harbor of Santiago with his squadron. That very day Colonel Allen telegraphed in cipher to the chief signal officer: 'Five Spanish vessels arrived at Santiago de Cuba. Have notified admiral commanding (Sampson)'. The Spanish flagship arrived at Santiago. The admiral (Cervera) hastily wired Madrid. On the following morning he added the following information: 'Pelayo and four cruisers in Santiago. No destroyer or torpedo boats arrived there. This information was communicated immediately to the president and by his orders to the secretary of the navy, who, being impressed by the assurance of the chief signal officer of the army as to the entire reliability of this report, proved himself equal to the emergency, and on that very day gave such prompt and effective orders as resulted in the blockade of Santiago and the ultimate destruction of Cervera's fleet."

The report says that Colonel Allen furnished cipher advices of the most valuable sort from Santiago daily. He first reported that the Spanish squadron was short of coal and could not renew its supply at Santiago, and also that the unarmored American cruisers off the Cuban coast "were mistaken by the Spanish for the main American fleet," proving, says General Greely, "the wisdom and efficacy of Admiral Sampson's orders by cable that the fast unarmored cruisers of the navy should perform scouting duty off Santiago." The report then adds: "A cipher message of the 23d stated correctly that Admiral Schley was that day at Cienfuegos and Cervera was at Santiago. Meanwhile, the navy had been unable to verify the fact of Cervera's presence at Santiago, and as a result the correctness of the information furnished by the signal corps was sharply questioned. The chief signal officer, being informed that the whole campaign was conducted upon his representations, was asked to verify this information from other sources if possible. Prompt action was taken by the chief signal officer, who adopted such lines of operations that thereafter there was scarcely a day he was not in possession of information coming over one or more of the six cables leading out of Santiago. 'It is an interesting anti-climax that when Cervera's squadron was destroyed on July 3, Colonel Allen, the same officer who originally reported the arrival of the fleet on the very day it reached Santiago, likewise reported by telegraph to the chief signal officer the fact that the entire fleet had been destroyed, which information was conveyed to the president and the country four hours in advance of any other official advice."

The News of Beantown.

Boston, Oct. 26.—A service in celebration of the 250th anniversary of the adoption of the Westminster standards was held yesterday by the presbytery of Boston. The chief address upon "The Shorter Catechism" was by Rev. David Gregg of Brooklyn.

Mrs. Pomeroy, mother of Jesse Pomeroy, the murderer, appeared before Governor Wolcott yesterday and pleaded for an extension of privileges accorded her son at the state prison. The governor declined to act in the matter.

Lizzie Frazer, alias Boland, alias Southerland, who has a refo.matory record, was arrested yesterday for the alleged larceny of jewelry valued at $1000 from Catherine F. Harriman. The woman was identified by Mrs. Harriman as her former servant, and a stolen diamond ring was found on her person.

The Single Tax league tendered a reception last evening to the representatives of the state Y. M. C. A., at which interesting papers were read by Rev. S. S. Craig of Toronto and William Lloyd Garrison on the doctrines advocated by the league. Both speakers were closely questioned by the guests.

Examinations Twice a Year.

Washington, Oct. 26.—Charles G. Dawes, comptroller of the currency, has ordered that the system of semi-annual examinations of national banks in effect in the country shall extend over all cities without any exception, as heretofore in the cities of New York, Boston, Philadelphia and Baltimore but one examination by national bank examiners has been had yearly, and the custom had grown up of special examinations by the examiners made for the benefit of the bank and not for the government, for which the examiners were compensated by the banks. One of the first acts of the new comptroller last January was to put a stop to this practice, on the ground that if an examiner accepted employment in the examination of the same bank for both the government and the bank, it had a tendency to interfere with the rigid impartiality which should characterize his work as a government official.

Great Britain Would Fight.

London, Oct. 26.—The Capetown correspondent of The Times says: "Cecil Rhodes, addressing an open air meeting here Tuesday afternoon, said that four years ago he saw Baron De Courcel, the French ambassador to Great Britain, and told him on the authority of Lord Salisbury that Great Britain would fight if necessary to prevent the French reaching the Nile and cutting the connection the British intend to make between the north and the south. Mr. Rhodes added that he knew the French government was then advised that such would be England's action."

NEWS IN BRIEF.

The house and tobacco barn of Philip Jubenville of North Hatfield, Mass., were burned Monday night. Loss, about $4000.

It looks now as if the proposition to organize a glass manufacturers' association would have a successful outcome.

A dynamite bomb of the fireworks sort exploded at a Democratic meeting in New York, and Peter Rowen was instantly killed.

Fire in East Sautucket, L. I., destroyed the works of the Empire State Rubber company, the postoffice and other buildings. Loss, $1,000,000.

Thomas S. Boyce and James Craig, carpenters, were thrown from the top of a 4-story building in Walden, N. Y., by the fall of a scaffold, and died within two hours.

The navy department is disposed to aid as far as possible in floating the Colon, in addition to the Maria Teresa, which is already under steam and about to start for the United States, but not to go to further expense.

Advices from Matanzas, Santa Clara, Pinar del Rio and the interior of Havana say that serious damage was caused by the flooding of rivers. Traffic on all railway lines has been delayed, and many of the recently planted tobacco beds have been destroyed.

Josiah A. Hunt, keeper of the New Bedford jail and master of the house of correction, died suddenly last night of apoplexy, aged 53. He was a native of Fall River. Mr. Hunt was prominent in Odd Fellowship and in the Royal Arcanum. He leaves a widow and five children.

Chief of Police Lee and Detective McVey, the representatives of Delaware, have appealed to the postal authorities to take some action in the matter of the extradition of Codrelia Botkin, accused of murdering Mrs. J. P. Dunning and her sister, Mrs. Deane, of Dover, by means of poisoned chocolates sent through the mails.

The Missouri supreme court has granted the middle-of-the-road Populists a writ of mandamus to compel the secretary of state to place their ticket on the official ballot. The regulars claimed that the middle-of-the-roaders were bolters from the regular convention, but the supreme court holds that this faction had a majority of the delegates.

At a meeting of the wire nail manufacturers it was decided to reduce the price of wire nails 5 cents per keg, and to advance the price of galvanized wire, both smooth and barbed, 5 cents per 100 pounds. This latter action was taken on account of the enormous rise in the price of spelter, which is now worth $30 per ton more than at this time a year ago.

Clara Kluge, who claims to have been the contract wife of Adolph Sutro of San Francisco, has begun a legal fight for some of the Sutro millions by filing an application for letters of guardianship over her two children, who are named in the application Adolph Newton Sutro and Adolphine Charlotte Sutro. The petitioner claims that the children are the legal offsprings of the dead millionaire.

Lawlessness Through Politics.

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 26.—Governor Daniel L. Russell has issued a proclamation dealing with the situation in this state. He declares "that the political canvass now going forward has been made the occasion and pretext for bringing about conditions of lawlessness in certain counties in this state." The proclamation also cites "that certain counties lying along the southern border of this state have been actually invaded by certain armed and lawless men from another state," and that political meetings have been broken up and threats and intimidation used to prevent registration of voters, and that citizens have been fired on from ambush, and others whipped. All citizens are enjoined to observe the law and all civil officers to enforce the law, and lawless men from other states are ordered to leave on pain of arrest and punishment.

Something Lacking In Catholic Men.

Washington, Oct. 26.—Several hundred delegates are attending the convention of the Catholic Young Men's National union. Rev. William T. McGuire of Brooklyn, the president, in his annual report, referred to the service of Catholics in the war and said that Father Chidwick of the ill-fated, but well avenged, Maine, had especially immortalized himself for calm courage, zeal and tremendous selfsacrifice.

Rev. D. J. Stafford of this city, in an address, said that there was something lacking in the Catholic young men of today, religious indifference that should give way to activity, loyalty and interest in the church. He said that if the young men had the ambition of their sisters this country would be theirs within 50 years.

Anti-British Sentiment Aroused.

Montreal, Oct. 26.—The French-Canadian papers are freely criticising England over its course in Egypt. The government organ stated that, though they were loyal subjects of the empire, they were Frenchmen also. The Minerva says: "The English do not admit either discussion or arbitration. They simply order the recall of Marchand, and if this demand is not complied with they are ready to make war. This reminds one of the procedure of the United States against Spain. Right is nothing to the Anglo-Saxon from the moment that he is certain that he is the stronger."

A Call For Rifles.

Carson, Nev., Oct. 26.—Governor Sadler has received a call for rifles and ammunition from citizens in and around Midas, Nye county. The Shoshone Indians near that city are planning an outbreak. All the able-bodied white men for miles around are congregating on one of the ranches and have armed themselves as best they can to repel an attack. The trouble arose over the arrest of an Indian, the leaders having incited their followers to resist the law. The Indians are well armed, and other tribes are expected to come to their aid.

To Play Ball In Cuba.

Cincinnati, Oct. 26.—If everything connects as intended, Manager Bancroft will repeat this winter his trip of '79 to Cuba. Then he was backed by a medicine concern in Rochester, and this time, if he goes, he will be backed by one of the largest tobacco concerns in the United States. His plan is to organize a baseball team composed of the stars of the National league, play several games through the south during the holidays, landing in Havana on Jan. 1, when the city is under American control, and play a series of games with the Cuban club.

Cut His Throat.

Corning, N. Y., Oct. 26.—David B. Winton, president of the bank of Addison, committed suicide yesterday by cutting his throat with a razor. He had been in ill health, and was shaving preparatory to going to a sanitarium when he committed the act. Despondency on account of his illness seems to have been the only cause for the suicide. He was 60 years of age.

Tomorrow's Almanac and Forecast.

Sun rises—6:11; sets, 4:44.
Moon sets—4:11 a. m.
High water—9:15 a. m.; 9:45 p. m.

A storm of considerable force developed Monday night over the central Mississippi valley, which Tuesday night was central over Michigan and northern Illinois, causing scattered rains in that section and snows at a few points in the Mississippi valley, including St. Louis. It will probably move eastward during the next 24 hours, and the cloudy weather and rain promised seems likely to continue into Thursday morning, but probably followed by clearing by noon and fair in the afternoon and night. It now promises to be colder Thursday, with brisk westerly winds.

A Fierce Snowstorm.

Kansas City, Oct. 26.—A fierce snowstorm raged yesterday in the southwest. At some points snow covers the ground from two to four inches. The storm began at midnight Monday night and, accompanied by a strong wind, prevailed with increasing vigor. Telegraph communication has been interrupted and other minor damage done.

At Chillicothe the wind blew a perfect gale, and at Sedalia the heaviest snowstorm known in the history of central Missouri for the month of October is reported. It is growing colder.

Will End This Week.

Brockton, Oct. 26.—It is generally agreed that the lasters' strike in this city and the neighboring towns will not last over this week, and that the men will all go back to work next Monday, either at the old prices or a very slight increase. The committee appointed by the union Sunday went to Boston yesterday to confer with the machine company, but none of the members of the committee would have anything to say as to the result of the meeting after their return.

☞ Real down right comfort in our blankets and comforters. That's not all, our prices the lowest on earth. Blankets from 45 cents per pair up. Comforters from 75 cents up. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

BILLHEADS PRINTED
AT LEDGER OFFICE.

IS IT A TRIFLE?

THAT COMMON TROUBLE, ACID DYSPEPSIA OR SOUR STOMACH

Now Recognized as a Cause of Serious Disease.

Acid dyspepsia, commonly called heartburn or sour stomach, is a form of indigestion resulting from fermentation of the food. The stomach being too weak too promptly digest it, the food remains until fermentation begins, filling the stomach with gas and a bitter, sour, burning taste in the mouth is often present. The condition soon becomes chronic and being an every day occurrence is given but little attention. Because dyspepsia is not immediately fatal, many people do nothing for the trouble.

Within a recent period a remedy has been discovered prepared solely to cure dyspepsia and stomach troubles. It is known as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and is now becoming rapidly used and prescribed as a radical cure for every form of dyspepsia.

Stuarts' Dyspepsia Tablets have been placed before the public and are sold by druggists everywhere at 50 cents per package. It is prepared by the Stuart Chemical Co., Marshall, Mich., and while it promptly and effectually restores a vigorous digestion, at the same time is perfectly harmless and will not injure the most delicate stomach but on the contrary by giving perfect digestion strengthens the stomach, improves the appetite and makes life worth living.

Send for free book on Stomach Diseases. 24-3t-24-26-28.

☞ Full sized white Iron Bedsteads, brass trimmed, $2.98. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

—Women architects may not be uncommon a few years from now. Some of those who have taken up the work already are very successful, and others are likely to follow in their footsteps. Women certainly ought to be able to plan conveniences in houses that men would never think of.

Bon Ami

Will not Scratch

ALWAYS USED IN THE FORM OF A LATHER, AND DOES NO MORE INJURY THAN WATER.

MARY WENT.

LAST Week Mary and everybody else were invited to call at the Quincy Second Hand Variety Store. They went, and Mary tells us that she was delighted with what she found. She bought an excellent stove for half its value, a chamber set for a remarkably low figure, and small ware in abundance for almost nothing. In fact, she was so well pleased, she sent her husband, who bought all the tools he could carry off for a few dollars.

WALTER P. PINEL

is the Manager, and the store is right over here at number 20 Franklin street.

aug25 1y

FRANK F CRANE,

AUCTIONEER and APPRAISER,

Office, 4 Chestnut St., Quincy, Mass.

Oct. tf

CANCER CURED

BY ABSORPTION

NO KNIFE.

The result of years of scientific research by America's greatest blood specialist. A pleasant treatment that relieves immediately, cures permanently all forms of CANCERS, TUMORS and CHRONIC DISEASES. Hundreds of wonderful cures effected in and around Boston. Read the following:

BLOOD EVIDENCE

Then come to our offices and investigate the hundreds of other marvellous cures produced by ABSORPTION when all other treatment failed. Consult this living patient. "Dr. James M. Solomon: Dear Sir: The following is my testimonial, which I hope will help others. That after suffering several years with something that was never reached, getting only temporary help from different doctors, and each attack being more severe, I was advised by a friend, who had been cured of a tumor, to see her doctor. I was then unable for any work, and feeling worse from day to day; realizing that something was preying upon me of a serious nature, I was discouraged about my condition, and sought Dr. Solomon with little faith—it was more of an experiment. He got my confidence on the first interview, when, without a word of description of my feelings from me, he at once located my trouble, and I could not help believing that he knew from what I was suffering, although was greatly surprised and somewhat terrified when he told me it was cancer of the stomach. I began treatment at once, Nov. 3, 1892, and was faithful to his directions, with just the results promised I would get, till the following June (1893) I felt like a new being, and the doctor pronounced me recovered. I am sure that I have, and I can never repay the gratitude I owe to Dr. J. M. Solomon. Sincerely, EBEN FISH, 232 Harvard St., Dorchester, Mass." Today he is one of the many living witnesses of the only painless method that positively CURES when all others fail.

We want you to call and examine references of people you know—people we all know, who would not vouch for ABSORPTION had they not been cured. Ask for references marked H.

James M. Solomon, M.D.

SPECIALIST IN CANCERS, TUMORS AND CHRONIC DISEASES.

2 A Beacon Street, BOSTON.

Oct. 13. ly lo

GO TO....

Miss B. J. PATTERSON'S

Millinery Parlors

AT THE

Boston Bargain Store,

FOR YOUR

FALL MILLINERY.

A fine assortment of Trimmed Goods. Also, all the latest and best shapes in untrimmed hats, walking hats and sailors.

New Velvets, Ribbons, Fancy Feathers and Ostrich goods.

Lowest possible prices for first-class goods.

Music Hall Building, Quincy.

Oct. 1. tfpl

Quincy and Boston Electric Street Railway.

[Subject to change without notice.]

On and after October 10, cars will be run on the different routes as follows:

Quincy and Neponset.

Leave CITY SQUARE for Neponset at 5.55, 6.10, 6.25, 6.40 A. M. and every 15 minutes until 11.10 P. M.

Leave NEPONSET for Quincy at 6.15 A. M. and every 15 minutes until 11.30 P. M.

Cars leaving Quincy at 20 minutes of the hour and Neponset on the hour, go via. Hancock street direct.

Cars leaving Quincy at 25 and 55 minutes past the hour go via Newport avenue, Wollaston.

Cars leaving Quincy at 10 minutes past the hour go via Norfolk Downs, and those leaving Neponset at 30 minutes past go via Downs.

Cars leaving Neponset 15 minutes of and 15 minutes past the hour go via Wollaston and continue through Braintree and Holbrook to Brockton, connecting with cars for Bridgewater, Taunton, New Bedford, Fall River, Newport and Providence.

Quincy and East Weymouth.

Leave CITY SQUARE (10 minutes later from Quincy Point and 22 minutes later from North Weymouth)—5.45, 6.20, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20, 9.50, 10.20, 10.50, 11.20, 11.50 A. M.; 12.20, 12.50, 1.20, 1.50, 2.20, 2.50, 3.20, 3.50, 4.20, 4.50, 5.20, (5.30 to East Weymouth car house), 5.50, 6.20, 6.30, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20, 9.50, 10.50 P. M., (11.50 Wednesday and Saturday to Thomas' Corner only.)

Leave EAST WEYMOUTH (20 minutes later from North Weymouth and 30 minutes later from Quincy Point)—6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8, 8.30, 9, 9.30 10, 10.30, 11, 11.30 A. M.; 12, 12.30, 1, 1.30, 2, 2.30, 3, 3.30, 4, 4.30, 5, 5.30, 6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8 8.30, 9, 9.30, 10, 10.30, 11.30 P. M.

Quincy and Weymouth Landing.

Leave QUINCY at 5.30 A. M., 6.20, 7.20 and every hour until 12.20, then 1.50 and every hour until 10.50 P. M.

Leave WEYMOUTH LANDING at 5.50 A. M. and every hour until 12.50, then 2.20 and every hour until 11.20 P. M., connect with trains to Boston at Quincy.

Quincy and East Milton.

Leave CITY SQUARE, 5.55, 6.25, then every 5 minutes of and 25 minutes past the hour until 9.25 P. M., then at 10.50 P. M.

Leave EAST MILTON 6.25, 6.55 A. M., then every 5 minutes of and 25 minutes past the hour until 9.50 P. M., then 10.20 and 11.20 P. M.

Quincy and Brockton.

Leave QUINCY for Brockton at 6.10 and 6.40 A. M., and every half hour until 9.10 P. M., except on Wednesday and Saturday, when car at 9.40 runs through to Brockton. Cars at 9.40 and 10.10 to South Braintree every night.

Quincy and Hingham.

Leave QUINCY at 7.20 A. M. and every hour until 11.20 A. M., then 1.50 and every hour until 5.50 P. M.

Leave HINGHAM at 8 A. M. and every hour until 12 M., then 2.30 and every hour until 6.30 P. M.

Neponset, Atlantic and Squantum.

Leave NEPONSET at 6.30 A. M. and every hour until 8.30 P. M., connecting at Atlantic with outward express trains.

Leave SQUANTUM at 7 A. M. and every hour until 9 P. M., connecting at Atlantic with express trains.

Quincy and Houghs Neck.

Leave QUINCY CENTRE at 6.20 A. M., and and every hour until 1.20, and then 1.50 and every hour until 9.50.

Returning, leave HOUGHS NECK at 5.45 A. M., and every hour until 12.45, and then 1.20 and every hour until 9.20.

SUNDAYS.

Cars leave City Square, Quincy, for E. Weymouth and Weymouth Landing at 7.30 A. M. and West Quincy at 7 A. M. and on the hour and half hour throughout the day.

Sunday time same as week days on other lines, except that the first two trips are omitted.

BENJ. J. WEEKS, Superintendent.

New York, New Haven and Hartford R. R.

Eastern District.

On and after Oct. 16, 1898, trains will run as follows: (See note of explanation at bottom.

TO BOSTON. Leave Quincy.	Stops at	Arrive Boston.	FROM BOSTON. Leave Boston.	Stops at	Arrive Quincy
r 6 12	abc	e 6 30	5 55	ihgfedcba	*6 22 r
r 6 42	abc	7 00	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	7 30	cba	7 49 r
r 7 26	ad	7 43	8 30	cba	8 49 r
r 7 42	abc	8 00	9 30	cba	9 49 r
r 8 12	abc	8 30	10 30	cba	10 49 r
r 8 26	ad	8 43	11 30	cba	11 49 r
r 8 42	abc	9 00	12 30	cba	12 49 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	1 30	cba	1 49 r
r 10 12	abc	10 30	2 30	cba	2 49 r
r 11 12	abc	11 30	3 30	cba	3 49 r
r 12 12	abc	12 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
r 1 12	abc	1 30	5 00	cba	5 19 r
r 2 12	abc	2 30	5 17	da	5 36 r
r 3 12	abc	3 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
r 4 12	abc	4 30	6 00	cba	6 19 r
r 5 12	abc	5 30	6 17	da	6 36 r
r 6 12	abc	6 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	7 00	cba	7 19 r
r 7 39	abcdefghi	8 05	7 30	cba	7 49 r
r 8 08	abcdef	8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	9 30	cba	9 49 r
r 10 08	abcdef	10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r
r 11 12	abc	11 30	11 30	cba	11 49 r

SUNDAYS.

r 7 12	abc	7 30	6 30	cba	6 1
r 8 12	abc	8 30	8 30	cba	8 49 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	12 30	cba	12 49 r
r 1 12	abc	1 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
r 5 12	abc	5 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 8 08	abcdef	8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
r 10 08	abcdef	10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r

*The letters in the same line as the figures stand for different stations and indicate that trains stop, as follows:

a, Wollaston, b, Norfolk Downs. c, Atlantic. d, Neponset. e, Pope's Hill, f, Harrison Square. g, Savin Hill. h, Crescent Avenue. i, South Boston. r, Quincy Adams. (xx), Express.

C PETER CLARK, Gen'l Supt. A. C. KENDALL, G. P. A.

QUINCY DAILY LEDGER.

VOL. 10. No. 251. QUINCY, MASS., THURSDAY, OCTOBER 27, 1898. PRICE 2 CENTS.

All goods are delivered FREE at residences in Quincy.

Represented in Quincy by Mr. Otho A. Hayward.

GEO. AMES,

the ONLY PRACTICAL PLUMBER in the Hardware business in the City. He has a patent SEWER TRAP which cannot be beat. Impossible for deadly sewer gas to enter your homes See him about your Sewer Connection. H has had three years' experience in Boston and other large cities. Established here in 1889 and still in it. Work done anywhere.

Hardware, Paints and Oils, Putty and Glass, Yacht Supplies, Steam and Gas Fittings. Steam and Hot Air Heaters put in repair for the winter.

ADAMS BUILDING

Gentlemen, Buy Your....

OVERCOATS

Where you can find the best assortment in the city and the lowest prices, which is at

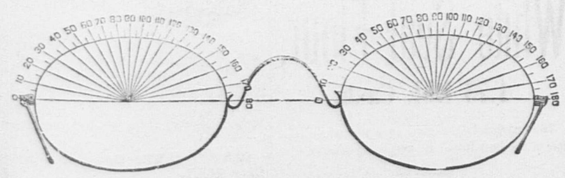

C. F. DERBY'S, SAVINGS BANK BUILDING, QUINCY. 5-1m

MAKE IT HOT FOR YOU.

If your house is cold and you have become disgusted with the various devices called heaters, and you are really anxious to have warmth and comfort in your home, place an order for one of those G. B. Bates CIRCULATORS. It will "make it hot for you" or just the temperature you desire. Its construction is based upon scientific and economical principles. Several have recently been put in right here in Quincy, and others will be put in during the next few weeks. Don't read this ad. and then forget about it till your water pipes are all frozen, but go now to

G. B. BATES,

Hancock Street, Quincy.

ASTIGMATISM

Causes most of the distressing headaches. Properly fitted glasses will correct the error and remove the pain. Consult

WILLIAMS,

Member of the New England Association of Opticians,

104 Hancock St., Quincy.

If You Have a House to Let, Advertise It in the Ledger.

TELEGRAPHIC,

3 O'CLOCK.

LONG IN BOSTON.

Tendered a Magnificent Reception.

Over 1000 Republicans at a Grand Banquet.

Rousing Speeches by Long, Wolcott and Lodge.

Boston, Oct. 27.—Massachusetts Republicans last night honored the distinguished son of Massachusetts, ex-Governor John D. Long, secretary of the navy. The dinner of the Massachusetts Republican club was designed to show the appreciation of the party and of the state for the services of the secretary, as the head of the navy. It was a welcome coming from the hearts of the thousands present that caused the secretary's voice to quiver when he arose to speak. He said in part:

"I cannot stand in this generous presence and not be keenly alive to the fact that it emphasizes, not the kindness of personal friendship, not even the spirit of partisan zeal, but the warm, enthusiastic pride of the American citizen in the administration of the American government; pride in his country; and pride especially, I am sure, from your welcome tonight to me, in the glory of the American navy. Were there ever such pages as that navy has written, not in water, but in letters of light on the firmament of history? Why should I speak for it, when the navy speaks for itself? Is it not enough to say that it has maintained the glorious standard to which it rose in the war of the American revolution, and in the war of 1812, and in the war of the Union? Its achievements during the last six months have been one blaze of unprecedented triumph, not only the triumph of battle, but the finer triumph of the highest professional skill, of scientific achievement and of that preparation and foresight which make the public service efficient, accurate and successful. It has added new names to the already glittering constellation of heroic stars.

"But why dwell on the navy, when that is only a part of the triumphant, responsive and glorious administration of President McKinley. Is there an American who is not proud of that administration? Is there an American who will not sustain it? What were you all saying six months ago—you Republicans; you Democrats; you reformers; you sound money men; you patriots everywhere? What were you saying then, except words of praise for the president and his performance of his duties; for his firm stand for the improvement of the civil service; for his confirming and assuring words of praise in behalf of sound money; for his generous efforts at reuniting, in the bonds of a union of heart as well as of form, all sections of the country; for his efforts to avert the grim visage of war and to maintain peace? Where then was the failure? What did you mean when you crowded about him with congratulations; when in editorial and press dispatch you had no word too cordial in his behalf; when if you saw him or any member of his cabinet, you had only expressions of satisfaction with his course? Is it possible that now in the meaner zest of a political campaign any of you will forget all this? Does he deserve less at your hands, because, reluctant to prosecute the war which congress declared, he has prosecuted it with the utmost vigor, with unflinching perseverance, and with a swift, sure triumph of your arms on land and on sea; or because on the first intimation of the possibility of peace, he has led the way to it by the most generous terms that ever conqueror granted to the conquered? Ther chave been faults and shortcomings; mistakes here, and mistakes there, but when you sweep the field from the hilltop of fairness and good sense, and not from the swamps of partisanship, what cancer of corruption or dishonesty has been disclosed, and what is the result but the most complete success won at the expense of the least possible extravagance and failures?

"A vote is not in this election the expression of a mere personal preference. Nor is it the handcuff of a party shackle. It is an expression of an intelligent weighing of principle. It is the approval or condemnation of existing government; and, looked at in that light, there is but one way in this campaign in which it should be cast, and that is for the candidates of the Republican party. What man would not almost wish that his right hand had been cut off rather than not have upheld Abraham Lincoln a third of a century ago? Let no man in Massachusetts a third of a century hence hang his head because his hand did not uphold William McKinley, the disciple and the successor, not only in place but in faith, of Abraham Lincoln.

A Military Pageant.

Philadelphia, Oct. 27.—The military pageant was today's feature of the observance of the peace jubilee. The onlookers were wrought to a high pitch of excitement as the regulars and volunteers passed in review.

Tomorrow's Almanac and Forecast.

Sun rises—6:13; sets, 4:43.
Moon sets—5:20 a. m.
High water—10 a. m.; 10:45 p. m.
Fair weather seems certain Friday, and cooler in the morning, followed by rising temperature, with variable winds.

CITIZEN'S SUPREME DUTY.

Must Aid In Achieving a Genuine Unity of the Races.

Concord, N. H., Oct. 27.—The subject of President Lamson's address at last night's session of the American Missionary association was "The Work of the American Missionary Association for a United State." He said that the association, aside from its mission of giving the gospel to those who need its consolation and authority, has another purpose, namely, to make the Chinese, Indians and negro races, so far as they exist within the limits of our country, Americans. Said he: "We take no time to inquire if this is the noblest or most christian motive; it is certainly sufficiently noble for all intelligence, energy and altruistic devotion. We are laboring to make men christians; yes, but patriotic christians. The supreme duty of the citizen—the christian citizen, for the citizen who is not a christian has not a sufficient reserve of permanent wisdom and national love to support a patriotic ideal—is to unite the states and interests and races. A genuine unity must be achieved to save the country and that which the country holds dear. There must be a union, not only of government, but of ideal patriotism.

"The war, by uniting all interests, prepared us for the results of the war, the increase of interests; but the question of questions remains. How are we to unite all these diversities of tradition, locality, advantage, race, and intensify the oneness of our national life? Religious patriotism cannot find the answer in any interest or law, or element of social life or church. It cannot be accomplished by commerce or education, or any historic continuity. The unity of interests will be secured and conserved not by fastening all together, but by fastening each to the same center. The unity of the United States is the unity of a system where each planet is held by the gravity and illumined by the light of the same central sun. The uniting center is the one Lord. Varied interests are united by an undivided devotion to one supreme, and on earth there is but one supreme, Jesus Christ. If all the diversities of American life are loyal to one supreme, there will be unity. There will be the fusion of one patriotism and the guidance of one authority. We need not be fastened together to move together; if every interest, in its eye and will follows Christ, the nation will be one. For the sake of unity the nation must be a christian nation."

Mourn For the Dead.

Washington, Oct. 27.—At Wednesday's session of the convention of the Young Men's Catholic union resolutions were passed expressing a renewal of fealty to the mother church, and congratulating the president and people on the successful termination of the war with Spain, honoring and respecting those who fought so valiantly and mourning the loss of the brave patriots who gave up their lives for their country. A resolution was also adopted calling attention to the small number of Catholic chaplains in the army and navy, and recommending that steps be taken looking to an increase of the same.

The following officers were elected: President, W. T. McGuirl of Brooklyn; first vice president, B. M. Bogan of Rahway, N. J.; second vice president, D. P. Toomey of Boston; secretary and treasurer, E. P. Gallagher of Philadelphia. All of these officers were elected on a ballot cast by the secretary. Mr. Gallagher is the only new officer.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

Mrs. Levina Short, aged 45, who had been despondent on account of ill health, hanged herself in Bridgeport.

Dr. Nancy A. Guilford and the others who are under indictment for causing the death in Bridgeport of Emma Gill will not be tried until February.

Mrs. Burrell of Toronto, who, while insane, strangled her three children, has been formally committed for trial. There are three charges of murder recorded against her.

St. Aloysius' church was dedicated in St. Johnsbury, Vt., with the impressive services of the Catholic church, Bishop Michaud of Burlington officiating ,and preaching a dedicatory sermon.

In response to the demand off the British minister, the dowager empress has issued an edict directing the punishment of the Chinese soldiers who attacked a party of English railway engineers.

The United States evacuation commissioners in Havana are daily visited by Spanish officers who wish to enter the United States service. All such requests have been met with a negative.

Various geologists to whom samples of gold-bearing rock found in Malvern, O., have been sent report that it contains gold in paying quantities. The gold, it is estimated, will run from $14 to $40 per ton of rock.

Wesleyan defeatedAmherst at football yesterday afternoon for the second time this season, the score of the game being 28 to 0. Amherst was completely outclassed, both in weight and class of play, the tactics of the team being entirely unfitted for the slippery ground.

At the opening of the annual convention of the American Society of Municipal Improvements President VanDuyne of Newark said that he knew of no reason why the companies owning franchises should not contribute their share to the support of the schools and other city expenses.

A member of the Spanish chamber of deputies, having been imprisoned for publishing a paper in Valencia in defiance of the censor's interdict, the government has decided to consult the supreme court and the council of state regarding the interpretation of the laws relating to the privileges of deputies.

Prentiss Webster of Lowell died suddenly last night as the result of a paralytic shock the day previous. He was a law partner of General Butler, to whom he was related, at the time of the death of the latter. He had written extensively for the press and law magazines, and had published a textbook on citizenship.

☞ Powerful oil heaters. Will heat your room in a twinkling. $3.98. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

LAND VALUES

A Transcript From the Books of the Assessors.

Number of Feet in Each Lot and Valuation Thereof.

Also the Amount of Each Person's Tax Bill for 1898.

[Continued from yesterday.]

Something new in the publication of the taxpayers of the city is attempted this year by the Daily Ledger. There is considerable interest in the assessed value of land in the city, which is claimed to be high in some cases and low in others. So the Ledger has supplemented the amount of the tax bill in each ward with the value of each lot of land for which the person is taxed, giving in each case the number of square feet or acreage.

The amount given in the line with the person's name is his total ward tax, and may include houses, personal property, etc., in addition to the lots of land below. The Ledger gives only the valuation of the land.

To obtain a person's total tax in the city, add together the amounts paid in the several wards.

The Ledger commenced the publication Aug. 30, and has already published the land values of all persons whose names begin with A to O, and today's instalment is the second of the Ps:

WARD ONE.

Valuation of Land Only.	Total Ward Tax.
Penniman, Charles H. About 6,037 ft., Whitwell, st. $600.	$57 80
Penniman, James T. 19,170, Irving place, $8,300.	171 20
Penniman, S. & Sons,	54 00
Perkins, Elias A. 19,000, Elm, $3,200.	151 40
Perkins, Fred A. 11,558, Cherry ave., $800.	79 85
Perry, Ellen M. 3,125, Shennon, $250.	6 30
Peterson, Bernard 1-4 acre, Carlton, $200.	21 60
Peters, Mary A. 5,000, Whitwell, $600.	19 80
Peterson, Charles P. About 3,600, at Houghs Neck, $250. 5,554, Rogers, $400.	32 40
Peterson, Lroenzo L., and Mary 5,749, Cranch, $575.	49 95
Pettengill, Charles F. 8,500, Canal, $1,200.	110 00

WARD TWO.

Perry, Mrs. David W. 17,761 feet, High School ave., $2,000.	72 00
Perry, Emma 750, South, $100.	7 20
Perry, Harriet E. 5,000, Arnold, $250. 6,457, Broadway, $200.	29 70
Peterson, Jacob 4,000, Broadway, $200.	3 60

WARD THREE.

Penniman, Stephen 7,830 feet, Pleasant street, $700. 1,998, off Quincy, $150.	56 90
Person, Martin 4,800, Nightingale ave., $250.	38 90
Petelle, Emilie 6,309, Quincy, $450.	38 70
Peterson, Almer 5,000, Albertina, $300.	37 80
Peterson, Otto 7,500, Isabella, $225.	15 05

WARD FOUR.

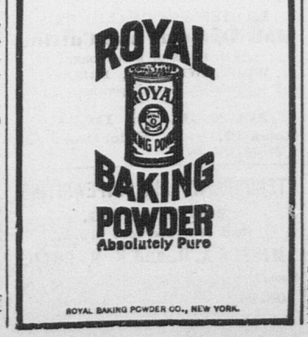

Pendis, John C. 1-6 acre, Rogers stree,t $400.	36 20
Person, Per 4,200, Wilson, $200.	32 60
Person, Pater 7,000, Forrest ave., $200. 7,000, " " $200.	34 20
Perkins, Patrick 6,000, off Rogers, $250.	29 90
Peterson, Charles 8,395, Carlmark, $300.	39 80
Peterson, John 22,143, Station, $700.	36 90
Peterson, Axal 5,408, Station, $300.	38 00

WARD FIVE.

Pearson, Emma E. 5,475 feet, Hamden Circle, $350.	47 70

Continued on page 3.

Royal makes the food pure, wholesome and delicious.

WATCHES.

GENT'S WATCHES, $1.50 and Up.

LADIES' WATCHES, $2.50 and Up.

EVERY WATCH WARRANTED.

$2.00 Belts, $1.00 Each.
75c. Brooch Pins, 25c. Each.
25 and 35c. Stick Pins, 5 and 10c. Ea.

Quincy SOUVENIR TILES Half Price,

And Other Bargains.

A. A. LINSCOTT, Jeweler,

154 Hancock St., opp. Post Office, Quincy.

Agent for Graphophones.

aug 6. tf

Pan-Cakes

these cool mornings? No trouble to make them if you use Hecker's "Self-Rising Buckwheat Flour. Mix it with a little water or milk and its ready to use. Have you ever tried Honey on your pan-cakes? It's delicious. We have some good Maple Syrup, though, if you prefer it.

You save time and trouble by using Self Rising Buckwheat Flour. "Hecker's" is reliable—no better quality is made.

Self Rising Buckwheat 15c. a Pck'ge

BOSTON BRANCH GROCERY,
Durgin & Merrill's Block, - Quincy.

Rain or Snow

Along the coast but fair in the interior, we read sometimes, but whether rain, snow, fair or blow outside, you may be fair, comfortable and happy inside of one of those

Warm Overcoats

that you can buy at the "Granite," and not only overcoats, but everything required for the comfort of men and boys.

Don't get caught in the storms of winter without proper protection, but go now to the

Granite Clothing Store,

DURGIN & MERRILL'S BLOCK,
QUINCY.

MARY WENT.

LAST Week Mary and everybody else were invited to call at the Quincy Second Hand Variety Store. They went, and Mary tells us that she was delighted with what she found. She bought an excellent stove for half its value, a chamber set for a remarkably low figure, and small ware in abundance for almost nothing. In fact, she was so well pleased, she sent her husband, who bought all the tools he could carry off for a few dollars.

WALTER P. PINEL

is the Manager, and the store is right over here at number 20 Franklin street.

aug25 1y

☞ Real down right comfort in our blankets and comforters. That's not all, our prices the lowest on earth. Blankets from 45 cents per pair up. Comforters from 75 cents up. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

THE FALL SEASON

IS HERE

For the Purchase of

Fruit and Ornamental Trees,

Shrubs and Vines.

Buy now that your plants may get a good start by spring.

Remember that I carry all the desirable novelties, as well as the old standard varieties of nursery stock.

I call special attention to my Flowering Shrubs, Perpetual Roses, Clematis, and Rhododendrons.

Buy at home and save agents' commissions. None but strictly first-class stock, well acclimated, furnished. Call and examine.

Orders by mail receive prompt attention.

Wollaston Park Nursery,
Fenno St., Wollaston.
MARTIN PFAFFMANN, Prop.
P. O. Box 44, Wollaston. Residence, 2 Clay St.
Oct. 14—1m p-3w

Hazelton Lehigh

Costs a Trifle More.
You Know Why.

C. PATCH & SON

The John Hancock Stables.

Opposite Depot, Quincy, Mass.

Boarding, Baiting, Livery and Sale.

DR. J. A. DOW, Proprietor,

the well known Veterinary dentist and specialist in the treatment of lame horses. Sick horses treated at owner's risk.

The finest equipped and managed stable of its size in America.

Fine driving turnouts in light rigs; safe and good appearing. All horses let are perfectly safe for ladies to drive.

The choicest family, road and coach horses constantly on hand for sale. All horses guaranteed as represented.

☞ Will attend to veterinary practice as usual. aug18-1y

MUSIC HALL, - QUINCY,

Friday Even'g, Oct. 28,

At 8 o'clock.

GRAND TENTH DISTRICT

REPUBLICAN RALLY.

The Tenth District Congressional Committee have secured the following eminent and able speakers to address the people of Quincy upon the political issues of the day:

ROGER WOLCOTT,
Governor of Massachusetts.

SAMUEL W. McCALL,
Congressman Eighth District.

COL. ALBERT CLARKE,
Sec'y Home Market Club.

SAMUEL J. BARROWS,
Our Candidate for Congress.

HON. RUSSELL A. SEARS, Mayor of Quincy, will preside, and there will be music by the Quincy Band. The balcony will be reserved for ladies, and they are cordially invited to attend.

THOMAS C. BACHELDER,
Chairman.

STEPHEN W. MARSHALL,
Secretary.

Oct. 22,—6t

By FRANK F. CRANE, - Auctioneer.
Office, 4 Chestnut street, Quincy.

AUCTION SALE
— OF —
Horses, Carriages,
AND THE ENTIRE
Harness and Saddlery Stock
— OF —
GEO. J. JONES, Harness Maker,
NO. 53 HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY,
Tuesday, Nov. 1, '98,
At 10 o'clock A. M.

The Harness Stock consists of new and second hand Driving and Express Harnesses, Riding Saddles, Horse Blankets, Robes, Whips, fine set of Double Harness, one elegant Single Harness, Brushes, Halters, Collar and Saddle Pads, one new Tip Cart Harness, large variety of Bitts, Snaps, Brushes, Cards, Whip Sockets, and a ful, set of Harness Maker's Tools. Also a general assortment of small wares appurtaining to the trade.

TEN HORSES,

comprising trotters, pacers, driving, business and team horses; description at sale.

J. T. Smith Goddard Buggy, Rubber Tires, Cost $400, will be sold without any reserve, owner going abroad; Canopy Top Beach Wagon, 2 Open Beach Wagons, 1 Depot Wagon, 1 New Express Wagon, 1 Second Hand Express Wagon, 1 Road Sulky, 2 Goddard Buggies, 1 two-wheel Cart, 3 Poles, 1 Extra Nice Butter Wagon, cost $265, 1 Democrat Wagon, and several other carriages.

Sale positive, rain or shine. Terms cash.

Electric cars from Boston, Brockton and the Weymouths pass the shop.

5t 22 25 27 29 31 29plw

ORGAN RECITAL,
CHRIST CHURCH, - - QUINCY,
Thursday Evening, Oct. 27,
At 7.45 o'clock.

Mr. S. B. Whitney, organist of the Church of the Advent, Boston, will give an organ recital, assisted by Mrs. J. E. Tiffett, soprano of the Old South church, Boston.

The talent is of the very highest and this promises to be one of the finest musical evenings ever given in Quincy.

Admission to the church will be by ticket and each ticket holder is asked to contribute to the offering which will be taken.

Tickets may be obtained at the Church after the services Sunday, or by writing to the Rector for them.

Oct. 22. 5t

Hazelton Lehigh
FURNACE COAL

Give C. PATCH & SON

A Trial Order.

GO TO....

Miss B. J. PATTERSON'S
Millinery Parlors
AT THE
Boston Bargain Store,
FOR YOUR
FALL MILLINERY.

A fine assortment of Trimmed Goods. Also, all the latest and best shapes in untrimmed hats, walking hats and sailors.

New Velvets, Ribbons, Fancy Feathers and Ostrich goods.

Lowest possible prices for first-class goods.

Music Hall Building, Quincy.

Oct. 1. tfpl

DR. RALPH M. FOGG,
DENTIST.

Teeth extracted absolutely without pain by the use of the

"BOSTON VEGETABLE VAPOR."

It is claimed that, while it has the required properties of ether, chloroform, nitrous oxide gas, it lacks the disagreeable and dangerous qualities of these drugs. It is certainly a boon to suffering humanity to be relieved of the nausea too often following the administering of sedatives of the old school.—Boston Transcript.

Teeth made and repaired on Gold or Rubber base. Teeth Filling a specialty.

Office in French's Building, five doors south of Post Office, Quincy, Wednesdays. Hours, 9 A. M. to 9 P. M. July18-ly Nov8-1yo

Quincy Daily Ledger

ESTABLISHED IN 1889.

The ONLY DAILY in Norfolk County Massachusetts.

Published Every Evening, Sundays and Holidays Excepted, At No. 115 HANCOCK ST., City of Quincy, Mass., by

GEORGE W. PRESCOTT & SON.

Successors to Green & Prescott.

Subscription Price, $6.00 per year.

☞ A discount of $1 when paid in advance.

ALSO PUBLISHERS OF

The Quincy Patriot,

A Weekly Established in 1837, which has the Largest Circulation in Norfolk County, and

The Braintree Observer,

A Weekly Established in 1878.

TELEPHONE, 78-3 QUINCY.

Quincy Temperature at Noon.

	This Week.	Last Week.	In 1897.	In 1896.
Sunday	59	50	51	52
Monday	60	48	49	62
Tuesday	68	50	58	50
Wednesday	69	54	56	51
Thursday	60	61	55	58
Friday	—	56	59	50
Saturday	—	70	58	55

New Advertisements Today.

Notice.
Probate notice.
Desirable tenement to let.
$50 reward—Wollaston Golf Club.
Quincy Co-operative Bank—Sale of shares.

Good Afternoon.

It is to be regretted that there is even one man who would ascribe unworthy methods to those who are now foremost for the Quincy boulevard. At first it may have been a move of land owner but the land has changed hands and it is a city or citizens movement which practically has the united support of all our people, and certainly should have. To say that it is boy politics or a political move, only illustrates that there are always some to throw cold water on any Quincy project. We believe in Quincy, and that her people should get together and work for its advancement all along the line. The South Shore is now in a fair way to be included in the Metropolitan park system, but it yet needs considerable united work, and possibly some generous subscriptions.

There is strong talk of asking the Council to enact a curfew ordinance for this city. It is a law which is much needed, especially at Wollastion, where there is much trouble with unruly boys. But the ordinance would be of benefit to the entire city, keeping the young, especially the boys, under a restraint which would be a relief to a larger part of our citizens. This is not implying that our boys are bad, but that in cutting up their boyish pranks, which sometimes border upon lawlessness they destroy property and commit acts of vandalism, which owing to their youth, go unpunished. A number of cities and towns in this Commonwealth have passed curfew ordinances. We have yet to hear of a case where they have not attained the desired end,—keeping the young off of the streets at unseasonable hours, thus practically putting a stop to petty acts of mischief, and sometimes worse offences, which they commit when not directly under parental restraint. Possibly the Council will move in this matter before being petitioned, as it is understood that one or two members have already had the matter under consideration.

The remarks of President Graham at the Boulevard conference on Saturday deserves more than a passing thought. He spoke of the great increase in travel over the electric railway between Quincy and Boston and the need of double tracking all of our main streets. He was about to speak of the immediate future needs, when he realized he was not equal to the occasion, and said, goodness only knows how great the travel will be five years hence. Five years is only a short time, yet Quincy is going ahead by leaps and jumps even in the so-called hard times. Perhaps there is not a man in the city but under-estimates the population of Quincy. Most everybody is inclined to put it at, 22,000 or 23,000, yet we have no doubt but what it is over 25,000. The population of 1895 gave Quincy 20,712, a gain of 3,989 in five years, but the increase has been more marked since. Recent figures show 700 births a year, over 100 real estate sales per month, 250 new houses per year, and 4,500 school children.

Quincy Co-operative Bank

Has again declared Semi-annual dividend of 3 1-4 per cent., and

SALE of SHARES in 20th SERIES
Is Now Open.

Regular Monthly Meeting for receipt of Dues, sale of Money and Shares, WEDNESDAY, Nov. 2, 1898, at 7.30 P. M., Savings Bank Building.

R. D. CHASE, Sec.

Quincy, Oct. 27. 6t lwp

A GRAND RALLY.

Surprisingly Large Number at Hancock Hall.

Williams and Naphen the Principal Speakers.

Republicans Arraigned on the War Question.

Wednesday night was anything but pleasant, yet there was a good audience at the Democratic rally atHancock hall. It was not exactly an enthusiastic audience, although the speakers were frequently applauded.

At 8 o'clock when Michael T. Sullivan, Esq., chairman of the City Committee, called the meeting to order, there was upon the platform with him Hon. E. J. Slattery, candidate for Lieut. Governor; Mr. Henry F. Naphen, candidate for Congress; ex-Postmaster James F. Burke, T. J. Carey, ex-Mayor Hodges and Jeremiah C. Dorgan.

Later in the evening, Mayor Ramsdell of Lynn, a candidate for Congress in the Seventh district, J. J. Hogan of Salem, and George Fred Williams arrived. Mr. Bruce, the Democratic candidate for governor, for some reason, was not present.

After a few opening remarks James F. Burke was introduced as the presiding officer of the evening. President Burke was glad to see so many present to ratify the nominations and then introduced as the first speaker, the candidate for Congress.

Henry F. Naphen said the vital issue of the day was imperialism. If his hearers believed in this, they were justified in voting for the Republican candidates.

He then briefly referred to local matters he said Town river should be improved so that Quincy could compete with Cape Ann. Quincy should also have a public building, and if elected he would see that both were accomplished. If elected, regardless of party, where the interest of Quincy was concerned, he would always be at your service.

Edward J. Slattery had a good word to say about candidate Bruce, whom he had known for many years. He is not unknown as reported, but is well known and reflects great credit to the ticket. The responsibility of the great wrongs of the late war could not be placed except by the election of Democrats to the National House of Congress, who will stand up manfully and bring about that justice. He then spoke at length on the War department which he criticised.

Walter L. Ramsdell said he was present to declare that the democracy was by no means dead. On the contrary we are alive and determined. We have not lost heart or lost ground. The old Democratic ship is still afloat and sailing the sea and at the helm is a man whose heart is in the right place. That captain was William J. Bryan. That ship carries in its hold the confidence you have been looking for and which you will wait for until that ship gets into port. Free silver and the Chicago platform were not dead. But we have no reason to discuss these questions for we are not on trial. The Republicans are and it is for them to clear themselves before they ask where we stand.

George Fred Williams spoke of the renewed interest in the Democratic party, as this meeting the largest he had ever addressed in Quincy testified. Mr. Williams spoke at length upon National issues; the condition New England industries; and the need of a Democratic majority in the next congress.

☞Hundreds of handsome lamps, all the newest creations, from 25 cents to $10.00. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

$50 REWARD.

THE Wollaston Golf Club will pay a Reward of $50 for evidence which will lead to the arrest and conviction of the person who broke into and burglarized their clubhouse on Monday, Oct. 24, 1898.

WOLLASTON GOLF CLUB.

Wollaston, Oct. 27, 1898. 3t plw

NOTICE!

NOTICE is hereby given that my wife, SADIE L. RICH, having left my bed and board without cause, I shall pay no bills of her crntraction from this date.

HENRY C. RICH.

Quincy, Oct. 10, 1898. 27-3t

LADIES' and CHILDREN'S
Hair Dressing and Cutting.
ALL KINDS OF HAIR WORK.
WIGS, SWITCHES, FRIZZES.
Sixteen Years' Experience.

MRS. I. F. DOW,
Room 10, Hotel Greenleaf.
Quincy, Oct. 22. 6t

STENOGRAPHY AND TYPEWRITING,
BOOKKEEPING,
And All Clerical Work.
MISSES A. B. and E. M. COTE,
Room 12 Durgin & Merrill Block, - Quincy.
Oct. 10. tf

CALL TO ARMS.

Co. K Being Drilled for Duty in Cuba.

With Co. K, 5th Mass.
Middleton, Oct. 24, 1898.

The boys had another very chilly night, but today is a bright and sunny.

Major Morrison is makng preparation to atend the Peace Jubilee which is to be held this week at Philadelphia. This battalion does not go and the boys are thankful for it, as there will be marching all day.

The other regiments are preparing to vacate Camp Meade for the South.

Two regiments will leave today, the names are not at present known. Those performing tour of guard duty today are: Corporal Haskens, Bugler Piper, Privates Deslauries, Gillis, Gould, Gallagher, Gillbride Hodges, Jones, Johnson, Kelliher, Leslie, Levangie, Lord. Private Hodges and Deslauries secured the orderlyship. The other three companies, do not have any show while K is on the field.

Dress parade this evening was reviewed by the Major at 7.30. The boys had what we call the long roll call, or call "To Arms." The bugles sounding continually. Those a little distance from camp had to run so as to answer to their respective names. Then companies were marched off to the color line with belts and rifles, and there dismissal. The whole amount of time taken in the getting together of the whole battalion, did not count 8 minutes. The battalion did remarkable good work in getting together in so short a time. This is done so that we may be prepared for duty when in Cuba. We expect to be called "To Arms" at any hour of the night, for riots or disturbances are apt to occur with the natives. The boys were complimented for their quickness.

Our boys are all well.

Volunteer.

Church Incorporation.

A meeting of the Wollaston Congregational society was held at the church vestry on Tuesday evening. Mr. H. T. Whitman was moderator and Mr. C. A. Campbell was clerk, pro tem. It was voted to become incorporated and request the standng committee to take the necessary steps to incorporate. Three committees were appointed,—By-Laws, Creed and Nominations. These will report at the meeting which will be held on Friday evening, No. 11.

As this is quite a radical step for this old society to take the Rev. R. B. Tobey, who has taken great interest in the matter, was interviewed, saying:

The history of the Congregational churches is unfamiliar to many of the members of the denomination, who do not know that at the outset the parish or society was unheard of. It may not be necesary to state how the parish came into existence, but it is generally conceded that a mistake was made when it was attached to the Congregational churches. Our church leaders, as a whole, have always frowned upon it, and after losing much valuable property in different States through the power of the parish, an effort was made to limit the membership of the parish or society to church members. The idea prevailed that members of the church in their spiritual work should act in their special and peculiar relation, and that these same persons should either compose entirely the parish or society, or should absolutely control it.

When this plan was put into practice the experiment for the most part failed, and a quarter of a century ago the opinion among such men as Dr. Henry M. Dexter and Dr. A. H. Quint was that the parish or society in any form was a failure, and that the only proper and Christian method of conducting church affairs was through the incorporation of the church, giving to it and it alone, the control of all its affairs, spiritual and temporal.

This is simply a return to the early usage of the churches. The evils of the parish system have been written upon freely and it need only be said here that experience has shown the parish to be unnecessary. As a matter of fact confusion results from the attempt of any church to do a part of its business through one organization and another part through a second organization. Business is retarded rather than expedited by two distinct sets of officers representing different organizations.

All newly organized churches are being incorporated, without thought of the parish. Within the last ten years 147 Congregational churches, new and old, have been incorporated in Massachusetts alone, and the Congregationalist, the organ of our denomiation, which is thoroughly in sympathy with this forward movement, has issued a Handbook of Church Incorporation in response to numerous calls from the churches of our faith and order.

It is an important sale of horses, carriages and harness which Auctioneer Crane advertises for next Tuesday at the premises of George J. Jones. Mr. Jones has been in the harness business for almost a life time, and has done reliable work.

LOCAL NEWS TRACK.

Some Colts which are Sure Winners Every Heat.

Windy today.

Cooler weather.

How the leaves are falling.

Last night was a tough night.

Goss & Gould are making improvements at their store.

Gov. Wolcott will speak at Quincy Music hall tomorrow night.

The top coat left on the train has been returned to its owner.

The ivy on the Lincoln school has put on a coat of many colors and looks attractive.

Mrs. Luke Rideout who celebrated her eightieth birthday last week is seriously ill.

The case of Bass v. City of Quincy is in order for trial at the Norfolk Superior court.

The barber shop near the Altantic station has been closed during the past week owing to sickness of Mr. Kerrigan.

Up-to-date ten-cent stores are very popular. This is the kind H. L. Kincaide & Co. will conduct in the Tirrell block.

The Chinese laundry at the Atlantic depot is to move into the store recently occupied as a bakery on Sagamore street.

On Tuesday Mr. Al. Williams of Wollaston shot the canvas back duck. This is a very rare bird to find in these waters.

Mr. Sherman I. Gould of Portland, Me., formerly of West Quincy, has been admitted to the Cumberland County bar.

The clubhouse of the Wollaston Golf club was burglarized again Monday night. The club has offered a liberal reward for the detection of the fellow.

Miss Kennedy, the teacher of the nature work of the public schools in this city, will speak in the Wollaston Unitarian church on Sunday at 12.15 o'clock.

The City Clerk on Wednesday certified to the City Treasurer the first list of parties to be paid State Aid under the new law, on account of the war with Spain. The amount certified for this payment was $180.

A the probate court in Brookline on Wednesday the administrator of the estate of Thomas Kennon was authorized to sell 47,700 square feet of land on Squantum street at auction. This was the only Quincy business.

Charles Leslie of Co. K, 5th Mass. Regt., U. S. V., gave his parents a surprise by coming home on seven days' furlough from Camp Meade, Penn. His mother will hold a reception tonight and present him with a ring.

Wednesday evening "A Barmecide Banquet" was to have been given by the Christian Endeavor society at the Memorial church. The extremely boisterous weather, however, prevented and the "banquet" was postponed till Monday evening.

The cases of Baptist Monti and Batista Tambarina against the Quincy and Boston street railway are on trial at Dedham. The former claims damages for his team struck by a car on Hancock street, and the latter for personal injuries.

Mrs. J. E. Tippett, the soprano of the Old South church, Boston, will render three of the numbers at the organ recital this evening at Christ church. Mr. S. B. Whitney will play music of Rink, Whitney, Gurilmant, Wely, Wagner, Handel and Lemaigret.

Work on the Brook street section of the sewer is being rapidly pushed. The intersecting sewers on Newport avenue, Arlington, Fayette, Farrington, Safford and Taylor streets will be constructed as far north as Central avenue, and on Highland avenue, as far north as midway between Elmwood, and Central avenues.

Mrs. Lousia A., widow of Joshua Hanson, died quite suddenly this morning at her home on Canal street. Mrs. Hanson has not enjoyed good health for some time but has been able to be about. This morning she was apparently as well as usual and was left by her daughter in her room. Returning a few minutes later she found Mrs. Hanson had passed away. Death was caused by heart trouble. She was 67 years of age.

The regular meeting of Bay View, I. O. L., was largely attended and many visitors were present from Boston, Roxbury and Brockton. One candidate was initiated and two applications received. After the regular business of the lodge was transacted, the Rev. Mr. Blued from Pittsburg, Pa., was presented and made a stirring address, which was received with applause. Remarks and songs were listened to from Bros. Harvey, Moor and Mason of Boston and a pleasant evening was spent.

HEADQUARTERS
— FOR —
Honest, Reliable
Cents' Furnishings

My Store is Well Stocked with Carefully Selected . . . .

Fall and Winter Goods

From Leading Wholesale Houses of New York and Boston.

We will compete with any store in Quincy or Boston. For instance we will quote a few prices on our Leaders:

1 lot of Men's Brown Suits, small plaid pattern, a bargain, only . . $5.00

1 lot of Men's Fast Black Kersey OVERCOATS, satin lining $8.00

1 lot of BOYS' SUITS, to close $1.00

1 lot of Men's and Boys' REEFERS, all kinds and sizes from . . . . $1.50 to $4.00

We make no odd prices to deceive the imagination of people, and have

Honest Goods
— FOR — Honest Money.

Come, See, and Be Convinced.

F. J. PIERSON,
144 Granite St., Quincy.
Brewer's Corner.

Oct. 26. 2m eow

WILLIAM E. BAXTER, M. D.
Practice Limited to the
EYE AND EAR.
553 Boylston St., Boston.
QUINCY—Monday and Friday.
Hours, 9 to 11. 195 Hancock Street
May 21. 1y

MABEL F. FAIRBANKS
TEACHER OF
CHINA PAINTING and WATERCOLOR.
China Decorated to Order.
34 Grand View Avenue, Wollaston.
Sept. 29. 3m

JOHN EVANS,
Auctioneer and Appraiser.
Prompt Settlement.
24 COPELAND STREET, QUINCY.
Feb. 26. tf

POTATOES,
15c. Pk.

Sweet Potatoes,
15c. Pk.

White Seal Flour,
4.75 Bbl. Cash.

We guarantee this Flour to be old wheat and one of the best Bread Flours in the market.

L. M. PRATT & CO.,
25 School Street.

E. S. BECKFORD,
Electrician.
Wiring and Fitting for Incandescent, Motors, Dynamos, Bells, etc.
GRANITE STREET, Near the Bridge, QUINCY
Feb. 1 1y

E. LANDIS SNYDER,
Organist and Choirmaster of Christ Church,
TEACHER OF
VOICE CULTURE, PIANO AND ORGAN.
Studio: Room 10 Durgin & Merrill's Block,
QUINCY, MASS.
Sept. 10. tf

DR. HERBERT S. HAYFORD
195 Hancock Street.

OFFICE HOURS—11 to 12 A. M., 2 to 4 and 7 to 8 P. M.
Telephone, 4-3.
Quincy, July 5. tf

HAZELTON LEHIGH

And Not Hard White Ash,
Is What You Should Burn.

C. PATCH & SON.

TELL US . .
What you are looking for.

We can show you a fine line of

FALL AND WINTER
UNDERWEAR,
HOSIERY,
Outing Flannels, Flannelettes,
Plaid Dress Goods,
WRAPPERS, BLANKETS,
Comforters,
Dress Linings and other Dry Goods.

OUR STOCK IS FRESH.
OUR PRICES THE LOWEST.

MISS C. S. HUBBARD,
158 Hancock Street.

NOTICE TO VOTERS.

CITY OF QUINCY.

For the purpose of preparing the Annual Register of Voters, and of receiving evidence of qualifications from persons claiming a right to Vote at the coming City Election, the Board of Registrars of Voters will be in session in the COUNCIL CHAMBER in the City Hall Building, on the evenings of

Wednesday, November 9, and Saturday, November 12, from 7 to 9 o'clock P.M., also on Wednesday, November 16, from 12 o'clock, noon, to 10 o'clock P.M.

Every applicant for registration must appear in person before the Board. Every male applicant must present either a certificate from the Assessors or a Tax bill or Notice from the Collector of Taxes, showing that he has been assessed a Poll tax as a resident of the City on the First day of May last; if a naturalized citizen he must also produce for inspection his papers of naturalization. Payment of a poll tax is not a prerequisite to voting.

Persons who have lived in the state one year, and in the city six months previous to December 6, if qualified in other respects, can be registered.

No name can be added to the list of voters unless registered previous to WEDNESDAY, Nov. 16th, at 10 o'clock P. M., when registration will close.

Examine the Voting Lists posted herewith and see that your name is in its proper place. NO CHANGE can be made after WEDNESDAY, Nov. 16th, at 10 o'clock P. M. The Board of Assessors will hold meetings at the same time.

EDWARD B. MARSH,
CORNELIUS MOYNIHAN,
EDWARD J. McKEON,
EDGAR G. CLEAVES,
Registrars.

Quincy, Oct. 22, 1898. 21t

STATE ELECTION.

CITY OF QUINCY.

City Clerk's Office, Oct. 7, 1898.

IN Accordance with the provisions of Chapter 548 of the Acts of 1898, notice is hereby given that by a vote of the City Council, passed October 3, 1898, the polling places for the election to be held TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1898, in the City of Quincy, were designated as follows:

WARD ONE.—Council Chamber, City Hall.
WARD TWO—Hose House, Washington street.
WARD THREE, Precinct One.—Doble's Hall, Franklin street.
WARD THREE, Precinct Two.—Old Steamer House, School street.
WARD FOUR, Precinct One.—St. Mary's Hall, Willard street.
WARD FOUR, Precinct Two.—Hose House, Copeland street.
WARD FIVE.—Polson's Building, Newport avenue.
WARD SIX.—Hose House, Newbury avenue.

Attest: EDGAR G. CLEAVES,
City Clerk.

Quincy, Oct. 7, 1898. 27t

LANDIS SNYDER,
and Choirmaster of Christ Church,
TEACHER OF
ULTURE, PIANO AND ORGAN.
Room 10 Durgin & Merrill's Block,
QUINCY, MASS.
tf

HERBERT S. HAYFORD
Hancock Street.
HOURS—11 to 12 A. M., 2 to 4 and
Telephone, 4-3.
July 5. tf

LTON LEHIGH
And Not Hard White Ash,
s What You Should Burn.
C. PATCH & SON.

LL US . .
at you are looking for.
e can show you a fine line of
L AND WINTER
NDERWEAR,
HOSIERY,
Flannels, Flannelettes,
id Dress Goods,
PPERS, BLANKETS,
Comforters,
inings and other Dry Goods.
TOCK IS FRESH.
OUR PRICES THE LOWEST.
C. S. HUBBARD,
Hancock Street.

THE PHYSICAL WORK

Reception to the New Director of the Y.M. C. A.

There was quite a large attendance at the rooms of the Y. M. C. A. Wednesday evening at the reception given Mr. R. N. Van Buskirk, the new physical director of the Association. Mr. Buskirk was presented by Secretary Hoehn, and addressed the gentlemen present on the aims and purposes of gymnasium work. Cooperation was needed to make the work of the physical department a success. Refreshments were served during the evening by the members of the physical department, and music was furnished by the orchestra of the Swedish Lutheran church.

Classes for young men will be held on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays; for business men on Mondays at 5 o'clock and for boys Tuesday afternoon and Saturday morning.

It is also desired to form a ladies class if a sufficient number can be obtained and in this it might be added that membership to the auxiliary is not necessary. Information in relation to the ladies' class can be obtained from Mrs. W. H. Hoehn.

Memorial Church.

The sermon at the Memorial church Sunday morning was by the pastor on "The Definition of a Gentleman." His text was Romans 1:10—"Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love." He affirmed that though many books on etiquette described the points necessary in the makeup of a gentleman as regarded by many, there was no perfect definition outside of the Bible.

The Gospel of St. John pictured the true gntleman who with unselfish heart and losing his own self-consciousness, was a power for good in any community where he was placed. His recognition that all men are brothers led him to give a welcoming hand to all strangers and assistance to any he might be able to aid.

Miss Milliken of Boston sang finely two solos. Mr. Gasset, the tenor, was ill so that the quartette was unable to carry out the published musical programme.

The pulpit decorations were beautiful with the autumn shades of foliage and the rich-colored fall flowers.

The missionary topic was discussed with much enthusiasm in the evening followed by an interesting talk from the pastor on the same topic.

☞ Full sized white Iron Bedsteads, brass trimmed, $2.98. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

DIED

HANSON—In Quincy, Oct. 27, Mrs. Louisa A., widow of Mr. Joshua Hanson, aged 67 years, 7 months and 1 day.

A Perfect Infant Food
Gail Borden
Eagle Brand
Condensed Milk
A PERFECT SUBSTITUTE FOR MOTHERS MILK. FOR 40 YEARS THE LEADING BRAND.
"INFANT HEALTH" SENT FREE.
N.Y. CONDENSED MILK CO. NEW YORK.

Coal!
Just Received by Barge
Blackbird,
a Fresh Cargo
of
Pea Coal
(Small Nut.)
J. F. SHEPPARD & SONS
Quincy Sept. 7.

GURNEY'S INJURIES.

It Is a Mysterious Case and Puzzles Boston Police.

The injuries to Richaru Gurney, the Quincy expressman, are shrouded with considerable mystery. The Jounral has the following on the strange case:

Capt. Gaskin deailed Special Officer Putnam on the case at an early hour yesterday morning, bu his days work, although successful in clearing some points, did not clear up the case. Gurney, when found, had $206 in bills and a gold watch on his person as well as all his papers. So the robbery theory is void in this instance.

To begin at the point where Gurney first appears. Gurney is an expressman, in business for himself. On Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, he called at the store of Amos White, on South Market street, and secured two cases of eggs, to be taken to Quincy. He was then in good humor. At 3.30 he arrived at the Wait & Bond Cigar Company's place on Blackstone street, but the bundle of cigars that he wast to get had been sent away. Gurney then drove to the store of J. F. Parker & Co., 7 Pearl street, and was told to drive around to the rear entrance on Hartford street. He did so.

Three cases of fancy goods were put onto the wagon. Several bundles were left in the store. Gurney was to come to get them and sign a receipt after he fixed the cases on his wagon. That was at 4 o'clock and it is here that the mystery enters the case because Gurney disappears from view and no one can be found who saw him from this time until 5.30 Wednesday morning.

The concern waited until 5 o'clock and Gurney did not appear, but his horse and wagon was in Hartford street at the same place where he left it. Orders were given to unload the cases and bring them into the store again. This was done before 6 o'clock. The store was closed for the night and the emloyes went home. At 6.45 Tuesday night a policeman from Station found the horse and wagon without a driver. He put it up at a livery stable. He saw no trace of Gurney at that time or later.

At 5.30 Wednesday morning Arthur Russell an engineer at 150 Pearl street found Gurney groping along Pearl street in a badly dazed condition. He spoke to Gurney who mumbled something about an alleyway. Russell assisted Gurney to the watering trough in Fort Hill Square, where he told him to wash his face. It was covered with blood. This Gurney had done, when a herdic driver hailed him. He hired the carriage to take him to the Emergency Hospital. At this point Policeman Robinson appeared and made an investigation, as he thought, but did not.

Gurney was seen at the hospital by Special officer Putnam and his brother. He cannot tell where he was since 4 o'clock Tuesday night until 5.50 Wednesday morning. All he remembers was that he slept in some alleyway all night.

Prout—Morton.

There was a quiet and pretty wedding at Medford last evening, Councilman Joseph P. Prout of Quincy and Miss Grace Lee Morton, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Morton, being united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, 31 Grant avenue.

The bride was charming in a cream surah silk cut en traine, with tulle veil; her bouquet was of white roses. Miss Grace Hattie of Medford, the maid of honor wore a white organdie over green, and carried a bouquet of pinks. The groom was attended by Mr. Joseph Dyer of Medford. There was a large display of valuable presents.

Mr. and Mrs. Prout went to Washington on their wedding trip, and upon their return will reside on Whitwell street, Quincy.

Unity Club.

The work upon Italy, the subject of this season, begins with the meeting on Friday evening, the president, Charles E. Finch, Jr., having the programme for the evening in charge. The club is extremely fortunate in securing such brilliant talent for this occasion. A glance at the list of names assures us that the papers opening the regular work of the year will be given by those who are especially fitted to treat the subject to be considered.

Fall of the Roman Empire, Mrs. John O. Hall, Jr.

Hildebrand, Miss Madeleine Fish of Quincy High school.

Giotto: His frescoes, Miss Georgiana B. Lane of Woodward Institute.

Early Italian music, Mrs. H. W. Lull. Piano solos, Early Italian Music, Mrs. Alma Faunce Smith.

TODAY'S COURT.

Imond Catz was fined $3 for violating the city ordinances of Quincy, by leaving his horse unattended upon the public streets.

A number of juvenile cases were disposed of at the District court today. Arthur O'Neil, Arthur Caddy and George Bavin were sent to the Lyman school for larceny. James Morrison was sent to the truant school at Walpole, for truancy. David Lee and John Macalini who were charged with attempt at larceny were given three months' probation.

LAND VALUES.

Continued from page 1.

	Valuation of Land Only.	Total Ward Tax.
Perkins, Frederick A.		104 40
4,393, Standish ave.,	$250.
4,200, Beach,	$250.
4,832, Standish ave.,	$300.
7,980, " "	$400.
5,000, Fayette,	$500.
2,500, "	$250.
2,500, "	$250.
Perkins, Elias A.		31 50
3,423, Cenral ave.,	$250.
Perkins, Pembroke		10 80
6,000, Warren ave.,	$350.
4,471, " "	$250.
Perry, Ellen D.		14 40
14,954, Lot 7, Sec. 3,	$600.
5,084, " 8, " "	$260.
Perry, Frank J.		190 10
5,000, Newport ave.,	$2,500.
5,000, " "	$2,000.
5,030, " "	$500.
Perry, Frances M.		106 20
3,600, Grand View ave.,	$600.
1,500, " " "	$300.
11,879, Section 6,	$850.
11,250, " 1,	$1,450.
Perry, Vesta		70 20
6,000, Marion,	$900.
WARD SIX.
Perkins, Elias A.		73 35
1 1-2 acres, off Newbury street,	$500.
5,000 feet, Ash,	$225.
25,020, Walnut,	$1,250.
Peterson, Andrew		21 80
23,000, at Squantum,	$575.
17 000, " "	$425.

To be continued.

New Bowling League.

The first game in the candle pin series of the bowling league composed of teams from Quincy, West Quincy, Weymouth and Braintree was bowled at Costellos alleys, Wednesday evening. According to the new rules of scoring this year each string counts a game and in Wednesday nights game while in grand totals the Quincys won by 15 pins, according to the new scoring West Quincy won by a score of 2 to 1. The first string or game was won by Quincy by 35 pins, an the second and third games were won by the West Quincys by 11 and 4 pins. The summary:

WEST QUINCY.

Joyce,	73	79	74	226
Driscoll,	65	67	73	205
Tracey,	69	75	67	211
Daveron,	78	82	76	236
Mullane,	80	104	83	267
	365	407	373	1,145

QUINCY.

Westland,	83	88	73	224
Miller,	80	80	61	221
Packard,	71	63	75	209
Tirrell,	73	84	70	227
Boutin,	88	81	90	259
	395	396	369	1,160

☞ We sell Glenwood Ranges because they are the best ranges money can buy. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

THERE IS A CLASS OF PEOPLE
Who are injured by the use of coffee. Recently there has been placed in all the grocery stores a new preparation called GRAIN-O, made of pure grains, that takes the place of coffee. The most delicate stomach receives it without distress, and but few can tell it from coffee. It does not cost over 1-4 as much. Children may drink it with great benefit. 15 cts. and 25 cts. per package. Try it. Ask for GRAIN-O.

FISH.
Everything first-class at the
Cape Cod Fish Market,
Temple Street.
All kinds Fresh, Salt, Smoked an Pickeled
Quincy, Feb. 8. 1y

WORMS
Hundreds of Children and adults have worms but are treated for other diseases. The symptoms are:—indigestion, with a variable appetite; foul tongue; offensive breath; hard and full belly with occasional gripings and pains about the navel; heat and itching sensation in the rectum and about the anus; eyes heavy and dull; itching of the nose; short, dry cough; grinding of the teeth; starting during sleep; slow fever; and often in children, convulsions.
TRUE'S PIN WORM ELIXIR

is the best worm remedy made. It has been in use 47 years. It is purely vegetable, harmless and effectual. Where no worms are present it acts as a Tonic and corrects the condition of the mucous membrane of the stomach and bowels. A positive cure for Constipation and Biliousness, and a valuable remedy in all the common complaints of children. Price 25c. Ask your druggist for it.
Dr. J. F. TRUE & CO., Auburn, Me.
Special treatment for TapeWorms. Write for free pamphlet.

HOW TO MAKE MONEY.
Take a silver dollar and drop it on a jeweler's show case and you'll get a ring. Take a quarter and saw it in two in the middle and get two halves. Take a two-dollar bill and fold it once and you double it—and you can keep on monkeying with money and make imaginary capital for an hour. But if you want to get a new wrinkle in money, just take a new ten dollar bill and fold it corner-ways and you'll get a new wrinkle every time. But don't fool with your money and don't let anybody else fool with it. Don't let anybody fool you with the idea that they'll give you a $10 bill with every $2 suit or overcoat.
The new store has earned a reputation for selling straight goods at straight prices. We don't monkey with your money, or flim flam you with any imaginary values. We give you good goods, charge a fair-profit price for everything you buy and expect you to come back the second time because you were used right the first.
We can sell a good Overcoat for $5.00 and an all wool one for $6.50. But for $7.50 we can show you a dandy all wool Kersey, made with raw edge and lap seams and lined with good lasting linings. The same coat our competitors (in Boston) get $10 for.
Our $10 coat we have in Blacks, Blues, Olives and Browns. Then we have them for $11, $12, $13, $13.50, $15, $15.50 and upwards to $19, in all the different style goods worn this season.
For this week and next too, if they are not all gone, we will sell all wool Dickey Pants at $1.48. All the other stores get $2.00.
QUINCY CLOTHING CO.,
LOWEST PRICED CLOTHIERS IM NORFOLK COUNTY.
MUSIC HALL BLOCK.

EMBROIDERY LESSONS.
We have engaged the same teacher for our Embroidery Classes this season that was so successful last year. Classes start TUESDAY MORNING.
Also the Finest Line of LINENS of All Designs to be gotten in the Market.
Our Line of Embroidery Silks is Complete in Every Detail.
WE CARRY IN STOCK A NEW LINE OF
OPULESCENT AND RAINBOW EDGE SILKS.
Sofa Cushions in a Large Variety.
D. E. WADSWORTH & CO.,
Hancock Street, Quincy.

ONE-TON ORDERS
Have been the making of this Coal business. Hundreds have ordered "just one ton to see if there was any difference." They found there was and they came again. Our one-ton orders have been our best advertisements. It's a better Coal at the same price, with the proof in a sample ton. When in doubt, try Patch's.
C. PATCH & SON.

Parlor
Stove Talk
All homes are not yet blessed with a furnace or a steam heating plant, and if our enormous sales of Parlor Stoves is any criterion, we can with wisdom say that Parlor Stove popularity is by no means a thing of the past.
There is a difference in Parlor Stoves just the same as in everything else,—some good, some bad, some indifferent. Years of experience have taught us just which stoves give the best service, are easiest to manage and prove economical coal burners. Such stoves as these are what we offer—40 patterns to choose from, $2.98 to $20.00. A stove to suit your notion, a stove to suit your purse.
Oil Room Heaters, $3.50 to $4.50.
HENRY L. KINCAIDE & CO.,
Reliable, Low Priced House Furnishers.
HANCOCK STREET, - - QUINCY.

Give C. PATCH & SON
A TRIAL ORDER
For HAZELTON LEHIGH COAL.

FRANK F CRANE,
AUCTIONEER and APPRAISER,
Office, 4 Chestnut St., Quincy, Mass.
Oct. tf

PROF. W. R. CARTER,
SPECIALIST,
Chronic and Private Diseases,
MALE and FEMALE.
WILL BE AT
22 Chestnut Street, Quincy,
EVERY WEDNESDAY
From 10 A. M. to 9 P. M.
Consultation and Advice Free.
TEETH EXTRACTED WITHOUT PAIN.
Oct. 22. 6t

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS.

Advertisements in this column inserted at the following rates:

Four lines, or less, one day, - - 25 cents
" " three days, - - - 50 cents.
" " one week, - - - 75 cents.

Additional lines will be charged for pro rata Seven words equal a line. Long term rates furnished on application.

WANTED.

WANTED—A strong boy to work in our shipping department; $3.00 per week. HENRY L. KINCAIDE & CO.
Quincy, Oct. 24. tf

AGENTS WANTED—For War in Cuba, by Senor Quesada, Cuban representative at Washington. Endorsed by Cuban patriots. In tremendous demand. A bonanza for agents. Only $1.50. Big book, big commissions. Everybody wants the only endorsed, reliable book. Outfits free. Credit given. Freight paid. Drop all trash, and make $300 a month with War in Cuba. Address today. THE NATIONAL BOOK CONCERN, 352-356 Dearborn St., Chicago. Oct. 25—21t

TO LET.

TO LET—On Washington street at the corner of Canal street, a desirable tenement of six large rooms, to be vacated Nov. 1 by Mr. F. H. Lord; front and back stairs, city water, and in good repair; near Coddington school, Public Library and depot.
Quincy, Oct. 27. tf lp

TO LET—2 Rooms, Furnished or Unfurnished, with steam heat and bath. 3 minutes from depot. Rent reasonable. L., Post Office. Oct. 26—6t

TO LET—House of six rooms, in good repair. Possession given Nov. 1. Apply at 8 Orchard place, Quincy. Oct. 25—6t

TO LET—Half a House of 5 rooms entirely separate on Phipps street, Mt. Pleasant. Rent, $8 a month; city water. Inquire at 17 Summer street.
Quincy, Sept. 27. 31t

TO LET—3 Houses of 7 rooms each, healthful location and fine views. Electrics pass often. Rent low. Inquire of F. H. GRAVES, just beyond the bridge, North Weymouth.
Oct. 21. 6t

TO LET—Tenement of 6 rooms No. 12 Newcomb street, in good repair; city water. inquire of C. A. SPEAR, 7 Newcomb street.
Quincy, Oct. 20. tf

TO LET—Cottage house, No. 29 Granite street, 8 rooms, three minutes' from City Square. Apply to H. M. FAXON, 4 Adams Building. Sept. 30—tf

FOR RENT—Desirable house with bath, corner lot, nice neighborhood, three minutes' walk from schools, churches and depot Rent reasonable. Apply at No. 6 Pleasant St.
Quincy, Sept. 7. tf

TO LET IN QUINCY.

SOUTHERLY Half of house with stable 214 Hancock street, now occupied by Dr. N. S. Hunting. Modern improvements, central location. Seven rooms and bath; furnace, gas and city water. Apply on premises to
MISS M. F. UNDERWOOD.
Oct. 1. tf

TO LET.

House of 8 rooms, etc., No. 20 Canal street, Quincy. Nice house, excellent location.
R. D. CHASE,
Savings Bank Building.
Quincy, Oct. 8. pl tf

TO LET.

APARTMENTS of five large rooms and bath, with all modern improvements. Also two large stores. Rent moderate. Apply to ARTHUR CRAIG, or J. W. HAYDEN, at Craig Building, cor. Copeland and Garfield Sts.
Quincy, July 15. pl tf

For Sale or To Let,
FURNISHED,
NASH'S HOTEL.
Full of Boarders and a good transient trade. Cheap rent. My catering business is all I can attend to.
Apply at HOTEL, 148 Hancock street, Quincy, Mass. oct11 tf lo

FOR SALE.

Bigelow St. Fine New Residence, 9 rooms, bath, laundry, furnace, open plumbing, cemented cellar, fireplace, etc.
R. D. CHASE,
Savings Bank Building.
Quincy, April 8-tf. 9p-tf

TEETH EXTRACTED.
No Pain or Danger.
Safer than vapor. Money paid for extracting goes towards teeth to be inserted. I am the only dentist in the city using the Painless Preparation for Extraction.
DR. C. B. UNDERWOOD,
9 Spear St. Rear of Public Library

HOUSES, STORES, LAND,
ROOMS, OFFICES, AND WHARVES,
To Let In Quincy, Mass.
The Houses are in Complete Repair.
Half-house, 10 rooms, 6 Chester street, Wollaston.
House, 10 rooms with stable, 16 Cottage street.
Half-house, 5 rooms, 16 Cottage street.
House, 8 rooms, 29 Granite street.
Half-house, 4 rooms, 4 Water street, $7 per month.
Tenement, 5 rooms, 59 North street.
Half-house, 6 rooms, Pond street, $10 per month.
Half-house, 5 rooms, 13 Field street, $8 per month.
Tenement, 3 rooms, 28 Howard street, $3 per month.
Tenements, 51 Howard street, $4, $5 and $6 per month.
Room, 12 Washington street, $5 per month.
Large building, suitable for manufacturing purposes on Brackett's wharf.
Small stable, 2 Quincy street, $3 per month.
Small stable, 28 Coddington street, $5 per month.
100 windows, and blinds, various sizes.
Wharf, stone sheds, etc., Quincy Neck.
Basement, head of Granite street.
100 tons ballast for sale.
Land to rent for tillage or pasturing purposes.
Gravel and sand for sale.
50 loads of loam for sale.
The buildings are in the very best condition.
For particulars, enquire of, or address
HENRY H. FAXON,
Quincy, Mass.
Quincy, Oct. 13, 1898. 1m

This is Lehigh Coal,
And We Have it for Sale.
C. PATCH & SON.

MISS C. L. BLISS
186 HANCOCK STREET,
Trimmed and Untrimmed
Hats and Novelties.
Order Work a Specialty.
STAMPING, PINKING, HAIR DRESSING,
Manicuring and Glove Cleaning.
Quincy, Oct. 22. tf plo

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

NORFOLK, ss. PROBATE COURT.

TO the heirs-at-law, next-of-kin and all other persons interested in the estate of
EDWARD H. DEWSON,
late of Quincy, in said County, deceased.

Whereas, a certain instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased, has been presented to said court for probate by Elizabeth W. Dewson of Quincy, who prays that letters testamentary may be issued to her, the executrix therein named without giving a surety on her official bond.

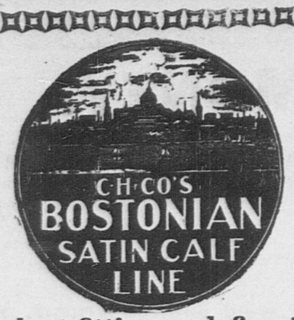

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court to be held at Quincy, in said County of Norfolk, on the ninth day of November, A. D. 1898, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the Quincy Daily Ledger, a newspaper published in Quincy, the last publication to be one day at least before said Court, and by mailing, post-paid, or delivering a copy of this citation to all known persons interested in the estate seven days at least before said Court.

Witness, George White, Esquire. Judge of said Court, this twenty-sixth day of October in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight.

JONATHAN COBB, Register.
Oct. 27. 27 31 7

LADIES ROYAL DELIVERANCE CAPSULES are a positive, safe and speedy monthly regulator, guaranteed to cure the most stubborn cases, or money refunded. Have never failed. Used by thousands of ladies, indorsed and prescribed by the medical profession. Painful and dangerous operations avoided. Price $2. at office or by return mail. 'Royal Protector' and full particulars under plain seal for 4c., stamps. ROYAL REMEDIES CO., 228 Tremont Street, Boston, Mass. Mention this paper.

The best fitting and finest wearing Boys' Shoes ever produced for the price. Try a pair and be convinced.

11 to 2 at $1.25.
2 1-2 to 5 1-2 at $1.50.

GEO. W. JONES,
Adams Building, Quincy.

NOTHING BETTER,
UNCLE SAM'S NAVY

Now commands the respect of the world, and we are all proud of the defenders of the Nation's Honor. To give the people of Quincy a good idea of the grand battleships, we have ordered a large supply of portfolios, giving magnificent views of the ships, crews, etc.

With each purchase made at our store we will give a portfolio check to the value of the purchase. When you have $4.00 worth of these checks, return them and get a portfolio. Continue in this way until you have the set complete. Call and see these magnificent portfolios.

ROGERS BROS.,
Groceries and Provisions. Adams Building, Quincy.

About...
Your Upholstering.

Sooner or later you'll need our assistance. All kinds of furniture reupholstered. Mattresses to order and made over. Window shades to order. Cushions to order. Carpets taken up, cleaned and relaid, or made over to fit other rooms; also drapery work. We employ men of experience only and insure our patrons strictly first-class work at prices that are fair to pay. Work done as it should be done. Estimates promptly furnished.

HENRY L. KINCAIDE & CO.,
Reliable, Low Priced House Furnishers,
Hancock Street, : : : Quincy.
Telephone Connection.

PISO'S CURE For Consumption

I have been taking Piso's Cure for Consumption since 1883, for Coughs and Colds. I had an attack of LaGrippe in 1890, and have had others since. In the Winter of 1896-7, I had a spell of Bronchitis, lasting all winter, and leaving a troublesome cough, until I again tried Piso's Cure, which relieved me.—Mrs. M. B. SMALLEY, Colorado Springs, Colo., August 19, 1898.

25 CTS. PISO'S CURE FOR CURES WHERE ALL ELSE FAILS. Best Cough Syrup. Tastes Good. Use in time. Sold by druggists. CONSUMPTION 25 CTS.

The Piso Company, Warren, Pa.

LEHIGH COAL.

When we Sell You Lehigh we Deliver what we Sell. . . . .

C. PATCH & SON.

Mortgagee's Sale.

BY Virtue of the power of sale contained in a certain mortgage given by Thomas M. Elcock to Mary C. Barry, dated September 24, A. D. 1884, recorded with Norfolk Deeds, libro 561, folio 433, for breach of the conditions of said mortgage and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction upon the premises hereinafter described, on MONDAY, the seventh day of November, A. D. 1898, at one o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises described in and conveyed by said mortgage deed, viz.:

All that lot of land, with the buildings erected or to be erected thereon, numbered eleven upon a plan of lots of Pemis Hill Farm made by Whitman & Breck, dated 1883, and measuring and bounded as follows, to wit: Easterly on Quincy street, sixty feet; northerly on lot numbered ten, one hundred and twenty feet; westerly on lot numbered twenty, sixty feet; and southerly on lot numbered twelve, one hundred and twenty feet, containing seven thousand and two hundred square feet of land.

Terms at sale. $300 to be paid at sale.

MARY C. BARRY, Mortgagee.

P. A. COLLINS, Attorney for Mortgagee, No. 535 Tremont Building, Boston.
Oct. 13. 3t 13 20 27

Mutual Life
OF NEW YORK.

Do You Want Life Insurance?
Do You Want Fire Insurance?

If so, call on

GEORGE H. FIELD,
1 Durgin & Merrill's Block, Quincy,
and you will find the best Companies at Lowest Rates.

MONEY LOANED ON REAL ESTATE.

ALBERT J. BOWERS
OPTICIAN
ADAMS BUILDING OVER POST OFFICE. QUINCY, MASS.

AN INTENSE GNAWING.

Cuban Patriots Suffering From a Hunger For Spoils.

Offer of Armed Assistance Refused by Wood.

Moderates Regret the Attitude of Their Radical Brethren.

Santiago, Oct. 27.—Major Pettit, in command of the United States troops in Manzanillo and military governor of the city, telegraphed yesterday that General Rios offers 2000 armed Cubans to assist the Americans in preserving order, merely asking rations in return. General Wood sent the following reply: "Certainly not. The only conditions on which rations are to be given are complete disarmament and disbandment of the Cubans."

Some of the Cubans consider that the United States is treating its allies badly in not allowing the Cuban forces to remain armed. They contend that the Cuban soldiers, who have been fighting for three years, who speak the language of the country and who know its conditions, are better fitted for garrison duty than "untrained volunteers." General Rodriguez virtually voices the sentiment of the Cuban army when he says: "We thank the United States for the assistance it has given us; but the time has now arrived when Cubans should be placed in the highest offices, and should prepare to take over the island on the departure of the Spanish."

Cuban extremists are jubilant over the reported attitude of the Cuban assembly. The delegates, while expressing their gratitude to the Americans, practically demand a distinctive Cuban government. The Cuban moderates, on the other hand, regret the stand, thinking it best for the United States authorities to continue in charge of affairs for a year at least so as to set things going and to prevent any complications with foreign governments. Those who advocate annexation are extremely anxious as to the outcome. A prominent Cuban, now employed under our government, himself a moderate and well able to judge of the feeling in Santiago, says these three parties are well defined and would probably poll about equally, but that, in the event of the extremists endeavoring to force the issue, a majority of the moderates would join the annexationists.

The foreign consuls are considering the advisability of appealing to the powers to prevent a too hasty recognition of the Cuban government.

General Wood is fully resolved to allow no more paupers to land here, especially no more from the West Indies, a class entirely unwilling to do hard work. One schooner from Jamaica and one from Hayti, loaded with colored emigrants, have been ordered to return their passengers to the ports of embarkation.

No Man Was Hungry

Huntsville, Ala., Oct. 27.—A number of officers who served in the Santiago campaign and in Florida were examined yesterday by the war commission. G. S. Carpenter said the sick in Santiago had suffered somewhat on account of deficiency of medicines and medical supplies, but this was the only deprivation of which he spoke. The troops did not receive the entire ration while in the field, but he was quite sure that no man in the command had gone hungry.

Charles M. Gandy, the surgeon who was in charge of the medical supply depot in Tampa, said he had been able to fill reasonable requisitions for medical supplies with promptness, but many bulky articles for which substitutes could be had were not supplied. Regular troops were easily satisfied, but the volunteers were exacting. Still there were some delays, and he mentioned one instance of supplies ordered from New York that were not received for two months. He had fitted out the Shafter expedition for Cuba, and thought that in the main the expedition was fairly supplied. This was especially true of the first requisition. Half of the supplies he had on hand had been packed for Cuba, and he had afterwards made a supplementary shipment of two wagonloads. He had afterwards heard that many of those stores came back to Tampa in the hold of the Iriquois. He gave the name of Captain Munson as authority for this latter statement, and he was sure that Captain Munson would testify willingly and fully.

Captain Cartwright, who had been aid to General Kent in the Santiago campaign, said that doubtless some of the men had been hungry at times, but he thought the excitement of battle had sustained them. On the night of July 1 he had half a hardtack for supper and the remaining half the next morning. He thought that under the circumstances the commissary department had been quite efficient in Santiago.

Lieutenant Farnsworth, General Lawton's quartermaster in Santiago, gave the details of forwarding supplies, and Lieutenant Grierson, chief commissary at Tampa, and Captain Thompson, who had held the position at Fernandina, told of the supplies at these two points. Mr. Farnsworth said that for a time it had been impossible to get full rations to the front Messrs. Grierson and Thompson said the principal complaints they had heard about supplies concerned the bacon furnished.

Major H. S. Thomasson, surgeon of the Thirty-third Michigan, who had served in the general hospital at Montauk Point after Aug. 1, said that in August there were 600 patients in the hospital, and that there were often eight in a tent. In the beginning of his service there were not sufficient cots, and some of the men had to sleep on blankets. He had known of but one instance in which hospital refuse was thrown out on the ground beside the tent. There were times when there were not a sufficient number of attendants. As a rule the surgeons were capable, but when he went into the institution there was a sad deficiency in numbers. He had heard no complaint of ill treatment from patients, but there was criticism from outsiders. He thought death was caused by the removal of patients before they were in condition to be moved; yet the removals were made to make places for others who were still sick and who otherwise would not have found a place in the hospital. In one instance he had been told to get 300 ready for removal, but when going through the hospital he had found only 70 fit to be moved, and had demanded a written order. This order he did not get, and therefore removed only the 70. He estimated that from 200 to 500 had been thus prematurely removed.

A New Proposition.

London, Oct. 27.—The Paris correspondent of The Times says: "At Wednesday's sitting the Spanish peace commissioners presented a counter memorandum, declaring their readiness provisionally to accept an article of a preliminary treaty stipulating that 'Spain shall relinquish all rights to sovereignty in Cuba without formulating any other claim,' and to leave in suspense all remaining questions, especially the Philippines. The Americans asked time until today to reply. This is regarded as a favorable sign, being a slight relaxation of the rigidity the Americans had hitherto shown. They are probably aware the Cuban and even the Spanish bondholders are becoming alarmed at the strange turn of the financial side of the discussion, in which Spain, the United States and Cuba, with extraordinary unanimity and carelessness, all repudiate the Cuban debt. Nobody will be able to force Spain to accept the debt, for, apart, from bankruptcy, she could only meet the liability at the expense of her foreign bondholders, who, by a strange anomaly, would thus have to pay for the independence of Cuba."

Carrying Away Guns.

Havana, Oct. 27.—It had been agreed by the Spanish authorities, in view of the protest of the United States commissioners, to leave the matter of the sale of alleged obsolete ordnance in abeyance until the question could be decided at the peace conference in Paris. Yesterday afternoon, however, two six-inch guns were carted away before the very eyes of the American commissioners, presumably for shipment to Spain.

Presented Ably and Adroitly.

Washington, Oct. 27.—There are indications that the peace commissioners in Paris are approaching the end of the consideration of the subject of Cuba and Porto Rico. The Spanish case has been presented with an ability and adroitness that commands the admiration of diplomats without regard to nationality. Even our own officials have been compelled to yield a tribute of respect to the arguments produced, but they have been of no avail in effecting a substantial change in the first attitude of the American commissioners. It is expected here that henceforth, after the courteous intimation has been conveyed to the Spanish commissioners that it is time to regard the Cuban and Porto Rican matters as settled, better progress will be made toward the conclusion of a treaty of peace.

Persuaded by Sagasta.

Paris, Oct. 27.—A Madrid correspondent, in confirming the report that Premier Sagasta and the queen regent have prevailed upon the minister of war, General Correa, to indefinitely postpone his resignation pending the conclusion of the peace negotiations, says that they represented to the general that his withdrawal might entail not only the fall of the cabinet, but cause the resignation of certain members of the Spanish peace commission, including Montero Rios, and thereby gravely compromise the issue of the peace negotiations. The net result is that an open crisis seems to have been avoided until the conclusion of the treaty of peace. In any case, this has done away with the necessity for an ad interim government, which was lately suggested as likely to be the only solution of the present difficulties.

The News of Beantown.

Boston, Oct. 27.—The attention of the Republican state committee, the Republican city committee and the board of election commissioners was called yesterday to the alleged unconstitutionality of the use of voting machines, an order for the purchase of four of which now awaits the signature of Mayor Quincy. To test these machines it is proposed to use them in four precincts of the city in the state election. It is claimed that their employment in the election is a breach of the federal laws governing the choice of representatives in congress.

Egbert E. Austin, who had just been released from the New Hampshire state prison, where he served 18 months for pension frauds, was sentenced to a like term in the state prison in Charlestown for a similar offense committed in this state. Austin is charged with obtaining $5 from Herman S. King of Shelburne Falls by pretending that he was acting under the authority of the pension bureau.

In insurance circles in this city it is stated that war insurance risks are again being written. During the past few days, or since the dispute between France and England has been noticeably acute, risks have been taken out on vessels flying the British and French flags. The rate is said to have been one quarter and one eighth of one percent for British vessels bound to other than French ports.

Edgar E. Eude of this city was shot and decapitated by the natives in French Congo. Mr. Eude left a year ago to take charge of the cutting of mahogany on the west coast of Africa for a London firm. He went ashore at Pantah with the engineer of the steamer to obtain provisions, when both were attacked by natives and massacred.

The Fifth Southeaster.

Boston, Oct. 26.—Nearly every point along shore from Nantucket to Eastport reports a stiff gale yesterday, while all over the section, especially in this city, the rainfall was very heavy. The storm is the fifth southeaster of the month, all of which have been attended by heavy rainfall, so that the precipitation for the month in this city is far above the average and bids fair to exceed any month this year, even of April and August. Up to 8 o'clock last night, nearly an inch and a half of rain had fallen in Boston, the heaviest in New England, although Portland reported 1.34 inches; Eastport, 1.12, and Nantucket .44 of an inch.

The wind, except at exposed points, was not especially severe except in Vermont, which was near the storm center, and as most of the shipping had received sufficient warning there were very few coasters caught off shore.

WOUNDED FIVE TIMES.

Woman the Victim of Her Husband's Deadly Rage.

Too Slow In Escaping, and Shot Down.

Suicide of the Assailant After Setting the House Afire.

Blackstone, Mass., Oct. 27.—Michael Bartholemi shot and probably mortally wounded his wife, Delia, then set fire to the house in which the family lived, and ended the deplorable affair, as far as he was concerned, by killing himself yesterday afternoon.

Bartholemi was evidently crazy when he planned to commit murder, and the arrangements he had made, and which for the most part miscarried, showed that he intended to make the deed a certainty. He set fire to the home in five places, but the quick arrival of the officers prevented the destruction of the house.

Emoiel Bartholemi, aged 15 years, who was with his parents at the time the shooting began, says that the trouble was of recent origin, and grew out of the ownership of a farm two miles from Millville village. Azidor, the oldest son, aged 21, claimed to own the farm, but his father wanted it, and the contention led to the mother siding with the son. Azidor worked in the Blackstone mill with Hilias, another son, but neither was present when the shooting occurred. Emoiel says that his father got angry, and, pulling out a revolver, fired one shot without definite aim. Mrs. Bartholemi grabbed Emoiel by the hand and started to run to the door. Then it was that the father turned the revolver towards the mother and emptied the weapon, the five shots taking effect.

When Mrs. Bartholemi fell wounded outside the house, the son, in his fright, ran to a neighbor's house, and then went back to help his mother. He moved her some distance, but she was prostrate on the ground, in the pouring rain, for over an hour, the people summoned having devoted their attention to the condition of the house.

The police went at once to Bartholemi's chamber, but the man was not found. A spare room was opened, and smoke poured out. A bed was found to be on fire. In the burning mass were the clothes and gold watch of Azidor. Going upstairs, the officers found another bed afire, and with pails of water this blaze was extinguished. A few minutes later, a third bed on the lower floor was found ablaze and burning briskly. After vigorous efforts, this fire was put out. Bartholemi's chamber was found locked. They burst in, and on the blazing bed was the lifeless Bartholemi. The officers seized the body and dragged it out of the room, and then threw the bed out the window. At the same time the fire broke out in another room on the same floor, and for a time there was great activity to make sure the house would not burn down.

He had shot himself once in the left ear. In each hand he held a revolver. A fire had evidently been set on the parlor table, as a number of books had burned. Dr. Melifant reported that Mrs. Bartholemi had little chance of life. While he had extracted a bullet from the left shoulder, he had not located the others.

A member of the family says that four years ago a physician who was attending on the family had told them that the father was liable to go insane, and in such an event he would be violent in his actions. Bartholomi was 60 years old, and a native of France. His widow is 55 years old, and was born in Canada. The couple had been married 35 years.

Escaped by Marriage.

Boston, Oct. 27.—Grace Barron of North Adams, who was indicted by the United States grand jury for using the United States mails to defraud, and who defaulted her bail of $500, has again been heard from. It was claimed that the woman advertised in matrimonial papers for a husband, and after carrying on a correspondence through the mails for some time, induced correspondents to send her money enough to enable her to go to their place of residence, where she pretended to be willing to go through a marriage ceremony. Upon receipt of the money, it was alleged, her correspondents would never hear anything further from her. The indictment was brought upon a complaint of W.A. Vest of Beaumont, Tex.

Postoffice Inspector Snow has received a letter from Vest stating that Grace Barron had gone to Beaumont, and that they had been married. He enclosed a letter addressed to him from Mrs. Vest, in which she told her husband that she married him to clear herself of the charges in the indictment, and was going to leave him and return to Massachusetts. Mr. Vest desires her arrested and sent back to him if possible.

Pardon of a Forger.

Boston, Oct. 27.—By recommendation of the executive council Governor Wolcott pardoned John F. McKay, confined in the Suffolk house of correction for forgery. McKay's four years' sentence would have expired April 22, 1901, but his physical condition was such that he was pardoned without consideration of the merits of his case. He has been in the hospital ever since his commitment, has been compelled to sit in a reclining chair night and day, has frequent fainting attacks, and the prison physician said he could not leave the hospital probably until his sentence expired. His left leg and thigh were amputated

Due to Carelessness.

Omaha, Oct. 27.—A rear-end collision on the Union Pacific resulted in the death of three men and the serious injury of one other. The dead are: Samuel Hindman, engineer; William Ranan, fireman; B. Shannon, brakeman.

An extra freight train was standing on a side track, with the switch open. A freight going at a good rate of speed crashed into the rear end of the extra. The engine was badly wrecked and four freight cars were reduced almost to kindling wood.

No Danger For the Present.

Austin, Nev., Oct. 27.—The reported Indian outbreak at Midas is greatly exaggerated. There is no danger for the present. On the 21st, an Indian named Ballard and a white man named McLeod took a load of hay to Midas; the Indian got drunk and was carrying a bottle of whiskey on the way home. The bottle broke, and the Indian accused McLeod of breaking it. In his anger he cut McLeod about the head and face with a knife, and threatened to kill him. On reaching the river the Indian wanted to borrow a rifle from John Schmalling, saying that he wanted to kill three men. He could not get a rifle and started after McLeod again with the knife. John Schmalling held the Indian while McLeod got away for a time. Later he found McLeod again, and the latter in self-defense gave the Indian a terrible beating. The Indian was placed in jail, and is now in a dangerous condition. The Indians are greatly worked up over the affair, and Ballard's brothers say that they will kill McLeod, but do not threaten others.

The deputy sheriff at Midas asked the governor at Carson for arms and ammunition at the request of the people on the upper Reese river, who fear that the Indians may do mischief. The people in Midas and Austin are not worried over the matter, and there is no apprehension of trouble.

The imbecility of some men is always inviting the embrace of death. It is the delight of such men to boast of what "tough fellows" they are, and tell how they overwork themselves and how they neglect little disorders and little illnesses that put other people on their backs.

It may not sound nice to say so, but it is a fact that the average man is just that kind of a boastful, cheerful idiot. If his head aches, it isn't worth paying any attention to: if he feels dull and drowsy during the day, it isn't worth serious consideration; if he is troubled with sleeplessness at night, he doses himself with opiates. When he suffers from nervousness, he walks into the nearest drug store and orders powerful medicines that even a physician prescribes with care. He is a very knowing fellow, but without knowing it, he is hugging death. There is a wonderful restorative tonic and health-builder that will keep the hardest working man in good working shape; it is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is made of pure native roots and barks. It contains no minerals, no narcotics and no opiates. It simply aids nature in the natural processes of secretion and excretion. It tones up the stomach and facilitates the flow of digestive juices. It makes a man "hungry as a horse" and then sees to it that the life-giving elements of the food he takes are assimilated into the blood. It invigorates the liver. It drives out all impurities and disease germs from the system. It is the great blood-maker and flesh-builder. It is the best of all nerve tonics. It cures bronchial, throat and lung affections as well.

"I had indigestion and a torpid liver," writes Mrs. A. I. Gibbs, of Russellville, Logan County, Ky., "Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cured me."

If constipation is also present, Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets should be taken. They never fail; they never gripe. Druggists sell both medicines.

CANCER CURED
BY ABSORPTION
NO KNIFE.

The result of years of scientific research by America's greatest blood specialist. A pleasant treatment that relieves immediately, cures permanently all forms of CANCERS, TUMORS and CHRONIC DISEASES. Hundreds of wonderful cures effected in and around Boston. Read the following:

BLOOD EVIDENCE

Then come to our offices and investigate the hundreds of other marvellous cures produced by ABSORPTION when all other treatment failed. Consult this living patient. "Dr. James M. Solomon: Dear Sir: The following is my testimonial, which I hope will help others. That after suffering several years with something that was never reached, getting only temporary help from different doctors, and each attack being more severe, I was advised by a friend, who had been cured of a tumor, to see her doctor. I was then unable for any work, and feeling worse from day to day; realizing that something was preying upon me of a serious nature, I was discouraged about my condition, and sought Dr. Solomon with little faith—it was more of an experiment. He got my confidence on the first interview, when, without a word of description of my feelings from me, he at once located my trouble, and I could not help believing that he knew from what I was suffering, although was greatly surprised and somewhat terrified when he told me it was cancer of the stomach. I began treatment at once, Nov. 3, 1892, and was faithful to his directions, with just the results promised I would get, till the following June (1893) I felt like a new being, and the doctor pronounced me recovered. I am sure that I have, and I can never repay the gratitude I owe to Dr. J. M. Solomon. Sincerely, EBEN FISH, 232 Harvard St., Dorchester, Mass." Today he is one of the many living witnesses of the only painless method that positively CURES when all others fail.

We want you to call and examine references of people you know—people we all know, who would not vouch for ABSORPTION had they not been cured. Ask for references marked H.

James M. Solomon, M.D.
SPECIALIST IN CANCERS, TUMORS AND CHRONIC DISEASES.
2 A Beacon Street
BOSTON.
Oct. 13. 1y lo

PENNYROYAL PILLS
Chichester's English Diamond Brand.
Original and Only Genuine.
SAFE, Always Reliable. LADIES ask Druggist for Chichester's English Diamond Brand in Red and Gold metallic boxes, sealed with blue ribbon. Take no other. Refuse dangerous substitutions and imitations. At Druggists, or send 4c. in stamps for particulars, testimonials and "Relief for Ladies," in letter, by return Mail. 10,000 Testimonials. Name Paper.
Chichester Chemical Co., Madison Square, PHILADA., PA.
Sold by all Local Druggists. Sold by Geo. C. Goodwin & Co., Boston, Mass
General Agents.

it's a death tap at your life door. If you knew it you wouldn't neglect such a cough.

HALE'S HONEY OF HOREHOUND AND TAR

Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar is a simple remedy but it acts like magic in all cases of throat or bronchial trouble. Sold by druggists.

Pike's Toothache Drops cure in one minute.

Quincy and Boston Electric Street Railway.

[Subject to change without notice.]

On and after October 10, cars will be run on the different routes as follows:

Quincy and Neponset.

Leave CITY SQUARE for Neponset at 5.55, 6.10, 6.25, 6.40 A. M. and every 15 minutes until 11.10 P. M.

Leave NEPONSET for Quincy at 6.15 A. M. and every 15 minutes until 11.30 P. M.

Cars leaving Quincy at 20 minutes of the hour and Neponset on the hour, go via. Hancock street direct.

Cars leaving Quincy at 25 and 55 minutes past the hour go via Newport avenue, Wollaston.

Cars leaving Quincy at 10 minutes past the hour go via Norfolk Downs, and those leaving Neponset at 30 minutes past go via Downs.

Cars leaving Neponset 15 minutes of and 15 minutes past the hour go via Wollaston and continue through Braintree and Holbrook to Brockton, connecting with cars for Bridgewater, Taunton, New Bedford, Fall River, Newport and Providence.

Quincy and East Weymouth.

Leave CITY SQUARE (10 minutes later from Quincy Point and 22 minutes later from North Weymouth)—5.45, 6.20, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20, 9.50, 10.20, 10.50, 11.20, 11.50 A. M.; 12.20, 12.50, 1.20, 1.50, 2.20, 2.50, 3.20, 3.50, 4.20, 4.50, 5.20, (5.30 to East Weymouth car house), 5.50, 6.20, 6.30, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20, 9.50, 10.50 P. M., (11.50 Wednesday and Saturday to Thomas' Corner only.)

Leave EAST WEYMOUTH (20 minutes later from North Weymouth and 32 minutes later from Quincy Point)—6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8, 8.30, 9, 9.30 10, 10.30, 11, 11.30 A. M.; 12, 12.30, 1, 1.30, 2, 2.30, 3, 3.30, 4, 4.30, 5, 5.30, 6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8 8.30, 9, 9.30, 10, 10.30, 11.30 P. M.

Quincy and Weymouth Landing.

Leave QUINCY at 5.30 A. M., 6.20, 7.20 and every hour until 12.20, then 1.50 and every hour until 10.50 P. M.

Leave WEYMOUTH LANDING at 5.50 A. M. and every hour until 12.50, then 2.20 and every hour until 11.20 P. M., connect with trains to Boston at Quincy.

Quincy and East Milton.

Leave CITY SQUARE, 5.55, 6.25, then every 5 minutes of and 25 minutes past the hour until 9.25 P. M., then at 10.50 P. M.

Leave EAST MILTON 6.25, 6.55 A. M., then every 5 minutes of and 25 minutes past the hour until 9.50 P. M., then 10.20 and 11.20 P. M.

Quincy and Brockton.

Leave QUINCY for Brockton at 6.10 and 6.40 A. M., and every half hour until 9.10 P. M. except on Wednesday and Saturday, when car at 9.40 runs through to Brockton. Cars at 9.40 and 10.10 to South Braintree every night.

Quincy and Hingham.

Leave QUINCY at 7.20 A. M. and every hour until 11.20 A. M., then 1.50 and every hour until 5.50 P. M.

Leave HINGHAM at 8 A. M. and every hour until 12 M., then 2.30 and every hour until 6.30 P. M.

Neponset, Atlantic and Squantum.

Leave NEPONSET at 6.30 A. M. and every hour until 8.30 P. M., connecting at Atlantic with outward express trains.

Leave SQUANTUM at 7 A. M. and every hour until 9 P. M., connecting at Atlantic with express trains.

Quincy and Houghs Neck.

Leave QUINCY CENTRE at 6.20 A. M., and and every hour until 1.20, and then 1.50 and every hour until 9.50.

Returning, leave HOUGHS NECK at 5.45 A. M., and every hour until 12.45, and then 1.20 and every hour until 9.20.

SUNDAYS.

Cars leave City Square, Quincy, for E. Weymouth and Weymouth Landing at 7.30 A. M. and West Quincy at 7 A. M. and on the hour and half hour throughout the day.

Sunday time same as week days on other lines, except that the first two trips are omitted.

BENJ. J. WEEKS, Superintendent.

New York, New Haven and Hartford R. R.

Eastern District.

On and after Oct. 16, 1898, trains will run as follows: (See note of explanation at bottom.

TO BOSTON.			FROM BOSTON.
Leave Quincy.	Stops at	Arrive Boston.	Leave Boston.	Stops at	Arrive Quincy
r 6 12	abc	e 6 30	5 55	ihgfedcba	*6 22 r
r 6 42	abc	7 00	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	7 30	cba	7 49 r
r 7 26	ad	7 43	8 30	cba	8 49 r
r 7 42	abc	8 00	9 30	cba	9 49 r
r 8 12	abc	8 30	10 30	cba	10 49 r
r 8 26	ad	8 43	11 30	cba	11 49 r
r 8 42	abc	9 00	12 30	cba	12 49 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	1 30	cba	1 49 r
r 10 12	abc	10 30	2 30	cba	2 49 r
r 11 12	abc	11 30	3 30	cba	3 49 r
r 12 12	abc	12 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
r 1 12	abc	1 30	5 00	cba	5 19 r
r 2 12	abc	2 30	5 17	da	5 36 r
r 3 12	abc	3 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
r 4 12	abc	4 30	6 00	cba	6 19 r
r 5 12	abc	5 30	6 17	da	6 36 r
r 6 12	abc	6 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	7 00	cba	7 19 r
r 7 39	abcdefghi	8 05	7 30	cba	7 49 r
r 8 08	abcdef	8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	9 30	cba	9 49 r
r 10 08	abcdef	10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r
r 11 12	abc	11 30	11 30	cba	11 49 r

SUNDAYS.

r 7 12	abc	7 30	6 30	cba	6 r
r 8 12	abc	8 30	8 30	cba	8 49 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	12 30	cba	12 49 r
r 1 12	abc	1 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
r 5 12	abc	5 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 8 08	abcdef	8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
r 10 08	abcdef	10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r

*The letters in the same line as the figures stand for different stations and indicate that trains stop, as follows:

a, Wollaston,	g, Savin Hill.
b, Norfolk Downs.	h, Crescent Avenue.
c, Atlantic.	i, South Boston.
d, Neponset.
e, Pope's Hill.	r, Quincy Adams.
f, Harrison Square.	(x), Express.

C PETER CLARK, Gen'l Supt.

A. C. KENDALL G. P. A.

HALE'S
HONEY
OF HOREHOUND
AND TAR

hound and Tar is a cts like magic in all hial trouble. Sold by s cure in one minute.

d Boston et Railway. without notice.]
er 10, cars will be s as follows:
d Neponset.
E for Neponset at 5.55,
every 15 minutes until
for Quincy at 6.15 A. M.
till 11.30 P. M.
20 minutes of the hour
hour, go via. Hancock 25 and 55 minutes past avenue, Wollaston.
at 10 minutes past the ns, and those leaving ast go via Downs.
15 minutes of and 15
go via Wollaston and ree and Holbrook to
with cars for Bridge-
Bedford, Fall River,
ast Weymouth.
E (10 minutes later from utes later from North 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20,
.50, 11.20, 11.50 A. M.;
.20, 2.50, 3.20, 3.50, 4.20,
Weymouth car house),
0, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20,
Wednesday and Saturday
OUTH (20 minutes later
20 minutes later from
, 7.30, 8, 8.30, 9, 9.30 12, 12.30, 1, 1.30, 2, .30, 6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8
1.30 P. M.
mouth Landing.
30 A. M., 6.20, 7.20 and hen 1.50 and every hour
H LANDING at 5.50
til 12.50, then 2.20 and
0 P. M., connect with
Y.
Last Milton.
E, 5.55, 6.25, then every utes past the hour until
P. M.
ON 6.25, 6.55 A. M., then 25 minutes past the hour
.20 and 11.20 P. M.
d Brockton.
Brockton at 6.10 and lf hour until 9.10 P. M.
nd Saturday, when car
Brockton. Cars at 9.40
ulree every night.
l Hingham.
20 A. M. and every hour
.50 and every hour until
8 A. M. and every hour
and every hour until
c and Squantum.
6.30 A. M. and every connecting at Atlantic
ins.
at 7 A. M. and every ecting at Atlantic with Houghs Neck.
TRE at 6.20 A. M., and
.20, and then 1.50 and
UGHS NECK at 5.45
til 12.45, and then 1.20
.
DAYS.
. Quincy, for E. Wey-
Landing at 7.30 A. M.
A. M. and on the hour
the day.
eek days on other lines,
rips are omitted.
KS, Superintendent.

New Haven
ord R. R.
District.
1898, trains will run
explanation at bottom.
FROM BOSTON.
Leave Boston. Stops at Arrive Quincy
5 55 ihgfedcba*6 22 r
6 30 cba 6 49 r
7 30 cba 7 49 r
8 30 cba 8 49 r
9 30 cba 9 49 r
10 30 cba 10 49 r
11 30 cba 11 49 r
12 30 cba 12 49 r
1 30 cba 1 49 r
2 30 cba 2 49 r
3 30 cba 3 49 r
4 30 cba 4 49 r
5 00 cba 5 19 r
5 17 da 5 36 r
5 30 cba 5 49 r
6 00 cba 6 19 r
6 17 da 6 36 r
6 30 cba 6 49 r
7 00 cba 7 19 r
7 30 cba 7 49 r
8 30 fedcba 8 53 r
9 30 cba 9 49 r
10 30 fedcba 10 53 r
11 30 cba 11 49 r
AYS.
6 30 cba 6 r
8 30 cba 8 49 r
12 30 cba 12 49 r
4 30 cba 4 49 r
5 30 cba 5 49 r
6 30 cba 6 49 r
8 30 fedcba 8 53 r
10 30 fedcba 10 53 r me line as the figures
ons and indicate that Savin Hill.
Crescent Avenue.
South Boston.
Quincy Adams.
x), Express.
A. C. KENDALL
G. P. A.

QUINCY DAILY LEDGER.

VOL. 10. No. 252. QUINCY, MASS., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 28, 1898. PRICE 2 CENTS.

Parlor Stove Talk

All homes are not yet blessed with a furnace or a steam heating plant, and if our enormous sales of Parlor Stoves is any criterion, we can with wisdom say that Parlor Stove popularity is by no means a thing of the past.

There is a difference in Parlor Stoves just the same as in everything else,—some good, some bad, some indifferent. Years of experience have taught us just which stoves give the best service, are easiest to manage and prove economical coal burners. Such stoves as these are what we offer—40 patterns to choose from, $2.98 to $20.00. A stove to suit your notion, a stove to suit your purse.

Oil Room Heaters, $3 50 to $4 50.

HENRY L. KINCAIDE & CO.,

Reliable, Low Priced House Furnishers.

HANCOCK STREET, - - QUINCY.

GEO. AMES,

the ONLY PRACTICAL PLUMBER in the Hardware business in the City. He has a patent SEWER TRAP which cannot be beat. Impossible for deadly sewer gas to enter your homes. See him about your Sewer Connection. He has had three years' experience in Boston and other large cities Established here in 1889 and still in it. Work done anywhere.

Hardware, Paints and Oils, Putty and Glass, Yacht Supplies, Steam and Gas Fittings. Steam and Hot Air Heaters put in repair for the winter.

ADAMS BUILDING

ONE-TON ORDERS

Have been the making of this Coal business. Hundreds have ordered "just one ton to see if there was any difference." They found there was and they came again. Our one-ton orders have been our best advertisements. It's a better Coal at the same price, with the proof in a sample ton. When in doubt, try Patch's.

C. PATCH & SON.

NOTHING BETTER,

UNCLE SAM'S NAVY

Now commands the respect of the world, and we are all proud of the defenders of the Nation's Honor. To give the people of Quincy a good idea of the grand battleships, we have ordered a large supply of portfolios, giving magnificent views of the ships, crews, etc.

With each purchase made at our store we will give a portfolio check to the value of the purchase. When you have $4.00 worth of these checks, return them and get a portfolio. Continue in this way until you have the set complete. Call and see these magnificent portfolios.

ROGERS BROS.,

Groceries and Provisions. Adams Building, Quincy.

Gentlemen, Buy Your....

OVERCOATS

Where you can find the best assortment in the city and the lowest prices, which is at

C. F. DERBY'S, SAVINGS BANK BUILDING, QUINCY. 5-1m

If You Have a House to Let,

Advertise It in the Ledger.

TELEGRAPHIC.

3 O'CLOCK.

WELCOME HOME

The Sixth Massachusetts Arrives in Boston.

Companies Separate and Go to Their Home Towns.

Crowds Everywhere to Greet the Soldier Boys.

Boston, Oct. 28.—Shortly after arriving in this city Thursday the Sixth Massachusetts regiment broke up into companies, and each, being made up of men from the same city or town, departed for its individual headquarters, where a much warmer and heartfelt greeting was accorded by those who were nearer and dearer to everyone of the gallant soldiers. The homecoming in each of the towns differed but little one from another. Every citizen seemed to have a personal interest in the company and the men. In every town the men marched to the town hall to be formally welcomed, escorted by the local band, the local G. A. R., in many cases the fire department, and without exception through crowded streets resonant with cheers, glowing with redfire, while the celebrations were almost a counterpart to those which mark the fourth of July.

Company A went home to Wakefield to find nearly the whole town at the railroad station. Companies B and D of Fitchburg were received by over 15,000 people, including hundreds from surrounding towns.

In Lowell half the city turned out to greet the heroes of companies C and G as they marched to the city hall headed by Lieutenant Colonel Butler Ames.

The entire business section of South Framingham was illuminated as company E marched up to the armory from the train.

At Marlboro the city government, headed by Mayor Hoyt, met company F at the railroad station, and escorted the men to the city hall. Company H at Stoneham was also warmly greeted, and at Thanksgiving time the members will enjoy a banquet.

Historic Concord fairly outdid itself in the welcome to company I. There were many vacant places in the ranks, and two of its men lay dead on the transport which brought the company.

The colored people at the west end in this city gave company L, the only colored company, not only in this regiment but in the entire Massachusetts quota, a grand greeting, the celebration lasting well into the night.

It was announced soon after the regiment landed that the officers had all signed a document, addressed to Governor Wolcott, declaring that they would not serve under Colonel Woodward, late commander of the regiment, after the regiment is mustered out and taken back into the state militia.

HOSPITAL WITHOUT STOVES.

War Commissioners Provided For the Comfort of Sick Soldiers.

Huntsville, Ala., Oct. 28.—The inspecting commissioners who visited the general hospital here found the institution without stoves. They took the matter in hand, and by night the depot quartermaster had secured 30, with the promise that they should be put in today.

Dr. Connor and Governor Beaver found an interesting patient there in a man in whom life had been kept for three weeks by keeping him immersed in water heated to 99 degrees. The man's leg had been amputated at the hip joint because of the severing of the femoral artery.

Major Dobe, in command of the Sixth cavalry, complained of the difficulty of securing lumber, firewood, horseshoes and stoves in the camp here. The tents were of poor material and leaked. He also said there had not been sufficient medical supplies in Cuba, and that the transport, Gate City, in which the command came north, was poorly suited for the purpose.

Captain Stretch of the Tenth infantry gave in detail the hardships of that regiment during the San Juan fighting. There was no time when the men had nothing to eat, but he did not remember having drawn a full ration while in Cuba. The sick of the command were fed at Montauk better than they ever had been before in their lives.

The principal witness at the night session was Dr. Charles N. Lee, who was executive officer at the detention hospital at Montauk Point. He said the hospital was crowded; that on occasions when large numbers of new men were received it was necessary to remove men from their beds and put them on the floor in order to make room for them all. He said there was a deficiency of medical supplies, and he did not think their treatment was such as the patients should have had so near New York city.

Our Pacific Territory.

Washington, Oct. 28.—The report of General Merriam, commanding the department of the Pacific, regarding the facilities for a camp at Honolulu, has been received at the war department. It is not favorable, as he finds the ground on the higher levels is covered with rocks, while the lowlands and valleys are swampy, the lands being used chiefly for rice cultivation. There are no good drill grounds, and he advises that as few troops as posible be sent to Honolulu. Camps cannot be established to any advantage, and it will be necessary to construct barracks for troops stationed there.

TO FIGHT FOR THE PHILIPPINES.

London, Oct. 28.—The Madrid correspondent of The Standard says: "The government has good reason to believe that the United States intends to retain the Philippines on the ground that President McKinley must satisfy public opinion. The government believes that the American commissioners will argue the necessity of thus deviating from the spirit and text of the protocol on the ground that the condition of things in the island of Luzon and the archipelago renders it impossible for America to abandon her native allies, or for Spain to re-establish her rule, without heavy sacrifices of men and money; and finally, because Spain could not be allowed to retain possession except under conditions unpalatable to Spaniards and to their colonial traditions.

"Spain, however, cannot yet believe she will be deprived of the Philippines without pecuniary compensation, in addition to a recognition of the Philippine loan of 1896. Therefore, upon the question of the Philippines, the Spanish commissioners will make even a stronger resistance than they have made over the Cuban debt."

Greeting to Kitchener.

London, Oct. 28.—The crowd at the Victoria station of the London, Chatham and Dover railway station was so dense Thursday when General Kitchener arrived from Paris that the police were unable to cope with it. The barriers and the police cordon were carried away together and the multitude surged into the reserved portion of the station. As the general issued from the waiting room, expecting to step into his carriage, he found himself confronted with an impenetrable mass, cheering, gesticulating and shouting "Brave Herbert; God bless you my boy," "Cheers for the avenger of Gordon," and kindred cries. His face beamed with pleasure at the popular greeting.

When he attempted to make his way through the crowd his hat was "bashed in" and the police had to save him forcibly from the attentions of enthusiastic guardsmen, who desired to carry him on their shoulders through the throng. All attempts to clear a passage were futile. Kitchener was forced to retire, and was finally smuggled out of the station through a distant corner of the building.

The American Defeated.

Birmingham, Eng., Oct. 28.—In a featherweight contest, arranged for 20 rounds between Jabez White of Birmingham and Michael Sears of Boston, Mass., the Englishman beat the American in 12 rounds. Both men entered the ring in splendid condition, White being the favorite. He had the advantage in reach and height to the extent of three inches. Sears was wonderfully game and had the Englishman dazed in the sixth round, but the latter recovered, and soon gained the upper hand.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

It is believed that the Cubans might disband were arrangements made to give them $100 or $200 each.

Hiram F. Gerrish, ex-deputy state treasurer of New Hampshire, has been sentenced to two years at hard labor for embezzlement of state funds.

The steamer L. R. Doty of Chicago, with her crew of 15 men, is believed to have been lost in the great storm in mid-lake off Kenosha, Ill.

John Buckley of Fitchburg, 14 years old, who rode to South Framingham on a freight train, in attempting to jump off, fell under the wheels and was killed.

The postoffice department has ordered the establishment on Dec. 1 of stations in Cuba at Daiquiri, Guantanamo, Baracoa, San Luis, Manzanillo, Gibera and Holguin.

Hugh Martin of Providence was knocked out after one minute and 30 seconds of fighting in the fourth round by Dan Murphy of Waterbury last night in New London.

In Richmond, Tex., Manuel Morris and Peter Autre, negroes, were hanged from a double gallows. Morris outraged and murdered a 6-year-old blind girl, and Autre assassinated his mistress.

An asylum for the insane in Santiago, which is a municipal hospital, appears to have ben disgracefuly managed. The records of the last 15 months show there were 632 deaths there out of 700 inmates.

The French consul in Santiago has written to General Wood protesting strongly against the order prohibiting the landing of negroes from Hayti. General Wood replied that he would not allow any more paupers to enter, as there were too many of them.

The award of the chief justice of Canada, to whose arbitration was submitted the claim of Victor H. McCord against the government of Peru for damages sustained by reason of imprisonment during one of the revolutionary outbreaks there, has been received at the state department. McCord is awarded $40,000.

The board of army officers appointed to select camps and landing places for the United States troops in Cuba has definitely selected one site for a camp east and the other west of the Vento aqueduct, close to the springs. The landing place selected, Marianao beach, six miles from the camp sites, can be easily reached by road. The camp sites will accommodate from 12,000 to 15,000 troops.

The national convention of the wholesale saddlery dealers adopted resolutions for uniform numbers indicating the measurements of horse collars, requiring congress to put hides on the free list and to buy no goods manufactured in penal institutions. The association spent $18,000 to dispose of a plant in Joliet, Ill., and is after the plant working under contracts in the Maine penitentiary.

Eight seamen, comprising the crew of the brig, Starlight, bound from Hayti to New York with logwood, were picked up from two open boats last Saturday and landed in Baltimore yesterday by a fruit steamer. Captain Rhodes of the Starlight said that he and his crew had been afloat in the boats for 18 hours. The Starlight had grounded on Hogsty reef four days previously. All had remained by the brig until she began to break up.

LAND VALUES

A Transcript From the Books of the Assessors.

Number of Feet in Each Lot and Valuation Thereof.

Also the Amount of Each Person's Tax Bill for 1898.

[Continued from yesterday.]

Something new in the publication of the taxpayers of the city is attempted this year by the Daily Ledger. There is considerable interest in the assessed value of land in the city, which is claimed to be high in some cases and low in others. So the Ledger has supplemented the amount of the tax bill in each ward with the value of each lot of land for which the person is taxed, giving in each case the number of square feet or acreage.

The amount given in the line with the person's name is his total ward tax, and may include houses, personal property, etc., in addition to the lots of land below. The Ledger gives only the valuation of the land.

To obtain a person's total tax in the city, add together the amounts paid in the several wards.

The Ledger commenced the publication Aug. 30, and has already published the land values of all persons whose names begin with A to O, and today's instalment is the third of the Ps:

Valuation of Land Only.	Total Ward Tax.
WARD ONE.
Pierce, Charles L., est., 27,520 feet, Canal street, $2,400.	$54 00
Plumer, Thomas H., est., 33,600, Hancock, $12,500.	567 00
WARD TWO.
Phillips, Mrs. Adbie 16,690, Chubbuck, $675.	$43 65
Phillips, George L. 9,334, Union, $900. 8,860, " $650.	109 10
Phillips, Hiram W. 52,500, Washington, $2,100. 1 1-2 acres, Howard ave., $600.	139 25
Phillips, Mrs. Lorano 1 1-4 acres, off Howard, $300.	23 40
Pierce, Stephen A. 12,140, Elm, $1,200.	48 60
Pierce, John C. 5,497, Beacon, 225.	4 50
Pinel, Alice E. 8,000, Washington, $800.	37 80
Pinel, Alfred 41,830, Souther place, $1,900.	99 20
Pinel, Elizabeth W. About 4 acres, Chubbuck, $2,800. About 1 " " $500.	101 25
Pinel, Walter P. 1 3-4 acres, Howard, $1,000.	46 10
WARD THREE.
Phillips, James 7,209, Roberts, $350.	$35 30
Pickard, Arthur 7,966, Trafford, 2,400, Brooks ave., $900.	131 60
Pickard, Philomena P. 5,831, Rodman, $350.	38 00
Pierce, James W. 14,700, Granite, $1,200.	57 35
Pierce, John H. 1-8 acre, Centre, $350.	28 10
Pierce, Sarah E. 11,370, Water, $900.	39 60
Pinel Bros., 11,600, Granite, $900.	122 40
Pirovanni, Fannie 8,568, Brooks ave., $550.	51 30
WARD FOUR.
Pierce, John S., heirs, 1-2 acre, Willard, $500.	$27 00
Pittipat, Dennis 8,216, Conant, $400. 15,471, " $750.	53 30
Pickering, Mrs. Eliza 6,000, Common, $150.	10 54
Pierce, Rufus 4.7 acres, Wood, $350.	44 30
Pineo, Henry A. 7,185, Doble, $275. 7,170, " $275.
WARD FIVE.
Pfaffman, Martin, 10,685, Webster, $700. 12 acres, Fenno, $10,000. 3,108, Webster, $150.	$265 70

Continued on page 3.

Royal makes the food pure, wholesome and delicious.

ROYAL
ROYAL BAKING POWDER
BAKING POWDER
Absolutely Pure

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

EMBROIDERY LESSONS.

We have engaged the same teacher for our Embroidery Classes this season that was so successful last year. Classes start TUESDAY MORNING.

Also the Finest Line of LINENS of All Designs to be gotten in the Market.

Our Line of Embroidery Silks is Complete in Every Detail.

WE CARRY IN STOCK A NEW LINE OF

OPULESCENT AND RAINBOW EDGE SILKS.

Sofa Cushions in a Large Variety.

D. E. WADSWORTH & CO.,
Hancock Street, Quincy.

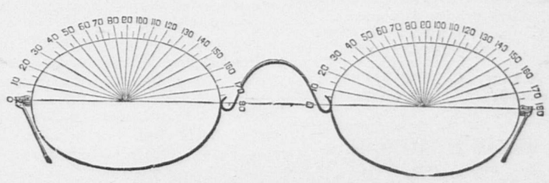

The best fitting and finest wearing Boys' Shoes ever produced for the price. Try a pair and be convinced.

11 to 2 at $1.25.
2 1-2 to 5 1-2 at $1.50.

GEO. W. JONES,

Adams Building, Quincy.

ASTIGMATISM

Causes most of the distressing headaches. Properly fitted glasses will correct the error and remove the pain. Consult

WILLIAMS,

Member of the New England Association of Opticians,

104 Hancock St., Quincy.

Rain or Snow

Along the coast but fair in the interior, we read sometimes, but whether rain, snow, fair or blow outside, you may be fair, comfortable and happy inside of one of those

Warm Overcoats

that you can buy at the "Granite," and not only overcoats, but everything required for the comfort of men and boys.

Don't get caught in the storms of winter without proper protection, but go now to the

Granite Clothing Store,

DURGIN & MERRILL'S BLOCK,

QUINCY.

MARY WENT.

LAST Week Mary and everybody else were invited to call at the Quincy Second Hand Variety Store. They went, and Mary tells us that she was delighted with what she found. She bought an excellent stove for half its value, a chamber set for a remarkably low figure, and small ware in abundance for almost nothing. In fact, she was so well pleased, she sent her husband, who bought all the tools he could carry off for a few dollars.

WALTER P. PINEL

is the Manager, and the store is right over here at number 20 Franklin street.

aug25 1y

☞ Real down right comfort in our blankets and comforters. That's not all, our prices the lowest on earth. Blankets from 45 cents per pair up. Comforters from 75 cents up. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

THE FALL SEASON

IS HERE

For the Purchase of

Fruit and Ornamental Trees,

Shrubs and Vines.

Buy now that your plants may get a good start by spring.

Remember that I carry all the desirable novelties, as well as the old standard varieties of nursery stock.

I call special attention to my Flowering Shrubs, Perpetual Roses, Clematis, an Rhododendrons.

Buy at home and save agents' commissions. None but strictly first-class stock, well acclimated, furnished. Call and examine.

Orders by mail receive prompt attention.

Wollaston Park Nursery,

Fenno St., Wollaston.

MARTIN PFAFFMANN, Prop.

P. O. Box 44, Wollaston. Residence, 2 Clay St.

Oct. 14—1m p-3w

Hazelton Lehigh

Costs a Trifle More.

You Know Why.

C. PATCH & SON

The John Hancock Stables.

Opposite Depot, Quincy, Mass.

Boarding, Baiting, Livery and Sale.

DR. J. A. DOW, Proprietor,

the well known Veterinary dentist and specialist in the treatment of lame horses. Sick horses treated at owner's risk.

The finest equipped and managed stable of its size in America.

Fine driving turnouts in light rigs; safe and good appearing. All horses let are perfectly safe for ladies to drive.

The choicest family, road and coach horses constantly on hand for sale. All horses guaranteed as represented.

☞ Will attend to veterinary practice as usual. aug18-1y

MUSIC HALL, - QUINCY,
Friday Even'g, Oct. 28,
At 8 o'clock.

GRAND TENTH DISTRICT

REPUBLICAN RALLY.

The Tenth District Congressional Committee have secured the following eminent and able speakers to address the people of Quincy upon the political issues of the day:

ROGER WOLCOTT,
Governor of Massachusetts.

SAMUEL W. McCALL,
Congressman Eighth District.

COL. ALBERT CLARKE,
Sec'y Home Market Club.

SAMUEL J. BARROWS,
Our Candidate for Congress.

HON. RUSSELL A. SEARS, Mayor of Quincy, will preside, and there will be music by the Quincy Band. The balcony will be reserved for ladies, and they are cordially invited to attend.

THOMAS C. BACHELDER,
Chairman.
STEPHEN W. MARSHALL,
Secretary.
Oct. 22.—6t

Quincy Co-operative Bank

Has again declared Semi-annual dividend of 3 1-4 per cent., and

SALE of SHARES in 20th SERIES
Is Now Open.

Regular Monthly Meeting for receipt of Dues, sale of Money and Shares, WEDNESDAY, Nov. 2, 1898, at 7.30 P. M., Savings Bank Building.
R. D. CHASE, Sec.
Quincy, Oct. 27. 6t lwp

$50 REWARD.

THE Wollaston Golf Club will pay a Reward of $50 for evidence which will lead to the arrest and conviction of the person who broke into and burglarized their clubhouse on Monday, Oct. 24, 1898.
WOLLASTON GOLF CLUB.
Wollaston, Oct. 27, 1898. 3t rlw

LADIES' and CHILDREN'S
Hair Dressing and Cutting.
ALL KINDS OF HAIR WORK.
WIGS, SWITCHES, FRIZZES.
Sixteen Years' Experience.
MRS. I. F. DOW,
Room 10, Hotel Greenleaf.
Quincy, Oct. 22. 6t

WILLIAM E. BAXTER, M. D.
Practice Limited to the
EYE AND EAR.
553 Boylston St., Boston.
QUINCY—Monday and Friday.
Hours, 9 to 11. 195 Hancock Street
May 21. 1y

HAZELTON LEHIGH

And Not Hard White Ash,
Is What You Should Burn.

C. PATCH & SON.

TELL US . .
What you are looking for.

We can show you a fine line of
FALL AND WINTER
UNDERWEAR,
HOSIERY,
Outing Flannels, Flannelettes,
Plaid Dress Goods,
WRAPPERS, BLANKETS,
Comforters,
Dress Linings and other Dry Goods.

OUR STOCK IS FRESH.
OUR PRICES THE LOWEST.

MISS C. S. HUBBARD,
158 Hancock Street.

MISS C. L. BLISS
186 HANCOCK STREET,
Trimmed and Untrimmed
Hats and Novelties.

Order Work a Specialty.
STAMPING, PINKING, HAIR DRESSING,
Manicuring and Glove Cleaning.
Quincy, Oct. 22. tf plo

Quincy Daily Ledger
ESTABLISHED IN 1889.
The ONLY DAILY in Norfolk County Massachusetts.

Published Every Evening, Sundays and Holidays Excepted, At No. 115 HANCOCK ST., City of Quincy, Mass., by
GEORGE W. PRESCOTT & SON.
Successors to Green & Prescott.
Subscription Price, $6.00 per year.
A discount of $1 when paid in advance.
ALSO PUBLISHERS OF
The Quincy Patriot,
A Weekly Established in 1837, which has the Largest Circulation in Norfolk County, and
The Braintree Observer,
A Weekly Established in 1878.
TELEPHONE, 78-3 QUINCY.

Quincy Temperature at Noon.

	This Week.	Last Week.	In 1897.	In 1896.
Sunday	59	50	51	52
Monday	60	48	49	62
Tuesday	68	50	58	50
Wednesday	69	54	56	51
Thursday	60	61	55	58
Friday	51	56	59	50
Saturday	—	70	58	55

New Advertisements Today.

Salesman wanted.
Copartnership notice.
Young girl wanted to assist in housework.

Good Afternoon.

Two weeks from Sunday will be "Hospital Sunday" in Quincy, and it will be conducted on a grander scale than usual. It is the hope of the Finance Committee this year to raise all of the balance necessary to run the institution at this time. The committee—Messrs. J. A. Gordon, W. B. Rice, H. M. Faxon, Albert Keating and L. S. Anderson—will shortly forward an address to the people, and at the same time cards and self-addressed stamped envelope. Individual subscription will be asked from everybody, and will be acknowledged as received in the newspapers.

This method of raising money requires considerable outlay for envelopes, postage, etc., but will not require so much individual work at the festivals in past years, and if the people will make direct cash contributions the money can probably be raised easier and at the same time with less expense to individuals.

New plans are desirable each year, and while the Hospital Sunday is not new, it has new features in the address, subscription cards, and self-addressed stamped envelopes. It is a good thing! Push it along.

Grand Organ Recital.

A large and appreciative audience was present at Christ church Thursday evening at the organ recital by Mr. S. B. Whitney, organist of the Church of the Advent, Boston, assisted by Mrs. J. E. Tippets, soprano of the Old South church, Boston, and Mr. E. Landis Snyder, organist of Christ church, Quincy.

The organ at this church is one of the finest instruments in Quincy and under the skilful touch of such organists as Mr. Whitney and Mr. Snyder it seemed almost to talk. At times it gave forth a low plaintiff melod scarcely audible, then it would swell out in full tones that searched out every corner of the edifice rebounding and vibrating until the very walls rang with its mleody. Mr. Snyder was not heard alone at the recital but with Mr. Whitney in a fantesi in D minor.

Mrs. Tippett was heard in sacred songs "O for the Wings of a Dove," and "Come unto me" which were rare treats and were greatly enjoyed. The recital was given to raise funds for the music of the church and the offertory was taken for that purpose.

SELECT SOCIALS!
EVERY FRIDAY EVENING,
Beginning Oct. 21, 8.30 to 11,
COLONIAL HALL, Bank Bldg., Quincy
Given in connection with
Prof. Gardner's Dancing School.
Tickets: Gent or Couple, 50c. Extra Lady, 25c.
LAST HALF TERM. Those who desire to learn the latest Fancy Dances can join the class at 7.30. Terms: 8 lessons from 7.30 to 8.30, Gents $4, Ladies $3. oct10—tf

JOHN EVANS,
Auctioneer and Appraiser.
Prompt Settlement.
24 COPELAND STREET, QUINCY.
Feb. 26. tf

COPARTNERSHIP NOTICE.
NOTICE is hereby given that Lawrence Butler has this day withdrawn from the granite polishing firm of A. M. I. McLeod & Co., carrying on business on Dane St., Quincy.
A. M. I. McLEOD,
LAWRENCE BUTLER.
Quincy, Oct. 27, 1898. 28-3t

BILLHEADS
AT PATRIOT OFFICE.

PRAISE FOR RURAL.

A Fine Exemplification of Masonic Work Before Deputy.

Rt. Wor. Charles B. Lawrence, district deputy grand master of the 24th Masonic district and suite made an official visitation to Rural lodge Thursday evening and it was the occasion for the usual large attendance of the brethren not only of the local lodge, but from all the surrounding lodges.

The suite included Wor. Bro. Charles B. Mann as S. G. W.; Wor. Bro. Nathan Washburn as J. G. W.; Wor. Bro. Calvin R. Barrett as G. S.; Wor. Bro. William H. Emerson as G. T.; and Wor. Bro. Myron L. Keith as G. M.

Among the lodges represented were Norfolk Union, Paul Revere, Operative, Corinthian, Puritan, St. George, Ancient City, Albion of Quebec, Union, Mt. Taber, Delta, King Solomon, St. Macher, Orphans Hope, St. Johns, Corrobassett, Star of Bethlehem, Amity, St. Clement, Satucket, Princeton, Macedonion, Phoemican, Kingston, and King Solomon.

The M. M. degree was exemplified in a superior manner by Wor. Bro. H. L. Kincaide and his officers, being assisted in a great degree by the Harvard Quartette.

The compliments of the district deputy grand master were much appreciated by the members of Rural lodge.

A caterer served salads and ices at the close.

MILTON.

Thomas L. Pierce has been appointed posmaster a East Milton, and will succeed Michael J. Barry who was appointed during the Cleveland administration. Mr. Pierce will remove the office to the store of John Curtis in the Ellsworth building.

The ministrel show of the Thursday Evening club will be held Nov. 22.

Seven cars for Milton's new street railway arrived at East Milton Thursday morning; four open and three vestibule cars. The cars are painted lake color with the words "Boston, Milton and Brockton Street Railway Co." in gold letters. The open cars are what are known as ten bench, and the vestibule cars are eighteen feet in length.

The game of football Saturday at East Milton park will be between the Milton A. A. and Jogalong A. A.

A Whittier social with songs and reading will be held at the vestry of the Baptist church this evening.

Rev. A. S. Gilbert of the Congregational church preached his farewell sermon last Sunday, and Thursday he left for Brooklyn, N. Y., to accept a call at the Hansum place church. Next Sunday Rev. Mr. Ephla, assistant pastor of the Phillips church, South Boston, will supply the pulpit.

The County Commissioners will give a hearing at Associates hall, Nov. 19, at 10 A. M., on the petition of Lemuel Grossman and others, that a part of Randolph avenue be widened.

Heard by Referee.

A hearing was held in one of the Committee rooms at City Hall Wednesday night before Albert Worthen, a referee appointed to hear the evidence in the case of Arthur Woodward against the City for $500, for loss caused by an alleged defect in the street. The accident in question happened on Nov. 16, 1897. Mr. Woodward alleged that he was driving on Willard street when his team struck a paving block left in the street. He was thrown out and bruised and the horse ran away, and when near the corner of Robertson street fell and broke his leg and was later shot by Officer Barry. Referee Worthen has not given in his decision.

WEYMOUTH.

The Parish Guild of Trinity church met with Mrs. E. H. Parlee on Sheppard street, East Braintree. There was a large gathering, and the arrangements for the Hallow-Eve entertainment and supper were perfected.

Miss Agnes Hyde begins her season's engagements in Clinton on Friday evening, Oct. 28.

Monday evening, Oct. 31, will be Hallow-eve, the night when many uncanny creatures are abroad. The ladies of Trinity church, Weymouth, will observe the evening by a Hallowe'en supper and entertainment at Engine hall, East Braintree. The entertainment will be furnished by fairies, gnomes, nymphs, brownies, goblins and hobgoblins, who will be conjured up by three witches. Supper from 6.30 to 8 o'clock. Entertainment at 8.

Why Is It?

A correspondent asks, why it is that the play ground in Ward Six is at this season being raked off and put in condition for use. Not a hand has been lifted or a stone disturbed so that it could be used in the summer when it naturally was needed, but now when it is about to be covered with snow workmen appear and are raking off the loose stones.

A DEATH IN FIFTH.

The First Since the Regiment Went Into Service.

With Co. K, 5th Mass.,
Middletown, Oct. 25, 1898.

We experienced a remarkable warm night, but hardly a touch of cold.

We had quite a surprise in K last night when a gentleman walked into the dispensary. Hospital Sergeant Matthews was mixing medicines to give to the patients in hospital. It was about 9 o'clock and the gentleman called out the steward's name. He turned around, who should he be, but Mr. William T. Richards of Quincy. After the steward had finished delivering the physic, he escorted Mr. Richards down to K street to see a number of the Quincy boys, but the hour being late, many of the boys had turned in for the night. Mr. Richards was warmly welcomed by the boys, for it seemed like old times to meet a gentleman from Quincy. Mr. Richards left at taps which is 9.30. He had to pass through here on his way to Philadelphia and thought he would drop down and see the boys. We appreciate his kindness exceedingly. We hope other Quincy gentlemen will do likewise when they are passing through this state.

This morning we have another bright sunny day. The boys are busy washing out their quarters. After all the rainy weather their quarters needed a little scouring.

The following members of K are on guard duty: Corporal Gannon, Privates Leonard, Lyons, Martelle, Malcolm, Mahoney, McPhee, McLaughlin, Mead, Morales, Newcomb, Osgood and O'Connors.

Lieut. Whitney is officer of the day. Corporal Leslie is an early riser. He rises every morning at 4 o'clock, as he is detailed over to the Commissary Department with a number of privates unloading beef cars. The corporal with his men unload about 10 tons of beef every morning; this supplies the whole 2d Army Corps.

We are sorry to relate the news to the friends of the Fifth Regiment, that one of our number passed away last night in the Philadelphia General Hospital. The unfortunate member was Private E. J. Picard of Co. D, Plymouth, of this battalion. He is the first and only member that our regiment has lost since our enlistment into the United State service, which shows a remarkably good record. Some regiments have lost nearly 200 men, and not been in service as long as "the Dandy Fifth." The health of the boys in this battalion at present is remarkable Corporal Haskins received this morning a handsome photographic machine so that we need not go without a view of every place, that we are stationed at.

The destination of the 2d division, 2d Army Corps, of which this regiment is part has been changed from Spartansberg, S. C., to Huntsville, Alabama, 30 miles further south than we were first destined. This battalion will not move before the 10th November. So that we may expect some sharp snappy weather.

Everything is O. K. at present.
Volunteer.

Birthday Party.

People wondered why so many children were wending their way toward Norfolk Downs hall Tuesday afternoon, but discovered later, it was for the occasion of a birthday party given to Master Edwin A. Poland of Norfolk Downs, it being his seventh birthday. About 40 children from the surrounding neighborhood, all friends of Master Edwin participated and from four until seven the merry peals of laughter were heard by passers by, showing that an excellent time was being had by the little ones. Dainties were served and all kinds of amusements were enjoyed by one and all.

As the shades of evening approached the little ones were escorted home by their fond parents. It was with regret that they left the hall and their little friend Edwin.

"Filthy Newspaper Rags."

London, Oct. 28.—The Paris correspondent of The News says: "The Brisson cabinet was overturned ostensibly because it failed to protect the army from slander. The real facts are that the ministers constantly but vainly urged the slandered staff officers to take proceedings against their slanderers. General Mercier, General Zurlinden and General Chanoine all declined to assist the government to vindicate the army's honor on the plea that it was useless to proceed against 'filthy newspaper rags.'

"General Chanoine's resignation was timed to prevent the civil power getting hold of the Dreyfus dossier. It was calculated that if he went out, slamming the door, the government would be beaten by parliament, afraid of having the army and the people against it.

"However, the desired object has been accomplished. Mr. Brisson was unable during the suspension of the sittings of the chamber on Tuesday to obtain Mr. Faure's signature for the nomination of a new minister for war. Had he succeeded the secret dossier would now be before the court of cassation, but Mr. Lockroy, as an ad interim war minister, cannot take the initiative. The custodians of the dossier can refuse to let him see it."

LOCAL NEWS TRACK.

Some Colts which are Sure Winners Every Heat.

Heavy frost this morning.

Are the Republicans also to have a stormy night for their rally?

The City Council Committee on Finance met Thursday night.

Miss Callie Letters of Boston is visiting Mrs. E. W. Preble of Edwards street.

The Electric Light & Power Co. are putting in a large new boiler at their plant on Quincy avenue.

The owners of yachts are now hauling them out of water and making them secure for the winter.

Mrs. G. B. Warner of Pittsfield, Maine, is the guest of Mr. L. A. Bassett of Walker street.

Some of the grocery stores are keeping open more nights now. They close only two nights in a week.

Mrs. Joseph R. Frost of Hampstead, N. H., has been visiting her parents at West Quincy this week.

Mr. Jansen, baggage master at Atlantic station, has gone for a two weeks' visit to his home in New York state.

The decayed limbs on many trees were blown off Wednesday night, and in some streets the ground was covered with them.

The funeral of Mrs. Louisa A. Hanson will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock from her late residence on Canal street.

The rainfall for this month has been above the average for October. The normal is less than four inches, but this year it is over seven.

There are several flags which are now flying that are so badly torn and faded that it is almost impossible to tell what they are. They should be taken down.

Ground for the underground telephone system has been opened as far as Greenleaf street and with good weather the conduits will be completed between School and Greenleaf streets by Saturday night.

Walter Pinel has leased the upper part of his store on Franklin street, at corner of Water street, and it will be used for carrying on a system of monthly auctions for the sale of household supplies of all kinds.

Rev. J. E. Waterhouse of the Wollaston Methodist church announces subjects for a continuation of the peoples services, viz: Nov. 6, "Winning a Truimph;" No. 13 "A Perilious Gift;" Nov. 20, "The Prodigal's Return."

People passing through Temple street Wednesday night, about 5 o'clock were treated to a display of fire works. The limb of one of the largest trees came in contact with an electric wire and the illumination lighted up the whole street.

The annual meeting of the united circles of King's Daughters on Saturday evening will be a notable one, as it will be addressed by Miss Margaret Tyler of the Willard Y Settlement and Rev. Walter Russell Breed. It will be held in the Water street Presbyterian church with services at 5 and 7.30 P. M.

John T. Hunt of Atlantic was summoned into court this morning upon a complaint of Inspector Cunningham of the Board of Health, for burying a body without a permit. The offence is alleged to have been committed last June when Hunt buried a still born infant in a field in the rear of his house. When arraigned in court Hunt pleaded guilty.

Parties were visiting Quincy recently from another city, not far from Boston. They were interested in school buildings and they came to the conclusion that the Massachusetts Fields school had the handsomest laid out grounds. The Gridley Bryant came in for a share with its lawn, and plants, and a flag staff with "old glory" floating at the peak.

The entertainment and social at the Swedish M. E. church on Fort street, Tuesday evening, was very enjoyable to a large attendance. It included ten minute speeches by Rev. H. Larson, Rev. P. Frost, Rev. O. Anderson, Rev. H. Hanson, Rev. C. J. Wigren, and Rev. S. Svenson, selections by the choir, violin and organ duet by Mr. Kihlstedt and Mrs. H. Larson, solo by Mrs. Larson, and a declamation by Rev. H. Young.

The grand Republican rally in the interest of Candidate Barrows for Congress in this district will be held this evening at Quincy Music hall. Mayor Sears will preside and there will be music by the Quincy band. The speakers will be Governor Wolcott, Congressman Barrows, Congressman McCall and Col. Clarke. It is the first year that Quincy has had a hall sufficiently large to seat all who desire to attend Republican rallies. We have a hall now that will accommodate 1,200 and a large balcony reserved for the ladies..

Saves Work and Worry

Neglect should never be laid at the door of a housewife. It may be she works harder than her neighbor, but doesn't go about it in just the right way. Her neighbor uses and keeps her house twice as clean with half the effort. Gold Dust Washing Powder has given many a woman the reputation of being a queen of housekeepers. Do you use it? Largest package—greatest economy.

GOLD DUST WASHING POWDER

THE N. K. FAIRBANK COMPANY, Chicago. St. Louis. New York. Boston. Philadelphia.

About . . .
Your Upholstering.

Sooner or later you'll need our assistance. All kinds of furniture reupholstered. Mattresses to order and made over. Window shades to order. Cushions to order. Carpets taken up, cleaned and relaid, or made over to fit other rooms; also drapery work. We employ men of experience only and insure our patrons strictly first-class work at prices that are fair to pay. Work done as it should be done. Estimates promptly furnished.

HENRY L. KINCAIDE & CO.,
Reliable, Low Priced House Furnishers,
Hancock Street, : : : Quincy.
Telephone Connection.

HEADQUARTERS
— FOR —
Honest, Reliable
Cents' Furnishings

My Store is Well Stocked with Carefully Selected . . . .

Fall and Winter Goods

From Leading Wholesale Houses of New York and Boston.

We will compete with any store in Quincy or Boston. For instance we will quote a few prices on our Leaders:

1 lot of Men's Brown Suits, small plaid pattern, a bargain, only . . $5.00
1 lot of Men's Fast Black Kersey OVERCOATS, satin lining $8.00
1 lot of BOYS' SUITS, to close $1.00
1 lot of Men's and Boys' REEFERS, all kinds and sizes from . . . . $1.50 to $4.00

We make no odd prices to deceive the imagination of people, and have

Honest Goods
— FOR — Honest Money.

Come, See, and Be Convinced.

F. J. PIERSON,
144 Granite St., Quincy.
Brewer's Corner.
Oct. 26. 2m cow

E. S. BECKFORD,
Electrician.
Wiring and Fitting for Incandescent, Motors, Dynamos, Bells, etc.
GRANITE STREET, Near the Bridge, QUINCY
Feb. 1 1y

DR. RALPH M. FOGG,
DENTIST.
Teeth extracted absolutely without pain by the use of the
"BOSTON VEGETABLE VAPOR."
It is claimed that, while it has the required properties of ether, chloroform, nitrous oxide gas, it lacks the disagreeable and dangerous qualities of these drugs. It is certainly a boon to suffering humanity to be relieved of the nausea too often following the administering of sedatives of the old school.—Boston Transcript.
Teeth made and repaired on Gold or Rubber base. Teeth Filling a specialty.
Office in French's Building, five doors south of Post Office, Quincy. Wednesdays. Hours, 9 A. M. to 5 P. M. July18-1y Nov8-1yo

Coal!

Just Received by Barge Blackbird, a Fresh Cargo of

Pea Coal
(Small Nut.)

J. F. SHEPPARD & SONS
Quincy Sept. 7.

Give C. PATCH & SON
A TRIAL ORDER
For HAZELTON LEHIGH COAL

PROF. W. R. CARTER,
SPECIALIST,
Chronic and Private Diseases,
MALE and FEMALE.
WILL BE AT
22 Chestnut Street, Quincy,
EVERY WEDNESDAY
From 10 A. M. to 9 P. M.
Consultation and Advice Free.
TEETH EXTRACTED WITHOUT PAIN.
Oct. 22. 6t

l Worry floor of a housewife.
neighbor, but doesn't r neighbor uses
LD
UST
G POWDER
wice as clean with half Washing Powder has he reputation of being
ers. Do you use it?
est economy.
ew York. Boston. Philadelphia.

our assistance. All Mattresses to order to order. Cushions ned and relaid, or drapery work. We l insure our patrons
at are fair to pay.
Estimates promptly

DE & CO.,
: Quincy.

RALPH M. FOGG,
DENTIST.
racted absolutely without pain by the use of the
"ON VEGETABLE VAPOR."
aimed that, while it has the required
s of ether, chloroform, nitrous oxide acks the disagreeable and dangerous of these drugs. It is certainly a boon ing humanity to be relieved of the oo often following the administering of s of the old school.—Boston Tra-made and repaired on Gold or Rubber eeth Filling a specialty.
n French's Building, five doors south
Office, Quincy. Wednesdays. Hours,
P. M. July18-ly Nov8-1vo

Coal!
Just Received by Barge
Blackbird,
a Fresh Cargo
of ea Coal
(Small Nut.)
SHEPPARD & SONS
Sept. 7.

PATCH & SON
TRIAL ORDER
For HAZELTON LEHIGH COAL.

. W. R. CARTER,
SPECIALIST,
ic and Private Diseases,
MALE and FEMALE.
WILL BE AT
stnut Street, Quincy,
ERY WEDNESDAY
From 10 A. M. to 9 P. M.
ltation and Advice Free.
EXTRACTED WITHOUT PAIN.
6t

MANY ENTRIES.

For the Annual Games of Adams Academy Tomorrow.

The number of entries for the annual fall games of the Adams Academy Athletic Association has been large, and there is a list of fifteen events, so that it promises to be one of the most eventful days of recent years for the school. It is founder's day, and a souvenir programme with a portrait of President John Adams has been prepared. The sports will be held at 9.30 A. M. on the Academy grounds.

The events will be in this order, the entries for each being given:

75 yard dash, (handicap in heats)—Freeman, Hoxie, OBrien, Sutermeister, Bennett, W. Thomas, Turner, Whitman, Baker, Harkins, Nickerson, Weston, Carey, George, Hodges, Vogel, Anderson, Hardwick, Morse.

Potato race—Anderson, Baker, Carey, Duffy, Freeman, George, Healey, Harkins, Kay, Mahon, Metherall, Moore Murphy, Nickerson, O'Brien, Parker, Pinkham, Sutermeister, Tate, A. Thomas.

Running broad jump, (handicap)—Baker, Bennett, Donaher, Hatch, Hodges, Hardwick, Hoxie, O'Brien, A. Thomas, W. Thomas, Turner, Weston, Whitman.

220 yard dash, (handicap)—Anderson, Donaher, Freeman, Harkins, Hoxie, Morse, Murphy, Sutermeister, W. Thomas, Weston, Vogel.

Barrel roll—Adams, Anderson, Cashman, Freeman, George, Harkins, Hoxie, Metherall, Tate, A. Thomas, W. Thomas, Weston.

Putting the shot (handicap)—Bennett, Burchsted, Cashman, Donaher, Haley, Hatch, Kay, Turner, Weston.

Football kick, (handicap)—Bennett, Doble, Donaher, Hardwick, Hodges, Mahon, Metherall, Mueller, O'Brien, Pinkham, A. Thomas, Turner, Weston, Vogel.

Three-legged race,—Adams and Kay, Anderson and Morse, Baker and Nickerson, Burchsted and Hatch, Carey and Mahon, Doble and Donaher, George and Metherall, Hodges and Mueller, Hoxie and Sutermeister, Turner and Vogel, Freeman and A. Thomas.

Quarter mile run, (handicap for challenge cup),—Adams, Anderson, Bennett, Carey, Donaher, Freeman, Hatch, Hardwick, Harkins, Hoxie, Kay, Hodges, Sutermeister, A. Thomas, Turner, Vogel, Weston, Whitman.

Hammer throw, (handicap)—Bennett, Cashman, Burchstead, Hatch, Kay, Turner, Whitman.

75 yard Hurdle race, (handicap)—Adams, Bennett, Hardwick, Hoxie, Tate, A. Thomas, W. Thomas.

Relay race,—Class of '99. Adams, Carey, Hatch, Hodges, Captain; Mahon, Whitman. Class of '01. Anderson, Baker, Harkins, Nickerson, Tate, Vogel, Captain. Class of '02. Doble, Hoxie, O'Brien, W. Thomas, Captain, Turner, Weston.

Running high jump, (handicap)—Bennett, Hatch, Hardwick, Moore, W. Thomas.

Tug-of-war,—Class of '99. Burchsted, Captain, Hatch, Hodges, Mahon, Whitman. Class of '01—Cashman, Captain, Donaher, Harkins, Mueller, Vogel. Class of '02. Doble, Captain, Hoxie, O'Brien, W. Thomas, Turner, Weston.

Foot-ball game between two picked teams.

☞ We sell Glenwood Ranges because they are the best ranges money can buy. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

—The amount paid out in wages for 1898 will be in round numbers $380,000,000 more than the total paid out in 1895 under the Wilson law.

☞ Full sized white Iron Bedsteads, brass trimmed, $2.98. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

POTATOES,
15c. Pk.
Sweet Potatoes,
15c. Pk.
White Seal Flour,
4.75 Bbl. Cash.
We guarantee this Flour to be old wheat and one of the best Bread Flours in the market.
L. M. PRATT & CO.,
25 School Street.

GIRLS VS. BOYS.

Animated Debate Continued at High School.

The third meeting of the year was held in the study hall at 12 25 P. M., on Wednesday. Mr. Thomas presided and Mr. Northcott read the minutes of the last meeting.

The entertainment fully maintained the high standard set by the society in previous years:

Recitation, Selection from Shakespeare, Miss Tina Mitchell, '99.

Essay, "Golf," Miss Sibley, '99.

Recitation, "Driving Home the Cows," perhaps the most exquisite lyric of the Civil War, Miss Vogler, '99.

Essay, "Why I like Poetry," written by Miss Mitchell, '99, read by Miss Hodgkinson, '99.

Piano solo, Miss Nash, '99.

The debate of last week on the respective contributions of girls and boys to he credit of the school, was continued with great animation. Miss Gorman spoke on the affirmative side, and Misses McDonald and McGinty, on the negative.

In the open debate on the subject of the day there were eight volunteer speakers:—Mr. Pitts, '99; Miss Comins, '99; Miss Mitchell, '99; Mr. Northcott, '99; Miss Whittemore, '99; Miss Sibley, '99; Mr. Swift, '99, and Mr. Murphy, '99. Others were willing to speak, but lack of time prevented further discussion.

Real Estate sales.

The conveyances recorded the past week include several sales by the Tax Collector but there are 31 others, so that the city is keeping up its record for real estate activity. There have been 170 conveyances recorded in five weeks. Those last week were:

Laban Pratt to Alice G. Hamblett, $1.
Chas. A. Parker to Edwd. Billings, $1.
Edwd. Billings to Alex. F. Larson, $1.
Lucianna G. Whiting to Augusta Petterson, $1.
Geo. A. Brown by mtgee., to Jos. Wiggin, (7), $700.
John D. Leach by mtgee., to Jos. Wiggin, (4), $2,000.
Jos. Wiggin to Jas. H. Waite, $2,700.
Jas. H. Waite, to Carmi P. Gardiner, $3,200.
Walter J. Wellington to Harriet E. Goodwin, $1.
Harriet E. Goodwin, to Almira D. Wellington, $1.
Sarah A. Mundy et al, to John F. Mundy, $1.
Chas. F. Adams et al, trs., to Martin H. Cook, $1.
Jas. McDonald to John McPherson, $1.
Jos. F. Wilson, to Martin W. Froulard, $1.
Alfred Shaw to Antoinette S. Paige, $1.
Willard Welsh to City of Quincy, (2), $2.
Jas. R. Murphy et al, trs., Agnes S. Leonard, $1.
E. H. Sanborn by coll., to Wm. E. Macunda, $222.
John J. Ahearn by coll., to Chas P. Hutchins, $20.
Thos. Bishop by coll., to Chas. P. Hutchins, $15.
Wm. H. Bliss by coll., to Chas. P. Hutchins, $24.
Alfd. Bozier by coll., to Chas. P. Hutchins, $15.
Eliza J. Davis by coll., to Chas. P. Hutchins.
Cath. A. Bryne et al, by coll., to Chas. P. Hutchins, $11.
Jas. W. Fitzgerald by coll., to Chas. P. Hutchins, $13.
Farrell & McFlynn, by coll., to Chas. P. Hutchins, $23.
Dennis Ford, 2d, by coll., to Chas. P. Hutchins, $38.
Emily E. Garbarino et al, trs., by coll. to Chas. P. Hutchins, $233.
Wm. J. Geary by coll., to Chas. P. Hutchins, $15.
Jane A. Kyte by coll., to Chas. P. Hutchins, $19.
Danl. L. Murphy by coll., to Chas. P. Hutchins, $31.
Mary E. Poland by coll., to Chas P. Hutchins, $19.
Mary Rayner by coll., to Chas. P. Hutchins, $15.
H. J. Roberts, by coll., to Chas. P. Hutchins, $15.
Lucy F. Washburn by coll,, to Chas. P. Hutchins, $30.
Arthur E. Wilson by coll., to Chas. P. Hutchins, $11.
Wm. D. Wilder by coll., to Chas. P. Hutchins, $13.
Zebulon, Wilkinson by coll., to Chas. P. Hutchins, $15.
John V. Scott et al, to Wm. A. Pratt, $1.
Wm. R. Thomas to Rodolfo Monti, $1.
Jas. R. Murphy et al, trs., to Francis A. Spear, $1.

Companion's First Subscriber.

The Youth's Companion is probably the only periodical in the world seventy-two years of age, whose first subscriber is living and still a constant reader of the paper. The subscriber who enjoys this unique distinction is Mrs. Hannah M. Parsons of Brooklyn, New York, now in her 85th year. She was the little sister of a friend of Nathaniel Willis, father of N. P. Willis, the poet, and founder of The Youth's Companion. When Mr. Willis had resolved upon publishing a new paper for young people, his friend had him put down his sister's name as the first subscriber. The Companion's first issue was dated April 16, 1827, and for more than 70 years this first subscriber has continued to read and enjoy it. The volume for 1899 will be the best The Companion has ever published. The most popular of living writers will give the best work of their best hours to the entertainment of the hundreds of thousands of households in which The Youth's Companion is every week a welcome guest. New subscribers will receive all the remaining issues of 1898 free from the time of subscription, and the beautiful Companion Calendar for 1899—the most beautiful one ever given to Companion readers—in addition to The Companion for 52 weeks, a full year, to January, 1900. THE YOUTH'S COMPANION, 211 Columbus avenue, Boston, Mass.

TO STIFLE THE TRUTH.

Such Appears to Be the Purpose of French Authorities.

Dreyfus May Be Released Without a Trial.

Evidence of a Shorthand Reporter Before the Court of Review.

Paris, Oct. 28.—Although the proceedings at the court of cassation thus far are favorable to Dreyfus, it must not be assumed that there will be a real clearing up of the mystery. It looks rather as though an attempt is being made to stifle the real truth by liberating Dreyfus without a new trial. It is asked by the Dreyfusites, if the secret dossier exists, as alleged, what good purposes can be served by the court of cassation giving a decision without seeing it, since that is the only real proof, if any, of the guilt of Dreyfus.

During the session of the court, an anti-revisionist mob, numbering about 100 people, shouting "Live the army" and "Death to the Jews," attempted to enter the room, but the passage of the mob was barred by the police, and large reinforcements were sent to guard the approaches.

Lawyer Bard cited facts favorable to the revision and expressed astonishment at the manner in which the whole affair had been conducted. He referred to the fact that the residence of Colonel Picquart had been searched, while the residence of Major Esterhazy, who was directly accused, was not searched. He also severely criticised Major Ravary's report on the charges against Major Esterhazy, and he further said that the handwriting experts, Balhemme and Varniard, were lunatics, whose testimony was unreliable. After referring to the fact that the handwriting experts who examined the bordereau differed widely in opinion, Mr. Bard concluded with expressing the belief that if the bordereau was the principal factor in the condemnation of Dreyfus on the testimony of experts his condemnation ought to be revoked.

Great stress was laid by Mr. Bard on Colonel Picquart's letter of July 14, 1898, to the minister of justice, in which he gave seven principal arguments against the probability of the guilt of Dreyfus, including the impossibility of Dreyfus procuring plans of fortresses and projects for the movements of troops undetected, whereas Esterhazy had free access thereto. This letter also cites interviews which Colonel Picquart had with Generals Bilot and Gonze and says: "With the proof in my hands I have established the innocence of Dreyfus." To this General Gonze replied, according to the letter to the minister of justice: "What is it to you if Dreyfus is on Devil's island?"

Colonel Picquart—But he is innocent.

General Gonze—You know Mercier, former minister of war, and Saussier, former military governor of Paris, are mixed up in this affair. Do you wish to compromise them?

The letter then continued that on leaving General Gonze, Colonel Picquart declared he was convinced of the innocence of Dreyfus, and he proposed to fight the matter out and reveal what he knew. These statements upon the part of the reporter caused a sensation in court.

After further reference to Colonel Picquart's charges that the minister of war and general staff had tampered with documents and had manufactured evidence in the Dreyfus case, and a presentation of the contradictory statements of Colonel Picquart and the minister of war relative to the secret documents alleged to have been communicated to the courtmartial, the hearing of the case was adjourned. The courthouse was emptied quietly. There were no demonstrations and no cries of any sort.

The Evening Courier says that the revelations of Mr. Bard as to the part played by some members of the general staff have produced a strong effect in military circles, and are likely to result in a reaction tending to put an end to the antagonism between the civil and military authorities.

The sensational part of Mr. Bard's report was the shorthand notes of the examination of Lieutenant Colonel Henry by Godefrey Cavaignac, then minister of war, after Henry's forgery had been discovered. These notes showed that the confession of forgery was only obtained with the utmost difficulty, Henry stoutly denying, then prevaricating to the effect that he only added one phrase to the genuine letter and then, when driven to the last corner, protesting that he acted for the country's good. The drift of Mr. Bard's conclusions was that Count Esterhazy was the real culprit, but that his condemnation would have meant the ruin of the intelligence department.

Mr. Bard animadverted severely on the with-holding of the secret dossier from Dreyfus himself, as the presenting of the documents to Dreyfus could not have compromised the national interests, and the course adopted was in flagrant violation of the rights of French citizens since 1780.

Civil Trial List.

The following cases are marked for trial at the civil session of the District Court next Tuesday:

196—Bjorkman vs. Poland.
237—Monti vs. Shea.
254—Pratt vs. Cappalini.
255—Pratt vs. Blackler.
256—Bates vs. Jordan.
265—McLeod vs. Hardwick, et al & tr.

MANY PEOPLE CANNOT DRINK
coffee at ight. It spoils their sleep. You can drink Grain-O when you please and sleep like a top. For Grain-O does not stimulate; it nourishes, cheers and feeds. Yet it looks and tastes like the best coffee. For nervouspersons, young people and children Grain-O is he perfect drink. Made from pure grains. Get a package from your grocer today. Try it in place of coffee. 15 and 25c.

HOW TO MAKE MONEY.

Take a silver dollar and drop it on a jeweler's show case and you'll get a ring. Take a quarter and saw it in two in the middle and get two halves. Take a two-dollar bill and fold it once and you double it—and you can keep on monkeying with money and make imaginary capital for an hour. But if you want to get a new wrinkle in money, just take a new ten dollar bill and fold it corner-ways and you'll get a new wrinkle every time. But don't fool with your money and don't let anybody else fool with it. Don't let anybody fool you with the idea that they'll give you a $10 bill with every $2 suit or overcoat.

The new store has earned a reputation for selling straight goods at straight prices. We don't monkey with your money, or flim flam you with any imaginary values. We give you good goods, charge a fair-profit price for everything you buy and expect you to come back the second time because you were used right the first.

We can sell a good Overcoat for $5.00 and an all wool one for $6.50. But for $7.50 we can show you a dandy all wool Kersey, made with raw edge and lap seams and lined with good lasting linings. The same coat our competitors (in Boston) get $10 for.

Our $10 coat we have in Blacks, Blues, Olives and Browns. Then we have them for $11, $12, $13, $13.50, $15, $15.50 and upwards to $19, in all the different style goods worn this season.

For this week and next too, if they are not all gone, we will sell all wool Dickey Pants at $1.48. All the other stores get $2.00.

QUINCY CLOTHING CO.,
LOWEST PRICED CLOTHIERS IM NORFOLK COUNTY.
MUSIC HALL BLOCK.

LAND VALUES.

Continued from page 1.

Valuation of Land Only.		Total Ward Tax.
Phelan, Mrs. Mary T.		52 20
11,512, Warren ave. ext., $700.
Pierce, L. Annie		74 70
9,900, Arlington, $1,100.
Pierson, Fred		42 30
5,000, East Elm ave., $350.
Pike, Nathan est.,		81 00
1-2 acre, Central ave., $1,300.
Pinkham, Arthur F.		54 20
3,525, Prospect ave., $450.
Pinkham, George F.		722 45
11,491, Grand View ave.,	$1,800.
11,491, Lot 7, Sec. 1,	$1,700.
11,491, " 8, " "	$1,200.
11,491, " 9, " "	$1,100.
11,491, " 10, " "	$1,100.
5,000, " 11, " "	$500.
5,000, Newport ave.,	$600.
5,000, " "	$450.
5,000, " "	$450.
6,072, Grand View ave.,	$900.
5,000, Lot 5, Sec. 6,	$650.
6,707, " 6, " "	$1,700.
6,421, " 7, " "	$1,600.
1 acre, Section 6,	$800.
11,250, Lot 10, Sec. 1,	$1,500.
1,900, " 12, " 6,	$150.
11,812, " 5, " 5,	$600.
11,725, " 6, " 5,	$575.
10,017, " D, " 1,	$500.
7,225, Prospect ave.,	$900.
Pinkham, Herbert W.		27 00
8,550, Section 1, $1,500.
Pinkham, Horace A., est.,		104 40
11,400, Grand View ave., $1,500.
Pinkham, Isorah H.		113 40
11,250, Winthrop ave., $400.
Pinkham, Lucy W.		79 20
11,340, Grand View ave , $1,650.
1,500, " " "	$250.
Pletsch, Henry		72 00
6,300, Morton, $450.
6,300, " $450.
Pinkham, Mary E. S.		80 10
10,500, Warren ave., $1,250.
Plummer, Mrs. Susan A.		126 00
1 acre, Hancock, $4,500.
Plummer, Helen G.		38 70
4,720, Wollaston ave , $350.
WARD SIX.
Pierce, Eleanor		$36 90
5,000, Hodges ave., $350
Pierce, Joseph N.		33 30
5,000, Royal, $350.
Pierce, William F,		124 40
10,800, Hancock, $1,300.
Pickard, Alfred L.		22 50
4,034, Appleton, $350.
Pinkham, Walter S.		12 60
11,250, Minot, $700.
Peltsch, Henry & Theodore Gram,		17 10
3,750, Newport ave., $250.

To be continued.

Hoisted the American Flag.

Gloucester, Mass., Oct. 28.—The crew of the James G. Blaine, which has arrived here from a bank halibut trip, was given quite a scare on the way home. Last Monday the vessel was off Halifax, when a British warship was sighted in target practice. Some of the shells of the warship began dropping in close proximity. One dropped across her stern and another whizzed across her bows. Captain Stream decided they were coming too close for comfort, and ordered the American flag to the masthead, when at once there was a cessation of target firing.

Tomorrow's Almanac and Forecast.

Sun rises—6:14; sets, 4:41.
Moon rises—evening.
High water—10:45 a. m.; 11:30 p. m.

The storm passed off early Thursday morning, clear skies prevailing during the day. While from present indications fair weather is most likely to continue the greater part of Sunday, increasing cloudiness is probable, and possibly with light rains in the late afternoon or night. It will be somewhat warmer Saturday, with variable winds, probably becoming easterly or southerly.

TODAY'S COURT.

Patrick Scully was fined $7 for drunkenness, and Wyman Centre $5 for drunkenness.

John T. Hunt was arraigned for burying a child at Quincy without a permit from the Board of Health. Case continued until Saturday.

NOTICE TO VOTERS.

CITY OF QUINCY.

For the purpose of preparing the Annual Register of Voters, and of receiving evidence of qualifications from persons claiming a right to Vote at the coming City Election, the Board of Registrars of Voters will be in session in the COUNCIL CHAMBER in the City Hall Building, on the evenings of

Wednesday, November 9, and Saturday, November 12, from 7 to 9 o'clock P.M., also on Wednesday, November 16, from 12 o'clock, noon, to 10 o'clock P.M.

Every applicant for registration must appear in person before the Board. Every male applicant must present either a certificate from the Assessors or a Tax bill or Notice from the Collector of Taxes, showing that he has been assessed a Poll tax as a resident of the City on the First day of May last; if a naturalized citizen he must also produce for inspection his papers of naturalization. Payment of a poll tax is not a prerequisite to voting.

Persons who have lived in the state one year, and in the city six months previous to December 6, if qualified in other respects, can be registered.

No name can be added to the list of voters unless registered previous to WEDNESDAY, Nov. 16th, at 10 o'clock P. M., when registration will close.

Examine the Voting Lists posted herewith and see that your name is in its proper place. NO CHANGE can be made after WEDNESDAY, Nov. 16th, at 10 o'clock P. M. The Board or Assessors will hold meetings at the same time.

EDWARD B. MARSH,
CORNELIUS MOYNIHAN,
EDWARD J. McKEON,
EDGAR G. CLEAVES,
Registrars.

Quincy, Oct. 22, 1898. 21t

STATE ELECTION.

CITY OF QUINCY.

City Clerk's Office, Oct. 7, 1898.

IN Accordance with the provisions of Chapter 548 of the Acts of 1898, notice is hereby given that by a vote of the City Council, passed October 3, 1898, the polling places for the election to be held TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1898, in the City of Quincy, were designated as follows:

WARD ONE.—Council Chamber, City Hall.
WARD TWO—Hose House, Washington street.
WARD THREE, Precinct One.—Doble's Hall, Franklin street.
WARD THREE, Precinct Two.—Old Steamer House, School street.
WARD FOUR, Precinct One.—St. Mary's Hall, Willard street.
WARD FOUR, Precinct Two.—Hose House, Copeland street.
WARD FIVE.—Polson's Building, Newport avenue.
WARD SIX.—Hose House, Newbury avenue.

Attest: EDGAR G. CLEAVES,
City Clerk.

Quincy, Oct. 7, 1898. 27t

E. LANDIS SNYDER,
Organist and Choirmaster of Christ Church,
TEACHER OF
VOICE CULTURE, PIANO AND ORGAN.
Studio: Room 10 Durgin & Merrill's Block,
QUINCY, MASS.
Sept. 10. tf

This is Lehigh Coal,
And We Have it for Sale.
C. PATCH & SON.

NOTICE!
NOTICE is hereby given that my wife, SADIE L. RICH, having left my bed and board without cause, I shall pay no bills of her contraction from this date.
HENRY C. RICH.
Quincy, Oct. 10, 1898. 27-3t

DR. HERBERT S. HAYFORD
195 Hancock Street.
OFFICE HOURS—11 to 12 A. M., 2 to 4 and 7 to 8 P. M.
Telephone, 4-3.
Quincy, July 5. tf

STENOGRAPHY AND TYPEWRITING,
BOOKKEEPING,
And All Clerical Work.
MISSES A. B. and E. M. COTE,
Room 12 Durgin & Merrill Block, - Quincy.
Oct. 10. tf

MABEL F. FAIRBANKS
TEACHER OF
CHINA PAINTING and WATERCOLOR.
China Decorated to Order.
34 Grand View Avenue, Wollaston.
Sept. 29. 3m

FISH.
Everything first-class at the
Cape Cod Fish Market,
Temple Street.
All kinds Fresh, Salt, Smoked and Pickeled
Quincy, Feb. 8. 1y

HOUSES, STORES, LAND,
ROOMS, OFFICES, AND WHARVES,
To Let In Quincy, Mass.
The Houses are in Complete Repair.
Half-house, 10 rooms, 6 Chester street, Wollaston.
House, 10 rooms with stable, 16 Cottage street.
Half-house, 5 rooms, 16 Cottage street.
House, 8 rooms, 29 Granite street.
Half-house, 4 rooms, 4 Water street, $7 per month.
Tenement, 5 rooms, 59 North street.
Half-house, 6 rooms, Pond street, $10 per month.
Half-house, 5 rooms, 13 Field street, $8 per month.
Tenement, 3 rooms, 28 Howard street, $3 per month.
Tenements, 51 Howard street, $4, $5 and $6 per month.
Room, 12 Washington street, $5 per month.
Large building, suitable for manufacturing purposes on Brackett's wharf.
Small stable, 2 Qnincy street, $3 per month.
Small stable, 28 Coddington street, $5 per month.
100 windows, and blinds, various sizes
Wharf, stone sheds, etc., Quincy Neck.
Basement, head of Granite street.
100 tons ballast for sale.
Land to rent for tillage or pasturing purposes.
Gravel and sand for sale.
50 loads of loam for sale.
The buildings are in the very best condition.
For particulars, enquire of, or address
HENRY H. FAXON,
Quincy, Mass.
Quincy, Oct. 13, 1898. 1m

☞ Hundreds of handsome lamps, all the newest creations, from 25 cents to $10.00. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS.

Advertisements in this column inserted at the following rates:

Four lines, or less, one day, - - 25 cents
" " three days, - - - 50 cents
" " one week, - - 75 cents.

Additional lines will be charged for pro rata. Seven words equal a line. Long term rates furnished on application.

WANTED.

WANTED—Salesman; salary from start, permanent place. BROWN BROS. CO., Nurserymen, Rochester, N. Y.
Oct. 28. 1t

WANTED.

A YOUNG GIRL as assistant to do housework. Not required to do washing. Apply at W. E. SIMMONS', 14 Central avenue, Wollaston.
Oct. 28. plw 1-28 31 1

TO LET.

TO LET—3 Houses of 7 rooms each, healthful location and fine views. Electrics pass often. Rent low. Inquire of F. H. GRAVES, just beyond the bridge, North Weymouth.
Oct. 28. 6t

TO LET—On Washington street at the corner of Canal street, a desirable tenement of six large rooms, to be vacated Nov. 1 by Mr. F. H. Lord; front and back stairs, city water, and in good repair; near Coddington school, Public Library and depot. Apply only to FRANK F. PRESCOTT, Ledger office.
Quincy, Oct. 27. tf lp

TO LET—2 Rooms, Furnished or Unfurnished, with steam heat and bath. 3 minutes from depot. Rent reasonable. L., Post Office. Oct. 26—6t

TO LET—House of six rooms, in good repair. Possession given Nov. 1. Apply at 8 Orchard place, Quincy. Oct. 25—6t

TO LET—Half a House of 5 rooms entirely separate on Phipps street, Mt. Pleasant. Rent, $8 a month; city water. Inquire at 17 Summer street.
Quincy, Sept. 27. 31t

TO LET—Tenement of 6 rooms No. 12 Newcomb street, in good repair; city water. inquire of C. A. SPEAR, 7 Newcomb street.
Quincy, Oct. 20. tf

TO LET—Cottage house, No. 29 Granite street, 8 rooms, three minutes' from City Square. Apply to H. M. FAXON, 4 Adams Building. Sept. 30—tf

FOR RENT—Desirable house with bath, corner lot, nice neighborhood, three minutes' walk from schools, churches and depot Rent reasonable. Apply at No. 6 Pleasant St.
Quincy, Sept. 7. tf

TO LET IN QUINCY.

SOUTHERLY Half of house with stable 214 Hancock street, now occupied by Dr. N. S. Hunting. Modern improvements, central location. Seven rooms and bath; furnace, gas and city water. Apply on premises to MISS M. F. UNDERWOOD.
Oct. 1. tf

TO LET.

House of 8 rooms, etc., No. 20 Canal street, Quincy. Nice house, excellent location.
R. D. CHASE,
Savings Bank Building.
Quincy, Oct. 8. pl tf

TO LET.

APARTMENTS of five large rooms and bath, with all modern improvements. Also two large stores. Rent moderate. Apply to ARTHUR CRAIG, or J. W. HAYDEN, at Craig Building, cor. Copeland and Garfield Sts.
Quincy, July 15. pl tf

For Sale or To Let, FURNISHED,
NASH'S HOTEL.

Full of Boarders and a good transient trade. Cheap rent. My catering business is all I can attend to.
Apply at HOTEL, 148 Hancock street, Quincy, Mass. oct11 tf lo

FOR SALE.

Bigelow St. Fine New Residence, 9 rooms, bath, laundry, furnace, open plumbing, cemented cellar, fireplace, etc.
R. D. CHASE,
Savings Bank Building.
Quincy, April 8-tf. 9p-tf

Savings Bank Building, Quincy.

The Peace Commission.

In considering terms of Peace, it is of vital importance to remember that the largest piece and the best piece—of really good chewing tobacco in the world is the 10-cent piece of

BattleAx PLUG

Any discussion of pieces or comparison of brands can only result in the award of every claim to America—and to Battle Ax. Try it to-day.

Remember the name when you buy again.

MAKE IT HOT FOR YOU.

If your house is cold and you have become disgusted with the various devices called heaters, and you are really anxious to have warmth and comfort in your home, place an order for one of those G. B. Bates CIRCULATORS. It will "make it hot for you" or just the temperature you desire. Its construction is based upon scientific and economical principles. Several have recently been put in right here in Quincy, and others will be put in during the next few weeks. Don't read this ad. and then forget about it till your water pipes are all frozen, but go now to

G. B. BATES,

Hancock Street, Quincy.

WATCHES.

GENT'S WATCHES, $1.50 and Up.

LADIES' WATCHES, $2.50 and Up.

EVERY WATCH WARRANTED.

$2.00 Belts, $1.00 Each.
75c. Brooch Pins, 25c. Each.
25 and 35c. Stick Pins, 5 and 10c. Ea.

Quincy SOUVENIR TILES Half Price,

And Other Bargains.

A. A. LINSCOTT, Jeweler,

154 Hancock St., opp. Post Office, Quincy.

Agent for Graphophones.

aug 6. tf

LEHIGH COAL.

When we Sell You Lehigh we Deliver what we Sell. . . . .

C. PATCH & SON.

TEETH EXTRACTED.

No Pain or Danger.

Safer than vapor. Money paid for extracting goes towards teeth to be inserted. I am the only dentist in the city using the Painless Preparation for Extraction.

DR. C. B. UNDERWOOD,
9 Spear St. Rear of Public Library

FIVE LESS REDSKINS.

Desperate Battle In Which Indians Were Outnumbered.

The Combatants Only Forty Feet Apart.

Trouble Started Over the Charge of Stealing Horses.

Baker City, Ore., Oct. 28.—A special from Canyon City states that a member of the sheriff's posse has just returned to Canyon City with a report of a desperate fight between the whites and a band of Indians. The 19 men and five warriors were 40 feet apart when the battle began. George Cuttings was shot in the arm and lungs. One of the Indians who were shot and killed fought with desperate courage. Cuttings, after he received his wound, started for Izee, but died on the way. The posse, after a running battle, killed all five Indians.

Settlers have sent to Canyon City for more ammunition, stating that the Indians are gathering around Izee in large numbers. The trouble arose over the Indians accusing the whites of stealing horses.

Denial of Charges.

St. Paul, Oct. 28.—United States Marshal O'Connor said: "My attention was called to the report of what purported to be an interview with Indian Commissioner Jones relative to myself and deputies. Thinking that the head of an honorable department of the United States could not be guiity of such an unbecoming act, I wired Commissioner Jones, asking if his statements were correctly reported. They are absolutely false, and Commissioner Jones has either been egregiously imposed upon by the Indians or has maliciously made statements which he knew to be false. I shall answer him at a proper time and in a proper manner. I have referred the whole matter to the attorney general, and have requested a full investigation of the charges made by Mr. Jones.

Weber's Law on Smelling.

Ithaca, Oct. 28.—Professor M. B. Titchener of the psychological department of Cornell yesterday announced to his classes that a new and very important psychological discovery had been made in the laboratories at Cornell. The relation between "intensity of stimulus" and "intensity of sensation" in the sense of smell has been demonstrated to be one-third to one-fourth. The difference between these exponents is one-twelfth. Thus it is shown that the sense of smell appreciates 11-12ths of the intensity of the substance applied. This is a new feature of "Weber's law," of which, until the experiments at Cornell were completed, nothing definite was known. To determine this experiments have been carried on at Cornell for three years. Dr. Titchener was assisted in his work by Miss Gamble, now an instructor in Wellesley. She graduated from Cornell last June, and it was due to her efforts more than to Dr. Titchener's that successful results were reached. Fourteen different people and 30 different substances were experimented upon.

President Entertained.

Philadelphia, Oct. 28.—President McKinley was the guest of honor at the peace jubilee banquet of the Clover club, where he met nearly all of the distinguished visitors to the city and the leading citizens of Philadelphia as well. In response to the patriotic introduction of Colonel McClure, the president of the club, the president said: "It has been especially gratifying to me to participate, not only with the people of Philadelphia, but with the people of the great west, where I have recently visited, in doing honor to the American army and the American navy. No nobler soldiers or sailors ever assembled under any flag. I ask you, gentlemen of the Clover club, to unite with me in toasting the army and navy of the United States, without whose valor and sacrifice we could not celebrate the victory we have been celebrating. Not only the men at the front, not only the men on the battleships and in the battle line, but the men at home with ambition to go to fight the battles of American civilization, should be the recipients of the gratitude of the American people."

Accused of Embezzlement.

Boston, Oct. 28.—At the instigation of the French consul in Boston, Alert Caste was arrested yesterday on a complaint charging him with being a fugitive from justice. Caste is wanted by the French authorities. Up to a year ago he was employed as receiver in the postoffice on the island of St. Pierre, off Newfoundland. This position is similar to the office of postmaster in the United States. The defendant came to Boston to evade arrest on the charge of embezzling several thousand dollars from the government funds entrusted to his care. He was tried and convicted, but before sentence was passed he escaped from the island. Since then the authorities were ignorant of his whereabouts. Evidently detectives in the employ of the French government finally located him. Caste has consented to go back to the island without opposition, or putting the authorities to the expense and trouble of an extradition.

Avoided Adjudicating a Doubt.

Wilmington, N. C., Oct. 28.—In the United States district court in Newbern, in the case of the United States against the Southern Express company, brought by several fish shippers on the ground of violating the revenue act because the company required them to pay for a 1-cent stamp necessary to be affixed to each receipt issued, Judge Purnell dismissed the suit, holding that as the tax had been paid the government was satisfied; and as to who should pay the tax was a matter to be settled between shipper and express company.

Suicide After Shooting.

Chicago, Oct. 28.—Clara Dumont was shot through the left breast by Paul Vincent, with whom she was living. Vincent then shot and killed himself. The woman will probably die. The couple quarrelled because Vincent was tardy in getting home to dinner.

FEVER IN NEW YORK.

Former Commissioner of Street Cleaning Contracted the Disease In Cuba.

New York, Oct. 28.—Commissioner W. T. Jenkins of the health department states that Colonel George E. Waring, Jr., who recently returned to New York from Cuba and went to his home ill, has yellow fever.

It was supposed at first that Colo Waring had malarial fever. Yesterday his physician reported to the health board that the colonel was suffering from a suspicious disease. Inspector Blauvelt of the hospital department, and Dr. White of the Marine hospital, who was formerly in charge of the yellow fever camp at Fontainbleau, Fla., at once went to the Waring abode and made an examination. They returned at 4 o'clock in the afternoon and made another examination. They diagnosed the case as yellow fever. Colonel Waring's temperature in the morning was 103 1-3 degrees, and in the afternoon 102 4-5 degrees. In the opinion of the physicians the case is not a malignant one, and Colonel Waring's chances of recovery are good. There is no danger of the spread of the disease in this city on account of the cold weather.

Colonel Waring's wife, his step-son and maid servant have been with him since his arrival at his home. They were given the privilege of remaining with him, or leaving the house. They elected to remain. Mrs. Waring is immune, but the others are not. An inspector from the board of health was at once placed on guard at the house.

Colonel Waring was sent to Cuba by President McKinley to inspect the sanitary condition of Havana. He spent sometime in the city and collected a vast amount of information, which he intended to submit to the president. Colonel Waring was taken ill on board the Yucatan on the return voyage. He apparently was not seriously ill.

Eight or Ten Perished.

Rochester, Oct. 28.—A special from Sodus says: "Thursday noon, about five miles northwest of Sodus, the three-masted schooner, St. Peters of Cape Vincent, sank with all on board save one, the captain, who was rescued in an unconscious condition. The schooner showed signals of distress early in the morning as she drifted past Charlotte. A tug put out after her, but after cruising about for four hours returned without getting a glimpse of the distressed vessel. During the forenoon the people at Pultneyville sighted the St. Peters and telegraphed to Sodus for help. A tug started out, but the great seas nearly swamped her, and she was compelled to return to the harbor. Word was sent to Charlotte, and a tug started from there with the lifesaving crew. When within a mile of the St. Peters the crew saw the distressed ship sink. In 10 minutes the tug was cruising about the spot where she went down. The captain was picked up unconscious. After spending half an hour looking for the other members of the ill-fated crew, the tug started for Sodus, where medical assistance was secured for the captain. It is known that the wife of the captain was drowned, and that eight or ten persons at least perished. The captain will recover.

Smelling Salts In His Eyes.

Yonkers, N. Y., Oct. 28.—The Broderick-Connelly fight last night, as far as it went, was a terrific battle. For the first four rounds the men fought like demons, with honors even. Broderick displayed rare science in avoiding his opponent's rushes. In the fifth Broderick beat Connelly's face raw with a series of straight left and right hooks. In the sixth Connelly scored a hard left on Broderick's chin which staggered the Yonkers man; and then he followed it up with two hard swings, bringing Tom to the boards. By clinching Broderick stayed the round out.

The seventh was all Connelly's, and Broderick was a trifle wobbly from the effects of the punishment he had sustained. In the eighth and ninth, however, Broderick freshened, and sailed in and fought Connelly to a standstill. During the round Connelly fouled his man time and time again in an endeavor to turn the tide in his favor.

When the men went to their corners it looked like Broderick at 10 to one. Immediately before the bell Broderick's second accidentally threw smelling salts into Tom's eyes. Broderick, however, was unable to see and was writhing with pain. It was then that the referee gave the decision to Connelly.

Press Agent Killed Himself.

Philadelphia, Oct. 28.—Nathaniel Childs, press agent of the "Way Down East" company, which is playing at a local theatre, died yesterday at the Jefferson hospital. He had swallowed 45 grains of morphine, after which he shot himself in the head. The act was committed Tuesday, but through the efforts of friends the affair was kept secret and Childs was taken to the hospital.

Childs was one of the best known men in the theatrical world. His home was in Boston. He graduated from Harvard in 1869, and the following year he entered the newspaper business. For several years he was editor of the Boston Traveler. He entered the theatrical profession in 1876, and wrote a number of plays. At one time he was advance agent of Henry Irving, and for 10 years acted in the same capacity for Abbey, Schoefel & Graw.

The failure of "Little Miss Nobody," in which he was interested, made him very despondent, and he began to drink. He was about 50 years of age, and leaves a widow.

Strikers Go Back to Work.

Brockton, Oct. 28.—The lasters' strike in this city and in this entire district has been declared off, and all the men returned to work this morning. This decision was reached at a protracted meeting of the conference committee, which is composed of the executive boards of all the unions in the district, and was reported by that committee to a mass meeting of lasters which was awaiting the result of its deliberations. This ends the strike not only of the lasters against their employers, but also the war of the unions against the machine companies.

Hanging From a Door.

Leominster, Mass., Oct. 28.—The body of Leonard J. Billings, 50 years of age, was found by his son hanging from a door in an attic over the son's shop. The cause of the suicide is said to be the result of a love affair. Mr. Burrage leaves three sons and one daughter.

CIVIL SERVICE ORDER.

Category of Spoils to Be Enlarged Considerably.

Eight Thousand Positions Will Be Affected.

Examining Surgeons and Revenue Deputies the Most Numerous.

Washington, Oct. 28.—It is understood that a presidential order exempting a large number of governmental officials from the operation of the civil service rules will be promulgated, probably shortly before Thanksgiving day. The order is one which has been in contemplation for many months, having been deferred from time to time owing to pressure of war business. As at present determined upon the order will affect upwards of 8000 places. It will include deputy collectors of internal revenue who are authorized by law to become acting collectors actually serving in that capacity. There are about 2000 of these deputies.

The largest class affected is the corps of examining surgeons of the pension bureau, of whom there are in all over 4100. Over 3000 of these surgeons are stated at the civil service commissioners' office never to have been classified under the civil service law. The order will clear the misapprehension as to the actual status of the whole corps and place them all outside.

About 50 office deputy marshals heretofore reported as classified, but concerning whose status there has been some doubt, because of their being in the judicial branches of the service, are expected to be placed in the exempt class. There are other scattering positions, including some of a fiduciary and confidential character, which will aggregate possibly several hundred. This is the scope of the order as now outlined in official quarters, but it is subject to further modification before being finally passed upon.

The News of Beantown.

Boston, Oct. 28.—In the superior court yesterday, Robert Walker was sentenced to not more than five nor less than three years in state prison for passing a worthless check in this city in 1895. Walker had just finished a sentence in Sing Sing of four years, with time off for good behavior, for a similar offence.

At the annual conclave of the grand commandery of Knights Templars of Massachusetts and Rhode Island, the following were elected as officers: Commander, G. L. Shipley, Providence; deputy, H. P. Morse, Roxbury, generalissimo, Winthrop Messenger, Melrose; captain general, G. E. Hilton, Lynn; prelate, Rev. Charles A. Morgan, Haverhill; senior warden, G. H. Kenyon, Providence; junior warden, F. C. Hersey, Boston; treasurer, J. H. Upham, Dorchester; recorder, B. W. Rowell of Lynn.

A verdict of $5500 against the Dorchester Gas company was rendered yesterday in a peculiar action of tort. W. H. Hook, the plaintiff, was seriously burned by a brown liquid which issued from a jet he was attempting to light at his home last March, and so sued to recover for his injuries.

To the music of a dozen bands and by the light of flaring torches, the Ancient Order of United Workmen, some 5000 strong, marched through the streets of Boston last night in celebration of the 30th anniversary of the organization.

Sentence of Mere Boys

St. Joseph, Mo., Oct. 28.—In the criminal court yesterday Herbert Donovan, Alonzo Arteburn, Charles Cook, James Hathaway and William Hathaway were sentenced to the penitentiary for 10 years for robbing a Burlington passenger train near St. Joe Aug. 11. The robbers are mere boys and of good families. On this account the railroad and express officials consented to the assessment of the minimum fine upon their plea of guilty.

The robbery was successfully executed, but no booty was obtained. After throwing the safe, containing a large amount of money, from the train, the boys became frightened and ran away without opening it. They proceeded to their homes in this city, and next day James Hathaway made a confession.

The Virden Battle.

Carlinville, Ills., Oct. 28.—The coroner's jury which held an inquest on the bodies of the victims of the riot in Virden, Oct. 12, between miners and guards of the Chicago-Virden Coal company, returned a verdict last evening. The verdict in each instance was that the deceased came to his death by gunshot wounds inflicted by weapons in the hands of parties unknown to the jury. No one was censured, and no recommendations were made to the grand jury.

The grand jury will convene Nov. 9 in special session to investigate the causes of the riot and indict the guilty parties.

For Killing Her Husband.

Battle Creek, Mich., Oct. 28.—The preliminary examination of Mrs. Rudolphus Sanderson, who is charged with murdering her husband, was begun Thursday. Mary Robertson, the woman's servant, testified that she saw her mistress gather up bottle glass and take it to the spice mill in the cellar, saying: "Perhaps you think this awful, Mary, but I think nothing more about it than eating my breakfast." She then ground the glass and put it into the porridge, which her aged husband ate. He became very sick complained of indigestion, gradually grew worse, and there was nothing but quarreling between them until death came.

Sailors' Close Call.

Key West, Oct. 28.—The schooner, Kate, which left Key West Oct. 1 with a cargo of stores and medical supplies for the Cuban forces in Sancti Spiritus was overtaken by a storm during the afternoon of Oct. 21. At daylight Oct. 22 the Kate struck on the San Carlos reefs, province of Pinar del Rio. The members of the crew escaped death almost by a miracle. After swimming ashore they took refuge in a swamp.

IS IT A TRIFLE?

THAT COMMON TROUBLE, ACID DYSPEPSIA OR SOUR STOMACH

Now Recognized as a Cause of Serious Disease.

Acid dyspepsia, commonly called heartburn or sour stomach, is a form of indigestion resulting from fermentation of the food. The stomach being too weak too promptly digest it, the food remains until fermentation begins, filling the stomach with gas and a bitter, sour, burning taste in the mouth is often present. The condition soon becomes chronic and being an every day occurrence is given but little attention. Because dyspepsia is not immediately fatal, many people do nothing for the trouble.

Within a recent period a remedy has been discovered prepared solely to cure dyspepsia and stomach troubles. It is known as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and is now becoming rapidly used and prescribed as a radical cure for every form of dyspepsia.

Stuarts' Dyspepsia Tablets have been placed before the public and are sold by druggists everywhere at 50 cents per package. It is prepared by the Stuart Chemical Co., Marshall, Mich., and while it promptly and effectually restores a vigorous digestion, at the same time is perfectly harmless and will not injure the most delicate stomach but on the contrary by giving perfect digestion strengthens the stomach, improves the appetite and makes life worth living.

Send for free book on Stomach Diseases. 24-3t-24-26-28.

☞ Powerful oil heaters. Will heat your room in a twinkling. $3.98. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

When a fish has lost any of his scale, by a wound or abrasion, they are never renewed.

Bon Ami

The Modern Cleaner

IS USED IN THE FORM OF A LATHER, REQUIRES LITTLE WATER. MAKES NO MUSS.

GO TO . . . .

Miss B. J. PATTERSON'S

Millinery Parlors

AT THE

Boston Bargain Store,

FOR YOUR

FALL MILLINERY.

A fine assortment of Trimmed Goods. Also, all the latest and best shapes in untrimmed hats, walking hats and sailors.

New Velvets, Ribbons, Fancy Feathers and Ostrich goods.

Lowest possible prices for first-class goods.

Music Hall Building, Quincy.

Oct. 1. tfpl

CANCER CURED

BY ABSORPTION

NO KNIFE.

The result of years of scientific research by America's greatest blood specialist. A pleasant treatment that relieves immediately, cures permanently all forms of CANCERS, TUMORS and CHRONIC DISEASES. Hundreds of wonderful cures effected in and around Boston. Read the following:

BLOOD EVIDENCE

Then come to our offices and investigate the hundreds of other marvellous cures produced by ABSORPTION when all other treatment failed. Consult this living patient. "Dr. James M. Solomon: Dear Sir: The following is my testimonial, which I hope will help others. That after suffering several years with something that was never reached, getting only temporary help from different doctors, and each attack being more severe, I was advised by a friend, who had been cured of a tumor, to see her doctor. I was then unable for any work, and feeling worse from day to day; realizing that something was preying upon me of a serious nature, I was discouraged about my condition, and sought Dr. Solomon with little faith—it was more of an experiment. He got my confidence on the first interview, when, without a word of description of my feelings from me, he at once located my trouble, and I could not help believing that he knew from what I was suffering, although was greatly surprised and somewhat terrified when he told me it was cancer of the stomach. I began treatment at once, Nov. 3, 1892, and was faithful to his directions, with just the results promised I would get, till the following June (1893) I felt like a new being, and the doctor pronounced me recovered. I am sure that I have, and I can never repay the gratitude I owe to Dr. J. M. Solomon. Sincerely, EBEN FISH, 232 Harvard St., Dorchester, Mass." Today he is one of the many living witnesses of the only painless method that positively CURES when all others fail.

We want you to call and examine references of people you know—people we all know, who would not vouch for ABSORPTION had they not been cured. Ask for references marked H.

James M. Solomon, M.D.

SPECIALIST IN CANCERS, TUMORS AND CHRONIC DISEASES.

2 A Beacon Street BOSTON.

Oct. 13. 1y lo

FRANK F CRANE,

AUCTIONEER and APPRAISER,

Office, 4 Chestnut St., Quincy, Mass.

Oct. tf

ALBERT J. BOWERS

OPTICIAN

ADAMS BUILDING OVER POST OFFICE QUINCY MASS.

Hazelton Lehigh

FURNACE COAL

Give C. PATCH & SON

A Trial Order.

Quincy and Boston Electric Street Railway.

[Subject to change without notice.]

On and after October 10, cars will be run on the different routes as follows:

Quincy and Neponset.

Leave CITY SQUARE for Neponset at 5.55, 6.10, 6.25, 6.40 A. M. and every 15 minutes until 11.10 P. M.

Leave NEPONSET for Quincy at 6.15 A. M. and every 15 minutes until 11.30 P. M.

Cars leaving Quincy at 20 minutes of the hour and Neponset on the hour, go via. Hancock street direct.

Cars leaving Quincy at 25 and 55 minutes past the hour go via Newport avenue, Wollaston.

Cars leaving Quincy at 10 minutes past the hour go via Norfolk Downs, and those leaving Neponset at 30 minutes past go via Downs.

Cars leaving Neponset 15 minutes of and 15 minutes past the hour go via Wollaston and continue through Braintree and Holbrook to Brockton, connecting with cars for Bridgewater, Taunton, New Bedford, Fall River, Newport and Providence.

Quincy and East Weymouth.

Leave CITY SQUARE (10 minutes later from Quincy Point and 22 minutes later from North Weymouth)—5.45, 6.20, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20, 9.50, 10.20, 10.50, 11.20, 11.50 A. M.; 12.20, 12.50, 1.20, 1.50, 2.20, 2.50, 3.20, 3.50, 4.20, 4.50, 5.20, (5.30 to East Weymouth car house), 5.50, 6.20, 6.30, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20, 9.50, 10.50 P. M., (11.50 Wednesday and Saturday to Thomas' Corner only.)

Leave EAST WEYMOUTH (20 minutes later from North Weymouth and 30 minutes later from Quincy Point)—6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8, 8.30, 9, 9.30 10, 10.30, 11, 11.30 A. M.; 12, 12.30, 1, 1.30, 2, 2.30, 3, 3.30, 4, 4.30, 5, 5.30, 6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8 8.30, 9, 9.30, 10, 10.30, 11.30 P. M.

Quincy and Weymouth Landing.

Leave QUINCY at 5.30 A. M., 6.20, 7.20 and every hour until 12.20, then 1.50 and every hour until 10.50 P. M.

Leave WEYMOUTH LANDING at 5.50 A. M. and every hour until 12.50, then 2.20 and every hour until 11.20 P. M., connect with trains to Boston at Quincy.

Quincy and East Milton.

Leave CITY SQUARE, 5.55, 6.25, then every 5 minutes of and 25 minutes past the hour until 9.25 P. M., then at 10.50 P. M.

Leave EAST MILTON 6.25, 6.55 A. M., then every 5 minutes of and 25 minutes past the hour until 9.50 P. M., then 10.20 and 11.20 P. M.

Quincy and Brockton.

Leave QUINCY for Brockton at 6.10 and 6.40 A. M., and every half hour until 9.10 P. M. except on Wednesday and Saturday, when car at 9.40 runs through to Brockton. Cars at 9.40 and 10.10 to South Braintree every night.

Quincy and Hingham.

Leave QUINCY at 7.20 A. M. and every hour until 11.20 A. M., then 1.50 and every hour until 5.50 P. M.

Leave HINGHAM at 8 A. M. and every hour until 12 M., then 2.30 and every hour until 6.30 P. M.

Neponset, Atlantic and Squantum.

Leave NEPONSET at 6.30 A. M. and every hour until 8.30 P. M., connecting at Atlantic with outward express trains.

Leave SQUANTUM at 7 A. M. and every hour until 9 P. M., connecting at Atlantic with express trains.

Quincy and Houghs Neck.

Leave QUINCY CENTRE at 6.20 A. M., and and every hour until 1.20, and then 1.50 and every hour until 9.50.

Returning, leave HOUGHS NECK at 5.45 A. M., and every hour until 12.45, and then 1.20 and every hour until 9.20.

SUNDAYS.

Cars leave City Square, Quincy, for E. Weymouth and Weymouth Landing at 7.30 A. M. and West Quincy at 7 A. M. and on the hour and half hour throughout the day.

Sunday time same as week days on other lines, except that the first two trips are omitted.

BENJ. J. WEEKS, Superintendent.

New York, New Haven and Hartford R. R.

Eastern District.

On and after Oct. 16, 1898, trains will run as follows: (See note of explanation at bottom.

TO BOSTON. Leave Quincy.	Stops at	Arrive Boston.	FROM BOSTON. Leave Boston.	Stops at	Arrive Quincy
r 6 12	abc	e 6 30	5 55	ihgfedcba	*6 22 r
r 6 42	abc	7 00	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	7 30	cba	7 49 r
r 7 26	ad	7 43	8 30	cba	8 49 r
r 7 42	abc	8 00	9 30	cba	9 49 r
r 8 12	abc	8 30	10 30	cba	10 49 r
r 8 26	ad	8 43	11 30	cba	11 49 r
r 8 42	abc	9 00	12 30	cba	12 49 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	1 30	cba	1 49 r
r 10 12	abc	10 30	2 30	cba	2 49 r
r 11 12	abc	11 30	3 30	cba	3 49 r
r 12 12	abc	12 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
r 1 12	abc	1 30	5 00	cba	5 19 r
r 2 12	abc	2 30	5 17	da	5 36 r
r 3 12	abc	3 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
r 4 12	abc	4 30	6 00	cba	6 19 r
r 5 12	abc	5 30	6 17	da	6 36 r
r 6 12	abc	6 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	7 00	cba	7 19 r
r 7 39	abcdefghi	8 05	7 30	cba	7 49 r
r 8 08	abcdef	8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	9 30	cba	9 49 r
r 10 08	abcdef	10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r
r 11 12	abc	11 30	11 30	cba	11 49 r

SUNDAYS.

r 7 12	abc	7 30	6 30	cba	6 r
r 8 12	abc	8 30	8 30	cba	8 49 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	12 30	cba	12 49 r
r 1 12	abc	1 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
r 5 12	abc	5 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 8 08	abcdef	8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
r 10 08	abcdef	10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r

*The letters in the same line as the figures stand for different stations and indicate that trains stop, as follows:

a, Wollaston, b, Norfolk Downs. c, Atlantic. d, Neponset. e, Pope's Hill, f, Harrison Square. g, Savin Hill. h, Crescent Avenue. i, South Boston. j, Quincy Adams. (xx), Express.

C PETER CLARK, Gen'l Supt. A. C. KENDALL G. P. A.

QUINCY DAILY LEDGER.

VOL. 10. No. 253. QUINCY, MASS., SATURDAY, OCTOBER 29, 1898. PRICE 2 CENTS.

LADIES' and CHILDREN'S
Hair Dressing and Cutting.
ALL KINDS OF HAIR WORK.
WIGS, SWITCHES, FRIZZES.
Sixteen Years' Experience.

MRS. I. F. DOW.
Room 10, Hotel Greenleaf.
Quincy, Oct. 22. 6t

MABEL F. FAIRBANKS
TEACHER OF
CHINA PAINTING and WATERCOLOR.
China Decorated to Order.
34 Grand View Avenue, Wollaston.
Sept. 29. 3m

E. LANDIS SNYDER,
Organist and Choirmaster of Christ Church,
TEACHER OF
VOICE CULTURE, PIANO AND ORGAN.
Studio: Room 10 Durgin & Merrill's Block,
QUINCY, MASS.
Sept. 10. tf

STENOGRAPHY AND TYPEWRITING,
BOOKKEEPING,
And All Clerical Work.
MISSES A. B. and E. M. COTE,
Room 12 Durgin & Merrill Block, - Quincy.
Oct. 10. tf

Hazelton Lehigh
Costs a Trifle More.
You Know Why.
C. PATCH & SON

SELECT SOCIALS!
EVERY FRIDAY EVENING,
Beginning Oct. 21, 8.30 to 11,
COLONIAL HALL, Bank Bldg., Quincy
Given in connection with
Prof. Gardner's Dancing School.
Tickets: Gent or Couple, 50c. Extra Lady, 25c.
LAST HALF TERM. Those who desire to learn the latest Fancy Dances can join the class at 7.30. Terms: 8 lessons from 7.30 to 8.30, Gents $4, Ladies $3. oct10—tf

DR. HERBERT S. HAYFORD
195 Hancock Street.
OFFICE HOURS—11 to 12 A. M., 2 to 4 and 7 to 8 P. M.
Telephone, 4-3.
Quincy, July 5. tf

WILLIAM E. BAXTER, M. D.
Practice Limited to the
EYE AND EAR.
553 Boylston St., Boston.
QUINCY—Monday and Friday.
Hours, 9 to 11. 195 Hancock Street
May 21. 1y

DR. RALPH M. FOGG,
DENTIST.
Teeth extracted absolutely without pain by the use of the
"BOSTON VEGETABLE VAPOR."
It is claimed that, while it has the required properties of ether, chloroform, nitrous oxide gas, it lacks the disagreeable and dangerous qualities of these drugs. It is certainly a boon to suffering humanity to be relieved of the nausea too often following the administering of sedatives of the old school.—Boston Transcript.
Teeth made and repaired on Gold or Rubber base. Teeth Filling a specialty.
Office in French's Building, five doors south of Post Office, Quincy, Wednesdays. Hours, 9 A. M. to 9 P. M. July18-1y Nov8-1yo

Looking Forward.
Thanksgiving and Mince Pies are only about a month ahead of us. It will pay you to look over our carefully and personally selected stock of Raisins, Citron, Candied Lemon and Orange Peel, Currants, Prunes and Spices now. Prices here are as low as they possibly can be for reliable quality, and they may have to be higher before long.
Our Pure Cider Vinegar is clear and strong, and good flavor. Half the success of good Mince Pie Making depends on the Vinegar you use.
Pure Cider Vinegar 25c. a Gal.
BOSTON BRANCH GROCERY,
Durgin & Merrill's Block, - Quincy.

100 Dozen
Ladies' Fleece Lined Vests,
CHEAP AT 25c.
SATURDAY and MONDAY,
2 for 25c.
D. E. WADSWORTH & CO.,
Hancock Street, Quincy.

Parlor Stove Talk
All homes are not yet blessed with a furnace or a steam heating plant, and if our enormous sales of Parlor Stoves is any criterion, we can with wisdom say that Parlor Stove popularity is by no means a thing of the past.
There is a difference in Parlor Stoves just the same as in everything else,—some good, some bad, some indifferent. Years of experience have taught us just which stoves give the best service, are easiest to manage and prove economical coal burners. Such stoves as these are what we offer—40 patterns to choose from, $2.98 to $20.00. A stove to suit your notion, a stove to suit your purse.
Oil Room Heaters, $3'50 to $4 50.
HENRY L. KINCAIDE & CO.,
Reliable, Low Priced House Furnishers.
HANCOCK STREET, - - QUINCY.

The Social Realm.

Who would come to others' aid
Must the price of grief have paid;
Who would play the pilot's part
Must the way have got by heart;
Who would be another's guide
Must by pain be qualified.
—Ella Fuller Maitland.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. George Palmer Mead, (Miss Nellie Nightingale) who were married the last of September are at home after November first at 251 Washington street, Quincy Point.

* * *

Saturday is a popular day now for weddings instead of Wednesday which has long been the favorite one.

* * *

October 24 was Patriots' day at Mechanics' fair, Boston, and Miss Floretta Vining presided. The response to the toast John Adams and John Quincy Adams was made by Mr. Charles A. Foster of this city, and it is said his remarks were of the best ever given on the Adamses and patriotism.

* * *

Miss Carrie E. Small is to speak to the young people of the Universalist church on Sunday evening.

* * *

A number of ladies enjoyed the third talk given by Miss Ellen Thompson on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Eben W. Sheppard. Jane Austen's novels were the afternoon's subject.

* * *

Mrs. Lester Bates has returned from a two weeks' visit in the western part of the state.

* * *

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Edwin R. Sampson October 24.

* * *

Miss Alice Willis of Weymouth entertained the members of the Art club last Monday evening.

* * *

Halloween parties are in order for Monday night, and Tuesday look out for announcements of engagements for cupid always takes an active part in Halloween merriments.

* * *

The ladies overflowed the balcony reserved for them at Music hall last evening at the grand Republican rally. Gov. Wolcott is much admired by the ladies and his presence probably had more attraction for them than the rally and the other speakers.

* * *

The Friday club met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. Theodore Hardwick. Miss Carrie E. Small had charge of the meeting and read an interesting paper.

* * *

Miss Leila Ordway, formerly of Quincy, was in town last week, for the Holden-Eaton wedding. Miss Ordway recently announced her engagemennt.

* * *

Rev. and Mrs. L. A. Hatch of Braintree are at Pittsfield.

* * *

The simple strap across the shoulder is not now in use on the latest ball gowns. The new French models show folds of the material of the gown crossing the shoulder and falling over the arm making quite a decided sleeve. The sleeves vary in length some being only to the elbow while others are way to the hand.

* * *

Miss Jennie M. Dyer a pupil of Cushing academy at Ashburnham, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Dyer at Braintree.

* * *

The Pickwick club is one of the oldest literary and social clubs in the city, entering on the twenty-sixth year this week with unabated interest. Mr. John O. Hall, Jr., is this year's president.

* * *

One of the handsomest gifts presented to the Paul Revere school of Boston was a bust of John Adams, by the John Adams Chapter, D. A. R., of Boston, of which Miss Floretta Vining is regent.

* * *

At the church of the Advent, Boston, on Tuesday noon, Miss Grace Whittier Thayer of Cambridge and Mr. George Hill, Jr., of Brookline were united in marriage. Miss Thayer is the daughter of she that was Miss Nellie Hersey of Quincy Point and they are connected with several well known families at the Point. One of the bridesmaids was Miss Bridgham and her people are also known to many in Quincy, her grandfather keeping the Hancock house for many years and her mother will be remembered by many as Miss Eva Willey.

* * *

Miss Mary W. Dewson gave an interesting talk before the Economics club of Wellesley last week on the Social Conditions of Domestic Service.

It is said there is to be no People's course this winter because Mr. Fred B. Rice expects to spend the winter in Boston. Mr. Rice was the prime mover in giving our people a course of entertainments at popular prices which were a source of enjoyment to many last winter and all regret that he cannot be induced to try it again this season. Perhaps Mr. Emery L. Crane and Mr. James S. Whiting, who were Mr. Rice's able assistants may be induced to manage a course.

* * *

The Literary club of Braintree will meet with Mrs. O. W. Allen on Monday evening. Quotations from King Lear.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred J. Ellsworth (Gertrude Sherman) have returned from their wedding trip and are settled in their home on Hollis avenue, Braintree.

* * *

Mrs. J. A. Record of Weymouth are visiting friends at Fall River.

* * *

Mrs. John Shaw has returned from a six weeks' sojourn in Maine.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Evan A. Leigh gave a dinner on Friday evening, at their beautiful home in Wollaston, in honor of Archbishop Lewis of Montreal.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. William Coddington of New Bedford are the guests of East Weymouth friends.

* * *

The Puritana whist club met with Mrs. H. F. Perry of Weymouth last evening.

* * *

Among those who attended the dance on Friday evening were Miss Emma Johnson, Mr. Joseph Davis Keene, Mr. Walter Munroe Hollis of Lynn, Mr. Water L. Hobbs of Winter Hill, Miss Sadie Graham of East Milton, Mr. Paul Munroe Keene and Mr. George Chase of Harvard university, all guests of the Misses Cote.

* * *

Mrs. W. O. Collyer of North Weymouth entertained the Young Ladies' Mission circle last Monday night.

* * *

Mrs. P. A. Stubbs and daughter Jennie, of Bucksport, Maine, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Odom of Independence avenue.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Ellsworth have returned from their wedding tour to their home on Hollis avenue, Braintree.

* * *

Mrs. Ledocia N. Griggs, one of the oldest residents of Wollaston, observed her ninety-second birthday on the 21st at the home of her son, Superintendent Daniel S. Griggs of Tremont Temple, Boston. Except for a slight deafness Mrs. Griggs is wonderfully well and active.

* * *

Miss Katherine Evans of Copeland street and Mr. Arthur V. Curtis of Elm street, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin F. Curtis, were married last evening by Rev. Edwin Norton. The ceremony was solemnized very quietly, owing to the illness of the groom's mother. Mr. and Mrs. Curtis left immediately for Washington, D. C., where Mr. Curtis is in business.

* * *

Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Drake gave an X-ray party at their home on North street, North Weymouth, on Tuesday evening.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Weeks of Braintree are entertaining Mr. H. H. Higgins of Wellfleet.

* * *

Miss Mary E. Lincoln and Miss Alice W. Alden of Hingham returned from Europe last week.

* * *

Gov. and Mrs. Wolcott are to spend Thanksgiving at their beautiful Milton home, moving into their Boston home the first of December.

* * *

Mrs. Eben Fisher returned to New Hampshire today after spending ten weeks with relatives in this city.

* * *

Miss Alice Keith Prescott, who has been ill for two months, has so far recovered as to be able to drive and walk out on pleasant days.

* * *

Miss C. S. Hubbard's many friends who have missed her the past weeks are glad to know that she is improving every day although quite ill yet.

* * *

Mrs. W. A. Drake of Weymouth left Wednesday on a visit to New York.

—Col. Roosevelt is not a millionaire. His father left him $250,000 in 1875, but it is doubtful if he is worth that sum now.

THE TWO ISSUES.

Sound Money and Endorsement of McKinley.

Gov. Wolcott Speaks at a Quincy Rally

Also Congressmen Barrows and McCall and Col. Clark.

The Quincy Republicans held their first and probably their only rally in the present campaign last evening at Music hall, and an enthusiastic gathering it proved to be for time and again the walls rung with applause at some statement of the speakers. Although a large hall it proved none too large for the occasion for there were but few empty seats, while the balcony held many ladies, and several stood. Fully 1,000 were present.

Previous to the meeting the City band was sent through several parts of the town in an electric car and the band furnished music during the evening. The setting of the platform was a patriotic one as it was composed entirely of large American flags while its speakers desk was also draped.

It was 8 o'clock when the exercises commenced and at that time there was seated upon the platform besides the speakers, Councilman R. R. Freeman, President of the Republican City Committee, Councilmen George T. Sidelinger, Elisha Packard, Alex. Clark, John W. Nash, Walter S. Pinkham, Edward E. Jameson, ex-Mayor Charles H. Porter, E. W. Henry Bass, Frederick L. Jones, Hon. John F. Merrill, Representatives James Thompson and T. H. Newcomb, Harry W. Read, Walter H. Ripley, John Q. A. Field, John L Miller, William T. Spargo, Phillip Halvosa, Candidate Eben W. Sheppard, Candidate Eugene H. Sprague A. L. Baker, Edwin W. Newcomb, John McKnight, George F. Pinkham, Frank F. Prescott, A. J. Wellington, Herbert M. Federhen, John S. Gay, W. H. Teasdale, John Shaw, John R. Graham, Alexander Marnock, Thomas F. Mitchell, Henry P. Kittridge, Edward L. Goodridge, N. B. Furnald, Thomas F. Burke, Henry P. Furnald, Rollin E. Newcomb and others.

President Freeman briefly introduced Mayor Sears as presiding officer. In introducing the first speaker, Governor Wolcott, His Honor said if there is any time Quincy Republicans show their enthusiasm it is at an old-time Republican rally, and it was fitting that the Republicans should be the first to hold a rally in this beautiful hall. He briefly contrasted the condition of affairs three years ago with today and then introduced His Excellency.

Governor Wolcott in a conversational way told of his duties as State Executive. How he had attended the grand Music hall banquet and been enthused by the loyalty to Secretary Long of the old Bay Sate. How on Thursday he had welcomed home the Sixth Massachusetts regiment, and again on Friday the Hospital ship with its sick soldiers.

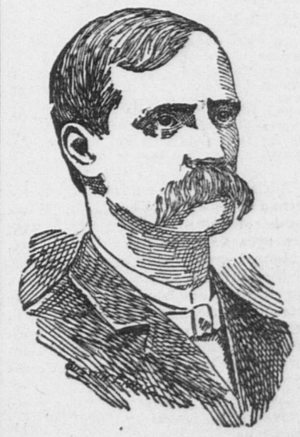

Coming to the Congressional issue the Governor said: The Democratic party of this State, with the courage of its convictions, but not with greater hope perhaps than the Democratic party of other States, has emphatically indorsed the Democratic platform adopted at Chicago in 1896. The Democratic Congressional candidate in this district has said, perhaps with needless emphasis, that he stands upon that platform with both feet. I think perhaps that this is a more stable position, a more dignified one, than if he stood upon it with one foot, with the other wobbling, waving in the air, or trying to find some possible lodgement on the gold platform. Therefore, I am glad that the issue is made absolutely and distinctly, as it was in 1896, between the candidates and representatives of the principles of the Republican party and that of the Democracy and the Chicago platform of 1896.

That platform was thoroughly discussed from one end of the country to the other. The menace that it carried to sound business, to the stable currency, to the dollar in which the wages of the laborer are to be paid, were at that time thoroughly discussed, and the verdict of the people upon that platform was made with deliberation, and, I venture to say, with both feet and with emphasis.

Now I ask the voters in this district whether they desire to be represented in Congress by a man who goes out of his way to record his allegiance to the Democratic platform of 1896, and travels out of his way to say that, whatever baneful eccentricities were embodied in that platform, that he favors it; and if elected will vote for a Speaker of the House (Mr. Bailey of Texas or some one else) who stands by it, or whether the people of this district wish to be represented by a man who represents fully and strongly the Republican sound money doctrine, that a dollar in gold shall be the unit of value everywhere and that no other dollar of less value shall be put into the hands of the wage earner or be passed upon a too credulous public.

Our candidate here in this district is a man who will vote for one of the strongest and best speakers of the House that this nation has seen during the lifetime of any man present, Thomas B. Reed of Maine. (Great applause.) This is in a large part the issue that is presented to you. The Democratic speakers present one or two other issues.

Coming to the war criticisms, the Governor said: I ask you to consider if on the whole, upon what you are to base your judgment upon the administration of this war, whether on the whole this war has been a failure or a mighty success. In my opinion it has been a mighty success. I would ask you how you are to distinguish Algerism, if that is what you are pleased to call it, from Longism, if you please to call it so. I ask you how you can cast reprobation upon one department of the national government without casting reprobation upon the other department of that government. I would ask you to consider the whole question with a calm, fair judgment that I like to believe is always carried into debate by the American people, I would ask you to consider how much of it is unavoidable.

Congressman S. W. McCall the second speaker said it was clear what our duty was. To support the magnificent administration of Gov. Wolcott and that you shall vote for him and others on the State ticket. The speaker of the House of Representatives is most powerful for the weal or woe. You do not vote for him but for the man who will vote for him. He was glad to pay his tribute to the loyalty and fidelity with which Congressman Barrows discharged his duties. You will be well represented by him if again elected. Without regard to personal feeling it is our duty as Republicans to rally to the support of Mr. Barrows a man who will support Mr. Reed for speaker.

Continued from page 8.

Royal makes the food pure, wholesome and delicious.
ROYAL
BAKING POWDER
Absolutely Pure
ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK

TO A VIOLIN.

What wondrous power from heaven upon thee wrought?
What prisoned Ariel within thee broods?
Marvel of human skill and human thought,
Light as a dry leaf in the winter woods!

Thou mystic thing, all beautiful, what mind
Conceived thee, what intelligence began
And out of chaos thy rare shape designed,
Thou delicate and perfect work of man?

Across my hands thou liest mute and still;
Thou wilt not breathe to me thy secret fine;
Thy matchless tones the eager air shall thrill
To no entreaty or command of mine.

But comes thy master! Lo, thou yieldest all—
Passion and pathos, rapture and despair!
To the soul's need thy searching voice doth call,
In language exquisite beyond compare,

Till into speech articulate at last
Thou seemst to break, and thy charmed listener hears
Thee waking echoes of the vanished past,
Touching the source of gladness and of tears.

And with bowed head he lets the sweet wave roll
Across him, swayed by that weird power of thine,
And reverence and wonder fill his soul
That man's creation should be so divine.

—Celia Thaxter.

THE THIRD POPLAR.

The day was cold. The gray sky promised the first December snow. Between one row and another of her embroidery Adriana thought what felicity it was to sit in the warmth of this sewing room. In this elegant nest, prepared by her Enrico, she realized all the love that he had sworn for her.

The new apartment, full of brightness and charm, was her own. She was at last Enrico's wife, the absolute queen over this enchanting kingdom. She rose from her seat, moved her feet over the downy carpet, undertook a pilgrimage through this miniature world, which had always been her dream and was now her dearest reality. This solitary journey had new attractions for her; these possessions appeared to her like a prize. As she went from one room to another she came upon one where Enrico wrote and studied. It was the first time, after two months of marriage, that she had set foot in this elegant room, which had an original look from its artistic disorder. She entered here, her heart touched. He was away from home and was ignorant of what she was thinking about him. No one, where he was, could speak of her, but she felt his presence in every minute particular, from the delicate perfume of the cigar clinging to the furniture even to the silver paper cutter between the pages of a book lying on the writing desk. Against the wall, behind the sofa on which she was sitting, hung a shield of plush, crossed by a band of rose colored silk. On this band she had embroidered a spray of forgetmenots. She had given this to him when they were engaged, and he had stuck their two photographs in it. She stood a moment to look at it, rose on the tips of her toes and kissed his with her red lips. In the stove the fire slumbered. What a delicious atmosphere this room had! She seated herself in the armchair in Enrico's place and read with curiosity the titles of the books scattered on the mahogany writing desk. They were the masterpieces of modern literature.

Here and there many sheets were to be seen covered with minute and elegant writing—his own writing. How readily she recognized the long sentences in which he had written his protestations of love. She glanced at a sheet which contained a few lines in the form of a note. There were three or four erasures. To whom could her Enrico write? She would find out in a minute. She read:

"Adored Amelia:

"The blessed hour is finally reached when I can whisper in your ears the most passionate words. My wife has no suspicion. Tomorrow, Friday, at 4 in the afternoon, I will meet you at the public gardens. I will be waiting under the third poplar tree to the left for you to come. Farewell now. For me eternity commences from today. It will finish tomorrow with your first kiss to your

"WHO KNOWS?"

Adriana had finished reading it the second time, but kept on reading, holding her breath, pale as a corpse, with her eyes fixed on the infernal note, which she crumpled in her rigid hands. Poor child! A spasmodic sob came from her throat. She threw herself on the sofa in a terrible fit of desperation. In her youthful mind, maddened with grief, she made the most dreadful resolutions, but this was the one that came uppermost:

To fly to her mother and weep, weep forever on her bosom until death should release her.

Suddenly she calmed herself. She read the horrid note attentively and let these words escape her:

"'Tomorrow, Friday, at 4 o'clock, poplar to the left' * * * but today is Friday * * * it is half past 3, but, then, there is barely time to go out and learn the worst of my torture * * * and fly."

The gray clouds sifted down the snow. Adriana walked along under its icy caress. She was fatigued. The gardens were far off. The people hastening by turned to look at her. She saw only the interminable street. Panting, wet with perspiration, covered with snow, she finally reached the gardens. She entered—the third poplar to the left was there. In front of the accursed tree a few bushes shivered in the wind. She hid behind one of them and waited with death in her heart.

Now the perspiration froze on her skin. The piercing cold made her shiver. The snow fell faster and faster, and soon the bare branches, the trunks, the few leaves and the street were covered with it, but Adriana did not notice the snow nor pay any heed to her weariness. Her beautiful blue eyes were fixed on the third poplar to the left, and she blessed the abundant snow and the furious wind which permitted her to be there, quite alone, at the downfall of her love.

Four o'clock sounded, but she saw no one. It commenced to grow dark. The electric lamps were already lighted, and under their bluish light the whiteness of the snow appeared like marble. Evening had come. The third poplar to the left, all covered with snow, waited in vain, like herself, braving, like her, the fury of the tempest. Adriana, benumbed, trembling, lonely, came out from her hiding place and turned to retrace her useless steps.

The maid hastened at the sound of the bell.

"Is it Signor Enrico?" asked Adriana anxiously.

"No, I met him on the stairs after the signora went out, and he came in again in a few moments."

"Adriana, Adriana, my love, where have you been in such weather?"

So saying, Enrico met her with open arms. He freed her from her mantle, heavy with snow, brushed her damp hat and led her lovingly toward the open fire.

She let him do so and looked around her. The dinner table was spread with the white damask tablecloth, the glittering glasses, the silver, the bouquet of sweet flowers, the bright lights—all this blessed paradise of love lost forever—this brought her desperation to a climax, and while Enrico, crouching at her feet, kissed her hands red with cold, she broke out into weeping.

Enrico rose with a bound.

"What has happened to you, my love? What grave disaster? Oh, speak, Adriana, do not let me suffer so!"

But Adriana could not speak. Sobs followed sobs, and her breast heaved spasmodically.

"For the love of God, Adriana!" burst forth Enrico, "For the love of God, speak, or I shall go mad!"

Enrico's tone was so heartrending, his words trembled so on the verge of weeping that Adriana looked at him for an instant and stammered in a broken voice:

"You do not any longer love me!"

Enrico calmed himself as if by magic. He regained control of himself, kneeled again at her feet and said with a caressing voice:

"And why do you say I do not love you any more?"

At this seeming show of hypocrisy Adriana felt her heart filled with disdain at thought of her lost calmness and love and happiness. She sprang up and drew away from him as from an impure object, looked at him with eyes full of tears, exclaiming, in a voice trembling with despair:

"Perhaps another woman than me—perhaps a woman whom you call your adored Amelia"—here her voice broke into a sob—"waited for you today in the garden at 4 o'clock under the third poplar to the left!"

A rippling laugh, shrill and irresistible, interrupted Adriana's words. Enrico laughed like a madman. He embraced her in spite of herself, drew her into his study, covering her with kisses and, pointing to the scattered pages still lying on his writing desk, said:

"But do you not see? Do you not see that this note belongs to a story that your Enrico is writing?"

Adriana looked at him with amazement. Her eyes filled with joy.

"How I have suffered!" she said in a trembling voice, in which a few sobs still remained, then sank exhausted on the sofa, covered with Enrico's kisses and caresses.—From the Italian For Short Stories.

Selecting Cigars by Color.

One of the most absurd fads of the cigar trade is that of color in reference to havanas. The idea prevails that color is indicative of strength. It is no such thing. A light or medium colored cigar is not necessarily mild or medium in flavor, for the simple reason that the color refers to the outside wrapper only, which in itself is of very thin substance, and in quantity is of very small proportion to the other materials that make up the cigar. As a matter of fact, the fillers and bunch wrappers will determine the body or strength of the cigar. The actual strength or otherwise of the inner body of the cigar—viz, fillers and bunch wrappers—is too often an unknown quantity. It is quite true that a statement may be made that these parts are so-and-so or a mixture of this and that and give a certain ash, etc., but this explains nothing. Not only are there various grades of the same tobacco in relation to quality, but there are also a variety of grades that determine strength. With the exception that certain tobaccos have varying degrees of body or otherwise, a mild, medium or full cigar is largely a matter of chance. —London Grocer.

—The Cuban debt, about which we are hearing so much just now, is a mere bagatelle of $400,000,000 or so, two or three dollars of which may have been spent by Spain for the benefit of Cuba. —Boston Globe.

☞ We sell Glenwood Ranges because they are the best ranges money can buy. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

OUR WEEKLY FASHION PLATE.

FRENCH GOWN OF WOOL BENGALINE FROM HARPER'S BAZAR

Wool bengaline, a material which falls in graceful folds, forms an attractive circular skirt, with no fulness about the hips and an especially pretty flare around the bottom, where it measures about four yards, and spreads out behind in fanlike pleats. A plain but becoming effect in trimming consists of double folded bands of the material, two or three in a cluster which outline an apron in front, and, reaching higher towards the back, produce a yoke effect behind, where it is fastened by several buttons. Below this opening the material is extended wider for the adjustment of the pleats. In order that the skirt may be adaptable to all figures, the pattern is given with directions for cutting a little fulness at the waist-line in the back.

The blouse of chenile dotted silk has an adjustable chemisette that forms a vest in front, thus permitting many pretty touches of color. The model is tucked and finished with a high collar, ornamented with a cravat, tied in a square bow at the side. Over the shoulders is a deep collar bordered similarly to the opening of the fronts, that have clusters of ornamental buttons, which, large and small, are a distinctive feature of simple as well as elegant gowns. The corsage back and front, may be snugly fitted, or made with a slight fulness at the waist-line, the directions for each mode being furnished in the pattern. The sleeve, which is the latest model for winter shirt-waists, has an easy fulness at the top, and is fitted at the wrist to a circular cuff. The proper cut of this gown, taken from Harper's Bazar can be obtained only by the use of Harper's Bazar cut-paper patterns.

Quantity of material—for skirt, 3 3-4 yards 48 inches wide; for blouse, 2 yards 48 inches wide, or 4 1-2 yards of silk.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Topic For the Week Beginning Oct. 30. Comment by Rev. S. H. Doyle.

Topic.—"Helpfulness."—Ex. xvii, 8-13; Gal. vi, 1-5.

We are dependent, independent and interdependent in this life. We depend upon God, we act independently for ourselves, and we also depend upon one another for much in life. "No man liveth to himself." He is dependent for much upon those who are about him in life. This mutual dependence is illustrated in the first topical reference. This is the story of the defeat of the Amalekites at Rephidim. God made success depend upon intercessory prayer. While Moses held up his hand Israel prevailed, but, when he let down his hand, Amalek. But Moses' hands became weary, and then Aaron and Hur held them up. Moses was dependent upon them for help. They were dependent upon Moses, after God, for success. Success or failure was as important to one as to another, and by their united action they brought success. By refusing to help one another they would have brought defeat upon all. We are thus mutually dependent upon one another in all the relations of life. In the home, in the Endeavor society, in the church, in society, in the business world, we need the help of one another, and in helping others we help ourselves, as Aaron and Hur benefited themselves in holding up the arms of Moses.

It is not only good policy to help one another in life, but it is also a religious duty. "Bear ye one another's burden" is the command of Paul. "Be willing to lay down your lives for the brethren" is the practical command of Christ, and in helping one another we thus fulfill the law of Christ.

We are to help one another in bearing all the burdens of life—its sorrows, its infirmities, its errors and its sins. The object of helping others to bear their sins is that they may be reclaimed. "If a brother be overtaken by a fault, ye that are spiritual restore such a one in the spirit of meekness." Restoration is the object of all helpfulness. Another incentive for this kind of helpfulness is our own liability to sin, "Considering thyself lest thou also be tempted," and being tempted presumably fall. We are least willing to help men bear their sins and errors. It is easier to give food to the hungry and clothing to the naked than it is to give a helping hand to a sinful, fallen brother, but Christianity demands that we shall do all three.

Nothing will bring greater happiness and greater blessing into our own lives than to cultivate the habit of helping others. It is more blessed to help than to be helped.

Bible Readings.—Deut. i, 34-38; iii, 28; II Sam. xi, 25; II Chron. xxix, 34; xxxi, 1-4; Ps. xxxiii, 20; xlvi, 1; Acts xxvi, 22; I Cor. xii, 28; II Cor. i, 11; viii, 1-8; Phil. iv, 18; II Tim. i, 16-18; Heb. iv, 16.

Time For Bible Reading.

A class of persons who profess to love the Bible excuse their neglect of it by saying that they have no time for Bible reading. But is there any person in this land who cannot command the time to read a chapter from the Scriptures every day? It may be doubted whether there is such a person. There are many who cannot do this and at the same time do all that they desire to do in other directions. But that is not a reason for neglecting the Bible. Our Bible reading should be one of the first duties of every day. A good rule is to read nothing else until we have read a portion of the Scriptures. If we adopt this rule, and rigidly adhere to it, we shall never lack the time to read at least a few verses from the Bible. This can be done at home and it can be done abroad; it can be done on a journey. The man of the world can read his newspapers on the cars. If we are as much interested in the Bible as he is in the daily news, we shall be able to read a chapter on a railroad train. And if it is always in mind we shall find no day too short to read a lesson from the Scriptures.—National Presbyterian.

From Presumptuous Sins.

There is a good old prayer in the Bible to be kept from presumptuous sins. It is well for men in business to repeat it when the temptations to run hazardous risks are so abundant. The most disgraceful fall I ever witnessed in a prominent church member arose from his own presumption that he could safely use a small part of a trust fund committed to him and would certainly replace it. Instead of replacing it he took more, and he soon found himself on a toboggan slide that carried him down to destruction. Venturing on God may be a noble act of faith; venturing on self is often an act of fatal folly. A good rule is never to do what we cannot conscientiously ask God to prosper, and never to go where we cannot ask our Master to go with us.—Evangelist.

God.

A fire mist and a planet,
A crystal and a cell,
A jellyfish and a saurian
And caves where the cavemen dwell,
Then a sense of law and beauty
And a face turned from the clod—
Some call it evolution,
And others call it God.

A haze on the far horizon,
The infinite, tender sky;
The ripe, rich tints of the cornfields,
And the wild geese sailing high,
And all over upland and lowland
The charm of the goldenrod—
Some of us call it autumn,
And others call it God.

Like the tides on a crescent seabeach
When the moon is new and thin,
Into our hearts high yearnings
Come welling and surging in,
Come from the mystic ocean,
Whose rim no foot has trod—
Some of us call it longing;
Others call it God.

A picket from on duty,
A mother starved for her brood,
Socrates drinking the hemlock
And Jesus on the rood,
The million who, humble and nameless,
The straight, hard pathway trod—
Some call it consecration,
And others call it God.

—W. H. Carruth in Christian Register.

GAIL BORDEN EAGLE BRAND
CONDENSED MILK
HAS NO EQUAL AS AN INFANT FOOD.
"INFANT HEALTH" SENT FREE. N.Y. CONDENSED MILK CO. NEW YORK

SWITHIN BROS.

REAL ESTATE!

President's Hill.

President's Hill Annex.

Cranch Hill.

Choice Lots and Improved Property for Sale in West Quincy, Wollaston, South Quincy, Quincy Point, Quincy Centre.

Room 12, Durgin & Merrill's Block, Quincy.

About...
Your Upholstering.

Sooner or later you'll need our assistance. All kinds of furniture reupholstered. Mattresses to order and made over. Window shades to order. Cushions to order. Carpets taken up, cleaned and relaid, or made over to fit other rooms; also drapery work. We employ men of experience only and insure our patrons strictly first-class work at prices that are fair to pay. Work done as it should be done. Estimates promptly furnished.

HENRY L. KINCAIDE & CO.,
Reliable, Low Priced House Furnishers,
Hancock Street, : : : Quincy.
Telephone Connection.

MAKE IT HOT FOR YOU.

If your house is cold and you have become disgusted with the various devices called heaters, and you are really anxious to have warmth and comfort in your home, place an order for one of those G. B. Bates CIRCULATORS. It will "make it hot for you" or just the temperature you desire. Its construction is based upon scientific and economical principles. Several have recently been put in right here in Quincy, and others will be put in during the next few weeks. Don't read this ad. and then forget about it till your water pipes are all frozen, but go now to

G. B. BATES,

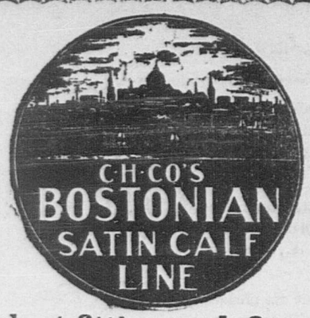

Hancock Street, Quincy.

NOTHING BETTER,
UNCLE SAM'S NAVY

Now commands the respect of the world, and we are all proud of the defenders of the Nation's Honor. To give the people of Quincy a good idea of the grand battleships, we have ordered a large supply of portfolios, giving magnificent views of the ships, crews, etc.

With each purchase made at our store we will give a portfolio check to the value of the purchase. When you have $4.00 worth of these checks, return them and get a portfolio. Continue in this way until you have the set complete. Call and see these magnificent portfolios.

ROGERS BROS.,
Groceries and Provisions. Adams Building, Quincy.

The best fitting and finest wearing Boys' Shoes ever produced for the price. Try a pair and be convinced.

11 to 2 at $1.25.
2 1-2 to 5 1-2 at $1.50.

GEO. W. JONES,
Adams Building, Quincy.

WATCHES.

GENT'S WATCHES, $1.50 and Up.

LADIES' WATCHES, $2.50 and Up.

EVERY WATCH WARRANTED.

$2.00 Belts, $1.00 Each.
75c. Brooch Pins, 25c. Each.
25 and 35c. Stick Pins, 5 and 10c. Ea.

Quincy SOUVENIR TILES Half Price,

And Other Bargains.

A. A. LINSCOTT, Jeweler,

154 Hancock St., opp. Post Office, Quincy.

Agent for Graphophones.

aug 6. tf

EMBROIDERY LESSONS.

We have engaged the same teacher for our Embroidery Classes this season that was so successful last year. Classes start TUESDAY MORNING.

Also the Finest Line of LINENS of All Designs to be gotten in the Market.

Our Line of Embroidery Silks is Complete in Every Detail.

WE CARRY IN STOCK A NEW LINE OF

OPULESCENT AND RAINBOW EDGE SILKS.

Sofa Cushions in a Large Variety.

D. E. WADSWORTH & CO.,
Hancock Street, Quincy.

PISO'S CURE
For Consumption

I have been taking Piso's Cure for Consumption since 1883, for Coughs and Colds. I had an attack of LaGrippe in 1890, and have had others since. In the Winter of 1896-7, I had a spell of Bronchitis, lasting all winter, and leaving a troublesome cough, until I again tried Piso's Cure, which relieved me.—Mrs. M. B. SMALLEY, Colorado Springs, Colo., August 19, 1898.

25 CTS. PISO'S CURE FOR CURES WHERE ALL ELSE FAILS. Best Cough Syrup. Tastes Good. Use in time. Sold by druggists. CONSUMPTION 25 CTS.

The Piso Company, Warren, Pa.

GEO. AMES,

the ONLY PRACTICAL PLUMBER in the Hardware business in the City. He has a patent SEWER TRAP which cannot be beat. Impossible for deadly sewer gas to enter your homes See him about your Sewer Connection. H has had three years' experience in Boston and other large cities. Established here in 1889 and still in it. Work done anywhere.

Hardware, Paints and Oils, Putty and Glass, Yacht Supplies, Steam and Gas Fittings. Steam and Hot Air Heaters put in repair for the winter.

ADAMS BUILDING

Great Guns

do great execution if well aimed. Advertising accomplishes great results in business conquest if well directed.

SOLDIERS ON STRIKE.

Restriction of Their Liberty Causes an Open Mutiny.

Passes Are Limited and Off Hours Fixed.

Members of Three Regiments Agreed Not to Do Camp Service.

Lexington, Oct. 29.—On account of their disorderly conduct and the several shooting scrapes caused by the presence of the soldiers in Lexington, General Sanger, division commander at Camp Hamilton, a few weeks ago issued an order allowing but two passes issued from one company at a time, and compelling all soldiers to be back in camp by dark.

In the Third Kentucky, One Hundred and Sixtieth Indiana and Twelfth New York there is open mutiny. Last night the members of these regiments secretly agreed to rebel against doing any camp service until the order was modified concerning the issuing of passes. The plan was that when the battalions went on dress parade the men were to stack arms and refuse to further drill until a change was made in the order about issuing passes. The officers got wind of the matter, and an order was issued suspending dress parade for the present. A modification of the order will probably be made, but if it is not, serious trouble promises.

Sick and Convalescing Soldiers.

Boston, Oct. 29.—The Bay State arrived Friday afternoon with 113 of the sick and convalescing soldiers of the Sixth Massachusetts volunteers from Porto Rico. Besides the boys of the Sixth, 20 of the First regiment of volunteers were on the ship. Two of the Sixth died on the passage from Arecibo. They were: Sergeant William E. Walter, company E, Framingham; Paul T. French, company C, Milford. French died of typhoid fever Oct. 24, two days out from Arecibo. His body was buried at sea. Sergeant Walter died of a spinal disease on Wednesday, and his body was enclosed in a casket and brought to this port. Twenty of the Sixth regiment were carried on stretchers and sent to the various hospitals.

As soon as the ship was made fast the convalescents were sent ashore. The first to come were the Lowell boys. Mayor Bennett had two special cars at the union station, with four nurses, volunteers from the various hospitals in Lowell. The cars were provisioned and two doctors cared for the men.

At noon a report was received that the ship had been sighted off Highland light, and that she signalled "113," then "21," followed by "quinine," and "Boston bay." These signals were interpreted to mean that there were 113 sick men on the vessel, 21 being very sick. A few moments later a second dispatch stated that "the crew would not pass," which was understood to mean that the ship could not pass quarantine. At the office of the Massachusetts Hospital Aid association the first dispatch was taken to mean that a supply of quinine was urgently needed. A member of the governor's staff rushed to a drug store, obtained all the quinine in stock and hurried to a wharf, where the quarantine boat was in waiting for the members of the party. He was considerably crestfallen when Dr. Bradford arrived and announced that "quinine" was his cable address, and that the dispatch was intended for him.

Blanco's Tax on Cattle.

Washington, Oct. 29.—Secretary Wilson brought up at the cabinet meeting Friday the fact that General Blanco is charging $10 a head for beef cattle going into Cuban ports controlled by the Spaniards, while the United States is admitting beef cattle free of duty to ports controlled by American officials. The cabinet concluded that it had no power at present to change this state of affairs, and that General Blanco must bear the responsibility for it. As soon as the United States take possession of various ports, however, this will be changed. Some of the ports near Havana will be opened to the free entry of beef cattle and other things, and that may result in benefit to Havana.

Radicals Gained.

Berlin, Oct. 29.—The returns in the election now in progress for secondary electors continue to come in slowly, but enough have been received to indicate that the balance of parties in the next Prussian diet will be but slightly affected. The radicals will gain perhaps a dozen seats, won largely from the Liberals. Though numerically the changes are unimportant, this is significant because rendering it impossible for the Rightists to command a majority; while the Radicals will have vastly more power than in the old house.

Signed by Twelve Captains.

Springfield, Oct. 29.—Captain Crosier of company D, Holyoke, sent to Colonel Clark of the Second regiment a statement signed by the 12 captains of the Second regiment, denouncing as false and malicious the criticisms of the colonel by political opposition. The colonel has been accused of failing to care for his men in Cuba. The captain's statement denies that allegation and adds that they have confidence in the colonel as a man and as commander of the regiment. They pronounce him an efficient leader.

End of the Jubilee.

Philadelphia, Oct. 29.—The great peace jubilee was brought to a glorious conclusion Friday. Beginning with last Sunday's church services and including the naval and military demonstrations of Tuesday and Thursday, and Friday's civic parade, the celebration has been a grand success throughout. The magnificent illumination of the city continued last night, and the streets were jammed with people.

Victims of a Fire.

Sherman, Tex., Oct. 29.—In a fire in Corsicana William Johnson and two children were burned to death.

BRADSTREET'S REVIEW.

Situation Possessed of Exceptional Activity and Even Strength.

New York, Oct. 29.—Irregularity in prices and trade movements has been rather more marked this week than for sometime past, but measured by all the usual standards of business development, the situation as described in this week's issue of Bradstreet's is one of exceptional activity and even strength. Evidences of reaction in prices are not confined to wheat, but extend to lard and coffee among food products, bessemer pigiron, lead and common cotton, while most other cereals, pork and beef, cooper and print cloths have remained steady and unchanged.

The report is general of plenty of work, but at prices which tend to confirm the view of those who claim that profit margins have been permanently reduced. Instances of this are found in the reports of 52,000 more people employed in New York state industries now than one year ago, and in the reports of implement manufacturers that on a total business 40 percent in excess of last year profits have not been proportionately increased.

When the Brockton strike against free instruction of new hands by machine companies began, it was supposed that New England works generally would be brought in. The increase of 22 percent in the Massachusetts production of shoes, against 66 percent in other states from 1880 to 1890, shows how much operations have resulted. Since 1890 Massachusetts' shipments have increased only 20 percent. The shipments have been only 343,814 cases, against 328,157 last year, about the same in 1896, and 300,260 in 1892 for the month of October, but buyers for spring still hold off.

The iron manufacture has still a good demand, late as it is, but the makers are depressing prices by bidding against each other, though in the average of all quotations the decline has been less than half of 1 percent from the highest point.

Failures for the week have been 226 in the United States, against 219 last year, and 24 in Canada, against 25 last year.

The News of Beantown.

Boston, Oct. 29.—The Massachusetts Library club held its annual meeting yesterday. The following officers were elected: President, W. H. Tillinghast of the Harvard college library; vice presidents, J. L. Hanson of Providence and Edward W. Barton of Worcester; secretary, Hiller C. Wellman; recording secretary, Minna E. Brown, Boston; treasurer, Margaret D. McGaffoy, Boston.

Postmaster Thomas has been appointed custodian of the federal building to succeed Internal Revenue Collector Gill, who was appointed May 4, 1897, just after the death of Postmaster Coveney. When acked the reason of this change, Mr. Gill did not know.

The Boston club has drafted Oscar Streit of Columbus, O., a left-handed pitcher, who was with the Dayton club last season, and Clarence Frisbee of Alton, Ia., one of the Kansas City outfielders.

A train struck James Adams of Roslindale, 65 years old, in West Roxbury last night, fracturing his head and leg from the effects of which he died.

The Miami, from Galveston to Boston with cotton, via Havana with cattle on the hoof, is the first liner to come here from the Cuban capital since the war. She put in there Oct. 21, and Captain McDonald says he experienced no trouble in his dealings with the Spaniards.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

W. E. Spicer of Boston, the postmaster in Guantanamo, died Thursday. His disease was diagnosed as a type of yellow fever.

The manufacturers of galvanized wire have increased the price on their product $1 per ton. The increase is made necessary by the scarcity of zinc.

Colonel W. J. Bryan, who has been ill since his arrival in Savannah, is much improved. The corps surgeon says that he has a light form of typhoid fever.

The gold excitement at Laven, O., is still spreading, and there now seems to be sufficient evidence to indicate that gold really exists in paying quantities.

Israel Luskin, 89 years of age, committed suicide by taking laudanum at his home in West Gloucester, Mass., last evening. No reason why he should have taken his life is known.

Westly Ridlon, a well-to-do farmer of Clinton, Me., died Friday morning from the effects of aconite, self administered by error for peppermint. The deceased was 55 and leaves a wife and two children.

Charles M. Tripp, of the firm of Haskell & Tripp, died in New Bedford last night. He was one of the leading business men of the city, and had been connected with the concern in which he was a partner practically all his life.

At 2 o'clock this morning an alarm was rung in for a fire in the printing and stationery establishment of J. & M. McMillan, St. John, N. B. It started in the basement, and had gained great headway before being discovered.

Late advices state that by the sinking of the St. Peter in Lake Ontario, off Sodus point Thursday morning, six lives were lost, including Mrs. John Griffin, wife of the captain; the mate, John McCrate of Kingston; a seaman named Bosworth, and three Swedes.

The striking employes at the Iver-Johnson Cycle company in Fitchburg are considering a proposition to split the difference on the cutdown, making a 5-percent reduction and go back to work. No answer has been given by the company to a suggestion to this effect.

Affidavits for registration has been received from President McKinley by Canton, O., board of elections. In answering the usual questions, Mr. McKinley states that his temporary residence is in Washington, but gives Canton as his real residence. This is the McKinley homestead.

The Newfoundland fisheries department is strictly enforcing the fisheries regulations with a view of demonstrating before the Quebec conference the value of the colony's herring trade. Herring are plentiful, the weather is good, and the traffic promises to be the best known for some years.

Replying to an address of welcome in behalf of the German Catholics of Palestine, Emperor William of Germany said he was pleased to seize the opportunity of declaring "once and for all that my Catholic subjects may always be sure of my imperial protection, when and where it may be required."

DREYFUS CASE.

Faure Has More Sympathy For the Army Than the Truth.

Paris, Oct. 29.—Yesterday's proceedings at the court of cassation were devoid of sensation. The only emotion caused ensued upon the reading of pathetic letters from Dreyfus. A significant point was the revelation of the fact that General Deboisdeffro gave orders, after the Dreyfus case was supposed closed, for the dossier, containing the bordereau, to be burned, and expressed surprise afterward to find that his orders had not been executed.

Thus far the war office has not been represented in the present proceedings, and there is still but little hope of the secret dossier being produced, especially if, as looks somewhat doubtful, Mr. Dupuy succeeds in forming a cabinet. He was premier during the Dreyfus trial, and his appointment delights the anti-Dreyfusites, who see in it an indication that President Faure has a greater sympathy for the army than for the discovery of the truth.

It is asserted that the father-in-law of Dreyfus has received a letter from the prisoner in his own handwriting. Formerly only copies of his letters were transmitted, and the new departure is regarded as a favorable sign.

The public prosecutor argued on the same lines as Mr. Bard, urging a revision of the trial, and dwelling upon the fallibility of the writing experts. He also suggested that Major Esterhazy should testify on the subject of the bordereau, saying: "He can admit its authorship with impunity, since a court-martial has acquitted him of being the author of it. But what a service he has rendered the country in confessing that he is the author, and what a service he will have rendered to unhappy Dreyfus." Mr. Manau concluded with denouncing the "villainous attacks on the partisans of revision," and made a strong plea that the court be not influenced by outside pressure, but that it decide in favor of a revision of the case and the provisional liberation of Dreyfus.

Haverhill Buildings Burned.

Haverhill, Mass., Oct. 29.—Two four-story buildings in the center of the business district of this city were totally destroyed by fire last night, causing a loss of about $50,000, which is well covered by insurance.

Within 15 minutes after the drygoods store of T. W. Jacobs & Son had been closed for the night an explosion took place in the basement from some cause at present unknown, and in a short time the building was on fire from basement to roof. The adjoining building, occupied on the first floor by Edward A. Mitchell, druggist, and on the upper floors by Jacobs & Son and A. Tilden, photographer, quickly caught fire and was wholly consumed.

These buildings were shut off from the surrounding structures by fire walls, and the flames were held within these limits, although W. P. Melzard and Warren Emerson, who occupied stores next to the burned property, will suffer considerable loss by smoke and water.

The individual losses, as at present estimated, are: T. W. Jacobs & Son, $30,000 on stock; Herbert B. Newton, owner of the Jacobs building, $10,000; Edward A. Mitchell, druggist, $5000; C. H. Tarleton, owner of the second building, $3000; A. B. Tilden, photographer, $4000.

Scheme For Lifting the Maine.

Washington, Oct. 29.—A wrecking company of San Francisco has made a request upon the navy department for authority to raise the battleship Maine. The company has had experience in raising vessels on the Pacific coast, and representations have been made to the department as to its ability to accomplish the task in Havana harbor. It proposes to blow the mud from under the wreck by means of streams of water and then to pass under chains and attach them to frame work connected with a system of steel barrels. These barrels will also be placed in the wreck and utilized wherever they can be available.

The company simply asks authority to raise the Maine and bring her to this country. If the government wants the ship after she reaches the United States the company will want to be paid salvage money through condemnation proceedings. It is probable that in case the government did not want the ship the company would exhibit her in different seacoast cities in the United States. No money is demanded of the government by the company. It is stated at the department unofficially that in case the company is found reliable the authority asked for will no doubt be given.

Due to Lack of Stimulants.

Salem, Mass., Oct. 29.—Charles Sanders, father of W. H. Sanders of Salem, the rough rider who died on a hospital boat in Santiago, has received a letter from the nurse who attended him on that boat. It says: "You ask whether it was dysentery or the fever that caused your son's death. In answering that question truly, I am forced to say that I do not think it was either, as the dysentery had been checked and there had been no fever for a day or two. I feel sure that his death was due to the lack of proper stimulants to bring him over the chasm between the time of the fever's leaving and the return of natural vitality. I am not a trained nurse, and did not know at the time what he should have had, and because of the inefficiency or drunkenness (or both) of the attending physician, proper restoratives were not administered in time. Longer experience here has taught me that such drugs as caffiene, strychnine and digitalis, rightfully used, would in all probability have tided him over and saved his life."

Ohio Judge Accused.

Cleveland, Oct. 29.—As a result of a story which had been circulated during the past two or three days to the effect that Judge F. A. Dellenbaugh of the common pleas court had received half of an attorney's fees in a big divorce case tried before him, the judge made a sensational statement from the bench. At the opening of court the judge said: "I wish to beg the pardon of attorneys and litigants for being a little tardy this morning. I have been delayed by reason of certain stories—lies—which have been circulated against me. Attorney Vernon Burke is the instigator of these stories, and Judge Lamson of this court has been the conduit through which they were given publicity. I will only say now that a bar meeting will determine which of these men, Burke or Lamson, is the most malicious liar."

the ghastly terror of consumption stares a man in the face who neglects a cold.

HALE'S HONEY OF HOREHOUND AND TAR

It's so simple to get rid of a cough or throat trouble by Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar. Acts like magic. Sold by druggists.

Pike's Toothache Drops cure in one minute.

NOTICE TO VOTERS.

CITY OF QUINCY.

For the purpose of preparing the Annual Register of Voters, and of receiving evidence of qualifications from persons claiming a right to Vote at the coming City Election, the Board of Registrars of Voters will be in session in the COUNCIL CHAMBER in the City Hall Building, on the evenings of

Wednesday, November 9, and Saturday, November 12, from 7 to 9 o'clock P.M., also on Wednesday, November 16, from 12 o'clock, noon, to 10 o'clock P.M.

Every applicant for registration must appear in person before the Board. Every male applicant must present either a certificate from the Assessors or a Tax bill or Notice from the Collector of Taxes, showing that he has been assessed a Poll tax as a resident of the City on the First day of May last; if a naturalized citizen he must also produce for inspection his papers of naturalization. Payment of a poll tax is not a prerequisite to voting.

Persons who have lived in the state one year, and in the city six months previous to December 6, if qualified in other respects, can be registered.

No name can be added to the list of voters unless registered previous to WEDNESDAY, Nov. 16th, at 10 o'clock P. M., when registration will close.

Examine the Voting Lists posted herewith and see that your name is in its proper place. NO CHANGE can be made after WEDNESDAY, Nov. 16th, at 10 o'clock P. M. The Board of Assessors will hold meetings at the same time.

EDWARD B. MARSH,
CORNELIUS MOYNIHAN,
EDWARD J. McKEON,
EDGAR G. CLEAVES,
Registrars.

Quincy, Oct. 22, 1898. 21t

STATE ELECTION.

CITY OF QUINCY.

City Clerk's Office, Oct. 7, 1898.

IN Accordance with the provisions of Chapter 548 of the Acts of 1898, notice is hereby given that by a vote of the City Council, passed October 3, 1898, the polling places for the election to be held TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1898, in the City of Quincy, were designated as follows:

WARD ONE.—Council Chamber, City Hall.

WARD TWO—Hose House, Washington street.

WARD THREE, Precinct One.—Doble's Hall, Franklin street.

WARD THREE, Precinct Two.—Old Steamer House, School street.

WARD FOUR, Precinct One.—St. Mary's Hall, Willard street.

WARD FOUR, Precinct Two.—Hose House, Copeland street.

WARD FIVE.—Polson's Building, Newport avenue.

WARD SIX.—Hose House, Newbury avenue.

Attest: EDGAR G. CLEAVES,
City Clerk.

Quincy, Oct. 7, 1898. 27t

Hazelton Lehigh

FURNACE COAL

Give C. PATCH & SON

A Trial Order.

HARPER'S BAZAR

has had its experts on fashion busily at work for three months securing the coming spring styles. Therefore, if you wish to know

WHAT TO WEAR THIS SPRING

see the special Spring Number of the BAZAR. Here you will find a rich variety to choose from, including tailor-made gowns from London, shirt-waists and washable skirts. A description will accompany each fashion, giving practical suggestions on

HOW TO MAKE IT AT HOME

The newest designs in men's clothes, what is the proper thing in livery, maid-servants' dresses, etc., all will be found

IN THE SPRING NUMBER OF HARPER'S BAZAR, MAR. 12th

These fashions are given in season to enable you to have your spring clothes ready for Easter time. HARPER'S BAZAR, including the Easter Number, if the issue is not exhausted, will be sent to any one for 25c.

4 WEEKS 25c. ON TRIAL

10 Cents a Copy - Sub., $4 00 a year

Address HARPER & BROTHERS, Publishers, N. Y. City

By FRANK F. CRANE, - Auctioneer.
Office, 4 Chestnut street, Quincy.

AUCTION SALE
— OF —
Horses, Carriages,
AND THE ENTIRE
Harness and Saddlery Stock
— OF —
GEO. J. JONES, Harness Maker,
NO. 53 HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY,
Tuesday, Nov. 1, '98,
At 10 o'clock A. M.

The Harness Stock consists of new and second hand Driving and Express Harnesses, Riding Saddles, Horse Blankets, Robes, Whips, fine set of Double Harness, one elegant Single Harness, Brushes, Halters, Collar and Saddle Pads, one new Tip Cart Harness, large variety of Bitsl Snaps, Brushes, Cards, Whip Sockets, and a ful. set of Harness Maker's Tools. Also a general assortment of small wares appurtaining to the trade.

TEN HORSES,

comprising trotters, pacers, driving, business and team horses; description at sale.

J. T. Smith Goddard Buggy, Rubber Tires, Cost $400, will be sold without any reserve, owner going abroad; Canopy Top Beach Wagon, 2 Open Beach Wagons, 1 Depot Wagon, 1 New Express Wagon, 1 Second Hand Express Wagon, 1 Road Sulky, 2 Goddard Buggies, 1 two-wheel Cart, 3 Poles, 1 Extra Nice Butter Wagon, cost $265, 1 Democrat Wagon, and several other carriages.

Sale positive, rain or shine. Terms cash.

Electric cars from Boston, Brockton and the Weymouths pass the shop.

5t 22 25 27 29 31 29plw

By FRANK F. CRANE, - Auctioneer,
Office, 4 Chestnut St., Quincy, Mass.

AUCTION SALE

of TWO-STORY BUILDING and HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE of the estate of Edward H. Adams, Adams street, opposite the R. R. station, East Milton, MONDAY, Oct. 31, 1898, at 1.30 P. M.

The building is two-story and contains four rooms and is sold with the understanding that it will be moved within thirty days from the date of this sale.

The Household Furniture consists of large Mirror, Mahogany Desk, Turkish Sofa, Ottoman, Gent's Smoking Chair, Oak Table, Plush Rocker, Stewart Stove, Marble Top Table, Brussels Carpet, Black Walnut Dining Table, set of Oak Dining Chairs, Black Walnut Bedstead, Oak Bureau and Glass, 2 odd Bureaus, lot Mattresses and Bedding, Wilton Carpet, Wool Carpet, Decorated China Toilet Set, Rogers Group, large Hanging Lamp, Gov. Winthrop Range No. 8, Kitchen Table, large lot of Crockery and Glass Ware, Oil Cloth Carpet, and many other articles too numerous to mention,

Sale positive, rain or shine. Terms cash.

Oct. 20. L 20 22 29 Plw

No Pain Whatever

in having Teeth Extracted by using the new combination taken through Dr. Hidden's Patent Inhaler. Perfectly safe. No sick feeling after extraction. I am the only Dentist using the Inhaler in the city. No extra charge in calling at house of Patients.

C. B. UNDERWOOD, Dentist,
9 Spear St. Rear of Public Library.

$50 REWARD.

THE Wollaston Golf Club will pay a Reward of $50 for evidence which will lead to the arrest and conviction of the person who broke into and burglarized their clubhouse on Monday, Oct. 24, 1898.

WOLLASTON GOLF CLUB.
Wollaston, Oct. 27, 1898. 3t Plw

THE FALL SEASON
IS HERE
For the Purchase of
Fruit and Ornamental Trees,
Shrubs and Vines.

Buy now that your plants may get a good start by spring.

Remember that I carry all the desirable novelties, as well as the old standard varieties of nursery stock.

I call special attention to my Flowering Shrubs, Perpetual Roses, Clematis, and Rhododendrons.

Buy at home and save agents' commissions. None but strictly first-class stock, well acclimated, furnished. Call and examine.

Orders by mail receive prompt attention.

Wollaston Park Nursery,
Fenno St., Wollaston.
MARTIN PFAFFMANN, Prop.
P. O. Box 44, Wollaston. Residence, 2 Clay St.
Oct. 14—1m p-3w

LEHIGH COAL.

When we Sell You
Lehigh we Deliver what we Sell. . . . .

C. PATCH & SON.

Quincy Co-operative Bank

Has again declared Semi-annual dividend of 3 1-4 per cent., and

SALE of SHARES in 20th SERIES
Is Now Open.

Regular Monthly Meeting for receipt of Dues, sale of Money and Shares, WEDNESDAY, Nov. 2, 1898, at 7.30 P. M., Savings Bank Building.

R. D. CHASE, Sec.
Quincy, Oct. 27. 6t lwr

True's PIN WORM Elixir

The only sure, safe, entirely vegetable remedy for worms in children or adults. Harmless under any conditions. A speedy cure for all disorders of the blood and the digestive organs.
Price 35c., at your druggist's. Write for free book on "Children"
DR. J. F. TRUE & CO., Auburn, Me.

Quincy Daily Ledger

ESTABLISHED IN 1889.

The ONLY DAILY in Norfolk County Massachusetts.

Published Every Evening, Sundays and Holidays Excepted, At No. 115 HANCOCK ST., City of Quincy, Mass., by

GEORGE W. PRESCOTT & SON.

Successors to Green & Prescott.

Subscription Price, $6.00 per year.

A discount of $1 when paid in advance.

ALSO PUBLISHERS OF

The Quincy Patriot,

A Weekly Established in 1837, which has the Largest Circulation in Norfolk County, and

The Braintree Observer,

A Weekly Established in 1878.

TELEPHONE, 78-3 QUINCY.

Quincy Temperature at Noon.

	This Week.	Last Week.	In 1897.	In 1896.
Sunday	59	50	51	52
Monday	60	48	49	62
Tuesday	68	50	58	50
Wednesday	69	54	56	51
Thursday	60	61	55	58
Friday	51	56	59	50
Saturday	45	70	58	55

New Advertisements Today.

Female Beagle lost.
Boston Branch Grocery.
C. B. Underwood—Dentist.
A card.
D. E. Wadsworth & Co.—Ladies' vests.

THE COMMITTEE.

The Gentlemen Who Will Work for Quincy Boulevard.

Mayor Sears has decided that the Quincy committee to see what can be done toward securing rights and options for the boulevard shall consist of nine: three from Quincy proper, three to represent West Quincy, and three at Atlantic end. He has made the following appointments: Elisha Packard, John Swithin and Charles H. Johnson whose territory includes from Merry Mount park to Adams street near Eaton's ice pond; Thomas J. Lamb, Herbert F. Doble and John W. McAnarney, whose territory is from Adams street through West Quincy to the Blue Hills reservation; and Theodore Parker, Nelson V. Titus and one other whose territory will be from Merry Mount park along the Quincy bay shore to Squantum and to Hancock street near Neponset bridge.

It is expected that the committee will get to work promptly with a will and that they will make an early report. To their success will depend the building of the parkway to connect the Blue Hills reservation via. Quincy with Franklin park and the Metropolitan park system. Large land owners along the route should realize that the parkway will increase the value of adjoining land, and that they can in most cases afford to give the necessary land. Where justice to small lot owners requires that they should be recompensed, they will be paid, but they must fix a value on their land, so that nothing shall go into count. It is not the intention to take land by eminent domain.

WOLLASTON FENCE.

Railroad Soon to Make Important Changes.

Charles P. Clark, president, and William E. Chamberlain, general manager, of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad, visited Wollaston again Friday in relation to that famous fence at the Wollaston depot. It is announced that plans have been devised to remedy the evil, which have been submitted to the officials mentioned above and it is probable that they will be adopted and put into effect immediately. The nature of the improvement cannot be made public, however, until adopted. Great credit for the coming improvement is due to Mayor Sears, who has been very persistant in his efforts to have the present unsatisfactory arrangements changed, and scarcely a day has passed that he has not personally seen the railroad officials or communicated with them by telephone.

To the above the Wollaston correspondent adds:

At last the famous Wollaston fence is to go. General Manager Chamberlain of the New Haven road in a letter to our correspondent says: "In answer to your favor of the 25th, I beg to advise you that the General Superintendent of the Eastern District and myself have this day (Oct. 28) been to Wollaston looking over the situation, and we have proposed plans for improving the existing condition of things, and as soon as our plans are perfected the matter will have prompt attention."

THE STUDY OF ITALY

Large Attendanc at Meeting of Unity Church.

The regular meeting of the Unity Club was held in the vestry of the Wollaston Unitarian church last evening. There was a large audience. Mr. Charles E. Finch, Jr., the president of the club, was in charge of the papers.

At the business meeting Mr. Avery Bennett was appointed librarian. A few appropriate remarks were made by the Rev. James E. Bagley, who owing to sickness was unable to be present at the previous meeting.

Mrs. John O. Hall, Jr., had the opening paper, which was on the "Fall of the Roman Empire, Theodoric," who firmly established the Gothic power on the whole Italian peninsular, "the Lombards," who were to Italy what the Saxons were to England; and Belisarius the great Byzantine general.

Miss Madeleine Fish read an interesting paper on Hildebrand (Pope Gregory VII) who purged the priesthood of the two enormous evils of simony and unchastity, and who excommunicated Henry IV, and declared his crown forfeited, thus compelling him to cross the Alps, humble himself before the Pope and sue for pardon.

Giotto, the regenerator of Italian art, was treated upon in a paper by Miss Georgianna Lane. It was he whom Pope Boniface XIII summoned to Rome, where he designed the famous mosiac of the Navicella, representing the disciples at sea in a tempest and Christ raising Peter from the waves. He executed in the chapel of the Madonna dell' Arena at Padua, his 42 paintings representing the life of the Virgin. He also excelled in sculpture and architecture. The famous Campanile at Florence was from his designs.

Mrs. H. W. Lull presented an able paper on early Italian music, which was illustrated by Mrs. Alma Faunce Smith on the piano, and Mrs. F. A Page with a vocal solo.

Miss Turner read an interesting article from the Woman's Journal on "Famous Women of Bologna." The list included such historical names as Sainte Caterina Vigri, Anna Mangolini, Mea Mattugliani, Clotilae Tambroni, Laura Bassi, and Novelle D'Andrea Calderini.

NEW CAR BARN.

And Other Q. & B. Improvements for Boston Travel.

The Harbor and Land Commissioners gave a hearing Thursday on the petition of the Quincy & Boston street railway to erect a building on piles near the Neponset river at Neponset. There was no opposition and the petition will probably be granted.

It is the intention to build at once a large and modern waiting room and car barn, and plans for the same have been made and the contract has been awarded to Peter J. Williams, and calls for its completion inside of four months.

The building is to be located on the west side of Neponset avenue near the bridge. The main building will have a frontage on Neponset avenue of 110 feet and a depth of about 60 feet. Back of and joining the main building is the car barn which is about 30 feet wide and has a depth of 100 feet, making the total depth 160 feet. At the north corner of the building will be a room for a store which is about 25 by 30 feet. On the southerly corner the waiting room which will be fitted with every convenience for the comfort of the public. This waiting room will be about 20 by 30 feet and from it there will be a retiring room and separate toilet room for ladies and gentlemen.

There will also be a large boiler and coal room adjoining. On the south and west sides of the waiting room will be a broad covered piazza making an exceptionally fine and comfortable waiting place in warm weather.

Between the waiting room and store there will be a large arch through which the cars enter the car barn from the street.

This will also be where passengers will be received and delivered, and as the waiting room will have an entrance to the archway passengers will be protected during stormy weather.

Over the main building there is a large unfinished hall which may be fitted for a public hall. Entrance to this hall to be from the front of the building

It is not the intention of the road to keep many cars stored there, but to keep enough so that in case of a rush in summer an extra car can be had readily. The building will be of wood and will be a handsome structure.

The Ploughman says, much depends upon the man who has charge of the retail milk route, that is, the man who meets the consumer. He should be neat, business like and gentlemanly, and wear decent clothes.

HIGH 48; ACADEMY, 0

High Makes More Against Adams Than Thayer Made!

Quincy High defeated Adams Academy with the utmost ease yesterday at Merry Mount park. This game ends the series, as Quincy High has won two games, and Adams has won none.

The High school team is in fine shape, and has improved wonderfully in the last two weeks under the coaching of "Reggie" Brown. Next Thursday comes their first game in the Norfolk County league, against Dedham High school at Quincy. This should be a great game.

Captain Foss made the first touch down in the game by repeating his remarkable play of two weeks ago. Bennett punted, and Foss, catching the ball in the middle of the field, ran 50 yards through the Adams team for a touch down. No goal.

Adams, kicked off and in an instant Magnuson was around the left end for a 60-yard run and touchdown. He kicked a goal, making the score 11 to 0.

After Adams had kicked off again, a long run by Jordan, on a criss-cross, brought the ball nearly to the goal line, and Bates went over for the High's third touchdown. A goal made the score 17-0

Three more touchdowns were scored in this half, two by Magnuson and one by Jordan. All three easy goals were missed. This ended the scoring in the first half, Quincy High having made 32 points in 20 minutes.

The second half was much like the first, except that it was shorter, and the High School's costly fumbling prevented so large a score. Once more Foss caught a punt and ran half the length of the field for a touchdown. Magnuson made three beautiful punts in this half. Once Adams held the High School for downs, the only time in the game. Two of Bennett's attempts to punt were blocked, but Hodges secured the ball in fine style, and saved a touchdown. When time was called, Quincy High had the ball near the middle of the field. The score stood: Quincy High, 48; Adams Academy, 0. The players lined up as follows:

QUINCY HIGH.	ADAMS ACADEMY.
Murphy, l. e.	r. e., Whitman
Ford, l. t.	r. t., Hatch
Sargent, l. g.	r. g., Bennett
Pitts, c.	c., Cashman
Linnell, r. g.	l. g., Vogel
Flaherty, r. t.	l. t., Doneher
Estabrooks (Lewis), r. e.	l. e., Mahon
Foss, g. b.	g. b., Burchsted
Jordan (Estabrooks), l. h. b.	r. h. b., Hodges
Magnuson, r. h. b.	l. h. b., Doble
Bates, f. b.	f. b., Mueller

Score—Q. H. S., 48; Adams Academy, 0. Touchdowns—Foss (2), Magnuson (4), Bates (2), Jordan. Goals—Foss (2), Magnuson. Umpire—Mr. Slade. Referee—Mr. Manning. Time—20 and 15 minute halves.

THE BOYNTON ROAD.

To be Illustrated at the Meeting of City Council.

The meeting of the City Council on Monday evening has important questions to consider and will doubtless be largely attended. It may prove very interesting. The principal business to come before the meeting will be the public hearing on the second petition of the Boston, Quincy and Fall River Bicycle railroad. Mr. Boynton, the inventor of the system, and who is also a Democratic candidate for Congress in the coming election will be present in favor of the petition, and the railroad will be fully illustrated with the stereopticon. As the matter of a Bicycle railroad is quite an interesting one in itself, it is announced that the pupils of Councilman Willard's Quincy Mansion school will be present in a body. Aside from those who will favor the petition there will be a strong opposition present, much more so than at the hearing on the first petition, so that everything points to a high old time.

Praise for Administration.

Will W. Dunn, the son of James C. Dunn, returned yesterday noon from service in the war. He served as a marine on the U. S. S. Cincinnati, and some of his letters have been published in the Ledger. While in the service he contracted muscular rheumatism and has been in a hospital in Rrooklyn for about a month. In an interview by the Ledger he is enthusiastic in the praise of the government. As far as the navy was concerned the arrangements were complete. There was plenty of food and plenty of everything and those who enlisted in the navy had no criticism to offer. He has been honorably discharged.

—The Boston Journal says, Gen. Wheeler's suggestion that the colleges of the United States each invite at least two young Cubans to take a four years' course, without cost, has quickly been adopted by Boston University. Thus Boston establishes one more admirable lead in the cause of education.

LOCAL NEWS TRACK.

Some Colts which are Sure Winners Every Heat.

Another stormy Saturday.

The date for the Republican municipal caucuses has been fixed for Nov. 17 and for the convention Nov. 23.

On the gridiron at Milton today the Brookline High play the Milton Academy, and the Jogalong A. A., play the Milton, A. A.

The people of Canal street are pleased to have the steam roller with them today to put the street in a passible condition after the sewer.

The jury was out last night in the cases of Baptist Monti and Baptista Tambarina against the Quincy & Boston street railway.

After the High-Adams foot ball game yesterday, the victorious High cheered the Adams, while the Adams cheered Adams. Actions speak.

The annual games that were to be held at Adams Academy this morning have been postponed until Thursday afternoon, Nov. 3, at 2 o'clock, on account of the rain.

The temperature at noon today was 45 degrees, which is the coldest day thus far this fall. The nearest approach to it was on Oct 17, when 48 degrees was recorded at noon. The lowest mark reached last year in October was 44 degrees, which was recorded on Oct. 30.

A delegation of 25 members of Granite Commandery of Golden Cross visited Orion commandery of South Weymouth, Thursday evening, and witnessed a fine exemplification of the work by a degree staff from Lynn. Supreme Commander Day and Grand Commander Steer of Massachusetts were among those present.

The Swedish citizens of Quincy have formed a Scandinavian Republican club with these officers: President, Edward J. Sandberg; Vice President, Dr. Elmere; Secretary, Otto Gellott; Treasurer, Peter Gustafson. The club now numbers one hundred members and will take an active part in local politics.

Mr. James W. Murray one of "Quincy's finest," returned this morning from his two weeks' vacation trip to Nova Scotia. During his brief absence he was united in marriage to Miss Elsie M. Smicer, a well known and popular young lady of Middle La Have, Nova Scotia. Miss Smicer formerly resided in Quincy and has a host of friends here. Officer Murray is also very popular in the city and their many friends unite in wishing them much future happiness. Mr. and Mrs. Murray will make their home at The Greenleaf this winter.

Pretty Party.

One of the most enjoyable parties that has been held in Quincy for some time was that given in Faxon hall, last evening, by seven of the young ladies of the Episcopal church. The dancing commenced at half-past seven, the music being by Peters' orchestra, and was continued until eleven. It was a very jolly party and a decided success, socially and financially. There were about forty couple present many attending from Brockton, Dorchester, Lynn, Boston and Cambridge. The hall was decorated with autumn leaves, and the matrons, Mrs. Walter Russell Breed, Mrs. Charles Theodore Hardwick and Mrs. John Downes, received before a screen of foliage which formed a charming background for their gowns. Mrs. Breed wore a gown of black satin, trimmed with black and white lace and diamonds. Mrs. Hardwick wore white chiffon over white satin and blue ribbons, Mrs. Downes wore a colored satin trimmed with lace. The ushers were Mr. Walter E. Burke, Mr. Raymond Burke, Mr. William R. Thomas and Mr. Elmer Ricker. The young ladies are being urged to continue these dances throughout the season, and are almost decided to do so if they can be assured of the success that attended their initial effort.

Highwayman Held Up.

As a well-known Wollaston citizen was walking along Merry Mount park on his way to a near-by gunning stand on Thursday evening, with a large package in one hand and the other in his overcoat pocket, a would-be highwayman jumped out from behind a clump of bushes, exclaiming, "Say boss, I guess I'll take that bundle!"

"Not if I know myself!" said Mr. 'Boss,' as he thrust a big six shooter into the fellow's face. "Hands up! You stand there till I'm out of sight."

So saying the gentleman continued on his way to the gunning stand and the highwayman was lost sight of in the darkness.

It is a pity that a policeman couldn't have nabbed that fellow.

—The work of the Fruit and Flower Mission is commendable. Forty-three thousand bouquets in Boston this season have made many hearts happy, says the Courier.

HEADQUARTERS
— FOR —
Honest, Reliable
Gents' Furnishings

My Store is Well Stocked with Carefully Selected . . . .

Fall and Winter Goods

From Leading Wholesale Houses of New York and Boston.

We will compete with any store in Quincy or Boston. For instance we will quote a few prices on our Leaders:

1 lot of Men's Brown Suits, small plaid pattern, a bargain, only . . $5.00
1 lot of Men's Fast Black Kersey OVERCOATS, satin lining $8.00
1 lot of BOYS' SUITS, to close $1.00
1 lot of Men's and Boys' REEFERS, all kinds and sizes from . . . . $1.50 to $4.00

We make no odd prices to deceive the imagination of people, and have

Honest Goods
— FOR — Honest Money.

Come, See, and Be Convinced.

F. J. PIERSON,
144 Granite St., Quincy.
Brewer's Corner.
Oct. 26. 2m eow

Coal!

Just Received by Barge Blackbird, a Fresh Cargo of

Pea Coal
(Small Nut.)

J. F. SHEPPARD & SONS
Quincy Sept. 7.

JOHN EVANS,
Auctioneer and Appraiser.
Prompt Settlement.
24 COPELAND STREET, QUINCY.
Feb. 26. tf

This is Lehigh Coal,
And We Have it for Sale.
C. PATCH & SON.

FRANK F CRANE,
AUCTIONEER and APPRAISER,
Office, 4 Chestnut St., Quincy, Mass.
Oct. tf

COPARTNERSHIP NOTICE.

NOTICE is hereby given that Lawrence Butler has this day withdrawn from the Granite polishing firm of A. M. I. McLeod & Co., carrying on business on Dane St., Quincy.

A. M. I. McLEOD,
LAWRENCE BUTLER.
Quincy, Oct. 27, 1898. 28-3t

Provisions. Adams;

UARTERS

FOR — Reliable

urnishings

Well Stocked with ected . . . .

Winter Goods

olesale Houses of
and Boston.

any store in Quincy or e will quote a few prices

Brown
d pat-only . . $5.00

t Black
OATS,
. . . $8.00

SUITS,
. . . $1.00

Boys' kinds
. . . .

.50 to $4.00

to deceive the imagina-e, and have oods

FOR — est Money.
d Be Convinced.

IERSON,
St., Quincy.
Corner.
2m eow

al!

ived
e kbird, n o

Coal Nut.)

RD & SONS

VANS, l Appraiser.
ttlement.
REET, QUINCY.
tf

igh Coal, it for Sale.
ATCH & SON.

CRANE,
L APPRAISER,
., Quincy, Mass.
tf

P NOTICE.
iven that Lawrence withdrawn from the
A. M. I. McLeod &
n Dane St., Quincy.
I. McLEOD,
ENCE BUTLER.
28-3t

ACROSS THE DESERT.

A Very Interesting Letter From Mr. Arthur A. Moon.

It is a pleasure to hear from Mr. Moon, who resided in Quincy short time ago and was quite a popular young man. He was prominent among the workers of Bethany church. The letter from him is also of great interest. Mr. Moon is now in Redland, California:

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Aug. 12, 1898.

My Dear Friends: It has just been my privilege—I can't truthfully say pleasure—to cross the great American Desert, and as there were so many things on the long trip that were strange and interesting to me. I am going to tell you some of them, in the hope that they will interest you.

We left Tucson at the unearthly hour of 3 A. M. You know Tucson is blessed (?) with about the most miserable railroad accommodations that ever fell to the lot of a city of 10,000 people—only two trains a day, the one going east at 2 A. M., and the other west at 3 A. M. To begin with: We were very fortunate that our train was only an hour late, for it is frequently ten or twelve hours behind time, as in the long run of 2,500 miles, from New Orleans to San Francisco, there are many things likely to delay this train.

I am not certain, but I think this Southern Pacific Railroad takes you a longer distance, without a change of cars, than any railroad in the United States, and, of course, that means in the world. Well, we reached our Tucson depot while the little stars were winking and blinking at us as if trying to keep awake, as we all felt that we were. As we had all gotten up before "breakfast," and felt that what we had was eaten in the middle of the night, we waited as patiently as we could, and soon saw the first streaks of dawn.

Finally the train came along, and as we clambered into the car, we wakened many a weary mortal who had been trying to rest his aching bones. I sat down beside a travelling man who looked particularly tired. He asked me what station this was, and on being told, said: "Oh, Heavens, now we are going into Hell." I thought his remarks rather forcible, but long before the end of the journey, came to the conclusion that I had passed through Hell, as nearly as could be on this earth.

We had a very pleasant and congenial party of eight from Tucson, and we all had our lunches with us, we made a picnic out of it. Going West, it is really hard to say where the desert begins, for there are long stretches of the sand, way back in Texas, that seem to stay with you all through New Mexico, Arizona and a good part of Southern California; but shortly after leaving Maricopa, the southern shipping point of the fertile Salt river valley, and Phoenix, west for a distance of 300 miles, we have the desert. Trees are not particularly numerous, to say the least, in Arizona, but soon they disappear. Grass has not been seen at all, and only the little, dry, thirsty grease bushes, with here and there a little cactus, that is all to relieve the eye. The land is as perfectly level and flat as any table, and as I looked ahead out of the car window I could see the two rails slowly run into a point in the far distance, while the hundreds, or rather thousands, of telegraph poles looked like so many palings in a fence, and to the rear the same thing.

In our day coach we were quite comfortable, for we had the doors and windows wide open, giving us a draught of air through, hot though it was, and dry, too, for the engine raised great clouds of sand, that sailed through the car, filling our eyes, ears and noses till we were a sight to behold. It was so thick in some places that to escape the severe coughing many of the passengers moistened their handkerchiefs and tied them under the chin, fastening the upper end to the hat, but a few minutes they were perfectl ydr y, with perspiration yer of sand over them.

Such a thing as water on the desert is unknown, and you can get some idea of the seriousness of the trip when I tell you that an oil car filled with water, was attached to our engine, so that in case the water in the tank gave out we would have a supply with us. I had heard a great deal about this desert, but that it actually existed in the awful way that it does I did not imagine. The imagination can supply some things, but such as this must be seen to be appreciated (?). What the actual temperature was in the sun, for of course there is no shade, I do not know, but I was told about 175 to 200 degrees. It is impossible to realize what it means, but I could not hold my hand on the iron guard rails at the car steps, the sun had made them so hot. As I held my hand out of the window to feel the hot air, it seemed as if it must be blowing over a furnace.

Fortunately our connecting train was on time, and as we had made up our lost time, we only stayed on the side track about five minutes, but even by that time the prespiration was running in little streams, making mud of the dust on our face and necks. We had a most beautiful mirage extending for miles along the track, and if I had not known that there was no water within 50 or 75 miles, I would have declared we were running along a most beautiful bay for I could see the water, see the reflections of the islands and the hills in the water, and even thought I could see the ripples in the water, as it washed against the shore. The ripples evidently were caused by the waves of heat.

For about 75 miles we were below sea level, at one place called Salton, 263 feet below, and some of our party suffered considerably from the heavy air. Tucson has an altitude of 2,500 feet, and the sudden drop to 263 feet below, especially with the excessive heat, was very hard on some hearts one lady in particular was in a partial collapse for several hours, for we were below sea level from 1 to 4 P. M.

At Salton is to be seen a sight that I think is to be found nowhere else—plowing salt from the ground by horses and plows. At one time this was all covered by the sea and as it gradually receded and dried up it left a rich deposit of salt at Salton and they plow it up, refine it and sell it all over the West.

Another remarkable feature of this place is the total absence of animal ife not a ground squirrel not a snake not a bird not a living thing only the sun-baked earth and blue sky with the dazzling sunshine. In this part of the country they have no rains but the wet and dry seasons and when it does rain on the desert after months of total drought it rains to make up for lost time and comes down in sheets and torrents. The land lays in such a way that its deepest point is near Salton and all the water for miles rushes toward this lowest point cutting and washing great holes or washes in the earth and leaving the surrounding country one mass of mud and slime so to be parched and baked by the sun and along through this "Salton Sink" as it is called, the parched earth is cracked and baked to such an extent that you can easily put your hand in the cracks.

Shortly after leaving Salton another engine is added to the train to help us up the incline, and the scene changes. Here and there a few trees, palms, a little grass appear; then as we mount higher and higher the air grows cooler and not so heavy, and we breathe deeply to take in the refreshing breeze. In the distance, on the sides of the mountains, little patches of green are seen, showing a ranch or fruit orchard; then under the increased momentum of the two engines we rush along through the canyons and little valleys. Each minute the scenery gorws more green, beautiful and refreshing; cows are seen grazing, the eucalyptus trees, tall and slim, mark the boundaries of one ranch from another; now a long rolling stretch of prairie, brown and bare, showing where the steam thresher had been at work on the long, waving fields of grain, leaving great piles of chaff; on the other side, long fields of corn, nodding and bowing to us in the breeze our rushing train makes. Suddenly our engines give a succession of long, shril screams, as if warning us of something to come.

The train slackens up a little and we dash around a curve into the most beautiful scene that ever greeted my eyes—that wonderfully beautiful and fertile San Gabriel Valley, probably the most fertile of Southern California's noted spots. Mile after mile we rushed through this garden, and I no longer wonder why this is called the Golden State. One succession of ranches after another, orange orchards, lemons, fruit of all kinds, water running in brooks and streams, something unknown in all the hundreds of miles over which we have just come. Oh, those orange groves! Mile after mile of them, the trees loaded with the fruit, the ground in many places almost covered with these balls of gold. Truly, it seems after all the waste and desolation we have just passed through, that this is God's own country and that the Lord Himself lives here.

Then we wind in and out, from one spot of beauty to another more beautiful still. The gathering twilight adds a softness to the scene, the hills seem soft and tender in the gathering darkness. We pass through the beautiful town of Pomona, Redlands, and many others that have made Southern California famous for beauty and fertility, until at 9 P. M., just eighteen hours after leaving Tucson, 500 miles, we draw into Los Angeles, having seen in one day the most desolate as well as the most fertile spot in this great country of America, which we proudly call "our native land."

—Last Sunday's Globe will make valuable campaign literature for the voters of Massachusetts. It says there is evidently a hitch in the Paris negotiation to await the result of the next election. If forewarned we will be forearmed. The people will watch that hitch with interest and take care that the next national house will not be in league with Sagastian government.

HOW TO MAKE MONEY.

Take a silver dollar and drop it on a jeweler's show case and you'll get a ring. Take a quarter and saw it in two in the middle and get two halves. Take a two-dollar bill and fold it once and you double it—and you can keep on monkeying with money and make imaginary capital for an hour. But if you want to get a new wrinkle in money, just take a new ten dollar bill and fold it corner-ways and you'll get a new wrinkle every time. But don't fool with your money and don't let anybody else fool with it. Don't let anybody fool you with the idea that they'll give you a $10 bill with every $2 suit or overcoat.

The new store has earned a reputation for selling straight goods at straight prices. We don't monkey with your money, or flim flam you with any imaginary values. We give you good goods, charge a fair-profit price for everything you buy and expect you to come back the second time because you were used right the first.

We can sell a good Overcoat for $5.00 and an all wool one for $6.50. But for $7.50 we can show you a dandy all wool Kersey, made with raw edge and lap seams and lined with good lasting linings. The same coat our competitors (in Boston) get $10 for.

Our $10 coat we have in Blacks, Blues, Olives and Browns. Then we have them for $11, $12, $13, $13.50, $15, $15.50 and upwards to $19, in all the different style goods worn this season.

For this week and next too, if they are not all gone, we will sell all wool Dickey Pants at $1.48. All the other stores get $2.00.

QUINCY CLOTHING CO.,

LOWEST PRICED CLOTHIERS IM NORFOLK COUNTY.

MUSIC HALL BLOCK.

With Co. K, 5th Mass.,
Middletown, Penn., Oct. 26.

Today we are experiencing a very rainy day. The company streets are all mud, making it very slippery walking.

Major Morrison left this morning, mounted, to take command of the 3d battalion, which leaves the regimental headquarters for Philadelphia. This makes a very disagreeable day for the boys to leave here for the Peace Jubilee. The troops from Camp Meade will commence leaving camp at 10 A. M., and should arrive in Philadelphia at intervals of about thirty minutes, from 2 o'clock this afternoon.

The Headquarters, Second Corps, will be at the Lafayette hotel, and the Signal Corps, at Thirty Seventh and Market streets.

If the weather is not pleasant today, the troops will have a very disagreeable outing. At present we are having a heavy rain storm. The boys of this battalion are congratulating themselves that they were not ordered to parade with the other troops. We are watching battalion after battalion march past our camp, for where they embark is right across the street from us. The battalions leaving are about wet through already, and what will they be when arriving in Philadelphia. No wonder we think ourselves lucky in not attending.

Lieut. Spear is today acting battalion adjutant. Privates George P. Clapp and Frank Clapp have left the cook squad and returned to K street.

Privates Thomas C. Brown and O. L. Belcher have filled the vacancies. Private Herbert F. Tucker is still head cook and he makes a good chef.

Through the inclemency of the weather the usual guard mount did not take place, but guards were marched off to guard quarters without any of the usual ceremonies. This is a tough day for the boys who are detailed on guard.

The following are performing the tour of guard duty from this company today: Sergeant Phillips, Corporal Whiting, Privates Olsen, Oliver, Privanio, Rafferty, Restelli, Rowell, Ross, Rogers, Ryan, D. Smith, W. Smith, Swanson, Spilane.

Private Chase has been busy making out the pay rolls, so that they are all completed. Sergeant Barrett is having the boys' signatures affixed to them. So that by tomorrow they can be forwarded on to the paymaster.

Mr. William T. Richards of Quincy again visited us. He was desirous of seeing our camp by daylight. Corporal Matthews intoduced the Quincy gentleman, to the Hospital Surgeon and staff and he then proceeded to make the acquaintance of the Quincy members of company. Many of the boys were asleep on his last visit. Mr. Richards is now on his way to Baltimore and intends when returning home to describe the maner and ways in which our camp is conducted. He remarked that we looked like a very healthy lot of boys.

Major Morrison has constructed a bath house under his own supervision, he having procured a lot of coil pipes for faucet water to run into and a fire is built under, so that the boys can now have a good warm bath. The major is always looking out for the best interests of the boys.

The boys are all well; not a sick man in the company.

Volunteer.

A CARD.

The undersigned does hereby agree to refund the money on a 50-cent bottle of Greene's Syrup of Tar if it fails to cure your cold or cough. He also warrants a 25-cent bottle to prove satisfactory or no pay.

Oct. 29—6 n G. A. LORING, Wollaston.

☞Hundreds of handsome lamps, all the newest creations, from 25 cents to $10.00. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

FURLOUGH FOR CO. K

There Is a Rumor to that Effect at Camp Meade.

With Co. K, 5th Mass.
Middletown, Penn. Oct. 27.

The disagreeableness of yesterday cleared away toward midnight. The moon came out bright for the remainder of the night. Today has been extremely cold, with high winds, which make it hard for the boys to keep warm. We have been wearing a blue uniform and overcoats all day, and then felt the chilly air. There were no drills this morning, the boys kept in quarters, and hugged their little oil stoves. Drill will again be resumed this afternoon, for the sun is shining, which makes it considerable warmer.

Corporal Foster received a large box of canned goods, consisting of canned chicken, salmon, corn, peas, ox tongue, sardines, preserves, coffee and a number of other articles, from friends whose acquaintance he made at Camp Dalton, South Framingham. They are to be divided amongst the squad who were under him when at the State camp.

Corporal Foster and his squad intend to do justice to the eatables, and do not intend to go hungry while it lasts. Captain Neilson is officer of the day, with the following members of K on guard: Corporal Mahoney, Privates Savoie, Sheehan, Sullivan, Serberg, Thumstrom, Livendale, Briggs, Burns, Bowler, Buckley, Colbery, F. Clapp, Clements.

Rumor has it that the 2d Army Corps, of which this regiment is a part, is to be furloughed beginning the first of November, for an indefinite period. We cannot place much confidence in the report. The boys only hope it may turn out to be true. This may be the reason why no furloughs were granted, as the Division officers were waiting to hear from the War department.

This is drying day. All the clothes that were wet through during the past storm are receiving a thorough airing. The camp has the appearance of a general wash day, with the clothes hanging on trees and tents.

Private Berry is still cooking for the officers' mess. Private Gunderson keeps at his rifle, constantly cleaning it. He has one of the prettiest rifles in the whole company.

Private Bowler received a scalp wound the other day, but is all right again, and at duty.

Private Gallagher is a good joker, always cracking jokes, which keeps the boys in good spirits.

There is nothing of unusual interest occurring in camp. The boys remain in good health, K is the only healthy company on this field. We have the least number to report at sick call, which shows the faithfulness of members in keeping disease away.

VOLUNTEER.

The new church at East Braintree is nearing completion and promises to be a very handsome as well as a conveniently arranged edifice.

MARRIED,

CURTIS—EVANS—In Quincy, Oct. 28, by Rev. Edward Norton, Mr. Arthur Vinton Curtis to Mrs. Katherine Evans, both of Quincy.

PERKINS—WENTWORTH—In Braintree, Oct. 23, by Rev. A. A. Ellsworth, Mr. W. G. Perkins to Miss Ella B. Wentworth, both of Middleboro.

WOOD—SMITH—In Boston, Oct. 26, Mr. Robert M. Wood to Catherine Smith, both of Braintree.

DIED.

THAYER—In Braintree, Oct, 28, David Brainard Thayer, aged 62 years, 11 months and 14 days, DYER—In Braintree, Oct. 22, Harold E., son of Millard F., and Annie M. Dyer, aged 5 years and 15 days.

TELL US . .

What you are looking for.

We can show you a fine line of

FALL AND WINTER
UNDERWEAR,
HOSIERY,
Outing Flannels, Flannelettes,
Plaid Dress Goods,
WRAPPERS, BLANKETS,
Comforters,
Dress Linings and other Dry Goods.

OUR STOCK IS FRESH.
OUR PRICES THE LOWEST.

MISS C. S. HUBBARD,
158 Hancock Street.

The John Hancock Stables.

Opposite Depot, Quincy, Mass.

Boarding, Baiting, Livery and Sale.
DR. J. A. DOW, Proprietor,

the well known Veterinary dentist and specialist in the treatment of lame horses. Sick horses treated at owner's risk.

The finest equipped and managed stable of its size in America.

Fine driving turnouts in light rigs; safe and good appearing. All horses let are perfectly safe for ladies to drive.

The choicest family, road and coach horses constantly on hand for sale. All horses guaranteed as represented.

☞ Will attend to veterinary practice as usual. aug18-1y

Give C. PATCH & SON

A TRIAL ORDER

For HAZELTON LEHIGH COAL.

HOUSES, STORES, LAND,
ROOMS, OFFICES, AND WHARVES,
To Let In Quincy, Mass.

The Houses are in Complete Repair.

Half-house, 10 rooms, 6 Chester street, Wollaston.
House, 10 rooms with stable, 16 Cottage street.
Half-house, 5 rooms, 16 Cottage street.
House, 8 rooms, 29 Granite street.
Half-house, 4 rooms, 4 Water street, $7 per month.
Tenement, 5 rooms, 59 North street.
Half-house, 6 rooms, Pond street, $10 per month.
Half-house, 5 rooms, 13 Field street, $8 per month.
Tenement, 3 rooms, 28 Howard street, $3 per month.
Tenements, 51 Howard street, $4, $5 and $6 per month.
Room, 12 Washington street, $5 per month.
Large building, suitable for manufacturing purposes on Brackett's wharf.
Small stable, 2 Quincy street, $3 per month.
Small stable, 28 Coddington street, $5 per month.
100 windows, and blinds, various sizes
Wharf, stone sheds, etc., Quincy Neck.
Basement, head of Granite street.
100 tons ballast for sale.
Land to rent for tillage or pasturing purposes.
Gravel and sand for sale.
50 loads of loam for sale.
The buildings are in the very best condition.
For particulars, enquire of, or address

HENRY H. FAXON,
Quincy, Mass.

Quincy, Oct. 13, 1898. 1m

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS.

Advertisements in this column inserted at the following rates:

Four lines, or less, one day, - - 25 cents.
" " three days, - - - 50 cents.
" " one week, - - - - 75 cents.

Additional lines will be charged for pro rata Seven words equal a line. Long term rates furnished on application.

LOST.

LOST—Female Beagle from New England Kennel club at Braintree. A suitable reward will be paid for return or information.
Oct. 29. 1t

WANTED.

WANTED—Salesman; salary from start, permanent place. BROWN BROS. CO., Nurserymen, Rochester, N. Y.
Oct. 28. 1t

TO LET.

TO LET—3 Houses of 7 rooms each, healthful location and fine views. Electrics pass often. Rent low. Inquire of F. H. GRAVES, just beyond the bridge, North Weymouth.
Oct. 28. 6t

TO LET—2 Rooms, Furnished or Unfurnished, with steam heat and bath. 3 minutes from depot. Rent reasonable. L., Post Office. Oct. 26—6t

TO LET—House of six rooms, in good repair. Possession given Nov. 1. Apply at 8 Orchard place, Quincy. Oct. 25—6t

TO LET—Half a House of 5 rooms entirely separate on Phipps street, Mt. Pleasant. Rent, $8 a month; city water. Inquire at 17 Summer street.
Quincy, Sept. 27. 31t

TO LET—Tenement of 6 rooms No. 12 Newcomb street, in good repair; city water. inquire of C. A. SPEAR, 7 Newcomb street.
Quincy, Oct. 20. tf

TO LET—On Washington street at the corner of Canal street, a desirable tenement of six large rooms, to be vacated Nov. 1 by Mr. F. H. Lord; front and back stairs, city water, and in good repair; near Coddington school, Public Library and depot. Apply only to FRANK F. PRESCOTT, Ledger office.
Quincy, Oct. 27. tf lp

TO LET—Cottage house, No. 29 Granite street, 8 rooms, three minutes' from City Square. Apply to H. M. FAXON, 4 Adams Building. Sept. 30—tf

FOR RENT—Desirable house with bath, corner lot, nice neighborhood, three minutes' walk from schools, churches and depot Rent reasonable. Apply at No. 6 Pleasant St.
Quincy, Sept. 7. tf

TO LET IN QUINCY.

SOUTHERLY Half of house with stable 214 Hancock street, now occupied by Dr. N. S. Hunting. Modern improvements, central location. Seven rooms and bath; furnace, gas and city water. Apply on premises to
MISS M. F. UNDERWOOD.
Oct. 1. tf

TO LET.

APARTMENTS of five large rooms and bath, with all modern improvements. Also two large stores. Rent moderate. Apply to ARTHUR CRAIG, or J. W. HAYDEN, at Craig Building, cor. Copeland and Garfield Sts.
Quincy, July 15. pl tf

B. F. CURTIS,

40 Elm Street, Quincy.

TO LET—House of 10 rooms at 43 Elm street. City water. Rent, $18 per month.
Half House of 4 rooms, 19 Union street; city water. Rooms just painted and papered. Rent, $7.50 per month.

TO LET.

House of 8 rooms, etc., No. 20 Canal street, Quincy. Nice house, excellent location.
R. D. CHASE,
Savings Bank Building.
Quincy, Oct. 8. pl tf

For Sale or To Let,
FURNISHED,
NASH'S HOTEL.

Full of Boarders and a good transient trade. Cheap rent. My catering business is all I can attend to.
Apply at HOTEL, 148 Hancock street, Quincy, Mass. oct11 tf lo

FOR SALE.

Bigelow St. Fine New Residence, 9 rooms, bath, laundry, furnace, open plumbing, cemented cellar, fireplace, etc.
R. D. CHASE,
Savings Bank Building.
Quincy, April 8-tf. 9p-tf

Gentlemen, Buy Your....

OVERCOATS

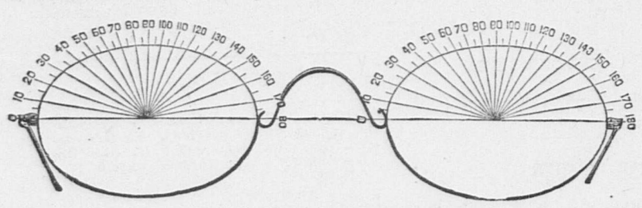

Where you can find the best assortment in the city and the lowest prices, which is at

C. F. DERBY'S, SAVINGS BANK BUILDING, QUINCY. 5-1m

ONE-TON ORDERS

Have been the making of this Coal business. Hundreds have ordered "just one ton to see if there was any difference." They found there was and they came again. Our one-ton orders have been our best advertisements. It's a better Coal at the same price, with the proof in a sample ton. When in doubt, try Patch's.

C. PATCH & SON.

ASTIGMATISM

Causes most of the distressing headaches. Properly fitted glasses will correct the error and remove the pain. Consult

WILLIAMS,

Member of the New England Association of Opticians,

104 Hancock St., Quincy.

If You Have a House to Let,

Advertise It in the Ledger.

Now is the time to Subscribe
One Year, - $4 00
10 Cents a Copy

HARPER'S WEEKLY

during 1899 will contain complete, concise, and accurate accounts of all noteworthy and interesting occurrences as they transpire in our own and in foreign lands. Eminent men of letters and distinguished artists will contribute to its columns, and its readers will have the most impartial and the best

PICTORIAL HISTORY OF THE YEAR

During 1899 HARPER'S WEEKLY will be especially rich in fiction, containing serial stories from the pen of H. G. Wells, author of "The War of the Worlds"; "The Conspirators," by Robert W. Chambers; a romance of De Soto's last voyage, by E. S. Van Zile, and short fiction by authors of international fame. Articles by special correspondents in our new possessions — Manila, Honolulu, Cuba, and Puerto Rico, with other interesting matter, will fill the space left by contemporary events.

Trial Subscription, Four Weeks

25c.

HARPER & BROTHERS
Franklin Square, New York

CHICKAMAUGA PARK.

War Commission Inspects the Site of Camp Thomas.

Improbability of Infection by Water Supply.

Regiments Too Near, and Sinks Too Close to the Tents.

Chattanooga, Oct. 29.—The war investigation commission spent the entire day yesterday in inspecting the site of Camp Thomas in Chickamauga park, under the guidance of General Boynton. The inspection covered all points of interest in the park and near its borders which have been involved in the controversy concerning the sanitation of the camp, including Sternberg and Leiter hospitals, with the various springs from which water was secured by the troops, and the point on Chickamauga creek at which the water of the pipe line supply was taken out. Special attention was given to this latter place because of the criticisms that have been made upon this source of the camp's supply.

The commissioners found the intake pipe submerged about 20 feet above the mouth of a tributary creek, known as Cave Spring creek, which drained the camp. The charge had been made that the water from the tributary stream had contaminated the pipe water, being carried back into it by means of eddies and in one case by a freshet. General Boynton and Engineer Betts, both of whom had been concerned in locating the pipe line, admitted that Cave Spring creek had once overflowed and broken a dam, thus throwing its water into the main stream above the intake; but they explained that this freshet occurred at night when the pumps were shut down and no water was being taken in. They called attention to the rapidity of the flow and to the depth of the stream and urged the impossibility of infection from this source. General Wilson gave especial attention to the question as an engineering problem, and it was evident from the expressions he dropped that he was impressed with the strong improbability, if not the impossibility, of infection from this source. It was also equally evident that a majority of the commission formed the same opinion.

There were many expressions of commendation of the methods followed at Sternberg hospital. They found only 38 patients in the hospital, and most of these were convalescent. Major Giffen, in command of the hospital, said it would soon be abandoned.

The commission also gave attention to the proximity of the various camps to one another and the depth and location of the sinks. The conclusion seemed quite general that many of the regiments were thrown more closely together than they should have been, and that this fault could have been avoided by moving. Many of the sinks were also found to have been nearer to the tents than proper ideas of sanitation encouraged, and in some cases the character of the surface was such as to warrant the conviction that the sinks were shallower than they should have been, but this was true only of parts of the camp.

After concluding the inspection of the camp, Major Giffen was asked to make a statement concerning criticisms of the hospitals made in Vermont newspapers by Frank A. Bailey, who had spent six weeks in the hospital nursing his brother. When he returned home he wrote an article saying, among other things, that he had heard physicians in the hospital tell attendants to give their attention to patients who had a chance to recover and not nurse those who were sure to die, in the presence of those designated or the latter class, and that he had heard other physicians instruct their helpers to give ice cold baths with the view of "finishing" their patients. Dr. Giffen pronounced as false all the statements made.

Dr. Craig, bacteriologist of the Sternberg hospital, was questioned especially with reference to the water supply of the camp, and expressed the opinion that the water taken from Chickamauga river through the pipe system was purer than that in the wells and springs. He had found sewer baccilli in one or two of the wells, though no typhoid germs. He had also found impurities in water taken from some of the springs. He had made two analyses of the water from the river, one before the July freshet and the other after it, and had found it to be entirely wholesome from a bacteriological standpoint. It was muddy, and he thought it should be filtered. He had also made tests which convinced him that there was no danger of eddies carrying the water of the Cave Spring creek into the pipes. Dr. Craig expressed the decided opinion that common house flies are capable of proving a decided source of disease infection, and he detailed bacteriological tests, showing that they carried typhoid germs upon their feet. He also said that from a number of flies which had been placed in sugar impregnated with the germ, he had procured a pure typhoid bacillus culture.

Arrest of a Husband.

Boston, Oct. 29.—The sudden death of Mrs. Daniel Sullivan of Brighton under peculiar circumstances has led to the arrest of her husband, who is held pending the result of an autopsy. Thursday night Mrs. Sullivan was found by a physician, who had been called by her husband, lying dead in the floor. On the back of her head were two large abrasions, and traces of blood were found in the hallway, on the stairs and in the kitchen. Sullivan claims that his wife received the injuries to her head by falling downstairs, and that he attended to them the best way he could.

Fire In Grain Buildings.

Fall River, Oct. 29.—The hay and grain buildings of Mackenzie & Winslow were burned last night. The fire caught in the loft, where 35 people were at work, and spread so rapidly that a second alarm was necessary. To use sufficient hose it was necessary to stretch the lines over the railroad, and in so doing 12 trains were delayed until 7:20. The total loss by the fire was $23,000.

STATESMEN AT WAR.

Charges of Ex-Governor of New Hampshire Against Senator Gallinger.

Concord, Oct. 29.—The Busiel-Gallinger fight in the Republican ranks took on a new phase Wednesday, when the ex-governor preferred charges against the senator, who is chairman of the state committee, for soliciting contributions in violation of federal law. A copy of a circular fell into the hands of Mr. Busiel, who, believing that such solicitation involved the chairman of the committee, made inquiry concerning the case of John R. Proctor, chairman of the civil service commission. He received a reply confirming his belief, and assuring him that upon the presentation of proper evidence prompt steps would be taken toward bringing to justice any violators of the law.

The first Republican rally of the campaign in this section of New Hampshire was held last night, and much interest attached thereto on the understanding that the differences between the senator and the former governor would be aired. "Who is the man," inquired Senator Gallinger, "that makes this charge? What is his record? How clean are his hands? Ostensibly this charge comes from Charles A. Bushiel of Laconia, recently governor of New Hampshire. How did he become governor? I will not accuse him. He accused himself at the last Republican state convention when he said boldly that he had issued thousands of railroad passes to influence political actions. He admitted that he had violated the laws; and now he brings himself forward as a reformer. I never saw before so humiliating a spectacle as that man standing before the assembled intellect and integrity of the state and boldly declaring that he had violated its laws. That is the man who attacks my integrity. I will not weary you in detailing the methods used by that man in becoming governor and in attempting to supplant me in my seat in the United States senate. I will not weary you with telling of the thousands of passes he issued and the hundreds of dollars he spent in that vain attempt."

Senator Gallinger quoted the passage in scripture which commands the man who had taken aught wrongfully to restore in four-fold. Senator Gallinger read from the Manchester Union the letter of Mr. Busiel to the civil service commission, accompanying it with a running fire of sarcastic comments. "I neither fear that man, nor do I respect him," he continued. "Elsewhere in this paper is an interview with another gentleman who is greatly distressed at what I have been doing. I will simply remind that gentleman that in 1894 there were just as many Republican officeholders as there are today, and I will simply refer him to the books of the treasurer of the state committee at that time. I will say to these gentlemen that it will not do to play Uriah Heap in this campaign. The people want a fair fight; they want nothing of cowards.

"I will say this. I am going to stay out of prison until we carry the election of Nov. 8 in this state. I am going to stay out of prison until we re-elect William McKinley president of the United States. I am ready to answer any charges brought against me, at any time, before any proper tribunal. I do not consider this a matter of importance personally; but it is a matter of great importance to the Republican party. Every Democrat in this state knows that Republican victory this fall is assured. This blow is struck at the Republican organization of two years hence at which time these gentlemen propose to ally themselves with the Democratic party and to attempt to gain for it the ascendency in this state. This conspiracy will not succeed. We will keep New Hampshire firmly moored in the line of Republican states."

Reached an Agreement.

Pittsburg, Oct. 29.—After several months of parleying, the scale committees of the American Glass company and the representatives of the cutters and flatteners came to an agreement last night. The manufacturers concluded to pay the wages asked by the two trades in question, with the understanding that work is to be resumed Thursday morning.

The starting will be an experiment. It is understood that a break will be made in factories where blowers and gatherers are not in sympathy with Simon Burns, president of the organization. President Burns, it is said, has issued an order which may prevent some members from going to work. It is expected that 10,000 men will make an effort to go to work Thursday.

Concerning Nicaragua Canal.

Chicago, Oct. 29.—Lyman E. Cooley is authority for the statement that the capitalists behind Edward F. Gragin and Frank B. Washburn in their effort to secure an option on a concession from the Nicaraguan government to construct an inter-oceanic canal are not from Chicago, but from New York. According to the best information Mr. Cooley has on the subject, W. R. Grace & Son and Charles E. Flint of New York are behind the scheme with Mr. Cragin. Mr. Cooley says that if the United States government takes action this winter the option will have no effect, but if congress fails to act, Grace and his associates will come in as residuary legatees next October, if satisfactory arrangements can be made with the canal company.

Fielding Records of Players.

Washington, Oct. 29.—President N. E. Young of the National Baseball league made public the fielding record of players. Lachance of the Brooklyns leads the first basemen, with Clark of the Pittsburgs and O'Connor of the Clevelands tied for second place. Daly of the Brooklyns, Crook of the St. Louises and Reitz of the Washingtons lead the second basemen in the order named. Nash of the Philadelphias leads the third basemen; Jennings of the Baltimores the shortstops; and Freeman of the Washingtons the fielders. Catcher Zimmer of the Clevelands is first in his class and Bergen of the Bostons fourteenth.

Shot by Her Uncle.

Leonora, Kas., Oct. 29.—William Elliott followed Fannie Lashell and her sister home from a dance and, shooting over the head of the sister, who tried to save her, killed the first named in the street. He then fired three shots into his own body and may die. Elliott, notwithstanding he is the girl's uncle, had persisted in paying her attentions. The shooting was the result of her refusal to marry him.

CZAR'S EARNESTNESS.

Means Business In His Plan For Disarmament.

He Ignores Cold Douches of Skepticism.

American Enthusiasm Would Be of Benefit In a Business Way.

London, Oct. 29.—W. T. Stead, in a letter from St. Petersberg, says: "The action taken by the czar on his own initiative in summoning a conference of all the nations to consider whether anything can be done to secure an arrest of armaments affords an opportunity for the friends of peace in the United States to do a stroke of good business both for the cause and their country. The czar has been plentifully plied with cold douches of scepticism, ridicule and scorn. The diplomatists, the sovereigns and the ministers of the old world have no faith in the humanitarian enthusiasm of the young emperor. Even among his own ministers there are many who have little sympathy with his chivalrous crusade of peace; but Nicholas II means business, and he is going through with this business as best he can with such support as he can command.

"If there be any real enthusiasm of humanity anywhere in the new world it ought to be easily evoked and strongly expressed in support of his valorous declaration of war against the ruinous armaments of the modern world. Of one thing Americans may be sure—the more enthusiastically they make manifest and effective their response to the appeal of the young emperor, the better it will be for the future relations of the two countries. The United States, after the Russian empire, is the greatest human aggregation that will be represented at the conference.

"A thousand Americans scattered up and down Russia and Siberia would let in a flood of light into many dark places and help to roll the czar's chariot along a little more rapidly than it moves at present. A point upon which the Russians, or rather some Russians, see impending danger, is the certainty, which the American ambassador here never loses an opportunity of emphasizing, that the United States will stand no interference with the open door policy in China. In Mr. Hitchcock, the United States had been fortunate to find a thorough business man who has spent years of his life in the Chinese trade. He knows the value of China to American commerce, and he has no intention of allowing any obstacle to be placed in the way of its development. Russia may come to Port Arthur and Ta-Lien-Wan, and welcome, but let her beware of attempting to close the door that was opened by the treaty of Tien Tsin. If she were to try to close it, all the powers, America included, would know the reason why. Mr. Hitchcock does not for a moment credit the notion that Russia intends to close it, but he is not less confident that even if she did she could do no such thing. This in no way disturbs the government, which is loyal to its treaty obligation; but it alarms some of the chauvinists."

Dress Reformers Meet.

Omaha, Neb., Oct. 29.—Dress, particularly the short-skirted kind, was the main topic of the women's national council yesterday. Interesting points were brought out, such as man's appropriation of trousers, which had been the invention of woman, when man was the warrior and did not have time to attend to any business; the effect of short skirts upon the morals of young men and the need of the latter to be disciplined by the constant object lesson of the former, and finally the anatomical information that the true dividing line of the body is just below the stable ribs.

More Yellow Fever.

Louisville, Oct. 29.—The impression that yellow fever had been practically blotted out by the cold weather and frosts was dissipated by reports from the far south that the epidemic had taken a new lease of life in two localities. The weather has again turned warm, and to this the new state of affairs is chargeable. Four deaths have occurred in Natchez in the past few days, being those of prominent citizens, and new cases are developing daily. The fever is now in every ward and on almost every street in the city. Madison, Miss., reports six new cases of fever.

Say That They Gained

Brockton, Mass., Oct. 29.—The Lasters' union had an attendance of 600 union men at its meeting last night, when 78 applicants were admitted. It is claimed that the strike is virtually a victory for the strikers over the lasting machine companies inasmuch as the latter are to employ only union help; but, singularly enough, the union officials decline to discuss this point.

Heavy Verdict For a Woman.

Providence, Oct. 29.—In the breach of promise suit of Theresa Main against Benedict Sederer, the jury returned a verdict for $12,500 against the defendant. The jurors were out for three hours, and the amount of the verdict was a compromise.

Tomorrow's Almanac and Forecast.

Sun rises—6:15; sets, 4:40.
Moon rises—5:30 p. m.
High tide—11:30 a. m.; 12 night.

The unsettled conditions in the south and west have died out, and while there remains a chance of showery weather Sunday, fair weather, with clear to partly cloudy skies, is now probable, with variable winds and slightly higher temperatures. Monday, partly cloudy weather, with fresh southerly winds and slight temperature changes, preceded by rain in the northern districts.

"Why Women Cannot Sleep."

The highly organized, finely-strung nervous system of women subjects them to terrors of nervous apprehension which no man can ever appreciate.

The peace of mind, the mental poise and calmness under difficulties, which is necessary for happy womanhood is only possible when the sensitive feminine organism is in a perfectly healthy condition. If there be any weakness or derangement in this respect no remedy in the world so completely restores womanly health, nervous vigor and capability as the wonderful "Favorite Prescription" invented by Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute of Buffalo, N. Y. It purifies, heals and strengthens; insures functional regularity; provides physical reinforcement and sustaining power at periods of special weakness and depression.

It is the only medicine which makes the coming of baby safe and comparatively easy. In a personal letter to Dr. Pierce, Mrs. Marguerite Collin, of Cutler, Algoma Co., Ont., says:

"I was a sufferer and was cured by Dr. Pierce's wonderful medicine. When I commenced the medicine I could neither eat nor sleep. My hands and feet were constantly cold; I had a wasting, troublesome drain for three months, and my monthly periods were never regular. I took Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and it cured me. I feel well. I thank the World's Dispensary Medical Association."

Mutual Life

OF NEW YORK.

Do You Want Life Insurance?
Do You Want Fire Insurance?

If so, call on

GEORGE H. FIELD,

1 Durgin & Merrill's Block, Quincy,

and you will find the best Companies at Lowest Rates.

MONEY LOANED ON REAL ESTATE.

FISH.

Everything first-class at the

Cape Cod Fish Market,

Temple Street.

All kinds Fresh, Salt, Smoked and Pickeled

Quincy, Feb. 8. 1y

Rain or Snow

Along the coast but fair in the interior, we read sometimes, but whether rain, snow, fair or blow outside, you may be fair, comfortable and happy inside of one of those

Warm Overcoats

that you can buy at the "Granite," and not only overcoats, but everything required for the comfort of men and boys.

Don't get caught in the storms of winter without proper protection, but go now to the

Granite Clothing Store,

DURGIN & MERRILL'S BLOCK,

QUINCY.

LAND

A Transcr Books of

Number of and Valu

Also the Amo son's Tax

[Continue

Something ne
the taxpayers of this year by the is considerable value of land claimed to be low in others.
plemented the ar each ward with of land for whi giving in each square feet or ac

The amount gi
the person's nam and may inclu property, etc., in land below. The valuation of the

To obtain a pe city, add togethe the several ward

The Ledger co
tion Aug. 30, and the land values names begin wi instalment conclu

WA

Valuation of Land Only.

Porter, Charles H.
15,502 feet, Han
31,400, Adams,
9,540, Hancock,
Powers, Edward
6,140, Deldorf, $
Pratt, L. M. & Co.
Pratt, Lester M.
6,111, Whitwell,
Pratt, Edwin B. est.,
Pratt, Henrietta B.
23,740, Spear, $4
5,900, Orchard pl
41,120, Spear, $8
Pratt, J. Winthrop
5,169, Cranch, $
Pratt, Henry G.
5,700, Bigelow, $
4,300, Houghs N
Prescott, Fannie A.
4,500, Bell, $400
Prescott, Frank F.
7,000, Bigelow, $
13,480, Washing
Prescott, George W.
10,000, Spear, $
2,400, Spear, $5,
5,000, Willow fa
Prescott, George W.
Prescott, Mary A. M
30,000, at Hough

WAR

Pollard, Thomas B.
8,130, Edison, $
Pope, Susan and Sar
33,070, off Elm,
Pratt, George F.
5,100, Wendall,
Pratt, Henry G., Jr.
15,635, Edwards
5,236, Baxter, $
5,220, " $
6,580, " $
Pray, George B.
7,758, Wharf, $
Prescott, Lillie M.
89,556, Curtis av

WAR

Powers, John
6,000, Gilbert, $
Pratt, J. Winthrop
5,011, Payne
7,500, Benningt
7,500, "
5 acres, Indepen
Pratt, Jonathan
14,100, Quincy av
Pratt, Lester M.
5,792, Payne
4,934, "
8,750, Goddard av
7,000, Marsh,
23,700, Franklin
Pratt, William
7,350, Quincy, $
Presbytreian church,
1-8 acre, Quincy
Price, Margaret
8,324, Madison av
Prout, George and Jo
18,180, Granite,
33,100, Garfield
7,155, "
Prout Bros.,
Prout, George
Prout, Mary A.
Land on Gran
1-4 acre, Clark
Provost, Peter
5,000, Centre, $

WAR

Powell, Thomas, est.,
16,330, Town Hil
Pratt, Lester M.
9,240, Filbert, $3
Prariro, Joseph
1-4 acre, Filbert,
Prout, George
5,088, Prospect H
Prout Bros. Granite C
2.46 acres, quarry

WAR

Poland, Mary E.
4,581, Beach,
4,778, "
4,370, Morton,
4,200, Davis,
7,000, Wayland,

…men Cannot
…eep."
…ly organized,
… nervous
…women sub-
…o terrors of nervous apprehen-
…no man can ever appreciate.
… of mind, the mental poise and
…der difficulties, which is neces-
…py womanhood is only possible
…nsitive feminine organism is in …ealthy condition. If there be …ss or derangement in this re-
…emedy in the world so com-
…ores womanly health, nervous
… capability as the wonderful
…Prescription" invented by Dr.
…, chief consulting physician of
…s' Hotel and Surgical Institute
… N. Y. It purifies, heals and …; insures functional regularity;
…ysical reinforcement and sus-
…er at periods of special weak-
…pression.
… only medicine which makes
… of baby safe and comparatively
… personal letter to Dr. Pierce,
…nerite Collin, of Cutler, Algoma
…ays:
… sufferer and was cured by Dr.
…nderful medicine. When I com-
… medicine I could neither eat nor
…ands and feet were constantly cold;
…sting, troublesome drain for three
…d my monthly periods were never
…ook Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescrip-
…ured me. I feel well. I thank the …ensary Medical Association."

…tual Life
…OF NEW YORK.

…u Want
Life Insurance?
…u Want
Fire Insurance?
If so, call on
…RGE H. FIELD,
… & Merrill's Block, Quincy,
…u will find the best Companies at Lowest Rates.
…DANED ON REAL ESTATE.

…RISH.
…ing first-class at the
…Cod Fish Market,
…Temple Street.
…s Fresh, Salt, Smoked an
Feb. 8. 1y

…or Snow
…long the coast but fair in the
…terior, we read sometimes,
…t whether rain, snow, fair blow outside, you may be
…r, comfortable and happy
…ide of one of those

…m Overcoats
…at you can buy at the
…Granite," and not only over-
…ats, but everything required
… the comfort of men and
…ys.
…Don't get caught in the …rms of winter without
…per protection, but go now
…ile
…Clothing Store,
… & MERRILL'S BLOCK,
QUINCY.

LAND VALUES

A Transcript From the Books of the Assessors.

Number of Feet in Each Lot and Valuation Thereof.

Also the Amount of Each Person's Tax Bill for 1898.

[Continued from yesterday.]

Something new in the publication of the taxpayers of the city is attempted this year by the Daily Ledger. There is considerable interest in the assessed value of land in the city, which is claimed to be high in some cases and low in others. So the Ledger has supplemented the amount of the tax bill in each ward with the value of each lot of land for which the person is taxed, giving in each case the number of square feet or acreage.

The amount given in the line with the person's name is his total ward tax, and may include houses, personal property, etc., in addition to the lots of land below. The Ledger gives only the valuation of the land.

To obtain a person's total tax in the city, add together the amounts paid in the several wards.

The Ledger commenced the publication Aug. 30, and has already published the land values of all persons whose names begin with A to O, and today's instalment concludes the Ps:

WARD ONE.

Valuation of Land Only.	Total Ward Tax.
Porter, Charles H.	$416 00
15,502 feet, Hancock street, $3,000.
31,400, Adams, $6,800.
9,540, Hancock, $1,700.
Powers, Edward	45 20
6,140, Deldorf, $600.
Pratt, L. M. & Co.	91 80
Pratt, Lester M.	39 60
6,111, Whitwell, $700.
Pratt, Edwin B. est.,	400 50
Pratt, Henrietta B.	309 60
23,740, Spear, $4,700.
5,900, Orchard place, $1,200.
41,120, Spear, $8,000.
Pratt, J. Winthrop	48 60
5,169, Cranch, $450.
Pratt, Henry G.	79 20
5,700, Bigelow, $850.
4,300, Houghs Neck.
Prescott, Fannie A.	25 20
4,500, Bell, $400.
Prescott, Frank F.	142 40
7,000, Bigelow, $1,290.
13,480, Washington, $2,700.
Prescott, George W.	279 20
10,000, Spear, $2,300.
2,400, Spear, $5,500.
5,000, Willow farm, at beach, $300.
Prescott, George W., & Son,	85 40
Prescott, Mary A. M.	27 00
30,000, at Houghs Neck, $1,500.

WARD TWO.

Pollard, Thomas B.	$45 65
8,130, Edison, $575.
Pope, Susan and Sarah	99 00
33,070, off Elm, $2,600.
Pratt, George F.	11 00
5,100, Wendall, $150.
Pratt, Henry G., Jr.,	223 85
15,635, Edwards, $1,500.
5,236, Baxter, $450.
5,220, " $450.
6,580, " $500.
Pray, George B.	23 60
7,758, Wharf, $400.
Prescott, Lillie M.	108 00
89,556, Curtis ave., $2,500.

WARD THREE.

Powers, John	$4 50
6,000, Gilbert, $250.
Pratt, J. Winthrop	222 05
5,011, Payne, $350.
7,500, Bennington, $450.
7,500, " $525.
5 acres, Independence ave., $4,500.
Pratt, Jonathan	40 50
14,100, Quincy ave., $1,250.
Pratt, Lester M.	264 35
5,792, Payne, $400.
4,934, " $375.
8,750, Goddard ave., $700.
7,006, Marsh, $600.
23,700, Franklin, $5,500.
Pratt, William	47 00
7,350, Quincy, $500.
Presbytreian church,	30 60
1-8 acre, Quincy, $500.
Price, Margaret	8 10
8,324, Madison ave.
Prout, George and Joseph P.	107 95
18,180, Granite, $1,275.
33,100, Garfield, $900.
7,155, " $400.
Prout Bros.,	67 05
Prout, George	59 60
Prout, Mary A.	107 10
Land on Granite. $900.
1-4 acre, Clark ave., $700.
Provost, Peter	40 25
6,000, Centre, $400.

WARD FOUR.

Powell, Thomas, est.,	$37 80
16,330, Town Hill, $900.
Pratt, Lester M.	19 80
9,240, Filbert, $300.
Prariro, Joseph	23 60
1-4 acre, Filbert, $300.
Prout, George	1 80
5,088, Prospect Hill, $100.
Prout Bros. Granite Co.,	171 00
2.46 acres, quarry land, $4,000.

WARD FIVE.

Poland, Mary E.	$97 20
4,581, Beach, $450.
4,778, " $500.
4,370, Morton, $400.
4,200, Davis, $350.
7,000, Wayland, $500.
Polk, Alva W.	44 10
4,200, Beach, $350.
Polk, Herbert J.	44 30
4,200, Beach, $350.
Polson, Richard	335 90
11,340, Warren ave., $1,400.
11,340, " " $1,400.
10,307, Field, $1,250.
9,899, Old Colony ave., $900.
9,143, " " " $1,000.
9,910, Section 6, $350.
4,024, Newport ave., $2,000.
Poole, Rufus W.	53 30
7,500, Prospect ave., $650.
Poulton, Agnes J.	44 10
5,827, Kemper, $450.
Pratt, Edwin B., est.	5 40
4,750, Lot 14, Sec. 6, $300.
Porter, James C.	45
1,190, Section 6, $25.
Porter, Mary D.	34 20
6,030, Taylor, $300.
Prescott, Emma A. C.	27 90
5,400, Old Colony ave., $300.
Prescott, George R., est.,	55 80
5,000, Farrington, $350.
5,000, " $350.
Preston, Maria	69 30
5,850, Park, $850.
Price, Mrs. Lydia	18 00
15,900, Lot 1, Sec. 1, $1,000.

WARD SIX.

Poland, John E.	$60 50
5,000, Freeman, $400.
Pope, Everett M.	57 80
8,400, Billings, $875.
Pope, Hannah C.	612 00
5 acres, Squantum, $5,500.
14 " farm land, 7,400.
3 1-2 acres, farm land, $2,100.
6 1-2 " Squantum, $4,200.
40,000 feet, Atlantic, $2,800.
13 acres, stump meadow, $1'300.
3 " Mass. Hummock, $1,000.
18 acres, salt marsh off Squantum, $1,100.
Pope, Jane M.	181 80
6 acres, Squantum, $2,500.
6 1-2 acres, " $4,000.
Pratt, Susan D.	62 55
9,572, Appleton, $775.
Price, Edward	42 95
5,000, Glover place, $300.
6,395, Madison, $350.
Price, Hilda	6 30
6,483, Madison, $350.
Priest, Hannah M.	64 80
10,560, Atlantic, $1,100.

To be continued.

☞ Real down right comfort in our blankets and comforters. That's not all, our prices the lowest on earth. Blankets from 45 cents per pair up. Comforters from 75 cents up. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

TRY GRAIN-O! TRY GRAIN-O!

Ask your Grocer today to show you a package of GRAIN-O, the new food drink that takes the place of coffee. The children may drink it without injury as well as the adult. All who try it, like it. GRAIN-O has that rich seal brown of Mocha or Java, but it is made of pure grains, and the most delicate stomach receives it without distress. One-fourth the price of coffee. 15c. and 25c. per package. Sold by all grocers.

SCHWAN'S REGULARS AT MAYAGUEZ, PORTO RICO. From HARPER'S WEEKLY

After a Drawing by R. F. Zogbaum. Reproduced from Harper's Weekly. By Permission. Copyright, 1898, by Harper & Brothers

The brief campaign of Puerto Rico was conducted with skill and ability. Success followed the American arms in every movement, and was accompanied by comparatively little suffering and trivial loss, the enemy being compelled to abandon one position after another by the superior strategy of the Americans until the signature of the protocol to a treaty of peace put an abrupt end to hostilities. The stories of the splendid fighting and magnificent courage of or regulars in the battles before Santiago in Cuba, the hardships they suffered have overshadowed in the public mind the comparatively small encounters with the enemy in Puerto Rico. Nvertheless the fighting there has been sharp, the adavnce of our troops bravely resisted at more than one point, but it was never checked, and one town after another was opened to our troops. It fell to the good fortune of General Schwan's column—McComb's Troop of the Fifth Cavalry, some field guns, and the Eleventh Infantry; afterwards reinforced by part of the First Kentucky—to occupy the pretty and populous town of Mayaguez, on the west coast, after the defeat of the enemy in a brilliant engagement near the Rosario, driving the Spaniards in the direction of Lares, and uncovering Mayaguez, where the welcome by the inhabitants was of a nature seldom met with by an invading army. Our illustration, taken from Harper's Weekly, shows the troops shortly after entering the town. On every side they were received as liberators from hated oppressors, old and young, black and all the intermediate shades up to and including white, men, women, and children vying with one another in cordial expressions of delight at their presence. The wounded, Spaniards and Americans, were cared for at the hands of the Red Cross Society and soon were housed in the theatre for the nonce a hospital. Many were badly hurt, some in the shawdow of death; but no murmurs escaped them as, friend and foe, the wounded lay together in clean white cots, cheered and comforted by their surroundings and the tender and sympathetic ministrations of their nurses. Our brave fellows could not tell in words of the gratitude to the dark-robed women hovering by their beds like angels of all that is good and merciful; but Catholic or Protestant, Dago or Yankee, none will forget the sweet-faced Spanish nuns, whose gentle hands and soft voices brought relief to suffering body and hope to sinking hearts.

Schwan made but a brief stay in the town, his troops going into camp in the outskirts. Meanwhile the U. S. S. Montgomery arriving in the harbor, conveying reinforcements and supplies, the column moved out again, the advance guard overtaking and putting to rout the former garrisons, which had hurriedly evacuated Mayaguez on the approach of the United States force, capturing many of them, and bringing them back prisoners to the place where they had so long been masters.

Castle Square Theatre.

The management of the Castle Square theatre has at last found an opportunity to make another production of the sensational melodrama, "The Fatal Card" which created such a marked impression when it was played at this theatre last November. This is the third production "The Fatal Card" has had in Boston since its great New York run and it is safe to predict another series of successful performances at the Castle Square theatre the coming week. Some few changes have occurred in the company at the Castle Square theatre since "The Fatal Card" had its production of a year ago but in the main the cast will be the same as last year the leading characters having been assigned as follows: George Forrester, J. H. Gilmour; Gerald Austen, Charles Mackay; Harry Burgess, Tony Cummings; Margaret Marrable, Miss Lillian Lawrence; Mercedes, Miss Made Odell; Cecile Austen, Miss Mary Sanders. "The Fatal Card" is announced for only a single week and will be followed on Monday, Nov. 7, by the comedy "The Solicitor" already a popular play with Boston audiences.

Keith's Theatre.

The Hungarian boy's band keeps on winning the approving plaudits of the audiences at Keith's, and their stay could probably be extended for months, with profit to the management and pleasure to music lovers, were it not for the fact that the Austrian authorities insist on their returning home at an early date. Other bookings for the week of Oct. 31 will include the talented and popular actress, Minnie Dupree, who will be supported by a competent company in a charming one-act play; the Willet-Thorne Fraceurs, in one of the most amusing farces ever seen on the stage, "An Uptown Flat." Among the new pictures in the biograph will be a view of the heroic work done behind the firing line by the surgeons and litter bearers who risked their lives in succoring the wounded, sailors of the United States navy in the peace parade at Brooklyn, Oct. 1st, and Boston Commadery, Knights Templar passing in review during the great parade of Oct. 11, at Pittsburg, Pa.

M. de Mirabelle Would Not Tell.

"A venerable and worthy nobleman, M. Pompignan de Mirabelle, was imprudent enough to repeat at a supper party some satirical verses he had heard touching Mme. de Pompadour and M. de Sartines, the chief of police. Warned that De Sartines had filled in his name on a lettre de cachet, M. de Mirabelle called at the police office and asked to what prison he should betake himself. 'To Vincennes,' said De Sartines.

"'To Vincennes,' repeated M. de Mirabelle to his coachman, and he arrived at the dungeon before the order for his detention.

"Once a year De Sartines made a formal visit to Vincennes, and once a year punctually he demanded of M. de Mirabelle the name of the anthor of the verses. 'If I knew, I should not tell you,' was the invariable reply, 'but as a matter of fact I never heard it in my life.' M. de Mirabelle died in Vincennes a very old man."—"Dungeons of Paris."

CANCER CURED

BY ABSORPTION

NO KNIFE.

The result of years of scientific research by America's greatest blood specialist. A pleasant treatment that relieves immediately, cures permanently all forms of CANCERS, TUMORS and CHRONIC DISEASES. Hundreds of wonderful cures effected in and around Boston. Read the following:

BLOOD EVIDENCE

Then come to our offices and investigate the hundreds of other marvellous cures produced by ABSORPTION when all other treatment failed. Consult this living patient. "Dr. James M. Solomon: Dear Sir: The following is my testimonial, which I hope will help others. That after suffering several years with something that was never reached, getting only temporary help from different doctors, and each attack being more severe, I was advised by a friend, who had been cured of a tumor, to see her doctor. I was then unable for any work, and feeling worse from day to day; realizing that something was preying upon me of a serious nature, I was discouraged about my condition, and sought Dr. Solomon with little faith—it was more of an experiment. He got my confidence on the first interview, when, without a word of description of my feelings from me, he at once located my trouble, and I could not help believing that he knew from what I was suffering, although was greatly surprised and somewhat terrified when he told me it was cancer of the stomach. I began treatment at once, Nov. 3, 1892, and was faithful to his directions, with just the results promised I would get, till the following June (1893) I felt like a new being, and the doctor pronounced me recovered. I am sure that I have, and I can never repay the gratitude I owe to Dr. J. M. Solomon. Sincerely, Eben Fish, 232 Harvard St., Dorchester, Mass." Today he is one of the many living witnesses of the only painless method that positively CURES when all others fail.

We want you to call and examine references of people you know—people we all know, who would not vouch for ABSORPTION had they not been cured. Ask for references marked H.

James M. Solomon, M.D.

SPECIALIST IN CANCERS, TUMORS AND CHRONIC DISEASES.

2 A Beacon Street, BOSTON.

Oct. 13. 1y lo

NOTICE!

NOTICE is hereby given that my wife, SADIE L. RICH, having left my bed and board without cause, I shall pay no bills of her contraction from this date.

HENRY C. RICH.

Quincy, Oct. 10, 1898. 27-3t

☞ Powerful oil heaters. Will heat your room in a twinkling. $3.98. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

ALBERT J. BOWERS' OPTICIAN

ADAMS BUILDING OVER POST OFFICE QUINCY MASS.

E. S. BECKFORD,

Electrician.

Wiring and Fitting for Incandescent, Motors, Dynamos, Bells, etc.

GRANITE STREET, Near the Bridge, QUINCY

Feb. 1 1y

Mortgagee's Sale.

BY Virtue of a power of sale contained in a certain mortgage-deed given by Marcena R. Sparrow (sometimes called Marcenar R. Sparrow) to George W. Smith, dated November 16th, 1896, and recorded in Norfolk Deeds, Book 774, page 413, for breach of the conditions contained in said mortgage, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction, on the premises hereinafter described, on MONDAY, November 7, 1898, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, all and singular the property described in said mortgage, namely:

A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon, situated in that part of Quincy called Wollaston, being lot 12 in Block "C" of Section 2 extended, as shown on a plan of said section of the land of the Wollaston Land Associates, drawn by D. Granger & Son, and bounded and described as follows: Northeasterly on Prospect avenue, seventy-five (75) feet; northwesterly on lot thirteen (13) of said Block and Section, one hundred and fifty (150) feet; southwesterly on lot 5 of said Block and Section seventy-five (75) feet; and southeasterly on lot 11 of said Block and Section, one hundred and fifty (150) feet.

Said property will be sold subject to a mortgage for $1,400 and all unpaid taxes and assessments. $200 to be paid at the time and place of sale, the balance within ten days at the office of my attorney.

GEORGE W. SMITH, Mortgagee.
W. W. Jenness, Attorney,
87 Milk street, Boston.
October 15, 1898. 15 22 29

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

NORFOLK, ss. PROBATE COURT.

TO the heirs-at-law, next-of-kin, and all other persons interested in the estate of JOHN B. SCHAETZL, late of Quincy, in said County, deceased.

Whereas, a certain instrument, purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased has been presented to said Court for probate by Magdalena Schaetzl of Quincy, who prays that letters testamentary may be issued to her the executrix therein named without giving a surety on her official bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court to be held at Dedham in said County of Norfolk, on the second day of November, A. D., 1898, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week for three successive weeks, in the Quincy Daily Ledger, a newspaper published in Quincy, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court, and by mailing, postpaid, or delivering a copy of this citation to all known persons interested in the estate, seven days at least before said Court.

Witness, George White, Esquire, Judge of said Court, this twenty first day of October in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight.

JONATHAN COBB, Register.

Oct. 22. 3t 22 29 31

Quincy and Boston Electric Street Railway.

[Subject to change without notice.]

On and after October 10, cars will be run on the different routes as follows:

Quincy and Neponset.

Leave CITY SQUARE for Neponset at 5.55, 6.10, 6.25, 6.40 A. M. and every 15 minutes until 11.10 P. M.

Leave NEPONSET for Quincy at 6.15 A. M. and every 15 minutes until 11.30 P. M.

Cars leaving Quincy at 20 minutes of the hour and Neponset on the hour, go via. Hancock street direct.

Cars leaving Quincy at 25 and 55 minutes past the hour go via Newport avenue, Wollaston.

Cars leaving Quincy at 10 minutes past the hour go via Norfolk Downs, and those leaving Neponset at 30 minutes past go via Downs.

Cars leaving Neponset 15 minutes of and 15 minutes past the hour go via Wollaston and continue through Braintree and Holbrook to Brockton, connecting with cars for Bridgewater, Taunton, New Bedford, Fall River, Newport and Providence.

Quincy and East Weymouth.

Leave CITY SQUARE (10 minutes later from Quincy Point and 22 minutes later from North Weymouth)—5.45, 6.20, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20, 9.50, 10.20, 10.50, 11.20, 11.50 A. M.; 12.20, 12.50, 1.20, 1.50, 2.20, 2.50, 3.20, 3.50, 4.20, 4.50, 5.20, (5.30 to East Weymouth car house), 5.50, 6.20, 6.30, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20, 9.50, 10.50 P. M., (11.50 Wednesday and Saturday to Thomas' Corner only.)

Leave EAST WEYMOUTH (20 minutes later from North Weymouth and 30 minutes later fron Quincy Point)—6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8, 8.30, 9, 9.30 10, 10.30, 11, 11.30 A. M.; 12, 12.30, 1, 1.30, 2, 2.30, 3, 3.30, 4, 4.30, 5, 5.30, 6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8 8.30, 9, 9.30, 10, 10.30, 11.30 P. M.

Quincy and Weymouth Landing.

Leave QUINCY at 5.30 A. M., 6.20, 7.20 and every hour until 12.20, then 1.50 and every hour until 10.50 P. M.

Leave WEYMOUTH LANDING at 5.50 A. M. and every hour until 12.50, then 2.20 and every hour until 11.20 P. M., connect with trains to Boston at Quincy.

Quincy and East Milton.

Leave CITY SQUARE, 5.55, 6.25, then every 5 minutes of and 25 minutes past the hour until 9.25 P. M., then at 10.50 P. M.

Leave EAST MILTON 6.25, 6.55 A. M., then every 5 minutes of and 25 minutes past the hour until 9.50 P. M., then 10.20 and 11.20 P. M.

Quincy and Brockton.

Leave QUINCY for Brockton at 6.10 and 6.40 A. M., and every half hour until 9.10 P. M., except on Wednesday and Saturday, when car at 9.40 runs through to Brockton. Cars at 9.40 and 10.10 to South Braintree every night.

Quincy and Hingham.

Leave QUINCY at 7.20 A. M. and every hour until 11.20 A. M., then 1.50 and every hour until 5.50 P. M.

Leave HINGHAM at 8 A. M. and every hour until 12 M., then 2.30 and every hour until 6.30 P. M.

Neponset, Atlantic and Squantum.

Leave NEPONSET at 6.30 A. M. and every hour until 8.30 P. M., connecting at Atlantic with outward express trains.

Leave SQUANTUM at 7 A. M. and every hour until 9 P. M., connecting at Atlantic with express trains.

SUNDAYS.

Cars leave City Square, Quincy, for E. Weymouth and Weymouth Landing at 7.30 A. M. and West Quincy at 7 A. M. and on the hour and half hour throughout the day.

Sunday time same as week days on other lines, except that the first two trips are omitted.

BENJ. J. WEEKS, Superintendent.

New York, New Haven and Hartford R. R.

Eastern District.

On and after Oct. 16, 1898, trains will run as follows: (See note of explanation at bottom.

TO BOSTON. Leave Quincy.	Stops at	Arrive Boston.	FROM BOSTON. Leave Boston.	Stops at	Arrive Quincy
r 6 12 abc		6 30	5 55	ihgfedcba*	6 22 r
r 6 42 abc		7 00	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 7 12 abc		7 30	7 30	cba	7 49 r
r 7 26 ad		7 43	8 30	cba	8 49 r
r 7 42 abc		8 00	9 30	cba	9 49 r
r 8 12 abc		8 30	10 30	cba	10 49 r
r 8 26 ad		8 43	11 30	cba	11 49 r
r 8 42 abc		9 00	12 30	cba	12 49 r
r 9 12 abc		9 30	1 30	cba	1 49 r
r 10 12 abc		10 30	2 30	cba	2 49 r
r 11 12 abc		11 30	3 30	cba	3 49 r
r 12 12 abc		12 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
r 1 12 abc		1 30	5 00	cba	5 19 r
r 2 12 abc		2 30	5 17	da	5 36 r
r 3 12 abc		3 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
r 4 12 abc		4 30	6 00	cba	6 19 r
r 5 12 abc		5 30	6 17	da	6 36 r
r 6 12 abc		6 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 7 12 abc		7 30	7 00	cba	7 19 r
r 7 39 abcdefghi		8 05	7 30	cba	7 49 r
r 8 08 abcdef		8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
r 9 12 abc		9 30	9 30	cba	9 49 r
r 10 08 abcdef		10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r
r 11 12 abc		11 30	11 30	cba	11 49 r

SUNDAYS.

r 7 12 abc		7 30	6 30	cba	6 r
r 8 12 abc		8 30	8 30	cba	8 49 r
r 9 12 abc		9 30	12 30	cba	12 49 r
r 1 12 abc		1 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
r 5 12 abc		5 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
r 7 12 abc		7 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 8 08 abcdef		8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
r 10 08 abcdef		10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r

*The letters in the same line as the figures stand for different stations and indicate that trains stop, as follows:

a, Wollaston, g, Savin Hill.
b, Norfolk Downs. h, Crescent Avenue.
c, Atlantic. i, South Boston.
d, Neponset.
e, Pope's Hill, r, Quincy Adams.
f, Harrison Square. (xx), Express.

C PETER CLARK, Gen'l Supt A. C. KENDALL G. P. A.

HAZELTON LEHIGH

And Not Hard White Ash,
Is What You Should Burn.

C. PATCH & SON.

LADIES ROYAL DELIVERANCE CAPSULES are a positive, safe and speedy monthly regulator, guaranteed to cure the most stubborn cases, or money refunded. Have never failed. Used by thousands of ladies, indorsed and prescribed by the medical profession. Painful and dangerous operations avoided. Price $2, at office or by return mail. 'Royal Protector' and full particulars under plain seal, for 4c., stamps. ROYAL REMEDIES CO., 228 Tremont Street, Boston, Mass. Mention this paper.

Chichester's English Diamond Brand.

PENNYROYAL PILLS

Original and Only Genuine.

SAFE, ALWAYS reliable. LADIES ask Druggist for Chichester's English Diamond Brand in Red and Gold metallic boxes, sealed with blue ribbon. Take no other. Refuse dangerous substitutions and imitations. At Druggists, or send 4c. in stamps for particulars, testimonials and "Relief for Ladies," in letter, by return Mail. 10,000 Testimonials. Name Paper. Chichester Chemical Co., Madison Square, PHILADA., PA.

Sold by all Local Druggists.

Sold by Geo. C. Goodwin & Co., Boston, Mass. General Agents.

Quincy Daily Ledger.

FOR SALE BY NEWSBOYS
and at the following places:

BOSTON—Old Colony News Stand after 3.30
QUINCY—Ledger Office, 115 Hancock St.
Souther's Periodical Store, 1 Granite St.
Henry P. Kittredge, City Square.
J. P. O'Brien, 38 Hancock St.
C. F. Carlson, near Quincy depot.
S. A. Pierce, corner Hancock and School Sts.
QUINCY POINT—Miss Freeman's store.
A. B. Wrisley, Washington St.
SOUTH QUINCY—Peter Haverly, Water St.
F. J. Pierson, 96 Granite St.
O. D. Chick, 59 Liberty St.
WEST QUINCY—Coram's Periodical Store.
BREWER'S CORNER—Emma Lark.
WOLLASTON—Ross' news stand.
Loring's Pharmacy, Wollaston Park.
NORFOLK DOWNS—Branscheid & Marten.
ATLANTIC—Branscheid & Marten.
HOUGHS NECK—Arthur Dunham at P. O.
EAST MILTON—William Clark.
EAST WEYMOUTH—George H. Hunt.
WEYMOUTH—W. E. Cunningham.
News Agent, Weymouth Heights.
NORTH WEYMOUTH—B. F. Thomas.

THE TWO ISSUES.

Continued from page 1.

The next house is liable to be close and it may be decided by one vote.

The next speaker was Hon. Samuel J. Barrows, who was introduced as our candidate. He must have your zealous support. This caused Mr. Faxon to remark, "If he is honest."

In opening Congressman Barrows said it was somewhat of a trial to come here when he thought of the great representatives that Quincy had had in this nation—the Adams, Secretary Long and others.

Mr. Barrows said that Quincy was entitled to know of his stewardship, and he briefly outlined his votes in Congress. His first vote was for Mr. Reed as speaker and if sent back again he would again vote for him. There were now two important questions before us, the first was the sound money question, and the second was whether we shall stand by the President of the United States. He had been asked that evening if he favored an alliance with England and to this he could answer that he did not favor alliance with any country in the world. (Great applause). He was however in favor of a treaty, but wanted the United States to be free and not bound by any other nation. It was the duty of every one without reference to party to stand by President McKinley and he asked the people to stand by McKinley as Charles Francis Adams in England stood by Lincoln. Mr. Barrows spoke interestingly for forty minutes.

The last speaker was Col. Albert Clark, who confined himself to tariff figures and facts and the conditions of business, paying particular attention to George Fred Williams who had made false statements in his recent speech at Braintree. Williams had no business to claim that business was not better now than three years ago. It is true that prosperity has not revived as much as we hoped, because the war has interrupted, and there has been a great underproduction due to the Wilson tariff. He then showed how business has revived since McKinley had assumed office. In closing he urged his hearers to support Mr. Barrows for Congress.

Bicycles as Baggage.

The League of American Wheelmen of Massachusetts are interviewing candidates for the House and Senate to obtain their opinion of a proposed bill to provide for the transportation of bicycles of passengers as baggage; also of a law as to the width of tires on the wheels of vehicles. Section 1 of the bicycle act reads: That hereafter for the purpose herein specified, bicycles are declared to be baggage, and shall be checked and transported as baggage for passengers by all common carriers operating in this commonwealth, and shall be subject to the same charges and liabilities as other baggage; but no passenger shall be required to crate, cover or otherwise protect any such bicycle, and said common carriers shall be responsible for the same in like manner as all other baggage; provided, however, that no common carrier shall be required to transport under the provisions of this act more than one bicycle for a single passenger in addition to such other baggage as shall bring the whole within the lawful weight limit.

YOU WRONG YOURSELF

If you think you are makin the most of your opportunities and do not advertise liberally in the Quincy Daily Ledger, which reaches most of the families of Quincy, Wollaston, Atlantic, Norfolk Downs, Quincy Point, Quincy Neck, South and West Quincy. It also circulates in Weymouth, Braintree and Milton.

BRAINTREE.

Mr. George Ellsworth is in Connecticut on business.

Mr. Willis Butler has acccepted a call from Williamstown.

A new fire alarm box is to be put in near the Fore River Engine works. It will be number 123.

Superintendent Maybury is busy making repairs and improvements in the hydrant service.

The members of the Braintree Fire department are making preparations for their annual ball to be held on Thanksgiving eve.

The stores and places of business were closed during the hour of service yesterday, out of respect for the late Ibrahim Morrison.

Frank W. Jackson, chairman of the Democratic Town committee, is a happy man these days. He is a proud father of a little daughter.

The members of the Braintree band will hold a public rehearsal and promenade in the Town hall on Thursday evening next. A small admission will be charged to defray expenses.

The Braintree Y. P. C. Union was represented by twelve of its active members, at the seventh anniversary of the South Weymouth Union. A pleasant evening was spent. There was speaking, singing and refreshments. We trust our sister Union will enjoy many anniversaries, and not be so bashful about her age.

Class 27, of the First church held a most successful social in the chapel last evening. About one hundred and fifty people were present all of whom expressed much pleasure at the happy results of an evening of such sociability.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Torrey moved into their new house on Monday.

The large clock is being put in the tower of the new Union church.

Rev. C. L. Jackson of Dorchester will preach at the First church on the 6th of November and hold special meetings during the week following.

A petition is in circulation asking the New Haven road to make the fare on the Workingmen's train the same to Braintree as it is to Quincy Adams 15 rides for $1.00.

The East Norfolk Christian Endeavor Union gave "Aunt Dinah's Husking Bee, with all the fixins," even to the fiddler, in the First church chapel on Tuesday evening.

Naval Constructor, D. C. Nutting, of the United States Navy and Chief Engineer Edward Farmer have arrived at East Braintree and taken up their duites in the interests of Uncle Sam at the Fore River Engine Works.

Ladies' circle of the First church meet next Wednesday at the chapel. Gentlemen invited to supper at 6 o'clock. Entertaining committee: Miss White, Mrs. Newhall, Mrs. Hamblett, the Misses Gallagher and Misses Ellsworth.

After a vacation of two months the St. Francis' Sunday School, numbering about 120 children, again assembled. Rev. Fr. Purcell of Quincy is director. Mrs. T. Slavin, superintendent, ably aided by a large corps of zealous teachers.

Thy Yutema and Tjitsche De Boer were married Tuesday evening at George De Boer's by Rev. C. H. Williams.

The prizes at the Kenwood alleys this week were awarded to Robert Doherty on the candles with 286 pins; and Herbert Boutin on the bottles with 509 pins. The following men qualified on the candles, Porter, Stetson, Arnold, Boutin, Doherty, Kiley, Smith, Tenny, Thayer, Cullinan; and on the bottles were Stetson, H. A. Thayer, Porter, Battles, Boutin, Kiley, Smith. The following men rolled off Monday evening with the following score on the candles: Porter 244, Stetson 262, Arnold 264, Boutin 276, Doherty 286; and on the bottles were Stetson 444, H. A. Thayer 446, Porter 453, Battles 457, Boutin 509.

The Jonas Perkins School Association will tender a reception to the teachers in our public schools at the Jonas Perkins school hall on Wednesday evening, Nov. 16. The parents and friends of the pupils are cordially invited to be present and meet the teachers. It is hoped that all who are interested in our schools will take this opportunity to personally make the acquaintance of the teachers. As this is especially for the parents and friends, children under fifteen years of age are not expected to be present.

Mr. T. A. Watson has presented to the Sloyd Department of the Jonas Perkins school a lot of additional tools which will be of great assistance to that department.

Mr. Frank H. Palmer, editor of Education, at 50 Bromfield street, Boston, has recently moved to Middle street, Braintree. "Education" is one of the best educational magazines in the country, and is highly prized by all educators of today.

CHILDREN'S EYES.

Report of an Examination at Braintree.

Dr. Franklin P. Virgin makes the following report to the Braintree school committee:

At the request of your committee, I have lately made an examination of the eyes of the school children in the Jonas Perkins school. Before entering into any detailed account of that examination, or its results, may I be permitted very briefly, to call your attention to some of the defects of eye-sight which exist among school children, together with the symptons which result from them and the discomforts which they cause to those so afflicted.

In order that we may gain a better understanding of the eye which is defective in its function, let us consider for a moment, the normal or in other words the eye which performs all of its functions in a perfect manner.

The eye may be looked upon as an optical instrument, a sort of photographic camera designed to produce by means of its refracting system, a small and inverted picture of surrounding objects upon the retina or nervous membrane situated at the back part of the eye. This picture is conveyed through the optic nerve to the brain and it is here that the object seen comes within the domain of consciousness and the brain is enabled to interpret correctly the impression transmitted to it.

Our eye are never at rest during our waking hours; there is not a moment of the day when we are not acquiring visual impressions of some kind. Fortunately for our nervous system, the normal eye takes pictures of surrounding objects without any muscular effort when the object is more than twenty feet away; hence during the larger part of each day, the normal eye is practically at rest although performing its functions.

If the distance which represents the length of the eyeball, is just right the rays will come to a focus upon the retina, and there and nowhere else will be formed a clear picture of the object at which the eye is directed. Such an eye is said to be Emmetropic. The Emmetropic eye has a range of vision from infinito its near point. No glass improves distant vision and spectacles are not required for reading until the age of forty-five or fifty years has been reached.

Let us now consider the first and by far the most common defect of vision. It is commonly known as the far-sighted eye.

In this case the distance is too short. In other words the eyeball is too short and the rays of light instead of being focused upon the retina come to a focus behind it and a confused indistinct picture is the result. Such a condition is known as Hypermetropia. In the Hypemetropic eye, all objects have to be focused by muscular effort irrespective of their distance from the eye. Such an eye is never passive. It has no rest while the body is awake it is always straining more or less intensely to bring properly upon the retina the images of the objects seen.

It is a congential defect and will never be outgrown as many people think. A hypermetropoic child, from the days of babyhood suffers from a variety of symptoms which indicate the strain on the eye. Its eyes are likely to become easily suffused when it plays or looks steadily at near objects. As the child grows older it complains that after working or reading for some time, especially during the evening, the type becomes indistinct and the letters run together after resting a while the work can be resumed the eyes ache, feel weak and frequently severe headaches come on.

When the hypermetropia is of high degree, the child may be said by his friends to be near-sighted because when reading he holds the book close to his eyes. A child afflicted with Hypermetropia usually prefers and excels in out of door sports. He finds that steady and close application to books brings weariness and discomfort.

Hypermetropic subjects, when young often have remarkable acuteness of sight. They can often read all the test-types made for distance without an error. It is often very hard to convince a parent that a child needs glasses when that child sees distinctly things which they themselves cannot see at all. The idea that the vision of such a child can be defective seems very absurd to them and the use of glasses very unnecessary so long as the child can get along without them.

The second kind of defect in sight which merits attention is the opposite condition to Hypermetropia, the person so afflicted being commonly known as near-sighted.

In this case the antero-postinor diameter of the eyeball instead of being too short is now too long so that these rays of light instead of focusing upon the retina or behind it now comes to a focus in front. This defect is not always congenital. It is often acquired and when it becomes progressive constitutes one of the most dangerous conditions to which the eye can be subjected frequently resulting in total loss of sight

Such an eye is said to be Myocpic. Distant objects are more or less indistinct in proportion to the excessive length of the anter-postinor axis. No amount of musuclar effect can overcome or improve this defect except by compressing the eyeball slightly by squinting hence those individuals are helpless without proper glasses to see objects at a distance. It is generally safe to conclude that a child is near-sighted when it avoids out-of-door play in order to gratify a taste for reading or indoor amusements. This particular defect of vision is more frequently corrected by means of glasses than the others because it is more apparent to all. Finally there is a third defect in refraction known as stigmatism. In these cases the cornea or front of the eye is more curved in some meridians than in others hence the images of all objects seen are more or less distorted when they fall upon the retina. There is no comfort to such subjects in their visual efforts. They suffer from frequent headaches and presistent neuralgic attacks. I think it is safe to say that 90 per cent. of all the headaches are due directly or indirectly to Astigmatism. It is the bane of the school childs life and often renders the schoolroom a veritable chamber of torture.

The tests adopted were substantially as follows:—to each and every child was put the question,—"Do you have headaches?" In an astonishingly large number of cases, the answer to this question was in the affirmative.

The distant vision of each eye separately was then taken and the result recorded. This was accomplished by means of the metric distance card before which the child was seated at a distance of five metres. The card has ten lines of letters of varying size and the highest line read with each eye, marks the vision of that eye. For instance, if the child reads the bottom line only, the vision is said to be 1-10. If it reads the top line it is 10-10 or normal and so on. No child with normal eyes should fail to read the top line on this card and yet a glance at the records will show how many failed to do so.

Finally each child was subjected to the test of Retinoscopy or the shadow test in a dark room a test in which the person making each examination is not obliged to rely on the statement of the child as to how much he sees but can determine for himself the condition of sight.

The whole number of children examined was 206. This includes all the grades from the 9th, down to and including, the 3d. The ages range from 6 years to 15 and the results arrived at probably indicate the average condition of eyesight among the children of the different schools in the town.

Of this number (206) 48 or about 40 percent. were found to be more or less defective in sight—42 or about 20 per cent. have Hypermetropia—18 or a little more than 8 per cent. have Myopia and 24 or about 10 per cent. have Astigmatism.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

FRANKLIN P. VIRGIN M. D.

WEYMOUTH.

Miss Grace W. Joy, of East Weymouth, has opened a school of Elocution and Physical culture at Providence, R. I. Miss Joy delivered an address before the Providence Art Club at Providence on Thursday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter W. Newcomb returned to their home in Roxbury Wednesday.

Under the direction of Rev. T. H. Vincent, a Young Men's Lyceum was organized Monday evening at the Pilgrim church.

O. S. Chandler and family are occupying their new home on Hillside avenue.

The Willing Workers give a Hallowe'en party next Monday evening in Odd Fellows' hall.

The Young People's Christian Unio connected with the Second Universalist church, South Weymouth, observed anniversary night Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace H. Pratt have returned from a three weeks' visit at South Braintree.

The Social Circle of the M. E. church East Weymouth, meet next Wednesday afternoon. Supper at 6.30.

Rev. A. W. Kingsley, pastor of the M. E. church, East Weymouth, will speak on "Temperance," Sunday at 5.30 P. M. Mr. Mansfield, late president of the Waltham club will have charge of the meeting.

Miss Carrie Robinson is at home from a visit to Chelsea friends.

The W. R C. of East Weymouth meet in G. A. R. Hall Tuesday, Nov. 1, at 2.30.

Wompatuck Encampment, I. O. O. F., celebrated its anniversary last night with a banquet, entertainment and social gathering.

The Weymouth High football team play at Dedham today.

There is no danger of a water famine this year.

☞ Full sized white Iron Bedsteads, brass trimmed, $2.98. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

SUNDAY SERVICES.

21th SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

Church services are inserted in this paper without charge, but none will be accepted to run until further order. A notice should be sent each week even though it is but a renewal. Give subject and special services when possible. Let all churches be represented—Eds.]

UNITARIAN CHURCH—Rev. Ellery C. Butler pastor. Morning service at 10.30. Preaching by the pastor. Sunday school at 12 M. Teachers' meeting in chapel Thursday evening at 7.30 o'clock.

BETHANY CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH, junction Hancock and Chestnut streets—Rev. E. N. Hardy, pastor. Morning service at 10.30. Subject: "The heresy of Cain." Sunday School at 12 M. Junior C. E. at 3.30 P. M. Y. P. S. C. E. at 6.15 P. M. Evening service at 7.30 o'clock. Subject: "The fire that Wycliffe kindled." Weekly prayer meeting on Friday at 7.30 P. M.

CHRIST CHURCH Quincy, — Rev. Walter Russell Breed, rector. Morning Prayer and sermon at 10.30 o'clock. Sunday School at at 12 M. Evening prayer and address at 7 o'clock. Subject: "Influence of Jesus." This will be the last talk in the series "Aids to the formation of a manly character." Tuesday, Nov. 1,—All Saints' day. Sermon in the church at 10 A. M.

UNIVERSALIST CHURCH, Washington street—Rev. Edgar Watson Preble, pastor. Morning service at 10.45. Subject: "Should a minister tell the truth about the Bible?" Sunday School at 12 M. Y. P. C. U. rally at 7 P. M. Unions from the Weymouth and Hingham have been invited, and Revs. Ward, Atwood, Paddock, and Miss C. E. Small, Principal of Woodward academy will speak. Special music. All welcome.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, Water street—Rev. Robert Westly Peach, pastor. Morning service at 10.30. The sermon will be followed by the administration of infant baptism. Sunday School at 11.45 A. M. Y. P. S. C. E. at 6 P. M. Evening service at 7. Prayer meeting Thursday at 7.30 P. M. All cordially welcome.

CALVARY BAPTIST CHURCH, Franklin street.—Rev. David Kerr, pastor. Morning service at 10.30. Subject: "Great discoveries—come and test them." Bible School at 12 M. Young people's meeting at 6 P. M. Preaching service at 7 o'clock. Subject: "A typical Republican Governor—what he did for the people." Prayer meeting Friday evening at 7.30 o'clock. All welcome.

SWEDISH CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH, Garfield Street—Rev. C. A. Bjornbom, pastor. Morning services at 10.30A. M. Sunday School at 12 M. Young ladies' prayer meeting at 6.30 P. M. Preaching 7.30 P. M. The Scandinavians are invited.

WASHINGTON STREET CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH—Rev. Edward Anderson, pastor. Morning service at 10.45 o'clock. Subject: "The acme of religion." Sunday School at 12 M. Y. P. S. C. E. at 6.30 P. M. Evening service at 7.15. Subject: "In remembrance."

SWEDISH METHODIST CHURCH,—Fort street, Rev. H. Larson, pastor. Morning service at 10.30. Subject: "Lord, teach us to pray." Sunday School at 12. M. Evening service at 7.30. Subject: "Enemies to the cross."

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH, WEST QUINCY—Rev. C. W. Wilder, pastor. Morning service at 10.30 A. M. Preaching by pastor. Sunday School at 11.45 A. M. Junior Epworth League at 3 30 P. M. Prayer meeting of Epworth League at 6.15. Evening service at 7 o'clock. Preaching in English and Welsh by Rev. R. G. Williams, Welsh evangelist. Singing in Welsh and English. Prayer meeting Friday at 7. P. M.

WOLLASTON M. E. CHURCH—Rev. J. E. Waterhouse, pastor. Morning service at 10.45 Sermon by pastor. Sunday School and Bible class at 12 M. Epworth League at 6 P. M. A song service at 7 P. M. The pastor will preach. All welcome.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH, WOLLASTON—Morning service, 10.45. Preaching by Rev. Edward Norton. Subject: "Untroubled faith." Sabbath School at 12.15 P. M. Y. P. S. C. E. at 6.45 P. M. Evening service at 7.30. Subject: "The Homeland or Heaven." Prayer meeting Friday evening at 7.45.

WOLLASTON UNITARIAN CHURCH—Rev. J. E. Bagley, pastor. Service at 10.45 A. M. The pastor will preach. Subject: "What went ye out for to see?" Sunday School at 12 M. Come and join Mr. Page's Bible class. All young men and women are invited to join the pastor's class recently organized for religious study.

PARK AND DOWNS UNION CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH, Rawson Road—Rev. F. T. Knight, pastor. Morning service at 10.45. Subject: "The autumn leaf." Sunday School at 12 M. Evening service at 7.30. The pastor will conclude his consideration of the results of the war between Spain and the United States. Subject: "The world wide mission."

MEMORIAL CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH, Atlantic—Rev. J. H. Whitaker, pastor. Residence, 21 Billings street. Morning service at 10.45. Subject: "A birdseye view of the gospel of St. John." Sabbath School at 12 M. Evening service at 7 o'clock. Friday evening prayer service at 7.30 o'clock. You are cordially invited.

SPIRITUALIST MEETING—Mrs. M. A. Bonney, of Weymouth, medium, will preach at Faxon Hall at 7 P. M. Circles Tuesday at 2.30 and 7.30 P. M., at the house of Henry Chubbuck off Elm place.

TODAY'S COURT.

Edward Fraser, aged 15 years, was arraigned for assault with a dangerous weapon on Newton McKeen at Braintree. Case continued until next Thursday.

The cases against Henry C. Rich and Michael Milan for non-support were called and discharged.

N. Everett Buck of Randolph was arraigned for assault on Sarah E. Law. He was found not guilty and discharged.

The continued case of John T. Hunt of Quincy for burying human body without a permit from the Board of Health was called. It was stated that in this case the birth was a premature one and the defendant had the impression that he had a right to do as he did. Upon the recommendation of the Board of Health, in view of the facts, the case was placed on file.

GO TO....

Miss B. J. PATTERSON'S
Millinery Parlors
AT THE
Boston Bargain Store,
FOR YOUR
FALL MILLINERY

A fine assortment of Trimmed Goods. Also all the latest and best shapes in untrimmed hats, walking hats and sailors.

New Velvets, Ribbons, Fancy Feathers and Ostrich goods.

Lowest possible prices for first-class goods.

Music Hall Building, Quincy.

Oct. 1. tfpl

MISS C. L. BLISS
186 HANCOCK STREET,
Trimmed and Untrimmed
Hats and Novelties.

Order Work a Specialty.
STAMPING, PINKING, HAIR DRESSING, Manicuring and Glove Cleaning.

Quincy, Oct. 22. tf plo

PROTECT YOUR TREES.
Now is The Time To Begin

The use of Geo. H. Morrill & Co.'s Tree Ink if you wish to protect your trees. The canker millers will commence crawling up the trunks of trees as soon as the ground commences to freeze.

For sale cheap in any quantity desired at the Patriot Office.

Quincy, Oct. 29. tf

POTATOES,
15c. Pk.

Sweet Potatoes,
15c. Pk.

White Seal Flour,
4.75 Bbl. Cash.

We guarantee this Flour to be old wheat and one of the best Bread Flours in the market.

L. M. PRATT & CO.,
25 School Street.

MARY WENT.

LAST Week Mary and everybody else were invited to call at the Quincy Second Hand Variety Store. They went and Mary tells us that she was delighted with what she found. She bought an excellent stove for half its value, a chamber set for a remarkably low figure, and small ware in abundance for almost nothing. In fact, she was so well pleased, she sent her husband, who bought all the tools he could carry off for a few dollars.

WALTER P. PINEL

is the Manager, and the store is right over here at number 20 Franklin street.

aug25 1y

Far Seeing People . .

Are the most successful. They advertise in the Quincy Daily Ledger, the only daily in Norfolk County; and the Quincy Patriot, the only weekly in the city.

B. J. PATTERSON'S
Millinery Parlors
AT THE ton Bargain Store,
FOR YOUR
L MILLINERY,

sortment of Trimmed Goods. Also, t and best shapes in untrimmed hats, ts and sailors.
lvets, Ribbons, Fancy Feathers and ods. possible prices for first-class goods.
ic Hall Building, Quincy.
tfpl

S C. L. BLISS
86 HANCOCK STREET,
mmed and Untrimmed and Novelties.

rder Work a Specialty.
G, PINKING, HAIR DRESSING,
uring and Glove Cleaning.
Oct. 22. tf plo

ECT YOUR TREES.
w is e Time Begin

The use of Geo. H. Morrill & Co.'s Tree Ink if you wish to protect your trees. The canker millers will commence crawling up the trunks of trees as soon as the ground commences to freeze.

For sale cheap in any quantity desired at the Patriot Office.
Oct. 29. tf

OTATOES,
15c. Pk.

et Potatoes,
15c. Pk.

e Seal Flour,
.75 Bbl. Cash.
ntee this Flour to be old wheat and est Bread Flours in the market.

PRATT & CO.,
School Street.

RY WENT.

ST Week Mary and everybody else were invited to call at the Quincy d Hand Variety Store. They went, Mary tells us that she was delighted what she found. She bought an ex- t stove for half its value, a chamber r a remarkably low figure, and small in abundance for almost nothing. t, she was so well pleased, she sent sband, who bought all the tools he carry off for a few dollars.

ER P. PINEL
Manager, and the store is right ere at number 20 Franklin street.
aug25 1y

Seeing le . .

the most successful. They rtise in the Quincy Daily ger, the only daily in Norfolk nty; and the Quincy Patriot, only weekly in the city.

QUINCY DAILY LEDGER.

VOL. 10. No. 254. QUINCY, MASS., MONDAY, OCTOBER 31, 1898. PRICE 2 CENTS.

GOLD DUST
THE BEST
WASHING POWDER

100 Dozen
Ladies' Fleece Lined Vests,
CHEAP AT 25c.
SATURDAY and MONDAY,
2 for 25c.

D. E. WADSWORTH & CO.,
Hancock Street, Quincy.

ONE-TON ORDERS

Have been the making of this Coal business. Hundreds have ordered "just one ton to see if there was any difference." They found there was and they came again. Our one-ton orders have been our best advertisements. It's a better Coal at the same price, with the proof in a sample ton. When in doubt, try Patch's.

C. PATCH & SON.

WATCHES.

GENT'S WATCHES, $1.50 and Up.
LADIES' WATCHES, $2.50 and Up.
EVERY WATCH WARRANTED.
$2.00 Belts, $1.00 Each.
75c. Brooch Pins, 25c. Each.
25 and 35c. Stick Pins, 5 and 10c. Ea.
Quincy SOUVENIR TILES Half Price,
And Other Bargains.

A. A. LINSCOTT, Jeweler,
154 Hancock St., opp. Post Office, Quincy.
Agent for Graphophones.
aug 6. tf

GEO. AMES,
the ONLY PRACTICAL PLUMBER in the Hardware business in the City. He has a patent SEWER TRAP which cannot be beat. Impossible for deadly sewer gas to enter your homes. See him about your Sewer Connection. He has had three years' experience in Boston and other large cities. Established here in 1889 and still in it. Work done anywhere.
Hardware, Paints and Oils, Putty and Glass, Yacht Supplies, Steam and Gas Fittings. Steam and Hot Air Heaters put in repair for the winter.
ADAMS BUILDING

TELEGRAPHIC.
3 O'CLOCK.

PHILIPPINES QJESTION

Probable That It May Cause a Break In the Peace Negotiations.

Spaniards Unwilling to Give Up the Entire Group.

Wearisome Contentions Which May Result In Spanish Commissioners' Resignation.

Paris, Oct. 31.—Senor Monto Rios, president of the Spanish peace commission, is ill. This causes some doubt as to whether there will be a joint session of the commissions today. If he is unable to attend it is unlikely that the Spaniards would consent to enter the conference to take up the Philippine question for initial consideration.

There is a strong impression, which has been growing here recently, that the Spaniards, upon receiving definite assurances of the American determination to take the entire Philippine group, would quit the conference, and all negotiations are modified by the attitude of the Spanish newspapers arriving here. These are found to have wheeled into line with The Epocha of Oct. 27, which demanded that the Spanish commissioners should sign a treaty in Paris no matter how onerous the conditions imposed by the Americans.

Nevertheless, despite this attitude of the Madrid press, and despite the denial given on Friday last by a Spanish commissioner who denied that the Spaniards had any intention of withdrawing, the Americans here will not be surprised if one or more of the Spanish commissioners resign and practically close the negotiations. This feeling is based upon the fact that Senor Rios, early last week, would have resigned if his so doing would not have imperilled the Sagasta ministry, and the reasoning is that if, while pressing the Cuban debt, which is not mentioned in the protocol, and which the Spanish commissioners insist should not be left to Spain alone, Senor Rios were inclined to resign, he might, in the open field of contention as to the Philippines, feel that resignation would help Senor Sagasta on the ground that the demand of the United States for the entire Philippine group would be extortionate.

It is believed here, on the eve of taking up the main question, that the Spanish commissioners are not likely to acquiesce here in any treaty that the Americans would sign.

In the Philippine discussion two wearisome contentions are likely to be early raised by the Spanish. The first is on the protocol phrase "control, disposition and government" of the archipelago, the Spaniards doubtless holding that the word "disposition" does not involve possession, though they know that "possession" was originally written in the protocol and changed to "disposition" on Mr. Cambon's insistence in behalf of Spanish sensibilities.

Collateral to this is a second contention, possibly to be merged with the first, when the protocol was signed, there was an exterior moral agreement between Mr. Cambon and Judge Day, that neither the protocol nor its terms should, in the treaty negotiations, involve Spanish sovereignty in the Philippine archipelago.

On this point Judge Day, through the Associated Press, has already pointedly denied the existence of an actual, constructive or implied knowledge outside of the protocol, either verbally or in correspondence, and this denial is supported by the French yellow book.

Mr. Cambon, however, has given the matter some significance by omitting to deny the report, although the alleged existence of a secret understanding exterior to the protocol was first printed in the Paris papers and reiterated directly and by inference.

The joint session, if one be held today, will be at 2 p. m. The American case is ready for presentation.

Troops For Cuba.

Washington, Oct. 31.—No definite determination has been reached as to the date when the troops now at Savannah will be sent to Cuba. A prominent administration official says that the departure of General Lee's troops will be dependent, to a certain extent, upon the movements of the Spanish forces in evacuating the island. The American troops, he says, may sail this week, and they may not sail for a month. It is the intention of the administration, however, to land General Lee's troops in Cuba before Jan. 1. That date has been fixed definitely as the time for the final evacuation of the island by the Spaniards. An effort was made by the Spanish authorities to obtain an extension of the time of evacuation until Feb. 1, but the proposition was declined by the American commissioners.

Arrangements for the landing and camping of the American forces have practically been completed, although some of the details have not been worked out yet.

Ready For the President.

New York, Oct. 31.—Dr. Stimson says that Colonel Waring's report on his investigations in Havana and his suggestions as to sanitary improvements in that city for President McKinley was practically completed before his death, and that the president can obtain all the information that Colonel Waring had gathered essentially from the report at it stands. Colonel Waring had three copies of his report made. They will be forwarded to Washington at an early date, but will first be thoroughly disinfected.

GOVERNMENT SEES A BARGAIN.

Boston, Oct. 31.—The work of the hospital ship Bay State ended with her return here Friday with sick soldiers belonging to the Sixth Massachusetts regiment, so far as the Volunteer Aid association is concerned. The few Massachusetts men remaining in Cuba and Porto Rico would not warrant another trip to the West Indies under the auspices of the association. This does not mean, however, that the Bay State will not continue her good work. The government will take the ship, and an officer of the war department has been detailed to inspect her. The steamer has made a creditable record while in the service of the aid association, and when it was found that she was to go out of commission, the war department immediately opened negotiations for her purchase.

What Porto Ricans Want.

San Juan, Oct. 31.—The principal theater of the city was taxed to its utmost capacity yesterday on the occasion of a public meeting of delegates from the chief towns of the island to consider and draft resolutions regarding the necessaries of the island for the use of the special commissions who will be selected later to represent Porto Rico at Washington when the times come for settling the administrative system. The assembly was fairly representative. Carefully prepared reports were submitted by the political, social and economical committees.

The meeting received with enthusiasm the resolutions demanding territorial rights, the cessation of the present military rule and the installation of regular civil government. Other resolutions were adopted asking an eight-hour day for the laboring man and severely denouncing the present corrupt system of registering deeds of land. It was obvious that the delegates proceeded upon the assumption that the United States would grant Porto Rico territorial rights.

The latest advices from Santa Cruz del Sur, the meeting place of the Cuban assembly, do not report the arrival there of General Gomez, but there are persistent rumors that the friends of Gomez, who are delegates to the assembly, will endeavor to embarrass General Garcia and his supporters.

Lieutenant Young has formally claimed, on behalf of the United States navy, the wrecks of the Spanish gunboats that went ashore or were sunk by the United States gunboats in the engagement off Manzanillo on July 1.

After a final conference with Colonel Pettit regarding the management of the district, General Wood left for Santiago yesterday on board the Hist.

On Wednesday he will proceed to Guantanamo from which point, after first returning to Santiago again, he will leave for the north coast of the province, to be gone probably a week or 10 days.

No New Developments.

Washington, Oct. 31.—An informal session of the cabinet was held last night at the White House. The president embraced the opportunity afforded by the presence of several members of the cabinet to discuss with them their forthcoming annual reports. The peace negotiations at Paris were referred to, but were not seriously considered, it is understood. This statement is borne out by the fact that Secretary of State Hay was not a party to the conference. It is said authoritatively that no new developments in the Paris situation have arisen during the past 36 hours. The president is said to believe that the negotiations will be brought to a satisfactory conclusion sooner, perhaps, than is generally expected.

In Kentucky Next.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 31.—The war investigating commission is expected to arrive in Lexington from Chickamauga today. The program of the committee is not definitely known here. It is thought, however, that it will not remain here more than one day, leaving for Cincinnati probably tonight.

Off For the South.

Boston, Oct. 31.—The transport Mississippi, with four batteries of the First Maine heavy artillery, sailed yesterday morning for New York, en route for Savannah and probably Havana. The batteries arrived from Augusta late Saturday afternoon and went immediately on board the transport, but owing to the thick weather it was decided to wait until morning before proceeding to sea. The big transport was warped out of her dock shortly after sunrise and without any ceremony proceeded quietly down the harbor and out into the bay. The weather at the time was rainy and thick.

Veteran's Sudden Death.

Boston, Oct. 31.—A man supposed to be John Blake of Augusta, Me., a veteran of company C, Twenty-eighth Massachusetts volunteers, deid suddenly yesterday of hemorrhage while walking on Washington street. Papers found in his pocket showed him to be in receipt of a pension, but there was nothing in them to indicate the whereabout or existence of relatives or friends.

Royal makes the food pure, wholesome and delicious

LAND VALUES

A Transcript From the Books of the Assessors.

Number of Feet in Each Lot and Valuation Thereof.

Also the Amount of Each Person's Tax Bill for 1898.

[Continued from Saturday.]

Something new in the publication of the taxpayers of the city is attempted this year by the Daily Ledger. There is considerable interest in the assessed value of land in the city, which is claimed to be high in some cases and low in others. So the Ledger has supplemented the amount of the tax bill in each ward with the value of each lot of land for which the person is taxed, giving in each case the number of square feet or acreage.

The amount given in the line with the person's name is his total ward tax, and may include houses, personal property, etc., in addition to the lots of land below. The Ledger gives only the valuation of the land.

To obtain a person's total tax in the city, add together the amounts paid in the several wards.

The Ledger commenced the publication Aug. 30, and has already published the land values of all persons whose names begin with A to P, and today's instalment gives the Qs:

WARD ONE.

	Valuation of Land Only.	Total Ward Tax.
Queenan, John J.		$14 40
4,400 feet, Scotch pond place, $200.
Quincy Beef Co.		144 00
7,200, Dimmock, $2,000.
Quincy City of		6 30
2,625, Houghs Neck, $150.
3,500, " " $200.
Q. & B. St. R. R. Co.		657 20
12,598, Washington, $10,000.
4,676, rear Washington, $4,000.
8,410, Great Hill, $800.
Quincy Real Est. Trust,		2,784 60
34,890, Granite, $5,500.
34,630, Hancock, (Music Hall and Kincaide Buildings,) $24,000.
21,180, Hancock and Granite, $21,000,
Quincy Mut. Fire Insurance Co.		105 30
2,800, Washington, $2,200.
1,690, Coddington, $850.
144, " $100.
Quincy City Hospital,		315 00
9,756, Washington, $5,500,
10,210, Spear, $3,000.
9,600, Coddington, $3,000.
Quincy Savings Bank		990 00
8,400, Hancock, $10,000.
Quincy Yacht Club,		34 20
1-4 acre, Sea, $400.

WARD TWO.

Quincy Mut. Fire Insurance Co.	$34 20
7,751, Silver, $3,000.
Q. & B. St. R. R.	1,332 00
114,800, Wharf, $22,000.
Quincy Savings Bank	59 40
5 3-4 acres, South, $1,800.
Quincy Savings Bank	23 40
14,400, Howard, $400.
Quincy Shoe Co.	54 00

WARD THREE.

Qualey James R.	$35 10
8,000, Brook road, $500.
Quincy Savings Bank	72 00
17,350, Franklin, $2,000.
Quincy Electric Light & Power Co.	941 40
12,000, Quincy ave., $1,200.
About 1-4 acre, " " $1,000.

WARD FOUR.

Quincy, City of	$180 90
5,210, Crescent, $1,050.
16,220, Copeland, $2,500.
Quincy Mut. Fire Insurance Co.	57 60
1-2 acre, Bryant ave., $800.
Quincy Quarry Co.	512 10
175 acres near Blue Hill Reservation, $17,500.
54.07 acres off Willard, $5,000.
22,960, " " " $450.
4 acres, quarry land, $300.
6 " Wood " $1,000.
Quinn, Elizabeth	7 20
10,691, Grove, $300.

WARD FIVE.

Quincy, City of	$39 60
5,000, Freeman, $300.
Quincy, Josiah P.	113 85
77,050, Quincy place, $3,500.
29,820, Hancock, $2,500.
8,110, Stanton, $325.
Quincy Mut. Fire Insurance Co.	97 20
5,000, Newport ave., $500.
5,000, " " $500.
Quincy Savings Bank	81 90
9,030, Lincoln ave., $900.

WARD SIX.

Quincy, City of	$26 55
9,572, Appleton, $475.
10,384, " $500.
10,790, " $500.
Quincy, Josiah, trs.,	$33 30
4,687, Billings road, $475.
4,800, Holmes, $400.
4,360, " $350.
4,638, " $350.
3,600, " $275.
Quale, John M.	32 60
4,080, Broadway, $200,

To be continued.

☞ Four foot Oak Roll Top Desks, $18.00. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

Gentlemen, Buy Your....
OVERCOATS
Where you can find the best assortment in the city and the lowest prices, which is at
C. F. DERBY'S, SAVINGS BANK BUILDING, QUINCY. 5-1m

GO TO....
Miss B. J. PATTERSON'S
Millinery Parlors
AT THE
Boston Bargain Store,
FOR YOUR
FALL MILLINERY.

A fine assortment of Trimmed Goods. Also, all the latest and best shapes in untrimmed hats, walking hats and sailors.
New Velvets, Ribbons, Fancy Feathers and Ostrich goods.
Lowest possible prices for first-class goods.
Music Hall Building, Quincy.
Oct. 1. tfpl

TELL US . .
What you are looking for.
We can show you a fine line of
FALL AND WINTER
UNDERWEAR,
HOSIERY,
Outing Flannels, Flannelettes,
Plaid Dress Goods,
WRAPPERS, BLANKETS,
Comforters,
Dress Linings and other Dry Goods.
OUR STOCK IS FRESH.
OUR PRICES THE LOWEST.
MISS C. S. HUBBARD,
158 Hancock Street.

WILLIAM E. BAXTER, M. D.
Practice Limited to the
EYE AND EAR.
553 Boylston St., Boston.
QUINCY—Monday and Friday.
Hours, 9 to 11. 195 Hancock Street
May 21. 1y

DR. HERBERT S. HAYFORD
195 Hancock Street.
OFFICE HOURS—11 to 12 A. M., 2 to 4 and 7 to 8 P. M.
Telephone, 4-3.
Quincy, July 5. tf

E. S. BECKFORD,
Electrician.
Wiring and Fitting for Incandescent, Motors, Dynamos, Bells, etc.
GRANITE STREET, Near the Bridge, QUINCY
Feb. 1 1y

THE FALL SEASON
IS HERE
For the Purchase of
Fruit and Ornamental Trees,
Shrubs and Vines.

Buy now that your plants may get a good start by spring.
Remember that I carry all the desirable novelties, as well as the old standard varieties of nursery stock.
I call special attention to my Flowering Shrubs, Perpetual Roses, Clematis, an Rhododendrons.
Buy at home and save agents' commissions. None but strictly first-class stock, well acclimated, furnished. Call and examine.
Orders by mail receive prompt attention.
Wollaston Park Nursery,
Fenno St., Wollaston.
MARTIN PFAFFMANN, Prop.
P. O. Box 44, Wollaston. Residence, 2 Clay St.
Oct. 14—1m p-3w

LEHIGH COAL.
When we Sell You Lehigh we Deliver what we Sell. . . . .
C. PATCH & SON.

MISS C. L. BLISS
186 HANCOCK STREET,
Trimmed and Untrimmed
Hats and Novelties.
Order Work a Specialty.
STAMPING, PINKING, HAIR DRESSING,
Manicuring and Glove Cleaning.
Quincy, Oct. 22. tf plo

The John Hancock Stables.
Opposite Depot, Quincy, Mass.
Boarding, Baiting, Livery and Sale.
DR. J. A. DOW, Proprietor,
the well known Veterinary dentist and specialist in the treatment of lame horses. Sick horses treated at owner's risk.
The finest equipped and managed stable of its size in America.
Fine driving turnouts in light rigs; safe and good appearing. All horses let are perfectly safe for ladies to drive.
The choicest family, road and coach horses constantly on hand for sale. All horses guaranteed as represented.
☞ Will attend to veterinary practice as usual. aug18-1y

The best fitting and finest wearing Boys' Shoes ever produced for the price. Try a pair and be convinced.
11 to 2 at $1.25.
2 1-2 to 5 1-2 at $1.50.
GEO. W. JONES,
Adams Building, Quincy.

C. A BELCHER, - - Auctioneer

AUCTION SALE
— OF —
Horses, Wagons, Harnesses, Carriages, Milk Cans and Bottles, AND A MILK BUSINESS,
WEDNESDAY, NOV. 2d, at 1 P. M., at the residence of
GEO. A. FREEMAN, near "Downey's turn-out,"
Washington St., South Braintree.

Electric cars from Quincy and Brockton pass the door.

The stock and good will of G. A. Freeman, consisting of two horses, one a very good roader; one milk wagon, one democrat wagon, one carry-all in good condition, one sled, thirteen 40-qt. cans, sixteen 8-qt. cans, six measures, two dozen bottles with boxes, lot of harness, stable tools, plough, cord of manure, half ton of hay. Stock will be sold in lots to suit purchaser. There are two milk routes, one in Brockton and one in Quincy. Terms cash.

HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE.

Also, at same place, a lot of Household Furniture, consisting of Chairs, Table, Chamber Set, Crockery, Glass Ware, Garden Tools; also a Lawn Mower and many other articles. Sale positive, as goods are all under cover.

C. A. BELCHER, Auctioneer.
Oct. 29—1w 31-1t

By FRANK F. CRANE, - Auctioneer.
Office, 4 Chestnut street, Quincy.

AUCTION SALE
— OF —
Horses, Carriages,
AND THE ENTIRE
Harness and Saddlery Stock
— OF —
GEO. J. JONES, Harness Maker,
NO. 53 HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY,
Tuesday, Nov. 1, '98,
At 10 o'clock A. M.

The Harness Stock consists of new and second hand Driving and Express Harnesses, Riding Saddles, Horse Blankets, Robes, Whips, fine set of Double Harness, one elegant Single Harness, Brushes, Halters, Collar and Saddle Pads, one new Tip Cart Harness, large variety of Bitsl Snaps, Brushes, Cards, Whip Sockets, and a ful, set of Harness Maker's Tools. Also a general assortment of small wares appurtaining to the trade.

TEN HORSES,

comprising trotters, pacers, driving, business and team horses; description at sale.

J. T. Smith Goddard Buggy, Rubber Tires, Cost $400, will be sold without any reserve, owner going abroad; Canopy Top Beach Wagon, 2 Open Beach Wagons, 1 Depot Wagon, 1 New Express Wagon, 1 Second Hand Express Wagon, 1 Road Sulky, 2 Goddard Buggies, 1 two-wheel Cart, 3 Poles, 1 Extra Nice Butter Wagon, cost $265, 1 Democrat Wagon, and several other carriages.

Sale positive, rain or shine. Terms cash.

Electric cars from Boston, Brockton and the Weymouths pass the shop.

5t 22 25 27 29 31 29plw

SALE OF FINE MILLINERY!
We Have a Choice Collection.
Rare and Beautiful Designs
Are Here for Your Choosing.
SILK VELVET HATS and TOQUES in new and desirable shapes, trimmed in a thoroughly artistic manner.

Our special leader, Black Velvet Toque trimmed with wings and ornaments for $2.98. Price elsewhere $5.00 to $6.00.

In Trimmed Walking Hats our assortment is complete.

E. B. COLLINS,
4 Faxon Block.
Quincy, Oct. 31. 6t

POTATOES,
15c. Pk.
Sweet Potatoes,
15c. Pk.
White Seal Flour,
4.75 Bbl. Cash.

We guarantee this Flour to be old wheat and one of the best Bread Flours in the market.

L. M. PRATT & CO.,
25 School Street.

COPARTNERSHIP NOTICE.

NOTICE is hereby given that Lawrence Butler has this day withdrawn from the granite polishing firm of A. M. I. McLeod & Co., carrying on business on Dane St., Quincy.

A. M. I. McLEOD,
LAWRENCE BUTLER.
Quincy, Oct. 27, 1898. 28-3t

Quincy Daily Ledger

ESTABLISHED IN 1889.

The ONLY DAILY in Norfolk County Massachusetts.

Published Every Evening, Sundays and Holidays Excepted, At No. 115 HANCOCK ST., City of Quincy, Mass., by

GEORGE W. PRESCOTT & SON.

Successors to Green & Prescott.

Subscription Price, $6.00 per year.

☞ A discount of $1 when paid in advance.

ALSO PUBLISHERS OF

The Quincy Patriot,

A Weekly Established in 1837, which has the Largest Circulation in Norfolk County, and

The Braintree Observer,

A Weekly Established in 1878.

TELEPHONE, 78-3 QUINCY.

Quincy Temperature at Noon.

	This Week.	Last Week.	In 1897.	In 1896.
Sunday	48	59	44	75
Monday	53	60	53	70
Tuesday	—	68	60	56
Wednesday	—	69	54	62
Thursday	—	60	57	51
Friday	—	51	57	55
Saturday	—	45	56	59

New Advertisements Today.

E. B. Collins—Millinery.
Furniture and carpet salesman wanted.
Henry L. Kincaide & Co.—5 and 10c. store.
Canary birds for sale.

Fifty Years a Harness Maker.

With the auction of the stock and fixtures of the harness shop of George J. Jones, tomorrow one of the oldest business houses of Quincy will go out of existence. For years the harness shop of Dr. Jones, as he is familiarly called, has been known to the horse men all over the State, for during his younger years none were more active in buying and selling horse flesh than he.

Dr. Jones was born in Portsmouth, N. H., in February 1817 where he obtained his early education. At the age of 16 years, at the solicitation of his brother Joshusa, who carried on the harness and livery business in Quncy, he came here and went to work for his brother. He worked for his brother and C. Phillip Tirrell for several years, during which time he acquired a good knowledge of the harness making trade.

When about 25 years of age he went to Randolph, and worked for Mr. Howard at the old Howard House. It was while here that he met the young lady who afterwards became Mrs. Jones. After remaining in Randolph two or three years he again came to Quincy, and went to work in his brother's stable. He then bought out the old Quincy express company, and for two years he ran an express between Quincy and Boston.

It was about 1848 or fifty years ago that he bought the property where he is now located and opened a harness spot, which he has carried on ever since. At that time there was a livery stable on the premises, which he let to John Hall, who carried it on until fire destroyed the building. Later he built a small stable and did quite a little business in trading horses. He also, occasionally, let teams.

All this time his business as a harness maker had not been nelgected, and while trading horses and doctoring horses he still manufactured harnesses. Although well advanced in years Mr. Jones has never fully given up business, but has always done more or less in the way of building harnesses and doctoring horses.

He now, however, thinks that he has done his share, and although he is to sell out his stock he intends to keep his shop open so as to have a place where he can receive his friends and talk over old times. No more pleasant hour can be passed than in Dr. Jones shop, and hear him account some of the many horse trades he has engineered during his eventful career.

He was married something over fifty years ago and the result of that union has been seven children, of whom all but one has passed away. His son George W. Jones is proprietor of the leading shoe in City Square. Dr. Jones health is remarkably good for one of his age. He has never troubled himself to seek public office, although he has been a life-long Democratic.

☞ Parlor Stoves, the tried a nd worthy sort 30 patterns to choose from. $2.98 to $25.00 Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

FOR SALE.
YOUNG CANARY BIRDS
Fine Singers.

Also, FEMALE CANARIES.

Male Birds, 2.00 each.
Female Birds, 1.00 each.

MRS. BRYNE,

NASH'S HOTEL, 148 Hancock St., Quincy.
Oct. 31. 6t

No Pain Whatever

in having Teeth Extracted by using the new combination taken through Dr. Hidden's Patent Inhaler. Perfectly safe. No sick feeling after extraction. I am the only Dentist using the Inhaler in the city. No extra charge in calling at house of Patients.

C. B. UNDERWOOD, Dentist,
9 Spear St. Rear of Public Library.

BARN DESTROYED.

A Sunday Morning Incendiary Fire at Montclair.

The alarm from Box 63 at 1.25 Sunday morning was pulled in by Officer Holloran for a fire in a stable on Squantum street owned by Jeremiah Donovan. Box 63 from which the alarm was sounded is located near the Atlantic railroad station and it was while near this box that the officer discovered the fire. Instead of running to Box 61, that nearest the fire, he pulled the box near at hand as this number would give the firemen the general direction of the fire and save considerable valuable time.

The stable is joined to a house by an L and is situated on the north side of Squantum street near Farrington street. Both are unoccupied and when discovered had gained considerable headway, so much so that it could not be saved, and it was only by hard work that the department were enabled to save the house from destruction. As it was the L of the house where it joined the stable was badly gutted. Of the stable itself there was little left except some partly burned frame work. The loss is estimated at $1,500. The cause of the fire is a mystery, but was evidently due to an incendiary.

Surprise at Atlantic.

The many friends of Miss Nellie Mitchell tendered her a surprise party at her home on Billings street, Saturday evening. She was presented with a beautiful ring containing two emeralds and a moonstone. They spent the evening in playing games of various sorts. About eleven o'clock, a collation was served. The happy party then resumed their games. Although it was a very wet night, yet everybody enjoyed a delightful time. There were present friends from Roxbury, Boston, Charlestown and Atlantic. Among those in attendance were Miss Pearl Jones, Miss Carrie Saunders, Miss Hattie Chisholm, Miss Alice Rigby, Miss Winnie Seaman, Miss Sadie Cassidy, Miss Nellie Cassidy, Miss Eva Bennett, Miss Fannie Mitchell, Miss Annie Calhoun, Miss Julia Westman, Miss Bella Brown, Miss Annie Brown, Miss Della Martin, Miss Mary Dalton, Miss Lillian McDonald, Miss Florence Priest, Miss Katherine Priest, Clarence Seaman, Edgar Brown, Henry Mitchell, Walter Smith, Frank Tupper, Ernest Burch, Steven Burch, Arthur Smith, Frank Smith, Washington G. Woodward, Leroy Westman, Robert Wood, George Wood, Frank Lord, Albert McCurdy, V. G. Sears, Arthur Slader, Walter Slader, Henry Davenport, and many others.

Quincy Exhibits.

Among the notable exhibits at the Mechanics' Fair is the one by the Whitlock Machine Co. of Derby, Ct., of which Councilman Jameson of Wollaston is the Boston Manager. They exhibit one of their new crank movement two revolution printing presses with four rollers, also a Pony press which will do the finest printing, plain or in colors at the rate of 3000 impressions an hour. They also exhibit a power paper cutter.

Mr. Seymour Field, Wollaston's well known inventor, has an exhibit of a power eyelit setter for shoes. It is doing practical work in the "Sorosis" exhibit and attracts crowds of spectators.

Commodore Burgess of the Wollaston Yacht club, who in the business world is known as the "Boston Gear Works" has a large exhibit in the basement. He shows a number of styles of the various gears known to mechanics.

Soldiers Restless.

The Herald prints a dispatch from Attleboro which says: Herbert A. Clark, formerly quartermaster of the 5th regiment, returned Saturday from Camp Meade, where he went to make a personal investigation, for the benefit of Attleboro people, of the camp conditions, and to ascertain the causes of the large number of desertions from Company I. Capt. Clark says the camp of the regiment is perfect, and that there is no real reason for the men to desert, except their restlessness. He interviewed a large number of soldiers and found them all chafing because of inactivity. About every man, said he, I conversed with, wants to get out of the service and get home, where he can make more money and be at home. They are all dissatisfied.

Anniversary.

Mrs. William Field, one of the oldest ladies of our city celebrated her 87th birthday on Thursday, Oct. 27th. Her children, grandchildren and many others friends called upon her and left tokens of remembrance and good wishes; hoping to meet with her again on another birthday.

Mrs. Field seemed in good health, and is remarkably active and enjoyed her friends very much.

She has been a constant subscriber for the Patriot since its first issue in 1837, and enjoys its weekly visits.

☞ Cut down your coal bills, by using a a Glenwood Range. $18.00 to $33.00. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

TO LOSE NO TIME.

The Parkway Committee Held an Enthusiastic Meeting.

The committee appointed by Mayor Sears to see what can be done toward securing rights and options for the parkway met at City Hall Saturday evening. Every member except Mr. Titus, who was ill, was present, and manifested considerable enthusiasm over the matter. What is supposed to be the route proposed for the boulevard was gone over and an estimate made of the valuation of the property to be taken. As the exact amount of the takings was not known, nothing definite could be determined. It was then decided that Mayor Sears, City Solicitor McAnarney and Councilman Parker be made a sub-committee to visit the Metropolitan Commission and make a copy of the takings they propose. This the sub-committee will do today, as they do not propose to lose any time.

Wednesday evening the committee of nine will hold another meeting at City Hall, and arrangements will be perfected to see each individual party whose land is to be taken, and in this manner the exact amount of land damages can be ascertained.

The committee of nine in no way supplants the gentlemen who have been active for the parkway but supplements their work. It is in fact a working committee, and when they are ready to report, all citizens will be called together and invited to co-operate in pushing along the good work.

Horse Killed in Runaway.

There was a lively runaway on Adams street Saturday afternoon which resulted in smashing a buggy and killing a horse. It was about 3 o'clock when Miss Abigail Adams and a lady friend, seated in a buggy drawn by a pair of spirited horses owned by ex-Mayor Adams attempted to cross Presidents bridge. At that time a train was passing and the smoke from the locomotive coming up through the planking frightened the horses, causing them to jump and shy, which overturned the buggy. The horses then cleared themselves and started toward Milton. When near the Milton Town house they ran into a coal team with such force as to kill one of the animals. The other was then captured. The buggy was quite badly smashed but fortunately the two ladies escaped injury.

Party at West Quincy.

A complimentary party was given at Forester's hall, Friday evening, Oct. 28, by the following young ladies: Misses Anna Dunican, Lauretta Shea, Margaret Farrell and Georgie Shea—the West Quincy members of the DoWee club to their associate members and friends of Holbrook. Dancing was enjoyed until twelve, music being furnished by Barron's orchestra. During the intervals vocal selections were rendered by Miss Kathryne Daly, a member of the club, and Mr. John Daly, both of Holbrook. At twelve o'clock the party adjourned to Mrs. Michael Dunican's, 215 Willard street where a light lunch was served. After supplying the wants of the inner man a general good time was enjoyed by all present. In the "wee sma' hours" of the morning they wended their way homeward.

Injunction Issued.

Judge Bishop in the equity session of the Superior court, in the case of the American Metallic Cushion Company et. al., vs. William Volger et. al., yesterday, ordered an injunction issued restraining the defendants S. L. Flourney, R. T. Carmichael and George E. Price of Charleston, W. Va.; John S. Vogler of Quincy Frank D. Allen and Charles F. Perkins of Boston from in any way interfering with the books and property of the plaintiff company, and from interfering with or settling a suit in which the corporation is a party and from issuing notes of the company and from acting as directors of the concern except for the purpose of adjourning meetings of the stockholders or directors. W. H. Bent for plaintiffs; C. F. Perkins for defendants.

Quincy Vote for Congressman.

The vote at the last Congressional election in 1896 was:

	Barrows.	Chase.	Hall.	Blank and Scattering.
Ward One,	405	75	113	56
Ward Two,	232	77	148	53
Ward Three, Pre. 1,	180	42	134	33
Ward Three, Pre. 2,	182	58	76	37
Ward Four, Pre. 1,	88	20	201	45
Ward Four, Pre. 2,	146	41	146	49
Ward Five,	383	73	67	20
Ward Six,	202	43	105	40
	1818	429	990	333

HAZELTON LEHIGH

And Not Hard White Ash,
Is What You Should Burn.

C. PATCH & SON.

LOCAL NEWS TRACK.

Some Colts which are Sure Winners Every Heat.

City Council tonight.

The last day of October.

The sewer is being laid on Savil street to the railroad.

The "concreters" are nearly to City Square on Washington street.

Seven were propounded for admission into Bethany church on Sunday.

Chestnut street is being scraped. How the mud does accummulate on this street.

A reception to mothers and children under six years will be give in Bethany chapel Wednesday from 2 to 5.

Despite the heavy rain of Saturday evening the dance at Music hall, Atlantic, was largely attended.

The East Weymouth polo team will play at Taunton Nov. 8, and at New Bedford Nov. 10. Home games Nov. 9 and 12.

The house of Mrs. James Burr of Atlantic street was entered by burglars Sunday evening while the family were at church, and watches, jewelry, etc., taken.

Mr. J. A. Bryne, who has the contract for the Wollaston section of the sewer, has been confined to his home on Central avenue the past week, by illness.

The tunnel beneath the railroad tracks which will connect the Woodbine and Brook street sections of the sewer, has been finished. The pipes will now be laid.

Auctioneer Belcher will sell a milk business, horses, wagons, etc., and also household furniture at the farm of G. A. Freeman at South Braintree on Wednesday.

Work has been commenced on the new culvert over Town brook at Washington street. Other improvemts will be made at the southerly corner of Washington and Canal sreets.

Walter E. Loud's latest composition The Leonia March for piano solo which has just been published is now on sale at C. F. Carlson's. It is easy and melodious and well suited to young players.

An important sale of machinery, etc., will take place in Quincy next week Thursday, when all the articles owned and used by the Quincy Shoe Co. will be sold by Auctioneer Dinegan. A catalogue is being printed.

A ten cent store has many attractions and surprises also at what can be secured for five and ten cents. Just glance at the list in the advertisement of Henry L. Kincaide & Co. today. They have opened a new store.

A largely attended matinee whist for the benefit of the Wollaston Unitarian Sunday School was given Saturday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. George Loring. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Chase, Mrs. Crocker and Mrs. Adams.

They Weymouth game in the candle pin league last week resulted 2 to 1 in favor of Weymouth over South Braintree. The two teams will meet again Wednesday at South Braintree. The Quincys bowl at West Quincy the same night.

Interest on unpaid real and personal taxes commences tomorrow and for a week there has been a rush at the Tax Collector's office to save interest. Many sent their money by mail today and taking all together about $200,000 will be paid before night.

The hearing to have been given the Quincy & Boston street railway Saturday at Weymouth for an extension of their tracks was postponed that the Selectmen might decide whether the petition was illegal as claimed by counsel of the Weymouth & Braintree company.

A birthday party was given Master Joseph Monighan of Old Colony street, Saturday afternoon, from four until eight the occasion being his eighth birthday. Many of his little friends gathered and spent a very pleasant afternoon. Joseph was the recipient of many presents from the little ones.

Seven little girls, Avah R. Gilson, Irma C. Tilton, Gerna Saville, Carlena Walker, Muriel A. Rogers, Grace F. Spear and Catherine Saville, held a very successful fair, in aid of the Floating hospital at the residence of Mr. George G. Saville, on Saturday afternoon. They had a fancy table, candy table and grab bag and made $25.50.

Miss L. M. Hernan, who has been nursing at Camp Wickoff, is at the Quincy City Hospital seriously ill with typhoid fever. When this camp was given up, Miss Hernan enlisted in the United States service and was to have gone South, but as she was somewhat worn out she was sent home for a rest and arrived Oct. 25. A day or two later she was taken ill and went to the Quincy City Hospital.

☞ If you wish to heat a room in a hurry, own an oil heater. Stoves and Furnaces will bother. Oil Heater always ready. $3.98 Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

QUINCY'S NEW
5 and 10 CENT STORE.
NOTHING OVER 10 CENTS.

Thousands of the Greatest Bargains on earth. Never sold at such prices before.

Large Clothes Baskets,	10c	Corn Poppers,	10c
Saw Horses,	10c	Knife Trays,	10c
Wash Boards,	10c	Toasters,	10c
Water Buckets,	10c
Coal Sieves,	10c
Coal Hods,	10c	Buck Eye Oats, 2 lbs.,	5c
Large Brooms,	10c	Canned Peas,	5c
Clothes Dryers,	10c	Canned String Beans,	5c
Covered Market Baskets,	10c	Deviled Ham,	5c
Lunch Boxes,	10c	Market Baskets,	5c
Flour Sieves,	10c	Can Baked Beans,	5c
Agate Wash Basins,	10c	Pearline,	5c
Agate Stew Pans,	10c	Soapine,	5c
Jelies in Tumblers,	10c	Soap, 2 bars,	5c
Jams in Tumblers,	10c	Borax,	5c
Canned Tomato Soup,	10c	Bottle Ammonia,	5c
Condensed Milk,	10c	Naptha Soap,	5c
Coffee, per lb.,	10c	Ivory Soap,	5c
Vanilla Extract,	10c	Sardines,	5c
Lemon Extract,	10c	Corn Starch,	5c
Canned Salmon,	10c	Salt, per box,	5c
Canned Pears,	10c	Machine Oil,	5c
Canned Peaches,	10c	Blueing,	5c
Canned Pineapple,	10c	Ink,	5c
Canned Corn,	10c	Vaseline,	5c
Canned Peas,	10c	Lamp Chimneys,	5c
Canned Squash,	10c	Cups, Saucers,	5c
Quaker Oats,	10c	Fancy Bowls,	5c
Canned Tomatoes,	10c	Steel Fry Pans,	5c
Tomato Catsup,	10c	Toilet Paper,	5c
Bottled Olives,	10c	Scissors,	5c
Mixed Pickles,	10c	Scrub Brushes,	5c
Dish Pans,	10c	Box Writing Paper and Envelopes,	5c
Roast Pans,	10c	Egg Beaters,	5c
Hatchets,	10c	Tack Hammers,	5c
Large Hammers,	10c	Chopping Trays,	2c
Steel Fry Pans,	10c	Chopping Knives,	5c
Gallon Oil Cans,	10c	Rolling Pins,	5c
Dinner Pails,	10c	Quart Milk Cans,	5c
Clothes Lines,	10c	Comb and Brush Cases,	5c
Shoe Brushes,	10c	Knives and Forks,	5c
Thermometers,	10c	Tooth Picks, per box,	5c
Hair Brushes,	10c	Mouse Traps,	5c
Gold Paint,	10c	Book Straps,	5c
Spring Balances,	10c	Toilet Soap, per dozen,	5c
Mops,	10c

Abundance of Crockery, Glass Ware, Tin Ware and Fancy Articles.
NOTHING OVER 10 CENTS. THE NEW STORE.,
HENRY L. KINCAIDE & CO.
TIRRELL'S BLOCK, HANCOCK ST., QUINCY.

Give C. PATCH & SON

A TRIAL ORDER

For HAZELTON LEHIGH COAL.

MABEL F. FAIRBANKS
TEACHER OF
CHINA PAINTING and WATERCOLOR.
China Decorated to Order.
34 Grand View Avenue, Wollaston.
Sept. 29. 3m

E. LANDIS SNYDER,
Organist and Choirmaster of Christ Church,
TEACHER OF
VOICE CULTURE, PIANO AND ORGAN.
Studio: Room 10 Durgin & Merrill's Block,
QUINCY, MASS.
Sept. 10. tf

STENOGRAPHY AND TYPEWRITING,
BOOKKEEPING,
And All Clerical Work.
MISSES A. B. and E. M. COTE,
Room 12 Durgin & Merrill Block, - Quincy.
Oct. 10. tf

DR. RALPH M. FOGG,
DENTIST.

Teeth extracted absolutely without pain by the use of the

"BOSTON VEGETABLE VAPOR."

It is claimed that, while it has the required properties of ether, chloroform, nitrous oxide gas, it lacks the disagreeable and dangerous qualities of these drugs. It is certainly a boon to suffering humanity to be relieved of the nausea too often following the administering of sedatives of the old school.—Boston Transcript.

Teeth made and repaired on Gold or Rubber base. Teeth Filling a specialty.

Office in French's Building, five doors south of Post Office, Quincy, Wednesdays. Hours 9 A. M. to 2 P. M. July18-1y Nov8-1vo

JOHN EVANS,
Auctioneer and Appraiser.
Prompt Settlement.
24 COPELAND STREET, QUINCY.
Feb. 26. tf

ALBERT J. BOWERS
OPTICIAN
ADAMS BUILDING
OVER POST OFFICE
QUINCY MASS.

Rain or Snow

Along the coast but fair in the interior, we read sometimes, but whether rain, snow, fair or blow outside, you may be fair, comfortable and happy inside of one of those

Warm Overcoats

that you can buy at the "Granite," and not only overcoats, but everything required for the comfort of men and boys.

Don't get caught in the storms of winter without proper protection, but go now to the

Granite Clothing Store,
DURGIN & MERRILL'S BLOCK,
QUINCY.

This is Lehigh Coal,

And We Have it for Sale.

C. PATCH & SON.

MARY WENT.

LAST Week Mary and everybody else were invited to call at the Quincy Second Hand Variety Store. They went, and Mary tells us that she was delighted with what she found. She bought an excellent stove for half its value, a chamber set for a remarkably low figure, and small ware in abundance for almost nothing. In fact, she was so well pleased, she sent her husband, who bought all the tools he could carry off for a few dollars.

WALTER P. PINEL

is the Manager, and the store is right over here at number 20 Franklin street.

aug25 1y

FRANK F CRANE,
AUCTIONEER and APPRAISER,
Office, 4 Chestnut St., Quincy, Mass.
Oct. tf

ONE YEAR'S CRIME.

A Busy Year in the Quincy Court—Over 1,300 Cases.

Clerk John P. S. Churchill, of the District Court at Quincy, reports the following business at the court for the year ending Oct. 1, 1898:

Complaints issued against persons: Assault and battery, 147; manslaughter, 2; murder 3; threats 10; arson, 1; breaking and entering, 29; Embezzlement, 9; evading fare, 1; fraud, 12; larceny, 93; malicious mischief, 84; receiving stolen goods 1; selling mortgaged property, 1; trespass, 17; obstructing street railway car, 4; riding bicycle on sidewalk, 19; building bonfire near building, 16; false pedegree of animal, 1; violation Metropolitan Park law, 1; Obsructing railroad train, 3.

Complaints issued against public order: Adultery, 8; bastardy, 16; violation city and town by-laws, 13; common drunk, 8; cruelty to aniamls, 20; disturbing the peace, 51; unlicensed dogs 7; drunkenness 483; violating fish and game law, 7; forgery 1; idle and disorderly, 3; indecent exposure, 8; lewdness, 7; violation of liquor law, 63; violation of lobster law, 8; violation of Lord's day, 26; neglect of family, 14; unlicensed peddling, 12; unlicensed innholder, 1; profanity, 1; stubborness, 7; tramps, 6; truancy, 2; vagrants 9; neglected children, 12; violation tobacco law, 6; keeping dangerous dog, 1; rescuing prisoner, 2; neglecting to send children to public school, 5; violation of factory law, 1; refusing to labor at almshouse, 1; warrants for search of stolen property, 12; stolen property found, 3; warrants for search for liquor, 64; liquor seized, 34; not found, 30; liquor forfeited, 31; returned to claimmant, 3. Grand total, 1,333 cases.

Saturday Foot Ball.

Weymouth was defeated at Dedham Saturday 12 to 0 in the first game of the Norfolk County interscolastic league series.

Milton A. A. defeated the Jogalong team 26 to 0.

☞ Our $1.00 special comforters are the finest you have ever seen for the price. Other styles from 75 cents to $2.75. Blankets from 50 cents per pair to $5.00. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

Commencing Sunday evening the Rev. David Kerr of the Calvary Baptist church preached to a large congregation, taking for his subject "A typical Republican Governor and What he did for the people." Rev. Mr. Kerr took Joseph as his type who was specially favored by his king, Pharoah, and all the people. He earnestly entreated his hearers at this critical moment in the nation's history to support men after Joseph's spirit and example who were men of reason and forethought gathering up and filling the granaries with food in the day of plenty for the day of scarcity and then at the king's command he opened all the storehouses to all needy comers.

—In Springfield people are advocating that the city take upon itself the work of removing ashes from the cellars. Even now it goes one step further than Somerville, as it takes the barrels from the back yards instead of requiring them to be brought to the curbing. In lovely Quincy the Commissioner will not take ashes either from the front or back yard, to say nothing about the cellar.

☞ All kinds of Furniture Reupholstering mattresses made over, carpets taken up, cleaned and relaid, window shades to order. The finest of work at prices that are fair to pay. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

Quincy Co-operative Bank

Has again declared Semi-annual dividend of 3 1-4 per cent., and

SALE of SHARES in 20th SERIES

Is Now Open.

Regular Monthly Meeting for receipt of Dues, sale of Money and Shares, WEDNESDAY, Nov. 2, 1898, at 7.30 P. M., Savings Bank Building.

R. D. CHASE, Sec.

Quincy, Oct. 27. 6t lwp

PROTECT YOUR TREES.

Now is
The Time
To Begin

The use of Geo. H. Morrill & Co.'s Tree Ink if you wish to protect your trees. The canker millers will commence crawling up the trunks of trees as soon as the ground commences to freeze.

For sale cheap in any quantity desired at the Patriot Office.

Quincy, Oct. 29. tf

POLITICAL FIELD.

State election next week Tuesday and the City election only four weeks later.

The Democrats see a fighting chance for victory in this Congressional district and are making an aggressive canvas, particularly in Quincy. Rallies will be held tomorrow night at Atlantic and West Quincy and both will be addressed by E I. Slattery, H. F. Naphen, W. H. Baker, H. J. Skiffington and Donald McDonald.

The New York Herald estimates that the next National Senate will be composed of 45 Repubicans, 30 Democrats, 12 Silver and Populists, while 3 are doubtful. That the House will be composed of 193 Republicans, 143 Democrats, 8 Populists, 12 Fushion, and 1 Silver Democrat.

The Boston Herald estimates 1,500 plurality for Congressman Barrows in this district. It predicts the election of 12 Repubilcans and 1 Democrat from Massachusetts.

A reception will be tendered to Congressman Barrows by the North Dorchester Republican club tomorrow evening.

Rivers Accepts.

George R. R. Rivers of Milton has written the following letter accepting the Democratic nomination for the Senate:

James D. Grant, Esq., Chairman 1st Norfolk Democratic Senatorial Convention:

My Dear Sir: I have heard of the Convention's action in nominating me for the Senate, and I appreciate its kindness in so doing. When first asked whether I would allow my name to be used, I hesitated. It seemed to me that a stronger candidate might be selected, and that the independent position I had been constrained to maintain on certain occasions might be distasteful to certain members of my party. Being assured, however, that my position was not misunderstood, I have permitted my name to be presented to the Convention, and its unanimous vote has convinced me that I shall have the support of the Democrats of the district, I therefore accept the nomination with a due appreciation of the honor it conveys.

I feel strongly that in general the election of purely state officers should be fought on State issues, and that there are many which could be brought forward in favor of the election of Democratic members of the State Legislature. I believe that elections should be so arranged that neither party should have so large a majority of members as to become uncontrollable, and thence corrupt; that United State senators should be elected by the people and not by Legislatures which can be manipulated by unscrupulous politicians, such as Quay, and Platt on the one side, and Gorman of Maryland on the other; that better laws should be enacted regarding capital and labor, and that neither should be the slave of the other, but that both should live in harmony, that corporation should not control the government. I believe all these things, but there are times like the present when a political party should be punished for its shortcomings, and when National issues become so prominent that all others are overshadowed by them. At the present time the national administration, ruled by Hanna, Alger, Foraker, Platt and Quay, has much to answer for, and its actions are more deserving of rebuke than matters nearer home. Such rebuke will be best administered by voting against the candidates of the party which has made these things possible. It is upon these national issues that we have today a reunited party, a party which hence forward should grow more and more in public favor, until it is again triumphant because it deserves to be. As to my course if elected, I can only say this I will serve my party by serving the whole people, and will endeavor to do my duty as Senator in the same spirit in which I did that as Representative. Further than this I can promise nothing.

Again thanking the Convention for its action, I am

Very truly yours,
George R. R. Rivers.

Milton, Oct. 24, 1898.

Quincy Vote for Governor, 1897

	Wolcott.	Williams.	Everett.	Blank and Scattering.
Ward One,	322	54	54	17
Ward Two,	200	56	16	8
Ward Three, Pre. 1.	158	74	25	13
Ward Three, Pre. 2,	160	43	9	17
Ward Four, Pre. 1,	90	116	25	16
Ward Four, Pre. 2,	122	85	21	10
Ward Five,	279	27	26	17
Ward Six,	113	47	15	9
The City,	1,444	502	191	107

—"Would you be so kind as to help me?" said a poor beggar to a pedestrian. "I have a wife and five children at home and an instalment to pay on my bicycle tomorrow." Wonder how many millions of dollars have been spent for bicycles; and how many have bought a wheel who were not able to pay for it.

HEART DISEASE.

FACTS REGARDING THE RAPID INCREASE OF HEART TROUBLES.

Do Not be Alarmed, But Look for the Cause.

Heart troubles, at least among Americans, are certainly increasing and while this may be largely due to the excitement and worry of American business life, it is more often the result of weak stomachs, of poor digestion.

Real, orgainic heart disease is incurable; but not one case in a hundred of heart trouble is organic.

The close relation between heart trouble and poor digestion is because both organs are controlled by branches of the same great nerves, the Sympathetic and Pneumogastric.

In another way, also the heart is affected by that form of poor digestion, which causes gas and fermentation from half digested food; there is a feeling of oppression and heaviness in the chest caused by pressure of the distended stomach on the heart and lungs interfering with their action; hence arises palpitation and short breath.

Poor digestion also poisons the blood, makes it thin and water, which irritates and weakens the heart.

The most sensible treatment for heart trouble is to improve the digestion and to insure the prompt assimilation of food.

This can best be done by the regular use after meals, of some safe, pleasant and effective digestive preparation, like Stuarts' Dyspepsia Tablet, which may be found at most drug stores and which contain valuable, harmless digestive elements in a pleasant, convenient form.

It is safe to say that the regular, persistent use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at meal time will cure any form of stomach trouble except cancer of the stomach.

Full sized package of the tablets sold by druggists at 50 cents.

Little book on stomach troubles mailed free. Address Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich. 31-2-4

WEYMOUTH.

The second elevens of the Weymouth High and Quincy High play this afternoon at Merry Mount park.

The Weymouth High foot ball team will be here tomorrow to play Adams Academy.

Simply Grand.

Is the unanimous verdict of all who witness the splendid interpretation of the character of Eben Baxter the staunch, honest old postmaster by Mr. Charles Cowles who will appear at Quincy Music hall, Friday evening, Nov. 4th, in his incomparably pretty play "A Country Merchant." As a delineator of Yankee character Mr. Cowles stands alone, without an equal which is pretty strong language when one considers other great names easily recalled.

Mr. Cowles and his able support vary the performance by the introduction of novel and most clever specialties of a bright refined order. No painstaking theatre goer will fail to enjoy this entertainment where emotions and mirth are continually mingled.

Mr. Cowles' old Man Song and Dance alone would more than compensate, once seen never forgotten. Popular prices 25, 35, and 50. Tickets now on sale at Durgin s.

Foot Ball Schedule.

November schedule of Quincy High School foot ball team.

Thursday, Nov. 3—Dedhnm High at Quincy.
Monday, Nov. 7—Team from Harvard at Quincy.
Friday, Nov, 11—Weymouth High at Weymouth.
Monday, Nov. 14—Weymouth High at Quincy.
Friday, Nov. 18—Thayer Academy at South Braintree.
Tuesday, Nov. 22.—Dedham High at Dedham.
Thursday, Nov. 24—(Thanksgiving morning)—Graduates at Quincy.

TODAY'S COURT.

James Lathrop was fined $50 for the illegal sale of intoxicating liquor at Randolph.

Edward F. Conlin and John W. O'Brien were arraigned for drunkenness at Weymouth. Cases continued two weeks.

John Tucker was fined $5 for drunkenness at Quincy.

Donald M. Reed, Robert Shand and Edward J. Scanlan were fined $5 each for drunkenness at Milton.

Bernard Claman was arraigned for assault on Ike Shane at Quincy. Case continued until Saturday.

The continued case of James Sullivan was called and he was defaulted.

Quincy Post Office.

Letters unclaimed for week ending Oct. 31:

Euabio Fernandez Aja, Rosendo Aja, Ricardo Maranon Alonzo, W. E. Barnes, Domenico Catrambone, John Cain, Henry Deloreia, J. J. Darcey, Malcolm Darrah, L. H. Feldman, A. B. Gilchrist, Jose Aja Gomez, Joseph Madrazo, Carlo Pelloli, Antonio Jarma Vicenzo, H. O. Whitten, Henry H. Young.

Mrs. Filomena Dragone, Motilde Fernandez Diego, Mamie Duggan, Mrs. Delia Rogers, Mrs. William M. Swan, Miss Elizabeth Thayer, Miss Annie Wilson, Miss Fannie Wilson.

—Rev. Dr. I. M. Atwood, President of the theological department of St. Lawrence University, Canton, N. Y., has been appointed as General Superintendent of the Universalist church. He will have general supervision of all the work and plans of the church, without, however, the power of the Bishops of other churches, to which, in a measure his office will correspond.

HOW TO MAKE MONEY.

Take a silver dollar and drop it on a jeweler's show case and you'll get a ring. Take a quarter and saw it in two in the middle and get two halves. Take a two-dollar bill and fold it once and you double it—and you can keep on monkeying with money and make imaginary capital for an hour. But if you want to get a new wrinkle in money, just take a new ten dollar bill and fold it corner-ways and you'll get a new wrinkle every time. But don't fool with your money and don't let anybody else fool with it. Don't let anybody fool you with the idea that they'll give you a $10 bill with every $2 suit or overcoat.

The new store has earned a reputation for selling straight goods at straight prices. We don't monkey with your money, or flim flam you with any imaginary values. We give you good goods, charge a fair-profit price for everything you buy and expect you to come back the second time because you were used right the first.

We can sell a good Overcoat for $5.00 and an all wool one for $6.50. But for $7.50 we can show you a dandy all wool Kersey, made with raw edge and lap seams and lined with good lasting linings. The same coat our competitors (in Boston) get $10 for.

Our $10 coat we have in Blacks, Blues, Olives and Browns. Then we have them for $11, $12, $13, $13.50, $15, $15.50 and upwards to $19, in all the different style goods worn this season.

For this week and next too, if they are not all gone, we will sell all wool Dickey Pants at $1.48. All the other stores get $2.00.

QUINCY CLOTHING CO.,

LOWEST PRICED CLOTHIERS IM NORFOLK COUNTY.

MUSIC HALL BLOCK.

New Books.

A list of new books recently added to the Thomas Crane Public Library:

Archer, T. A., and Kingsford, C. L. Crusades. [Story of the nations.]	340 29
Bates, Arlo. Puritans.	328 6
Beowulf: an Anglo-Saxon epic poem. Translated by J. L. Hall.	510 10
Burnham, Clara L. Great love.	238 39
Cobbe, Frances P. Life. By herself. 2v.	425 41, 42
Dorchester, Daniel. Problem of religious progress.	531 56
Francis, M. E., pseud. Duenna of a genius.	231 35
Hale, Susan. Story of Mexico. [Story of the nations.]	396 13
Hewlett, Maurice. Forest lovers.	257 45
Hope, Anthony, pseud. Rupert of Hentzau. Sequel to the "Prisoner of Zenda."	329 36
How, W. W., and Leigh, H. D. History of Rome to the death of Cæsar.	353 35
Howells, W. D. Story of a play.	306 34
Kipling, Rudyard. Day's work. [Stories.]	309 47
Latimer, Elizabeth W. England in the nineteeth century.	372 44
Europe in Africa in the nineteenth century.	346 22
France in the nineteenth century, 1830-1890.	365 39
Italy in the nineteenth century, and the making of Austria-Hungary and Germany.	360 66
Russia and Turkey in the nineteenth century.	360 31
Laurie, S. S. Historical survey of pre-Christian education.	556 31
Mackintosh, John. Story of Scotland to [1843]. [Story of the nations.]	370 44
Merriman, T. M. Pilgrims, puritans, and Roger Williams vindicated.	382 35
Mifflin, Lloyd. Slopes of Helicon, and other poems.	528 43
Murray, David. Story of Japan. [Story of the nations.]	346 6
Pelham, H. F. Outlines of Roman history.	353 34
Rogers, J. E. T. Story of Holland. [Story of the nations.]	361 25
Theal, G. M. Story of South Africa. [Story of the nations.]	346 25
Ward, Mrs. Humphrey. Helbeck of Bannisdale. 2v.	323 45, 46
Wiel, Alethea. Venice. [Story of the nations.]	360 67
Williams, S. G. History of modern education.	556 32

Resolutions.

Adopted by the Democratic City Committee upon the death of its treasurer, Richard J. Larkin.

WHEREAS,—It has pleased Almighty God in his infinite wisdom to remove from our midst our companion and co-laborer Richard J. Larkin, it is resolved:

That while we bow with submission to the divine will, yet we shall always cherish the memory of one who was ever faithful to every trust confided to him, and cheerfully did whatsoever his hand found to do, and it is further

RESOLVED,—That we extend to the bereaved family our heartfelt sympathy in this hour of sorrow, and may he who giveth his beloved rest, sustain and comfort them in these trying hours.

RESOLVED,—That these resolutions be spread upon the records of the committee, that a copy be sent to the family of the deceased, and that they be published in the papers of this city.

THOMAS F. CAIN,
WILLIAM H. SAMPSON, JR.,
TIMOTHY J. CAREY,
Committee on Resolutions.

Quincy, Oct. 31. 1t

A CARD.

The undersigned does hereby agree to refund the money on a 50-cent bottle of Greene's Syrup of Tar if it fails to cure your cold or cough. He also warrants a 25-cent bottle to prove satisfactory or no pay.

Oct. 29—6n G. A. LORING, Wollaston.

☞ Lamps in all the newest notions, from 25 cents up. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

MARRIED,

CURTIS—EVANS—In Quincy, Oct. 28, by Rev. Edward Norton, Mr. Arthur Vinton Curtis to Miss Katherine Evans, both of Quincy.

WHAT DO THE CHILDREN DRINK?

Don't give them tea or coffee. Have you tried the new food drink called GRAIN-O? It is delicious and nourishing and takes the place of coffee. The more Grain-O you give the children the more health you distribute through their systems. Grain-O is made of pure grains, and when properly prepared tastes like the choice grades of coffee but costs about 1-4 as much. All grocers sell it. 15c. and 25c.

STATE ELECTION.

CITY OF QUINCY.

City Clerk's Office, Oct. 7, 1898.

IN Accordance with the provisions of Chapter 548 of the Acts of 1898, notice is hereby given that by a vote of the City Council, passed October 3, 1898, the polling places for the election to be held TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1898, in the City of Quincy, were designated as follows:

WARD ONE.—Council Chamber, City Hall.

WARD TWO—Hose House, Washington street.

WARD THREE, Precinct One.—Doble's Hall, Franklin street.

WARD THREE, Precinct Two.—Old Steamer House, School street.

WARD FOUR, Precinct One.—St. Mary's Hall, Willard street.

WARD FOUR, Precinct Two.—Hose House, Copeland street.

WARD FIVE.—Polson's Building, Newport avenue.

WARD SIX.—Hose House, Newbury avenue.

Attest: EDGAR G. CLEAVES,
City Clerk.

Quincy, Oct. 7, 1898. 27t

FISH.

Everything first-class at the

Cape Cod Fish Market,

Temple Street.

All kinds Fresh, Salt, Smoked an Pickeled

Quincy, Feb. 8. 1y

Coal!

Just Received by Barge
Blackbird,
a Fresh Cargo
of

Pea Coal

(Small Nut.)

J. F. SHEPPARD & SONS

Quincy Sept. 7.

NOTICE TO VOTERS.

CITY OF QUINCY.

For the purpose of preparing the Annual Register of Voters, and of receiving evidence of qualifications from persons claiming a right to Vote at the coming City Election, the Board of Registrars of Voters will be in session in the COUNCIL CHAMBER in the City Hall Building, on the evenings of

Wednesday, November 9, and Saturday, November 12, from 7 to 9 o'clock P.M., also on Wednesday, November 16, from 12 o'clock, noon, to 10 o'clock P.M.

Every applicant for registration must appear in person before the Board. Every male applicant must present either a certificate from the Assessors or a Tax bill or Notice from the Collector of Taxes, showing that he has been assessed a Poll tax as a resident of the City on the First day of May last; if a naturalized citizen he must also produce for inspection his papers of naturalization. Payment of a poll tax is not a prerequisite to voting.

Persons who have lived in the state one year, and in the city six months previous to December 6, if qualified in other respects, can be registered.

No name can be added to the list of voters unless registered previous to WEDNESDAY, Nov. 16th, at 10 o'clock P. M., when registration will close.

Examine the Voting Lists posted herewith and see that your name is in its proper place. NO CHANGE can be made after WEDNESDAY, Nov. 16th, at 10 o'clock P. M. The Board of Assessors will hold meetings at the same time.

EDWARD B. MARSH,
CORNELIUS MOYNIHAN,
EDWARD J. McKEON,
EDGAR G. CLEAVES,
Registrars.

Quincy, Oct. 22, 1898. 21t

Hazelton Lehigh

FURNACE COAL

Give C. PATCH & SON

A Trial Order.

HOUSES, STORES, LAND,

ROOMS, OFFICES, AND WHARVES,

To Let In Quincy, Mass.

The Houses are in Complete Repair.

Half-house, 10 rooms, 6 Chester street, Wollaston.
House, 10 rooms with stable, 16 Cottage street.
Half-house, 5 rooms, 16 Cottage street.
House, 8 rooms, 29 Granite street.
Half-house, 4 rooms, 4 Water street, $7 per month.
Tenement, 5 rooms, 59 North street.
Half-house, 6 rooms, Pond street, $10 per month.
Half-house, 5 rooms, 13 Field street, $8 per month.
Tenement, 3 rooms, 28 Howard street, $3 per month.
Tenements, 51 Howard street, $4, $5 and $6 per month.
Room, 12 Washington street, $5 per month.
Large building, suitable for manufacturing purposes on Brackett's wharf.
Small stable, 2 Quincy street, $3 per month.
Small stable, 28 Coddington street, $5 per month.
100 windows, and blinds, various sizes
Wharf, stone sheds, etc., Quincy Neck.
Basement, head of Granite street.
100 tons ballast for sale.
Land to rent for tillage or pasturing purposes.
Gravel and sand for sale.
50 loads of loam for sale.
The buildings are in the very best condition.
For particulars, enquire of, or address

HENRY H. FAXON,
Quincy, Mass.

Quincy, Oct. 13, 1898. 1m

Chichester's English Diamond Brand.

PENNYROYAL PILLS

Original and Only Genuine.

SAFE, always reliable. LADIES ask Druggist for Chichester's English Diamond Brand in Red and Gold metallic boxes, sealed with blue ribbon. Take no other. Refuse dangerous substitutions and imitations. At Druggists, or send 4c. in stamps for particulars, testimonials and "Relief for Ladies," in letter, by return Mail. 10,000 Testimonials. Name Paper. Chichester Chemical Co., Madison Square, PHILADA., PA.

Sold by all Local Druggists.

Sold by Geo. C. Goodwin & Co., General Agents. Boston, Mass

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS.

Advertisements in this column inserted at the following rates:

Four lines, or less, one day, - - 25 cents.
" " three days, - - - 50 cents.
" " one week, - - - 75 cents.

Additional lines will be charged for pro rata Seven words equal a line. Long term rates furnished on application.

WANTED.

WANTED—An experienced Furniture and Carpet Salesman. HENRY L. KINCAIDE & CO.

Quincy, Oct. 31. tf

WANTED.

A YOUNG GIRL as assistant to do housework. Not required to do washing. Apply at W. E. SIMMONS', 14 Central avenue, Wollaston.

Oct. 28. plw 1-28 31 1

TO LET.

TO LET—3 Houses of 7 rooms each, healthful location and fine views. Electrics pass often. Rent low. Inquire of F. H. GRAVES, just beyond the bridge, North Weymouth.

Oct. 28. 6t

TO LET—2 Rooms, Furnished or Unfurnished, with steam heat and bath. 3 minutes from depot. Rent reasonable. L., Post Office. Oct. 26—6t

TO LET—House of six rooms, in good repair. Possession given Nov. 1. Apply at 8 Orchard place, off Spear street, Quincy. Oct. 26. 6t

TO LET—Half a House of 5 rooms entirely separate on Phipps street, Mt. Pleasant. Rent, $8 a month; city water. Inquire at 17 Summer street.

Quincy, Sept. 27. 31t

TO LET—Tenement of 6 rooms No. 12 Newcomb street, in good repair; city water. inquire of C. A. SPEAR, 7 Newcomb street.

Quincy, Oct. 20. tf

TO LET—On Washington street at the corner of Canal street, a desirable tenement of six large rooms, to be vacated Nov. 1 by Mr. F. H. Lord; front and back stairs, city water, and in good repair; near Coddington school, Public Library and depot. Apply only to FRANK F. PRESCOTT, Ledger office.

Quincy, Oct. 27. tf lp

TO LET—Cottage house, No. 29 Granite street, 8 rooms, three minutes' from City Square. Apply to H. M. FAXON, 4 Adams Building. Sept. 30—tf

FOR RENT—Desirable house with bath, corner lot, nice neighborhood, three minutes' walk from schools, churches and depot Rent reasonable. Apply at No. 6 Pleasant St.

Quincy, Sept. 7. tf

TO LET IN QUINCY.

SOUTHERLY Half of house with stable 214 Hancock street, now occupied by Dr. N. S. Hunting. Modern improvements, central location. Seven rooms and bath; furnace, gas and city water. Apply on premises to

MISS M. F. UNDERWOOD.

Oct. 1. tf

TO LET.

APARTMENTS of five large rooms and bath, with all modern improvements. Also two large stores. Rent moderate. Apply to ARTHUR CRAIG, or J. W. HAYDEN, at Craig Building, cor. Copeland and Garfield Sts.

Quincy, July 15. pl tf

TO LET.

House of 8 rooms, etc., No. 20 Canal street, Quincy. Nice house, excellent location.

R. D. CHASE,
Savings Bank Building.

Quincy, Oct. 8. pl tf

Savings Bank Building, Quincy.

FOR SALE.

Bigelow St. Fine New Residence, 9 rooms, bath, laundry, furnace, open plumbing, cemented cellar, fireplace, etc.

R. D. CHASE,
Savings Bank Building.

Quincy, April 8-tf. 9p-tf

BILLHEADS

AT PATRIOT OFFICE.

Another Spanish Victory! ! !
He's captured Battle Ax.

You may be disappointed in war, in politics, or in business, but you will never be disappointed in

BattleAx PLUG

It is the one chewing tobacco in the world that is always the same good chew — and the largest piece at the lowest price. Try it to-day.

Remember the name when you buy again.

NOTHING BETTER,

UNCLE SAM'S NAVY

Now commands the respect of the world, and we are all proud of the defenders of the Nation's Honor. To give the people of Quincy a good idea of the grand battleships, we have ordered a large supply of portfolios, giving magnificent views of the ships, crews, etc.

With each purchase made at our store we will give a portfolio check to the value of the purchase. When you have $4.00 worth of these checks, return them and get a portfolio. Continue in this way until you have the set complete. Call and see these magnificent portfolios.

ROGERS BROS.,

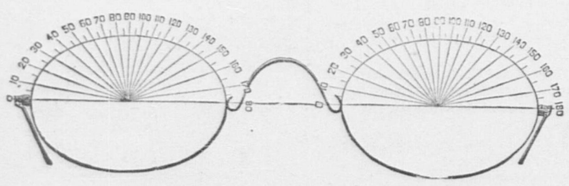

Groceries and Provisions. Adams Building, Quincy.

MAKE IT HOT FOR YOU.

If your house is cold and you have become disgusted with the various devices called heaters, and you are really anxious to have warmth and comfort in your home, place an order for one of those G. B. Bates CIRCULATORS. It will "make it hot for you" or just the temperature you desire. Its construction is based upon scientific and economical principles. Several have recently been put in right here in Quincy, and others will be put in during the next few weeks. Don't read this ad. and then forget about it till your water pipes are all frozen, but go now to

G. B. BATES,

Hancock Street, Quincy.

ASTIGMATISM

Causes most of the distressing headaches. Properly fitted glasses will correct the error and remove the pain. Consult

WILLIAMS,

Member of the New England Association of Opticians,

104 Hancock St., Quincy.

If You Have a House to Let, Advertise It in the Ledger.

THE SECRET DOSSIER

Appears to Play the Most Important Part In the Dreyfus Case.

Considered Likely to Incriminate General Mercier.

Army Leaders Will Have a Chance to Explain Why They Declared Dreyfus Guilty.

Paris, Oct. 31.—By Saturday's decision the court of cassation obtains the most absolute control over the Dreyfus case. It may demand and examine any documents whatever, including the dossier, of any case bearing upon the Dreyfus matter, and can examine under oath any witness, however high his position. In short, if the court makes a sincere use of its powers, the truth will have a much better chance of being discovered than would have been the case had it merely ordered revision before another courtmartial, whose members might have been actuated by a desire to shield the general staff. Having concluded its inquiry, it can present a new dossier to either a civil or a military court for the final decision.

Its proceedings will not be public, and there can, therefore, be no objection to a communication to it of the alleged secret dossier, if this is still in existence, while the numerous generals who have expressed their belief in the guilt of Dreyfus will now be called upon to explain the grounds of their convictions.

Although the liberation of Dreyfus has not been ordered, the court can order him brought to France at any moment and will probably do so at an early stage of the inquiry. The court refrained from ordering his release on Saturday because it would have been a presumption of his innocence.

Paul Deroulede of the Patriotic League turned the patriotic manifestation at Le Bourget yesterday in memory of the soldiers who fell there in the Franco-Prussian war of 1870 into a revolutionary demonstration against the decision of the court of cassation. He delivered a violent anti-Dreyfus speech.

Marcel Habert, member of the chamber of deputies, followed with a still more inflammatory harangue. There were, however, no disorders.

As President Faure left the Grand Opera house last night about 11 o'clock, he was greeted with prolonged shouts of "Vive l'armee" and "A bas la Juifs."

Comte Esterhazy, it is reported, has written to several generals demanding money under threats of exposure.

Mercier Dragged Into It.

London, Oct. 31.—The Paris correspondent of The Times, pointing out that a curious dilemma has now developed in the Dreyfus affair, says: "If the secret dossier is now communicated to the court of cassation it is conceivable that it may incriminate Dreyfus, but it certainly will convict General Mercier, the minister of war at the time of the conviction of Dreyfus, of a criminal violation of law in communicating to the court martial documents that were communicated to Dreyfus and his counsel.

"It is said that it was in order to shield General Mercier, who acted thus, owing to his weakness or his ignorance, that all subsequent ministers of war have adopted an obstinate attitude.

"If, on the other hand, there has never been a secret dossier, the whole case rests on the bordereau and must fall to the ground. How then, since Lieutenant Colonel Henry's admission of forgery, could the generals still have declared Dreyfus guilty?

"The allegation that the dossier, if there be one, contains a letter from Emperor William to Colonel Schwarzkoppen, the German military attache at Paris, is utterly improbable in view of the emperor's character and habits. He could never have written to a military attache."

Accidents on the Deep.

London, Oct. 31.—German steamer Karlsruhe passed the Scilly islands yesterday and signalled that she spoke the British steamer Chicago which reported that her machinery was disabled and could not be repaired at sea. The Karlsruhe's offer of assistance was declined. The Chicago is a new steamer of 7800 tons. She sailed from Newcastle Oct. 23 for New York.

London, Oct. 31.—British steamer Strathairly signalled when off the Lizard yesterday that on the 28th she passed the British steamer Anglian, from London for Boston, which reported the loss of four propeller blades, but declined assistance.

Met a Tragic Fate.

San Francisco, Oct. 31.—Rudolph Neaumann, general agent of the Alaska Commercial company, while inspecting the Sitka mine, Unga, on the 10th inst., fell 209 feet to the bottom of the shaft, and was instantly killed. His remains were brought to this city on the steamer Portland. Mr. Neaumann was a nephew of Paul Neaumann, formerly connected with the Hawaiian government, and was well known on this coast and in New York. He was a member of the Bohemian club and prominent in social circles.

A Hermit's End.

Springfield, Mass., Oct. 31.—Isaac Stetson, the Dalton hermit, who was found dead in the woods near his home in the vicinity of Wahconah Falls Friday, was probably murdered. The autopsy showed that Stetson had been shot down and that death was instantaneous. Stetson's body was found by George Bennett, lying about 40 rods from the hovel where he had passed his hermit life.

Plenty of Room.

Chicago, Oct. 31.—Director of Exhibits J. H. McGibbon has received from General Commissioner Peck at Paris a telegram stating that he has been alloted 35,000 square feet of additional floor space for United States exhibitors and has secured every special concession demanded. The floor space for American exhibitors at present amounts to 210,000 square feet.

IN HOLY LAND.

Kaiser and Wife Handsomely Treated by an Enthusiastic Populace.

Jerusalem, Oct. 31.—The approach of their German imperial majesties to the city Saturday was made through triumphal arches and amid banners, garlands and evergrowing crowds, displaying in every way their enthusiasm and delight. The formal entry through the Jaffa gate was heralded by the roar of guns at the citadel, where the Turkish band played the German anthem.

From the tower of David the emperor and empress proceeded on foot, amid wild cheering, to the church of the Holy Sepulchre, where they were received by the Catholic, Greek and Armenian clergy, whose patriarchs presented addresses eulogizing the devotion of Emperor William, who has since conferred decorations upon the patriarchs. Their majesties then proceeded to the German evangelical church, where the pastor presented an address.

In the evening a reception was held at the German consulate, and later there was a general illumination of the city, with a display of fireworks.

The imperial pair attended service at the Evangelical church in Bethlehem yesterday, afterwards paying a visit to the Church of the Nativity.

The weather has been beautiful and everywhere the greatest enthusiasm has been displayed.

After the excursion to Jericho, Djevad Pasha, former grand vizier, recently Turkish governor of Crete and now attached to the person of Emperor William as a special representative of the sultan, will leave the imperial suits. It is rumored that this is due to some unpleasantness.

Emperor William has sent his portrait in brilliants to Tewfik Pasha, Turkish ambassador to Germany, who was among the high Ottoman dignitaries that received the emperor and empress in Constantinople.

EVIDENCE PILING UP.

Boston Police Have Two Men In Custody on Forgery Charges.

Boston, Oct. 31.—Evidence is piling up against the two young men, Samuel Lucas or Lester and John H. Stanley, who were arrested in Boston Friday night on suspicion, and later booked as forgers. State Detective George C. Neal took them to the Essex county jail at Salem Saturday night, after they had been identified by the cashier of the First National bank of Danvers as the men who passed a check bearing the forged signature of E. J. Powers, a high school teacher in Danvers. The cashier of the First National bank in Amherst identified the men yesterday as having passed a check for $130 on his bank, bearing the forged name of Professor Tyler of Amherst college. They were suspected of this last crime before on account of bills found on both.

The forged check for $50 was passed in Newton a short time ago, and Captain Dugan says he thinks Lucas and Stanley are also guilty of this. This last will be investigated today.

They are also thought to be the same men who a month ago obtained $95 from the Derry National bank on a check upon the Warren National bank of Peabody, Mass. The check was made out to Fank R. Gordon, signed by John J. Gordon and indorsed with the name of Professor George W. Bingham, principal of Pinkerson academy, who never heard of the men. The West Derry police have communicated with the Boston authorities.

Cooling Off.

Paris, Oct. 31.—The French press is beginning to manifest a much more conciliatory spirit regarding Fashoda, apparently with a view to preparing the public mind for the recall of the Marchand expedition.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

Clinton Clarke, while track walking near Bellows Falls, Vt., was struck by a passenger train and instantly killed.

Hon. David Harpster, known throughout the country as one of the most extensive wool growers in Ohio, died in Harpster from dropsy.

The Second National bank, Springfield, O., decided to go into liquidation. It is perfectly solvent, but lack of business caused it to quit the business.

The British schooner Nugget reports that Percy Hudson, one of the crew, was swept overboard and drowned during a gale off Halifax last Wednesday.

The funeral of the late Sergeant Walters of company E, Sixth Massachusetts volunteers, who died at Porto Rico, took place yesterday in South Framingham, Mass.

The transport Zealandia with the First and second battalions of the First Tennessee regiment, comprising 680 men, sailed from San Francisco yesterday for Manila.

The Ninth Pennsylvania regiment was formally mustered out of service at Wilkesbarre and the men paid off. The paymasters distributed nearly $40,000 among the men.

The Peruvian government is preparing a special book giving a history of the MacCord claim with a view of showing that the action of the United States government is unjust.

The new electric railway line, the Penobscot Central, Bangor to Charleston, was formally opened by President Beal and a party composed of Bangor city officials and others.

The torpedo boat Farragut made another speed trial at San Francisco and attained better than 30 knots speed. She will doubtless be given her governmental trial trip some time this week.

The secretary of the treasury has continued the option for the redemption at any time before Dec. 1 of 6 percent Pacific bonds known as currency sixes, at their full value, less one-half of 1 percent.

The Calumet woolen mill, Uxbridge, Mass., closed indefinitely. The Hecla mill owned by the same company goes on short time this week. There are but two other mills in town now in operation.

Fire in the three-story wooden block 56 to 64 Munroe street, Lynn, Mass., and occupied by several firms, caused a loss of over $6000. The fire started in the basement near the boiler from some unknown cause.

The coroner's jury which held an inquest on the death of Mrs. Emma J. Searles at Rockland, Me., returned a verdict that the woman came to her death by natural causes, as no evidence was presented to show the contrary.

GAVE OFFICERS THE SLIP.

John Reed, King of Bunco Men, Gets Away at Worcester.

Worcester, Mass., Oct. 31.—John Reed, the notorious bunco man, who was serving a sentence of from 11 to 14 years in the state prison, escaped from a keeper at the Sheerwood House in this city shortly after midnight. Reed was brought to this city at 5:06 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Keeper J. L. Abbott of the state prison for consultation with his counsel, Colonel W. A. Gile of this city. The keeper took his man to the Sherwood House, where an appointment was made to meet Colonel Gile, and remained with the prisoner all the evening, even when Reed's wife, who came up from Boston, called.

Shortly before 12:30 o'clock this morning Abbott left the room to go to an adjoining room, and when he returned, about 10 minutes later, found that his precious prisoner was gone.

A hurried seach of the hotel was made, but no trace of the man was to be found, and Abbott notified local police headquarters. No trace of the famous prisoner was found after he left the hotel, and the local police and Abbott believe it possible that Reed caught the 12:29 a. m. train for New York and the west.

The local police are scouring the town and the police in the surrounding towns were telephoned a description of the man.

Abbott telegraphed the police at Springfield in season to intercept the man if he was on the western-bound train.

Reed is 39 years of age, 5 feet 8 inches tall, weight 165 pounds, has light hair and light blue eyes, wore a brown derby hat, black overcoat with satin lining, blue suit with red stripe, and white standing collar. The overcoat belonged to Proprietor Hurley, and was taken by Reed from the hallway as he left the hotel.

A Determined Suicide.

Providence, Oct. 31.—The body of Michael Glennan, a laborer, about 45 years of age, was found suspended from a tree in a lot off Sackett street yesterday. It was a case of suicide. Glennan had placed a cord about his neck in the form of a noose. Standing in the crotch formed by two branches of the tree about a foot and a half or so from the ground, he fastened the other end to a small branch on a level with his head and stepped off. He was unmarried. His relatives are at a loss to account for his act.

Formally Dedicated.

White River Junction, Vt., Oct. 31.—The new St. Anthony's church, that will supplant the old structure in which the Catholics of this parish have worshipped for nearly 30 years, was dedicated yesterday. Right Rev. Bishop Michaud of Burlington conferred upon Father Lonergan the privilege of blessing the building. The ceremony was followed by a celebration of high mass. Father O'Sullivan of St. Albans preached a sermon on "The Catholic Church." Large delegations of Catholics from neighboring towns and many Protestants were in attendance.

A Lively Hurricane.

London, Oct. 31.—During a severe storm Saturday night a small area around Denmark Hill was visited by a veritable cyclone. Cabs were overturned, windows, doors, lampposts, trees and chimneys blown down and a number of houses unroofed. The contents of numerous hawkers' stalls were carried hundreds of yards in the air by the wind, and many people were injured by the flying debris, which did also immense damage to property.

Their Boat Upset

Southwest Harbor, Me., Oct. 31.—G. Norwood and William Mason were returning home from Seal Harbor when their boat was upset. The crew of the steamer Sedgwick heard their cries and succeeded in bringing them here in an unconscious condition. They had been in the water more than an hour, and it was with great difficulty that they were resuscitated.

Fever Increasing.

Laredo, Tex., Oct. 31.—Mexican officers report three deaths from yellow fever in Monterey with four new cases. Private information indicates a greater mortality and an increase in sickness. The United States marine officials inspect all through trains coming north from the infected districts.

Tomorrow's Almanac and Forecast.

Sun rises—6:18; sets, 4:40.
Moon rises—5:55 p. m.
High water—12:30 a. m.; 12:45 p. m.

Clearing weather is indicated for New England, and Tuesday and Wednesday in this district promise fair, generally clear, with lower range in the temperature. The wind will be westerly, of moderate force.

Wanted In Washington.

Havana, Oct. 31.—Colonel Hecker and Colonel Lee of the United States special transportation commission received cablegrams from Washington Saturday night directing their return to Washington by the first steamer available. The messages, which were from Secretary Alger, were very brief, simply directing the recipients to report to the war department, and there is considerable perplexity as to the object of the recall. The supposition is that the death of Colonel Waring in New York city has necessitated some change in the plans of the war department. Colonel Lee's departure will leave the commissions on transportation and the selection of camp sites without a chairman and the quartermaster's department without a disbursing officer. The impression is general here among the Americans that the recall of Colonels Lee and Hecker at this particular juncture is highly significant.

They Had Dynamite.

Ponce, Oct. 31.—A sensation was caused here Saturday on the arrival of the steamer Philadelphia from the Spanish main, by the discovery in the handbags of two passengers of a number of explosive cartridges containing dynamite. The passengers were arrested on the supposition that they are anarchists. The police fear that others belonging to the gang have escaped, but are making a strict search.

Mustered Out.

Concord, N. H., Oct. 31.—The First New Hampshire volunteers were paid off and mustered out of the United States service today. Camp Ramsdell will probably not be left for good before tomorrow. Colonel Rolfe and his staff have formed an association which will meet annually.

Bon Ami

The Modern Metal Polish

DOES PERFECT WORK. WILL NOT SMIRCH THE HANDS WHEN USING, AND IS EASILY APPLIED.

Hazelton Lehigh

Costs a Trifle More.
You Know Why.

C. PATCH & SON

CANCER CURED

BY ABSORPTION

NO KNIFE.

The result of years of scientific research by America's greatest blood specialist. A pleasant treatment that relieves immediately, cures permanently all forms of CANCERS, TUMORS and CHRONIC DISEASES. Hundreds of wonderful cures effected in and around Boston. Read the following:

BLOOD EVIDENCE

Then come to our offices and investigate the hundreds of other marvellous cures produced by ABSORPTION when all other treatment failed. Consult this living patient. "Dr. James M. Solomon: Dear Sir: The following is my testimonial, which I hope will help others. That after suffering several years with something that was never reached, getting only temporary help from different doctors, and each attack being more severe, I was advised by a friend, who had been cured of a tumor, to see her doctor. I was then unable for any work, and feeling worse from day to day; realizing that something was preying upon me of a serious nature, I was discouraged about my condition, and sought Dr. Solomon with little faith—it was more of an experiment. He got my confidence on the first interview, when, without a word of description of my feelings from me, he at once located my trouble, and I could not help believing that he knew from what I was suffering, although was greatly surprised and somewhat terrified when he told me it was cancer of the stomach. I began treatment at once, Nov. 3, 1892, and was faithful to his directions, with just the results promised I would get, till the following June (1893) I felt like a new being, and the doctor pronounced me recovered. I am sure that I have, and I can never repay the gratitude I owe to Dr. J. M. Solomon. Sincerely, EBEN FISH, 232 Harvard St., Dorchester, Mass." Today he is one of the many living witnesses of the only painless method that positively CURES when all others fail.

We want you to call and examine references of people you know—people we all know, who would not vouch for ABSORPTION had they not been cured. Ask for references marked H.

James M. Solomon, M.D.

SPECIALIST IN CANCERS, TUMORS AND CHRONIC DISEASES.

2 A Beacon Street BOSTON.

Oct. 13. 1y lo

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

NORFOLK, ss. PROBATE COURT.

TO the heirs-at-law, next-of-kin, creditors and all other persons interested in the estate of

ELIZABETH A. DAVIS,

late of Quincy in said county, deceased, intestate.

Whereas, a petition has been presented to said Court to grant a letter of administration on the estate of said deceased to John Hall of said Quincy, or to some other suitable person.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Quincy in said County of Norfolk, on the ninth day of November, A. D. 1898, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week for three successive weeks, in the Quincy Daily Ledger, a newspaper published in Quincy the last publication to be one day at least before said Court.

Witness, George White, Esquire, Judge of said Court, this fourteenth day of October in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight.

JONATHAN COBB, Register.

Oct. 17. 3t 17 24 31

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

NORFOLK, ss. PROBATE COURT.

TO the heirs-at-law, next-of-kin and all other persons interested in the estate of

EDWARD H. DEWSON,

late of Quincy, in said County, deceased.

Whereas, a certain instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased, has been presented to said court for probate by Elizabeth W. Dewson of Quincy, who prays that letters testamentary may be issued to her, the executrix therein named without giving a surety on her official bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court to be held at Quincy, in said County of Norfolk, on the ninth day of November, A. D. 1898, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the Quincy Daily Ledger, a newspaper published in Quincy, the last publication to be one day at least before said Court, and by mailing, post-paid, or delivering a copy of this citation to all known persons interested in the estate seven days at least before said Court.

Witness, George White, Esquire, Judge of said Court, this twenty-sixth day of October in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight.

JONATHAN COBB, Register.

Oct. 27. 27 31 7

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

NORFOLK, ss. PROBATE COURT.

TO the heirs-at-law, next-of-kin, and all other persons interested in the estate of

JOHN B. SCHAETZL,

late of Quincy, in said County, deceased.

Whereas, a certain instrument, purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased has been presented to said Court for probate by Magdalena Schaetzl of Quincy, who prays that letters testamentary may be issued to her the executrix therein named without giving a surety on her official bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court to be held at Dedham in said County of Norfolk, on the second day of November, A. D., 1898, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week for three successive weeks, in the Quincy Daily Ledger, a newspaper published in Quincy, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court, and by mailing, postpaid, or delivering a copy of this citation to all known persons interested in the estate, seven days at least before said Court.

Witness, George White, Esquire, Judge of said Court, this twenty first day of October in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight.

JONATHAN COBB, Register.

Oct. 22. 3t 22 29 31

Quincy and Boston Electric Street Railway.

[Subject to change without notice.]

On and after October 10, cars will be run on the different routes as follows:

Quincy and Neponset.

Leave CITY SQUARE for Neponset at 5.55, 6.10, 6.25, 6.40 A. M. and every 15 minutes until 11.10 P. M.

Leave NEPONSET for Quincy at 6.15 A. M. and every 15 minutes until 11.30 P. M.

Cars leaving Quincy at 20 minutes of the hour and Neponset on the hour, go via. Hancock street direct.

Cars leaving Quincy at 25 and 55 minutes past the hour go via Newport avenue, Wollaston.

Cars leaving Quincy at 10 minutes past the hour go via Norfolk Downs, and those leaving Neponset at 30 minutes past go via Downs.

Cars leaving Neponset 15 minutes of and 15 minutes past the hour go via Wollaston and continue through Braintree and Holbrook to Brockton, connecting with cars for Bridgewater, Taunton, New Bedford, Fall River, Newport and Providence.

Quincy and East Weymouth.

Leave CITY SQUARE (10 minutes later from Quincy Point and 22 minutes later from North Weymouth)—5.45, 6.20, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20, 9.50, 10.20, 10.50, 11.20, 11.50 A. M.; 12.20, 12.50, 1.20, 1.50, 2.20, 2.50, 3.20, 3.50, 4.20, 4.50, 5.20, (5.30 to East Weymouth car house), 5.50, 6.20, 6.30, 6.50, 7.20, 7.50, 8.20, 8.50, 9.20, 9.50, 10.50 P. M., (11.50 Wednesday and Saturday to Thomas' Corner only.)

Leave EAST WEYMOUTH (20 minutes later from North Weymouth and 30 minutes later from Quincy Point)—6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8, 8.30, 9, 9.30 10, 10.30, 11, 11.30 A. M.; 12, 12.30, 1, 1.30, 2, 2.30, 3, 3.30, 4, 4.30, 5, 5.30, 6, 6.30, 7, 7.30, 8 8.30, 9, 9.30, 10, 10.30, 11.30 P. M.

Quincy and Weymouth Landing.

Leave QUINCY at 5.30 A. M., 6.20, 7.20 and every hour until 12.20, then 1.50 and every hour until 10.50 P. M.

Leave WEYMOUTH LANDING at 5.50 A. M. and every hour until 12.50, then 2.20 and every hour until 11.20 P. M., connect with trains to Boston at Quincy.

Quincy and East Milton.

Leave CITY SQUARE, 5.55, 6.25, then every 5 minutes of and 25 minutes past the hour until 9.25 P. M., then at 10.50 P. M.

Leave EAST MILTON 6.25, 6.55 A. M., then every 5 minutes of and 25 minutes past the hour until 9.50 P. M., then 10.20 and 11.20 P. M.

Quincy and Brockton.

Leave QUINCY for Brockton at 6.10 and 6.40 A. M., and every half hour until 9.10 P. M. except on Wednesday and Saturday, when car at 9.40 runs through to Brockton. Cars at 9.40 and 10.10 to South Braintree every night.

Quincy and Hingham.

Leave QUINCY at 7.20 A. M. and every hour until 11.20 A. M., then 1.50 and every hour until 5.50 P. M.

Leave HINGHAM at 8 A. M. and every hour until 12 M., then 2.30 and every hour until 6.30 P. M.

Neponset, Atlantic and Squantum.

Leave NEPONSET at 6.30 A. M. and every hour until 8.30 P. M., connecting at Atlantic with outward express trains.

Leave SQUANTUM at 7 A. M. and every hour until 9 P. M., connecting at Atlantic with express trains.

SUNDAYS.

Cars leave City Square, Quincy, for E. Weymouth and Weymouth Landing at 7.30 A. M. and West Quincy at 7 A. M. and on the hour and half hour throughout the day.

Sunday time same as week days on other lines, except that the first two trips are omitted.

BENJ. J. WEEKS, Superintendent.

New York, New Haven and Hartford R. R.

Eastern District.

On and after Oct. 16, 1898, trains will run as follows: (See note of explanation at bottom.

TO BOSTON. Leave Quincy.	Stops at	Arrive Boston.	FROM BOSTON. Leave Boston.	Stops at	Arrive Quincy
r 6 12	abc	e 6 30	5 55	ihgfedcba	*6 22 r
r 6 42	abc	7 00	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	7 30	cba	7 49 r
r 7 26	ad	7 43	8 30	cba	8 49 r
r 7 42	abc	8 00	9 30	cba	9 49 r
r 8 12	abc	8 30	10 30	cba	10 49 r
r 8 26	ad	8 43	11 30	cba	11 49 r
r 8 42	abc	9 00	12 30	cba	12 49 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	1 30	cba	1 49 r
r 10 12	abc	10 30	2 30	cba	2 49 r
r 11 12	abc	11 30	3 30	cba	3 49 r
r 12 12	abc	12 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
r 1 12	abc	1 30	5 00	cba	5 19 r
r 2 12	abc	2 30	5 17	da	5 36 r
r 3 12	abc	3 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
r 4 12	abc	4 30	6 00	cba	6 19 r
r 5 12	abc	5 30	6 17	da	6 36 r
r 6 12	abc	6 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	7 00	cba	7 19 r
r 7 39	abcdefghi	8 05	7 30	cba	7 49 r
r 8 08	abcdef	8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	9 30	cba	9 49 r
r 10 08	abcdef	10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r
r 11 12	abc	11 30	11 30	cba	11 49 r

SUNDAYS.

r 7 12	abc	7 30	6 30	cba	6 r
r 8 12	abc	8 30	8 30	cba	8 49 r
r 9 12	abc	9 30	12 30	cba	12 49 r
r 1 12	abc	1 30	4 30	cba	4 49 r
r 5 12	abc	5 30	5 30	cba	5 49 r
r 7 12	abc	7 30	6 30	cba	6 49 r
r 8 08	abcdef	8 30	8 30	fedcba	8 53 r
r 10 08	abcdef	10 30	10 30	fedcba	10 53 r

*The letters in the same line as the figures stand for different stations and indicate that trains stop, as follows:

a, Wollaston, b, Norfolk Downs, c, Atlantic, d, Neponset, e, Pope's Hill, f, Harrison Square, g, Savin Hill, h, Crescent Avenue, i, South Boston, r, Quincy Adams, (xx), Express.

C PETER CLARK, Gen'l Supt. A. C. KENDALL G. P. A.

Mortgagee's Sale.

BY Virtue of the power of sale contained in a certain mortgage given by Ole Dion Nelson to Albertina M. Whitman, recorded with Norfolk Deeds, Lib. 630, Fol. 49, for breach of the condition of said mortgage deed and for the purpose of foreclosing the same will be sold at public auction on the premises hereinafter described on THURSDAY, the 17th day of November, 1898, at three o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, namely:

A parcel of land with the buildings thereon, situated in Quincy, in the County of Norfolk and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and bounded and described as follows: Beginning at a stake in the southerly side line of a private way known as Albertina street, said point of beginning being distant in a southwesterly direction seven hundred and seventy-four (774) feet from the westerly line of Centre street, thence running southwesterly and bounding northwesterly on said Albertina street a distance of one hundred (100) feet to a stake; thence at right angles and running southeasterly a distance of one hundred and eighty (180) feet to a stake; thence turning at right angles and running northeasterly a distance of one hundred (100) feet to a stake; thence at right angles and running northwesterly a distance of one hundred and eighty (180) feet to the point of beginning, and containing 18,000 square feet of land.

Said premises will be sold subject to a prior mortgage for $1,500 with interest, and also subject to any and all unpaid taxes and assessments. Terms and particulars will be given at the time and place of sale.

ALBERTINA M. WHITMAN, Mortgagee.

Quincy, Oct. 24, 1898. Oct. 24, 31 Nov. 7